TORCH IS BURNING and the two tiny men are marching round and round with the Plymouth Community Fund red feather while the guided missile starts its climb to the goal of $88,543. This is the scene of Monday's official kickoff of the annual PCF fund raising drive and shows Campaign Manager Edward Schening with Miss Sparkle, Sandra Sagar, and Miss Sweet Charity, Carol Ann Stephenson, following the lighting ceremonies.

Dramatic Show Opens Annual PCF Campaign

Spurred by the most spectacular torchlighting ceremonies in Plymouth Community Fund history, more than 400 volunteer workers Tuesday started the task of raising $88,543 before the deadline on Nov. 10.

Heading the cast of workers are the Bellringers, women of the community under the direction of Mrs. Esther Hulsing, who have started a house to house drive they believe will be the most successful in PCF annals.

The kickoff dinner, in the Round Table Club with National Bank of Detroit as hosts, found General Chairman Edward Schening, of the Burroughs Corporation, telling PCF President Dr. William Covington of the success of the drive to date.

Schening told of the tremendous exposure of the drive and its goal through the efforts of Promotion Chairman Phil Scott and his aides, Don Lea and John Dillon, along with the work of Eber Readman and Barney Hart from Schening's staff at Burroughs Corp.

Then came the torchlighting ceremonies in Kellogg Park—the most impressive the community has seen in a long time.

The Plymouth Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Wayne Dunlap, furnished music for the entertainment of the well-chilled group that gathered for the program.

Dr. Covington introduced Schening as general chairman of the drive and he in turn introduced 16-year-old Sandra Sagar as Miss Sparkle of the drive and Carol Ann Stephenson, a teacher at Tanger School, as Miss Sweet Charity.

It was a first for both—the first time the drive had a Miss Sparkle or a Miss Sweet Charity. Both will accompany Schening when he makes addresses before the Plymouth High student body, as well as the various civic and service clubs in the community.

"This is the night the Plymouth Community Fund drive begins," said Schening. "Many of our friends and neighbors have joined hands in order to help all in the community to meet the challenge this drive presents. 'We can arrive in this college by showing our support for the many community services, the many individuals, young and old, who are less fortunate than you and I. The community's record of past accomplishments is a proud one and I am indeed proud to be associated with you in this year's effort. Our contributions have made this community a living symbol for all those everywhere who care anything about their fellow men. 'I feel confident as I stand (Continued on Page 5B)

ONE OF THESE BEAUTIES will be crowned 1966 Homecoming Queen of Plymouth High in the coronation ceremonies at the halftime intermission of Friday's football game with Bentley. Symphony Plans 21st Opening Pianist Allen Shaffer and Albert Travis will share the spotlight on Saturday, Oct. 22 when the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra opens its 21st season in the Plymouth High School auditorium at 8:15 p.m.

Shaffer, a member of the Schoolcraft College faculty, is the organist-choirmaster of St. John's Episcopal Church. Travis is a teaching fellow at the University of Michigan and a doctoral student of organ there.

They will join with the orchestra in the number Concerto in D, Minor.

The complete Symphony schedule for the 1966-67 season was announced Monday. It includes:

Oct. 22—Allen Shaffer and Albert Travis, pianists, with the orchestra.

Nov. 20—Arthur Follows, soloist.

Dec. 11—Annual Christmas program with the choir and soloists of Eastern Michigan University joining with the orchestra.

Jan. 29—Family concert.

March 5—The Kenneth Jewell Chorale.

April 8—Barbara Holmquest, soloist.

rural schools, was shifting her three classes—K through two—from Geer to Salem.

Wednesday afternoon, she had left a snapshot of herself in the desk drawer of her fellow teacher, George Dodson, with a joking reminder that "you won't forget me now."

George found it Thursday morning just about the time he was told that Mrs. Heliker had been killed earlier in a two-car collision while enroute to her new school.

Mrs. Heliker became the 49th person to die in Washtenaw County traffic accidents when she died instantly in the intersection of Ford and Prospect Roads in Superior Township.

Sheriff's deputies said Mrs. Heliker was driving north on Prospect Road and apparently pulled out in the path of a car going east on Ford, driven by William Tommelein of Milan.

Her car was struck broadside. The impact hurled Mrs. Heliker out the right door of the car which rolled over her. She was pronounced dead at the scene.

Tommelein was rushed to University Hospital in Ann Arbor where doctors reported he appeared to have only cuts and bruises.

'Go Blue, Go' Is PHS Chant for Homecoming

Go Blue, Go! Beat Bentley! That's chant of the Plymouth High student body this week as they make preparations for the annual homecoming celebration which includes crowning of the queen, a parade through downtown streets, a bonfire at the east end of the athletic field prior to Friday's football game and then the big climax Saturday night in the school gym with the traditional homecoming dance.

Homecoming is always the biggest event of the football season but this year is bigger than ever—the footballers will be making their second home appearance after three disastrous games on foreign grids.

That's why the student body wants the Rocks to beat Bentley and make the celebration a happy one.

The program actually started last Thursday with the selection of the six candidates for Homecoming Queen and court by the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes.

Results of the election were announced Thursday noon by Mayor Darre Dusbiber following Wednesday vote.

The four senior candidates, one of whom will be named queen since the school has never selected, anyone but a senior, are: Jane Emerson, Carol Engstrom, Jean MacCurdy and Gayle Myers.

Cheerleader Judy Allen will represent the Sophomores and Brenda Hayes is the choice of the Juniors.

The final election is scheduled for Thursday after which an election committee from the Student Council will count the ballots. The name of the Queen will be kept secret until the halftime ceremonies at the football game when Mayor Dusbiber will announce Her Majesty with all of the traditional fanfare.

The other five automatically become members of the court and will assist Her Majesty in the activities at the game and the homecoming dance. The Queen and her escort and the attendants and their escorts will join in the Coronation Ball slated for shortly after 10 p.m.

But prior to the coronation, there'll be activities that will have downtown Plymouth (Continued on Page 5B)

Carroll Nichols Named Principal At Bird School

Carroll Nichols, a teacher in the Plymouth Community School system for the past three years, Monday was appointed principal at Bird elementary school by School Supt. Russell Isbister with the approval of the Board of Education.

Supt. Isbister recommended Nichols as the successor to Earl Gibson who was promoted to an executive capacity in the administration a month ago.

Nichols has been a sixth grade teacher at Junior High West since joining the system in 1963. Prior to that he served as an elementary school principal and teacher at Allegan.

A graduate of Dundee High School in 1948, Nichols received his Bachelor's degree from Houghton (N.Y.) College where he had a major in religion and theology and a minor in Greek and social studies.

He received his Masters degree at Western Michigan University in 1962 and has taken graduate work in elementary school administration.

The new principal resides at 42209 Brentwood in Plymouth Township. He and his wife, Onalee, are the parents of three children: Randall, 13, at Junior High West; Sam, 9; and Sandra Lee, 7, both pupils at Farrand School.

CARROLL NICHOLS

Grange Ready For Annual Turkey Dinner

The Grange Hall on Union Street will be the center of an old fashion turkey dinner on Saturday. The menu will include some of the best recipes from Plymouth's kitchens with Claude and Helen Eckles in charge.

The dinner will be served from five through seven on an hourly basis and tickets may be purchased at the door.

Agnes Rollins will have a noon snack for the business women and men which will be served from the hours of 11 to 2 and will include sloppy Joe and ham salad sandwiches with homemade cake and beverages.

Included will be the usual bazaar opening at 10 a.m., chairman Mildred Rienas and her co-worker Gladys Carlson promise one of the best ever.

Comes Out On Weekend, Effective Oct. 23

New Publication Day for Plymouth Mail

Residents of the Plymouth Community will get their news twice each week, beginning October 23 when the Plymouth Mail will move to a new Sunday publication day.

That was the announcement Monday by Philip Power, publisher of the Plymouth Mail.

The Mail previously has been published on Wednesday.

"The only real function of a newspaper is to serve the community," Power said in announcing the change of publication day. "Readers are served by informative, thoughtful reporting of the news of the community. Advertisers are served by effective, original and hard-hitting ads which bring the product to the direct attention of each reader.

"The Plymouth Mail has devoted itself to these twin concepts of service for more than 78 years. The sole concern has always been, and will continue to be of service to the community. In order more fully to serve the Plymouth Community, we have undertaken an extensive program to expand and improve the Mail.

"As part of these improvements, we are delighted to announce that as of October 23, the Plymouth Mail will move to a new Sunday publication day.

The proven acceptance, readership and selling power of weekend newspapers throughout the country has prompted this change.

"On the weekend, families have the time and inclination to read their newspaper thoroughly. Our editorial policy, while retaining its present solid coverage of community affairs, will be improved and expanded. In particular, we plan to include a number of feature articles geared especially to suburban living."

At the same time, Power announced that the Observer Newspaper Group newspapers will continue to be published on Wednesday as in the past.

Child Guidance Clinic Seeks Funds to Continue

Northwestern Child Guidance Clinic does not want to close its doors. Members are filling a dire need in the community by assisting disturbed children recommended by the schools to become adjusted to their school and community.

The need is proven by the waiting list of young people waiting to be helped. The list is booking ahead 11 months.

All 16 communities involved in the Clinic, unfortunately do not financially support the program even though all benefit.

For every dollar of local funds spent the State matches an additional dollar. But because funds are not coming from all communities, there is a shortage.

In an effort to make up for this shortage the 27-man Clinic Board has come up with a fund raising project.

It is sponsoring a six-week Theater Party at the new Quo Vadis Theater located on Wayne Road and Warren. Owner of the Quo Vadis Charles Schafer has made arrangements to refund a large portion of every ticket sold from Oct. 12 to Nov. 30, Monday through Thursday nights.

Oct. 12 through 25 the movie will be Kaleidoscope; Oct. 26 through Nov. 8, What's Up Tiger Lilly?; Nov. 9 through Nov. 30, Not With My Wife.

Tickets are $2.50 each and the cause is great. For tickets call Mrs. Louis Pearlman GA 4-4317 or any board member.

Tickets may be purchased by calling the Clinic direct at 425-6110 or by stopping in at The Livonia Observer Office, 33050 Five Mile Road, Livonia. Tickets will also be distributed through service groups, schools and shopping centers.

General Chairman of the fund-raising event is Bill Keith of Garden City.

For all of the City employees and School Board Members, in the communities not able to assist in finances but indicated their support in spirit—here is an opportunity to really give support in a private way.

Step right up for all three performances assisting a disturbed child is worth the price of admission.

COME AND GET 'EM, and they have them to sell show tickets by the hundreds. The unusual six-week theatre party will benefit Northwestern Child Guidance Clinic at no pain or strain to the buyer of a first-run movie at the new Quo Vadis Theatre on Wayne Road in Westland. Happy to sell you blocks of tickets are (left to right) Fran DeMott, Plymouth; Janet Robertson, Redford Township; Ellie Hammond, Northville; Bill Keith, Garden City; Rae Pearlman, Livonia; and Mary Ann McAllister, Westland. Tickets may also be purchased in The Livonia Observer office at Five Mile.

246 Boys Participate In Annual Contest

The annual Ford Motor Company Pass, Punt, Kick Contest was held Saturday at the Wonderland Shopping Center, sponsored by Bill Brown Sales, the Livonia Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Recreation Department. It attracted 246 contestants.

Results were: eight years—first, Randy Besh, second, Gregory Sipus, third, Tim Hollandsworth. (154')

Nine years—first, Jim Mandeville, second, Dan Dinsmore, third, Dan Bobowski. (175')

Ten years—first, Tom Zalagiris, second, Mark Newell, third, Daniel Lamarand. (214')

Eleven years—first, Tim Bollin, second, Bob Deacon, third, Gar-Frantz. (241')

Twelve years—first, John Casey, second, Pat Genrich, third, Mike Coughlin. (255' 1/2')

Thirteen years—first, Don Coombe, second, Bob Hollandsworth, third, Tony Kaseta. (281')

Clark Chamberlain copped Michigan State's first major cross country title when he won the six-mile ICAA meet in 1930.

Students Name 7 To Senate

Schoolcraft College students climaxed a two-week election campaign by naming seven freshmen to the Student Senate, student government body, for a one-year term.

Topping a field of 14 candidates in the voting were: Kurt Lagerquist, 18, Livonia, Bentley High graduate and a business administration student, 209 votes; Marilyn Woods, 18, Nankin Township, St. Mary's High graduate, an education student, 192; Richard Flynn, 19, Detroit St. Cecilia High graduate, education, 187; Sue Solmar, 18, Garden City, Franklin High, education, 186; Cordelia Ann Dumas, 18, Livonia, Bentley High, journalism, 179; Frank Pluta, 17, Detroit, Redford High, education, 160; and Joop Doorn, 19, Livonia, Franklin High, business administration, 146.

Other candidates were Donna Krichbaum, Detroit, 144; Eric Adams, Livonia, 120; Barbara O'Brien, Livonia, 119; Brenda Parker, Detroit, 113; Eric Bjornbak, Wayne, 80; Michael Hughes, Livonia, 64; and Paul Smith, Farmington, 61.

The election was conducted by the Political Science Club Senate elections committee. Two voting machines loaned by Garden City were used in the day-long balloting.

The new Senate members took office on Oct. 5, joining eight sophomore members who were elected last spring.

Promoted By Livonia Nat. Bank

Livonia National Bank President Elvin D. Dougherty announced the appointments of Jerold J. Baum as collection manager in the Consumer Credit Department.

He will have responsibility for servicing automobile, business, and personal loans which are financed on the installment plan.

Dennis J. Stockel has been named assistant manager at the Wonderland branch, Plymouth Road and Middlebelt, aiding in the various phases of bank management, including new business development, installment loans, as well as checking and savings operations.

Baum, who lives in Dearborn, comes to Livonia National Bank of Rochester in Rochester, where he served in the collection department.

Stockel, of Detroit, was associated with the Bank of the Commonwealth for over three years.

Grand Juror Continues Probe in Garden City

The Wayne County Grand Jury's investigation into the 1961 sale of the Civic Center property continued last week with the calling of numerous witnesses under a news blackout called by Juror George Bowles.

Being called in to testify about their roles in the sale of the property on Middlebelt Road north of Ford Road and giving information about the sale were Thomas Pollard, Virgil Eller, city councilmen at the time of the sale; Evan Callahan, former city attorney and Ivan Plunkett, who ran for one of the two mayoralty nominations in the Aug. 2 primary election. Testifying earlier were Mayor Edwin Fresh, Jr., who was City Clerk-Treasurer in 1961, and Charles E. Lowe, who was mayor at the time and was the sole member of the city council who questioned the purchase.

Eugene Salvatore, also on the city council at that time, also supplied information before Grand Juror Bowles with former councilman Max Brown, now a school superintendent in Gaylord, Mich., expected to be called. The grand jury probe of the land sale five years ago is looking into the circumstances of the event which saw the city pay William New, a realtor now retired and living in Howell, $83,160 for the three parcels although previous prices quoted the city were at the $50,500 level.

Plunkett, during the primary election campaign, told The Observer that he had information concerning alleged wrongdoing in the municipal government during the early 1960s. In addition, he was trying to sell the city a lot adjacent to the present Civic Center five years ago when the land was bought.

Witnesses testifying before the grand juror are sworn to secrecy about the information they give and are not allowed to discuss the matter publicly.

Other witnesses last week related their knowledge of technical aspects of the issue, involving the details of the sale and the purchase by the city.

These witnesses included Dr. Wheeler Kern, who owned two of the three lots involved; and Robert Peck, who in 1961 was branch manager of the Garden City National Bank of Detroit which cashed the city's $83,160 check covering the sale of the land. The owner of the third parcel in question was Frank Crocker.

In addition to the grand jury's probe, the secretary of state office completed their own investigation since former councilman Salvatore was the Democratic Party's 15th Congressional District's recommendation for the manning of a Garden City branch.

But Secretary of State James Hare said last week that Salvatore's name is not being considered any longer and the district Democrats will have to make another recommendation.

A RECORD THROG turned out for one-hour performances by the famed Glenn Miller Orchestra at Wonderland Center Friday night. The second of two anniversary shows—sponsored by Ford and Bill Brown Sales—will take place this Friday and will feature the Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra under the direction of Lee Castle.

Sight End to Lengthy Exam Of Alleged Ticket Fixers

The pre-trial exam of six defendants charged with taking part in the Westland traffic-ticket fixing scandal is expected to close Thursday in the Grosse Pointe Municipal Court of Judge Douglas Paterson.

With the prosecution last week calling the last of its 18 witnesses, who testified over a four-week period, the defense attorneys for the six said that they would not call any witnesses.

Judge Paterson instructed Ronald L. Greenberg, special assistant attorney-general; and defense attorneys Marvin Blake, John J. Fish and Edward A. Khoury to be prepared at 1 p.m. Thursday to present legal arguments so the case can be finished at that time.

The defendants are suspended Inspector Daniel Martin of the Sheriff's Department Road Patrol; Bernard (Bennie) Ratkos, former owner of a Westland tavern; and four officials of Livonia UAW Local 182, Charles Gillette, president, Louis Lekar, recording secretary, and committeemen Jackie Watson and John Moon.

They are charged with conspiring to obstruct justice by fixing traffic tickets and with the actual ticket fixing scandal which ripped the road patrol in the summer of 1965.

Greenberg summed up his side of the case last week by saying that "witnesses have taken tickets directly to Martin and the ticket violators have testified that they never heard of the tickets again. "Tickets were transferred by mail and delivered by the union to the sheriff's office. There were conversations between Gillette and Martin and Watson and a judge. We have tied those people together in testimony. We have shown by a dozen examples how this conspiracy operated."

The pre-trial exam started Sept. 12 with Judge Paterson to determine whether the evidence submitted by the prosecution is sufficient enough to bind the six over for trial in Circuit Court.

In a similar case last month before Judge Paterson, Sheriff Peter L. Buback and Undersheriff James Bommarito were bound over for Circuit Court trial on charges of wilful neglect of duty growing out of the ticket scandal.

CAMPUS LANDSCAPING BEGINS — Workmen set one group of the nearly 200 low spreading junipers to be planted as part of a major landscaping program underway at the 139 acre Schoolcraft College campus. This first phase of the beautification project involves planting more than 300 trees and shrubs, seeding nearly 10 acres of lawn areas, landscaping construction work and planting ground cover. Davy Tree Co. is doing the work under a $25,200 contract.

College Poll Favors Romney, Griffin to Win

Romney for governor, Griffin for U.S. Senator and a presidential election contest between Democrat Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Republican Romney.

Those are the political preferences expressed by Schoolcraft College students in a straw vote on Oct. 4. The poll was taken during the course of a Student Senate election.

PCHA Board OKs Bonds for Expansion

Plans for the expansion of facilities owned by the Peoples Community Hospital Authority, of which Garden City and Westland are members, were given the green light recently when the board of directors for the second time this year approved an $18,000,000 bond ordinance.

The 224 vote in favor of the ordinance came after a special meeting asked for by State Attorney General Frank J. Kelley, who is also chairman of the Municipal Finance Commission. He wanted the second vote on the ordinance after the first one, by an 18-9 margin in May, represented less than the majority of the 42-delegate board.

Kelley said that a minimum of 22 positive votes were needed to approve the bonding ordinance and that the exact number the document received to allow for construction of a new 171-bed Beyer Memorial Hospital in Ypsilanti and a 151-bed addition to Seaway Hospital in Trenton.

All of the Westland and Garden City delegates voted in favor of the ordinance.

The PCHA board, which operates four public hospitals in Trenton, Allen Park, Ypsilanti and Trenton, is also currently studying the low bids for the two new hospital projects which total $13,780,349, or some $600,000 above budgeted estimates.

In the Michigan gubernatorial race, Schoolcraft students preferred Republican Gov. George Romney over his Democrat opponent, Zoltan Ferency, by a 246-39 margin.

They also went for Senator Robert Griffin, a Republican, over former Gov. G. Mennen Williams, his Democrat opponent, 178-102, in the race for U.S. Senate.

Voting on both sides of the ballot in a presidential nominee poll, the students gave Kennedy a majority among five Democrat candidates, and Romney a majority among six GOP candidates. President Johnson ran a bad second to Kennedy, 167-60, and Vice President Humphrey, with four votes, was outdistanced by former Alabama Gov. George Wallace, 29; and Senator William Fulbright, 21.

On the Republican side, the students gave Romney 155 votes as GOP standard bearer; Richard Nixon, 32; Sen. Barry Goldwater, 32; New York City Mayor John Lindsay, 25; and New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, 12.

Despite the Johnson-Humphrey vote, the Administration's Vietnam policy was backed by Schoolcraft students by a 196-102 margin.

College Night Set in Township

More than 1,000 seniors and their parents are expected to participate in the annual College Night Program on Tuesday when Redford Union High School takes its turn at hosting the event. Thurston, Clarenceville, Plymouth and Garden City High Schools will join the Redford Union counselling staff in presenting representatives of many colleges and universities in the Great Lakes area.

There will be three half-hour sessions, so that students and their parents may select and visit the representatives of three different prospective colleges. Here they will be able to receive such information as admission requirements, application procedures, cost of tuition, books, board and room, financial aid, and other pertinent information.

Scheduled to be represented at the College Night Program, which will be held at Redford Union High School, Kinloch at Curtis, Redford Township, at 7:30 p.m., will be: Adrian College, Air Force Academy, Amherst College, Albion College, Alma College, Central Michigan University, Cleary College, Detroit College of Applied Science, Detroit College of Business, Detroit Institute of Technology, De Lima Junior College, and Eastern Michigan University.

Also, Macomb Community College, Mackinac College, Madonna College, Marygrove College, Michigan League for Nursing, Michigan State University, Michigan Technological University, Northern Michigan University, Northwood Institute, Oakland Community College, Oakland University, and Olivet College.

Others are Ferris State College, General Motors Institute, Grand Valley State College, Henry Ford Community College, Highland Park College, Hillsdale College, Hope College, Kalamazoo College, Lake Superior State College (Sault Ste. Marie Branch of Michigan Technological University), Lawrence Institute of Technology, Schoolcraft College, Spring Arbor College, University of Detroit, University of Michigan, Walsh Institute, Wayne State University, and Western Michigan University.

String Bassist Heads Concert At Schoolcraft

String bassist Lawrence Hurst will open the Schoolcraft College fall semester Creative Arts on the Campus series with a solo performance at 3 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 14, in the Waterman Center.

Much in demand as a soloist on an unusual solo instrument, Hurst is a graduate of the University of Michigan and has been a member of the UM music school faculty since 1964. As a student he received the coveted Stanley Medal.

Hurst has been principal bassist of the Seventh Army Symphony in West Germany, and of the Dallas Symphony. He has played under such conductors as Pierre Monteux, Charles Munch, George Solti and Thor Johnson.

The public is invited to attend all five concerts on the creative arts series without charge.

Wonderland Continues Anniversary Celebration

Wonderland Center moves into the second week of an elaborate seventh anniversary celebration with a week-end of free entertainment and 5,000 authentic Chinese fortune cookies.

The mammoth 57-store center at Plymouth and Middlebelt in Livonia, continues its gala birthday party with performances by the famed Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra, directed by and featuring Lee Castle.

The Dorsey band will present two one-hour concerts at 6 and 9 p.m., Friday. The shows, sponsored by the Ford Division of the Ford Motor Company, and its Livonia dealer, Bill Brown Sales, will take place on the Wonderland band-stand near Robinson Furniture.

Castle, one of the nation's best-known trumpet players, has been a member of the Dorsey orchestra for many years.

Immediately following the initial performance of the Dorsey orchestra, Wonderland stores will distribute 5,000 fortune cookies—a many worth valuable prizes.

One fortune cookie will be given to each person who presents a coupon clipped from a special section in today's edition of the Observer.

Ford will present "Motors and Music" on Saturday, October 15. The show will feature the Jerry Kole orchestra and a variety of professional entertainers.

Included in the Saturday show, which begins at 1:30, will be a trained-dog act, featuring Gloria Peebles and the "Busy B's."

The show, MC'd by WKMR disc jockey "Dusty Rhodes" will compete for $100 in trampoline act.

"Motors and Music" will be followed by the semi-finals of a "Teen Talent" contest in which area youngsters will compete for $100 in prizes.

Wonderland, the first regional shopping center to be built in the northwestern suburban area of greater Detroit, opened in October 1959. One of the largest in Michigan, the giant center provides year 'round employment for more than 3,000 persons.

Michigan State's football teams have finished in the first division of the Big Ten every year except three since joining the conference in 1953.

Always Keep Home Sparkling Clean And Avoid Serious Accidents

A man's home may be his castle, but it's not necessarily the safest place in the world, warns the Greater Detroit Safety Council, a chapter of the National Safety Council.

"More than twice as many disabling injuries occur in the home than on the nation's highways," points out Gerald E. Montgomery, executive director of the local safety council.

Carelessness and negligence are, by far, the principal reasons for most home accidents, Montgomery emphasizes that most of these injuries — not to mention the more than 28,000 deaths annually—can be prevented.

The largest category of home accidents are falls. Montgomery says most falls can be prevented by correcting dangerous conditions such as loose throw rugs at the top and bottom of stairways, slippery shower stall floors and makeshift ladders.

Tacking down stairway carpeting and repairing shiny stair treads also will help to reduce the accident toll.

Many falls, Montgomery says, are caused by cluttered stairways. Such clutter should be cleared away and children instructed in the importance of keeping ways in areas where they will not be stepped on or tripped over.

The majority of burns and fires can be prevented through a program of caution and care.

"Turn the handles of cooking utensils to the back of the range, out of reach of children, and keep matches and cigarette lighters where they can't get at them," the safety expert advises.

Children aren't the only ones who get burned.

