Plymouth Shows It Hasn't Forgotten War Heroes

The Plymouth Community hasn't forgotten its war heroes. Many other communities in Western Wayne County have dropped the solemn Memorial Day parade and program that pays tribute to the living veterans of wars involving the United States and to the war dead but Plymouth isn't one.
With delegations from the Mayflower Post 6695 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary and from Passage-Gayde Post of the American Legion and its Auxiliary Unit in the line of march, more than 4,000 lined the downtown business section Monday morning for the traditional Memorial Day parade.

distained a ride in one of the many cars to march with his fellow members of Mayflower Post.
This year's parade was in charge of Marshal Gerry Olson of Mayflower Post, assisted by Aide to the Marshal Fred Johnson of Passage-Gayde Post.

officers including: Commander William Cadaret of Mayflower Post, Mrs. Winnie Cadaret, president of the VFW Auxiliary; Commander Robert Hewer, of Passage-Gayde Post, American Legion; Mrs. Mae Hoelscher, President of the American Legion Auxiliary; Lt. Col. Richard Marks, of Flight "A", 3632 Air Reserve Squadron; and Commander Alvin Schuppel, of Benton Parkways Barracks of World War I Veterans.

William Burr, of Warren, Fills New Post

Township Picks Service Director

William Burr, a retired Lieutenant from the Detroit Fire Department and former Fire Commissioner of Warren, has taken over as Public Service Director of Plymouth Township.
Burr, who served 25 years with the Detroit Fire Department before retiring in 1936, was appointed Thursday by Supervisor John McEwen after the Board of Trustees approved his selection following interviews with the six candidates last Tuesday night.

But he ran into a bind there when the Mayor and Council split over the operation of the Fire Department. The Council retired the Chief and reduced the allowance in the budget for Fire Commissioner to $1. Burr took the hint and left.

He became interested in the Plymouth job through an ad in one of the many municipal publications. He first visited with McEwen and other Trustees, liked what he saw and requested an interview with the full Board.

Inasmuch as there were five others seeking the post, the Board held a special meeting last Tuesday and picked Burr. The new Public Service Director met with the fulltime firemen when he took over on Wednesday morning.

GOING OVER PLANS for the new position of Director of Public Service of Plymouth Township are: newly appointed Director William Burr (left) and Supervisor John McEwen. Burr started on his new assignment on Wednesday.

Business, Industry Leaders to Get Story on Taxes

The effect of the recently issued county and state equalization valuation figures on the tax structure in the Plymouth Community will be discussed by City Commissioner Arch Vallier, who also is the City's representative on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors as its elected Supervisor, in an address before the businessmen's Forum Thursday noon in the Mayflower Meeting House.

Arch Vallier

The State Constitution provides that all property shall be assessed at not more than 50 per cent of the true value. The State Legislature is reported to have passed an enabling act making it mandatory that the assessment shall be at the 50 per cent figure.

And that's where the entire area is going to feel the effects. The City of Plymouth has an assessment rate of close to 43 per cent but that of Plymouth and Canton Townships is reported to be far below the mandatory 50 per cent or the City's 43 per cent.

Review 5 Candidates Next Week
Due to the inability to secure information about all five candidates for the four-year term on the Plymouth District Board of Education, the Observer will delay publication of the facts and figures until next week's edition.

He took charge of the Township Fire Department Wednesday morning and indicated he will immediately begin the task of setting up procedures and reorganizing the department.
Capt. Barney Maas has been serving as acting officer in charge for more than a year. Burr was named to the job which pays $8,500 — an item included in the budget in April — after weeks of indecision by the Trustees who apparently couldn't agree upon whether they wanted to go ahead with the new position or not.

It has been thought for a long time that an outsider was needed to supervise the Fire Department which includes five fulltime men and 18 volunteers.
Recommendation for a Director of Public Safety first came from a committee from the Board and then from the Fire Administration.

However, the Trustees originally had visions of hiring a retiree in the $7,500 bracket but discovered even a retiree wasn't interested in taking so much responsibility for such a comparatively small salary.
That's when the Board decided to boost the ante to $8,500 and that's when the job suddenly became worthwhile with the result that six made applications.

Burr made a hit with the Board because of his long experience with the Detroit Fire Department and his activities since his retirement. While in Detroit he served 16 years as an instructor at the training school.
After retirement he became a consultant on industrial fire control at the University of Michigan and then accepted the post of Fire Commissioner at the fast growing city of Warren.

Name Arnold New Nursing Home Head

Kenneth Arnold, of Plymouth, has been appointed administrator of the new Heritage of Beverly Hills nursing home in Birmingham.
Arnold and his wife, Wilma, reside at 619 N. Sheldon Road with their six children.
He received his degree and did graduate work at Central Michigan University and was employed for seven years at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn. Recently he has served at the Mt. Pleasant State Home and Training School for the Michigan State Department of Mental Health.
Heritage of Beverly Hills is located on W. 13 Mile Road in Birmingham. It is the fifth nursing home of its kind with others in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Scottsdale, Arizona and two in Minneapolis.

Receives Madonna College Degree

Mrs. Demel Realizes A 12-Year Ambition

What started as a desire to learn to speak French in anticipation of a European tour has ended 12 years later with Mrs. Betty Demel, wife of Attorney Earl Demel, who reside at 13900 Beck Road in Plymouth, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree from Madonna College.

Mrs. Demel

Mrs. Demel took her first course 12 years ago and wound up with a sheepskin and a scholastic average of better than 3.5 for the full four-year course.
She didn't attend classes regularly until the past three years, generally taking one or two courses, dropping out for a while and then coming back to her studies.
Then three years ago, she decided to complete the work necessary for a degree. She has taken a full course of 16 hours in each of the past four semesters.
It was early in her studies that Mrs. Demel found that an education is not something that starts and stops. That's when she decided to settle down to full studies as a student.

There develops in one a gnawing curiosity that makes one go on," she said in an interview prior to Wednesday's graduation exercises. "One becomes dissatisfied with the status quo. One course led to another, and now with a major in Sociology, I feel I have a better understanding of the past, and, as an older person, am more prepared to face the year that lie ahead."

Public speaking was one of the courses that Mrs. Demel avoided and stepped around "like a cat around a dish of hot milk." Then in her last semester in college, she finally met the dreaded requirement with her usual high scholastic standing.
Mrs. Demel is a collector of Japanese miniatures called netsuka. She also has many examples of fine Mexican art in her beautiful home.

As a student, Mrs. Demel supported Madonna activities and served as a hostess on many of its programs. After graduation, she plans to continue her studies in Spanish.

Interest Lags in Twp. Posts

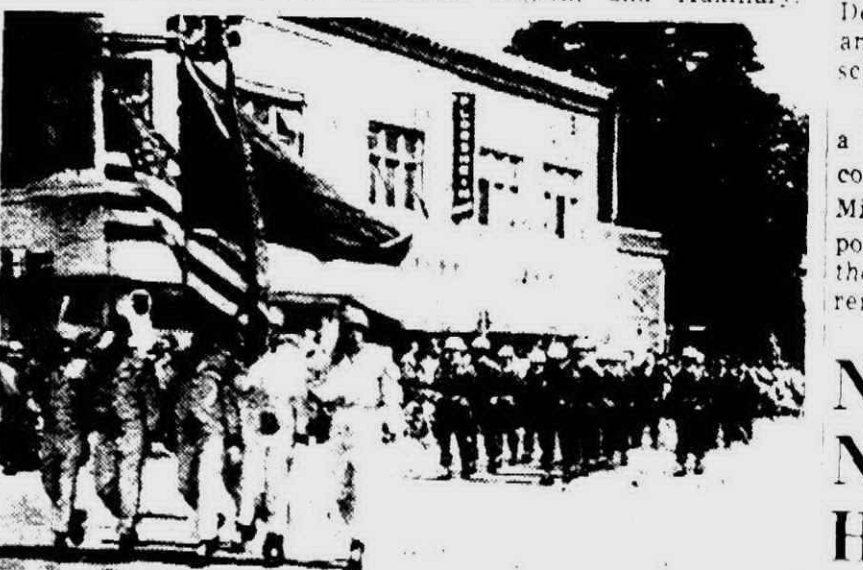

Unless there is more interest on the part of the Democratic Party between now and the deadline for filing at 4 p.m. on June 14, the talked of but as yet unheard of political fight for posts on the Plymouth Township Board in the Aug. 2 primary election is non-existent.
Up for election are the posts of Supervisor, Clerk, Treasurer and two of the four Trustees.

Unless there is a change between now and the primary, each of the posts will be for four-year terms, first ever for Township officials under the new State Constitution.
A check with Township Clerk Mrs. Helen Richardson Friday showed that petitions are being circulated for Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, Clerk Mrs. Richardson and Trustees Gene Overholt and Ralph Garber. The last mentioned was the first to take out nominating petitions.
Supervisor McEwen has petitions circulating for Mayor of the proposed City of Plymouth Heights but indicated he will file for another term as supervisor well in advance of the deadline.

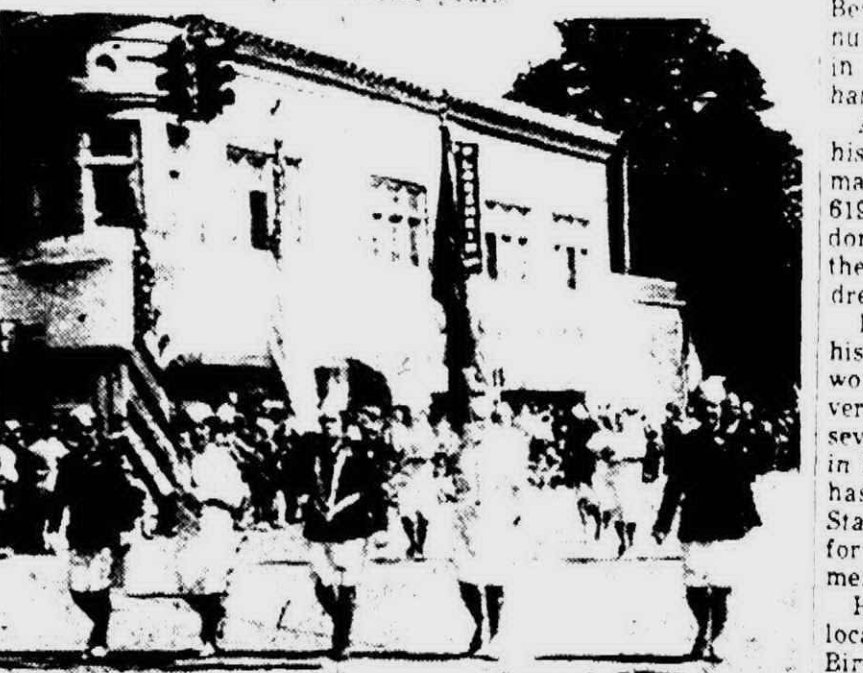

The coming primary should be one of more than casual interest to Township electors. (Continued on Page 20-B)

There'll Be Hot Time at Renewal Hearing

The public hearing, called by the Plymouth City Commission on Monday, June 13, to hear pros and cons of residents on the proposed Urban Renewal project in the southeast quadrant of the downtown business section, bears promise of becoming one of the hottest in years.
At least that's the indication given by property owners in the area that would be affected. They don't want urban renewal and they plan to have all of their guns loaded with ammunition that will make the Commission change its plans even though the proposals are still much in the air and still very indefinite.
The public hearing is set for Monday, June 13 at 7:30 in the Commission Chambers in the City Hall and for the first time it is thought that seats will be at a premium.
To add a bit more fire to the flame, the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce Friday sent a communication to the Commission asking that it be given time to present some specific recommendations to the present Central Business District plan.

President Carl Pursell stated in the request that the Jaycees, Plymouth Area Planning Commission and the Parking Committee hope to make it a coordinated presentation.
There is some question as to whether the request will be granted since the public hearing was called for the specific purpose of discussing and explaining the Urban Renewal proposals to the residents and property owners in the area affected.
The request for the public hearing was made by Commissioner Arch Vallier who objected to any steps being taken on the DBD plans until all had a chance to express their views.
He specified that every resident and property owner be notified by registered mail so that none would be missed. His instructions have been followed and the results should be a capacity attendance with more against than for.

College Placement Service Helps Students Get Jobs

The economic boom has resulted in an ever-increasing demand for employment of Schoolcraft College students. The College Placement Service has found that during the last 10 months, over 400 area employers including Detroit and the surrounding communities, have made inquiries seeking Schoolcraft students for part-time employment.

During this period, over 500 students have been referred to employers. Evidence has shown that more than 300 of these students have found employment, which acts as a means whereby they can help defray the expenses of an education. These students have been employed in many types of positions from manual labor to highly skilled technical and responsible business positions. Indications are that many career positions are available for the two-year graduate. Some 40 inquiries have been received from business, industry, and government looking to the community college for trained personnel.

A permanent placement file is available to graduates of the College seeking career opportunities, and in the future employers will be recruiting graduates on campus.

Schoolcraft has become a source for the employment of a substantial number of its students. Viewing student employment on campus as an important part of its overall student financial aids program, the College has employed 104 students since July, 1965, with a total payroll of over $30,000.

The students have been employed under three different programs: College Work-Study and Vocational Work-Study, both supported by government funds, and regular student employment.

Under College Work-Study, students who must work in order to attend college are employed by the College and selected non-profit off-campus agencies in jobs related to their vocational goals. On campus, students work as laboratory assistants, library assistants, clerks, secretaries, maintenance and security men, and as athletic and recreation aides.

The Placement Service expects no decrease in the demands placed upon it for student employment. With an ever-increasing number of graduates and a larger student enrollment, the Placement Service anticipates a larger role in providing a source for employers of trained personnel and in aiding students wishing employment.

Those wishing further information should contact Russell Bogarin or John Cansfield in the office of Student Affairs.

Candidates Will Speak to YR's

The Redford-Livonia Young Republican Club will sponsor a candidates night for the 19th Congressional District candidates for Congress, June 9 at 8 p.m. at the 19th District Wayne Republican Headquarters at 20325 Middlebelt Rd. in Livonia. David Merrion, Chairman of the YR's, stated "The three announced candidates Dick Kuhn, Jack McDonald, and Larry Vandermolen, have been invited and will outline their backgrounds, programs and tell why they think they can beat the incumbent Congressman. I would also like to invite all Republicans, even those from outside the Redford-Livonia area, such as Farmington and Northville, to attend our meeting and join our club."

Well-arranged time is the mark of a well-arranged mind.

Michigan Bell Fights Harassing 'Phone Calls'

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company has launched a campaign against obscene and harassing phone calls.

John Kamego, manager, said Michigan Bell is deeply concerned with the increase in the number of obscene, harassing or crank calls and that the company is stepping up its efforts to protect customers against them.

In a concerted attack on the problem, Kamego said, the company is using new equipment and developing new techniques to identify the calling number of anyone making obscene, harassing or crank calls.

Among the new devices is one which has the capability of "locking in" on a call. In some cases, it can lead to identification of the calling telephone line even after the person who made the call has hung up.

In addition, Kamego said, the phone company has set up new procedures for the handling of complaints of such calls at each of its business offices throughout the state. In each office specially trained service representatives have been assigned to handle the complaints.

In the Detroit metropolitan area, a centralized Annoyance Call Bureau has been established. There specialists will coordinate action by the company's security people with the customer and police agencies.

Steps which customers can take to cope with abusive calls also were outlined by Kamego.

"Should you or your family receive obscene, harassing phone calls, don't talk. What the caller really wants is an audience. Don't be that audience and don't listen to his abuse," Kamego cautioned.

"Hang up whenever a caller uses obscenity, doesn't properly identify himself, or says nothing. Use the telephone on your terms to guard against these invasions of your privacy."

In most instances, the customer can solve the problem by not talking, or by hanging up, Kamego said.

If the obscene, harassing calls persist, customers are urged to call their telephone company business office.

If the nature of the calls is in violation of the state law, the customer may want to sign a complaint so that action can be taken by the appropriate law enforcement agencies.

Michigan law provides up to 90 days in jail and $100 in fines for making obscene, harassing calls. In addition, the telephone company is permitted to disconnect or remove the phone service of anyone proved to be making obscene or harassing calls.

"The telephone company has always tried to protect the privacy of customers. In this new program, we are going all out to eliminate this source of customer irritation," Kamego said.

Madonna Receives Grant For Nursing

The Madonna College Department of Nursing has been awarded $65,850 by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare for the salaries of lay faculty in public health and psychiatric nursing education, announced Jessie M. Scott, Chief of the Division of Nursing, Washington, D.C.

Madonna was among 35 colleges of nursing to share the $2,746,714 in government grants awarded to schools on the recommendation of the National Advisory Council of Nurse Training, a group created by legislation.

Sister Mary Calasantia, Chairman of the Committee on Nursing Education, applied for the grant with a project titled "Improvement and Expansion of Nursing Program-Increase of Student Enrollment in the Nursing Program." (Under the authority of Title VIII Part A of the Public Health Service Act).

Sister said, "The grant will help to expand, strengthen, and improve our nursing education program. It will reimburse the school of nursing for some of the cost of increased enrollment."

As required, each of the recipients of grant funds is accredited with the National League for Nursing or has reasonable assurance of accreditation. The Madonna project is approved for the budget period from September, 1966 to August, 1971.

The initial 12-month portion of the project period is being funded, and the remainder of the project period will be determined annually, based on the progress made, the previous level of expenditures, and current eligible budget requirements.

Prior to the approval of the project, an investigating team visited Madonna College to review its program of nursing and to evaluate the curriculum. The team included Dr. Katherine Hoffman, member of the Review Committee for Project Grants under the Nurse Training Act, Miss Gladys McGregor and Mrs. Roma Blaschke, Nurse Consultant, Project Section of the Division of Nursing.

Board Chairman Gives Facts and Figures on Situation

Explains Why College Needs Millage

Reasons why Schoolcraft College desperately needs the additional 77/100 mills at the school election on June 13 are explained by Board President Harold Fischer, of Plymouth.

Fischer points out when the college was formed in 1961, the one mill voted by electors was adequate. At that time no one could predict the areas of expansion and the exact needs of each educational program.

The College was established by using the best available figures. They were nevertheless protections and estimates. Fischer emphasizes they did not reflect:

- (1) The increased costs of Technical-Vocational Education.
- (2) The increased costs of salaries, supplies, materials and services.

(3) The greatly increased costs of building and other capital construction.

He indicates that the Trustees, after carefully examining the needs of the college, decided to ask for 77/100 of a mill be added to the one mill granted by a vote in 1962. Like the original millage, the 77/100 will be an all purpose millage, for both operation and debt service. The following use is projected:

OPERATION — 45/100 of a mill is needed to: Add necessary teaching faculty, primarily in the area of Technical-Vocational instruction. Without the added faculty there must be immediate limitation of student enrollment.

Add essential staff members and services to operate new buildings. Limited use of these buildings will result if necessary services are reduced. Purchase 4,000 volumes annually for the College Library — Recognized Library standards require this minimum purchase.

Provide supplies and materials for new programs, Culinary Arts, Foods Management, Automotive Services and other programs cannot be opened without adequate supplies.

Maintain necessary quality of teaching supplies, materials, and services in all instructional areas.

DEBT SERVICE: 32/100 of a mill will permit bonds to be issued, which will equip the Vocational-Technical Building, now under construction, for its full intended use.

Build sewers, drains, parking lots, sidewalks necessary for campus development.

Provide matching funds for State and Federal grants to build two additional buildings, thereby reducing the local costs of these construction projects.

The 77/100 of a mill is needed for: Continued planned development of the campus, Continued quality instruction, and Earliest possible accreditation by the North Central Association.

Sheltered Workshop Benefit Gives Center Boost in $$$

Political bigwigs and those of minor stature as well as members of the Detroit Lions joined hands in the benefit for the Community Opportunity Workshop at Roma Hall and dazzled an audience of more than 600.

Although the attendance was a bit short of the expectations of those in charge, the benefit succeeded in raising much needed funds for the Sheltered Workshops, which works with retarded adults in Livonia, Plymouth

Northville and Redford Township.

Highspot of the evening came when President Carl Strom of the Plymouth Javcoes presented a check for $1,000 and James Mies, representing the Livonia Rotary Club, made a similar presentation. Wendell Smith, president of the Opportunity Center, was on the receiving end of each.

There'll be additional funds available when the final figures are assembled for the benefit itself which was arranged by Mrs. Rosalie Bales, of Plymouth with assistance of interested citizens of the four communities.

Wayne County Circuit Judge Thomas Foley, of Plymouth, served as Master of Ceremonies and introduced all politicians present including the four principal speakers.

Introduced were: Neil Staebler, national committeeman for the Democratic Party; State Representative Marvin Stempien and Edward Robinson, representatives of Congressmen Billie Farnum and Wes Vivian, who were unable to attend because Congress was in session; and Gary Williams, representing his father, G. Mennen Williams, who is a candidate for the Michigan Senatorial Post.

On the Republican side were: Senator Robert Griffin, Mrs. Lenore Romney, wife of the Michigan Governor, Marvin Esch, candidate for the Second Congressional district; and John Tripp, who has announced his candidacy for State Representative in Plymouth.

Mrs. Romney, William Patrick, assistant General Attorney for Michigan Bell, Senator Griffin and Wendell Smith were the principal speakers.

Also introduced were Mayors Harvey Moeke of Livonia, Mike Allen of Northville, Plymouth Supervisor John McEwen and Redford Township Supervisor Jack McDonald.

Louis Schmidt, retiring superintendent of Clarenceville

Schools, who is a candidate for State Representative from Livonia, also took a bow.

Patrick, an excellent speaker, brought down the house with his humor but then switched his attention to the local scene, and more serious comment.

He read a letter as an example of a Mother who had a retarded child and did not know what to do.

"Help for the retarded must come from the community, just as it is with this Opportunity Center," he stated. "It isn't what we give to things of this nature but what we share that makes such operations successful."

Mrs. Romney stressed the fact that problems of the retarded are community and state problems and must be handled at both levels.

"We are just on the brink of developing our human resources to the highest degrees," she said. "It is the greatest thing to train human beings to be useful so that they can make contributions to society and not become persons to be pitied and overlooked."

"This community project enriches the entire area. It shows that people are concerned in the welfare of others who aren't so fortunate and are doing everything they can for the betterment of this group as well as society."

Newspapers Are Hit by Price Boost

Publishers and owners of daily and weekly newspapers throughout the United States and Canada Wednesday felt the impact of the rising economy with a $5 per ton increase in the cost of newsprint. It went in effect June 1.

This boosts the price from $134 to $139 per ton and generally reflects throughout the industry since most of the newsprint comes from the huge paper mills in Canada.

Originally the paper mills announced a $10 per ton hike but the increase was fought by the American Newspaper Publishers Association so successfully that the mills backed down and reduced the boost to $5.

Tragedy Strikes 2 Families

Tragedy struck three Farmington families during the past week when their sons were killed in separate accidents in Farmington Township.

Killed were: Larry O. Johnson, Jr., 14; Jerry H. Olson, 16; and Michael Szadeba, 14. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry O. Johnson of 30145 S. Stockton, Farmington. Larry was killed when his bike was struck from behind while traveling west on 12 Mile Rd. May 24.

The driver of the car, Edward S. Butcher, 39, of Farmington, told police that he did not see the boy and when his windshield broke was the first he knew that he had hit something.

Jerry, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olson of 21508 Randall, Farmington, was killed at Orchard Lake and Freedom Drive May 25 when his motorcycle crashed into the side of a pickup truck. The truck was driven by a 16 year old girl who was ticketed for failure to yield the right of way. He was a sophomore at Farmington High School.

Michael was killed May 29 when his bicycle was struck from behind on 11 Mile Rd. by a car driven by the Rev. James A. Moloney of Detroit. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Szadeba of 26429 Greystone Trail. According to police reports Fr. Moloney pulled out the left to pass Michael and a friend who were eastbound on 11 Mile at the same time that Michael pulled to the left.

Three Cities Art Club Awards Cash Prizes

The Three Cities Art Club, which has members from six communities in Western Wayne County, awarded cash prizes for three paintings at the show held this week at the Westland Shopping Center. Honorable mention ribbons were awarded for Jessie W. Hudson of Plymouth for stichery; John Crosby of Plymouth, for water color collage; Roy Pederson of Plymouth, for ceramics, and Darelne Huffman of Wayne for stichery, and Joan Beaver of Ypsilanti for graphics. A club spokesman said that the show, juried by a University of Michigan art professor, was open to members and artists in neighboring communities.

Despite the official title of the club, members live in Westland, Livonia, Plymouth, Redford Township, Wayne, and Northville, a club spokesman said. Mundy Beltz, of 362 Welch, Northville, won $50 for her painting "Portrait of Joan," also named the best of show. Isabel Loosemore, of 19301 Burgess, Detroit, won the $25 second place award for her "Bouquet."

MR. AND MRS. DONALD KRAUSS

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Gale-Krauss

A double ring ceremony at St. Paul Lutheran Church of Livonia recently united Bonita Gale and Donald W. Krauss. The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Gale, 22200 Cass Rd., Farmington. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Krauss, Hoagland, Ind. The ceremony was performed by Pastor W. F. Kusky.

Rev. Edward Krauss, brother of the bride officiated. The bride wore a white gown with seed pearls. Her veil was fingertip length. She carried a bouquet of white carnation and stephanotis.

Barbara Hoffman was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Denise Gale, (the bride's sister) and Mrs. Verna Werling (sister of the groom) and Kathleen Chambo (cousin of the bride).

The maid of honor wore a full length gown of lilac chiffon. The bridesmaids wore blue chiffon full length gowns.

They all carried pink carnation.

Flower girl Denise Hoffman, wore a lilac chiffon dress styled similarly to the bridesmaids. She carried a basket of pink roses.

Ushers were Walter Gale, Jr., Michael Gale, and Randall Gale (brothers of the bride).

The bride's mother wore a lilac brocade dress and jacket with lilac accessories. She carried a white carnation corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a navy dressmaker suit with white accessories. She carried a white carnation corsage.

A reception was held at Botsford Inn following the ceremony.

The groom is a graduate of Purdue University and is presently working in Lansing as a Highway Engineer. The bride was graduated from Farmington High School in 1959 and Attended Wayne State University. At present she is employed at Grace Hospital in Detroit.

Following a wedding trip through the southwestern states, the newlyweds will return to their homes in Williamston.

PATRICIA ARLENE CARL

Mr. and Mrs. Allen W. Carl, 8622 Quandt, Allen Park, announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Arlene, to Jim Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andre Hansen, Farmington. The bride-elect, a graduate of Allen Park High School, is a senior at Central Michigan University, where she is majoring in elementary education. Hansen, who was graduated from Farmington High School, also is a senior at Central. His major is science. The couple plan an August 13 wedding.

Troth Told

Mrs. Eleanor R. Balfour, of Dearborn, former resident of Plymouth and wife of the late Dr. Harry C. Balfour, announces the engagement of her daughter Cynthia Lois to Donald Stuart Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell B. Wallace of Plymouth. The bride-to-be is a 1968 graduate of Plymouth High School and a 1962 graduate of Michigan State University. Wallace is a 1955 graduate of Plymouth High School, attended Michigan State University, and is a creative writer for Ford Motor Company. A late August wedding is planned.

Jackson PTA Hosts School Board Candidate

The final meeting of the Jackson PTA will take place Thursday, June 2 at 8:00 p.m. All members and friends are urged to attend. In keeping with the program committee's policy of bringing facts and information regarding our school system to the membership, the following items will be on the agenda: (1) Presentation of and brief talks by the six candidates for election to the Livonia Board of Education, (2) Discussion of the Schoolcraft College millage proposal, (3) PTA reports and (4) Installation of Officers.

The annual Jackson Jamboree was a success again this year. Chuck Smith, General Chairman, says that preliminary reports indicate a profit of over $1,000.

Over 450 persons attended the pancake brunch which was organized by Sue and Conrad Gniewek. The kids turned out in droves to eat popcorn and play at the games. The only hitch in the day was the failure of a local ranch to furnish the ponies as promised. Mr. Smith and Mrs. Shirley Butkowski, Room Mother Chairman, expressed their appreciation to all of the parents and teachers who gave time and effort to make the Jamboree a success.

