Rotarians Expect 15,000 For Sunday Chicken Barbeque

Festival to Bring 60,000 to Plymouth

With the greatest program ever offered in its 10-year-history, more than 60,000 are expected to move into the City of Plymouth during the four-day and night Fall Festival which opens Thursday and continues through Sunday.

The opening event is the traditional German dinner of kraut and knackwurst presented by the Business and Professional Women's Club in Kellogg Park starting at noon and continuing through 9 p.m. Thursday.

The climax comes Sunday when the Rotary Club, which started the Festival 10 years ago as a chicken barbeque, expects to serve more than 15,000 from noon to 6 p.m.

In between, there'll be activities of all kinds — events of interest for the oldest as well as the youngest resident of the community — there won't be an idle moment from noon Thursday until 6 p.m. Sunday.

And if you like to munch on goodies, there'll be an abundance of such items available, ranging from the apples of the Y.M.C.A. to cookies from the Grange, the BPW German dinner, the Lions Club ice cream social, the Kiwanis Pancake Festival on Saturday and then the barbeque and roast corn barbeque Sunday.

There'll be activities in the evening including the first annual Firemen's Ball Friday in the Mayflower Meeting House with ageless Don Pablo and his orchestra furnishing the music.

There'll be a day for the kids on Saturday when hundreds of youngsters are expected to enter pets in the annual competition starting at 9 a.m. and continuing until noon.

The pet show, sponsored jointly by the Optimists and the City Department of Recreation, will be staged in the parking lot adjacent to Sharrard's on Ann Arbor Trail.

The Plymouth Symphony League will sponsor a three-day antique mart in the Community Building and the Grange Hall on Union Street, starting Friday and continuing through Sunday.

The Rotary Club, granddaddy of the Festival, has added a new feature this year in the form of a produce show on Sunday in Kellogg Park.

Entries will be accepted until 10 a.m. by Co-Chair-

Plymouth Township Board Seeks Legal Opinion On Proposed Route of Freeway

The Township of Plymouth has taken legal steps over the controversial route of the M-14 extension freeway.

The Board of Trustees, meeting in special session last week, authorized Attorney Ralph Cole to investigate two areas: what powers are inherent in a Federal grant that allows the 701 master plans, and, secondly, what powers will come the Township's way should they incorporate between now and the final approval date of the freeway route.

The action came upon the suggestion of Irv Rozian, member of the Township planning commission. Neither he, nor Trustee Ralph Garber are happy about the route. Both own land in its path.

Rozian also suggested a series of meetings, to begin with discussions with the C&O railroad, Detroit House of Correction, Wayne County, St. John's Seminary and Ford, all involved in the route.

In addition to Rozian's moves, the Board heard letters from residents of the Shearer Drive area. That street is due to be wiped out should the present freeway route hold up.

Among those objecting was E. H. Merchant, owner of Merchant Machine Tool Co., 43999 Shearer Drive. He noted his plant had been in its location 10 years and that he would work for an alternate route.

"A small plant like mine is given no consideration because of Ford," his letter stated.

They agreed that Supervisor John D. McEwen, Rozian, and Planning Commission Chairman Maurice Breen should form a committee to organize the opposition.

The route deviates from what the 701 master plan had established. It misses Ford's new Sheldon Road plant, then cuts south of the C&O tracks. The freeway is to tie in the I-275 freeway, and I-23.

Rozian suggested the first meetings should be closed, but that later discussion should involve the public and individual homeowners.

The route, termed "not fixed" by route location engineers, follows along Schoolcraft Road, crosses Northville Road and cuts across to Sheldon, where an interchange would take all of Shearer Drive.

DISPLAYING MELONS he will exhibit in the produce show, sponsored by the Rotary Club as one of the Sunday features of the Fall Festival, is Clyde Smith of Newburg Road. The show is an added event this year and expected to attract entries from all farmers in Plymouth and surrounding areas.

Rotary Club Adds A Farm Exhibit To '66 Festival

The Plymouth Rotary Club has added a new innovation at the 10th annual Fall Festival, an event that is expected to add interest to the program on Sunday Sept. 11.

Under the supervision of Wilford Bunyca and Don Lightfoot, the Rotary Club will sponsor a farm produce show in which cash prizes will be awarded to the winners of the various events.

It is the first time such a program has been offered in conjunction with the Festival and the Co-Chairmen believe there will be a great many entries.

Entries will be accepted until 10 a.m. Sunday in the Kellogg Park area set aside for the contest.

Farm produce from most of the major farms in the area will be on display.

The divisions include:

SWEET CORN BASKET—(three prizes of $40, $30 and $20). A basketful of market ready sweet corn, with many of the ears husked.

SOY BEAN PLANT ($15, $10 and $5) One single plant judged on number of filled pods in evidence.

TALLEST CORN STALK — ($15, $10, $5) Measured from ground level to tip. Bring with roots.

BUNDLE OF INDIAN CORN—($15, $10, $5) Twelve good ears, with husks folded back and tied in a bundle.

LARGEST PUMPKIN OR SQUASH — ($15, $10, $5) A sound fruit, not necessarily mature. Judged on weight only.

PYRAMID OF MELONS—($40, $30, $20) A total of 30 prime muskmelons in a lath

City To Vote Again On Liquor By Glass

City of Plymouth voters will vote on the question of liquor by the glass in the November election. This was assured for the sixth time since prohibition when petitions were filed by Roy Rew, a resident of the City.

The petitions, were filed in behalf of Ralph Lorenz, owner of the Mayflower Hotel, and Herman Halperin, owner of the Box Bar.

Plymouth has been dry since prohibition. The act was repealed in 1932 and most communities in Michigan went wet by a two to one margin.

But the city never did approve the change. The repeal act allowed local municipalities to remain dry if they failed to act within 90 days.

The matter never went before the City Commission, of that time, and Plymouth remained "dry" by default. Only by a majority vote in a special referendum may the matter be changed.

So, for the sixth time since the repeal, Plymouthites will vote whether to allow liquor by the glass or defeat it as they have in the five previous elections.

The petitions needed almost 1,400 signatures of qualified electors from the City of Plymouth — 35 percent of the electors who voted for the Attorney General in the 1964 poll.

The issue lost by the smallest of margins in each of the last two elections. It went down by 79 votes in 1958 and by 59 in 1962. This compares with 800 in the 1952 voting.

Lorenz, who insists that he must have liquor by the glass to assure the success of his proposed ultra-modern motel has indicated that this will be the last time he tries to get approval of the issue.

"We have to have something like this to offer our patrons," he said. "Or they will stay where liquor is allowed."

A successful motel can't exist without food, good food.

Trustees Table Burr's Request For Firefighters

William Burr, Plymouth Township Director of Public Services, is a persistent man.

The Township Board tabled his request for additional manpower for the second meeting in a row, apparently feeling the need was not "urgent" as Burr insists it is.

"I realized when I requested these men it would be difficult. When I came here you asked me to do the job. This is how I see it. It is important that we make this step so we can have two men on the apparatus when it responds," Burr said.

"Even if we had six, it would be better than what we have."

Supervisor McEwen said there was no money in the budget for the additional men. Burr countered that there was a two mill provision for fire and police in House Bill 256 for Townships and the millage could be levied without a vote of the people.

Ralph Garber moved the matter be tabled, and asked Burr to report on the two-mill provision, as well as how he would schedule the 10 additional men. The Board agreed with Garber's motion.

In action on another Burr request, the Board agreed to study a pension for firemen.

"Personally, I'm in favor of this," McEwen said. "It's a matter of monies."

Trustee Gene Overholt echoed these comments, and said he recalled that the members of the Board favored the pension at the budget meetings, but money was lacking. Burr was ordered to report on various plans at the next regular meeting.

A third request from Burr, for more hydrants to serve four "critical" areas was discussed briefly with no action.

Burr, in three letters to the Board in August, had outlined his desire for a pension plan, 10 additional full-time firemen and more hydrants.

Benevolent Township Board Offers City $1,300 For Mains

Plymouth Township has offered the City of Plymouth $1,300 for the 52 water customers in Plymouth Colony Subdivision, well below the City's asking price ranging in thousands of dollars.

The offer was approved at a special meeting of the Board Tuesday. In a letter to City Manager Richard Blodgett Township Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes said the Township would pay "$25 per customer, representing $15 per meter and $10 for good will."

Township Supervisor John McEwen lives in the subdivision, which is just off Sheldon Road. He, along with 51 others, must pay one and one-half times the normal City rate at present.

He has chafed under the setup, and has urged action over the past few months. The Township uses Detroit water, which the City has refused to take.

"It wouldn't be so bad," Mrs. Holmes said, "except they are paying more money for a poorer quality water than we have."

The City is expected to refuse the offer, although no official word was available. The City offer was rumored to be as high as $50,000.

To add to the situation, Township Engineer Herald Hamill feels it will take $10,000 to bring the mains up to Township standards.

Sheriff's Office Stops Issuing Driver Permits

The Wayne County Sheriff's office will no longer issue driver's licenses on Fridays in Plymouth Township Hall.

However, according to supervisor John McEwen, the service will remain in effect under the Secretary of State's office jurisdiction. The change is effective immediately.

Warn Seniors Not to Delay Signing Up for Medicare

Every month, 120,000 Americans reach the age of 65. The soon-to-be-65's are asking these days, "When is the best time for me to sign up for medicare?"

The answer, according to Sam F. Test, social security district manager, is that they should sign up two or three months before they reach 65.

If they wait until the month they reach 65 or the following three months, their hospital insurance protection under medicare may begin right away, but their coverage under the voluntary doctor bill insurance cannot start until one to three months after they sign up for it.

Test explained that the medicare law provides a seven-month initial enrollment period for the voluntary doctor bill insurance part of the program. This period begins with the third month before the person is 65, includes the month in which he reaches 65, and ends with the third month thereafter.

"The best time to enroll," Test said, "is in one of the three months before you reach 65. If you do so, your protection can start with the month of your 65th birthday. Waiting until that month to sign up will mean the coverage can't start until the following month. And enrollment in one of three months after the month you are 65 can mean a delay of up to three months in the start of protection."

He further explained that failure to sign up during the seven-month initial enrollment period may mean that the individual will have to wait until the next general enrollment period.

This is always the last three months of odd-numbered years. But even then, the older person will have to wait until the following July for the protection to start, and the premium payments will be 10 per cent higher.

"This matter of a delayed start in protection could have serious consequences if the individual had high medical expenses meanwhile," he pointed out.

The voluntary medical insurance part of medicare covers doctor bills for home, office, and hospital visits, surgeons' fees, and a wide variety of other medical expenses in and out of the hospital.

Hospital insurance coverage begins with the month a person reaches 65, providing he applies to establish his eligibility no later than 12 months following that month. Like social security cash benefits, hospital insurance payments are retroactive for up to 12 months. There is no such retroactive payment under the medical insurance part of medicare.

For people who were 65 or over before March 1, 1966, the medicare law set a general enrollment period that began Sept. 1, 1966, and ended May 31, 1966, during which they could sign up for the voluntary doctor bill insurance to supplement their basic hospital insurance under medicare.

Nine out of 10 elderly people enrolled for this supplementary protection. Since May 31, Test said, almost 40 per cent of those applying to enroll in the medical insurance applied too late to have their coverage start as soon as they reached 65.

About eight per cent had waited until the month of their 65th birthday; 24 per cent until one of the three months following that month—but still within the seven-month enrollment period.

Five per cent did not apply until after the end of their enrollment period and will not have another chance to enroll until the next general enrollment period, Oct. 1, to Dec. 31, 1967.

Schoolcraft College Enrollment Soars To 3,197 Students for All-Time Record

Schoolcraft College is off to its greatest year in history with record high enrollment of 3,197 for the fall term, according to Registrar Norman Dunn.

Dunn reported 2,186 are registered for day classes with 1,011 in the evening. This is almost 700 more than the totals of a year ago when there were 1,609 in the day and 895 in the evening classes.

This year's total includes 137 in the newly created apprenticeship program which offers courses in design, manufacturing trades, electrical trades, and machine trades.

The new technical building the long awaited program. The record enrollment is another sample of the boom that has hit college and university campuses throughout the United States. The two was opened last week to serve year community colleges are taking up the slack for those students who have been rejected from the four-year colleges.

Schoolcraft's enrollment is 40 per cent higher than that for the start of the 1965-66 college year. It has resulted in the addition of 23 full time teachers and many part-time instructors to handle the work load.

Meanwhile, Wayne Dunlap, chairman of the College Humanities Division at Schoolcraft, has announced an expanded creative arts program with the start of the fall semester.

The program of 14 individual events will include poet Gary Snyder, a return engagement of mezzo-soprano Leslie Eitzen and seven films. All programs are open to the public free of charge.

The events are grouped in four series, providing seven films, five concerts, two lecturers and a number of exhibitions of art, ceramics, and photography. Announcement of dates and events on the exhibition plans are complete, Dunlap said.

"The Captain's Paradise," an English film with Alec Guinness, opens the semester program on Friday, Sept. 9. Thereafter, films are scheduled at two week intervals on Fridays through Dec. 2.

Other films in the series are "Yojimbo," a Japanese film, Sept. 23; "Pather Panchali," the critically acclaimed Indian film, Oct. 7; "Tight Little Island," Oct. 21; "The Idiot," an adaptation of the Dostoyevsky novel, Nov. 4; "The Big Deal on Madonna Street," Nov. 18; and "Hiroshima, Mon Amour," Dec. 2.

Films are scheduled for 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. in the amphitheater in the Forum. Foreign language films in the series have English subtitles.

The concert series will open on Friday, Oct. 14, with a program by String Bassist Lawrence Hurst, one of the best known artists on an unusual solo instrument. Hurst has been principal bassist with the Seventh Army Symphony in Germany and the Dallas Symphony and has been a member of the University of Michigan music faculty since 1964. The concert is scheduled for 3 p.m. at the Waterman Campus Center.

Miss Eitzen, who appeared on the Schoolcraft creative arts series last year, will return for a program of lieder on Thursday, Nov. 10, at 11 a.m. in the library. She will be accompanied by Allen Shaffer of the Schoolcraft music faculty.

The Schoolcraft Evening Choir and Orchestra, directed by Dunlap, will offer a concert on Wednesday, Dec. 7, at 8 p.m. at the campus center, and on Thursday, Dec. 8, the Beaumont String Quartet will perform a chamber music program at 11 a.m. in the library.

The quartet is composed of Michigan State University faculty members and is gaining a wide-spread reputation in Michigan for recitals of distinction and musical merit. Quartet members are Romeo Tata and Theodore Johnson, violin; Lyman Bodman, viola; and Louis Potter Jr., cello.

A week later, on Thursday, Dec. 15, Dunlap will direct the Schoolcraft College Choir and Orchestra in a program scheduled for 11 a.m. in the library.

Sir Arnold Lunn, author and lecturer, will open the lecture series on Wednesday, Oct. 12, at 1 p.m. in the amphitheater.

Snyder, regarded as one of the best poets to come out of the so-called Beat Generation, is scheduled for two appearances—one at 3 p.m. in the Waterman Center, and one at 8 p.m. in the library—on Thursday, Nov. 17.

4,000 In C'ville Schools

With a record enrollment of almost 4,000, the Clarenceville School district schools opened for the 1966-7 term Tuesday with all teachers on hand following a successful conclusion to summer negotiations for a master contract.

There were a few new faces in important places which found David McDowell, former principal of Clarenceville High, replacing the retired Louis Schmidt as school superintendent.

Anthony Marra, former assistant principal, was elevated to principal.

Due to the construction work at Edgewood Elementary School, which isn't completed, the school lunch program will not start with the beginning of classes.

Students who remain in school over the lunch period will have to carry their own lunches until the work is finished. Milk will be available at the school each day.

Supt. McDowell indicated he expected the cafeteria will be ready for normal operations by Oct. 1.

Meanwhile, the Board of Education has set Monday, Oct. 3 as the date for a special election for a millage renewal in December. The election will ask electors to make a choice between continuing five mills being collected or allowing it to expire.

Nine Local Health Groups Aid in Medicare Studies

LANSING — Nine local health departments will assist the state department of health in surveying extended care facilities for certification under the federal Medicare program, according to State Health Director Albert E. Heustis.

The health departments participating in the work are Ingham, Kent, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw, Muskegon, and Genesee Counties; in addition to the city of Detroit, and the city of Flint health departments.

Dr. Heustis observed that applications for participation in the Medicare program have been sent to 262 nursing homes, 24 hospitals with extended care facilities, and 42 county medical care facilities.

"After the applications are returned, survey teams will inspect each unit, and provide consultation and assistance in any areas that do not meet the Medicare standards," Heustis noted.

The state health department will then send the applications, with recommendations, to the Social Security Administration for final certification.

"Although there are more than 500 nursing homes, and other medical facilities in Michigan that could fall under this portion of the Medicare act, applications were initially sent to only facilities which licensing records showed as providing a certain level of post hospital extended care," Dr. Heustis said.

"Many nursing homes, for example, do not provide this type of care, and could not qualify under Medicare at this time. But in the future these facilities desire to meet Medicare requirements, we will aid them in every possible way."

All licensed nursing homes in Michigan are being sent a copy of the Medicare Conditions of Participation, and a letter suggesting that they apply if they feel the standards can be met.

Observer Newspapers Plan Second Annual Publicity Workshop

The second annual Observer Newspaper Group workshop will be held on Thursday, Sept. 15, at Madonna College in Livonia.

In an effort to offer ideas, suggestions and information on the most efficient way to communicate with the community through a newspaper, organizations, service clubs, PTAs are asked to register their publicity and public relations chairmen to this workshop.

A kit will be distributed geared to showing the best way to write a news release, as well as a feature story.

A special session in photography will be part of the workshop.

In addition there will be an opportunity for questions and a discussion period on the importance of communication and the method of determining what is an announcement, a news release, or a feature story.

Youth Killed in Westland

The death toll of motorcyclists in Western Wayne County climbed one more notch Wednesday.

The latest victim is Roylance R. McCallum, 16, of 4134 Williams Street, Inkster. Police officers said that he was driving in the Hanover-Matthews area in Westland when the vehicle went out of control, struck the curb at the corner and smashed into a utility pole.