"Careless storage and handling of flammable liquids cause thousands of injuries and deaths each year," Montgomery says. "Such injuries can be prevented by storing flammable liquids in galvanized steel fuel cans that are equipped with vapor-sealing caps. Keep all fuel cans in the garage or tool shed—out of the house."

Many home fires are caused by overloaded electrical circuits and faulty wiring. Another cause of home fires is heating equipment that is in disrepair.

Poor housekeeping in the basement and attic also contributes to the mounting fire toll.

"Newspapers, magazines, old clothes and other flammable debris piled in the basement or stored in cardboard boxes provide plenty of fuel for a fire," Montgomery warns.

The safety expert says cans with small amounts of paint — probably hardened and unusable—should be discarded so as not to contribute fuel should a fire start.

"Proper lighting can prevent accidents of all kinds in the home, so make sure every stairway, hall and closet has ample illumination to prevent someone from stumbling over an unseen object," Montgomery advises.

Vivian Explains Vote on PWA

By Congressman Wes Vivian
All of us, citizens and public officials, lament the fact that the cost of living is rising in the United States; Members of the United States House of Representatives are no exception.

Last week, the annual Public Works Appropriation came to a vote in the House of Representatives. The Appropriations Committee recommended an appropriation of somewhat over $1.3 billion for various Public Works projects.

During this time of inflationary pressure, I believe that we should defer and curtail non-essential spending. In my opinion, tens of millions could have been cut from the Public Works Appropriation bill that came before us, without diminishing our nation's health, welfare and security.

Because of my strong belief that government spending must be curtailed this year, I voted against the appropriation. I hope the Committee will reduce remaining appropriations yet to come.

Know Your Michigan Law

Relatives Pay for Retarded

By Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley

(This is a public service article explaining in general terms a provision of Michigan law. Individuals who wish to determine the effect of any law upon their private legal affairs should consult a private attorney.)

On January 1, 1966 the basis for determination of liability for the care and maintenance of retarded persons in state institutions was changed by a new law. The change involved the question of which relatives must pay the cost.

Liable relatives now include only the husband, wife, father and mother. Previously, liable relatives also included grandparents. Liability ceases when the retarded person is 21 years of age or when he has been a patient in a public institution for a period of 15 years, whichever occurs first.

Heretofore, legally liable relatives were held financially responsible during the whole period of commitment.

Before the new law, the amount of liability was fixed by the probate court based generally on the probate court's determination of the relative's ability to pay for the support and maintenance of the patient.

Now, liability is determined in accordance with a liable relative's net taxable income for federal income tax purposes in accordance with the following table:

NET TAXABLE INCOME	MONTHLY LIABILITY
$ 0 to 4,999	0
5,000 to 5,499	20
5,500 to 5,999	25
6,000 to 6,499	30
6,500 to 6,999	35
7,000 to 7,499	40
7,500 to 7,999	45
8,000 to 8,499	50
8,500 to 8,999	55
9,000 to 9,499	60
9,500 to 9,999	65
10,000 to 10,499	70
10,500 to 10,999	75

11,000 to 11,499	80
11,500 to 11,999	85
12,000 to 12,499	90
12,500 to 12,999	95
13,000 to 13,499	100
13,500 to 13,999	105
14,000 to 14,499	110
14,500 to 14,999	115
15,000 to 15,499	120
15,500 to 15,999	125
16,000 to 16,999	130
17,000 to 17,999	140
18,000 to 18,499	150
18,500 to 18,999	160
19,000 to 19,499	170
19,500 to 19,999	180
20,000 and over	200

In the event the liable relative believes that the monthly liability as determined by the schedule does not accurately reflect his current income status or his ability to pay, due to changing circumstances or otherwise, the relative may request, at any time, a determination of liability by the Revenue Division of the Department of Treasury.

The statute further provides that if the relative is not satisfied with the relief given by the Revenue Division, Department of Treasury, he may appeal to the probate court for determination of liability.

Participates in Attack

Kuperman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Kuperman of 31100 Dorais, Livonia, serving aboard the destroyer Vogelgesang in the Gulf of Tonkin, Vietnam vicinity, has participated in a two-hour gunnery assistance effort in support of an American-Vietnamese outpost under Viet Cong attack.

Parents Told: Watch Child's Health

The fall school term is here for millions of American youngsters and their parents once again are reminding themselves that there are some things that must be done to get the children ready.

The American Medical Association recommends a medical examination for the child who is starting to school for the first time. Your doctor will know what to do. His examination will cover all essential aspects of your child's health. It is better if this examination can be made, and booster immunizations given, a few weeks before school starts.

Some school systems require a medical exam for beginning students. Many schools also require certain immunizations against infectious diseases. Your doctor will know the regulations in your neighborhood.

Most doctors now feel that four or five examinations during the elementary and high school years are sufficient for most children. These usually are spaced at the start of the first school year, about the fourth grade, about the seventh grade, at the ninth or tenth grade and upon graduation from high school. And of course, if any untoward symptoms arise at any time, a visit to the doctor is in order.

A special examination also is important if your child is participating in school athletics.

In the excitement of the first few days of school, the small child may forget all of the safety warnings you've been teaching him. Each parent should be sure the child knows how to cross intersections en route to and from school. He should know about proper deportment on the school bus. He should know the rules of bicycle safety.

Give careful thought to your child's entire schedule during the school year. Does he have plenty of time to play? That is, play at things he selects, and not something that you or a teacher select for him. Does he have time to just sit and dream, if he wants to?

Or, are you lining up a fall and winter that includes daily rounds of music lessons, dancing classes, after-school athletics, social affairs, family affairs in which the child must participate whether he wishes or not?

Cooperation between the home and school and the guidance of the physician can prevent an overload.

If you're a teacher, try to remember that yours is not the child's only class, and try not to overload him with too much homework and outside assignments. Remember that other teachers also are giving assignments, and that there are limits to how much young minds and bodies can absorb.

Call First Meeting of Cage Leagues

The Plymouth Community Junior Basketball League will hold its first meeting of the new season on Monday at 8 p.m. at an eating place next to the Plymouth Art Theater on Penniman Ave.

The league needs additional coaching talent due to the increase in the number of players. Adults interested are urged to attend the meeting or contact John Van Wagoner at 453-8023.

Nearly 400 youngsters between the ages of 8 and 15 participated in the league activities last year and more are expected this season. Registration days for the new campaign will be Saturday, Oct. 29 and Saturday, Nov. 12. The season is slated to begin on Saturday, Dec. 3.

Pray for Peace

October 19 has been proclaimed by President Johnson to be a national day of prayer.

And this month is being observed by many persons as a month of prayer for peace, joining in the devotional appeal suggested by Pope Paul VI.

Can prayer be effective? Who knows? One way to find out is to try it. As many persons have discovered, the Lord works His will in devious ways.

The Bill Gail family has added a prayer for peace to its daily saying of grace.

Praying for peace prompted us to take some action, namely writing to our two senators and several of our congressmen to urge them also to do likewise. Prayer is a positive action. No one is being blamed for the war. No one is saying exactly how the peace should be achieved. We are all asserting that this is what we want.

Perhaps the concentration which takes place in praying that hostilities cease will suggest some new way that this can be accomplished.

Will praying do any harm? It doesn't seem likely and the greater likelihood is that it will at least be beneficial to the person who is praying.

Are you and your family praying for peace? Are you asking others to pray for peace? If not, there is no better time to start than right now.

—BILL GAIL

... Before It's Too Late

It was just a month ago at the September meeting of the Plymouth Community Board of Education that a group of parents asked the Trustees to look into the matter of having the speed limit lowered along Five Mile Road because of the proximity of the new Tanager Elementary School.

The school, which had opened only a few days earlier for half-day sessions since it was still under construction, is located a few hundred yards west of the intersection of Haggerty and Five Mile Roads.

Actually the site is in Northville Township which is neither here nor there since the school is in the Plymouth school district.

At that time the parents complained about (1) the high rate of speed allowed on a high traffic road (2) their children having to walk along the shoulder of the highway (3) and half-day sessions.

The children still have to walk on the shoulder because there aren't any sidewalks along Five Mile Road until a block east of the intersection with Schoolcraft Road.

The half-day sessions were eliminated a week ago with the completion of the building.

But the traffic situation remains much as it was on the day of the complaint with the exception that the Sheriff's Road Patrol has been checking cars rather carefully in the past 10 days and have nabbed several speeders.

However, we believe the parents were exactly right in their complaint. The Traffic and Safety division of the Wayne County Road Commission should take steps to reduce the speed limit from Haggerty Road to a point several blocks west of the school.

In the first place, cars approaching from the east on Five Mile move up a slight incline as they near Haggerty Road where a flasher light is located.

They halt for the light and then speed on and are upon the school almost immediately since it is only about 300 yards away on the north side of the road and downhill all the way.

The only indications drivers have of the school are signs east of Haggerty Road on Five Mile indicating a school is nearby. But there is a 45-mile limit on Five Mile east of Haggerty and a drop to 40 MPH as the cars buzz past the school.

It is our belief that drivers are on top of the school and practically through the school zone before they realize it. It appears to be unfair to have a 40 MPH limit since a driver could conceivably roar over the hill, through the intersection and going downhill as youngsters come racing out of the school.

It should be remembered that this is an elementary school and most of the students are 11 and younger. Youngsters of that age are impulsive and could run into the road without thinking.

The situation is much the same approaching from the west where drivers round a curve, have a bit of straightaway before going uphill where there would be a tendency to step on it a bit.

Just at the point where the car is gaining the most momentum is a school crossing. There hasn't been any accidents yet, probably because the Road Patrol is sitting on the situation and nailing many speeders.

But come the day when they relax and that could be the time of trouble. All of which leads one to conjecture, why can't the Road Commission lower the speed limit to 25 MPH through the school area and enforce it.

A First Welcome

The Observer representative in Westland met the city's first police chief and captain. My reaction is double-edged: the first is a sincere "Welcome" to Chief Garrison Clayton and Captain Ronald Holko with the second a "job well done" to Mayor Thomas Brown, who made the selections.

Westland incorporated as a city May 16 following the April 25 City Charter election and considerable time was spent in the formulation of the new department and the ultra-important matter of picking its first administrators.

Clayton Holko appeared Friday at a press conference in the new police headquarters and both appeared to be talented, capable, and understanding of the job that lies ahead of them.

For no matter what happens in the decades to come, there is only one time when the "first" officers are named and the Westland community can be thankful that its mayor made the best possible choices.

Why American

"Americans are the only people in the world who travel in order to learn about other people."

That was the comment made not too long ago in London by an English businessman. It might or might not be true.

However, after three weeks of travel in Ireland, England, Scotland and Wales I am very proud to be an American.

Don't misunderstand—I don't want to build an imposing wall around America's shores to keep out all kinds of "foreign" ideas and influence and given the chance I'd willingly pack my bags and head across the Atlantic for another sojourn. But I am prouder than ever to be an American.

Why? The reason is intangible. The fantastic prosperity of the American middle class is almost unbelievable by comparison.

The American disinterest in what happened 200 or even 50 years ago as compared to what is happening today.

The willingness of most Americans to work in order to be able to play. A very broad generalization about England would be the fact that the majority of the people don't want to work—they just want to play.

Maybe it's the Horatio Alger American dream of the chance to be a success whether you went to the exclusive school or a "red brick" institution.

Granted it may be a myth in America, but it comes closer to being the reality in this country than it does in the British Isles.

However, one thing that became tiresome rather quickly was the immediate conclusion everyone jumped to that we were "rich Americans." It is difficult to explain the difference between the rich and the average American because the concept is completely foreign.

One young English woman (25) asked me one evening what the trip had done for me. When I told her that it had made me very proud that I was an American the answer was "And well it should."

Is there anything more that can be added?

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

It's A Question of Philosophy

Editor: A short time ago Observer reporter Bill Gail loudly proclaimed that certain people's rights were being abrogated. He was referring to the Livonia School employees union contract with the School Board which called for union support by all the employees in the bargaining unit.

What law, Mr. Gail, gives anyone the right to ride free? It's no difference whether it's on a bus, or a plane, or the county, or on the union.

Everyone who rides pays for his ride. No one should ride a bus, his brother's coat-tails unless he is unable to pay. What you propose is that certain people who so desire may refuse to pay their rightful share. In other words, be free riders or free-loaders.

Top working conditions are always the result of the unions efforts directly or indirectly. Everyone who receives the benefits, should help pay the tab. It's just as important to pay for your fair share of union per capita tax as it is to pay your fair share of federal income tax. One makes your country fit to live in and the other makes your job fit to live on.

ROBERT H. KARR, Livonia

Ed. Note: Like we say, it's a difference in philosophy. If you don't contribute to United Foundation (and it is not mandatory) should you benefit from a cure for cancer that is presently being researched by U.F. money?

Yes, Mr. Zessin It Did Happen

Editor: I found the picture and article hard to believe on the accident of Mr. and Mrs. David Reed of Redford Township where the meat truck turned over on their car. But even more unbelievable was how the accident occurred at Beech and Inkster Roads when these two thoroughfares run parallel about a mile apart.

WALT ZESSIN, Redford Township

Editors Note: The accident did happen as reported, but I don't blame you for doubting it. Even Mrs. Reed who was in the car and saw it happen couldn't believe it. Mr. Zessin is right, however, Beech and Inkster would be impossible — it was Inkster and Five Mile Road between Redford Township and Livonia. The Redford Township police handled the "mess."

Ends Training Army PFC Dennis S. Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon M. Green, 9805 Roseland, Livonia, has completed eight weeks of unit training with the newly activated 589th Engineer Construction Battalion at Ft. Hood, Tex.

Comparison Wrong Editor: Comparing city and school salaries article in The Observer of Sept. 21, I would like to ask a few questions.

I'll grant you that the Livonia Schools salary schedule is a fine one, but can you compare political jobs with educational jobs? I doubt it. The Mayor's job is part-time. Just how much does he make at his other job and the same for all other part-time jobs.

The high school principal and the school superintendent jobs are full time and the holder's bread and butter. The same is true for all the other school jobs.

Another question — just how much formal education is required for all the city jobs with the exception of the attorney? All the school people must have at least a Master's Degree and possibly most of them are working on hours for the next degree.

Do you know how much money and time it takes to get a Master's degree? I'm sure you do. And the doctorate—that takes a great deal of money and time.

I would like to see school salaries compared with what these people could earn in industry. I just can't see educational jobs in a high school compared with political posts.

M. E. PIERCE, Plymouth

When you have exhausted all other measures on a problem write to us (keep it short, please) and we'll see if we can help. Yes, John Q, you can fight city hall — with your own Ombudsman!)

Dear Ombudsman: One question, the writer would like to know why the Livonia Police ride around in Chrysler products. Why not a Ford or General Motors product?

Ford and General Motors must pay a large sum of money every year for property, school and personal property taxes.

To my knowledge Chrysler Corporation pays not one dime in to support our schools and city government.

George W. Hall Livonia

Dear Mr. Hall: You are no doubt referring to the latest purchase of 10 marked police cars for the City of Livonia. They were purchased under sealed bid.

Jr. Football League Candy Sale A Success Editor: This year the people of Livonia responded in greater numbers than ever to the Junior Football League candy sale. I feel certain it was due to the better understanding they had of our purpose, owing to the running the large story on the league, and publishing the kick-off picture on page one.

May I thank you on behalf of the directors as well as the boys who will benefit, Sunday after-Sunday all through the fall.

FRANK E. BAIR (for the Junior Football League of Livonia)

Ford bid at $2,099.92 each and Plymouth-Chrysler, $1,945 each. G.M. did not submit a bid at all. If you have any influence the City would like them to participate on their next bid. There is a Chrysler dealership in Livonia who, of course, pays taxes.

Come in for a free trial application of our new Natural Avocado Creme, direct from Hollywood, that will inspire you to do away with using too many cosmetics.

Many cosmetics MAY contain mineral oil which breaks down the natural chemistry of the cell tissue by robbing it of its nutrients. Our Avocado Creme is made from the natural Poly-unsaturated oils of the Avocado that do not FIGHT the skin but BLEND right into it. It does not leave a greasy film on its surface to pick up dirt. It will spread out invisibly over your entire face to attract and hold moisture like thousands of tiny natural magnets.

We cannot nourish our skin entirely from the outside alone. The body must be nourished properly from within to maintain a balanced body chemistry.

If we can nourish our skin from the outside with this natural principle by utilizing the proper foods to keep our tissues and Creme, think what we can do to our inner body on the same cells healthy on the inside.

OBSERVING the Scene ...

By MYRA CHANDLER

Two facts have increased the importance of the responsibility of the weekly newspaper.

Keeping pace in full depth coverage with all of the data involved in U. S. space efforts has given problems to the daily press, of less ink and space for the heart of America, the grass roots—the local communities. This must be the challenge of the local community newspaper.

And the "grass roots" are becoming more and more isolated and independent from the big city problems (with plenty of their own). At the same time the local communities are becoming increasingly more influential in state and national government.

The change may have been gradual—but it has come to pass and is upon us.

Now, two things generally happen when a newspaperman discusses his own business. He either becomes so self-righteous he reminds you of an absolute two-fisted drinker who has absolutely reformed—or he is defensive right out the window. Defending his right to be critical, to make money, or to be sentimental on Christmas.

Because of the above pitfalls most self-respecting editors are hesitant to talk about their business—which is really not a business at all, but a disease that gets under your skin and becomes a way of life.

Last Monday, however, was the beginning of National Newspaper Week which will last until next Sunday. It seemed a good time to clear up some intriguing but untrue rumors about the purchase of two well-known newspapers, the Plymouth Mail and The Farmington Enterprise by Philip H. Power, publisher of The Observer Group.

As a publisher Philip Power is no exception to the traditional feeling of a newspaperman. We hate to see a newspaper die.

Rarely does any disease infect so badly as to kill a newspaper except for one infection and the cure is difficult to pinpoint. It is economics. When a newspaper must die—as some good ones have lately—because they did not have enough revenue in their veins to handle the output of money to keep them alive, it is a sad day for newspapermen all over—The Observer staff is no exception.

It was this situation, several months ago, that prompted Phil Powers to purchase two weekly newspapers, steeped in more tradition than any newspapers in the State of Michigan.

Both have been publishing for 78 years. At the time of their sale neither had a newspaperman at their helm.

They were not purchased to kill them. Time will prove they will be strengthened as they function in conjunction with The Observer Group's six weekly publications.

The first step in retaining their identity and giving them new strength will be to change their publication date.

Starting Oct. 23, The Farmington Enterprise and the Plymouth Mail will be delivered on Saturday with a Sunday dateline.

They will bring the community stimulating week-end reading. They will have their own staff and their own voice and will reflect the same basic policies of the publisher of The Observer Group; the same as the former owner and publisher, Paul M. Chandler.

Be a force in the community by printing fairly and with accuracy what happens, where it happens and how it happened.

Why it happens will be interpreted frequently in signed editorials. This gives the readers an opportunity to associate the opinion with the writer and agree or not, as he chooses.

News stories will remain factual and fair treatment given to all sides of an issue.

The week-end edition can only be a good thing for communities such as ours that are growing, and prospering. We promise to constantly be on the alert to reflect the talent and the dedication of our citizens and maintain our vigilance as the conscience of the communities we serve.

Football Drama Is Under The Stands

by W. W. EDGAR

THOUSANDS of Old Grads and curbstome alumni are gathering in the football stadium these crisp autumn afternoons to watch their favorite teams in action and thrill to the drama of the gridiron.

It's too bad they can't get under the stands between the halves and listen to the coaches as they cajole or console their players and often play dramatic roles that would please the most exacting Shakespearean scholar.

I'll never forget an afternoon a few decades ago down at South Bend, Indiana, when I was walking with an old friend, Joe Magdisohn, a Big Ten official, on his way to tell both the Notre Dame and Minnesota teams that there was only two minutes left of the intermission.

Minnesota had given the "Fighting Irish" a bad beating physically during the first half and held a 14 point lead. As we neared the Notre Dame dressing room, expecting to hear Rockne at his oratorical best, we found him standing outside.

"Two minutes, Rock," Magdisohn called.
"Don't tell me," Rockne replied, "go in and tell them. I just quit."

We were stunned.
But when we opened the Notre Dame dressing room door we saw the drama of all dramas. For, standing in the center of the room was Father Cavanaugh, a favorite old priest, talking to the players.

"When the second half started Rockne didn't come in with the team. Instead, he sat in the stands. But not for long.

If ever one team tore into another it was Notre Dame against the Gophers in the second half. Rockne's dramatic game had paid off. And he was back on the bench long before the third quarter was ended.

Then, there was that cold afternoon in 1928 when the University of Detroit team, undefeated to this final game of the season, was playing Georgetown, one of the strongest teams in the East in the now abandoned stadium on Six-Mile Road.

The Titans had run the opening kick-off back for a touchdown, but were beaten morally and physically during the remainder of the first half and went to the dressing room recess a badly shaken team, trailing, 13 to 7.

They had been outplayed and knew it. What's more it appeared as though their dream of an undefeated season was broken as they sat there awaiting an expected "bawling out" from their coach, Gus Dorais, who had been a team mate of Rockne's at Notre Dame.

They clenched their fists when Dorais walked into the room to sort of build up a defense for the verbal impact. But Dorais just stood near the door talking with some friends. He ignored the players.

Every minute they expected him to turn on them. Finally, the officials arrived to give the two-minute warning. The players sort of smiled as though to say "he can't bowl us out much in two minutes."

Then, Dorais, in his fatherly way, walked away from his friends to the center of the room.

"Boys" he began, "the fondest memories of my college life at Notre Dame are those of the fun I had playing football. But you fellows won't relish the memory of this day. You're not having fun, You're making work of it."

"Let's see a few smiles in the second half. Remember, Six-Mile Road will still cross Livernois on Sunday morning, no matter whether you win or lose."

"Now, let's go. Get out there this half and have some fun. Football is a game you play. It isn't something at which you work. Enjoy the next two periods and maybe you'll have some fond memories of today."

It is history now that the University of Detroit team came rushing back to sweep Georgetown off its feet, win 33 to 13, and record the only undefeated season in Detroit's history. You bet they have some fond memories.

What drama! And what characters they were "Rock" and "Gus."

Investing Inquiries

Long Range Retirement Thinking

By Laurence A. Wysong—Stockbroker

(Send your inquiries on Investments to The Observer, "Investing Inquiries," 3300 Five Mile Road, Livonia. The answers are the opinion of Laurence Wysong who is highly qualified on the subject and is a member of Paine, Webber, Jackson and Curtis.)

Q—My stockbroker convinced me a number of years ago to invest a lump sum into a growth oriented mutual fund. I also made additional investments into the fund whenever I had some spare money. The fund has grown beyond my fondest expectations to the point where I am considering an early retirement. Since I only receive around $2,000 dividends from this fund, I am interested in how to gain more of an annual income from it.

A—So far so good. You now have two avenues open to you:

1. The fund you own has an exchange privilege permitting you to turn your growth fund in to a more conservative fund whose emphasis is income. This exchange is accomplished by a letter and a $5 service fee.
2. Your second alternative is a plan which has been growing in popularity in recent years. The plan is based on your withdrawing a specific amount of money from the fund each month. The normal withdrawal guideline is 1/2% a month of the principal amount of the fund at the time the withdrawal plan is started.

Considering the present value of your holdings you could expect a check of around $800 to be mailed to you each month.

Which one of the above answers is best for you will have to be determined by you and your stockbroker.

23 In One '59?

On the subject of football, Clarenceville's homecoming is coming up a week from Friday on Oct. 21. West Bloomfield will be Clarenceville's opponent.

A queen will be chosen from the senior finalists—Bonny DiBiase and Sherry Lenex. There will also be floats from all classes. These are now the center of activity.

The Clarenceville Juniors and Seniors have turned salesmen lately. The classes are out to earn money, the Juniors to sponsor the Prom and the Seniors to buy a Senior water cooler to replace the old Senior fountain. Their product is magazines at the lowest prices.

A number of Clarenceville students missed a day of school last week, but they had the consent of the office because they were going to Stratford, Ontario to see Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night."

And a last note. When Clarenceville is all aroar because of its new heights in sports, a number of Juniors performed a feat unequalled in the annals of Clarenceville history by proving that 23 people can fit in a '59 parked Rambler at the same time.

Local Surgeon Assists Vietnam Hospital

Dr. Richard L. Novack of Livonia, has returned to his surgery practice after serving a year in Vietnam with the Agency for International Development.

As medical officer in charge of Nha Trang Hospital, the only major surgical facility in Khanh Hoa Province, Dr. Richard and an American surgical team (from 11 to 16 men) he headed at the hospital observed that Vietnamese accept illness and injuries as the usual way of life. They believe their destinies are prearranged and they are reluctant to bring a patient to the hospital unless it is an emergency.

AID assistance in providing medical advisory and operating services and supplies to Vietnam is one phase of fighting the peaceful war—the war on disease, illiteracy, poverty and despair.

Dr. Novack says that patients are brought in from all of Khanh Hoa Province and many are brought from the surrounding areas where there are no facilities for surgery.

Students Mix Fun, Culture

By LYNN LEWIS

What has four wheels, forty heads, and pursues Shakespeare? Answer: a Stratford bound Greyhound bus containing 40 buffs of the Bard. That's just what left Franklin High School Monday, Sept. 26. Headed for a production of Twelfth Night at the Stratford Shakespearean Festival, 38 students and teacher sponsors David Hirvela and Hal Waller embarked early for the three and one half hour ride. Before their departure Mr. Hirvela thumbed through the theatre tickets and announced, "main floor, two on the aisle, three upstairs in the center" etc. Students frantically counted on fingers trying to figure out where and with whom they were going to sit. When everyone was satisfied they boarded the bus and gladly left the driving to Greyhound. Although the trip was long, spirits were kept lively, in part, through the exuberant vocalizing of teachers Hirvela and Waller who repeated their well-known repertoire of college ballads and show songs.