POSING AGAINST THE BACKGROUND of the hand-carved walnut wall of the living room in Fair Lane are Chairman of the "Evening in Romany" Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gallagher and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Merritt.

The Distaff Side...

By Jerry Wendt Women's Editor

If you ever want to feel like "Queen for a Day" or like visiting royalty, attend one of the musicals at Fair Lane.

Maybe to the very young generation, it doesn't have the same impact, but to one of my generation, when you were growing up, the possibility of ever having supper in the Henry Fords living room was as remote as visiting on Mars.

Sunday, May 22, the Women of Fair Lane gave people an evening with their musical "An Evening in Romany." As guests pulled up in front of the canopied mansion, a red carpet had been extended to the driveway, and as one descended, a band of gypsy musicians piped them into the hall where the Committee members, elegant in long dresses and their black-tie escorts, waited to greet them.

The Fords were well known for their love of gardens and flowers and the Women of Fair Lane have carried on this tradition. The flower arrangements were truly outstanding. In honor of Jocelyn and her gypsy musicians, the flowers were scarlet, orange and lemon yellow. Vivid in hue, and natural looking in arrangement, they made gorgeous splashes of color against the walnut paneling.

All of the terraces which surround the mansion were open and tiny tables had been set up which dispensed punch to the guests. In the dining room, a long table heavy with massive silver featured a buffet supper. At the end of the dining room a table on which tea and coffee services were set at each end dispensed dessert and beverages to the guests.

The guests were then free to take their plates and seat themselves at any place in the entire house. The musicians serenaded them while they ate. Many tables had been set up on the terrace and gardens for the guests to dine.

We chose the drawing room and viewed the music rooms and stone balcony while we ate.

Later, Jocelyn and her gypsies gave a special concert. Many people from the University of Michigan were on hand and the distinguished looking Harlan Hatcher and his wife graciously posed for us on their way into the concert.

Downstairs in the ballroom, giant candleabra featured ivory candles surrounded with velvet ribbon and flanked by scarlet geraniums.

Tiny Italian lights twinkled on the trees and adjacent to the ballroom, was another room with more tables centered with hurricane lamps and flowers where the guests could sip punch in between dances.

We saw Mr. and Mrs. Martin Mix, Dr. and Mrs. Rupp, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Horton, Betty and Bob Mooney, (home from Cologne, Germany), and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robertson Jr. among the guests. Mrs. Reid Watson added to the colorful decor in her satin sari-type dress.

We felt just like Cinderella climbing into her pumpkin after an evening at the palace when we finally drove away from the gaily-lit, music-filled mansion into the night.

United Community Services Explains Role in Civic Life

With the assistance of a small, paid staff the work of UCS is conducted by interested citizen leaders who volunteer their time and talents to the job of community betterment. They come from every section of our geographic area and represent: Civic, business, labor, professional, cultural, and educational groups. Government and voluntary agencies. Contributors of funds. Users of services.

A board of directors is elected as the top governing body of UCS—and gives final approval to plans proposed by UCS committees and directs work to be done.

Important planning arms in the UCS structure are four geographic divisions—in Macomb County, Oakland County, Downriver, and Western Wayne.

The Western Wayne Division, like the other UCS divisions, serves as the focal point for citizens action on problems in the communities of Western Wayne and on adjustment of services for the areas' residents.

The Western Wayne Planning Division has completed studies within the past three years on Youth Employment Opportunities in Western Wayne County; characteristics of the Employable Head of Households over 25 years of age on Public Welfare; Volunteer Services in Western Wayne County; Services for Potential Suicides in Western Wayne County; and a Survey of Recreational Facilities. The Survey included municipally and school district owned facilities.

These studies explored in some depth the problems: Specific recommendations were made as to how some of the problems could be approached and solutions sought. The Division has also participated in studies based on census data comparing the social characteristics of communities in the area. A Joint Committee with the Wayne Downriver Planning Division has recently recommended the consolidation of offices at a central location for the total outcounty area.

The revitalized Community Relations Committee, Chaired by Mrs. Peter (Bita) Stevens of Livonia, has conducted a well attended workshop. Outstanding newspaper, publicity and public relations experts discussed the importance of telling the story of United Community Services and the effective use of techniques.

The Community Relations Committee is composed of local representatives in each Western Wayne County. They are Mrs. Peter Stevens, Livonia; Ted Kuckelman, Nankin and Belleville; Mrs. Mott Heath, Dearborn; O. E. McDonald, Dearborn Heights; Mrs. Richard (Marge) Oldenburg, Garden City; Mrs. Shirley Dawson, Inkster; Mrs. Arthur (Rosalee) Hempe, Northville; Mrs. Clifford (Mary) Funke, Redford; Mrs. Geneva Ford, Wayne and Mrs. Harold (Juanita) Watson, Wayne. Consultants to the Committee are Mrs. Reid (Peg) Watson, Dearborn and Paul Lutzeier, Livonia.

Plymouth Couple Plans 50th Anniversary Fete

It will be happy Golden Anniversary for the Clyde Uptons, 14440 Haggerty Road, on June 19 when they will be guests at an open house at their longtime home from 2 to 5 p.m.

The Uptons, parents of two sons and a daughter, have been residents of the community for 39 years. Up to the time of his retirement, Upton was an employee of Ford Motor Co. in Dearborn for 35 years. Since then, he and his wife have been enjoying themselves traveling in the southwest and far west as much as possible.

The open house is being held by their children who are: Mr. and Mrs. Lester Upton, Mr. and Mrs. William Upton and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sayre and 10 grandchildren.

Friends of the happy couple are invited to attend and wish the Uptons the best on the memorable occasion.

Buxom Belles To Honor Hall of Fame Member

Redford Figurines chapter of Buxom Belles, International will honor one of their members who has achieved Hall of Fame status. To become a Hall of Famer takes much stamina, as it requires a loss of 25 or more pounds and maintaining the loss for six months.

Mrs. Bernetta Ray, of Kinloch Avenue, will be the honored member and a dinner party has been planned for her on the evening of June 2 at Taylor's Town and Country Inn, with a party following at the home of Mrs. Carol Metevier, Hope Avenue.

Mrs. Ray will be crowned with a rhinestone tiara, which is hers to keep, and also will be presented with $25 from the club's treasury. Individual members will also shower her with gifts.

Anyone interested in joining our chapter, which meets on Thursday evenings at Lola Valley Junior High, please call KENwood 4-9034 or KENwood 4-7576.

Westland Travel-Fashion Show Reveals Radical Style Change

By Jerry Wendt
Women's Editor

After viewing the "Fun Season Travel Show" put on by Hudson's at Westland, Tuesday, May 25, we would say that never have feminine fashions undergone such a drastic change.

Hair is cut short, in fact almost gives the appearance of having been sheared, (Sasson) is the trade name. Skirts are shorter, and its color in clothes. All look easy to care for, easy to wear, and should make one feel gay and young.

The dining room was packed Tuesday and the women were treated to a Continental breakfast while watching the show. There were many favorites judging from the oohs and aahs of the audience.

The smash hit seemed to be the "travel" turbans which we first glimpsed on Dame Alicia Markova. They are turbans which are twisted into a variety of shapes and are "puffed" in appearance giving a hat-like effect.

They are worn with hoop earrings. The big advantage is that they look completely chic and yet hide the hair. You could be in need of a hair-do, or even have rollers and no one would know. They come in every material from satin to flowered chintz.

Knits, of course, are ideal for traveling. They were in every hue, pink, cerise, blue and mint green.

Raincoats were very much in the picture and featured a new idea—namely that some of them can be used for evening as well as rainwear, which should be a tremendous travel advantage.

Black and white was a favorite accented with striking splashes of color.

The show was sponsored by the American Tourist and the Du Pont Co.

We drooled over the "Duette" a cardinal scarlet leather piece of luggage by Tourister. This is a Mr. and Mrs. luggage and an unbelievable number of articles can be packed into it.

During the travel demonstration we picked up several travel tips. One is to choose one basic color—this cuts down on different pairs of shoes, purses to be carried, etc. Also sleeveless jersey shifts are wonderful—they can be worn with a jacket for daytime—and then without the jacket be "dressed up" for evening with jewelry.

One new fashion we loathe is white stockings. They remind us of surgical hose and look like one is about to be wheeled in to the operating room.

Seated with us were a group of style-conscious Livonia women who aided in selections. Mrs. Arthur Gots, Mrs. Norman Wilhelmson, Mrs. Lou Cahill, and Mrs. Fred Bird, to name them.

Also scattered about the dining room were Bess Fox, Barbara Core, and Beverly Halton, director of the show.

YOU CAN'T MISS it either the sign or the Soroptimist Flea Market for good bargains and treasures. For the third year the Livonia Soroptimists will gather up all kinds of goodies for sale on Saturday, June 4, 15115 Farmington Road just south of Five Mile. Proceeds are to furnish a room at St. Mary Hospital. On hand to promote the sale are Marge O'Leary, Clayton Smith, DRC official where the sign has been placed, Nurse Rita Radzialowski, Orianna Alli, Frances Moore and Sister Mary Calasantia, Director of the hospital.

"Antiques Trail" Show To Be Held June 6, 7, 8

Collectors, decorators and browsers will follow the perennial "Antiques Trail" on June 6, 7, 8 to the Rotunda Country Inn, 3230 Pine Lake Road in Orchard Lake where Fran Rupe, well known "Lady Impresario" of Michigan's and out-of-state leading antique shows will present her Spring Antique Sale and Show. The show hours are 11 a.m. to 10:30 p.m.

For those who wish it, Mrs. Rupe has made special arrangements for an "Old Street Lamp" Smorgasbord luncheon, to be included in the admission charge, which will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Single admissions are also available.

The 80-year-old Inn on beautiful Pine Lake makes a perfect country setting for the over twenty outstanding Michigan and out-of-state antique dealers who will offer their hard-to-find choice items. Following her sincere belief in artistic "productions", Fran Rupe selected only those dealer-exhibitors whose antiques make for prestige displays based on their authenticity.

In order to avoid the usual, regimented look of the average antique show an interior decorator was recruited to be present during show set-up time to advise on the most effective, overall display.

Beware THAT Stray Cat!

It has been said "be kind to animals, they are God's creatures also." One young lady, Lisa Cook, age eight has reasons to doubt this temporarily at least. The reason we are taking time and space to give you some details is to save another youngster and maybe his parents from going through similar torture.

Lisa Cook, daughter of Fred and Ginny Cook, of Farmington was bitten by a loitering cat, a roamer. He had wandered to the Cook residence before. A short time ago, the cat appeared at the Cook place while Lisa was home. Liking animals and having pets of her own, she bent down to pet the roamer.

The only conclusion the family has come to, is that perhaps the cat had been in a fight and the spot that Lisa touched while petting him was bruised. Nevertheless, Lisa was bitten. Authorities were notified that the reddish-brown and white long-haired, large male cat with shaggy fur had bitten Lisa and was perhaps still in the neighborhood.

The neighborhood, evidently, has two such roaming cats. One was picked up and tested for rabies, while the other one has been able to evade being picked up. Not being sure of which of the two culprits was the guilty one, Lisa had to and is still undergoing a series of shots to prevent her from contracting rabies. The shots are a series given each day for fourteen days and are quite painful especially to a youngster of eight.

We wish to point out that even though the authorities have tried, with the cooperation of neighbors that see the cat, to capture it, the cat is still roaming the area. Please, please alert your children to be extremely careful, especially at this time. And, if they do get even a scratch, from an animal, particularly a cat, be sure to notify the police.

Many children may be afraid to tell their parents if they were scratched or bitten by an animal because they were told to leave strays alone. Tell your child that you want to be told—that you have to know because of the danger.

"Clip-Alls" for Dad

"Clip-Alls" for Dad's personal use were recently made by the children in the Special Education classes, being held in O. E. Dunckel, Eagle, Gill and Larkshire Schools in Farmington. Fathers Day will be the occasion for the presentation of these gifts.

"Clip-Alls" are like a giant paper clip, and are made from a spring-type clothes pin, tongue depressors that were covered with felt or other suitable material and then glued to the clothes pin.

"The Clip-Alls" were then decorated with pearls, seeds, and sequins. Mrs. Calvin Oppenheimer, chairman of the group originated the idea.

Mrs. Gerald Wroblewski is in charge of a program which is a favorite of the children. She supplies them with cookies.

An outdoor planting session will wind up the semester. Mrs. John Pasfield will be project chairman.

Carelessness too often turns holidays into hollow days.

CLAUDETTE ANN CHESTON

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard S. Cheston, of 18724 Woodworth, Redford Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Claudette Ann to Roger Brian Stanislaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Stanislaw, formerly of Southfield. Her fiance has attended Lawrence Tech and has served with the Navy. They plan a late June wedding.

Pot Luck Dinner

The Grandview P.T.A. is sponsoring a fun night pot luck dinner on Monday night, June 6 at 8 p.m. in the multipurpose room of the school.

The parents will furnish the food and the teachers will furnish the entertainment. The program is hush-hush, but the word is out that there will be a beauty contest, complete with a fashion and talent show. Mr. LaBarge will serve as judge.

This is not limited to P.T.A. members. All parents are requested to make a real effort to attend and show our appreciation for our very fine staff members.

Anyone who failed to return the flier sent home by your child should contact Midge Ellis at 474-2729 or Eileen Socolovich at 474-2854 for further information.

Redford Toastmistress Members Plan To Attend Speech Contest

Redford Toastmistress Club inducted six new members at their last luncheon meeting held at the Botsford Inn, Farmington. Mrs. John Grab conducted the impressive ceremony and presented portfolios of membership to Mesdames Marguerite Bates, William Bender, Robert Randal, Frank Rogers and Frank Visger.

In order to learn more phases of Toastmistress Training, the new members immediately made plans to accompany Toastmistresses White, Dixon, Sutherland, Ralston and Young to the Council No. 4 Northeast Region of International Toastmistress Clubs Speech Contest scheduled for the Inn on the Park, Toronto, Canada.

Toastmistress Clubs are open to membership to women who would like the opportunity to learn to give a report, make an announcement, conduct a meeting, introduce a speaker, and express their views with poise. They offer a method of helping women through the study of

"Death of God Began at Cross" States Livonia Baptist Minister

By JERRY WENDT
Church Editor

Elvin L. Clark, pastor of the Livonia Baptist Church, 32940 Schoolcraft, Livonia, has a tolerant attitude toward the current "Is God Really Dead?" discussion.

Pastor Clark is a poised, intelligent man and his beliefs are firmly rooted and not easily swayed. Perhaps part of the reason is that he feels that the problems of man and God are unchanging and that the same conflict has always been present.

The Baptists are currently very much in the news with the series of Evangelistic revivals and the National Convention which has been taking place.

We interviewed Pastor Clark in his study in the Livonia Baptist Church. We asked him his views on the current discussion among the clergy as to whether the Bible should be taken "literally."

"It is hard to answer that question," he said, "because we must remember that Christ used parables. Also symbols were used throughout the Bible. I believe the term "Hell" is Old Testament that form the Christian religion today.

"There is a division among the Baptist religion, and interestingly enough, it came about during the slavery issue. It was not the actual question of slavery that caused the split but whether or not members of the church should have Fellowship with people who owned slaves. The Northern groups were against this and the split began.

"Do you believe in a personal God? was the next question. "Do you think that we shall ever see him?"

"Yes, he answered, "it is promised in the Bible that his faithful servants should see him. One of the most interesting viewpoints was expressed by Pastor Clark in the current "Is God Really Dead?" Discussion. "This is an old, old question, smiled Clark. "As a matter of fact, I am inclined to agree with the theologian who said that the old concept of God died at the Crucifixion. It was at that time that men began following the teachings of Christ instead of the God of the Old Testament.

"Upon reflection this seems to be true, since it is the teachings of Christ, rather than the pal duty of the Baptist Church was.

"The task of the Church is the same as it has been for centuries he said, "To lead men to commit their life to Christ in all areas. Consider the facts of your life, pray for guidance, and then try to live your life, not just on Sundays but everyday, according to Christ."

He advanced an interesting idea regarding part of the guilty feelings that people seem to suffer nowadays.

"People seem terrified of making mistakes," he said. "Mistakes have a definite part of life. We should be able to learn from them. It is healthy to profit by one's mistakes. Pray for God's guidance, and then go cheerfully into the next phase of your life."

"God the Only Cause and Creator" Subject for Science Churches June 5

Spiritual causation and spiritual reality will be explored in a Bible Lesson-Sermon on "GOD THE ONLY CAUSE AND CREATOR" at Christian Science church services this Sunday.

Responsive Reading from Psalms will begin with these verses: "The Lord is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

The Lord is high unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth." Related passages to be considered from the Christian Science textbook include these lines: "When mortal man blends his thoughts of existence with the spiritual and works only as God works, he will no longer grope in the dark and cling to earth because he has not tasted heaven... The age seems ready to approach this subject, to ponder somewhat the supremacy of Spirit, and at least to touch the hem of Truth's garment" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy).

THIS GROUP OF young people was confirmed: David Wendlandt, Douglas Gussens, Richard Dalch, Jacqueline Dietz, Karen Mosteller, Walter Syroid, Bradley Smith, and James Salmonson. This is the last class of the two-year program of Confirmation Instruction of Youth.

Brethren Celebrate 50 Years in Detroit

Trinity Church of the Brethren, 27350 West Chicago at Inkster, Detroit announce that the Churches of the Brethren in Detroit will commemorate their beginnings here 50 years ago, in services to be held at First Church of the Brethren, June 5.

Members of the Trinity who have held special attachments to the historical development of the Brethren here will want to attend all regular services beginning at 10:45 in the morning.

Many others will wish to attend regular services at Trinity and then journey across town for the dinner at 1:30 and the afternoon program at 2:30. The journey across town will feature a specially prepared story in script and pictures of the Brethren work here.

Rosemary Butler is author of the afternoon presentation. Call Mae Wagner 343-4996 for reservations.

GARDEN CITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH is located at Middlebelt Road, one block south of Ford Rd., across from the Post Office in Garden City.

Garden City Presbyterian To Dedicate New Addition

Garden City Presbyterian Church, founded 126 years ago in this community when the area was known as the Irish Settlement, will dedicate her $150,000 addition and remodeled sanctuary, next Sunday, June 5 in services held at 4 p. m.

The Church has served a very sparse population when organized with 15 members. Now she serves a metropolitan area with more than 40,000 plus population of Garden City.

Baptist Church Nears Crisis at Farmington

North Farmington Baptist Church is surviving a crisis brought about by the resignation of its minister. It is not difficult to understand why the loss was felt so keenly — for Rev. William Holmes and his wife, Barbara, were close friends as well as minister, choir director, and organist for the past six years.

A pulpit committee was organized immediately and its first job was to find an interim pastor. This was accomplished by securing the services of Rev. Edward Willingham Jr.

Ladies' Bible Class Holds Final Luncheon

The Tuesday Morning Ladies' Bible Class of the Ward Memorial Presbyterian Church will conclude its season with a luncheon on Tuesday, June 7.

The class had had a year of marked interest in its program of Bible study each Tuesday morning. This year over 200

THIS UNUSUAL VIEW was taken in the new chapel on the campus of the University of Detroit by an amateur photographer.

Lutheran Church Holds 50 Years Anniversary

The Lutheran Church of the Epiphany is approaching the highlight of its year-long 50th Anniversary Celebration. As a part of the Celebration, the church has set aside the first Sunday in each month of the entire year of 1966 as an Anniversary Sunday.

There are approximately 2,000 former members, and approximately 1,000 have been invited to join in the reunion. As addresses are known, the rest will be contacted by telephone or telegram, if necessary.

Area Obituaries

MICHAEL J. GUILMETTE, JR. Funeral services for 17-month-old Michael were conducted by the Right Rev. Msgr. Thomas P. Beahan at the graveside at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery on May 26.

GEORGE F. WAACK, 82, of 24131 Broadview, Farmington died May 24 at the Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital. Funeral services were conducted by Pastor Robert Zoelger at the Heeneey Sundquist Funeral Home on May 27.

MRS. BARBARA SCHMIDT, Services for Mrs. Schmidt, 66, of 235 Garden City, Farmington, were conducted in the Schrader Funeral Home in charge of Rev. Henry Walch with burial in Riverside Cemetery.

ORIE STACY, Services for Mr. Stacy, 88, of 50979 Powell Road, Plymouth Township, were conducted in the Schrader Funeral Home in charge of Rev. Hugh White with burial in Riverside Cemetery.

MRS. FLORENCE CYLK, Services for Mrs. Cylk, 66, of 100 Rose, Plymouth, were conducted in the Schrader Funeral Home and in Our Lady of Good Counsel Church in charge of Rev. Francis Byrne with burial in Riverside Cemetery.

Men's Breakfast St. Matthew's Church of Livonia will hold its annual Methodist Mens Breakfast in Lola Valley Park on June 12 at 6:45 a.m. All men and boys are welcome.

Breakfast in the Park

A lot of Garden City fathers aren't going to get to sleep in very late on Dad's Day this year. Instead they will be out at the pavilion of Garden City Park whipping up and serving hot cakes, sausages, coffee and milk to their wives, children and the general public.

Donations for the breakfast are $1 each for the adults and 50c for children between the ages six and 12. Tickets are available from lodge members or at the park. Garden City Park is located at Cherry Hill and Merriman Roads.

Profits from the breakfast will be used to purchase a commercial dishwasher for the lodge.

Square Dancers Graduate in City

Graduation exercises were held recently for the 40 who have mastered the beginners course in square dancing in the City's Recreation Program.

These grads will form the nucleus for next year's intermediate class. A beginner's class is also planned for next year.

Redford Twp. Priest To Be Ordained Sun.

Fr. Herbert J. Lorentz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Lorentz of Olympia Street (Redford Township), will be ordained to the Priesthood on Saturday, June 4, by the Most Reverend John F. Dearden, D.D., Archbishop of Detroit.

Fr. Lorentz attended Our Lady of Sorrows Grade School (Farmington) and St. Agatha Grade and High Schools. He attended the University of Detroit and then, Sacred Heart Seminary and completed his Theological Studies at St. John's Provincial Seminary.

Nuns Hold Open House

The Monastery of the Blessed Sacrament is holding open house all this week May 28 through June 4. This will be the only opportunity to view the cloister world. One will be able to see their bedrooms, their kitchen, the work room, the choir loft and every room where they live and work.

Father and Son Banquet June 6

Memorial Church of Christ announces that all the men and boys and their friends are invited to attend a Men and Boys Father and Son Banquet, Monday, June 6 at 6:30 p.m.

Farmington Family Has Sand In Their Shoes

Doers and goers are the Herb Neal family of Farmington. Herb Neal is just back from a five-week trip abroad and his only regret is breaking his five-year attendance on the Farmington School Board.

Arriving in London, he was met by his daughter, Marcella, who is attending the University of Sheffield as a University of Michigan exchange student. Together, they were able to celebrate Marcella's 21st birthday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leach in Repton, England.

An interesting note also is the home of the Neals on Rockshire near Orchard Lake Road where many garden club members have taken nature walks to see the wild flowers blooming abundantly and where birds congregate in the natural setting.

Scouts Visit Hometown Sights

Have you ever seen the largest privately operated switchboard in the United States? Gone through a whole building full of nothing but luxurious furs? Been in the Presidential Suite at the Sheraton-Cadillac? Neither have we, and we wish we could have been with Cadette Troop 123 from Duncel Junior High in Farmington when they "did" Detroit.

The Cadettes and their leader, Mrs. Gerald Nuzoff, and Mrs. F. Hal McDavid, began their tour with an overnight stay at the downtown YWCA April 29, which included swimming that evening.

Next morning, after a hearty breakfast, they parked their cars near Hudson's and started off their walking tour with a guided expedition through Hudson's fur storage. While at Hudson's they observed in operation the mammoth switchboard—the only one larger is at the Pentagon in Washington, D.C.

The complete trip was financed from their Christmas project, cookie and calendar sales and dues, and required extensive advance planning. It was planned as a substitute for the camping trip the girls were forced to forego because they could not find a First-Aider or Camprafter to accompany them, as required by their health and safety regulations.

Lutheran Church Plans Picnic

Hosanna Tabor Lutheran Church announces that the Annual Congregational Picnic will be held on Sunday, June 26 at Hawthorne Ridge (Hines Drive past Merriman) in Edward Hines Park.

The early service will be held at the church as usual with Holy Communion being celebrated in that service. The 11 a.m. service, however, will be held at the picnic grounds.

Teens To Dance To Aid AFS Program

Two Bands Will Play

AMID THE GIGGLES some serious ticket selling is going on to benefit American Field Service. The Livonia Lions Club of Livonia are sponsoring a Teen Dance on Friday, June 3 at Franklin High School and Saturday, June 4 at Bentley High with two popular bands each night. Ticket sellers are (left to right) Ella Luxton, Sue Sladek, Carol Hermling, Marilyn Sindow, Jerry Rosema; Livonia Lions Youth Chairman (in the spirit too), Diane Harris and Kathy Miles.

Livonia Lions are interested in the American Field Service program in their City and they are encouraging the teenagers to aid them in a project. They are sponsoring a Teen dance on Friday, June 3 at Franklin High 8 to 11 p.m. and Saturday June 4 at Bentley High. Tickets are good either night and may be bought at the door.

George Saul's "Four of A Kind" and Don Camplan's "Night Riders" will supply the live music for the dance.

Proceeds will be divided equally between Bentley and Franklin AFS Chapters to provide monies to bring exchange students to the schools.

The Teen Dance is also supported by the Town Hall Series of Livonia.

New Principals Picked For Livonia Schools

The Livonia Board of Education recently approved new principals for the 1966-67 school year.

Named to head the new James R. Lowell junior high school at Hix and Joy roads, is Gordon Geiger, who has been assistant principal at Riley junior high.

Dr. Virginia Roberts, who has been the principal at Roosevelt elementary, will be in charge of the Section 19 West school.

Corlan Bovee, principal of the Lincoln elementary school, will be principal of the Section 18 north (Burton Hollow) school.

Michael Mikula, principal of Marshall elementary, has been transferred as principal of the Lincoln elementary school.

James Lauer, who is presently on the Board's administrative intern program was approved for a principalship at a school to be assigned later. Also approved as the principal of a presently undesignated school is Raymond Pomerville, a former Hull elementary teacher and administrative intern.

Five administrative interns, Richard Braun, Gordon Draper, Mrs. Harriet Shogan, and Emilia Tischler, were approved by the Board to take over positions as assistant principals at a later date. Also in this group is William R. Lutz, who is presently an elementary principal in Coldwater, Mich.

Named to assistant principal positions in the junior and senior high schools are Mrs. Dorothy Bentley who will be at Stevenson high school, and Ferl Thomas, Gerald Kratz, and Dr. Jan Jacobs all of whom will be given specific assignments at a later date.

Just Chattin' How About a Soldier Memorial?

By W. W. EDGAR
As the final notes of "Taps" rent the morning air, bringing to a close the Memorial Day services in honor of those who laid down their lives in the military service of the country a fellow standing next to me remarked, casually, "well that's it for another year."
By his outward appearance he gave no evidence that he was a veteran whose feelings had been case-hardened in the crucible of enemy fire on any of the battle fields of the world. Neither did he give one the impression that he might be one of the modern cynics who smile and condone the draft card burning tactics of some segments of our modern youth.

He had been listening with rapt attention to the Memorial Day orator, seemingly drinking in every word of the patriotic address. Yet, there was something haunting about his remark, "Well, that's it for another year."
Driving home these words kept ringing in my ear and I couldn't help but wonder if this was the general attitude. Had our appreciation for those who gave the last full measure of devotion dwindled to the point where it was concentrated into an hour or two on a parking lot far removed from the hallowed ground of the final resting place of those who had served their country?

If it has, then it is about time that we paused in our topsy-turvy struggle for existence and picked up again the strings of appreciation for the services rendered by our soldiers, sailors, marines and air force.

There was a time when most every city, town or hamlet had some tangible evidence on display. In many cases it was an old cannon mounted on wheels, with a pyramid of cannon balls at its side in the city or town square.

In later years, when these cannons became outmoded through man's scientific progress and planes and missiles and bombs came to the fore, it was almost impossible to display these weapons of war.

