Manager Breaks News at Welcome Party

Ford Opens New Plant

"Ford Motor Company didn't buy 168 acres in Plymouth Township to mow as a lawn," said Robert Winder, general manager of the Heating and Air Conditioning Plant on Sheldon Road, to a gathering of more than 150 in the Mayflower Meeting House Monday. It was a "welcome to the Community" for Ford Motor and the personnel of the new plant, sponsored by the Plymouth Area Planning Commission. "We will have a payroll of 1,151 employees by June 19 and we hope to increase that number considerably within the next few years," he said. "But it won't be until the early 70s."

Winder and members of his managerial staff were introduced to the audience along with the information that the plant had started operation a week ago on Feb. 6 with two production lines and a staff of 343 workers. Winder indicated the plant wasn't entirely finished but it was decided to go ahead with plans to start operations on a limited basis in early February as promised at the ground breaking ceremonies last fall.

"We will build the payroll to 504 on March 6, to 641 on March 27, 832 on April 17, 891 on May 15, 980 on June 5 and then reach our current maximum of 1,151 on June 19," he said.

Ford moved two production lines from Ypsilanti to start operations at Plymouth. This will be increased to a total of 14 to 16 additional lines by June.

Winder's announcement, that production had started, came as a complete surprise to most of the audience. It was known that the plant was nearing completion but few outside the official family knew that Ford planned to get underway as indicated in the ground breaking.

Leo Calhoun, prominent Plymouth Ford dealer, gave the invocation and Earl West, partner in the West Brothers Mercury agency, served as toastmaster.

Edward Schening, general manager of the Plymouth plant of Burroughs Corp., gave the welcoming address and it was during the response that Winder told of the plans for the plant.

Ford Motor built the Plymouth plant to pave the way for expansion of the Ypsilanti plant by moving some of the operations to the new facility.

The Plymouth operation is on a 168 acre site and the building includes 642,000 square feet.

Winder introduced members of his managerial staff, tagging it as one of the most experienced groups ever assembled at a new Ford Motor Co. plant.

The group included: Comptroller Foster Bates from Fostoria, O.; Leonard Evans, engineering department from Fostoria; Harry Kampfer, production from the Roosevelt plant; Robert King, manufacturing engineering, General Parts Division-General Office; Fred Kirm, data systems; James Miller, production control; Dain

Circuit Court Judge Will Rule On Charter Suit in Two Weeks

Rev. Peter Schweitzer, associate minister of the First Methodist Church will probably know within two weeks whether his petition in Circuit Court testing provisions of the Plymouth City Charter will be affirmed or denied.

Rev. Schweitzer filed nominating petitions for City Commission but was disqualified by Clerk Eugene Slider, who also is head of the election board, on grounds that the charter provides a candidate must be a taxpaying property owner to be eligible.

Rev. Schweitzer, as a member of the cloth, is not a tax paying property owner and his petitions were tossed out by Slider.

With the aid of the American Civil Liberty Union, which furnished legal aid, Rev. Schweitzer decided to test the charter in Circuit Court.

Hearings started last Friday before Judge Victor Baum who listened to the presentations and arguments of Abdeen Jabara, representing Rev. Schweitzer, and Plymouth Municipal Judge Edward Draugelis, representing the City, and then ordered each to present a brief next Friday after which each will have another week to file an answer.

Judge Baum indicated the case was too important to hear verbally and ordered the briefs.

"This case is so important and the matter of an election relatively is so close," said Judge Baum. "I promise to have a ruling within two weeks from the time the briefs are filed."

Rev. Schweitzer is protesting against the Charter provisions on the grounds that they deny a qualified elector the right to run for an office he seeks and also denies voters the privilege of selecting the man of their choice.

More than 10 of those signing his nominating petitions have joined in the suit as complainants on the grounds they will not have a right to vote for a candidate of their choice.

Judge Draugelis was named to represent the City when City Attorney Thomas Healy asked to be excused because he is a defendant as a member of the election board and because he has a strong feeling that Rev. Schweitzer's complaints are legitimate in this modern age.

In his presentation, Draugelis told the Judge that a spot check of 90 communities with charters showed that about

Dwyer Is 3rd Term Dem Chief

Robert Dwyer, branch manager for the Secretary of State, was a unanimous choice for a third consecutive term as chairman of the Second District Wayne County Official Democratic Party organization.

Mrs. Joan Voytas, recently selected Plymouth's "Woman of the Year," was elected vice chairman with Orville Tunge, of Plymouth Township, second vice chairman and Joseph Fiorilli, of Northville Township, third vice chairman.

Mrs. Donald Bidwell will continue as secretary. She was serving the unexpired term of Katherine Mulligan, who resigned to accept a position in the Plymouth City Hall.

William Kinnaird, of Northville, who is president of the Livonia Federation of Teachers, was elected treasurer. Richard Wernette, former Plymouth City Commissioner and Mayor, was the choice for Parliamentarian.

Executive Board members include: Ralph Byars, Irv Rozian, John Murawski, James Larkin, Doug Johnson, Trent Meek, Dorothy Guido, Edith Shepard, Alice Woodruff, Leo Speer and Rev. David Strang.

Local problems was the theme of the meeting. Rozian, a longtime member of the Plymouth Township Planning Commission, led a discussion of the possibilities of reform in assessments and the utilization of community authorities.

The top priority was given to the organization of Democracy.

School Board OK's Option on 72 Acres

The Plymouth Community School Board Thursday authorized Asst. Supt. Melvin Blunk to take steps that will assure the Trustees 300 acres for the proposed second senior high school to be located at the corner of Joy and Canton Center Roads in Canton Township.

With options on more than 225 acres, owned by the Casterline and Hersh families, the Board gave Blunk permission to sign a 90-day option on the 72-acre Everett property located on the southwest corner of Joy and Canton Center Roads.

The owners indicated they would be happy to sign an option with a retainer of $1,000 and set a price of $2,850 per acre or approximately $250,000 for the land.

Blunk plans to contact the Everett family before the end of the week to start steps towards the option.

Board Okays Four Contracts; Approves Leave

Acting on recommendations of Supt. Russell Isbister, the Plymouth School Board Thursday approved contracts for four teachers and granted a leave of absence to Mrs. Betty Wolford, business education teacher at Plymouth High.

Those receiving contracts as new members of the professional staff are:

Mrs. Joan Campbell, a graduate of Central Michigan University with a year-and-a-half experience at West Branch, as reading teacher at Farrand, Tanger and Smith schools.

Brian Gilles, who was graduated from Central Michigan University, to physical education instructor at Junior High East.

Mrs. Roma Pappin, who has a master's degree from Wayne State University and one year experience in Livonia, for part-time librarian at Smith School.

Mrs. Wanda Pylkas, wife of the principal of Gallimore School who is a graduate of Arkansas State College with one year experience in Jonesboro, Ark., and six and-a-half years in the Plymouth system, to fifth grade at Bird School.

WHITE CASKET, containing a body of one of the two youngsters burned to death in the disastrous fire in Plymouth Township, is carried out of the Casterline Funeral Home in Northville with pallbearers waiting to carry out those bearing the bodies of the other two victims.

Grief-Stricken Father Sees Entire Family Go to Graves

With heavy heart and a deep sense of loss, Victor Pascas, whose wife and two children were victims of the worst tragedy of human life in the history of the Plymouth Community, is wearily making the rounds of his friends and benefactors thanking them for their kindness to him in his hour of grief.

"I can never thank these folks enough," he said softly with the memory of the holocaust still fresh in his mind. "I want to thank the members of the Plymouth Township Fire Department, the boys on the rescue truck, all of my friends and neighbors and my fellow workers at the GM Hydra-Matic plant. They have been wonderful."

Victor had every right to shield a heavy heart. The tragedy which struck without warning still is a mystery to the members of the Fire Department.

All known officially is that last Wednesday morning, fire gutted the little home at 41460 Ann Arbor Road in Plymouth Township.

Mrs. Pascas was found lying across the only doorway to the concrete block house, where she had been struggling for air and in her struggle had broken the glass in the door.

From what could be learned at the time Fire Captain Barney Maas stated that the blaze started in a clothes closet next to the door, but there was nothing in the closet to suggest the cause.

The Plymouth Township firemen wasted no time in getting to the core of the blaze, but despite all efforts to save the mother and her two children, Gary 2, and Dolores, 11 months, they were pronounced dead on arrival at St. Mary Hospital.

Funeral services were held in the Casterline Funeral Home in Northville—and the three white caskets, resting side by side, were mute evidence of the worst tragedy in human lives ever to descend upon the community.

Gorguze to Attend NCA Conference

Gus Gorguze, assistant principal at Plymouth High, will represent the Plymouth School System at the annual North Central Association meeting in Chicago, April 4 through April 7.

Attendance was approved by the Board of Education upon recommendation of Supt. Russell Isbister and School Principal Carvel Bentley.

Snow, Snow and More Snow Piles Up Woes for DPW Crews

Oh, for the life of a worker in the Department of Public Works for the City of Plymouth.

For the past 20 days crews have been busy plowing and clearing snow in the downtown area and from the Central Parking Lot. All city-owned or leased parking lots were cleaned.

Just when the workers thought they had the situation well in hand, down came another heavy snowfall and they had to start all over again. Supt. Ken Vogras was breathing a bit easier Saturday when it appeared the weather had taken a turn for the better.

Then for the third time, the weatherman frowned and ordered another day-long snow Sunday and the workers were back on the trucks distributing salt and clearing streets.

They started in midmorning Sunday and were still pouring salt on the streets in late evening.

Monday, Supt. Vogras thanked citizens of the city for being so patient during the snowstorms.

"We received a few calls complaining about plowing in driveways," he said. "This is something we can't avoid. We have to get the snow off the streets and to the curb and be prepared for additional snow. We don't like to block driveways but it's one of those things that can't be helped in times of heavy snow."

Vogras indicated that with a shortage of men in the DPW, several of the men were asked to put in long hours to clear the streets for traffic.

A total of 330 tons of salt was spread during the first two snowstorms and Vogras estimated another 100 tons would be used for the latest snowfall.

PRINCIPALS in the Plymouth AAUW play "The Princess and the Pea" are ready for Saturday's four performances at Plymouth High for children of the community. Mrs. Jurgen Badendick has the role of the Queen and Mrs. Robert Dwyer as the Chamberlain. Times of the showings are: 9:30 and 11 a.m., 1 and 2:30 p.m.

Livonia Mall Slates Unusual 'Treasure Island'

Would-be midwinter travelers to the enchanted islands of the tropics, who aren't able to get away from the cold, snow and slush of Michigan winters need only to travel as far as the Livonia Mall Shopping Center to find themselves in the midst of three life-size tropical islands. In addition, they may win a whole island of prizes to boot.

The popular Livonia Shopping center has constructed the islands in the enclosed Mall areas, complete with palm trees, birds, driftwood, sand, moss and all the other ingredients necessary to make them look life-like. The largest of the three islands measures 100 feet long.

The three man-made tropical havens of fun and relaxation are the focal points of a 10 day promotion aptly named "Treasure Island Days." Displayed on each of the islands are prizes donated by all the Livonia Mall merchants. Total retail value of the prizes is in excess of $2,500.

Customers of the 50 stores and services of the Livonia Mall may secure tickets on the prizes by asking for them at any of the participating merchants.

In addition, each customer will receive a ticket for each one dollar purchase made during the period from Thursday, Feb. 16, through Saturday noon, Feb. 25.

College Duo To Exhibit Art Prints

Two Schoolcraft College art instructors, Mrs. Cecilia Kelly and James R. Black, will exhibit a selection of their work in the Lois L. Waterman Campus Center gallery from Feb. 13 through March 8.

Mrs. Kelly, a member of the Ann Arbor Art Association, and the Michigan Academy of Arts and Sciences, will exhibit a collection of water colors as well as a group of drawings and prints. A former student of Aaron Bohrod and Maurice Cantor, Mrs. Kelly has exhibited extensively nationally and in Ann Arbor and the Detroit Institute of Arts, among Michigan galleries.

Black has developed a growing reputation among ceramists for his "people pots." His work is in constant demand for exhibits in museums and galleries throughout the country.

Exhibit hours are 8 a.m. to 9:30 p.m., throughout the week. A reception, open to the public, will initiate the month-long exhibit at 7:30 p.m. Monday night, Feb. 13.

"For example, if a customer comes into a store and purchases $50. worth of merchandise, she will receive 50 tickets on the islands full of prizes, if she spends 10 dollars, she will get 10 tickets etc.," said Jerry Silberman, president of the Livonia Mall Merchants' Association.

Contest winners will be announced Saturday, Feb. 25, at 3 p.m.

The holder of the first ticket will receive all the prizes displayed on the large island located in the center mall area.

The second will entitle its owner to all prizes displayed on the island located in the Crowley mall area. The third island will be used to display the third, fourth, fifth and sixth place winners.

Tickets in that order will be the winners of these prizes. Ticket holders need not be present to win. All winners and alternates will be posted in the Livonia Mall for 10 days.

"We hope that people will enjoy the tropical island atmosphere of the Mall as well as having the opportunity of winning an entire island full of valuable prizes," Silberman said.

A special attraction will be a replica of a south sea island shack from which gingerale will be served for the unusually low price of five cents.

The award is a bronze medallion, especially designed for the Guild; about the size of a silver dollar.

Len Michelson Is Recipient of Patriotic Award

The Detroit Historical Society Guild, volunteer service organization of the Detroit Historical Society and Museum has announced that Leonard N. Simons has been selected recipient of the 1967 Patriotic Award.

Simons is a partner in the advertising firm of Simons-Michelson Company. He has been a member of the Detroit Historical Commission for over 20 years and currently serves as president.

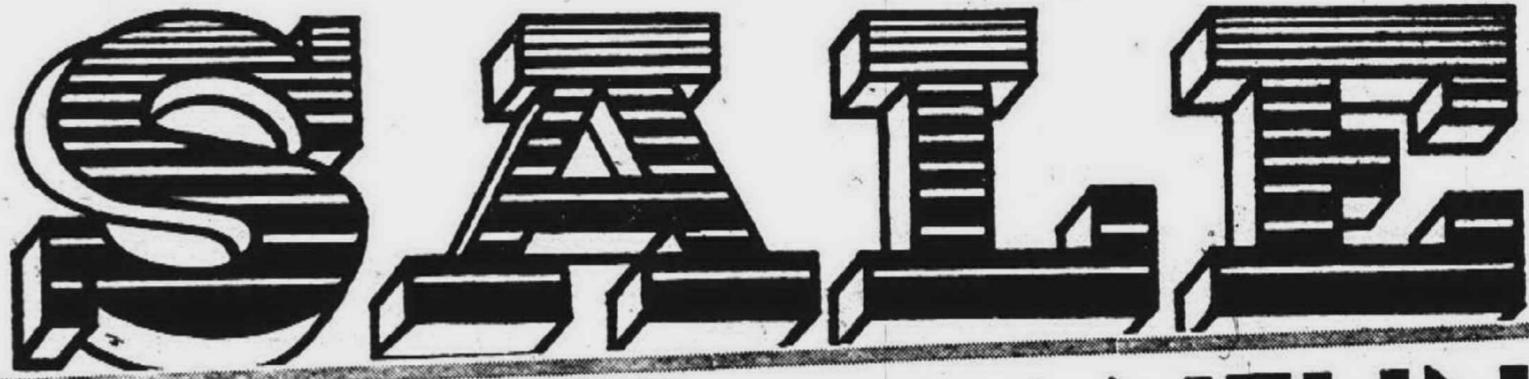

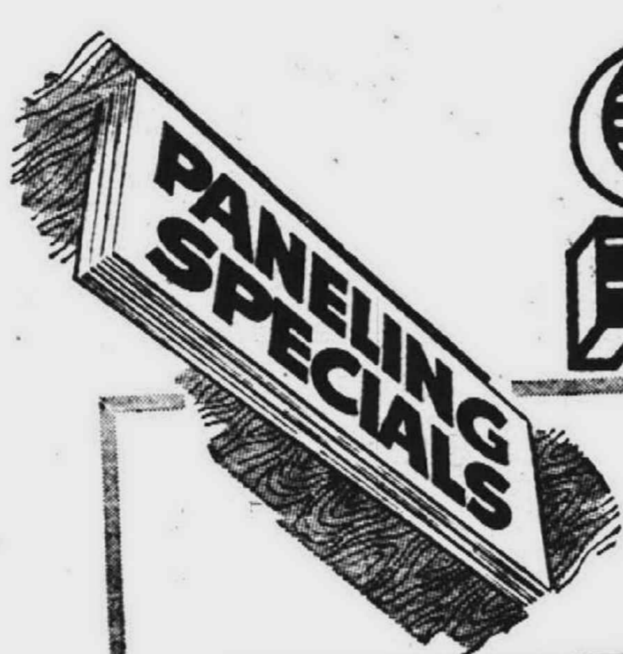

The presentation will be made by Guild President Mrs. Charles Conzelman on February 20 at 8 p.m. in the Detroit Historical Museum at the Patriotic Assembly, sponsored by the Detroit Historical Society.

Schoolcraft Head Raps Gov.'s Budget

Dismayed and concerned over Gov. Romney's approach to state assistance to community colleges, Schoolcraft College President Eric J. Bradner this week warned of the possibility of curtailment of enrollment and educational programs at the college in the next school year.

"We are caught in a cross-fire in increasing operational costs, including faculty salaries, greater enrollment and program demands on the one hand," Dr. Bradner said, "and what I can only describe as an unrealistic attitude by the governor on financial assistance to community colleges, on the other hand."