Arriving in Stratford at 12:00, there was time for lunch and a stroll through town before the 2:00 curtain. After the show the Franklinites had the opportunity to dine in many of Stratford's unique restaurants. Armed with souvenirs, programs, the students headed back to the bus for the trip home. The time went fast for those who tried to catch up on some last minute cramming for an Earth Science test the next day, but for the home-work-free hours seemed to drag until the familiar buildings of Detroit loomed into view. Home at last with thoughts only for bed and, of course, next year's trip.

"They come by litter, bus, boat and helicopter," says the surgeon. "In addition to the many civilians that are wounded by shrapnel, there are innumerable patients with open abscesses, many in advanced state from years of neglect. There are many casualties from domestic burns, especially those caused by kerosene (a common fuel oil in the area) igniting. Accidents too from cars, trucks and bicycles cause a steady stream of patients."

Many patients are brought to the hospital by their families who often remain with the patient, performing housekeeping duties and personal care other than medical.

Dr. Novack said he believes that the most grateful surgery patients are those who are operated on for the correction of harelips. The surgery, which is usually performed on babies in the United States, is a common operation for teens and even adults at Nha Trang, explained the doctor.

"These patients, especially the teen agers, are thankful for a new lease on life made possible with their improved appearance and speech.

"Each patient cured of a disease or whose life saved by an operation breaks down the Vietnamese skepticism against medical treatment and preventive health measures," says the Michigan surgeon. "Each of these patients influences members of his family, which includes the close knit group of cousins, aunts, uncles and grandparents."

"Dr. Novack spoke of a dramatic case that required a delicate operation. The mother of a day-old baby was hit by a stray bullet which punctured her heart. She was brought to the hospital 11 hours later and Dr. Novack sutured her heart. According to the doctor, she walked out of the hospital after her convalescence a very happy mother."

Dr. Novack is a member of the staff of St. Mary's Hospital in Livonia and of the new Providence Hospital at Southfield.

He and his wife Leonora have a son, Michael, 12.

19 PHS Seniors Have 3.5 Grades

A total of 19 members of the Plymouth High senior class have obtained scholastic averages of 3.5 or better entering their final year in high school.

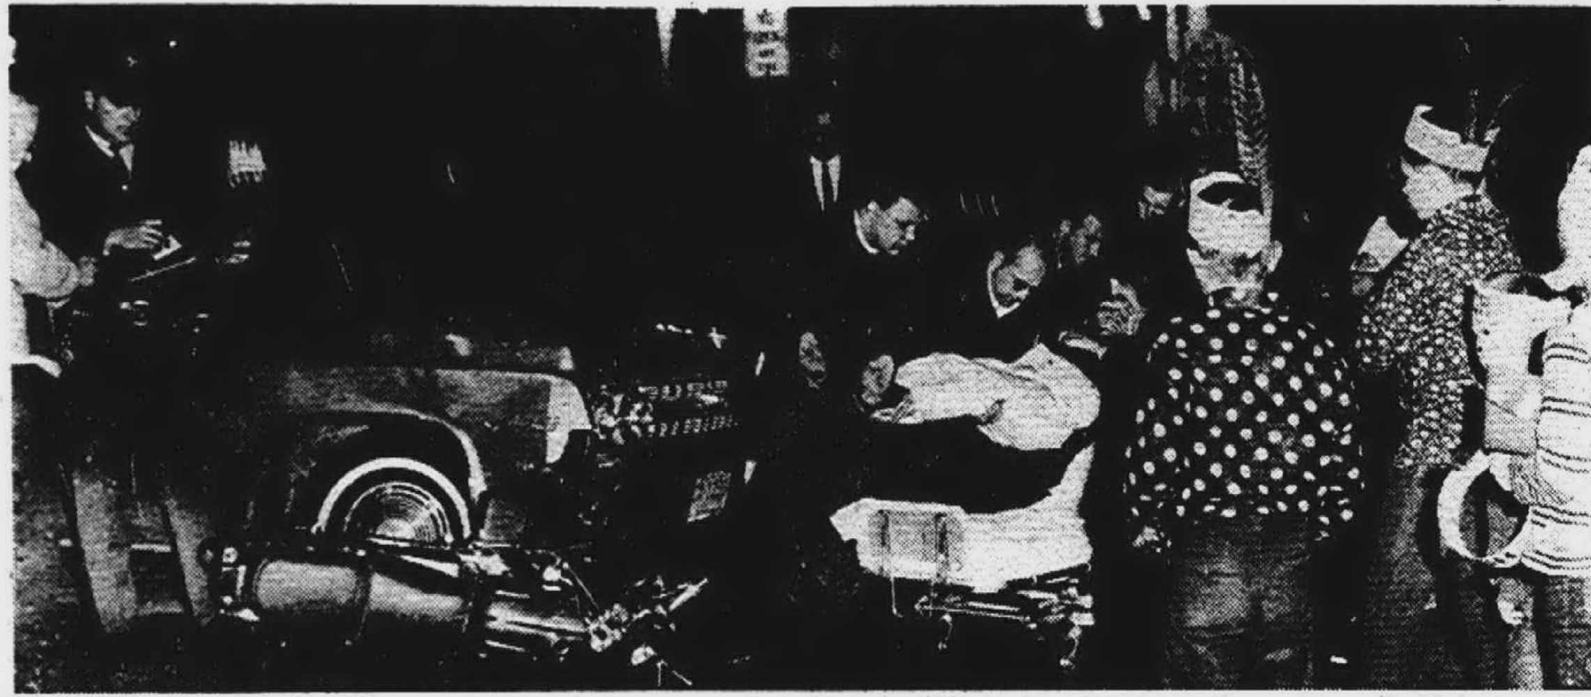

Announcement of the high ranking seniors was made by Assistant Principal John M. Hoben who listed the 19 in alphabetical order and stressed that the list has nothing to do with the scholastic ranking.

The group includes: Mary Bloom, Don Burleson, Judith Conn, John DeMott, Lisa Hanson, Gary Hicks, Steven Hulce and George Johnson.

Finishes Training

Private Louis M. Becker, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Becker, 33330 Marquette, Garden City, has completed eight weeks of advanced artillery training at the Army Artillery and Missile School, Ft. Sill, Okla. He was trained as a cannoner in field artillery.

DRAMATIC PICTURE snapped by Doug Johnson, for The Observer, shows 19-year-old David Grimes, 948 Palmer, Plymouth, being lifted into an ambulance after his motorcycle collided with a car operated by Silas Martin, 744 S. Harvey. Martin made a left turn into the Leo Calhoun Agency while going north on Main and Grimes allegedly rammed the car. He was rushed to St. Mary Hospital in Livonia where doctors found nothing more than a minor laceration along with bruises and abrasions. David was back at the Plymouth Police Station to complete the report within an hour after the mishap.

Building Agency OK'd by Westland

Westland's City Council approves the creations of a building authority Wednesday to oversee future construction needs of municipal buildings.

The articles of incorporation of the authority were approved unanimously with Council member Justine Barnes saying that she is voting in favor of it "with reservations."

During the brief discussion of the matter at the council table, Mrs. Barnes wanted the articles of incorporation to include a provision that would prohibit city officials, employees, and their relatives from serving on the authority, to be made up of three members.

Councilman John Markes commented that the built-in protection suggested by Mrs. Barnes is already included in the City Charter which gives the City Council the power of confirmation of the appointments of Mayor Brown.

The mayor also commented in the future, there may be an advantage of having the city engineer being in charge of all of the city-owned buildings.

Mrs. Barnes' amendment to revise the authority's articles of incorporation failed 6-1.

The building authority is to be effective within ten days. The formal City Council approval (which falls on next Saturday) will have the three members serving initial terms of six, four, and two years. Upon reappointment, all terms will run six years.

The authority will have the power "to acquire, equip, own, improve, enlarge, operate and/or maintain" municipal buildings and properties.

In other cities in the Detroit area, building authorities have been growing in number with the authority officially financing and constructing city buildings, usually a city hall, and leasing or renting the building to the local City Council. The rentals from the city would be used to pay off the revenue bonds issued to finance the construction of the building.

The authority picks its own chairman, secretary, and treasurer. Vacancies on the agency are filled by the mayor with City Council confirmation.

Let's Talk Fashion

with June Simpson

There is certainly nothing very startling or new about the idea, but sometimes it's a timely reminder that Fashion is not all new-from-the-skin out. As a matter of fact, not even the ladies with unlimited means follow the dictates of the season by discarding the old. Frequently, really pleasing fashion, is the sum of many important LITTLE things.

And, that is the timely reminder. It's pure-sight-of-hand what you can achieve by taking the time to survey your present wardrobe and deciding what accessories can be added to put you in that lovely all-new orbit.

From the tip of her toes to the top of her head, the lady who is wise in the ways of fashion can add the "little" things that add up to the definite "this season" look. Take the subject of shoes. They're buckled and bowed, definitely "squared" and have those heavenly heels that are new in shape with real go-go comfort. Come to think of it, what would a new silver buckle do for those perfectly good but rather tired looking last-season shoes — the ones just sitting there? Look them over—just bet you lose your heart to buckles!

One little accessory that can send you into the most delightful feminine mood is a direct steal from the Dandy. And, so very much nicer on you! The beruffled and lace-trimmed look is back. Last year's suit will look just as appealing as your brand new pant-suit with the romantic cascades of ruffles at the throat and wrist. You'll wear the same sensational blouse teamed with your new skinny pants too — and love every minute of it. An aside comment — these lavish little things require paricularly no care at all. Just dunk 'em, dry 'em, and they'll look divine!

If you are one of those who last year succumbed to the lovely leather fashions that have no resemblance to their frontier kissin' cousins — your love will remain true in this season of fashionable leather fashion. You'll be like one of the "in" crowd if you

Father Gives Kidney To Son

The Charles Hicks family in Livonia feel a sense of deep gratitude to the residents of Livonia and Farmington, not only for their financial assistance but also for their prayers and kind thoughts.

Because of this they have weathered the storm of saving their home and keeping their family together.

Charles Hicks has just come through a successful kidney transplant and they hope they will still be remembered in the prayers of the residents of the area.

Their plight was reported in The Observer in April, 1966. Several civic minded citizens learned the young Hicks family were in serious trouble. The father had a rare kidney disease that prevented him from working and the mother was pregnant with her third child, a daughter, born Aug. 29. The father Charles Hicks was kept alive with a mechanical kidney, which was costly.

Civic-minded citizens set up a fund at The Bank of Livonia and people responded. The Hicks were able to catch up with their back bills and were given a washing machine and new refrigerator.

Two weeks ago the successful kidney transplant was performed with Charles' father, V. Hicks of Farmington, supplying the healthy kidney.

Rummage Sale Planned

The ladies of the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the First Methodist Church of Farmington will hold a rummage sale Oct. 22 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the church. "THIS WON'T HURT a Bit"—was the soothing assurance given more than 3,000 youngsters who received five-in-one immunizations at Wonderland Center last week-end. The inoculations were provided by the Wayne County Department of Health.

There'll Be More Voters Eligible Than Ever Before

If you didn't register to vote by last Monday night at 8 p.m. you will not be able to vote Nov. 8.

But the picture looks good because clerks in Observerland report voter registration is way up.

In the City of Farmington Clerk Trena Quinn reports they registered 189 new voters and 117 of them on the last day. A land office business for Clerk Trena and her helpers.

In Farmington Township Clerk Floyd Cairns reported 385 on the final day and the registration of a total of 1401 since July.

In the City of Plymouth Clerk Eugene Slider says they registered 199 new voters since July with a total of 5,058. Ninety-nine new voters filed in the final day.

Plymouth Township reports a similar experience. Clerk Helen Richardson said their voters were at an all time high, 4,623 with an increase of 347 new voters. "There were 117 that waited until the last day, but we are glad to have them," said the clerk.

Westland reported 25,700 registered voters with approximately 2500 newly registered.

In Garden City they have a total of 14,200 with 500 having registered just in the past week. Mrs. Marion McWilliams is the Westland Clerk and Ethel Flenniken the Garden City Elections Clerk.

Livonia registered the most voters since July.

with a total of 3,000. Clerk Addison Bacon was pleased to announce working with the League of Women Voters as deputies in the schools was partially responsible for their success. Deputy Clerk Virginia Handzlik reported (in a tired voice) they had registered 1400 on the final day. That's a lot of writing no matter what size crew is employed. They did not add extra people for the day, but all were pressed into service for registering. The line extended to the front door of City Hall.

Clerk Dawn Rice of Redford Township reported they signed up 245 voters on the final day with a total increase of 1,100 new voters bringing their total to 33,587.

Now, the next date to remember is Nov. 8, the General Election.

JFK Kids Attend Tiger Ball Game

Forty students of John F. Kennedy School Safety Patrol and Service Squad were guests of the PTA and motored to Tiger Stadium on Oct. 1 to enjoy the final Tiger game of the season.

Margo Blanke and Sheldon Chatlin, teachers at the Kennedy school, along with several parents accompanied the group. The event was sponsored by the PTA in recognition of the students' effort in promoting safety around the school and community.

5 Major Stakes To Highlight Racing Action in Final Month

Five major stake events and a bid by a jockey to surpass a long-standing record highlight the activities of the Detroit Race Course as its meeting moves into the final month.

The five Handicaps on the schedule are the $20,000 Turf Writers Cup, to be contested Saturday; the $25,000 DRC Handicap on October 22; the $12,500 President's Cup for Michigan bred horses; the $25,000 added Detroit Sweepstakes and the $25,000 Auld Lang Syne.

"This is the strongest stake program for a short span ever offered by a Michigan track," DRC Director of Racing Peter Kosiba said. "I have been in Chicago and Kentucky during the past week discussing it with owners and trainers. The response has been excellent and I am confident we are going to have outstanding fields for these late-season events."

One highlight of the stake program will be the appearance of Mrs. Mildred Kerr's Stanislas in the DRC Handicap. It will mark the first start for Stanislas since he upset Tom Rolfe, Amberoid, Selari and other top-flight stars in the $100,000 added Michigan Mile.

"I considered shipping him East or to Chicago for stake

Jr. Football Lions Face Garden City

Plymouth's junior football Lions will travel to Garden City Sunday for games with the freshman, junior varsity and varsity teams.

The Lions have completed the first half of the season and continue to show improvement in each outing in their first year of competition.

The Freshmen nipped the Livonia Cardinals, 13-0, last Sunday. The Jayvees battled Nankin to 13-13 tie and the varsity took a 27-14 lacing from the Livonia Cardinals.

DUFFYISM OF THE WEEK

Said Michigan State Coach Daugherty as he knocked over a cup of coffee on a table full of diagrams during a staff meeting: "We've got to learn to play on a wet field anyway."

engagements," Mrs. Kerr said. "But then decided Stanislas deserved a short rest and that the closing stakes at DRC seemed to fit his program perfectly."

In addition the DRC Handicap, Stanislas likely will go in the Auld Lang Syne. Mrs. Kerr then plans to send him to Florida for rich engagements at Tropical Park, Hialeah and Gulfstream.

The record bid by a jockey is being made by 27-year old Robert Gallimore, who is riding for Detroit's T. A. Grissom.

Gallimore is shooting for the record of 100 victories which Johnny Sellers established at the DRC in 1957.

Going into the final month Gallimore needed to average only a victory a day to surpass the Seller's mark. His early pace topped that by a safe margin.

Gallimore has held a "hot hand" through most of the DRC meeting.

The good-looking, blond rider from Tennessee won five races on August 23. Twice he has won four races and four times he's scored with three mounts in a day.

Gallimore has been both brilliant and consistent. He has an amazing 24.7 per cent of winning mounts and 56.7 per cent of his mounts have been in the money.

In Seller's record breaking season he had a 23.4 per cent of winning mounts and 53.3 per cent of his mounts finished in the money.

Out Talk, the excellent fill of Miss Alice Bell, which finished second to Old Hat in the $25,000 added Sweet Patootie, came right back to win the $15,000 added Spur On Handicap at the DRC.

With Danny Gargan, who had won the Michigan Mile with Stanislas, in the saddle, Out Talk permitted the Elias Brothers' speedster, Galathon, to set the early pace. Then Gargan moved with Out Talk and the daughter of Ambiorix-Hipparete engaged Lady Farmer in a great stretch duel to win by a length. Lady Farmer finished second and Galathon was third. The secondary feature, the $10,000 Spartan Handicap, at a mile and one-sixteenth, was won by Bonny Johnny, with Grand Stand second and Jet Charger third. It was the second stakes success of the meeting for Bonny Johnny. He previously captured the Good Neighbor Handicap.

3 Shifts In Pistons' Schedule

Three changes in the Detroit Pistons' road schedule have been announced by General Manager Edwin E. Coil.

An Oct. 16 game with San Francisco at Toronto has been reset for Oct. 23 at Seattle and will serve as a "homecoming" for Pistons' Eddie Miles and John Tresvant. Both played their college basketball at Seattle University.

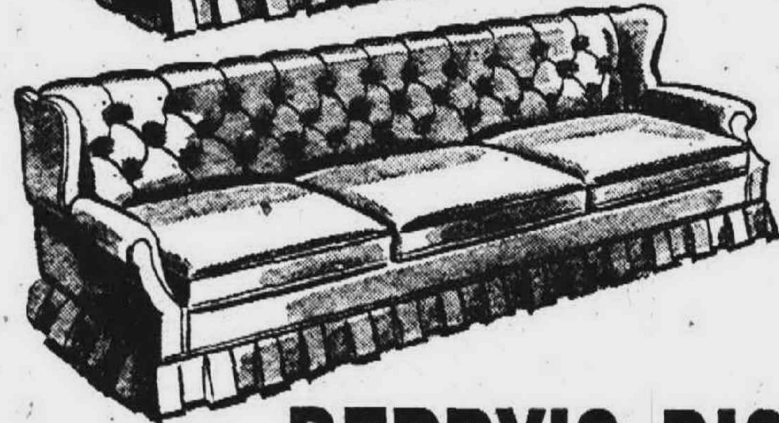

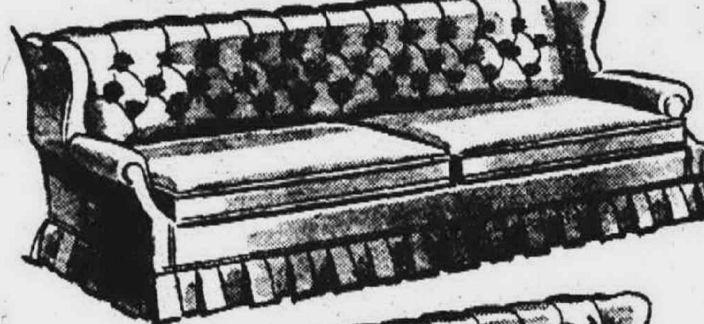

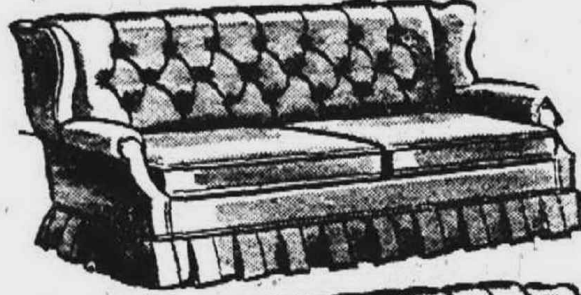

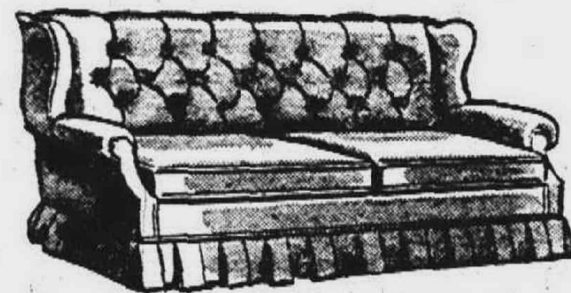

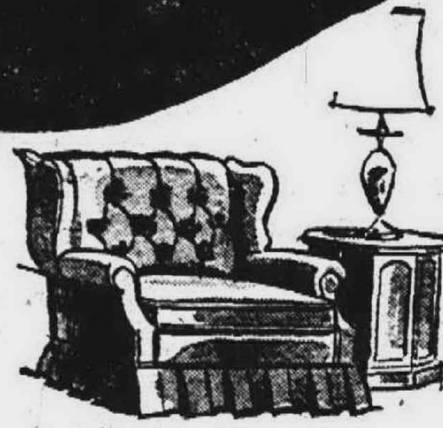

The Oct. 30 game with the Los Angeles Lakers, originally carded for Toronto, will be played on the same evening at the Forum in Montreal, Que. The third change moves the Detroit-Boston game, booked for Providence, R.I., from Jan. 12 to March 6.

Dave Bing, the Detroit Pistons' top draft choice, evidently plans to remain in Detroit for many years. His first move after signing his Pistons' contract was to purchase a home for his wife and two children.

Ray Scott, dean of the Pistons' players, has been named as the team's 1966-67 captain by Coach Dave DeBusschere. Scott is starting his sixth season with the Pistons. He has moved up to the No. 5 slot on the team's all-time list of scorers.

Donnis Butcher will serve the Detroit Pistons in a double capacity during the 1966-67 season. He will jump from assistant coach under Dave DeBusschere to scouting the college players.

THS Rolling In High Gear

So far . . . so good for Thurston high school's football team.

The South Redford team is sitting atop the Northwest Suburban Six League standings with a 2-0 record as it prepares to square off in a showdown with strong Birmingham Groves this Friday night.

Unleashing a powerful trouble. Thurston had little trouble with John Glenn 26-6, last Saturday as Paul Santangelo and Reggie Barringer led the way on offense and a strong defense arose to stop Glenn, especially after the first half.

Thurston exploded for 315 yards in the game to 115 for Glenn. The losers were stopped almost completely after the intermission, making only 18 yards on the ground.

The only Glenn touchdown resulted from a Thurston 18. Then an interference penalty helped move the ball to the four from where Chuck Morris ran it over.

Before and after that . . . it was strictly an all-Thurston game.

Santangelo began the Thurston bombardment with a 75-yard run in the first period. With Dan Harris converting, Thurston had a 7-0 lead.

Then it was Barringer's turn to break away on a 23-yard scoring run.

Santangelo followed with a seven-yard scoring scamper, to make it 19-6 for Thurston by the intermission break.

There was no scoring by either side in the third period.

With the substitutes on the field in the final stanza, Thurston picked up another touchdown when Larry Paris slipped over on an 11-yard run.

Barringer finished the game with 100 yards gained in 18 carries. He also boasted one pass interception and a couple of neat punt returns.

"There's a boy with a fine college future," said coach Bill McDonald of Thurston, who now is pleased the way his charges have rounded into a solid contender with an overall record of three wins and one defeat.

But Graves still is considered by many as the top team in the league . . . all of which means Thurston can't take it easy this Friday.

Lakers' Battle 'Big One' for Farmington

Mark down the afternoon of Friday, Oct. 21 . . . and the precise time of 3:30 p.m.

At that moment, the high school football teams of Farmington and Walled Lake square off at Farmington in what will have to be "the game of the year" in the Interlakes Conference.

On what happens that afternoon will hinge the league crown; also whether Farmington, for one, can roar through an all-winning season in its first campaign under coach Bob Mistele.

The Farmington Express made it four straight at Waterford, 24-6, last Friday and it's not expected that Stevenson, without any 12th graders, can slow down Farmington this Friday evening.

Passing and running, Farmington with its wide variety of formations seems to become more devastating with every game.

Against Waterford, Farmington scored once in each period. The Falcons rolled up 175 yards on the ground and added 167 more through the air with 10 out of 21 completions—and no interceptions.

Farmington wasted no time in scoring, taking the opening kickoff and booming 80 yards in a hurry. Passes from Dan Wolfman to Chris Norton and Fritz Simons gained 10 and 13 yards, respectively, along the way.

Then it was a 31-yard bomb from Ed Snider to Jerry Tinkle for the touchdown.

In the second quarter Wolfman ran over for 16 yards out and the score was 12-7 at halftime when Waterford scored on a pass on the last play before the intermission.