It was then that each town and hamlet proudly erected well designed bulletin boards on the town square or on the grounds of the Municipal buildings and listed the names of all the young men who had answered the call. Folks walked by and pointed with pride

Teen Fined For Throwing Oil at Boy

An oil change — on someone else's clothes — proved to be a costly one for Timothy Olech, 19, of 244 Deering, Garden City.

Olech, charged with assault and battery in an oil throwing incident on April 22, was found guilty by Judge John Seiler recently and fined $25 and $2.50 court costs.

The Garden City police department was told that Olech was driving on Florence Street near Middlebelt Road when he threw a carton containing dirty auto engine oil at two pedestrians.

The carton struck one of the two, Ronald Dean, 14, of 28606 Bock, Garden City. The boy had oil on his face, in his hair, and on his clothes, some of which could not be cleaned.

Monte Hackman, 15, 556 Deering, Garden City, said he was a passenger in Olech's auto. There were three cartons and one tin can containing the old oil and Olech threw one of the cartons out of the car window.

The two boys who were the targets of the oil container last month obtained the license number of the car as it drove away and police officers traced the ownership back to Olech.

Schoolcraft College Starts Students on a Large Variety of Careers

Area College Meets The Needs of All

SCHOOLCRAFT SERVES THE PEOPLE

At the end of two years of operation Schoolcraft College points with considerable pride to the fact that the College has kept faith with the residents by developing as rapidly as possible the programs for which the community asked. Upon completion of current construction projects July 1 of this year the total expenditures for the College Campus will be $5,835,082. Of this sum, $1,461,720 has been secured from State and Federal sources.

TRANSFER PROGRAMS

When the College was established, the Board of Trustees assured the residents that Schoolcraft would have a strong academic transfer program. This promise has been kept, and as a result Schoolcraft graduates are transferring to Eastern Michigan University, University of Michigan, Michigan State, Wayne State, Western Michigan University, Central Michigan University, and other colleges without loss of credit. Many have secured scholarships to these senior colleges. Michigan Accreditation was secured during the first year, and it is the plan of the College that final North Central Accreditation will be secured in the shortest possible time.

AUTOMOTIVE CURRICULA

In addition to a strong transfer program, career courses have been developed as rapidly as possible. Existing programs such as those in electronics, drafting, and manufacturing technology are being enlarged. The fall semester will see a new two-year automotive program. Some students with outstanding mechanical abilities and interests in the automotive area will wish to specialize in the mechanical field. Others with interests in management will be enrolled in the Automotive-Service Management Curriculum. The automotive programs have been worked out carefully with the Service Managers of the Automotive Industry. Dean Jon P. Adams, Technical Dean of the College, states that one of the greatest needs in this area is for young men trained in the automotive mechanical service or automotive service management fields. These Schoolcraft programs are made possible by the completion and equipping of the new Technical-Vocational Building, which will contain the finest type of equipment, including engine dynamometer, chassis dynamometer, and new kinds of testing equipment such as engine oscilloscopes.

CULINARY ARTS PROGRAM

The new culinary arts program will attract young men and women who wish to prepare for the Food Services Industry, leading eventually to supervisory positions. It is sponsored by Hotel-Motel and Restaurant Associations of the area. Completion of the curriculum requires four semesters, during which time students will supplement their theoretical work with practical experience. Theoretical study in the foods program will include work in communications, business mathematics, introduction to data processing, basic chemistry, and human relations. Practical aspects include such areas as food preparation, storeroom operation, food and beverage control, meat curing, baking and pastry, pantry and dining room operation, nutrition, and menu planning.

NURSING PROGRAMS

The Nursing Area offers both a one-year practical nursing curriculum and a two-year associate degree program. The first class of 23 practical nurses graduated in July 1965. Mrs. Harriett Sattig, Director of Nursing Education of the College, announces that Schoolcraft College placed fourth from the top out of 25 nursing schools throughout the State whose students took the licensed Practical Nursing examination. The present practical nursing class had their clinical experience last fall at Garden City Osteopathic Hospital. The first five weeks of the second semester were spent in psychiatric nursing and clinical experience at Wayne County General Hospital, Psychiatric Division. Students are currently enrolled in maternity nursing and nursing care of children. The demand for the services of practical nurses is great. At the present many graduates are employed in local or neighboring medical facilities.

The first class of the two-year Associate Degree Nursing Program were admitted on August 31, 1965. Students began their clinical experience at Sinai Hospital. This first year they have studied medical-surgical nursing and at the present are in psychiatric nursing, with classes on campus and clinical experience at Wayne County General Hospital, Psychiatric Division. Students in the second year of the program will have experience in maternity and pediatric nursing at St. Mary's Hospital, Livonia. The curriculum consists of a combination of liberal arts and courses in nursing. Those who complete the program are granted Associate Degrees and are eligible

MISS GERALDINE SHULTS, graduate of Clarenceville High, was granted scholarships by MSU and U of M. An outstanding science student, Miss Shults also was granted a Schoolcraft College Science Award. She is (above) operating a PH Meter for determining acidity or basicity of solutions. Her instructor is Dr. Ralph Atchley. Alan Tope of Garden City also received a U of M scholarship and was granted a Schoolcraft College Science award.

IN THE VOCATIONAL-Technical Building new lathe equipment is explained to Douglas Rosenthal and William Harrison by Instructor (far right) Ronald Monfette.

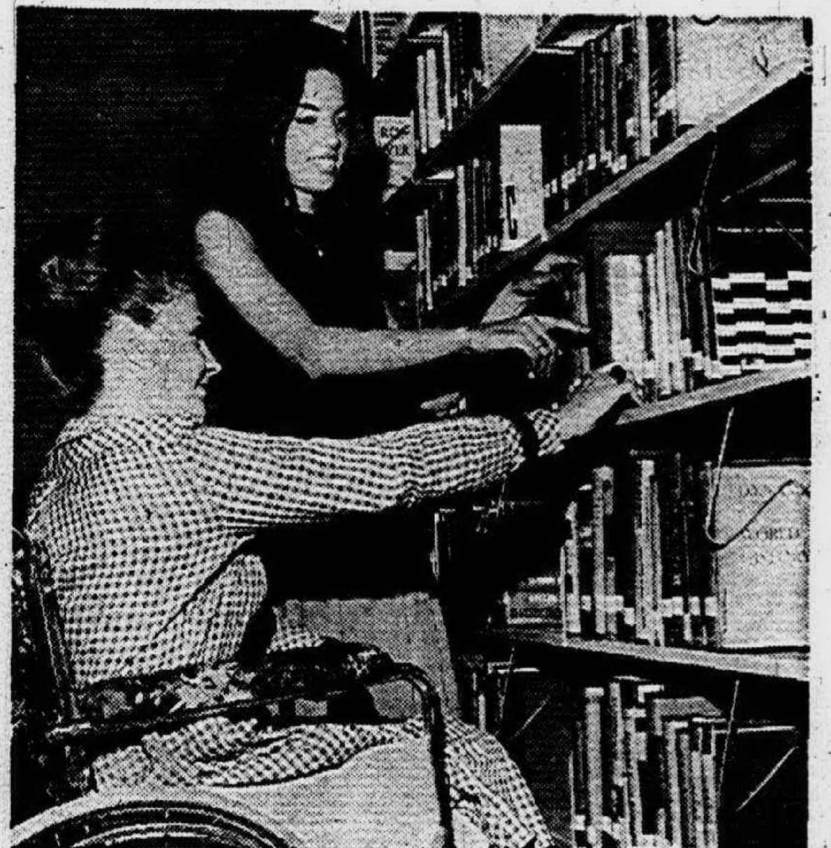

DEAN OF STUDENT AFFAIRS, Edward McNally interviews Albert Abdounour who has been accepted at Wayne State University and Barbara Barzell and Margaret Cross who will both enter Michigan State as Juniors. They have graduated from their chosen 'majors' from Schoolcraft College.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER team, Mrs. Helen Samsonow and daughter Maria, graduate of Bentley in 1964, was in top quarter of her class. Mrs. Samsonow is the mother of four, born in Great Britain. She qualified for admission to the Practical Nursing Program by passing the General Educational Development Test at Schoolcraft. Her experiences as a nurse's aide encouraged her to become a practical nurse. With the team is Director of the program at Schoolcraft Mrs. Harriet Sattie.

IN THE LIBRARY where students spend many hours in study and research the above two students also serve in getting practical experience in their chosen field of library assistants. Susan Sterhagen and Susan Tonyan are both graduates of Franklin High School in Livonia.

DATA PROCESSING

The completion of the Vocational-Technical Building is making possible considerable enlargement in the Data Processing area. The two-year program will include computer training.

DAY AND EVENING CLASSES

Schoolcraft College is operating day and evening classes. Some students are enrolling for complete curricula, others for one and two-courses. Both transfer programs and all types of technical work are available in both day and evening. Adults in the community who have not graduated from high school will find classes to meet their needs. Inquiries regarding enrollment to Schoolcraft College should be directed to Miss Barbara Geil, Director of Admissions. Telephone 591-6400, extension 225.

Harry Bengel

Harry Bengel Heads Ford Civic Group

Harry J. Bengel has been elected chairman of Ford Motor Company's Livonia Community Relations Committee.

The committee, composed of executives from Livonia Ford facilities, meets regularly to coordinate the company's responsibilities as a Livonia corporate citizen and direct continuing efforts to improve the city's business climate to help strengthen the total community's prosperity.

The group maintains contact with area leaders and organizations to better understand local problems and plans.

Bengel is manager of Ford Division's National Parts Depot in Livonia. He joined Ford in 1948 and served in several finance positions before being named assistant manager of the National Parts Depot in 1955.

Bengel was appointed manager of Ford Division's Seattle (Wash.) Parts Depot in 1960; manager of the Detroit Parts Depot (Redford, Mich.) in 1961; Ford Division's assistant supply manager (Dearborn, Mich.) in 1963, and to his present post last year.

A native of West New York, N. J., Bengel was graduated from New York University. He and his wife, Norma, and their three children, David, Peter and Deborah, live at 34307 Burton Lane, Livonia.

John Ebach Wins Ford Scholarship

John Ebach, 32936 Barkley, Livonia, is one of seven Michigan youths named winners in a new scholarship program designed to increase the number and competence of automotive technicians.

The seven were among recipients of 100 two-year technical scholarships offered by the Ford Motor Company Fund in a program started this year.

John's father is employed at North Brothers Inc. in Garden City.

The new scholarship program is open to children of the 170,000 employees of Ford and Lincoln - Mercury dealers throughout the country.

In announcing the winners, Benson Ford, president of the Ford Fund, said "This program offers a real challenge and opportunity for the children of dealers' employees. It represents a fresh approach to the problem of providing career training at the college level for young people with outstanding technical abilities.

"Today's automobile is the simple mechanical predecessor was. It is a complex instrument composed of many related systems which would baffle the most knowledgeable expert of the Model T era.

"The modern car has made it necessary to develop a new arm of technicians — highly trained to build and maintain cars in accordance with today's high standards of performance and safety. The Ford Fund Technical Scholarship Program was designed with this new generation of specialists in mind."

Recipients of the New Ford Fund Scholarships will study automotive technology at qualified community colleges, junior colleges and technical institutions of their choice. The first scholarships go into effect in September.

The scholarships cover tuition and yearly board-and-room allowances of $300 for students living at home and $750 for students living away from home. The Fund also will make an annual contribution of $250 to the general educational budget of each school with a scholarship winner in attendance.

The Ford Motor Company Fund is an educational, scientific and charitable organization financed by contributions from Ford Motor Company. It is not related to the Ford Foundation.

Top Racers Vie
Homer Newland, Joy Fair, Ray Barnard, Pete Bere and Ron Grana, holding down the top five spots in late model competition at Flat Rock Speedway, will be out in force Saturday night (June 3) to embellish their positions.

Ex-Falcon Stars at Wayne as Frosh

As a rule, freshmen usually don't make a big splash when they jump into the collegiate baseball swim.

There are exceptions to every rule, however.

Carl Misch of Farmington is certainly an exception to the rule with the impressive debut he has made as Wayne State University's freshman third baseman on the varsity baseball squad this spring.

The 6-foot, 185-pound Farmington High School graduate has hit safely in all five Wayne State games as the Tartars own a 3-2 record and have been rained out of six other games.

Misch sports a .400 batting average with 8 hits in 20 plate appearances and has bobbled just one play at field in the five games.

An 18-year old, he's just one of four freshmen in the starting lineup for Coach Leon Lande's team which was hardhit by graduation. Misch, however, has filled the void caused by the graduation of last year's regular and is out-hitting his predecessor by 190 points.

A right-hander all the way, Misch is also listed on the Tartar Spring Football roster as a halfback. He hasn't been able to take part in any drills. However, Misch has been getting individual skull sessions with backfield coach Bob Hurley and should be ready when Wayne State opens its grid season in September.

Hot Wire to Schoolcraft College

(With only two weeks left until the millage election for Schoolcraft College, or as it is known officially Northwest Wayne County Community College District, the HOT WIRE is waiting to answer questions in next week's paper. If you write, the address is: HOT WIRE, 33050 Five Mile, Livonia, Michigan. The telephone number is 591-6400, Extension 212. Remember names are not used if the writer wishes to have them withheld. However, no questions will be answered unless the letters are signed.)

QUESTION: You promised to operate on one mill in 1962. Why are you now asking for more?

ANSWER: The 1962 millage was a projection of the needs of the College. At that time no one could predict the areas of expansion and the exact needs of each educational program. The College was established using the best available figures. They were, nevertheless, simply projections and estimates, made originally in 1960. The additional funds are needed because of the increased cost of Technical Vocational Education, the increased costs of salaries, supplies, materials, services, and buildings, and other capital expenditures. While the assessed valuation of the district has increased at approximately 5% per year, the cost of the above services has greatly outstripped the increase in valuation.

QUESTION: Why did the Board of Trustees bring the request for millage at this late date?

ANSWER: Last December the College announced that it planned to levy an additional millage of 1/2 mill. To date this amount has not been levied. Since then, the Board of Trustees has decided it needs to have additional capital for additional expansion of college facilities. It is the money for this additional bond offering that requires extra millage. The Board of Trustees was not informed by its attorney until the last possible moment that this would have to be placed on the ballot. Since the Board is requesting additional millage for the bonds, it decided to request permission from the people for the entire amount over the one mill already granted.

QUESTION: What economies is Schoolcraft College itself willing to make?

ANSWER: The College is not prepared to offer second class instruction. This means that fewer students will be admitted and many subject areas will be eliminated. What remains, however, will still be of the highest quality. The College is not interested in "frill" education.

QUESTION: Why is the College $400,000 in the hole? Isn't this poor management?

ANSWER: The basic trouble has been caused by a long delay in the interpretation of the new State Constitution as it applies to community colleges in the State of Michigan. Following the advice of its attorneys, the College began the ordering of supplies for the Vocational-Technical last December. This had to be done in order to insure the delivery of heavy technical equipment in time for college to start in September. Also, following the advice of the attorneys, the College faculty was placed under contract for the year 1966-67. As a result of these two actions the College has become obligated for sums of money beyond its normal sources of revenue. It is not poor management to follow the advice of one's attorney.

QUESTION: I am a resident of Livonia. I just voted additional millage to the public schools and do not see why it is necessary that you come back again to ask for something that we have just given you.

ANSWER: The Livonia School Millage will not affect Schoolcraft College at all because Schoolcraft College is not part of the Livonia Public School system. The College stands alone on this issue.

QUESTION: I plan to support the College. When I vote yes on the millage, what can I expect the total millage for the College to be on my tax bill?

ANSWER: The total millage on your tax bill will be $1.77 per $1,000 of the State Equalized Value of your property.

QUESTION: I am an adult and did not graduate from high school. I live in the College District. Do I have a chance to attend Schoolcraft College in the evening?

ANSWER: You certainly do. Or if you are changed to the evening shift, you may come in the day and take part-time or full-time work. The College makes no distinction between its day and evening programs.

QUESTION: Wouldn't you get an additional half million dollars if you increased the tuition by $10.00 per semester per student?

ANSWER: No, $10.00 per semester per student would bring approximately $50,000. This would be unjust to some students, particularly those who are working part-time and attending school part-time. The Board of Trustees has discussed a tuition increase and if necessary, might vote an increase on a sliding scale, depending upon the amount of work a student is taking.

Flower Display Is Postponed

The unseasonable cold weather has forced postponement for one week of the Southern Michigan Iris and Hemerallis Society's colorful Iris Show originally scheduled for this Saturday at the Livonia Mall Shopping Center.

The show will be held Saturday, June 11 instead from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Hundreds of valuable, as well as colorful specimens will be on display in the enclosed Livonia Mall. Color hues ranging from delicate pink, blues, salmon, and yellows to the deeper toned royal purples and blacks will highlight the show.

"There is far greater interest in the once common iris today than there was years ago because of the development of so many more beautiful colors and for this reason we are looking forward to staging an Iris Show that will amaze the average home gardener," said Mrs. Irene Wilhelmson, chairman of the show.

what does WESTERN UNION have to do with Jane Parker white bread?

By actual count there are 23 quality checks made on Jane Parker White Bread.

Everything from the ingredients right through the mix and the baking is checked and rechecked.

But do these 23 quality checks satisfy us?

No ma'm! We have a 24th check.

Regularly Western Union representatives select at random and purchase at our stores loaves of Jane Parker White Bread.

They're flown to our quality test lab for that important 24th check.

You see, in that way, we even keep tabs on ourselves.

Is Jane Parker White Bread a good reason for shopping A&P?

It's one of many.

REPORT FROM WASHINGTON

Rep. Vivian Tells of Use of Funds by School Systems

By Congressman Wes Vivian
Last year the United States Congress passed major new legislation designed to help hard-pressed local school districts meet their growing needs, while alleviating some of the pressure on the property tax base, on which they are so dependent.

The funds authorized and appropriated under Public Law 89-10—The Elementary and Secondary Education Act—are beginning to come into our District now.

I asked the Michigan Department of Education to provide me with information on which of our school districts are currently receiving "ESEA" funds, as of March 31.

Here is the tabulation on use of Title I funds, aimed at helping districts meet the educational needs of the children from low-income families:

- LENAWEE COUNTY
Addison, reading improvement for intermediate grades, $17,224.
Adrian, student improvement, $9,373.
Billsfield, summer education improvement program, $17,351.
Britton-Macon, summer reading, $7,865.
Clinton, reading improvement, $7,150.
Deerfield, automated remedial instruction, $333.
Hudson, summer academics and cultural enrichment, $22,400.
Madison, language development, $14,763.
Morenci, directed study and tutor assistance, $18,590.
Sand Creek, summer remedial reading, $20,491.
Tecumseh, reading improvement, $30,971.
Underwood, elementary remedial reading, $3,995.

LIVINGSTON COUNTY
Fowlerville, improvement of communication skills, $22,166.
MONROE COUNTY
Airport communication skills improvement and recreation, $14,534.
Bedford, basic skills improvement and health services, $37,324.
Custer, individual instruction and summer recreation, improved learning and adjustment and pre-vocational exploratory work experience program, $42,364.
Dexter, improved school program, $18,112.
Jefferson, guidance and counseling, $6,900.
Mason Consolidated, improvement program, $23,000.
Monroe, additional staff, $99,218.

WASHTENAW COUNTY
Ann Arbor, community service center, $56,510.
Chelsea, educational television, $16,113.
Dexter, reading skill improvement, $10,892.
Livonia, remedial instruction, $5,852.
Saline, improvement of reading skills, $2,990.
Willow Run, language skills improvement, $38,615.
Ypsilanti, compensatory educational program, $127,008.

PLYMOUTH COUNTY
Plymouth, diagnostic team, in-service training and reading specialist, $24,514.
Under Title II, Washtenaw and Wayne Counties have programs under development, for the acquisition of library, and instructional materials and textbooks for both public and non-public schools.

Title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act provides Federal support for supplementary education centers and services. Under this Title, the following Second Congressional District projects are underway:

The Ann Arbor Board has approved for $278,000 in Federal funds to develop a demonstration curriculum center. I have checked with the United States Office of Education and learned that this application is in the final stages of approval. I anticipate that this project will be ready to announce in the near future.

The Wayne County Intermediate District, serving all local boards in that County, also has application in to the United States Office of Education, for Title III support.

I am most encouraged by the fact that so many Second District Boards of Education have moved ahead in an effort to improve the education they are providing. I am hopeful that many more Boards will begin to make these opportunities available to their students in the near future.

There is no higher priority item on the agenda of our country than the continued improvement of the educational opportunities which we are providing our young people. To deny them anything short of the finest education possible would be to jeopardize the future of our country and its people.

Other officers are: Secretary Ruth Miles, Treasurer Sis Meredith, both of Plymouth and Board members Carole Snell and Kit Anderson of Farmington and Virginia Brenneman of Plymouth.

Dr. Homer Weir, new medical superintendent, gave a welcoming address at the anniversary meeting at which nine members were honored for five years of service.

Honored were: Mrs. Helen Baker of Southfield; Mrs. Mary Begel of Northville; Mrs. Betty Brown of Franklin; Mrs. Vern Henderson of Plymouth; Mrs. Virginia Klenk of Livonia; Mrs. Faye Sells of Farmington; Mrs. Jeanne Schoen of Livonia; Mrs. Margaret Wright of Farmington; Mrs. Ruth Portney of Livonia and Mrs. McIlhargie of Plymouth.

Following the presentation, Jack Guy, president of the Parent's Association for Retarded Children, explained the purpose, goals and varied activities of the parents in helping the retarded children at PSH.

On behalf of the Association, Guy presented the Auxiliary with a check for $350 to cover their annual expenses and to eliminate the need of membership dues. It was a token of appreciation for the services of the volunteers in aiding the children in the Training School.

Republican Women, who recently organized, met at the home of Mrs. Sarah Haas on Rucker in Plymouth for election of officers. As president Mrs. Betty Sincok will take the gavel. Serving as vice president will be Mrs. Shirley Harrison, secretary Mrs. Reva Barber, treasurer, Mrs. Wanda Sutherland. Appointed as social chairman was Mrs. Mary Fritz, and public relations, Mrs. Wilma Newton.

Attending the United Northwestern Realty Association dinner at the Mayflower Meeting House was Kathy Crawford from the Observer Newspapers. Kathy and her husband Hugh enjoyed the evening's entertainment with Bud Guest highlighting the program.

GLANCING AROUND the tables at the Sheltered Work Shop benefit dinner on Wednesday, one could not help but notice the exquisite flower arrangements. Always assisting in community events are Garden Club members who really outdid themselves on the artificial arrangements which were later sold.

Plymouth's National Farm and Garden, Lake Pointe Club, the Mayflower Ladies, and Livonia Branch of Farm and Garden were the donors.

It's farewell to the Kuglins of Shadywood, as the neighbors plan the gathering at the Mary and Ray Davis home! Phillis and Don Kuglin are now anticipating a move to Grand Blanc and the new Montgomery Ward store in Flint he will manage.

Reception for Sister Christine from Our Lady of Good Counsel is scheduled for June 5 between 5 and 7 p.m. for adults and her former high school students. Sister Christine will be departing from Plymouth to Lansing where she has been assigned to the Office of Education as Director of the Reading and Language Arts Program for the Diocese.

Bentley High Seniors Honored for Music
Ronald Turner, 14362 Brentwood Drive, a senior at Bentley High School in Livonia, was chosen as a member of the violin section in the Honors Orchestra of the recent Michigan Youth Arts Festival at Interlochen.

A student had to earn a I rating in proficiency III (most difficult competition at the State Festival) to be considered as a possible member of the group. Admission to the orchestra was by invitation only.

Ronald received further state-wide honors by being the only student from this region selected to be a participant in the vocal contest for the Festival and was rated as a top baritone finalist.

The Michigan Youth Arts Festival is an assembly of youth from throughout the state, meeting for the purpose of displaying their accomplishments in all phases of the arts.

Plymouth Woman Is Honored

Mrs. Virginia McIlhargie, of 550 Jener, Plymouth, has been elected moderator of the Advisory Council of the Plymouth State Home and Training School Auxiliary which recently celebrated its fifth birthday.

Other officers are: Secretary Ruth Miles, Treasurer Sis Meredith, both of Plymouth and Board members Carole Snell and Kit Anderson of Farmington and Virginia Brenneman of Plymouth.

Dr. Homer Weir, new medical superintendent, gave a welcoming address at the anniversary meeting at which nine members were honored for five years of service.

Socially Speaking Around Plymouth

By Dorothy Sincok GL 3-0038 (Call to report social events in your family, neighborhood)

Interesting and exciting was the time spent at Pease Paint and Wallpaper Shop on Tuesday evening, stated Mrs. Richard Banks. A group of 12 members of the Newcomers Club, all interested in antiques were delighted to observe Howard Green demonstrate the art of refinishing.

An old radio cabinet was carefully stripped down to the beauty of the wood piece and the process of conditioning it to a piece of distinction was made evident.

Green has many groups interested in the art of do-it-yourself projects including paper hanging where a demonstration on one wall will prove Madam can do her own decorating ideas if she really puts her mind to it.

The sixth annual Detroit Free Press Photo Show will open June 3 for a one-week stay at the concourse of Westland Center.

An international color showing of "The World and Its People" will highlight the exhibit. Another feature of the exhibit will be 30 color photographs of picturesque Oaxaca, Mexico. The Spanish colonial atmosphere of this little city is shown vividly in these color shots. These 11 by 14 pictures are mounted, and in the corner will be the original photos showing cropping.

Viewers will also be interested in what the high school photographers are doing today. Forty of the 1965 scholastic winners will be shown, both in black and white and color.

For those interested in entering the Free Press Snapshot Contest, which begins June 15 and runs for seven weeks, last year's winning pictures will be on exhibit.

The best news photos of Free Press photographers will be shown. Chief photographer Tony Spina will have three exhibits—his winners from the Detroit Press Club Foundation Contest, the closing of the Ecumenical Council, and the Good Ship Hope on its Nicaraguan trip.

The show is co-sponsored by the Free Press and the Westland Center Merchants Association, and will run through June 11.

Vets Offered Rank in A.F.

Former servicemen in Garden City may enlist in the Air Force and retain their former rank in a new program announced this week by Sgt. Daniel Schingek, A.F. recruiter for the community.

Sgt. Schingek pointed out that the new program offers former servicemen the chance to retain their former rank in the Air Force even though they may have been out of uniform for a period up to two years.

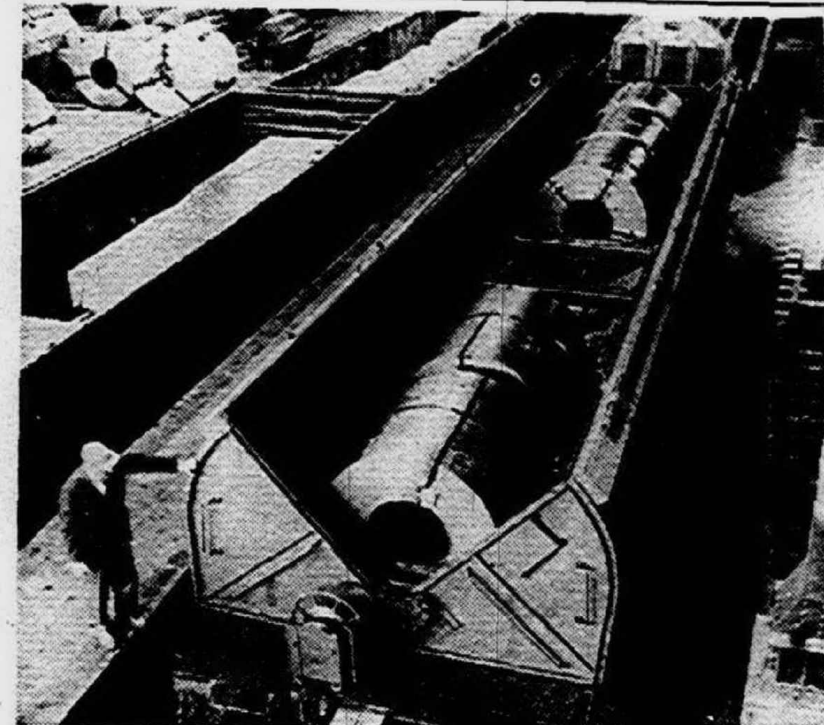

"The new program," the recruiter said, "also allows those veterans an equitable rank if they have been discharged for as long as four years. Previously, the limit was three years.

