Township Opens Fourth Charter Move on April 4

The gong has sounded and round four in the continuing battle by Plymouth Township against annexation moves will begin April 4 in a Charter Commission election. The date was approved by the Wayne County Board of Supervisors Thursday to set the stage for the fourth election in the Township on the question of incorporation into the City of Plymouth Heights.

From all indications it appears as if the incorporation issue is a major item in the Township. Actually, the Charter and incorporation elections are held to stall off any annexation moves by the Cities of Livonia and Plymouth.

in 1959 when the voters rejected the incorporation. But what had happened was that there were annexation moves by the City of Plymouth towards the industrial belt of the Township along Plymouth and Eckles Roads. The only sure way to halt annexations was action towards incorporation into a city. The Township has used this subterfuge three previous times and now has started the ball rolling towards a fourth election. It was just two years ago in September that the third incorporation movement went down to a crushing defeat in a vote of Township residents.

The previous elections, each of which lost by a resounding majority, were held on Feb. 16, 1959; July 25, 1961, and Sept. 1, 1964.

Supervisor John McEwen was elected Mayor defacto in each and still has that title along with that of chief executive of the Township.

The first step in the Charter proceedings is the election of a Charter Commission of nine members. Township Clerk Mrs. Helen Richardson Monday warned that nominating petitions must be filed on or before Feb. 14.

Each petition must have at least the signatures of 25 qualified Township voters. The rules also specify that members of the 1964 Commission aren't eligible for reelection. However, those who served on the 1959 and 1961 Charter Commissions may file again.

The records of previous elections show that Maurice Breen was chairman in 1964 and James Garber in 1961. Mrs. Richardson couldn't locate the name of the 1959 Chairman.

The nine successful candidates in the April 4 election will be sworn in within 10 days by Mayor defacto McEwen and then have 90 days to submit the new proposed Charter to the Governor.

Generally, the Charter is presented to the Governor who turns it over to the Attorney General for examination. The latter makes suggestions for revisions and then sends the document back to the Charter Commission for action.

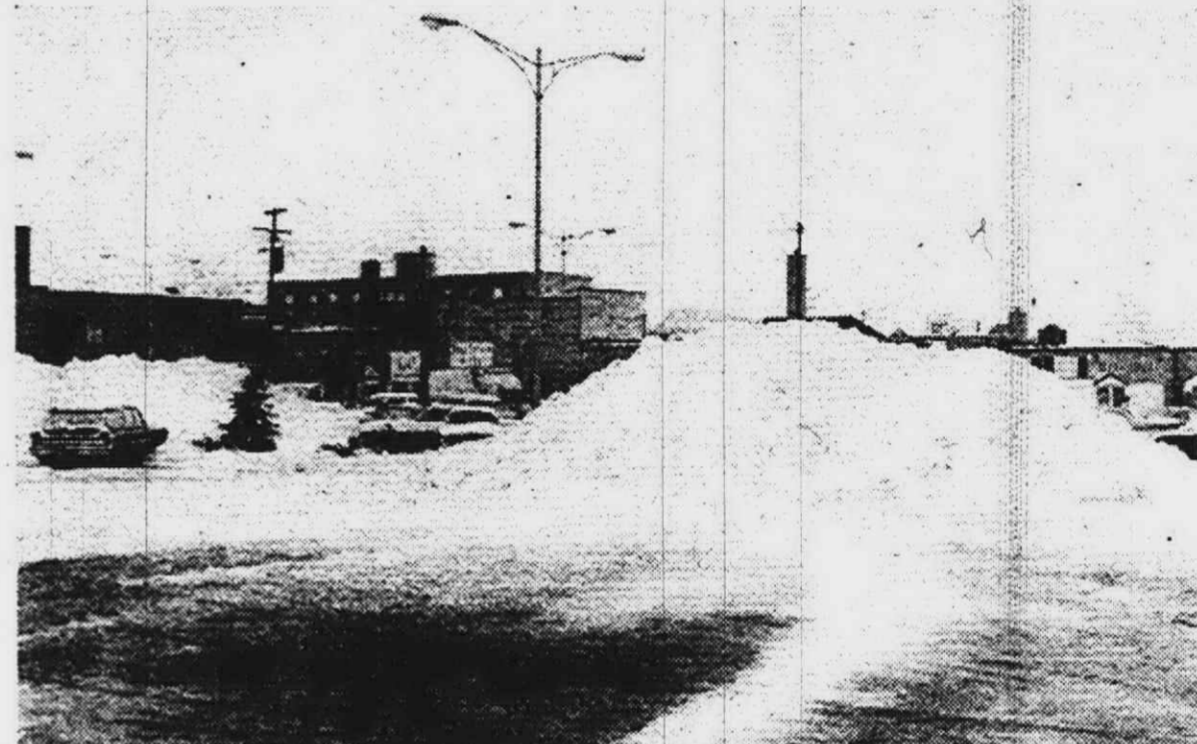

The Charter moves back and forth between the Governor, Attorney General and the Commission before it is finalized and sent back to the Governor for approval.

Within two years of the time that the Charter is first sent to the Governor, the Township will hold an election on incorporation and for the selection of a Mayor, Council and other city officials—just in case the issue is approved.

The election generally is held within two or three months after the Governor approves the Charter and sends it back to the Commission.

Three times the Township has gone through these steps. Each time it has lost but in each instance the Industrial Row has been saved from any annexation movements.

Now the issue will go before the voters for a fourth time and there is every indication it will fail again—but Burroughs Corp. and Evans Products plants who pay more than half of the Township's taxes, will still belong to the Township.

No Signs Of Drugs At PHS

It happened in Northville but there isn't any evidence that students at Plymouth High are involved in taking dangerous barbituates "for kicks."

That was the report of Plymouth High officials and members of the Plymouth Police Department after a quick check following last week's revelation that 13 Northville High boys had been taken in custody. The 13 were suspected of taking the barbituates for "kicks."

Northville Police filed Juvenile Court petitions against a 15-year-old who admitted he had taken capsules containing barbitol, a drug commonly used as a sleeping powder, which can cause death if taken in large quantities.

Northville Police Chief Sam Elkins said the students had filled empty vitamin capsules with barbitol and passed them among students earlier in the month.

There were reports the capsules had made some of the students "dizzy" and given them a big "kick". These were later denied and Chief Elkins said he had found no evidence of traffic in narcotics or adult involvement in the incident.

Plymouth High School authorities, like all other high schools in the area, immediately started an investigation with the aid of the Plymouth Police. But no evidence of student participation in such activities was found at any other school than Northville.

In Northville, Chief Elkins said he was turning "most of the 13 boys" over to the Oakland County Protective Services, a counseling service for juvenile offenders.

He indicated the matter could be referred to the Serv-

Area Shakes Off Storm in Hurry

Although stunned by the speed of Thursday's blizzard and near record snowstorm, which oldtimers call one of the worst in Michigan's history, the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township dug out of the drifts, slippery and clogged streets almost as quickly as the storm struck.

The area, like most in Lower Michigan, was paralyzed early Friday morning but the City's Department of Public Works crews worked practically around the clock and had all major arteries suitable for travel by mid morning. In the Township, the Wayne County Road Commission opened the major highways as quickly as possible. Most were available for use by late Friday afternoon.

The DPW had cleared most of the city's secondary streets by Friday evening and then started the task of removing snow from the downtown business section. They succeeded in time for store openings Saturday morning.

Meanwhile, Township Supervisor John McEwen asked for and received special attention from the Road Commission with the result that practically every street and road in the Township was open for use by Sunday morning with most cleared late Saturday.

Residents of the City and Township had high praise for the efforts of the DPW and the Road Commission workers. "Conditions were still bad in Ann Arbor," reported one city resident. "And we were able to move freely in all directions in the city and township."

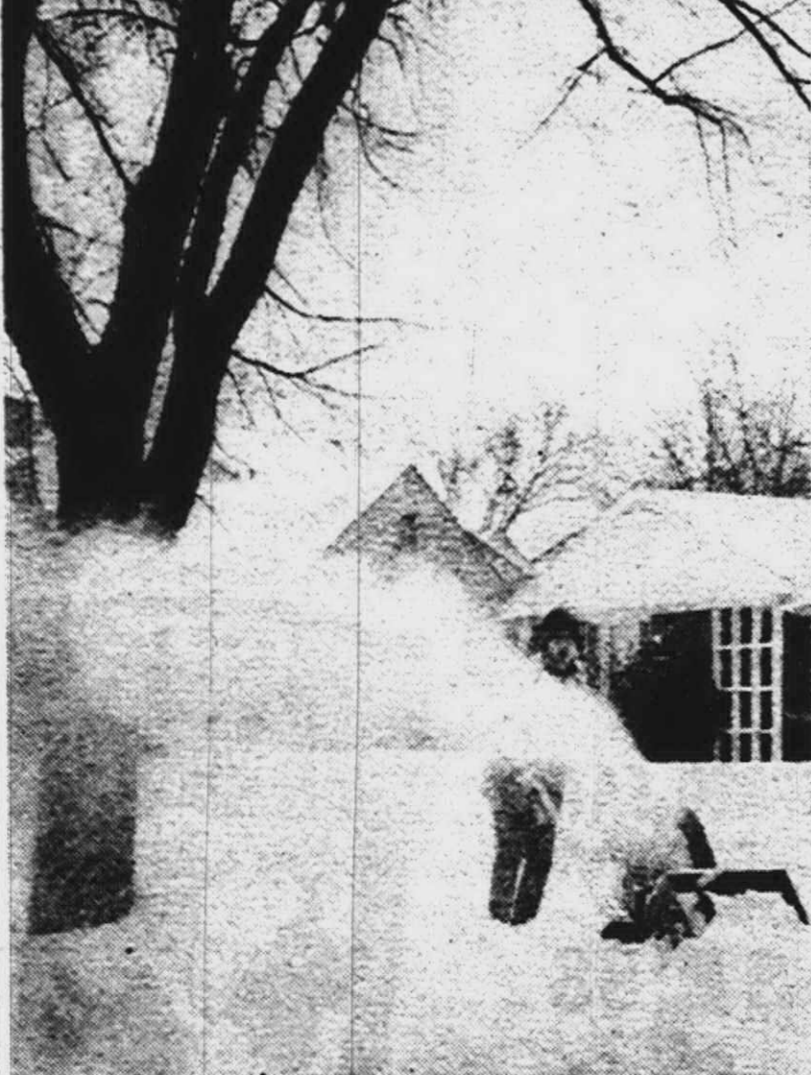

The Plymouth School district encountered little trouble from the blizzard—schools closed Thursday for teachers to complete grading examinations and posting grades for the first semester and students were to report Friday to pick up their cards.

Thus buses were not in use and none of the schools had to be closed because of the weather. Those that could make it checked in for report cards, the others picked them up at the close of classes Monday.

However, the hazardous

MOST POPULAR youngster in the area was this one on Elm Street. He had snow removing equipment and picked up quite a few nickels by clearing paths through the snow-covered sidewalks.

Guenther Tells of Centennial

The plans are far from complete; the executive committee hasn't decided on a major project, but the City of Plymouth will be the scene of one of the greatest centennial celebrations of any area in Michigan.

That was the promise to members of the Plymouth Rotary Club in its Friday meeting by Harold Guenther, former Mayor and Commissioner and a member of the Centennial Celebrations Committee.

As could be expected, Guenther is head of the committee in charge of financing the mammoth celebration, a post that generally moves in his direction whenever any citywide celebration is planned.

Joseph Tarantino III, general manager of the Gaylor Container division of Crown Zellerbach Corporation, was named general chairman a week ago. He served in a temporary capacity prior to the permanent appointment with Guenther as one of his aides.

Guenther had an opportunity to explain the thinking of the Centennial Committee to his fellow Rotarians when the club found itself without a program. The principal speaker failed to appear due to the conditions of the highways

Only 2 Hardy Guests Visit Rotary Club

Although the highways outside of the City limits of Plymouth were in sad shape from the paralyzing snowstorm Thursday, more than 60 members reported for the Friday noon weekly meeting of the Rotary Club in the Mayflower Meeting House.

It was one of the smallest gatherings in recent years and found Rotarians joining in an informal program—the principal speaker couldn't make it.

There were two visiting Rotarians, one from Livonia and the other from Milan.

Mayflower Hotel Owner Ralph Lorenz told fellow Rotarians it was the least number of visitors in the 28 years he has been a member.

Warn City Residents To Clean Sidewalks

After receiving numerous complaints from citizens, who walk to work, and mailmen in the City, the Department of Public Works made a survey to learn how homeowners were taking care of their sidewalks in regards to snow and ice.

The check showed that about 30 per cent of the sidewalks have not been cleaned since the last snowstorm and had an icy surface that made safe walking almost an impossibility.

DPW Supl. Ken Vogras Monday warned all property owners that the city ordinance provides that all snow and ice must be removed from sidewalks within 24 hours of a snowfall.

If the property owners fail, then the DPW will clear the walks and the city will bill the cost of equipment time, labor and material against the property. The same rule applies to all vacant lots.

Lake Pointe Homeowners Elect Breen
 Maurice Breen is the new president of the Lake Pointe Homeowners Association following the annual election of officers for 1967. Others are: Vice president Fred Marshall, Secretary Carol Lauterbach and Treasurer Frank Gyorkey.
 Dues for the new Association are $3 annually and all residents of Lake Pointe subdivision are urged to join and participate.
 Board meetings are scheduled for the first Monday of each month at the Breen residence at 9 p.m. The sessions are open to all members of the Association.
 The first general meeting is slated for Monday, Feb. 6 at 9 p.m. in the Plymouth Township Hall. The agenda includes discussions of: proposed M-14 route; tax assessment; location of the third junior high and the proposed ice skating rink.

NEW OFFICERS TAKE LOT OF DOING

Ash Heads Twp. Plan Board

It took quite a bit of doing but the Plymouth Township Planning Commission finally selected officers for 1967 in its January meeting.

The election, which came almost as an afterthought after the lengthy session, began with a unanimous vote for Russell Ash as chairman, succeeding Maurice Breen.

Melville Troyer, who was named to the Board four months ago to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Tivadar Balogh, agreed to accept the vice chairmanship after two others begged off because of press of business.

It appeared for a time as if the Commission wouldn't have a secretary. None wanted the post including Charles Childs, another freshman member, who had been acting as secretary.

However, after a pep talk from Ash, the retiring secretary, and some convincing propaganda from other members, Childs finally agreed to take the post.

Thus the new officers are: Ash, chairman; Troyer, vice chairman and Childs, secretary—after some of the greatest sales talks ever heard in a meeting of a Planning Commission.

Livonia Mall Opens Medical- Dental Center

The Livonia Mall Shopping Center located at Seven Mile and Middlebelt Roads has recently opened a modern two-story Medical-Dental Center in the huge shopping complex.

Included in the original planning, the Medical-Dental Center portion of the 750,000 square foot giant shopping center, was the last area to be completed.

"We were extremely selective in acquiring what we consider the finest doctors in their respective fields, that were available in the Detroit area, consequently it wasn't until late last fall that we were ready to open the Medical-Dental Center," Robert Paris, general manager of the Mall explained.

The Medical-Dental Center is located in the West Mall area near the Twin Cinema Theaters and is entered from within the enclosed Mall. It has two levels and houses four separate suites, three of which already are occupied.

Dr. Milton Kellman, physician-surgeon, and general practitioner, and Dr. Arthur M. Stern, foot specialist, have offices on the ground floor. Dr. Bernard D. Lynn, A.B., D.D.S. has his dental offices on the second floor of the unique structure.

Dr. Kellman has been in practice in the Wayne County area since 1950. His office is completely equipped to handle any general medical patient. He specializes in general family practice and has been active in research on the treatment of bursitis. He recently has had an article concerning this research published in a nationally known journal.

Dr. Lynn Dr. Kellman

Dr. Kellman, active in civic affairs, was the Director of United Foundation's North Livonia division in 1965 and Director of Western Wayne County Zone in 1966. Since 1964, he has been the official physician in residence at the Detroit Race Course.

Dr. Lynn is a graduate of Mt. Clemens High School and was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1930 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He enrolled in the University of Detroit, School of Dentistry in 1933, and was graduated with the degree of Doctor of Dental Surgery in 1936.

Dr. Lynn has been in the practice of Dentistry for 30 years. He served in the Army Dental Corps and while stationed in the European Theatre of Operations, wrote that portion of the manual which dealt with the identification of the bodies of the American soldiers by their teeth.

In professional life, Dr. Lynn has had published many scientific articles and has lectured throughout the United States on State and National levels.

Dr. Lynn is a member of the "Detroit District Dental Society, Michigan State Dental Association, American Dental Association, Pierre Fauchard Academy, Academy of General Dentistry, Founder and First President of the Michigan Society of Psychosomatic Dentistry, and the Federation Dentaire Internationale. He is also a member of Perfection Lodge No. 486 F and AM and is active in the Boy Scouts.

Dr. Stern, foot specialist, has been in practice over 20 years in the Metropolitan Detroit area. He specializes in surgical podiatry and all phases of orthopedic work.

His modern clinic is thoroughly equipped to handle all foot problems. He is a member of the National as well as Michigan State Podiatry Association and has had two articles published in the Podiatry Journal.

Dr. Stern is on the staff and Board of Directors of Civic Hospital. A Past Master of the Masonic Lodge, he is also active in the Old Newsboys Goodfellow Association.

3 From College at Meeting

Schoolcraft College President Eric J. Bradner, and Harold E. Fischer, Plymouth, chairman of the college Board of Trustees, and Mrs. Jane K. Moehle, Plymouth, board vice-chairman, attended the fourth annual Community College Trustee-President's Conference at Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 25-27.

Dr. Bradner and Fischer were among the program speakers during the three-day conference sponsored by the Midwest Community College Leadership Program in cooperation with the University of Michigan Extension Service. The leadership program is supported in part by a grant from the W. K. Kellogg Foundation.

Dr. Bradner spoke on "The Role of the Community College President," at a Thursday morning session (Jan. 26) and was one of two consultants at a seminar for college administrators Thursday afternoon.

Fischer, who is president of the recently organized Michigan Assn. of Community College Boards, discussed the role and function of that organization at a general meeting Thursday afternoon.

The conference, attended by administrators and trustees of two-year colleges throughout the midwest, is one of two being sponsored by the leadership program during the early part of 1967. A second meeting is scheduled for Albuquerque, N. M., late in March.

3 Former Garden City Officials Face Trial in Circuit Court

Three former Garden City officials charged with conspiracy and misuse of public funds in the 1961 Civic Center land purchase will stand trial in Circuit Court on the charges made by Wayne County Grand Juror George Bowles.

Wayne Municipal Judge John Seiler ruled Monday that there is evidence to show that the crimes as charged have been committed and that the three defendants committed the crimes.

The three are Edwin J. Freeh, Jr., Evan Callanan, and Eugne Salvatore, who were City Clerk-Treasurer, City Attorney, and City Councilman at the time of the land purchase in the summer of 1961.

Freeh was Garden City Mayor when Bowles indicted the three last Oct. 27, just 12 days before the election at which he was seeking a second term. He was defeated by about 1,900 votes for his opponent.

Judge Seiler's decision came after defense attorneys for the three claimed that the evidence presented during a three-day period in mid-December showed no indication of any conspiracy by any of the three former officials.

Of the original 12 counts listed in Bowles' warrant, five were asked to be dropped by Robert C. Goussy, assistant attorney general prosecuting the case.

The five counts dropped concerned official actions taken by Freeh and Salvatore during the 1961 land purchase, where the City Hall now stands.

The principal charge that Seiler ordered the three to stand trial concerned the claim that Freeh, Callanan, and Salvatore conspired to have the city buy the land in violation of the City Charter which forbids municipal officials from taking action on city business in which they have a financial interest.

Judge Seiler also ruled before the defense attorneys presented their final oral arguments that he will allow the record of the three-day examination to include a report made by State Auditor General's representative in 1964. That report covered an audit of Garden City funds and showed that there was $2,000 not accounted for in the land purchase.

In addition, Seiler overruled defense attorney's objections concerning a key part of the testimony of William New, a realtor who was the prosecution's key witness in the case.

New had testified that on the day he cashed the city's check for $80,160, he went back to Callanan's office.

While on the phone, Salvatore was said to have entered the room and taken $12,000 in cash from New's briefcase.

The realtor, now retired and living in Howell, also said that he ran into Freeh in the doorway and the realtor asked the former clerk, "did you get your paws in it, too?" with Freeh quoted as replying, "Yes, but not enough."

But New also commented from the witness stand that he didn't know if Freeh understood his question.