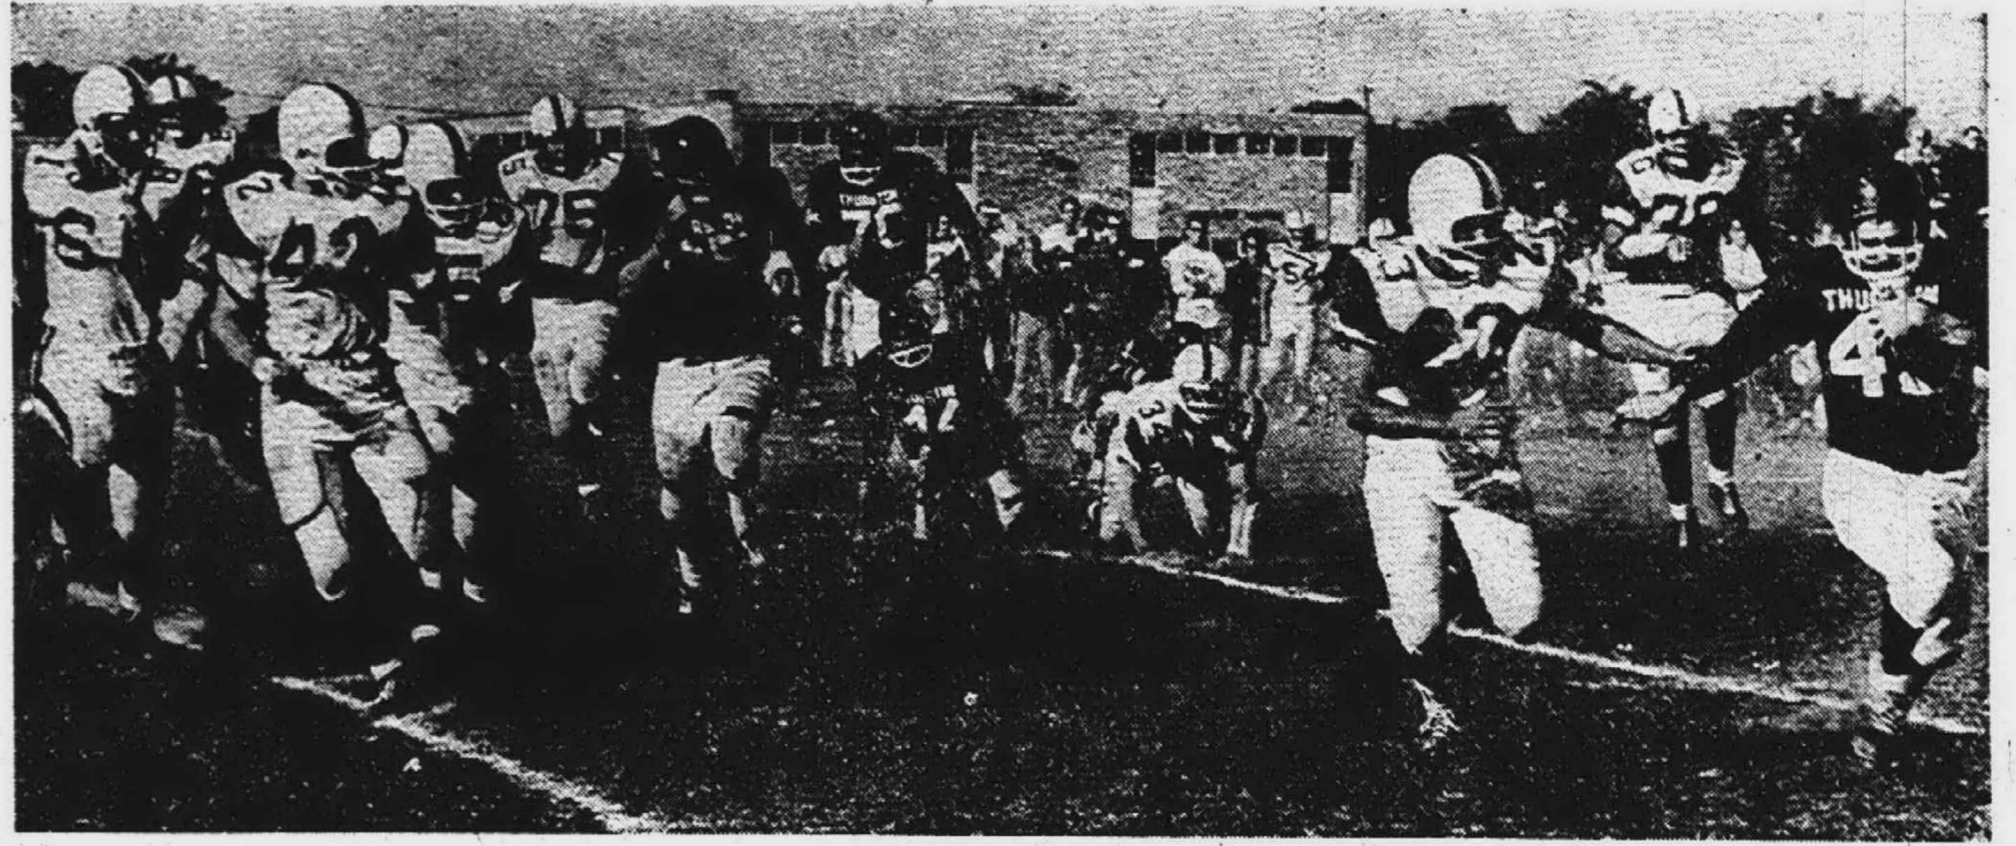

It was all Farmington in the second half. Wolfman bounced along for a touchdown after passes of 25 yards to Tinkle and 15 yards to Norton had chewed up a great amount of ground.

Farmington contended to stay on the ground for its last TD. Doug Root carried the final three plays, going 8, 16 and 10 yards.

Coach Mistele was particularly impressed with the Farmington defense in the second half.

passing and 17 yards in rushing in the last 24 minutes. That's something," said the coach.

Farmington's romp spoiled what was to have been a big night at Waterford where the school was dedicating its new football field.

THE CHASE IS ON: At least eight members of John Glenn team try to catch up with Larry Paris of Thurston who circles end for a big gain. Thurston rolled to victory and leads the Northwest Suburban Football League.

East to Clash For Loop Lead

Face Riverview In a Showdown

Something must give atop the Huron-Rouge League standings Friday night.

Garden City East and Riverview deadlocked for the top with 2-0 records—and with identical overall 3-1 marks—collide at Riverview for the undisputed leadership.

"We'll have our work cut out down there," explained coach Gary Humphrey who in his first year as East's coach has brought Garden City back into the prep football spotlight.

East struck with a first-half thud last Friday to roll along at the expense of Lutheran West, 20-6.

All three of the East touchdowns came before the intermission.

"I don't know what went wrong with our attack after the halftime break," said Humphrey, "but in the first two quarters we really hit in high gear."

Most of the East yardage was gained on the ground as the winners piled up 222 yards rushing to 104 for Lutheran West.

It was a different story in the passing department. East made only 38 yards through the air in contrast to 122 for Lutheran West.

Bill Crowell and Marvin Martin again carried the running load for East. Crowell raced for 83 yards and one touchdown . . . Martin for 50 yards and a pair of six-pointers.

A short kick led to East's first tally. East had taken over on the Lutheran 34. Three plays later, Crowell broke loose for his TD from the 24.

Martin's touchdowns came on short plunges—from a yard and three yards out.

Defensively, East had its heroes, too.

There was Steve Fugaban who intercepted two Lutheran West passes to throttle potential scoring drives.

Up front, Larry Lyman and Charles Vines turned in praiseworthy showings.

GAS LIGHTING

Early in 1807, Pall Mall in London became the first street in the world to be illuminated its full length by gas. Today, more than 34,000 natural gas customers of Consumers Power Company use natural gas lights in yards, along streets and in parking lots to add atmosphere. Some Michigan restaurants even have indoor natural gas lighting for picturesque surroundings.

Schoolcraft Runs, Kicks To Victories

In soccer and in cross country, Schoolcraft College is enjoying fine success this fall.

The harriers under coach Tony Rizzo are unbeaten in eight meets. The soccer team has capped all three of its starts under coach Bob Leggett.

Schoolcraft took a quadrangular meet last Thursday in cross country with 30 points to 34 for Oakland, 75 for Kellogg and 75 for Dan Ryan.

Dan Ryan, ex-great at Franklin High, remained unbeaten as he was clocked in 15:43 over the three-mile course. Howard Stuedemann, formerly of Plymouth High, was close behind Ryan once more.

In soccer, Schoolcraft defeated Western Ontario 4-3, and Lorain College, 4-1. Doug Morrison, Joe Valdivia, Joop Doorn and Olando Iacobelli each scored once against Western Ontario. In the Lorain game, Doorn, who hails from the Netherlands, tallied three times and Paul Hartge once.

There He Goes Trojan's Set Record Pace

Capture No. 3, Now for Hills

They're rewriting the football records this fall at Clarenceville.

Nobody is quite certain when after the first four games, a Clarenceville team boasted an overall record of three wins against one loss and stood 2-1 in Wayne Oakland League play.

But that's the way matters are this week as Clarenceville gets ready for Friday's crucial battle at Bloomfield Hills (3:30 p.m., kickoff).

The Hills are unbeaten in four straight and averaging better than 40 points per game.

"We'll have our hands loaded," said Gordie Larson after Clarenceville whipped Brighton, 32-0, last Friday. Larson was filling in for regular coach Ralph Temby, who was called to Wisconsin by the death of his father.

"The kids really wanted to win from Brighton for Temby," added Larson. "And they took charge right off the bat and played tremendously all the way."

Clarenceville counted single touchdowns in each of the first three quarters and finished with two more in the last period.

Dave Wilson, the quarterback, went over the 10 to begin the scoring. Then Mike Nye passed to Jim Amick for the conversion.

In the second period, Nye broke away on a 75-yard dash for 13-0 at touchdown to make it 13-0 at halftime.

Clarenceville went to the air on a Wilson to Larry Martin pass for 25 yards and touchdown No. 3.

In the fourth period it was Kaipio from four yards out and Nye on a 60-yard dash with an intercepted pass to wrap up the scoring.

Nye personally ran for some 260 yards in the game. He picked up 140 from the line of scrimmage, 60 yards with a pass interception and the rest on punt returns.

Clarenceville also had its defensive heroes. Singled out at the end of the game were Kaipio and Carl Watkins. Each made 15 tackles as they helped to make certain that Brighton never penetrated the Clarenceville 20.

U-M Looks To Porter

ANN ARBOR—Porter, a massive reserve tackle last year as a sophomore, and current NCAA Big Ten heavyweight wrestling champion, is top candidate for a new defensive position on Michigan's football team this fall. Porter, 6-3, and weighing a mere 237 pounds, has been shifted to middle guard, a new position since the Wolverines have shifted to a basic five man line or "Oklahoma defense" instead of their traditional six-man front. Coach Bump Elliott chose Porter for this spot on the opening day of practice and he's been impressive in his hitting and his eagerness to learn the mechanics of the new post.

Rocks Top Statistics, Lose Game

Statistics can be so meaningless.

Consider what happened last Friday when Belleville high's football team dropped Plymouth, 21-7.

The setback was the Rocks' third in a row after an opening night victory and left Plymouth an 0-2 record in the Suburban Six League.

When it came to rushing, Plymouth rolled up 119 yards. In passing it was Plymouth for 47 yards.

Together that figured out to 166.

In contrast Belleville totaled a mere 69 yards—42 rushing and 27 passing.

"But they beat us where it counted — on the score board," said John McFall, the Plymouth coach, as he scratched his head.

The Rocks hurt themselves on a couple of occasions. These maneuvers proved the difference.

There was the time Plymouth tried a fake punt. The ball was fumbled and a Belleville defender scooped it up and ran for an easy touchdown.

Later Belleville turned a kickoff into another touchdown.

In the meantime, Plymouth had some chances of its own. One was lost by a fumble, another by a penalty.

The Rocks finally put together a scoring punch in the third period on which Jeff Nawrocke and Rick Fillmore joined hands with Tom Elias in getting the ball deep into Belleville territory.

It was Elias for the final five yards and the touchdown. But what wasn't enough for the Rocks, who'll try to right themselves this Friday night when they play host to a strong Bentley team which will be smarting from a 14-13 loss at Allen Park last Friday night.

"What we need are a few breaks," said Plymouth coach McFall. "I still think we're a better team than our record indicates."

Observing SPORTS

By George Maskin

Martin accompanied with a sports team fun? It can be—but not during the exhibition phase of operations for a professional basketball team like the Detroit Pistons.

The past two weeks have left us somewhat on the limp side . . . and led to remarks around our house: "Hey, mom, who's that guy?"

Exhibition tours truly take on a show-business twist. They become a succession of one-night stands.

You're in Huntington Station on Long Island, 35 miles out of New York city, one night. Twenty-four hours you're in a gym in Roselle, N.J., across the Hudson River some 40 minutes from the big city.

Then, it's back west . . . to Holland, Mich.; to Archbold and Delphos, in Ohio; to Lansing, Ypsilanti and Bay City in our beloved state and then this week it's Flint, Chicago and Kokomo, Ind.

One thing about such tours, you get to appreciate that the bus is still a mighty means of transportation . . . that Michigan is blessed with some great expressways, contrasted to some poor roads in Ohio and Indiana.

You also see for yourselves what many have said: "The fall of the year is the nicest time to see our country." You find that you can enjoy a steak dinner in Holland, or Delphos, Oh., for half the price that it costs you at Loew's Motor Inn in New York. But there's no spot in Archbold or Kokomo to dig into a juicy corned beef sandwich.

The relaxed air of smaller communities makes you wonder if, perhaps, the folks who reside in the Hollands, Archbolds, etc. aren't happier than those who pound the pavements in the Detroit, New Yorks, etc.

You thrill as sports fans in Ypsilanti and Bay City give a thundering ovation to Cazzie Russell and Bill Buntin. They haven't forgotten that it was Buntin and Russell who lifted the University of Michigan out of the basketball doldrums.

What about Cazzie in the pro ranks? We've seen him now four times. Frankly, he disappointed us the first couple of times. But what we saw in Bay City last week leads to believe that Cazzie will make it—and make it big—in the National Basketball Association.

As the old saying goes, corny that it may be: "You can't keep a good guy down all the time."

And what about the Pistons who this Saturday start their regular season down in Cincinnati after winding up their most successful exhibition campaign?

The general consensus is that the club has to be improved over a year ago. The return of Reggie Harding has to help. So does the addition of Dave Bing, who honestly has to be the most exciting new face to join the team in several years.

Players like Tom Van Arsdale, John Tresvant, Joe Strawder and Ron Reed—all rookies a year ago—have improved. So has Buntin.

Sorrows Puts an End To St. James' Streak

"We're going all the way..."
That's the cry around Our Lady of Sorrows High School where the varsity football team:

1—Leads the Northwest Division of the Catholic League with a 4-0 record, 2—Boasts the distinction of being the aggregation to cool off Ferndale St. James—a 13-7 Sorrows' win last Sunday ending St. James' 23 game victory chain. About all that marred Sorrows' conquest of St. James was the fact that the Farmington team's goal line finally was crossed.

Sorrows had posted three straight shutouts and had held St. James scoreless for more than three quarters before the Ferndale squad punched across a touchdown with 5:18 left on the clock. Winning for Sorrows wasn't easy. The victory wasn't settled until Tom Horner of Sorrows arose with a big interception on the Sorrows' 21 with just a minute left on the clock.

This was a victory actually made possible by the defense. A recovered fumble led to Sorrows' first score, a blocked kick to the second.

Frank Walsh covered a St. James bobble on the Ferndale 45 in the first period. Then Cliff LaFond barged for one first down and Jim McGrath a second. A McGrath to Bill Verge pass picked up 10 more yards and a first down on the five. Two plays later, LaFond slammed across for the touchdown and he also ran for the extra point.

St. James enjoyed the best threat of the second period, but Verge killed it with an interception to leave the score 7-0 at halftime.

Late in the third period, Stan Pylar broke through to block a St. James' kick on the Ferndale team's 43. After LaFond carried for five yards, McGrath flipped an 18-yard pass to Tim Audette.

Then it was LaFond twice again for 12 yards and finally he punched the ball across from the eight to make the score 13-0.

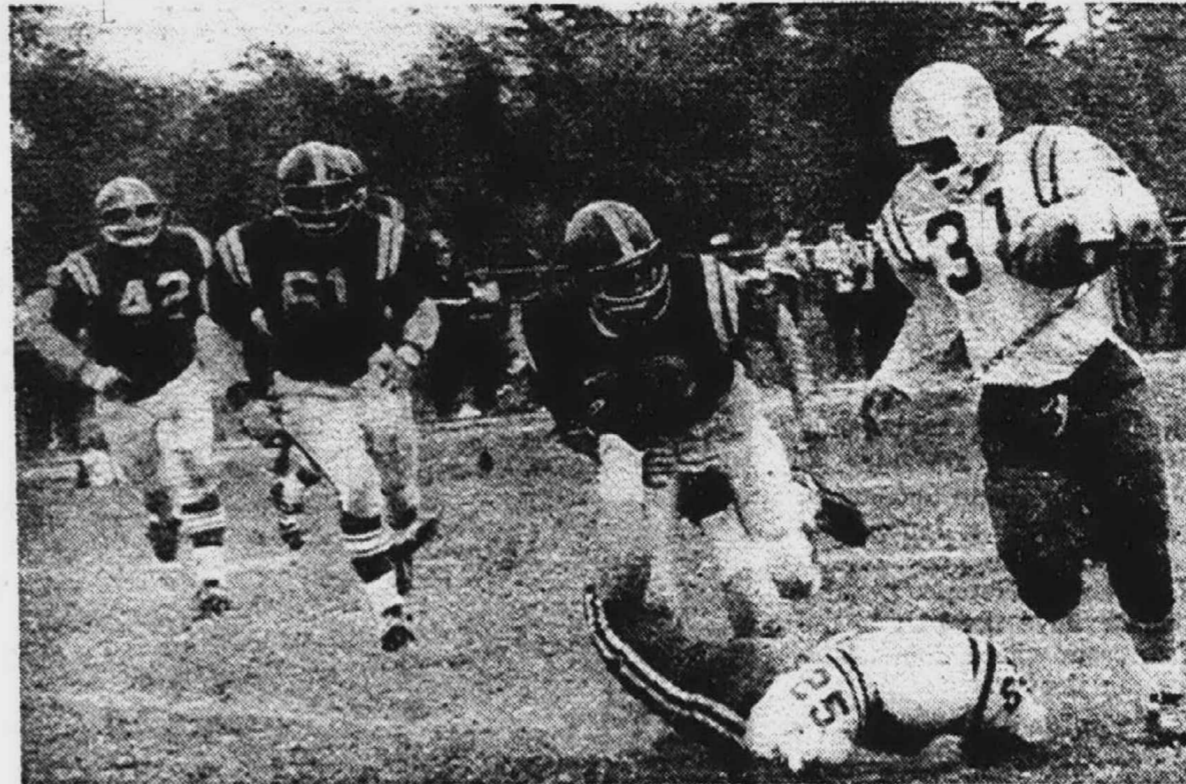

St. James finally got going, marched 64 yards in 13 plays and scored on a two-yard plunge by Don Weiss.

St. James still wasn't through. He got the ball back and appeared like it might be on its way again—until Horner pulled down a St. James pass.

Statistically, Sorrows made eight first downs to St. James' seven. In rushing it was 121-90 for Sorrows, while in passing McGrath hit on five of 12 for 71 yards while St. James was held to 46.

LaFond again led the Sorrows' running with 90 yards in 19 carries. Dave Hickey added 30 yards on nine tries.

Walsh, Tyler, Verge and Jim McHugh starred defensively for Sorrows which this Sunday protects its winning streak against St. James of Highland Park.

SKIRTING END enroute to a gain against St. James is Fullback Dave Hickey of Farmington's Our Lady of Sorrows. Hickey managed to make the turn before he was hauled down by the wave of tacklers moving in. They are: Halfback Bob Silvatz (20), Guard John Shada (42) and Guard Jerry Wilkinson (61). Sorrows ended St. James' long winning streak, 13-7, and remained unbeaten.

Bentley String In Loop Ended By Allen Park

There are places to relax... but not on the athletic combat field. Sometimes such relaxing follows a happy moment, when a football team strikes with a late touchdown that puts it in front and makes victory look very close.

Then the roof falls in as was the case last Friday when defending champion Bentley suffered its first Suburban Six League football setback in two years in dropping a heartbreaker to Allen Park, 14-13.

Bentley, which went unbeaten in the circuit last year and had capped its 1966 loop opener the previous Friday, struck back from a 7-0 deficit to take a 13-7 lead in the final period.

All of which set off a lot of cheering on the Bentley side of the field.

Maybe it was that way on the field, too. In any event, Allen Park bounced back with a roar to cash a touchdown with three minutes to go, make the conversion and walk off the gridiron a victor.

Allen Park had gone in front in the first period when Bentley fumbled and lost the ball on its own 12-yard line. Moments later Fred Miller slammed across for the Parkers; Bob Currie converted.

Ken Jackson, a brilliant performer all evening for Bentley, equalled things in the second period on a three-yard scoring run. Jock Alberet followed with the conversion.

The Jackson touchdown came after Bentley had knocked a couple of times in the first period, by moving inside the Parker 20.

In the third period, neither side was able to produce a point.

Came the fourth, Bentley moved to the Allen Park one, only to be stopped. But the Parkers had to kick and Jackson gathered in the pigskin on the Allen Park 42 and dashed into the end zone to put the Livonians ahead.

On the succeeding kickoff, Bentley let the Parker receiver scamper all the way to the Livonians' 45. From there, Allen Park boomed along and finally, with fourth down and four on the Bentley, five, Dave Makins flipped to Jim Fanto for the tying touchdown.

Currie made the extra point to decide the game.

Bentley picked up 155 yards rushing and only 40 in the air. Allen Park had 120 running, 91 passing.

Next Friday sees Bentley at Plymouth.

RU Runners Add to String

Redford Union continued its unbeaten ways in dual cross country competition by beating Belleville, 19-29, as Jack Shepherd of RU took individual honors in 10:39.

Ron Mazurek of RU ran third with Dan McLalen and Mike Boyd following in the next two positions.

The Township harriers placed ninth in the Oakland University Invitational in which team honors went to Hazel Park. Shepherd again paced the RU entry, finishing in ninth place.

In a decade of soccer competition, Michigan State has only lost ten games—eight of them to St. Louis University.

Nightmare At Night For Union

"A nightmare at night..." That's how coach John Rogers explained his Redford Union high football team's 34-7 loss to Trenton last Friday night.

Just consider the way the Townshipers got started:

1—They fumbled the ball deep in their own end the first time they had the ball.

2—The next time RU tried to move, it wound up being forced to kick and the punt sailed a negative three yards.

3—The third time RU had the ball, it was like the first time.

Add such problems to the fact Lance Scheffler of Trenton, one of the state's finest prep backs, was running loose, and there you have the reason it was an easy night for Trenton now rated as the team to beat for the Suburban Six League title.

Scheffler carried the ball 20 times for 134 yards. He scored four times on runs of 5, 2, 37 and 15 yards.

Quite a night for the 185-pound, five-foot, 11-inch young man.

Redford Union wasn't completely washed out in the individual department.

Glenn Davis of RU again showed why he's among Michigan's outstanding schoolboy quarterbacks.

He pumped the ball through the air 24 times and completed 12 for 187 yards... pretty much a professional-style effort.

One of his heaves was a spectacular 52-yarder that Leland Bjerke hauled in for the lone RU touchdown in the third period.

Redford Union mustered only 51 yards rushing, while Trenton collected all of its yardage on the ground, totalling 295.

The downriver team failed on all of its passing attempts. While the score was lopsided, the first down battle was even. Each side made nine.

"We can't afford mistakes," said coach Rogers.

NIP N. FARMINGTON: 'Alert' Franklin Wins a Thriller

Those who capitalize on opportunities usually succeed the most.

It's true in sports, in business, in school, work, etc. Franklin high's football team turned opportunists last Friday and the result was a 14-13 thriller over North Farmington in a North Suburban Six League struggle.

This was a game of "give away." Maybe there was something wrong with the football. Or the air was heavy, or the grass too tall.

Or something. Fumbles, fumbles and fumbles marred the game. Each side made five.

There were a flock of other mistakes.

But in the end, it was Franklin that turned two North Farmington bobbles into touchdowns—the last with just 2:32 left on the scoreboard to take home the victory.

The game did have its bright moments, too.

There were the great catches that Carl Gulbranson made for Franklin. One of his fine grabs came on the North Farmington two and paved the way for Gary Rogalski to shoot across from the two to tie the game in the third period. When Bill Kugler converted, it was 7-6 for Franklin.

North Farmington had hit the scoreboard in the early going when Roger Schmanek plunged across to make it 6-0.

With Franklin ahead late in the third period, North Farmington paraded to the Franklin two with no results.

The Franklin line arose to stop the march.

But early in the fourth period, North Farmington took over on the Franklin 45 and carried down to the three from where Tom Van Hoy went around end for a touchdown. Mark Faller made the point to give the Raiders a 13-7 edge.

Franklin finally got the break for which it was looking with about four minutes left in the game. A recovered fumble by Gulbranson put the Livonians on the North Farmington 30.

Three plays later came the second nifty catch by Gul-

HIGH STEPPER: That's Matt Gillespie of Garden City West who goes for short gain in game against Crestwood.

West Gets Help After 3rd Loss

The call has gone out for help at Garden City West High School.

After three losses and a tie in the first four football games, coach Harold Burkholder has promoted some members of the school's unbeaten, untied, unscored-upon junior varsity team.

"I guess we have to do something," said Burkholder after West dropped a 13-0 verdict against Crestwood last Friday.

"We might as well make some changes and give some of those sophomores a chance to get varsity experience. And now is the time to do it."

West goes against Dearborn Lowrey at Lowrey Friday afternoon at 3:30.

Two costly penalties—a la the Detroit Lions—hurt West in the game with Crestwood.

Charlie Dobbs of West broke away on a 65-yard gallop across the goal line in the second period, but the score was disallowed when West was detected clipping.

Later Matt Gillespie went up the middle on a trap play and roared to the Crestwood eight. This effort, too, was washed out by a 15-yard penalty—this one for holding.

In all, West was penalized 125 yards in the game to 65 for Crestwood.

A fumble put West into a troublesome situation in the second quarter. Crestwood recovered on the West 25 and four plays later an 11-yard pass from Bob Sliwa to Dave Seascock produced a touchdown and a 6-0 lead.

There was no further scoring until late in the game when Gary Masin of Crestwood intercepted a pass and ran it over from 36 yards.

West had a slight 9-8 edge in first downs, but it was Crestwood 180-176 in yards gained and 13 points in the department which counts most—scoring.

St. Agatha Loses for First Time

You can't win if you don't score.

St. Agatha was pretty much like the Los Angeles Dodgers last Sunday and as a result the prep football team from the Redford Township parish went down to its first loss of the season, 6-0, to St. Patrick of Wyandotte.