Dr. Bradner, along with presidents of other Michigan two-year colleges heard Romney explain his plan for aid to higher education and for tax reform at a meeting in Lansing early this month.

A key point in the Romney plan, so far as two-year colleges are concerned, is a freeze on state assistance at $325 for each fulltime academic student.

"Both the State Board for Public Junior and Community Colleges, a constitutional body, have recommended an increase to $500," Dr. Bradner said. "This is a thoroughly realistic figure if the demands on the fastest growing segment of higher education in this state are to be met."

"Unfortunately, the governor has felt it necessary to ignore these recommendations. To say the least, we were not pleased with what we heard at Lansing," Dr. Bradner said. "The governor's plan means there will be no additional state assistance for operations, and could mean an actual cut of as much as 15 percent from what we received this year."

"The governor told us that if we got behind his tax reform program we could look for a stand-pat appropriation for operations, but that if we didn't support the program we could expect a 15 percent cut in state aid."

Hi-Y Groups To Organize

Organizational meetings for Jr. Hi-Y Clubs in Farmington are scheduled for 3 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 16 in Rooms 101-130 at Farmington Junior High.

The groups meet on an average of once a week at the First Methodist Church of Farmington. Club activities are educational, physical, social and service in nature.

JOHN GARY, one of the nation's leading vocalists and recording artists, will appear at Montgomery Ward on Friday, Feb. 17, between 3:30 and 4:30 p.m. The popular singer will autograph records at the Plymouth-Middlebelt store in the Wonderland Shopping Center, in the record department on the second floor.

"Needless to say, the reaction of the presidents of the two-year colleges to those alternatives was less than enthusiastic."

As a result of the meeting with the Governor, Dr. Bradner said he had instructed college Business Manager W. Kenneth Lindner to recast the Schoolcraft operating budget for the 1967-68 school year.

"We must take steps now to protect ourselves against a possible reduction in state assistance," Dr. Bradner explained.

"No matter how the question of tax reform is resolved, the outlook for the two-year colleges is not bright," he went on. "We enrolled 3,200 students last fall and have been planning on the basis of close to 4,000 this coming fall. We may well be forced to put a ceiling on enrollments. In addition, we may have to put off a number of plans for an expanded educational program."

"Worse yet, we may face the unhappy possibility of cutting back some of the programs we are now offering," Dr. Bradner said.

"We have invested a great deal of money to provide facilities and equipment at Schoolcraft College for both academic and technical programs which the people of the college district have said they wanted for their children and for themselves."

"It is simply a case of false economy if they are not used to the fullest extent of their capacity, as we had planned for them to be used."

"There is another complicating factor which must be understood," the president continued. "We are presently involved in negotiations with our faculty, as we are required to do under new Michigan law. The prospect of our being unable to upgrade our salary scale in order to retain this splendid faculty, simply because there are no funds available, is not a pleasant one to contemplate."

"Local taxes can no longer meet the demands of higher education. It is unfortunate to say the least, that the governor has felt it necessary—in a situation where funds for all are not available at the state level—to apportion an unrealistically lesser share to the two-year colleges, which need it most."

St. Mary Aims to Have Staff MD On Hand for All Emergency Cases

This is the first of a series of informative articles dealing with St. Mary Hospital in Livonia, its services, policies, and approach to the problem of meeting the demands of an ever increasing population. This series, written by Observer staff member W. W. Edgar, who also is Chairman of the Advisory Board of the Hospital, will appear from time to time in the Observer.

BY W. W. EDGAR

Because of the ever increasing demands placed upon the facilities of its Emergency Room, St. Mary Hospital of Livonia, has joined with other leading institutions of its kind in the country to establish a bold, modern solution of the problem. The new plan, approved by the American Medical Association, is built on the volunteer services around the clock of staff physicians working in regular shifts. These physicians are men with their own private practices who serve voluntarily on the odd shifts. Heretofore, most of the emergency work has been handled by resident physicians—many of whom lacked the experience of regular staff members.

The decision to set up this new plan came after a far reaching study of conditions, according to Sister Mary Columbine, Administrator of the hospital.

The study considered conditions in the emergency room from the day in 1959 when the hospital was opened. And in the first six years of its operation the demands have almost tripled.

The original plans for the emergency department called for the care of 7,000 patients annually. After the first year of operation it was recognized that the number of patients presenting themselves for care in the Emergency Room far exceeded the number for which plans had been made. The following table shows the rapid growth:

| Year | Emergency Patients |
|------|--------------------|
| 1960 | 8,237 |
| 1961 | 11,009 |
| 1962 | 14,259 |
| 1963 | 17,576 |
| 1964 | 18,529 |
| 1965 | 21,571 |
| 1966 | 22,596 |

In an attempt to meet this rapid growth, the Emergency Room facilities were expanded in 1965. But it was soon learned that the expansion did not solve the problem. Accelerated growth in population, increased numbers of traumatic incidences and a general decline in the number of physicians practicing general medicine all served to contribute to the need of creating a new staffing pattern of physicians to cover the emergency department.

Thus, in 1965, the administration of St. Mary Hospital appointed a fact finding emergency room committee. The committee, serving in an advisory capacity, included members of the medical staff, the administration staff, and members of the nursing staff.

The committee's study revealed that the Emergency Room no longer was just a facility limited to the treatment of trauma. It had evolved into an all encompassing area where patients with anxiety, malaise, fever, pain, insomnia sought treatment and solace.

It also found that the patient was not confined to the lower socio-economics scale. It was revealed that many times patients, unable to find their private physicians or unwilling to wait for an appointment, sought and demanded comparable service in the Emergency Room.

As a result of this trend, the emergency room ceased to be an accident room, and became, in fact, an emergency department, a permanent and increasingly responsible facility within the hospital system.

The committee further found that the patient seeking care in the emergency room views his condition as unique and acute. His attitude is two-pronged—he demands immediate attention and he insists upon the services of a private, practicing physician. Recognizing this, the Committee agreed that all emergency room problems were dependent upon adequate medical staffing and a successful relationship between the hospital, the physician and the patient.

Out of this study evolved the plan of rotating the staff physicians on a voluntary basis around the clock. These physicians, now 30 in number, are members of the St. Mary staff.

They have voluntarily entered into a formal partnership which has been given the exclusive franchise and responsibility of staffing the Emergency Room. The hospital, however, continues to provide the physical structure, the equipment, the instruments, and the nursing and the ancillary staff.

This new plan, according to Sister Columbine, provides patient care which is commensurate to that practiced privately in the physician's office. And the physicians, working under the plan, by virtue of their training in depth and experience in private practice, are better or more ably equipped to handle the many faceted and multi-varied types of cases that present themselves.

Under the new setup, each patient is billed on a fee for service basis. The physician's fee is separate and distinct from the charge made by the hospital for the use of its facility, nursing and ancillary personnel. All insurance and health plans recognize and honor these separate and distinct charges.

Fisher Body Shifts Pender; Chooses Green of Livonia

Promotions of Paul Pender, of Livonia, to executive assistant on the Trim Fabrication staff for Fisher Body and F. Harger Green, of Plymouth, to manager of the soft trim plant in Livonia, succeeding Pender, were announced Monday by Kenneth Scott, general manager of Fisher Body and a General Motors Vice President.

Pender, of 19044 Whitby, will report to D. W. Fleiser, general factory manager for trim fabrication operations. Green, production manager at Livonia since February 1965, moves up to the top post of Fisher Body's operations there.

A native of Cleveland, Pender began his career with Fisher in 1943 as a General Motors Institute student-in-training at the Cleveland plant. Following graduation in 1950, he was assigned to Cleveland as a senior clerk.

In 1952, he was promoted to process engineer and later that same year was named senior process engineer. He was transferred to Livonia in 1954 when he was named supervisor of production engineering.

In 1958, Pender became shift plant superintendent; plant superintendent in 1960 and production manager in 1963. He was named manager in Livonia in 1965, the position from which he is being promoted.

A business administration graduate of Albion College in 1940, Green started with Fisher at the Pontiac Assembly Plant that same year. After nearly five years of service as a captain in the U. S. Army Ordnance during World War II, he returned to Fisher Body as a payroll auditor at Flint Plant No. 1 in 1946.

In 1948, he transferred to the plant's labor standards department where he became supervisor of labor standards in 1953. Green moved to the Livonia Plant in 1954.

He was appointed superintendent of labor standards in 1961 and to shift superintendent in the trim fabrication department in 1963. Green became production manager at Livonia in 1965, the position from which he is being promoted.

Both promotions are effective immediately.

YOUNG LEADERS from Schoolcraft College are the officers and directors of the newly formed Veterans' Association on campus. There are approximately 115 male students who have two years active duty under their belt, eligible for the newly formed group. The group received their charter in January and meet the last Sunday of each month at 3 p.m., American Legion hall in Northville. Their functions will be to establish relations with other veterans' clubs; to aid veterans in academic and adjustment at the college; to cooperate with other organizations and their activities and functions on at the college. Second Gift to Schoolcraft Kehrls Donates $5,000 In Bank Stock to College

Schoolcraft College President Eric J. Bradner has announced the bequest to the college of 100 shares of capital stock of the National Bank of Detroit by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd A. Kehrl. It has a current value in excess of $5,000.

Kehrl is a vice-president of the bank and in charge of its Plymouth branch. The Kehrls live at 41525 Eight Mile Road, Northville.

The gift was the second given to the college by the Kehrls since the college was established in 1961. They had previously donated a set of three chiming bells, which were cast in England and mounted in the campanile adjacent to the administration building on campus.

Although the Kehrls designed no specific area to which the present bequest is to be put, the stock will probably form the start of a special fund for the construction of a business education building on the Schoolcraft campus, Dr. Bradner said.

Kehrl has expressed continuing interest in such a project in discussions with officials of the college.

BPW to Hear Reinke on "Boss" Night

Paul Reinke, director of Marketing for the American Community Mutual Insurance Co., will address members of the Plymouth Business and Professional Women's Club at the annual Bosses Night program next Monday at 6:30 p.m. in the Thunderbird Inn.

The event is traditionally one of the high spots of the group's annual list of activities.

Jessie Sutton, chairman of personal development committee, is in charge of the program.

Miss Hanna Strasen will have the Triple Trio on hand to entertain and organ music will be presented during the dinner.

Reinke, an All-American swimmer at Michigan State University for two years during his collegiate days, received a B. A. degree there. He was employed by Proctor and Gamble, radio station KOL in Omaha, Neb., and in Minneapolis prior to joining American Mutual.

Since 1957, Reinke has made more than 20,000 sales calls and trained 600 salesmen.

The Plymouth BPW was organized in 1928. It has a purpose of: promoting the interests of business and professional women; bringing about a spirit of co-operation among business and professional women in the United States; and elevating the standards for women in business and professions through education in industrial, scientific and vocational activities.

"This total," he told Judge Baum "is roughly about 80 per cent of the charter communities in the state and it would appear the percentage of those having similar provisions for candidates for office would hold to the 50 per cent level."

Draugelis pointed out that the City Charter was amendable but Judge Baum stressed that it would take quite a number more names than those for a nominating petition and would be a time-consuming thing that wouldn't be resolved by the time of the 1967 City Commission election in April.

Both Draugelis and Jabara are working on their briefs; each will have his ready for presentation to the Judge Friday. Then each will receive a copy of the brief of the other and each will have an opportunity to file an answer by the following Friday.

The matter then goes to Judge Baum who promised both lawyers he will have a ruling shortly thereafter.

Pastor Tells Why He Filed Suit

Rev. Peter Schweitzer, associate minister of the First Methodist Church, explained reasons for his court suit testing the Plymouth City Charter in his classification talk before members of the Rotary Club last week.

Each new member of Rotary is required to tell of his classification and his family background within a year of acceptance to the club.

"I am a minister and a member of the Congregation of God to which all of us belong whether we be Methodist, Lutheran, Presbyterian or whatnot," he said.

"It seems to me that it is about time that the Congregation of God stopped being simply a congregation in a brick building. It's about time for all of us to get out of our pews and off our collective seats and become the Congregation of God of the World.

"We have long ago outgrown the developmental stage of church suppers, bazaars, study groups, etc. We have long since met God at these affairs. Now we must begin to meet Him in a different setting. We must meet Him in His world.

"No longer can we succumb to the excuse of learning Christian fellowship and love at church suppers. We have gotten very well acquainted with the God of the dishwasher, now we must learn of the God of the world.

"Sure, we have missionary programs which each of our churches support and they have a very definite place. But the problem is that they are out there in the world and we're someplace else... back here, sort of vicariously being on mission in our world.

"But that's just not good enough, and that's why I firmly believe that I must do what I am doing. To be a clergyman is to be completely involved in the art of communication.

"Preaching is probably the foremost example of the use of that art. But communication is accomplished in many other ways as well. The way in which one goes about living life daily and weekly are also a form of communication.

"My decision has come about because I feel that I must communicate the need for the Congregation of God to enter the world. I am convinced that this can best be accomplished as I myself enter the world and attempt to confront the God of that world through the needs of my community.

TO THE SUPERVISOR AND CLERK OF THE TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH, WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN.

Sirs:

You are hereby notified that the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, did, at a meeting of said Board held on January 26, 1967, decide and determine that the certain streets described in the minutes of said Board should be County roads under the jurisdiction of the Board of County Road Commissioners. The minutes of said meeting fully describing said streets are hereby made a part of this notice, and are as follows:

Minutes of the regular meeting of the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, held at the Board's offices, 7th Floor, City-County Building, Detroit, Michigan, at 8:30 A.M., Eastern Standard Time, Thursday, January 26, 1967.

Present: Chairman Neudeck, Vice-Chairman Kreger and Commissioner Barbour.

Commissioner Kreger moved the adoption of the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, that it hereby accepts the dedication to the use of the public of the following described roads and they are hereby taken over as county roads and made a part of the county road system of the County of Wayne:

All of Apple Creek Drive and Hackberry, Manton, Postiff and Redbud Avenues as dedicated to the use of the public in Plymouth Estates, subdivision of part of the Southwest 1/2 of Section 35, T. 1 S., R. 8 E., Plymouth Township, Wayne County, Michigan, as recorded in Liber 89 of Plats on Pages 56 and 57, Wayne County Records, constituting a total of 0.746 mile of County Roads.

The motion was supported by Commissioner Barbour and carried by the following vote:

Ayes: Commissioners Neudeck, Kreger and Barbour. Nays: None.

THIS NOTICE IS GIVEN UNDER AND BY VIRTUE OF ACT NO. 283 OF THE PUBLIC ACTS OF 1909, AS AMENDED.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand at Detroit, Michigan, this 3rd day of February, A.D. 1967.

Clarenceville Schools Hire Business Manager

Edward Salisz, of Lincoln Park, has been named to the recently created post of business manager for the Clarenceville School district by the Board of Education.

Salisz already is on the job. He was an employee of the Southern Wayne County Economic Opportunity Group Inc. in Flat Rock. Previously he served as business manager for Muskegon Catholic Central High and credit union.

As of Feb. 13 school lunches will cost five to 10 cents more. School officials said the increase was due to increased cost of supplies, food and labor in the hot lunch program.

One of the major factors was the reduced amount of government surplus commodities now available to schools. As the low cost items become more difficult to get through the government program, the school system must purchase them at much higher prices.

The new lunch prices will climb to 35 cents for elementary pupils, 40 cents for secondary students and 50 cents for adults.

Chocolate milk will be hiked one cent to three cents per carton.

School officials expressed concern over the affect of the increases on families in the district but indicated a continuing study will be made to keep the program at the lowest possible cost.

Goodfellows Elect 1967 Officers

The Westland Goodfellows organization has a new slate of officers for 1967 following the election of officers recently.

To head the group which helps needy families in the city every Christmas, will be Frank Diehl, president; Ralph Savini, vice-president; Donald Marhofer, second vice president; Amye Gibson, secretary; and Richard Aro, treasurer.

On the board of directors are Mayor Thomas Brown, Municipal Judge Douglas Craig, Robert Adkins, 1966 president; Glenn Toliver, State Senator William Faust, Max Waugh, and Marhofer. The new president is Westland's municipal building director. Savini is Westland Fire Chief while Marhofer heads the Department of Public Services.

The program also saw awards presented to the Westland Teen Club for its help in the newspaper drive; and certificates to several local groups which helped the Goodfellows last year.

SISTER MARY GERARD SPEAKS TO P.T. GUILD

The Parent-Teacher Guild of St. Genevieve School in Livonia will hold its third quarterly meeting on Wednesday Feb. 22 at 8 p.m. in the church hall. Sister Mary Gerard of Madonna College will speak on modern math and questions from the audience will be answered.

Robert B. Sample, president of Wyandotte Chemicals Corp., has been named general chairman of the 1967 Torch Drive. His appointment to direct the world's foremost united campaign for health and community services was announced by Wendell W. Anderson, Jr., president of the United Foundation.

Keep Store Lights On, Police Urge

Westland's Police Department is asking local merchants to keep their store lights burning after closing hours to help reduce the opportunities for evening burglars.

Police Lieutenant Gail Stanbury said that a "light bulb is the cheapest insurance you can buy" after revealing that two stores were broken into recently with numerous television sets and radios stolen.

With lights burning in the stores after hours, policemen patrolling the area can more easily see if there is anyone in the building.

Soldier Pays For Attacking Hitchhikers

Steve McMahon, 17, of 7826 Hix St., Westland, paid a fine of $85 when he was home on furlough Dec. 19 from the armed services.

