Permits Total $6,653,775 in June

Township Building at Record High

Topped by two industrial building permits for a total valuation of $5,570,000, Plymouth Township's building department Monday issued figures for the month of June that make it the greatest in history.

For months folks have been talking about the anticipated growth and building boom expected in Plymouth Township — they don't have to talk any longer, the figures for June indicate the Township is on its way.

Bigger and better figures for valuation and total building permits are expected monthly and what the high will be, none can predict at this moment.

The Township officials anticipate a boom. So does the Board of Education and the business community as indicated by the fact that no less than five banks have manifested an interest in locating branches in the Township:

Commonwealth on the edge of Salem Square and now word has reached the Township Hall that Manufacturers has a site in mind and plans to request reasoning and a building permit within a short time.

A fifth, and as yet unidentified bank, is reported ready to request permission to erect a branch as soon as officials definitely have an option on the land desired. It is reported that negotiations are underway.

But getting back to the record-making report of Matt McLellan, director of Buildings and Department of Public Works, which shows a total of 56 permits issued in June with a total valuation of $6,653,775 and $8,190 to the Township in fees.

"This is the greatest total valuation of any month in the years I have been at the Township Hall," McLellan said. "I have checked back over the past few years when the mushrooming growth started and find none that comes close."

The two industrial permits were for the huge Ford Motor Co. plant on Sheldon Road and for the new office facilities of the Evans Products Co. Each is well underway.

The June report shows 25 permits for single dwellings for a total of $459,500 and $1,585 in (Continued on Page 8A)

NEW ASSISTANT PASTOR at the First Presbyterian Church is welcomed to his new assignment by Rev. Henry Walch (left), who goes over church work with Rev. Lewis Brown. The new aide, who succeeds Rev. Edward Castner, comes to Plymouth from the Philadelphia suburban area.

Lewis Brown Joins Presbyterian Staff

Rev. Lewis Sarle Brown, Jr., pastor of the Wakefield Presbyterian Church in the Germantown section of Philadelphia, has accepted a call to become assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth.

That was the announcement Monday by Rev. Henry Walch, who has served at the Presbyterian Church for more than 20 years. Rev. Brown has already assumed his new duties. He succeeds Rev. Edward Castner who resigned earlier in the year to accept a call to Peekskill, N.Y.

Rev. Brown and his wife, Louise Duncan Brown, are the parents of two children, David 9; and Nancy, 5.

A native of the Philadelphia area where he was graduated from Lower Merion Twp. High School, Rev. Brown served from 1957-1960 at the Avella, Pa. church and then at Wakefield from 1960 until his recent resignation.

He will work in Christian education and handle the youth program.

Rev. Brown received a bachelor's degree from Houghton (N.Y.) College and a bachelor's degree in Divinity from the Pittsburgh (Pa.) Theological Seminary.

He served as an investigator for the United States Civil Service department for several years before turning to the ministry. During his years as an investigator he handled several assignments at major industrial plants.

Commission OKs Work on Harvey

Harvey Street will be widened to three 12-foot lanes, between Ann Arbor Trail and Penniman Ave., to ease traffic snags around the central parking lot.

That was the decision of the City Commission at its first regular meeting of July. It agreed to draft plans for the project, as well as the paving of Hartsough from Main St. to Junior High East, and Sutherland from Harvey to Main.

The cost of the Harvey widening was set at about $22,000, for Hartsough at about $29,000, and for Sutherland at about $19,000.

In other actions, the Commission:

- Approved the sale of a portion of John Hendry's convalescent home site to RCA, for their expansion plans in the City's Plymouth Road industrial park. It also approved plans for a water loop to serve Hendry's home.

- Approved a new set of traffic fines.

- Approved the third and final reading of a refrigeration ordinance.

Council Turns Garbage Collection Problem to Citizens Study Group

With both the refuse collector and many of the downtown merchants unhappy with the present arrangement for fees and pickups, the Plymouth City Commission has recommended the appointment of a committee to study the situation and make recommendations as soon as possible.

A suggestion that a committee be named was made by Commissioner George Hudson, who told his fellow members this has been a problem since he first moved to Plymouth 10 years ago and that the time had arrived for some positive action.

He received support from Commissioner George Lawton who backed the suggestion for a study committee but recommended that half of the group should come from those merchants who have been making supplemental payments for rubbish collections.

The matter came to the attention of the Commission through City Manager Richard Blodgett who said the City's share of the collection fees is based on the number of water meters.

"It is my recommendation that we increase the payments on the basis of 150 more meters," he stated. "The contract is based on an increase for every additional 100 meters and we passed that figure some time ago. It is my judgment that the city's water meters have increased as many as 150 since the contract was signed. We passed the 100 mark in March and I feel we should make the payments retroactive to that date."

However, there still is the matter of supplemental payments by downtown merchants for additional collections over and above the amount allowed in the contract.

Stanley Denski, operator of the H&N Refuse Collection Co., has been billing on the basis of figures turned in by his workers and in some instances it has amounted to as much as $100 in a single month. The average, according to Blodgett who cited figures from Denski, is probably between $15 and $20 but many of the merchants have refused to pay.

Commissioner James Jabara reported receipt of many complaints recently of poor and irregular collection. He mentioned one instance (Continued on Page 8A)

WHITE ELEPHANT? It doesn't appear that way when one looks at the newly constructed shell of the proposed Trueing plant in the City of Plymouth industrial park on Plymouth Road. But officials of the company have indicated they will not complete the building, have no intention of moving to Plymouth and want out of the whole deal. All of which means the City will have to find a new buyer, find ways to recover $35,000 spent on improvements on the land and find some use of the building which now consists of four walls and a roof. Wheel Trueing officials kept the City on the hook for more than two years before announcing their intention of building. Then a change in management brought a change in policy and loss of the plant to the City.

Board, PEA Are Far Apart

The Plymouth School Board was told Monday night that there is a wide difference in the thinking of the PEA negotiation team and the Administration, acting for the Board, in the negotiations on salaries and size of classes.

Supt. Russell Isbister, head of the Administration team, indicated the PEA had sent a telegram to the state mediation board asking its services in trying to resolve the situation.

"We feel the matter of classroom sizes should not be included in the master contract," said Supt. Isbister. "This is a matter that can be adjusted after the start of classes in the fall when we have a definite idea of where the classes are overcrowded and where the situation is normal."

"The PEA is asking for 35 teachers per thousand pupils, excluding the special classes, which averages out to slightly more than 28 per class."

Isbister stated he hoped the two teams would be able to give the economic package a good look prior to the resumption of negotiations Wednesday night with the thought they might get closer together.

Twp. Head Reveals Plans For 5 Lanes on Sheldon Rd.

Plans for five lanes of reinforced concrete pavement on N. Sheldon from Five Mile Road to the C & O Railroad crossing were made public Monday by Plymouth Township Supervisor John McEwen and the Wayne County Road Commission. McEwen stated the project, which will widen the road from two to five lanes in front of the new Ford Motor Co. plant now under construction, was approved by the Road Commission a week ago.

The road widening, which will cost an estimated $686,000, will be started in the fall with completion set for early 1967 before the official opening of the new plant.

The present two-lane, 20-foot wide stone-base road, will be ripped out entirely to make way for the new strip which will have a center lane for left turn traffic.

McEwen pointed out that present traffic is approximately 8,000 vehicles a day and this will increase when the Ford Motor Company opens its Heater and Air Conditioner plant in the spring of 1967.

The new Ford plant will start with a work force of more than 1,000 which is expected to build up to as many as 2,500 within a year.

preliminary plans for her bell ringers.

School Supt. Russell Isbister outlined the format for the campaign in the school system and indicated the various captains will be appointed before the next report meeting in a month.

Other reports were received from Robert Beyer, chairman of the governmental division who indicated (Continued on Page 8A)

Schening Busy With PCF Plans

Although the annual fund raising campaign of the Plymouth Community Fund is still some weeks away—Oct. 10-Nov. 4 — General Chairman Edward Schening isn't leaving any stones unturned in his efforts to make the 1966 drive the most successful in some time.

The goal of $88,543 is the highest in history and Schening, general manager of the Plymouth plant of Burroughs Corp., is making certain that every phase of the operation will be in perfect order well in advance of the torch lighting ceremonies on Oct. 10.

In fact, plans for the ceremonies this year call for the program to take place in the early evening instead of the traditional noon torch-lighting as in the past.

Schening started the task of putting the loose ends together in a meeting of division leaders last week at which he received progress reports from all.

Harold Fischer, director of the Plymouth Area Planning Commission who is group chairman of the Industrial division, named his 10 team captains and the industrial plants each will have the responsibility of contacting.

Mrs. Esther Hulsing, secretary of the Plymouth School Board, who is group chairman of the residential (women's) division, told of

Now Is Time To Register For Schoolcraft Courses

Stressing the advantage of registering now for the day and night school sessions which begin at Schoolcraft College on Aug. 29, Fred Stefanski, Director of Evening College, Monday urged students to get applications in now.

Stefanski listed the rules and regulations which govern the college in accepting applications for the fall term, which starts Aug. 29 and continues through Dec. 31.

Courses may be taken by those who wish to work toward completion of a degree, who want to upgrade their occupational skills, or who want to continue their education for any reason.

All bona fide residents of the College District are eligible. The College District includes the School Districts of Clarenceville, Garden City, Livonia, Northville and Plymouth.

Non-residents may enroll at Schoolcraft College only after they have completed all parts of the matriculation procedure. This includes completion and return of the admission form, payment of the $10 application fee, completion of all sections of the counseling examinations, and filing of high school transcripts, and transcripts for any college work completed previous to enrollment.

This must be done several weeks previous to registration. Non-residents who are employed by industries or businesses which have branches in the College District whose employers are paying all or part of the tuition, are charged resident fees and may enroll as non-matriculated students. It is to the advantage of all students to be enrolled as fully matriculated students.

Resident tuition is $8 per semester hour plus a 50 cent per semester hour student service fee. The total non-resident tuition and fee is $12.50 per semester hour. All students entering the College for the first time must pay a $10 non-refundable application fee in addition to the tuition and student service fee.

Evening College students wishing to accumulate college credit must complete all parts of the application and take the counseling tests. Applications may be obtained at the Admissions Office. This should be done immediately.

Students who have not applied at the College should call or visit the Admissions Office to obtain application materials and arrange to take the counseling tests. The last three testing dates are July 20, July 21 and August 6.

Applicants not wishing to accumulate College credit or take courses which require background must make application and pay the $10 application fee. These students do not take the counseling tests, and are limited in choice of subjects to those courses having no prerequisites or requiring specific levels of achievement or background. These students are encouraged to complete the application forms immediately, but may complete application forms at the time of registration.

LIT Offers Unique Technician's Course

Officials of Lawrence Institute of Technology say there are hundreds of unfilled, well-paying jobs waiting for associate in engineering degree graduates of its evening Technical Institute division.

If you're a high school graduate with acceptable grades in certain subjects, you probably are eligible for LIT's Technical Institute. Those who have not taken a college preparatory course may still meet the entrance requirements. Many graduates of high school vocational programs have found the Technical Institute an ideal place to further their education.

And if you don't meet all of the entrance requirements, LIT offers one-term program for removal of high school deficiencies which may qualify you for the Technical Institute.

The technology programs can be completed in 3 1/2 years by attending classes on Tuesday and Thursday evenings on the campus at West Ten Mile and Northwestern in Southfield.

Today's technicians generally are doing much of the work formerly done by graduate engineers. They work closely with, and in direct support of, the engineer.

LIT's Technical Institute graduates are working in job categories which include designer, laboratory technician, draftsman, supervisor, estimator, building inspector, field engineering representative, technical writer, quality control technician, motion and time study technician and in the fields of production planning, test and analysis and instrumentation.

Arthur D. Hart, director of the Technical Institute, says that most students are working in their chosen fields long before graduation, since classes are held entirely in evening school.

Many Detroit area industrial plants encourage employees to upgrade themselves and enroll in LIT's technician programs.

Of course, many employers assist their employees in LIT's six year evening college Bachelor of Science degree programs in engineering, architecture and management. These classes are held Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings. LIT also offers these programs in day college where they may be completed in four years.

Additional counselors and interview hours have been scheduled this summer. Students are urged to apply by August 1 for September classes to allow time to determine their eligibility.

The college office is open 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. week-days. Counseling appointments may be made by calling 444-1340.

Public Warned of 'Deterioration' in Medical Care

PCHA Medical Doctors Quit in Osteopath Dispute

Medical doctors serving in People's Community Hospital Authority facilities took their case, involving admission of osteopaths, to the public last week with an open letter pointing out that "deterioration of medical care in our hospitals is imminent."

The half-page advertisement in a group of weekly newspapers was the opening blast in a long-simmering dispute which had the chief of staff at the Outer Drive Hospital, Lincoln Park, and seven other doctors resign and 56 other doctors "withholding their services" at the Seaway Hospital, Trenton.

Signing the ad in the name of the "Executive Committee of Outer Drive Hospital" were Dr. John Footo, chief of staff; Dr. Thomas Ganos, chief of general practice; Dr. George Schmidt, committee secretary; Dr. Cornelius Derrick, chief of pediatrics; Dr. August Mitchell, Dr. Arthur Morley, and Dr. Thomas Temaglia.

All but Mitchell, Morley and Temaglia resigned and the four were joined by Dr. Frank McCue, chief of the tissue committee, Dr. Rudy Wyatt, chief of obstetrics and gynecology, Dr. Robert Malone, chief of internal medicine; and Dr. Edwin Marcus, chief of pediatrics.

The resignation of the administrative posts and open letter to the public came just one week after the PCHA Board, which has 42 members from 23 communities, including Garden City and Westland, approved an additional six osteopaths for admission into the authority's hospitals. The action brought the total number of D.O.'s to 16, all within the past six weeks.

The doctors claimed that the board gave way to "political pressure" in admitting the osteopaths.

In addition, the Medical Advisory Committee had recommended that the D.O.'s not be allowed to practice in the PCHA hospitals but the board of directors overruled the committee, anyway.

Farmington Man Held in Murder of Friend

An argument over a $50 debt in Farmington Township ended in death early Sunday morning when 22-year-old John Lee Ott of 22570 Tulane allegedly shot and killed his long time friend Donald Garren, 23, of 21756 Whittington.

Ott apparently demanded $50 which he said Garren owed him for help in a house painting job. Garren evidently fired one shot from a .22 caliber pistol hitting no one and Ott left. Ott returned shortly afterward with a rifle and each man fired several shots at each other. Garren, who was shot in the chest and abdomen, died an hour later in Botsford General Hospital. Ott then fled the scene. Another individual at the party, Sherman Litke, 19, of 21636 Whittington was also injured, but refused treatment at Botsford.

Farmington Township Chief of Police Irving Yakes said that the cause of Litke's injuries was still being investigated.

Ott stood mute at his arraignment yesterday on the charge of murder. He is currently being held in the Oakland County Jail with an examination scheduled for the Township's Justice Court on Friday.

Officer Gordon Ross of the Township Police was the first to answer the call. The case was turned over to the Township Detective Bureau and Detective Earl Teeple handled the investigation at the scene. Detective William Kelly handled the various statements of witnesses to the incident.

Chief of Detectives Russell Conway went to Ott's father's home on Sunnydale in Farmington. The younger Ott was not there at the time, but while Conway was at the house a brother, Melvin Ott, 28, of 18860 Poinciana, Redford Township, called. Conway asked him if he knew where his brother was and Ott replied that he did but didn't think that he would give himself up. He promised to talk to him and call Conway back.

Bruce A. Martin, 17, a 1966 graduate of Northville High School, was presented a Western Electric Merit Scholarship certificate by Manager A. D. Johanson of the Company's Michigan Distributing House.

According to his mother, Bruce showed an appreciation for mathematics at a very early age. His father adds, "My father was an accountant and my wife's father was an accountant. Maybe this had some influence on Bruce."

Stefanski elaborated on that when he added, "I believe Bruce will find Oakland University quite challenging. The staff there has a high percentage of faculty members with Ph.D.'s."

Attending the presentation in Johanson's offices at 909 N. Sheldon Road were Bruce's parents, Frederick Stefanski, principal of Northville High, and Western Electric management representatives Elmer W. Hedlund, Carl C. Manske, and Gilbert H. Long.

Bruce is a member of the National Honor Society and plans to attend Oakland University this Fall, with math as his major.

Bruce likes to collect coins and work with recording equipment. He said he likes to play chess, too, but adds, modestly, "My brother, Jerry, gives me plenty of competition."

Appeals Sentencing for Assault

A Livonia man, Harold Martin of 12245 Inkster Road, was found guilty in Garden City Municipal Court Thursday of being disorderly and threatening to assault a Garden City driver. Martin, fined $100 and sentenced to 30 days in the Detroit House of Correction, has appealed the decision of Acting Municipal Judge John Seiler. Martin was released after posting a $500 bond. Martin was arrested June 14 after he was reported to have threatened Theodore Davis, Jr., 23, of 28806 Block Street, Garden City. Davis testified in court that Martin first shook his fist at him from a 50-foot distance while Davis was stopped for a traffic light at Ford Road and Harrison. Martin then came over to the car and beat his fist on the auto window. Davis also said that Martin "ordered me to get out of the car and said that 'I'm going to kill you'." Davis, who stayed in his auto, also testified that after the incident happened, Martin threatened him if he proceeded to take the issue to court.

Don't Cut Old Trees Cry Briar Hill Folks

Residents of Briar Hill subdivision appeared before the Farmington Board of Education Monday night to protest the clearing of land of the nearby site of Forest Elementary School for the purpose of making two baseball diamonds. Workmen were due to start cutting trees on Tuesday and this urgency caused the board to give the matter immediate attention. Represented by James Moreen, the Briar Hill residents suggested retaining the wooded area as a nature study area by relocating the baseball diamonds so as not to take out so many trees. "We were led to understand that the trees would be left to form a green belt between the school and our subdivision," said one of the women in the audience. Still other residents expressed their displeasure with the noise, traffic and confusion which they feel will accompany the presence of the diamonds. School board president Richard Peters replied with, "We don't develop a school site with the intention of downgrading a neighborhood." He went on to say that they had consulted a state forester as to which trees should be saved. The residents rebutted with the statement that two of the trees slated for the axe had been designated as some of the largest Beech trees in southeastern Michigan.

Superintendent of Schools Gerald Harrison defended the need for having two ball diamonds on the basis of the size of the school. One would not be adequate he felt.

The board finally agreed to re-orient the two ball diamonds so that home plate would not be as close to the residential street. The residents were not appeased by this move, calling it an "arbitrary and capricious decision."