"Prior servicemen from any branch of the service are eligible and they have a base of choice or area, provided there is a vacancy. Prior servicemen may also enlist, and immediately get a 30-day paid vacation prior to reporting to their new duty station."

Sgt. Schingek pointed out that the current needs of the Air Force make it necessary to call upon those people who have experience and training of certain skills.

Further information on the program, which goes into effect June 30, may be obtained from Sgt. Schingek at 6228 Middlebelt Road, Garden City, or by calling him at 425-5858.

OPEN SESAME! New "breadbox" car is shown in fully opened position with load of coiled steel. Continuous trough permits heavier loadings and greater flexibility for shippers. Fifty of these revolutionary cars were ordered by Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad, an affiliate of the New York Central System, at a cost of $1.2 million.

New "Breadbox" Car Proves Boom To Evans Plant

Business continues to boom for the Railway Car division of Evans Products with the latest announcement of an order of more than $4.5 million from the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad for 200 specially equipped coiled steel cars.

Coinciding with the order, Evans officials announced that the company will begin the first production of coiled steel cars with permanently attached hoods.

The new type cars are equipped with two lift-off hoods, covering two 28-foot troughs, giving available loading space per car to 52 feet in length. Aside from the increased capacity, the new steel coil car is similar to several of the Evans DFC steel cars which have been built for the C & O-B & O, the Grand Trunk Western, the Norfolk & Western and the New York Central Railroads.

A total of 150 of the cars ordered by the P & LE are 52-foot, 125-ton cars equipped with the lift-off hoods. The remaining 50 are of the integral or permanently attached hood variety.

Both types will have a 50-foot clear loading trough. Both types will also be equipped with Hydra-Cushion underframes and Evans special adjustable cross-members.

Officials of the P & LE describe the new type car as a "new generation" of rail cars to serve the steel industry and receivers of coiled steel.

The cars have been dubbed "breadbox" cars and according to Curtis Buford, P & LE president, represent the "first major advance in rail coil cars in 10 years."

Buford revealed that the 125-ton capacity cars are the result of five years of continuous study by Evans Products and the New

Senior Citizens Enjoy Holland Tulip Festival

Members of the Plymouth Senior Citizens Club enjoyed the Soroptimist Club party on May 11 despite the heavy rainfall that day.

The May 13 trip to the Holland Tulip Festival was highlighted by thousands of school children parading in Dutch costumes portraying Holland.

More than 100 club members attended the annual get-together at Roma Hall on May 18. The Plymouth "Harmoni Kittens" were one of the features of the program.

The men will preside over the June meetings. Walter Becker will serve as chairman assisted by the following committee: Glen Birkhold, Harry Brown, Grant Camphausen, Oral Rathbun and Paul Bowling.

The June business meeting is slated for June 2.

Civil Rights Are Fine --But Not Next Door

William McColeman, seeking the Redford Township Supervisor's post, is trying to burn the candle on both ends in his statement last week concerning civil rights.

McColeman, in discussing the emotional problem of Negroes moving into white suburban communities, said that he "understands the right of the Negro to reside anywhere he pleases, but the Negro himself hesitates because of his understanding of the violence that might result."

The candidate, who points out that he is a law enforcement officer, acknowledges the legal aspect which allows integration but quickly commented in the same sentence of his statement that he is against forced integration.

His apparent purpose is to combine in one neat sentence some platitudes which will appeal to the white residents of the community while avoiding the embarrassing plight of urging violation of the state and federal constitutions.

However, he has offended this writer's sense of justice for two reasons. One is his apparent desire to please both ends of the civil rights controversy without really making a clear-cut statement on what he means. The other is his comment concerning his desire for a "little bit" of integration but not too much to offend the white neighbors.

As most white suburbanites know by now, civil rights are fine -- but not next door. Like airports, freeways, factories (which spread the community's tax base), everyone wants them -- but not next door. "Put them over in the next subdivision (or next city, or next county) -- why put it in our neighborhood?" they ask.

However, they are beginning to learn that they can't have everything their way and some people "just will not stay in their places."

McColeman, like most other white suburbanites, appears to want a "little integration" to show everyone that he is open minded, fair, and not prejudiced. But he is showing his true colors (no pun intended) in his public statement.

Freedom, like purity, isn't an "almost" type of thing in America. Either I am free or I am not. I am free to join or not to join any church of my choice. I am free to accept or deny any type of employment of my choice. I am free to attend any college of my choice, with money and academic records being the only factors standing in my way. I am free to buy property and live in a home in any community of my choice, with only money and personal taste (ranch style home versus tri-level) being the only considerations.

If I am free to enjoy the benefits of American citizenship, then everyone else in America is also free to enjoy those same benefits. If just one person is legally prevented from taking part in our society, then I am not free, either.

Property rights, in the area of buying and selling homes, are not limited to white persons only. If the minority of 10 per cent is not allowed these same fruits of freedom, then something is wrong.

The citizens of Redford Township "only wish to live in a peaceful and orderly society," McColeman said in his statement.

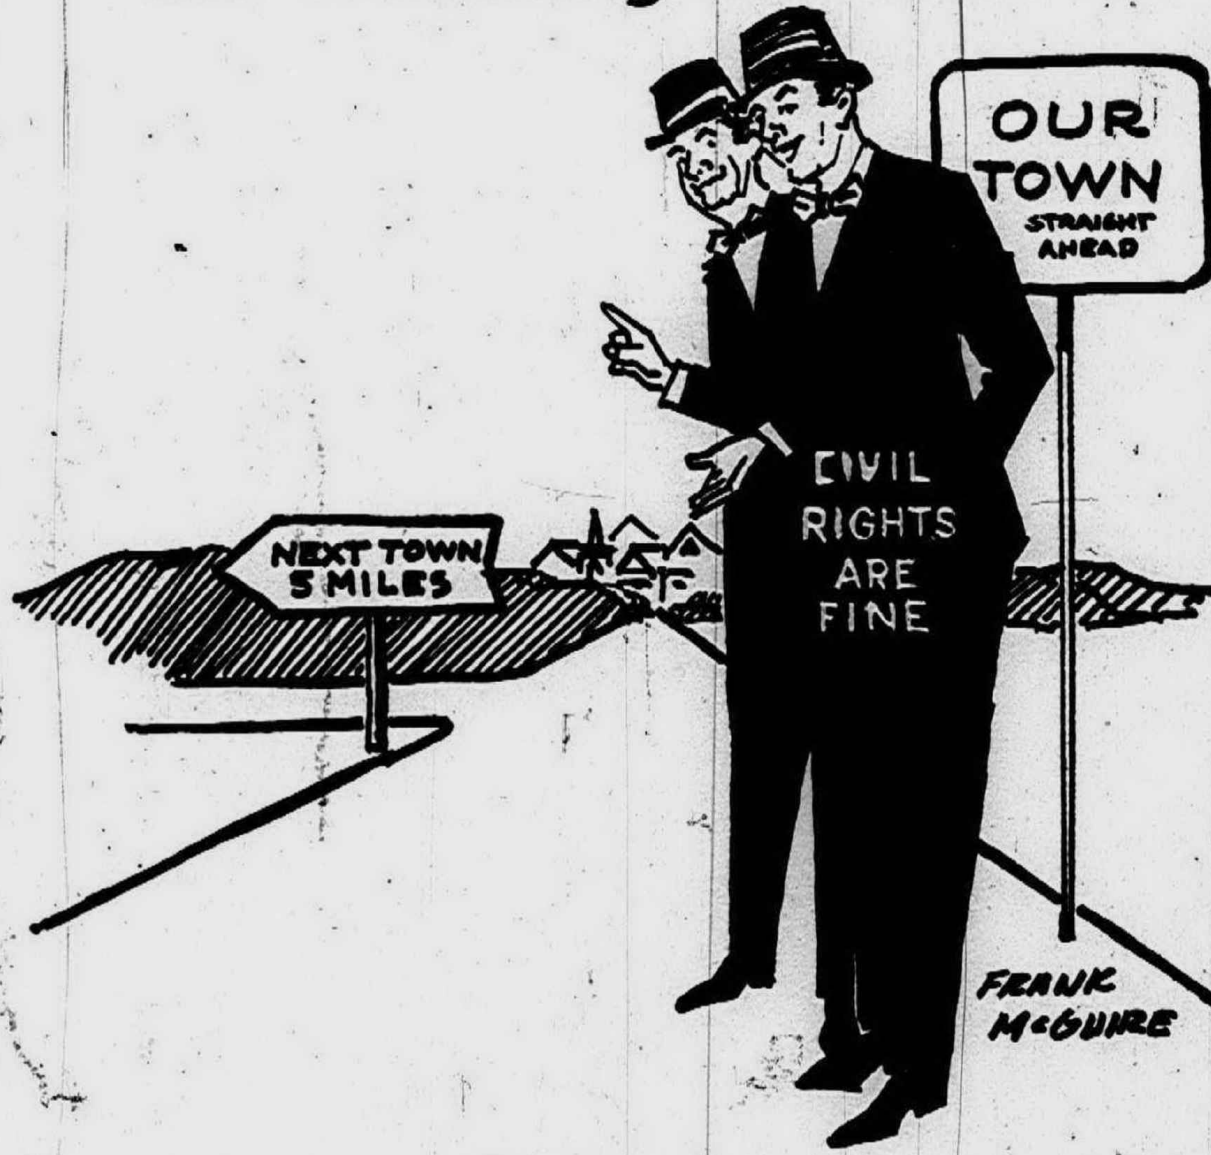

You can say the same thing of Negro doctors, dentists, lawyers, and teachers, who may want to move out of their rat-infested apartments in what is politely called Detroit's "Inner City" to a neighborhood which offers their children a better life -- including an improved atmosphere, quality schools, and a chance to make the most of their talents.

Redford Township, or any other suburb, can't put up a wall and let in only those who pass the color test.

The whole thing boils down to the simple fact that Negroes only want the same right of choice that Mr. McColeman and the rest of township residents already have.

THE READER SPEAKS UP:

On Farmington Incorporation

Editor:

During recent weeks a number of desparaging remarks have been made at public meetings and in printed matter to the effect that the Pre-Incorporation Study Committee was not objective, and was "packed" with people who from the outset, were highly biased in favor of incorporation of the Township. For the record, I wish to relate my personal experience on this subject.

Last December when I was approached about serving on the Study Committee, no one in any way asked what my feelings were on the matter. Had they asked me, they would have received an emphatic "I'm against it." I had opposed incorporation in 1958 and nothing had occurred, as far as I was concerned, to change my mind since that time. However, I decided that I really ought to be completely fair and objective, and after much deliberation, I decided to accept the appointment. After all, it would be an excellent way to learn all the "pros" and "cons" on the issue first hand so that I could make an intelligent decision.

While I believe every member of the Committee should speak for himself on this, there certainly was no indication to me in our early meetings that there was any degree of bias in most of our members. I felt we were completely objective in every phase of our operations. As the facts unfolded and the advantages of incorporation became so crystal clear, I could not help but reverse my "pre-conceived" feeling on the matter. In all fairness to the residents of the Township, as well as to myself, I have concluded that incorporation is, by far, in the best interests of the great majority of Township residents!

I think it should be remembered that our Committee held six public meetings during which it actively solicited both positive and negative factors on the incorporation question. We wanted to be sure we overlooked nothing. When real negative factors could not be found, even by certain people who had opposed the move from its very inception, these people resorted to questioning motives of certain Township officials and attacking personalities.

This is inevitably the course such people take when they have nothing concrete on which to rest their case. They merely oppose incorporation (and progress) for the sake of being negative. This fact became very clear in an early publication of the opposition group which some of them joined, stating "Unlike the promoters of incorporation, we will not pretend to be objective. We stand to lose too much."

The lack of objectivity of the group continues to be very evident. Their recent publications are packed with half truths and completely false statements, only intended to distort the issue and confuse the voter. But I continue to believe that the voters of Farmington Township will see through these tactics, and will cast their ballots only after making decisions based on facts, not falsehoods or emotions.

I am proud to have been a member of the Pre-Incorporation Study Committee, for I believe we have done an honest, forthright job in presenting the issue to the public!

Wants Incorporation

Editor: The Preservation of Farmington Township makes pretty talk, but will someone please tell me who can guarantee that Farmington Township can be preserved?

All it will take for our Township to be nipped off bit by bit is a little juicy bribe for some of the choice tidbits and then watch our taxes soar!

Who is going to stop this happening if we don't get together and incorporate?

MRS. HELEN OESTREICH, Farmington.

An Answer to a Mayor

Open letter to Livonia Mayor Harvey W. Moelke

Mr. Mayor, may I extend to you my appreciation for your prompt reply to my letter of May 6th. I stand corrected concerning my assertion that taxpayers in the Westland portion of the Livonia School District pay no less. Perhaps you will concede however, that we do contribute an extremely substantial amount nonetheless and that we do support our schools; note the precincts which passed the recent school millage issue.

You state in your letter that you urge my neighbors and myself to work toward assuming our rightful responsibility and form a school district for the city of Westland. Surely, in your position as Mayor you are aware of the unbelievably complicated processes involved in such a move. First the boundaries of the City of Westland encompass parts of eight separate school districts. In order to incorporate these portions, the City would need petitions from each district containing the signatures of 2/3 of the eligible voters from each district. Once this monumental task was completed, presuming of course that each district would comply, these petitions must be presented to the Wayne County Intermediate School District Board for approval. At the present time, approval would not be readily obtained. A complete study would have to be made as to the advantages or disadvantages of such a move to all involved districts.

One glaring example of a disadvantage concerns a school located on the boundary line of Westland and serving the Wayne Community School District. To separate the school district coterminous with the city of Westland would be a great hardship both to Wayne and to Westland, involving the building of a new school for Westland and leaving the city of Wayne with surplus school facilities. Second: as responsible parents we feel strongly that we owe our children the best education available so that they may one day contribute intelligently to the community. We feel that Livonia schools have consistently maintained an outstanding level of education and we have no desire to voluntarily separate ourselves at present.

Third: we have just approved 5 mills for our schools. This millage has been levied for a period of 10 years. Should we form a school district within this period we are still liable for this indebtedness. To place in a position where we would have to levy millage for new schools and at the same time continue paying 5 mills to the Livonia schools just wouldn't make sense--good, common or horse!

You ask too, Mr. Moelke, what has been done to reduce the school load and mentioned the poor planning of my area. True, we live in an area overrun with problems. However, my city officials are not sitting back wringing their hands and blaming others.

Instead they have contracted professional city planners, the new charter created a city planning position and a master plan has been drawn. Although there is little available land in my area the city officials are zoning this land to its greatest potential. After long study they found the land could not be zoned industrial as industry needs room for expansion and existing property is not adequate; too, most available land is adjacent to residential areas and homeowners do not wish to have lower property values or the traffic, noise, etc. generally associated with factory buildings.

Single family dwellings were considered but available property is located on main thoroughfares and FHA is most reluctant to approve homes on public streets as the heavy traffic is a hazard to children and such property does not sell. Therefore, most available property has been zoned largely for apartment buildings. The most frequent objection to this zoning is that large number of children will move into a small area and the taxes paid are not enough to support these children. This just hasn't proven. The London Town Houses for example paid nearly $48,000 in school taxes last year for a total of 90 children or approximately $500 per child.

Since the above complex was built the city officials have revised the zoning laws and they have been restricted to the extent that apartments are now limited in size to 1 and 2 bedrooms for the prime purpose of discouraging a large number of children! The Riverbend apartments have about 130 or a total of 160 completed and rented. Only one child is living there at present. Perhaps this zoning is not ideal but it is an example of the effort my officials are exerting to overcome past error and to build for the future.

I've learned a great deal during the past few weeks and among this information is the fact that under Michigan law, school districts are entirely separate and self-governing units regardless of any city boundaries they may happen to encompass. Therefore you and I have an equal voice where the Livonia school district is concerned Mr. Moelke -- one vote!

As it is not feasible within the near future to establish a Westland School District, you and I must of necessity continue to share the Livonia Schools for some time to come. Isn't it possible then for us to use our energies in amore constructive manner? Isn't it possible for you and I to use our time and intelligence in a positive way -- to work for better understanding and cooperation between the City of Livonia and the school district? And, in promoting this cooperation and working together, isn't it just possible that the end result will be better education to the advantage of your children and mine? I wonder!!

MRS. H. L. SCHANSTRA, Garden City

Defends Noe

Editor: This is in regards to the James C. Takacs letter that appeared in your paper recently. Unlike you, Mr. Takacs, I do not feel that Mr. Noe's column represents a vendetta but an objective view of the current administration. As for personal grudges, could your letter have been inspired by the fact that your wife is currently employed as the mayor's secretary. ALLEN CHILDS, Garden City

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

Some of my best friends will take issue with me this week, but it is always a good way to separate a friend from an acquaintance. By coming up with an opposite view point often you are never again invited to break bread with them.

Let us discuss the "in" people. If you are "in" you sail, of course, jet-about, have a swimming pool, or access to one, ski--both water and snow--have at least one Mrs. Miller recording and think it's terrible chic to patio-entertain.

Also you are conservative this season. Also, you would much prefer a Grosse Pointe address next to a bona fide gangster, rather than live next door to a negro in any, but any, other community.

Fortunately there are groups of people in every community in our area who disagree with this attitude. They are not all young, idealistic students; they are not kooks, or rabble-rousers. They are the backbone of our communities. They are librarians, teachers, business men and women, homemakers, and clergymen.

Many of them I know personally and of the harassment they suffer.

Their demeanor is calm. They maintain their humor. Do you know why? They are educated people. Do you know for the most part their tormentors are uneducated, ignorant people.

Oh, there are many that disagree with the Human Relations Groups in all communities, but they do so within the confines of their own home, among their family and friends and this is within their rights. They do not stoop to late-at-night phone-calls, and cause trouble for this group in their work and for their children in their schools.

These are deplorable belligerent people--and what is more they travel under the banner of 'self-righteousness'--only building a stronger America for the white people, they think.

It is not to these people I appeal--nothing can change them. It is to many that I have traveled the same road with in politics, in fun and in working, that have taken a violent stand against living near negro people--to these I appeal.

Maybe I am over-simplifying, but to me a person should be judged, should he move next door to you, only if he can afford to keep up the standards of your neighborhood. On an economic basis, education will qualify people to better standards of living.

Where there is lack of education, emotion takes over. Hysteria instead of reason.

Until we are willing to give GOOD education to the least of us, we will not have peace among the best of us. Less than peace, we will be fighting the bloodiest war ever known to this country.

Welcome For Dinner

Editor: "Amen" to Mrs. Gillespie's letter, however, I believe she underdescribed our living conditions in Kemberton Park. I am her daughter who lives across the street.

I like to think my home is one of the nicer ones and well kept inside and out. But the original owner of the home built the utility room over the septic tank, consequently the lid of the tank opens into the utility room. I can't understand how this passed inspection. Approximately three years ago I had a new field line installed, thinking this was the drainage problem. It cost me $300 to find out it didn't help one bit. I cannot even get a man to install a new septic tank. They have advised me against this.

We have to be careful not to run much water or it overflows into the utility room. Can you imagine how discouraging it is to have this terrible odor in your house. When it rains, it just flows steady through the room and out the door. I do my best to prevent germs by continually washing the floor with lysol, but it's only a temporary precaution.

I am extending an open invitation to any one of the township officers, to come to my house for dinner some rainy evening, this much more effective. I don't believe I'd have to make any more phone calls.

With kindest regards, MRS. BEVERLY J. WIESNER, Farmington.

Education Key To Survival

(Address of Congressman Billie S. Farnum to the graduating class of Madonna College)

It is a thrilling experience for me to take part in your college graduation ceremony. This is not a statement I make lightly. I am not an old politician, wearily accepting a long list of graduation addresses, not a public servant who warily eyes yet another invitation to speak before the spring baccalaureates. No, this is not the case with me. I never had the pleasure of this ceremony in my youth. That is why it is so genuinely moving for me to be here today.

I graduated from high school directly into the Great Depression, days that seem like ancient history today, but which cut the heart out of millions of Americans and which steered the course of many of our lives, because of the famine it carried in its wake. College was too dear a luxury for me, with nine younger brothers and sisters, so I began quite another form of education. The Civilian Conservation Camp. The C.C.C. was the brain child of a compassionate president, who saw great need among the people and set these youth-opportunity centers up throughout the land.

Those classes were my spring board into public service, but they were not the same formal degree you have received here today from Madonna College. For that formal degree I have been an outsider. However, an insight is sometimes given the interested "but involved" observer, that is not allowed to a partaker, dazzled by a multitude of detail. Let me talk to you today, as this interested observer. Let me talk to you about a revolution.

The word "revolution" is greatly overworked. It is applied to everything, from our country's war for independence, to the latest in women's styles. We speak of the French Revolution and the revolution in this year's car model, as easily as we talk about the revolution in architecture, or the so-called revolution in art. And yet I know of no better way to describe what is happening today, in the schooling of our citizens, than an EDUCATIONAL revolution.

Here, today, in this auditorium, I believe we are experiencing an incident in an unfolding story that promises results more spectacular than the world ever before has known; or even dared dream of. This may be the most important happening in all of human history.

Dog Owners Abuse Rights

Editor:

There is a very big problem in our community. The dog problem. I wonder how many calls a day plead, without success, with the City and township officials to eliminate this annoying, filthy and dangerous problem. There must be something wrong with our officials if they cannot take care of this problem.

A stiff fine must be slapped on the dog's owners to bail out the caught dogs, and they would tie them up as fast as they can. The area should be patrolled and every loose dog should be caught. I mean every loose dog, not just one or two, should be caught and the owner should be fined, say about $10.

or maybe the officials do not think that to live by the law is right. Maybe they think that people who do not have dogs also have no rights.

I am writing this with the hope that you are not afraid to print it.

Students Skip Classes

By DEBBIE LUSKY
Yesterday was the official Senior Skip Day. Many of the class members were in the midst of their boat cruise to Mackinac Island.

The Honors Assembly will be held during sixth hour tomorrow. The various academic departments will honor outstanding seniors for their superior interest and achievement in specific subjects throughout their high school careers. Other awards and recognition will be given for various academic and extracurricular accomplishments.

A group of students, sponsored by Mr. Bill Bupp and Miss Patricia Moore, will attend a performance of Thornton Wilder's "The Skin of Our Teeth" at the Hilberry Classic Theater tomorrow night.

The Senior Prom will be held from 9-11 at Lovett Hall, Greenfield Village, this Saturday evening.

From 7:30-9:30 p.m. on June 6, the Y-Teens will present their annual Senior Farewell in the cafeteria.

Caps and gowns will be distributed in the gym after school next Wednesday.

Senior Class Honored at Farewell Assembly

By MARGARET RUDLAFF
Climaxing three years of hard work, the senior class of Plymouth High was honored at the Senior farewell assembly on May 28.

Several individual members were also honored including Mary Ann Sisco and Rhea Fluckey, receiving certificates for their work on the annual staff; Margaret Rudlaff and Judi King, receiving honor keys in journalism; Mary Fink and Rick Jones, receiving honor keys in science; Robin Wideman receiving the honor key in orchestra; Mary Ann Sisco receiving the honor key in vocal music.

Mary Arnold receiving honor keys for her work in forensics, dramatics and regular English, also receiving the Panhellenic Award; Ron Jones receiving the honor key for band; Steve Ott earned a key in dramatics, as a certificate of merit from the Southwestern Michigan Scholastic Writing Awards; Rowena Innes receiving one of the honor keys in German; and Judi King and Rowena receiving honor keys in Spanish.

Kay Zoet receiving honor keys in social studies, physical education, accelerated English and German; Mary Fink receiving the honor key in math; Dave Dirlam receiving the honor key in athletics; Belinda Pate receiving the GAA honor key; Mary Ronk receiving the honor key in home economics and Sue Young receiving the honor key in homemaking.

Torb Guenther receiving the honor key in art; Tom Chandler receiving the honor key in history; Dennis Cunningham and Rick Sabo receiving the honor keys in drafting; Tom Paschal receiving the honor key in occupational training and Ron Spaniol receiving the honor key in electronics; John Shepherd receiving the honor key in automotive shop.

Best Citizen awards were presented to Tom Chandler and Mary Theeke by the DAR, Mary also, along with Janet Marshall receiving the Michigan Press Association awards. Bob McCall was presented with a dictionary by the PEO.

Highlighting this year's Senior Farewell Assembly was the presentation of a plaque by the

Bentley High Band Marches in Local Memorial Day Parade

By SUE DOWELL
Bentley always keeps in step with the holidays and Memorial Day was no exception. Bentley's band represented the school in the parade on Plymouth Road. It marched from Sheldon Center to Wonderland Shopping area.

Traditionally, Bentley has been marching in this parade for many years. This was the first year the band wore the new marching uniforms.

Martha Scharenburg, Tom Drummond, Shirley Daniels, Nancy Stouder, and Janisse Appelblatt are only a few of the many talented students belonging to the band. It is a pleasant policy at Bentley to recognize students who deserve to be recognized. This was done on May 25, at the annual Honor Night.

Some of the top highlights were the announcements of Brian Lucas and Anne Friedrichs as Outstanding Senior Boy and Outstanding Senior Girl.

This year Bentley has two salutatorians in Lynn Hill and Christine Sjeoff. Pontiac Lake will be swarming with Bentley singers Saturday. It is that time of year when the vocal department holds its annual picnic.

Over 500 in the vocal music department are expected to enjoy themselves by spending an afternoon with friends. The vocal department is under the direction of Jerry Smith and Robert Ballard.

Summer is just around the corner. That means that L.Y.I. is not far away. Every summer Livonia Youth Incorporated put on activities for Livonia High School students.

This summer the program at Bentley will consist of various entertainment. There will be dances every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, in the Multipurpose room at the school.

At least one night of the week will be open for free swimming. In the gym, students will be given the opportunity to play volleyball and basketball. The tennis courts will be open. Table tennis also is a favorite past time.

Be sure to be among the first to get a membership card that lasts the whole summer. Everyone like to remember school days. One of the best ways is by having a yearbook.

This Friday the 1965-66 Pioneer will be distributed to Bentley students who purchased them earlier in the year. It is made up by the students who are in a special class to work only on the Pioneer.

Spring Musical Packs House at Cville

By TONY HEAD
The annual spring musical at Clarenceville was a success. People jammed into the Junior High Auditorium on May 25, 26 and 27 to see "Oklahoma." While the play was contributed to by its excellent stage crew, the cast was terrific.

Leading members were: Bev Slynik, George Quaselle, Debbie Johnson, Lewis Jemines, Jerry Firestone and Fred Albert.

Congratulations to the entire cast and crew and to Steve Vujec. Besides its regular evening shows the musical was presented to the Junior and Senior High Schools. The performance received a standing ovation from the entire student body.

The Clarenceville High School Band, under the direction of John Nezek was asked to perform on May 4 along with the Junior High Band, under the direction of Ted Malaris at the dinner held for retiring school Superintendent Louis Schmidt.

The band gave an exceptional performance and received a standing ovation. This coming Saturday, June 4, will be a festive occasion as the annual Junior-Senior Prom is held. As is traditional at Clarenceville, the Junior class is sponsoring and preparing the prom.

The prom will be held in the balcony section of the High School Gymnasium. The Junior class has worked hard and long on the decorations and planning of the prom. It is sure to be an enjoyable evening for all concerned.

Ladywood Hosts Annual Field Day

By LOUISE GILLIS
Ladywood's annual Field Day was held on May 28. The girls came to school at the usual time, changed into sports clothes, and spent the entire day outside. There was softball and volleyball games. There were relay races and constant refreshments were available.

The day ended with a hootenanny with some girls showing their musical talents. The results of the games played during the morning were also announced. The seniors took the softball championship from the sophomores who were in second place.

The sophomores won the volleyball title. There were also relay races and the winners of these races were scattered among the seniors, the juniors, and the freshman.