McMahon pleaded guilty to assault and battery, committed Sept. 29, before he entered the service, when he and three other youths picked up two youthful hitchhikers in Livonia and then beat them up.

Two of the youths were convicted previously while charges against the fourth, Thomas Shinn, of 17565 Hixmet St., Livonia, were dismissed by Livonia Municipal Judge James McCann.

Promoted in Germany

Frank H. Ohno, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Ohno, 11650 McClumpha Rd., Plymouth, was promoted to Army S/4 in Germany, where he is serving with Aviation Company, 14th Armored Cavalry Regiment.

School Blaze Boosts Westland's Fire Losses

A $50,000 fire at the Whittier Junior High School just one week before the end of the year boosted the Westland Fire Department's fire loss total over the $300,000 mark.

Before the Dec. 24 fire at the school, in the Livonia School District portion of Westland, the 1966 fire losses in the city would have remained at virtually the same level as the previous year.

In the monthly report issued by Fire Marshal Milton Quiring covering the December period, the department reported a loss of $301,284 for the year as compared to $249,536 for 1965.

During the past month, the firemen responded to 133 alarms, an increase of nearly one-third over the 107 figure of the Dec., 1965, period. Of the 133 calls, 95 were for rescue runs.

The full-year totals show that Westland's firemen answered 1,456 calls, as compared to 1,067 the previous year, with the rescue runs soaring from 487 to 734 in 1966.

Of the 133 calls, only 36 were actually fire alarms with building blazes accounting for 26 of those calls.

Wanted: Proof Not Palaver

In honor of Brotherhood Week The Observer is giving citizens a chance to become a member of a Human Relations Group in their community.

Not that you will do it—but for those who say, "some of my best friends are..." here is your chance to prove it.

Frankly I'm skeptical of the return of new members, but, as we said, in honor of Brotherhood Week we'd give it a go.

I hereby apply for membership to the _____ Assembly (community)

I understand their purpose is to commit myself openly, by word and example, to interracial harmony, justice and brotherhood in opposition to discrimination and segregation.

To promote better understanding between groups through educational programs in human relations; the establishment of lines of communication between groups; the support of relevant legal and legislative action, and the exertion of influence to these ends within the community. To be an active influence in helping to create a climate of public opinion respectful of the human dignity of all present and future residents of _____ (community)

My name is _____
Address _____ City _____
Committee Interests _____
Phone _____ Occupation _____

Send your application to The Observer Newspapers and we will see that it is sent to the chairman of your community Assembly for Human Relations. They will contact you as to meeting dates, program, fees (nominal), etc.

Every community has such a group—some are more active than others and some are merely token groups to make it "look good."

If you are concerned about your fellow man and really believe in the philosophy of Brotherhood—here is your chance to prove it. Join the group in your community and find out what is happening.

MYRA CHANDLER

Not Us! Please, Sir George

OBSERVING the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

The Governor proposes—and the Legislature "disposes."

Those of us who carry the torch for more money for educators and education hope the legislators dispose of the Governor's fiscal package and begin afresh.

Almost, when we weren't looking, there has been a shift in tax responsibility from industry and business to me and thee. And it hurts. It hurts those of us who are living on a fixed income—and it hurts the little guy just starting out whose back is breaking under the 31 per cent increase in cost of living in the last 12 years.

This shift is not just with Governor's new tax proposal. It all started under our new State constitution which provides all real and personal property must be assessed at 50 per cent of its true cash or market value. Then the State Tax Commission (three men appointed by the Governor) ruled in favor of industry and reduced their personal tax on stock, furniture, machinery by almost 50%. The deficit was spread over the entire assessment roll—which hit the home owner the hardest.

You remember when this happened because it made the tax bills late and as a result citizens were not able to take credit for their tax payments in last year's income tax.

The decision came when large industries protested their tax rate which held up the final tax figure until the State Tax Commission handed down their ruling (in favor of the industries).

Incidentally, this did not bring any more revenue into the coffers of the school district or the city—it was a deficit that had to be made up.

Now another deficit has to be made up—the State budget. In order to meet the demands ($1.153) our Governor has proposed a 2 1/2 per cent levy. Doesn't sound too bad. He asked for a 3-cent per pack increase in the cigarette tax. Oh well, folks who smoke should pay, it's a nasty habit.

I can just hear my critics, "You non-smoking turn-coat Republican! How can you criticize the Governor when he is so splendid—so forthright—so moral?"

I agree he is splendid, forthright, moral—and ambitious. And despite the fact it is important to watch the hand as well as the rabbit when dealing with Sir George, I feel he is the best the GOP has on the scene.

The fact remains he is taking it out on the little guy and trying to make it look like he is not.

True, there is a five per cent on corporations and eight per cent on banks.

It is deceptive. Business and industry would pay approximately $170 million in income taxes. BUT they would receive a reduction of $150 million in intangible tax, and $55 million in personal property taxes under the proposed 10 per cent reduction in real estate property taxes for all taxpayers.

In the case of banks or financial institutions—they would pay approximately $18 million in State income taxes and receive reductions of approximately $13 million in the intangible tax and also property taxes.

In the final look-see the new money comes from the individual and no matter how sharp the pencil, how personable the package or the delivery boy—this is fact. The trouble is those that worship at the shrine do the Governor no service. Better they not be "yes" men; get in there and improve the package; support the plan and implement it.

With all of its bugs, my non-mathematical brain cannot comprehend why the graduated income tax is not the most healthy way.

When you are making it—you are paying it. When you retire to a fixed income—so does your income tax retire.

The reason why Democrats are for it and Republicans are against it escapes me. It sounds to me like the democratic way to run a country.

Don't Fall Into Suburban Trap

Editor: This letter is for the benefit of those in the inner city who would like to relocate in the suburbs; My advice is don't. Improve your area and enjoy the benefits of city living but don't fall into the trap of suburbia living, unless you can locate outside of "thriving communities."

Mr. Timison's nostalgia for the McKinley era is truly touching, but if he is hoping for a return thereto, I suggest he re-examine the 1964 election returns.

Visit New School

Editor: On behalf of the Lowell Junior High School staff, students and parents, I wish to extend our sincere appreciation for the fine coverage of our school opening by the Livonian Observer in the Feb. 1 edition. The article was responsible in part, for the successful first days of the James Russell Lowell Junior High School.

My staff and I would also like to extend a personal invitation to all the people in Livonia and Westland to examine our new facilities and get acquainted with Lowell. They are welcome to come in at any time and visit the new school.

In the next few months, an open house will be planned; to allow the public to view the building when it is fully completed. The new instructional center, which includes the library, audio-visual and study areas, as well as the student commons area will be ready later in the spring.

Horseowners Object To Being Outlawed

(Open Letter to First Assistant City Attorney, Harry Tatigian, Livonia).

Editor: In reference to your efforts to keep us off the streets of Livonia, I have a few questions. First of all have you ever had a horse run you out into the middle of a four-lane road? I haven't, but I have been all but run off the road by boys on bicycles.

Have you ever been insulted by a rider on horseback, or have you ever had one pull up beside your car and challenge you to race to the next light? This isn't uncommon with motor cyclists. Have you ever been scared out of your wits by the clatter of horses hoofs coming up beside you, or wakened up in the middle of the night because of them?

The squeal of tires can be equally as frightening and it happens much more often.

In any case we don't intend to give up easily the pleasure of riding because someone begrudges us the right to ride along a public road long enough to get to a park or riding area.

I think there must be other matters that need your attention more than your crusade against us. Also Mr. Tatigian, I have some four-footed friends who could probably make you ashamed of your actions against them.

A Livonia Horseowner
Ed. Note: Your letter should be addressed to the Livonia City Council—the City Attorney and his assistant are the agents that carry out orders given them by the Council.

Missed Theme?

Open Letter To Dear Neighbor Swanson:

You are to be congratulated for an uncommon trait among those who consider themselves "Liberals." You have been fair enough to expose yourself to an argument which you have been conditioned to believe is in opposition to your own. First comes exposure, then comes understanding.

I must agree completely with your criticism of the atrocity pictures in "Anarchy U.S.A." Although this type of thing has been a traditional means of breaking through the apathy of the general public during times of war, I believe this is neither necessary nor effective in producing a national interest in further study.

On the other hand, I believe you have misunderstood several important points made during the evening.

Worst Brings Out Best

In times like this when it appears as if most everything one hears about is bad, it certainly makes the heart feel better to learn that the world is full of good Samaritans when one needs them.

The point at hand was brought home recently during a trip on an icy freeway just outside of Ann Arbor. We were driving along at a normal rate, suddenly we hit a spot at the intersection of I-94 and M-14 and our car spun high on top of a snow bank along the freeway.

There we sat, the car tipped almost to the point of turning over on its side in the highway which seemed like a mile below—actually it was only six or seven feet.

We managed to slide out the side of the roadway. Cars stopped in all directions and drivers came running to offer assistance.

"I'll have a wrecker come out from Ann Arbor and pull you off," said one.

"Shucks, I have a shovel, let's dig him out and push him back on the road," said another.

Within seconds, drivers were going in all directions to their cars and came back with shovels. In less than 10 minutes, they had dug out the car and had it back on the freeway.

We just can't believe the world is all bad—now we know it isn't. There's always someone to help and it always seems to come when one needs help the most.

As a final word, the men picked up their shovels, got in their cars and drove away before we could thank them. Many thanks, fellows, for digging in when it was needed the most.

SENSE and NONSENSE

Now here comes new Majority House Speaker, Robert E. Waldron, newly elected House Majority Speaker who testifies chairmen of committees were chosen by their ability and experience.

Wonder where that leaves Representative Raymond Baker senior representative from Farmington (with the longest record of sitting in the House) who drew the innocuous assignment of chairman of Conservation and Recreation.

A wedding notice announces that a Florida couple will spend their honeymoon in Garden City. While the community doesn't have the reputation of Nassau or Europe for honeymooners, we can see the couple walking hand-in-hand and watching the lights change at Ford Road and Middlebelt, observing the rescue trucks whiz by with their sirens wailing, and other such exciting events.

The court examination held recently for three former Garden City officials charged with conspiracy and misuse of public funds had a few light moments. In scheduling a date for final oral arguments, the assistant attorney general handling the prosecution tried to beg out of a suggested date because one of his children was to celebrate a birthday that day. Wayne Municipal Judge John Seiler said "that day is also my birthday and I'm going to be here" (in the courtroom). The assistant attorney general,

Robert Goussy, withdrew his objection.

Mr. Goussy is apparently studying some history other than the details relating to the 1961 land sale involved in the criminal charges made by one man grand juror George Bowles. One of the books under Goussy's table was entitled, "All About Archeology."

"Who's closed? Not me!" Ron Mardiros, deposed manager of the Michigan Secretary of State's Livonia Branch Office, proclaimed Feb. 8 in an advertisement in The Observer newspapers.

Two days later, he was closed.

"I was closed Friday by James Hare because of failure of the Michigan Supreme Court to issue a restraining order," Mardiros explained.

He said his suit against Hare is still pending in the Appeals Court where actions against the state are started. He had asked the Supreme Court to permit him to operate until this case was decided. However, the high court declined to grant his request.

"That only means I'm out of business," Mardiros moaned. It also means residents can disregard another statement in the advertisement: "As long as you need '67 plates—you'll get the quickest and best from me."

Wayne County Republican Chairman Henry Sladek of Livonia has called for support of Gov. Romney's tax program. In calling attention to some aspects of the program which would lower taxes in some areas, Sladek said: "These repeals and reductions are in keeping with the Governor's constant search for tax reform, not tax additions."

In the very next breath, Sladek said, "The Governor's proposed new tax program would bring in an additional 255 million dollars the first year."

Let's see now... you said, Henry, he is not seeking tax additions?

What Happened To Dog?

Editor:

Reading in The Observer recently about the little puppy being tossed out of a car one cold day and left to starve and/or freeze, I wonder how many people know when they witness such hellish cruelty to one of God's creatures that they should take the license plate number of the car and report these people to the anti-cruelty society, 13596 Jos. Campau, Hamtramck, TW 1-7188. They will track them down.

Anyone who would do this to a lovable little dog who had faith in them and to think the dear little thing kept watching patiently every car in hopes that it was his own people. I do wonder what happened to that wee dog.

Baseball's Squabbles Over Contracts Lack Color of Old Days
By W. W. EDGAR

IN A FEW MORE DAYS the major league baseball teams will be heading toward their training camps and out of the sunny southland will come the inevitable stories of last minute hold-outs and bickerings over salary terms.

These stories will be interesting only from the standpoint of cold, hard facts of negotiations among "business" men. They will lack the color and the humor of what we now have a right to call "the good, old days", of baseball when college players were few and far between in major league circles.

And this time of year never comes round but that I don't recall the story often told by Davey Jones, the old time Tiger outfielder, when he and Sam Crawford, one of the Tigers immortals, attempted to team up on Frank Navin, the colorful owner of the Tigers, to get more money.

"We had won the pennant in 1907," Jones used to tell with a broad smile. "I had the most runs and Crawford had driven in the most runs. We figured we were entitled to a raise."

"So, in the early spring Crawford came to Detroit for a visit. We decided we would prepare a 'double barreled shot' for Mr. Navin, who only shortly before had been head of the club.

"Both Sam and I practiced our stories and headed for the ball park and Navin's office. When we got to the corner of Michigan and Trumbull Avenues we tossed a coin to see which of us would enter first. I called the shot, and bracing myself I went to the office."

DAVEY CHUCKLED every time he got to this part of the yarn.

"Mr. Navin seemed surprised, but glad to see me even though I told him I had come to talk about my salary. After he invited me to sit down I pointed out that I had scored the most runs—that runs win ball games—and winning ball games had brought Detroit the pennant.

"Mr. Navin looked at me and nodded his assent, then opened a drawer and pulled out a record book. Searching it for a while, he turned to me and said:

"Davey, you're right. But I wonder how many runs you would have scored if you didn't have Sam Crawford hitting behind you and sending you around the bases."

"I didn't expect anything like this," Davey would recall, and finally admitted Mr. Navin had a good argument. "So I signed a new contract for my same old salary."

The story ever remained fresh in Davey's mind and he continued.

"Outside, Crawford was waiting for me and asked, 'How did you do?'"

"Not so good, I told him, but you are going to be all right."

So Crawford went in. He quickly got down to facts and told Mr. Navin that he had topped the league in driving in runs and that was the important part in winning the pennant.

"Mr. Navin again opened the record book and said, 'Sam, you're right. You did lead the league, but I wonder how many runs you would have batted in if you did not have a fast man like Davey Jones on the bases ahead of you.'"

"And you know," Davey recalled, "he signed Crawford to his old salary, too. Our best laid plans had gone astray. Oh, what a shrewd fellow Mr. Navin was."

Baseball could use more of his kind today.

How does one learn to appreciate fine literature, good music, the theatre and the ballet.

This is a problem facing many parents, who have discovered that their move to suburbia for the children often lacks something.

Local communities have made the effort. The Plymouth Symphony, the Livonia Youth Symphony, the Farmington Players and the Livonia-Redford Theatre Guild are a few of the local efforts.

These groups and other groups like them still don't enjoy community wide support. Part of this is due to the quality of some of the programs. Mostly it's due to an apathy on the part of the public.

If the Royal Ballet were to visit the area the tickets would be sold out. If Carol Channing were to journey the northwestern suburbs with the road company of "Hello Dolly," people would be hanging from the rafters.

Maybe it's the name that counts. Maybe it is only after people start at the top and work down can they appreciate the community theatre and the local efforts.

That's why Councilman John Allen struck a responsive chord last week at the Farmington City Council session.

In a discussion about the Michigan State Council for the Arts he proposed that a citizen's group be formed to take advantage of this program and be advised of the Council's support. From what the Councilman said we had the opinion that he might even like to see the Council back such a venture financially.

The next day's mail brought reams of material from the Michigan State Council for the Arts (7310 Woodward Ave., Detroit, TR. 2-2212).

According to this material the programs and services will be made available on a financially participating basis. "This policy is founded on the hopeful assumption that, in each instance, the local sponsor will be in a position to underwrite the cost of presenting the Arts Council attraction in their community on a matching basis," the Council explains.

Communication arts, dance, literature, music, museum exhibits, theatre and the visual arts are all represented in the Council's program.

It could be a step in the right direction. With the emphasis on the local communities and local control the program is available if the local citizens want to make use of it. It might even be a good project for the PTA.

Whatever the outcome, any further talk about the cultural wasteland of suburbia is no longer justified. A solution to this problem can be arranged if people want to make the effort.

Investing Inquiries

Mortgage Payments vs. Investments

(The answers are the opinion of Laurence A. Wysong, a stockbroker for Paine, Webber, Jackson and Curtis, who is considered highly qualified on the subject. Mr. Wysong welcomes all inquiries on investing. Send your questions to Investing Inquiries, 33050 Five Mile Rd., Livonia, Michigan.)

Q. We are thinking of beginning an investment program on a monthly basis. My wife feels that the money we would be investing should be applied first to our mortgage balance, then after the house is paid for we should consider stocks. The secure feeling of having my home paid for would be nice but yet I would like to have a list of securities to fall back on. I think I need some sound advice.

A. One solution would be to compromise. If you have $50 a month to work with put $25 extra on your house and $25 in an investment program. Or if you have a 5 or 5 1/4% mortgage I would not hesitate to put the full amount each month into a sound security. The reason being that with each monthly payment on a 5 1/4% mortgage a good portion of money is applied to the principle. On a 6 1/2 or 6 3/4% mortgage the interest portion of your payment is quite large. Therefore it would behoove you to pay off the mortgage as soon as possible.