The setback followed three straight triumphs for St. Agatha and came when quarterback Pat Clark hit Dan Schreiber with a 25-yard pass play at the outset of the final period.

"We knew that they couldn't hurt us through our line," said coach John Trellay of St. Agatha. "We feared their passing... and that was the story of the game."

That and St. Agatha's inability to generate much of an offense.

The Parochial team from the township did put together a couple of marches in the final quarter. Once St. Agatha got down to around the 15 as Dennis McKenna led the way. Later, St. Agatha moved over the St. Patrick 20.

But, as Trellay declared: "we just seemed to run out of gas for some reason or another."

Ron Blackmore and Mike Wlezniak again did the passing for the losers.

George Smith, Michigan State place kicker of the 1948-49 era, booted eight extra points in three different games.

Stevenson Set for Big Battle With Unbeaten Farmington, High

"We have nothing to lose... everything to gain..."

Coach Jack Riordan of Stevenson high school's football team was looking ahead to Friday night's clash against unbeaten-untied Farmington at Bentley High's field.

Stevenson, without a senior on its roster (the school hasn't any), will be a distinct underdog against the mighty offensive machine from Farmington.

"But, we're looking forward to Farmington, and our kids will be ready," explained Riordan after Stevenson gained a 13-0 win over Warren Mott last Saturday to bring the Livonian's record even at 2-2.

The triumph over Mott had to encourage Stevenson. For one thing, Mott had won its first three games.

"It's great to knock off a team like that," said Riordan. "Maybe we can do it two weeks running."

Stevenson moved the ball extremely well against Mott with Paul Pender accounting for both the touchdowns.

Pender took a screen pass from Tom Parker and scooted 65 yards for the first score. Then it was BOUNCING AROUND: Orchids to the Detroit Race Course for adding another major race to its agenda for the 1967 season.

Have you noticed that soccer is booming around the United States what with the establishment of new professional leagues and the great interest shown in the sport on the college level. Over at Schoolcraft College, games are attracting considerable interest.

Wonder why some of the high schools around here don't adopt the sport. When out on Long Island a couple of weeks ago, we noticed that the preps out there had a team... plus the usual varsity, junior varsity and freshman squads in football.

Note where Livonia's Ray Herbert has been given an unconditional release from the Philadelphia Phillies. Ray would like one more shot at pitching—with a club that would give him a chance to work more regularly. He thinks he can help somebody. The Tigers maybe?

here on this chilly night that we will make a success of this drive just as so many others have succeeded in Plymouth."

Then Schening introduced Miss Sparkle and Miss Sweet Charity, each of whom made a short talk.

In a climactic action, Schening asked the audience to join in a countdown which was culminated with Miss Sparkle touching the button that started the torch glowing as it will until the final night on Nov. 10.

The lighting of the torch started the entire mechanism revolving as it will for the remainder of the drive.

There also is a rocket sign alongside the torch which tells of the progress of the drive.

Schening, and campaign workers, learned that it is off to a good start when Roland Bonamici, chairman of the advanced gifts committee, reported a total of $13,500 in contributions and pledges.

And for the first time, Schening and his committee enlisted the aid of the unions from the large plants in the area.

Attending and introduced at the kickoff dinner were: Robert Tatman of Local 236 at Barnes-Gibson and Raymond; Gerald McLean, president of Local 1313 at Burroughs; Gerald Greer, president of CWA Local 4015 at Michigan Bell; Charles Washburn secretary-treasurer of CWA Local 4095 at Western Electric; and Gerald Yettaw of Local 157 at Whitman and Barnes.

Schening did not announce the date of the initial report meeting but it is expected some time early next week.

STUDY IN CONTRASTS as candidates await their turn to talk at the political rally in Kellogg Park. There were more candidates present than listeners. The trio includes: Congressman Wes Vivian, who is studying his notes; smiling Paul Livingston who is seeking the State Senatorial seat; and State Representative James Tierney, who is bundled up against the cold breezes.

Politicians on Hand But Few Listeners

Only a few partisans turned out Friday night as politicians gathered in Kellogg Park for an old-fashioned political rally, complete with flaming torches.

Candidates showed up, but few spectators joined them. About 10 adults and 15 children filled out the audience as the speakers talked from the City's bandshell.

Despite the turnout, the candidates were in a good mood, and unlimbered their best campaign oratory. The weather was mild and the speeches short.

U. S. Congressional candidate Marvin Esch unloaded the sharpest comments of the evening, directing them at his Democratic opponent, incumbent Weston E. Vivian. He pointed to Vivian as a "93 per cent" Johnson man.

Vivian, in contrast, stuck to his record during his two years, noting his efforts to improve communication between the district and Washington.

Other office seekers at the event were Paul Livingston, Democrat seeking the State Senate seat, Jim Tierney, incumbent state Representative, and a Garden City Democrat, was on the platform with his Republican opponent, Plymouth insurance agent John Tripp.

Lawrence Lindemer, Republican Attorney General candidate, also spoke along with Warren Hough, seeking re-election to the Michigan State Board of Trustees, and Norman Stockmeyer, Wayne State Regent candidate.

The event was MC'ed by JC State President Wendell Smith, and sponsored by the local JC's and the two political parties.

Senior Citizens Plan An Autumn Leaf Party

The Senior Citizens Club of Plymouth will hold an Autumn Leaf Party, planned by Chairman Bertha Manning, on Wednesday, Oct. 19, from 7 to 10:30 p.m. in the Plymouth high school auditorium.

Dancing will be the main feature. Invitations have been extended to the Senior Citizen Clubs of Northville, Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti.

The Thanksgiving dinner will be catered by Mr. and Mrs. Loren Goodale on Thursday, Nov. 17, at 12 noon in the Masonic Temple.

The price is $1 per member. Reservations and payments for the Thanksgiving dinner, must be made with Dorothy Wilhelm by Oct. 13.

The birthday celebration will be on Oct. 13. There will be no meeting on Oct. 20. Pot luck will be held on Oct. 27.

humming from 7 p.m. Friday until the curtain goes down on the Ball.

The Homecoming parade will start shortly after 7 p.m. from the rear of the high school, moving down Church Street, to Harvey, over Harvey to Ann Arbor, Trail east to Main Street and then past Kellogg Park back to the high school athletic field for the bonfire.

The Plymouth High marching band, under the direction of James Griffith, will head the procession followed by convertibles carrying the Sophomore and Junior class representatives and then a Senior Class float, pulled by members of the class, carrying the four Senior candidates.

The procession will wind around the high school and terminate in front of the huge pile of wood for the bonfire which will be lighted at 7:30 p.m.

The ceremonies will be resumed with the flag-raising shortly before the kickoff in which the band, spectators and the Queen candidates will join.

Then comes the highspot of the evening at the halftime—the announcement and crowning of the 1966 Homecoming Queen. Mayor Dusiber will announce the Queen and she will be crowned by Pam McAllister, the 1965 ruler.

DPW News And Notes

By SUPT. KEN VOGRAS PLYMOUTH DPW

During the week the department was responsible for sweeping in the residential part of the city. Two funerals were held at Riverside Cemetery, cleaning work was done and the garage was cleaned. The torch was installed in Kellogg Park for the Community Fund Drive.

The school traffic control sign on Penniman Avenue was completed. All intersections were swept and cleaned throughout the city. Sixty-two fire hydrants were painted in Kellogg Park for a political rally on Friday evening. Curbs and driveways on Liberty Street were sawed and made ready for the cement work that is being done there.

Two water services were repaired, these were broken by the contractor that is working for Consumers Power Company on Mill Street. A new driveway was made at the Reservoir on Beck Road.

Fire hydrants will be flushed on Thursday, Oct. 13 between the hours of 10 P.M. and 1 A.M.

Leaf pickup will be started the latter part of October at which time leaves are to be put between the sidewalk and the curb and they will be picked up from there.

Stecker Becomes Head of Ford Monroe Plant

He became manager of the Chicago Stamping Plant in 1957, and manager of the Monroe plant in 1964.

AUSTIN STECKER

Austin G. Stecker has been named manager of Ford Motor Company's Monroe (Mich.) plant, A. J. Hole, general manager of Ford's Metal Stamping Division, announced. He replaces Frank J. Bushroe, who has retired from the company.

Before his promotion, Stecker was manufacturing manager at the Monroe plant which produces bumpers, coil springs, wheels, headlight assemblies and stabilizer bars for Ford and Lincoln-Mercury cars and Ford trucks.

Since joining the company in 1932, Stecker has held technical and managerial positions at Ford's Rouge, Willow Run, Ypsilanti and Northville plants. He was transferred to Monroe in 1957 as quality control manager. A native of Jackson, Stecker studied chemical engineering at Olivet (Mich.) College. He is a member of the Engineering Society of Detroit, Society of Automotive Engineers and the Plymouth Township Planning Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. Stecker live at 45455 North Territorial Road in Plymouth.

Bushroe joined Ford in 1947 as a production scheduling supervisor for Rouge plant manufacturing operations. He was production control manager for the Metal Stamping Division from 1953 until 1955, when he was appointed manager of the Buffalo Stamping Plant.

Before his promotion, Stecker was manufacturing manager at the Monroe plant which produces bumpers, coil springs, wheels, headlight assemblies and stabilizer bars for Ford and Lincoln-Mercury cars and Ford trucks.

Then comes the highspot of the evening at the halftime—the announcement and crowning of the 1966 Homecoming Queen. Mayor Dusiber will announce the Queen and she will be crowned by Pam McAllister, the 1965 ruler.

'No Slow Down in Building' Report to Plymouth Board

Plymouth school officials should expect no slowdown in building in the Plymouth area.

That was the report of Trustee Robert Tripp to his colleagues Monday night.

'Sandy' Has Reasons To Make Drive Go

Sandra Sagar, a 16-year-old with the motto "Can't never do anything—Can do it all," shared the spotlight at the traditional torch-light ceremonies for the annual Plymouth Community Fund campaign Monday at 7:30 p.m. in Kellogg Park.

Sandra, a sophomore at Plymouth High, has the unusual distinction of being the first "Miss Sparkle" of a fund raising campaign. A victim of polio since the age of 17 months, she was completely immobilized for a long time and given little chance for recovery.

However, that's when she adopted the motto that has marked her entire life. She and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sagar, 39624 Cather Street in the Holiday Park subdivision on Joy near Haggerty, decided they could do it and they have succeeded in getting Sandra on crutches and able to attend high school.

The Sagers resided in Wisconsin from 1951 to 1959 when they moved to Port Huron. Then they moved to North Carolina in 1960 where Sandra underwent a back operation to prevent complete curvature of the spine. Twelve vertebrae were fused and Sandra remained in a body cast for a year and a half at the hospital.

Sandra's grit and determination to recover was predominant from the very beginning. In May of 1963, while still in the body cast, she requested braces and crutches and made such progress that she was released and sent home in June. Her recovery was considered one of the marvels of the time.

In September 1963, the Sagers moved to Plymouth and resided there until they moved to the Holiday Park address.

In July 1964, the back operation had to be repeated and a leg operation also was performed at the University of Michigan Hospital. Sandra is making fine progress and returns to the hospital at six-month intervals for a checkup.

Like many teenagers, Sandra is a Beale fan. University Hospital made arrangements for her to visit the famed English group when they visited Detroit in 1964. She Tripp, chairman of the facilities planning subcommittee of the Board, reported on an independent survey he had taken recently.

His work was done to help update the Citizens Facility

Advisory Committee's recent report seeking $17 million in school facilities for the next five years in Plymouth.

"The home building slowdown in Plymouth is not too great," Tripp noted. "There are many custom homes being built, and most people are not having trouble financing these. In the subdivisions a person can generally secure a loan, despite talk of a tight money market."

Tripp interpreted his survey to mean that the growth of the area had not slackened because of a nationwide tight money situation.

"I also talked with builders, and starts (new homes) and selling have not declined appreciatively. The drop is only slight," Tripp said.

"I visited Holiday Park in Canton Township and saw a sign that said 'guarantee 30 day occupancy,' and I thought they were having trouble selling them. However, it was a different story when I talked with the salesmen. They built in anticipation and have had no trouble selling," Tripp added.

He said his full updating of the citizen's study would be done soon.

To speed Board work, he called a special meeting of his committee for next Monday night. Tripp served on the Citizens' group, then ran successfully for the Board last June.

On other matters, the Board set a meeting with placement officials from a nearby university, taking the first steps in securing a replacement to Superintendent Russell Isbister, who will retire next summer.

The Board also is preparing plans for a North Central Association evaluation visit to the district in February. North Central accredits Michigan schools.

After the formal meeting closed, the Board adjourned to the Chamber of Commerce offices and the headquarters of area planning director Harold Fischer. There, they looked over a map of the school district, and discussed possible sites for new schools.

Walter Scott, president of the Bird School PTA will be the speaker on behalf of his group when they are the guests of American Legion Passage-Gayde Post 391, at "Why Are We...?" series of banquet and programs on Saturday, Oct. 15, at the Legion Home on Sheldon Rd.

Scott, an employee of Ford Motor Company and a resident of Plymouth for over 10 years, has been active in the Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts, in addition to his activity in church groups and his political party.

He is a member of the Plymouth Optimist Club and a past president.

The Co-chairman of the National Education Association, Donald J. Smith, of St. Johns, will speak for the American Legion.

Smith has served the St. Johns Post as commander, the 6th District and the state in the same capacity. He recently concluded a two-year term as the National Executive Committee member for the Michigan American Legion as its representative to the National organization.

In addition to operating a vast crop farm, Smith is Superintendent of Schools for Fowler.

SANDRA SAGAR

Sandra and her parents are well aware of the value of the community fund. Necessary financial assistance came from agencies supported by the fund drives. That's why General Chairman Edward Schening asks all to be generous again this year in giving—the next case similar to that of Sandra could happen to anyone in this community.

Jr. Baseball Honors Its 'Retirees'

Approximately 325 Plymouth Community Junior league baseball players, officials, umpires and parents gathered at the Elk's Lodge on October 4 for the annual awards presentation dinner.

Awarded trophies at the affair were the graduating 12-year old players from each major league team and the players on the American League championship Yankees and World Series championship Dodgers.

Joe Bida, past president was presented a plaque for his long service to the Plymouth Junior Baseball program by this year's president, Ken Vogras.

Channel 2 news director, acted as master of ceremonies during the evening of fun and speeches.

Included on the speaker's platform were Doc Fenkell, television and radio director for the Detroit Tigers, and Jim Northrup, young Bengal outfielder.

PURCHASING TICKET for the fall fashion knit show, sponsored by the Plymouth Soroptimist Club, is Mrs. Mae Baldwin (left), of Livonia, from Mrs. Edward Arthey, of the Wool Shop. The show is scheduled for Thursday night at 8 p.m. at Arbor-Lill. Fashions of many of the top designers will be displayed. In addition there will be a contest with the winner receiving a Mink boa.

Everyone Wants To Open a Bank

Once there was only one bank in the Plymouth community. It was the National Bank of Detroit branch at the intersection of Main and Pennington in downtown Plymouth.

Then National bank added a branch on Ann Arbor Road within the confines of the city. It was followed by a branch of Detroit Bank and Trust on Wilcox Road near Schoolcraft while at the same time the First Federal Savings and Loan was operating in the downtown business section.

In quick succession a branch of the Michigan Bank at the corner of Sheldon and Ann Arbor Roads in Plymouth Township followed by a second branch of the Detroit Bank on Ann Arbor Road near Lilley Road.

The National Bank of Detroit was next in line with a request for the establishment of a branch on Sheldon Road near N. Territorial. That building is now under construction as is the Detroit Bank on Ann Arbor Road.

Now comes the Commonwealth Bank into the picture with a request for a permit to build at the intersection of Ann Arbor and Haggerty Roads in the Bud Gould proposed professional office development.

The Township Planning Commission gave approval for the bank after receipt of a request from Gould. Matter of fact the Board didn't have much choice since the zoning ordinance was changed recently by the Planners and approved by the Township Trustees to allow a bank in a site zoned for Professional Office.

However, that's only part of the story. While the bank received approval in Plymouth, a similar request for rezoning of a site at the intersection of Haggerty and Five Mile Roads drew strong objections from Northville Township residents in the area.

The land is adjacent to the new Tanager School and homeowners protested that it would create a traffic hazard to the school.

After a three-hour hearing, the planners took no action. They plan to act on the request in the near future.

VFW Slates School Flag Ceremonies

Shocked at the lack of respect shown for the flag during ceremonies at the home opener of the Plymouth High football team a month ago, Gene Leader, Quartermaster of VFW Mayflower Post 6695, has made arrangements with Plymouth school officials to present flags and bases to all of the community schools.

The presentations will start Friday morning when Leader will head programs at Junior High East and West. The program will include the flags and poles along with a pamphlet "Our Flag," telling of the importance of appreciation of the flag.

Leader will be accompanied by members of the state championship Color Guard unit and the Auxiliary.

The flags and poles are donated by Mayflower Post and Auxiliary.

Leader will present flags to the elementary schools on Nov. 11 and to the senior high, prior to the Nov. 4 football game with Walled Lake, when Congressman Wes Vivian will make a short address, urging more respect for the flag.

Plymouth JCs to Assist in Vote Returns

The Michigan Jaycees again this year will play a key role in the Nationwide reporting of the Nov. 8 general election. In this area, several members of the Plymouth Jaycees will cover the vote count at individual precincts, and then report the results to the state-wide tabulation center at Cobo Hall in Detroit.

The Jaycee participation is part of the News Election Service (NES) coverage of Michigan and the entire nation on election night. The News Election Service is composed of ABC news, CBS news, NBC news, the Associated Press and United Press International.

The vote returns collected by NES are distributed equally to each member, and they in turn give the results to virtually every newspaper and radio and television station in the United States.

Bruce Cohn, of ABC news, Michigan state manager for NES, said the Michigan election will be one of the two or three most important in the nation this year. He said the efforts of Plymouth Jaycee President Jerry Yohey and his men will provide a major public service for the entire country.

Cohn pointed out that in Through Michigan, some 3,500 Jaycee members will participate in the vote collecting project.

Kunkel Named To Fill Wayne Board Vacancy
 Kenneth J. Kunkel, of 1384 Berkshire Drive, was named to fill a vacancy on the Wayne Community School District board of canvassers by the school board.

Kunkel, a certified public accountant, will fill one of the Democratic seats on the four-member board until the term expires Dec. 31, 1967. He replaces Austin Bennett who was selected to fill another vacancy on the school board.

March of Dimes Names Lafnear

James Lafnear, who has seen 14 years of service with the Pontiac Police Department, has been appointed Adult Advisor of the Teen Division for the 1966 March of Dimes campaign.

PHILIP R. AUSTIN of Livonia will soon have a book in production by Ann Arbor Science Publishers, Inc. a firm established in April. "Clean Rooms of the World" is the publication by Austin who is probably the world's leading authority on contamination control and clean rooms. Founder of Contamination Control Lectures, Inc. and author of the only authoritative book on ultra-cleanliness, "Design and Operation of Clean Rooms." He plans a series of books to be produced by the Ann Arbor company.

Girl Scouts Expect 800 at Convention

Over 800 men and women from southeastern Michigan are expected to attend the National Convention of Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. at Cobo Hall in Detroit, Oct. 23-27, 1966, according to Mrs. Robert L. Fleischer, of East Detroit, National Girl Scout board member and chairman of the convention arrangements committee.

"A total of 800 delegates, observers and visitors from the fifty states are expected at the convention," reports Mrs. Fleischer. "We are pleased to have as our keynote speaker Miss Barbara Ward, internationally renowned British economist and author. She will set the stage for the theme of the convention, 'Girl Scouting — Values to Hold, Worlds to Explore,' projecting a picture of the world of 1980.

In later sessions, delegates will discuss the role of "Girl Scouting in the changing world of tomorrow."

The program on Sunday, Oct. 23, at 7:30 p.m., in addition to the keynote address by Miss Ward, will include a performance of the Wayne State University Symphony Orchestra and a 108 voice chorus of Girl Scouts from the Metropolitan Detroit Council.

Hostess Chairman Mrs. DeLos Hamlin will be assisted by Mrs. Tracy Conroy, Mrs. Francis Bowden, Mrs. James P. Henry, Mrs. Herbert Henry, Mrs. Richard Leonard, Mrs. George Lindsay, and Mrs. W. E. Taylor.

AWARDED SCHOLARSHIP: Sharryl Dorow, 24015 Pic-kett, Farmington, was awarded an Alvin E. Bentley Foundation Scholarship to Michigan Technological University and is shown here receiving the award from Bentley at a recent luncheon in East Lansing. Miss Dorow is the first Farmington student to win a Bentley award.

Pay Hiked By Schools

Level III, covering Farmington Elementary and Junior High Principals, Assistant Senior High Principals, Directors of Adult Education, Special Education and Vocational Education, has a scale ranging from $9,639 for zero years experience to $13,857 for nine years. The previous contract called for a range of $8,621 to $11,962.

Level IV, other Assistant Principals ranges from $9,088 to $13,065 as compared to $8,285 to $11,485 for 1965-66.

The contract also stated that administrators with an Educational "Specialist" Degree will receive an additional $500 while those with a doctorate in education or philosophy will be granted $1,000 extra.

In other business the Board of Education awarded a contract for $11,750 to the B. J. Pollard Company for grading and site work, asphalt drive and concrete sidewalks and curbs at the Larkshire Elementary School.

Alpha Deltas Meet

Mrs. Arliss Whiteside, 4114 Yerba Linda, Royal Oak, was hostess the October meeting of the North Suburban Alumnae Association of Alpha Delta Pi Thursday evening. Following a short business meeting, Mr. James Wright, an American Red Cross volunteer teacher, will instruct those present on the subject of "Artificial Respiration."

Ford Fund Scholars

Ford Motor Company Fund will award approximately 70 four-year college scholarships in 1967.

Benson Ford, president of the fund, said the 17th annual competition is open to sons and daughters, including adopted and step-children, of employees of Ford Motor Company and certain of its subsidiaries.

"Winning students may select any approved college or university in the United States," Ford said.

Awards cover tuition and part of living costs. The living-cost amount depends on whether the student lives at home or at college.

Applicants must be graduated from high school between Sept. 1, 1966, and August 31, 1967, and be in the upper third of their classes. Applications for awards will be accepted until Dec. 1, 1966.

Scholarship candidates will take the College Entrance Examination Board's scholastic aptitude test on Jan. 14, 1967. Winners will be selected by the Ford Motor Company Fund Scholarship Board and announced in the spring of 1967.

"Awards are given to those whose test scores, academic records and personal qualifications indicate to the Scholarship Board that they will benefit from college education," Ford said.

Since the program began, more than 1,120 four-year scholarships have been awarded. This fall, 265 winners, including 72 from 1966, are enrolled in 121 colleges and universities.

Puppet Shows Are Saturday's Feature

A triple bill of three short puppet shows and an opportunity to "meet the stars" immediately after the performances will open the Detroit Puppet Theatre season in The Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium on Sat., Oct. 15 at 10 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m.

This appearance of the B. Gay puppets is the fourth return engagement at the museum for Ann Cohen and Bea Geller, who have been active puppeteers for 12 years.

The Detroit Puppet Theatre is sponsored by the Theatre Arts Dept. of the Detroit Institute of Arts and underwritten by a grant from the Detroit News.

Tickets may be purchased at The Detroit Institute of Arts Tickets Office, Tuesday through Sunday (10 a.m.-5:30 p.m.), all J. L. Hudson Ticket Services, and all Grinnell's ticket offices.

Bike Award Set at Mall

Some lucky youngster will win a bicycle on Oct. 15 in conjunction with the anniversary celebration of the Livonia Cinema I and II at the Livonia Mall.

The contest is being sponsored by Crowley's Department Store in the Mall. In order to qualify simply register in the toy department at Crowley's and be present at the awarding of the prize on Oct. 15.

Free candy and balloons and "Happy the Clown" will be on hand for the attraction at the theatre, while a full length cartoon feature "Gay Pur-ee" will be shown. The doors will open at 9:30 a.m., while the showings will be at 10 a.m. and noon.

Their program will be a varied one, beginning with "The Three Wishes," a Spanish folk tale with authentic music, a comic bullfight, colorful costumes and lively dancing. An African folk allegory called "The Monkey and the Serpent" will be a presentation in ballet style, using rod and hand puppets. Rounding out the program will be "The Rabbit Who Wanted Red Wings" based on a folk tale of the American South.

The B. Gay puppets perform regularly at the Museum of the City of New York, as well as throughout the public school systems of New York and New Jersey, and for many cultural enrichment programs.

THE AVENGERS, a local rock and roll band will open the "anniversary" celebration at the Livonia Cinema I and II this evening at the "E" entrance to the Livonia Mall. Featured players are Joe Petrucci, George Dallas, Mike Bradfute, Chuck Phillips and Greg Houston. The group will be on hand from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

'Fantasticks' Sets U of D Performance

New York's longest running off-Broadway musical, "The Fantasticks" is coming to the University of Detroit Town and Gown Series Oct. 16.

The musical will be performed by members of the New York cast under the direction of Donald Babcock, who will repeat the role of the Boy's Father, which he played in the New York production for more than 17,700 performances.

One of the most warmly exciting and imaginative musicals, "The Fantasticks" has been presented in more than 30 countries throughout the world. Many songs from the score have become standards during the seven year run, notably Barbra Streisand's recordings of "Much More," "Soon It's Gonna Rain," and "I Can See It," and Harry Belafonte's "Try To Remember."

"The Fantasticks" is being produced for U. of D. by David Cryer-Albert Polard Productions. Cryer will appear as the Narrator, repeating his role in the New York production. Other veterans from the N.Y. cast are Alice Cannon as the Girl, George Riddle as the Old Actor, and James Cook as the Mute.