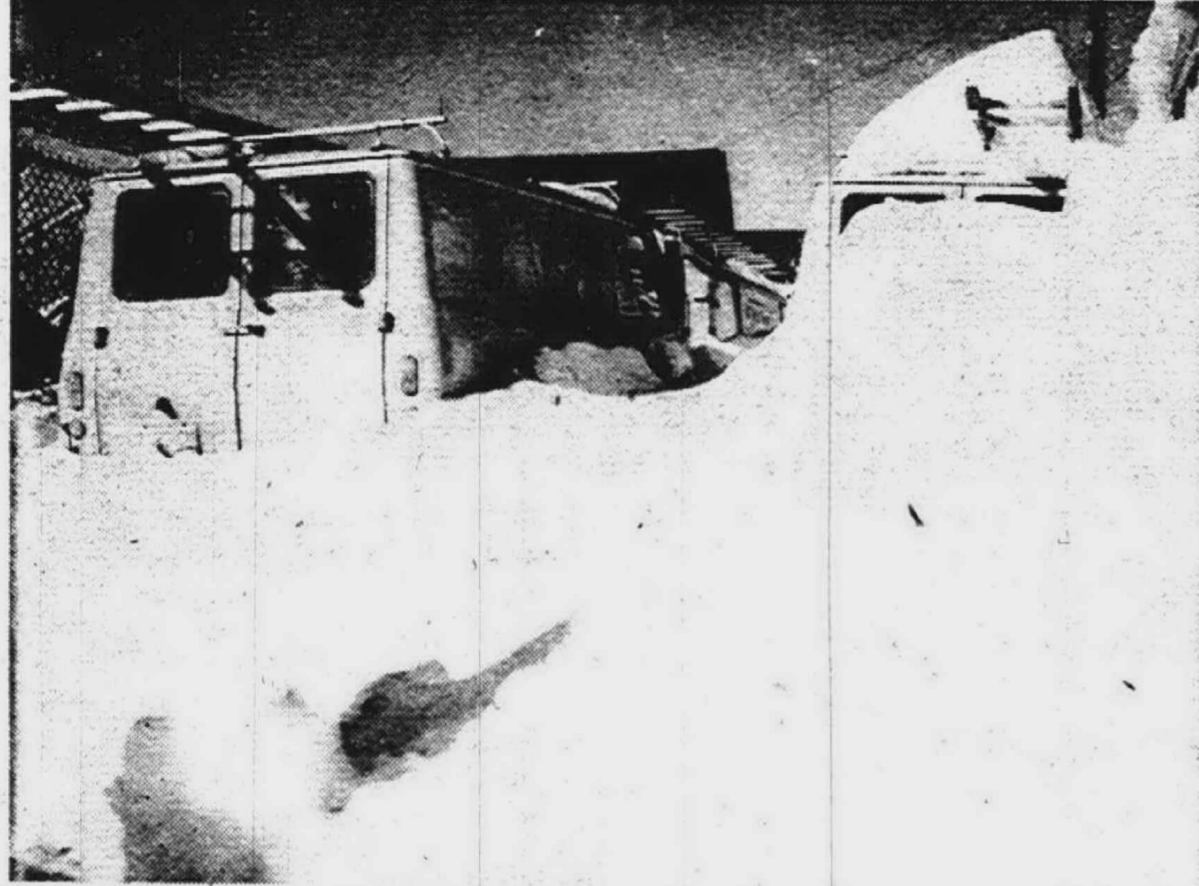

Seiler also overruled the motion of Theodore Robbins, Salvatore's attorney, that the warrant was issued by Bowles acting as a Circuit Court Judge and not a one-man grand jury.

Robbins said that since the Circuit Court is not a court of original jurisdiction, the judge can not issue a warrant. The only way to proceed would be to refer the issue to the prosecuting attorney, who would investigate the complaint and then have the warrant issued by a judge.

In court Monday, all three defense counsels asked that Goussy's motion to bind the three men over for trial be dismissed.

Nicholas Smith, Callanan's attorney, pointed out that New testified that he did not conspire nor had any agreement with the three defendants. The realtor also testified that he wanted to buy the three lots on Middlebelt Road for his own profit.

Freeh's attorney, S. Allen Early, argued that the only conservation his client had with New at that time was to introduce him to Salvatore, who was a "committee of one" to look for Civic Center land.

Blizzard Just Proves "Don't Trust Weather"

For years there's been an old saying going the rounds that "You can't depend on Michigan weather."

The truth of it came floating down out the skies last week and folks are debating whether it is the worst storm that ever hit the state.

After several days of spring-like weather — balmy days in which many housewives already had begun to work outside and give the windows the spring cleaning — the storm hit last Thursday.

By the time it abated, it had set several records, forced Michigan State University to close for the first time in its long history, postponed the opening of the State Legislature for the greater part of a week, and caused the loss of millions of dollars in loss of wages and business in the various cities.

Ironically, Lansing, the capital city, was hardest hit with 24 inches of snow, and Flint was not far behind with 22 inches, while Jackson had 19.

And it wasn't the nice, light, fluffy stuff that usually brings a joy of winter sports with it. This was heavy snow — so heavy that it caused the roof of a large bowling establishment in Lansing — The Metro Bowl — to cave in. And the roof of the big field house at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo also was a victim.

More than that, the freeways in Michigan, rated by many as the best in the land, bowed to the elements. Long stretches of I-94 in and out of Lansing were closed for more than two days. And I-94 struggled along with a single lane. This never had happened before over such long stretches.

Thirteen people died of heart attacks in the Metropolitan Detroit district as a result of shoveling the snow that really "blanketed" the area.

No doubt, the storm was bad. All such storms are. But was it the worst?

Some folks still claim that the storm of two years ago was the worst of their experience. At that time it was estimated that close to 36 inches of snow fell in the area.

Yet, great as was that fall, most folks served by the Observer Newspaper group, were able to get to their place of employment. They got there late — but they got there.

Last week, despite the increase in modern equipment and the improvement of the roads, there were many who couldn't venture beyond their own drive-ways.

Two years ago, as the older folks looked out of the windows at that storm they ventured the opinion, "This is the kind of a snow we used to have when we were young."

They sort of took pride in showing the younger generation what a real snow storm was like.

Last week it was different. They looked at the snow and just wondered if it was a worse storm than that of two years ago.

Over the years there

County Educator Takes College Job

Dr. Robert Keene, Redford Township resident, will become vice-president in charge of academic affairs at Black Hawk Community College, Moline, Illinois, after spending 19 years as a consultant to the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

Dr. Keene's resignation becomes effective this Friday and has been accepted "with regret" by the county Board of Education.

His position as coordinator of activities, relative to the establishment of a Wayne County Community District, will be assumed by Robert Wall, education consultant to the Intermediate District for the past 11 years.

For the past 19 years Dr. Keene has been a consultant for the Wayne County Intermediate Office of Education.

S/4 Richard P. Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Hayes, 19627 Weyher, Livonia, has completed a two-week photography course held at Fort Bragg, N.C. Hayes is a 1963 graduate of Clarenceville High School and before entering the Army, worked as a mechanic for a chain saw dealer in Detroit.

have been few storms worse than the last two. We've had many unusual and unseasonal snowstorms. As a matter of fact few persons now recall it, but a Detroit Tiger baseball game was postponed because of snow in May of 1923.

And while snow has played havoc at times, the area has experienced rain storms that were damaging, too. Back about 20 years ago, when the population explosion was just getting under way and spreading to such places as Livonia, Redford Township and many of new subdivisions on the east side, there were as many cars stuck in the mud as ever had been buried in the snow.

What's more the mud lasted much longer than the snow. For a period of about 10 years Merriman Road in Livonia was impassable for about three weeks each spring. The bottom would literally drop out of the road after the spring rains.

So, last week's storm, whether the worst in Michigan history or not, was only in keeping with the tradition — "You can't depend on Michigan weather."

PCHA Boosts Room Rates to $32 Per Day

Despite the third increase in room rates, the Peoples Community Hospital Authority is still among the lowest of large hospitals in the metropolitan Detroit area.

The latest increase, which puts the semi-private room rate as of Feb. 1 at $32 per day, was approved by the PCHA's board of directors Thursday night. Previously the rate was $30 per day, set last November, and $26 per day, as of last March.

The authority, which includes Westland and Garden City, approved the room rate increase unanimously to help pay the $750,000 salary and fringe benefit increases for hospital employees, also approved the same night.

The $32 per day rate puts the PCHA, which operates four hospitals in Western Wayne and Eastern Washtenaw Counties in a "tie" for last in the lowest rates. In the bracket are Oakwood Hospital, Dearborn; Garden City Osteopathic Hospital, Riverdale; and Harper Hospital, Detroit.

Picture Award Given Observer

An award for excellence has been given to the Livonia Observer.

The prize, given by the Michigan Press Association in connection with its annual convention in East Lansing on Friday, Jan. 27, was for excellence in the use of pictures.

The award continued the pattern of MPA awards to The Observer, the paper having received two in 1965 and one special award for excellence in 1966.

Name K. Jabara, E. Schening Elected To Community Fund Board

Edward Schening, general manager of Burroughs Corporation's Plymouth plant, and Kal Jabara, a partner in the Plymouth Tank Co., have been elected to the Plymouth Community Fund Board of Directors.

Schening was campaign manager of the 1966 fund raising drive that was the most successful in history. Jabara has long been associated with community activities and has been active in PCF drives for the past several years. Reva Barber and John Herb were re-elected.

Drugs

ices since it was believed most of the offenses took place in Oakland County. Northville is in both Wayne and Oakland counties.

Chief Elkins said "We believe we have halted the use of the drugs by taking these boys into custody. We don't think it will be necessary to file charges against any more than one boy who has admitted taking the capsules of the drug."

The discovery of the alleged drug-using ring in Northville High brought conjectures that it was widespread throughout the student body. Police and school authorities were able to trace it down to the 13 boys and finally to the youth who admitted the thefts.

It also gave adjoining school districts some uncomfortable moments until they had investigated conditions in their schools.

From all indications, it appears as if the "drug using" was confined to the one school and was more a matter of "kicks" than anything else.

Big Storm

driving conditions outside the Plymouth Community resulted in postponement of the basketball game and swimming meet scheduled Friday between Plymouth and Allen Park. The basketballers were slated to entertain the Parkers and the swimmers were to travel to Allen Park.

The situation was a bit sad in Westland, the area's newest city of 75,000, which had to appeal to Gov. George Romney for assistance. The new city was completely paralyzed by the heavy snow since it hasn't yet been able to build up equipment for snow removal.

Other than the fact that sidewalks were covered with ice and the streets banked with piles of snow at each curb, Plymouth was back to normal Saturday.

The blizzard forced Burroughs Corporation to close its Plymouth plant when only 30 per cent of the working force reported Friday morning.

Evans Products struggled through the day with 40 per cent absentees and Western Electric was able to continue work with 50 per cent of the normal staff.

Anchor Coupling had amazing luck. Most of its employees live in the Plymouth Community and General Manager Edward Sawusch reported less than five per cent failed to make it to work.

The story was a bit different in Livonia where all of the major plants shut-down for the weekend due to the tremendous number of absentees Friday morning.

Plymouth Jr. Basketball

The fame of Plymouth's Junior Basketball program is spreading — at least to the offices of the Detroit Pistons. That was the word from Howard Oldford who indicated two all-star teams played between halves of the Pistons-Boston Celtics game last week and the league has been invited to furnish teams for two additional appearances in February.

The annual all-star games, between selected squads from the various divisions, were played last Saturday with the results listed below.

Tells of Centennial

from the paralyzing blizzard of Thursday evening.

"We are studying three projects as the theme of the Celebration," said Guenther. "None is secure yet but we are thinking of an indoor ice skating rink, a community youth center or a new building for the Plymouth Historical Museum. Any one of the three would give the City a tremendous boost. The selection committee is making a study of all three proposals and hopes to be able to make a recommendation to the City Commission in another two or three weeks."

Guenther mentioned that the Centennial Committee is considering a week long celebration that could be part of the July 4 activities, traditionally headed by the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce parade, or of the annual Fall Festival.

He introduced Eber Readman, of the Burroughs Corp., who told of preliminary plans for a proposed Industrial Exposition. Every industry and business in the Plymouth Community would be invited to participate.

"The project is still in the talking stage," said Readman. "But we believe it could be staged on the facilities at Plymouth High and could attract thousands to the City during the celebration.

"We would like to think that it would be the greatest Industrial Exposition ever staged in this area outside the City of Detroit. We have every reason to believe it will be if all decide to participate."

In his closing remarks, Guenther urged every member of the Rotary Club to begin thinking of the Centennial.

"This club will be asked to get behind the Centennial in the same manner it does the Fall Festival, which is a Rotary Club started function," said Guenther. "I'm sure that we on the committee will receive that kind of support."

Nursery care is available all women in the area is and a cordial invitation to extended.

IT'S COMPLICATED, but it's clean — in fact the new natural gas-fired boiler just installed in Ford Livonia Transmission plant produces 120,000 pounds of steam per hour, three times as much as the coal-burning boiler it replaces. And there is no pollution for the residents of Livonia to inhale. This is the largest boiler that has been shop-assembled in use at any Ford facility in the world. (Above) Plant Manager, Richard L. McNulty, is explaining the 30' long by 17' high boiler to David L. Jones, assistant director of public works. "I think the people of Ford should be commended for being concerned about pollution and were motivated to replacing their coal-burning boiler with this modern piece of equipment," said Jones, an expert in the study of water and air pollution.

Name Rank New School Principal

Donald Rank, principal of Allen school, will be transferred and become the new principal of Elementary School No. 8 when it opens for classes.

That was the announcement by Supt. Russell Isbister who posted a notice to the staff of the change and at the same time invited interested candidates to the Board of Education to replace Rank.

Isbister also announced a transfer of Pat Montagano from Junior High East to Plymouth High to fill the teaching assignments of John McFall, who resigned effective at the end of the first semester. McFall was varsity football and swim coach.

Isbister stressed that the transfer fills McFall's teaching duties and has no bearing on the vacant head football coaching post. The administration is still screening applicants and probably won't have a recommendation until March.

Brian Gillis, a former Plymouth High football and basketball star who recently was graduated from Central Michigan University, has been added to the teaching staff to fill Montagano's assignments at Junior High East.

In announcing the transfer of Rank, Supt. Isbister also listed qualifications for an elementary principalship. The list includes:

- 1—A permanent elementary teaching certificate.
- 2—Either a master's degree or a planned program for completion of the degree in the near future.
- 3—Teaching experience within the grade limits of the elementary teaching certificate.
- 4—Experience in organizing and directing student activities.
- 5—Evidence of an interest in and a concern for curriculum development and improvement.
- 6—Skills in cooperative planning.
- 7—A philosophy of education which fits into the general pattern of the Plymouth Community Schools.

Frost PTA Hears From Teacher Unions

How does teacher bargaining affect the education of your child? What is the "master contract?" What created the need for a master contract and how does it change the role of a teacher? Will the contract change the "image" of the teacher as a dedicated educator? These and other questions will be answered at a special Parent Teacher Student Association sponsored program to be held at Frost Junior High School on Feb. 8 at 8 p.m.

A panel, including representatives of the Livonia Education Assn., the American Federation of Teachers, and the Livonia Public Schools will speak on the changing role of the teacher related to teacher bargaining and will discuss its ramifications to the school program.

Roger Stephon, President of the Livonia Education Assn., William Kinaird, President of the American Federation of Teachers, Benton Yates, Superintendent of Livonia Public Schools, and Dr. Norman Whisler, Director of Personnel for Livonia Public Schools, will serve as the panel with Mrs. Roger Winship, President of Frost PTA, as moderator. A question and answer period will follow.

The Parents Guild from Our Lady of Good Counsel will be held Feb. 7 at 8 p.m. in the church basement. All are cordially invited to attend. Father Rasaloff, from the Univer-

Twp. Supervisor Orders Re-Evaluation of Land

Owners of vacant property in Plymouth Township will be sitting on the anxious seat for the next few weeks. They'll be waiting the outcome of the audit initiated by Supervisor John McEwen and his decision to bring about a more equitable evaluation of the land.

In making his announcement of the audit McEwen said, "We can't stand in the way of progress."

He let it be known then that he had in mind the development of the new industrial area south of Ann Arbor Road and the $400,000 price tag put on the installation of the big drainage project that is expected to attract industry and broaden the tax base.

The drain will run from Ann Arbor Road to Joy Road, along an industrial road now being constructed by Developer Bud Gould. It then will turn toward the area where the Spartan Stores warehouse is being constructed.

According to McEwen, this will be a Drain Commission project and will be spread on the tax rolls in any one of three ways the Township Trustees decide. He pointed out that the choice shall be 1—To tax only those property owners in the improved area; 2—make it a combination of the property owners in the district and the tax rolls at large or 3—spread the entire cost over the entire tax roll.

"Our financial advisor has suggested," he said "that the cost be spread over the entire tax roll inasmuch as all the taxpayers will benefit eventually from the broadened tax base."

What changes can be expected in the re-evaluation of the vacant land?

"I don't know now," he answered. "You know, last year was my first as the assessor and any man on a new job wants an audit, just to find out where he stands. That's why I ordered the present audit."

"But in making any re-evaluation of the property we must be careful not to make exorbitant increases. Such increases would have a tendency to force the sale of some property and in all probability upset some of our plans for orderly development."

It was learned that some of the vacant property is on the rolls for as little as $75 and $100 an acre.

Asked how much such parcels may be raised McEwen stated that he thought the minimum for any land in the township should be $1,000 an acre.

"But," he explained, "while the state wants all property assessed at 50 per cent of true cash value, I don't think I would assess more than 25 per cent in many cases. This would raise the minimum from $75 and $100 per acre to $250 per acre."

The new industrial park, when developed, is expected to add $10 million to the tax base.

With that addition, according to Herald Hamill the Township Engineer, the new $400,000 drain project could be paid off in a year with a one half mill raise in taxes.

Meanwhile, owners of the vacant land are anxiously awaiting to learn just what the exact re-evaluation of their property will be.

Nine Girls to Receive DAR Good Citizen Awards

Nine Good Citizens award winners from high schools throughout Michigan will be honored on Feb. 29 when the Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution hold its annual luncheon-awards meeting. The group will meet at the home of Mrs. Donald Sober, 15465 Bradner Road in Plymouth.

The chapter will present each of the winners with a pin and a certificate of achievement. Mothers of each of the nine girls have been invited.

The Good Citizen winners include: Nancy Larson, Alba High; Dorothy Minton, Alpena; Nancy Lower, Cheboygan; Yvonne Edgar, Garden City; Kaye Milton, Garden City West; Mary Pehlke, Mackinaw City; Lynn Thiikka, Northville; Mary Vallier, Plymouth; and Janice Hutchins, South Lyon.

The Good Citizens contest has been on the approved list of national contests and activities of the National Association of Secondary School Principals for the past 20 years. It is offered to any accredited high school that wishes to select its most outstanding senior girl judged on the qualities of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism.

A State Good Citizen will be selected to represent Michigan in the national competition where the winner receives a $1,000 scholarship to the college of her choice.

All area high schools are invited to participate in the 1968 competition. Those interested may contact Mrs. Donald Hiller, 16233 Homer Road, Plymouth or call 349-0022.

U-M Alumnae Will Receive 150th Greetings

ANN ARBOR—The Alumnae Council of the University of Michigan is sending birthday greetings to all Michigan alumnae in honor of the University's 150th year.

The annual greeting cards, originated five years ago by Mrs. Oliver Dewey Marcks of Birmingham, are used to raise funds by the Alumnae Council.

Recipients are asked to pay a penny-per-year of the University's existence—or $1.50 in this sesquicentennial year.

Proceeds are used in various Alumnae Council projects. This year the money will go for the final payments on a three-year pledge to help finance the University's Center for Continuing Education for Women.

Mrs. Marcks, who is chairman of the birthday greeting effort this year, revealed that a winter scene showing the William L. Clements Library on the U-M campus illustrates the cards. The design was executed by Dorothy Jaqua of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Bernard Siebers of Grand Rapids, Council ways and means committee chairman, said the greetings are expected to be in the mail by Feb. 1.

The United States has nearly as much electric power generating capacity as the next five countries combined; they include the Soviet Union, United Kingdom, Japan, West Germany, and Canada.

Scouts To Buy Tents With Wreath Proceeds

Boy Scout Troop 499 of St. Robert Bellarmine Parish was very active last month.

Bregi Named Trustee at Lawr. Tech

Ben F. Bregi, president of National Broach & Machine Company, has been named to the Lawrence Institute of Technology Board of Trustees, it was announced by Dr. Wayne H. Buell, LIT president.

He becomes the ninth member of the Board in control of the college at Northwestern and Ten Mile in Southfield.

Bregi, a Grosse Pointe Shores resident, is one of Lawrence Tech's most distinguished alumni. He graduated in 1937 with a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering and received the college's first Alumni Achievement Award in 1952.

After joining National in 1933, Bregi rose through various engineering and administrative positions and was named president last year.

The firm is the world's largest manufacturer of gear shaving and honing machines, with design and manufacturing facilities in Detroit and Coventry, England.

A board meeting was held at the home of Russ Mayotte, committee chairman, on December 5, attended by 24 men.

Jerry Redoutey, Scoutmaster, reports that 53 Boy Scouts and six Troop Officers sold 356 Christmas wreaths. The profits are being used to purchase new tents and camping equipment.

Troop 499 assisted Cub Scout Pack 579 and Girl Scout Troop 545 in collecting toys, games, toiletries and clothing for the Lapeer State Home and Training School.

A Green-Bar meeting for patrol leaders of the troop was held at the home of John Janick, assistant scoutmaster, on December 8.

Boy Scouts who earned the Rifle Marksmanship Badges were Eric LaPointe, David Fraczek, John Janick and Chuck DeCoster.

New Boy Scouts joining the troop are Jon Colombo and John Schwenderman.

Drunk Driver Fined $150

Drunk driving cost a Farmington man $150 last week when he appeared in Livonia Municipal Court.

James E. Ross 27, of 22740 Purdee St., pleaded guilty to the charge when he appeared before Municipal Judge James McCann.

He also lost his right to drive for 90 days. Fidell A. Cashero, Jr., 19, of 34496 Wood Drive Livonia, paid $100 when fined after entering a plea of guilty to driving recklessly.

Harold G. Sartor, 20, of 12912 Greely St., Detroit, was fined $100 and sent to jail for five days after pleading guilty to driving on a revoked license. If the fine is not paid, he is to spend an additional 10 days in jail.