Bogged Down With 450 Pounds of Explosives

So you have been stuck in the snow a few times this winter. How lucky can you be?

Picture this: Three trucks and a jeep recently bogged down on a road in a Viet Cong-infested area north of here. More than 450 pounds of high explosives were aboard the vehicles—a tantalizing cache for local VC.

An armored personnel carrier tried unsuccessfully to move the immobilized trucks. The vehicle would have to remain in position until daylight. Sixty meters of deep mud separated the five-ton truck and the other two trucks and jeep.

Later an infantry squad from the 3rd Battalion, 12th Infantry moved in to secure the stranded vehicles. Lieutenant Pierre Brunter, Livonia, of the 5th Battalion, 16th Artillery, said that he felt a lot more secure when the squad leader came up to him and reported that they would remain with them until morning.

"It was the coldest, most miserable, wettest night of my life," the artillery lieutenant added.

"You know, those guys don't even have ponchos," remarked a private who was near the officer. The private took off his own poncho and gave it to one of the infantrymen adding: "I just get wet once a year."

The night was uneventful. The rain fell hard and furiously. Lights flickered all night in nearby huts. The artillerymen got wet. The infantrymen sat in a rice paddy and got wetter.

At sunrise the artillerymen, APC crew and infantry squad were invited by the local Vietnamese to join them for breakfast.

Feb. 20 Deadline for Civil Service Tests

State Representative Louis Schmidt announced this week that the Michigan State Civil Service Commission is now accepting applications for several state jobs.

Representative Schmidt said that a Feb. 20 deadline at 5 p.m. has been set for the submission of applications for Institution social workers, Electronic Technicians and Systems Specialist, a Crippled Children Executive and a Housemother. Annual salaries for these positions range from $6,000 plus for the Housemother to over $10,000 for the Crippled Children Executive.

Competitive examinations for these positions will be held on March 18, according to Representative Schmidt.

He suggested that anyone interested in more detailed information about the positions listed above or about any other state employment opportunities should contact the state employment offices locally or write to the Michigan Civil Service Commission, Lewis Cass Building, Lansing.

Schoolcraft Trustees OK Land for New Parking Facility

Schoolcraft College trustees have authorized the purchase of a 4.8 acre tract of land immediately south of the campus from Mr. and Mrs. Vollie S. Byrn, 18000 Haggerty Road, for $40,000.

The land will be used to develop a parking lot at the south edge of the campus. The acquisition was the first since the college purchased its present 139-acre campus site on Haggerty Road in August, 1962.

Trustees also awarded a $68,050 construction contract to W. J. Howard and Sons, Inc., Ferndale, for remodeling the former student center to provide facilities for the Office of Student Affairs.

In another action, the board authorized opening of the college library on Sunday afternoons for a 12 week period starting Feb. 5, and allocated $500 for salaries for a librarian and an aide to staff the library during the extended hours.

The Byrn property includes a home on a tract that has 170 feet of frontage on Haggerty Road and 1,263 feet deep. College Business Manager Kenneth Lindner said the site gives Schoolcraft land needed to develop a large parking lot at the south edge of the campus adjacent to the sites of a new classroom building to be opened in the fall of 1968, and the proposed physical education plant.

In addition to staff and visitor parking areas, the college now has only one major parking site for its commuting student body — a paved area for 1,200 cars at the north end of the campus.

Remodeling of the former student center is to begin immediately, Lindner said. Completion is scheduled for May 22. The building will be modified to accommodate offices of the Dean of Student Affairs, offices of Admissions, the registrar, counselors, veterans affairs and student placement officers.

The office of Student Affairs is now housed in the Administration building. The present project is one of two remodeling programs scheduled for 1967. The second will modify the administration building to provide needed working and office space for the president's office, the business office and the office of instruction.

Lindner said the second project will begin when the new home for the Office of Student Affairs is completed.

The W. J. Howard & Sons bid was the lowest of four opened by trustees. Others were Smith & Young Construction, Inc., Wayne, $70,556; Degenhart & Daly Construction Co., Inc., Ferndale, $71,000; and Zervos Construction Co., Detroit, $72,600.

Extension of library hours to Sunday afternoons was made on a "test" basis and came in response to students' requests for weekend availability of the library. Sunday hours are 1 to 6 p.m.

In other action, trustees: Authorized expenditure of $5,565 for carpeting and furniture in two dining areas in the Lois L. Waterman Campus Center.

Authorized $1,740 for the development of a portion of an unused area in the lower level of the Center for a locker room and dressing facilities for students enrolled in the culinary arts program.

Authorized the Manufacturers National Bank as a depository for a vocational education account.

Set March 12 as a date for the formal dedication of the Waterman Center, April 9 as a formal dedication date for the new vocational-technical building and authorized $2,500 for expenses for both dedication programs and the annual commencement exercise scheduled for April 30.

School Board To Meet Monday

The Nankin Mills Board of Education will hold a scheduled meeting at 8 p.m. next Monday in the Henry Ford Elementary School library.

The regular monthly board session, originally set for last Monday, was postponed to allow board members and administrators to attend the annual convention of American Association of School Administrators in Atlantic City, N.J.

Young Seeks Extension of Plate Deadline

State Rep. Richard A. Young, whose district includes the northeast corner of Westland, is urging a one-month extension of the deadline for 1967 auto license plates.

Young, Dearborn Heights Democrat, wrote to the chairman of the House Committee on General Taxation, that because of the recent snow storms "which made it virtually impossible" for motorists to get to license stations, he has introduced a bill extending the deadline to March 31.

In asking to appear before the committee, Young said in a letter to the committee chairman that "a month's delay would not play havoc with the Highway Department's fiscal program and in this, the year of tax reform, we might give the citizens 'a little break'."

He also pointed out that many cities have spent their entire snow removal budget already and do not intend to spend more except for main roads and emergency clearings.

"People with poor health and those who are aged are the ones who are most severely handicapped during this situation and an extension would be helpful to them," Young said.

Westland Planner

Eugene M. Katz, Westland's Planning Director, will talk on city planning and development at Tuesday's Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting.

The chamber's membership session will be held at 12:15 p.m. in the Westland Shopping Center.

C. J. Karrer, works manager of Detroit Diesel Engine Division of General Motors, has announced the appointment of Robert P. Kelly as assistant works manager in charge of all machining, assembly, test and final process operations. Kelly came to Detroit Diesel in 1945 in the plant layout department and was promoted to superintendent of assembly in 1950. In 1952 he was appointed superintendent of machining and was made general manager of manufacturing in 1962. Kelly and his wife live in Livonia at 16431 Bell Creek Lane.

AAUW Lists Annual Show For Children

"The Princess and The Pea," an adaptation of the Hans Christian Andersen fairy tale, will be presented to children of Plymouth, Northville and the Livonia area on Saturday, Feb. 18 in the Plymouth High auditorium.

The seventh of an annual series of children's plays will be staged by members of the Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women in a continuing effort to give youngsters between the ages of four and nine an exposure to live drama.

The AAUW plans four hour-long presentations at 9:30 and 11 a.m., and 1 and 2:30 p.m. Tickets are on sale in the Plymouth and Northville schools and the sponsors warn that past performances have been sold out early and urge children to secure tickets early.

They are also available by calling Mrs. Conrad Krankel, 453-4454; Mrs. Richard Doherty, 453-2626; or Mrs. John Campbell, 427-8941.

In the past, the AAUW has staged such productions as "Rumpelstiltskin," "Cinderella," "Hansel and Gretel," and "Beauty and the Beast."

Mrs. Arthur Domalske will be the storybook lady. The princess will be played by Mrs. Charles Heiney and her dog by Mrs. David Van Hine. Playing the part of the Prince will be Mrs. Jerry Yohey with Mrs. J. uergen Badendieck as Queen. The servants will be Mrs. Richard Doherty and Mrs. Roger Rinaldi and the Lord Chamberlain will be Mrs. Robert Dwyer.

Garden City Firemen Hit Slower Pace

Garden City's firemen recorded a slower-than-normal pace last month, after responding to 27 alarms and 42 rescue calls.

The previous month, said Fire Chief Onas Rowe, there were 26 alarms and 66 rescue calls.

During January, there were 12 house fires, eight auto blazes, two blazes in garages, and two in business establishments. Completing the total of 27 were three "wash downs" of gas on the street.

Rowe also said in his monthly report to the City Council that he has sent $475 in rescue unit bills to City Clerk-Treasurer Donald Cramton for billing.

In addition, the department gave lectures at schools and numerous adult groups on fire prevention.

Man is Rescued From Car in River

One of the first things that a Garden City man will do when he recovers from a head cold and body soreness is to thank the Dearborn man who saved his life Friday night.

James Jackson, 45, of 7418 Arcola St., Garden City, was trapped in his car that night after it slid off of the Hines Parkway near Outer Drive, Dearborn Heights, and plunged into the Rouge River.

He was spotted a while later by Lee Curtis, 36, of 6224 Coleman. Dearborn Heights, who used the citizen's band radio in his car to call an unidentified ham radio operator who then relayed the call to the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol, which then called local police.

Policemen and firemen from Dearborn Heights formed a human chain to pull Jackson from the icy waters. Jackson, an employee of Rockwell-Standard Corp. in Detroit, was on his way home Friday night when he failed to make a curve on the Parkway. He applied his brakes but the car skidded off the pavement, jumped a 2 1/2-foot snowbank, rolled 200-feet and then flipped into about six-feet of water.

"Everything but my head was under water," Jackson told The Observer. "The water was coming up fast when I passed out."

"I don't know how long I was unconscious but it seemed like an eternity."

Jackson said that he was released from Wayne County General Hospital early Saturday morning after he was treated for head cuts, his only injury in the episode.

"I'm still stiff and sore and have a headache but that's all," Jackson commented thankfully.

Curtis, with Hartford Realty, at 33539 Plymouth Road, Livonia, was seen attempting to let air into the auto by cutting a hole in the floor-board with a pocket knife.

After the car was pulled from the river, a freakish fire caused by gas leaking from the tank ignited by friction, demolished the auto as it was being pulled by a tow truck.

Juniors Swell Hopes for North Farmington

The basketball future at North Farmington high has taken on a bright look.

That's because coach Dick Wilson has found a contingent of juniors who have molded together in a fine unit.

Wilson started four eleven-graders, plus a senior, last Friday night and the dividends ran high for North Farmington—a 69-60 victory over John Glenn.

What had to please Wilson the most was the work of junior center John Mann, who stands 6-2.

Mann turned in his best effort on the varsity with 26 points and 20 rebounds. He hit on 11 baskets and four charities.

The Raiders got off to a fast start against Glenn, notching 22 points in the first period to Glenn's 15. Ron Flutur and Mike McCoy each made six points and Mann five in the first eight minutes.

In the second period, the Raiders outscored Glenn, 16-12, as McCoy picked up the remaining 13 points he made in the game.

Mike Mahakian had 16 points and Jerry Wright 14 for the losers. Mike McMaster also hit in double figures for Glenn with 11 points.

North Farmington struck back on Saturday night to blast Clarenceville, 82-48, in a non-leaguer as McCoy led the way with 24 points. John Thompson meshed 22 in a losing cause for Clarenceville.

Ace Swims To Two Records

Dennis Rogissart, of Bentley High, continued his brilliant swimming last Thursday as he led his team to a 61-44 victory over Plymouth. Rogissart shattered his own school and pool record with a timing of 4:05.2, well under the marks he held at 4:09.

"Dennis' time has to be one of the three best in the state," said his coach, Larry Joiner. Rogissart also anchored Bentley's winning free style relay to climax the school's ninth victory of the season against two defeats.

Ray Porter of Plymouth turned in a double victory by hitting the finish first in both the 50 and 100-yard free style.

The results: Medley relay: 1—Bentley (Donaldson, Stewart, Jepson, Mehal), 2—Plymouth (Paust, Smith, Malboeuf, Norman), 3—Moulboeuf (P). 200-yard free style: 1—Dan Schreiber (B), 2—Pugsley (P), 3—Wolf (P). 400-yard free: 1—Porter (P), 2—J. Schreiber (B), 3—Larson (P). Individual medley: 1—Kee (B), 2—Trembath (B), 3—Renos (P). 3—Gavey (B). Butterfly: 1—McCord (P), 2—Jepson (B), 3—Moulboeuf (P). 100-yard free: 1—Porter (P), 2—Guthrie (B), 3—Mehal (B). Backstroke: 1—Donaldson (B), 2—McCord (P), 3—Andes (P). 400-yard free: 1—Rogissart (B), 2—Kee (B), 3—Beglinger (P). Breast stroke: 1—Trembath (B), 2—Stewart (B), 3—Renos (P). Free style relay: 1—Bentley (D. Schreiber, Bart, Guthrie, Rogissart), 2—Plymouth (Whitaker, Wolfe, Norman, Pugsley).

R.U. Star Wins Jerry Haltom produced victories in the 200-yard and 400-yard free style races as Redford Union's swimming team downed Belleville, 54-41.

Other victors for RU: Diving: Paul Clancy. Butterfly: Mark Favor. Back stroke: Gary Meyers. Breast stroke: Rod Charles. The combination of Myers, Charles, Favor and Masterston also won for RU in the medley relay. Ray Woods of RU picked up seconds in both the 50 and 100-yard free style sprints.

Marks for Franklin Franklin high swimmers smashed four pool records at Garden City West in scoring a 61-40 victory. Hal Hultquist with a 24.4 seconds clocking in the 50-yard free style, Craig Anderson with a 2:24.3 in the individual medley, Bill Weier with a 1:02.1 in the butterfly and Tom Bates with a 1:06.1 in the breast stroke set the marks.

Anderson also won the 400-yard free style while Bates in winning the breast stroke nipped his younger brother Brian. Other winners: Medley relay—West (Teague, Lewis, Norwood, Gronke). 200-yard free style: Hager (West). Diving: Chaney (F). 100-yard free style: Hager (West). Backstroke: Teague (West). Free style relay: Franklin (Toung, Jroes, Hultquist, Doherty).

Belleville In Thriller With RU Some basketball games are marred by too many fouls. The general feeling was that in Belleville's 80-79 triumph over Redford Union last Friday night not enough fouls were called—on either team.

For example, there were only three personals whistled in the first half—two on RU. In the second half, RU was guilty eight times, Belleville four. That added up to only 16 personals in the entire game. In the free throw department, RU caged five out of seven. Belleville six out of 17. So that the difference in charities may have decided the game.

"Both teams took a physical beating," declared Dave Nattlingly, the RU coach. "One can't say, however, the officials favored either team. I just thought they could have stopped some of the crashing and charging."

Belleville built up a 46-37 halftime lead, and RU won the battle of the second half, 42-34. But the Townshippers never could manage the lead. They'd get down to one point and no closer. With ten seconds left, RU passed wildly to kill its last chance for a winning basket. Once more, Leland Bjerke emerged as the RU scoring star as he drilled in 17 baskets and three charities for a season's high of 37 points. Brother Dale Bjerke was next with 12, followed by Tom Kimble with 11, Dennis Fifield nine and Bill Fahey eight.

Strategical Move Aid To Trojans

Who says basketball is just a run and shoot game? Coach Gene Scholes, of Clarenceville, proved that strategy can play a vital role in the sport last Friday night when his chargers upset Bloomfield Hills, 40-35.

Faced with the chore of playing a bigger team, Scholes decided to utilize a 2-3 zone defense in order to bottle up Hills' 6-6 center, Bruce Hall.

The tactics worked to perfection. Hall was held to 14 points.

Meantime, Clarenceville worked for and took only the good shots. The Trojans fired up just 41 attempts from the field compared to an average 60-70 in a game.

The scoring resembled a football game, rather than a basketball tilt.

Clarenceville tallied nine points in the first period to the Hills' seven. In the second quarter it was 13-11 for Clarenceville.

The third stanza showed Clarenceville with a 9-5 margin while the Hills finally got the edge in the last eight minutes with 12 points to Clarenceville's nine.

The victory gave Clarenceville a 4-6 record in Wayne-Oakland League play. Chuck Watkins had 12 points, John Thompson 11, Mark Dievendorf eight, John McClory five and Larry Novell four.

St. Agatha Drops Pair; One to Go

One game with Ann Arbor St. Thomas remains next Tuesday night for St. Agatha's basketball team before it plunges into the state tournament district competition at Visitation.

The Township cagers lost twice last week, falling to St. Francis de Sales, 71-67, and then to Ferndale St. James, 75-57, in non-league action.

St. Agatha held a four-point lead against St. Francis in the third period before a late burst overcame the Township team.

Dennis McKenna had 25 points and Jerry Myron 15. It was McKenna with 24 points and Myron with 14 against St. James which built up a 39-25 halftime lead and never was seriously threatened the rest of the way.

Observing Sports

(Continued from Page 2B) three—Joe Medwick, Red Ruffing and Lou Boudreau. The results will be announced within a week.

SHORT PANTS: Looking for a pleasant night out? You won't want to miss the Ice Capades of 1967 which starts a 17-performance run at Olympia on Feb. 28 and runs through March 12.

Next Sunday's the day the Pistons give away free T-shirts to all youngsters, 16 and under, who purchase reserved seats. You no doubt have seen yours truly "model" the T-shirts on Pistons telecasts. The shorts are worth adding to a youngster's wardrobe.

Spring can't be far away... not with the first contingent of Tigers heading for spring training this week. One of the early departees will be Livonia's Denny McLain who looks forward to another season of winning at least 20 starts.