Singing professionally for the first time will be Walter McGinn at the Boy's McGinn scored a success in his Broadway debut last season in "The Subject Was Roses."

Wayne E. Martens, who will be the Girl's Father, has appeared with the distinguished APA Repertory Company at the University of Michigan, has acted in or directed nearly 200 productions, began his career in Chicago at "Second City" with Alan Arkin.

"The Fantasticks" will be seen at 8:30 p.m. Oct. 16 in the Memorial Building on the U. of D. McNichols Road campus. Tickets are on sale at the U. of D. Box Office and the J. L. Hudson stores.

Quarterback A. J. Vaughn led Wayne State University's football team in rushing total offense and punting during the 1965 season.

Romney Hails Jackson Parents

Governor George Romney presented a recognition award Wednesday, September 21, to Mr. and Mrs. Royal Chapel of Jackson, for outstanding service as foster parents. The award was given in behalf of the Michigan Children's Aid Society as part of the Society's 75th anniversary. Children's Aid Society is located in Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapel, who reside at 608 Cass Avenue, Vandercook Lake, near Jackson, were chosen as foster parents of the year from a large number of nominations from within the Society, to represent hundreds of MCAS foster parents throughout the state.

3 Cities Art Club Hears U-M Artist

Three Cities Art Club program chairman, Mrs. Mabel Bacon, announced that the meeting on Oct. 11, was open to the public and everyone interested in art was invited to attend.

William Lewis, of the U of M school of Architecture and Design, was the featured speaker. He talked about art in general and about members' art in particular.

Lewis is a well-known artist and speaker in this area, has had shows in New York, Detroit and Ann Arbor, is particularly renowned for his Civil War series of paintings—which has been shown in many of the major cities in the country.

The meeting was held in the Plymouth High School Auditorium from 8 to 10 p.m.

Color Tour Set

Stony Creek Metropolitan Park, with fall color at its height, is the location of the next field trip of the Detroit Audubon Society. Nature trails of varying length invite you. The hike is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 15 at 9 a.m.

After the hike, all are invited to attend the dedication ceremony of the tape sound system given in memory of Mrs. Evelyn Kelly, founder of the Detroit Audubon Society. The dedication at the Stony Creek Nature Museum, will take place at 11 a.m. For more information about these events call 893-6262, the Detroit Audubon Society office.

Wayne State University's single-game pass-receiving record of nine catches was set by Dick Lisabeth against North Dakota State in 1954.

Candidates Tells Public About Posts

Apathy is a force which all candidates for office battle.

To the candidates for the eight educational posts facing the voters in November the problem is especially acute, however.

Two of the Republican candidates for these posts—Norman O. Stockmeyer, who is running for governor of Wayne State University, and Bob Brown, who seeks a seat on the University of Michigan's Board of Regents, were in Farmington last week in an effort to tell the voters their story.

Brown stopped into The Observer office during his tour and said that after a morning coffee he had gone to a luncheon at one of the local restaurants. "While there," he said, "I made a tour of all the tables—interrupted conversations and introduced myself and just reminded the people to vote for the eight educational posts—two members of the State Board of Education; two members of the U. of M. Board of Regents; two members of the Michigan State University Board of Trustees; and two members of the Wayne State University Board of Governors."

A tour of bowling lanes in the area was on the agenda for the afternoon. Brown says that he thinks campaigning in bowling alleys is much more effective than in the shopping centers as the people aren't moving from one spot to another as they are in the shopping centers.

The day had started early for Brown who had boarded the commuter train in Birmingham in an effort to acquaint the more than 700 passengers to Detroit with the educational posts and with his own qualifications.

A graduate of the University of Michigan Brown is especially interested in the residential college program and the student aid for deprived, qualified high school graduates.

He says that he attributes much of his success in the business world to his U. of M. degree and now with both the time and the energy available hopes to repay his school through service on the Board of Regents.

Senior Citizens To Be Feted at Tea Friday

A special tea for all senior citizens is planned for 1:30 p.m. in the lobby of Livonia Cinema I and II in the Livonia Mall, General Cinema Corporation, operators of the theatre, are sponsoring the event during the theatre's anniversary week celebration.

Persons over 65 attending the tea receive a card, entitling the bearer to reduced admissions at the Theatre.

Police Chief Quite a Shot

Robert Deadman, Chief of the city police department, now has another claim to fame.

He is a champion shot with a pistol.

In competition during the past few weeks in the South Oakland Police Chiefs' Pistol Match he made his mark.

Girl Scouts Hold Annual Bonfire

The annual bonfire for Junior and Cadette Girl Scouts of South East Neighborhood was held on Friday, October 7, 1966, from 7:30 till 9 p.m. The girls and Leaders met by the Fire Ring (by tennis courts) in the Farmington City Park.

Fire laying, fire lighting and singing were led by senior troop 258, leader Mrs. Fred Reagan and Mrs. Georgia Dennis' Cadette troop 921.

Vivian Tells Of Exams For Federal Jobs

U.S. Congressman Wes Vivian announced in Washington that college students from the Second Congressional District will be eligible to compete in a nationwide Office and Science Assistant examination for many of the temporary jobs in the Federal departments and agencies that will be filled in the summer of 1967.

The examination includes a written test for jobs at grades GS-1 through 4, with salaries ranging from $69 to $92 per week.

The test for jobs in the summer of 1967 will be given on three different dates in Adrian, Ann Arbor, Jackson, Toledo, and more than 1,000 cities and towns across the country.

Candidates wishing to take the test on Nov. 26 of this year must file applications by Oct. 21; those wishing to compete on Jan. 7, must file by Dec. 9, and candidates for the Feb. 4 examination must file by Jan. 9.

All interested citizens will be given equal opportunity to compete.

Vivian explained that those interested in Federal summer employment in 1967 should obtain a copy of Civil Service Commission Announcement No. 401 entitled "Office and Science Assistant Examination for 1967."

Shrine Dinner Set

The Greater Farmington Shrine Club will hold its annual Ham and Shrimp Stag dinner on Thursday, October 13, at the Glen Oaks Country Club, 30500 Thirteen Mile Road.

It is open to all Masons and friends. Free refreshments on tap, live entertainment. Social hour at 6:30. Dinner at 7:30. For reservations call GR 4-3060; 836-0412 or 862-1760.

CO-STAR LLOYD NOLAN lectures stars Paul Ford and Jim Hutton for being tipsy in "Never Too Late." The Warner Bros. comedy also stars Maureen O'Sullivan and Connie Stevens. The film, which was a successful Broadway comedy, is now showing at the Mai Kai Theatre in Livonia.

'Oliver' Cast Announced; Egan Has Head Fagin Role

Howard Egan has been cast as Fagin with Mark Savage taking the role of Oliver in the upcoming Livonia-Redford Theatre Guild production of "Oliver."

The musical will hit the boards Nov. 25 and 26 and Dec. 2, 3, and 4. Gerald Benenschen is the director.

Piano Auditions Slated for Dec. 3

The Livonia Youth Symphony Society will hold auditions for pianists interested in playing the piano solo part of Rhapsody in Blue with the Youth Symphony Orchestra at their Pops Concert on April 1.

The auditions will be held at Bentley High School in Livonia on Saturday, Dec. 3. Appointments for auditions may be made by calling Mrs. Harold Redinger at GA 1-8236.

Information regarding the parts of the piano score to be played at the audition may also be obtained from Mrs. Redinger.

Wally Roberts 'CURTAIN' UP GOING

"Three Mysteries with Two Clowns" opened last week at Lydia Mendelssohn Theater in Ann Arbor as the second APA play in the current fall season. The three one act plays that make up the program are bizarre, breath-taking, and beautiful.

At times old Wally felt the three one acts might have been re-titled "Three Clowns With Two Mysteries." The first play of the evening "Yeats' "Cat and The Moon" held little mystery, but did its best to be hilarious. The imaginative staging of the Yeats' poetic fantasy gave this seldom-seen Irish one act play real impact. It was a visual-auditory delight!

The second offering of the evening "Sweet of You To Say So" was little more than an extended character sketch.

Roger Williams Opens Season At Oakland

Oakland Community College's entertainment series gets underway Oct. 22 with the popular pianist Roger Williams.

On Nov. 3 the Broadway comedy "LUV" starring Nancy Walker and Scott McKay will be presented.

On Jan. 24, Godfrey Cambridge, the comedy star of many Ed Sullivan and John Carson shows, will hold forth along with fast-rising folk singer Carolyn Hester.

On Feb. 21, Columbia Records singing star Leon Bibb will be featured.

All performances will begin at 8 p.m. and will be staged at Southfield High School, 10 Mile Road and Lahser.

Tickets are $2.50 with season tickets available at $8.00.

For further information, write Oakland Community College, Community Services Division, 2480 Opdyke, Bloomfield Hills, 48013, or call 647-6200.

Art Show Will Feature Rina Gallery Work

An outstanding feature of the Second Annual Shaarey Zedek Art Exhibition and Sale, Oct. 23-30, will be the showing of works from Jerusalem's renowned Rina Gallery. It is of particular interest that the personable director of the gallery, Mrs. Bertha Urdang, will be in Detroit for the duration of the show.

According to Max M. Shaye, chairman of the Fine Arts Commission of Congregation Shaarey Zedek, the Rina Gallery represents the best artists in Israel. When the government sponsored Israeli art show toured this country last year, during which it was seen at the Detroit Institute of Arts, nine of the 22 artists included were from the Rina Gallery.

Scouts List Fall Roundup

Fall roundup is now underway. Cub Pack 167 held a parent and Cub Orientation night at Highmeadow School on October 4, at 7:30 o'clock.

All families of boys between the ages of 8-11, who are interested in joining the Cub Scouts were invited to attend this special meeting. A representative of the Boy Scouts of America spoke on the values and objectives of Cubbing.

Senior Citizens Plan Autumn Leaf Party

The Plymouth Senior Citizens Club will hold an Autumn Leaf Party, planned by Chairman Bertha Manning, on Wednesday, Oct. 19 in the Plymouth High auditorium from 7 to 10:30 p.m.

Dancing will be the feature of the program and invitations have been extended to the clubs in Northville, Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti.

Host and hostess for October are Mr. and Mrs. Forest McDonald with Chairman Mrs. John Githel and her committee of Ethel Grammel, Marie Gustafson, Rose Haray, Emma Ladzik, Louise Rice and Gertrude Sumpston.

The club will hold a regular meeting on Oct. 13 and a third meeting at a date to be announced. A pot-luck is slated for Oct. 27.

Dee Victor did a tremendous job of giving the mixed-up Southern Belle depth and dimension. The mystery buried deep within this play concerned the death of her daughter and how difficult it was for the mother to adjust to this tragedy.

"Sweet of You" is an original short play by Page Johnson. The first 10 minutes of this 20 minute acting exercise was quite effective and gave the audience every opportunity to smile sympathetically. The last part of the play fell apart as it became more and more abstract. You kept wishing for more understanding of the total picture which you never get.

Page Johnson would do well to do some more writing, revising particularly, with his short play. It could be expanded and perhaps end up a more satisfying one act play.

Last on the bill is Michael De Ghelderode's "Escorial," a new production of a modern European playwright. De Ghelderode is a Belgium avant-garde playwright. He falls into the same category as Ionesco, Beckett, and Max Frisch. These playwrights all write with an intellectual fervor and never write realistically. Their plays are abstract in language, form, and sometimes content. They constantly deal in symbols.

Consequently, "Escorial" while "on the surface" is a full-length portrait of a half-crazed monarch wondering how long before the common folk will take over and run his kingdom, the brilliant one act play says many other things about political power, the condition of society, and the violent nature of mankind.

Ellis Raab as the demonic King gave a virtuoso performance. At the premiere the audience shouted "Bravo" and gave him more than the standard number of curtain calls. The lighting effects in this production added to the over-all effectiveness and made it the show-stopper of the evening.

"Three Mysteries" will be part of the new Experimental series to be launched by the APA at the Lyceum Theater on Broadway later this season. My guess is that if the middle show "Sweet of You" is replaced with a bolder experimental play of higher quality, the APA-Phoenix will have another smash hit on their hands.

Helen Hayes is back with the company this week appearing in Pirandello's "Right You Are." Get tickets if you can for once again the magic of the "first lady of the American stage" will be glowing nightly in this Pirandello piece. It should not be missed.

Information regarding the parts of the piano score to be played at the audition may also be obtained from Mrs. Redinger.

Longacre P.T.A. Ready to Begin Another Year

The Longacre PTA will hold its first Fall general meeting of the new school year on Wednesday, Oct. 12, 1966, at 8 o'clock in the multi-purpose room of the school. This first meeting is of vast importance and interest to parents who have found the world of modern math rather perplexing this past year. Guest speaker of the evening Dr. Jack Cleveland, principal of Kenbrook Elementary School, Farmington, will discuss "Your Child and the New Math." A discussion period will follow.

Installation of the new officers will be held prior to the evening's meeting. Mrs. Loraine LeGros, past-president of the Farmington Area PTA Council, will preside during installation ceremonies.

Memberships to Longacre PTA Local will be available at a cost of $1.00 per couple or 50c per person.

Plan Classes For Auxiliary Policemen

The Auxiliary Police Office has announced that a basic training class for both men and women will start soon. These classes offer the finest training available under the direction of the Auxiliary Police organization and the Livonia Police Department.

Anyone over 21 years of age, interested in this training and serving the City of Livonia in this capacity, should call the Office of Civil Defense, 421-2000, Ext. 257, between the hours of 8:30 and 5 P.M.

Information may also be obtained after 5 P.M. by calling Captain DeBusk, 478-0373. The size of these classes will be limited and early application is advisable.

Farmington Players Will Present 'Othello'

The Farmington Players are working on "Othello" under the direction of Nancy Harrower.

This presentation of Shakespeare by a Little Theatre is unusual. The cast includes Joseph Papp, who plays the title role of Othello, the Moor of Venice; Richard-George Pedicini as Iago; Janice Salisbury as Desdemona; Bob Thomas, Dorothy Pupp, Stuart Orman, Al Pake, Harry Clarke, Dennis Broadhead and John Wilson.

"Othello" will play two more performances, Oct. 14 and 15. Tickets may be purchased by calling 626-2633.

Child Development Seminar Has Openings In New Class

How many times have you heard— "When should I say no to my children?" "Should I let them do what they want to?" "Do you feel that you are expecting too much of them?"

Are you setting the right limits and helping them reach attainable goals?" "If I continue as I am now, will my child become a well-adjusted, mature adult with high values and expectations, or do I need to have a better understanding of my grade school child and what the best way is to achieve this?"

These are words often heard by Mrs. Jean Ralph, principal at Fairview Elementary School. These questions and many others are discussion topics at the Child Development Seminar, sponsored by the Farmington Area YMCA.

The Seminar will run for eight sessions, meeting on Wednesday nights from 8:15 to 10 p.m. at the YMCA House located on Grand River, just east of Drake Rd. There are still openings for five or six people to join the class. In addition to Jean Ralph, resource people include: Jack Cyr, assistant principal at Farmington Jr. High; Miss Virginia Carley, counselor at Farmington Sr. High; Dr. Sanford Bloomberg, practicing psychiatrist in Farmington; and Margaret Morris, Seminar Moderator.

Topics for the sessions include: Intra Family Relationships, Physical Development, Grade School Years, Jr. and Sr. High School, Personality Factors in Sexual Development, and Discipline. There is ample opportunity to ask questions and share ideas and experiences. Informality and group discussion prevail in all sessions.

Garden City Lions Sponsor Essay Contest The Garden City Lions Club is cooperating with the International Lions in sponsoring an essay contest on the topic of peace. Local school students between 14 and 22 as of next Jan. 15, may call Sherman Harold, at 722-0275, of the Garden City Lions Club for more information and entry forms. The world-wide contest offers a total of $50,000 in awards, including a $25,000 first prize, eight semi-final regional awards of $1,000 each, and travel expenses for the eight winners to Chicago next July when the first prize winner will be selected. In addition, there will be 20,000 local, district, and multiple district awards to be made. A Lions Club spokesman, in announcing the essay contest on the world-wide representation of Lions, the attention given to international relations and friendship between different nationalities and their participation in international humanitarian programs were their credentials for the patronage of the contest. "The purpose of the contest is to develop a formula for world peace because we feel peace is attainable. We want to alert our youth to the need for world peace and focus attention on that important goal." The awarding of the contest prizes next summer is planned to coincide with Lions International's 50th anniversary.

Lick Inertia, Get Started On Fix-Up

Does inertia prevent your making a needed home improvement? Here's how to overcome it:

Forget the awesome "bigness" of the problem, whether it's a room addition or simply redecorating, suggests John Concord, home improvement consultant to Masonite Corporation. Take little steps first. Your growing enthusiasm then will overcome the startup inertia.

First, gather some ideas and put them down. Don't just dream them up on your own, but visit leading department stores which have completely furnished rooms. Read newspaper and magazine articles. Books are another source; also homes of friends.

As you research, write down your findings and decisions. Consult your lumber dealer, architect or builder, too, so you'll be on firm ground as the project emerges from inertia to reality.

Researching materials, appliances, heating, lighting, floor coverings and other items that go into remodeling can be fun and profitable, too. A project like this grows in interest as it develops.

Look at building materials in lumber yards, Concord suggests, and ask questions about what you see. Compare products, read company literature and get names of families that have used materials in which you are interested. They can tell how they worked out.

Preservative For Lumber

The development of odorless, colorless preservatives has greatly increased the popularity of wood for open sun decks, exposed trellises and architecturally styled fencing.

Lumber that is used close to the ground or under conditions of severe exposure should be pressure treated with chemical preservatives.

AMERICAN VERSION of Volkswagen sedan for 1967 incorporates more major improvements than ever before and even looks somewhat different than last year's model. Mechanical improvements include a more flexible engine for better all-around performance; progressive springing action for greater comfort; a dual brake system, and a new 12-volt electrical system providing brighter lights and faster cold weather starting. In addition to changing the shape of the engine compartment lid to provide greater lid-to-bumper clearance, the "beetle's" front fenders were slightly reshaped to provide improved headlight mounting.

Roosevelt Open House, Oct. 13

Teachers, staff members and students at Roosevelt elementary school are busy giving the school a new look for Fall. An open house is planned for Thursday, Oct. 13 at 8:30 p.m. All parents are invited to attend. Mrs. Ruth Knight, Roosevelt's new principal is welcoming the opportunity to introduce the new and veteran members of her staff.

Twelve new teachers were added to the faculty this year. Class rooms will be open for visiting parents and teachers will be present to answer questions. It is time also to renew or establish initial memberships in the PTA and a membership drive is being planned.

Senior Mike Reamer (Detroit-Catholic-Central) will captain Wayne State University's cross-country team for the second year in a row.

Peg-Board Gain Storage Space Helps Students

To overcome the lack of storage space in the usual college dormitory room, the thinking student will make liberal use of Peg-Board panels now available in wood-grains or ready for painting.

Ideas for its use are given by Norma Brown, home-making consultant to Masonite Corporation:

For wall bulletin board. This can be any size ranging from 2'x3' to 4'x8'. Small sizes can be hung like pictures; larger ones can be back-framed with 3/4" lumber fastened to the wall flat.

For storage on closet door—inside or outside. Perimeter lumber framing is needed so there's room to insert the metal or plastic Peg-Board fixtures. Hang anything from neckties to hats, shoes to golf clubs.

Sides of study table. Simply fasten to legs with screws placed through Peg-Board holes. Using metal brackets and wood shelves, the student quickly creates extra book shelves where he needs them.

Upper closet. Here the Peg-Board panels can hold seldom-needed items such as hat boxes and similar bulky objects which otherwise might be on the closet floor.

Meets Oct. 13

The next meeting of the Livonia Camera Club will be Thursday, Oct. 13 at 8 p.m. at Franklin High School, Room 613. Well-known cameraman John Gadjia will be present to talk and demonstrate on birds and animals. The Club is sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation and newcomers are welcome to the meetings.

GM Makes Changes in Fleet Staff

Realignment of General Motors fleet and government sales activities was announced by H. E. Crawford, GM vice president in charge of the Marketing Staff.

The new section of the Marketing Staff will be known as Fleet and Government Sales Section and will be under the direction of Albert T. Olson, formerly director of the Fleet Section.

It will be responsible for development and administration of policies and procedures pertaining to multiple unit sales and will offer assistance to GM car divisions in their dealings with branches of state, county and city governments as well as with rental and leasing and commercial businesses.

Robert L. Berg, formerly assistant director of the General Motors Fleet Section, becomes manager-Rental, Leasing and Commercial Sales. Charles B. Pinkstaff, formerly an assistant director of the Fleet Section, becomes assistant manager-Rental, Leasing and Commercial Sales.

John D. Riggs, formerly director of Government Sales, has been named manager-Federal, State and Municipal Sales. C. Russell Wilson, manager of the Washington office for Government Sales, has been named assistant manager-Federal, State and Municipal Sales.

New Plans Show Alcove, Baby Bed

Two new plans for bedroom improvements are available free from the Home Service Bureau. One shows how to build an alcove bed in a teenage girl's room; the other reveals how to place a baby's bath in a large closet and outfit it properly.

An alcove bed, as shown in plan AE-214, is located midway on a blank wall. It is flanked on each side by a closet. Overhead, and of course in the closets, are storage facilities.

On the wall back of the bed is an expanse of Peg-Board, useful for hanging a lamp, pictures and school mementos. Closets are lined with this useful material, too, because it offers so many storage possibilities.

Complete information for converting a closet into a baby's bath area is shown in plan AE-215. Included are details of a waste receptacle, diaper or towel carrying kit and "baby dryer."

For either or both plans, send a postcard to Masonite, Box B, Chicago, Ill. 60690.

Dutch Elm Woe Plagues College

A constant battle against the deadly Dutch elm disease has saved all but two of Pennsylvania State University's more than 400 trees and none has been lost since 1953, the division of Landscape Maintenance announced recently.

Lewis E. Barr, head of the division, says vigorous pruning and spraying with common sprays have won the battle. Trees are constantly checked for sick or dead limbs, which are quickly trimmed and burned.

Limbs that are too heavily shaded are removed and the wounds sealed with special black paint. Each spring, a fog-type spray is applied on windfree nights.

Easy Formula Aids Panel Computations

For the home owner interested in figuring how many panels he will need for finishing or remodeling a room, the Masonite Home Service has some easy rules-of-thumb.

They are:

1. Measure the room's perimeter, which is the sum of the widths of each wall. For an 18x15-foot wall, it equals 66 feet.

2. Convert the perimeter total into the number of panels needed. Since each panel is 4' wide, divide the perimeter, 66, by 4. The answer is 16½. Therefore, you'll need 17 panels.

3. Deduct for areas such as doors, windows, and fireplaces. Masonite gives the approximate deductions as follows for your estimating: Each door, ¾ panel; each fireplace, ½ panel.

4. Subtract your total deductions from the number of panels you originally determined. (Model room had two doors, two windows and a fireplace, so total deduction is 2-5/6 panels.) You, therefore, deduct 3 from the previous total of 17 to find you need 14 panels.

If height of the room is greater than 8', your lumber dealer can supply various Royalcote woodgrain patterns in longer lengths. He has a selection of 14 to offer for any interior decorating requirement.

COPE Sets Dance Date

The Wayne 19th COPE Committee is sponsoring a dance at the UAW Local 182 Hall, 35603 Plymouth Road, in Livonia (two blocks west of Wayne Road), on Saturday, starting at 9 p.m.

Donation of $2.50 per person includes beer, pretzels, set-ups and prizes.

Ticket chairmen are Phil Maggio and Nate Banks.

Others working on this affair are: Robert Walker, Angelo Angerilli, Clay Lawson, Angelo Bommarito, Charles Wiley, Caroline Maggio, Grace Banks, Juanita Fry and Mildred Rowland.

The public is welcome.

Retirees Stay in Own Area

Most of the time, Mom and Dad will prefer to remain in their own community when they retire.

Recent studies indicate that the majority of elderly persons do not follow the sun when they retire.

While many retirees migrate to the sunny lands of the south, southwest, and far west, most, it seems, prefer to remain where they have put their roots down and where they raised their families.

For these senior citizens, greater attention must be given to the home heating system.

An older person is more sensitive to changes in temperature and climate, and will need more heat to feel comfortable.

For all young people — young and old — a heating system should be draft-free, should provide instantaneous response to changes in temperature, should be zoned to give off maximum heat where needed, and should be noiseless while operating.

A hydronic (modern hot water) system is especially recommended for the senior citizen's home since it is considered a quality, trouble-free heating system.

A compact boiler heats water which is instantly circulated by piping throughout the house. Modern radiators or baseboard units distribute the heat in each room.

It Pays To Know Waterfowl

Now's Time to Get Furnace in Top Shape

Although warm weather is still with us, it's not too early to think about getting your home's heating plant in shape for winter.

In fact, you can avoid delays that normally occur when the first cold day arrives and heating contractors get busy with service calls.

furnace check-up is an inspection of your humidifier," say engineers.

Some humidifiers quickly clog with lime and sediment that make them useless. Others need replacement of plates, belts, or wheels to put them into shape. And, in some cases, a humidifier may be missing altogether.

Heating experts agree that a home needs a humidifier to assure that the indoor relative humidity level stays around 35 to 40 per cent. If humidity drops below this range, furniture and woodwork start to warp, static electricity becomes a problem, your nose, throat, and skin feel dry, and more heat is needed to keep you warm.

"But just because there's a humidifier on your furnace doesn't mean that you're safe," say engineers. "The humidifier has to be the right size for your house, and it has to be in top operating condition. That's why a humidity check at the start of the season is important."