The salutatorian and valedictorian were named last week. The girls were Kathleen Begnoche and Helen Wojtowicz.

The students were invited to attend a final Parent-Teachers Meeting and procession honoring the Blessed Mother. Following this Charles Gregory of Roseville entertained with his strange variety of musical instruments.

He also had a group of children who sang and danced for the audience. There was a business meeting, presentation of awards, and finally refreshments for the entire group.

The seniors of the Model UN Club are writing their charter so that they may enter the Student Council. These girls are Cynthia Sweda, Kathy Michaels, and Pat Gillis.

Council, Class Officers Elected by Students

By JEAN ANN MANGOLD. Student Council elections for Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer found nine names on the ballot. Patrick Timmons, John Bolton and William Schmaus for Vice-President; Mary Jane Huhn, Carolyn Brazzil and Barbara Arcand for Secretary; and finally Julianna Carolan, Paula Dow and Rita Nadolny for Treasurer.

Pat Timmons, elected for Vice-President, is a member of the basketball team, the Young Christian Students, the Junior Classical League, and president of his Sophomore Class.

The new Secretary, Mary Jane is a member of the girls varsity baseball team, an officer in the Junior Sodality and a participant in the "Genesian" interpretive reading contest.

Julianna Carolan, elected Treasurer is a first string catcher on the girls softball team, and active in the Sodality.

Class elections held this week were also confused with ties and the lack of a majority vote, but at last the classes have decided on Class-Presidents for the 1966-67 school year.

Next year's Senior class President will be Thomas Flamboe. Tom was nominated for Student Council President, is a member of the varsity basketball and football teams and participated in both the "Genesian" and "Michigan High School Forensics" reading contests.

The upcoming Juniors elected James Howell. Jim is a Y.C.S. member, played both Junior Varsity basketball and football and is a member of the J. C.L.

Next year's Sophomore Class will be lead by Michael Brown, who was this year's vice-president, a member of the Junior Varsity Football team and a Y.C.S. member.

For the first time the Junior-Senior Dinner Dance was held away from school. The Juniors secured the use of Bonnie Brook Country Club for the occasion.

A compulsory activity, all Seniors and Juniors attending, the girls wore semi-formals and the boys in suits. The Junior artists had decorated the hall with palm trees and murals of Hawaiian Islands.

Dinner, buffet style, was prepared by the Bonnie Brook chefs and during the meal Mary Cooney and Judith Collins read the class will, in which each departing Senior left to the Junior of their choice a "cherished possession," with the hilarious consequences. The class prophecy, in play form was read by Janet Parent, Sue Beth Quaine and Gregory Brower.

Following the dinner the students danced to the beat of the "New Generation" until 11:30. The following day the Juniors and Seniors met at Cass Lake for their yearly picnic. The students enjoyed swimming, boating, baseball and food the entire day.

Saturday morning found the Sophomore Latin II students boarding a chartered bus in front of the school. Their destination? The University of Michigan. Their purpose? To take part in the all state Junior Classical League convention.

Upon their arrival the students and their Latin teacher Sister Mary Alban, were met by signs and banners, the product of young politicians as they campaigned for office in the J.C.L.

Teens Slate Area Dance at Franklin

By ANN OPLAND. Friday night, June 3, the Franklin cafeteria will be the scene of a Teen Dance, open to both Franklin and Bentley High School Students and their guests. The dance is being sponsored by the Livonia Lions Club with all proceeds going to the American Field Service.

Two bands, "Four of a Kind" and the "Nightriders," will perform. The dance will be from 8 to 11 p.m., and admission will be 75 cents per person. Tickets can be obtained from any A.F.S. student. A similar dance will be held at Bentley on Saturday night.

A Moods in Music Concert was presented to the public last Friday evening, May 27, by six Franklin students. This was the first time so few students had put together and successfully produced such a program.

The six boys were juniors John Katalenic and Bill Koch, and seniors Don Camplon, Rick Hardacre, Rick Plester, and Bob Zink.

A few selections in the jazz concert included "Exodus," "Ebb Tide," "Misty," and "The Days of Wine and Roses." The musical instruments which accompanied or performed the selections were the drums, alto sax, bass, accordion, and piano.

Elected officers for next year's Junior Class Council are these sophomores: President, Jeff Trick; Vice President, Jackie Hawkins; Secretary, Paula Luttinen; and Treasurer, Jan Delany.

Elected officers for the Senior Class Council are these juniors: President, Gary Greening; Vice President, Wendy Wilhelmsen; Secretary, Bill Miller; and Treasurer, Carlee Stewner.

College Eyed by Thurston Junior Class

By LYNN BARNETT. Juniors' College Night was held on May 25, in the band room. The panel consisted of representatives from the four major types of schools; large public university, private liberal arts school, smaller public university, and a community college.

The program covered financial aid, college costs, entrance requirements, academic programs, and the unique characteristics of each type of school were explained. There was also an opportunity for the panel to answer questions asked by the students and the parents.

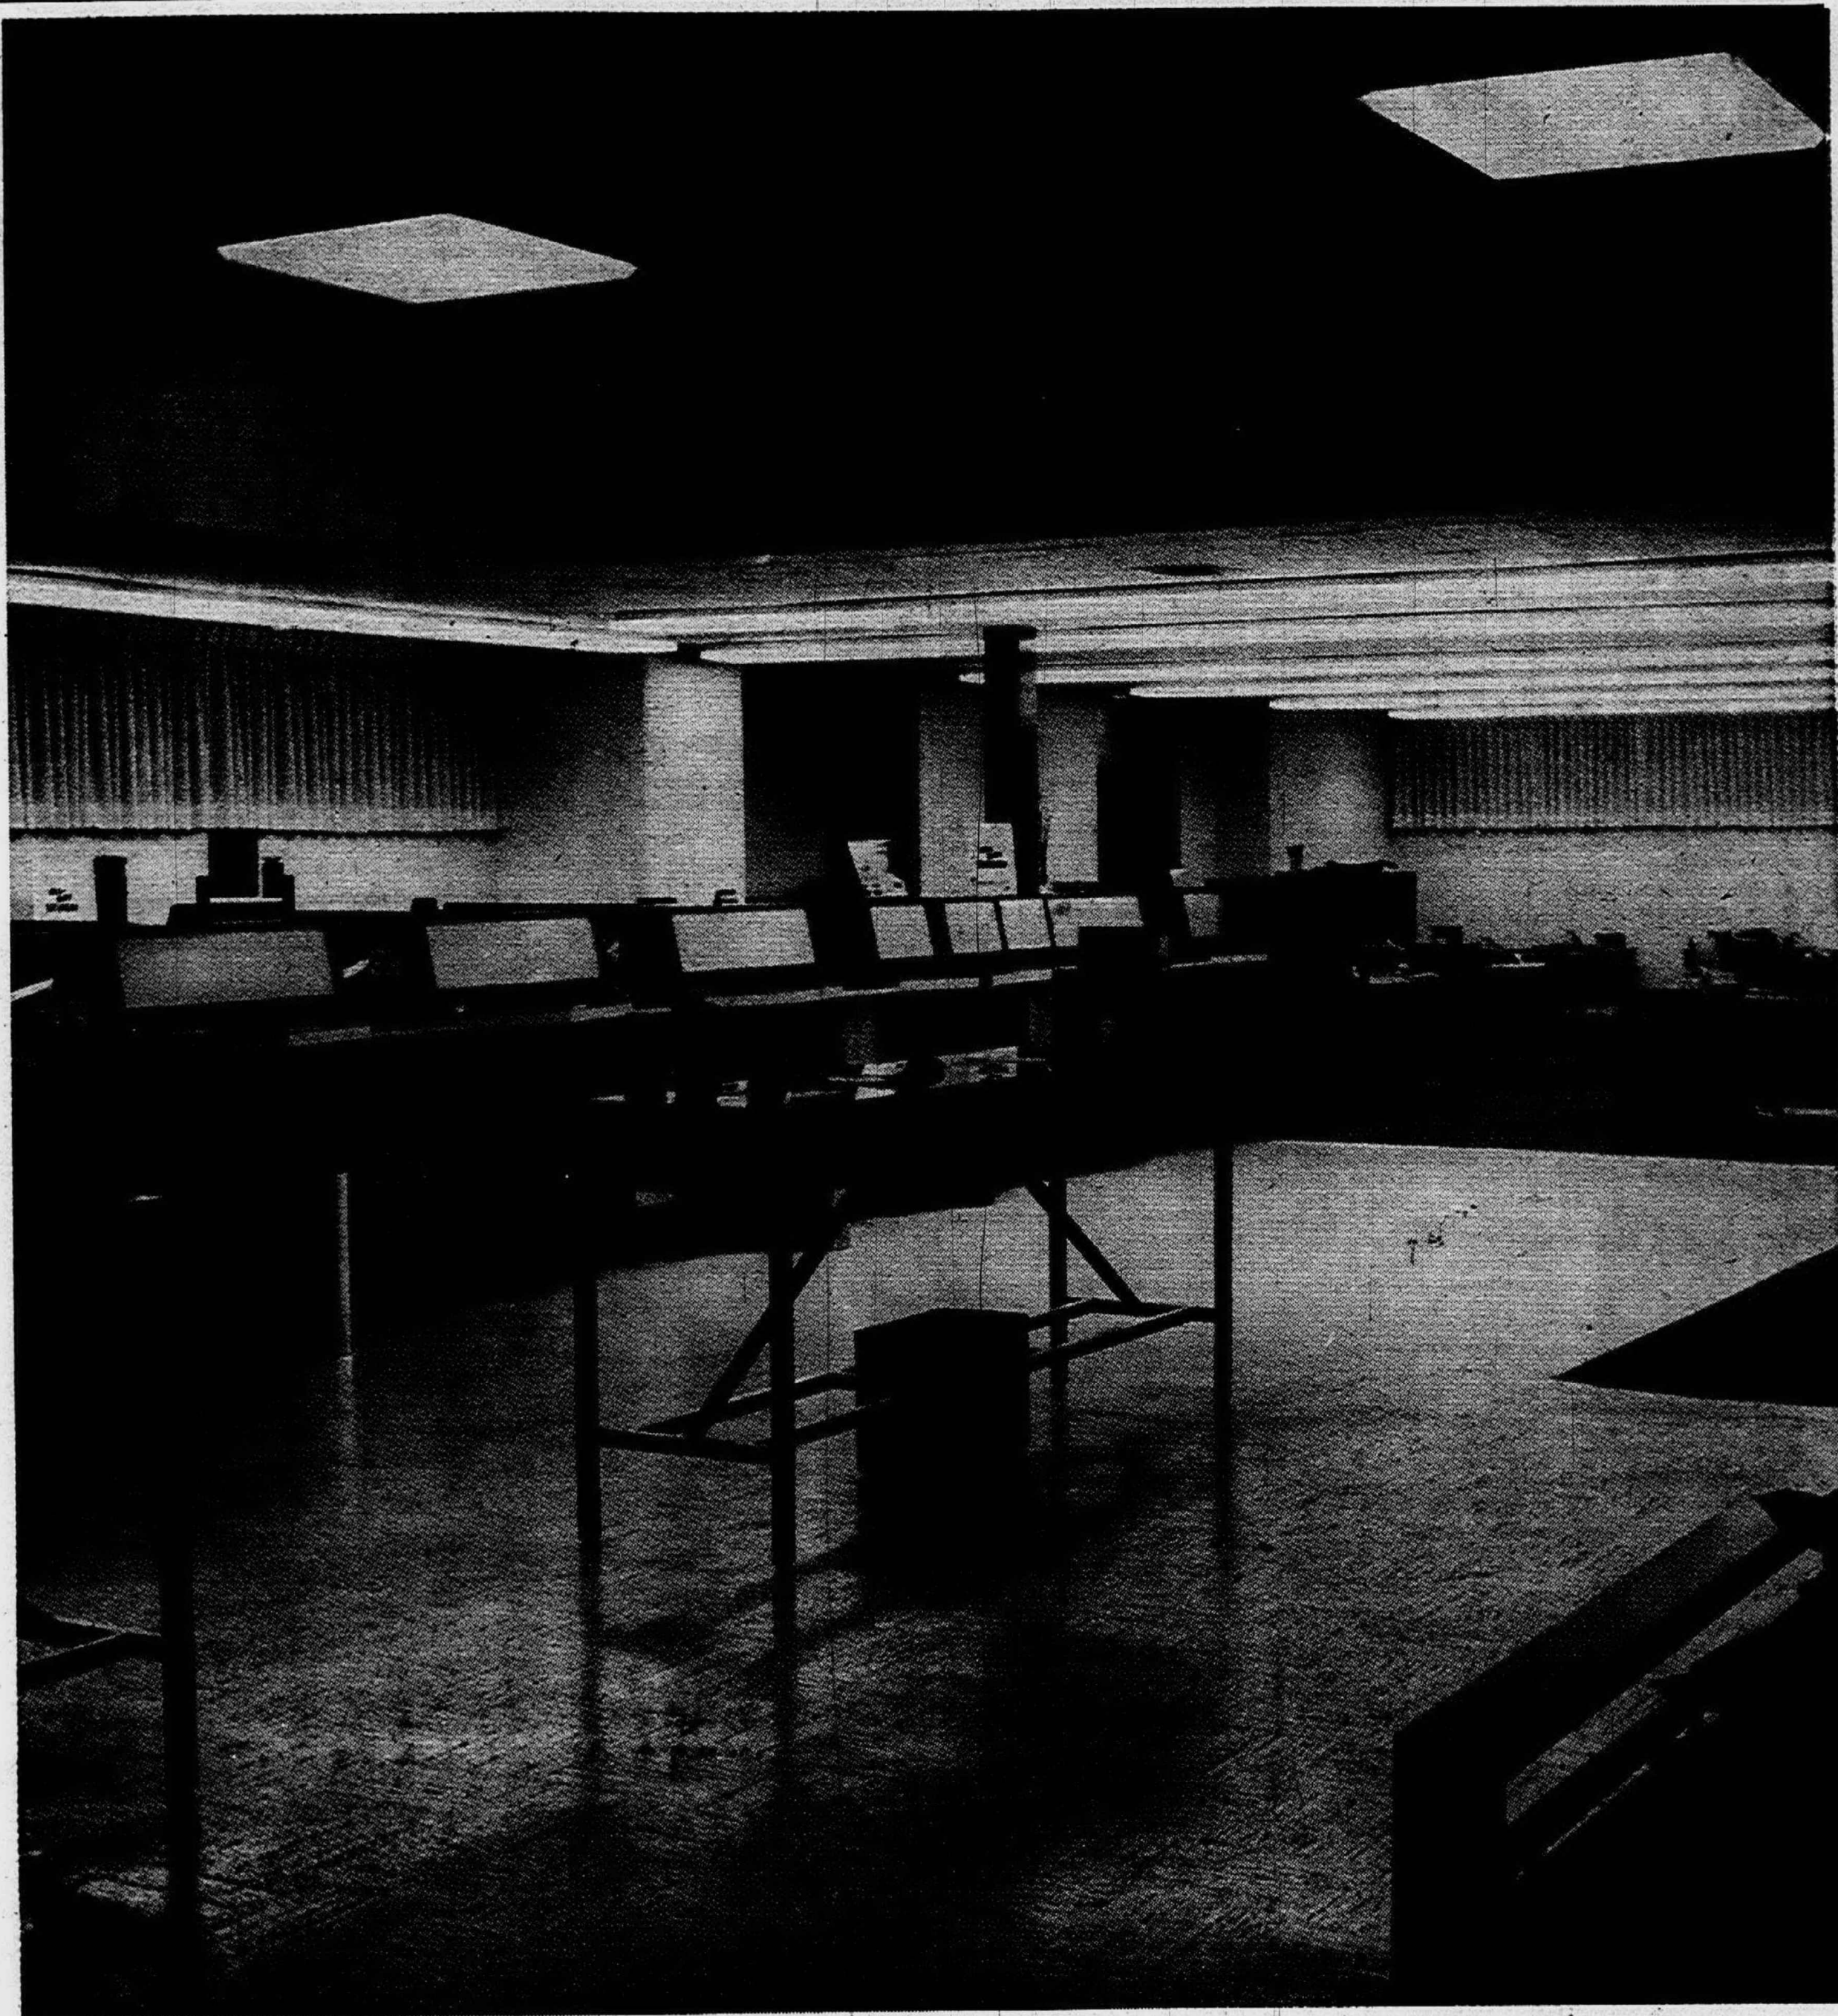

A concert by Thurston's Honors Band was given on May 26.

Jan Claus, a junior at Thurston, will spend the 10 weeks of summer vacation as a representative of the American Field Service and Thurston in Switzerland. Jan was chosen as Thurston's 1966 exchange student.

The Canister Drive last fall and the recent Bermuda Bay and Last Chance Dance helped make it possible for Jan to go to Switzerland and for two foreign exchange students to live in Redford Township and attend Thurston next year.

"Snake Pit," was presented to students during the noon lunch hour last week, May 23-27. The movie was sponsored by the Student Council.

Seniors' final examinations will be taken June 8. Sophomores and juniors will take theirs June 13-14, on holidays.

FEA Receives Scholarship From FTA

By MADGE HILDEBRANDT. One hundred dollars will be presented by the Future Teachers Club of Farmington Senior High to the Farmington Education Association at the FTA Tea, Thursday, June 2. The money will be added to the Joseph Manzi Memorial Scholarship Fund.

The tea will be held at 2:35 p.m. in the FHS library and will feature as speaker the chairman of the FEA, Mr. Clayton Weeks, who is also a counselor at Farmington Junior High.

The final meeting of the year was organized by the newly elected FTA officers. They are President Pat Oliver and Vice-president Allyson MacDonald, both juniors and two sophomores, Sharon Schulkins and Cindy Young, secretary and treasurer respectively.

Three more teachers have been added to the FHS faculty for the coming school year.

A 1966 graduate of Albion College, Miss Barbara Pearson, will fill the vacancy left in the language department by the departure of French teacher Mrs. Miriam Hall. Miss Pearson will receive a Bachelor of Arts degree in June, and she spent last summer studying in France.

The guidance office will have an additional counselor in the fall, Mrs. Patricia Smith, is presently teaching mathematics at Redford Union High School. She received her masters degree in counseling from the University of Detroit and soon will begin work on her doctorate at Wayne State University.

A new track and cross-country coach and social studies teacher, Mr. Jerry Young, will also be at FHS in September. A graduate of Michigan State University, Mr. Young was a member of the varsity cross-country and track teams at MSU for three years and captain of both in his senior year.

In addition, Mr. Young was indoor and outdoor Big-Ten champion in the two-mile event, a member of the 1959 NCAA and Big-Ten Cross Country championship team, and a member of the College Cross-Country All American Team in 1959 and 1960.

Livonia Area Scouts, Leaders Join in 1966 Show at Fairgrounds

This is the week that will be — for over 20,000 Scouts and leaders of the Detroit Area Council as they set the stage for the huge Scout-O-Rama '66 show at Michigan State Fairgrounds this coming Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 3-4-5.

The Scouts and leaders began set-up of the nearly 500 booths and outdoor display areas Tuesday evening. Trailers, trucks and car-top carriers were used to transport the mountains of display material to the Fairgrounds. Speaking of mountains, a mountain has been erected on the grounds, for a team of Explorers to demonstrate their climbing skills.

One of the major features of the show, Cub-O-Rama, will feature dozens of "live acts" on the stage of the new Community Arts Building. Camp-O-Rama will feature displays from the council camps, including a string of saddle horses which children may ride free of charge.

Trail-O-Rama will feature dozens of unusual outdoor camping exhibits, monkey bridges, axmanship demonstrations, and "specialty" cooking — and if you like pancakes, biscuits, pie, cake, roast pig, or whatever, you'll be offered tempting samples at every exhibit.

Booth-O-Rama will feature over 300 fascinating action-packed exhibits by Cubs, Scouts and Explorers in the huge Coliseum, Dairy and Agriculture Buildings. You can even see yourself on closed circuit TV, or take a driving skills test at Road-O-Rama.

Nature-Rama will be packed with exhibits showing the many conservation ideas practiced by the Scouts.

And of course no Scout show would be complete without Indians, so there'll be a complete Indian village and colorfully costumed Order of the Arrow Dance Team members will re-create authentic age-old Indian dance steps to the pulsing beat of tomtoms. And there'll be more, so much more, that you'll have to visit the show twice to see all of it.

The general public is invited to attend—tickets may be purchased from Scouts in your community, or at the Fairgrounds on June 3-4-5. The show hours are from 7 to 10 p.m. on Friday, 1 to 10 p.m. on Saturday, and 1 to 5 p.m. on Sunday.

Wonderland to Present U. S. Parachute Team

There'll be a flock of flying objects over Livonia June 18—but not of the marsh-gas or outer-space variety. These particular FO's can be identified as

The Golden Knights—a crack U. S. Army parachute team from Fort Bragg, N. C.

The chutists will present two sky-diving exhibitions as a salute to Boy Scout Day at Wonderland Center.

Local and state government officials are expected to join more than 50,000 spectators at each of the two shows. Times of the exhibitions are 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

A large field adjacent to Wonderland will serve as the target area for the nine chutists who will participate in a dazzling display of acrobatics in the sky.

The jumps will be made from a c-119 Troop Carrier manned by a crew from Michigan's 403rd Troop Carrier Wing of the Air Force Reserve.

Take-offs for both shows will be from Selfridge Air Force Base. The flight operation will be under the direction of Colonel L. C. Felton, Wing Commander.

The chutists will leave the aircraft in teams of two, three and four—each at 10- to 15-minute intervals. The exits will take place at 13,500 feet, but, parachutes will not open until the chutists have fallen to an altitude of 2,500 feet.

The plane will take off from Selfridge shortly before 11 a.m. for the flight to Livonia. Weather permitting, the parachutists will jump from the aircraft at 13,500 feet and aim for a target area adjacent to Wonderland Center.

After the first exhibition, the nine-member parachute team will hustle back to Selfridge to prepare for a second performance.

Wonderland is located at Plymouth Road and Middlebelt. Motorists are urged to use Gate One, on Middlebelt, or Gate Six, on Plymouth Road.

HIGH FLYERS—Scenes like this will take place high over Wonderland Center June 18 as the U.S. Army's "Golden Knights" parachute team presents two free-fall exhibitions. The shows will take place at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. near the parking lot of the huge center, located at Plymouth Road and Middlebelt, in Livonia.

Schoolcraft to Start Apprentice Program

A Related Instruction program for industrial apprentices has been established at Schoolcraft College by unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees.

ship Coordinator, Technical-Vocational Division, Schoolcraft College, 18600 Haggerty Road, Livonia, 48151, or telephone 591-6400.

Ronald J. Monfette, himself a journeyman and an instructor in drafting and design at the College, was appointed Apprenticeship Coordinator. Monfette initiated the study of industrial needs in this area in August 1965.

Beginning with the fall term of 1966, Related Instruction will be provided for industrial apprentices in the following areas: (1) design, (2) electricity, (3) machine trades, and (4) manufacturing trades. In the future as the need for training in other areas is identified, the College will meet such demands.

The goals of the program are: (1) To provide meaningful instruction to apprentices designated to receive such training.

(2) To encourage local and nearby firms to utilize Schoolcraft College facilities to train their apprentices.

(3) To provide industry with well trained and highly skilled manpower.

(4) To encourage apprentices to continue their education after completion of the apprentice program, thereby keeping abreast of today's rapidly changing technology.

(5) To encourage other workers who can benefit from instruction to attend upgrading classes.

Industrial firms are offered the opportunity of placement in the first class, which begins this August. Since highly skilled labor is scarce in this area, the employment of tradesmen has reached an all-time high.

For further information about apprenticeship programs, industry and students are invited to contact Monfette, Apprenticeship Coordinator.

Evans Shows 26% Gain In Earnings
PORTLAND, Ore.—Monford A. Orloff, Chairman, announced that sales and earnings of Evans Products Company continued at record high levels for the first quarter of 1966, being the 17th consecutive quarter in which both sales and earnings improved over those for the same quarter of the preceding year.

Four From Area Named Officers of U-D Society

Four local residents have been initiated as officers of Epsilon Zeta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, a professional business fraternity. The four are students at the University of Detroit, Evening College of Commerce and Finance.

Net earnings for the first quarter of 1966 were $2,169,000, an increase of 26 percent over the $1,724,000 for the first quarter of 1965. Sales of $66,440,000 for the three months ended March 31 represented a 26 percent increase over the $52,572,000 for the corresponding period of 1965.

Earnings per common share, based on the average number of shares outstanding during the period and after preferred dividends, were $.75 in 1966 as contrasted to $.59 for 1965, adjusted for stock dividends and the 1965 stock split.

In March Evans successfully completed the sale of 300,000 shares of common stock. The net proceeds of $13,225,000 substantially bolster net worth and, according to Orloff, will assist Evans to continue the growth pattern followed in the past several years.

Orloff confirmed his estimate that 1966 sales will be $300,000,000 and net earnings approximately $11,100,000 or $3.65 per common share based on estimated average shares outstanding during 1966. This compares with 1965 sales of $246,941,000, net earnings of $8,404,000, and net earnings per common share of $2.96.

Stating that the Company now has the largest open order file in its history, Orloff expressed confidence and optimism over the Company's prospects for 1966 and thereafter.

The Master of Rituals for the coming school year is Ronald R. Pastor, 6756 Schaller Drive, Garden City, Ron, married and a senior, is employed by the Ford Motor Company.

The vice-president is Frank J. Murphy, 29921 Gladys, Garden City, Frank, a junior employed by Burroughs Corporation, is the only single member of the executive committee.

Gerald E. LaMotte, 29664 Florence, Garden City, will assume the duties of Secretary. Gerry is also a junior, employed by Michigan Bell Telephone Company, married, and the father of three.

Residents of Farmington and Garden City named to the chapter are: Mary Jane Carpenter, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Nyal J. Carpenter, 23606 Longacre, Farmington, senior studying home economics education. David L. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lenore W. Clark, 30325 W. 12 Mile Rd., Farmington, a doctoral candidate in zoology. Karen A. Copeland, 6419 Middlebelt, Garden City, a senior in home economics education.

Tennyson To Chair Auto Show

Harry Tennyson, Livonia Chevrolet dealer, has been appointed chairman of the committee for the Detroit Auto Show for the second straight year.

The appointment was announced by Tony Ritz, Berkley Plymouth dealer, president of the sponsoring Detroit Auto Dealers Association.

The DADA show will be held from Nov. 26 through Dec. 4 in Cobo Hall. The exposition moved there last year and attendance jumped 46 percent to a hefty 211,606, top crowd figure in the last 10 years.

Show manager again this year will be Boyce Tope, DADA executive vice president. Tope, who has been with DADA since 1953, will be managing his 10th show.

Tennyson, 50, is a University of California graduate who came to Detroit in 1946 after serving as a first lieutenant in Europe during World War II.

He formed an auto-truck rental company and was first president of the Michigan Car and Truck Rental and Leasing Association. Tennyson established the first Chevrolet dealership in Livonia in 1955. He served as president of the Detroit Chevrolet Dealers Association in 1960-61.

He is active in civic and club affairs, being a member of Kiwanis Club No. One, the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce, the Livonia Board of Commerce, the University Club, and the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Tennyson lives at 1690 Hillcrest Lane, Grosse Pointe Farms. He and his wife, Patricia, have two children, Christopher, 18, and Julia, 8.

3 Initiated Into MSU Honor Society

Phi Kappa Phi, a national scholastic honorary, has initiated more than 400 new members at Michigan State University.

Residents of Farmington and Garden City named to the chapter are: Mary Jane Carpenter, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Nyal J. Thurston and West Reach Tourney Finals

It'll be Thurston vs. Garden City West Saturday night in the finals of the Les Anders Invitational baseball tournament at Livonia's Ford Field.

The two teams will square off at 9 p.m. after Plymouth takes on Redford Union in the consolation finale at 6:30.

Thurston sweated its way into the title game by nipping Plymouth, 2-1, in a spine-tingling Monday night after West disposed of Redford Union, 7-2.

The tourney is being co-sponsored by the Livonia Recreation Department and the Observer Newspapers.

Unheralded Plymouth gave Thurston's Northwest League champs more than the Townshippers bargained.