Another man, arrested for not having an operator's license on his person (due to its being revoked), was fined $50 and $5 costs and put on six months probation.

Judge McCann suspended a 30-day jail sentence for the driver, Sammy R. Jurney, 19, of 8868 Cardwell, Livonia.

Republicans Pick Officers

Martin Seitz of 29701 Oakview, Livonia, was elected chairman of the Redford-Livonia Young Republicans at the club's annual meeting, Jan. 11.

Others named to one-year terms are: Roger Quigley, 30030 Minton, Livonia, vice-chairman; David Merriam, 11401 Cranston, Livonia, recording secretary; Joanne Seitz, 29701 Oakview, Livonia, corresponding secretary; and Ron Rice, 15997 Dalby, Redford Township, treasurer.

The organization is the only Young Republican Club in the 19th Congressional District and, as such, is open to residents of Farmington, Livonia and Redford Township who are between the ages of 18 and 35.

"The Young Republicans serve as a training ground for young people interested in learning more about the Republican Party," Seitz said.

Civile Graduate Enrolls in Michigan Tech

HOUGHTON, Mich.—Larry J. Morse of Livonia is one of the 58 new students enrolled for the current winter quarter at Michigan Technological University.

A freshman electrical engineering major, he is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry E. Morse, 19550 Middlebelt, Livonia. Morse is a 1966 graduate of the Clarenceville High School.

Library at 8:30 p.m., every Tuesday, starting Feb. 7.

Every Monday, Russell Barnes, foreign analyst of the Detroit News, will interpret the subject on the Magazine Page.

Dr. Harlan Hagman of Wayne State University has produced eight weekly panel programs with leading officials of the countries concerned and will be aired on the Mutual Network.

At the end of each discussion, individuals may register their opinions on a summary ballot which is forwarded to Congress and the State Dept. Informal discussion groups are self-administered.

The eight discussion topics are: Communist China and the U.S.; Are we on a Collision Course?; India and Pakistan: What Hope for Stability on the Subcontinent?; Vietnam: What Price Peace?; Yugoslavia and Romania: Whither National Communism?; The Spread of Nuclear Weapons: Can It Be Stopped?; New Deal in Chili: Will "Revolution in Liberty" Succeed?; NATO in Crisis: Will the Atlantic Alliance Survive?; The War on Hunger: How Can It Be Won?.

For any information, to participate in this group, call Mrs. Helen Fredriksen, GA 1-4335.

Westland to Push for New Post Office
Westland public and civic leaders are planning to take their fight for a separate post office this month directly to U. S. Postmaster General Lawrence O'Brien.
Chamber of Commerce President Charles Spicer Wednesday named Ralph P. Turco, chairman of the organization's Post Office Committee.
Turco and Mayor Thomas H. Brown will fly to Washington, D.C., this month to talk with Congressman William D. Ford (whose district includes Westland) and O'Brien.
It was pointed out that Westland's struggle to obtain their own post office and ZIP code number may be a bit easier this year since Ford is a new member of the House Post Office Committee.
At present, all Westland mail goes through the Wayne Post Office under Wayne's ZIP code of 48184.

Rocks Nip Farmington

Pattern play on the basketball floor can be nice. But coach Dick Bearup of Plymouth High is hoping that his cagers don't revert to "pattern" this week.

The Rocks began the season by winning two straight. Then they dropped four in a row.

Plymouth's slump ended with an overtime victory over Redford Union and last Saturday afternoon the Rocks pulled a major upset by beating Farmington, 61-57, in a non-leaguer.

"I sure trust we can add to this winning streak instead of opening another losing spree," Bearup declared after his charges had fought back from a 20-14 deficit at the end of the first period.

Observer Sports News

Bearup feels confident that his Rocks have cleared the hump.

"Our boys have gained confidence," he said. "This was a big one for us to win."

In Farmington, the Rocks topped the front-runners in the Interlakes League. The Falcons are yet to lose in conference play while Plymouth boasts only one triumph in the Suburban Six circuit.

Al Killeka and Greg Dorow each rapped in six points to put Farmington on top, 20-14, in the first quarter. But then Nate Luibrand hit for seven straight points in the second period to put Plymouth back on even terms in the second period.

However, at halftime it was still Farmington in the lead, 35-33.

Then Ron Lowe and Mike Kubik picked up four points each in the third period as Plymouth went on top and in the final period the score saw-sawed.

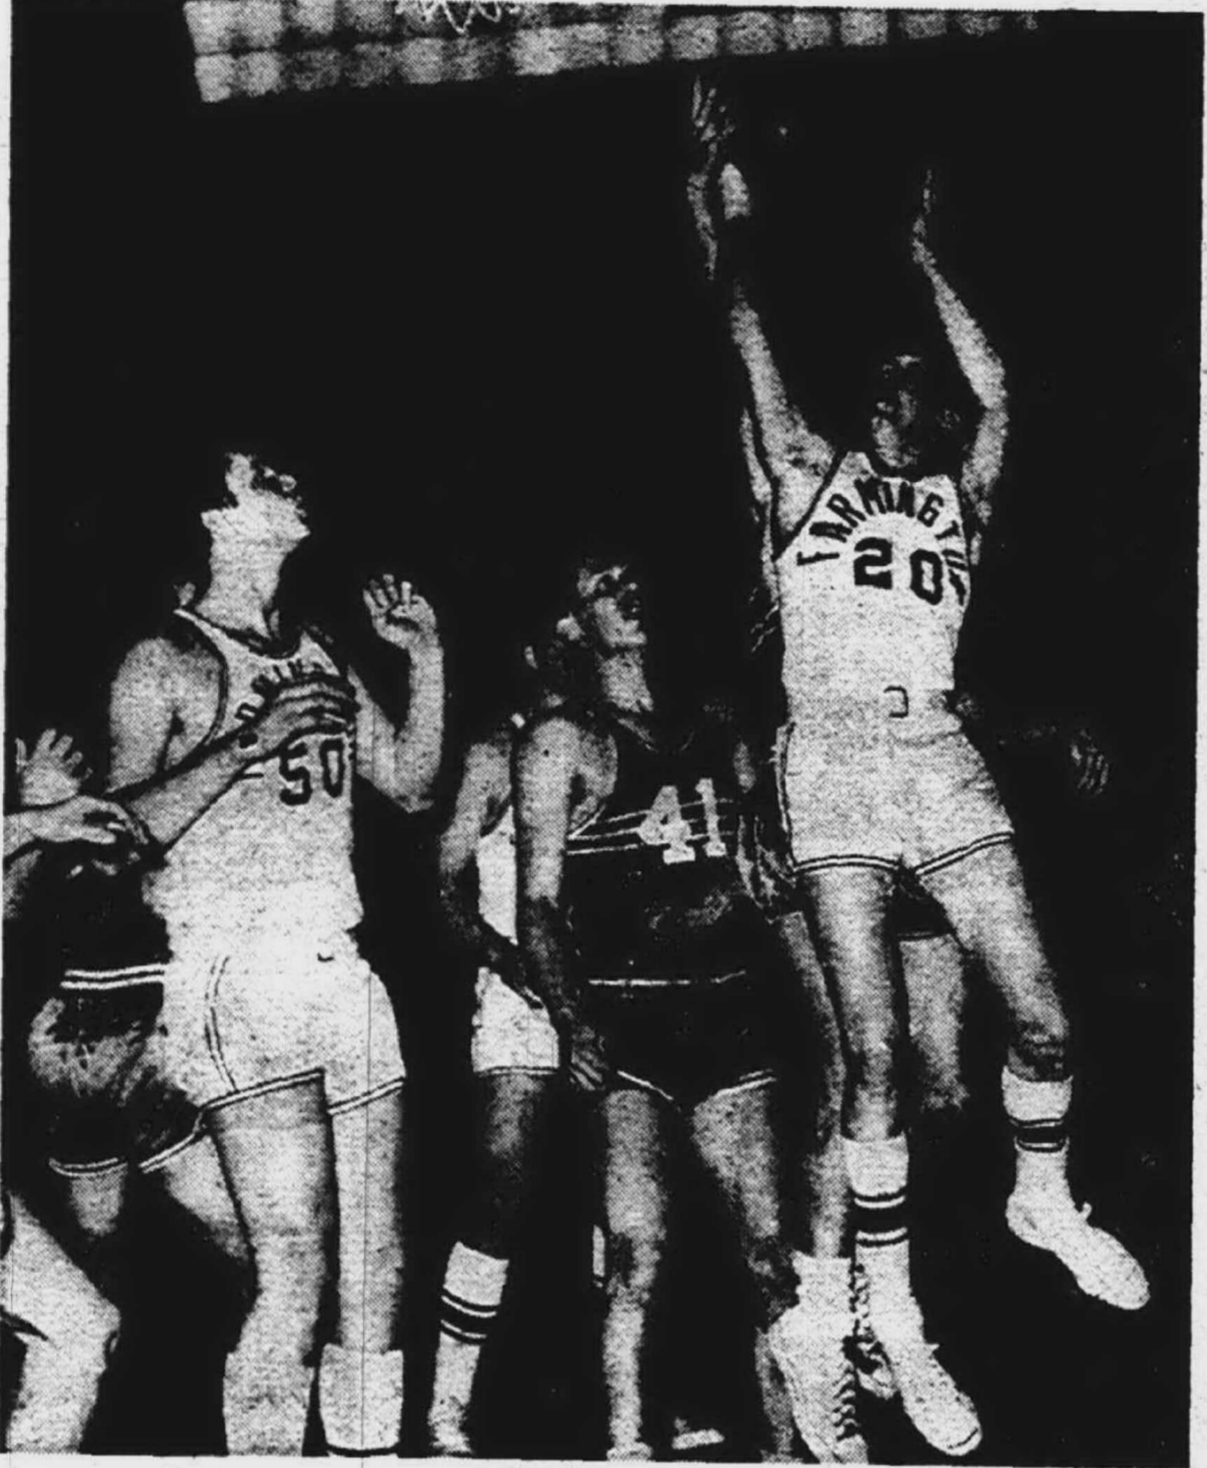

First it was Farmington by four points and then Plymouth by four as Mike Stak-ias proved the right man in the right place for the Rocks with a basket and three free throws in the closing moments of action.

Mike Ames had 18 points for Farmington to seize overall scoring honors. — High for the winners was Kubik with 16 points. Stakias and Luibrand followed with 15 points each.

In the reserve action, Plymouth also triumphed—finishing with a 55-46 lead. Tom Peterson's 20 for Farmington took high honors. For Plymouth, Jones led with 15.

The schedule this week sends both teams on the road — Farmington to Waterford, Plymouth to Belleville.

UPVE GOM IT—John Wirtz (20) of Farmington watch the proceedings. Plymouth goes up to haul in a rebound as John Ellison (41) and Mike Ames (50) of Farm-

Tourneys Listed For Area Schools

A record number of 123 district tournaments has been set for the 1967 state high school basketball championships.

Two of the districts will be held in the area with Farmington and Franklin high schools each being assigned Class A action.

An "A" regional also has been assigned to Livonia Franklin.

The district meets will begin on Feb. 27 and conclude on March 4.

The regionals start on March 7 and finish on the eleventh.

The quarterfinals in the state meet are listed for March 15 with the semifinals booked for March 17 at Michigan State and the finals on March 18 also at Michigan State.

The State association also has announced that regional wrestling meets will be held at six centers for Class A teams with Pontiac Northern and Trenton among the area sites. There'll be regionals at six locations for Class B teams.

The lower peninsula mat finals will be held on March 3-4 with Class A teams at Ann Arbor High, Class B teams at Lansing Waverly and Class C-D schools at Lansing Eastern.

Michigan State will host the State Class A swimming meet on March 10-11 as the Class B tankers perform the same days at the University of Michigan.

Schoolcraft Student Lost By Tigers

Rich Konik, who has attended Schoolcraft College, no longer is the property of the Detroit Tigers.

Picked No. 1 in the draft last spring, Konik refused to agree with the Tigers when it came to salary terms. He reportedly demanded $75,000, but the Tigers didn't want to give him more than $40,000.

Baseball last week held its draft for players who won't sign after six months and the Kansas City Athletics plucked Konik.

A product of St. Andrew High, Konik pitches and plays first base.

DRC Offers Racing Films

An outstanding Thoroughbred racing film, "Champions of 1966," is being offered to civic, fraternal and social groups in the Metropolitan area by the Detroit Race Course.

The 20-minute, 16 mm color and sound movie was filmed by Joe Burnham, who is recognized as one of the nation's foremost photographers and film producers.

The film is offered free to organizations. Arrangements for a showing can be made by writing Tommy Devine, Public Relations Director, Detroit Race Course, 2076 First National Building, Detroit.

UP AND IN — That's Mike Kubik of Plymouth (35) shooting over outstretched hands of Greg Dorow (44) for a basket to help Rocks win battle.

Final-Second Basket Clips N. Farmington

It was a heart-stopping finish.

As time ran out the ball wiggled around on the basket . . . then floated gently through and it spelled a 78-

76 victory for powerful Southfield high's basketball team over North Farmington.

The losers couldn't believe it. Just seconds before they had a chance to win it, but a blocked shot with 11 seconds to go brought some protests from North Farmington.

The Raiders felt maybe a foul should have been called on the play.

But instead the rebound went to Southfield and with five seconds left, football great Ted Simmons popped one from the corner for Southfield.

The shot fell off . . . and it looked like overtime was a certainty.

But center David Kontroy tapped at the ball, pushed it back on the rim . . . and after seconds of torturous waiting on both sides the ball went in to decide the game.

Southfield had led, 21-19, at the end of the first quarter but North Farmington rallied for a 39-39 tie by halftime.

With Ron Sluter firing in four baskets in the third period, the Raiders gained a 60-57 advantage and the margin swelled to as many as six points in the fourth period.

Then Simmons, who made all-state as a back in football, made three steals which helped to put the Southfield team right back into the thick of contention.

With 30 seconds left in the game the score was tied at 76-76.

North Farmington had the ball and tried to play for the last shot. But Simmons intercepted the ball.

Two timeouts later, Southfield promptly lost the ball to North Farmington on a steal. Then came the closing dramatics.

Mark Faller had 18 points to pace the losers. Mike McCoy had 16 and Jim Rulaugh and Sluter 14 each.

High for the winners was Glen Lenhoff with 27 points.

Pitcher with Power

Earl Wilson's seven home runs in 1966 fell two short of the American League record for homers by a pitcher in a single season set by Wes Ferrell with Cleveland in 1931 and tied the Detroit Tiger hurler with Don Drysdale and Don Newcomb of the National League.

Defensive Whiz Hero for Trojans

THERE SHE GOES: Jim Amick (32) of Clarenceville lets loose with a jumper that clicks against Northville. Clarenceville won in a surprising finish.

Paces Upset Over Northville

The basketball box score doesn't always tell a true story.

For example, in Clarenceville high's 61-59 upset of Northville last Saturday night, Dave Wilson of the Trojans finished with only eight points.

But—What the box score didn't disclose was that Wilson was a key factor with his defensive brilliance in making possible the victory for Clarenceville.

Wilson was assigned the job of guarding Jim Zayti, the Northville ace who has been averaging in the 20's all season.

When the night's festivities were over this time, Zayti showed just ten points. "Wilson was great," said coach Gene Scholes of Clarenceville.

The victory was the third in eight Wayne-Oakland League starts for Clarenceville. Northville, now 6-2 in the standings, holds down second place in the league.

Clarenceville led most of the way and had to fight off a desperate, closing rally by Northville which outscored the Trojans, 24-18, in the final period.

After lagging, 11-10, following the first period, Clarenceville went in front in the second period as Ron Ray hit three from the field. By halftime it was 29-23 for Clarenceville.

The edge mounted in the third period and Clarenceville went into the closing eight minutes with lead of eight points.

But it took three 25-footers by Mark Dievendorf, who came off the bench, to save the night for the Trojans.

Stellar rebounding by Ray and Jim Amick played a prominent role in the victory. Ray had 16 grabs to 13 for Amick.

Ray also wound up leading his team in scoring with 16 points. Charles Watkins had 13 while Dievendorf, Amick and Wilson all had eight.

Next stop for Clarenceville is Clarkston Friday night.

Bentley Adds RU to List of Victims

Bentley high's wrestling team continues to boom along.

The Livonians whipped Redford Union, 34-14, last Thursday and now hold decisions in 16 of their 18 meets this season.

The Bentley-RU results: 95 pounds — Thomas (B) pinned Henry.

103 pounds — Helm (B) pinned Schofield.

112 pounds — Wilson (RU) pinned Munroe.

120 pounds — Hickman (RU) decided Roberts.

127 pounds — Begdorian (B) decided McCurry.

133 pounds — Pike (RU) decided Reynolds.

138 pounds — Regan (B) decided Rhodes.

145 pounds — Dow (B) decided Sopher.

154 pounds — Wilbur (B) pinned Matheson.

165 pounds — MacGregor (B) pinned Caukins.

180 pounds — Hyvanik (RU) decided Roberts.

Heavyweight — Pavlinski (B) won by default.

JUGGLING ACT: Larry Duffield (54) of Schoolcraft gets involved in a juggling bit well but his mates lost.

FOR SCHOOLCRAFT CAGERS:

Troubles on Mount

Patience has to be rewarded one of these days at Schoolcraft College—when it comes to basketball.

When the current season began, coach Bob Leggat had to rebuild.

He had one starter back from last year. The player was Jeff Stevens.

So Leggat began a rebuilding program. By the first semester break, he had to rebuild still another time.

Between casualties to the books and other losses, most of his varsity was gone.

Leggat and his Schoolcraft charges also have had to fight a bad injury jinx all winter.

Two stars were hurt early. Now Stevens is lost for the season after hurting his shoulder in last Tuesday's 99-76 loss to Alpena.

"I just can't understand why everything seems to be going against us," explained Leggat.

"It just has to change some day... so why not soon?"

The big trouble against Alpena again was rebounding.

Try as they do, the Schoolcraft cagers simply can't match their rivals either on the offensive or defensive board.

"We give up too many second and third shots... and that murders any team," explained Leggat. "And we, meantime, get about one shot only. The other club gets the ball... and boom... they have a fast break going."

Alpena took a 41-32 lead in the first half against Schoolcraft and coasted the rest of the way.

Steve Moore from Farmington again was high for the losers. This time he had 19.

Larry Duffield, a sub from Franklin, chipped in with 16 points while John Felmet clicked for 11.

A game with Concordia, scheduled for Saturday night, was called off because of the snow. So was a swimming meet booked for Schoolcraft.

This Saturday, the cagers invade Port Huron to go against one of the strongest junior college teams in the country—a unit ranked among the top five.

Says Leggat: "Keep your fingers crossed."

Tigers List 3 Dates For Kids

Young baseball fans can put red circles around three dates on the 1967 schedule at Tiger Stadium.

Free Bat Day will be Sunday, May 28, with the Tigers playing a single game with the Washington Senators.

Free Cap Day will be Sunday, June 18, when the Tigers will meet the Kansas City Athletics in a single game.

Free Ball Day will be Sunday, July 9, a doubleheader date between the Tigers and the Boston Red Sox.

It will be the fourth annual Free Bat Day, second annual Free Cap Day and third annual Free Ball Day.

Every boy and girl, 14 or under, entering the stadium on a full paid admission—box seat, reserved seat, general admission or bleacher seat—on any of the dates listed will receive the bat, cap or baseball offered with the compliments of the Tigers for that date.

Some of the biggest crowds of the coming season are expected for the three gift days. Last year's Free Bat Day attracted the season's biggest turnout, 52,315, following crowds of 50,393 in 1965 and 48,642 in 1964 for the same event. Crowds for Free Cap Day and Free Ball Day also have been large in previous seasons.

Another Million When the Detroit Tigers played to 1,124,293 at home in 1966 it was the 23rd season they drew more than a million.

Snow Too Much For Prep Cagers

Everybody yielded. The snow simply was too much and the area's high school basketball players enjoyed a rare Friday night off.

Now comes the problem of re-scheduling the contests. Since all were conference games, they'll have to be made up.

One already has. Garden City West beat Cherry Hill on Saturday night.

A few of the games were to be played Tuesday night. Others are listed for next Tuesday and others for later in the season.

For Our Lady of Sorrows, however, time is vital.

The Farmington cagers must plunge next Sunday in the second division playoffs in the Catholic League. They will be playing at the U. of D. Memorial Building.

Just who Sorrows will meet and the time of the game remain uncertain.

Sorrows with a 9-2 record is assured of no worse than a tie for the title in the Northwest Division of the Catholic League.

Bentley and Farmington, respective front runners in the Suburban Six and Interlakes Leagues, both resume their title bids on the road. Farmington plays at Waterford as Bentley goes to Allen Park.

Garden City East, which is in contention for honors in the Mid-Wayne League, also hits the road, to play at Inkster. The East showdown with Taylor Center will be made next Tuesday.

The Schedule:

FRIDAY
North Farmington at Franklin Thurston at Glenn Farmington at Waterford
Garden City East at Inkster
Clarenceville at Clarkston
East Detroit at Stevenson
Plymouth at Belleville
Trenton at Redford Union
Bentley at Allen Park
Crestwood at Garden City West

SATURDAY
Plymouth at Franklin
Thurston at Stevenson
Glenn at Ypsilanti

SUNDAY

Observing Sports

has developed for Greater Livonia as you'll find anywhere in Michigan, outside of Detroit.

The past week's developments also ran us headlong into some remarks by one Dean Rockwell, who has wrestled professionally and now turns his mat interests along amateur paths. He helped coach the United States Olympic wrestlers in 1964.