U. S. Senator Robert P. Griffin visited Plymouth twice last weekend on part of a whirlwind campaign tour he says will take him into every region of Michigan.
Friday afternoon, Griffin, a candidate for senate who will oppose ex-governor G. Mennen Williams or Jerome Cavanagh for the seat, toured the Western Electric plant on Sheldon Road.
Led on the tour by Manager A. D. Johanson, Griffin took his time, stopped and chatted with several workers. He shook hands and introduced himself as U. S. Senator Bob Griffin.

Griffin then left for a tour of the Livonia and Redford area, capped by a talk before the Livonia Republican Club that night.

Saturday, he was back in Plymouth, being honored at a special breakfast at the Mayflower Meeting House, then traveling next door to open the new Plymouth Republican headquarters.

Hosted by Carl Pursell, GOP candidate for the state senate, Griffin took nearly 30 minutes to speak at the breakfast, touching on Viet Nam, the Landrum-Griffin labor bill, Federal aid to education and balancing the budget.

"The Great Society is not something a politician can give a people... it's not a gift. I'm not against Federal spending. There are many things the Federal government should spend for. But the laws of mathematics are not repealed at the Federal level," Griffin said.

Griffin said he did not favor the philosophy that we can "somehow spend our way to prosperity indefinitely."
Griffin went on to say that the deficit spending theory for the Federal government had applied to times of economic slump, and that the same theory called for a balanced budget in times of prosperity.

"I'm not against the great society by any means. We've been building a Great Society since the time of our founding fathers," Griffin commented.

On education Griffin said he was for several measures now being considered.

"I'm for a Federal income tax credit for those who bear the burden of financing a college education," Griffin said such credit would also apply to contributions to scholarship funds.

Senator Griffin also said he would approve Federal aid for the construction of school buildings.

"The Federal government has many programs, but in the total picture, there are too many Federal expenditures going into the wrong areas. It is now taken for granted that the Federal government has a significant role in education," Griffin said.

Griffin explained his support for aid to construction: "If we limit aid to construction, there will not be too much control in local schools."

On political balance, Griffin remarked that the GOP was outnumbered two to one in the House.

"The problem of this imbalance is critical for all Americans.

"Any candidate who throws out magic solutions to the problem of Viet Nam is foolish," Griffin said, moving to the war.

"This is not an issue to play politics with. We have 300,000 lives at stake. However, we should not restrain from offering concrete suggestions. On this, the country comes first, and the party second," Griffin said.

Griffin said that the U.S. was committed in Viet Nam.

"There are those who say we should turn tail and run. Senator Wayne Morse says that I cannot say we should because our word would be meaningless," he said.

Griffin said a huge investment in buildings and personnel had been made in Viet Nam. He offered several suggestions on Viet Nam.

"In the last analysis, it's going to take more than bombs. We've got to help the people of Viet Nam establish a stable government. Currently, the aid program is being conducted poorly, and it is encouraging black market profiteering," Griffin concluded.

Due to short notice, the gathering was small at the breakfast. Griffin greeted everyone at the breakfast, then moved quickly into his talk.

Time For A Breather

ON A WHIRL WIND tour through Livonia Senator Bob Griffin talked about education, Vietnam and the climate of the country. He was relaxed, charming and full of enthusiasm for the campaign trail. # Demel Hosts Area Dems; Rips Endorsement Story

Earl Demel, well-known Plymouth lawyer who is a candidate for state senator in the 14th district, hosted a cocktail party for Democratic workers in the district at the Rotunda Country Inn in Orchard Lake.

Earl and his wife, Betty, were the hosts and had an opportunity to meet and chat with Dem workers from western Oakland County, Livonia and the Plymouth-Northville area.

State Representative James Tierney, of Garden City, who is seeking re-election in the 35th district was an honored guest.

In a brief talk, Demel called for an issue-oriented campaign so voters can make an intelligent judgment at the polls.

Then on the following day, Demel pulled no punches in blasting the Michigan Democrat for publishing a story under the headline "Oakland Dems Endorse Paul Livingston for State Senator." Livingston is one of the two opponents facing Demel in the primary.

Demel denounced the story as untrue and stated the Oakland Dems had not made any endorsements.

James A. Harrison, editor of the Michigan Democrat, made the following statement a day later:

"In the June 30 issue of the Michigan Democrat a story appears on Page 2 under the headline 'Oakland Dems Endorse Paul Livingston for State Senator.'

"While the story reported is accurate and was received from the Oakland County Democratic Committee, the headline is erroneous.

"The Oakland County Democratic Committee does not endorse candidates and did not endorse Paul Livingston.

"As editor of the Michigan Democrat, I assume full responsibility for the unfortunate error in the headline and I extend my apologies to the two other Democrats, Earl J. Demel and Louis Odette, who are entered in that State Senatorial race."

Counties To Get U.S. Tax Bonus

Present in Lansing recently for the signing by Governor Romney of the Documentary Stamp Bill was Jack H. McDonald, supervisor of Redford Township. This bill was initiated during McDonald's term as chairman of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

Passage of this legislation represents a gratifying victory for McDonald and other prominent county officials who have for some time urged the federal government to relinquish the funds derived from the sale of revenue stamps on each real estate transaction to the county in which the transaction occurred.

According to McDonald, the effect of the new legislation will mean an increase in annual revenue of over $500,000 in Oakland County and over $1,000,000 in Wayne County with no additional burden on the taxpayer.

He said, "I hope this legislation indicates the start of a trend toward further federal investment of powers and functions which logically belong to the local governments."

McDonald is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in the 19th district.

Donald Hayes, P.H.S. Graduate, Is Promoted

The appointment of Donald H. Hayes to manager of Quality Control of Fruehauf Corporation was announced by Robert G. Flagan, vice president of manufacturing. Hayes will be responsible for control of quality for the divisional and corporate plants.

Hayes is a graduate of Plymouth High School in 1948.

He joined Fruehauf in 1961 as quality assurance manager of the Military Products Division and was made manager of quality assurance for the corporate staff before his present appointment.

He received his bachelor of science degree from Western Michigan University in 1950. He is active in the American Society for Quality Control.

Vandals Do Gym Work At Sorrows

The gym at Our Lady of Sorrows, Farmington has been plagued by vandals over the past week.

On July 9 police received a report of a breaking and entering and vandalism. Thomas Walligora, custodian at the School, told police that he heard someone in the building and was waiting to catch them in the act.

When an alarm went off, however, he saw three youths—all juveniles—fleeing.

Police found a message scratched on the inside of the door leading from the gym floor to the locker room and the class dismissal bell was ripped off the wall and removed from the building. The fire alarm had also been set off—evidently what frightened the youths—and was ripped off the wall.

The custodian said that since July 5 a card table had been destroyed at the school, two steel towel dispensers ripped off the walls and a fire extinguisher emptied in the girl's locker room. Police had questioned three youths identified by an assistant custodian as those fleeing the building on the day of the damage.

Police Close Arson Case

Farmington Township Chief of Police Irving H. Yakes has announced the arrest and conviction of four Detroit men for the burning of a barn at 28831 Halsted Rd. in the Township on June 29.

Fined $100 each and placed on a year's probation as a result of the incident were: Robert Cherry, Arthur Essey, Thomas Sullivan and Paul W. Hancock, all of Detroit. All four are in their late teens or early twenties.

In addition to the fine and probation Oakland County Circuit Judge Emery Jacques ordered the four to pay $125 as total restitution for the cost of sending fire equipment to the scene.

Officer Lynn Sonnenberg answered the call that somebody was in the barn at the Halsted address. He apprehended one subject at the scene—Cherry—while the others fled. Township Detectives arrested the others following an investigation.

Soldier in Vietnam Hopes to Resume Flying Lessons

A series of flying lessons at the National Flying Service at National Airport in Westland was interrupted last fall by the student's induction into the Army and subsequent assignment to South Vietnam.

But the stint in the Army faced by the young man, Richard A. Boonstra, 21, of 13934 Crosley, Redford Township, hasn't slowed down his drive to get a pilot's license.

Richard is a graduate of Thurston High School and attended Northwestern Michigan College, in Traverse City, before going to work at the General Motors Corp. Diesel Plant as an engine tester.

Richard A. Boonstra

Boonstra, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Boonstra, is now stationed in Da-Nang, Vietnam.

Boys Scouts Have $15,000 for Camp

A total of $15,298 has been pledged to date by Ottawa District, Clinton Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America, to the $550,000 Lost Lake Reservation Fund Drive, it has been announced by George Otis, chairman of the Ottawa District Public House.

This is almost one-third of the goal set for Ottawa District. The fund drive is being sponsored by Clinton Valley Council to purchase 2,284 acres of land located 15 miles west of Clare, Mich. The total collected in pledges so far for the entire council is $235,552.

More than 1,500 Scouters and friends of Scouters are hard at work in the 33 townships of Oakland and Macomb counties that make up the geographical area of the Clinton Valley Council.

This is the first time in the history of the Clinton Valley Council that the public has been invited to assist in a capital fund campaign.

More than 11,000 boys and 3,500 volunteer adults are at present registered in the 297 units of scouting that represents a service to boys from 8 to 18 years of age. Planning committees verify the fact that all projections are for continued growth that will anticipate a need for camping facilities for as many as 20,000 Boy Scouts in the next 10 years.

Westland JCs Install Slate of Officers

The Westland Jaycees began their new year recently with a new slate of officers. They were formally installed in a program which included presentation of the Club's service awards.

New officers are: James DeMoss, president; Ted Collins, first vice president; Ken McLean, second vice president; Donald Jazwieck, third vice president; Lance Johnson, secretary; John Hebner, treasurer; four members of board of directors, Ted Jarvis, Darrell Losey, Jerry Lula, and Gene Sobie.

Outgoing President Robert Padgett will serve as board chairman for the 1966-67 season.

Receiving the top Key Man award was McLean. The group which planned the winter Millionaires' Party received the committee of the year award. Chairmen were Larry Wright and McLean.

On the committee were Bill Norman, Losey, Jerry Kuhn, and Wally Kinden. Wright also received a special Presidential Award with Collins getting the Spark Plug of the Year citation.

Quarterly awards went to Wright, McLean, Tom Karl, and Collins. Losey won the Eight-Ball award for "making the most honest mistakes," while Johnson received the Purple Shaft Award for suffering a broken leg while on a Jaycees' project.

He wrote a letter recently to Charles Spicer, owner of the airport recalling his flying experiences at the field, located at 39205 Ford Road.

"I have made a dual cross country flight to Flint and Lansing," Boonstra wrote Spicer, "and a long one to Lafayette, Indiana. I have not soloed either one of them yet and was wondering if you could tell, when I return next April, if I could start my solo cross-country to both places without flying dual again."

"I plan to finish the rest of my required flying at National (Airport) in order to earn my private pilot's certificate," the soldier wrote.

"I have plenty of time to study for my Federal Aviation Authority written exam, which I plan to take as soon as I reach the states unless I can find a way to take it over here," he wrote.

The soldier's mother told The Observer her son has always been interested in flying and plans to buy his own plane in the future. Although Richard didn't start taking flying lessons in Westland until last year, he did have three or four lessons a week.

Chrysler Names Sales Promotion Boss

Robert F. Henry, 32, has been appointed sales promotion manager for Plymouth cars for the Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motors Corporation.

Henry joined Chrysler Corporation in 1955 as a coordinator in sales promotion and three years later was made sales promotion and shows and exhibits coordinator for Dodge trucks.

He was appointed shows and exhibits manager for Dodge cars in 1963, and then returned to Dodge trucks as sales promotion and training manager in 1964.

Prior to his association with Chrysler, Henry served as advertising production manager for two major department stores in Detroit.

Born in Detroit on April 30, 1934, Henry attended Highland Park Junior College and Wayne University and the University of Detroit. He was a member of the U.S. Naval Reserve from 1952 to 1960.

Married, and the father of three children, he is a member of the directors of the Sales Promotion Executives Association.

VFW Wins Honors at Convention

Plymouth Post 6695 and Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars were represented by more than 30 members at the annual state convention in Grand Rapids where Past Commander William Cadaret was honored as All-State Commander of the year.

Cadaret made a presentation of the Post activities for the past year and after careful review, won the honor.

After a year's absence, the Post Color Guard won the state championship again under the supervision of Drill Sergeant Hal Young. The team had four new members and now will make a bid for the national crown in August at the convention in New York City.

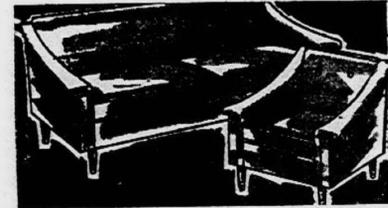

A color guard, composed of former members of the Mayflower Auxiliary drill team under the direction of Drill Sergeant Dolly Bouterse, carried the Auxiliary colors and led the Fourth District women in the parade that featured the state convention.

Think cool—and plan to play bridge in the fall with the Women's Symphony round robin bridge group. The VIVACE ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Thomas Adams on Woodland Place to lay plans for the opening bridge on September 15.

Interested in playing singles or partners, you will find friendship and recreation either daytime or evenings with the Round Robiners. Mrs. Thomas Adams at GL 3-5150, Mrs. Al Wolfgram at GL 3-3123 or Mrs. Robert Barbour at GL 3-2349 will be delighted to hear from you and fill in with further information.

Before or after Church on Sunday—love to have someone else prepare breakfast for you? Ladies of the White Shrine of Jerusalem are going to be busy doing just that. The McGeorge home at 48929 Territorial Rd. will be humming from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. with pancakes, sausages and bacon.

Tickets are available from either Mrs. Evelyn Brocklehurst at GL 3-6490, Mrs. Marjorie Wainwright at 421-0559 or may be purchased at the McGeorge residence on the morning of July 17.

Without Partners. In attendance were 15 members including Ken Dodds, president. Plans for accepting the International Charter and a schedule of summer events was planned.

The Colony Swim Club is going full steam ahead. Mrs. Jack Fleckenstein is wearing a good coat of tan. Mrs. William Covington daily covers the route to Beck Rd. and summertime funtime is being had by all. Little Skipper Larsen is really getting in the swim this summer.

An old fashioned ice cream freezer was the center of attraction at the Wendell Lent home on Hartsough over the Fourth. As fast as it emptied it was filled to add to the fun of a Fourth of July backyard picnic for the young people.

And again — a round of fun at the Milton Humphries home on Ross Street when the Myron Beckers, the Mel Blunks and the Marvin Crigers gathered for a holiday. Plans are for daughter Fay Humphries to attend Olivet College for several weeks in the study of Biology.

A Scandinavian tour for Mrs. Edna Blunk and her travel companion, Mrs. Hattie Fredericks of Ann Arbor. Leaving via the air lines on June 9, their travels took them to London, a visit to Edinburgh Castle, the Norwegian seaport at Bergen and a steamer cruise along the inner coastline in the open waters of Sogne Fjord, observing the century old isolated farmsteads and mountains were sheer delight.

A view of the ice regions, the Briksdal Glacier, the beautiful rhododendrons in the city of Edinburgh.

PLYMOUTH AREA Girl Scouts are spending many pleasant and profitable hours this summer at the Happy Valley day camp in the Edward Hines Parkway. Showing Edward W. Schening how cleanliness is attained in the handling of camp dishes and utensils are girls supervised by Mrs. Marge Fyfe and Mrs. Helen Kulak. Schening is general chairman of the Plymouth Community Fund campaign, which supports the programs of Plymouth Community Girl Scouting.

Girl Scouting Gets Support From PCF for Area Program

Plymouth's Community Fund will raise $7,000 for a principal youth organization—Girl Scouting—in the campaign scheduled for Oct. 10-Nov. 4.

Edward W. Schening, general manager of the Burroughs Corporation in Plymouth, made the announcement as general chairman of the united-giving fund campaign.

Thirteen agencies serving youth, medical indigent, senior citizens, numerous disease victims and many families with health and social welfare problems will share in the $88,543 fund for their 1967 operating programs.

The territory served by these agencies includes the City of Plymouth and burgeoning Plymouth Township. The success of Girl Scouting in Plymouth has followed strong recruitment and training of volunteer adult leaders. At 1965 year-end the Plymouth program embraced 136 adult leaders under the direction of Mrs. George Bauer, 254 Irvin Street, while 717 girls ranging from eight to 18 years were enrolled.

Suitable activity programs are geared to the following age groups:

- Brownies, grades 2 and 3
- Juniors, grades 4, 5 and 6
- Cadettes, grades 7, 8 and 9
- Seniors, grade 10, 11 and 12.

Plymouth Girl Scouting membership this fall is planned for 48 in senior troops, with hundreds of other girls to be enrolled in seven Cadette, 17 junior and 19 Brownie troops.

Girl Scout activities run the gamut from home and art crafts to primitive camp life; from international friendship exchanges to domestic Pen Pal programs.

All activities of Girl Scouting are designed to help girls adjust to group situations, and to inspire community responsibility, the development of leadership skills and the teaching of self-discipline. Acquiring useful and enriching skills is another important phase of the learning experience in Girl Scouting.

Troops of the Plymouth area are sponsored by such organizations as P. T. A.,

A.A.U.W., Lions club, V.F.W., American Legion Auxiliary, D.A.R., Rotary Anns, Newcomers club, and women's groups from several churches.

asked for and received approval of a resolution to the Michigan Liquor Control Commission for the granting of a package and bottle license for the area.

Beyer, who has an SDD license at his N. Main store and also operates drug stores on Ann Arbor Road and on Forest Ave., presented a petition signed by more than 200 Plymouth residents asking for the additional SDD license.

Beyer stressed that the request for the resolution was for an area and not for an individual. Of course there is a distinct possibility that he may have been thinking that the proper site for the license would be in his Ann Arbor Road store.

Inasmuch as he is the only one interested enough to present such a request then it follows that he should be the only one considered if an SDD license is approved.

The City Commission resolution is merely an indication to the MLCC that it is favorable to the issuance of a license. It doesn't necessarily follow that the MLCC will approve one.

Beyer was frank in his presentation. He told the Commission that a shopping center is proposed in the Township at the intersection of Sheldon and Ann Arbor Roads with a branch of a large drugstore chain as one of the key stores.

"It stands to reason that a store of this type will request an SDD license," he said. "I feel the City of Plymouth should do everything possible to keep business within the city. The petitions are an indication that there is a need for such a license in the area—why not have it in the City of Plymouth rather than in the Township."

He told the Commissioners he had placed the petitions in two prominent spots in the City, that there had not been any house to house solicitation and he felt the signatures should give an indication of the feeling of the citizens.