The size of humidifier you need is based on the size of your house and its age. The older a house is, the more air leakage usually occurs. The more cold outside air that enters the house to be heated, the more humidification capacity you need.

Engineering studies show your home may need as much as 20 gallons of water vapor added to the inside air on a 0° degree day to maintain a comfortable humidity level. You should have a heating contractor figure out exactly what size humidifier you need.

Regardless of capacity, your humidifier should be a self-cleaning type that works well under all types of water conditions and requires minimum maintenance.

The best unit of this type (Humid-Aire FH300) uses humid-disk mesh "humid-discs" that rotate on a steel shaft in a stainless steel water reservoir. As the discs turn, they pick up water, hold it in suspension on the fine mesh screening, and expose it to the warm air stream from the furnace.

This principle of operation eliminates any chance of lime dust from being distributed throughout the home. Also, any mineral deposits which form on the humid-discs actually improve the unit's operation, a unique benefit.

A cabinet version of the humidifier is available for homes with hot water or steam heat, and for stores and offices. This unit is offered with a built-in electronic air cleaner as an option.

Don't wait until cold weather comes to discover that you need a new humidifier. Have the job done now and then be ready to enjoy wintertime comfort in your home.

That's the timely advice of heating experts.

Today's Buyers of Homes Demand Custom Features

Today's home buyer is a canny animal. And he's forcing a revolution in the home building industry.

Builders across the country are finding that their customers are no longer content with just four walls and a roof amid a sea of similar dwellings.

Buyers take a close look at the entire housing community, checking for desirable features such as underground utility lines, well planned street layouts, schools and shopping centers.

Inside the houses, they want many things that used to be considered extras, and they want them included in the mortgage. In this way, they feel, they can have these now and paying for them over 20 or 30 years will be a relatively painless way to have them.

All this has meant a great change for the builder. For one thing, it has meant smaller profits. Builders used to think they had to make a 10 or 12 per cent profit to stay alive. Today most are glad to get 5 per cent.

Still, they've met this challenge—mostly by a continuous upgrading of their product. The days of the "subdividers" are past, and the "land developer" has taken his place.

The subdivider of the 1950s learned how to put up a good house, but he didn't pay too much attention to the neighborhood.

The developer today uses good community planning as a selling point and realizes that just building homes is not enough.

In addition to the houses, he plans and often builds schools, churches, shopping centers, recreation clubs and facilities that will be needed to satisfy the social and economic needs of the development's future residents.

Interior planning and appointments of houses are much more complete. Most new houses offer, as a complete kitchen with all appliances and a complete home laundry center. Air conditioning may or may not be optional.

And lately, carpeting has been added to become one of the chief tools in selling houses. In these cases, however, not just any product will do.

In keeping with the upgrading theme, more and more builders are looking for brand-name products that will mean quality to their customers.

The inclusion of carpeting in newly-built homes is a story that has been gaining continuous momentum. For instance, virtually all new homes constructed in the west coast and southern states are carpeted before they are sold.

The main reason that builders cite for including carpet is simple—it increases sales.

Give An Old House New Lease on Life

Houses built 30 to 35 years ago still have lots of life in them. Trouble is, many of them no longer fit the requirements of the family. Children have moved away or in-laws have moved in.

One family in this situation got along fine until a mother-in-law broke a leg and needed a room on the first floor.

While she was recuperating in the hospital, the family decided to remove an old-fashioned porch, which was screened in each summer, and build a 16x16-foot addition in-keeping with the character of the Georgian-Colonial style of the house.

A large all-weather window facing the back yard and a smaller one facing a neighbor's yard were included in the specifications to give the room a view and add to its "hominess."

A included concrete stair was included at the rear, accessible through a glassed door and combination screen door.

The mother-in-law has easy access to the dining room through the original opening, now closed with louvered doors.

To match the 35-year-old wood siding, the owners decided on lap siding for several reasons: Its compatibility with the old siding, its durability, weatherability and good appearance.

Inside, assuring easy maintenance and a warm, hospitable appearance, the couple selected Royalcote hardboard paneling in a rich-appearing pecan woodgrain. The contractor found it easy to install these 4x8-foot sheets.

Fence for Storage

Want to make use of that five-foot strip of land between garage wall and property line? Build a storage fence that includes a roofed, two-foot-deep section for garden tools. Most building codes allow one set on the boundary line and as tall as six feet. Use western red cedar lumber for siding boards, framing and fence on the storage section.

A powder room, a built-in desk and a louvered storage wall were other features included. The addition, which the family jestingly calls the "East Room," sports a hide-away bed, a tall bookcase utilizing the woodgrained wall for an attractive back, insulation throughout, a durable floor covering, heat from the existing furnace and a flat roof with a balustrade and built with an additional bedroom "some day."

Dust Panels With a Brush

Woodgrain hardboard panels have luxury appearance, plus the advantages of long life and easy maintenance. Unlike many wall surfaces, these hardboard panels have built-in qualities that make housecleaning in the old sense a thing of the past.

Nowadays, the homemaker can dust the walls infrequently with a vacuum cleaner or periodically damp-wipe them with a sponge.

Common household stains yield readily, too. In case of wax crayon, lipstick, oil or grease found on Masonite Royalcote panels, wipe off excess first with a soft cloth and then follow up with a clean rag dipped in carbon tetrachloride, a household cleaning agent.

Other spillage caused by carelessness or accident won't mar the surface of these factory-finished hardboard panels, either.

By swabbing with a damp sponge or cloth dipped in water containing a milk detergent, the homemaker can readily remove alcohol stains, household bleach, vinegar, most inks and mercurochrome.

The warmth and beauty of woodgrained panels have been brought within the financial reach of any family because of recent developments in technology. Woodgrained hardboards are the answer, the Masonite consultant said.

Insects Gnawing on Your Lawn?

Ever wonder why insects are causing those ugly dead patches in your lawn?

An old saying goes, "There is nothing more evil than an underfed weevil." Yellow or brown patches of dying or stunted grass may be due to a number of causes, but usually they are a sign that soil insects have been using your lawn as a banquet table.

To prove it, try to pull up the dead grass. If the turf comes up easily with no roots attached, insects are probably present. If the dead grass still has attached roots, something else may be turning the grass brown.

Fall is a good time to get rid of soil insects — before they gorge themselves again next spring.

The offender may be grubs or larvae (the worm stage) of hard-shelled beetles. Grubs can usually be exposed by rolling back a few inches of soil, or as a liquid spray. To fertilize your lawn and control insects in one application, use a combination product containing chlordane and fertilizer.

The Japanese beetle grub has a voracious chewing appetite for nearly every plant root it can find. It spends most of its life as a white C-shaped grub in the soil and usually feeds on grass roots. By June the grub changes form and emerges above ground as a green metallic beetle with copper brown wings.

The female lives a little over a month, then lays her eggs in the grass roots. Grubs hatch in about ten days and feed on the roots until freezing weather forces them to burrow deeper in the soil for protection.

Other common kinds of grubs are the larvae of June beetles, also known as the June bug or May beetle, and the European chafer.

To keep these and other pests on a strict "no lawn" diet, apply chlordane insecticide as a dust or as granules mixed in the soil, or as a liquid spray. To fertilize your lawn and control insects in one application, use a combination product containing chlordane and fertilizer.

If plans call for making a new lawn this fall, or renovating an old one, chlordane can help you get off to a pest-free start.

Lauer-Gies Nuptials Tied

Guardian Angels Church, in Detroit, was the setting Friday evening (Sept. 9) for the marriage of Mary Margaret Lauer and David Lyle Geis.

The bride was given in marriage by her father Alden Lauer of Hazelridge Avenue, Detroit. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Geis of Riverdale Rd., Redford Township.

The bride's gown was white peau de soie with a shoulder train. She wore an elbow length veil and carried gardenias, carnations, and pink sweetheart roses.

Her attendants were dressed in rose burgundy and pink gowns and carried pink carnations. The bride's attendants were Marilyn Hoover, maid of honor, and Diane DeRykere.

The groom's brother, Timothy Gies, was best man and the bride's brother, Robert Lauer, was usher.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE BLACK

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Hoover-Black

Valerie Marie Hoover became the bride of George S. Patton Black in a double ring ceremony at St. Valentine Catholic Church in Redford Township recently. Father Sadler performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hoover, 15877 Knight, Redford Township, and the groom is the son of Henry T. Black of Corbin, Kentucky.

The bride wore a traditional floor length gown of chantilly lace with long sleeves, full tiered skirt, and a train. Her silk illusion veil was held in place by a seed pearl crown with aurora borealis drops. She carried a waterfall bouquet of white stephanotis and miniature carnations.

Patricia Peters of Redford Township was maid of honor. Susan Hoover was junior bridesmaid for her sister. The bridesmaids were Janice Judd of Farmington, and Thelma Gaudon of Flushing.

The attendants wore floor length empire waist gowns of moss green brocade with elbow length sleeves and a train with cream crepe skirt. The maid of honor's gown was gold and maize. They carried waterfall bouquets of yellow miniature carnations.

Gerald Black (groom's brother) was best man. The ushers were Frank Gaudon of Flushing and Roger Parks of Detroit.

The bride's mother chose a floor length gown of moss green and aqua brocade with empire waist and long sleeves, with matching accessories. Her corsage was white stephanotis and miniature carnations. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony in the club room at Uncle John's Pancake House, Redford Township.

An evening reception was held at the American Legion Hall, Beech Daly Road, Redford Township.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. George Black will reside in Detroit.

Newlywed McKindles To Live in Plymouth

Marcia M. Moore became the bride of James McKindles recently in a ceremony in St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Plymouth. Rev. Norman Berg performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. James Moore, of 521 N. Harvey, Plymouth, and the late Mr. Moore. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James McKindles, 261 N. Evergreen, Plymouth.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, James Moore. She wore a peau de soie gown with an A-line skirt with embroidered overlays. Alencon lace and seed pearls accented the neckline, bodice, and skirt with a detachable train. She wore a veil of silk illusion and carried white roses in a colonial nosegay.

The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. James Moore, was matron of honor. She wore a pale orchid taffeta gown with an empire waist of deep purple velvet. This gown also had a detachable train. She Cathy McKindler (groom's sister) Jean Watson and Lynn Lubig were bridesmaids. They were attired similarly to the matron of honor.

Lynn McKindles (sister of the groom) served as flower girl. She wore a miniature version of the other attendants outfits. John Price acted as best man with Jerry Kolak, Ray Christensen and Randy Sharnland seating the guests.

The bride's mother wore a pale pink suit with matching accessories and carried pink roses. The groom's mother wore an aqua coat ensemble of peau de soie with matching accessories and carried white roses.

Pamela Wise Weds Isaac C. Jones, Jr.

Pamela Wise became the bride of Isaac C. Jones, Jr., in a recent double-ring ceremony held in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Livonia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Wise, 17328 Starnwich Blvd., Livonia. The groom is the son of Isaac C. Jones, Sr., 4136 W. Fort St., Detroit, and Mrs. Bessie I. Taylor, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

The bride wore a white princess style lace dress. Her shoulder length veil had a headpiece of white lace and seed pearls. She carried a crescent bouquet of white carnations with a white orchid in the center.

Penny Wise (sister of the bride) was maid of honor. She wore a floor length beige crepe empire gown with a moss green coat.

Margie Williams, Marty Brozik, and Paula Matthews were bridesmaids. They wore floor length gold crepe empire dresses with gold brocade coats.

The flower girl, Linda Diplock, wore a floor length gold dress.

Russell Maker was ring bearer.

Ben Brozik was best man. Don Brothers, Bob Scruton, Roger Jones (brother of the groom), Bob Wise (brother of the bride) and John Katalenic were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a white crepe sheath with a mint green brocade coat with matching accessories.

After a trip to Hawaii, the newlyweds will make their future home in Detroit.

MRS. ISAAC C. JONES, JR.

The DRC Story

NOTES IN THE LITTLE BLACK BOOK REVEAL SECRETS WORTH BIG MONEY

The Notations Are Cryptic, But Meaningful. Seven men working in obscurity compile them. The notes are based on long years of experience gained from working closely with the complex characters in The World of Horses.

A footnote to the chart of each race at the Detroit Race Course often goes unnoticed. Yet, it is vital to the success of the Sport and to the satisfaction and enjoyment of the Racing Public.

A typical footnote will read: "IN GATE—4:22. OFF AT—4:22."

Doesn't look important, does it? Yet it is. It is a tribute to the efficiency and skill of Ed Anthony, the veteran DRC starter, and six assistants. It is a guarantee to the Owners and Trainers that their horses have been handled properly at the gate. It is an assurance to Fans that each Thoroughbred on which they wagered received the equal chance at the start to which he is entitled.

Anthony and his Starting Gate crew play their role in the growing popularity of racing with Michigan Sports Fans. They contribute to the thrills and excitement and the unmatched drama of the Thoroughbreds. We are racing daily, except Sundays, from now through November 5.

There is an age-old saying around race tracks which goes:

"Without a GOOD START, you can't have a GOOD RACE."

Ed Anthony subscribes whole-heartedly to that philosophy. Ed has had 40 years experience devoted to the Thoroughbreds as a jockey, trainer, assistant starter and starter. He dates back to the days when races were started from a web barrier, as still is the case in Europe. The starting gate, now standard equipment at United States tracks, was introduced in the mid-1930's.

"I remember when one of my jobs as an assistant starter was to put bacon grease on the 'arm' that raised the web barrier," Anthony says. "In those days it was common for horses to be at the starting position for 15 or 20 minutes. Now, they average about 30 seconds in the gate."

The job of Anthony and his assistants isn't limited to the afternoon races however. Each morning, throughout the DRC's 84-day meeting, they conduct "schooling sessions" for horses. Being schooled from the gate is one of the important parts of a Thoroughbred horse's education.

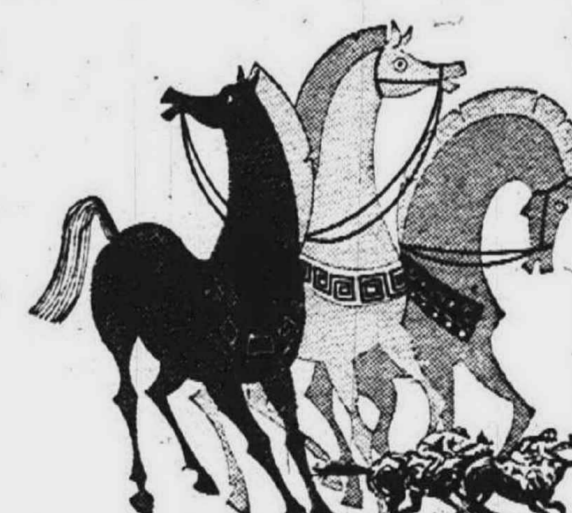

"Horses are much like children," Anthony says. "Some learn much faster than others, but it usually requires a minimum of two to three weeks to school a young horse from the gate."

It is from the schooling sessions, as well as the actual racing, that Anthony and his aides compile "The Little Black Book." The names and traits of each of the 1,200 horses at the DRC are in it. On this information, and the proper use of it, can rest the outcome of races and the many thousands of dollars wagered on them daily.

Before the races each day, Anthony makes up a program for each assistant starter, with notes on the habits and peculiarities of each horse. This determines the manner in which they are handled as they come to the gate.

On your next visit to the DRC, and I hope it will be soon, observe closely the work of the Starter and his aides. I think you will find it adds to your Racing interest and enjoyment.

Townsley-Julin Rites Read In Farmington

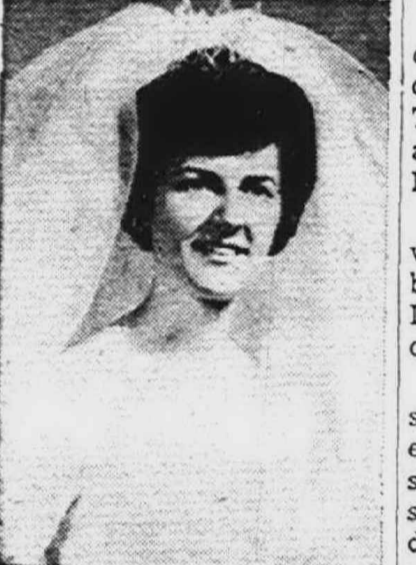

Doris Jean Townsley of Farmington and Robert Charles Julin of Detroit exchanged wedding vows Saturday, Oct. 8, in a 7:30 p.m. ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Farmington.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Townsley, 32252 Valleyview Circle, Farmington, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Adolph Julin of Stockholm, Wis., and the late Mr. Julin.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of white peau de soie, with re-embroidered alencon lace outlining the skirt and train. Her silk illusion veil was held in place by a Swedish crown of crystal and pearl, and she carried cascading white Fuji mums and white artificial grapes.

The attendants all wore gowns of avocado and mint green, with rust Fuji mums and artificial grapes in their floral arrangements.

Mrs. Robert Townsley of Livonia was matron of honor for her sister-in-law, and the bridesmaids included Mrs.

MRS. ROBERT JULIN

Russell Adams of Warren, Mrs. Robert Stiles of Novi, and Patricia Wendland of Dearborn.

The groom asked his brother, Paul Julin of Minneapolis, Minn., to serve as best man, and the ushers included two brothers-in-law, David Filmer of West Lafayette, Ind., and Morgan Meyer of Bayfield, Wis., the bride's brother, Robert Townsley of Livonia, Russell Adams of Warren and William Kevelighan of Southfield.

The Rev. H. Raymond Bayne officiated at the rites, assisted by the Rev. Walter Ballagh, Leon Anderson of Detroit was soloist and Mrs. Paul Whaley of Detroit furnished incidental violin music.

A reception in the church parlor followed the ceremony.

Following a two-week wedding trip to New England, the newlyweds will make their home in Detroit. Mr. Julin is employed as a Certified Public Accountant with Ernst & Ernst.

He is a graduate of Maiden Rock High School at Maiden Rock, Wis., and the University of Wisconsin. The new Mrs. Julin graduated from Clareville High School and attended the Detroit Bible College.

Guild To Meet Friday

The Detroit Handweavers' Guild will meet Oct. 14 at the International Institute, 111 E. Kirby at 11 a.m. Members may invite guests and visitors who wish to attend should contact Mrs. Charles Rumon at GA 2-1089.

UP AND OVER goes Carole Read of Farmington who won third place in Stadium Jumping and second place in Dressage at Centaur Farm Stables' one day event for senior riders. Carole is riding Carmel, Centaur's prize-winning horse who walked off with seven championships last fall in the Canadian Junior International Horse Show.

MRS. JOHN WALTER ROGOWSKI

Rogowski-Doherty Vows Spoken

Outer Drive Faith Lutheran, Detroit, was the setting for the marriage of Nancy Sue Doherty and John Walter Rogowski on Sept. 10.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Fenkell of Ivanhoe Drive, Plymouth. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rogowski, Evergreen Street, Detroit.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock by the Reverend Theodore Daniel against a background of flowers and candelabras.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride presented a picture in her classically styled gown of cameo ivory silk lined blended with point de Venise lace and Schiffli embroidery. From the bateau decolletage of the sleeveless bodice, a panel of the embroidery extended to the hem of the toe-touching gown, generously scattered with blossoms of the Venise lace.

The gown was dramatically cloaked by a princess coat which swept from the short capelet sleeves to a circular train. A court cap of matching fabric held her tiered veil of silk illusion.

She carried a colonial bouquet of butterfly orchids and starburst baby mums.

Maid of honor was Miss Linda Witenko of Detroit, Miss Patricia George, Plymouth, was a bridesmaid and Ann Fenkell, sister of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid.

The attendants wore identical floor length gowns of avocado green crepe with empire waists of ivory lace banded with velvet and matching headpieces. Their colonial bouquets were gold and bronze baby mums.

Robert Smith of Detroit served as best man. The ushers were Emmerick Lakits, Robert Washenko and James Reilly, brother-in-law of the groom.

The bride's mother chose a gold silk dress with bracelet length sleeves and matching accessories and pinned cypripedium orchids to her bag. Mrs. Rogowski, mother of the groom, wore a raspberry silk dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Since soccer began at Michigan State 10 years ago, the Spartans have produced eight first team All-Americans.

Douglas Bald served as best man, and the ushers were Carl Rea, Joseph Trombley, Robert Johnson and Harold Boatman.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gazan chose a beige lace gown, while Mrs. Molyneaux wore blue lace with a matching lace coat.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served at Devon Gables for 58 guests, and there was an evening reception at the American Legion Hall in Royal Oak.

After a wedding trip to northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Molyneaux are making their home in Detroit.

The bride, a graduate of Southfield High School, attended the University of Cincinnati and has a B.S. degree in art education from Wayne State University. Molyneaux is a graduate of Redford Union High, and the Detroit Institute of Technology.

Nancy Gazan, T. Molyneaux Wed at Shrine

Nancy Irene Gazan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Gazan, 29545 Minglewood Court, Farmington, became the bride of Thomas A. Molyneaux in a ceremony at the Shrine of the Little Flower Sept. 10.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Molyneaux, 20042 Kinloch, Detroit. Father Maurice Decker officiated at the 11:30 a.m. rites.

The bride's peau de soie gown featured an A-line skirt, empire waist and long tapered sleeves, with alencon lace at the waist and around the hem of the gown and train. A three-tier veil fell from her head piece of peau de soie trimmed with seed pearls and crystal beads. She was given in marriage by her father.

She carried a bouquet of phalaenopsis, orchids and stephanotis blossoms.

As her sister's maid of honor, Gloria Gazan wore floor-length gold chiffon with a velvet bow headpiece and veil. In similarly-styled moss green gowns and headpieces were the bridesmaids, the bride's cousin, Susan Wilmot of Royal Oak, Jonne Hasler of Cincinnati, O., Barbara Dobbs and Wendy Evans of Southfield and Antoinette Sanders of South Lyons.

All the attendants carried baskets of russet chrysanthemums.

The Distaff Side...

By Jerry Wendi, Women's Editor

While Jerry Wendi is "doing the town" and enjoying her vacation in New York City, W. W. Edgar, on an invitation and "dare", is writing the column for her. Last week it was diet—this week it's fashions. Ed.—

By W. W. EDGAR

Bustles to bikinis and mini skirts to hair pieces, women's fashions always have been puzzling.

For years and years they left everything to the imagination. Now, virtually, the only imagination left is to imagine what they would look like with clothes on.

But from the day she was fashioned from Adam's rib, woman always has been controversial and a clump of contrasts.

She'll run and scream at the sight of a mouse yet fondle and drool over a muskrat fur piece.

And she thinks that each new model was made for her alone.

I recall an evening in New York City some years ago where we attended a dinner at Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe. We had just arrived and were standing in the entrance when a cab pulled up and a lady stepped out. Before she took another step my lady was heard to scream, "Imagine, coming all the way to New York, and then finding a dress just like mine. Take me back to the hotel."

I looked around for a second. Three fellows close to me were wearing suits and hats that were duplicates of mine—but no one yelled.

In an attempt to soften the blow I leaned over to the lady of our house and whispered, "Do you think the company made only one dress like yours? They'd soon be out of business if they did."

"I don't care," she countered, "take me back to the hotel, I don't want to see another dress like mine."

Ever since then women's fashions have fascinated me.

Back in the old days the women wore bustles and hoop skirts and high necked waists. They wanted to be hidden from view as much as possible. And how they swirled on the dance floors doing the minute waltzes. Even if you wanted to dance close you couldn't.

Then, they reversed their field. Neck lines lowered, skirts went up and then even went to topless bathing suits. Imagine that!

This fad didn't last long.

Why? They tell the story of the woman who anxiously and eagerly made her appearance on the beach in the topless suit and was doing just fine until a fellow called, "Hey, buddy, got a math?"

That was her last appearance in the modern style. Not too many years ago a girl or a woman wouldn't think of answering the door, let alone be seen outside, if her hair was in curlers.

But today, it's different. Take a walk through any of our supermarkets and you'll find dozens of women with their hair in pink curlers. They look, for all the world, like Phyllis Diller and she looks, for all the world, as though she had been in the electric chair—and survived.

Then, there's the skirt fashion. It doesn't seem too long ago that no girl or woman wanted you to see her ankles. Their skirts fairly swept along the ground.

Gradually, the skirts shrank and the mini skirt, imported from England, looks almost like the ruffled edge of a sash. And this could be dangerous.

Just the other day the papers carried the story of a little boy who was found crying that he was lost and couldn't find his mother.

"Why don't you hold on to her skirt," the officer asked, and the crying youngster chokily answered—"I couldn't find it."

We could be raising a lost generation because of women's fashions.

I wonder if the British are trying to get even with us for the Revolutionary War of 1776. Could be.

Girls, it's been a lot of fun visiting with you, but now I must get back to work.

Gordon-Palm Wedding Held In Farmington Church

Judith Ann Gordon became the bride of William A. Palm, Jr., in a recent wedding in the First Methodist Church of Farmington. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gordon, 27315 Adelein, Southfield. The groom elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Palm, 321527 W.S. 20, New Carlisle, Indiana.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an empire gown of peau de soie, under a white eyelet overdress. She carried white asters and orchids.

Marcia Wadsworth was maid of honor, and Ann Zerst was bridesmaid. They wore lavender empire gowns with long sleeves. Their flowers were lavender fugi mums and purple asters.

Robert Palm was best man. Ushers were David G. Gordon, and John Wilk.

The bride's mother wore an olive green, two piece ensemble. The groom's mother wore an aquamarine two piece suit with matching accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Bonnie Brook Country Club for 150 guests.

The bride attended Western Michigan University. The groom graduated from Western Michigan University.

The couple will live in Utica.

MRS. WILLIAM A. PALM, JR.