"Few know what's happening around the country in school wrestling," Rockwell told the members of the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association.

The ears of guys like Ray Lane, Dave Diles, Don Kremer and Al Ackerman perked up.

Rockwell talked on:

"High school wrestling now ranks just behind football, baseball, basketball and track in most areas. More new high school wrestling teams are being established every year than in any other sport.

"In Michigan now we have 300 prep teams. Out in California they already have 1,000.

"It's the only sport in which size or physical structure make no difference. The skinny kid of 95 pounds or the heavy boy of 250 — there's a place for all, and against opponents of similar size.

"You don't have mismatches like in football or basketball. It's a sport that intrigues you, once you get out and see the boys wrestle.

"It's different from the professional part of wrestling like day is from night... A boy, who wrestles, requires a lot of skill."

Rockwell also disclosed that wrestling has taken over in the colleges like wild fire.

"All of which spells happy days for the United States in future Olympic games," he concluded.

Mentioning the Sport Broadcasters, they're a pretty "game" lot.

Some of them are going to try playing hockey Friday night in a special preliminary to the Detroit Red Wings-Montreal Canadiens oldtimers game at Olympia.

Then on Sunday afternoon, the broadcasters will turn basketball players. They will face a team of disc jockeys from WXYZ in a preliminary to the Pistons-St. Louis Hawks game at Cobo Arena.

Game time for the Broadcasters-Disc Jockey clash is 1 p.m. The Pistons and Hawks go at it at 2.

It's amazing how seriously the broadcasters have taken the basketball event. For three weeks now they have worked out at U. of D.

It should be an exciting afternoon and we might add a part of the game's proceeds will be turned over to the Broadcasters' scholarship fund which helps needy youngsters to attend college.

Pistons List Unusual Double Bill Sunday

It'll be Double Feature Day at Cobo Arena Sunday afternoon. The main attraction will pit the Detroit Pistons against the St. Louis Hawks, starting at 2 p.m.

Before the Pistons and Hawks go at it, "would-be" cagers, representing the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association and the WXYZ Disc Jockeys, will attempt to show the fans how the game of basketball should be played.

Such distinguished gentlemen of the microphone as Ray Lane, Dave Diles, Al Ackerman and Milt Hopwood will perform for the Sports

Broadcasters. A portion of the game's proceeds will be turned over to the group's annual scholarship fund.

Another highlight of Sunday's game will be the head-on collision of the Pistons' Dave Bing and the Hawks' Lou Hudson, the two prime contenders for rookie-of-the-year honors in the National Basketball Association.

At mid-season, the experts appeared to be favoring the sensational Bing who has been averaging almost 19 points per game and leading the Pistons in the assist department.

Mother, Baby Care Classes In Plymouth

Again, by popular request, two Red Cross Mother and Baby Care classes have been scheduled for the northwest area of suburban Detroit.

The first class will begin Feb. 15, and run for six weeks at the Plymouth Senior High School, between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m. To register for this class call 453-3100.

A second class to accommodate parents where husbands work during afternoon and evening hours will be taught at the Northwest Service Office, 31228 Five Mile Road in Livonia.

The class begins on Thursday, Feb. 16 and will be held from 10 to 12 noon. To register for this class, telephone Red Cross, 422-2787.

All Red Cross classes are free of charge. Fathers are encouraged to participate.

Schoolcraft Players Plan Plymouth Show

"Haricot," a one-act play written by members of the Schoolcraft College Masque Players, student drama group, will be presented at the First Methodist Church, Plymouth, at 6:30 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 5. Ralph B. Kelley, chairman of the English and Speech Division at the college, is director.

O'Neil Proposes Fulltime Use of Schools, Teachers

James F. O'Neil, newly-elected member of the State Board of Education, has called for the year-around utilization of schools and teachers. O'Neil stated that, with the costs of education increasing at a multi-million dollar rate and with the existing shortage of classrooms and teachers, it is sheer folly and gross wastefulness to shut our schools and teachers down three months out of the year. He said year-around schools should increase present capacity by 33 per cent, saving millions of dollars in construction costs and interest charges. This would also help solve one of the major financial crises presently facing the schools and the state. O'Neil pointed out that many colleges and universities have already gone to year-around utilization of facilities and staffs and it is now time for the school districts to give this proposal serious consideration.

O'Neil addressed the Plymouth Republican Women's Club, January 26 at the Credit Union Building in Plymouth. O'Neil proposed that consideration be given to operating the schools on a tri-semester or quarterly basis similar to that of higher education. O'Neil stated that this would not only save the taxpayers millions of dollars, but could also improve the learning process. It would enable children to enter school at more than one time a year.

This would eliminate many of the present problems caused by the disproportionate physical and mental development of children, particularly in the early grades, because they can only enter school in the fall.

In addition, if a child is having difficulty mastering a subject, he would only fall a third or a quarter behind rather than a full year before having an opportunity to repeat the subject. This should certainly reduce the number of dropouts by preventing students from getting hopelessly behind in their subjects.

It should also reduce juvenile delinquency by substantially reducing the 45 to 50 million students that are simultaneously turned out on the streets each summer. With the limited number of students out of a school at any one time, those looking for part-time work would also have a better opportunity of finding jobs.

"In addition, and most importantly," he said, "we are not paying teachers, particularly those who are head of the household, adequate salaries to properly provide for their families. This is one of the primary reasons for the present militancy on the part of teachers for increased pay."

"By operating our schools on a 12-month basis, we could then pay our teachers on a 12-month basis, rather than the present nine months. This will provide them with more adequate pay thereby alleviating their growing unrest. It will also eliminate the need for teachers to seek part-time vacation jobs which frequently find them doing some very menial or degrading type of work."

"In Michigan today, we citizens and tax payers have a simple choice—greatly increased taxes or more efficient use of present tax revenue, facilities, personnel, etc. The year-around schools offer both a major tax-saving advantage and an opportunity to improve the learning processes if we are but willing to make the necessary effort."

"I, therefore, call on all those involved, associated, or concerned with education to give this proposal serious consideration and to work for not only the most effective use, but also the most efficient utilization, of our vital education resources."

Mrs. Hudson To Address Women's Club

Mrs. Jessie Hudson, art teacher at Plymouth High School and a well-known artist on her own, will discuss "Understanding Modern Art" before members of the Women's Club Friday at 1 p.m. in the Plymouth Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Murray O'Neil will be chairman of the day with Mrs. Edwin Schrader as tea chairman. Assisting Mrs. Schrader will be: Mrs. Robert Barbour, Mrs. Wendell Lent, Mrs. Leo Crane, Mrs. Charles Engstrom and Mrs. Margaret Hough.

Two past presidents will have the role of greeters including: Mrs. Milton Laible and Mrs. Esther Hulsing.

Esch Lands Spot on Top Committee

Second District Congressman Marvin L. Esch (R-Ann Arbor) Monday expressed satisfaction with his appointment by House leadership to the Education and Labor Committee.

"I am honored that I have been entrusted with the responsibilities of a position on this important committee," Esch said. "Certainly the Second District with its vast educational and industrial interests will benefit by this appointment."

House Republican Leader Gerald Ford, commenting on Esch's appointment said, "We are indeed fortunate to have a man of Rep. Esch's background and qualifications to serve in this key position. Most of his life has been devoted to education and labor and I know that in the years ahead he will make significant contributions to his district and the nation."

Congressman Esch, starting his first term in Washington, is a former member of the Michigan House of Representatives where he served on the Labor Committee and had leadership responsibility on major labor legislation during the 1965-66 session. He has also worked as a consultant for both labor and management on industrial relations problems.

His educational background includes a Ph.D. degree from the University of Michigan in speech and education and 14 years of college teaching at the University of Michigan and Wayne State University.

Shorter Days Bring More Driving Woes

With winter upon us, Gerald E. Montgomery, Executive Director of the Greater Detroit Safety Council, cautions motorists that more fatal traffic accidents occur during the hours of darkness than during the daylight hours.

"Darkness calls for a special type of driving," Montgomery points out. "The most important requirements are increased alertness, better control of the car and reduction of speed."

Montgomery recommends that motorists follow these recommendations of the National Safety Council:

Pull into traffic more cautiously than in daytime. Not only do you see less at night, but other drivers have more difficulty seeing you.

Pass with extra care. Be sure you have enough passing room. Remember you can't see as far ahead at night.

Never trust your judgment in estimating the speed of an approaching vehicle by its headlights.

Stay well behind the car ahead of you, and be particularly alert in watching for his signals. If you follow too closely, your headlights will reflect in his rear view mirror and seriously reduce his vision.

Lag Noted In Traffic Convictions

Even though more than 50 percent of the traffic violations committed in Michigan are settled within one month from arrest to conviction, many linger on for months ... 20 percent remaining unsettled from eight weeks to a year or longer.

A study of 47,000 cases by the Michigan Department of State revealed that nearly 30 percent of these cases were dispatched by the courts within one week of arrest, Secretary of State James M. Hare said.

"This is good, but on the other hand," said Hare, "16 percent are prolonged for more than 10 weeks, with nearly five percent delayed a year or longer."

Hare said the analysis pointed up the "dire need of adopting a ticket system like the one in Illinois."

"Under the Illinois system, when a driver commits a moving violation, the police officer picks up his driver's license and issues him a temporary driving permit. This permit is good only until the violator's scheduled court date. If he fails to show up in court, he then is guilty of driving without a license. If he settles, his driver's license is returned by the court, barring any other problems on his record."

"Last year, our Department filed more than a quarter-million reports on failure-to-answer summonses, spotlighting one of the major problems in the efficient administration of the Michigan point system," Hare said.

Watch out for oncoming drivers who may be out of their lane or on the wrong side of the street.

Watch out for vehicles that might be parked or stopped on the roadway with poor lights or none at all.

If your car becomes disabled, get it off the road and place flares or lights to alert other drivers.

Don't over-drive your headlights. At 60 miles an hour it will take you, under average conditions, about 370 feet to stop. Yet you can see only about 200 feet ahead.

Put on directional signals well in advance of turning to allow for decreased visibility.

Never drive with parking lights instead of headlights. Parking lights can cause an oncoming driver to think you are farther away than you are.

Make adjustments for bad weather, which further reduces your already severely limited vision.

Keep your windshield and windows clean, inside and out. A moderately dirty windshield may not bother you much in the daytime, but at night the glare of oncoming headlights diffused against the film may blind you or make you fail to see unlighted objects.

If an approaching driver fails to dim his lights, don't keep your bright lights on, too. Slow down, dim your lights, and keep your eyes on the shoulder of the road or the lane edge to guide you.

'Sheba' Is One of Inge's Best Plays

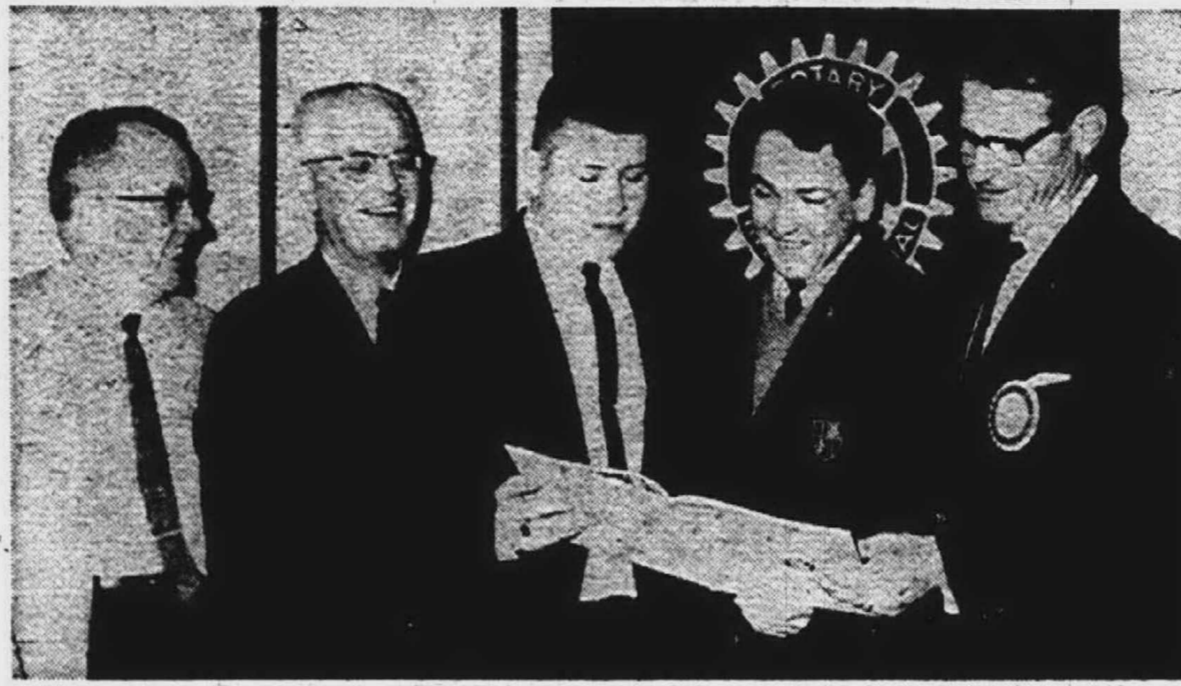

"Come Back, Little Sheba," the forthcoming production by The Theatre Guild of Livonia-Redford, is the second play by the group written by Pulitzer Prize winner, William Inge. The previous Inge show was "The Dark at the Top of the Stairs" produced in 1961.

"Dark" turned out to be quite a prize winner for the Guild when it was selected as a finalist for The Detroit-Windsor Theatre Council Play Awards.

Since that time, shows by William Inge have always caught the eye of The Guild play-reading committee, but the timing for one of his works was not thought to be right until this year. "Come Back, Little Sheba" gives a welcome variety to the list of other shows being done by The Guild this year. "Oliver" and "Shot in the Dark."

"Sheba" is the play that built the reputation of William Inge, now regarded as one of America's greatest playwrights of the second half of the century. It was his first Broadway hit, and was followed by others such as "Picnic," "Bus Stop" and "The Dark at the Top of the Stairs."

Standing Room Only Audience Acclaims Concert

The Youth Symphony of the Livonia Youth Symphony Society and guest artists, the Oakland Singers of Oakland University earned great acclaim for their brilliant performances at the opening concert of the season on Saturday, at Franklin High School in Livonia.

Schubert's "Mass in G" and "The Symphony No. 8 in B Minor" were both featured on the program. The beautiful lyrical quality and the intensely dramatic surge of Schubert's works were transmitted to the listeners by voice in the "Mass in G" and by instrument in "The Symphony No. 8 in B Minor."

From the opening number by the Oakland Singers directed by John D'Avara through the final number by the Youth Symphony under the direction of Lester Farkas, there was a feeling of scintillating rapport between performers and "the standing room only" audience.

With this successful performance and with the overwhelming acceptance of high calibre classical music by the audience, the Livonia Youth Symphony Society moves closer to its goal of: Offering young musicians the opportunity of performing fine music with others of their own age and musical ability and encouraging the growth and development of an appreciation of good music in the community.

The next concert to be presented by the Livonia Youth Symphony Society will be held March 12 at Bentley High School in Livonia.

The concert will feature the Junior Orchestra of Livonia, the String Orchestra and guest artist, cellist, Douglas Marsh, formerly with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Cooley Reunion Planned

Plans for a 25th-year reunion for the Cooley High School class of 1942, are underway. Members of the class are asked to get in contact with Mildred Hooper Grochowski, 16079 Ellsworth, Detroit, or Dorothy Hall Balla, 9927 Stahelin, Detroit.

Wally Roberts UP' GOING 'CURTAIN'

Toting up the sum of its variegated theatrical parts, the recent Eastern Michigan University production of "The Adding Machine" presented a dramatic answer that was more on the plus side than the minus.

Director George Bird's approach to this 1923 avant-garde attempt by Elmer Rice at times was more avant-garde than avant. As an expressionistic drama, most of the audience really expected to see some far-out approaches.

The satirical scene in Mr. Zero's living room when company comes over for an evening of devastating small talk was hilarious and had theatrical impact. Even the first scene with the nagging Mrs. Zero scored perfectly. Susie Keenan proved once again that she can handle a difficult monologue with professional aplomb.

All too soon the theatrical ham was in fire. Director Bird proudly resurrected a "missing scene." Most productions drop this scene since it is so pointless and repetitive. The sentencing of Mr. Zero would have been a natural second act break. The scene in jail added nothing.

The second act of this different production of "The Adding Machine" opened with an overly realistic scene in a graveyard. For a moment I thought I was back with Count Dracula and the werewolves. Graves shaped like coffins opened eerily. Bodies came to life so expertly that the theatrical communication gave way to macabre excitement.

The graveyard scene became high camp. Gary Carpenter and Ray Nicols were superb. However, I began to lose the expressionistic pattern of Rice's original intent.

The Elysian Fields scene with the painted backdrop, a big oak tree and a queasy gray mound of earth with artificial flowers put me in a semi-comatose state and communication ceased.

Janice Smith struggled valiantly but never overcame the overpowering effect of the scenery. Her earlier scenes showed great promise. She was fighting not only a poor setting, but some of the worst writing that Elmer Rice has ever done.

This scene could have been dropped and the play would have been greatly improved. In fact, had Director Bird taken a long, hard look at the script, "The Adding Machine" could have been more effective without an intermission and pared down to about an hour and a quarter's running time.

The film sequence that opened the show and provided cover for scene breaks were clever and creative. However, a couple minutes of computers, their clacking cacophony, and the spinning wheels is plenty. The excess exposure (eight times) soon became over-powering and numbed the eyeballs.

If Director Bird wanted

the audience to feel a sense of frustration by this cinematic repetition, he did succeed. It is very possible that the excessive film sequences might have lost their original significance by such agonizing over-exposure.

The only other time that old Wally saw "Adding Machine" lights, platforms, and many levels were used. The show had a chance to flow and move in more expanded fashion. It's expressionistic nature could take flight.

The final scene of the play with the enormous adding machine was worth waiting for. Some of the best of Rice's sophomoric writing was on display in this scene. John Schudel did a magnificent job as Lieutenant Charles.

Adding up all the elements of the evening, "The Adding Machine" was an interesting, never dull evening. Here and there the production sagged, but generally it was worthwhile effort.

Reviving plays by competent authors who occasionally pen minor works is always a ticklish situation. Director Bird and his cast of hundreds are to be congratulated for giving us a second look at "The Adding Machine."

Quo Vadis Slates 'Doctor Zhivago' Engagement

"Doctor Zhivago" will open at the Quo Vadis Theatre on March 15 for an area engagement. The agreement between Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and the management of the Garden City Theatre was signed recently and public announcement was made today.

The story is presented through many characters whose destinies are interwoven. They are portrayed by Geraldine Chaplin, Julie Christie, Tom Courtenay, Alec Guinness, Siobhan McKenna, Ralph Richardson, Omar Sharif, Rod Steiger and Rita Tushingham.

David Lean is the director of the film, which is taken from Boris Pasternak's novel, "Doctor Zhivago."

Kiwanis Slate Fifth Festival

The Fifth Annual Festival of Music will be held Feb. 25 at North Farmington High School. Curtain time for the show, sponsored by the Kendallwood Kiwanis Club, is 8:15 p.m.

Melvin Todd, general chairman of the festival, said that the event will feature top vocal and instrumental groups from the Farmington Schools along with a special guest adult group.

The festival serves the dual purpose of providing an opportunity for the community's young musical talent to perform and raise funds for the Kiwanis youth projects in the community.

Westland JC's Plan Home Show

Final plans for the Westland Jaycees Home show were announced by Ted Jarvis, Project Director. It will be held at the Westland Shopping Center, March 2-3-4.

Jarvis said the Jaycees will have 48 booths for the display of home improvement ideas. Any local merchant can lease space for this display by contacting Jarvis at 425-8780. He stated that some contracts have already been signed and that the booths will be let on a first come, first served basis.

There will be no charge to visitors to see the displays. The hours of the show will be Thursday, 12-9 p.m., and Friday and Saturday, 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Local Gal Is Madrigal Club Head

Marlowe Belanger of Quail Hollow in Farmington Township is the new president of the Madrigal Club of Detroit. Sue McCallum of Twin Valley Court in the City of Farmington was elected corresponding secretary.

The two assumed office at the annual Christmas dinner party of the group.

Mrs. Belanger has been a member of the organization for some years holding various offices before becoming president. She was president and co-organizer of the Kendallarks and president of the Kendallwood Newcomers Club. The mother of two children, she also serves as the secretary of St. Fabian's School.

The Madrigal club, one of Detroit's first women's choral groups, will be celebrating its 53rd year.

Shaw Joins Repertory at Hilberry Classic Theatre

"Man and Superman," George Bernard Shaw's comic inversion of the Don Juan story, opens at Wayne State University's Hilberry Classic Theatre at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 18. It will be the third play to join the current repertory.

The Hilberry officially opened its fourth season with Sheridan's comedy "The Rivals" and Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Shaw, revered as one of England's greatest playwrights, reaches a peak of irony and satire in his brilliant comedy. Instead of depicting a libertine who pursues women, he presents a wealthy gentleman pursued himself by a woman. The more usual treatment of Don Juan is reserved for an unusual dream scene in hell.

"Man and Superman" will also be performed Friday night, Feb. 17, and will continue in repertory through May 25. The play is directed by Leonard Leone, director of the University Theatre.

Tickets and information may be obtained at the Hilberry Classic Theatre Box Office, 833-5151, or at the J. L. Hudson Ticket Service.