Commissioner George Hudson stated he felt the people in the city were opposed to this type of license as votes in the past on similar proposals have been unfavorable.

where the trucks missed an entire block in the residential section and said he had received complaints where merchants have been without collections for as many as 10 days.

"We have been kicking this thing around for the three and a half years I have been on this Commission," he emphasized. "It probably was a problem for the three and a half years before that and for the next three and a half years unless we do something about it. I feel this is a matter of enforcement and should be handled as such."

Blodgett indicated he felt the City should have a flat rate for collections with a periodic check for revisions up or down. He said the company charges $1 per cubic yard to merchants for collections of more than the allowed 300 gallons.

It was at this point that Hudson suggested the study committee which received support.

Robert Beyer, prominent businessman and a former member of the Commission, appeared before the group to complain about his collection bills, telling of one for two months that was close to $200.

Beyer asked the Commission to come up with some kind of a solution, especially relief from such bills.

Inasmuch as he was one of those receiving supplemental bills, he was named as a member of the study committee along with the City Manager, Commissioner James McKeon and two others who will be named within another week.

Red Sox Halt Yankees in Jr. Baseball

All good things must come to an end and thus the undefeated streak of the Yankees in the American League of the Plymouth Community Junior Baseball League was halted at 10 by the Red Sox, 3-2.

The Dodgers opened a three game lead over their rivals in the National League with five games to play. They boast a 9-1 record with the Cubs second in the standings with a 6 and 4 record.

The standings:

"I'll Sell to Colored" Threatens Homeowner

Nicholas Campbell, 344 Amelia, appeared before the Plymouth City Commission to complain about all-day parking near his home, mentioning that his tenants often have to ask workers at a nearby auto sales agency to move their cars so that they (the tenants) can get into the parking lot he has provided for them.

Matter of fact, Campbell, who charged that he had visited City Hall to complain to the City Manager and to Chief of Police Kenneth Fisher on several occasions, told the Commission that he had only one alternative if his complaints were ignored—to sell to colored people.

City Manager Richard Blodgett defended himself and the police department and explained that they had found no problem on investigation. During the course of the discussion, it came out that Campbell generally waited a considerable period of time before complaining and by that time the alleged parkers were long gone.

Blodgett denied that he ever had any visits with Campbell. Fisher told the Commission his men had checked and found some technical problems that can be resolved.

"We have checked this situation several times," Fisher said. "Usually the complaint has been filed a day or so later or long after the alleged violator has moved. We have never found at any time where parkers could have blocked Mr. Campbell's tenants from getting into his parking facilities."

The Commission ordered the matter turned over to the police and asked for a complete report in the near future.

The purpose of Correspondence Courses in Agriculture and Home Economics at Penn State is to take technical information to people in their home on subjects they have been interested in. The material is intended to meet the needs of people at home, on their jobs, on farms and in their gardens. Most of the courses are of the how-to-do-it variety.

Resigns from Plan Boards

John Welsher, veteran member of the Plymouth Township Planning Commission and one of the township's representatives on the Plymouth Area Planning Commission, has resigned from both boards.

In a letter of resignation to Supervisor John McEwen, Welsher stated he had moved into the City of Plymouth and thus wasn't eligible to serve.

Welsher's departure from the Township Planning Board leaves two vacancies for Supervisor McEwen to fill. Chairman Tivadar Balogh resigned a month ago after differences with the Board over zoning of a property adjacent to his home and now the Welsher resignation.

Observing The Scene By Myra Chandler

Newer Than Skate Boards And Faster

Of course, you have to have faith. Let's start from that premise. But if you have an 11-year old daughter going on 16 there are times when you worry. She loves action and is happiest when she is riding a horse, on skis or chasing the dog around the block. All very well.

But a whole new world has opened to these kids — made so attractive by the shrewd commercial market that sees a huge bankroll at the end of the motorcycle market rainbow. If the rainbow turns out to be a bit bloody at times, well, money is money.

We are not out to knock a legitimate business or business men. Certainly the urge to fly to the golf course or pool on a cycle isn't just within the image of the teen or tween. Even Grandma gets the action urge—heck, everybody wants to meet the nicest people.

It's just that sliding from the motorcycle sales into the rental agency was a very fast flip. To the credit of most surrounding local governments they have quickly risen to the emergency. The number of cases being carried in at St. Mary Hospital via stretcher is fantastic. They are passing ordinances for safety controls.

The trouble is one boy, with a driver's license, can rent one—take it into his neighborhood and be a big man letting all the kids have a turn on neighborhood streets.

One 16-year-old was charging the kids and really made out rather well until one young tweener was observed by her mother struggling to get quarters out of her bank. When mama found out why the young moneymaker was put out of business.

It can be a serious matter and unless the cycle is handled by a competent driver all kinds of trouble can result.

Farmington's ordinance requires that safety helmets and goggles be provided and the person renting the cycle must be 21 years of age or have written permission from his parents. They do not have any rental agencies in the City or Township as yet.

Since the ordinance passed the Farmington police have issued 34 tickets for equipment violations on cycles. They are presently considering banning them from residential streets unless it involves a delivery to a home.

Plymouth is looking at ordinances but as yet has not drafted one.

In Westland one is in process.

There isn't a particular ordinance in Garden City or Redford Township.

In Livonia it is required to have a City rental license plate affixed to the rear fender and located adjacent to the rear of Michigan State license plate. A rental agency license costs $500.

Unless all surrounding communities pass similar governing laws it doesn't seem it will be too effective in any community.

Perhaps we should contact our local State Representative or Senator during the summer and suggest a state law with as many safety measures as possible.

The rest is up to the parents to develop eyes in the back of their heads and built-in warning signal. And repeat the question—Where are you going and What time will you be back?

Just Chattin' Not Ministers Too?

Years ago, when the Hon. John Marshall was vice-president of the United States, he made the famous observation that all America needed was a good five-cent cigar.

How times have changed!

If he were around today the Vice-President wouldn't be thinking about a cigar—at any cost—no doubt, he would be like most of us who feel that one of the dire needs of the country today is a formula by which labor and management can live in an atmosphere without strikes.

One of the puzzling things about our present way of life is the fact that American ingenuity has helped to conquer the air and space. It has brought almost unbelievable things in communications such as radio and television. And we long ago have conquered the sea.

Yet, with all that know-how, we still are cursed with strikes or the threat of strikes any time labor and management come into conflict. And what is even more amazing is the fact that this seems to be the only weapon available even though it is well known that in these work stoppages nobody wins.

One would think that a country that boasts the know-how of America — the know-how that put the world on wheels and helped conquer some dread diseases—would find a way to eliminate this cancer in labor relations.

Years ago these strikes occurred only in the ranks of the men who labored in the coal mines and the steel mills and who were not considered among the most intelligent folks in the community. They thought if they just refused to work the company couldn't make money. Little thought was given to the fact that their income ceased, too.

My first confrontation with the strike formula came as a youth when, on the way home from school one afternoon, I heard the President of the major steel mill in our town addressing the employees who were out on strike.

"If you are not reasonable and return to work," he said, "you'll live on this site."

The men just sneered. But there is grass growing on the site of the old steel mill today. And folks are still "going on strike."

Instead of abating through the years the use of this so-called "economic weapon" now has spread to all forms of employment and only recently it became the tool by which the teachers in our schools hoped to gain their goal.

This is most unfortunate because it deals with the education of our children. During the past few weeks you have heard cries from several of the suburban areas that the teachers shouldn't be allowed to strike. Livonia was most fortunate in that it reached an agreement with the teachers before anything drastic was done.

I can't go along with those who think that school teachers should not be permitted to strike on the theory that they are supposed to be "dedicated people."

One must face up to the fact that "dedicated people" have to eat, too. And they can't be blamed for attempting to better their living conditions.

What I am most concerned about is that the children are losing valuable days of education at a time when education is more important than in any other period in our history.

That's why some one—just as soon as possible—should be able to come up with a formula for settling these labor disputes that would eliminate strikes forever.

If this doesn't happen there is no telling to what extremes employers will go to achieve their ends. Recently the public prints told of a plan being studied by clergymen, supposedly, the most dedicated of all persons, to form a union so their demands could be heard. Imagine that!

Reminded me of the time the minister of our little church back home, at the close of a Sunday service, stepped in front of the pulpit and calmly announced, "I am sorry to tell you that I am leaving this congregation. I have had a 'call' to another town."

All was quiet for a moment as the Presbyterians sat stiffly in their pews. Then from the back of the church came a voice, "If you weren't promised more money, would you have heard the call?"

So, frowning on "dedicated" persons is not the answer.

We need a formula to put an end to strikes —NOW. W. W. Edgar

Readers Speak Up Teenagers Treated Unfairly

Editor: I am a mother of three young daughters, the oldest 15. I feel I must speak out on behalf of the teenagers. I am very angry and I wonder just what can be done about a situation like this. My daughter has attended Pearson Junior High for the past three years and is now ready to enter Redford Union High School. During these past three years she has made several good teenage friends.

I have been lucky enough to meet a good many of them. Last night I had the opportunity to meet many more. We had a yard party. As I have no basement we have not had the room to entertain in the house. Last night was really the first party my daughter has really had.

I would say about 25 people attended the party. To me, this group was a swell bunch of kids. Around 9:30 p.m. the kids got in the mood for some music. Among this group were members of the best band at Pearson. They are the Vibrados consisting of Rick Kenyon, Larry Hawkins, Rob Lundberg, and Paul Hayden.

I saw nothing wrong with letting the kids have their band in the yard. I felt that since it was only 10 and all the neighbors were still up and their children were still outside that no one could object to this. I was going to stop them at about 10:45 p.m. but I didn't have the chance. Because as they no more than got started they were told they had to stop. I wasn't the one that had to tell them.

Some neighbor took it upon herself to call the police. I understand that any time someone feels that it's too noisy all they have to do is call the police and that takes care of that.

This is one time I am on the side of the teenagers. Because some neighbor didn't like the music do I have to send my daughter off with her friends or shall they just walk up and down the streets? This was good clean fun and I feel, well chaperoned. It just isn't fair in my own home that we are not allowed some fun.

This is supposed to be a free country and in a couple of years these same kids will be over fighting for it. I am angry and these kids are angry also. This was a first time but it isn't going to be the last time.

My three daughters are growing up and they are going to have their friends here and if it means some noise once in a while then I'll just take my chances. Let's try to understand them for a change. I find they are pretty good kids. Let's give them a chance and if it means a little noise once in a while, the outcome will be well worth it.

Let's show the kids we're with them all the way. Because no matter what the outcome is, there are going to be more parties in my home. I only hope they don't have to turn out like the one last night.

Too Much Power
Editor: Fear chilled my bones as I read the proposed Garden City Charter.

I noted that the mayor would have the power to appoint the City Clerk, City Assessor, Corporation Counsel (who in turn can appoint as many aides as he wishes with the Mayor's approval), a member of the Civil Service Commission, a member of the Board of Trustees for the retirement system, department heads and members of commissions and boards — those now existing and those that can be created by the Council according to Sec. 4.10. The manner in which the City Superintendent and members of the Department of Building and Inspection are to be selected is not defined. I tried to find out just how many people were involved under "... members of commissions and boards..." (Sec. 4.9) as they are not specified, but could only come up with an educated guess of a total appointive group of 130 or more.

Now—if a mayor can be solely responsible for bread on so many tables, the people that eat that bread and all their friends and relatives are going to see that the mayor is re-elected. (Is this what is called a political machine?) Since I can find nothing in the charter to limit the number of four-year terms a mayor can serve, there is the grim possibility that we, the electors, make a bad choice in the first place and — KER POW — we're stuck. We have only to look at our neighboring city, Dearborn, to see how the strong mayor government works. I doubt that Mayor Hubbard could be dislodged with dynamite.

If we pass this charter on Aug. 2, we are asking for trouble. Isn't there enough in the world as it is?

Memo To The Draft Board

Draft Board No. 102 of Plymouth has been operating for 1.5 years with four men — one short of the normal complement of five.

Early this year word was spread that applications would be accepted, but, since that time, no choice has been made.

The procedure is for the local board to make a recommendation and after the person's name makes its way through the proper channels, the appointment is finally made by the President.

In the course of discussing possible candidates, the information came to light that women are not permitted to serve on draft boards.

So far, the reason for this discrimination has not been clearly put forward by anyone... but, women are barred, automatically narrowing the field down to those citizens with brains — men, naturally.

Mrs. L. M. Fedell, board clerk (women can serve as clerks but not as policy makers), said there is a good chance the fifth member may be picked tonight.

Let us hope so!

The importance of decisions made by each draft board makes it imperative that the group be at its full strength.

If no decision is made, this would be a good time for the board to announce why it is taking so long.

Ok, men?

BILL GAIL

OMBUDSMAN

(A new feature in The Observer Newspapers — we will do our best to be a go-between, a red-tape cutter as the name indicates. When you have exhausted all other measures on a problem write to us (keep it short, please) and we'll see if we can help. Mrs. Lenore Higgins of Livonia asked we start a local Action Line — and this is our answer. Yes, John Q, you can fight city hall — with your own Ombudsman!)

Editor: Why is it the policy of the Garden City swimming pool to close three times a day and charge admission for re-entry on any given day? It seems to me that an unfair advantage is taken by the Parks and Recreation department. The majority of the swimmers are very young children who probably have small allowances or work for what little money they have. If the reason is that the children might stay in the water too long, then I say that this is a parental problem and should be controlled by them, not by the City. After the line forms it takes the kids about a half hour to get in the pool, that's if they open an hour and 15 minutes of swimming before they are removed. Now really is this fair to the kids who look forward to the summer months so they can swim? Let's keep them in the pools where they are safe and supervised and out of the creeks where it is very dangerous.

Concerned Parent and Taxpayer

Dear Parent and Taxpayer: Angelo Palermo and his staff at the Garden City Parks and Recreation don't mind how long the kids stay in the water—they just want to be sure everyone gets in. There are two indoor and one outdoor pool in G.C.—and the first 19 days of July 15,000 kids enjoyed the facilities. It costs $.25 each time. HOWEVER a family can swim seven days a week, six hours a day for $12 a family or $3 a child. To encourage the use of the indoor pools G.C. Parks and Recreation started busing the kids last week—pick up and delivery at each elementary school. Each pool capacity is only 300, however, and that is why the "in" and "out." The "ins" can get "in" line again, but the "outs" get to "in" first. Next year Mr. Palermo hopes to make arrangements to have just four hour sessions, a.m. and p.m.

Reader Livonia

Why can't we have some coverage on Little League Games? At least the "standings" of the teams would help.

Dear Livonia Reader: Standings of Little League are most welcome. Send to attention of Sports Editor, George Maskin, with Sunday 6 p.m. deadline for succeeding Wednesday. Editor Maskin is carrying out the policy set down by the National Little League rules that there shall be no aggrandizement of individual teams or players of Little League—it is a teaching effort.

Open Letter to Highway Commissioner:

It is my understanding that the proposed I-96 highway will follow Schoolcraft Road through Redford Township. We are anxious to preserve as much natural beauty as possible in our township and ask your cooperation in saving the fine old trees that line parts of this route.

Would you please make every effort to save these trees and provide a green belt along the highway so our residents may continue to enjoy the suburban beauty which we prize so much. "Only God can make a tree," so would you please take as much care as possible to preserve them?

Thank you for your consideration.

Editor:

Did you know that, effective right now, the children of Westland have lost the opportunity to participate in sports and athletics, have lost the opportunity to start a career in music or art or drama? Do you know that this now jeopardizes the North Central accreditation of our schools? That this in turn will make it extremely difficult for any of our high school graduates to enter college?

On June 13 some 2,800 persons out of a possible 24,000 voters turned down the millage issue which would have paid for the continuation of an athletic, music and art curriculum in our schools. But, as of this writing, none of our children will be able to start preparing themselves for a career in music or art (if this were their choice).

They will not have the opportunity of learning how to give and take with his fellow man; how to help one another through the athletic program.

A few students each year are kept in school only by their interest in athletics, perhaps supplementing this by starting to learn a trade in one of our shop courses, permitting these particular students to graduate from high school and become self-reliant members of society instead of dropouts and future dependents upon state aid and your tax money.

Petitions are being circulated to enable us to put the millage issue up for vote in the near future. You are urged, for the sake of our children and our future, to sign this petition, get the millage issue back on the ballot, and at that time — get out and VOTE. You are urged to come to the next school board meeting — July 11—so that you will be completely informed of what is at stake.

Symphony Ball Success

Editor: On behalf of Mrs. Redinger, our president, and the board, I want to thank you for the wonderful coverage you gave the Society during "Youth Symphony Week."

The full page of pictures showing the various orchestras was excellent. We also appreciated the shots of the first Symphony Ball, which we hope will expand into a really "special" event of the year.

Once again, we thank you for your interest and cooperation. We know that the Society is making a worthwhile cultural contribution to our surrounding communities and you are to be commended for your part in making it a success.

All Could Be Lost

Editor:

As the former Mayor of Berkeley, I wish to express my deep regret and concern over the failure of the fifteen cities to agree on the much needed East-West Expressway that has been an issue now for the past nine years. The fact that two cities, Roseville and Pleasant Ridge would not agree on any terms whatsoever which would result into a solution to this serious problem can only mean the loss of local control and power for home rule cities.

I might remind the two protesting cities—that it was just two months ago the Legislature was attempting to dictate policy to home rule cities in a number of areas. Only the strong opposition by local units of government throughout the entire state defeated these proposals. Now today, however, Governor Romney and the Legislature have no alternative but to call for a special session of the Legislature and take this "power of consent" away from all cities (some 400 in Michigan) because of the unwillingness to agree by two cities, Roseville and Pleasant Ridge.

The loss of local control and power to me and to many other mayors is too high a price to pay for home rule cities and in the long run it will be deeply regretted.

Also of great concern here is that the State of Michigan stands to lose 161 million dollars and the loss of a vitally needed expressway to the more than 4 million citizens of metropolitan Detroit.

Therefore, I strongly urge that the City Council of both Roseville and Pleasant Ridge re-consider their respective positions prior to the necessity of forcing action at the state level.

Governor Romney should be commended for his concern, patience and perseverance in his many attempts to negotiate an acceptable compromise agreement in an almost impossible situation. The real losers here are the 4 million citizens of metropolitan Detroit.

Will Look It Over

Editor:

Myra Chandler's comments about the proposed Garden City Charter were interesting.

If there is any possibility whatsoever that an ambitious person could use it for purpose of building a political machine to perpetuate power then we should all study the charter very carefully.

I think most people would prefer a weak mayor for two years than a strong tyrant for four years. They wouldn't have to wait so long to get a good man or woman in office.