The game wasn't decided until the last pitch—a 3-2 blazer over the outside corner fired by Vic Pilar, the Thurston lefty who had hurled a 1-0 no-hit triumph over Franklin on Saturday night following a one-hit win over Bentley the previous week.

Thurston scored both its runs off Southpaw Pat Williams in the first inning. Bob Holmes and Paul Santangelo walked and streaked around when Reg Barringer looped a double just inside the right field foul line.

The Townshippers threatened several times in subsequent frames, thanks to some of Williams' wildness. But with the chips down, Williams settled down and got out of trouble—twice with three on, once with two on.

Meantime, Plymouth went hitless against fire-balling Bob Durand until Dave Prochazka and Williams singled with none out in the fourth. After they advanced on a sacrifice, Dan Camp walked to fill the bases before Durand trucked out two men.

A walk to Prochazka and an error giving Williams a life set up Plymouth's line run in the sixth. Prochazka scooted to third on an attempted pick off of Williams at first and scored when Jim Arnold hit into a double play.

Came the last of the seventh—and Plymouth's great finish.

Camp started with a single. The next batter fanned before Ken Olds was hit by a pitch.

Durand threw another strike-out pitch, but then walked Underwood to load the sacks. Pilar here entered the scene to face Prochazka. The count went 3-2 before Pilar cut loose with the game ender.

Two innings decided the West-Redford Union game. West scored three times in the third when Gary Slade walked, Bo Ardell tripled, and Ford Simpson, George Domanske and Bennie Shoemaker singled.

In the fifth, West counted four times. Domanske was hit by a pitch and took second on Shoemaker's single. Bob Stevens and Terry Thompson were safe on errors after which Slade socked in three runs with a triple.

Redford Union tallied in the first on a walk to Rod Ferguson and Leland Bjerk's triple. In the fourth, Jim Johnson tripled over Glen Buckingham, who had walked.

Thereafter, RU could do nothing against Bob Gamache of West who fanned 14 while allowing only three hits.

David Bourassa was the losing pitcher.

Thurston will carry a 16-2 record against West, which stands 13-7 on the season. Here's the story of what happened in Saturday night's action:

THURSTON 1, FRANKLIN 0
A dream game, if ever there was one.

Vic Pilar, the mighty Thurston lefty, chalked up a no-hitter, in adding another milestone to an already fabulous high school hurling record.

Pilar hardly needed anybody, except for his catcher. He served up 16 strikeout pitches. Only three Franklin batters got their bats on the ball.

Two popped up, the other hit a fly to right. The other two outs resulted from attempted steals of second going amiss.

Pilar did have one touchy moment. That came in the first inning when Harry Birkett walked, stole second and took third on a passed ball with one out. After Steve Atkinson walked, Pilar settled down... fanned the next batter and got the third out on a fly.

Franklin's Larry Ruzas deserved a better fate. He yielded a first-inning run on singles to Bob Holmes and Paul Santangelo and a fielder's choice.

Ruzas allowed only two more hits the rest of the way, but that wasn't enough against a rival who now has hurled almost 80 innings this season and allowed just one earned run. That makes Pilar's unearned read: .018.

PLYMOUTH 5, SORROWS 4
The Rocks came from behind to overhaul their parochial rivals from Farmington.

With Sorrows leading, 4-3, in the sixth, Plymouth put together walks by John Wida, John Underwood and Jim Arnold and a single by John Gillis to cash two runs and go ahead, 5-4.

That's all Dan Camp, working in relief of Randy Williams, needed. Camp tolled shutout and hitless ball in the last two innings.

Plymouth jumped ahead, 1-0, in the first inning when Bida opened the Rocks' attack with a long homer over the right fielder's head.

But Sorrows kept picking away and finally tallied three times in the fifth inning to gain a one-run lead.

Bentley Slips In Title Bid

Inability to cash in during the sixth and seventh innings with the bases loaded proved doubly costly to the Bentley High baseball team.

As a result Bentley suffered a 4-3 loss to Trenton and also saw its chances for a Suburban Six League outright or co-championship fade out of the winning.

"We had nobody but ourselves to blame," said coach Marty Kloxik. "We sure had the chances to score and win with no trouble."

Trenton counted all of its runs in the second inning off Dave Gorton and then was held scoreless the rest of the way by Hank Schoenbeck.

A triple by Ed Ryan led the winners' attack.

Bentley rebounded to blank Plymouth, 8-0, thanks to four runs in the first inning without the benefit of a hit.

In the wild, initial frame, four Bentley batters struck out, but one of them reached base when the ball got away from the catcher to help keep the rally alive.

Bill McAlpine worked six innings for Bentley with Schoenbeck toiling in the final frame.

Ryan knocked in two runs with a single while McAlpine and Greg Coleman each drew three walks in the game.

Bentley also picked up a non-league win over Stevenson, 7-2, capitalizing on two walks, a wild pitch and two errors to break a 2-2 tie after hits by John Kladyk and Carl Holmes had brought Stevenson even.

Livonia Girl Cracks Record

Louise Gerrisch, 17, a student at Franklin high school, has set a new national AAU record for girls in the javelin throw.

She unleashed a toss of 160 feet, 4 1/2 inches, at Pontiac last Saturday in an Olympic development meet to break her own record of 155-6 set last year.

Wolverine to Present Michigan's Richest Stake in Motor City

The 16th renewal of the historic Motor Pace Thursday at Wolverine Raceway will be the richest stake ever, staged in Michigan.

That was assured Monday when a record list of 26 names were in the entry box, boosting the total pot to $28,350. That's the most ever paid for a harness racing event in the Wolverine state.

The huge entry forced Racing Secretary Bill Connors to split the stake into two eliminations of 13 each with the top five finishers in each coming back for the mile and a sixteenth championship.

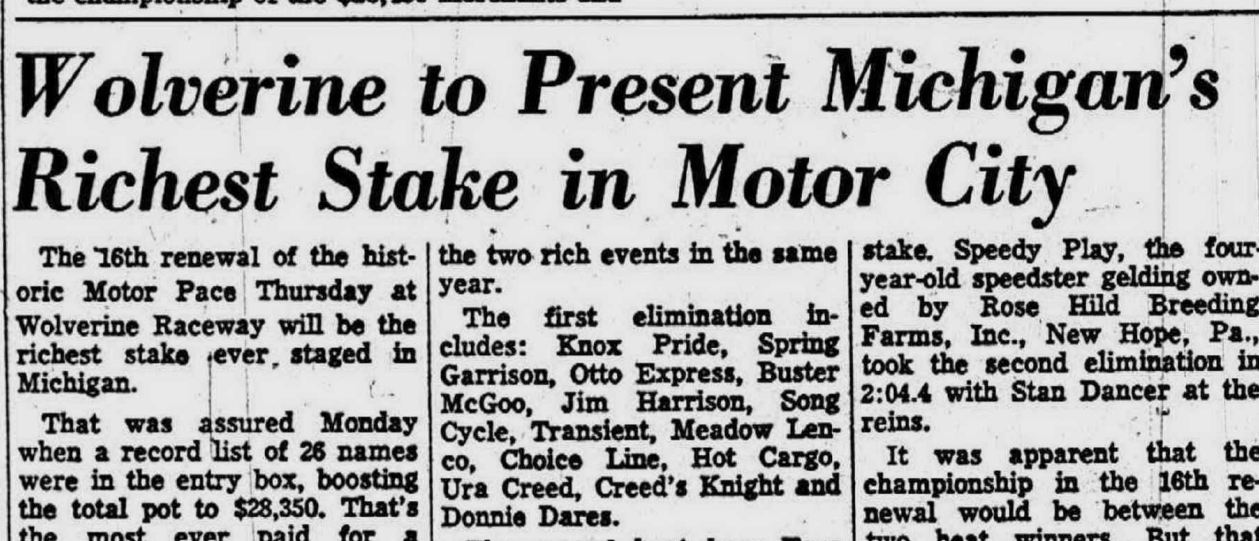

Those going postward are coming from Yonkers Raceway in New York City, Liberty Bell in Philadelphia, Sportsman's Park in Chicago, Rosecroft Raceway in Maryland, Northfield Park in Cleveland as well as the fastest and best quartered at Wolverine.

It is Sudan's Comet, the speedy son of the great Michigan sire Knox Hanover, who is the early favorite of his recent performances in which he won two Open events at Wolverine with the season's fastest clocking of 2:02.1.

Bob Farrington, the nation's winningest driver in 1965, will make his first appearance of the year in the Motor City area when he drives Otto Express, owned by Lloyd Arnold of Genesee, Ill. It was Worthy Scot, also owned by Arnold, who won the Merchants and Manufacturers trot a week ago, and a win in the Motor City would make Arnold the first ever to sweep

WORTHY SCOT (4), the five-year-old Worthy Boy gelding owned by Lloyd Arnold, of Genesee, Ill., hits wire almost a length ahead of Speedy Play (8), piloted by Stan Dancer, in the championship of the $28,450 Merchants and Manufacturers Trot at Wolverine Raceway. Guided by Harry Burright, Worthy Scot set a track record of 2:11.1 in the mile and a sixteenth finale.

Trojans Capture Final Two

Two victories over Brighton ended a bid of Clarenceville high's baseball team to finish its Wayne-Oakland League schedule with a 6-3 record and a fifth-place standing.

The Trojans followed a 6-2 decision with a 9-6 verdict over Brighton.

Gale Armstrong pitched the first triumph, allowing two hits and fanning seven. Neither run off him was earned.

After Bob Duman's triple led to the Trojans' first run, Clarenceville sewed up the game with four runs in the fourth on an error, walk, and singled by Fred Neal. Mike Nye and Herv Vader. Carl Watkins doubled over the last run.

A three-run homer in the first inning started Clarenceville off in fast fashion in the second Brighton encounter. Then followed another three-run frame in which Mike Gordon singled and Watkins and Nye each doubled.

Watkins finished with two doubles, a single and a walk along with three runs. Duman chipped in with a long homer. Nye worked sixth innings with Armstrong finishing.

Farmington Soph Wins 3 Events

Farmington high's track team wound up third in the Interlakes League meet scoring 51 1/5 points to champion Pontiac Northern's 68 and runnerup Waterford's 58.

Walled Lake and Stevenson lagged well behind. The new Stevenson team gained only three points.

Farmington produced six individual champs paced by Sophomore Chris Brown who won both the dashes and the long jump.

Brown was timed in 10.2 seconds in the 100-yard dash, 22.8 in the 220 and took the long jump with a leap of 20 feet, 5 inches.

As expected, Ron Shortt set a new record in scaling 14 feet, one inch, to win the pole vault.

Farmington's Bob Charles copped the high jump, going 5 feet, 11 inches.

The Falcons' one mile relay of Del Cornwell, George Jackson, Mike Hines and Joe Kelson triumphed.

Shortt also won in the Oakland County meet at Hazel Park, although he was able to clear "only" 13 feet, 5 1/2 inches.

The Falcons' mile relay team came back with a new school record of 3:37.5, but finished only fifth.

North Farmington's Marvin Dube was the lone other area winner in the Oakland County meet, hitting the tape first in the 440-yard dash.

Softball 'Whiz' Township Bound

Eddie Feigner, softball's most renowned pitcher who needs only a catcher and three fielders to support him, will appear at Claude Allison Field in Redford Township on June 25.

Feigner will go against an all-star aggregation comprised of players from the Township. Adult tickets now are on sale at $1.25 each.

OBSERVING SPORTS

By George Maskin

A SPORTS COLUMN IN SHORT PANTS: AND WHY NOT? The success of the Greater Livonia high school baseball tournament, plus other similar events being staged in Pontiac, Midland and Wyandotte, should prove to somebody that the time is ripe for a state prep diamond meet in Michigan.

Certainly, there's nobody who could proclaim: "There's NO interest in tournament baseball action at a schoolboy level."

From our conversations with players, coaches and rooters, the post-season tourneys are here to stay, even if the State Association won't sanction an OFFICIAL MEET.

The argument out of Lansing is that there is no time for a tournament. Nonsense.

As we've said before, it would be no problem taking all the league champs, plus any non-league teams with standout records, and toss them into regionals.

The whole shooting match wouldn't require more than two weekends and would be a great boost for what we call "OUR NATIONAL PASTIME."

HATS OFF: To Dick Schryer, one of the all-time athletic greats at Plymouth high who has been named 1966 baseball captain at the University of Michigan.

At Plymouth, Schryer was a great quarterback in football, a forward-guard in basketball and a standout on the baseball nine.

He batted upwards .354 in the Big Ten this past season and if men like Don Lund, Eddie Katalinas and Jimmy Campbell of the Tigers have their ways, Dick may be playing on a professional level next season.

Dick, we're told, is a cinch to be drafted next week at the annual major league's greatest in New York City.

"He a dandy," said Katalinas, who heads the Tigers' scouting staff.

Naturally, the Tigers may not get Schryer. But whatever club gets him is a cinch to offer Dick a neat bundle of dollars in hopes of persuading to pass up his final year as a collegian in preference to joining the professionals.

Schryer at the moment isn't saying what he'll do. You can't blame him either.

THE THIRD DECK: The visiting brigade of sports writers who invade the top pair of Tiger Stadium pretty much agree that Livonia's Denny McLain ranks as the foremost right hander in the American League.

"The kid's a dandy," declared Leonard Koppett, the able typewriter puncher for the esteemed New York Times.

"We (meaning the Yanks) would be in a fine shape if we

Thurston Rules League In Track and Baseball

The 1966 Northwest Suburban League track championships ended in an upset.

It spelled happiness for Thurston high school.

Coach Dan Bennett's thincleds walked off with the title, scoring 67 points to favored Birmingham Groves' 50. Franklin chalked up with 35 points to place fourth.

North Farmington registered 24 points along with Oak Park while John Glenn was sixth and last with seven points.

Thurston produced four individual champs along with a winner in the mile relay.

The Thurston victors were Al Phillips in the long jump with a leap of 20 feet, 10 1/2 inches; Jim McEwen in the pole vault as he went 11 feet, 3 inches; Bob Grimm in the half mile in 1:57.5 and Leonard Cyr in the low hurdles in 19.5 seconds, a new Thurston school record.

In winning the mile relay, Thurston fielded a combination of Jerry Butlin, Dick Touchette, Tom Adamson and Grimm.

Only other area winners in the meet were Franklin's Dan Ryan in the mile (4:28) and North Farmington's crack 880-yard relay team.

How the area preps placed: Shot Put: 2—Steffen (T), 3—Naifeh (NF), 4—Young (Glenn), 5—Seever (F).

Long Jump: 1—Phillips (T), 3—Noble (T), 5—Saven (F). Distance: 20 feet, 10 1/2 inches.

High Jump: 2—Phillips (2), 4—McEwen (T), 5—Holloman (Glenn).

Pole Vault: 1—McEwen (T), 2—Holloman (G), 3—Bensinger (NF). Height: 11 feet, 3 inches.

880-yard relay: 1—North Farmington, 3—Thurston, 4—Franklin.

Mile: 1—Ryan (F), 2—Vlaming (NF), 3—Dusek (T), 4—Goetzlowski (F), 5—Lyssett (F). Time: 4:28.

High Hurdles: 2—Cyr (T), 3—Burke (T), 4—Rogalski (F). 880-yard run: 1—Grimm (T), 3—Touchette (T), 4—Manion (F), 5—Manko (F). Time: 1:57.5.

440-yard run: 2—Dube (NF), 4—Butlin (T), 5—Ehler (F).

West Soph Surprises In Track

Bill Merriman, a sophomore, pulled a major surprise in the Mid-Wayne League track championships.

The unheralded Merriman won the pole vault title with a leap of 12 feet. His teammate, Charles Sullivan, checked in at third place.

Mike Taft of West also came off with an individual championship when he sailed 20 feet, 5 3/4 inches.

Ironically, Taft was last after the preliminaries in the jump were held. But on the night of the finals, he needed only one jump to outdistance the field.

Taft also took a fourth in the high jump and ran fifth in the low hurdles.

West's 880-yard relay took a sixth, but it proved costly, because star West sprinter Mike Alexander hurt his leg and had to be scratched from the 100 and 220-yard dashes in which he would have been one of the favorites.

Southgate wound up as team champ with 70 points to 55 for Crestwood. Garden City West scored 25 points to place seventh.

100-yard dash: 2—Saven (F), 3—Nole (T), 4—Whetter (NF). Low Hurdles: 1—Cyr (T), 3—August (NF), 4—Rogalski (F). Time 19.5 seconds. 220-yard low hurdles: 2—

Saven (F), 3—Nole (T), 5—Cleveland (NF). Mile relay: 1—Thurston (Butlin, Touchette, Adamson, Grimm), 3—Franklin, 5—North Farmington.

They've hoisted the Northwest Suburban League baseball pennant up at Thurston High School.

Although Thurston still has one conference contest remaining against Franklin, there can be no overtaking of the Townshippers.

With victories over Oak Park and North Farmington, Thurston last week wrapped away its first crown in baseball since entering the league.

Oak Park was the victim of a 3-1 loss at the hands of Thurston while the Thurston-North Farmington engagement was strictly no contest. Thurston romped away, 16-0.

A three-run uprising in the first inning provided Thurston with all its tallies against Oak Park. Bob Holmes opened the inning with a single. After he was forced by Paul Santangelo, Reg Barringer singled and Dan Harris walked to load the bases.

Santangelo scored on Barry Simescu's roller. Mike McCrumm, the winning pitcher, delivered a two-run single that was to provide him with the margin he needed to finish on top.

McCrumm worked five innings and allowed five hits and walked three. He struck out ten. Sophomore Deno Syrios finished.

Vic Pilar turned in another pitching gem — lifting his record to 7-1 with only one earned run in 70 innings, in applying a whitewash job to North Farmington.

Pilar gave up three hits and fanned five and stepped out after five innings to give Syrios a chance to get in some pitching.

Thurston slugged out 13 hits with Reg Barringer getting two along with a sacrifice fly to chase in three runs. Dave Bernhardt also picking up two hits while Bob Durand belted a triple with two on during the Thurston onslaught.

Sandwiched around its loss to Thurston, the North Farmington team battered Groves, 18-1, and socked John Glenn, 12-5.

Bill Oldershaw socked two homers and Norm DeCouro one round tripper to pace the North Farmington assault against Groves. Hub Copp lashed a triple and Tom Snyder also picked up a three-bagger.

Bentley King Of Thincleds

Orchids to Bentley high's track team, coached by Ron Federaw.

Bentley made the experts look good by hauling in the Suburban Six League track championship with a strong finish that produced 72 1/2 points to Redford Union's 53 1/2 on the RU track.

The Livonians had been picked to haul in the laurels, after finishing the league's dual-meet schedule with an unbeaten 5-0 record.

Redford Union gave Bentley a dog fight right down to the closing events.

With just four races remaining, Bentley clung to only a three-point edge. But when Doug Thomas won the 100-yard dash, Ken Jackson followed with a victory in the low hurdles and Thomas ran second in the 220-yard dash, it was all over.

Bentley was the champ. Jackson was the meet's lone double winner. He also copped the high hurdles. In both the sticks, Jackson was chased home by Redford Union's Dennis Fifield. Bentley's only other victory came in the pole vault in which Bob Grimm soared 12 feet, 2 1/4 inches to lead the field.

Redford Union's fine distance pair of Jack Shepherd (mile) and Tom McLain (880) came through with triumphs along with the school's 880-yard relay.

Belleville placed third with 41 points, followed by Trenton 39 1/2, Plymouth 18 1/2 and Allen Park 17.

How the area's teams scored: POLE VAULT: 1 — Grimm (B), 2 — Parnin (RU), 3 — Gloetzer (B), 5 — Gilder (B). Height: 12 feet, 2 1/4 inches.

SHOT PUT: 2 — Miller (B), 3 — Haggart (B), 5 — Doyle (B).

LONG JUMP: 2 — Shirkey (RU), 3 — Davis (RU), 4 — Dudzinski (B), 5 — Dubose (B).

880-YARD RELAY: 1 — Redford Union (Simmons, Shirkey, Meiras, Fifield), 2 — Bentley. Time: 1:32.9.

MILE: 1 — Shepherd (RU), 4 — Edward (B), 5 — McGhie (B). Time: 4:35.

HIGH HURDLES: 1 — Jackson (B), 2 — Fifield (RU), 3 — Matevia (B). Time: 15 seconds.

880-YARD RUN: 1 — McLain (RU), 3 — Borg (RU). Time: 2:01.

440-YARD RUN: 2 — Formma (B).

100-YARD DASH: 1 — Thomas (B), 3 — Burlison (P), 5 — Simmons (RU). Time: 10:3 seconds.

LOW HURDLES: 1 — Jackson (B), 2 — Fifield (RU), 3 — Gloetzer (B). Time: 20.1 seconds.

220-YARD DASH: 2 — Thomas (B), 5 — Burlison (P).

MILE RELAY: 2 — Bentley, 3 — Plymouth, 4 — Redford Union.

RU Ends Slate With 3 Victories

Redford Union high's baseball team finished its regular 1966 season in a rush-winning three straight.

The Townshippers breezed past Plymouth, 12-4, and Cranbrook, 13-4, before scoring a 3-0 shutout at the expense of Allen Park.

Kevin Fox hurled the route against Plymouth while Leland Bjerkie slapped out three hits and Randy Maltby a pair to pace RU.

Glen Buckingham had a perfect day, batting out four hits in as many tries, driving in two runs and scoring three himself in the romp over Cranbrook.

Bill Fahey had two hits, one a triple, and scored three runs to support Mike Panek who went the distance for the victors.

In the Allen Park conquest, it was the one-hit pitching of David Bourassa which took the spotlight. Hits by Marvin Roth, Rod Ferguson and Maltby, along with an error, accounted for all the RU runs in the first inning.

Umpires! You're Needed

Troubles... troubles... troubles.

They have brought headaches to Bob Green, who's in charge of athletics for Livonia's Recreation Department.

"I need umpires for our little league program," says Green.

"We have over 125 teams ready to go, but only about half the umpires required to handle all the games."

If you're interested call Green at GA 1-2000 during the day or GA 1-2007 evenings.

P.S.—Umpires are paid for their services.

Sorrows out in front... but only until Plymouth struck in the sixth.

Randy Williams hurled the first five innings for the Rocks. G.C. WEST 11, GLENN 3. The big West bats were booming.

Three West hits — by Gary Slade, Bo Ardell and Bob Gamache — along with two walks and an error shot West in front, 4-0, in the first inning of play.

Green retaliated quickly on a walk, hits by Snow and Allison, and an error to cut the West lead to a run before the initial inning was over.

The rest, however, was all West.

The Garden City team unleashed four more safeties in the second as Slade, Ardell, Ford Simpson and Dennis Shoemaker connected.

In the third, doubles by Dan Steiger and Ardell helped give West three more runs. Then in the fourth, Steiger socked a homer but hurt his knee sliding across the plate.

Steiger had replaced Ardell on the mound after the first inning. When Steiger couldn't return to the mound in the fourth, Ardell went back to pitching and this time stopped Glenn for two frames to preserve the victory.

High School Netters Clash In Tourney

Something new has been added to the list of activities, coming under the sponsoring of the Livonia Parks and Recreation Department.

On June 1 and 2 the first annual City of Livonia tennis championships will be held.

The City's four high schools will each send four singles players and four doubles teams into combat vying for both team and individual honors.

Individual medals will be awarded to winners and runners-up in both the singles and doubles competition.

On Wednesday, June 1 at 4 p.m., play will begin at all four high school locations. On June 2 at 3 p.m., the semi-finals and finals will be played under the lights at Bentley High School's new facility.

The public is invited to see this event which will become even bigger and better in years to come. The participating schools are Bentley, Franklin, Stevenson and Clarenceville.

Rocks Net Team Second To Trenton

Plymouth and Trenton each came up with four champions, but Trenton squeezed out the Suburban Six League tennis title with 12 points to 10 1/2 for the Rocks.

The Rocks won three singles and one doubles match. Trenton took three doubles and a singles. In the scoring, a win in doubles is worth more than in the singles.

Robin Wide man, Steve Mogle and Bob Stover copped singles laurels for Plymouth while in doubles Bill Wolfe and Tom Chandler triumphed as the star Rocks' combine of Rick Jones-Steve Hulce lost for the first time this season.

Stover along with Jones-Hulce will represent Plymouth in the state Class A meet at Kalamazoo this Friday and Saturday.

Judo Champs Vie at U-D

The 14th Annual Midwestern A.A.U. judo championships will be held Saturday at the University of Detroit Memorial Gym. Preliminary competition will begin at 11 a.m. with the final matches starting at 7 p.m.

More than 475 contestants from 20 states and Canada, including teams from the University of Michigan, Michigan State, Ohio State, U.S. Air Force and Marines and many other universities and colleges will compete.

Highlights of the evening events will be junior championship matches (boys from 8 to 18), Black Belt individual championship, and the International seven-man Black Belt Team championship which will pit top Canadian and American experts.

The Midwestern Judo Championships, sponsored by the Detroit Judo Club, is the largest judo tournament in the country.

Shutout Wins For Falcons

A six-hit shutout by Tim Patrick enabled Farmington high to blank Walled Lake, 6-0, and end its Interlakes Conference record with a 5-3 record.

Patrick scattered six hits, fanned four and walked out.

The Falcons, who finish their season this Thursday meeting North Farmington, scored in the fourth inning when Chris Norton doubled and came around on an error.

Three walks and a pinch single by Ron Lee made it 3-0 in the sixth. In the seventh, hits by Al Kilka, Mike Searly, Joe Himmelspach and Doug LeFevre accounted for three more tallies.

Homers Mark Early Action In Girls' Loop

Home run hitting and sudden showers marked the opening week of the Ladybird League of the RTJAA softball season.

At the end of the first week's play, the Blue Jays and Wrens were tied for first place in the senior division while the Robins and Canaries led the junior division.

Although opening day scores were generally lopsided, the junior Blue Jays held the Canaries to 12 runs for their 11. Other opening day scores in the junior division were Wrens 11, Doves, 7; Robins, 16, Larks, 7.

In the senior openers the Robins defeated the Larks 24 to 5, while the Doves defeated the Wrens 10 to 5. The Blue Jays and Canaries did not play. The Wrens came back from their initial defeat, however, on the strength of home runs in their next two games to down the Larks 20 to 4, and the Robins 10 to 9.

East Assured League Flag

Win or lose against Riverview Wednesday, Garden City East will reign at least as co-champion of the Mid-Wayne League's 1966 baseball pennant chase.

East surged along last week by knocking off Lutheran West, 15-4, before dropping a 6-2 verdict against Taylor Center.

The Garden City team lashed out 19 hits at the expense of Lutheran's pitchers. Gregg Pike clubbed a homer and two singles to pace the assault.

Joe Huber and Bill Painter each had three for five while Don Smith had two for three. East was held to four hits in the Taylor game as the winners scored four times in the first inning, thanks to two errors, to help sew up the game in a hurry.

Garden City West lost two, then won two in Tri-Rivers League action to finish its conference schedule with a 9-6 record.

West succumbed to Riverside, 9-6, despite Terry Thompson's three-run homer for the losers.

Kennedy High went 10 innings to dispose of West, 4-2, with Bob Ardell the loser. He also socked a triple and double. Bob Gammasche's single sent in George Damanske with West's tying run in the seventh inning.

Domanske drilled a homer with two on as West battered Schafer, 9-2. Then it was Ardell with a grand slam poke in West's 13-1 clubbing of Cherry Hill. Dan Steiger went the route for the victors.

Stevenson Nipped, 2-1, In Finale

Stevenson high's baseball team dropped a 2-1 verdict to Pontiac Northern in its 1966 finale.

Paul Tonnemacher hurled the route for Stevenson, which finished its first campaign with a 2-10 record.

Stevenson's lone run came when John Kladyk walked, Phil Camp was hit by a pitch and Tonnemacher singled.

Bob See had a triple, Camp another single and Dave Fisher a single to account for the other Stevenson safeties in the game.

Sorrows Trails In League Track

The Our Lady of Sorrows track team scored only three points in the Catholic League's Second Division track championships.