Symphony Group Sets Concert

The Michigan Youth Symphony will make its first appearance in Farmington Feb. 5 at 2 p.m. at Our Lady of Mercy High School, Middlebelt and 11 Mile. Orien Daley is the director.

Sponsored by the music departments of the Farmington Public Schools and Our Lady of Mercy, a major portion of the concert's proceeds will be used for Interlochen scholarships.

Members of the symphony include: Sherry Fayroin, Valerie Lelli, Donn Glodstick, Debbie Fayorian, Clark Suttle, Nancy Waring and Phil Fouts of Livonia; Patricia Norton of Farmington; Patricia Hall and Gail Alioto of Garden City.

Sculpture Show Planned By Artists

The Bloomfield Art Association of 1516 South Cranbrook Road, Birmingham, will open to the public Mar. 5 a premiere showing of sculpture by Michigan artists.

This will be the first major event devoted entirely to three-dimensional art, sponsored by an important public gallery with the sole purpose of honoring and displaying the work of Michigan sculptors.

Entrants will be selected in open competition by Juror G. Alden Smith, chairman of the Department of Art and Art History, Wayne State University. First prize will be $400, second prize $250 and third prize $150.

Works intended for exhibition will be received at the above address on Feb. 18 and 19. Gallery hours will be from 2 to 5 p.m. every day except Monday and the exhibition will be on display through March 25.

'Carousel' Opens Friday in Dearborn

The Dearborn Civic Theatre production "Carousel" with a cast of 60 actors, musicians, singers and dancers will open Friday, at 8:30 p.m. at Dearborn High School Auditorium for the first of five performances.

Following the Saturday evening show, the memorable Rodgers and Hammerstein musical will conclude the next weekend with 8:30 performances on Friday and Saturday and a 7:30 p.m. show on Sunday, Feb. 12.

Sex Education Group To Be Formed Soon

The first members of a committee which will help develop a sex education program in the Wayne Community School District will be appointed within the next two weeks.

The department of instruction of the district, which includes most of Westland, will select persons from a variety of fields to serve on the committee.

Approval was granted by the school board recently to accept the department's recommendation to let the staff move ahead with the "necessary research and study to develop a curriculum guide in sex education for the school district."

Dr. Orval M. Conner, assistant superintendent for instruction and Raymond H. Lafrey, the language coordinator, commented to the school board that while "ideally it (sex education) should probably be carried out within the home but realistically, we know this isn't happening. The school is the only institution which reaches all children, and the evidence of need for this program is known and recognized by many responsible citizens."

To recognize personal differences regarding this matter, the two administrators continued, the committee should study the advisability and propriety that exists for both individuals and schools who are "not prepared" to accept the program. They also pointed out that "attention should be given to legal requirements regarding sex education in Michigan."

In providing background for the issue, the pair said that in the past few years, "several local PTA's, in the school district have supported efforts to provide some formal presentation of information regarding sex education within the framework of the public school."

"This has not been a new venture for PTA. This effort was carefully guided by Miss Olive Shale, director of nursing services, and building principals.

"The programs were well received and, while not totally adequate, they served to pave the way for a more comprehensive and responsible approach to the problem.

"Because of the nature of this issue, it can be anticipated that great care and attention will be required to insure that we evolve a development program which is both explicit and accurate. It is envisioned that teachers and administrators will need time to research, study, and develop such a program using local resource people as an advisory council for the study."

The proposed structure of the advisory group would include representatives of not only elementary, junior high, and senior high schools, but also the clergy, medical, legal, and sociological fields, school administration, parents, PTA, the school district's special services department, which includes nurse, visiting teachers, and social workers.

Mai Kai Brings Hit Musical

Rodgers & Hammerstein's "The Sound of Music" is the film version of one of the most beloved stage musicals of the last decade. A tuneful, heartwarming story, it is based on the true story of the Von Trapp family singers, one of the world's best-known concert groups just prior to World War II.

Julie Andrews, Broadway's original "My Fair Lady," plays the role of Maria, the tomboyish postulant at an Austrian abbey who becomes a governess in the home of a widowed naval captain with seven children, and brings a new love of life into the home. Christopher Plummer, the distinguished Broadway and London actor, plays Captain Von Trapp and Eleanor Parker portrays the lovely baroness Elsa who wants to marry him. Richard Haydn plays Max, the family friend whose skill as an impresario leads the family into the world of music. The beloved Broadway and television actress Peggy Wood makes one of her infrequent film appearances as the Mother Abbess.

"The Sound of Music," which opens on Feb. 15 at the Mai Kai Theatre exclusively, received five Academy Awards including Best Picture and Best Direction. This is Wise's first film since another musical, "West Side Story," which received these same two Oscars.

In bringing "The Sound of Music" to the screen, Wise was reunited with three of the top talents of "West Side Story," associate producer Saul Chaplin, screenwriter Ernest Lehman and art director Boris Leven.

On stage, "The Sound of Music" captivated audiences around the world with its warm, romantic story and its lilting score. In bringing it to the screen, Wise enhanced these qualities with sweep and scope and Deluxe Color, to provide a new and exciting musical treat—and then took his cast and crew to Salzburg, Austria, to film his story against the authentic backgrounds of the world-famed "City of Music."

"Salzburg," Wise pointed out, "is more than just the city where this story took place. It is an atmosphere, and this is what we wanted to capture on film in order to make audiences feel the aura that surrounded the people with whom we are involved."

Open Letter to John Birch Society

Dear Neighbors:

You know how it is here in the suburbs. You're sitting around having coffee with a neighbor and a dove flies in the window. It sparkles for a moment, turns into a jug of detergent and miraculously washes clean those hard to get at places while leaving your hands as smooth as silk and white as snow. We know it's true because we've seen it many times with our own eyes — on film, and if it's right there in black and white, how much more proof do we need?

Absurd you say? That's just a T.V. commercial. Doves do not turn into detergent jugs . . .

Congratulations! You are using your head. You are not letting yourself be swayed by a propaganda film.

But suppose the bird that flew in the kitchen window was NOT a dove. Imagine instead an eagle. Can an eagle turn into a detergent jug and clean those hard to get at places, or would it be more likely to take a few menacing dives at the coffee table, perhaps even threatening the safety and well-being of you and your neighbor? I'm not sure. I can only imagine what might happen. Or I can let the eagle in and see whether or not he raises havoc.

My husband and I let the eagle in, so to speak, by attending the program which your group sponsored at Bentley high school last Tuesday night featuring the bloody film ANARCHY USA; a propaganda film designed to show that the Civil Rights movement is and always has been Communist dominated.

In this film, close-up photographs of partially decapitated human beings, maimed women and children, burned and charred victims of war and uprisings in Algeria were shown to an audience composed of a large number of high school students. Do you really feel that this was necessary? If so, would it not have been enough to show these atrocities once rather than repeatedly throughout the film?

The threat is made over and over in this film that the same kind of violence will happen here if the Civil Rights movement continues and that anyone who actively tries to practice freedom for all men is either a dedicated Communist or an unknowing dupe of a Communist conspiracy to overthrow the United States.

A few of those implicated as Communies are Martin Luther King, Jr., Ike Eisenhower, Earl Warren, John F. Kennedy, Bobby Kennedy, Walter Reuther, Soapy Williams, and Lyndon Johnson; the U.N. is Communist controlled and Ambassador Goldberg a Communist puppet. Folk singers are also suspicious characters, especially Pete Seeger because he wrote "We Shall Overcome," so I guess we dupes have a lot of company.

Regional director, Stuart Crane, a former business administration teacher at Wayne State who now devotes full time to his job with the John Birch Society took great pains to assure his audience that the Birchers are in favor of equality for all men and that Communists often try to label them as "prejudiced" in order to create confusion. He then proceeded to refer to a Roman Catholic Sister as a "penguin."

When a courageous teenager from Franklin high school challenged Crane's logic on one point, the student was heckled by Birchers who yelled angrily, "We don't wanna listen to that little punk." The youngster rose to his feet insisting that he had the right to speak and pressed his point home while being heckled by adult Birchers in the audience. I am grateful that not all of you shouted insults at this boy; if you had, this letter would be a hopeless one.

It was pointed out in ANARCHY USA that Negro author James Baldwin wrote a book called "The Fire Next Time." I guess this was supposed to imply something sinister. Baldwin wrote a lot of books including "Nobody Knows My Name" and "Notes of a Native Son." In discussing how it felt to be a Negro in school reciting the pledge, Baldwin recalls that he could never get past the words "with liberty and justice for all," because liberty and justice did not exist for him. It so bothered him as a child to choke on these words that he took to coming late to school in order to avoid hearing those words.

"One nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all" should be taken very seriously by all Americans. You who are members of the John Birch Society here in Livonia and nationwide can be commended for focusing your loyalty on this oath, but we must all look to our hearts with honesty.

Eagles and doves do not clean hard to get at corners by miraculously turning into detergent jugs unless trick photography is used to create that impression.

It is most difficult for the mind to accept, but it is true that there are no absolute answers to the pressing social issues of the day.

Extremism, whether it be Communism on the left, or John Birch on the right is not the answer to the ache we feel to be united as one people — in love.

Hatred cannot be fought with more of the same.

Increase Justified

It is a well-known fact that the cost of living has risen in just about every segment of the economy. The area that seems to have pinched the housewife's pocketbook most is the skyrocketing price of food.

And there is no exception when it comes to the Farmington school lunch program. For them too the cost of food—and labor—has been rising.

So recently they announced that the cost of lunches would increase five cents beginning Jan. 30. Elementary is now 35 cents and junior and senior high 40 cents.

The rise is entirely justified.

In fact, this increase could have been substantiated some time ago. However, the school system, sensitive to the needs of its children and the rising cost of living, has put off higher prices as long as possible. In recent years the Farmington school lunches were priced below many other areas. Most school systems jumped their prices in the past years while Farmington has not increased in five-and-a-half years. It still is in the same range as other districts.

Ella Plichia, head of the program, offers statistics showing that there is still only a meager savings in packing a child's lunch. And the youngsters don't have the benefit of a hot meal. She has compiled her figures for a lunch consisting of one or two bologna sandwiches, a cupcake and an orange.

2 slices bread @ .29 loaf029
1 slice bologna @ .79 lb.05
2 t. butter @ .75 lb.016
1 cupcake, purchased06
1 orange @ .59 dz.05
1/2 ft. wax paper003
1 lunch bag005
1 pt. milk, at school02
233
2nd sandwich095
328

Then, if you add other items it will naturally increase the cost and it is difficult to vary the menu. These figures do not include a mother's time and they do not introduce the child to new and varied foods which he will get with the hot lunch program.

Farmington mothers should accept the new school lunch program prices as something necessary and justified. It is our hope that they will continue to provide their children with the hot, nutritious lunches that the schools provide.

Letters To Editor:

The Firemen's Story—by a Fireman

Editor:

Here we a-go-go again. Jan. 11, 1967, caught me reading "Observing the Scene," and for once, just once mind you, I thought I was going to read a couple of decent words, sentences and paragraphs about Firemen. Here was a column written by a noted personality, who I thought was going to praise Firemen and tell their story as it should be told.

Parity in pay is what Firemen want, but due to lack of proper editorials and news coverage, the prestige and dignity Firemen once had is going down the drain. Integrated Departments: Absurd and ridiculous.

Many years ago the Fireman and Policeman were well respected pillars of their community. But through years of changes in laws, materials, techniques, and leaders, a change has occurred which has hurt the prestige of Policeman and Fireman in our communities. Most of all it has hurt the Fireman. Police are doing a job far better than one may realize without the knowledge of finely worded laws they must work under. Our Policemen are walking Crime Labs, Social Workers and Lawyers; and let's give them credit. They are organized and their training is organized and supported by matching funds from the state. And the Police have kept their prestige from slipping more than the Firemen, by publicizing the good works along with the glory.

But, let us not forget the Fireman who plays checkers, watches TV and sleeps on the job (from your Mayor). How many pounds of sweat does a Policeman sweat? Why don't Policemen have a Heart and Lung Bill for protection against gases and excessive strain on the heart? You don't read of this in your newspapers. You don't hear this at the Bargaining Table. Why? The Fireman takes it as part of the job. You don't read of the commercial and house inspections performed by your Fire Prevention Bureau. You don't read of the calisthenics, the physical and technical training involved to train and condition a Fireman. You don't read of the nervous strain of the expected Fire Alarm nor the mental anguish of: Children trapped, or, "we tried mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, and closed chest massage, but it still failed." No, none of you read this, all you're concerned about is Dollars and Cents, and the gory, ugly details of "that fire last night."

I'm a Fire Service Instructor, but only in the field of Firemanship; and that is the only field the general public knows we teach. What about courses in Chemistry? Courses in Hydraulics? Ventilation? Physics, Speech and Psychology; City, County and State Laws? Court Procedures, Arson Detection and Investigation? Building Construction and Building Codes? Fire Codes? Administration? Mechanics, engine and pump repairs? First Aid Classes? Demonstrations in schools and to Civic groups, and OBSERVING the Scene . . .

By MYRA CHANDLER

There are some virtues you do manage to hold faithfully to despite the rigors of doing a weekly column over a long period of years—loyalty, patience, integrity, tolerance and of course maidenly modesty.

HOWEVER one does tend to allow cynicism to sear one's idealistic approach to life.

My immediate reaction to the new concept in solving community problems, both school and governmental, called The Committee of 100, was "what is behind it—what is their motivation—who will get in the pork barrel now?"

After hearing a presentation twice from their representative, and thoroughly reading their final report it can only be reported that it is as idealistic as Shangri-la. And if perpetrated would be just as wonderful.

The Committee of 100 received money to get off the ground by a grant from the Ford Foundation in the hope of starting a voluntary movement among the elected leaders of more than 400 local governments in Southeast Michigan region that includes Observerland.

The idea is to find solutions to the complex challenges of the region with coordinating activities where possible, i.e. joint incinerators; water pollution problems; water supply; transportation problems; development of educational cultural centers; health and social services; child and youth guidance.

Certainly if the Committee of 100 could just solve the problem of financing the under-staffed, over-used Northwest Child Guidance Clinic—it would be worth the effort.

In other words, we have problems in our area we might solve more efficiently and less expensively by working together.

Each community would have representation and be assessed. Member counties would make annual contributions based on their land area, population and equalized valuation.

The need for "authorities" has been established—but to date has failed miserably with graft being a definite deterrent.

As the various school districts and local governments became involved new Lansing and Washington legislature could evolve—ideally speaking, of course.

In Livonia, for instance there is a need for a traffic safety engineer—but the city fathers consider it quite a luxury and yet it would save business, money and more importantly, residents' lives. A traffic safety engineer who could be effective in tying Redford Township, Livonia and Plymouth—solving the problem of Plymouth Road strip would be worth his weight in gold—assisting all three communities.

Breaking it down for authority there would be first a General Assembly; under it an executive committee and then a staff. Working with the staff would be technical administrators committee to cover these general topics—general services, health, education welfare, public safety, public works, regional planning.

The executive committee would consist of 35 members. Each Government would have one vote—and in the General Assembly each local government would have one vote.

Some of the advantages besides cooperative planning and liaison to top governmental units would be the technical aid and leadership in development that could be offered by joint effort.

This is not meant to be some sort of communal where individual communities share each others tooth-brush, lawnmower and tools, but rather sharing to develop regional policies and implement proposals to meet regional needs. It will concern itself more with ideas than material involvements.

On paper it sounds and looks intelligent and progressive. If you would care to read for yourself send for the booklet report to 1653 Guardian Building, Detroit 48226—or if you represent a group or service club you may call 961-4266 and one of the three staff members Alan Beals, Robert D. Farley or Richard C. Hartman will come out and give you the soft sell—keeping in mind it will only be successful if all local governmental agencies are willing to cooperate.

Same Old Brotherhood Week

The end of this month will bring an annual event called National Brotherhood Week. To mark the event, many local human relations groups will sponsor a Brotherhood Week Banquet, to which they invite members of local civic and service, and religious organizations. For those who haven't been to a Brotherhood Banquet, this writer will recall some of the ones he has attended in other suburban communities.

First of all, despite the emphasis on "sit wherever you want" seating arrangements, all of the members of the Men's Club of one religion sat together at one table; the ladies auxiliary of another sat at another, and the service club members banded together.

After everyone was seated, the local citizens scanned the room to see if there were any outsiders present. Within seconds, everyone knew that there were three Negroes, two Japanese, two Jews (and how you can recognize one instantly continually amazes me), and one "with a foreign European accent."

The several hundred persons then sit down to breakfast and hear a featured speaker who has a lot of nice things to say about how tranquil their suburb has been for the past few years. And, in fact, he is right since the residents have been trying very hard to keep it that way.

When the Brotherhood Week Banquet comes up later this month, make it a point to sit down next to a stranger instead of someone you see nearly every day of the year in personal or professional life. You will enjoy the experience and, better yet, will bring true meaning to the spirit of the week.

OMBUDSMAN

(A special feature in The Observer Newspapers — we will do our best to be a go-between, a red-tape cutter as the name indicates. When you have exhausted all other measures on a problem write to us (keep it short, please) and we'll see if we can help. Yes, John Q, you can fight city hall — with your own Ombudsman!)

Dear Ombudsman:

I am writing you hoping you can help in this situation:

A shopping center was opened last year at the corner of Wildwood and Ford Roads. Since this center was opened the streets on Wildwood, both sides, look like a city dump.

I have seen people empty their litter bags from their cars onto the lot. Also they carry food from the snack bar and throw the wrappings on the ground outside the store. The store has refuse containers but people do not use them.

I feel this shopping area owes the property owners some protection from this. Perhaps a fence along the windward side along the edge of their parking lot would catch the litter on their own property.

I am not exaggerating when I say turning onto Wildwood from Ford Road going north looks like the city dump. Please see if you can help us.

I have called the City Hall to no avail. I am speaking for many home owners to whom I have talked regarding this. Our property values are threatened by this unsightly mess.

Any help you can give will be appreciated.

MRS. ANN VAN TIL
WILDWOOD WESTLAND

Dear Mrs. VanTil:
Westland has a litter ordinance and an accompanying fine if the law is broken. Authorities say they will get the mess cleaned up, pronto. The Observer will wait a week and then send a photographer to the area for visual proof.

Billiards and Aviation Combine For A Lasting Memory

By W. W. EDGAR

AS I walked toward the entrance of the Dearborn Inn, where I was a guest at lunch the other day, my eyes suddenly came upon a sign that startled me. I stood still, read the words and gulped. It wasn't that the sign carried a warning of some kind that should frighten me. It wasn't that it unfolded an amazing message.

The sign, that one could pass many times and not notice it, just had these simple words:—"Site of the old Ford Airport."

As I read them, standing there on the walk, memory of one of the strangest and interesting episodes came tumbling down through the years again as they oftentimes have a way to do and they carried me back almost four decades.

It was in mid-winter of 1929 or 1930 and I was laboring in the sports department of the Detroit Free Press. In those days there wasn't too much winter activity. Hockey was just getting started. Detroit had a professional basketball team, but it confined its activity to Sunday afternoons in the old Light Guard Armory.

SO, most of the attention among the real sports fans was centered on world pocket billiards championships that were being played in the Recreation Building that once stood at the corner of Lafayette and Shelby Street, a block from the Free Press.

The tournament was progressing just about as had been expected and Ralph Greenleaf, the defending champion, was pacing the field. It was evident that he had only one real challenger—a fellow named Frank Taberki from Syracuse, N.Y. And, sure enough, when they finally were matched in a round robin it was for the championship.

The night before the match, Greenleaf walked into the Free Press sports department for a visit as we had been friends of long standing.

"I just accepted an invitation to do something unusual tomorrow," he said, "and everyone over at the billiard theater thinks I'm crazy for doing it."

What could it be? I asked, and he chuckled. "I've accepted an invitation to play an exhibition of pocket billiards in the air tomorrow and I came over to ask if you would be my partner."

"It seems," he went on, "that they want to prove the stability of the Ford Tri-Motor plane that some fellow named Bill Stout helped to build, and the Fox Movie-Tone people are going to have their news cameras there, too."

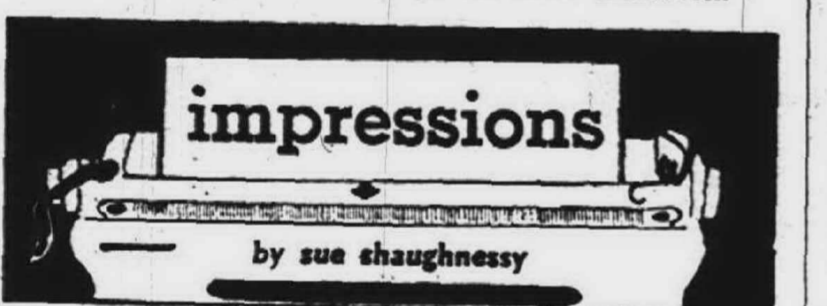

THIS had all the makings of a good story. So I accepted. We gathered the next morning at the Ford airport and, sure enough, they had installed a miniature pocket table and the big klieg lights. There was scarcely enough room for Greenleaf and myself to walk around the table.

After we de-planed from this pioneer venture, Greenleaf went to his room to rest for the big match. That night there were all sorts of whispers that Greenleaf had done a foolish thing and that he was un-nerved to the point where he would fall easy prey to his rival.

But, to the amazement of all, after "scratching" his first turn at the table, he came back, ran 126 straight for a new world record and the championship.

The real story of this great victory doesn't appear in the record books. The one little line of small print simply states that Greenleaf won—and it's bad, for this was one of the most dramatic championships in the long history.