His death comes within a month of numerous other motorcycle deaths in Garden City, Livonia, and Farmington.

HAIL TO THE Senior Citizen of the Year—Mary Spitz, wife of Steve Spitz of Livonia. Mary received the Senior Citizen award for the State of Michigan for outstanding community service. It was presented on "Old Timers' Day," Aug. 29, at Michigan State Fair. In addition to being instrumental in starting several senior citizen groups in Livonia Mrs. Spitz spear-headed a drive which resulted ultimately in a high-rise apartment in Livonia for senior citizens.

School Head Urges Millage Approval

Children in the Wayne Community School District, which includes most of Westland, shouldn't suffer the loss of educational opportunities which come only once in a lifetime, school superintendent Harry Howard said in a prepared statement urging approval of a four-mill tax levy at the special election Monday.

"The board of education and the administration recognize the need for a new method of financing schools," he said. "In the meantime, they do not feel the children should suffer."

"The community's record of school support is excellent!" he pointed out.

His statement came one week after a newly-formed citizens' group, Homeowners Association for Lowering Taxes, came out in opposition to the four-mill levy which was defeated by a narrow margin of 500 votes at the June 13 school board election.

The new group has asked critical questions on the need for more taxes for school operations but Howard replied that "expenditures of the school board are public record."

"When the decision to go for the four mills was made in April, the administration spent a half-day in a press conference with local newsmen to explain the need, the superintendent said. This material was printed and distributed in other meetings.

A public hearing on the budget was held and the newspaper publicity was widespread, he continued. Through the newspapers, all citizens were invited to attend and the superintendent is willing to answer questions about the 1966-67 school year budget.

The school board, Howard said, could have resubmit-

License plate sales through the first eight months this year registered a gain of 132,500 over the same period in 1965. Secretary of State James M. Hare predicted that for the first time in history, the 4.5-million mark would be achieved here in Michigan. As expected, passenger car plates led the way with 57,500 more sales than last year. Commercial plates were nearly 24,000 ahead, but farm vehicles slipped 4,000. Revenue was also at an all-time high at the end of June with more than $73-million already in state coffers. According to Hare, this is a hike of more than $3-million over last year.

Westland Fireman Lighter

Westland women who want to lose a few pounds can look to local fireman Charles Richardson as a goal. Richardson dropped his weight from 223 to the present level of 205 at the suggestion of the Westland Civil Service Commission. The commission last Wednesday brought up Richardson's case and chairman Thomas G. Smith admitted it was evident from the visual inspection that Richardson "had lost a lot of weight." However, to provide guidelines for the future, the commission adopted standards as recommended by the International Association of Fire Chiefs. Those guidelines range from a minimum height of 5'7" and a weight range of 135-175 pounds, up to 6'5" and a weight range of 185-235. Richardson stands 6'1/4", he told the commission. The fireman's advice to women with a similar problem: "diet pills" he told The Observer.

Grandma Enjoys School Bus Run In Westland

As Livonia's huge school bus fleet, the biggest in Michigan, rolls out to take Westland youngsters back to school, the driver with the most seniority will be Mrs. Phyllis Searles, who has been driving for the school district since 1950. Mrs. Searles, a grandmother drives bus No. 60 which gets rolling at 6:32 a.m. come rain, sleet, snow, or sunshine. "With that starting time we are enroute before dawn most of the year," Mrs. Searles said. "I like my Westland route. After taking care of a load of Whittier junior high youngsters, I get a change of pace by picking up and delivering elementary and kindergarten boys and girls at Cooper."

William A. McLellan, who supervises public school transportation employees, praised Mrs. Searles and her fellow drivers, who, he said, "Are self-disciplined and have the authority to maintain maximum safety regulations at all times. "With thousands of spirited kids on buses for many miles and minutes each day, this is no easy matter," McLellan said. "Yet our safety record indicates that rules are being enforced."

School Board Honors Four Retirees

Four persons with a combined total of 59 years of service to the Wayne Community School District, which covers most of Westland, were honored recently by the board of education. The school board approved resolutions: Mrs. Ruth Buhay, 2125 Harvey, with 20 years of teaching experience in the community; Mrs. Bessie E. Kelley, 35185 Elm, secretary for ten years; Mathias Kohmescher, 35323 Palmer Road, custodian for 11 years, and Mrs. Mildred Weiler, 35623 Florence, secretary for 18 years.

Public Support Key To Future of Schools

ANN ARBOR—In order to provide the proper training, schools will have to offer guidance services so that the needs of the individuals, their strengths and weaknesses, can be determined, says Prof. Ralph Wenrich, director of vocational education at The University of Michigan. "Placement services are essential to such a program," says Wenrich. "Continuing education can be and should be incorporated in this system to retrain and upgrade skills of youth and adults," he adds.

Wenrich offers guidelines for a practical vocational educational program. "The first thing necessary is a commitment on the part of the public. The people have to be willing to finance it," he says. "Instruction needs to be provided in fields and occupations for which there is a demand.

"Our schools will have to be made larger. The small administrative school unit cannot possibly conduct a satisfactory program. Even the largest of schools in an area cannot do an adequate job alone."

He stresses that qualified teachers must be recruited. "They must be competent in their field. The whole faculty of a high school must understand that two out of three of our youth do not go to college, and that their training must be different. Functional types of courses are necessary," he states.

Wenrich advises schools that wish to obtain a satisfactory vocational-technical education program. "The first thing you have to do is to determine your needs. After the facts have been gathered, then you start to determine the kinds of programs to offer, where they should be taught, location of training centers if these are required, the cost of the programs and how they should be financed.

Attendance Man, Teachers Are Approved

The Wayne Board of Education recently approved contracts for three new teachers and an attendance officer while accepting the resignations of five faculty members.

The new attendance officer, bringing the total to three in the district, is Richard Bartholmew, who will get a salary of $9,770, based on his ten years of teaching experience and graduate hours beyond a bachelor's degree. To join the staff in September and their assignments are Virginia Abram, Hamilton fifth grade, two years of prior experience; Julie Totzke, Glenn High business education, a first year teacher, and Donald Liebau, Wayne Memorial High reading consultant, with six years of experience. He will fill a new position at the school.

Going out the other door are Ruth Buhl, Jackson first grade, who is retiring; Mrs. Jeannine Klay, Glenn High home economics, getting a one year leave of absence; Matilda Dolen, school nurse, who indicated that she is taking a position in another district; Sharon Schamber, Madison kindergarten, who is accepting a teaching post closer to her home; and Larry Leinweber, Memorial High math who is leaving for a private business firm.

The school board was also told that two secretaries, Bessie Kelly and Millie Weiler are retiring; two bus drivers, Randall Norris, and Max Allgood took other jobs, as did Earl Street, relief bus driver and custodian. Clerk Thelma Stern is resigning on doctor's orders.

Airman Enters Training

Airman Russell F. Griffin Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell F. Griffin of 7860 Donna Road, Westland, has been selected for technical training at Lowry AFB, Colo., as a U.S. Air Force munitions specialist. Airman Griffin was graduated from Franklin High School, Livonia, in 1965.

Church Plans Carnival for Sept. 16-18

A "big top carnival" will be held Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, Sept. 16-18, by St. Bernadine of Siena Church, 31463 Ann Arbor Trail, Westland.

There will be Bozo the Clown on hand at 7:30 p.m. each night and at 2:30 p.m. every afternoon. A fish fry will be held from 2-8 p.m. Friday and a pancake breakfast from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Sunday.

"As many persons as possible should be involved in this process," he says. "Present the findings to the public and how well you do this will to a great extent determine the outcome."

Wenrich concludes, "We in education can come up with ideas and suggestions but in the final analysis the schools are the only ones that can do anything about it."

PHS Opens Season Grid Ticket Sale

Plymouth High season tickets for the home games will be offered to fans for the first time this year. Plymouth Athletic Director John Sandmann has announced.

Tickets for four games will cost $1.50 for students and $3 for adults.

Tickets may be purchased at the assistant principal's office only. They will not be sold at games.

The tickets will be for the four home games: Northville, Bentley (homecoming), Redford Union and Walled Lake.

Liquor

commodations and drinks. If you don't have all three, then you aren't going to exist. That's the position I'll be in."

Each time the issue was brought up before, it received stiff, successful opposition from organized groups who based their campaign on "alcoholism" and a drive against "a bar on every street corner."

The last is a false impression since the City Commission is on record to allow only three permits if the vote ever becomes favorable. More than that, the permits are issued on the basis of population and Plymouth's total would be limited.

Lorenz sees the coming election as a critical one for his proposed motel and the Mayflower Meeting House. Should the issue fail then he could conceivably be in the position of dropping his plans since he feels he must be able to offer liquor by the glass for a successful operation.

The state code specifies that there will be one permit for each 1,500 citizens; that bars must be located no closer than 500 feet from a church and all residents in that area must approve.

The issuance of permits and the enforcement of the code is in the hands of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission which makes certain that all restrictions have been met before it issues a license.

one man responding with an apparatus to a fire, hoping a volunteer will show up eventually, has inherent in it the element of chance, uncertainty and risk. It would be idle to pretend that the undermanned condition of this department can be solved by the calculated disregard of those important factors," Burr wrote to the Board.

Burr said he had on occasion had men work 48 hours in a row, clearly violating the law.

In other action at the special meeting, the Board:

- Took no action on planning commission appointments. McEwen appointees have been turned down two times in a row, and the Board expects him to make new recommendations, which he said after the meeting he would do.

- Tabled the fire prevention code, pending final changes.

Scouting Gets $7,000 Lift From Plymouth Fund Drive

Scouting—often a valuable experience that carries its imprint through manhood—will receive a $7,000 lift from the Plymouth Community Fund in 1967.

Last year, 19 units of Plymouth community Boy Scouts enrolled the interest and participation of 611 boys and 221 adult leaders. The program emphasized physical fitness, character building and citizenship training.

Funds to continue the Boy Scouting program will be raised Oct. 10-Nov. 4 in the Plymouth Community Fund's campaign for $88,543. Edward W. Schening, plant manager of the Burroughs Corporation in Plymouth, is general chairman of the drive.

Cub Scouting is one popular segment of the Scouting movement, and last year 326 Plymouth boys and 126 adult leaders participated in the home-centered program. Cubs learn by doing at weekly den meetings and monthly pack sessions. Their ages are eight, nine and 10 years and dad and mom help them in their quest for learning under the Scouting creed.

Boy Scouting attracted 252 Plymouth boys in the 11-14 age group last year, while leadership was given by 74 adults.

Donald F. Allen, 42150 Lakeland Court, is the Plymouth community Scout commissioner. He points out that Scouting provides a boy with healthful outdoor adventure, teamwork, useful knowledge and skills, and a code of honor.

Boys enter Scouting as Tenderfoots. The pinnacle rank is that of Eagle Scout, and in Plymouth about one in five boys masters the required merit badge studies to attain Eagle badge.

Scouting for boys of high school age is called Exploring. Plymouth last year had 33 Explorers with 21 adult leaders enrolled in three posts.

The program provides each boy with experiences in developing social skills, exploring vocational opportunities and understanding the benefits and obligations of citizenship.

One of the great lures of Scouting is camping at two summer camps of the Detroit Area Council.

Boys are encouraged to earn their own money to pay the registration fee and for uniforms, equipment and dues. But a boy is not rejected for lack of money; that being one of the roles of the sponsoring organization.

Sponsors also provide adequate meeting place and competent adult volunteer leadership.

Sponsors of the Plymouth community Scouting program (Sunset District) include: Allen School P.T.A., Bird School P.T.A., Cherry Hill Methodist church, Helen Farland P.T.A., Gallimore School P.T.A., Our Lady of Good Counsel church, Plymouth.

State School Libraries Need 20 Million Books

EAST LANSING—It would take 20 million books costing $100 million to bring Michigan's public school libraries up to standards recommended by the American Library Association (ALA), says a Michigan State University librarian.

The state's school libraries also need 6,000 more librarians and expenditures of $24 million annually, according to William S. Stoddard, librarian for MSU's Graduate School of Business.

outh Lions Club, Plymouth Kiwanis Club, Plymouth Rotary Club, Plymouth Optimist Club, First United Presbyterian church, Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 6695, and Western Wayne County Conservation Assn.

A FORMER BOY SCOUT and two younger Plymouth Scouts learn from Robert Lash (third from left) how merit badge studies helped him to attain the Explorer rank. The younger boys—Cub Gregg Vetal and Scout Rodney Allen—hope to travel the same route of preparation. Ex-Scout, Edward W. Schening, shows admiration for the opportunities and accomplishments that Boy Scouting offers the trio. Schening, general chairman of the Plymouth Community Fund 1966 campaign, is pleased to see this organization allotted $7,000 for its Plymouth community activities next year.

City Commission Eyes Downtown Parking

The Plymouth City Commission last week informally agreed to begin a study of a downtown parking authority.

The action came at a special meeting. City attorney Thomas Healy and City Manager Richard Blodgett were to draft an ordinance creating a parking authority.

The group, which would operate along lines similar to the Municipal Building Authority, would maintain, expand and create parking space.

The idea is an outgrowth of Chamber of Commerce and the parking committee recommendations.

"The whole thing is in the study stage" Blodgett explained.

It is expected the authority will tie in with a proposed blue ribbon study of a downtown business authority, also proposed by the Chamber of Commerce.

Both projects are aimed at enhancing the downtown shopping area—both as a place to shop and as a better tax base.

VFW Unit Helps Honor President

The state championship color guard unit of VFW Mayflower Post 6695 was selected as one of the honor groups welcoming President Johnson when he stepped off the plane at Metro Airport for his Labor Day visit to the area.

The color guard, which recently finished second in the national competition, was out in full force well in advance of the arrival and presented its usual precision drill for the benefit of the President and his party which included Congressman Wes Vivian.

The Plymouth High School marching band was invited to join in the welcome but School Supt. Russell Isbister had to turn down the invitation. The band was up north for the annual band week program and wasn't scheduled to arrive back in Plymouth until late Monday afternoon.

Wall Cover-Up

There's no excuse for a homely, concrete retaining wall. A pretty cover-up can be made with wood. Bolt a 2x4 to the wall's top and bottom edges. Then nail on 1x1s vertically. Use preservative-treated Douglas fir or cedar lumber.

THREE HEADS are better than one when it comes to City Planning, according to the Director Don Hull (seated left). Expanding his staff, Hull announced this week a third planner for the City, Robert Menzies (seated right). Menzies was formerly a planner for Oakland County and is a graduate of both Michigan State and Wayne State University. Standing viewing the proposed Livonia downtown is Planner number two, John Nagy. The new member of the Planning staff will be working on research analysis, capital budget, market and economic reports for the future growth of the City. He and his wife Audrey plan on moving to the City from Pontiac, their present home.

Shared Time, Money Needs Plague Board

By BILL GAIL
Observer Staff Writer

Livonia school board members will return to the meeting Monday night to resolve the knotty question of how much money will be needed in the next three to five years for sites, school buildings and equipment.

Figures broached on Aug. 29 range between $20,800,000 and $23,000,000 that citizens will vote on Oct. 3.

Another matter to be considered will be the "shared learning" project which generated some heat and an altercation between two spectators early this summer when a group of citizens appeared to protest the federally-financed endeavor.

Last summer Livonia and north Westland (Nankin Township) voters in the Livonia School District approved borrowing $15,000,000.

They rejected a proposal to borrow $9,000,000 this past January.

However, school officials, faced with a growth in pupil expected to zoom from 32,600 to 41,040 in four years, are extremely concerned where to put them.

As the board sees it at the present moment, the school district will need:

- A fourth high school to cost $7,800,000.

- Tenth and eleventh junior highs plus additions to at least two of the present junior highs, $6,400,000.

- Purchase of 235 acres for one senior high, two or three junior high and six to eight elementary school sites, $1,000,000.

- Two additional elementary schools, $2,200,000. This particular area—to be given further study—accounts for the difference in the proposed borrowing of $23,000,000 versus $20,800,000.

- Continuation of library book program, $2,000,000.

- Renovations, remodeling and additions to update all existing buildings, $1,000,000.

- Driver ranges and simulated $200,000.

- Site development, paving, bleachers for Stevenson, fourth high school, and present nine junior high schools, $800,000.

- Funds to match federal tax returns, $500,000.

- Contingencies, $1,100,000.

The shared-learning project, which will come up for discussion, conducted under the guidance of the Wayne County Intermediate School District, was known as the Wayne County Desegregation Project.

"We expect to hear a report from parents and teachers," Supt. Ben Yates told this newspaper, "relating to what was and what wasn't achieved."

He said no big decision would be made and the discussion would probably concern itself with evaluating the results of the learning situation.

Leading Drag Racers Vie In Big Bill

The top drag racers of the nation will be in action at Motor City Dragway Saturday night in a twin bill match race series.

One of the newest contenders for the world's record in its class will be the new fuel-injected, supercharged Don Garlits Dart which only three weeks ago posted claim to the unofficial world's speed record for exhibit/ultra stock-factory experimental/unlimited funny cars.

The roadster-type Dodge Dart driven by Emery Cook of San Diego, Calif., ran back-to-back quarter-mile record speeds of 181.44 and 189.86 miles-per-hour. Cook set the marks while racing against the new supercharged, rear-engined AMT Piranha.

The 39-year-old Cook also who lists Detroit as an official residence, will be at the wheel of the Dart in a match race series with Maynard Rupp and his Chevroom.

A second match race series (best two in three) will pit Dick Brannan and his Ford against Cecil Yother's "Melrose Missile" Plymouth.

Motor City Dragway is at 26 Mile and Meldrum, three miles east of Edsel Ford Freeway.

Harry Wolfes Celebrate Their 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfe

More than 150 relatives and friends gathered at Meadowbrook Country Club, Northville Wednesday, Aug. 24, to help Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Wolfe celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

In an evening devoted to old fashioned group singing and anecdotes it was learned that he was a piano salesman in his younger days and has spent the past 41 years in the real estate business in Livonia.