Kindred For Kuhn

Editor:

On August 2, 1966 we have the opportunity to take the first step in returning to Washington D.C. the ethics, honesty and capability that is to be expected of our duly elected representatives. For on that date we will flock to the polling place to select the candidates for the office of United States Congressman from the 19th District.

If you believe that your Congressman should have the experience and background to be an effective and true representative of the electorate who placed their trust in him... your choice must be Richard D. Kuhn!

Dick Kuhn's educational qualifications, law practice, business experience, community service activities, family success story, and exemplary record of attendance and leadership during Michigan's Constitutional Convention (plus 3 yrs. as Page in the U.S. Congress) places him far above the other candidates.

There is not enough space here to detail Dick Kuhn's qualifications and his sane approach to constitutional government and today's inherent problems. However, if you agree that we should fight inflation and high taxes by less government spending; if you oppose foreign aid to Communist countries; if you favor reduction of government competition with private business; if you want less Federal interference in local government... and if you believe in individualism, initiative, and incentive as the criterion for a strong America VOTE FOR DICK KUHN!

Objects

Editor:

In reviewing the school board hearing on the Stark school "Shared Learning Experience," it is evident that the Board has failed again to communicate with district residents. Certainly the bad manners of one speaker at the hearing and the childishness of two couples is to be condemned. The board, however, followed its normal, self-righteous procedure in which there seems to be no place for recognizing views of the community, let alone adopting them.

Worse than that, the Board seemed eager to deny federal participation in the "Experience." Livonia has participated in background workshops paid for by federal funds. Certainly the "Experience" follows in time and objective the establishment of federal programs in the area of the "Experience." Instead of an answer, the board provided more ammunition to those who petitioned for the hearing.

Lost in the shuffle was the most significant revelation of that evening—the Katz guideline for educational policy-making. Fortunately, the Observer reprinted this statement on its editorial page on June 29. Mr. Katz insists that we all accept the assumption "that teaching children about the world around them is a legitimate function of the public school system." This may sound fine, by itself, but he also says... "informed decision-making about social conflict situations may be even more important to (the children's) future than their knowledge of basic principles of mathematics or science."

There are two major objections to the Katz credo. First, under it the school may assign a lower priority to basic education than to "social" education. There are enough unemployables already without creating more by failing to provide our children with skills traditionally taught in public schools. Second, the school can claim any social situation as a proper classroom. Who is qualified to select and to teach field trips to social conflict situations such as labor-management negotiations, divorce court, Saigon, etc.? Have we parents really yielded this responsibility to the public school system? If the state now is responsible, church, family, boy scouts, etc. can be forgotten. I, for one, reject the Katz philosophy.

Editor:

In this week's editorial Bill Gail has written an article entitled "Be Silent (If You Agree)." Since I do not agree, I feel I must take my pen in hand on this point. However, I wish to make it abundantly clear that it is with Mr. Gail I do not agree and not the Livonia School Board.

Mr. Gail has evidenced an incredible lack of accuracy in writing his editorial. He not only has failed to mention facts pertinent to the issue in question but what is even worse, he has either deliberately misconstrued the applicable law or in the alternative has failed to properly investigate the state of the law.

The article begins by indicating that employees must be members of the union in order to obtain a job. This would indicate a closed shop which is barred both by federal and state law and as a matter of fact, is not provided for in the contract between the municipal employees and the school district.

Mr. Gail then goes on to explain what he really means is that new employees will be required to join the union within thirty days from the date of hiring, a clause common to the vast majority of collective bargaining agreements and commonly referred to as a Union Shop and that old employees presently on the payroll will not be required to join the union but will have to pay the sum of $3 per month in dues, a clause which is known as the Agency Shop Rule and has been upheld in every court decision in the United States.

He indicates that between use of these two clauses the employees no longer are able to voice their opinions, since the union is now their spokesman. This, of course, is complete hogwash, since the employees are the union, elect their own representatives and at all times have the right to voice their opinion in union meetings and through the use of their vote carry out those opinions.

The greatest distortion of all is when Mr. Gail indicates that if an employee dissents, he may not only be booted out of the union but he will also lose his job in the process. This is absolutely incorrect.

First of all, an employee is protected by the Constitution of his union and always has the right to dissent. Furthermore, if he acts in a manner contrary to the union's interest, he is entitled to a trial before his fellow members and in the rare instance where his fellow members determine that he should not hold union office or membership, the only recourse is to bar him from union membership.

However, under such a circumstance, the union would not have a right to demand that the employee be fired and if, in fact, they would make such a demand, they would be guilty of an unfair labor practice and as such subject to the sanction of the Michigan Labor Department.

Moreover, no employer would be required to discharge an employee under such circumstances and, in fact, the employee under these circumstances would be saving himself the $36 a year which seems to disturb Mr. Gail anyway.

It seems to me that even on an editorial page a reporter worth his salt should make a cursory investigation of the applicable law before he comments on it and then, if he doesn't agree with it, he should write in a manner that indicates what the law is, as well as what the editorialist's opinion is.

It would appear that Mr. Gail's editorial should be saved for the National Right To Work Committee, since it smacks of the same absurd and erroneous propaganda which they have foisted upon the public for so these many years.

It seems to me that the Observer Newspapers if they expect to be respected for their opinions in the community, should be obligated before commenting upon the law, or for what may or may not happen under a collective bargaining agreement to at least become aware of the facts and the law as they pertain to the issues in question.

Candidate Giving Rewards For Voter Turnout Aug. 2

John A. MacLellan, one of the 14th District GOP Senate candidates, today proposed a unique "Get Out The Vote" contest.

MacLellan is offering a $100 award to the Township,

City and Village in the 14th Senatorial District which achieves the highest percentage voter turnout in the Aug. 2 primary. He is offering a $50 bond to the Republican and Democratic precinct delegates whose precinct achieves the highest turnout in the District.

"We want the voters to know the primary is the only election where they can really 'Vote For The Man,'" said MacLellan. "The general election is a battle between the parties with the candidates already selected by the interested primary voters. 'Voter' apathy and disinterest are our worst enemies. Citizen participation is essential to good government."

The award to the participating governmental units will be made to the winning unit's fire department fund which will be of benefit to the whole Community. MacLellan stressed that the award is not a "prize," but a token of recognition for "Good Citizenship" and full community participation in the primary.

"I think that wide and effective participation can result if the community leaders will encourage a "public interest" approach. They can set a fine example and encourage all others to support this civic effort through the press media available to them. If the Russians can vote 99 per cent for their hand-picked candidates—we Americans ought to do as well when we have a choice—or that choice may well become a disastrous "No Choice!"

Judge Allen C. Ingle of Farmington has agreed to judge the results in each instance.

New Director is Selected for PCHA

The Peoples Community Hospital Authority has a new executive director in Dr. Karl S. Klicka, president of the Appalachian Regional Hospitals, a system of ten hospitals, for the past three years.

Dr. Klicka, 54, accepted the $40,000 per year position offered to him June 30 by the PCHA Board of Directors and will start his new duties shortly after Labor Day although he will be in the area several times during August.

DR. KARL S. KLICKA

Klicka succeeds Kenneth W. Gremore who was fired last October following a series of charges of misuse of public funds.

The new executive director told a press conference Saturday afternoon that he has been promised the full support of the PCHA's board and also gained the support of Attorney General Frank J. Kelley who urged Klicka to accept the position.

On the basis of those factors, I felt confident that I would get the support required to operate the hospital authority and I believe I'll receive it, he said.

"I know it (the PCHA) isn't devoid of problems—it has been characterized by huge and large problems. But I'm a man of faith and I feel I will have reasonable success," the new director stressed. Dr. Klicka brings with him an impressive background in hospital administration as well as in the fields of medicine and public health.

Since the fall of 1963, he has been president of the Appalachian Regional Hospitals which operates ten community hospitals in Kentucky, Virginia, and West Virginia. They have a combined total of 970 beds serving 23 counties in those three states and two counties in Tennessee.

One of the ten hospitals was merged July 1 with a larger hospital in Kentucky, he pointed out.

The Appalachian hospital organization is a non-profit, non-sectarian corporation formerly run by the United Mine Workers Union. But huge deficits forced the union to transfer the hospitals to another organization.

The ARH hospitals represent an investment of $30,000,000 and employs 1,700 persons.

Dr. Klicka was born in Sewickley, Pa., and earned his bachelor of science degree from Allegheny College in 1933 and his medical degree from Western Reserve University's Medical College in 1937. Three years later, he received his master's degree in hospital administration from the University of Chicago's School of Business Administration.

He took his medical internship at Allegheny General Hospital in Pittsburgh in 1938 and his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Detroit Women's Hospital in 1939. He was also commissioned senior surgeon in the U.S. Public Health Service Reserve Corps.

His career in hospital administration began in 1940 as assistant director of the Grasslands Hospitals in Valhalla, N. Y., where he served 2½ years before volunteering as a medical corps officer in the Army during World War II. Most of that period saw Dr. Klicka serve as a general surgeon with the 5th General Hospital in the European Theater of Operations.

After the war, he was named director of Woman's Hospital in New York City where he served for five years. In 1951, he became director of St. Barnabas Hospital, Minneapolis, and in 1954, moved to Chicago as Presbyterian Hospital director. During that time, he supervised an expansion program and when the hospital merged with St. Luke's (Episcopal) Hospital, he directed the combined facility.

Dr. Klicka, the first medical doctor to direct the PCHA, said that the factors in taking the new position "were the usual one" and pointed out that he had discussed the change with his wife.

The new director will receive a three year contract for plus a $7,000 per year annuity. He had a $31,500 salary with the ARH with a similar retirement program.

Walter S. Wheeler was serving as administrative coordinator since last fall.

The new director emphasized the major differences between the PCHA and the ARH, one of which is the method of appointing members to the board. In his former post, the members were first nominated by a committee and elected by the board itself. In the PCHA, each of the 23 communities' governing bodies picks its own representatives.

In addition, the capital financing of the ARH depends solely on state and federal grants and private donations while the PCHA is supported by a property millage which he said is "a more equitable method."

Although there are many similarities in the two hospital systems there are two factors in the failure or success of the organization: the quality of the administration and the quality of the board of directors.

Dr. Klicka also commented that he "will start house-hunting tomorrow" and he has already contacted a real estate agent to help him.

"He has the ability, the experience, and the courage to take this kind of assignment and all of us will cooperate with him," said board chairman Donald Pizzimenti.

Cyclist Fined $100, Claims He was Struck
 A Garden City motorcyclist found himself on both sides of the bar of justice recently and discovered that one side can be expensive. Joseph Pattock, 25, of 29492 Balmoral Street, was fined $100 for careless driving by Acting Municipal Judge John Seiler after he was reported to have sped up and down Balmoral Street several times June 25, narrowly missing a small girl, who was forced to jump out of his way. During one of the high speed trips, neighbors said, Henry Steller, 63, of 29508 Balmoral, ran out into the street and before Pattock could pass him, struck him in the face. Pattock, who swore out an assault and battery complaint against Steller, suffered a black eye and had a tooth broken. Steller pleaded not guilty in Municipal Court and his trial was scheduled for Thursday, July 21.

Ounce of Health Worth Pound of Cure

More time for pre-season, high-school football practice!
This is a subject on which we have harped for a good many years... at least a couple of decades.
We mentioned it here just a few days back and we bring it up again after reading an item in the weekend press from Chicago.
The story noted that both the American Medical Association and the National Federation of State High Schools Athletic Associations (which includes Michigan) have joined in warning against heavy football workouts in hot weather.
The joint statement warns that drills under such conditions can lead to serious physical harm, to injuries... and even death.

So what are we going to do about it?
In Michigan's lower peninsula prep teams can't

FIRST-HALF F.P. CHAMPS

Redford Shows the Way

Orchids to Al Turner and his Dependable Hard Chrome baseball team of Redford Township.
The Townshippers reign as the first-half champions of the Great Livonia-Detroit Free Press League after staging a roaring, final week finish to overtake the Garden City Sporting Goods Club.
By beating Dearborn Dad's Club, 7-0, and then Garden City, 7-2, Dependable wound up the first round heading the following standings:

	W	L	T	Pts.
Dependable	6	3	0	12
Garden City	5	3	1	11
Dearborn	3	4	2	8
Liv. Cardinal	2	6	1	5

With hardly a pause, the teams now have plunged into the second round which runs until July 30. The two winners will fight off for the right to play the Oakland County champs at Berkley on July 28, with the survivor advancing to the Free Press outstate finals at Ann Arbor.
The outstate champ then will get a shot at the Detroit kingpin with the prize a trip to Pennsylvania for the All America Boys tournament in mid-August.

The slugging of Bobby Holmes produced literally "a one-man show" in giving Dependable its decisive victory over Garden City with the first-half flag riding on the outcome.
Holmes finished the game with these amazing statistics:
1 — Three hits in four times at bat.
2 — Six runs batted in.
All of which made life very easy for Jim Sproul, who hurled the distance for the victors, giving up six hits and fanning five.
Sproul picked up a pair of hits to aid his own cause while Robby Masson drilled three safeties to share hitting honors with Holmes.
Garden City moved into a quick lead when Stan Wiczkowski's single and two errors netted one run in the first inning. Then in the third, Don Chute squeezed in Gary Slade to make it 2-0.
But the Holmes' bat started to strike in the bottom of the third. With Clyde Ziegler and Masson aboard, Holmes knocked 'em both in to tie the game at 2-2.
In the fourth Sproul singled in Lou Banwart with the tying run, after which Masson doubled Sproul to third. Up came Holmes again — and once more he delivered a two-run single.

Two innings later with Claude McTaggart and Sproul on after a walk and single, respectively, Holmes drilled his third hit — and two more runs came in to put the game out of reach.

The victory followed on the heels of a 7-0 Redford win over Dearborn in which Tom Fleszar turned in a brilliant one-hit pitching masterpiece.

A handle single over third by the game's leadoff man ruined Fleszar's no-hit bid in a hurry. But he was sensational the rest of the way, striking out 15 and walking only one.
Redford sewed up the game in the seventh inning with a four-run uprising. After Fleszar, Masson and Terry Rothwell walked to load the bases, Harry Kendrick singled and Reg Barrington followed with a triple.

Fires No-Hit Thriller

Jack Robertson of the Plymouth Optimists emerged as the "Player-of-the-Week" in the Greater Livonia-Class D Connie Mack Baseball League.
Nobody could dispute Robertson's claim to the honor

... not after he pitched a no-run, no-hit victory over the Livonia Elks, 4-0.
Freshly out of Plymouth High School, the right-handed Robertson set down 15 men on strikeouts in the seven inning game. That meant all but six Elks' putouts came on "whiffs" at the plate.

Robertson permitted only three men to reach base — all on walks.
The Optimists, who have stayed in contention for honors in the American League Division, scored in the first inning when Rick Dyer was hit by a pitch. Ron Ross and Dick Klinkhammer followed with singles.
Then the Optimists erupted for three runs on singles by Dyer and Ross, a double by Klinkhammer, and singles by Pat Williams and Mike Lockwood.
Big Boy of South Redford remained the kingpins of the National League by bouncing past Dearborn Dad's Club, 11-2, and Dearborn Adray, 7-4.
Terry Rothwell, who usually plays elsewhere, turned pitcher and came through with a masterpiece against the Dad's Club. He allowed one hit — in the fifth inning — and struck out 11.
The Big Boy safeties were well scattered.
Deno Syrious and Gary McVay shared mound honors in the 7-4 win Big Boy scored over Adray. The victors' attack was led by Barry Simescu who picked up two hits and two runs-batted-in.
Two four-run innings helped the Plymouth Elks to subdue the Livonia Lakers. Rick Fillmore, the winning pitcher, helped his own cause by slamming a three-run homer in the sixth inning to cap his team's winning rally.
Fillmore and Ken Olds each had hits in the fifth inning when the Elks fashioned their other four-run uprising.
Dave Gorton was the losing pitcher and, like his rival on the mound, Gorton also rocked a homer, along with a single.
Another one-hit pitching gem was turned in by Ron Kapanke of Livonia's Philippi Giants. He achieved his begin drills until the Monday of the week preceding Labor Day.

ACE HURLERS for the Redford Hard Chrome team in the Free Press League are: (from left) Captain and Catcher Harry Kendrick, Tom Fleszar, Rich Berryman and Jim Sproul. The three pitchers have allowed six earned runs in nine games, 38 hits and have struck out 92.

A coach has less than THREE FULL WEEKS to get his charges ready for the opening game.
The coaches agree the job can't be done properly — unless you work the boys "very hard."
But now the national authorities say "Take It Easy," especially if it's hot in late August and early September.
It usually is.
The big gripe we hear from school administrators is that it costs money to start football drills a week earlier than now permitted.
So, we ask:
"Are a few dollars worth the price of one boy's life? Or a serious injury or ailment for life? What if the kid happens to be your son?"

Perhaps, in lieu of what the parent body of Michigan's own Prep Athletic Association has said, our able men in Lansing like Charles E. Forsythe should hold an emergency meeting.
The State Association has two choices:
1 — Allow prep drills to start one week earlier than now scheduled.
2 — Order every team to set its schedule back one week. This, too, would allow an extra week of drills.

As the old saying goes... corny it may sound —
"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."
There's an interesting series of tennis tournaments coming up in the area.
They're local meets held in connection with Detroit News' annual novice tennis competition. Here's a chance for the average-type player to compete on his- or her-own level. Winners of previous titles can't participate.
Local meets will be held in Livonia, Plymouth, Garden City, etc. Just check with your nearest recreation director for all the details.
The various center winners move on to Detroit for the grand championships.
It's quite a meet... a meet which was conceived many years ago by a great guy by the name of Harvey Barcus, when he worked for the News. Harvey now is retired from the News, but he still has a hand in working with tennis officials.

Did you hear about the golfer who "threw in a hole-in-one?"
It happened last week at a course near Ann Arbor. Husbands and wives were engaging in a mixed tournament and at certain points, the object was to throw, instead of hit the ball.
So one gent stepped up to the tee and found that he had to throw one out. He did... and to everybody's amazement the ball rolled up and into the hole... over 110 yards away.
Try this one... if you have nothing better to do.

Now that the Detroit Lions are practicing at Cranbrook, we have been asked to pass along the "sad" information that the drills aren't open to the public.