It was one event that I never will forget, not so much for the battle on billiard table, but the event that lead up to it. It made of me a pioneer in the aviation industry. No wonder I stood aghast at the sign the other afternoon.

impressions

by sue shaughnessy

The other night the idiot box that's known as television fielded a program entitled "Essay on Woman."

If we might be permitted a strictly distaff point of view for a few moments, we have some impressions of their impressions.

The commentator started out by asserting that the program was based entirely on prejudices. That it was—strictly a man's point of view.

First the show pontificated that women in the business world seem to have a chip on their shoulder insofar as they believe that every man is out to thwart them.

This might be partially true, but not completely. Then the commentator stated that we do not make good bosses. "When they have to exercise authority they use too much," he intoned.

Unfortunately, on the whole, we might have to agree with this. There are some exceptions, but it seems that there is no in-between on women bosses—they are either demanding and very fair or just plain inefficient and bad at handling people and at administering.

(A side note on this. While in college I worked for the head cataloger in the college library who happened to be a woman. The chairman of the English Department, who happened to be a friend of mine, commented one day that if I could work for this person I could probably work for anyone. Conversely the following year I worked for the periodicals librarian, also a woman, who was and is probably one of the best bosses around.)

The TV camera zeroed in on women in uniform stating that a uniform was supposed to add prestige and authority to the wearer. "No matter how well tailored, this just doesn't work for a woman," was the comment. We must agree with this.

Then the program examined the phenomenon of the "woman who demands to be treated as an equal during the day, but wants to be waited upon at night." This might be a phenomenon, but who ever said that women are logical?

Upon reading this column I keep remembering the closing words of the commentator about "women who have been able to watch this program without becoming defensive" are well adjusted or some such thing. Bah!

Facts From Local Office On Medicare

A new part of the medicare law started on Jan. 1, Sam F. Test, Social Security Manager of the Detroit-Northwest Office, said today. This is the part that pays for skilled nursing care provided elderly people following their discharge from the hospital.

Care in an extended care facility will combine the quality of medical treatment ordinarily given in a hospital environment with the opportunity for the patient's increased activity and self-reliance during the recuperation period.

In one sense, Test said, the stay in an extended care facility will be a substitute for time that before would have been spent in the hospital. For example, a medicare patient who before might go into a hospital and spend 15 days may now stay in the hospital for only 10 days and then be transferred to a qualified extended care facility for continued treatment.

In line with the purpose of the extended care benefit, only persons who have been treated in a hospital for at least three consecutive days and enter the extended care facility within 14 days of hospital release for treatment of the same illness, are eligible for this special benefit, Test said.

As an extension of hospital treatment the skilled nursing home stay will normally be fairly short, Test said. Medicare will pay the full cost of the first 20 days in the extended care facility and all but $5 a day for an additional 80 days. Test emphasized that medicare will not pay for long-term care in a custodial nursing home.

In the past, Test said, this special kind of care in an extended care facility has not been readily available and, therefore, very few people have really experienced it. The skilled nursing benefit under medicare will encourage the development of skilled nursing homes and support a new and important trend in medical care.

In the future, a patient who no longer needs the intensive treatment provided in the hospital, but does need continued care, can receive this medical attention at less cost in an extended care facility. Furthermore, his moving on will release a hospital bed for someone who may be acutely ill. The increased use of extended care facilities, Test said, will mean better utilization of hospital facilities and medical manpower.

Since this is a new idea in medical care there are now very few institutions equipped to offer extended care, Test said. Many existing nursing homes are in the process of upgrading their facilities and the care provided, in order to meet the required standards under the medicare law.

Medicare will pay for up to 100 days of skilled nursing care in an "extended care facility" following a hospital stay of 3 days or more. Test said. An extended care facility can be a skilled nursing home, or it can be a separate but distinct part of an institution, such as a ward or wing of a hospital.

"Extended care," Test explained, "is a cross between hospital care and the traditional nursing home care."

Am I Too Conservative?

Investing Inquiries

(The answers are the opinion of Laurence Wysong, a stockbroker for Paine, Weber, Jackson and Curtis; who is considered highly qualified on the subject. Mr. Wysong welcomes all inquiries on investing. Send your responses to Investing Inquiries, 33050 Five Mile Rd., Livonia, Michigan.)

Q. I am 41, with two young children. I earn $10,600 a year, own my own home free and clear, have $9,300 in E bonds, $13,000 in savings, a small lot of Consumers Power, $21,000 in first mortgage bonds drawing between 5 and 5 1/2 percent and $1,700 in building and loans. I would appear I have been too conservative, concentrating on income instead of growth. Do you agree?

A. I do. Here you are, at 41, with two children to educate and the only hedge against inflation is about $1,200 invested in a fine quality, though rather stable power company.

The E bonds are doing a job because their growth remains tax exempt for the time being. But you have better than $14,000 in savings, earning a taxable 5 and 5 1/2 percent, and $13,000 in 5 to 5 1/2 percent. All these can show you no growth, can offer no hedge against inflation.

I'm sending you a list of growth stocks such as a man of 41 should buy and hold. Also, some details on mutual funds. If you want to select the stocks yourself, consider the first; if you want to turn the job over to someone else, consider the second.

But you've got to do something more daring than put your money into a 5 percent first mortgage, the interest of which is probably decreased about 1 1/2 by taxes and the principal of which is eaten away steadily by 1 1/2 to 2 percent annual inflation.

Tiny Flower Arrangements Set on Ordinary Button Bases

Would you believe dried arrangements in miniature can be created using an ordinary button as its base?

Mrs. E. A. Linder of the Osage Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association was guest speaker at the January meeting of the Inkster branch, which is now known as the Rouge Valley branch of the association.

The members were most enthusiastic with the originality she showed in her work. It was suggested that such arrangements could be used as projects for children's groups and also serve as unique name plates for a dinner or luncheon.

After the demonstration, the group agreed it isn't always necessary to buy expensive materials to make a thing of beauty when even the lowly button can get into the act.

Plenty of Auto Plates But Scarcity of Early Buyers

The only trouble with early license plate buyers in the opinion of Secretary of State James M. Hare is "there just are not enough of them."

Hare pointed to the "slow" pace of 1967 plate sales which were running nearly 200,000 below comparable dates last year during mid-January.

"Unless we pick up the sales tempo by the end of this month and the first 10 days of February, I'm afraid buyers will be faced with monumental lines of pushing people and flaring tempers." Hare predicted.

Hare pointed to several factors which he said were "contributing to the snail's pace license sales campaign."

1. "Lag in new car sales. This has seriously affected sale of plates during the tag-end of 1966 and seems to be extending into the new year. Used car sales seem to be down, too.

2. "Persons who obtained plates early last year because they were leary of the new Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Fund have a year's experience to call upon and don't seem overly concerned about being later this year.

3. "License plate sales were stimulated last year by the gigantic state-wide educational and publicity campaign on the Accident Fund which stimulated persons to buy plates early."

Hare pointed out another problem, caused when the Legislature extended the commercial plate buying deadline back to the original February 28 date. Lawmakers earlier in last year's session had passed a bill which had moved up commercial plate sales one month with the deadline of January 31.

"This is a problem we did not anticipate, figuring commercials would be out of the way by the end of January."

Hare again reminded vehicle owners that they would have to provide proof of insurance to qualify for the $1 insured fee under the Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Fund Law.

"If adequate proof is not furnished, these drivers will have to pay the $35 uninsured fee under the Fund."

Adequate proof of insurance, according to Hare, can consist of any of the following:

but only when a policy number and expiration date appear on the certificate. Terms such as "applied for" or "continuous" are not acceptable.

A statement with the same information as the certificate on the letterhead of any company or agent.

A copy of a policy declaration or an insurance ID card which contains the same information as the certificate.

binder or any document containing the same information as a binder showing the binder period or expiration date.

Hare said binders must be given to branch personnel when plates are purchased and would be checked at the expiration period to see if the person followed through on the purchase of liability insurance. Persons who do not show in-effect liability insurance will be asked to pay the $35 uninsured fee.

BENTLEY VICTOR:

Tank Records Erased

They set a real splashing party — record splashing — last Thursday when Bentley high's swimming team downed Redford Union, 60-45, in a Suburban Six League meet.

One pool record was set in the RU waters, while five varsity marks involving RU competitors were by the boards.

The featured performance was turned in by Bentley's Pete Rogissart who took the 400-yard free style in 4:10.5 to shatter the pool record at RU.

Rogissart beat out Jerry Haltom of RU who was timed in 4:15.6 for a new school mark.

The two boys finished the same way in the 200-yard free style in which Rogissart was timed in 1:57. Haltom's time of 1:58.5 constituted another record for RU.

Ray Woods also turned in a pair of record efforts for RU as he won both the 50 and 100-yard free styles in the respective times of 23.6 seconds and 52.8 seconds.

The other RU record went to Mark Favor who won the 100-yard butterfly in 59.5 seconds.

The results:
Medley relay: 1—Bentley (Donaldson, Stewart, Palmer, Guthrie), 2—(Myers, Charles Marquoit, Master-son). Time: 1:50.6.

200-yard free style: 1—Rogissart (B), 2—Haltom (RU), 3—D. Schreiber (B). Time: 1:57.

50-yard free: 1—Woods (RU), 2—J. Schreiber (B), 3—Ringell (RU). Time: 23.6 seconds.

Individual medley: 1—Trembath (B), 2—Favor (RU), 3—Baxter (RU). Time: 2:19.4.

Diving: 1—Clancy (RU), 2—Carver (B), 3—Johnson (RU).

100-yard butterfly: 1—Favor (RU), 2—Palmer (B), 3—Marquoit (RU). Time: 59.5 seconds.

100-yard free: 1—Woods (RU), 2—Mehol (B), 3—Muel-ler (RU). Time: 52.8 seconds.

100-yard back: 1—J. Schreiber (B), 2—Donaldson (B), 3—Meyer (RU). Time: 1:02.5.

400-yard free style: 1—Rogissart (B), 2—Haltom (RU), 3—Anthony (RU). Time: 4:10.5.

100-yard breast stroke: 1—Trembath (B), 2—Stewart (B), 3—Charles (RU). Time: 1:10.5.

Free style relay: 1—Bentley (Guthrie, Bars, D. Schreiber, Mehol), 2—RU (Master-son, Whitbeck, Ringel, Mullin). Time: 3:42.3.

Language For Elementary Studied by Hull

Now that the holidays are over, the Hull school PTA is back in action. The first meeting in 1967 will be on Tuesday, Feb. 7th, at 8:00 P.M. and will feature a program entitled "Accent on Language."

Donald McGregor, a Farmington school PTA President, will outline a new program his school has innovated, to teach languages to elementary school children. This program, completely sponsored through the Farmington PTA, has established Saturday morning classes in French and Spanish for elementary school children to compensate for the inability of the schools to teach languages due to lack of finances. Mr. McGregor, along with Spanish teacher Miss Carolyn Smith and his program chairman, Mrs. Alban, will explain the "Why" and "How" of starting such a program here in Livonia.

School Board Changes Date Of Meeting

The Wayne Community School board, whose district includes most of Westland, has rescheduled its first regular meeting of this month to allow board members and administrators to attend a school officials' convention in Atlantic City, N. J.

The board meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. next Monday, instead of Monday, Feb. 13. The school officials will be at the convention from Saturday, Feb. 11, through Wednesday, Feb. 15.

Fine Fare Solace for Bad Week

By FAITH GILLESPIE
Queen of Hearts

This sure wasn't my week. If you wrecked your new red penny loafers in a mud puddle, and then the weather changed and the milk froze, and then the snow came and the car went into the ditch, and then the battery died and you sat in a parking lot waiting hours for the tow truck while your children are waiting for you ... if those things happened to you all in one week, you'd think it wasn't your week, wouldn't you?

Of course I realize that these aren't the worst things that can happen, but it did get discouraging. It was so much not my week that just by the law of averages it must have been lots of other peoples' week.

It was the National Kraut Packers Association's Week. They declared the observance of National Kraut and Frankfurter Week to promote "the century-old alliance of kraut and frankfurters." You might expect that I'd have some extraordinary delicious kraut and frankfurter recipes for you, but even after a century I'm still not doing anything creative with kraut and frankfurters. We just rinse the kraut and brown the wienies and cook them together. Anything you can do with kraut and frankfurters, you just go ahead.

What I do have is another good chicken recipe for you. It is very easy, and it also has possible variations.

CHICKEN CAMILLE

Roll 2 pounds or so of chicken breasts and/or thighs in 1/2 cup flour seasoned with 2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, and 1/2 teaspoon paprika.

Saute chicken parts in 3 or 4 tablespoons butter or hot cooking oil in a skillet, turning once to brown. Place chicken in a 2-quart baking dish.

Into the drippings in the skillet, pour 1 can cream of mushroom soup and 3/4 cup of water. Blend well, stir in 1/4 cup sherry, if you like, and pour over chicken.

Cover and bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Uncover then, and bake till tender, another 15 or 20 minutes.

One variation to this uses broth instead of mushroom soup, and adds lemon or lime juice. Follow the above method to the point that you put the chicken in the baking dish. Then slice over it several green onions. Sprinkle the chicken with about 3 tablespoons lime juice, or lay a slice of fresh lemon or lime on the chicken parts. Pour 1/4 cup chicken or beef bouillon, with a little sherry added at your option, and bake as directed.

I found a wonderful gelatin mold to serve with chicken. The apricot and cream cheese combination is a perfect complement.

MAUREEN'S APRICOT MOLD

Heat to boiling 4 cups apricot nectar. Dissolve in it a 6-ounce package of apricot gelatin. Stir in 6 ounces of soft cream cheese, stirring till cheese melts. Cool.

Add 1 can of fruit cocktail, drained thoroughly, and place in refrigerator to thicken. When the gelatin is rubbery, buzz the mixture in a blender (about half at a time) or whip in your electric mixer (beaters on a standard-size mixer will chop the fruit cocktail).

Pour into a large mold and chill till set. This recipe may be halved.

By the way, it is International Clergy Week this week. I don't know if that means one should be kind to, or see more of ... but I'm really glad it is somebody's week! Hope it's yours. ...

Pick-up Made Easy

To make quick work of picking up all those small toys and blocks of your children's, do it with a dust pan and broom. Carry them to the toy box on the dust pan. After the youngsters see you do it a time or so, they will be doing it themselves.

Carpets Bought For 2 Westland Schools

The Wayne Community School District has ordered nearly $60,000 worth of carpeting for two new elementary schools in Westland and the administrative offices.

The board of education last week approved the low bids as recommended by the administration.

To receive the carpeting will be the Tinkham Elementary, at Cherry Hill and Venoy Roads, and the Wildwood Elementary, at Wildwood and Cherry Hill.

The company submitted a base bid of $58,157.10 but the school board agreed to accept the alternates submitted to have the administration area carpeted for an additional $3,927, and the shared classroom conference rooms and passageways between the lower elementary team rooms, which were not in the original bid.

Although the total cost of $59,995 is nearly $6,000 over the $54,000 budgeted for the installation, the school board was told by Henry Christensen, building and grounds supervisor, that there are enough funds in the contingency fund for the new schools to cover the difference.

In addition, the school board approved the purchase of carpeting for the Wayne Memorial High School auditorium aisles for reasons of safety. The cost will be $2,675.

Christensen reported that at the Wayne high school, "considerable slope" has become an increasing hazard relative to students and teachers slipping. Although the present tile in the aisles had a material aimed to decrease slipping, that material comes out over a period of time due to the natural wearing process and the tile becomes less non-skid.

In addition, he said, the auditorium carpeting would reduce the noise level caused by persons entering and leaving the auditorium.

Ironically, the Alexander Smith Company of Chicago did not re-bid on the elementary schools' carpeting installation although the firm strongly criticized school administrators for comments made about the advantages of a certain type of carpeting material.

The school board had originally accepted carpeting bids last November but the board agreed to reject all of the bids and advertise for new bids.

Reason for the new bids was to get comparisons of costs between the 12-foot strips of carpets, which was specified in the original proposal, and 54-inch strips.

Unsuccessful bidders and their base proposals turned down last week were A. R. Kramer Company of Detroit, $60,704; Turner-Brooks, Inc., of Detroit, $63,101.42; J. L. Hudson Co., Detroit, $63,505.66; A. R. Kramer Co. (proposing another brand of carpeting) $65,742; and Contract House, Detroit, $65,936.

Adult Education Discussed

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY Adult Education Extension members representing 63 units throughout Wayne County are shown luncheon at the Skipper's Table restaurant in Livonia during their annual Presidents and Council meeting. The women discussed future program policies and evaluated results of the 1966 Adult Education program. Shown at the speakers table are: President Mrs. Cyril Atkinson, Vice Pres., Mrs. John Savven, and Sec., Mrs. Homer Benoit.

Rep. Schmidt Books on Weather At Livonia Library

House Speaker Robert E. Waldron named Livonia State Representative Louis Schmidt chairman of the Colleges and Universities Committee of the House of Representatives. Schmidt was also named to the Education, Labor, and Civil Rights committees.

Representative Schmidt stated recently, "At least I have been in attendance at several Michigan schools." He received his Bachelor's degree from Central Michigan, his Master's degree from the University of Michigan, and did additional graduate work at Wayne State and Michigan State.

Schmidt has been concerned with the advanced education of the rapidly growing college-age group and others interested in terminal courses. He states that consideration must be given to bringing facilities closer to the people, who would then be in a better position to use the facilities and to reduce the individual's cost of acquiring training beyond high school.

Books on Weather At Livonia Library

Freak weather — storms, heavy snow, hurricanes and tornadoes—in recent years has brought increased interest at the Livonia Public Library in books on the weather.

One recent guide to the essentials of meteorology is "Weather," by Frank Ross, Jr. The author discusses the composition and behavior of the earth's atmosphere, methods of observing the weather, and the measurement and interpretation of temperature, humidity, and other climatological aspects.

Other handbooks about our weather include "The Lightning Book," by Peter Viemeister; "The Ocean of Air," by David Blumenstock, and "Eric Sloane's Weather Book," by Eric Sloane.

Weather forecasting, a growing hobby is described in Robert Fisher's "How About the Weather." Eric Sloane, in "Folklore of the American Weather," has collected a group of common American weather sayings and he ticks them off as true, false, or possible.

Swimmers Break National Record

The swim team of the Garden City Parks and Recreation visited the City of Fort Wayne recently for the Club Olympian Invitational Age Group Swim Meet.

The medley relay team came up with the best time since the U.S. Age Group record was established, making Garden City Parks and Recreation the best in the nation at this time.

The team of Sharon Burlingame, backstroke; Karen Peper, breaststroke; Carol Ruis, butterfly, and Kay McDonald, freestyle, had a winning time of 2:21.5 short of the 1964 record time of 2:17.6. The team also placed second in the free relay with the time of 2:11.2; losing by :00.9 of a second.

Carol Ruis won the individual high point award for the 10-and-under girls at the meet.

Team members placed as follows:

50-yard breast-stroke: Carol Ruis, first :37.8, Karen Peper third :40.4, Sharon Burlingame, fourth :40.8 and Kay McDonald, fifth :41.3.

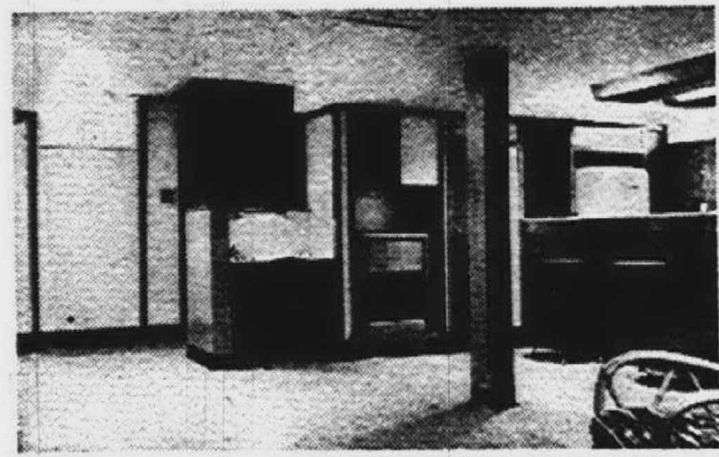

50-yard backstroke: Carol Ruis, first :37.2, Sharon Burlingame, sixth :38.6.

50-yard butterfly: Carol Ruis, first :37.8.

200-yard individual medley: Carol Ruis, first 2:46.2, Sharon Burlingame, second 2:54.7.

50-yard freestyle: Carol Ruis, fifth 1:11.0, Kay McDonald, sixth 1:13.0.

11-and-12-year-old: Robin Ruis, 100-yard breast-stroke, 1:23.0.

Chamber Hears Development Pres.

"Westland's present capability for the future depends on broadening our industrial and commercial tax base," the Westland Chamber of Commerce was told Wednesday.

The featured speaker was Gerald T. Harris, newly-elected president of the Westland Industrial and Commercial Development Corporation.

Harris, who lives at 33540 W. Warren and is Public Affairs Director for the Detroit Trade Center, also said that the city has had a great past but has an even greater future.

"We must concentrate our efforts on developing not only industry, but also new homes in the area to meet the needs of the population explosion," he said in pointing out that the city's anticipated population by 1980 will be 140,000 persons, nearly double the present figure.

Harris also stressed "that while the neighboring city of Livonia has enjoyed a successful commercial and industrial growth the community doesn't have a downtown, or core, area and I hope that this situation doesn't happen in Westland.

"There is no question in my mind that Westland could be greater than Livonia because Livonia has reached a point of no planning for the future.

"Livonia's population will reach 194,000 by 1975 and the city will still be in trouble," Harris continued. "We must not permit this to happen here."