It also was learned that he suffered a most embarrassing moment on his honeymoon at Niagara Falls when he was arrested as a ticket scalper when attempting to redeem his tickets after missing the boat for the return home.

During the evening Rev. John Grenfell, Pastor of St. Matthews Church, and Bill Taggart, an old friend of the family, favored the group with solos.

The Wolfes are the parents of five children, two of whom, Don and Harry E. are engaged in real estate. There are 13 grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe are lifelong residents of Livonia. He served as Township Clerk for 14 years. One of the lead-

Westland Kids Offered School Food Variety

Lunchroom supervisors at the Cooper, Hayes, and Monroe elementary schools in Westland are making the transition from vacation life to classroom more bearable for kids by scheduling hamburgers, buttered corn, and watermelon on opening day menus in all schools. Included too is a lettuce salad with French dressing and milk.

The menu for the second day of school, which falls on Friday, September 9, is toasted cheese sandwich, potato chips, pickle slices, garden salad with Italian dressing, Dutch apple pie, and milk.

Lined up for the next week in the lunchroom are such child-tempting entrees as hot dogs, Manhattan meat rolls, crispy fried chicken, and hot beef sandwiches with gravy.

New 'Eye' To Aid State Computer

Data supplied from the Livonia area and other parts of Michigan will soon undergo a new type of scrutiny.

A new optical reader—central element in a modern electronic data processing system designed to help implement one of the country's most advanced driver information programs—will be installed at the Michigan Department of State, said Secretary of State James M. Hare.

This new equipment, to be leased from Recognition Equipment Inc., of Dallas, Texas, will "read" and translate ordinary typed or printed information into machine language for input into the Department's electronic computer.

Hare said the new "reader" would help his department maintain up-to-date records on the state's nearly 5-million drivers, while saving the state more than $600,000 during the next three years by elimination of the present manual key punching operation.

He said it would take three years to convert all the records in the Michigan Central driver files to the computer where they can be updated on a daily basis.

The new reader will begin processing more than 5,000 driver license applications each day as they are received from examining stations throughout Michigan.

"Ultimately, with additional computer capacity, all statistical information on a driver's record will be available to law enforcement officials in the matter of seconds," Hare said.

"But this is still several years off and our first giant task is mechanization of all records in our files while keeping up the daily updating of all new records."

Hare said about 150,000 records — those involving problem drivers — have already been mechanized. "And we're adding to these every day," he reported.

Visit Atomic Center

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Slusser and family of 15911 Opoto, Livonia, recently visited the American Museum of Atomic Energy in Oak Ridge, Tenn., which features demonstrations and displays on the peaceful uses of the atom.

Around Plymouth

A week's visit recently started with attending the Hobart Hammond wedding in Hindsdale, Ill. for Theresa Cameron and Bernice Wiedman.

The twosome paid a visit to the Queen of All Saint Mausoleum with its 200 acres of rolling countryside, had an opportunity to browse and see the unique religious landmark with its 400 works of religious art and greatest sculptures in America.

On to Green Bay to visit Pat and Lou McGuire, formerly of Plymouth, well known through Rotary affiliations and members of Our Lady Of Good Counsel.

And returning from Pepper Pike, O., where they attended a wedding, were the Gerald and Sandra Richards family — more tryouts this week on Thursday for the musical "The Desert Song." Call Sandra for more information at 453-3538.

Mrs. Matthew Krump has organized a group of 26 Plymouth people who are touring Canadian shrines for a week.

Report From Washington

Vivian Reports On Pollution

By Congressman Wes Vivian

Citizens across the nation have become aroused because of the deteriorating quality of the nation's rivers, lakes, and streams. Government bodies, community organizations, conservationists, and many, many individuals are asking immediate and drastic action to end the abuse and to restore the quality of our nation's valuable water resources, so that they can serve better not only our present generation but also our sons' and daughters' generation as well.

The 89th Congress is presently engaged in efforts to discern the most effective course to follow—what to do immediately, how to distribute the cost of local and regional and national programs, what research needs to be done, and so forth.

One such Congressional undertaking involves the work of the House Subcommittee on Science, Research and Development. This Subcommittee, of which I am a member, is holding hearings to investigate the status of research on environmental pollution and the consequences of pollution on the health and welfare of the American people.

Over the past several months, this Subcommittee has heard experts from all fields of endeavor testify on this vital subject. The valuable information collected during these hearings will enable the Members of the Subcommittee to recommend sound legislation aimed at curtailing water pollution.

I have personally undertaken the task of providing my colleagues, and the nation as a whole, with a more thorough background in the problems of contaminated water.

Recently, I began a series of articles in the Congressional Record which discuss the problems and consequences of unabated pollution. I am presenting this series in the hope that they will bring the issue to the forefront of national attention, and that they will provide the public with additional insight into this very complex subject.

Water pollution is a direct outcome of our modern society. The many advances that have taken place in this country—those which have taken place in this country—those which have contributed to the growth, development and prosperity of our nation—have placed a tremendous burden on our water resources.

We have now reached the point where Nature can no longer carry this burden alone: Man must now provide Nature with the means by which to defend herself against the many abuses of modern living. If we are to preserve our water sources for posterity, it is essential that we move today in an endeavor to save our dying water from man's impurities.

Ex-Sorrows Star Lost to Notre Dame

Ill fortune has struck Mike Bars, former Our Lady of Sorrows football star who was picked at center on the All-Observer area team in 1964.

Bars, now a student at Notre Dame, suffered a fractured leg during a varsity scrimmage last Saturday and will be lost to the Fighting Irish for the rest of the season. He had been counted on to see a great deal of service this fall at South Bend.

N. Y. Guards Constitution

The Michigan legislature in recent years has been making great strides in educational programs and laws but in one area they seemed to have hurdled completely over the constitutional wall separating church and state.

The Observer hopes that the state lawmakers and executives will pay heed to a recent New York State Supreme Court ruling which cuts to the heart of the entire issue.

In the past three years, Michigan has adopted several laws at the emotional plea of the religious establishment on the basis that public funds, meaning tax monies, can be used for private and parochial schools since the monies would be used to benefit the child in those schools and not the schools themselves.

But this is like saying to a police officer, "I didn't hit the tree, the car did."

The New York Supreme Court decision said that a new law "loaning" state funds to private and parochial schools for textbooks is unconstitutional on the grounds that it violates the principal of separation of church and state.

On the emotional plea of "child benefit, not school benefit," Supreme Court Justice T. Paul Kane said:

"Pupils are part of the school and that aid to pupils was the same as aid to the school. A school is not just a building but includes the educational activities of the persons, both pupils and teachers, who are part of the institution."

Purpose of the constitutional separation is simple and purposeful: the foundation of free and public education must be maintained and any drain of funds for that purpose would only erode that foundation.

If public funds, collected from Catholic, Protestants, Jews, agnostics, atheists, and millions in between, are funneled into church schools against the will of the citizens, public school systems will be the loser—which means that the country as a whole will be the eventual loser.

Learn First Hand

Livonia and northern Westland voters will traipse to the polls Oct. 3 to decide whether they want to spend around $23,000,000 to build a fourth high school, two more junior high schools, make some renovations, buy some more sites, and obtain equipment to outfit the buildings.

School officials feel there is no reason taxpayers should have for not giving approval.

They say, the annual debt retirement tax bill will stay the same: seven mills. A State provision allows school districts to borrow from the State and repay at a maximum of seven mills yearly.

True, it will extend the length of time required to get out of debt, but officials explain that growing school population must be put into buildings; there must also be equipment.

Unfortunately, time is short between now and Oct. 3, and public information about the needs can't be acquired overnight.

All citizens who are concerned should make a real effort to attend the school board meeting this Monday night (Sept. 12) to learn first hand why the school has growing pains and needs.

March Brings Victory

I have just returned from a tour of a battlefield where America is winning a war—without firing a shot or exploding a single bomb.

It is the war against crippling diseases and is being fought by some of the nation's leading scientists on the hills high above the beautiful harbor in San Diego, California.

I was privileged to visit the Salk Institute where these dedicated scientists are working around the clock with the hope that much of the world's suffering can be relieved.

The Salk Institute is a most unusual building—or series of buildings—that was financed, in the main, by the National Foundation—March of Dimes. For that reason I was especially interested in that I have served as the National Bowling Chairman for the March of Dimes for almost a decade and each year the nation's bowlers have contributed more than a quarter million dollars toward the financing of the war.

Like most people I, too, often have asked of any charity event, "Where does the money go?"

Well, I have been watching this March of Dimes for a long time and when I had completed the tour of the Salk Institute I not only was choked with emotion but knew that the Dimes had marched proudly to this institute. More than that, I was proud to be part of an activity that made such a thing possible.

As our caravan reached the top of the hill and the large concrete buildings came into view, my memory drifted back to that afternoon in 1954 at the University of Michigan when it was announced that Dr. Jonas

Salk, working on a grant from the March of Dimes, had developed a vaccine that would cure polio and eliminate this dread disease from the face of the world.

It was a great moment in medical history and Dr. Salk was hailed as a friend of mankind.

In the 12 years that have followed, polio, once the greatestcrippler of them all has virtually been eliminated. Where we, in this area used to have real epidemics of polio a single case now is a rarity—thanks to the work of Dr. Salk and his fellow scientists who concentrate on virus diseases.

It was because of this that Dr. Salk was honored by the building of the Institute which bears his name and to which the March of Dimes contributed $18,000,000 and is obligated for payment of more than $1,000,000 annually.

The building itself is unusual in that it is built of polished and treated cement that requires no upkeep. And everything in the building is so constructed as to hold maintenance down to a minimum.

Despite this, the large laboratories provide the scientists with every need by the mere pressing of a button. In another section the conditions in each room are recorded on an electric typewriter that is enclosed in a glass case on the wall. By simply looking at the record being typed the scientists know what is happening at all times.

I was especially interested in the quarters provided for the scientists. Not far removed from the large laboratories are one-room apartments. Each scientist is assigned one of these apartments with a picture window overlooking the calm Pacific Ocean. It is a grand setting.

Each apartment is equipped with comfortable furniture, a small library, toilet facilities, etc. It was explained that there are times when these scientists work around the clock and these apartments provide their every need. It seemed most unusual—but one had to admit it was a great place to concentrate in comfort.

It was such things as this that evoked interest in the great lengths to which the institute goes to aid these outstanding scientists who are fighting—and winning—the war against crippling diseases.

As we were leaving, after a most interesting visit, one of our party noted that there was very little grass, but mostly flowering ground cover in the landscaping pattern.

OBSERVING the Scene . . .

By MYRA CHANDLER

Despite the efforts of one Senator Gar Lane (D) from Flint, who has been in the Senate since Methuselah, and heads the powerful Appropriation Committee, HB-3335 passed the House and Senate, and was signed by the Governor.

Typical—but not ideal—Lane, an insurance agent, did his best to block the new Bill preventing insurance companies from cancelling policies so easily. If it broke his heart (and hurt his pocketbook) to cooperate with the Bill, he should have disqualified himself.

"We received more complaint mail about insurance companies, thereby necessitating this law, than any other," said Marvin Stempion (D) from Livonia, who was a big supporter of the House Bill.

One of the main factors now made law is insurance companies cannot cancel a policy for old age. This was happening. Also in the Bill specific reasons are listed allowing cancellation and must be accompanied with a 20-day notice. It used to be instantaneous.

One cancellation reason is fraud. If an insurer lies about his arrests. Another reason is drunk-driving. But the days of a person who supports an insurance company and then needs them, only to find he faces cancellation if he uses what he has been paying for, are over.

Other Bills put into law passed by the House and Senate and signed by the Governor are HB-199 requiring children entering any school to be immunized against measles by Jan. 1, 1967, assisted by Jim Tierney (D) Garden City.

Bill 207 Prohibits motorcycles drivers from driving two abreast and passing between vehicles proceeding in the same direction. Requires wearing of crash helmets approved by State Police, by Marvin Stempion (D) Livonia.

Bill 214 Permits State and local police to "spot check" motor vehicles for safety and other violations of the Motor Vehicle Code. (In other words, if you are driving the "second car" and it looks like it belongs in the grave yard, you could be pulled over and out.)

Bill 230 Empowers State Health Commissioner to supervise construction and operation of public swimming pools.

Bill 232 Provides method of extradition and wage assignment of persons charged with failure to provide support for dependents.

Bill 250 Designates May 29 as "John Fitzgerald Kennedy Day," not a legal holiday.

Bill 254 Permits school boards to hire administrative personnel without tenure for terms not to exceed three years.

Bill 291 Creates a Fire Fighters Training Council, consisting of five members, to establish minimum requirements for training, assisted by John Bennett (D) Redford Township.

Bill 299 Makes it a 1-year misdemeanor for motorist to flee an arresting officer and a two-year misdemeanor to assault a police officer.

Bill 300 Allows school districts to establish day care program for pre-school children. (Done in Europe for years, particularly Russia—so mama can get into that factory to work.)

Bill 309 (that legislators would like printed in disappearing ink in public places) Increases Legislative salary from $10,000 to $12,500 Jan. 1, 1967.

Bill 317 (This is one Senator-elect Paul Chandler was interested in before his death) Defines and prohibits "substantial conflict of interest" for elected officials and governmental employees. Bans lawyer-legislators from practicing before State agencies and prohibits registered lobbyists from serving on State Boards.

Bill 323 (an important Bill that will affect many residents along the new I-96 as it is built) Requires residents subject to condemnation proceeding for urban renewal

Friend of Teachers' Speaks Up'

Editor:
Re: Story "Livonia Schools Seeking Teachers" of August 24, 1966, Paragraphs 8-10 in particular.

The morale of our local, experienced and well qualified teachers is very low due to their being constantly passed over by the school board when principalships and other "reward" jobs are passed out. Many times in the past I have wanted to speak out against this known injustice and have not done so, but this last article made me see "red."

Unfortunately I cannot mention the names of the teachers involved because they are afraid of retaliation—even though they have tenure. However, following are a few situations that are typical:

1—A teacher with a Master in School Administration and a start towards a Doctorate from U. of M. with over 16 years' teaching experience in Livonia—passed over even for Departmental Head jobs . . .

2—A teacher who supposedly was not qualified for the Livonia "intern" program but who was hired as principal at Clinton with a substantial raise in salary . . .

3—The teacher who in disgust finally resigned and who when told he would have to have a "separation" interview with the personnel director, insisted on the presence of Supt. of Schools Benton Yates and therefore the subject was dropped altogether. The teacher in question had said, "I can't believe he (Mr. Yates) would allow all these qualified men to leave if he knew what was going on."

4—A teacher who reluctantly, after 15 years of devoted service, resigned and was told nothing more than "good luck" . . . no thanks for a good job done, or please reconsider, or we hate to lose a good man . . .

Why do I bring this to your attention? Certainly not because I have anything to gain. I am not a teacher nor is my husband and we have no children in school. Justice is needed, so sign me a friend of teachers.

Since our illustrious Mayor had his run-in with the police of our city and was not ticketed, an occasion happened to me while on an emergency sick call. Is the Mayor of our city more privileged than we the taxpayers who are on an errand of mercy?

(A new feature in The Observer Newspapers — we will do our best to be a go-between, a red-tape cutter as the name indicates. When you have exhausted all other measures on a problem write to us (keep it short, please) and we'll see if we can help. Yes, John Q, you can fight city hall — with your own Ombudsman!)

Dear Ombudsman:

Last week The Observer and Livonia's Parks Department pooled their vast resources and announced a contest to name the new public course on Haggerty Road (actually it's on Newburg). The idea of a City-wide contest is exciting and fair, but the proposed grand prize is as ridiculous as the City Council.

I am quite sure that two prominent institutions, The Observer and Parks Department, could afford to reward the winner with more than one lousy free game of golf.

That prize is so cheap that when the winner tried to collect his free game, you guys would probably make him tee off at 5 a.m. in the morning.

I am confident the Parks Department could at least afford to give a year's golfing privilege to the winner.

If this plan does not meet Mr. Dufour's satisfaction why doesn't The Observer beef up the prize by adding golf tees to the kitty?

CLAUDE FULLAGAR
Livonia
Dear C. F.
Ombudsman thought you had a point, although you might have said it a little kinder. However, we did talk with Mr. Dufour and he agreed to make the Grand Prize an entire season of golf.

ng for the winner. The Observer will supply the tees and a front page picture of winner which is worth, would you believe 70 dollars an inch?

Some of us are fortunate enough not to underestimate the opinion of our ancestors. Our grandmothers used to tell us to, "eat your carrots because they are good for your eyes". We didn't need any proof, we just believed her.

Raw carrot juice is a resistant to infections, doing most efficient work in conjunction with the adrenal glands. It helps prevent infections of eyes and of the throat as well as of the tonsils and sinuses and the respiratory organs generally. It also protects the nervous system and is unequalled for increasing vigor and vitality.

Carrot juice is rich in Carotene, the precursor of vitamins in your body chemistry. The juice is also rich in Vitamins, B, C, D, E, G and K.

Commendation from Army

Army Sends Plaudits

It was with considerable pleasure that I noted the excellent coverage in your newspaper given to men of this Division during our recent two weeks of active duty training.

The considerable amount of comment made to me and my staff by the many members of the Division who live in your circulation area certainly reinforces my long held opinion of the tremendous impact such quality stories can have on the morale of men. More than anything else, it shows them that the community thinks the job they are doing in maintaining the defense posture of this country is important, meaningful and in the best citizen-soldier tradition.

It is personally gratifying to me, in this day and age, to see such stories in print, for I am sure they are indicative of your support of not only this Division but the Army Reserve program as a whole. It is community leaders, such as yourself, upon whom we depend in these troubled times of international strife.

Although I know that Major Sol Baltimore, the Division Information Officer, has personally thanked you, I also desire to let you know of the high esteem in which you are held.

Please feel free to call upon me or the Division should we be able to assist you in any way in the future.

(Two letters were received this week addressed to Ombudsman from the Livonia non-teaching staff complaining about the election of local 118 in the contract ratification and also complaining against the president of Local 118, Al Ruchstall.