BIG MOMENT for Mrs. Martha Place, 42430 Lakeland, Plymouth, came last Saturday when she was announced as one of the top winners of the bonus bingo contest conducted by the A&P chain. Mrs. Place received a check for $500 from the manager of the Plymouth A&P store on Ann Arbor Road.

Surround This Salad With Fresh Fruit

Chicken salad and fresh fruit are a great seasonal duo. For the salad, the National Broiler Council suggests combining 6 cups diced cooked chicken, 1 cup chopped celery, and 1/2 cup chopped nuts with a dressing of 1 cup mayonnaise, 1/4 cup lemon juice, 2 tablespoons honey, and 1 teaspoon curry powder.

Serve this superb salad on a platter bordered with cantaloupe wedges, pineapple slices, grapes, apricots, or peach halves yield: 12 servings.

Wells-Hunter Wedding Held in Pennsylvania

Kristi Kerr Wells, became the bride of Wayne Dennis Hunter in a recent ceremony in Christ Methodist Church, in Bethel Park, Pa.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Ralph Wells, Bethel Park. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Hunter, 32981 Biddestone, Farmington.

Dr. Harry N. Peeler performed the double ring ceremony.

length gown of candle-light linen trimmed with Venise lace at the sleeves and hemline.

Mrs. James L. Wahlers was matron of honor, Nancy Jo Hunter and Carol Louise Wells were bridesmaids.

Clyde Larson was best man. Donald Feys and Jay R. Wells III were ushers. The bride's mother wore beige lace and chiffon. The groom's mother wore blue lace and crepe.

The couple will make their home in Alpena.

Livonia Artist Depicts Christ's Life in Murals

Stan Hench, Livonia artist and public school art resource teacher, has painted two large murals to hang in the fellowship hall of the Methodist Church in Flushing, Mich. They will be unveiled later this month.

The two works depict aspects of the life of Christ and were commissioned last spring by the Rev. and Mrs. William Perkins, former Plymouth residents. The Rev. Perkins was minister of the Flushing Church from 1954 to 1958, and funds for the $150,000 hall were raised during his tenure. The hall, named in his honor, included spaces for the murals, and before retiring and returning to the Flint area last year he commissioned Hench to do the painting.

Executed in polymer, a plastic paint, the horizontal panels measure four by 12 feet and are based on Biblical quotations.

In one, Hench has attempted to parallel the life of Christ and contemporary man from childhood to manhood, with appropriate scenes from the Bible and related scenes of today. The theme is "And He Grew in Wisdom and Stature and in Favor with God and Man."

The other uses the theme "I Will Draw All Unto Me," and shows Christ with children of all races gathered about Him.

In both, Hench's emphasis has been on the humanity of Christ.

The artist lives with his wife, Ailene, and their six children at 30130 Minton.

CYO Slates Swimming Instructions

Boys and girls from eight through 14 years of age may enroll now for swimming lessons in the CYO's highly successful water safety program. The CYO will offer beginning and intermediate swimming instruction at two pools on the East Side and three on the West Side, starting Nov. 5 and continuing on Saturday mornings through Feb. 25.

Deadline for applications is midnight Tuesday, Oct. 18. Complete information on the program may be obtained from the CYO office, 305 Michigan Avenue, telephone 963-7172.

Classes will be held at the Denby and Osborn High School pools on the East Side, and at the Cody and Mumford High School pools on the West Side, with separate pools for boys and girls. Classes will also be offered for girls only at the Visitation Community Center.

Registration fee is $10 per person. Those enrolling for the beginners course must be at least 48 inches tall. Those enrolling for the intermediate classes must have earned their beginner's card from the American Red Cross.

Two qualified Red Cross instructors will be assigned to each class, assuring adequate individual attention.

Rabbi Wine Due To Lead Classes

"Humanism As A Philosophy of Life: The Testimony of Eight Humanists" is the title of the Fall Class being offered by the Adult Education Committee of the Birmingham Temple.

The ten-week course of instruction and discussion will meet every Monday night beginning October 3, through December 5.

The views of August Comte, John Dewey, Eric Fromm, Julian Huxley, Corliss Lamont, Walter Lippman, Bertrand Russell, and George Santayana on the meaning and goals of life will be carefully analyzed and serve as a basis for class discussion with Rabbi Sherwin T. Wine.

Classes will meet from 8:30 p.m. until 10 p.m. at the Robert Frost Junior High School in Oak Park. For information call S. R. Velick 542-4591.

Women Fete New Choral Members

"Around the World with Music" is the theme of the Livonia Women's Chorus annual fall membership tea, set for 8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 12 (tonight) in the Clarenceville high school choir room.

Leaders of the singing group said this is the last call for prospective members this fall. The chorus is beginning work on its Christmas concert which will be presented early in December.

The chorus is made up of women who enjoy both concert singing and musical staging. Two formal concerts are presented each year, as well as numerous appearances before local and out-of-town organizations.

Sponsored by the Livonia department of parks and recreation, the chorus is highly recommended by assistant superintendent William Zirblis.

"Joining a vibrant group such as the Livonia Women's Chorus will stimulate the dormant talents within the musically inactive woman as well as satisfying the accomplished singer," he said.

Women interested are urged to call Mrs. Kenneth Aird, 427-4346 for more information.

Lutheran Brotherhood Branch Formed

Formation of a Lutheran Brotherhood local branch at Christ the King Lutheran church, Livonia, has been announced by Carl F. Granrud, chairman of the board of directors and chief executive of Lutheran Brotherhood, fraternal insurance society. Officers are Beverly Kunz, president; Mary Lou Fay, vice president; Joan Berry, secretary, and Marian Miller, treasurer. The Rev. Kenneth D. Larkin is pastor of the church.

Creighton Alumni Slate Big Party

Earl W. Bunkers, 1684 Gloucester Rd., Plymouth, president of the Detroit Creighton Club, is in charge of arrangements for a special party Oct. 19 for two staff members from the Jesuit school in Omaha, Neb.

Special guests at the event in Detroit will be the Rev. Carl M. Reinert, S.J., president of the Creighton Development Foundation, and Bernard J. Conway, director of Creighton alumni activities.

Creighton alumni reside in Farmington, Grand City, Livonia, Plymouth, Redford Township and Westland.

State Baptist Group Holds Convention

The 130th anniversary of the Michigan Baptist Convention will be observed at the annual meeting of the convention, October 13-15, according to Dr. Gordon H. Schroeder, pastor of the Redford Baptist Church where the convention sessions will be held.

The national president of the American Baptist Convention, Mr. Carl Tiller, a layman from Washington, D.C. who is head of the U.S. Bureau of Budget Methods, will highlight the three-day convention.

A missionary forced to leave Burma because of the new nationalistic spirit, the Rev. Robert Johnson, will speak at the opening session Thursday evening and again Friday afternoon.

The ecumenical spirit will be evidenced at the convention by addresses by two Southern Baptist leaders — Dr. Foy Valentine, Director of the Christian Life Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, and Dr. Fred Hubbs, executive secretary of the Southern Baptist churches of Michigan.

LOOKING AT NEW ORGAN, which she won in a contest conducted by the Robert P. Rogers and Sons organ agency, 27610 Schoolcraft, is Mrs. Della Swift and daughter, Janet, of 9930 Doris, Livonia. The organ had been on display and demonstrated for a month previous at the Shopper's Fair store on Plymouth Road at Middlebelt. That's Bob Rogers, owner of the organ company, watching Mrs. Swift try out her new organ.

Retreat Scheduled

The Annual Retreat for the women of Wayne Western Deanery of the Detroit

Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women is slated for November 4 through 6 at Mt. Mary Reparatrix.

Scholarships for Older Women Get Boost from Local WSU Group

A new concept in educational aid-help for the mature woman working part time to complete her college requirements—is being furthered by the Women of Wayne Alumni Farmington-Livonia club.

The group recently contributed $100 to a special fund set up at Wayne State University to help women over 25 who need to return to work or wish to complete college degrees.

Mrs. R. Dewey Hansen, 13261 Bobrich, Livonia, is president of the local Women of Wayne group and served on a committee that worked with Hal Kruger of the WSU Financial Aids office to choose recipients of the funds.

The committee considered only women who would be in school on a part-time basis, Mrs. Hansen said, because there are scholarships and loans available to qualified students who can carry a full schedule of classes.

One of the recipients this year, she reported, was a young divorcee with two small children who needed to complete her degree in social work.

The Women of Wayne national council, an organization of WSU alumnae groups from all around metropolitan Detroit, has given particular attention in recent years to the problem of women who wish to return to the classroom or business later in life.

The special scholarship fund was one of the outgrowths of that concern. This is the Farmington-Livonia group's first contribution to this particular project, and the money came principally from proceeds from the club's theater party last May.

The club is open to all women from Plymouth, Northville and Redford as well as Farmington and Livonia who are Wayne graduates or have taken classes there. Those interested are urged to call Mrs. Hansen at 421-6018 or Mrs. Cameron Lodge, of Plymouth, 453-6318.

Valpo Group at Grace Lutheran

"On Wednesday, Oct. 19th, 12 noon, at Grace Lutheran Church, 25630 Grand River Ave., the Detroit West Chapter of the Valparaiso University Guild is having a "Luncheon Is Served" luncheon, and a "Bee Line" fashion show.

Members of the Guild will model these lovely fashions after which the luncheon guests may try them on and place an order. There are Bee Line Fashions for men and children, too.

Tickets, $1.25, may be purchased from any Guild member.

V. Fox to Play St. Paul Organ In Dedication

Virgil Fox, world-renowned organist, will give two dedication recitals on the new 94-rank Rodgers organ at St. Paul's Presbyterian church at 8 p.m. Friday and Sunday, Oct. 14 and 16.

The church is located at 27475 Five Mile, Livonia.

Fox, organist at the Riverside Church in New York City, has played nearly every important organ in the world and is the only non-German ever to play the Leipzig organ in the church where Johann Sebastian Bach served as organist.

The Rodgers organ was installed this summer in the recently-completed St. Paul's GUEST SPEAKER, at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services of the First Methodist Church Sunday in Plymouth will be Henry Lacy, executive secretary for India and Nepal, of the World Division of the Methodist Board of Missions. Lacy will discuss the new emphasis in missions by the Methodist Church.

Buxom Belles Celebrate 10th Anniversary with Luau

The cool weather did not chill the enthusiasm of the Buxom Belles at the Hawaiian Luau recently at the home of Mrs. William Clifford in Farmington.

The Polynesian theme was carried through to the smallest detail with potted trees and plants. The guests sat on cushions and ate new and exciting Hawaiian dishes served on a low table covered with a dark green cloth and artistically decorated with bright red flowers, fresh fruit and colorful candles. Mrs. Joan Hador gave her interpretation of the hula dance.

The members (dressed in sarongs or mumus) and garlanded in leis gathered together to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the T.N.T. Chapter of the Buxom Belles.

The clubs two counselors, Kay Huggins and Joan Klauka from Warren took part in honoring three women who joined ten years ago.

The honored members were Mrs. Harold Compton, Mrs. Otis Harris and Mrs. David Krings.

All have served as president to the chapter and in other offices as well as lending valuable support to everything the club has undertaken.

The women were given engraved charm bracelets with a tiny scale to show the appreciation the members feel for their loyalty to the club and their living example they have been to encourage other women to reach and maintain their goal.

Card Party Date Is Set By Deanery

The Wayne Western Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women will hold its annual fund-raising event on October 20. A Card Party will take place at 8 p.m. at St. Sabina's School Hall, 25605 Ann Arbor Trail, between Telegraph and Beech-Daly Roads.

Mrs. Mary Ansman is general chairman of the event and is assisted by her co-chairman, Mrs. Audrey Karr, both of St. Linus Parish in Dearborn Heights.

Others working on committees are Mrs. Aline Spiewak of Livonia, table favors; Mrs. Alvina Andrezyl of Taylor, table prizes; Mrs. Eleanor Gav-in of Dearborn Heights, refreshments; Mrs. Jane Wojtan, of Livonia, Publicity; and Mrs. Ann Brady and Mrs. Rose Bagdady, both of Livonia, in charge of hostesses.

Mrs. Elaine Klauke of Garden City is working on special prizes.

The first prize will be a portable 12-inch television.

Five Plymouth High Seniors Get Commendations

Five Plymouth High seniors have won letters of commendation in the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test, according to information received by Assistant Principal John M. Hoben.

The five are: Mary Bloom, Clark Chapin, Theodore Johnson, Tracy Ketchman and Janet Silvis.

The letters of commendation make the five eligible to receive financial assistance towards their college education.

Socially Speaking Around Plymouth

By Dorothy Sincock

GL 3-0038

(Call to report social events in your family, neighborhood)

Very impressive was the Girl Scout songfest in Kellogg Park on Thursday evening. Approximately 200 Scouts and parents gathered around an open fire for a community sing.

Arrangements were made by JoAnn Bublitz, leader of a Junior Troop, while Cadette Leader Janice Fox was responsible for the preparation of the ceremonial fire.

On hand to direct the singing was Ann Fowler who has become a symbol in the Scouting World of Plymouth area. Ann, mother of three girls, has spent 17 years in scouting, 10 as an active Girl Scout and seven as a leader.

Ann believes Scouting has done much for her and given her many wonderful experiences.

This past summer she drove a busload of girls to Washington for a week's visit.

It's a trip to Pakistan for Business and Professional Women on Oct. 17 when the World Affairs Committee co-chaired by Grace Rix and Kathryn Bock take over.

Mrs. Hamida Kahn and Miss Ami Munimuddin, students at the Univ. of Mich. attending the English Language Institute, will be on hand to tell of their country, its customs, changes, and the great part women are now playing.

It will be in the Hillside Inn's Jacob room at 6:30 p.m. and reservations must be in by Friday of this week to Nora Horn or Daisy Proctor.

Mrs. Bruce Spratling, of 11849 Amherst Ct., Plymouth will open her home for a meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. Cy Frid from Northville will speak on the Scandinavian Countries on Oct. 17 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Herbert Anderson of 42115 Lakeland Ct. will entertain the Plymouth Lake Pointe Garden Club on Thursday Oct. 13 at 8 p.m. The group will hold a plant exchange and will finalize plans for the annual rummage sale at the Plymouth Credit Union on Oct. 28-29.

Plymouth was well represented at the Lydia Mendelssohn Theater in Ann Arbor on Thursday when several Plymouth students attended the "Triple Premiere" which consisted of three one-act plays, part of a series of presentations for the fall season of Student Matinees.

Mrs. Robert Delaney along with Nancy Kincaid, Sally Childs, Debbie Broderick, exchange student Birgith Hansen and Cornelia Delaney were present. Mrs. John Broderick, Duane Criger, and Michael Broderick also attended in still another group.

Visiting the apple orchards, nature hikes and field trips are on tap for the Plymouth Children's Nursery. The various groups met informally to discuss the coming year's program at the school.

Acting as hostesses were Marilyn Cowl of Crestwood Drive and group instructor

Pat Cederberg; Jo Parshall of Stonecrest Drive and teacher Lois Stuart; Jean Harsha of McKinley street and Jeanette Hopkins; Rita McClumpha of Warren with Pat Kleckner.

Special health precautions recommended by the Nursery's consulting physician, Dr. Joseph Jender, were reported at each group session.

The general membership meeting is being dispensed with so all members may attend a day-long conference of the Huron Valley Council of Cooperative Nurseries in Ann Arbor on Nov. 12.

Betty Sonnega at 453-6069 will furnish any information needed on the Conference or the Nursery itself.

A fun day for Plymouth High students—Making a trip to Lansing were Ray Homer's International Relations and John Thomas' Comparative Government classes. The group left by train to spend the day at the Capitol and bring back first hand information of procedures.

Attending the Children's Lecture Series, Indian Dance Group on Saturday Oct. 1 were six children from the Wayne County Training School who were the guests of Miss Twyla Hartley. Watch for the next production sponsored by the American Association of University Women.

COMPLETING PLANS for the afternoon tea honoring Mrs. Robert Griffin, wife of Senator Griffin, Thursday at 1 p.m. in the meeting room of the Plymouth Credit Union, are hostesses: (from left) Mrs. Tina Powell, Mrs. Jean Jabara, Mrs. Jennie Feld and Mrs. Sally Petersen.

Plymouth GOP Women To Meet Mrs. Griffin

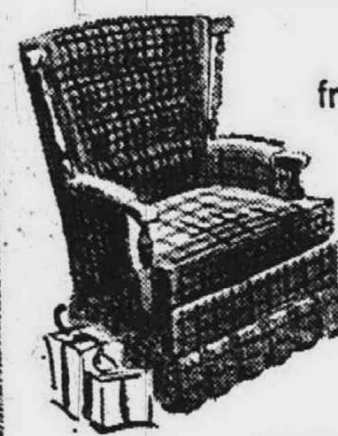

Mrs. Robert Griffin, wife of Michigan's Junior Senator, will be the guest of honor at a tea on Thursday, Oct. 13 at 1 p.m. The Plymouth Credit Union's community rooms will be the scene of the fall meeting of the Plymouth Area Republican Women's Club.

All women of the Plymouth area including Northville are invited to come and meet the wives of the candidates of the Republican party. Mrs. John Tripp, of Plymouth, wife of the candidate for the 36th district representative seat and Mrs. Marvin Esch, wife of the candidate for the 2nd Congressional district, also will attend.

Do electric dryers really cost less to buy? Do you really get no-charge service?

Do kids like ice cream?

The answer, of course, is a rousing YES! Model for model, electric dryers cost from $20 to $40 less than gas dryers. And every electric dryer is backed by Edison's No-Charge repair service. No charge for any electrical parts. No charge for labor. Edison is the only utility company in this area that offers no-charge repair service.

Can you get this kind of worry-free assurance with a gas dryer? Sure—with a manufacturer's repair service policy. But it will cost you up to $120 over the first five years of operation alone!

One thing more, Edison's No-Charge repair service applies even if you don't buy your dryer from Edison—so long as the dryer is electric and you get your electricity from Edison. And if you buy now from a participating dealer, the low price you pay includes the cost of wiring, if any's needed. So when you add it up, an electric dryer can save you up to $160 in just a few years. That can keep the kids in ice cream a good long time. EDISON

Now Is Time to Start Baking Holiday Fruit Cakes

By FAITH GILLESPIE

Now is a good time to bake fruit cake.

No, it isn't too early—the longer your cakes have to ripen, the better they get. And now is far more preferable for the busy housewife, because come November, time is increasingly taken up with all the preparations for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

I think that is the reason why so many mothers see fruit cakes as a difficult undertaking. The pressures mount, and there are so many things to do, so it is easier to buy a fruit cake or two, even if it means sacrificing some flavor and goodness.

The best fruit cake I ever tried was one that won the blue ribbon at the State Fair in 1962. It was baked by a marvelous lady named Mrs. Emilio Carlini, who lives in Lincoln Park.

I talked to Mrs. Carlini myself; it was one of life's pleasures to listen to her as she told how she experimented and developed this recipe.

Here, complete with her personal directions, is Mrs. Carlini's

FRUIT CAKE PARADISO

Grease a nine-inch tube pan, or two loaf pans, and line with two layers of foil. ("Don't grease the foil. Who needs to taste grease?")

Sift together three cups flour, one teaspoon baking powder, and one teaspoon salt.

Then cream together 1 1/2 cups sugar and 1/2 pound butter ("If you substitute margarine, it's not bad, but it's not in my recipe.")

Add one at a time 4 eggs, beating till just mixed. ("Do not overbeat.")

Stir in 1/2 cup apple jelly, softened over hot water. Add sifted ingredients alternately with 1/2 cup milk. ("You always start with flour and end with flour, it's a best.")

Pour the batter over one pound candied cherries, one pound diced candied pineapple, 1 1/2 cups golden seedless raisins, and three cups broken ("not chopped") walnuts. ("My family likes, but you could use pecans.") Mix together "with not a heavy hand."

Turn batter into pans and bake at 275 degrees for about three hours for the tube pan, or 2 1/2 hours for loaf pans. Test for doneness before the time is quite up; do not overbake. To keep the cake moist, place two cups of water in a pan on the bottom shelf of your oven during the baking.

Cool in the pans on a rack. Leave cakes in pans fill the next day. Remove and wrap carefully, air tight. Store in a cool dry place. If you want to store the cakes in your refrigerator, Mrs. Carlini says, "It must be moisture proof, all. I do with double foil, double plastic bags and a covered tin."

You may decorate the cakes before baking, but Mrs. Carlini told me, "It is so beautiful a cake. You're foolish if you decorate that cake, for what? To cut?"

If you have never made fruit cakes before, it wouldn't hurt to read the general directions about them in your cook book. It really isn't as hard to do as it may seem, especially if you're not in a rush.

So now the kids are back in school, and the days have a different shape than they did a month ago, or than they will have a month from now, when you find yourself thinking, "Good grief, it's going to be Christmas."

If I ever get the summer clothes packed away, and find all the winter coats, and find out whose boots still fit and whose don't, and plant the tulip and daffodil bulbs, and choose a perfect Christmas card early (for a change), then maybe a tranquil day will dawn, and it will be fruit cake day. Will you join me in this pleasure?

MAEDC Christmas Cards Now Ready; Assist Children

Christmas cards drawn by children are now available through the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children, Redford Chapter. "A Partridge in a Pear Tree," a colorful painting of the Christmas song, was painted for the Association by a young girl in treatment for emotional problems. "Sculpture" by Jackie Bignall of Midland is a picture of a sculpture which was among the winning designs in the Annual Dow Corning Christmas Card Competition.

The Christmas Cards are an annual event scheduled to promote the art of children and the work of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children in addition to being the only fund-raising project for Redford Chapter.

The cards are $1.00 per package of 10 through Redford Chapter's Christmas Card Chairman Janice Armour, 531-6342. Orders will be delivered free of additional charge in the areas served by the Observer Newspapers and are also available at the Observer Office; 33050 Five Mile Road; Livonia, Michigan.

Offer Tips On Care Of Summer Duds

Packing away summer clothes and house furnishings is no great chore if you organize to put every item away thoroughly clean, and in a dustproof container to keep it clean, says Mrs. June Sears, Extension Home Economist of Wayne County.

Planning operations saves time, energy, and nerves. First list everything you want to store for the winter and provide suitable cartons, boxes, or bags to put them in. Then check which items can go in the washer, grouping loads so you can take a batch of laundry from the dryer or line and put it into proper storage containers.

Plastic boxes, bags, and "sweater sacks" (which can be used year after year) should be swabbed, inside and out, with a sudsy cloth before being packed with clean things. If you use cartons, make sure they are in good condition and dusted advises Mrs. Sears.

Pick a clear day to launder and process summer blankets, slipcovers, and curtains. When dry, fold neatly and store them in plastic bags or sheeting; or wrap them in heavy paper and seal the edges with cellophane tape.

Machine-wash summer throw-rugs in plenty of suds — one at a time, if necessary, to avoid overloading. Dry flat on the grass or over parallel lines. Or use a dryer at low temperature to protect any non-skid backing.

Inspect the family's hot weather togs to discover special spots and stains which need pre-treatment. Scrub grass stains with hot water and soap or detergent suds, using a mild bleach if necessary. Then wash promptly in fresh suds. To remove mustard, sponge with cool water, rub with warm glycerine, then wash in hot suds.

Soft drink stains are usually colorless at first, but may turn brown. Sponge with cool water or equal parts of alcohol and water; then apply glycerine, let stand half an hour, rinse, and launder in hot suds. To remove rust from white fabric, sprinkle with salt, squeeze on lemon juice, and spread in the sun. Massage grease with thick lather before washing.

Dry all garments before packing, and omit starch which is the favorite food of silverfish. Also skip ironing. Pack knits flat and fold or roll other things without crowding any one container. Seal with cellophane tape, label each package clearly, and store on clean shelves — heavy containers underneath, lightweight packages above. Summer woollens should be spotless, then place in moth-proof containers.

OCC Adds To Its Staff

The following appointments to the staff of Oakland Community College have been approved by the OCC Board of Trustees.

Charles B. Martin, 2824 Adlake, Pontiac, has been appointed Administrative Assistant-Systems Analyst. Martin has been a programmer for Pontiac Motor Company and most recently been associated with the Community Systems Foundation, Ann Arbor.

Dr. Michael Tucci, 57 Aspen, Birmingham, was appointed Director of Community Studies. Dr. Tucci received his Doctorate in Psychology from Michigan State University in 1961 and was most recently Director of Active Community Teams (ACT), a project of the Detroit Commission on Children and Youth.

Donald R. Johnson, 4769 Halsstead Road, Walled Lake, was appointed part-time Associate Instructor in Drafting at Highland Lakes Campus.

James P. McMahon, 557 E. 14 Mile Road, Birmingham, was appointed Instructor-Librarian at Highland Lakes Campus.

In other Board action, Maurice VanGordon, 358 Lakeside Drive, Millford, formerly Superintendent of Buildings & Grounds, was appointed Assistant Director of Plant Services, and Kenneth Currie, Buyer in the Business Department, was appointed Assistant Director of Purchasing.

Sears 30-Month High Voltage Batteries

Scaled-in Power
Strong 100% epoxy bonded case and top form a permanent seal. Won't deteriorate like asphalt.

Stays New Looking
The one-piece top stays far cleaner than conventional battery because there are no links to corrode and drain-off power.

More Starting Power
Through-the-Partition Connectors, shortest path between cells for minimum resistance, more starting power. Turns starter up to 15% faster, 15% longer, for up to 24% more turns.

Recharges Faster
Less resistance lets the High Voltage Battery recharge quicker. Summer stop and start driving are less of a threat to your car battery's life.

30-Month Guarantee
Free replacement within 90 days of purchase, if battery proves defective. After 90 days, we replace the battery, if defective, and charge you only for the period of ownership, based on the regular price less trade-in at the time of return, prorated over number of months of guarantee.