2 Yr. Olds Clash In Big Derby

The $20,000 added Freshman Derby, Michigan's biggest race for two-year-olds, will highlight the ten-race program at Hazel Park Race Track Saturday, July 16.
This rich event is expected to bring out one of the classiest fields of two-year-olds ever seen on a Michigan track. The best of the youngsters on the grounds will face the challenge of top rivals from other major tracks.
The secondary feature Saturday will be the $10,000 St. Clair Handicap for three year olds at one mile. Hazel Park has had some great three-year-olds this season, and the best of them will likely go to the post in this one.
A mid-week event of unusual interest will be the $12,500 added Michigan Bred Junior Derby for two year olds, foaled in Michigan, on Wednesday, July 20.
This has been the most exciting thoroughbred meeting in Hazel Park's long history, and it is in its final phase. The meeting will continue daily (except Sundays) thru Saturday, July 30.

Garden City Star Strikes Hot Bat

It wasn't too many weeks ago that Bo Ardel was a high school star at Garden City East.
Now, with several other area residents, Bo is starring on sandlot teams in Detroit.
Bo is a member of the Adray team in the Detroit Free Press City League and just the other day, he drilled a homer, two singles and drove in five runs in a single game. The next game he socked two triples, a double and single.
Ardel is on a 10-game hitting streak and boasts an overall .350 mark this season.
Ron Goulet, from Garden City, is playing on the Detroit A. and B. team while North Farmington's John Kraft, a sophomore at the University of Michigan, is hitting .300 for the same A. and B. club.
Remember Ken Bratherton and Sam Antonazzo, former stars at Franklin?
Bratherton is pitching for Adray in Detroit while Antonazzo is on the Stonewood team in the same league.
Another pitcher for A. and B. is Vic Pilar, the all-area pitcher this past spring at Thurston.
Pilar has a 3-1 record for A. and B. with 38 strikeouts in 37 innings. He has allowed in seven runs.
Vic was drafted by the Detroit Tigers recently, but still remains unsigned.
The Tigers have indicated that they would like to have Pilar stay on the sandlot this summer and turn professional in 1967.
Pilar may spurn the chance with the Tigers and instead enroll in college.

Farmington Sweeps 4 More in Legion

Life keeps getting rosier and happier for the Farmington American Legion Junior Baseball team:

With four more victories in as many starts last week to run its victory chain to eight straight and 13 out of 14, Farmington upped its hold on first place in the 18th District League to 2½ games over second-place Waterford. Farmington now stands 15-3 while Waterford holds 12-5 edge as the teams enter the home stretch in their battle to win a spot in the forthcoming state tournament.

The Farmington team decided Waterford, 6-3, in a head-on clash with its chief rival last Wednesday when Joe Himmelspach socked a homer in the seventh inning with Miles Kearney and Carl Misch aboard to break a 3-3 tie.

Then it was Farmington by a 7-2 score over Milford. On Sunday, Farmington swept a doubleheader from Clarkston, 2-0 and 11-1.

In the clash with Waterford, Chuck Viane worked four innings for Farmington before yielding to Rick Krumm, who picked up the victory by striking out eight of the nine batters he faced. Farmington had scored a run in the first inning on a single by Kearney and double by Tom Webster. In the third, Webster singled and Viane homered to make it 3-2 for Farmington.

Waterford got even in the fifth to set the stage for Himmelspach's deciding poke in the seventh.

Jerry Turner made his record 3-0 for the season in flipping a two-hitter against Milford. Neither of the Milford runs was earned.

Three runs in the second gave Farmington a big lead. Himmelspach singled. Mike Searly singled and Webster doubled for the big blows.

In the fourth Searly singled over Jerry Tinkle. The fifth saw singles by Webster, Misch and Himmels-pach and a sacrifice by Viane produce two more runs.

Came the seventh, Kearney doubled and Tinkle tripled.

Viane was back on the mound against Clarkston in Sunday's opener and produced a three-hitter. He fanned 11 and walked two in upping his season's record to six wins against one loss, best in the league.

Both the Farmington runs came in the sixth inning. Singles by Kearney, Webster, Viane, Himmelspach and Tinkle did the damage — against Clarkston.

Krumm uncorked a four-hitter in the nightcap and also struck out 11. He never had any problems as his mates spotted him seven runs in the first inning.

Farmington's first four men hit. Chris Norton doubled, while Kearney, Misch and Webster singled. Then after two were out, Tinkle and Wayne Johnston walked. Krumm singled, Norton singled and Kearney unded his second single of the inning.

A single by Mike Perry, a double by Krumm, and singles by Al Kilka and Himmelspach forged over two more Farmington runs in the fifth. The last run was scored by Fritz Simmons on a single, hit baseman, walk and sacrifice fly — the latter by Misch.

Farmington plays at Troy Wednesday and at Southfield Friday before returning home to Our Lady of Sorrows Sunday to take on Walled Lake in a doubleheader starting at 2 p.m. The Wednesday and Friday games begin at 6 p.m.

TOP CONTENDER for Michigan's three-year-old pacing championship of 1966 is The Big Bear, star of the Jack Stahl stable of Detroit, who is shown with Driver-Trainer Wally McMurray. The Big Bear has swept the two $3,500 Michigan Colt stakes presented at the parimutuel tracks and has a season record of 2:01.4, one of the fastest miles of the year in Michigan.

Northville Wagering Near All-Time High

Although off to a slow start in the opening nights of the meeting, which ended its second week Saturday, business is good at Northville Downs and the suburban half-mile plant shows an increase of 1.2 per cent in wagering.

However, at the same time attendance is following a national pattern and the average of 4.13 is a dip of 5 per cent from 1965 at a similar time.

Saturday's season high crowd of 7,030 had the mutuel machines sizzling for a total of $404,276, the second highest in history. It was just a year ago to the night that the Downs handled $429,602 — the all-time high.

Combined with Friday's total handle of $345,315, the two-night total of $752,591 was second only to the $764,429 of a year ago. Northville has a total handle of $3,472,181 to date.

Craig Creed, the fleet nine-year-old from the Elmer Conrad stable, continued to dominate the open class pacers, winning the $4,000 Invitational by more than a length over Sudan's Comet in 2:05.3 over a track rated no better than good.

Redford 9, Ohioans Vie In A Series

It'll be Redford Township's Dependable Hard Chrome vs. Zanesville, O., this Saturday and Sunday in a special interstate baseball exhibition at Livonia's Henry Ford Field.

Dependable qualified for the series by taking the first-half title in the Greater Livonia-Free Press League.

around the field to the front and stayed there for the remainder of the mile. Sudan's Comet came at him in the final quarter but was more than a length back at the wire.

Tigers Stage Father-Son Game July 16

The Father-Son game, baseball's zaniest half-hour matching the Tigers against their own sons in a comedy game, will have a feminine touch added for the seventh annual edition at Tiger Stadium on Saturday, July 16.

For the first time, the wives and daughters of the players have been invited to appear on the field before the game for introductions to the fans.

The Father-Son clash will be a prelude to Tigers' regulation game with the red-hot Baltimore Orioles, starting at 3:15 p.m. that day. The pregame festivities are scheduled for 2:35 p.m.

Since the kids, ranging from 2 to 8, have won every previous game, they are expected to do the same again. In fact, the rules are written that way — with the fathers throwing and batting opposite to their normal manner and the boys getting six outs per innings.

Vince Desmond, director of special events at Tiger Stadium is rounding up the youngsters for the big battle. He is counting on a score of boys and about the same number of girls to show up. The girls will wear their best summer finery for their introductions but the boys will be suited out in natty uniforms matching their fathers' with their names across the back.

'Y' Presents Movie on Life Saving

Participants in the Livonia YMCA aquatic instruction program will have the opportunity to see a new film entitled "Breath of Life" on Wednesday evening, July 20, at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church on Hubbard.

The boys and girls with their parents will be exposed to a complete demonstration of the mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and other aspects of artificial respiration. Conducting the program for the YMCA is John B. Wallace of the Detroit Edison Company.

In addition to the rescue breathing demonstration, recognition plaques will be awarded to the owners of the backyard swimming pools in which the Livonia "Y" program has been taking place during the summer. The success of the aquatic instruction program offered by the "Y" has been due largely to the generous area pool owners.

Redford

(Continued on Page 2B) orating wound up on the short end of both its Free Press League starts during the week.

Garden City took the measure of the Cardinals, 6-3, and then Dearborn repeated by the same count.

Carl Stevenson had three hits in a winning cause for Garden City and drove in a pair of runs. But the big blow for Garden City came off the bat of Ken Cartier who socked a long homer with two aboard in the fifth to put the game out of reach.

Larry Ruzsak had two hits in three times at bat for the Livonians who used Larry Sladek and Bill McAlpine on the mound. Bob Gryzer's four-for-four day led Dearborn past the Cardinals. Dave Stott knocked in two runs for the Livonia representatives in the first inning. The other Livonia run came in the sixth when Gary Birkett delivered an RBI hit.

Livonian's Up String In Class A Circuit

Livonia's Class A baseball team has started a belated charge.

The team made it two straight by beating Redford Township, 4-2, behind the one-hit pitching of Don Niemiec.

Jim Pobursky ruined Niemiec's bid for a no-hitter with a wrong-field single.

Niemiec fanned eight and gave up the two Redford runs in the first inning on three walks and a pair of infield outs.

Livonia got one run back in the first on a homer by Jim Rose. In the second inning, a single by Jim Troemer, a triple by Paul Portney and an infield out put Livonia in front for keeps.

Ernie Bourassa singled and Manager Jerry Stockwell tripled for the final Livonia run in the fifth.

Arnold Helwig, the losing pitcher gave up eight hits.

The Livonians ran their streak to three straight last Sunday afternoon with a 10-0 victory over the Dearborn Ingoff Bach team.

Fires No-Hitter

effort at the expense of the Dearborn's Dad Club in posting an 11-0 victory.

Kapanke, never in trouble, struck out six men.

Larry Ruzsak scored four runs for the Giants on two hits and two walks. Gary Birkett had a single, triple and two walks, while Al Wallman slugged a double and a triple and Dave Fisher picked up a pair of singles.

The Giants fell to Garden City's McK's Partyville, 6-1, in their other start as Joe Huber proved too much for the Livonians.

Huber gave up only five hits.

McK tallied twice in the second inning on a walk to Norb Podwoiski and hits by Dick Reed and Ed Puihes.

In the seventh, McK sewed up the game with four runs, thanks to three errors that loaded the bases and then a single by Podwoiski and a triple by Puihes.

The Earl Morrall team of Redford, a strong power in the American League, received two-hit pitching from Tom Booker in blanking out Dad's Club, 8-0.

A six-run third inning put the game out of reach. Booker himself got matters started with a walk. Then hits by Bill Fahey, David Bourassa, Leland Bjerke, Henry DeLoye and Bill Howe broke the game open.

Fahey and DeLoye drilled doubles, the others singles.

Dick Beckerley singled in Booker in the fourth and in the seventh Len Buckingham clouted Bjerke across.

The Livonia Lakers battled Garden City's McFarlane to a 1-1 standoff in a thrill-packed game which had to be called after nine innings because of darkness.

Greg Macy hurled for the Lakers and was touched for nine hits, but he kept them well scattered. Mike Donnelly held the Lakers to five.

The Lakers' run came in the third when Larry Waara singled. Mike Dancha was safe on an error and Bill Woods and Mike DeGutis walked.

Dearborn Heights fashioned a 4-3 win over the Livonia Angels despite a homer by Bill McAlpine of the losers. Lou Peyton and Don Montroy knocked in the other Angels' runs with a single and double, respectively.

The loss went to Greg Coleman. Redford and Garden City initiated the second round of Free Press play on Sunday in what has to be a record afternoon of action.

The teams struggled in the 95-degree heat for 16 innings before Redford won by a 5-4 score.

The hero of the game had to be Lou Banwert of Redford. With two out in the bottom of the 16th inning and the umpires having already indicated they would have to call the game because of darkness, Banwert delivered the "hit of hits."

Robby Masson had walked to open the inning and Clyde Ziegler walked to put two men aboard. Pitcher Joe Huber who went all the way for Garden City, then got the next two men before Banwert delivered a looping single to break up the proceedings.

"I never saw anything like this," declared manager Al Turner who has been managing kids' baseball teams in the Redford-Livonia area for many years.

The teams finished the regulation seven innings tied at 3-3.

In the eleventh, Garden City broke the ice with Huber driving in a run following a walk.

With the Redford backs to the wall, Masson came up in the last of the eleventh and socked a homer to tie the game.

That's the way matters stood until the dramatic 16th.

Observing Sports

There was too much congestion around Cranbrook a year ago and the Lions were told in simple terms:

"Either keep the public away, or find another place to practice."

Reluctantly, the Lions have had to close their gates.

Perhaps, now, they'll have some very pleasant surprises when the gates spring open and the good folks of the Detroit area can take a look at their football heroes.

We disagree with those so-called experts who predict the Lions will finish last or near last in the Western Division this year.

The wonders of life in 1966: Sitting home and watching Jack Nicklaus LIVE on TV winning the British Open in Muirfield, Scotland.

Seeing Scotland again brought back that day in June, 1943, when the Queen Elizabeth steamed up the harbor near Glasgow with some 15,000 American troops aboard.

They told us it was 11:30 p.m. . . but no Yank could believe it.

Michigan's "Snow Bowl" Squad Holds 15th Reunion

ANN ARBOR—Michigan's famous "Snow Bowl" squad that battled both a blizzard and Ohio State to win the Big Ten and 1951 Rose Bowl crowns, huddled once again, 15 years later, at the annual "M" Day reunion for Wolverine lettermen.

The hardy young men of 1950, now middle-aged and successful in various walks of life, gathered with their coach, Bennie Oosterbann, to relive thrills and past memories.

"Looking at their achievements since the Rose Bowl," said Oosterbann, "I believe I'm even more proud of them now than I was then."

Eight members of the entire squad now are doctors, and six of these were on the 1951 squad. Two more are practicing dentists, three are lawyers, another a minister and there are several engineers, University faculty members as well as business men.

Among the medical group are fullback Dr. Ralph Straffon, head of the famous Cleveland Clinic's urology department; Drs. Harry Allis of Lansing, and Ozzie Clark, Traverse City, ends; Ben Pederson, Ann Arbor, tackle; Bruce Bartholomew, Ann Arbor, tackle, on the University staff; John Hess, psychiatrist, Ann Arbor, tackle; David Stinson, halfback and Carl Brunsting, end, now on the Mayo Clinic staff at Rochester, Minn.

Ends Lowell Perry, All-American from Ypsilanti, and Merritt (Tim) Green of Toledo, both hold law degrees.

Among others, halfback Charles Ortman is a manufacturer's representative in Glen Ellyn, Ill., while his running mate, Leo Koceski, is a Sales representative in Detroit.

Roger Zatkoff, another Detroit, a tackle, later with the Detroit Lions, also is a sales representative. Centers Carl Kreager and Tony Mommensen are in the building business, and tackle Dick McWilliams is division manager of an automotive firm, living in Owosso.

Other squad members returning included End Russ Ostermann, engineer, Pasadena, Calif.; Norm Jackson, Canton, O.; fullback, contractor and engineer; Bill Putich, quarterback, Cleveland sales representative; Tom Johnson, tackle, social worker, Muskegon Heights; Don Dufek, fullback, formerly on the staff and now general manager of a trailer firm, and Jerry Burns, former Iowa coach, now with the Green Bay Packers.

"Quite an imposing list," said Oosterbann. "You can see why we're all proud of them."

Among coaches returning were Bill Orwig, now athletic director at Indiana, and Don Robinson, Ann Arbor.

The group attended the annual golf outing over the University Course during the day and then held its own reunion banquet at the Holiday Inn, Ann Arbor, Saturday evening.

Local Pupils Study Music

Local students are among the 126 from 52 Michigan communities who attended Eastern Michigan University's 14th annual summer session for high school musicians last week.

Participants included: Cheryl Westdale of 29845 E. Windemer, Farmington, and Rick Morrison of 1720 Stieber, Westland. Those from Plymouth were: Sharon Breazeale, 1085 Fairground, Charlie Reisenweber, 1199 Sheldon and Ann Wehmeyer, 1470 Maple.

Public performances by the students during the session included two concerts and two recitals. In addition to performing in their chosen fields and attending music theory classes, the students participated in a recreational program which included swimming and tennis.

Karl Haas To Lead Seminar

World-renowned lecture-recitalist Karl Haas will preview the music to be presented at the Meadow Brook Festival at Oakland University this summer in a program of eight sessions. The "Music Alive" series began June 29 and will be held on successive Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. at the new Matilda R. Wilson Hall on the University campus.

In addition to focussing attention on the particular programs to be presented each week at the Meadow Brook Festival, Haas will emphasize the political, social, economic and cultural climate which influenced the specific compositions. To enhance this adventure in comparative cultural history, he will illustrate the sessions with recordings and his own "live" piano selections.

Director of Fine Arts for WJR Radio in Detroit, Karl is an internationally acclaimed authority on cultural affairs and an accomplished musician who studied under pianist Artur Schnabel in New York. He has spent a great deal of time abroad in connection with his duties under the Ford Foundation and has just returned from Europe where he conducted a special program for UNESCO. He has recently been appointed Special Consultant to The Meadow Brook Festival at Oakland University and is Chairman of the new State Council for the Arts.

For a brochure describing the series or for further information on costs and registration, please contact the Conference Department at Oakland University, Rochester, Michigan. It is possible to attend individual sessions if attendance at all eight sessions is not possible.

JAMES COBURN stars as Lt. Jody Christian, a rugged Infantry officer with an imagination that works overtime, in the World War II comedy, "What Did You Do In The War, Daddy?" Produced and directed by Blake Edwards, the United Artists release opens at the Terrace Theatre in Livonia, Wednesday, July 20.

Wally Robert UP' GOING 'CURTAIN

Middle of July heat can drive the hardest of us up north to the cooler breeze, the fragrant pines, and the wide-open spaces. If you zip north or west via I-75 or I-94, let me remind you that several good summer theatres are in existence among the non-sweating pines.

The Cherry County Playhouse in downtown Traverse City features the star system or package plan with their summer line-up. Northland Playhouse in our area provides a similar service.

Julia Meade is coming to the Cherry County Playhouse starting July 19 for a weeks run of that all-time favorite "Mary, Mary." This comedy about a marriage that's on-again-off-again is good at any time of the year. Jean Ker wrote some classic comic lines for this wry commentary on our modern day marital woes.

Over Lake Michigan way the Red Barn summer theater in Saugatuck has been in business successfully for almost 20 years. They are doing the French farce, "Pajama Tops" the week of Aug. 22. Also, you can once again catch "Catch Me If You Can" at the Red Barn on Aug. 1.

Closer to home you will want to spend "An Enchanted Evening" sometime during the week of July 26 at the air-conditioned Franklin High School Auditorium as Livonia's Summer Musical Theater presents the world-famous Rodgers-Hammerstein "South Pacific." Reserved seat tickets are now on sale at the Franklin High School (GA 5-1900) or at the special outdoor box office in the Wonderland shopping center.