However, the letter was signed "This is from one sign their name: The Ombudsman will withhold names from print, but will not answer letters that are unsigned. If either of you would care to come in and sign the letters Ombudsman will get to work.)

Ban Poll Workers?

Just a few after thoughts about the primary election. I know that many of you wondered why I, as a candidate for mayor, did not openly oppose the charter, although most of you knew how I felt. I believe that each voter had to make that decision on the facts that were presented.

The real basic decision was, did you want a real strong Mayor form of government or not.

I believe most of us realize we need a full time Mayor or City Manager. This city is too large now to go on with a part time administrator. We should take a close look at the old charter and amend it to meet the need. The old charter really does not require too much patching to supply us with the answer.

I was amazed during the campaign to find so much apathy among citizens of our city and appalled at the fact that some of them didn't even know the name of the current mayor, as much as he has been publicized.

I was delighted, however, with the attitude taken by most of the workers at the precincts, even though they were in opposing camps they all co-operated together with very little dissension. I heard of only one incident reported where a worker did not act like a gentleman and I was thankful it was not one of those in my camp.

This brings up the question of why poll workers? I know that many voters are indignant over being handed cards and literature at the poles. Well they may be, for if you haven't made up your mind by that time then you are not a very conscientious voter.

I would like to see a bill enacted in this state banning poll workers from passing out literature on the day of election. This would leave every candidate status quo and the person who hadn't made up his or her mind would not be railroaded at the last minute in the wrong direction.

Instead of some of the worthless election bills now being kicked around in Lansing, I would like to see this proposed.

Honoree Grateful

I wish to thank the people of Farmington, and William Bowman and the Board of Commerce for the very wonderful honor bestowed on me during the Farmington Founders Festival.

It has been a privilege to be associated with the Red Cross and its many activities during the years. And, dear to my heart, is the Blood Bank, to which you have always responded so very generously. I wish to express my deep appreciation to Mrs. Jane Goodrich, who took over so admirably as chairman when I was unable to continue, and to Mrs. Oliver Lathrup who is continuing the good work today. These women and many others have worked unceasingly and unselfishly for the Blood Bank, and my prayer is that you will continue to give them the same wonderful cooperation which you have accorded me. Thank you with all my heart.

Thank-You Barber

We moved to Livonia last October and were pleased to find "The Livonian Observer" a weekly visitor on our doorstep. It has helped us get our bearings and understand something of Livonia's politics, schools, churches, recreation etc.

I have often contemplated writing you to thank you for your fine paper. Then on Saturday, June 11, an incident occurred which prompted me to write you.

I drove with three of my children into the parking lot of the new cleaners at Five Mile and Newburg. The lot was quite crowded. I thought if I drove to the end of the lot and turned around in a dirt field next to the lot I would have a better chance of getting out safely. As I started to turn around the front tires got into a rut. It appeared impossible for me to get the car out.

I carried the clothes into the cleaners, deposited them and told the clerk of my plight. She said to ask the barber next door. I hesitated to inconvenience him. She then asked him; he graciously got a shovel out of his trunk and dug me out.

I would appreciate if you would print this letter so that I may publicly thank that kind barber. Incidentally all the while this was happening a man sat parked nearby slouching (hiding) in his car laughing at me. May God bless the "Good Samaritan" barber.

Homeowners Opposing New Apartment Project

Westland's Planning Commission heard angry protests recently from members of the Arbor Joy Civic Association on the proposed plan for an apartment project on Ann Arbor Trail between Farmington and Sanford.

Mrs. Georgean A. Yuhas, president of the group which had an estimated 30 members present at the public hearing, submitted a two-page letter to the commission urging the denial of the request of Marcello Building Co., of 27435 Ford Road, Garden City.

The firm wants to rezone the land from single-family residential to R-2 to allow for 18 apartment units in two buildings.

The commission agreed to make a recommendation to the City Council at its next meeting on next Monday.

In her letter, the association president said: "We realize that a well-planned area must make allowances for all types of residential living, however, we believe we are well planned enough. Six apartment developments, most of them large, are sufficient. Two of the six, one west of Merriman on Cowan and Riverbend and on Warren and Meriman are in various stages of development.

"One on Ann Arbor Trail east of this property has already been acted upon as stated before. The other three are still vacant. It is our feeling that this commission should wait until these are developed before zoning any more parcels."

She also pointed out that all of the current apartment projects cited are all within one mile of each other.

Mrs. Yuhas also said in her letter that there are four elementary schools within the Marcello project; Ann Arbor Trail is "a secondary road as far as drivability is concerned and each year it becomes more difficult to travel.

She stressed the presence of the Nankin Mills Nature Center and small building renovated by the school district as historical buildings in the immediate area.

Mrs. Yuhas did say in her statement that apartments used as a buffer between single-family homes and commercial developments usually adds to the neighborhood.

But allowing the proposed rezoning would only screen the parkway and sorely needed open areas which is far from objectionable, she said.

10 Applicants Pass Fire Dept. Tests

VIEWS STUDENT EXHIBIT—Looking at an exhibit of mosaics of Greek mythology currently hanging in the school board building at Farmington near Five Mile Road, is Mrs. Susan Brackenridge of 29150 Lancaster, a new junior high French and Spanish teacher. The mosaics were made by students in Mrs. Charlotte Ames sixth grade of Jefferson elementary school.

Ten of 16 applicants for 13 openings in the Westland Fire Department received passing scores on the written tests recently, the first phase in the qualifying procedure.

The Civil Service Commission Wednesday received the results back from Robert Lothian, Detroit Police Dept. personnel man, who gave the exams.

Passing the test and their scores are James Campbell, 92, David J. Downs, 91, Michael C. Menzies, 90, Lawrence R. Whitson, 85, Gary G. Kelley, 84, Ronald Dillingham, 79, Dodson Wallace, 78, Russell Lancaster, 76, his brother, Edward, 74, and Wallace L. Faust, 73.

In other business, the commission discussed with Fire Chief Ralph Savini the possibility of using an employee evaluation form. The chief said that other departments have had successful and unsuccessful experiences with the forms, recommended by the International Association of Fire Chiefs.

Ted Scott, a vice president in the Westland Firemen's local union, favored the evaluation procedure if the ratings are made by more than one officer.

Savini and the commission also discussed the problems foreseen in the forthcoming promotions in the fire department. He pointed out that the re-alignment of rank within the force would involve all of the 23 men.

But it was pointed out that the state civil service act,

Franklin High Grad Assigned to Vietnam
Army Private First Class Robert L. Fiege, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Fiege, 28490 N. Clements Circle, Livonia, was assigned to the 25th Infantry Division in Vietnam recently.

Pvt. Fiege, who is serving with Headquarters Company, Fourth Battalion of the division's 9th Infantry, entered the Army in January of this year, received basic training at Fort Knox, Ky. and was last stationed at Fort Benning, Ga.

He is a 1964 graduate of Franklin High School.

which the Westland commission administers in the community, requires that persons seeking promotions be a local resident for at least one year, which would affect several current firemen.

"I don't think the state act was ever intended to penalize the city which wants the best possible fire department," the chief said.

Commissioner Edward Kane wanted the group to waive the residency requirement.

Scott said he "felt violent-

Drop-outs Program Termed Successful

The Wayne-Franklin Evening Program held by the Wayne Community School District last year for in-school failures and drop-outs was highly successful in its first year of operation. In fact, it was so successful, administrators of the program recommended that it should be doubled during the next school year.

The program, in operation for ten weeks this spring on an experimental basis, is recommended to be expanded into two semesters of 15 weeks each.

Success of the program is reflected in the comments from the benefitting students, some who said:

"I liked everything about the night program. I didn't dislike anything. It has shown me the importance of school. I liked it because I don't like day high school at all and if it weren't for night school, I wouldn't have gone to school at all."

In addition, other students in the evening school said that they favored the more informal atmosphere in the classroom and the teachers displayed more feeling and help for the pupils.

Another indication of the program's success was that of the 55 students who enrolled for the pilot program last March, only eight or 14.8 per cent dropped out, seven due to evening jobs and only one for lack of interest.

However, of those eight, seven were potential drop-outs and the other was a previous drop-out, the school board was told.

Of the 47 who completed the program, 16 were recommended for return to the regular day time school program, five ninth graders were promoted to the tenth grade, and the other 11 earned various credits in their grades.

"The biggest barrier that confronts this type of student is inability to read and comprehend what is read," said the report to the board. "Because of this weakness, they have had so many failures that they have had to find other outlets, many of which were unacceptable. When given reading materials which they could handle, they seemed pleased and were indeed proud of accomplishing something for a change. Also, at least some of them had regular attendance for the first time in many a moon.

"The students in general were polite, cooperative, and glad to be given a second chance to get high school credit. The conduct was very good. At no time did we have any talking back, profane language, insubordination, fights, or quarrels. The atmosphere appeared to be healthy.

Program Supervisor Al Rollins said that he felt the ten-week schedule was a success "because many of the students were either drop-outs from the regular day program or attendance problems."

Rollins also praised his teaching staff "who put the utmost effort in trying to present materials at the student's individual level and improve attitudes so that at the end of the program they were much better adjusted. Their teachers were most cooperative and willing to do anything that I asked of them for the betterment of the program."

The teachers in the evening program were Robert Gerick, Donald Paschke, Victor Kutchins, Harold Dozier, Mrs. Verald Hobrock, and Mrs. Margaret Holloway. In suggestions for the future, the school board was told that the program schedule for the basis program be held three nights a week; all students enrolled be at least 15½ years old; the entire program be held at the Franklin Junior High; that transportation be considered if it grows much larger in scope; the ratio be retained at 15 pupils to each teacher; and the evening supervisor work two nights a week instead of four.

The pilot program last spring cost $3,284.28, under the estimated figure of $3,500 with the recommended cost to be $11,630 for the expanded schedule this school year.

GM's Scholarship Winners Do Well After Graduation

Since the 1955 inception of the General Motors Scholarship program more than 4,600 young men and women have entered the college of their choice in pursuit of the degree of their choice.

The first class to graduate under this program was in 1959. Where are the 340 graduates of that first class today? What are they doing, and how have they fared?

The answers to these and other questions are found in a booklet just released by the GM committee for educational grants and scholarships. This booklet results from an informal questionnaire sent each graduate of 1959.

In short, this group is continuing the outstanding record which they established during their undergraduate years, says Louis G. Seaton, GM vice president and chairman of the scholarship committee.

As undergraduates, these young people achieved an outstanding record. Over 90 per cent finished in the top quarter of their class; 70 per cent in the top 10 per cent. And over 200 fellowships and other graduate grants were offered to the 1959 seniors.

Of the 306 former GM scholars who answered the questionnaire, 248 were in education, business, industry or professions. Many of these are continuing graduate work on a part-time basis. The others include 37 full-time graduate students and 21 young women who were devoting full time to raising a family.

A career in education drew the largest group, 104 or one-third of the group replying. (Incidentally, education has continued to be the most popular career in succeeding graduating classes.)

Of this number, 79 are teaching or working at the college level in 32 American and four foreign colleges and universities and 25 are teaching in secondary schools.

When surveyed, 82 of the 1959 graduates were employed full time in business and industry. Their positions covered a wide range of interests and levels of responsibilities.

In the technical fields, for example, there were 35 engineers, 21 scientists (physics, chemistry and biology) and nine mathematicians. Seventeen were working in non-technical areas, such as business management, sales, marketing, accounting, personnel and public relations.

Fifty-five of the 1959 graduates have entered medical, dental and related fields, or are completing internship and post-doctoral programs, while 17 are pursuing careers in religion, music, architecture, journalism and other fields.

At the time of the survey, the group had earned 207 advanced degrees. Twenty-three earned doctoral degrees.

When the GM scholarship program was initiated in 1955 one of the announced objectives was "to bring to the fore outstanding young men and women who will be able to make substantial contributions in many fields to the security and progress of our country and the world."

As examples of the success being enjoyed by these GM scholars he cited:

GM graduate of Ohio State University, went on to complete his medical degree at the Western Reserve University School of Medicine in 1962. Following his graduation, he interned as a flight surgeon with the U.S. Air Force and was stationed in Japan. Later he was awarded the Bronze Star by the United States Air Force for meritorious service in Vietnam.

Following military service, he planned to enter residency at the University of Wisconsin Eye Center to specialize in ophthalmology.

An electrical engineering graduate from Michigan State did his graduate work at the Universities of Illinois and Michigan, receiving his M.S.E.E. degree from the latter institution. At the time of the survey, he was working in the engineering research laboratory of a major industrial concern.

A young woman who received her B.S. in physics in 1959 from the University of Maryland and her M.S. at George Washington University also married a physicist. While working for the National Bureau of Standards in Washington, D.C., she co-authored a computer program used by physicists in computations.

A 1959 philosophy major at Stanford University was awarded a Marshall Scholarship to Oxford University where he earned a B.S. degree. He then attended Harvard Law School for his L.L.B. degree and received an appointment as law clerk to a U.S. Supreme Court Justice.

2 Trophies Added For Golf Tourney

Two more trophies will be awarded in the Nankin Kiwanis Club's Teen Golf Tournament to be held at Fellows Creek Golf Club Saturday, Sept. 17, announced Chairman Jack Painter.

The two additional trophies will be given to the teens posting the lowest gross score in the junior high and senior high divisions.

Trophies announced last week include individual awards for first, second, and third place in each division and a large trophy to be engraved with the name of the winner and the school he attends and will be displayed in the school of the winner throughout the year.

Teens eligible for the golf tournament, Painter said, must live in Westland and be enrolled for the fall term in a junior or senior high school. The entry fee of $1 will entitle each contestant to green fees and a new golf ball. The teens will be required to furnish their own equipment.

Entrants may send name, age, phone, address and school to Nankin Kiwanis Teen Golf, 1342 Radcliffe, Garden City.

Check Tires Carefully Before Trip

You may be among those who never thought much about the tires on your car until one went flat, or until you were exposed to the growing wave of publicity and activity about automotive safety. You may not be sure whether the "2-ply-4-ply" rated notice on your tire is a horrible motor disease to be shunned or relatively innocent business talk.

But in all probability, the publicity of safety organizations and some government officials has made you aware of the need to be sure that your tires are adequate in size, strength and condition and properly inflated for your particular vehicle and the loads it carries.

Before taking off on a vacation trip with an overloaded vehicle and perhaps an under-protected family, heed the Greater Detroit Safety Council's advice and have a professional safety check of your car from the tires up. And have a happy, harmless trip.

DRC Hurdles $2 Million Betting Mark

28,459 Wager Record $2,002,515

The Shadow of Things To Come begins to appear this week at the Detroit Race Course.

As the DRC moved at a record-breaking pace through the six week mark of its 84-day meeting, two major stake events of significance feature the big 10-race card on Saturday.

The program will be headlined by the $10,000 Michigan Mile Trial for three-year-olds and up at a mile and one sixteenth; and the $10,000 Vanity Fair Handicap for three-year-old fillies at six furlongs.

The Mile Trial is the second in a series of tune-ups for the $100,000 added Michigan Mile to be raced on Saturday, Sept. 17. The Mile this year will be the richest race ever contested in Michigan. This marks the third straight year its purse value has been increased.

The Vanity Mile Handicap will serve as an early test for nominees for the $25,000 Sweet Patootie to be raced on Oct. 1.

The DRC moved past the traditional Labor Day weekend with its attendance and mutual handle at record peaks.

It was a day for all kinds of records.

Labor Day was the first $2,000,000 betting day in Michigan's long racing history. The DRC handle was $2,002,515.

In addition to this record, the DRC also established marks for daily double pool, the twin double and a single race pool. The latter mark came on the ninth race, when the handle was $218,996. This total never was exceeded except on the 1965 Michigan mile pool.

The crowd of 28,459 has been topped only once in the DRC's 18 year history. That was on Memorial Day, 1952 when the turnout was 29,570.

Peter Kosiba, Jr., the Director of Racing for the DRC, has been on the road regularly for the past month recruiting nominees for the Michigan Mile. He has been making weekly stops at Chicago's Arlington Park, Aqueduct in New York and Woodbine in Canada.

"I've talked with the owner or trainer of every top three-year-old and Handicap star in the country," Kosiba says. "Obviously, the $100,000 purse of The Mile is attractive to them and I think we are going to have the finest field in the 18 year history."

The horses listed as early possibilities for The Mile include Tom Rolfe, the champion three-year-old of 1965 who was the Preakness winner; Buffle, winner of last week's $270,000 New Hampshire Sweepstakes at Rockingham; Amberoid, winner of the Belmont and Wood Memorial; Victorian Era, the top Handicap horse in Canada; Tronado and Potential, two South American bred stars trained by Arnold Winick; Francis U., a winner at DRC in early season Handicap events; Abe's Hope; Ogdon Phipps' Poker, Selari, the Hobeau Farm's entry of Beau and Handsome Boy; and Indulto.

It was an invading filly, Kerensa, owned by Mrs. Frances Luro and trained by Frank Merrill, which touched off the exceptional racing performances of the Labor Day weekend.

Kerensa won the $12,500 Old Hat Handicap from six rivals, with Miss Sun Tan second in the mile and 70 yard event and Pin Deck third. Kerensa is one of three outstanding fillies Merrill trains. He is considering running Kerensa back in the Vanity Fair and also plans to ship in Brave Front for the race.

Merrill has been the leading trainer in the United States three times (1955-58-60) and has topped the Thoroughbred conditioners in Canada for 13 straight seasons.

While Mrs. Luro's husband, Horatio, is an outstanding trainer himself, Merrill has handled a string of her horses for many seasons.

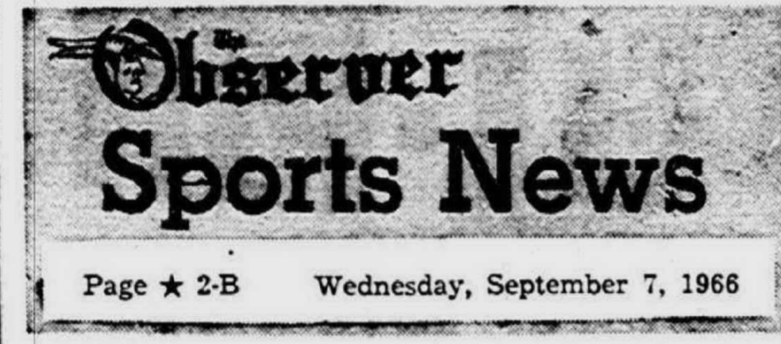

Luro saddled the 1962 Kentucky Derby winner, Decidedly. The following year he sent Decidedly to the DRC for the Michigan Mile, where he finished second to Crimson Satin.