The development group president pointed out that the most important step for Westland is the drafting of a new master plan for the city, which has been asked for by Eugene Katz, city planning director.

Harris also urged the chamber members to support the newly-created development corporation along with private citizens and businessmen.

Gunars Vitalins, Wayne State University basketball assistant coach, won three cage letters at WSU in his career.

Plymouth Symphony Family Day Draws Music Lovers

IT WAS FAMILY DAY at the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra concert Sunday, and many groups from the area braved the weather to enjoy the music. Here Mr. and Mrs. Charles Groves, 14156 Stamford, Livonia, pause with their daughters, five-year-old April and Dianna, two.

JUDGE AND MRS. EDWARD DRAUGELIS and their three children, Anne, Krya and Tomi, found the concert a pleasant way to spend a Sunday afternoon. About 600 persons attended the symphony performance in the Plymouth High School auditorium.

LYMAN KIEL OF LIVONIA and his daughter, Pam, received a program from Dr. Robert Petersen, one of the ushers. The Kiel family group also included Paul, standing in front of his dad, and Mrs. Kiel, Karen, Glenn, Paula, Kirk and tiny Lisa, who stayed in the nursery.

Vincent Price Heads Northville Town Hall

Actor and art expert Vincent Price will be guest speaker for the Northville Town Hall series at 11 a.m. Thursday, Feb. 9, at the P. and A. Theater in Northville.

Vincent Price

His subject will be "The Enjoyment of Great Art." Following the lecture, he will be guest at a celebrity luncheon at the Mayflower Meeting House in Plymouth.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by writing the Northville Town Hall series, 46620 Stratford Ct., Northville, and officers asked that women wishing the tickets mailed to their homes include a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Well known to motion picture and stage audiences as a distinguished actor who can play both romantic and sinister roles with equal facility, Vincent Price has also revealed himself as one of the top one-man performers of the day.

A man with great enthusiasm for initiating others into the enjoyment and appreciation of the arts, Vincent Price will give audiences of this community an opportunity to share something of this excitement.

He has communicated much of this same enthusiasm in a recent book on art which he has compiled. Called "I Like What I Know," it demonstrates not only his great discernment of art but also a nice humor and adds new distinction to Price's wide reputation as an art connoisseur.

Price's initial aim in life was to become a professor and collector of art, an aim that was stimulated by his purchase of a Rembrandt etching when he was but twelve years old. Born in St. Louis, he is a descendant of Jean-Pierre Desnoyers, the first treasurer of the State of Michigan.

His acting career began in London when, at the age of 22, he took a friend's dare and auditioned for a stage role. He got it, and went on to appear in many English and American stage and film productions.

His interest in art and art collection continued too.

Detroit Edison's current expansion program will provide a 76 percent increase in generating capacity by the end of 1972.

Nominations Sought for Top 10 Women

Angus C. MacLeod, president of the Central Business District Association announces the search for the Top Ten Working Women of Detroit, who will be honored during the 12th Anniversary of "Salute to Women Who Work Week", to be observed in the Detroit area from Sunday, March 12 through Saturday, March 18.

The 10 women selected will represent all working women in the metropolitan area and the public is invited to submit nominations for the woman they believe is deserving of this recognition.

From the nominations received, the CBDA judges will choose "The Top Ten Working Women of Detroit" and their names will be announced through the newspapers, radio and television on Sunday, March 12.

The formal acknowledgment and awards will be presented at the Salute Banquet at Cobo Hall on Tuesday, March 14.

Nomination letters may be mailed or brought directly to the Central Business District Association office, 227 Penobscot Building, Detroit, by Feb. 20.

Special PTA Foreign Language Classes Show Young Children Can Learn and Like It Elementary school children—especially those in the second and third grades—can learn foreign languages and really like it.

That's the conclusion of members of the Farmington Ten Mile School Parent-Teacher Association, who have sponsored a Saturday morning foreign language program that now is beginning its third semester.

PTA president Donald McGregor will take a report on the program to the PTA at the Hull elementary school in Livonia Tuesday, Feb. 7.

Later, he plans to talk to the Farmington Board of Education in the hope that eventually the board will consider some means of adding foreign language work to the Farmington curriculum.

Started about a year ago, the program at Ten Mile

School has offered French and Spanish in separate classes for second and third graders and for fourth, fifth and sixth graders. Regular teachers from other school system or college students close to receiving degrees in foreign language education have been employed as instructors.

Each student has paid $8 for a course of ten Saturday morning lessons.

Mrs. Robert Allaben, current head of the program, estimates that with about 120 pupils in the classes starting this week the instruction will have reached some 400 children.

"We're getting more and more children from schools other than Ten Mile now," she reported. "A lot of them come from quite a distance."

McGregor said the program was begun originally "to give our children an opportunity to become familiar with a foreign language at a time in their lives when new ideas and experiences are readily accepted."

He added that teachers had been interested to observe that the younger students—in the second and third grades—were the best

Good Use For Cards

Here's a good use for those Christmas cards you've been hoarding because they are just too beautiful to throw away.

They can be turned over to a lady interested in the Plymouth State Home and Training School parents' organization. She uses them to make tags for Christmas gifts, which then are sold to aid the children at the home.

Mrs. Fay Sills of Farmington will collect cards for use in this project. If you have some going begging, drop them at her home at 23858 Beacon or call her at Gr. 4-3032.

where the Business and Professional Women's Club is picking a Teen Queen. It's a contest a bit apart from the usual beauty queen competition, says Mrs. Olga Taylor, "because what we're after is the girl who we think has the right qualities to be a fine business woman later."

"Beauty really comes last in the attributes we want for our teen queen," said Mrs. Taylor, who headed the first such competition a year ago.

"It comes after scholarship, community participation and poise."

But Mrs. Marge Oldenburg, in charge of this year's contest, hastened to add that there was no chance that beauty would be lacking in the 1967 Teen Queen.

"We have 12 contenders," she said, "and they are a bunch of lovely young girls."

The candidates, representing five high schools in the Garden City area, made their first appearance before members of the BPW at a dinner meeting on that snowy evening last Thursday.

Each made a walk-on appearance, telling her name and school and giving a thumbnail sketch of her husband.

Present also were the 25 Couples Help Pair Mark Silver Anniversary Mr. and Mrs. Russ Tempelin, 12867 Woodbine, Redford Township, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary recently by inviting 25 couples to join them on the happy occasion.

Among the guests were Mrs. Louise Rollet and Leonard Tempelin, maid of honor and best man at the wedding in 1942.

They are Michael Guajanian, head of the local Bank of the Commonwealth, representing business, Garden City Mayor Timothy Murphy, representing civic interests, Schoolcraft College Dean of Student Affairs, Edward McNally, representing education, Mary Jane Wagenschutz of Plymouth, representing the BPW, and Irene Zakel, instructor in the John Robert Powers school, representing beauty and poise.

On Feb. 8, at the club's annual spring fashion show at

By Margaret Miller the Westland shopping center auditorium, the girls will display their diversified talents, and the winning Teen Queen will be crowned.

And before that there will be a party at the Old-

It makes for a busy time for Mrs. Oldenburg, mother of four who had to work in a spare weekend to see her sailor son graduate from boot camp at Great Lakes Naval Training Center. Miss Cheryl Hill Married In Redford

A nuptial mass at Our Lady of Loretto Church in Redford Township united Cheryl Suzanne Hill and Terry Patterson Qua in marriage Dec. 30.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hill of Redford Township and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Margaret Qua and the late Dr. George Qua of Livonia.

Father Gerald Flanigan officiated at the rites, and a reception at Northland Inn followed the ceremony.

Snow white chiffon velvet fashioned the bride's princess style gown. It was trimmed with lace and seed pearl appliques, and her silk illusion fingertip veil fell from a circle headpiece of crystals.

Her bouquet was white carnations and ivy. The bridal attendants wore gowns with cherry red velvet bodices and white crepe skirts. Their headpieces were red velvet Dior bows and their flowers red carnations and white baby mums with red velvet streamers.

Patricia Dailey was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Jackie Campbell, Lorrie LaMarre, Mrs. Judy Williams and Maureen Standley.

Russ Nelson served as best man, and the ushers were Dennis Bevington, Roger Rantanen and Dan Gerber.

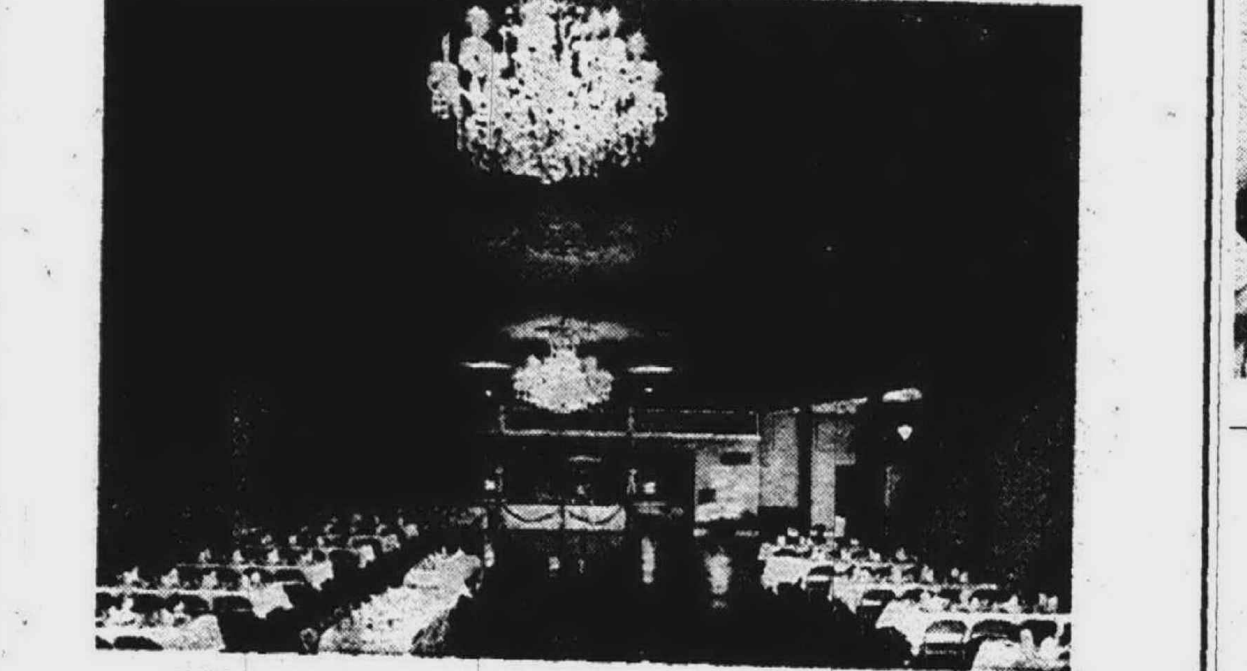

Mrs. Hill chose a blush pink brocade suit with strawberry pink accessories for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Qua's ensemble was pale brocade with matching accessories.

A dinner reception for 150 guests followed the ceremony and the bridal pair had a week's honeymoon at Mt. Washington Ski Valley in New Hampshire.

GC Belles Honor S. Hermansen

Mrs. Shirley Hermansen was honored recently by the S.O.S. chapter of the Buxom Belles of Garden City for her achievement of losing more than 50 pounds and keeping her weight down for five weeks.

Zornow-Bellmore Marriage Rites Performed in Plymouth Jan. 6

Camille Marie Bellmore became the bride of Carl W. Zornow in a double ring ceremony Jan. 6 at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church in Plymouth. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Bellmore of McClumpha Road, Plymouth, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Zornow of Beck Road in Plymouth. Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. J. Robert Schaden.

MRS. CARL W. ZORNOW

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length sheath gown of peau de soie with reembodyered alencon lace and seed pearls trimming the bodice and hemline. A detachable train was fastened at the waist, and her shoulder-length veil fell from a cluster of tiny silk rose buds with lace and pearls. Her bouquet was white roses. Sheath gowns of apple-green crepe with matching lace trim were the choice of the bridal attendants, maid of honor Janine Oldfield of Detroit, cousin of the bride, and bridesmaids Marilyn Boutin of Merrill, Mich., Virginia Cooley of Fenton and Sherry Houde of Auburn, N. Y.

Junior bridesmaid Susan Bellmore, sister of the bride, wore a gown like the other attendants, and Mary Lou Bellmore, another sister, had a dress of apple green velvet. All carried red roses with dark green leaves.

Cy Valliere of Merrill was best man and the ushers included Tom Abraham, Ken Ward, Terry Clark and Chris Bellmore, brother of the bride, all of Plymouth.

Mrs. Bellmore's dress was pale ice green silk wool, and Mrs. Zornow chose ivory silk wool.

Following the ceremony there was a reception for 125 guests at a Plymouth restaurant.

The new Mrs. Zornow is a junior at Eastern Michigan University and her husband is a senior at Michigan State University.

MAUREEN O'MEARA
Mr. and Mrs. John O'Meara of Livonia announce the engagement of their daughter, Maureen, to Gregory Barry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barry of Livonia. Both are students at Schoolcraft College.

Vows Taken In Livonia Unite Pair

Kathleen Louise Ficker and John Carroll Wasserman were married on Jan. 28, at St. Maurice Church, Livonia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Ficker of Livonia, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carroll F. Wasserman of Parkside Boulevard, Toledo.

The bride wore a gown of ivory elegant peau designed with a scoop neckline and tea-cup sleeves. Alencon lace detailed the sleeves and the empire waistline and made a border lining the front of the A-line skirt. The softly gathered back fell into a full flowing cathedral train.

A wreath of orange blossoms held her floor length veil.

Connie Sue Nowakowski, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Janet Wasserman, Judy Wasserman and Joan Wasserman, sisters of the bridegroom and Mary Ann Slaven.

All wore floor-length gowns with red velvet bodices and quilted A-line skirts of beige crepe.

James Wasserman was best man for his brother, and ushers were two other brothers, Joseph and Frank Wasserman, and Donald Van-Volkenburgh.

The flower girl was Valerie Nowakowski and the ring bearer was Adam Nowakowski. Mrs. Ficker wore a pink lace gown with matching coat and Mrs. Wasserman a pale gold gown with a matching jacket.

The bride is a graduate of Mt. St. Joseph College in Cincinnati and teaches at Gesu School in Toledo. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Ohio State Law School and practices law with the firm of Wasserman & Wasserman in Toledo.

The couple will reside in Perrysburg after a trip to Puerto Rico.

Farmington Fashions To Be Shown at Luncheon

What Quality Beef Does A&P Sell?

That's a fair question. But not an easy one to answer because we have our own quality standards, different from any other meat merchant.

These standards don't fit exactly the familiar terms you know for grades of meat. As an example, did you know that some beef, graded U.S. Choice, just doesn't meet our "Super-Right" specifications? It's true! You see... we don't buy by grade. We use our own high standards to bring you the best values.

That doesn't mean we don't approve of such grading—not at all. It just means we're very fussy about the beef we label "Super-Right." It stands to reason we have to be or A&P wouldn't be America's number one meat merchant.

Are "Super-Right" Meats a good reason for shopping A&P?

They're one of many!

JC Auxiliaries Plan Benefit Theatre Party

The Metropolitan Jaycee Auxiliary, which encompasses 38 communities in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties, will sponsor its annual MAEDC Benefit at the Fisher Theater, 8:30 p.m., Feb. 28.

This year's performance is the premiere of the musical comedy "Illya Darling" starring Melina Mecourri and Orson Bean, two very talented performers.

Patron tickets may be obtained by a donation of $15 per person or $25 per couple. Regular tickets range from $7.50 and $3.50. Ticket prices are tax deductible as a charitable contribution.

Donations to MAEDC through the Michigan Jaycee Auxiliaries also will be accepted. Donations will be received by Mrs. C. J. Ashton, 3382 Coolidge, Royal Oak, Michigan 48067.

Aid to emotionally disturbed children has been a Jaycee Auxiliary state service project for the past three years. Proceeds from the benefit are given to the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children to place and support two emotionally disturbed children in the Metropolitan Detroit area institutions.

Tickets for the benefit may be obtained by sending a check and self-addressed envelope to Mrs. Pat Johns, 21550 Concord, Southfield, Michigan 48075. Her phone number is 353-3198.

JERI WEBB

Mr. and Mrs. J. Eric Webb of Brady Road, Redford Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jeri Lou, to Carl Frederick Spamer II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Frederick Spamer of Sumner Road, Redford Township. Both are graduates of Redford Union High School. The bride-to-be attended Henry Ford Community College, and her fiance is a student at Michigan State University.

Livonia To Close Schools On Friday

Most of the Livonia School District, which includes part of Westland, will be closed Friday to allow for the rescheduling of teachers' workday, originally set for last Friday. A snow storm forced the cancellation.

School Superintendent Ben Yates said the only buildings to have their regular schedule Friday will be five junior highs: Lowell, Bryant, Emerson, Holmes, and Whittier.

The teachers' workday is part of the district's master contract with the faculty.

HEATHER FITZGERALD

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fitzgerald of Livonia announce the engagement of their daughter, Heather Marie, to Mark Fagelman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fagelman of New York. The bride-to-be is a graduate of University of Michigan, and her fiance will graduate in May from the Wayne State University College of Medicine. The couple will wed May 28 at Adas Shalom Synagogue.

Catholic Women Meeting To Have International Air

Wayne Western Deaconery of the Council of Catholic Women, will hold its bi-annual election meeting, Thursday, Feb. 16 at 8 p.m. in St. Genevieve's parish hall in Livonia. A display of local and foreign arts and crafts will be shown in the school building following the meeting.

In addition, Mrs. John McGuire and Mrs. John Sabkowick, Deaconery international relations co-ordinators will encourage an exchange of conversation between foreign students who attend school in this area, and the women in the audience. A short explanation of the United Nations program will follow.

Mrs. Leo Peterson, St. Genevieve Deaconery representative, each of the 33 parishes comprising the Wayne Western Deaconery will participate in the crafts show. The dean-

Human Relations Group To Hear Rev. Cleage

The Rev. A. B. Cleage will address the Livonia Citizens for Better Human Relations Sunday, Feb. 5, at 8:30 p.m. at the Livonia Jewish Congregation on Six Mile Road just west of Middlebelt.

His topic will be "When Is Civil Disobedience Justifiable?"

The speaker, pastor of Central United Church of Christ in Detroit, currently is leader of a day-long strike by Detroit Negroes to protest Congressional action against Adam Clayton Powell.

Mr. Cleage has been active in promotion of educational and job opportunity equality for Detroit Negroes and in connection with relocation of families for urban re-development and reported police brutality toward minorities.

A graduate of Wayne State University, he received his theological training at Oberlin College and the University of Southern California.

He has bid unsuccessfully for several political offices.

Next month, the Human Relations Council plans a Language Program

Carolyn Smith, Farmington resident who has taught Spanish since the program started, also will speak at the Livonia PTA meeting. She said she would report on the "great interest" shown by the students and tell "why good teachers will work Saturday mornings to share this interest with the children."

The emphasis in the weekly classes has been on conversation, said Miss Smith, who will graduate from the University of Detroit this year and teach Spanish in the Southfield system next fall.

There has been some use of written words, but no attempt to teach grammar, she added.

McGregor figures the program has a good chance to keep gathering momentum.

"We have proved," he said, "that an interest exists or the children would not give up their Saturday mornings and the parents would not give up $8."

St. Raphael Organizing P-T Guild

A new Parent Teacher Guild for St. Raphael's school in Garden City will have its first organizational meeting at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 5 in the school gymnasium.

The guild will operate with the consent of Father Edward Kalinowski, pastor of the St. Raphael parish and under jurisdiction of Sister Jeanne Marie, school principal.

Its purposes will be to provide parents with the proper and necessary means of contact with their children's teachers, to make parents aware of current educational thinking at local, state and national levels, and to acquaint the parents with the Archdiocesan school program and the Catholic philosophy of education.

A steering committee named to organize the guild includes Mr. and Mrs. James Bohr, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Parkansky, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Murphy, M. and Mrs. Douglas Sears, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hammer, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Neracher, Mr. and Mrs. James Darnell, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Molloy, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson.

Bohr was named temporary chairman and Mrs. Neracher temporary secretary.

A proposed constitution will be presented at the organizational meeting and Sister Jeanne Marie will speak and introduce the school faculty.

Refreshments will be served and there will be a prize awarded the grade with the highest percentage of parents present.

Farmington Girl Delegate To Convention

DyAnn Lyn Davidson of 28954 Farmington Road, in Farmington, is one of several hundred delegate-workers attending the convention of the Campus Crusade for Christ, International, on the University of California campus.

Convention leaders said the main purpose of the delegates was to engage in conversation with as many as possible of the 20,000 to 25,000 students on the Berkeley campus.

Anticipating the experience DyAnn said:

"The Berkeley campus trembles with tension. The students are proud of their independence and self-government. To them it is a tradition handed down from the rights won by the University founders.

"The students are seeking human justice, each in his own way, but honestly. It is exciting to talk with them and share with them the person of Jesus Christ."

Church Pancake Supper Set for Shrove Tuesday

The third annual pancake supper sponsored by the Doubles Club of Mount Hope Congregational Church will be held on Shrove Tuesday, Feb. 7, from 5 to 8 p.m. in the Fellowship Rooms of the church, 30330 Schoolcraft Road. Information may be secured from Carl Ufferman, club president, 261-1931, or from the church office, 425-7280.

Guest speaker will be Bertha Lewis, a member of the Livonia Board of Education.

Mrs. Carl Ufferman, president of the Women's Fellowship, will preside, and devotions will be given by Mrs. Fred Hilty.