Maybe it's none of our business... but since our pocketbook stands to suffer... we wonder why Gov. Romney doesn't do something to get his racing commissioner to extend the running and trotting seasons in Michigan.

The governor says Michigan must raise more money to keep the state government ticking. We'll admit that more racing won't supply all the cash. But it would help.

The success of the winter meeting in Windsor has to prove that those who patronize racing don't care what the calendar says... whether it's January or May or September.

In other states, like New York and Illinois, the horses run pretty much the year around. The state "cuts in" handsomely. So why not in Michigan, Mr. Romney?

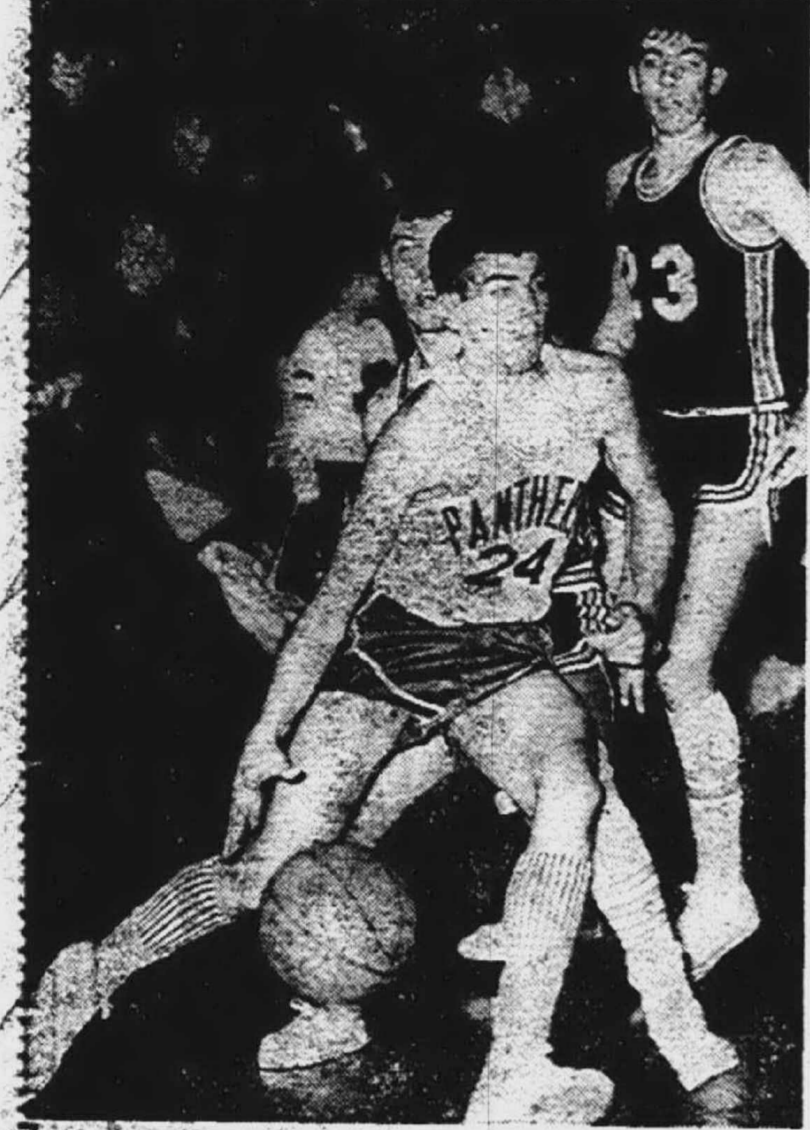

TWO MORE WEEKS... and the annual March Madness, meaning the State high school basketball tournament will be with us.

Times certainly have changed when it comes to the prep classic.

We remember when most district tournaments had six to eight teams. Now they put fewer teams and hold more districts... simply because there are so many more fine gyms available.

All of the fields are set. A committee handled the chore several weeks ago. Sometimes, we think the committee should wait and perhaps try to arrange districts so that one is loaded with top teams while another boasts a bunch of weak sisters.

But Charlie Forsythe, the state director, says this can't be done. Who's to disagree with Charlie?

LOW DRIBBLE: Rick Clark (24) of Garden City East shows the proper way to dribble—keep the ball low—as he goes around a Taylor Center defender. The Taylor team, however, won the game.

Shots Off Line; East Swamped

When your team commits 11 fewer turnovers, makes 17 more rebounds, takes 16 more shots and holds a four-shot free throw edge, it should win.

That's what Garden City East accomplished against Taylor, but it was Taylor an 83-71 winner in what proved a decisive game for East in Mid-Wayne League action.

The setback killed the East's hopes for the flag, despite the fact the team rebounded to crush Lutheran West with a record-99-51 score on Friday.

East now stands 5-3 in the league, 10-3 overall with less than two weeks remaining in the regular season.

Against Taylor, it was simply a case of East not being able to hit from the field. "Imagine a team striking on only 32 percent of its shots," declared Coach Billy Jo Young.

Joe Huber tossed in 25 points on eight baskets and nine charities for the winners while Mike Maciasz was next in line with 11.

Prior to the 99-point bombardment against Lutheran West, East's school high in basketball had stood at 96.

East ran up 56 points in the first half and "fell off" to just 43 in the final two periods. The uprising included 30 points in the second period, and 26 each in the first and fourth.

Five East players finished in double figures as Rick Clark led the way with 18 points. Harvey Kightlinger tallied 16 points. Huber 14, Maciasz 10 and Bob Kalinowski 10.

Coach Young didn't make any attempts to rub it in on West. He used his regulars only 19 minutes.

All 11 of the East players made at least one point.

GC Boys to Sign For Baseball

Boys planning to participate in the Garden City Youth Athletic Association junior baseball program next summer, must register for the leagues on the next two Saturdays, Feb. 18 and 25.

Registrations and physical examinations will be available at Cambridge Junior High, 28901 Cambridge in Garden City.

All boys between the ages of 9 and 12 years must register on one of the two dates. Registrations will be accepted between the hours of 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. each Saturday.

Livonian Is Star With St. Cecilia Five

Dennis Hyland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hyland, 9109 Beatrice, Livonia, is captain and guard for the St. Cecilia High School basketball team which battles St. Gregory in the finals of the Second Division in the Catholic League in Detroit.

Denny, a 5'8" senior, is finishing his third year as a regular for the Irish.

He is one of five brothers, has been a resident of Livonia for two years and has attended St. Cecilia since first grade.

Jana, former Czech champion and Olympic ace, stars in the "Go-Go" opening number of the Ice Capades of 1967 which will be at the Olympia Stadium Feb. 28 through March 12.

Thurston Beaten by Charities

The field goals stood at 29-23 in favor of Thurston high's basketball team against front running Groves in the Northwest Suburban League.

But no upset was forthcoming.

That's because Groves enjoyed a field day—at night, that is—at the free throw line, with 30 successes in 36 tries while Thurston negotiated just 12 out of 23 free ones.

Almost every time one looked, Groves' star Mike Rafferty was stepping to the charity marker.

He got 21 opportunities to hit free tosses... and he responded with a brilliant 19. Add three baskets and Rafferty took individual honors in the game with 25 points.

Groves rushed in front, 19-13, after one quarter; led 44-33 at the half and 61-47 at three-quarters. Thurston cut the gap to nine in the fourth period, but that's as close as the Townshippers could get.

Bob Wardrop fired in 21 points with 10 baskets and one free toss to top Thurston. Roger Steffan added 16 points, Gary Schulte 13, Reg Barringer nine and Don Block nine.

Dave Day fashioned 26 points in pacing Thurston's reserves to a 58-54 upset over Groves.

"WHAT DO I DO NOW?" That's the question Dan Bazzarelli of Garden City West must be asking as he finds himself surrounded by a pair of taller Lowrey players. Bob Gamache (22) of West stands in the background.

West Handed Double Beating

The week that was... an unhappy one for Garden City West's basketball team.

Two games — two defeats. In each the story followed along similar lines. Free throws hurt badly.

First it was Schafer by a 77-69 score over West, then Lowrey won from West, 68-

57. Against Schafer, now 8-3 in the Tri River League to West's 6-6 standing, West notched 27 baskets to match Schafer's output from the field.

But at the charity marker, it was Schafer 23 out of 33, while West had to settle for 15 successes in 25 attempts.

The loss of two guards and a forward on personal fouls in the fourth period didn't help the West cause against Schafer.

Gary Robinson had 18 points to top the losers, who fell behind, 42-29, at halftime. Bob Gamache followed with 12, Dan Bazzarelli 11 and Jack Mellinger ten.

In the Lowrey game, a collapse in the final period ruined West. Going into the closing eight minutes, West held a 47-42 edge. But Lowrey broke loose with 26 points while stopping West with 10 to turn the game into a romp.

The free throw story in this one read as follows: Lowrey 22 out of 30, West 12 out of 30.

Bazzarelli roared in 27 points to no avail, while Gamache had 14.

Stevenson No Match In Swim

Stevenson high's swimming team was no match for Southfield in a dual meet, losing, 72-33.

The medley relay team of Mark Huelet, Don Day, Don Figurski and Pat Flaherty accounted for one of the two wins fashioned by Stevenson. Day, a ninth grader, then came back to win the breast stroke.

Stan Switaski in fine efforts, placing second in both the 200-yard individual medley and butterfly. He's a tenth grader. Mark Roberts was second in the 100-yard free style.

Engineering news - views - student guidance by Fred W. Bradley, P.E.

The OBSERVER this week announces a new column, devoted to the Professions. Next week is National Engineers' Week; hence the first few columns will be devoted to the profession of Engineering.

Feb. 22 is Washington's birthday as we know. What we may not know is that Brother George was also an engineer of note. In recognition of this, National Engineers' Week is always celebrated as the week in which the renowned birthday occurs. This year it is the week of Feb. 19-25, with extra special observance on Feb. 22.

The new column is prepared through the cooperation of our local "Voice of Engineering," the Rouge Valley Chapter of the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers. It will consist of "News—Views— and Student Guidance" items.

Why Student Guidance? Rouge Valley has found that students, High School and College, often have a fuzzy notion about the profession of engineering. Some think they want to become engineers without knowing if special aptitudes are needed, just what curricula should be followed, and "what do engineers do on their everyday jobs?" Many of these student questions will be posed in future columns, and at least outline answers given. The Rouge Valley engineers will be available for any other discussion that students, their parents and their counsellors may want.

A word about our collaborator, the Rouge Valley Chapter: this is the local chapter of the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers, serving just about the same geographical area as the OBSERVER newspapers.

Its 50 members are registered professional engineers, representing practically all branches of engineering (electrical, mechanical, etc.). They are employed by industries, public utilities, schools, government, and in private practice. They are well qualified to counsel students explore the field of engineering.

Local Engineers' Week activities include the following:

Rouge Valley's own special meeting will be on Feb. 22, discussing the high-priority subject of air and water pollution. Two Ford Motor professional engineers, Stuart Vaughn and Robert Wiesner, will make the presentation at Hillside Inn, Plymouth Rd., at 8:00 p.m.

Schoolcraft College engineering students, spearheaded by the college's Student Chapter, will sponsor an informal coffee hour on Feb. 22, from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m., in the Waterman Bldg. Five professional engineers will be present for discussion and counselling. All Schoolcraft students (whether enrolled in engineering courses or not) together with College and High School counsellors, are invited. Just drop in, have a cup of coffee, participate.

Some of the local Service Clubs are also recognizing the occasion. The Farmington Exchange Club will dedicate its Feb. 22 meeting (noon) to engineering, with a speaker from Rouge Valley.

Schools Set For Drivers

New drivers who want a clearer idea of the "whys" of traffic laws and driving techniques, and experienced drivers who want to brush up on both, can do so at two new traffic safety schools in metropolitan area.

The schools, established by the Driver Examining Division of the Secretary of State office and the Automobile Club of Michigan, will start February 9 in Garden City and March 1 in Livonia.

The class, starting at 7:30 p.m., will be held in the Secretary of State branch office, 241 Inkster Road at Cherry Hill in Garden City, and at the Secretary of State Driver Examining Division Office, 32846 Five Mile in Livonia.

DONALD BROWN of Detroit Edison's overhead lines department was honored by the company recently upon his 40th Service Anniversary. Residing at 9499 Poinciana in Redford Township, he joined the Edison Company in January 1927.

Gets New Assignment

Airman James R. Burger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Burger, 41505 Ford Road, Plymouth, has been assigned to Wurtsmith AFB in Michigan, after completing Air Force basic training. The airman, a 1966 graduate of Plymouth High School, will be trained on the job as a vehicle maintenance specialist with the Strategic Air Command.

Ohio Historian Slates Greenfield Village Talk

Justifiably proud of 164 years of statehood and the seven favorite sons who have occupied the White House, the state of Ohio today preserves many of its historical buildings and artifacts for this and later generations to appreciate.

Instrumental in carrying out this policy is the Ohio Historical Society, whose director, Daniel R. Porter, will describe the organization's work in an illustrated lecture at the Henry Ford Museum the-

Friday, Feb. 17 at 8:30 p.m. Porter's talk is the third in the Museum's current series devoted to discussions of "Preservation Movements in the United States." Now in its 15th year, the Antiques Lecture Series has brought more than 80 outstanding authorities in various fields of American antiques to Michigan.

In addition to serving as director of the Ohio Historical Museum at Columbus, Porter is also administrator for 57 state memorials in Ohio. The home and library of President Rutherford B. Hayes at Fremont and the McKinley Memorial at Canton are among the vast properties of the society.

The decorative arts galleries of the Henry Ford Museum will be open at 7:30 the night of Porter's lecture, allowing guests an opportunity to view leisurely the Museum's outstanding collection of American furniture, silver, ceramics, textiles and glass.

Local Students Receive Roles

Two Farmington students have roles in the Kalamazoo College's winter quarter drama production of "The Birds." Aristophanes' comedy will be presented in Walter Kerr's modern adaptation. The play will run Feb. 25, 27 and 28 in the Dalton Theatre on the campus.

Cast in roles are: William Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Johnston of 26770 Holly Hill; and Dail Willoughby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith B. Willoughby of 32998 Biddestone.

Farmington Players present DEATH OF A SALESMAN at PLAYERS BARN 12 MILE ROAD OF POWERS Feb. 17, 18, 24, 25, 26, Mar. 3, 4 Tickets: 626.2633 or WELSH'S HOUSE OF MUSIC

UP' GOING CURTAIN

Shakespeare's "Love's Labour Lost" is an early playwriting attempt of the Bard to strike a witty, happy note. The Meadow Brook Theater production opening last week (the second play in their repertory of six) matched the immaturity of the Bard's early writing efforts.

The John Fernald Company's first production "Caucasian Chalk Circle" as measured by professional standards fell short of the mark. "Love's Labour Lost" evaluated by the same rigid standards again misses the mark.

While the youthful company strives mightily in their nightly labor of love on the campus of Oakland University in Rochester, this company of resident actors, Michigan's first, is still a few years away from the competent professionalism of the Guthrie Theater and the Stratford, Ontario Festival theater companies.

John Fernald's brand of direction seems to be the main point of issue. He does not believe it would appear after two productions in motivational movement as seen in the Guthrie and Stratford theaters. Latter day directors believe firmly in the principle that a show must move physically as well as mentally.

Director Fernald still uses a picture-frame concept in his approach to directing his actors. Too often during the evening "Love's Labour Lost" seemed to be rooted to certain areas of the stage. It was almost painful at times to watch actors literally acquire barnacles as they laboriously ground out their metered Shakespearean lines. Actors such as Howard Green who performed at University of Michigan and did many a play under the active hand of Dr. William Halstead must have remembered those exciting bits of movement that Dr. "Bill" gave them.

Howard Green as Boyet appeared to be muffled and buried in his costume. At no time was the spritely nature of Boyet explored. Howard was no doubt told to be static and project the characterization without movements to complete the portrayal. Toward the end of the first part of "Love's Labour Lost" the action appeared to sparkle momentarily with the discovery of the love letters. However, the movement was so studied and lackluster that the audience soon settled back and let the play roll ponderously past them.

"Love's Labour Lost" can be oodles of fun. Old Wally saw the Stratford version and thoroughly enjoyed this minor work of Shakespeare. Several points of difference: the costumes at Stratford beguiled the eye, the addition of props assisted the audience in understanding many of the archaic terms found in "Love's Labour Lost," and the actors spoke their lines in perfect diction and rhythm so necessary for meaningful Shakespearean repertory.

Old Wally is not giving up on Michigan first resident repertory yet. Shaw's "You Never Can Tell" (their March play) is an early 20th Century piece of writing. A top flight production of this early Shaw comedy could revive my enthusiasm for this struggling group.

One final note: Despite schedule changes in the Play of the Month series at the Hill Auditorium in Ann Arbor, "Porgy and Bess" will be seen on Feb. 17 and 18. "Marat-Sade" comes in for a two-day performance schedule Feb. 20 and 21. Make your ticket reservations now.

Playwriting Contest Underway

Scripts are now being accepted for Wayne State University's 1967 Playwriting Contest, according to Dr. Vincent Wall, associate professor of English and contest committee chairman.

The contest is sponsored annually by the Department of English and the University Theatre.

A donation of $300 has been accepted from the Greater Detroit Motion Picture Council for awards in three categories — full length play, one act play and children's play.

The Council is contributing the award money for the fifth consecutive year in an effort to interest and encourage writers in the caliber of writing which may serve as a basis for the production of quality motion pictures.

Judges for the contest will be announced later, Dr. Wall said. Prize-winning plays will be considered for production by the University Theatre, which reserves the option for first production rights for one year.