The South American bred Gauchesco won the $15,000 added Test Purse over Bonny Johnny and Travel Agent.

Gauchesco likely will start again Saturday in The Mile Trial and if his performance is a good one he will go in the $100,000 classic a week later.

At the end of its fifth week . . . 30 days of racing . . . the DRC's attendance was 393,311, for a daily average of 13,110.

The mutual handle for the period was $28,516,293, for a daily average of $950,543. The attendance was up two per cent over a comparable period in 1965, while the mutual play showed a seven per cent increase.

RU's Offense OKay; But, Oh The Defense

The big lament around the Detroit Lions camp is: "We can't move the ball on offense."

The Lions do have a strong defense.

At Redford Union high school, coach John Rogers proclaims: "We'll move the ball okay this fall. Defense is our biggest problem."

The reasons behind Rogers' offensive optimism center mostly with Glen Davis, RU's returning All Suburban Six League quarterback.

"Glen has to be one of the best passers the high school scene around here has boasted in a long time," says Rogers.

"He can shoot 'em long and short."

For an aerial attack to work a team must have receivers, and Rogers feels that Redford Union has a pair of dandies in Leland Bjerke and Bob Fritz, both veterans.

Then, there is Bill Mieras, who can stuff away the pigskin. A fourth end will be Jim Walker, a 6-4, 200-pound junior.

Rogers figures he has some fine runners to support the passing game of Davis.

Bob Czerniak, a fullback is back after being out one year. Glen Whitelaw, who lettered in '65, is a halfback who has shown ability as has Rich Ridell who'll also serve as Davis' backup at quarterback.

Redford JC's Sponsor Hole-In-One Contest

The Redford Township Jaycees will sponsor a "Hole-In-One" contest at Glenhurst Golf Club, 25345 W. Six Mile Rd. on Saturday, Sept. 10, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday, Sept. 11, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

First prize will be a set of irons; second closest will receive a set of three woods; and third will be awarded a new golf cart. There will also be several special prize awards.

The contest is open to the public.

Rod Ferguson is an experienced back who figures in the coach's plans as does Tom Booker. The latter was hurt on the second day of practice and may miss a game or two.

Up front, away from the ends, Rogers scratches his head.

"We have no size to speak of . . . and not much depth," John Miller at 190 pounds is the biggest of our returning forwards. He's a tackle. Dan Oakley, who weighs around 200, is up from the reserves and we sure hope that he can come through. "Henry DeLong and Ken Andrew have had past experience at guard."

But, all in all, Rogers has his work cut out because of the 18 players lost via graduation from a year ago. 12 operated in the front wall.

"We'll certainly be young," concludes the coach. "But, we'll be tough."

"We also have some excellent spirit on this team and this is encouraging."

"As for what we'll do, well, time will tell."

Observing SPORTS

Whoops—it's collision time in sports.

Baseball is still going strong . . . the National League is in for another honey of a race and it's a shame that neither the Tigers or the Minnesota Twins or the Chicago White Sox can do anything serious about challenging the Baltimore Orioles in the American League.

This is the week, meantime, that the football curtain goes up with just about everybody in this community concerned deeply with the fortunes of the Detroit Lions. Five exhibitions and not a victory. An inept offense! Just four touchdowns all through the training program.

We're glad of one thing—that we're not in the shoes of Bill Ford or Harry Gilmer on the eve of Sunday's opening day against the Chicago Bears in Tiger Stadium.

The Pistons also are getting set to swing into operations, beginning their training camp Monday up at St. Clair, Mich. Any hopes the Pistons had that, perhaps, Reggie Harding might be back to play center have gone out the window. J. Walter Kennedy, the National Basketball Association commissioner, had ruled that the suspension slapped on Harding a year ago—will stick—at least through the coming season.

Hockey, too, is just around the corner. The Red Wings gather for training next week and begin drills at Olympia a week from Monday.

Toss in the facts that the Detroit Race Course is enjoying its greatest season with the classic Michigan Mile still in the offing . . . that the trotters are luring 'em at Hazel Park . . . that the high schools are getting set for football and their openers a week hence . . . that Michigan and Michigan State and the other colleges lift their schedules a week from Saturday—

Well, as we said . . . whoops! Where does one turn his attention first in sports?

It's rather obvious that the day when each sport was

PEOPLE . . . PEOPLE . . . people everywhere you look: That was the situation on Labor Day at the Detroit Race Course as a crowd of 28,459 turned out to see the Thoroughbreds. It was the top Labor Day crowd in DRC history and has been topped only once in the track's 18 years of operation.

TOO FEW SHOW UP

'Numbers' Worry Trojans

The "numbers" game has coach Ralph Temby worried at Clarenceville high school.

The fact that only 35 showed up for the varsity football team could leave the Trojans "short."

It especially hurts, considering the fact that among the 35, there's not an abundance of experienced talent.

But, all isn't gloomy for Temby.

"After ten days of workouts, I'm really pleased with the way our boys have been performing," declared Temby.

"We're definitely ahead of last year at this time," the coach added.

One of the major headaches confronting Temby is at tackle where all of last year's regulars have departed.

Pistons Set First Drill Monday

The basketball curtain goes up next Monday!

That's the day the Detroit Pistons swing into training at the St. Clair High School to begin preparations for their 1966-67 schedule in the National Basketball Association. Player-coach Dave DeBusschere will welcome a squad of 17-18 candidates, nine of them holdovers from last year.

Heading the new faces will be Guard Dave Bing, the All America from Syracuse University and the Pistons' No. 1 draft choice, and Doris Murrey from the University of Detroit, whom the Pistons selected No. 2. Murrey ranked among the leading college rebounders in the nation in 1965-66.

DeBusschere is convinced that the new season will bring a vast improvement in the Pistons.

"To start with, we'll be a more experienced team," declares DeBusschere. "Remember we carried five rookies last season. Two of them were starters and that's something no NBA team ever has had to do before."

In addition, Bing has to help us tremendously. He should solve our search for a playmaking guard—the man who can quarterback our offense."

DeBusschere himself should be better fit physically for the new campaign after having his appendix

Raiders Lacking In Experience

Young . . . inexperienced . . . and a lightweight team.

This is how coach Ron Holland sizes up his North Farmington high school football team 10 days before the start of the 1966 campaign.

As in other years, Holland has suffered heavily through graduation losses.

Thirty members of the unbeaten 1965 team are gone.

"This is nothing new for us," declared Holland. "One year we lost 27 and the other time before that 26. And right now we have 25 seniors on our team, along with 30 juniors. So we'll be in the same boat of having to make a great many replacements a year hence."

But one major difference this time is that most of the seniors a year ago handled the bulk of the work for the Raiders.

All of which doesn't leave too many experienced performers around for the outset of the '66 schedule.

Take the quarterback slot at which Bill Oldershaw starred for two years.

Holland currently is working with three juniors—Dave Doyle, Mike DeCoy and Mike McCoy. Which will he pick?

"It's hard to say. They're all about equal right now."

A similar situation prevails at left halfback. There Brett Miste, Tim Van Hoey, Kerry Krumpsky and Gary Zeran are staging a merry fight for the job.

The name of Mistele strikes a familiar note in Farmington. His dad coaches over at Farmington High and when North meets Farmington there'll be a father-son duel to go along with the long-standing rivalry between the two schools.

The fact that North Farmington lacks a player scaling over 180 pounds doesn't help either.

"Wish we had some big tackles," moans the coach.

Most experienced of the tackles is Floyd Webb. Tim Gaylord is back at guard with Mike Bensinger returning for an end position.

Roger Schamanik at fullback and halfbacks Jay Durling and Skip Gillies are two others with previous experience in varsity competition.

Rick Shipley, who played some at center in '65, is running into some competition from Hugh Dunsmore and Tyler Madge.

"Yes, sir, competition is the spice of life on this team," adds Holland.

"We're going to have to learn fast this year. The kids appear very eager. If they can pick up their lessons in two or three weeks, we could have ourselves a pretty decent season."

One other thing: Holland figures to build his defense around juniors, more so than in the past.

West Coach Counting On Drive and Spirit

Add drive, desire and spirit... and one has the cheerful aspects so far for coach Harold Burkholder as he drills his Garden City West High School football team for the opening game a week from Friday night. Experience? "We don't have too much," admits the coach. "We lost 16 boys through graduation. In particular, our offense suffered badly with eight out of 11 casualties. Defensively, we're not too bad, with seven boys back."

RACING SWITCH: A jockey "weighs out" a racing official in a switch from the normal procedure. It is a Brother Act involved in the unusual ceremony at the Detroit Race Course. Jockey Eddie Truman, campaigning for the first time at the DRC, puts his brother, Jerry, on the scales to check his weight. Jerry, a former rider, usually performs the chore as he is Clerk of Scales at the DRC.

West's possibilities in the Tri-Rivers League? "This is a tough league, tougher than most people seem to think because we have so many new teams and new coaches. I don't think we'll win the title. But we could cause some problems."

Size? "We don't have too many big fellows. About 200 pounds is as big as we go. We should be outweighed in many of our games."

Team attitude? "This is what I really think will carry us through to some victories and give our opponents some headaches. I've been around high school coaching for about ten years now. I never have seen a team with the drive, desire, spirit and willingness to get the job done as this one has shown so far in practice."

Burkholder looks to four players who'll serve as the "key" to our fortunes." All four are playing their third straight year on the West varsity.

Two are the team's co-captains—Gary Kalen and Bill Gray. Kalen carries a 3.3-point mark in his grades, which is about as close to being an All-A student as one can come.

He's a guard and linebacker who won all-league honors last season and who has received many college invitations to date including one from the Air Force Academy.

Then there's Gray, a defensive back specialist who also will do some offensive work this season.

The other pair of "key" personalities at West are Chuck Debbis at quarterback and Mike Adler, a 195-pound tackle.

A fifth player whom the coach is counting on heavily in his rebuilding plans is George Damanski, who was all-area at fullback two years ago, but "fell off" as a sophomore. Damanski is a versatile performer... who can play end, back or anywhere else for that matter.

The rest of the West players primarily will be sophomores and juniors.

MSU Faces Impressive Cast of Star Players

EAST LANSING — If pre-season forecasts of national football magazines are reliable indicators, the Michigan State Spartans will face an impressive cast of All-American and All-Sectional gridgers during the 1966 campaign.

All ten of the Spartan opponents have at least one representative honored on the pre-season all-star squads. All told, 34 different gridgers have been singled out as all-star candidates.

Notre Dame, with pre-season consensus All-Americans Jim Lynch and Tom Regner, heads the list with six honorees. Purdue, with everyone's All-American, Bob Griese, and Penn State boast five each.

Michigan State will face two defensive aces in the season's opener against North Carolina State. Both Pete Sokalsky, end, and Dennis Byrd, tackle, appear headed for All-South honors and have received some support for All-American.

Penn State has five All-East candidates among its crew. Quarterback Jack White, who teamed with flanker Jack Curry last year to rewrite Nittany Lion passing records, is the best bet. This duo, plus halfback Mike Irwin, offensive tackle Bill Lenkatis and defensive tackle Dave Rowe should be among the best of the east.

CHORE OF rebuilding Farmington High football fortunes has been turned over to Bob Miste. The former major league baseball pitcher, who is better than an average hand at football, took over the reins at the start of the fall drills two weeks ago. He faces his first test in another 10 days.

Illinois will throw the Big Ten's top pass receiver, John Wright, at the Spartans in the conference opener. Wright nabbed 38 passes for 361 yards in conference play as a sophomore last year. Regional standouts for the Illini are figured to be center Kai Anderson and defensive end Bob Batchelder.

Record setting ends of both schools will face each other in the State-Michigan clash. Gene Washington owns seven State receiving records. Jack Clancy, Michigan's candidate for All-American, rewrote Wolverine annuals last season with 52 receptions for 762 yards. Michigan's All-Midwest prospects include halfback Carl Ward, linebacker Frank Nunley and defensive back Rick Sygar.

Ohio State will present a solid offensive line led by all-conference center Ray Pryor. A two-way performer, Pryor is considered one of the best pivotmen in the country. In addition, the Buckeyes will have tackle Mike Current and receiving threat Bill Anders on the front line. John Fill, a defensive back, is numbered among the best in the Mid-West.

Most highly heralded of all Spartan opponents is Purdue's Griese. Griese, who set six season and six single game passing records for the Boilermakers last year, was chosen on six of ten major All-American teams.

Griese is expected to get plenty of protection from offensive tackle Jack Calcaterra. Calcaterra, who ranks high on the pre-season All-American list, also will team on defense with All-Midwest nominee Bob Sebeck, middle guard; George Catavolos and John Charles of the secondary.

Notre Dame, which will ring down the 1966 gridiron curtain with the Spartans, boasts a murderous defense.

Linebacker Jim Lynch, whom Ara Parseghian claims is the best in college football, will direct the blockade corp. Other Irish defenders, numbered among the best in the midlands, are 6-5, 270-pound tackle Kevin Hardy, 6-2, 225-pound tackle Pete Duranko and 6-5, 230-pound end Al Page.

On offense, the Irish have pre-season All-Americans Nick Eddy, halfback, and Tom Regner, guard.

Plymouth Race Pilot To Defend His Title

Daring drivers who compete in the spectacular Figure 8 competition at Flat Rock Speedway each week, will compete for the season championship in their division Saturday night.

The top 24 drivers in the point standings are eligible for the 25-lap race over the Figure 8 course with its open infield intersection.

They will lineup according to points with the leader on the pole.

Dick Simmons, of Plymouth, defending champion and current point leader, is scheduled for the pole. His car went up in flames two weeks ago after he hit a gas tank dropped by another racer. He is confident he will have a car ready for the race.

Others who will line up behind him are Melvin Murphy of Livonia, John Anderson of Detroit (Redford), Chuck and Bill Briggs, both of Ypsilanti; Loubie Allen of Taylor, Ron Finney of Plymouth, Darwin Hall of Wayne, Archie Sims of South Lyon, Howard Pelkey of Plymouth and Link Bundon of Wayne.

Also, Tom Brightbill of Plymouth, Wally Welch of Garden City, Del Haggadone of Plymouth, Bob Studt of Taylor, Bernie Vasher of Ypsilanti, Bob Thomson of Southgate, Dick Briggs of Ypsilanti, Cecil Worley of Northville, Phil Chapin of Wayne, Dennis Pace of Plymouth, Jack Schnick of Garden City, Ken Tipton of Livonia and Jerry Middleton of Allen Park.

Ten other events will be on the program with trials beginning at 7:30 and the first race at 8:30 p.m. There is no advance in prices.

S. Redford Winds Up With Title

The sandlot baseball season for Greater Livonia came to an end on a fine note. Big Boy of South Redford beat Garden City, 2-0, in their playoff for the Connie Mack championship. They had copped their respective divisional titles in the regular season, but couldn't vie in the overall playoff because of other commitments.

Tom Fleszar, a star all season with South Redford team, flipped a one-hit victory, losing his no-hitter in the sixth inning when Garden City's Reed beat out an infield tap.

Fleszar fanned 15 and walked one. Joe Huber and Stevens shared the pitching for the losers who battled Big Boy on even terms until the seventh and last inning.

Then singles by Gary McBay and Bill Holmes, a wild pitch and a two-run single by Paul Santangelo brought in the game's only runs.

Mentime, Vic Pilar of Redford, a recent graduate of Thurston High and a Detroit Tiger draft selection, hurled Detroit A. and B. to the Recreation Class B title with a 2-0 shutout in the deciding game. Pilar gave up only two hits.

German Shepherd Club Slates Obedience Trial

The German Shepherd Dog Obedience Training Club will hold its eighth obedience trial on Sunday, Sept. 25, at the American Legion Hall, 31775 Grand River, Farmington.

Entries close Tuesday, Sept. 13 with Mrs. Thelma Gotham, 12292 Ward Ave., Detroit 48227. For additional information and premium lists, call WE 5-4225.

AT GARDEN CITY EAST Gridders Spurn Chance to Play

In his new job as football coach at Garden City East High School, Gary Humphrey has to be saying to himself: "Things have changed since my day in high school." And, that wasn't too long ago because Humphrey is only 30 years old.

Humphrey so far has found it difficult to get some of the boys around East, whom he thinks would be good players, to come out for football.

"We have some kinds who'd rather work and buy a car," say the coach. "And there are others whom we have to keep chasing at home to make sure that they'll show up."

Add to this difficult situation the fact that graduation took many of last year's players and you have the answer to why Humphrey has had his problems during the first few days of practice.

"It's possible that the school's record of one win in nine games last season may have turned some boys on football," declares Humphrey. "But, that was the first bad year East has had. This always has been a school noted for its football teams."

But the show will go on. Humphrey has 20 junior and senior candidates and around 34 sophomores. "We'll have a great many tenth graders playing for us," the coach explains "especially in the middle of our line."

"Maybe we'll take some lumps for awhile, but this is part of a rebuilding football program at East. We'll be back up there one of these days."

The coach is building around such players as Steve Fagaban at quarterback, backs Marv Martin, Mike Sparkman and Dave Jose, and linemen George Dobzy, end; Larry Lyman, tackle, and Chuck Vines, guard.

Humphrey is hoping that Ed Skrent, 260-pound center, will change his mind about not reporting.

"We sure could use Ed in there to center our line," Humphrey said after the scrimmage session last Saturday.

Wayne State University assistant freshman football coaches Enrico Odorico and Bob Schroeder were co-captains of Tartar teams during their playing days.

Observing Sports

restricted to a specific part of the year has disappeared. All professional teams now function from seven to eight months a year when you figure in training and post-season competition.