"South Pacific" opens on Tuesday, July 26 for a six performance run. Special feature this year will be a Saturday matinee on July 30. All tickets have been set at the bargain price of 75 cents. If you enjoyed last year's "Music Man" production (and who didn't?) you'll want to be first in line for "South Pacific" tickets. My advice is don't delay since the Franklin High Summer productions sell out.

The Greenfield Village Players have opened their summer repertory season with "The Scarecrow" and will be adding "Shenandoah," the Civil War drama on this

Good Education, But Not Theatre

By WALLY ROBERTS
 "Oh, Zeus, King of the Gods, send us thy son, Apollo, God of Light, to curse Agamemnon. Forbid Aegisthus and Clytemnestra thine lover's bed even though Agamemnon's with Cassandra will provoke vengeance most horrendous."

This fervent plea was not written two thousand years ago by the Greek's number one playwright, Aeschylus. Old Wally assembled this bit of dialogue to give you a representative taste of the literary style in vogue at the opening of "The Oresteia" at the Ypsilanti Greek Theater on June 28.

In Cole Porter's "Kiss Me Kate" the audience was advised to "Brush Up Their Shakespeare" in a beguiling song-dance number. Similarly the main requirement for an enjoyable, understandable evening at the Greek Theater would be to return post-haste to your English I mythology book, blow the dust off, and do some preliminary reading.

"The Oresteia" is based on the myth which is centered in the house of Atreus. In case you've forgotten, Atreus and Thyestes are sons of Pelops, who murdered a dear old dad and thus the Atreus curse began.

If you are perplexed at this point, let this be a warning.

too little opportunity to display her marvelous histrionic ability.

"The Oresteia" was a long-winded choice (an 8:15 start with final curtain at 11:35 p.m.) to introduce folks to the beauties of Greek drama.

Dew Line

A short time back, the Dewline stretched across the ocean to cover the radio picture in England after the invasion of the "pirate" stations, operating off the coastal shores.

Last week, the legislature was given even further incentive to pass some form of control over the radio "intruders." It seems that the competition among the pirate stations was getting very rough—even rougher than that which exists in the U.S. In a station known as Radio City, located in an abandoned fort off the British coast, a party of 10 men and one woman raided the station and forced the personnel, running it off the island. At the same time, the owner of Radio City, Reg Calvert, was being shot to death in the home of Oliver Smedley. Smedley is being held on the murder charge and he is also suspected as the leader behind the take-over of the station by the boarding party.

The details and motives appear foggy as the traditional London day at this point but there remains much speculation as to political implications. In any case, the incident may be the spark to flame the smoldering resentment in the parliament into full legislation which would bring the unauthorized broadcasters under British control.

Hugh Frizel has resigned as program director of CKLW radio. Exact reasons for his resignation were not clear but it is known that the station has not exactly taken the market by storm of popularity (of course, what station has?)

Senior Housing Project Gives Board Headaches

The Wilcox site for the senior citizens' home is not out for good, but the Housing Commission is discussing other sites.

The Commission, chaired by its director, City Clerk Eugene Slider, reviewed developments in the two-year old struggle to build a project in Plymouth.

"The Wilcox site is not completely scuttled," Slider said. "It has not been eliminated, and it is still being considered."

PEA Asks State Mediators' Aid

By ED BROWN, Member PEA Negotiation Team

(Most all schools have a beginning salary of $5,600 or $5,700 for an AB degree and $6,000 to $6,200 for an MA degree.)

Last Friday the Plymouth Education Association, the professional organization of the teachers in the local school system, requested state mediation as a means of helping solve the "knotty" problems that have hampered the signing of a master contract between the PEA and the Board of Education.

Garden City, a poor district, settled with $8,960 for an AB maximum in 11 years and $10,080 in 12 steps for an MA degree.

Last week we discussed class size, which is one of the three unresolved areas of difference; the others being salary and fringe benefits.

Redford Union, a poor district, went $9,147 in 10 years for an AB degree maximum and $9,955 for an MA — also in 10 steps.

A problem with the current site developed when the appraiser set a price tag too high to satisfy the Public Housing Administration in Chicago.

City Manager Richard Blodgett brought the City's legislative body up to date last Tuesday, prior to the Wednesday meeting of the Housing Commission.

This week we would like to take the salary issue and try to explain why the teachers think they should be paid more than the Board has been willing to give.

South Redford, which compares to Plymouth, gave a beginning salary of $5,750 and a maximum of $9,275 to their AB teachers, and 6,150 to $10,580 to teachers with an MA degree — both arrived at in 10 years.

Blodgett told the Commission that three problems faced the senior home:

Salary depends on so many different variables that it is difficult to compare one system to another, but we will try to justify our position from a local point of view.

Plymouth with nearly twice the assessed valuation behind each child as most of the aforementioned schools seems reluctant to pay the teachers the above salaries—the PEA is asking for a beginning salary of $5,700 and a maximum of $9,075 for a BA degree in 10 steps, and a beginning salary of $6,250 and a maximum of $10,075 for an MA degree in 10 steps.

1. The PHA ruled the appraisal on the Wilcox site was too high.

2. The appraiser's figures were being questioned, and he was currently drawing up answers to the questions posed by City and Federal officials.

We teach in a community that is above average as far as available revenues are concerned. Plymouth has a higher assessed valuation behind each student than any other school district in this immediate area. Only one comes close and that is South Redford.

This year the local school system has much additional money over that of last year for operating the schools. We feel the Board could easily meet every one of our proposals without additional taxes, and still leave the school district in better financial condition than most school districts in this area.

3. The architects, Harley, Ellington, Cowin and Storton, Inc., report the cost set at $17,000 per unit was too low, and that until the Federal government revised the allowable ceiling, few, if any senior homes would be built in the Detroit area.

This year Plymouth had $16,348 of assessed valuation behind each student, and this will be increased to much more with the additional revenues from the state equalized valuation.

These additional monies come from a surplus at the end of June, additional state aid money over last year, additional assessed valuation, state equalization at a higher rate, and the one mill that the County Allocation Board granted the schools last year.

Slider and Blodgett indicated the architectural firm was one of several questioning the feasibility of any senior homes in Detroit under the present financial setup.

Our closest neighbors have the following: Livonia, $11,902 behind each child; Wayne $8,112; Garden City $5,321; Northville $13,214; Nankin Mills $5,801; Redford Union $7,500; Farmington $8,941; and South Redford $17,045.

This latter mill was not levied locally the past year since the Board had promised the taxpayers that they would "hold the line" on total millage to 26.7. It could be levied this year and would mean an additional $115,000 approximately.

In June, the PHA told Plymouth that the appraisal was too high. Estimates placed the appraiser's valuation of the Wilcox site at about $100,000, some $30,000 over what was expected.

You see by the above figures that Plymouth is far better off financially than any of the above districts except South Redford.

All the above additional monies add up to a rather attractive figure. We feel that just this added revenue is more than enough to give the teachers all they are asking for and still have some left over.

The City Commission gave approval last year for a go-ahead on the Wilcox site in a three hour executive session. That session, while not allowing a formal vote, gave direction to City officials to continue on the present course, at least until the appraisal was completed. However, several Commissioners urged a look at other sites.

Now let's see what some of these so-called average, or poorer, districts have settled for in salaries for their teachers next year.

The teachers do not want to subsidize local education in Plymouth with monies that should go for a more adequate and comparable salary schedule for teachers.

Federal regulations also play a part as the present site is the only one receiving approval from PHA.

Livonia settled for an average of over $9,000 as a maximum for an AB degree and an average of over $10,000 for an MA degree (average for a two year contract.) It takes 11 years to arrive at the maximum for an AB degree and 12 years for an MA degree with each degree decreasing one step the second year of the contract.

Next week we will discuss the fringe benefits.

Charles B. Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horn, 46682 Danbridge Court, Plymouth, was graduated from the University of Tampa with a Bachelor of Science degree in elementary education. Horn is a graduate of Bentley High School in Livonia.

Name CBD Study Committee To Recommend Future Steps

A citizens' study group for the Central Business District has been suggested by Plymouth City Manager Richard Blodgett, and a blue ribbon committee will be appointed to study the suggestion.

Blodgett recommended a 30-member citizens' group study the CBD at a meeting Monday night between the City Commission, the City Planning Commission, and the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce Board.

Two Chamber officials—Harvey Ziel and Dr. R. R. Barber—made and supported the motion to appoint a steering committee to review Blodgett's suggestion.

Blodgett suggested six sub-committees with five men each. Areas studied would be: (1) Parking, taking in the existing parking committee; (2) open space, parks and beautification; (3) store front renovation; (4) traffic circulation; (5) land development, with the possible formation of a CBD Development Corporation; and, (6) finances, including a self supporting parking authority.

Harold Fischer spoke emphatically in favor of Blodgett's move.

Prior to Blodgett's plan, discussion was held on various methods of assessing both the CBD and the City as a whole for capital improvements. Blodgett outlined briefly what progress had been made on a current long term capital improvement program.

The three groups voted to appoint a six-man group to study the recommendation, with two members from the City, the Planners, and the Chamber.

"To have a successful business district takes more than a shoe store. It takes an atmosphere that is attractive to shoppers. Just take a page out of Russ Isbister's book (school superintendent). He sells bond issues to the public by doing lots of hard work and involving as many citizens as possible," Fischer said, referring to the school's policy of appointing citizen study groups to study facility needs.

Blodgett, in offering his plan, noted that both the City Commission and the City planners had plenty to do already.

Blodgett pledged the Chamber of Commerce wants a solidified plan on parking and traffic. We have been at this for eight years, and more committees will drag

City Commissioner James McKeon appeared to be the lone holdout.

Blodgett, in offering his plan, noted that both the City Commission and the City planners had plenty to do already.

140 Names Are Added To Vote List

More than 140 Plymouth Township residents, became eligible to vote in the Aug. 2 primary, by registering prior to the July 5 deadline.

That was the announcement of Clerk Mrs. Helen Richardson who indicated that those who failed to register prior to July 5 may do so after the primary and thus become eligible for the election in November.

MEN IN THE Civil Engineering Branch of the 127th Combat Support Squadron spend two weeks of summer training building roads, fences and parking lots in addition to maintenance duties. Shown here (second from left) is Airman 1st Class Michael Kisabeth who helps this crew as they put a road next to the Air Police Headquarters at the Captain Phelps Collins Air National Guard Base near Alpena. Kisabeth lives at 9301 Haggerty in Plymouth.

At the same time, Mrs. Richardson indicated that applications for absentee ballots may be obtained from the township clerk's office Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on July 30.

Absentee ballots will be available in the clerk's office after July 14.

Builders Question Government Move

The National Association of Home Builders thinks the government was barking up the wrong tree when it raised interest rates on FHA and VA-backed home mortgages.

The rate has been raised twice this year to keep yields on these loans competitive with other investments, including conventional mortgages.

Instead of raising the interest rate, builders say, the government should allow them to pass along to homebuyers the discounts or points that builders now must absorb as a cost of doing business.

This would save buyers money on many kinds of mortgages, particularly longer term ones, the builders contend.

Points are the extra charges lenders tack onto mortgage loans to bring the yield up to what they could earn elsewhere.

For example, it takes 3.5 points or $525 to raise the yield on a 25-year, $15,000 mortgage from 5.25 per cent to 5.75 per cent.

Lenders are forbidden to charge homebuyers points. So builders have to pay them unless they can find some way of working them into the cost of the house.

In a competitive housing market, this is hard to do.

The government has raised the FHA and VA interest rate from 5.25 to 5.75 per cent in an effort to eliminate these points.

But the builders say this is costing homebuyers more money than if the interest rate had stayed put at 5.25 per cent and builders had been allowed to pass on points to buyers.

The builders want buyers to pay points not in a lump sum down payment—the way the builders have to pay them.

They want to add them to the value of the mortgage, to be paid off over the years. At 5.75 per cent, that $15,000 mortgage will cost

Hedge Clippings Can Be Harmful

Feeding ornamental hedge clippings to livestock is a dangerous practice Michigan State University veterinarians warn.

Recently a thumb-area dairyman lost 15 of 22 calves by feeding hedge clippings trimmed from ornamental yews in his farm yard.

Dr. Kenneth Keahey, veterinary pathologist at MSU, says the needles, bark and seeds from the fruit or ornamental yews are extremely toxic to both animals and man.

"The small amount of green forage a livestock owner gets from any evergreen hedge clipping is not worth the gamble of loss of valuable livestock," the veterinarian warned.

the borrower $94.50 a month or $28,350 over 25 years.

But if the points—$525—are added to the mortgage making it $15,525 and the interest rate stays at 5.25 per cent, then the monthly payment is only $93.15 and the total cost over 25 years only $27,945.

The buyer saves $1.35 a month and $405 over 25 years.

Government housing men have two main objections to the builders' proposal.

Why should someone buy a house for $15,525 that has been appraised at only $15,000, they ask.

Even if he did buy it, he might have trouble selling the mortgage to another buyer later on.

Second, they say that allowing builders to pass points on to homebuyers would go against Congress' intent in setting up FHA in the first place.

The whole idea was to keep the interest rate on these government-insured mortgages below limits set by Congress.

If buyers had to pay points, the interest rate limits would be worthless, officials say.

Apply Sealer To Plywood Before Paint

Here's a real helpmate with a problem:

"My husband is building a playroom for our children. He is lining the walls with ordinary plywood, and I wanted to surprise him by doing some of the painting.

"A friend mentions that plywood will absorb paint and it will just be a waste. My husband has bought the paint, (at least I think it's for the walls), and I haven't the vaguest idea what he had in mind, if he didn't plan to use it.

"I don't want to ask him as it will spoil the surprise."

It seems that you need a penetrating sealer over plywood that has been sanded (with all the little specks removed).

All the little nail holes must be filled in and a coat of pigmented penetrating sealer applied.

If the top coat is to be a gloss enamel, a second coat must be made of half top-coat gloss enamel, half enamel undercoat.

The more you get into this, the more you will see that it would be best to discuss the whole idea with your husband.

He'll be surprised at the suggestion, which may be just as much fun.

It could be that he prefers another method, or that he had changed his mind about painting the plywood and might like the natural finish to show.

Detroit Bank and Trust Opens New Township Office

Detroit Bank & Trust has announced the opening of a new office for its 12 Mile Orchard Lake branch in Farmington Township on July 18.

Announcement of the move of the branch into new quarters was made jointly by Chairman Raymond T. Perring and President C. Boyd Stockmeyer of Detroit Bank & Trust.

The new office is located on the northwest corner of 12 Mile and Orchard Lake Rds. and features two drive-in windows, safe deposit facilities, a night depository and parking for 40 automobiles.

This is the second new building to be opened by Detroit Bank & Trust in Farmington Township this year. A new banking center for the branch at Grand River and Middlebelt was opened on Valentine's Day.

In announcing the move, Perring and Stockmeyer observed:

"As soon as we established our 12 Mile-Orchard Lake office, we began plans for a permanent banking center to serve the growing north Farmington Township area. We believe that this already flourishing area will prosper even more in the immediate future, and we are proud Detroit Bank & Trust is a part of this promising community."

During regular banking hours from July 18 through 22, the bank will mark the opening with a public open house. A token "collector's item" — Coins from the World of Banking — will be given to all those visiting the new office during this week-long celebration.

Hours for the office will be 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., on Friday. The bank is extending the closing hour Friday by a half-hour with its move into permanent quarters.

Manager of the office is Edward Kempel.

Another idea is to take advantage of whatever light showers you might get. Don't wait until the little bit has dried up.

Rather, while the surface is still moist, do your watering, too, to get the deep wetting required.

Again, don't waste dish or bath water if you can help it. Put it on the dry spots. The small amount of detergent present won't do any harm.

If your soil is heavy, clayey and compacted, rent an aerator, or go over small areas with a spike tamp to loosen the surface and let the water in readily.

In drier than usual seasons it also pays to let grass grow longer.

A little light feeding with about one-third to one-half the amount used in the spring will also help keep grass thick without calling upon the roots for more than the added shading saves.

Under normal conditions some experts recommend removing all clippings to prevent the building up of a thatch-like layer on the surface of the soil.

If you have a deep thatch, it should be removed with a special thatch machine to let the moisture in.

However, leaving a light layer of clippings on the lawn helps retard evaporation from the soil.

Extra effort and know-how will keep your yard living green, drought and all.

Current annual growth of Southern Pine sawtimber is an impressive 16 billion board feet—well above the rate of harvest and three times the growth of any other species in the nation.

Tricks for Flat Lot

Want to get away from the monotony of a flat lot? Build a slightly elevated wood deck in the back yard, bordering it with soft plantings and rock.

In other parts of the yard, raise planting beds with earth fill to give them a rounded look. Introduce hardy evergreens so that the beds retain shape and form year-around.

It is remarkable that with all these industrial demands, the forest source is steadily increasing.

Products derived from chemical extracts of the trees —is immense.

Recently it became the source of a new plywood industry. It also provides chemicals and naval stores. The potential of "silvichemicals" —products derived from chemical extracts of the trees —is immense.

All Lawns Face Long Dry Spell

You can still keep your lawn green and attractive if you are allowed only a small amount of water.

First, you must encourage the roots to forage deeply, not come up to the surface.

This means wetting the soil less often but deeply when you do. If rationing prevents watering long enough to cover the entire lawn this way, do it one section at a time.

Another idea is to take advantage of whatever light showers you might get. Don't wait until the little bit has dried up.

Rather, while the surface is still moist, do your watering, too, to get the deep wetting required.

Businesses Praised For Keeping Area Up

'A Pat On The Back' was given Sheldon Shopping Center Merchants from Mrs. Sofia B. Anderson, Chairman Keep Livonia Beautiful Committee. Their cooperation in cleaning the whole center was noticeable. "It is swept daily and most of the merchants have commercial receptacles for their refuse. The custodian also mows the grass and cleans the parking lot.

Everyone enjoys clean surroundings in which to shop, work and live. This could be a great suburb if all our shopping centers and merchants joined "the Civic Pride Parade," commented Mrs. Anderson.

A vacant lot clean-up project on Loveland, south of Plymouth Rd., encouraged by Keep Livonia Beautiful Committee produced a truckload of debris for the city disposal area.

Mrs. Robert Stratton, 11508 Loveland and Mrs. Robert Sellers, 10000 Loveland, with the help of their children and neighborhood playmates took rakes, shovels and lawnmowers across the street from their homes. They gathered sticks, grass clippings, chunks of cement and junk to the roadside and helped load the truck.