Last year's award winning play, "Elijah" by Barry Singer, was presented in the University's Studio Theatre last December.

The contest is open to any person who has enrolled at Wayne State University some time during the two years prior to the contest deadline, April 7, 1967.

Rules and application forms are available in the English Department office in State Hall and the University Theatre office at the Hilber Classic Theatre. Mail requests may be sent to Playwriting Contest, Wayne State University Theatre, Detroit, 48202.

OU Schedules Jazz Concert

The Ramsey Lewis Trio will appear in a jazz concert at Oakland University on Saturday, Feb. 25. Scheduled to begin at 8 p.m., the concert will be held in the University's Sports and Recreation Building.

The famed jazz pianist, whose recent recordings such as "The In Crowd" have sold into the millions, has made a number of television appearances, and has toured the country, including concerts in Carnegie Hall and the Lincoln Center.

Schoolcraft to Show War Film on Friday

"Forbidden Games," a shattering tale of children in war, is the next attraction on the Schoolcraft College winter film series, Friday, Feb. 17. Performances are scheduled at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. in the Forum amphitheater. Admission is free.

JULIE ANDREWS stars in the award-winning musical, "The Sound of Music," now showing at the Mai Kai Theatre in Livonia.

Director Has Confidence in Cast

Nearly every director in community theatre goes into his rehearsal schedule with a slight feeling of apprehension. Jim Watring, director of "Come Back, Little Sheba," finds his worries at an absolute minimum with the experienced cast supplied by the Theater Guild of Livonia-Redford.

The 11 member cast abounds with on-stage experience, having credit for over 100 productions as a group. Heading this active list are Shirley Hulet and Dr. Howard Halstead, who share the leading roles in the William Inge comedy-drama to be staged at the Bentley High Auditorium, Feb. 24, 25, 26.

Mrs. Hulet was a drama major at Michigan State University and did many summer stock performances at Traverse City and Mackinac Island before joining the Theater Guild as a charter member in 1954.

Howard Halstead can count 53 shows in his acting past. These include a variety of roles from "Heavies" to high comedy, and a variety of performing groups from Ypsilanti to Grosse Pointe to Dearborn. He has acted in many commercial films by the Jam Handy Organization and Wilding, Inc. Also in his credits are television commercials.

Phil Nyhius previously acted in the Grand Rapids area.

Grant Awarded To CTAM

First technical assistance grant issued by the new Michigan State Council for the Arts, theatre committee, was awarded this week to the Community Theatre Association of Michigan (CTAM).

The CTAM requested the service of national theatre consultant Dr. Reuben Silver of Cleveland for assistance in the organization of a two-day community theatre convention. The group also requested information on the organization structure of the Ohio Community Theatre Association where Dr. Silver is president.

Among those attending the meeting with Dr. Silver were members of the CTAM executive board: Richard Manning, 6341 Yinger, Dearborn; Jerry Pember, Theatre Guild Livonia-Redford, 14302 Sarasoia, Detroit; and Herbert Sharples, 10134 W. Outer Drive, Detroit.

Representing the Michigan State Council for the Arts were: E. Ray Scott, executive director; Robert Luscombe, performing arts coordinator and Dr. Audley Grossman, member of the theatre committee.

Dr. Silver was recently elected to the Board of the National Theatre Conference. He has twice had State Department appointments as a drama specialist, once to the West Indies and last summer to Israel. He is a member of the American Educational Theatre Association and of the American Community Theatre Association, division of AET.

Musical Scholarships Are Available for Students

The Duquesne University Tamburitzans will audition candidates for the group's full-tuition scholarships after their concert appearance at West High School, Garden City, Feb. 19.

Walter W. Kolar, managing-director of the group, and his staff will audition and interview qualified candidates for the scholarships to Duquesne University, Pittsburgh.

The scholarships are awarded to high school students possessing the necessary qualifications of musical proficiency as instrumentalists, singers or dancers. Candidates must also meet all admission requirements of Duquesne University.

The scholarship is worth more than $7,000 and includes full-tuition, and room and board in any school of the University. All travel expenses are also included.

Candidates unable to attend the concert for an audition should direct their applications to the Tamburitzans, Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219.

Quartet Concert Set for Sunday

The University Center for Adult Education will present the first in a series of three concerts by the Stanley Quartet at 4:15 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 19, in the Engineering Society of Detroit Auditorium, Rackham Educational Memorial.

Selections for the first program are Beethoven's "Quartet in D Major," Bartok-Serley: "Five Pieces from 'Mikrokosmos'" and Brahms: "Quartet in C Minor."

Barber Shop Quartets Set Dearborn Concert

The purest kind of harmony, unrestricted by time, tempo or instrumentation, adequately describes the musical style which has captivated thousands of Americans and marked "barbershop" as a distinctive and infectious new art form.

The mellow, controlled sounds of barbershop singing, blending to a fine degree of perfection through constant practice, have never failed to bring forth the unrestrained admiration and appreciation of interested audiences.

Three of the finest such barbershop quartets will be making a one-night only appearance in Dearborn at Edsel Ford High School Auditorium, Rejuna at Pelham, Friday, Showtime is 8:15 p.m.

Headed by the 1966 International SPESQSA champion Auto Towners Quartet, the program theme will stress the "good old days of high button shoes" when the original barbershop singers began harmonizing in the tontorial parlors of the "Gay Nineties."

In addition to the Auto Towners, two championship Sweet Adeline quartets will perform, including the Chi-

Larks, former medalists in international Sweet Adeline competition, and the Cracker Jills, International Sweet Adeline champions of 1957-68.

The concert is being presented by the Dearborn Recreation Department in conjunction with the Downriver-Dearborn Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc.

Tickets can be obtained at the Dearborn Youth Center, Michigan at Greenfield, Cuda's East and West Dearborn Bookstores or by calling Judy Snyder at 464-1273 in Livonia.

The 40-member Downriver Dearborn Sweet Adeline Chorus, Inc., co-sponsor of the concert, celebrated its first anniversary in January. Bobbie Bostick is the director of the group and last April, in Detroit, led the group to a second place finish in regional competition of Sweet Adeline choruses.

Membership in the group is made up of girls throughout the Downriver area. Interested persons 18 years old and over may investigate by coming to one of the meetings held each Wednesday at the Dearborn Youth Center, Michigan at Greenfield.

Livonia and Garden City members of the chorus instrumental in making many of the arrangements for the Feb. 17 concert are Judy Snyder, Publicity; Donna Schultz, Costume; Mary Anne Coburn, Publicity; Bobbie Bostick, Director of Chorus.

Livonia Jaycees Community Survey

The following survey is being conducted by the Livonia Jaycees in an effort to determine what kind of a community Livonians want to live in and raise their families.

Clip and fill out the survey and mail to chairman of the project for the Jaycees, Edward J. Pringlemeir, in care of The Observer Newspapers, 33050 Five Mile Road, Livonia, Michigan.

As soon as the survey is completed and the answers tabulated the general results will be made known to the public. A complete listing of the results will be made available to service organizations and men responsible for making governmental decisions in Livonia. Any questions about the survey call Ed Pringlemeir 464-0460.

New Library Books Honor Memory of Chandler

The Livonia Library Commission directed Avram Rosenthal, head librarian for the City to purchase a list of books in memory of Paul M. Chandler, former publisher of The Observer Newspaper Group.

A memorial bookplate will be placed in his honor in the following books to be found in the Carl Sandburg Library. The Spiral Press Through Four Decades; Magazines in the Twentieth Century, The Constitution and the Supreme Court (Documentary History); Government Publications and Their Use; Dictionary of American Politics; Dominations and Powers; State and Local Government in Michigan; Book Publishing in America.

D.A.R. Members Urge February History Study

During the month of February the citizens of the United States by act of Congress will be celebrating American History Month and the birthdays of two American patriots and presidents, George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. The members of the Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, urge the citizens of Livonia to observe February as American History Month.

"The reading and study of American history helps us all to understand and appreciate the rich heritage from the founding of our country and in later years the building of our cities to present day. The lessons of success and also the failures of the people who lived this history, will help us to preserve and profit by the past to insure the freedoms and privileges we now have that makes our country great," said Mrs. Donald Baumhart, Livonia, of the D.A.R.

BETTY CROCKER Future Homemaker Award is presented to Senior Shirley Dews by Plymouth High Principal Carvel Bentley. Shirley was the winner of a recent examination, received a silver charm and became eligible for state and national scholarships ranging from $500 to $5,000.

Goes to Texas AFB

Airman Nicholas R. Natoli, whose mother, Mrs. Irene Whalen, lives at 11971 Camden, Livonia, has been selected for technical training at Lackland AFB, as a U.S. Air Force air policeman.

Airman Natoli is a 1966 graduate of Franklin High School.

Bentley Grad Picked

Airman Bert E. Knight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Knight of 18590 Brentwood, Livonia, has been selected for technical training at Sheppard AFB, Tex., as a U.S. Air Force aircraft maintenance specialist.

Airman Knight is a graduate of Bentley High School.

Two Glue Sniffers Run Into Trouble

Glue sniffing proved costly to two men last week when they appeared in Livonia Municipal Court.

Judge James McCann fined Stephen S. Lomik, 18, of 10351 Troy St., Oak Park, $50 and $5 costs; while Thomas B. Grover, 24, of 11348 Cavell St., Livonia, was put on probation for 18 months and told to do no sniffing.

Grover paid $50 for his fine, plus $40 for probation costs and $10 for court costs. He received a suspended 60-day sentence in the Detroit House of Correction.

McCann granted a motion by the people to dismiss charges of being a disorderly person, placed against Grover's brother, Dennis W., 20. Livonia police arrested Lomik when they noticed he was acting in a "strange manner, eyes glazed, pupils dilated." Officers found three tubes of model glue and a paper bag containing glue in Lomik's car.

He pleaded guilty to possession and use of glue and was sentenced under Livonia Ordinance 575, adopted last year to deal with this type of offense.

Officers also learned that Lomik was away without leave from the Army.

Police arrested the Grover brothers after the two men waved at them as they drove by shortly after midnight, Nov. 28.

They thought the pair needed help but discovered model airplane glue on the men's hands, face and coats, along with folded paper bags.

R. Upton Talks To Webster PTA

Webster Parent-Teacher Association enjoyed the humor of Ronald Upton, Assistant Superintendent of Livonia schools in talking about school business (a big business). Along with the humor he made some serious points.

The audience also viewed a beautiful film story of the Livonia Family "Y".

William Gray, PTA President announced the annual pancake supper will be Thursday, March 2 at Webster School, 37855 Lyndon from 5:30 to 7:30. It will be one dollar for adults and 50 cents for children. For further information call 464-2390.

Plan to Clean Rouge River Gets Approval

A plan to clean up the Middle Rouge River in the area was approved Friday night by a Water Resources Commission regional sanitation engineer.

U-M Professor To Address

Dr. Whitmore Grey, associate professor of Law at the University of Michigan, will discuss "The Contemporary Scene in China" at the February meeting of the Plymouth Branch of the AAUW on Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in the Mayflower Hotel.

Dr. Grey is a graduate of Principia College and the University of Michigan Law School. He has wide experience in the field of international law.

Wayne Denniston, along with George Brusco, district Conservation Officer, approved WRAPP, Water Resources Anti-Pollution Program, designed to clean up the stream that runs through Hines Park.

The decision came at a meeting in Northville at the Presbyterian Church. The group plans to meet again in mid-March.

Headed by Jerry Hazlett, 263 Farmer, Plymouth, the project began last year when Plymouth Jaycees and Boy Scouts covered two miles of the Rouge and pulled out enough junk to fill a dump truck. Working up stream to avoid muddying the water, the volunteers found everything from beer cans to camp stoves, to an ice box in the stream bed.

"This year, much more volunteer help is needed," Hazlett said, after getting the go-ahead on his plans. "We also will need some money to help finance the project."

Those interested in helping may contact Hazlett at either 453-4256, or 455-0250.

BLUE SKIES and warm Caribbean breezes greeted Mr. and Mrs. George Onusko, of 1250 Hartsough, Plymouth, as they arrived at Miami International Airport aboard a Delta Air Lines' DC-8 jetliner following a flight from Detroit. Onusko is a drill maker for the firm of Whitman & Barnes. The couple is here for a two-week vacation.

DAR Chapter To Stage Children's Antique Show

A "Look and Do Antique Show for Children" is being planned by the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

To be held April 29-30 in the Joy Road Studio, 48234 Joy, Plymouth, proceeds from the benefit described as a "miniature Greenfield Village with the added attraction of being able to touch, as well as view—will be used for Michigan Indian Scholarships.

Members are currently seeking items to be used in the affair, such as a wheel-driven lathe, a treadle sewing machine and cobbler's bench. Residents wishing to lend such articles are asked to contact Mrs. Marion Sober at 453-9180.

Chairmen for the various "rooms" include: Mrs. Felix Hoheisel, 698 Evergreen, toy shop; Mrs. William Bake, 841 W. Main, Northville, kitchen; Mrs. Kurnal Babbitt, 306 S. Rogers, Northville, doll house; Mrs. Robert Willoughby, 14061 Ridgewood, cobbler's shop; Mrs. Harry Gettgey, 3995 Berry, carpenter's shop; and Mrs. Margaret Mastick, of Milford, and Mrs. Charles Garlett, 921 Church, sewing room.

Ticket sales will be under the direction of Mrs. Norman Saunders, 12176 Amherst, Plymouth.

Lake Pointe Will Become Twp. Watchdog

Determined to take a stronger voice in Plymouth Township activities, officers of Lake Pointe Homeowners Association urged all members to attend the monthly meetings of the Township Board of Trustees on the second Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m. in the Township Hall.

More than 85 turned out for the initial meeting of the Association a week ago and President Maurice Breen is looking forward to the same kind of attendance at the monthly executive sessions the first Monday of each month at 9 p.m.

He stresses that volleyball is available for Lake Pointe residents at Farrand School each Thursday at 7:30 p.m. The program opens on Feb. 23 and continues through April 27.

For any members of the distaff side interested in volleyball, the Farrand School gym will be available from 9 to 10 p.m. on Thursdays, beginning Feb. 23.

Moehle, Scott To Represent School Board

John Moehle and Bruce Scott will represent the Plymouth Board of Education at the budget hearing and biennial elections of the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

Moehle was named by President Gerald Fischer, with the approval of the Trustees, to attend the budget hearings with John D. McLaren as alternate.

Modernizing?
New Heating System?

Decisions. Decisions. Decisions.

(May we help you with an important one?)

Your choice of a heating system is one you'll live with for a long time. So, naturally, you'll want to make sure you get a system that won't cost too much to own. That's where our new electric heat guarantee comes in.

Here's how it works: We'll see that you get a written estimate of heating costs—before you buy. Then, your monthly bills may be less, but they won't be one cent higher than the estimate. We guarantee it.

If the installation needs adjustments to meet the guaranteed cost figure, we'll see that it's done. And if at the end of three complete, consecutive heating seasons the system is still not operating within our estimate, we'll remove it and refund your money.

Before you make any more important modernizing decisions, get the facts on modern electric heat. You can't lose!

Hot Dish For Cold Weather

By FAITH GILLESPIE
Queen of Hearts

Boots are a bother. I have hated them ever since I was a little girl, when they rubbed my legs raw. I hate them more, the older I get. I think they present the single most constant irritation of the winter, beginning in the wet of the fall and lasting through the wet of the spring.

The other major difficulty of winter, the automobile, may seem greater, but its burden lasts a shorter time and is less frequently felt.

Men have a problem because they would rather wear rubbers to work. They think it isn't going to snow, or the snow will let up before noon, and they consequently come home with wet socks.

Women have a terrible time about boots generally, because they wear a great variety of shoes, all of which differ in heel height and width, according to the occasion. Finding boots to fit all the different shoes is as ridiculous as it is impossible.

Shoe boots are the most popular solution, but they create new difficulties. Either you sit with hot feet, or you run around at parties with stocking feet and cold toes, or you carry your indoor shoes in your hand like a pair of empty rice bowls. Or you get a cute little tote bag and forget it at the car or leave it at the doctor's office.

The problems of grown-ups with boots, however, are like minnows compared to the whale of a problem with children and boots. It threatens to swallow the staunchest of mothers!

Any boots saved from last year, when unearthed, prove to be too small for the previous wearer and too huge for the next prospect. If new boots are provided all around, a monumental undertaking in both time and money, something happens to them by New Year's. Either everyone's feet grow outrageously, and the new shoes won't fit the old boots, or else the clever children contrive to lose them or shred them.

Maybe the worst thing of all is putting boots on all the preschool feet in the family several times a day. When the mother gets herself down on the floor and begins to push, the child develops an instant case of a childhood disease known as Spaghetti Leg.

You know, you push, and spang!, like a strand of cooked spaghetti, the leg retracts. No matter how much you implore the child to push, spang! All you can do is take hold of the heel of the shoe with one hand and the heel of the boot with the other and manipulate the moving parts yourself. Or give up and keep the kid in.

The total motherly energy generated in this effort across the nation in a normal winter could, if leashed, power the United States Navy. It's a wonder a mother has enough strength to cook. Well, here is a recipe that doesn't take much:

EASY HAMBURGER CASSEROLE

Cook according to package direction a cup of uncooked elbow macaroni (for 4) or up to 2 cups for more people.

Brown ¾ to 1 pound of hamburger in a skillet with a cut up onion (use the frozen minced onion when you're exhausted). Season to taste with salt, pepper, celery salt, and maybe a little chili powder. Stir in a can of tomato soup and ½ can of milk. Mix with cooked macaroni and throw in half a package frozen peas or last night's leftover peas. Place in greased baking dish, top with corn flake crumbs, and bake at 350 degrees for 35 or 40 minutes.