Orchard Lake St. Mary's repeated as champs with 34-5/6 points. Utica St. Lawrence and Ann Arbor St. Thomas placed second and third, respectively.

THE TROTTERS: They're enjoying their best season yet at the Wolverine Raceway.

Not only are the crowds and the betting up, but the track continues to lure a better field of competitors.

There's still another month of action left at the Raceway where you can dine in comfort and maybe make a few bucks.

PREDICTION: Bump Elliott, the University of Michigan football coach appearing at the weekly Sports Broadcasters Luncheon, had this to say:

1—Michigan State figures to be the team to beat again next fall.

2—Michigan "will be up there in the race — somewhere." Bump also noted that Big Ten teams which have gone to the Rose Bowl historically seem to slip the next season.

The Bumper wouldn't mind if that happens to Michigan State next fall.

GOING BOATING? Be sure and check the various regulations put out by federal and state officials.

It makes no difference whether you are piloting a 10-foot outboard or a fancy craft with a bridge and sleeping quarters. There are certain precautions to take before you shove off... when you move into the water... and while the engine is running.

Elsa Realty Co. Sales Climb 27% in April

The Elsa Realty and Investment Company's April sales were $2,749,833, as compared to $2,273,429 for April 1965, a gain of over 27 per cent.

Stanton M. Elsa, president, stated, "Money is tighter and mortgage interest and mortgage discounts have increased due to current governmental tight fiscal policies."

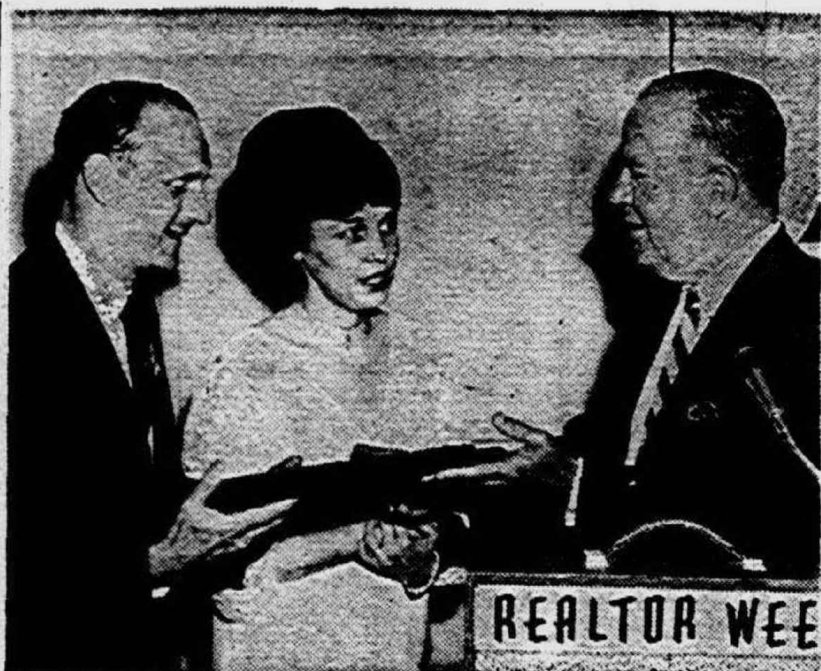

He added, "Still this was the largest volume of sales we have had for the month of April in our 37 year history."

Adding to this, he stated, "Then, too, banks are paying 5 per cent and 5 1/4 per cent on savings deposits which precludes their profitably taking F.H.A. mortgages at 5 1/4 per cent.

"This has put a strain on our Mortgage Dept., and is tending to eliminate the small down payment and weak credit purchasers, which in turn creates a more advantageous market for the home buyer with a substantial down payment," he pointed out.

"The preferred home buyer in our office is the owner who is selling his home and purchasing a better one. He invariably has a substantial down payment which makes financing less of a problem."

Patios Should Add to Home Atmosphere for Suburbanite

A patio is a part of a total home and landscape effect, and it should carry out the same atmosphere your home creates.

Each building material suited to patio use contributes to the total atmosphere, according to Joe Cox, Michigan State University landscape specialist.

He suggested using some of the same materials for home and patio construction. This visually ties the two together.

Cox, Cooperative Extension Service specialist, noted that bricks are easy for the beginning patio-builder to use. They allow the builder to work at his own pace, spread the work over several weekends and easily correct mistakes in pattern or level.

He advised using a four to six inch sand base under the bricks. If they are placed closely together, excess sand can usually be swept into the small spaces between bricks.

Fired bricks are best for patio use, since they are sturdier, Cox said. Others tend to crumble and crack during freezing weather. Sintre bricks absorb oil and food stains, they are hard to clean. They fit well into a natural setting with plants growing between them. But where the plants will grow, weeds will also. This means added upkeep.

"Any materials used to hold bricks together should not cause complications," said Cox. "Don't use materials that might rot or splinter."

He pointed out that Redwood splinters, but it resists rot. Railroad ties and fir have few splinter problems.

Cox listed asphalt as a patio surface possibility. He pointed out that while it usually is thought of as a paving for roads and driveways, it makes an inexpensive and easily placed patio. It's ready to use soon after installation.

Cox noted that asphalt absorbs heat and may soften in warm weather. It may become so hot that it will hurt or burn bare feet. But it can be cooled quickly by use of a water hose. Cox noted that some asphalt manufacturers are finding ways to eliminate the softening problem. The ability to absorb heat means snow melts quickly in winter.

Concrete is also low cost. But it may be difficult for the beginning builder to work with. It requires special equipment, so it may be more successful if professionals are hired to pour it.

Concrete's biggest advantage is that it can be molded to almost any shape. However, some people feel it has a hard, commercial look. Cox related. Dividers can break up large concrete areas and create more visual interest, he suggested. Like asphalt, it gets hot in the summer, but stays cool longer after hosing. Other materials Cox listed include flagstone, loose aggregates, tile and wood.

"Wood gives the most natural effect of all pavings," he said. "But it's not as permanent. However, it will last several years if treated with a good preservative."

Loose aggregates—gravel, limestone chips, crushed brick, tanbark and sawdust—also make satisfactory temporary surfaces. They are easy to use and economical.

But they create problems. They get kicked into flower beds and lawns, may be uncomfortable to walk on, and require constant upkeep because of weeds. They can be tracked into the house.

Tile is expensive and formal-looking. It requires exacting craftsmanship, so costs run high. But it might be effective used in small amounts with bricks or concrete.

More information on landscape paving is available from the Cooperative Extension Service office in your county. Ask for circular CE-6, "Landscape Paving for Home Grounds." The charge is 15 cents.

Realtors Honor Jominy For Outstanding Service

Ten years of outstanding service to the real estate profession in Detroit and its suburbs has earned for Jack J. Jominy an Award of Merit from the Western Wayne-Oakland County Board of Realtors-United Northwestern Realty Association, of which he is the executive vice-president.

The award, made tangible by a plaque, was presented to Jominy and his wife Ruth at the Board's annual Realtor Week banquet, at the Mayflower Meeting House in Plymouth. Introductory remarks were made by Bud Guest, famed radio personality and guest speaker of the evening. The actual presentation was made by Everett J. Wilson, Board president.

The award came as a complete surprise to both the Jominys, inasmuch as the Board members had kept this in deepest secrecy for more than a week.

The plaque read in part: "To Jack and Ruth Jominy in grateful recognition of 10 years faithful service rendered with selfless devotion and timeless effort beyond the call of duty, to the incalculable benefit of their Association, their profession, and their community."

Jominy, a graduate of the University of Michigan with a real estate major, was a B-plus student and a member of the Phi Eta Sigma Honor Society. He was president of the Rams, real estate alumni of Michigan, in 1960-61. Jominy has also been a lecturer for nine years at U-M, teaching Real Estate 1-11.

He is presently a director of the Executive Officers Council of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. Before taking his present position, Jominy was a real estate broker and co-owner of his own firm for six years and a salesman for one year.

Active also in community events, Jominy is now president of the South Redford Boosters Club, and a former Athletic Association president. He has also taken a leading role in many of his Church's activities.

Former president of the Detroit Rose Society, he is known nationally for his work in developing new varieties, and has won 12 cups in a single year. In 1959 Jominy received the national trophy of the American Rose Society for his introduction of a hybrid rose.

The Jominys and their three children, twins Jack and Jill, 11, and Wally, 13, reside at 26363 Ross Drive, Redford Township.

Homeowners Offered Variety Of Covers

Home owners considering the installation of aluminum window awnings or patio covers to enhance the appearance of their home can now get a better idea of how their home will appear after the awnings are installed.

A new series of architectural type drawings of basic home styles showing how each home will look when awnings or patio covers are installed, is now available.

A free copy of the drawings may be obtained by writing to "Home Drawings," Alcan Aluminum Corp., 111 W. 50th Street, New York, N.Y. 10030.

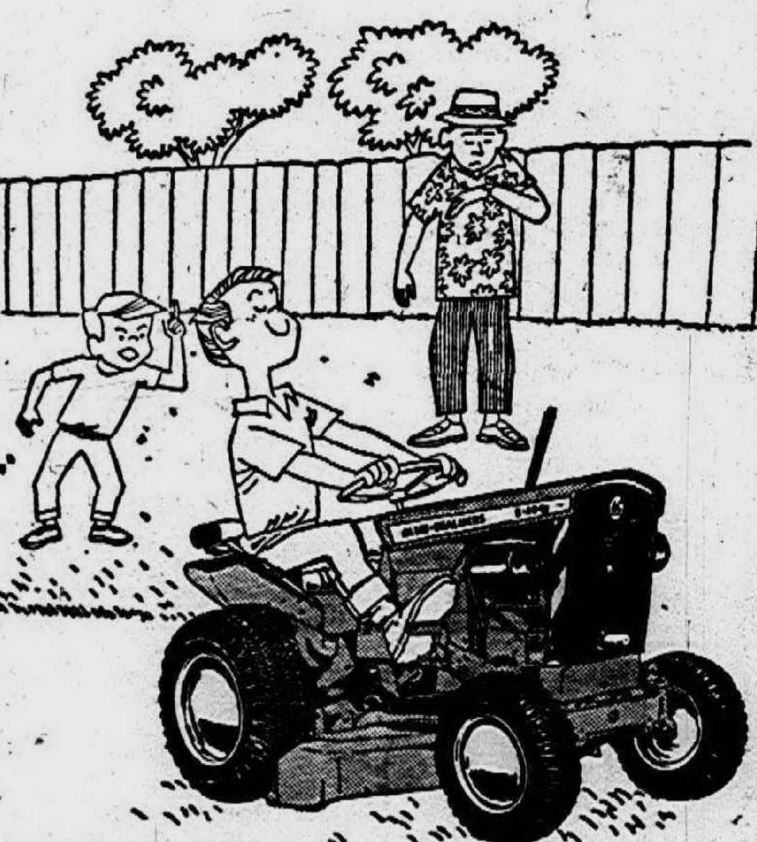

Precious Metal

Many precious gems are merely forms of aluminum—with oxygen, it forms the sapphire, ruby, Oriental amethyst and emerald. Combined with fluorine and silicon, aluminum forms the topaz; with phosphate, the turquoise and with silica soda and oxygen, it forms jade.

All Homes Should Have An Expert Landscaper

Every home needs a landscaping plan to tie it into its surroundings. Each home has a different setting and has a shape and design of its own.

The design should take into consideration the homeowner's likes in plant material and his desires for the use of the area surrounding his home. This may include a service area, garden area, play area, patio, swimming pool, etc.

No two homes can be landscaped alike. For these reasons, it is important to call upon a person with the knowledge of both design and plant material to help with our landscaping. With a basic plan, the homeowner can plant the materials in steps, to fit his pocketbook and the time available.

No-Paint Boat

The grayish surface you may see on your aluminum boat this spring is normal after its winter hiatus—it's merely surface oxidation that will vanish under a good healthy scrub and polish. Your aluminum boat doesn't need a coat of paint to protect it from the elements.

STAKE AND TIE PLANTS Make Your Garden Best in Neighborhood

Besides the usual watering, weeding, mulching, occasional lawn mowing and similar chores, there are a few things which the gardener can do to make the garden stand out above those of neighbors. Yet, they need not take up much of his time, say the garden experts.

Perhaps, the most noticeable of these is staking and tying up plants that are inclined to tumble over and look untidy. Always use stakes large enough to support the plants properly and, if possible, insert while the plants are still small to avoid injuring the roots.

The green painted ones are less conspicuous than natural colored ones.

If your soil is a heavy clay and has become hard and compacted, a good idea is to aerate your lawn by running a spiked roller or similar device over it to open it up.

This also has the further advantages of letting water and newly-applied fertilizers get into the soil where they are needed.

Gardens and lawns sometimes need a pick-up when growth and vigor lag.

To apply fertilizer to the soil during a period of draught, when moisture is scarce, means that the fertilizer will often remain inactive and unavailable in the soil.

One easy way to counteract this is to foliar feed the plants, to spray diluted liquid plant food (mixed according to the producer's instructions) on the leaves.

Within minutes the nutrients are within the plant and going about their business of feeding it. Naturally only soluble plant foods can be used for this purpose.

It pays to stick to a course of action—every endeavor has its ups-and-downs, but has no place for in-and-outs.

It's Great in the Garden But Heed Doctor's Advice

With the return of warm spring days, millions of home gardeners once again are getting out to spade beds, plant seed, spread fertilizer, mow grass—and the other countless chores attendant to keeping the lawn neat and attractive.

Your doctor recommends gardening as excellent therapy for both body and mind. For those who enjoy digging in the dirt, gardening offers good exercise, fresh air and sunshine after a winter of being cooped up indoors.

Your doctor and his American Medical Association also offer a few suggestions on keeping gardening fun and safe:

● Take it easy for the first few sessions. Don't try to work a 10-hour day at hard manual labor on the first warm weekend.

● Take frequent rest breaks and work at a pace that isn't too tiring. As the season advances, your muscles will be able to do more with less discomfort.

● Cuts, scratches and bruises are the fate of most gardeners. Clean minor cuts with warm water and soap, and cover with a light bandage.

● Tetanus lurks in the soil, and a booster shot of tetanus toxoid is recommended at the onset of the gardening season for all who have not kept their immunization up to date.

● Stop to think briefly about safety before handling garden tools—especially power tools such as lawn mowers. Power tools are great labor-saving devices, properly used.

Used carelessly, they can slash off fingers and toes. Always turn off the mower when it is left unattended, even briefly. Always turn it off when adding gasoline to the tank.

If the motor is electric, don't use the machine in wet grass. Power tools usually are accompanied by safety instructions. Read them carefully.

● Poison ivy, poison oak and poison sumac also sprout up in the spring to the great discomfort of many amateur gardeners.

Look for the three-leaf sprigs that mark poison ivy and poison oak. If in doubt, consult a botanical handbook or garden encyclopedia. If you find poison ivy in your yard, dig it out—roots and all—being careful not to touch.

If you burn poison ivy, avoid the smoke. The poisonous oils vaporize in the smoke and thus expose your whole body, eyes included.

If you get a poison ivy rash, your doctor can suggest soothing medications to ease the discomfort while healing progresses.

● First week—Arranging your furniture.

● Second week—Color coordinating your rooms.

● Third week—Buying furniture—knowing quality.

● Fourth week—Carpeting and window treatments.

● Fifth week—Wallpaper and paint.

● Sixth week—Wall arrangements and accessories.

● Seventh week—Imagination vs. money.

● Eighth week—Furniture refinishing and antiques.

"The classes will be conducted throughout the summer at most of our stores," said Ward. "Our purpose in offering these classes is simply to answer a need we have realized existed for many years . . . a need which many of our customers want 'filled' before they make a major investment in furniture, carpeting or custom made draperies," concluded Ward.

Enrollment for each class is limited to 20 students. Classes start in the Winderland store on Friday, June 10 at 7 p.m.

Insurance companies have tried to offset the public's tendency to underinsure—by offering homeowners package policies in which the minimum household contents coverage is pegged at 40 per cent of the value of the house (its 50 per cent in some policies.)

But even this provision does not do the job for all families, and those who have possessions worth more than that can easily get their insurance company to increase the coverage.

Many insurers provide policyholders with guidebooks for making inventories of household contents, as an aid in obtaining adequate coverages and in filing a proper claim following a loss.

Fretwork Livens Outdoor Scene

Airy, open and very much in the mood of spring, fretwork casts cool reflections of light and shade across the home fashion scene. Its appearances are many, its interpretations varied.

Lattice and trellis effects, lacy patterns in wrought iron, cut-out wood carvings, wicker and caning—they're all part of the fretwork trend.

Ornamental openwork adorns everything from outdoor furniture to folding screens.

The fretwork influence is seen in the use of carved, cut-out wood for the sides of sofas and chairs or the headboards of beds.

Used in the same way, caning in furniture looks both cool and attractive for spring.

Fabrics and floor coverings, wall papers and wall paneling echo the trend. Sofas, for instance, are upholstered in fabrics with scroll patterns that reflect the fretwork feeling of their carved wood sides.

Wall-to-wall carpeting or area rug, floor coverings create the fretwork look through both patterns and weaves—sculptured effects, for example.

Paneling displays dimensional designs, like a softer version of wrought iron, while wallpaper patterns follow the fretwork trend with lattice, and wicker effects.

Expressing still another approach to the airy, open look, folding floor screens employ everything from wicker weaves to pre-strung strands of beads for a refreshing result.

In wall ornaments, various types of scroll designs are ready to complement the fretwork of new home fashions.

Airy and open is the look for furniture and furnishings this spring. All is light and bright—for the new season.

Every time you run a traffic light you're betting your life against a few seconds' time.

Wards to Sponsor Decorating Classes

S. D. Ward, District General Manager of Montgomery Ward and Company, announced today the beginning of a new series of home furnishing and decorating classes in all Detroit area stores.

The course, "Ask Annabelle" was originated by Annabelle King, well known author, lecturer and teacher in the field of home furnishings and decorating. Miss King has studied at an Eastern School of Interior Design; authored a series of articles published by a large Metropolitan Daily Newspaper and was consultant to one of America's largest furniture retailers.

In addition Miss King was a "regular" guest on television and radio stations presenting new ideas in interior decorating.

Miss King's philosophy of interior design can be summarized in her own word "practical." "The homemaker is the target of our course—it is the homemaker who best knows what she wants. We find that the problem in most cases is that the housewife lacks "expression" for the taste she has. She needs a focal point from which to start—and that's what our course offers—a starting point," concluded Miss King.

The course covers eight vital points that "start" the housewife toward realization of her own personal objectives, including:

● First week—Arranging your furniture.

● Second week—Color coordinating your rooms.

● Third week—Buying furniture—knowing quality.

● Fourth week—Carpeting and window treatments.

● Fifth week—Wallpaper and paint.

● Sixth week—Wall arrangements and accessories.

● Seventh week—Imagination vs. money.

● Eighth week—Furniture refinishing and antiques.

Make Beauty Spots Of Bare Places

Floods or droughts aside, nearly every garden has a trouble spot that crops up year after year. Usually the despair of home gardeners, these areas can actually become the focal point of your garden.

The reason for the problem may be that it's become a well-worn path for children and pets, that the soil is inhospitable to plant life, or that the area is exposed to too much sun or gets no sun at all.

Rather than convert such spots to green-painted concrete slabs, there are a number of ways to make them into unusual and eye-catching plus factors.

One method is to carefully mark off the limits of the area, and start digging. After you have removed the soil to a depth of one foot, fill in about eight inches with crushed stone, and top with four inches of smaller stones, gravel or pebbles.

After edging with aluminum or redwood strips, which should be left an inch or so higher than the pebbles, you are ready to produce an instant garden.

A sunny spot will provide a happy home for clay potted geraniums, in red, white or pink. Simply remove the pebbles and stone to a depth large enough to accommodate the pots and pop in your plants.

If your plants are professionally grown, odds are they will be in clay pots, and have the right kind of soil for healthy growth. If they aren't in clay pots, it would be wise to repot them.

The reason is that the walls of the clay pots are porous, and you don't have to worry about over-watering.

Excess water from your garden sprinkler will simply drain out through the sides of the pot, as will any excess salts—thus virtually duplicating soil action. Non-porous pots allow the water to build up in the pot and induce root rot.

If the idea of pebbles is a bit too much for you as a topping, try redwood chips for the last four inches, above the crushed stone. Or, if the very thought of that much digging in your problem area brings on heavy perspiration, there's an easy way out.

Simply treat the soil in the marked area with one of the new all-purpose herbicides. That will effectively kill off any weeds that might appear. Then top off the spot with two inches of peat moss, bark or redwood chips.

If too much shade is the problem, a visit to your garden center or local greenhouse will turn up a wide variety of flowering plants such as fuchsia, impatiens and begonias that will do well there.

Or you might want to consider a garden of potted foliage plants. Philodendron, dracaena, and a host of others will make a truly fascinating show of greenery.

Warm Soil Makes Seeds Germinate
Don't get overly anxious about planting flower seeds. Most seeds will not germinate until the soil warms to about 60 degrees.

Many Fail to Insure Possessions

Nearly one-third of American families still carry no insurance at all on their household possessions despite the tremendous growth of this form of insurance protection in recent years.

And many others who once had adequate insurance have not kept it up to date with recent acquisitions.

"Families are accumulating valuable personal property at an astonishing rate, filling 53 million homes and apartments with billions of dollars worth of insurable goods ranging from food freezers, color TV sets, and hi-fi systems to pool tables, hobby collections, antique furnishings and jewelry.

"This cornucopia of household possessions has increased the typical family's vulnerability to loss from home fires, windstorms, burglaries and other mishaps," states the Journal, publication of the American Mutual Insurance Alliance.

The chief adjuster of one large property insurance company is quoted as saying his adjusters "seldom see a large fire loss today in which the dwellings' contents are adequately insured."

The fundamental reason for this situation, he adds, probably is the owner's lack of information as to the real value of his increasing possessions.

Insurance companies have tried to offset the public's tendency to underinsure—by offering homeowners package policies in which the minimum household contents coverage is pegged at 40 per cent of the value of the house (its 50 per cent in some policies.)

But even this provision does not do the job for all families, and those who have possessions worth more than that can easily get their insurance company to increase the coverage.

Many insurers provide policyholders with guidebooks for making inventories of household contents, as an aid in obtaining adequate coverages and in filing a proper claim following a loss.

Give Dahlias Daily Dunk'n

Heavy flowers, such as dahlias, need more water to keep them fresh in vases than smaller flowers.

Submerge the entire arrangement in water, including the flowers, for a few minutes daily to help prolong their freshness.

Don't do this to delphiniums, orchids or iris, as they water-spot.

Zinnias will last longer if most of the leaves are removed. Spraying zinnia and chrysanthemum leaves will make them last longer. Remove wilted leaves.

Khartoum Premiers at Theatre

"Khartoum," Julian Blaustein's Cinerama Production starring Charlton Heston, Laurence Olivier, Richard Johnson and Ralph Richardson, will have a gala red-carpet premiere at the Cinerama Music Hall Theatre on Wednesday, June 22 at 8:30 p.m.

A stirring adventure centered around one of England's greatest heroes, "Khartoum," a United Artists release, is the story of the historic defense of the Nile city of Khartoum by General Charles Gordon against thousands of fanatical dervishes led by the Arab warrior priest, the Mahdi.

Heston plays General Gordon, an inspired military leader who fought to the end; Laurence Olivier is seen as the Mahdi, one of the most fascinating fighting men to come out of the desert; Johnson portrays Col. J. D. H. Stewart, Gordon's military aide, and Ralph Richardson is shown as Prime Minister Gladstone, the man whose failure to recognize Gordon's peril led to disaster and brought a storm of protest on his head.

Others in the cast include Alexander Knox, Johnny Sekka, Michael Horden, Zia Mohyeddin, plus many other international players and approximately 10,000 Egyptian troops who portray members of the British, Sudanese, Egyptian and Dervish armies.

Produced by Julian Blaustein and directed by Basil Dearden from a screenplay by Robert Ardrey, "Khartoum" was filmed in England and along the Nile the dramatic setting of the sweeping historical events that rocked England and the British Empire in the 1880's.

The city of Khartoum was rebuilt on the banks of the Nile as it looked 81 years ago.

Armies were trained, camels, horses and other animals were rounded up by Yakima Cantutt, who directed the mighty location battle scenes. He previously staged the famed chariot race in "Ben Hur," which also starred Charlton Heston.

"STOP THE WORLD I Want To Get Off" opens at the Livonia Cinema Theatre June 15 for a limited engagement. The film, taken from the Broadway hit musical, stars Tony Tanner, Neil Hawley and Millicent Martin.

Residents Organize New Travel Club

A great deal has been written about the jet set and its activities. While it sounds exciting the practical matter is that most of us simply can't afford to participate in that group's activities.

Two local residents — Don Baron of Plymouth and F. A. Bugni of Farmington — are seeking to change this.

Stemming from an inability to join a private travel club because of lack of accommodations the two and a group of their friends decided to form their own organization.

The result is a non profit organization known as "Adventure DC 7 Inc."

With a target of 1,000 members, the organization has already gathered 117 interested persons from among their friends and relatives.

They have negotiated for the purchase of a DC 7 aircraft currently being sold by commercial airlines because of the changeover to the jets. They have a total of 32 flights — both weekend and of longer duration, plus one day hops — scheduled.

They offer air fares at two and a half cents per flying mile as compared to 12 1/2 cents on a commercial airline. Added to that all of the flights will feature first class champagne service, while the comparative cost is drawn from the commercial tourist fares.

In order to qualify there is a lifetime enrollment fee and monthly dues plus the cost of the trips taken. The enrollment fee is $100 per person if over 21; $150 per couple; $21 for those under 21; and those under two are admitted to membership free. Dues are $8 a month.

The group figures that this will help to purchase the airplane, pay a professional trained and experienced crew of six, and pay the maintenance costs.

Added to this the group will also provide land accommodations and tours and entertainment if desired. One of the officers of the groups formerly owned a travel agency in New York City and a hotel in Miami so they are not amateurs.

Baron is president of the organization while Bugni is the public relations and promotion man. They can be reached at 864-7733 or 474-3943 evenings for further information.

The first flight scheduled out of Willow Run is in July to Miami. In the fall they plan trips to the Brussels Annual Fair and a capital hopping trip of Europe.

Let set here we come!
 Keep your troubles to yourself or they will expand.

Grade Schoolers Study Art

Volunteers will carry a series of four lectures to an estimated 25,000 Detroit fifth and sixth graders in an art appreciation series which will start with the Fall term.

This is an expansion of the pioneering "Art to the Schools" program initiated by the Junior League of Detroit five years ago in cooperation with the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The 1966-67 program will now include trained volunteers selected from both the Junior League and the Founders Society Volunteer Committee, under the direction of the Institute's Education Department. Co-chairman for the combined volunteer corps are Miss Adele Huebner and Mrs. Hugh W. Greenberg.

Object of the program is personal acquaintance with the visual resources of the city's museum. The four slide-and talk topics given to the children by a team of two volunteers trained in the subject also includes elements of design such as line, color, texture and composition.

Miss Adele Huebner, chairman of the Art to the Schools Committee, explained the development of the Junior League project to an organizational in Charge of Education, and Miss Jean Dodenhoff, Assistant Curator, outlined the requirements and training courses which the volunteers would experience before undertaking school assignments.

School Kids Participated in Tree Planting Activity

Elementary school children in the Livonia district combined Michigan Week Arbor Day, and "keep Livonia beautiful" action as they planted two large evergreen trees and flats of petunias on their school grounds.

The idea, sparked by Sofia Anderson and Lee Landes, Michigan Week coordinator, was held at varying hours, weather permitting.

"In some neighborhoods senior citizens and PTA groups are joining with the children in this purposeful activity," Mrs. Anderson said.

Dr. Henry Heusner, director of elementary education said that each school will get two four-foot evergreen trees and four dozen petunia plants.

"We hope that this will encourage young people and parents to plant flowers, bushes, and trees on their own property," Dr. Heusner said.

According to Lee Landes, children will also be encouraged to help keep their school grounds tidy on this day and all other days and to watch for and stop litterbugs all year around.

STANDSTILL

The fellow who is satisfied with his accomplishments is on the downgrade of life.