Information about the Women's Fellowship may be obtained from the church office, 425-7280 or Mrs. Carl Ufferman, 261-1931.

67 Michigan Artists' Work Shown at Sale

"Art Is for Everyone" is the theme of the fourth annual art show and sale sponsored by the Sholem Aleichem Institute at 19350 Greenfield, Detroit, Feb. 10-12. The institute is a non-profit Jewish cultural and educational organization. Works of 67 Michigan artists and a wide diversity of media and techniques will be featured. Institute members said the show would have items for sale in a reasonable price range and would provide "a wonderful opportunity for the beginning art buyer to try his taste and for the seasoned buyer to enlarge his collection." The show will include oils, water color, applied and embroidered wall hangings, sculpture, silver work, jewelry and pottery, as well as a Handicraft Boutique of original items by institute members. Hours will be 1 to 10 p.m. Feb. 10 and 11 and 1 to 5 p.m. Feb. 12.

Flowers, Birds, Children All Parts of Club Project

Flowers and birds and children go well together in pleasant thought, so the recent project of the Hill and Dale Garden club in Farmington seems a natural one. Members of the club's Garden Therapy group visited five special education classes in the school system to teach the handicapped children to build bird feeders. The idea was to help these children realize that our small feathered friends have a hard time finding enough to eat in the winter, and that this is the time to repay them for the summertime pleasure they give. The feeders were made of half-gallon bleach bottles, with a door cut out and held in place by wood dowels. The wooden dowels also serve as perches for the birds to use while feeding. Each feeder was decorated with crayons, and hung with a nylon cord. Paula Prestkorn, of Cora Street, an interested friend of the garden club and children, collected about 100 bleach bottles needed for the project, and local laundromats supplied the rest. Mrs. Earl Johnston, co-chairman of the group, was captain for the project. The garden club's Jan. 25 meeting project will be a flower tapestry wall hanging, using odd pieces of felt material. Mrs. Fred Bulman will be chairman.

International Dinner Served By AAUW

The Farmington branch of the Association of American University Women recently entertained foreign students attending Farmington schools at an International Dinner at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Clarenceville. Other special guests were Farmington students who lived abroad last summer, as well as husbands of AAUW members. In keeping with the international theme, hostesses greeted guests in festive clothes of other countries. Each table was appropriately decorated to represent a specific country, and favorite foreign recipes were used by members in the preparation of the dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Briggs, of Farmington, who have recently returned from the South Pacific, reported on their visit to Tahiti, Bora Bora, and New Zealand and showed movies they took.

Church Youth To Perform In 'Dragon' Play

The Youth Groups of Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, 17101 W. Seven Mile Rd. will present "The Land of the Dragon" at 7:30 p.m. on the evenings of Feb. 3 and 4. A Chinese fantasy by Madge Miller, "The Land of the Dragon" is under the direction of Rev. Henry C. Dequin. Equal parts of fun and romance blended with a spoofing dash of dragonology will ensure an enjoyable evening of far eastern enchantment for the young as well as the ancestors. Reservations may be made by calling BR 2-2460. The role of Princess Jade Pure is played by Janet Bohle of 18623 Pembroke, Redford Township. This year Gloria Dei Lutheran Church is celebrating the 25th Anniversary of its founding and proceeds from the play will be added to Gloria Dei's 25th Anniversary Thank-offering. The goal of the parish is $133,000.

Women of Wayne Plan Sewing Night

Members of the Farmington-Livonia Women of Wayne Alumni Club will enjoy some "Creative Stitching" at their next meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 9, at the home of Mrs. J. T. Zann, 31718 Summers, Livonia. Mrs. William Hayes and Mrs. August Dorando will be in charge of the meeting, and members will make small embroidered pillows or other craft projects to finish during the evening. Plans will be announced for the Women of Wayne National Council tea, card party and fashion show to be held March 4 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Tickets are available from Mrs. R. Dewey Hansen, 421-6018.

Hovanians Have Son

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Hovanians of 34550 Freedom Drive, Farmington, announce the birth of their second son, John Armen, on Jan. 16, 1967, at St. Mary Hospital in Livonia. Dr. Hovanians is associate professor of engineering mechanics at Wayne State University.

Plan Board Rejects New Apartment

The Plymouth Township Planning Commission hasn't changed its mind about rezoning the 8.5 acres Louisell property at the intersection of Five Mile and Bradner Roads for multiple dwellings.

The Commission turned thumbs down on the proposal more than a year ago, when it was presented in an application for hearing on a request to change the zoning from R-1 (single dwelling) to R-3 (multiple dwelling).

The Township code provides that a year must elapse before a new rezoning request can be made on the same property after a denial.

Developer George Rubin made the presentation this time, telling of plans for an 128-unit complex with 24 one-bedroom apartments and 104 with two-bedrooms. Rubin presented a lengthy appeal for the rezoning hearing, telling of the heavy traffic on Five Mile Road that made single dwellings facing the highway a risky venture.

He told the planners that there had been a change on zoning across the road, in Northville Township, where multiple dwellings had been approved for Builder and Developer Fred Greenspan.

But his speech went for naught. The Commission discussed the matter briefly and then denied the application by a split 5-4 vote.

In other actions, the Commission approved issuance of building permits for Paul Daoust on Ridge Road and Harry Richard on Canton Center Road in metes and bound cases.

Alex. Hamilton Licensed in Five New States

Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company of America has been granted a license to do business in five additional states. This brings to 23 the total number of states in which the 32-month-old Plymouth, company has been granted a certificate of authority to do business.

New states in order of licensings are Mississippi, Massachusetts, Iowa, Ohio, and Vermont. At present the company operates sales offices in only the states of Michigan and Indiana.

E. Keith Owens, Chairman of the Board, announced that the company's marketing department was now finalizing plans to begin immediate insurance sales operations in two neighboring states, with additional states being opened throughout the balance of the year.

The company, with over $205 million now in force, issued more permanent life insurance last year than any other Michigan domiciled company.

Tigers Open '67 Play Against California

The Detroit Tigers will open their 1967 home season against up-and-coming California Angels on Tuesday, April 18, and close against the same team on Sunday, Oct. 1.

The Tiger Stadium schedule for the coming season, announced by Jim Campbell, executive vice-president and general manager, disclosed

Wes Vivian Rejoins Conductron

Dr. Weston Vivian, who lost out in a bid for a second term as Congressman from the Second District, has returned to Conductron Corporation in Ann Arbor as a vice president. Vivian was a former officer and director of the firm but withdrew all connections with Conductron when elected to the Congress.

His term in Congress ended some weeks ago when Congressman Marvin Esch, also of Ann Arbor, took the oath of office. Esch, a Republican, defeated Vivian in the Republican landslide last November.

One of the original founders of Conductron, Vivian, an engineer and scientist, participated in its rapid growth from a handful of persons in 1950 to a multi-million dollar business in 1964.

In the intervening two years, while Vivian was serving in the Congress, Conductron has become a $50 million a year business with more than 2,500 employees in Michigan, Missouri, California, Texas and several other states.

One of Vivian's responsibilities with the firm will be to introduce to public use novel pollution abatement equipment recently developed by the firm, including new auto exhaust smog reduction devices and water waste purifications equipment.

During his term as Congressman, Vivian had been recognized as a supporter and advocate of more aggressive programs for pollution abatement, particularly reduction of water pollution in the Great Lakes area.

Plymouth Airman Gets Commendation Medal

Airman 2/C Gerald E. McKillip, who attended Plymouth High School and lived on Irvin Street in Plymouth, has received the Air Force Commendation Medal.

He was cited for "outstanding professional skill, knowledge and personal endeavors under the most adverse conditions... His ingenuity, resourcefulness and dedication to duty were instrumental in overcoming shortages of manpower, equipment and proper work facilities."

McKillip is a fuels laboratory technician, 8th Supply Squadron, Ubon Royal Thai Air Force Base, Thailand.

Computerized Buying Feasible; But Don't Burn Your Money Yet

EAST LANSING—Imagine, if you can, living without money in a United States where everyone—even each child—has his own personalized credit card. The machinery for such a system now exists, according to an article in the current issue of Michigan State University's Business Topics.

Lawrence A. Welsh, a chemical engineer and doctoral candidate at the University of Pittsburgh, says that under such a system stores, vending machines and other points of purchase would be wired into one of 1,000 computerized accounting centers.

Chances for such a system now are slim, Welsh admits, but interest by banks in the credit card business might make worthwhile the creation of a central research area to help develop and introduce a nationwide credit system.

The centers, writes Welsh, would record all transactions between cardholders, keep records of savings accounts, extend instant and long-range credit to cardholders, make records of stock and bond ownerships, provide information for government and business surveys and serve as vote recorders and counters during elections.

The four million direct owners of the electric power companies in the United States—the shareowners—come from every profession and walk of life. In addition, more than 120 million Americans have a financial interest in the industry through holdings of life insurance policies, savings bank accounts, and pension funds.

Safety Expert Sees Hike In Traffic Death Toll

CHICAGO—"Despite the new federal safety regulations, the traffic death toll may get worse before it gets better," warns Harry Porter, Jr., manager of the National Safety Council's Traffic Department.

Pointing out that it will take a number of years for the new vehicle standards and expanded highway safety programs to take effect, Porter listed the following "negative" factors that will tend to push death totals up in the years immediately ahead:

1. More young drivers.
 2. Higher speeds.
 3. Motorcycles.
 4. Failure to use seat belts.
 5. Alcohol consumption
- "In the face of these almost overwhelming pressures, it seems almost certain that the total number of fatalities will creep slowly upward for several years at least, barring any major economic or military reversals," said Porter. "By then we hope and believe that the positive pressures resulting from new legislation will begin to take effect, turning the accident curve downwards."

In the meantime, the safety authority cautioned drivers not to expect any overnight lessening of traffic hazards. "On the contrary," he warned, "the next few years will be an especially crucial time for drivers when it will be up to the individual to accept the responsibility for his own well-being as never before."

As a timely example, Porter cited the added hazards facing drivers during the critical winter months and pointed out that safer winter driving is largely a matter of individual responsibility.

"Reduced visibility and inadequate tractions are the principal additional hazards of winter driving over and above those normally encountered all year," he stated.

He reported that the following tips for safe winter driving have been advocated by the National Safety Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards:

1. Get the "feel" of the road by accelerating carefully to see if wheels spin; or brake gently to see if they skid. Reduce speed accordingly.
2. Increase your following distance. It takes three to 10 times as far to stop on snow and ice as on dry pavement.
3. "Pump" your brakes to slow or stop—don't jam them on. An intermittent pumping action keeps the wheels rolling and helps maintain steering control.

4. Have good tires with good treads. Better yet, use snow tires which provide half again as much pulling power in snow as regular tires.

5. Always carry reinforced tire chains in the trunk of your car for use during severe snow and ice conditions. They provide four to five times as much traction on snow or ice as regular tires.

6. Keep your windshield and windows clear at all times. Replace streaking wiper blades gone dead from exposure to sun, wind and oily road film. Be sure that your windshield washer solution contains adequate anti-freeze.

"Each of these admonitions," Porter concluded, "calls for a distinct personal response. By accepting these down-to-earth recommendations, a driver demonstrates the kind of personal responsibility that is going to be required to reverse current accident trends."

Modernizing?
New Heating System?

Decisions. Decisions. Decisions.

(May we help you with an important one?)

Your choice of a heating system is one you'll live with for a long time. So, naturally, you'll want to make sure you get a system that won't cost too much to own. That's where our new electric heat guarantee comes in.

Here's how it works: We'll see that you get a written estimate of heating costs—before you buy. Then, your monthly bills may be less, but they won't be one cent higher than the estimate. We guarantee it.

If the installation needs adjustments to meet the guaranteed cost figure, we'll see that it's done. And if at the end of three complete, consecutive heating seasons the system is still not operating within our estimate, we'll remove it and refund your money.

Before you make any more important modernizing decisions, get the facts on modern electric heat. You can't lose!

LOCATED IN PLYMOUTH, an excellent residential community that offers all the requisites for desirable living. Sound, responsible local government, centralized shopping areas, and a superior school system, including a community college, all make for Happy Woodbrook Home Owners. This Custom 4 bedroom home with 2 1/2 baths features a spacious family room where winter indoor fun will reign, plus the Owens-Corning "Quiet Room," both paneled and designed with beam ceilings and bookshelves. The convenience oriented kitchen is a housewife's dream and is located next to the separate, cheerful dining room family and guests will enjoy. When you see the Woodbrook model you will notice immediately the warm welcome extended by the enduring traditional Colonial design. You will agree this is truly an exciting home once you enter the inviting living room for family enjoyment and entertainment. Built-ins are standard and plentiful as is the full basement which offers so much for your creative talents. You can take advantage of heating economy with the Gas Heating system. Attached is a two car garage with an inside entrance that saves time and steps but more important protects you and your car from inclement weather. You'll plan all kinds of outdoor entertaining the minute you see the lovely 103'x120' lot. Wooded lots are also available. You will live in Plymouth Township and enjoy a moderate tax scale while your children take advantage of the Plymouth community school system... especially when the schools are nearby. The Woodbrook model is priced at only $40,000 including lot. Other models are priced from $36,000 including custom designing. Start your new life now... drive out and see all of the benefits these homes offer today!

Will Cost Extra $751,300

PCHA Signs Pact With Employees

The Peoples Community Hospital Authority's Board of Directors Thursday unanimously approved a new contract with the Building Services Employees International Union (BSEIU) which will increase wages of all hourly rated employees of PCHA unit hospitals 20 cents an hour, 15 cents retroactive to Dec. 22, 1966, and 5 cents to be effective July 1, 1967.

Karl S. Klicka, M.D., Executive Director of the authority which includes Westland and Garden City, estimates that the new agreement, which includes wage adjustments, fringe benefits adjustments and retirement benefits, will cost over $751,300 a year.

Part of the hourly increment and shift differentials are retroactive to last Dec. 22, but hospitalization, life insurance and retirement increments become effective next July 1.

"All told," said Klicka, "this new package is worth an addition of 31c on hour for our hourly employees."

Klicka said he believed this was the largest package of increases ever made to PCHA employees, and said that ratification was essential if PCHA hospitals expected to attract and keep employees in a highly competitive industrial area.

At the same time Dr. Klicka announced that there would be an across-the-board increase of $2 on the daily service charge in all PCHA hospital units.

"Our policy," said Klicka, "is to increase service charges only when necessary to meet the demands for increased wages and salaries, and the increase cost of supplies."

"The pressure," said Klicka, "of increased costs is not unique with PCHA hospitals."

He pointed out that recently the Commissioner of Insurance granted Blue Cross an increase of 2% in its premiums, and that it was revealed in the hearing for the increase that hospital operating costs for 1966 had increased 12.4 per cent, and are expected to increase an additional 11.9 per cent in 1967.

"Since about 70 per cent of every dollar taken in by a hospital in the form of room or service charges goes to pay wages and salaries of employees," added Klicka, "it is easy to see that the labor market is the most potent influence on the patient's bill."

Klicka also indicated that despite the $2 increase in service charge at PCHA unit hospitals, they are still below all but one hospital revealed in a study done on comparable area hospitals.

"There is simply no easy way," said Klicka, "to announce the necessity for increases in hospital costs without direct reference to the cost of hospital labor."

He concluded by saying he did not believe people wanted to return to a time when hospital personnel was paid cherry pickers' wage, because when a person is sick, he deserves someone with more than a cherry picker's talents taking care of him.

In summary, the new contract between PCHA and BSEIU includes the following benefits:

1. Wage increase of 20 cents an hour;
2. Shift differential increase from 7 cents to 15 cents an hour, effective Dec. 22, 1966;
3. Rate adjustments in certain job classifications;
4. Time and one-half in excess of 8-hour day in excess of 80 hours in a bi-weekly pay period.
5. Hospitalization insurance increased from $2.50 per month to $7.50 per month on full-time employees, while adding part-time employees at one-half the benefits for full-time employees;
6. Retirement benefit of

$1.50 per month for each year of service, up to 30 year maximum;

7. Increased life insurance coverage by $1,000 to provide $2,000 policy for full-time employees, and adding part-time employees at one-half the benefit for full-time employees.

Dr. Klicka made clear that the new contract was essential, particularly since previously salaries of nurses and technicians had been increased.

SAFETY PROMOTION occupies these four men who hold strategic positions in Livonia, from which they can do something about local problems. 'Helping Hands' Placed In 700 Homes . . . Need 700 More Livonia Jaycee Auxiliary reports that Livonia children are using the "Helping Hand" signs. Several cases of children being bullied have been reported by the "Helping Hand" signs. Several cases of children being bullied have been reported by the Helping Hand volunteers. Seven hundred signs are now in homes throughout Livonia.

"Helping Hands" are wordless signs which children can "read" as symbols of help and haven when in trouble outside their own home. The Jaycee Auxiliary initiated this project in October. Their goal is to cover the city with "Helping Hand" signs so that all children can have the protection they deserve.

The response of the Livonia citizens to this project has been gratifying. Signs have been placed in approximately one-half the homes that are needed. The Jaycee Auxiliary requests the help of interested citizens so that they can complete the total coverage of the city in the near future.

LOOK around your neighborhood and locate the signs. Instruct your children as to their usage. If you do not see any signs on your block, contact your school P.T.A. President or the President of your Civic Association. These civic leaders have given vast assistance to the Jaycee Auxiliary by providing the names of responsible individuals who have volunteered their homes.

"Helping Hands" can be successful only thru the personal interest and help of every citizen in Livonia.

Two Couples From Redford Win Trips

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hartley, 15840 Norborne and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hill, 24348 Puritan, in Redford Twp., won an all-expense paid trip to Acapulco, Mexico.

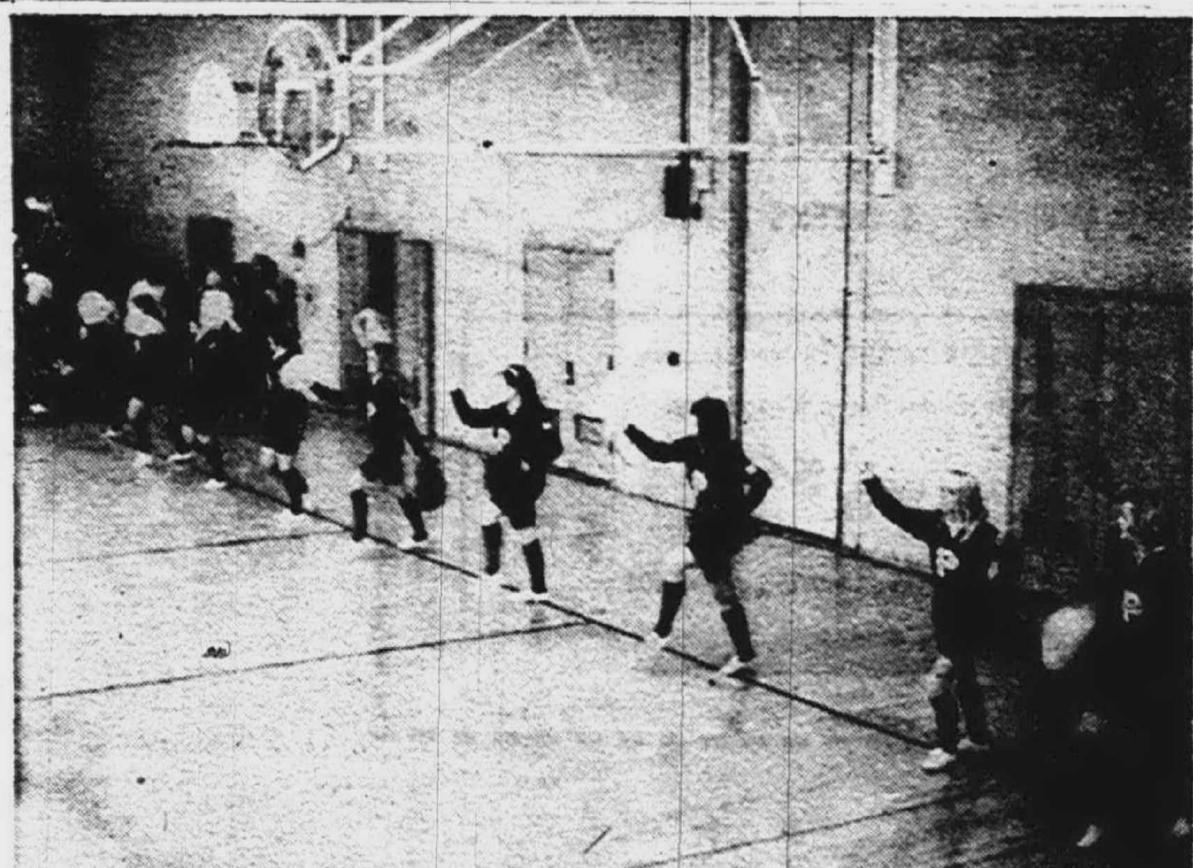

They will leave Detroit on April 17 and jet non-stop to Mexico City and then on to Acapulco to the fabulous Acapulco Hilton Hotel for three days of fun, sun and relaxation.

American Community Mutual Insurance Co. of Plymouth, will pay for the trip as a Sales Contest award.

The Company has experienced a 50 per cent increase in sales over the past three years.

ROBERT A. FRANCIS has been appointed vice-president and general manager of a new branch of International Personnel Service, Inc. opening in Pontiac. This branch will provide surrounding communities with unique IPS Service of recruiting, evaluating and investigating applicants in their large chain of 12 offices in Michigan. Francis resides in Livonia with his wife Betty and four children.