"The residents will enjoy a more pleasant view from their front windows. It is the compounds are available that will add life to the blooms when added to the water.

Color Adds to Floor

Wood floors washed with brilliant colors are for bold decorators—but they're exciting news, and a grand way to perk up a room without the cost of full carpeting. Color-keyed area rugs may be used, too.

Good Drainage Needed For Thriving Begonias

Good drainage is a necessity in growing begonias, otherwise the plants will become waterlogged and die. The best safeguard is to keep plants in unglazed red clay pots which drain excess water through their porous walls.

hope of these clean-up people that the area will no longer be used for dumping," said Mrs. Anderson.

Keep Livonia Beautiful Committee is anxious to submit more projects of this nature in the entry for the National Cleanest Town Contest. Please call Mrs. Sofia Anderson at GA 1-0458.

Southern Pine Becomes Source Of New Industry

Southern Pine provides a larger percentage of the nation's total harvest for forest products than any other species. It accounts for:

- A sizable share of U.S. Construction lumber.
- Sixty per cent of the nation's pulpwood production.
- A majority of the country's wood poles and piling.
- An important part of the titanic arches and beams made by bonding and building up standard lumber with powerful adhesives.

Recently it became the source of a new plywood industry. It also provides chemicals and naval stores. The potential of "silvichemicals" —products derived from chemical extracts of the trees —is immense.

It is remarkable that with all these industrial demands, the forest source is steadily increasing.

Current annual growth of Southern Pine sawtimber is an impressive 16 billion board feet—well above the rate of harvest and three times the growth of any other species in the nation.

To Be Sentenced In Family Fight

Awaiting sentencing for physically harming a Redford Township woman are two Livonia residents who have been found guilty of assault and battery by Redford Township Justice of the Peace James L. Ryan.

Mrs. Joyce A. Delk, 31, of 16879 Kinloch has accused her sister, Mrs. Shelia Ann LaFrance, 25, of 14510 Bainbridge St., and Allen W. Ferguson, 32, of 31631 Five Mile Road, of breaking into her home at 10:45 p.m. on May 14. Mrs. Delk, a divorcee at the time, remarried June 17. At the time of the incident her name was Belleville.

She told Redford Township Police the couple broke a window to gain entrance and her sister pushed her downstairs. Then, she said, Ferguson put his hands around her throat and attempted to choke her." Mrs. Delk received a cut on her hand and ear and a back injury which required hospital treatment.

"I don't know why they did it," she told this newspaper, "but both had been drinking."

Mrs. Delk is the mother of three children, aged 10, 7 and 6, who were at home when she was attacked.

Expressing concern over what might happen to her as the result of a story in the newspaper, Mrs. Delk commented, "Even the police dog next door slept through the whole thing."

City Judge Tells Culprits — 'Write'

Three Farmington teenagers are currently spending a portion of their summer vacation in the library researching the subject of fireworks.

The three, who were found guilty of illegal possession of fireworks, are: David R. Baker of 31918 Lamar, Jon Handzlik, 36012 Hardenburg, and Jack A. Karle of 36617 Lyman.

All three were fined $10 in court costs by the young (late 20's) judge and given four weeks to submit a 150 word essay complete with research on the subject of fireworks. Their alternative is to serve two weekends in the City jail if the essay is not forthcoming.

Another youth nabbed by the City Police for the same offense, William C. Franklin, 17, of 20819 Farmington Rd., Farmington, got off with a $10 fine plus $5 in court costs or two days in jail. He was up before Municipal Judge Michael J. Hand.

Judge Pheny's form of sentence began about a month ago when he told four youths from Southfield and Detroit to write an essay on the "Evils of Teenage Drinking" after finding them guilty of having alcohol in their possession.

The judge added a $15 fine and $10 in costs to their sentence with the possibility of a few days in the local pokey if the essays were not in. As of last week two of these essays were in the hands of the court clerk from the girls involved, but the fellows hadn't turned theirs in yet.

The judge told The Observer that in the first case since girls were involved and he didn't really want to sentence them to a few days in jail it wouldn't have been fair to let the girls get off with just paying a fine.

"My theory is that if the kids just pay a fine," he explained, "they forget about it because money doesn't mean anything to them. They have to have something to do which requires that they spend a little of their own time for the experience to be beneficial."

"In the case of the illegal possession of fireworks I told them that the essay had to be 150 words and they had to quote and cite at least one reference work. I also instructed them to come to some conclusion about the detrimental or beneficial effects of unsupervised use of fireworks."

The Observer asked the judge what he would do if the youths reached the conclusion that fireworks had a beneficial effect and the judge stated that he had not given the three the answer to the problem and if they could "substantiate their position whatever it is more power to them."

One of the essays which has been turned into the court is entitled "Alcohol" and closes with the following: "Maybe if he does it once and sees (feels) what wonderful after affects (sic) it has he'll go back to his pepsi. I know I have."

Festival's Pop

A sentimental journey back to the early 30's was made by old and new friends of Paul Lutzeir, Community Relations Director for Livonia School District. The "surprising group" gathered at the Norton-Palmer Hotel in Windsor to honor the "father of the International Freedom Festival" on his birthday last weekend. Paul told the crowd "I must confess I'm closer to 50 than I am to 45" and it's true . . . even though we know he's 1908 vintage.

The management, to recreate the 1930 scene, provided a bathtub filled with ice and cases of legal local brew, in remembrance of the night when City College (Wayne U.) editors ferry-boated across the river to celebrate the end of exams. Seeing the Detroit skyline and noting Dominion Day fireworks, Lutzeir proposed a toast to Canada for supplying an oasis to prohibition-parched Americans and vowing to make it right some day by organizing an international festival linking the two great independence days of July 1 and 4.

Among the 100 guests were newsmen from both sides of the Detroit River, public officials from Detroit and Lansing, along with university vice-presidents, engineers, bankers, lawyers, authors, teachers, librarians and others who had bent elbows with the Livonia educator in years past. Telegrams fluttered in from the Hon. Paul Martin, Canada's Minister of External Affairs, and from notables in Washington, Ottawa, and Toronto. Happy Birthday, Paul!

Marine Dies In Battle In Vietnam

The Vietnam War was brought closer to home recently with the announcement that a 19-year-old Marine from Westland was killed in action.

The marine was Pvt. Bruno Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olympio Martin, of 37502 Palmer Road.

He died of wounds just five days after arriving in Vietnam. Previously, he was home on leave after completing his basic training at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Martin was born and raised in the community and graduated Wayne Memorial High School in 1964. He joined the Marines last January.

Funeral services were held Thursday morning at the Uht Memorial Home and from St. Mary's Church, both in Wayne. Burial was in Michigan Memorial Park.

Surviving are his parents, two brothers, Lawrence of Romulus and Ernest of Westland; and a sister, Aurora.

Martin is the second local boy to die in the Vietnam conflict. Last November, Steve Orris III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Orris II, of 38629 Florence, was killed in action.

Chevrolet Plant Employees Win Vacation Trips

Two employees of the local Chevrolet Spring and Bumper Plant are winners of vacation trip awards as grand prize in a Chevrolet "Appreciation Days" program sponsored through the Chevrolet

Sales Department. Kenneth Gammon, second shift Millwright and James Siller, his Maintenance Foreman, were presented the plans for their grand prize vacation trips for winners and their wives by Plant Manager H. T. Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Gammon live at 11779 Grayfield, Redford Township. Mr. and Mrs. Siller reside at 32848 Hees Street, Livonia. Both may select an all expense paid vacation from the list of seven choice vacation spots including Nassau and Bermuda.

Gammon and Siller both report they have never previously won awards of this magnitude and agreed perhaps the greatest thrill will be in making a selection from the seven locations where they have never previously had the opportunity to visit.

Thirty-seven other plant employees also won merchandise awards at a local plant drawing in connection with the "Appreciation Days" Program.

Angry Teen Beats Boy, Pays $48

Eighteen-year-old Rodney C. Kallungi, 9550 Mercedes St., Redford Township, has been fined $48.50 for a beating given to Kenneth D. Korvun, 16, of 9042 Lather, Livonia, on May 4.

The younger boy told Redford Township Police that Kallungi followed him into a service station at 7:45 p.m.

While three other boys, riding with his assailant, remained in the car, Kallungi pulled Korvun from his vehicle, hit him in the face and kicked his leg which required medical care for a week.

Kallungi also kicked the rear of Korvun's car, doing $90 damage.

The older youth told officers, after the beating, "I did not know he was only 16," and explained he was angry because Korvun had "stoned" his car at a drive-in restaurant.

The Distaff Side...

By Jerry Wendt, Women's Editor

Down in Ernest Hemingway's home off the coast of Florida, guests who enter the home are struck speechless by the blinding flashes of color that greet them as they enter the front hall.

Great, gorgeous chandeliers, of the finest rock crystal, catch a thousand lights and reflect them back to the viewer.

There is an interesting legend behind the chandeliers. Ernest Hemingway's first wife, Pauline, early sensing his changeable nature determined to leave a lasting impression of herself, no matter whom her successor would be. She sent to Venice and Austria, had the beautiful chandeliers carved; then hung them from the ceiling.

Days on the island vary immensely. ("Key Lar-go" was filmed there.) There are grey, foggy days, windy, rainy days; and balmy days. The home is furnished in a French-Creole color scheme of ebony furniture and materials of ivory, purple, and blue. These colors are caught and reflected in a never ending cascade of hues.

In a sense, a writer's life is like that. There are grey days when you grind away at copy. Weeks when you follow routine, dull assignments, and then all of a sudden there comes a star-studded time when everything is wonderful.

These last few weeks have been like that. There were the openings of Meadowbrook Festival and the Ypsilanti Greek Theatre.

Then there was the awe-inspiring, deeply religious ceremony of seeing a cloister dedicated. This may never again happen in our lifetime. The Archbishop in his regal robes, the whir of the incenser, the low murmur of the Pontifical Mass. And behind the locked doors, the pulsing secret cloister world, forever sealed away.

And the fun of riding in an open car with Mayor Moelke through the streets of Livonia, on the Fourth of July and being a judge in the Rosedale Gardens Civic Association holiday celebration. If you think this was an anti-climax, you couldn't be more wrong for it was a tremendous occasion.

Mayor Moelke knows everyone and greeted them all by name as we rode through the streets, (John Dufour, Commissioner of Parks and Recreation and Lieut. Melvin Murphy were judges and fellow passengers).

This was Rosedale Gardens Civic Association's 30th annual celebration and the citizens really go all out. There were baseball games, children's games, bake sales, and horseshoe pitching.

Chief event was the Costume Parade which started at St. Michael's playground. There were prizes for the most comic, patriotic, prettiest, bikes under 10, bikes 10 and over, character and trikes and wagons.

The costumes were tremendous. There were men from space, all in green, surrounding an aluminum flying saucer; there were Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn; Nurses urging people to give their blood; and prizes for the prettiest costumes.

Being a judge was hard work and we all took it seriously. The chief problem was having to choose the winners. Time and again we asked, "Can't we give two or three first prizes?" Finally selections were made.

Dody Johnson was a most able mistress of ceremonies.

The Observer has shown a few pictures on this page but believe us, we would like to show pages and pages, the costumes were so outstanding. Everyone did a terrific job and it was an honor for the Observer to participate.

MRS. WILLIAM A. PORTER

Battle-Porter Take Vows In Plymouth Church

First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth was the scene of the June wedding of Kathleen G. Battle, Plymouth to William A. Porter of Grosse Pointe.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, John S. Battle. She wore a dress of organza with pearl trim. Her flowers were white rosebuds over a white Bible.

Jacqueline Upton (sister) was her matron of honor. Barbara Battle (sister), Kristen Aszling and Claudia McElhaney were her bridesmaids. They wore floor-length yellow gowns, embroidered with green and yellow flowers. Their bouquets were baskets of white daisies and yellow rosebuds.

Stewart Porter (bridegroom's brother) was best man.

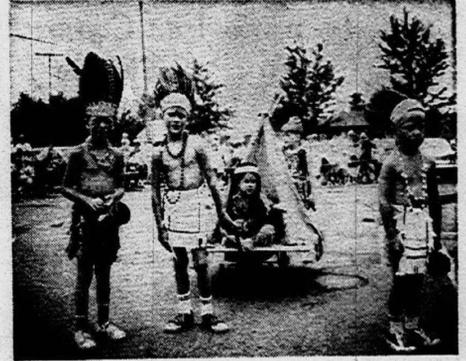

The reception was held at Hillside Inn. The couple will honeymoon at Cape Cod. Both were graduated from Albion College.

"MAKE A WISH, and it will come true," this pretty, dark-eyed miss seems to be saying to the members of the Rosedale Gardens Civic Association. But who would care if it did or not when this little lady smiles so prettily from her bower of yellow roses that form a wishing well.

"SPIRIT OF '76" was the slogan of this prize winner. Look how authentic the costumes are.

"WE'RE THE REAL, true, Americans", this group of Indians appears to be telling the spectators.

MEMBERS of the American Revolution appeared to be dragging this wagon carrying the Declaration of Independence. This was a prize winner in the "Patriotic" category of the Rosedale Gardens Association July 4 parade.

Let's Talk Fashion

with June Simpson

The lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer, a glorious time of year! Suddenly you see yourself and everything around you with a new zest and capacity for living. All that sun and air and the marvel of the out-of-doors does things to you. Your coloring, YOU, undergo a complete change. Have you noticed?

who will help decide, as the Coiffure Creation Committee, what we will be wearing in Spring and Summer of 1967. The first meeting will be held next month in Palm Springs. But, Sonny has some explicit tips for the here and now, for life in the Detroit Suburbs, 1966.

Fashion, the lady who is sometimes wrongfully accused of being an irresponsible spirit of whims, can be your true-blue friend this season.

The most livable, fashionable and functional hair fashion of the season is the "Fassoon"—cut a little longer and fuller than the original more boyish look. It's sheer comfort, easy to maintain, and the lady who swims or partakes of active sports—loves it. Come nite-time glamor-time—pull a switcheroo. Pick the "look" you'd like to have, and a hairpiece will create it for you easily—instantly. Demi-wigs, chignons, wiglets, give you an "in fashion" look for every occasion.

A case in point, take make-up. Gone is the heavily made up look, and not missed, either! The fresh, young, understated look of today's makeup, is not only one of the most flattering things that can happen to you—it's so good for you, too!

Look cool, comfortable, inviting, and leave lots of time for every passing moment of the lazy summer days. Isn't that what it's all about?

The subtle change the season brings in you, your coloring, your outlook, is the moment of truth when it comes to trying something new. Your haircoloring, your makeup, your entire fashion outlook could be a revolution—if you take Auntie Mame's famed bit of advice, and "Live." Dare to experiment. Now is the moment you can wear the colors, the shades, the fashions you never dared before!

Protect Sofa

To protect furniture where shoes are likely to soil upholstery fabrics, use a bath towel of appropriate size as a "slipcover." Just fold it to fit at the corners, tuck in the extra material, and pin where needed.

Terry cloth has enough body to stay put where you drape it and, most important, it can be machine washed and fluffed dry in minutes. One thorough sudsing will banish even the blackest shoe polish stain.

FLORENCE M. LIDDLE

The engagement of Florence M. Liddle, daughter of Mrs. James Liddle of Livonia, and the late James Liddle, to James W. Cook, is announced by her mother. Mr. and Mrs. James Cook of Redford Township are the parents of the prospective bridegroom. The wedding date is set for October 1.

Clean Stalks With Heat

Here are a few tips from the New Jersey Asparagus Industry Council on preparing fresh asparagus.

The July meeting of the Club was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Eichler on Nine Mile Road.

Trim white butt end to where only about one inch of white remains.

After the dessert and business meeting, Mrs. Herbert R. Neal presented two book reviews, one "My Friend the Garden" by Fernand LeQuenne, the second "Deadly Harvest" by John M. Kingsbury.

Wash in sink at least half full of hot (110 degrees) water. Agitate gently for about 3 minutes. This relaxes the bracts, or fins, causing them to open sufficiently to permit any soil to filter out.

Mrs. Richard Gaul and Mrs. Dwight Garden were co-hostesses assisted by Mrs. Carl Shaw, Mrs. Frederick Cordes, Mrs. Lloyd Gullen, Mrs.

Rinse thoroughly in cold water. Let soak for at least 10 minutes to refreshen.

A Great Lady Visits Homes in Our Area

A grand lady, socially accepted for the past 11 years, has been re-invited to visit in Farmington.

The Visiting Statue of Our Lady of Fatima, which has traveled high and wide on a world-pilgrimage honored the area by being displayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Adams the past week.

This week she is at the home of the Bernardine Sisters on Ten Mile Road and the week of July 16 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zigmund Drapalski, at 32021 Wayburn. She has been invited to Livonia after that.

The purpose of these visits is to encourage people to pray for World Peace and saying the rosary for this intention almost puts a smile on her angelic face.

There was almost a permanent smile on her face when residents of the Bertha Fischer Home, operated by the Sisters of the Poor, were credited with reciting 16,000 rosaries on her behalf after a six-week stay.

This particular statue was blessed at the Basilica of Our Lady of Sorrows in Chicago by Father Kean in 1954. The Blessed Mother of Fatima appeared to three children 49 years ago on May 13, 1917.

Anyone wishing to invite the statue for a visit to their parish convent, old-age home or orphanage may contact Mrs. A. Magolan at AV 2-6685 or Mrs. Zigmund Drapalski at GR 4-8648.

Mrs. Magolan said, "You are encouraged to visit at the homes where the statue is displayed and recite the rosary."

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Douglas Miller

Biggs-Miller Wed In Maryland Church

Edwards Chapel Methodist Church, Annapolis, Md., was the scene of the wedding of Louise Althea Biggs and Bradley Douglas Miller. Miss Biggs is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Biggs, Sonne Drive, Annapolis. Mr. Bradley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas J. Miller, of Plymouth.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert E. Zimmerli and Rev. Henry Muller. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a white satin gown, full length with a deep pleated skirt, short sleeves, and a scoop neck trimmed with lace applique. A crystal pearl and rhinestone tiara held the shoulder length veil in place. The bride carried a cascade of white gladioli, and white carnations.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Tobert E. Mallon, of Redbank, N.J. (sister of the bride) wore a pale green gown with an empire bodice, trimmed by a moss green sash and bow. She wore a matching pillbox hat and shoes and carried a cascade of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids Cathy Miller, of Plymouth (sister of the groom) and Ann Stevenson wore gowns fashioned after the one worn by the matron of honor. They were pink with burgundy colored sash. Hats and shoes matched their gowns, and each carried a cascade of pink carnations. Niece of the bride, Mary Louise Mallon, was the flower girl and wore a pale blue dress and carried a nosegay of pink carnations. James Harbauer of Plymouth was best man and fellow ushers were fellow servicemen of the groom, Timothy Webster and Bud Hammond of the Naval Air Test Center.