And pray for an early summer.

Artists to Star Westland Show

Artists and their works will fill the spacious Mall at Westland Shopping Center from Monday through Saturday next week, Feb. 20 to 25.

The occasion will be newest "Artists' Showplace" presented by Mrs. Betty Baldwin, who has described it as "the biggest yet at Westland."

With scores of artists on hand and literally hundreds of paintings and craft objects for display and sale, Mrs. Baldwin said the show should be a paradise for serious buyer and browser alike.

"Meeting the artist and, in many cases, seeing him at work is another special feature of the show," she added. "It will be so large in scope that several days could well be spent to chose a beautiful object or to get an uplift from the creative, the lovely and the individualistic."

Besides oil and water color paintings, the show will include sculpture, metal craft, ceramics, decoupage and many other craft media.

Mrs. Baldwin said a large percentage of the artists are Detroit area residents, but eight states and Canada are represented. Buyers of work in past shows have come from places as far off as San Francisco, Washington and Miami.

Because of the large sales volume when artists are brought together for a show, she added, prices for originals are considerably lower than those to be found in galleries.

Mrs. Baldwin, a Livonia resident and an artist in her own right, said she started doing her shows about six years ago because she felt art work was piling up in artists' studios rather than being properly merchandised to be appreciated.

"I found there were many problems in bringing together the artist and his potential buyers," she said, "but I've learned to work them out and the shows have enjoyed great success."

She has put on exhibits like this one at Northland, Eastland, the Macomb Mall and the Pontiac Mall, as well as maintaining permanent exhibits in theaters in the area.

Included among the artists who will show works are John Groot, of Plymouth, who does handmade pewter objects in antique designs, Ernest Moors of Livonia, who specializes in original miniatures with handmade frames or easels and Mrs. Fran Tomczyk of Westland who makes all manner of decorations from shells.

Kindness Eastern Star Sets East-West Night

Kindness Chapter #523 Order of Eastern Star will have its East-West night Feb. 20 with a bake sale at 6 p.m. and a pot luck dinner at 6:30. For information and reservations on the dinner call Ruth Ford GA 2-3817 or Lillian Lucia 274-2038.

MRS. FRAN TOMCZYK, of Westland, sits surrounded by some of the pictures, purses, bouquets and decorated boxes she has fashioned from shells. Her work, with that of many other local artists, can be seen at Westland next week.

AMONG THE PAINTERS who will have pictures displayed in the current Artists' Showplace are Helen Lenzi, Southfield, Marie Tuthill, Farmington, Mrs. Leroy, Detroit; Jean Cohen, Livonia, and Ruth Stevenson, Farmington.

Cunninghams Travel to Germany After Wedding

A home in Germany awaits Sp/4 Dale Lewis Cunningham and his bride, the former Sandra Lenore Fielden, who were married Saturday, Feb. 11, in the First Baptist Church of Plymouth.

The bridegroom is stationed with the United States Army in Germany.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Cunningham of Ball Avenue, Plymouth, and the bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William P. Fielden of North Harvey, Plymouth.

The Rev. Donald Williams officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length lace gown with a scoop scalloped neckline and long, pointed sleeves. A lace crown trimmed with seed pearls held her veil, and her bouquet was carnations with an orchid and ivy.

The bridal attendants wore floor-length gowns of fuchsia satin taffeta with matching accessories and carried bouquets of sunburst pink carnations.

Mrs. Mary Ridley was matron of honor, Christine Cutler was maid of honor and the bride's sister, Susan Fielden, was junior bridesmaid.

James Wilson was best man for his cousin, and the ushers were Dennis Wilson, another cousin, and Richard Ridley.

Mrs. Fielden wore a blue silk crepe sheath dress with matching lace coat for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Cunningham's choice was a two-piece green brocade suit.

A church reception followed the rites.

The new Mrs. Cunningham and her husband both are graduates of Plymouth High School, and the bride studied at Eastern Michigan University.

Women on the Go!

By MARGARET MILLER Women's Editor

A policewoman's lot, to paraphrase the old song, is a busy and interesting one. But also a frequently misunderstood one.

For, after about 12 years in police work, Mrs. Lee Heither of the Livonia police force still comes frequently against the idea that a policewoman's job is to punish and that just a chat with an officer can go on a juvenile "record."

"Our work is to protect and to help," she wants it known. "But do you know that some parents, even in an area like ours, still threaten to call the police when their children misbehave."

Lee's work as a woman member of the force is specifically in cases in which crimes or "non-crimes" are committed against women, girls, and boys under seven. The non-crimes include such cases as missing persons and neglect cases.

She may investigate the whereabouts of a girl missing from her home, check into theft reports or question persons accused of morals offenses.

"When we have to question children, we need parents' cooperation," she said. "The parent is always present, but he should let the child answer for himself."

In connection with the need for parental cooperation to help police help the offenders, she cited two similar cases Livonia officers handled in recent months.

In both, teen-age boys were questioned about indecent exposure. One, advised by an attorney not to talk to officers, refused to say anything and eventually was taken into Juvenile Court and referred to Hawthorn Center.

POLICEWOMAN LEE HEITHER

The mother of the other boy gave full cooperation and a quick counseling referral was made, so the boy received help and was able to respond almost immediately.

Lee is greatly concerned over crime trends of recent years—particularly one statistic that shows 26,000 major felonies, over half of those committed in Michigan last year, committed by persons under 17 years of age.

"Parents have got to do a better job of teaching their children respect," she said. "That means respect for themselves and their own property and the property of others."

"And parents should know their children's friends and know their families too. They should know where their children are and what they are doing ALL the time."

Lee in private life is Mrs. Eldon Heither, mother of 14-year-old Spike and nine-year-old Candy. She attended Wayne State University and was on the Detroit Police Force ten years, leaving when she was sergeant.

She thinks police work requires emotional maturity and plenty of physical stamina. "I'm on call 24 hours a day and have been called out on cases in the middle of the night," she said.

She would like to see more counselors on duty, in particular for juveniles, and police counselors on duty in the high schools and junior highs. This has been tried with success in several cities, including Flint, she said.

Lee also feels much concern over recent interpretations of law which in recent years "protect the criminal but do not protect the victim."

"Today the criminal is protected by 'due process' but the victim and the rest of society is not," this policewoman believes. "The citizen should realize that if this trend continues he could be completely without protection of the law."

CONNIE DEE SCHELL

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle E. Schell, of Redford Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Connie Dee, to Pvt. Robert E. Tober, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Tober, also of Redford Township. Both are graduates of Redford Union High School. The future bridegroom is stationed with the Signal Corps at Fort Monmouth, N.J. No wedding date has been set.

Secretaries Will Hear Of Libraries

Avram Rosenthal, acting city librarian for Livonia, will speak on "Your Library — How Is It Stacked?" at the Feb. 28 meeting of the Town and Country Chapter of the National Secretaries Association.

The meeting will be held at Hillside Inn in Plymouth. Plans were announced by Mrs. Helen E. Ellmore, chapter president, secretary to James W. Attwood, president of Unistrut Corporation.

Mrs. Ellmore said her chapter is one of the 575 NSA chapters in the United States, Puerto Rico and Canada, participating in NSA's Fifth Annual Program of the Year, this year being conducted in cooperation with the American Library Association.

The objective of the program, scheduled for the month of February, is to concentrate attention on the importance of well stocked and staffed libraries to the business community.

The meeting will cover the resources and best use of libraries in Livonia.

All secretaries are invited to attend this meeting as well as members of the Future Secretaries Association and reservations may be made by telephoning Mrs. Mildred Reynolds, C.P.S., telephone number 322-2080.

Livonia Irish Society Will Hunt Queen

The prettiest colleen in town is the object of a search by the Irish Society of Livonia.

The society wants her to reign as queen of its Fifth Annual Coronation Ball, to be held St. Patrick's night, March 17, at the UAW Hall on Plymouth Road.

On that night the Irish queen and her court will highlight an evening of modern and Irish dancing and singing. Chairman for the event will be an Irish native, Joe Menton.

Girls interested in being queen must be at least 16 years of age and of Irish origin or descent, and unmarried.

If selected as Miss Ireland of Livonia, she must agree not take part in any commercial or other appearances without full consent of the Irish Society of Livonia.

The judging of the queen contestants will be held at a luncheon March 11.

Colleens interested in becoming queen may fill out a coupon on this page of The Observer or call Mrs. Rose Francis, 464-1064 or Mrs. L. Higgins, GA 2-2005.

Laundry Hint

When laundering drip-dry curtains use a gallon of starch water for the final rinse. Hang curtains up to dry and shape with the hands to avoid ironing.

Graham-McGrath Vows Taken In Church Ceremony Jan. 14

Patricia Diane McGrath became the bride of David Lawrence Graham in an evening ceremony Jan. 14 at St. John's Episcopal Church in Royal Oak.

Dr. John Shufelt heard the couple's vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. McGrath Jr., of Farmington, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ivan S. Graham, of Farmington.

A peau de sole gown with chapel train, lace bodice, long pointed sleeves and low scalloped neckline was the bride's choice. Her veil was elbow length, and she carried white carnations centered by a white orchid corsage.

Marcia Lynn McGrath, serving as maid of honor for her sister, and bridesmaids Sandra Murningham of Livonia and Joyce Linia of Farmington wore gowns of peacock blue chiffon with headpieces to match.

MRS. DAVID GRAHAM

Their flowers were salmon pink carnations.

John Kennedy was best man and Charles Rollins and James Evans seated the guests. All are from Farmington.

Mrs. McGrath wore white silk crepe with loop-work sleeves, and Mrs. Graham's gown was royal blue silk crepe with a sequined bodice. Both had small feathered hats to match their dresses.

A reception for 250 guests in the church social room followed the ceremony.

The newlyweds left after the rites for Arizona, where the bridegroom, an airman second class, is stationed at Luke Air Force Base. The new Mrs. Graham is a graduate of North Farmington High School and her husband graduated from Farmington High School.

Local Girls' Betrothals Announced

SALLY ANN BAER

Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Baer of Bethel Park, Pa. formerly of Garden City, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sally Ann, to Wayne C. Kalamazoo Church Is Setting For Izzard-Campbell Wedding

Judith Lee Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Campbell, of Livonia, was married Dec. 22 to Darrell Albert Izzard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Izzard of Cedarville, Mich.

The Rev. James Wright performed the evening candlelight ceremony in the First Methodist Church, Kalamazoo.

The bride was given away by her father in the double ring ceremony.

Her gown was of white silk hanging in a soft A-line with a full chapel train attached at shoulder height. The empire waisted gown and the train were highlighted with brocade lace, and the fingertip veil was secured by a lace and crystal headpiece.

The matron of honor was the sister of the bride, Mrs. James Sterritt of Quakertown, Pa.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Phil Roberts, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. John E. Campbell, sister-in-law of the bride, Marlene Hall, Barbara Bostick, Elma Kristof and Mrs. Brian Rees.

The matron of honor and the bridesmaids wore floor-length fuchsia chiffon gowns and carried cascading white fugi mums. The matron of honor's bouquet included fuchsia roses.

Terry Izzard, brother of the groom, assisted as best man. Ushers were Phil Roberts, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, John E. Campbell, brother of the bride, James Izzard, brother of the bridegroom, James Sterritt, brother-in-law of the bride, Ronald Hamming and Brian Rees.

The bride's mother wore antique beige silk with matching accessories and green orchids. The bridegroom's mother chose aqua with aqua accessories and white orchids.

A reception followed in the Kalamazoo Civic Auditorium. Following the reception the couple left to spend the holidays in Detroit and the Upper Peninsula then returned to their home on Gull Lake near Kalamazoo.

The bride is a graduate of Bentley High School and attended the University of Kansas and Cleary College. She is employed by The Upjohn Co. of Kalamazoo.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Pickford High School and is presently attending Western Michigan University working towards a degree in Aviation Engineering Technology.

MRS. DAVID GRAHAM

New Title 'Christ the King Lutheran To Install New Pastor Feb. 19'

Is Given To CROP

The "Christian Rural Overseas Program" — known more popularly as CROP — will now be known as "Church World Service Community Appeals."

The change of name was announced by Albert W. Farmer, director of the program, at a recent meeting in Kansas City, Mo., commemorating the 20th anniversary of CROP.

Farmer emphasizes that the name "CROP" is not being dropped. "The letters in CROP," he says, "do not now stand for anything except FOOD—food for the hungry and assistance to them to provide more food for themselves."

In explaining the change, which was approved last fall by its national committee but not announced until recently, Farmer said the percentage of total U.S. population living on farms has decreased from 19% to 7%, since CROP was founded in 1947.

"Increasingly," he says, "CROP was not solely rural. Under the impact of urban culture, even town and country residents often consider themselves non-rural," he declared. "Since CROP has been authorized to appeal to urban as well as rural areas and ask for cash as well as commodities, Christian RURAL Overseas Program became a handicap."

Church World Service Community Appeals will be responsible for both the CROP Community Food Appeal and the CWS Clothing Appeal. It maintains 19 regional offices, whose staff is now meeting in Kansas City in annual conference.

CROP, which began in Kansas in 1947 as the "Wheat for Relief" appeal, has distributed more than $69 million in government-donated foods, exported $17½ million of high protein food, seed, fertilizer, and equipment, and transferred $2½ million to other agencies during the 20 years of its community appeal.

The Rev. August W. Mueller will be installed Sunday, Feb. 19, as pastor of Christ the King Evangelical Lutheran Church of Livonia.

Preaching and performing the rite of installation at the 11 a.m. worship service will be Dr. Frank P. Madsen, Michigan Synod President, Lutheran Church in America.

A reception for Pastor Mueller and his family will be held in the church parlors from 3 to 5 p.m.

Pastor Mueller comes to Livonia from St. James Lutheran Church, Jackson, Mich., where he served as a mission developer and the congregation's first pastor. His 15-year ministerial career has, to the present time, been devoted to mission development in conjunction with the Board of American Missions. He has also served congregations in Allen Park and South Bend, Ind. He is currently a member of the Michigan Synod's Executive Committee.

Born in Indianapolis, the Rev. Mueller received his A.B. degree from Wittenberg University and his B.D. degree from Hamma Divinity School.

As parish pastor at Christ the King, he began his work Feb. 5, filling a pulpit which had been vacant for seven months. Pastor Mueller and his wife, Carol, have three children, Kirk, 13, Keith, 11, and Kim, The Muellers will reside at the church parsonage at 33129 W. Chicago.

THE REV. AUGUST W. MUELLER

World Vision Conference To Conclude

The Nineteenth World Vision Conference will hold concluding sessions Thursday, Friday and Sunday, February 15-19 at the Southfield Community Church, 2122 Indian. The week-long conference began Feb. 12.

Charles Pruitt of Rhodesia will show pictures and speak Thursday at 7:30 p.m. This will be Sunday School night with all classes attending with their teachers, and a souvenir from Ecuador will be given to all who attend.

Friday night's speaker is Roy Thompson of Sports Ambassadors, the group which sponsors International basketball games, and which during the half time the players from America tell the meaning of Jesus Christ in their lives.

Sunday morning, Mr. Cyril Faulkner of Thailand will speak in the Sunday School and at the morning service. The Conference will come to a close in the evening with a message from Don Bruggmann of Europe.

Theme of the Conference has been "Untold Millions Yet Untold." Curious and literature from various lands are on display.

SHARPENING UP for the annual tour of the Interlochen Arts Academy orchestra are Victoria 'Vicky' Halton, 33544 Cindy, and John Farlow, 9904 Hubbard, both from Livonia. Vicky is one of the 30 violinists and John is a member of the cello section. The orchestra opens its midwest tour on March 2 in Muskegon.

Livonians to Tour With Interlochen Orchestra

The start of a new semester means something more than the resumption of classwork to members of the Interlochen Arts Academy orchestra. It means the beginning of rehearsal of the music they will play on the first of the year's two out-of-state tours.

This annual midwest tour will open in Muskegon, March 2, when the orchestra plays in the Muskegon High School's central campus auditorium. The next two concerts are scheduled in Orchestra Hall, Chicago, on Friday evening, March 3, and Saturday afternoon, March 4.

Then the orchestra moves to Indianapolis to play in Clowes Memorial Hall at Butler University Sunday evening, March 5. The fifth concert will be at North Side High School, Fort Wayne, on Monday evening, March 6, and the tour will conclude with a concert in Jackson High School on Tuesday, March 7.

The tour orchestra will number from 100 to 105 players between the ages of 13 and 18. Sixty-one of last year's orchestra, which won acclaim from critics in both the midwest and east, were graduated, so this ensemble is younger. Its violinists for example, range from 13 to 17, with the concertmaster, I-Fu Wang, of Taiwan, just 15.

Victoria (Vicky) Halton, 33544 Cindy, and John Farlow, 9904 Hubbard, are Livonia students playing in the Interlochen Arts Academy orchestra. Vicky is fourth chair of 30 violinists and John a member of the cello section.

The program that Dr. Thor Johnson, conductor of the orchestra and director of the academy, has chosen for three evening concerts runs the range from Handel's concerto for harp and orchestra written in the classic period, to the Hindemith Symphonic Metamorphoses on a Theme by Weber, composed in 1945. It follows the Johnson pattern of unceasingly testing the orchestra's capabilities, expanding its repertory and offering its listeners a well-rounded program.