Baseball begins in the heart of winter, bucking basketball and hockey, and ends in the fall when it contests football and the start of basketball and hockey.

Football overlaps all the other sports. So do basketball and hockey.

Horse racing also functions pretty much the year around now days. As our good friends at the Windsor Raceway proved, the horses attract fans by the thousands in the thick of winter.

Does anybody really care that all sports seasons stretch so long?

Really not.

The various owners and promoters merely are catering to the wishes of the fans. If the folks, like you and me, didn't back football in August, the Lions wouldn't play.

Nor would hockey or basketball dare to play into April. Or the horse-race people invest millions for winter and early spring racing when the weather certainly isn't on their side.

What with so much currently on television the sports fans who remain home never had it so good.

In the space of a few hours you can observe the best in baseball and football and horse racing at this time of the year.

Shortly, there'll be TV of the Pistons and the Red Wings to go along with all the football.

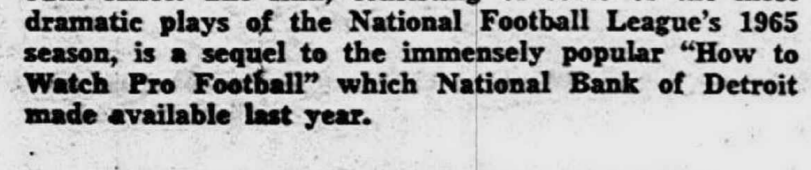

The oceans no longer are barriers to bring sports events into our homes. In recent weeks we have watched the world's soccer championship, a Clay championship fight and the world golf tournament—all on the day of presentation.

Another Clay fight, this time from Germany, will be coming up shortly for those wishing to take a look on television.

Sports never has known it so well. Attendance figures are up—everywhere.

There's no question that television has helped to spur new interest. When you watch a game on the tube, you get the urge to go see the teams in person... to enjoy the fun which comes with being there live on the scene.

To us, TV is okay. But it's nothing more than the substitute for the real thing... if you have the tickets and the money to attend.

ANOTHER EXCITING football film is being made available by National Bank of Detroit for showing before schools, clubs, and civic groups. Miss NBD, Ruth Street, presents the first copy of "The Key Plays of Pro Football" to Melvin B. Walters, A. C., of the Bank's Plymouth office. The film, consisting of some of the most dramatic plays of the National Football League's 1965 season, is a sequel to the immensely popular "How to Watch Pro Football" which National Bank of Detroit made available last year.

Ford to Exhibit Cars

Automobile enthusiasts across the country will have an opportunity in the coming months to see the only American-built car to win the famed 24-Hour endurance race at LeMans, France.

Seven of the Ford GT Mark II sports prototypes that raced at LeMans, including the cars that finished one-two-three, will be displayed in Ford Dealer showrooms starting in August. One will be assigned to each of Ford Division's seven sales regions.

The Ford GT Mark II was victorious in the 24-hour Daytona Continental and the 12-Hour Sebring race as well as at LeMans. It won the 1966 International Challenge for Prototype Sports Cars, bringing to America the most important international title in motorsports.

The Mark II is equipped with a lightweight 427-cubic-inch V-8 engine only slightly modified from the production-line unit. All of the cars that competed at LeMans were equipped with a Ford four-speed manual transmission. The Mark II was geared to reach speeds of 210 mph on LeMans' long Mulsanne straightaway.

New Zealanders Bruce McLaren and Chris Amon drove the winning Mark II at LeMans, averaging a record 125.38 mph. Ken Miles of Los Angeles and Englishman Deny Hulme finished second and Americans Ronnie Bucknum and Dick Hutcherson third.

Student Art Workshop Scheduled

Young people in the area will again have the opportunity to participate in Art Workshops sponsored by the Detroit Institute of Arts in the local centers.

Three separate locations in the area have been designated as teaching centers. They are: the Garden City Library; Larkshire School in Farmington; and Whitman Junior High School in Livonia.

The five week course is designed for children in grades one through 12 an introduction to the basic media used in art. Through the viewing and discussion of original art works, slides and quality reproductions, the students absorb knowledge of the problems inherent in creative work and gain an insight into methods used by the great artists in solving these problems.

While the classes are planned to find maximum interest with the particular grade group involved, individual creativeness and the involvement of the student are of prime concern.

Students in grades one through four will attend classes one and a half hours long, while children of the higher grades have classes lasting two hours.

All the instructors engaged in the Art Workshop classes are themselves artists. They have been selected because of their understanding of the various art media and the problems in both teaching and learning the mastery of these media.

Materials used point out problems that are found in all art forms. Paint, charcoal, clay, paper and many new materials are employed in teaching and each meeting tends to be complete within itself.

Registrations for the first session must be made by Sept. 15. The first session from Oct. 1 to Oct. 29 is for grades one and two from 10 to 11:30 a.m. and grades three and four from 1 to 2:30 p.m.

The second session for the older children will begin Nov. 5 and complete Dec. 10. Students in grades five and six will attend classes from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, while grades seven through 12 will receive instruction between 1 and 3 p.m.

Fee for the course which includes all materials is $8.50.

The Garden City Library is located at 2012 Middlebelt, while Larkshire School is at 23800 Tuck Rd. Whitman Junior High is located at 32306 W. Chicago.

Bonstelle Announces Its '66-67 Season

Butcher Block Idea for Wall

Like the look of wood on walls but want something different? Try the butcher block look. It's created with short lengths of 1x4-inch tongue-and-groove panel boards. The straight-grained western softwoods like pine, fir and hemlock work best.

To get the butcher block effect, use two, three and four-foot lengths. Install the boards vertically, but so that end joints make a random pattern. Both vertical and horizontal joints will be indistinct, yet will provide just enough pattern to achieve the desired effect.

If you're an enthusiastic and skilled woodworker, you can intensify the butcher block effect by using boards no more than two inches wide. Rip 1x4s lengthwise to produce the narrower boards.

Use ordinary carpenter tools to install Marlite paneling.

GM Sets Five-Year Warranty on Cars

General Motors has announced the introduction of the most comprehensive warranty in the U.S. automobile industry. The warranty is applicable to all 1967 GM passenger cars and light trucks produced and sold in the United States and Canada.

The current 24-month or 24,000-mile warranty provides for protection on all parts of the vehicle except tires (which are warranted by the tire manufacturer).

In addition GM will extend the warranty to five years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the power train components (engine, transmission, drive line and rear axle) of passenger cars and light trucks.

Effective with the introduction of the 1967 GM passenger car and light truck models, the warranty will cover all 1967 Chevrolet, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Buick and Cadillac cars and Chevrolet and GMC light trucks. Not only the original owner of the vehicle but also subsequent owners during the warranty time and mileage specified are protected by the manufacturer's warranty against defects in material and workmanship.

This assures the owners of vehicles produced by GM of continued excellence of quality designed and built into GM passenger cars and commercial vehicles, and is an expression of confidence in the quality of these vehicles.

In making this change General Motors is maintaining the highly satisfactory warranty of 24 months or 24,000 miles which became effective with the 1963 models, and, in addition, is extending this protection three years for 26,000 miles on power train components.

In addition to the protection afforded owners, the extension of the warranty will have added significance to the owners of General Motors passenger cars and light trucks by increasing values at the time of resale. This comprehensive coverage assures continued vehicle protection by General Motors and its franchised dealers.

To maintain this complete coverage the owner will need only to assure his GM dealer at six-month intervals that the service as outlined in the Owner Protection Plan booklet has been performed.

This means that the engine oil, oil filter, carburetor air filter, and positive crankcase ventilator valve (and automatic transmission band if so equipped) have been serviced in accordance with the specified maintenance schedule.

Any defective part except tires (which are warranted by tire manufacturers) will be repaired or replaced if the vehicle is returned to an authorized GM dealer before the vehicle has been operated for 24 months or 24,000 miles, whichever comes first.

In the case of power train components the warranty coverage is extended to five years or 50,000 miles from the date of original retail purchase, whichever comes first. The repair or replacement of defective parts under this warranty will be made by the dealer without charge for parts and labor.

This is the third increase in warranty coverage announced by General Motors in the past six years. In October, 1960, GM announced a 12-month or 12,000-mile warranty on all parts of the vehicle except tires. In September, 1962, GM increased this owner protection effective with the introduction of 1963 models to 24 months or 24,000 miles, whichever came first, on all parts of the vehicle except tires.

The current program is designed to give the best coverage to all customers of GM products.

U-M Realtor Sights Big Building Boom

ANN ARBOR—While residential construction is down this year, it will increase to meet rising demand and exceed any levels previously reached, a University of Michigan authority predicts.

Russell A. Pointer, supervisor of the state-wide Certificate Program in Real Estate offered by the University, says the forthcoming building boom is one of at least eight factors which support an optimistic view of the future.

Despite the temporary effects of the tight-money situation, he says the real estate business will see an ever-increasing volume of business in the foreseeable future for reasons which include:

1. The continuation of the highway program on both national and state levels will bring communities even closer together.
2. Recent changes in the Federal agricultural program will result in larger farms with more land devoted to agriculture.
3. The effect of the World War II baby boom will result in a sharp increase in new family formations and demands for housing.
4. While new residential construction is down now, it will expand beyond any levels previously reached.
5. The increase in leisure time will see a change in living habits with a second home in resort areas becoming "more of a necessity than a luxury."

The typical purchaser will continue to improve his living standards with new and larger homes.

Industry will continue to expand its plant facilities and relocations will continue for some time.

More and more people will be investing in properties as a hedge against further inflation.

In Pointer's opinion, today is a good time to purchase real estate if the buyer intends to take advantage of a booming market.

"In order to handle the increased business volume, it will be necessary to have more well-trained people in the real estate business," he adds.

"However, the standards for new people in real estate will likewise be rising in most areas. In order to take advantage of the opportunities the field offers, the person interested in real estate as a career should have a sound education background."

Trellis Helps

No matter what the climate, roof eaves should be deep enough to shelter windows and upper walls from sun, wind and rain. Skimpy eaves can be widened with trellis extensions built by the home handyman.

Cover-Up Decor Best in "Oldies"

Older homes are not always easy to redecorate. Often interior walls are out of plumb and plaster is in poor shape. Or there may be many thicknesses of paint or paper calling for back-breaking tedious steaming and stripping before a new flat finish can be applied.

For these homes cover-up treatments are best, say leading decorators. Walls can be redone with solid lumber paneling, effectively concealing the original wall.

Built-in cabinet work and shelving can create architectural emphasis where none exists, and stock moldings can hide cracks at door corners and at ceiling and floor joints.

Western hemlock, ponderosa pine, and western cedars are handsome finish woods, yet are easily handled by the amateur carpenter.

On The Lawn

By Larry Lawrence

Washington, D.C. sees many world gatherings, but this is the first time that it has played host to the world's horticulturists. They are meeting there for their XVII International Horticulture Congress and, when their sessions are concluded, those whose specialty is turf, will pack their bags for a visit to Marysville, O.

The contrast, coming from the nation's capital to the quiet, tree-lined streets of a small town, will be dramatic. But the change should be instructive as well as refreshing. For just as Washington is now considered as the world's diplomatic hub, so Marysville, small as it may be, is often called the grass capital of the world.

The visitors, who will be the guests of Scotts, the lawn people, will be able to inspect a larger acreage of turf grass under test than exists anywhere else. And they will get a close look at the kind of research work that continues to transform the technology of lawn keeping.

When experts come to this country to observe our auto factories and nuclear power plants, that is to be expected. But when they come to see our grass, this is something new and encouraging. It suggests that the US isn't quite the industrial wasteland that it is sometimes painted and that there are other green things here besides money.

Spend a Little To Save a Lot Area Realtors Issue New Residential Map

Two years in preparation, a comprehensive map of all residential areas in western Wayne and Oakland counties has just been published by the United Northwestern Realty Association—Western Wayne-Oakland County Board of Realtors.

Measuring 43 by 30 inches, the map is printed in blue ink on both sides of a sturdy bond sheet which folds to pocket size. The western portion of Wayne County is shown on one side; western Oakland County, on the other.

Each map includes a convenient property locator keyed to UNRA's multiple-listing system, making it easy for the user to find any property or point of interest he desires.

Shown on the map are all main and residential streets, public and parochial schools, shopping centers, parks, golf courses and other recreational facilities.

Oakland County communities covered by the map include Auburn Heights, Beverly Hills, Bingham Farms, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Bloomfield Township, Brighton, Brighton Township, Commerce, Farmington, Farmington Township, Franklin, Green Oak Township, Hartland, Highland Township, Keego Harbor, Lake Angelus, Lathrup Village, Lyon Township, Milford, Milford Township, Northville, Novi, Orchard Lake, Pontiac, Pontiac Town-

Figures Show Big Increase In High Rise Dwellers

A multiplicity of multifamily dwellings marks the contemporary construction scene.

According to housing specialists for Allied Chemical Corporation's Barrett Division, while the market for single family housing continues to be strong with some 62 per cent of American families owning private homes, multifamily housing is enjoying a phenomenal rate of growth.

Approximately 38 per cent of the nation's families now reside in apartments compared with a little more than a decade ago.

Demography provides the reason for the apartment boom. Most recent population studies reveal that young adults and people in older age groups now comprise a larger proportion of the American populace than ever before.

Despite being on opposite ends of the age scale, both groups have at least one thing in common—a preference for apartment living.

The popularity of multiple housing is not confined to big cities, according to Ted Seidel, Barrett Division housing authority.

Apartment houses, particularly the two- or three-story garden variety, are finding increasing favor in small cities and towns.

Multifamily construction has also been given a "shot in the arm" by the popularity of co-operatives and condominiums.

Both type of multiple housing are basically groups of apartment owners living in one unit, who are jointly responsible for maintenance, repairs, etc.

There are, however, important differences between the two types of apartment ownerships. In the condominium, each family owns its apartment outright, not in common with other families as in the co-op.

Each condominium unit has an individual mortgage, while in the co-op there is a common mortgage and each owner is responsible for the defaults of the others.

There is more flexibility in purchase and sales terms in the condominium than in the co-operative.

Finally, a condominium mortgage can usually be reduced as the individual's financial condition permits, while co-op owners are bound by a set schedule of payments on the common mortgage.

Plan Pool? Check Insurance

Will building a swimming pool in your back yard make it necessary for you to buy additional insurance?

The experts say: generally no. If you own a homeowner's policy which includes personal liability, the protection usually applies to accidents in or around an owned swimming pool.

In addition, most comprehensive personal liability policies also cover pool accidents.

In the past, these policies offered this protection at an extra charge for pools over 30 inches deep. Now there is usually no extra charge for any type of pool, states F. Harvey Cameron, Second Vice President of The Travelers Insurance Companies.

Many insurance companies, Cameron adds, require that you notify them that you own a pool as soon as you acquire one.

If you're planning to build a pool, put a call in to your agent to make sure this is done.

Your homeowner's or comprehensive personal liability insurance will cover owners responsibility for medical costs and all sums which the insured becomes legally obligated to pay any person injured, up to the limit of the policy.

It may be advisable to examine your policy to see if the limit is a realistic one, Cameron advises.

These policies also cover the cost of your legal defense against the liability suits, even if any of the allegations of the suit are groundless, false or fraudulent.

Plan Pool? Check Insurance

Property owners and home seekers may obtain a free copy of the map, which carries a retail price of 50 cents, by calling at the office of any member of the United Northwestern Realty Association; Everett J. Wilson, association president, announced.

Cut Worms Foiled

You can foil the cut worm which so often destroys your choice plants in the spring garden.

This villain must wrap around a tender plant to cut it off.

Get a couple of dried weed stalks, not too large and stick them down in the soil around your plant.

The cutworm may try wrapping himself around weed stalks, but he cannot cut through the stalks and therefore does not get to your plant.

Later, when the plant is too large to be cut, it is simple to remove the weed stalks.

Treated Fir Tops

Preservatively-treated Douglas fir lumber will outlast any other type of wood, according to experienced landscape contractors, who recommend it for all garden structures — fences, decks, planter boxes, arbors.

F'ton Scouts Attend Camp Chippewa

Day Camp Chippewa II was conducted during July for the Farmington girl scouts. The camp was held on 10 Mile Rd. just west of Telegraph.

Almost 150 children plus a staff of 25 combined to make the session a success.

Members of the staff from Farmington were: Eileen Schafer, director; Leona Stidwell, business manager; Delores Vanderberg, assistant business manager; Pat Ratliff, mobil unit helper; Claire Harkins, nursery unit counselor.

MUSIC IN the schools — Livonia schools library secretary Pat Grinnell of 8265 Melvin Avenue, Garden City, holds a new sound recording, one of many tapes, records, motion picture films, and filmstrips purchased with $53,600 of federal funds for use throughout the 39 square mile school district.

Youths Are Bound Over For Trial

Michael G. Bradley, 22025 St. Francis, Livonia, and Alan C. Harriman, 21007 Oxford, Farmington, have been bound over to circuit court in conjunction with several breaking and enterings in Farmington Township.

Farmington Township Justice of the Peace Byron Walters bound the pair over. Their trial is set to come up before Judge Pratt on Sept. 14.

Following this action Walters found Harriman guilty on a charge of reckless driving and fined him $75 or five days in jail. As Harriman did not have the bail he is currently serving his term in the Oakland County Jail.

Campers Learn About Hawaii Lore

By AMY CHARRON 474-0713

Parents of Farmington Girl Scouts who attended Day Camp Arapaho have had a fast course in Hawaii, the newest state in the union.

Campers returned from the session in early August filled with information about grass skirts, luaus, and with a repertoire of Hawaiian songs.

Mrs. Roy Iles, camp director, decided on a new theme this year from the traditional subject matter of Indian lore and life.

A total of 137 children attended the sessions at the Warren's Woods at Haggerty and 12 Mile Rd. More than 100 parents visited the encampment during the second week on the annual Visitors Day.

A highlight of the camp was the Hawaiian Luau complete with piglets, beanlets, surboards and wai-mellon. Special guests at this event were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warren, owners of the campsite.