Prize Winning Recipes From "Feast of 4th"

There have been so many requests for the Scotch Shortbread Cookies and the Chipped Beef Casserole that were awarded firsts in the Feast of the Fourth, during the Kendallwood Fourth of July festivities, that it became necessary to track down the recipes.

The Scotch Shortbread was entered by Mrs. Ernest Rogers, who is visiting here from Edinburgh, Scotland. The recipe was given to her by her uncle who was a baker and has had it for many long years. She has made it so often for such a long period of time that she and her family don't consider it a special treat.

SCOTCH SHORTBREAD
5 cups flour
1 cup rice flour (you may substitute regular flour but if you wish the special texture of shortbread, you can buy rice flour in Canada or put rice in a blender until pulverized)
1 pound butter, softened (no substitution for the butter. It has to be just that) 1½ cups sugar

Cream butter and sugar with mixer. Gradually add in flour. As dough becomes stiff, knead in remaining flour by hand. Put into ungreased cookie sheet and cut into finger lengths and prick with fork. Bake at 375 degrees for 45 minutes or until golden brown.

The Dried Beef Casserole was submitted by Nancy Armstrong and she too is sharing her treasure with us.

DRIED BEEF CASSEROLE
Fry 1 pkg. dried beef in ½ cup butter, cut beef. Sprinkle on 4 tablespoons of flour and stir in. Gradually add 2½ cups milk and stir in. Cook, stirring constantly until slightly thickened. Now add 4 oz. can chopped mushrooms; 1 tiny jar pimento cut up; 6 oz. medium sized noodles, cooked, and 1¼ cups grated Frankemuth medium sharp cheese.

Place half of mixture in 2½ quart casserole. Top with scant ¼ cup sauteed Italian bread crumbs (Italian seasoned bread crumbs may be purchased at the super market on the shelves where bread crumbs are displayed). Add rest of mixture and top with ¼ cup Italian bread crumbs sauteed in butter. Bake 20 minutes at 325 degrees. For 1½ times recipe, use two packages of dried beef.

Judging the Main Dishes and Salads (other than molded) were Marlowe Belanger and Bobbie Armstrong. Dinner

Silk Sudses Now

After some 25 years of being "out," silk shirts for men are now "in" again — but with this big difference; they are sold as safely washable.

The method is to swish the silk shirt through warm soap or detergent suds, rubbing spots lightly with well-lathered fingers. Never sprinkle a silk shirt. Instead, iron it damp out of a towel. Or let it dry, then roll it in a damp towel until it is evenly moist and ready to press with a warm iron.

Guitarists To Appear At Community House

Internationally known artists, Ramon Dona-Dio and Gonzalo Torres, will be the guest performers on The Community House stage on Monday evening, July 18. At 8:30 p.m., the duo-guitarists will appear, in concert, with a program of classical, flamenco, tropical and Mexican folk music.

Both artists come from enviable musical backgrounds. Ramon Dona-Dio is the son of the great Mexican guitarist, Ramon Dona-Dio, Sr. At the age of 11 he was presented at the Falcon Salon of Concerts in Havana, Cuba.

Upon his return to his native land, Mexico, Dona-Dio was presented in concert at Fabregas, Hidalgo, Salon Wagner and the Palace of Fine Arts.

Gonzalo Torres developed his talent in a direct line from the master who provided the basis for modern guitar technique, Francisco Tarrega.

Born in Mexico, in a family of artists, Torres began his guitar study at the age of nine. By the time he was 13, he was playing at national festivals and concertizing throughout the country.

Torres attended the Conservatory of Mexico and is considered an accomplished arranger and writer as well as a master of playing the guitar. He records and is now in his ninth year of broadcasting his own weekly Mexican television program "Guitars."

The program at The Community House will be divided into four sections. Two sections will present the artists in duet, and the remaining two sections will afford each artist a solo opportunity.

Tickets for the concert are available at The Community House and at Grinnell's in Birmingham. Because of limited seating capacity, interested persons are urged to get their tickets in advance. The Community House is located at Bates and Townsend in Birmingham.

The picture "Stagecoach" a family movie, is an outstanding western with Bing Crosby and Red Buttons teaming up. Traffic was slowed down many times in the theater area as passengers slammed on their brakes to view the stagecoach.

Care For Burns

Despite asbestos gauntlets and long-handled barbecue utensils, the outdoor cook sometimes grills himself instead of the steak! The best first aid treatment for such minor burns is washing with soap and cold water — the soap to cleanse the spot, and cold water to soothe it.

If the pain subsides, it is safe to forget about further treatment, medical authorities declare. If a burn continues to give trouble, by all means see your doctor.

Remove Stains

Stains which occur from the use of concentrated blue fabric softeners may be removed as follows: Add 1/2 cup chlorine bleach to the regular wash cycle.

If a milder bleach is necessary because of fabric, use two regular cycles with 1/2 cup bleach each time. If the fabric cannot be bleached, use an all-purpose soap in the regular wash cycle. Some washers have automatic fabric dispensers which will eliminate such staining problems.

MRS. LEROY H. HOLLAND, 32954 Oakley, Livonia will supervise solicitation in the southern section of Livonia, it was announced today by Mrs. Arthur Hempt, Region 34 Residential chairman of the Torch Drive.

Moms Set To Invade Mich. State

Going back to college for a week has undoubted value for homemakers. But Mom's leaving can have value for the rest of the family, too. Youngsters and husbands left on their own for a week tend to find out just how much Mom does that they've taken for granted.

College Week for Women, July 26-29 at Michigan State University, gives Michigan homemakers such an opportunity. The conference is a unique type of adult education. It features a selection of 36 different classes. Several special session speakers have been selected to promote the general theme for 1966, "Target—You and Your Government."

Homemakers who attend will hear Mrs. Martha Griffiths, Michigan's congresswoman, speak on "Woman Power — A Force in the Government." Mrs. Griffiths is in her sixth term in Congress and was previously in the Michigan legislature. She'll speak Thursday evening, July 28, in the MSU auditorium. The session is open to the public.

Current Michigan legislators who will take part in the program will be Raymond Dzendzel, Detroit majority leader of the Senate, and Robert E. Waldron, member of the Michigan House of Representatives. They will participate in a panel discussion with a legislative counselor and a news reporter.

Mrs. Mahlon Shary, East Lansing councilwoman, will also speak at an afternoon session.

Each homemaker attending College Week will choose three classes. Each class meets three times. Instructors for the special classes represent 11 state departments and service organizations and 20 MSU departments.

State Fair Art Contests Open to All

All resident artists of Michigan are eligible to enter original works in the annual Art Exhibition and Competition to be held at the State Fair which opens Friday, August 26, and runs through September 5 (Labor Day).

General manager Walter A. Goodman announced that the show will be greatly expanded this year. Increased area will make possible more exhibits shown to better advantage.

Competition will include three classes: oil-based media, watercolor-based media, and prints. Three prizes — not purchase prizes — of $125, $100, and $75 are to be awarded in each class.

All works should be delivered to the Community Arts Building at the Fairgrounds on or before August 5. Judges will then select the works suitable for exhibition and competition during the Fair.

Preliminary and final judging will be done by Walter McBride, curator of the Grand Rapids Art Gallery, and Jean Dodenhoff, assistant curator, Detroit Institute of Arts.

One entry is allowed from each artist. Only works not previously shown at the State Fair are acceptable. The entry fee of $3 must accompany the fine arts entry blank which can be obtained from Pauline Harris, Community Arts Department director, Michigan State Fair, Detroit, 48203.

Alpha Tau Beta Winds Up Year

Alpha Tau Beta Sorority climaxed a successful year with a potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. William Smith, 18427 Westmoreland in Detroit recently.

Past President Mrs. Howard Baker was presented with a gift following the dinner. The newly elected officers were then installed, with Mrs. Howard Baker and Mrs. Robert Knoll, mistress of ceremonies, presiding.

Sorority projects for the year were a rummage sale, held in September; a card party, in April; and the sale of calendars and nuts during December, January and February. Profits from these projects will be used to send 12 crippled children to camp for two weeks.

They will attend Grace Bentley Camp operated by the Michigan League for Crippled Children. This is the 13th year that Alpha Tau Beta has set this for its goal. This year a check was also presented to the Chapel Fund for Children's Hospital of Michigan.

The social functions for the year included the attendance of the Ohio State football game by members and their husbands, followed by dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Klein of Northville; a Christmas dinner at Lofy's; a spring banquet for members and their mothers or guests at Mitch Housey's.

Also planned are two picnic and swimming parties to be held for members and their children—one in July at the home of Mrs. Donald Calliau, and one in August at the cottage of Mrs. Ward Kohnke.

What will the others be worth a year from now?

The Cadillac car holds its value far beyond any other automobile at or near its price. Let your Cadillac dealer explain today why now, more than ever, it's great... going Cadillac!

There is one simple way to measure the worth of any other luxury car: compare it to the way a Cadillac keeps its value. For Cadillac is the grand champion in this most telling of all motor car tests—and at resale returns a higher percentage of its original cost than any other car built in the land. There are many reasons. The first is Cadillac quality—recognized wherever automobiles are known. Then there is Cadillac beauty and luxury—so advanced that the car retains its desirability long after others have lost their appeal. And there is Cadillac safety, performance, dependability and operating economy. What will your car be worth a year—or even three years—from now? If it's a Cadillac, the answer is predictably pleasant. Get the facts today from your authorized dealer. He's an expert in serving the world's most demanding motorists—and his interest in your complete satisfaction will continue throughout your ownership. Isn't it time you put a Cadillac in your life?

Queen of Hearts Says Forget Cooking On These Blistering Days

BY FAITH GILLESPIE

Knox gelatin in 1/4 cup cold water. Dissolve it in 1 1/2 cups HOT tomato juice (before 8 o'clock in the morning?). Add 2 teaspoons lemon juice and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Chill till partially set, rubbery. Stir in 1 can (12 ounce) corned beef, crushed or chopped, 1 or 2 tablespoons chopped onion, 1/2 cup chopped celery, 1/2 cup mayonnaise or Miracle Whip. Chill all day, or overnight, in a loaf pan, and serve with hard cooked eggs. This recipe makes more than enough for 4 servings, but it will keep a day or two in the refrigerator. When it's finally gone, there's always Ben and George's.

At the height of the heat of the summer, the accomplished cook knows just what to do: stop cooking. She knows how to succeed at not cooking without even trying.

The novice, on the other hand, may need a little instruction in the techniques of non-cooking.

You begin by making a solemn vow never to turn on the stove after eight o'clock in the morning. That gives you just enough time (if you get up pretty early in the morning) to brew up a batch of iced tea and hard-cook a few eggs against the coming hunger of the day. Use the eggs for sandwiches and salads and between-meal treats.

With a little ingenuity, you can feed a family for days on sandwiches, salads, and cold soups. You can even freeze cold soups like consomme and vichyssoise (made from a mix) in popsicle molds and eat them on the stick.

Then there is always the Queen of Hearts No-Cal Ice Diet.

After that, there is one grand alternative left to the confirmed non-cook. Call up Ben and George's Delicatessen, at Seven Mile and Middlebelt, and order hot pastrami with cold slaw on rye, to eat there in air-conditioned splendor, or to take home. Or cream cheese and lox on onion rolls. Or chopped chicken livers and potato salad.

The only problem that crops up in the no-cooking plan is the guilt problem. Even seasoned cooks have the tendency to feel a little wicked when nothing productive is happening in the kitchen.

My advice is to take any little old guilt feelings that appear and bury them deep in your subconscious with all your other assorted guilt feelings. Pretty soon, in all this heat, you won't even remember where you put them.

Should the burden of guilt become overpowering, here are some no-cook recipes. Your good old subconscious will think you are cooking, when you really aren't.

HAM BOATS: Use 2 or 3 medium slices of boiled ham diced small for each serving. For two servings, add minced green onions, 2 tablespoons chopped pickles, 2 tablespoons chopped celery, 2 tablespoons catsup, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise, and maybe 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper, if you have some around. Mix together and heap into hollowed-out tomatoes, or hollowed-out hard rolls.

FROZEN FRUIT SALAD: Cream together 3 ounces cream cheese, 1/2 cup mayonnaise. Fold in 1/2 cup whipping cream (that has been whipped). Add 1/4 cup chopped red maraschino cherries, 1/4 cup chopped green cherries, and 12 diced marshmallows. Place in freezer tray and freeze all day (or all night). Four servings.

Lutheran Church to Hold Two Session Bible School

From July 25 through 29, the 1966 VBS will be conducted at Lutheran Church of the Risen Christ Chapel, Plymouth.

This year's program is divided into two separate sessions, with two complete staffs: Morning from 9:00 to 11:00 for children pre-school through 2nd grade. Afternoon from 1:00 to 3:00 for children third grade through High School.

Due to the expected large enrollment, tents will be used in addition to the Chapel. The "Two Session" concept is being used to provide the most effective program possible with limited facilities, and will extend to include the closing VBS Service with morning students attending the 8:30 Worship Service and the afternoon students at the 11:00 Worship Service.

The increasing demands of a growing VBS offer all members the opportunity to serve in a vital area—Christian Education.

"Life" is Text For Science Church July 17 Sermon

"LIFE" is the subject for this week's Sunday services in all Christian Science churches. The Bible Lesson-Sermon includes the account of Jesus raising Jairus' daughter from the dead (Mark 5). The Golden Text is from John: "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent."

"The way is straight and narrow, which leads to the understanding that God is the only Life. It is a warfare with the flesh, in which we must conquer sin, sickness, and death, either here or hereafter, — certainly before we can reach the goal of Spirit, or life in God."

Readings from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include this passage:

Begin With Package Roll
Turnovers as good as grandmother made take only minutes from refrigerator to table.
Using one package of refrigerator biscuits, roll out each biscuit on a floured board until it is about 4 inches in diameter. Moisten edges with water and fold each round over a teaspoon of homemade strawberry jam.
Pinch edges to seal and bake according to directions on package.

what is the definition of a private brand?

To some people, it is a retailer's own brand created with selling price first in importance and quality second.

To us at A&P, it's the opposite. Quality comes first.

Value...the best for the least is the rule for our private brands.

If this wasn't true, how foolish we'd be to invest, as we have, literally millions of dollars in processing plants and testing laboratories.

If all we wanted were products we could sell cheaply without quality control, anybody could produce them for us.

The idea of quality private brands isn't new at A&P. As a matter of fact, it's one of our oldest policies—and by golly, we're proud of it.

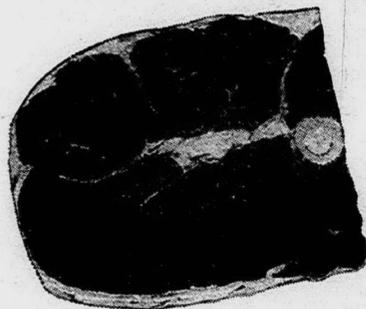

Are A&P Private Brands a good reason for shopping A&P? They're one of many.

Extra Patrol On Telegraph

Senator Edward J. Robinson, whose twelfth senatorial district includes Redford Township, announced that the Michigan State Police, at his request, will place extra patrol cars on Telegraph Road from Six Mile to Joy Road. This is in an effort to combat dragsters speeding and endangering lives on Telegraph Road.

Senator Robinson has been personally distressed at the speedsters he has observed cutting in and out of traffic on Telegraph Road and has also received a large volume of mail from Redford Township residents complaining of this growing menace.

It was in response to the many complaints of Township residents, together with his own personal observation, that prompted Senator Robinson to make a formal request for extra State Police to patrol Telegraph Road between Six Mile and Joy Rd.

Vivian Tells of New Act Giving Access To Records

By Congressman Wes Vivian

At present, there are 24 different phrases used by Federal bureaucrats, in addition to "Top Secret", "Secret", and "Confidential", to prevent the public and the press from seeing Federal documents. The basis of these phrases is Section 3 of the Administration Procedure Act.

The right of the public to have access to Federal documents which are not classified for reasons of national security has been discussed by many individuals, for many years. Last week, after 15 years of talking about the need for "freedom of information" legislation, the House of Representatives took action. It passed S. 1160, the "Freedom of Information" bill.

This bill will guarantee the right of every citizen to see the records of every government transaction, unless a very specific reason exists for restricting release of the information. If any Federal agency disputes a citizen's right to see a document or file, this bill grants the U.S. District Courts authority to review the facts, and power to order the agency to comply with the citizen's request.

The passage of this bill establishes the public's "right to know"—a right vital to the effective functioning of democratic government. Recent investigations have revealed continuing abuses of this right by some bureaucrats who have used the existing law as a shield behind which to hide, instead of honoring it.

Examples of improper withholding of public information have ranged from official reluctance to divulge details on government contracts where there was no competitive bidding, to the Pentagon's insistence that the Pentagon's telephone book was classified.

The nine exemptions to free access of public records provided for in the new measure carefully define those situations where the people's right to know can be restricted in order to safeguard our national security.

They are: national defense or foreign policy matters required by Executive order to be kept secret.

personnel rules and practices of any agency; matters exempted from disclosure by other laws.

trade secrets and confidential commercial information, in tra-governmental communications not available to a private party reports submitted by financial institutions to their regulatory agencies; and geological information about oil wells.

The "Freedom of Information" bill properly guarantees the right of citizens to know about their own government. It reasserts the principle that government records are public records and should be available for public inspection unless there is a valid and over-riding reason to the contrary.

Citizens in a democracy must be well-informed if they are to make intelligent decisions. In a free society, the people's right to know should never be left in doubt.

1-5 Card of Thanks

WE WISH to take this opportunity to thank our friends and neighbors for their thoughtfulness and expressions of sympathy during the long illness and death of our daughter, Linda. Especially we would like to thank the doctors and nurses and aides at the University Hospital, both on the ward and in the out-patient department for the care and help they gave us in fighting so hard for Linda. We would also like to thank Schraders Funeral Home and his staff for all the kindness they have shown us. Also we would like to thank the patients of the West Trail Nursing home and their families for being so understanding during the past 2 years. Finally we would like to thank Reverend Greer and the Ruth and Rebecca Circles of the Newburg Church for their comforting thoughtfulness. Carl, Betty, and Jerry Lampton.

I WISH to take this opportunity to thank all of my friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers, cards, and visits, while I was in the hospital. Dr. Carl F. January.