American Drama Festival To Offer 4 Productions

The American Drama Festival opens its summer season at Greenfield Village on Friday, July 1, with nightly performances, except Sunday, through Sept. 3.

Program To Feature Local Talent

The Ford Chorus annual spring production "Spring Sing-Out," will be presented at Edsel Ford High School auditorium, Rotunda Drive in Dearborn June 2, 3 and 4 at 8:30 p.m. Ray Kooi, director of the Ford Motor Company Fund, is the director of the chorus. Lillian Klein is accompanist.

In addition to a concert by the 90-voice chorus, the program will feature hits from Broadway musicals. A soloist in this part of the program will be Carole Bitz of 28455 Hawberry, Farmington.

Again this year choreography for the chorus line as well as the dances will be arranged by Louise McPhee of 14538 Stonehouse, Livonia, and Marge Cole, 14720 Thornridge, Plymouth. Costuming is under the direction of Roberta Evon.

This "Spring Sing-Out" is one of the festivities scheduled for the June 2-5 weekend in Dearborn highlighting cultural activities, which is expected to grow into a "Fair Lane Festival" each June. Other participants this year are the Henry Ford Community College and Dearborn's Recreation Department, as well as the annual antiquities show sponsored by the Dearborn Rotarians.

For tickets contact the Ford Motor Company, Recreation Unit, The American Rd., Dearborn, 322-4155 or any chorus member.

Four plays are scheduled in repertory fashion in the Henry Ford Museum theater. "The Scarecrow," written by Perry MacKaye in 1852, is the first production. It's a hilarious story of a scarecrow brought to life by a witch and the devil and is set in the 1690's in New England.

"Shenandoah," written by Bronson Howard in 1868, is the second production. A comic satire involving spies, romance and the exciting battle of the Shenandoah Valley, this play opens on July 11 and alternates with "Scarecrow."

"Our American Cousin" opens on July 25. This play by Tom Taylor starred the fabulous Laura Keane when it played at the Ford Theater in Washington, D. C., 101 years ago. It was during the third act of this play that John Wilkes Booth assassinated Abraham Lincoln. The same rocking chair in which Lincoln was seated that night in the theater is enshrined in a glass case today in the Logan County Courthouse at Greenfield Village.

Joseph Jefferson's original version of the Washington Irving tale of "Rip Van Winkle" will be the fourth dramatic presentation in the Henry Ford Museum theater, opening on Aug. 8. The Greenfield Village players presented this play during the Christmas holiday season last year and met with tremendous success.

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. each evening, Monday through Saturday. The entire theater program is part of the educational concept of bringing American history to life at the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village.

Seek Jobs for Youth

The Greater Farmington Youth Guidance Committee has reactivated the Youth Work Committee for young people up to the age of 17 and are seeking any individual who has any type of spot work available for young people.

According to Wesley I. Mitchell, interim chairman, the reactivation came about because the committee "recognizes the need for some coordination in the area of temporary employment for young people.

"The primary purpose of this committee," he explained, "is to act as a clearing house between young people who are looking for 'spot' jobs and anyone in the community, including business people, who need odd jobs done, such as lawn-cutting, garden digging, baby sitting, house cleaning, etc."

Young people who are looking for work (summer and otherwise) are also urged to direct their inquiries to the Youth Guidance Committee.

In order to register just indicate the type of work you desire or need done and the amount of money you expect to receive or pay and mail it to him at 30600 Springfield Drive, Farmington.

In cases where workers are needed immediately it would be permissible to call GR 4-0767 or GR 4-2320. However, unless the need is immediate no phone registrations will be accepted.

Aces to Clash On Drag Track

Two supercharged, Chrysler-powered A/Gas drag racers capable of 150 miles per hour plus, both out of Los Angeles, meet in a best of three match race as a special feature at Motor City Dragway, 26 Mile, east of Edsel Ford Freeway, Saturday night.

One will be the Big John Mazmanian 1940 Willys coupe drag car, valued at more than $10,000, which is regarded as the world's most beautiful, gasser. It negotiates the quarter-mile strip in less than ten seconds, with speeds well over 150 mph.

The other is the Stone, Woods and Cook Willys which holds the world record in its class of 152 miles per hour. Doug "Cookie" Cook, who established the record, will be at the wheel.

It's curtains for the '65-'66 TV season. Final curtains are being brought down, signaling the summer re-run schedule, designed for the most part to allow you to see what you missed (and in most cases should have) during the past year of TV-viewing.

The final rating figures are in and compiled and we thought you might like a look at the top twenty shows during the past season, based on an average of their ratings for the entire year:

- 1) Bonanza - NBC
- 2) Gomer Pyle - CBS
- 3) Lucy - CBC
- 4) Batman (Thurs.) - ABC
- 5) Andy Griffith - CBS
- 6) Bewitched - ABC
- 7) Red Skelton - CBS
- 8) Beverly Hillsbillies - CBS
- 9) Hogan's Heroes - CBS
- 10) Batman (Wed.) - ABC
- 11) Green Acres - CBS
- 12) Get Smart - NBC
- 13) Man from U.N.C.L.E. - NBC
- 14) Daktari - CBS
- 15) My Three Sons - CBS
- 16) Dick Van Dyke - CBS
- 17) Ed Sullivan - CBS
- 18) Walt Disney - NBC
- 19) Lawrence Welk - ABC
- 20) I've Got a Secret - CBS

Gilligan's Island - CBS
Petticoat Junction - CBS
The final results establish CBS as undisputed rating champion for the year as they managed to land in the top 20 with a total of no less than 14 shows. NBC trailed with only four shows making the list, as was the case with ABC which needed Batman to place twice in order to reach that figure.

Needless to say, many changes are planned for next year, particularly at ABC where, as we told you last week, 16 new shows will be introduced next season. CBS plans 10 new shows for next year and NBC will debut 11 new primetime packages.

Detroit's Marvin Gaye is slated to headline the bill at the Copa in New York next August. He is the second Motown act to be booked at the famous night spot. The first act so honored, the Supremes, proved so popular an attraction that they drew rave notices in all the New York papers.

Joel Sebastian, now at WCFL in Chicago has been invited to act as one of the hosts for the Beatle concert slated for McCormick Place there, Aug. 12. The following day the English entertainers invade Detroit for a performance. Joel also was honored the last time that they appeared in Detroit as he emceed their appearance at Olympia two years ago.

The Beatles' main competitors, the Rolling Stones are currently working on their first motion picture feature, "Only Living Art Alive."

OBSERVING THE TOP TEN

- 1) Strangers in the Night - Frank Sinatra
- 2) When a Man Loves a Woman - Percy Sledge
- 3) Paint It Black - Rolling Stones
- 4) Little Girl - Syndicate of Sound
- 5) Mama - B. J. Thomas
- 6) Barefootin' - Robert Parker
- 7) Ain't Too Proud to Beg - Temptations
- 8) Cheryl Ann - Tim Tam
- 9) On Yeah - Shadows of Knight
- 10) Rain/Paperback Writer - Beatles

Garden City, Westland Heads At Conference

Garden City and Westland municipal officials returned from Washington, D.C., after discussing problems with federal representatives.

The day-long conference for the 70 city officials from 13 communities was sponsored by Congressman William D. Ford, whose 15th District includes Garden City and Westland.

Attending from Westland (at that time Nankin Township) were Supervisor Thomas H. Brown, Clerk William J. Engle, Trustees Virgil Gagnon and John Markes and Attorney John J. Nellis.

Garden City officials in the capital were Mayor Edwin F. Reeh, Jr., Clerk-Treasurer Neil Michaelson, Council Robert S. Wildish, Planning Commissioner Jerome Mack, Attorney Ronald Mack, and Urban Renewal Director Henry Graper, Jr.

Ford said he held the second annual conference to allow local officials in his district to learn of new developments in the federal programs available to the communities.

During the conference, the officials were in small workshop sessions to discuss urban renewal, water and sewer grants, code enforcement, air and water pollution and waste disposal with federal representation.

They also heard Joseph P. Luman, special assistant to the Secretary of State, talk on the country's role in Vietnam. Luman was in the American Embassy in Saigon from 1963 to 1965.

Others addressing the local persons were Sargent Shriver, director of the Office of Economic Opportunity; M. Carter McFarland, assistant commissioner of Federal Housing Administration programs; and Dean Coston, deputy under-secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, and House Speaker John McCormick.

Summer Driver School To Enroll 1,300

A record number of driver education students are expected to enroll in courses, in Livonia this summer.

John Anderson, who has seen the number of young men and women interested in getting school and state approval for driver licenses grown from 861 in 1961 to 1,601 last year, predicts that 1,300 will enroll in summer courses alone in June and July.

This summer, two sessions, will be offered. The first will be held from June 20 to July 23, and the second from July 25 through August 26.

This year driver trainee classes will be held at both Franklin and Bentley high schools for two hours each day six days a week. Students can enroll for classes starting at 8, 10, 12:30, 2:30 and 4:30.

Due to the great demands only students whose birthdate falls on or before December 31, 1950 can be considered for summer classes and, if the rush is too great, older students will get first consideration.

Most of the cars used in driver education are donated by local auto dealers. "The Board, in asking for a five mill increase in school taxes, promised to keep driver education if the proposal passed," Anderson said. "With the emphasis on travel safety and the growing number of young people planning to drive, we're all plenty happy that we didn't have to close down this program!"

All students, except sophomores, should register at their respective high schools the same as for other high school summer classes. All sophomores desiring driver education will register in their home-room. Parochial and private school students may register at the public high school in their area. Junior high students will be 16 years of age or before December 31, 1966 may register at their junior high school.

Registrations for driver education will close on June 1. Applications received after this date will be considered in order of their receipt if enough vehicles and teachers are available. Students are not charged tuition for driver education although there is a $1.25 fee for a student hand book. The course fees come primarily from the state license fund with the local board contributing around one-third of the cost of tuition.

5 Livonians Honored by Wayne State

Wayne State University's Applied Management and Technology Center has awarded special Certificates of Attainment to more than 150 Detroit area students. The students completed certificate requirements during the spring term. The enrollment for the Center for the school year just ended totaled almost 6,000.

Approximately 200 after-work hour courses are offered by the Center each term. Classes are taught both in Detroit and at eight suburban locations to provide employees with basic and advanced up-to-date subjects in business, management and technology.

Local residents and the certificates they received are: William L. Bell, 34869 Grove, Livonia—Six Course Certificate; Calvin Bowyer, 13479 Farley, Livonia—Six Course Certificate; David F. Habitz, 9374 Hix Road, Livonia—Six Course Certificate; George B. Rogers, Jr., 30229 Hathaway, Livonia—Six Course Certificate; and William R. O'Neill, 15939 Edgewood Drive, Livonia—Six Course Certificate.

Dinwoodie is working in the YMCA of Haddonfield, New Jersey.

Besides his duties in general program development, Dinwoodie will be directing the Livonia YMCA Day Camp which begins June 27. He brings to this community many years of YMCA experience, much of this being spent in YMCA camping.

The Livonia "Y" Day Camp is a new program for the community. However, with Dinwoodie's experience and the qualified staff that is now being employed, it should provide a top-notch experience for boys and girls 8 to 12 years of age.

A bus route has been devised so that youngsters can be picked up in close proximity to their homes. The camp fee includes all costs of craft, supplies, milk each day, insurance, leadership, a YMCA "T" shirt, and all special trip fees. The program will reflect a heavy emphasis on camping skills, with swimming instruction, nature lore, woodcraft, archery, and all other activities which young people enjoy.

For further information about the eight-week camp, call Chuck Wise at 261-0370, or drop in at the Livonia "Y" office in the Elm School annex, 12330 Middlebelt Road.

Achievement Cited

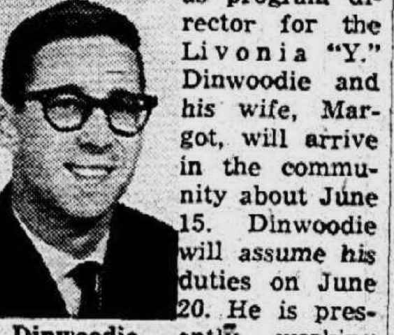

Thomas D. McCarthy, 16361 Hubbard, Livonia, has been cited by an insurance firm as one of its top salesmen in the United States.

Mr. McCarthy, who represents the company at its Detroit office, has received the Leaders award, made to personal and business lines salesmen whose sales performance places them in the top 10 per cent of the company's 1,300-man sales force.

This is his second such award. A graduate of Hillsdale College, he started with the company in 1956.

Livonia YMCA Staff Expanded

Dr. Donald E. Friedrichs, chairman of the local YMCA board, announces the appointment of Donald G. Dinwoodie as program director for the Livonia "Y."

Wally Roberts UP' GOING 'CURTAIN

June is busting out all over as are the many fine summer attractions in the Detroit area. The Fisher Theater promises a lively month of variety entertainment in the form of Mitzi Gayner, Johnny Mathis, Eddie Gorme, and Steve Lawrence. Northland Playhouse opens its doors with a pre-Broadway comedy "Goodbye Ghosts," featuring June Allyson.

Over at Livonia's Franklin High school these two intrepid musical comedy entrepreneurs, Dave Hirvela and Roy Ernest, are busy planning a fantastic feast of musical entertainment via the summer musical, "South Pacific." Casting is continuing as Dave and Roy make plans for a third summer of musical entertainment and education.

Before we get too far into summer plans, let's take a minute to review a brace of University productions seen last month as May was drawing to a misty close: Wayne's "Stop The World" and Eastern Michigan's "Ah, Wilderness."

It's not too often that old Wally has to slap the artistic wrist of Director Russ Smith. By and Large, Mr. Smith does an excellent job of staging, scene designing and make-up. You name it Theatrically and Russ is usually tops.

But like all directors (even the great Tyrone Guthrie or Ella Kazan) you do have "That Show" in which you "bomb" out. An artistic mistake is made and before you know it the show does not "jell" as it should.

Director Smith had the finest of talent with Russ Paquette playing Littlechap. Russ has more talent in his right index finger than many actors in their whole body. His timing is flawless. His stage presence is fabulous. His sensitive characterization of Littlechap sent shivers down and up your spine as Littlechap realizes what a fool he's been.

What then was the trouble with Wayne State's version of "Stop The World"? Why was it so sad that old Wally wanted to re-title the production "Stop The Show—I Want To Get Out?"

To state the problem succinctly—Director Smith fell in love with the musical. He wanted it to go on forever.

Smith expanded the show by at least an extra half an hour. He repeated some of the sequences, added extra pantomimic bits for Littlechap and Evie, and made the two act musical into a three act marathon. Artistically, Smith maimed this work of art by excessive additions.

I'm sure that if Anthony Newly who wrote and acted the original version in London and New York had visited at the Bonstelle he would have stopped the show and demanded the shorter version be played. Cutting a musical down 10 or 15 minutes is usually a beneficial, considerate technique. But adding and expanding? Come now, Director Smith, you must be kidding.

No such expansion problem haunted the lovely, sentimental treatment accorded the moving, magnificent production of "Ah Wilderness" at the Quirk Theater by the Eastern Michigan Players. Director Zellers had the situation well in hand.

Dale Bellaire walked away with top acting honors as Sid Davis. His paunchy posturing and professional punching of the lines had the audience sending wave after wave of laughter roaring through the theater. Don't know when I've seen a better dinner scene as done by Bellaire and his dinner companions.

John Stanton, Dave Siglin, Richard Warsick, and John Frazzini turned in strong supporting character work to make O'Neill's "Ah, Wilderness" live once again. Betty Burrows for her first time in a major production gave quite a credible performance as Essie.

Director Zellers did wonders with this usually wordy O'Neill play. He had the actors pace the show beautifully and the curtain came down well ahead of the traditional two and one-half hour playing time. Here and there a few changes could have been made, but then old Wally is not going to get obstreperous over details.

Eastern Michigan's version of "Ah, Wilderness" had serene beauty, some lovable humor, and best of all it had a Sid Davis that matched the fireworks heard in Act I with his zippy approach to a role that might have been too maudlin.

Old Wally is looking forward to Eastern Michigan's summer show in the outdoor amphitheater, "The Thurber Carnival." It should be real summer fun.

Westland Nursery Graduates 27

The Wayne Co-op Nursery, 555 S. Wayne Road, Westland, held a "graduating" ceremony for 27 youngsters. The school also honored the "graduates" with a part in their honor in the St. John's Episcopal Church parish hall.

School was dismissed recently with the 27 visiting a kindergarten class to see what is ahead for them next fall. The 27 are Matty Cholak, Mary Evelyn Faulk, Tracey Galerno, Phil Gamber, James Gardner, Kipling Hemingway, Mark Higgins, Mike Javince, Nadine Kaluzny.

Also Diane Kinsey, Jim Kuhlman, Doree Lansky, Sharon Martzoff, Annette Montgomery, Kristina Morrison, Mark Pasciak, Dawn Perkins, Fred Prentiss.

And Lisa Riley, Mary Lou Robinson, Randy Seim, Missy Severson, Paul Stephens, Dan Stivers, Terry Torode, Kent Varhol and Peter Yang.

Will Train in South

Airman Robert G. Hutchinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Hutchinson, 15316 Fitzgerald Lane, Livonia, has been selected for training at Keesler AFB, Miss., as an Air Force communications-electronics specialist. The airman, a graduate of North Farmington High School, recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Tirrell Warns of Loss in State Aid to College

Current programs and plans for expansion of Oakland Community College will face curtailment in the amount of $1,005,402 (detail attached) if State support is limited to the appropriation presently pending in the Legislature. OCC President John E. Tirrell has reported to the Board of Trustees.

The Michigan Community Colleges have requested State Aid in the amount of $500 per full-time student and $325 per full-time transfer student and $350 per full-time technical/vocational student, Tirrell said.

"It is especially disconcerting," Tirrell reported, "that, although the Legislature can see fit to appropriate $16,700,000 to the 25 public community colleges, it is seriously considering a Bill (SB 780) to provide some $4,000,000 for assistance to students who will attend private and parochial institutions of higher learning."

"Historically, a cornerstone of this nation's strength and independence has been the establishment and expansion of a public school system available for all.

"Oakland Community College was created by the citizens of Oakland County who voted under estate statute to provide for its youth and adults — in the public institution — low cost, high quality educational opportunities so that they might best prepare themselves for useful and rewarding lives.

"Twenty-four other County Districts have similarly voted the establishment of public community colleges in their areas.

"For more than 100 years the State assumed the responsibility for assisting the public institutions of higher learning —originally providing almost 100 per cent of the cost for construction and operation. Even today, the State-supported four-year colleges and universities receive upwards of $700 per full-time student.

"I see no need, therefore, for public institutions to be placed in the position of cutting back their programs when funds are somehow available to assist students who prefer to attend private or parochial schools," Tirrell concluded.

GC Soldiers Complete Cannoneer Training

Two soldiers from Garden City, Privates Everett C. Boyer and Michael R. Eblen, completed advanced artillery training as cannoneers at the Army Artillery and Missile School, Fort Sill, Okla. Boyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Boyer, 7415 Deering St., entered the Army in December 1965 and completed basic combat training at Fort Knox, Ky. The 19-year-old soldier is a 1965 graduate of Franklin High School. Eblen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Eblen, 8342 Hubbard, completed the course under the Reserve Enlistment Program. The 21-year-old soldier is a 1962 graduate of Bentley High School in Livonia.

Air Force Assigns Two Garden City Airmen to Texas Duty

Two Garden City men are being assigned to Sheppard AFB, Tex., to attend technical training course after completing U. S. Air Force basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Williams of 28918, Balmoral, will be trained as an aircraft maintenance specialist. He is a 1965 graduate of Garden City High School.

Airman Dennis C. Mullyally, son of Mrs. Aurelia Carlson, 6550 Golfview, will attend a course for communications wiring specialists.

Ensign George J. Cook Jr., of 18875 Loveland Street, Livonia, has reported for duty at the Naval Air Auxiliary Station, Pensacola, Fla. A graduate of Michigan State University, he recently received his commission after attending Officer Candidate School for 16 weeks.

Workers To Share in $27.4 Million Pot

More than $27.4 million is being paid in lieu of vacations and in unused absence allowance this year to approximately 81,000 Chrysler Corporation hourly employees.

The employees, including approximately 52,000 in the Detroit area received the payments. The Detroit area workers will receive a total of approximately $22,650,000 in payments.

Symphony Gets Check For $2,000

The Plymouth Symphony Society elected three new members to the Board and received a check for $2,000 from the Symphony League President Mrs. Marvin Sackett at high spots of the annual meeting at Junior High West.

The new directors are: Richard Merriman, of Northville Township; John Herb and Dr. Robert Petersen.

The $2,000 was given to the Symphony as a gift over and above the pledge of the Symphony League according to Mrs. Sackett in her presentation speech to Symphony President James Thomas.

Mrs. Sackett also announced the decision of the League to present two Interlochen scholarships in honor of the late Joseph Maddy, founder and president of the nationally famed music camp and institution.

The first two recipients of the new scholarships are: Stephanie Sanocki and Andrew Wisniewski.

Symphony Orchestra Conductor Wayne Dunlap presented Interlochen scholarships to 11 winners. The awards are made by the Plymouth Symphony Society. Those receiving the scholarships were: Phyllis Berry, Lorna DeMeritt, Paula Eicholtz, Howard Norris, Robert Leach, Karen Kreitsch, James Warren, Craig Sincock, Peter Spurling and Sue Lawton.

In his remarks to the audience, Dunlap told of two goals of the orchestra: (1) to present concerts to many more residents of the area, perhaps actually appearing in Northville and Livonia; (2) to make every effort possible to speed the construction of a community auditorium.

Vivian Proposes Aid for Retarded

By Congressman Wes Vivian U.S. Representative Wes Vivian has introduced legislation in the House of Representatives which would permit funds appropriated under the Mental Retardation Facilities Act of 1963 to be used for the construction of classrooms for the mentally retarded.

In introducing the legislation, Congressman Vivian said, "under present regulations, grants are not made to State or local public school systems to assist in the construction of classrooms for the retarded in a regular or special school."

"The only way in which Federal money can now assist the education of mentally retarded children is through classrooms to be built in an institution for the retarded."

"I feel that this restriction is a serious one, and one which can and should be corrected. It is estimated that there are today about five and one-half million mentally retarded persons in our country. But recent studies of the problem of retardation show that only about one in ten of this total are seriously retarded. The rest are generally termed the educable retarded."

"For the most part, these persons do not require institutionalization, and will probably live in their own homes and communities all of their lives. Their primary need is for an opportunity for education and training, to enable them to develop their full potential."

employment, they may very well become welfare recipients and a burden on their families and communities.

"Public awareness of the complex and long-ignored problem of mental retardation is growing. Many local school districts may wish to provide classes for the retarded; but they face a classroom shortage, and a growing school population."

"I have been contracted by school officials in my District who are building new schools and would like to include classrooms for the retarded. However, when funds are limited, our local school officials understandably tend to fill the needs of the regular school population first."

"My amendment would allow funds appropriated under title I, part C, of Public Law 88-164, to be used to construct new schools and classrooms, or to expand and remodel classrooms in existing buildings, for use by the mentally retarded."

"Most educators feel that the best place for the retarded child to receive his education is in the local neighborhood school, not in a special facility serving only retardates. The similarities shared by those of normal mentality and those with a mental deficiency are far greater than the differences. The aim should be to integrate those with disabilities into the mainstream of American life, insofar, as is possible."

"Only when we know that each retarded child is being afforded the opportunity to develop to his full potential will we be able to feel confident that we are doing our best to overcome this problem," Representative Vivian concluded.

They will be called upon to vote on the proposed charter for the City of Plymouth Heights—the third such election in four years—and for a complete slate of city officials to fill all elected posts.

At the same time they will be voting for officers of the Township Board.

Should voters approve the charter and the City of Plymouth Heights will be ruled out and the area involved will become a city with the Mayor and officials to be elected at the same time.

Should the charter vote and the City of Plymouth Heights be rejected, as it has in two previous polls, then the area will remain a Township and be governed as in the past.

Either way, the present elected officials aren't taking any chances, they'll campaign for both governmental units with the knowledge that they'll be candidates in the final election regardless of how the charter vote goes.

DPW News And Notes

By Supt. Ken Vogras PLYMOUTH DEPT. OF PUBLIC WORKS

Department of Public Works were busy the past week mowing and trimming grass at Riverside Cemetery and in Kellogg Park in preparation for the annual Memorial Day Activities.

A broken eight-inch water main was repaired in the New England Subdivision. The break came when a sub-contractor for Detroit Edison drilled through the main while digging a hole for a pole.

There was a great deal of rusty water on Monday when Michigan Bell workers disconnected a meter line from the reservoir to the Six Mile Well-house, causing a drop in pressure. The Mill Street station had to be kicked out to compensate for the pressure loss.

During the past week, many of those on the commercial rubbish pickup list were billed by J & H Trucking, the city rubbish contractors, for pickups over and above the contract.

Commercial pickups are allowed one yard or 300 gallons of rubbish free for one week's accumulation. The bills were for services above the allowance.

J & H officials have been making the additional pickups without cost but due to the increased volume, decided they would have to make billings. Each dollar represents one yard of extra rubbish. J & H points out that a lot of this could be eliminated if boxes were broken down and tied in bundles.

Residential pickup also is getting out of hand. The City Ordinance provides that rubbish must be in proper containers with handles and a lid. If rubbish is put out in paper bags, it will not be picked up.

In the past the collectors have left paper bags and materials not in proper containers. Then when the trucks are out of sight, these same people put the rubbish in proper containers and call the DPW office with complaints. It would be appreciated if the rubbish was placed in proper containers in the first place.

Cyclists Hold Annual Races

The Road Kings Motorcycle Club of Taylor will hold its annual TT scrambles races Sunday at 2 p.m., in New Boston at Wharman and Sibley Roads.

The events are sanctioned by the American Motorcycle Association and the Detroit Area Scrambles Association, and are open to all licensed riders.

assemblage in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

Thomas Gray, the lone Spanish-American War veteran, had a seat of honor on the portable bandstand and was introduced to the audience. A year ago, he was accompanied by two fellow veterans but both passed away during the intervening 12 months.

Steve Ott, Plymouth High senior, recited "In Flanders Field," followed by the address of Brosteau.

The services ended with the traditional Memorial wreath ceremony at the Soldier's Memorial in Kellogg Park.

Commanders Cadaret and Robert Hewer laid the wreaths at the foot of the memorial followed by a three volley salute by the VFW drill team, "taps" by the Plymouth High band and then the benediction by Rev. Williams to end the program.

John Tripp Is Candidate For State Representative

John Tripp, well-known Plymouth insurance agent, Friday made known his candidacy for the House of Representatives in the Aug. 2 primary.

The Plymouth-Northville Republican Club has long sought a candidate to go against Representative James Tierney, a Garden City Democrat, and Tripp was the selection because he is well acquainted in the district.

John was born in Detroit and has been a resident of Western Wayne County for the past 32 years including Nankin Township, Plymouth Township and the City of Plymouth.

He and his wife, Jackie, reside at 195 Burroughs with their six children, John Jr. 16, Linda Gail, 15; Mark, 14; Michael, 11; Paula, 9; and Matthew, 8. He moved to Northern Michigan when he was 13 years old and graduated from Harrison High School in 1958.

He was a Star Scout and received a letter in basketball and track. Since High School, John has completed numerous courses in Banking, Real Estate, and the Insurance field.

He worked seven years in the banking field, which includes five years as a supervisor. In 1956 he became a Real Estate Broker, and then in September 1959, John became an Agent for State Farm Insurance Companies.

He has qualified for every Company Career award (8) and every Convention award (5) since becoming a State Farm agent.

John was named Man of the Year in 1961 and also was State Farm's top Auto Insurance producer in Michigan. His office is at 824 Penniman, Plymouth.

In 1960 he was the Chairman of the 4th of July Celebration for the Plymouth Community. John is a former Jay Cee and now a member of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce.

The Tripp family are members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormons).

They have held numerous positions in Church, including John's present position of being the Bishop's Counselor (similar to a Pastor).

He presently is a board member of the Plymouth Republican Club and has been elected Precinct Delegate several times. He also was a delegate to the 1960 Republican State Convention.