Unit leaders were: Ann Marie Kennedy, Valera Kurleto, Sylvia Jardine, Gloria Birnie, Shirley Beatty, Josephine Schmitt, Hazel Novacheff, Nancy Simanke, Kittie Hastings, Glenna Hurlett, Jori Dickerson, and Doris Baker.

Sally Matmueller and Glenna Perkins served as the camp nurses and Betty Frankel was the nature consultant.

Tess Schafer and Mary Ellen Kirby, older girl scouts, assisted at the mobile unit and nursery, while Boy Scouts Pat Harrigan and Mike Schafer helped out at the boys unit.

All camp projects included a visitor's day, a Mug-wump Day and constructing an Indian Village.

AAUW Book Sale Finances Scholarships

Fifty-one American women scholars have received American Fellowships for advanced research and study from the American Association of University Women. One-third of them will pursue their studies in other countries.

In addition, 53 women from Australia, Europe, Latin America, North America, Asia, the Middle East, and Africa will for the most part, study in our colleges and universities this fall under AAUW International Fellowships.

These scholars, who will receive about $325,000, will be working in the natural and physical sciences—including medicine—and in the humanities. Four recipients will be studying at the University of Michigan.

In 1965, the Farmington Branch contributed about $1,200 toward the support of this AAUW Fellowships Program. Money is raised by selling used books. This year the AAUW Book Sale is scheduled for Sept. 29, 30, and Oct. 1.

Impressions

by sue shaughnessy

It seems a curious phenomenon that three weeks before I leave on a trip I am asked if I have started packing or are packed.

Isn't it?

I always pack about one hour before the plane is due to leave. During a period in my life when I seemed to be commuting from New York to the area many grey hairs were added to my mother's head because she was certain that I was going to miss the return flight.

Surprisingly enough I never missed the flight and even more surprising I never forgot anything.

In fact one Sunday after Christmas I managed to gather all the clothes, presents, home-baked goods, etc. and get it all in the right suitcase while a sister packed similar items for her family to return to northern Michigan.

Nothing got mixed up and it is one of the few times that my sister hasn't left something behind.

Maybe the point is that organization in this matter just doesn't pay.

Some organization helps — of course. Planning ahead on what you want to take so that it will be washed and ironed is nice. However, that never seems to work either as the night before I'm due to leave I'm usually washing and ironing before I can start to pack.

If this column seems pointless perhaps it is.

However, it leads into the fact that for the next few weeks — four issues to be exact — Impressions will not appear.

The columnist is fleeing the cares and pressures of the newspaper business and will spend the time hunting up lost relatives in Ireland and observing the means and mores of life in the British Isles.

There is only one problem. During those four weeks the managing editor just might find something more worthwhile to put in the space. Then what would I do?

However, will not worry about that. Had better spend the time starting on the basics of organization for packing and see if just once I don't have to iron before filling the suitcase.

Am certain though that I will still be rushing at the last minute to catch that plane before it leaves Metropolitan.

I won't forget anything either — but then there is always a first time for everything.

Police Nab Three Youths

Robert Deadman, chief of police in the City of Farmington, announced last week that the department had apprehended three youths in connection with a series of breaking and enterings committed over the summer.

Two of the youths are juveniles and were turned over to the juvenile authorities. Police withheld the name of the third person arrested.

Deadman said that the youths were arrested in connection with burglaries at the White House Valet, Cloverdale School, the Junior High School, Longacre School and the Gill Rd. School.

In 1931, a law was passed requiring Michigan townships of 50 families to employ a schoolmaster.

Suicide Attempt Follows Argument

A Farmington man is in critical condition in St. Mary Hospital in Livonia following an attempted suicide Sept. 1.

Police said Brice Frank, 43, of 33318 Grand River, evidently shot himself following a family argument during the early evening hours.

Highway signs are an important part of the Michigan Department of State Highways' primary and secondary road system. These employees of the main sign shop in Lansing are rolling reflector letters onto an overhead panel.

The Lansing shop and the 10 district shops are in high gear producing signs to guide motorists on the evergrowing state highway system that now totals more than 9,200 miles, including 1,245 miles of freeway.

Livonia School Board Studies Westland Growth

The northwest section of Westland, in the Livonia School District, is the center of a report to the school board which wants to know the rate of building activity in that area.

The two-page report from Bill Lintner, child accounting coordinator for the school district, includes a map breaking down the area of Westland between Joy Road and Warren-Cowan Roads into six smaller sections.

Lintner said in his report that projects underway include a 300-unit apartment complex with 136 of those being two-bedroom units and 152 with one bedroom and 12 being in the efficiency classification.

"In typical apartments of this type in Livonia, we have been experiencing about 2.2 persons per apartment," Lintner said. "The maximum number of children to be expected would be 60-100 children from this 300-unit building."

The Three Fountain apartment complex of 186 units with 154 residents being under 21 years of age, according to the latest census figures. This would indicate that 20 to 30 of these would enroll in the Livonia public schools next week.

In the Newburgh-Joy Road section, the city's zoning is up to the highest standards in the Westland ordinance and most of the land is now undeveloped. Lintner feels that the growth of that section will be held up for two reasons: there is no market for the type of home that would have to meet the high standards of that area and there also appears to be a high water table in the Hix Road-Joy area, which would be a problem for large subdivision developers. He estimated that it would be at least three years before the land is ready for residential homes.

"Eventually the rest of the section in the Livonia school district will build up in residential housing," Lintner said. "but because of the cost of extending sewer and water into the interior of each mile section, the area will probably be developed by major builders of subdivisions. If this is done, then there will be a prior period of planning and preparation before the actual building of the homes."

In the area north of the Westland Shopping Center, at least two high-rise apartment projects are being discussed for development in the not too distant future but these should not produce an abundance of school children.

Portraits Painted While You Wait

If you would love to have your portrait painted but are hesitating because of a vision of long hours spent sitting in a cramped position, you can disband the idea. For Cinema Theaters have come up with a new and ingenious way to have your portrait painted in only 10 or 15 minutes!

David Ford, one of the most outstanding talents in the country will be at the Cinema I and II, theatres starting Tuesday, Sept. 6. He will be in the lobby of the Cinema Theaters from 12 noon and continue throughout the day and evening. Children do not have time

What he does with the eyes on every portrait, seems to make the difference between good and remarkable work."

In addition to being at the Cinema Theaters the week of Sept. 6 through the 11, he can be seen working at Westland Shopping Center all week starting Sept. 12 through the 17th.

Billie Farnum To Speak at Temple Beth Am Sept. 10

On Saturday, Sept. 10, Temple Beth Am will conduct its annual Selichot or Penitential Service.

The word "Selichot" means forgiveness, and by way of preparation for this sacred season it has been customary for Jews to participate in special services on the Saturday evening at midnight preceding Rosh Hashanah.

Reform Judaism recognizes the value of a "warm-up" period and the desirability of setting the mood for a profound religious experience; consequently, during the past few years more and more reform congregations throughout the nation have reinstated this meaningful tradition.

The evening will commence at 9:30 p.m. with a Havdalah Service. Used in the service are the symbols of wine, a twisted candle

The DRC Story

HOW A MAN WITH SHORT LEGS REVOLUTIONIZED A LONG-LEGGED SPORT

The Odd Man On Horseback.

Stardom in athletics comes to many. It is only a select few, however, who, by their individual brilliance and flair for the unusual, set styles which help change the pattern of sports.

"A Monkey On A Stick" is the apt and colorful phrase used to describe the basic riding style of jockeys in the United States. It is a style started 70 years ago because a young man with great talent had abnormally short legs. The young man was Tod Sloan, now a member of The Jockeys' Hall of Fame.

If you visit the Detroit Race Course—and we race daily except Sundays, from now through November 5—you will see the widespread application of the technique Sloan brought to Thoroughbred racing.

"Monkey On A Stick" is the style derived from the use of extremely short stirrups and the marked crouch which puts the rider virtually on his horse's neck.

From Sloan's day to the present, there's been only one major refinement in riding styles. The great Eddie Arcaro is credited with it. Arcaro introduced the "acey-deucey" seat, whereby the jockey uses an extremely short outside stirrup and has his inside stirrup approximately two to two and one-half inches longer.

William Kelly, an old-time rider and one of the most respected officials in racing, is Paddock Judge at the Detroit Race Course. He is an authority on riding techniques.

"In my day," Kelly relates, "our style was more like that of today's steeplechase riders. A jockey might drop his inside stirrup a notch, but the difference never was marked until Arcaro came along. Now, you see almost every rider with his right stirrup so short his knee almost touches his chin."

What's the reason for the technique? "It is a sound one," Kelly says. "Watch a horse as he goes into a turn. Notice how he leans toward the rail. With the lower inside stirrup the jockey is able to shift his body in the same direction and achieve greater balance. That's the value of the 'acey-deucey' . . . balance."

Larry Snyder, the youthful riding star who is a top contender for the DRC Jockey championship and ranks seventh in the national title race, daily gives excellent displays of the patterns pioneered by Sloan and Arcaro.

"The style of each rider may vary, but the most important thing is to be comfortable in the saddle," Snyder says. I believe the more Fans know about Thoroughbred racing and the People in it, the greater enjoyment they will derive from it. Watching the riding techniques at the DRC of talented stars like Snyder, Bob Gallimore, Ronnie Campbell, Tommy Barrow, Donald Holmes, Eddie Truman, Dick Lawless, Jack Fieselman, Joe Lopez and Earl Knapp will put a new spice into the racing pleasures.

Your pleasure is our constant objective. At the Detroit Race Course, we have a magnificent new $3,000,000 Clubhouse, with two beautiful Dining Terraces which offer the finest in food and beverages. There is the unique old English pub, Ye Olde Tired Horse Pub, where you can have a snack or a refreshing drink. There is never a cover or a minimum in Ye Olde Tired Horse Pub.

We have close-in parking for 12,000 cars. There are three Easy-In, Easy-Out entrances and exits off Middlebelt, Schoolcraft and Inkster Roads.

I hope you will plan to visit us soon.

Hello Jennifer

The Keith Scruttons of Scone Avenue, in Livonia announce the birth of a daughter, Jennifer. She arrived at Oakwood Hospital, August 19, at 8 a.m. and weighed in at seven pounds. Waiting at home to welcome her was sister Susan, age 2½ years.

Juvenile Delinquency Low in S. Africa Declares Visitor to This Area

"All you have to do is put it in the oven and bake it" cried Mrs. Francois Fouche when she caught sight of the frozen baked goods in the super-markets here.

Francois was visiting her sister Elsie Stewart, a teacher of special reading in the Livonia school system. They have frozen vegetables in Mrs. Fouche's home town of Bloenfontein, South Africa, but not frozen baked goods.

If at the mention of South Africa, the thought of natives and wild bush country springs to life, you couldn't be more wrong. For South Africa is largely settled by the British, and their culture predominates throughout.

When she visited the Observer offices, Mrs. Fouche, in appearance was a tall, slender woman, modishly dressed and with a well modulated voice; she spoke with a decidedly British accent.

Although born and raised in South Africa, her life couldn't be more British than if she had been raised in a London suburb.

There are however, some distinct differences, and these made for interesting conversation. Due to the long period of bright sunshine and the heavy winter rains, the flowers are unusually beautiful. The village of Bloenfontein means Flower Fountain.

There are efficient career girls in South Africa, and Mrs. Fouche is one of them. She is an office manager.

The schooling is entirely different and Elsie Stewart, a teacher in the Livonia schools, pointed up some of the differences. There is so much difficulty nowadays in children adjusting to school, that children can go to kindergarten at four years of age in the South Africa schools. There are two years of nursery school or kindergarten. This seems to work wonders and the fact that the child is six years old before entering grade school and has already had two years of preparation seems to make the school life much easier.

There is little juvenile delinquency and there is reason behind it. All schools have uniforms, caps, blazers, etc. They may never be given or sold to anyone and are worn only by students. Should one ever get into trouble — he can be easily identified by the uniform and the other students resent this. They clamp down on the offender until he is in line.

The women of South Africa are both political and civic minded. The lot of the "bantus" or native is steadily improving and three of the universities are integrated. They have their own state Zambia which is ruled by the "bantus."

Mrs. Fouche admired the New York buildings and Niagara Falls, but with feminine reaction, loved all the new American cosmetics. In South Africa, they pay a terrific tax on them — and she is looking forward to the day when they will be easier to buy.

Limit Colors

A color scheme should be limited to three or four colors in a room. Various light and dark shades of these colors may be used for variety.

Mrs. Grace Banks, Redford society columnist for the Observer newspapers admires a Delft necklace worn by Mrs. Francis Fouche (center), South Africa, who was visiting Mrs. Elsie Stewart (right).

The Distaff Side...

By Jerry Wendt, Women's Editor

Time was when Cupid, a cherubic little fellow was depicted with a bow and arrow, curls and all that old time medieval jazz. Today we live in the Jet Age and Cupid, along with everyone else has been streamlined.

Today, a computer named "Big Mother" has taken over the romance department. Instead of brewing love potions, imploring the gods, nagging at friends and relatives to find mates, nowadays, girls enlist the aid of a mating service (Pan-A-Service, Inc., State St., Ann Arbor, is a near one).

They pay the fee and answer a list of questions, then sit back and wait for the 'phone to ring and a voice to say, "Hi, we've been mated by Big Mama, let's go out and have a cup of coffee and get to know one another."

The questionnaire offers all sorts of information such as "Fundamental Attributes, Preferences and Interests, Personal Traits, and General Attitudes, etc."

The Observer made an intensive survey, in classrooms, offices, parties, etc., because we are convinced that the scientific method of mating is going to be the thing of tomorrow and came up with some surprising results.

The first thing to be emphatically established is that the computer is not for the person who can't get a date, but for the person who is choosy.

Professional men who have devoted their youth to study and establishing themselves in their profession, suddenly look around to get married and find all the girls they would pick are gone.

As one eligible bachelor said, "I had just a few weeks before 'run out' of female acquaintances of my age and religious background. I was literally 'out of gas' on the road to romance. I don't drink, and I don't have a 'line', so walking into a crowded cocktail lounge was out. At work, the attractive girls are either married, about to be married, nearly engaged, pinned, or going steady."

For the women who have established themselves early in a trying profession, or young teachers or business women who have just graduated and then accept a position in a city away from home where they know none, a similar situation exists.

The Observer interviewed top grade subjects. All were in professions and had no unattractive characteristics, such as overweight.

Among the girls, all the unmarried ones were willing to give the computer a try. Although all were dating, they thought the computer might perform a definite service.

One tiny girl, whose size covers a king-sized brain, felt the computer might put her in touch with an older man whom she would find more her mental level. She has gone ahead rapidly in a man's profession and now finds that her former dates bore her. Her religion precludes divorce, and at work, it is the same old story of the attractive men being married.

One girl, who is very pretty, did not go away to college and as she says, "I've always gone out with someone I knew very well, or my family knew very well. Call it a sense of adventure, if you will, but I would like to meet someone who had traveled, or who could bring some new interests into my life."

Another young girl, whose teen-aged marriage ended in divorce admitted that her unhappy experience had shaken her confidence in her ability to select a mate.

Attractive, she has dates, but as she says, "I would like to meet someone who was scientifically recommended. There must be some aspect of my nature that I am not familiar with, and I would like expert advice."

Unfortunately, the computer was dealt a lethal blow by two bachelors, who were probably just what the girls who went to the computer service were praying for.

Both in their late 30s, they have above average positions, are in the "top brass" management and are very good looking. They both dance well, have excellent manners, are socially acceptable any place.

One owns a town house with two bars, one outside and in, and a swimming pool. The other owns a smart bachelor pad in town and a year round home on the lake. They both drive sport cars.

Grade A plus in eligibility, neither would be caught dead near a computer, as they said, "why use a computer? I can't keep up with my social life, now."

Among the happily married men, we asked if they would use the Computer Service if they were widowed or divorced. One said that he certainly would. A charming man, he said he would do it to escape the rash of females that would be thrust upon him by acquaintances—and having driven miles in his job said that he would insist the computer put him in touch with someone in his area.

Another, a doctor, surprisingly said that he wouldn't, right away that is. "There are a few numbers that I have seen since I've been married," he said, "that I would want to check out first."

Seeing our surprise, he amended, "I wouldn't think of using them when I was married, only if I was suddenly widowed."

Our final interviews were with two people who had used the Computer Service and were now dating the people supplied to them. Both were enthusiastic in their praises.

On the distaff side was a 21-year-old secretary. A stunning brunette, her mother had urged her to try the service.

She worried about her daughter meeting men that she didn't know too well, and wanted the service to perform as a chaperone.

The girl picked the third applicant, a man whom she confessed, "was the handsomest man she had ever seen."

An engineer, he had come here for graduate study. She had liked the first two dates, but wisely decided not to settle on one and now couldn't be happier.

Another bachelor, with a ready sense of humor, is happy with the results. He has a splendid position, and found that in obtaining it, he had become too serious, and out of touch with the social whirl, but let him tell it in his own words.

"You have to first admit that you are lonely and aren't living the life of a movie star with social engagements virtually every night or every weekend.

"After all there are many

Presbyterian Youth Visit Inner-City Church

About midnight, Aug. 20, the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church at 9601 Hubbard Road in Livonia, was a place of activity and fun. The Senior High Fellowship, along with their sponsor Pat Conway, part of the staff and a few parents were awaiting guests.

On schedule, a chartered Greyhound bus pulled into the church parking lot and 33 people of various and assorted sizes, ages, etc., alighted. They were the First Presbyterian Church, Minot, N.D. Flashbulbs were snapping, greetings were exchanged and confusion reigned in general.

This was the start of a week of work for this group of Senior High students—the work being conducted at Grace Lutheran Church, 5917 Van Dyke in Detroit, an inner-city church with inner-city problems.

After a midnight snack both groups and their sponsors bedded down in sleeping bags for the night in the church.

At 8 a.m., the young people were eating breakfast, at 10 a.m. they were worshipping in church, 11:30 a light lunch was served and at 12:15 all were on their way downtown to see the Detroit Tigers wallop Baltimore.

After returning to the church for a chicken dinner, about 55 people were transported to Youth Island which is a Presbytery camp in White Lake near Milford.

Each day they journeyed into the Lutheran Church on Van Dyke to worship, paint church property, repair buildings, conduct survey work and learn more about their fellowman in this integrated area. These two groups worked along with the Youth Group from Grace Lutheran Church.

Grace Lutheran young people were guests of the Rosedale and Minot groups for dinner and a swim at the Island and a boat trip to Bob-Lo on Friday.

A Roman Catholic priest, a Methodist, Lutheran and Presbyterian minister were working with this group as well as different races.

A trip through General Motors Tech' Center and Greenfield Village were part of the events planned for the Minot group by Rosedale. The weekend found the Minot group situated in homes of the Rosedale Church people where they were entertained.

After a worship service at 9 p.m. Aug. 28, the caravan from Minot, N.D. departed via chartered bus, still planning a sight-seeing jaunt in Chicago on Monday.

This caravan was a dream which started in July of 1965 when the Rosedale youth journeyed to Whitlash, Mont. to paint a church and conduct a Vacation Church

By GEORGIA MOSSMAN

THOUGH IT ISN'T noted on the calendar, unofficially, fall has its beginning. We saw the first signs last week when we noticed that many of the trees along Hines Parkway are donning their fall apparel. And their golden color is second in beauty only in the "safety" yellow of the school buses—whose arrival in the neighborhood is usually the surest, and often the most welcome sign of summer's demise.

LIKE THE NEIGHBORS who held a Street Party last week, to review summer's memories and relay the many plans "beginning this fall..."

Hubbard was roped off between Elmira and Orange lawn, and with the arrangements for food and entertainment handled by Jo Cole and Karen Mayo, this fourth annual neighborhood potluck dinner was a fitting and fun farewell to a long, hot summer.

"A GOOD VACATION IT WASN'T" was Joan Duggan's reply to our query about her recent trip from Whitby St. to Cleveland, O. She said, "With all due respect to kind and well-intentioned relatives, 'nightmare' is more the description that comes to mind.

"Picture this—me with my five little boys, my twin sister with her seven youngsters, and the oldest of the 12 children is nine years old. A shattering vision, right?"

"We tried going visiting (and needless to say the invitations were few)—but after the initial venture we scuttled that idea so that we wouldn't return home entirely friendless. Then my sister and I tried just chatting.

"When we had accepted that too as being futile, my dear husband Pat, though hating to leave a nice, quiet home, drove down and rescued us from total madness. And my sister and I agreed to forego similar 'pleasures' until the kids are in their early twenties, unless we can arrange for a smaller traveling troupe of our family circus."

"BUT THE BEACH BASH at Muskegon last weekend, that's what real vacations are made of," according to Joan. And husband Pat Duggan agrees, as do fellow-Jaycee and Jaycette members from Livonia, Bill and Anne Hannifan, Al and Midge Beaufinck, Sue Taylor, (Jaycette President), Art and Carol Perkins, Bill Trisch, Tom Clark, and Jaycee President Bob Bishop and his wife Shirley, who all took part in the annual Michigan Jaycees summer board meeting.

Which included not only a marvelous beach party on Friday night, but some really interesting business meetings the next day, and a dinner dance Saturday evening.

They report that Livonia won the travel trophy for having the most members, traveling the furthest distance; and also that Livonia won their bid to host the finals next June for the Michigan Jaycees' Teen-age Safe Driving Road-oo competition.

AND FOR YOUR LIVE WIRE, a birthday gift of a plane ticket from relatives in the east provided one of our summer's highlights.

It was live lovely days in the charming town of Summit, N. J., as a guest in a magnificent old 14 room home.

And one, long, full day in New York, the noisiest, busiest and the most exciting city in the world. For while a world-traveler we are not, we find it hard to imagine that there could be as many sights and delights to be found anywhere else.

Though it seems that the city's 38,000 cabs are usually full, when we do find a cab, the driver's hospitality is usually compensation for the delay. And as to the noise, a driver we had last week said, "we just honk the horn as part of the game. We know it won't get anyone moving, it just keeps us from going completely crazy."

That was going across town for a hurried but most interesting tour of the United Nations Building; then lunch at Schrafft's; a bit of shopping; a trip to the Guggenheim Museum, featuring a special collection of Gauguin's works, in the circular "showcase" designed by Frank Lloyd Wright; and then cocktails at the Top of the Tower with a cool breeze—and the city looking small and neat; with its gardens on the roofs of the buildings; dinner at O'Henry's in Greenwich Village; and despite very tired, very sore feet, several hours of poking and prowling "round that wild and colorful place called "the Village."

"THE HEP BAGLE," "Figaro's Chess and Bridge Club," a store with all kinds of unique and beautiful chairs called "Be Seated," and a myriad of art galleries, leather goods stores, sidewalk cafes and jewelry shops, but a part of "what is happening" is this place where the off-beat are the ruling majority and the usual is uncommon.

We regretted missing a visit to the New York Stock Exchange in the Wall Street District.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM KRACHT

Jarvis-Kracht Take Vows In Double Ring Ceremony

St. Michael's Catholic Church, Livonia, was the scene of a double ring ceremony that united Cheryl Toni Jarvis and William George Kracht. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Jarvis, 8911 Georgia, Livonia, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Catherine Kracht and the late Mr. Eldon Kracht, 32024 W. Chicago, Livonia. Father McMann performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a wedding gown trimmed in French chantilly lace. The back treatment of the dress featured a wattleau train of cathedral length, topped with a Dior bow.

The veil was three tiers of silk illusion. Her headpiece was of forward drop petals with accents of seed pearls. Her flowers were orchids and stephanotis.

Margaret Pope, Livonia, was maid of honor. Paulette Taranowski, Barbara Koslowski, cousins of the bride, and Mary Kracht, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Lori Siterlot, groom's niece, of Northville, was flower girl.

All of the attendants wore empire sheath, floor length yellow linen dresses with empire bands of green. They wore flower shaped headpieces of orchids.

Their flowers were cascades of yellow glameillas. Lee Haydon, of Warren, was best man, Joe Kracht, brother of the groom, Mel Sowers, and Robert Catalano, cousin of the bride, were ushers.

Richard and Robert Siterlot, twin nephews of the groom, of Northville, were ring bearers. The bride's mother wore pink crepe with matching accessories, and the groom's mother wore beige lace with green accessories.

Following the ceremony, a breakfast was held at the Thunderbird Inn in Northville. In the evening, guests attended a reception at Harper Hall in Detroit.

Following a trip to Niagara Falls, the couple will be at home in Warren.

SHARON ANN RIES

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ries of 36631 Pine Tree, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Anne to Wayne Keith Chapple, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Chapple, 16111 Lexington, Redford Township. NEWEST PIECE OF PLAYGROUND equipment at the Plymouth Children's Nursery is the "Fun House." Constructed by fathers, it has countless uses with its slides, cubby holes, "rooms," ladders, bars, steering wheel, doors and windows.

Time to Enroll

If you have a four-to-five-year-old youngster you want to enroll in nursery school this fall, the Plymouth Children's Nursery, Inc. has openings. The nursery, a co-operative, also has a waiting list for three-year-olds.

The children attending the nursery have an opportunity to play with other children their own age and to explore materials, settings, and situations. Among the areas covered by the nursery school are music, arts and crafts, science, field trips, and outdoor activities.

An orientation program is scheduled for September to acquaint all parents with the routine and purpose of the nursery school.

Further information and registration blanks may be obtained from Mrs. James Sonnega, 453-6069 or Mrs. Lawrence Venaska, 453-6440.

Stevens-Steiner Plight Troth

Lt. Reece Steiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Steiner, 16913 Five Pointe, Redford Township; took Janet Stevens of San Francisco as his bride in a recent ceremony at St. James Episcopal Church, Detroit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Stevens, Kendall, Westmoreland, England.

Rev. Garfield Brown officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given away by Herbert Steiner. She wore a cream-colored peau de soie gown appliqued in aleoncon fashion in empire style. She carried an old prayer book covered in the same material as her dress.

Kenneth Steiner, 16877 Monica, Detroit, was best man, Fred Steiner, 23179 Purdue, Farmington Township, was an usher.

The reception was held at the home of the groom.

After a trip to northern Michigan the couple will make their home in Annapolis, Md.

The bride was graduated from Newcastle on the Tyme, Westmoreland, England. The groom was graduated from Michigan Tech at Houghton and received his post graduate degree in Monterey, California. Lt. Steiner is going to teach physics at Annapolis Naval Academy.

Area Residents Invited To Pollution Hearings

Congressman Wes Vivian announced that the water pollution hearings to be held by the House Natural Resources Subcommittee of the Committee on Government Operations, originally scheduled for Aug. 5 in Toledo, will be held on Friday, Sept. 9 and Saturday, Sept. 10.

The hearings will take place at the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce Building at 218 Huron Street, Toledo, O.

AA Phone Credit Union Approves Bid for Building Expansion

The Ann Arbor Telephone Employees Credit Union, with headquarters in Ann Arbor and a branch in Plymouth at 1415 Goldsmith, has accepted a bid of $23,850 to expand the local quarters to more than 2,200 square feet.

That was the announcement of President Fred Buntin, Jr., who indicated the contract had been awarded to John Dombeck of Taylor and work would start within two weeks.

The credit union serviced workers at the Michigan Bell and Western Electric Co. Members are residents of Wayne, Oakland, Livingston, Lenawee, Washtenaw and Monroe Counties.

The subcommittee is continuing a series of hearings which have recently taken them to such places as Rochester, N.Y. The purpose of the hearings is to determine what industrial, civic, and state organizations are doing to cope with the problems of water pollution, and in this instance, specifically with respect to Western Lake Erie and its tributaries.

Congressman Vivian, a member of the Science, Research and Development Subcommittee, will not only sit with this subcommittee, but will also testify. Due to the interest which many of his constituents have in this problem, Vivian has sent letters to several people in the Second District inviting them to attend.

Among those invited are State Representative Charles Gray of Ypsilanti; State Representative Ray Kehres of Monroe; Dr. David Chandler of the Great Lakes Research Division, the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor; Donald Burton, Monroe County Drain Commissioner; Clair W. Miller, Drain Commissioner of Livingston County from Howell; Morton R. Cohn, Mayor of the City of Monroe; Harold Easton, Mayor of Tecumseh; James C. Houk, Mayor of Plymouth; Mrs. Warren L. Smith, President of the League of Women Voters of Ann Arbor; H. R. Johnson, President of Consolidated Paper and Packaging Company in Monroe; Hans Haugard of Community Services in Howell; Donald R. Johnson, Director of the Washtenaw County Extension Service, from Ann Arbor; Susan H. Sayre, Mayor of Ypsilanti; and Curtis Yoas, Frenchtown Township Supervisor, from Newport.

Two residents of the Second District who will testify before the Subcommittee include John Chasca of Newport, representing the Lake Erie Cleanup Committee, and Col. Leonard Goodsell, Executive Director of the Great Lakes Commission, who is from Ann Arbor.

It's Time To Seek AF Posts

High school juniors, interested in entering the United States Air Force Academy upon graduation, are reminded to apply for a nomination as soon as possible, said Major George Manuel, the Academy liaison officer in the Livonia area.

Members of Congress have already begun to nominate candidates to the class entering the Academy in June 1967.

The United States Senators and Representatives submit the names of their nominees to the Academy no later than January 31, 1967.

Since nominating quotas are limited for each Member of Congress, the student should not delay his application.

Senators and Representatives are interested in nominating successful high school students to be considered for Academy appointments from their states and congressional districts.

A good scholastic standing, participation in extra-curricular activities, and physical fitness are the most important factors considered by Congressmen in choosing their nominees.

Major Manuel, a member of the Air Force Reserve, not on active duty, represents the Academy in high schools in the Livonia-Garden City area.

He urges students who are interested in the Academy to get in touch with him for information concerning the application procedures and entrance examinations.

Major Manuel may be contacted by writing him at 9290 Florida in Livonia or by calling 427-4759 or 425-1900.

3 Cities Club To Show New Pieces of Art

Members of the Three Cities Art Club are planning a bigger and better than ever display of new pieces in conjunction with the Rotary Fall Festival Barbeque on Sunday, Sept. 11.

Each member is asked to bring three new and original paintings and an unlimited number of ceramic pieces to be displayed at the area near the Main Street edge and somewhat nearer the cannon than in past years.

Demonstrations of art techniques will be given from 1 o'clock on. Silk-screen printing will be done by Margaret Cramer of Wayne. Portrait painting in oils will be demonstrated by Mary Engstrom, Plymouth. New methods and approaches to stitchery and applique will be worked by Ann Gentry or Jessie Hudson while Kate Edgerton, club president, will show the ancient and modern craft of spinning.

Three Cities members will wear identifying badges and the public is invited to ask questions about any phase of art.

We can keep you in hot water.

In fact, we guarantee it!

An electric water heater is for the people who don't like to run out of hot water. We're so sure you'll like one, we guarantee your satisfaction—for a whole year! What do we mean by satisfaction? Simply this: If you don't get all the hot water you want, when you want it, you get all your money back, including any you may have spent on installation. And it doesn't matter where you bought your electric water heater. The Edison guarantee still applies. No strings attached. Fair enough?

EDISON

PS. Average-size families with electric water heaters pay as little as $3.88 a month—a standard rate—for hot water. How much are you paying?

2 Nurses Receive Awards

Two registered nurses have been awarded the 1966 Katherine Tuck Fund scholarships of $2,000 for study in the general nursing training program of Wayne State University's College of Nursing.

The winners, Doris LaVerne Bakker, 344 Hollister, S.E., Grand Rapids, and Lois R. Walter, 3740 John R, Detroit, will begin fulltime study in the fall quarter.

Miss Bakker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bakker of Baldwin, Wisc., is a graduate of Luther Hospital School of Nursing, Eau Claire, Wisc. She is employed as a head nurse of a medical unit at Blodgett Memorial Hospital, Grand Rapids.

Miss Walter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley S. Walter, Box 177, Cowpath Road, Souderton, Pa., is a 1965 graduate of the Philadelphia General Hospital School of Nursing in Philadelphia. Since graduation she has been employed as a staff nurse at Harper Hospital in Detroit.

Initiated in 1962 the scholarships are awarded by WSU's College of Nursing on a competitive basis. They are given annually to two registered nurses chosen for scholastic achievement and professional promise.

Available to graduates of hospital diploma programs or junior college associate degree programs in nursing, the scholarships cover the cost of tuition and room and board for six quarters of full-time study. Assistance in obtaining financial aid for the final three quarters of the program is given as needed.

The general nursing training program at WSU provides an educational foundation for advanced study for those interested in careers in teaching, administration and specialized fields of nursing.

Our Queen of Hearts Has Many Delicious Fudge Recipes For All "Chocobolics"

By FAITH GILLESPIE

In the days of the ancient Aztec Empire, long before the intrusion of the European discoverers, the cacao, or cocoa, bean was cultivated and chocolate was manufactured.

According to the legend, one of the Aztec prophets had brought the seeds from Paradise and planted them in his earthly garden. Universal knowledge and wisdom came to those who ate the fruit, 'twas said.

When Hernando Cortez came in 1519 with his armies to Mexico, the Emperor Montezuma served him chocolate in a golden goblet. Cortez took the bean and its secret back to Spain, where only the wealthy could afford the luxury of this food of the gods.

"Chocolate" soon became popular in the royal courts of Europe, one of the most highly prized treasures from the New World. The great trading companies braved the perils of the ocean and conquest to bring it home.

That pearl that is the cocoa bean is no less precious now, though we neither endure hazards to obtain it nor use golden goblets to enjoy it. I share with those civilized primitives of the Aztec Nation the sense of the "mystique" of the fruit of the cacao plant.

This means that chocolate is not just a pleasant taste that I merely like, no indeed. Though I may be a wee bit skeptical about the universal wisdom and knowledge part, I think that the partaking of chocolate is a nearly ecstatic experience, if you really have a "thing" for chocolate.

They say there are even people who are "chocobolics" . . . but who wants to be cured?

If you are a confirmed chocolate addict, you won't be able to resist these gems from my recipe box.

AZTEC FUDGE: Place in sauce pan two cups sugar, 1/2 cup white syrup, 1/2 cup milk, two squares unsweetened chocolate, and 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon. Stir and bring to rolling boil; reduce heat to prevent burning, and continue to boil to the soft-ball stage, 238 degrees.

(Soft-ball stage is reached when you can drop a little of the boiling liquid into a cup of cold water and can gather it with your fingers into a soft ball that will hold its shape until pressure is removed.)

Add a tablespoon of butter and beat the fudge till it begins to hold its shape, and loses its glossy sheen. Stop then, and hurry to pour it out on a cold buttered plate or pan.

This recipe is nearly fool-proof, except on a rainy day, when the humidity may keep it from hardening. (The chocolate lover, however, doesn't mind too much . . . she just eats it with a spoon.)

If the 'yen for chocolate comes when it is raining, bake a chocolate cake. The package mixes will do, but the following is incomparable:

BROWN SUGAR FUDGE CAKE: Heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease lightly and flour three eight-inch or two nine-inch layer pans. Sift together 2 1/4 cups sifted cake flour, one teaspoon baking soda, and 3/4 teaspoon salt. Add two cups firmly packed brown sugar, 1/2 cup soft shortening, 2/3 cup buttermilk, and one teaspoon vanilla. Beat two minutes at medium speed, scraping bottom and sides of bowl constantly. Add 1/3 cup buttermilk, three eggs, and two squares unsweetened chocolate, melted. Beat two more minutes. Bake half an hour, more or less, depending upon the size of your pans. Test with toothpick at 25 minutes, if you are using eight-inch pans. Cool and frost, and call your family to share it before you eat it all yourself. Is there a Chocobolic Anonymous?

It's you!
 Think about it. It makes sense.
 All of us from the President on down work for you.
 Frankly, where would we be without you and the many people like you?
 We know. We'd still be in that little store on Vanev Street where we started more than 100 years ago.
 That's why you're important. That's why we care so much about how we serve you... about being fair, honest and dependable.
 Is this kind of attitude a good reason for shopping A&P?
 It's one of many.