For the first time, the orchestra tour program is to be augmented by performances by students from another department. Rosemarie Gore, Soprano, of Indianapolis, and Richard Evans, baritone, of Baltimore, are to sing two duets: Mozart's La ci darem la mano from "Don Giovanni" and Scene — O Messanger de Dieu from "Thais" by Massenet.

The concert opens with Vivaldi's Concerto Grosso in D minor for orchestra, as transcribed by Vittorio Giannini, then continues with Premier Rapsodie for Clarinet and Orchestra, by Debussy, in which David Shifrin of Flushing N. Y., principal clarinetist, will be soloist; "Job, a Masque for Dancing," by Ralph Vaughan Williams, with Shifrin, on alto saxophone, and I-Fu Wang, playing solos; the Handel Concerto in B-Flat Major for Harp and Orchestra, with Jacquelyn Bartlett of Birmingham, as soloist; the vocal duets, and the Hindemith Symphonic Metamorphoses.

The program will be varied on the single afternoon concert, the matinee event in Chicago March 4. The Hindemith number will be played and other highlights will include the tone poem "Pohjola's Daughter," Op. 49 (from the Finnish saga "Kalevala") by Jean Sibelius; the Poulenc Concerto for Piano and Orchestra, with Martha Davies of Kilgore, Tex, as soloist, and three numbers from George Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess," sung by Miss Gore and Evans, with orchestra accompaniment.

Church Men Will Serve Pancakes

The men of Nardin Park Methodist Church in Farmington will serve a family pancake supper from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Friday, Feb. 24 at the church, 29887 W. Eleven Mile.

Tickets may be obtained at the church office or from any of the Methodist men. There will be movies for the children and nursery care available.

Mrs. Mayer Speaks Before Review Club

Mrs. Charles Mayer, of Farmington, was guest speaker at the Detroit Review Club on Feb. 13, at the Women's City Club.

Mrs. Mayer, who is literature committee chairman for the DRC, reviewed James Mitchener's novel, "The Source." Mrs. Mayer is a graduate of Ohio State University, and in addition has had courses in Bible history and studies in Old and New Testament and Revelations and the Gospels. She is a member of the Delta Gamma Sorority and the Farmington Garden Club.

The literature committee meets once a month to read and review current literature.

'Nature of Religion' Topic

Rabbi Sherwin T. Wine of the Birmingham Temple, will speak to his congregation on "New Thoughts on the Nature of Religion" this Friday, Feb. 17, at 8:30 p.m. at the Robert Frost Junior High School at Nine Mile Road and Scotia in Oak Park.

Farmington AFS Makes Plans for Evening Gala

"Walk together, talk together, O ye peoples of the earth. Then and only then shall ye have peace."

This is the slogan of the American Field Service organization which sponsors an exchange student program to promote understanding among peoples of different countries.

In Farmington, the program is financed in part through an Evening Gala dinner dance, to be held this year April 8 at the Armenian Cultural Center on Northwestern Highway in Southfield.

Preliminary plans were discussed recently at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Marie Read. The music will be provided by the Erwin Kanter Orchestra.

The fifth annual "Evening Gala" is jointly sponsored by the Farmington and North Farmington AFS chapters.

Tickets are available from co-chairmen Mrs. Lyle Young at 626-7263 or Mrs. Steele Cox at 474-1952.

One AFS member said of the program: "This year the Farmington area is greatly enriched by the presence of three AFS students: Phan Ta Hue and Bjorn Tjernstrom who both attend Farmington High and Ross Smith who is at North Farmington. Vietnam is Phan's home, Sweden claims Bjorn and Ross claims to Australia. However, after a year in our midst we feel that a part of each of these charming and intelligent young people will always belong to us."

PTA Marks 40th Year Honors Past Presidents

Eight past presidents of the Livonia Rosedale School Parent Teacher Association were honored when the organization celebrated its 40th birthday at a Founders Day Banquet Feb. 1.

The banquet was held at the school, located on Cranston near West Chicago, which has served elementary school children in the area nearly half a century.

The Memory of One Gone is PRECIOUS

Hammond & Hass FUNERAL HOME, Inc. 24501 S MILE ROAD Just W. of Telegraph, KE 5-3030

Special guests at the speakers table included Mr. and Mrs. Benton Yates, Mrs. Gerladine Joyner, trustee of the Livonia Board of Education, and Dr. Beatrice Bowen, coordinator of Language, Arts and Social Studies instruction. Following the invocation by Robert Scherer, Mrs. Robert Sellers, toastmistress for the occasion, introduced several past presidents of Rosedale PTA—Mrs. Paul Harsha—1936-37, Mrs. Henry Bock—1940-43, Mrs. George Cook—1943-45, Mrs. Lloyd Nelson—1946-48, Mrs. Louis Steele—1948-50, Mrs. Frank Kastner—1959-60, Mrs. Charles Reeber—1964-65, and Mrs. Glen McAdam—1965-66.

Regretting his absence due to an out-of-town business trip, Edward Comeau, current president of the organization, sent a telegram of greetings and best wishes to the PTA, which was read by Mrs. Sellers.

Chairman for the banquet was Mrs. Don Lytle, assisted by Mrs. Robert Currie, Mrs. Frank Mueller, Mrs. Dennis Hammond, Mrs. Lawrence Palmer, Mrs. Arthur Cole, Mrs. Robert Stratton and Mrs. Sellers.

Three Local Craftsmen Display Work

The craft work of three area residents will be on display through Feb. 26, in the Michigan Craftsmen's Council Show at the Bloomfield Art Association, 1515 S. Cranbrook Road, Birmingham.

William Case, of Plymouth, president of the MCC, had a ceramic piece accepted. Also in the ceramics exhibit is a piece by Pat Cyre, of Livonia.

Charles Fensch, of Farmington, has silver rings on display.

The show was juried by William Woolfender, director of the Archives of American Art. It is open to the public Tuesday through Sunday afternoons and there is no admission charge.

When drying rugs, hang them on the line with clamp-type trouser hangers. They will lay flat when dried.

Plymouth Couple Honored As Foster Parents of the Year for Area

The "Foster Parents of the Year" selected by the Foster Parents Club are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Conser of 16240 Northville Road, Plymouth.

The Consers are one of the first foster families to be licensed through Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County. In addition to being foster parents to many children whose natural parents are either temporarily or permanently unable to care for them, the Consers have raised nine children of their own. Mr. and Mrs. Conser also enjoy their many grandchildren who are in the area.

In the public area too, the Consers have contributed. Each year Conser is a collector for the Archdiocesan Development Fund. Mrs. Conser bakes cakes and helps with suppers at Our Lady of Victory Church in Northville, and has been chairman of the Torch Drive in Northville. She has also been a Red Cross Grey Lady.

The Consers are always busy helping individuals. For example, two friends of theirs immigrated from Puerto Rico last fall and had to leave their two oldest children in

Forest Park Church Has Birthday

The Forest Park Baptist Church formerly known as the Clarenceville Baptist Church, will observe its tenth anniversary Feb. 19.

The Rev. Billy Whitt, pastor of the church located at 27500 Shiawassee, Farmington, extended an invitation to all members, former members and friends to participate in the special services at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Services were held in the basement of a home when the church was organized ten years ago. Later it moved to the Odd Fellows hall on Inkster Road for a short time while a ranch house was being built at the corner of Inkster and Shiawassee.

That house was a meeting place for several years, and now has been converted into a parsonage. The church moved into its present sanctuary and educational building, close to the parsonage, last June.

During the ten years the church has grown considerably from its small beginning and now has a Sunday School enrollment of 300 children.

It has been served by four pastors, the Rev. Denver Moore, the Rev. Virgil Tarvin, the Rev. Chester Halstead and the Rev. White.

Two former pastors will bring the message Sunday. The Rev. Halstead, now a teacher at Detroit Bible College, will preach at the morning service, and the Rev. Tarvin, now pastor of the Hillcrest Baptist Church in Pontiac, will speak in the evening.

The church's name was changed when the new building was occupied because it stands next to Forest Park subdivision.

Aides Honored By Patients At Northville

Two psychiatric aides of the year at Northville State Hospital were honored at the annual tea sponsored by the hospital's patient council.

Mrs. Lucy V. Steeper, L.P.A.N., of 19320 Marilyn, Northville, and James Ford, L.P.N.A., 3857 Tipton, Inkster, received certificates and $25 savings bonds for outstanding service to the patients.

Zolton Ferency, chairman of The Democratic State Central Committee, spoke for the occasion and complimented not only the psychiatric aides but those whom the patients and staff members had named as Outstanding Patients and Employees throughout this past year.

Mrs. Steeper, mother of three children, joined the hospital's staff in August of 1955. She has served A-1, a ward for geriatric medical patients, for 11 years. Presently, she is the charge attendant, afternoons, for the ward.

James Ford, Charge Attendant, midnights, C-1, a ward for adult male patients, is a mortician by profession. He is a part-time student in his junior year in special education at Eastern Michigan University. Employed since October 1953, he and his wife, a school teacher in Inkster, are the parents of three children.

Puerto Rico when they came to the United States. Mr. and Mrs. Conser helped their friends to work through the Immigration Department's details and regulations and the children were reunited with their parents this Christmas.

The Foster Parents Club selected the Consers unanimously according to these three criteria:

Length of service with Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County.

Flexibility and cooperation in working with the Agency, and

Amount of service rendered to the community and to the Agency.

Mr. and Mrs. Conser have been licensed with the Agency since December 2, 1963. During their three years, they have cared for nine newborns for various lengths of time, two unmarried mothers, one toddler, one physically handicapped child who has shown marked improvement, and two handicapped children described as "dull" and "unadoptable" by the hospital.

These latter children were stimulated and given such care and love that they were eventually able to be placed for adoption.

The Conser home is located in a large, woody setting on the outskirts of Plymouth. The home is a charming, older residence ideally suited for a large family.

The Consers always respond immediately to help a child in need of a home, love and security.

One social worker at the agency remembers the Friday afternoon before the Labor Day weekend when she called the Consers looking for an immediate home for a teen-ager. Mrs. Conser said, "bring him right over—our home is always open."

Recently they were called at midnight about an emergency infant placement. The result—another child accepted with no question at 2 a.m. "It has been common practice," an agency spokesman said, "in cases where workers are looking for a placement for a 'problem' to say without reservation, 'the Consers would be the ideal home.' And, unless the Conser home is already filled, they have never disappointed us."

THE REV. CHARLES W. MACRANDER

Macrander On Redford Baptist Staff

The Rev. Charles W. Macrander is the new Minister of Visitation at the Redford Baptist Church, Grand River and Seven Mile Road.

Dr. Gordon H. Schroeder is the pastor of the church.

The Rev. and Mrs. Macrander were honored at a Feb. 12 reception after he had preached at the day's church services. The Evangelism and membership departments were in charge of the reception.

Mr. Macrander is a native of Kentucky although most of his life was spent in Indiana. While serving at the Lincoln Air Force Base in Nebraska, he united with the First Baptist Church where Dr. Schroeder was pastor. While a member of this church, Reverend Macrander made his decision to enter the Christian ministry.

He later attended and graduated from Ottawa University at Ottawa, Kan., and Eastern Baptist Seminary, Philadelphia. After serving two years as pastor of the First Baptist Church of Munster, Ind., he joined the staff of Redford Baptist Church.

The Macranders have two children, Jeffrey and David. They will reside at 19800 Edinborough.

Sorority to Get Decorating Tips

"Tips on Interior Decorating" will be offered at the Feb. 20, meeting of the Northwest Suburban Alumnae Association of Kappa Delta sorority.

Ray Interiors, Inc., of Farmington, will present the program at the home of Mrs. John Dawe, 30279 Wicklow Court, Farmington.

Also scheduled for the evening is the making of Easter favors for children at Northville State Hospital.

Mrs. Fred O'Neill, of Detroit will be co-hostess. Kappa Delta alumnae interested in attending may call Mrs. Dawe at 476-4635.

Five Lutheran Pastors To Dramatize Lent Talks

A dramatic approach to the meaning of the Lenten season will be launched at 8 p.m. tonight in St. John American Lutheran Church in Farmington and four other ALC churches in the Wayne conference.

Each of the five pastors has picked a different character in the crucifixion story to represent, and each will dress in the costume of that character and visit each of the five

Will Hear Talk on Leukemia Treatment

The Detroit Society of Medical Technologists will meet at Grace Hospital, Northwest, 18700 Meyers at Seven Mile, Tuesday, Feb. 21 at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Arnold Axelrod, a specialist on disorders of the blood and consulting hematologist at many Detroit hospitals, will speak on "The Treatment of Leukemia."

Pancake Supper Planned

The women of the evening guild at Salem United Church of Christ, Farmington, will serve their annual pancake supper Friday, Feb. 17, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The public is invited and tickets may be purchased at the door.

700-Acre Industrial Park Goal for Farmington

A park is usually associated with a recreation area or a bit of the unspoiled country. Industry evokes the outmoded vision of dirt and grime and mean houses huddling within the shadow of a huge building.

The two visions don't go together.

However, Farmington Township is currently developing a 700 acre industrial park and the officials are eloquent about the benefit of industry to the community.

The benefit of industry to the community is in the form of taxes. The City of Farmington doesn't have much land left for industry. The commercial and ERO zoning in the newly annexed portion will get special attention from the City fathers when the land is developed.

Largest industry in the City is Mills Products on Eight Mile Rd. The plant employs more than 200. It is one of the newer plants to the industrial neighbors in the City which number about 90.

Farmington Township currently has about 25 industrial plants in operation. When the Industrial Park is developed and in operation, however, the number of plants in the Township will far exceed the City's total.

Largest industry in the Township is the Star Cutter plant. If anything overturns the old time image of grime and dirt with an industrial plant it is this facility.

Located on Grand River Ave., just east of Drake Rd. the plant is set well back from the road and a pond graces the front lawn and helps to set off the landscaping.

Plants in the formal Industrial Park, west of the Star Cutter Plant, include: Diamond Automation; Futurmill, Inc.; Moore Industries; Posacut, Inc.; Automatic Valve; Boench, Inc.; and Omni Spectra.

Other plants are: Multi-Elmac; H.M.L. Industries; Solar Industrial; Whitlock, Inc.; Eaton, Yale & Towne; Gancia-Cote; Howell-Penncraft; and Johnson Die & Engineering.

A B C Photographic and Teletrans are among the newest additions to the park. Carter, Pierson, McCormack; Solar Industries; Jentzen, Inc.; Carter Plumbing; and Ace Controls Plant are all included in the development.

Two firms, Thompson Brown and Hubbard & Associates, are developing the industrial park.

William Bowman, executive vice president of Thompson Brown, reports that the cutback in federal highway funds is not affecting the development of this industrial land.

"Of course," Bowman pointed out, "the park is bounded by I-96; old Grand River and minutes from I-696. The transportation facilities are excellent now. "Industries interested in locating in the park," Bowman added, "are asking about what service facilities are available. They want to know about eating spots, motels that are convenient to the plants and even if helicopter facilities are available."

COLOR PORTABLE TELEVISION set is presented to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Boze, 26301 Five Mile, Redford Township by Hart Harding, manager of the Goodyear store in Livonia at Middlebelt and Seven Mile Roads, as winner of the 10-day grand opening celebration. Boze, an industrial arts teacher at Highland Park High School, celebrates his birthday on Feb. 20 and considered the set as a birthday present. He will celebrate No. 65 and plans to retire from teaching at the end of the present school term.

Horticultural Group to Hold 25th Anniversary

Special events of interest to all flower and garden enthusiasts are being planned for the 25th anniversary celebration of the Michigan Horticultural Society and its affiliates throughout the state at Cobo Hall from Feb. 18 through Feb. 25.

Details of the program were announced by Mrs. Lloyd L. Hughes, executive secretary, whose headquarters are in the White House on Belle Isle.

The society is co-operating with sponsors of the 1967 Home, Furniture and Flower Show — the Builders Association of Metropolitan Detroit — and is working closely with other major display interests, including the Detroit Department of Parks and Recreation, the Allied Florists and the Florists Transworld Delivery.

The society is presenting "The Garden Path" this year, in which there will be elaborate displays of model gardens, terrariums, bottle gardens, bonsai and hanging baskets.

A whole section of the display will be devoted to flower arranging, with competition for prizes in the fields of table settings, pedestals, niches and invitationals.

A feature of the 10-day silver anniversary celebration will be the Green Cities Conference, scheduled for Feb. 22 at Cobo Hall. This event is open to the public.

The Mayor's Committee—Keep Detroit Beautiful, headed by Mrs. C.J. Inerney, will be in charge of the all-day program which will stress the role of horticulture in community living and cover neighborhood improvement, community environment, job training, horticulture therapy, school gardens and related subjects. Bruce Lamb Named Agent For All-State

Bruce D. Lamb has been appointed an agent for the Allstate Insurance Companies in the Livonia area. His office is located in the Sears Roebuck & Co. store in the Livonia Mall.

Lamb recently completed an intensive professional training course at the Companies' midwest zone training center in Skokie, Ill. He will sell auto, homeowners, fire, health, life, business and other insurance lines.

He also has been appointed local representative of the Allstate Motor Club and the Allstate Safety Crusade. The Crusade, a countrywide program to reduce traffic and home accidents, offers individuals and community

Scored Tiles Are Attractive

Scored ceramic wall tiles bearing attractive designs, are decorating tools in the hands of the imaginative homemaker. Scored tiles are usually divided into two or four sections by grooves, which when filled with grout give the large tiles the appearance of smaller units.

The grooves also permit the tile contractor to actually cut the large tiles into the designated sections.

The designing decorator can use these small sections to achieve a customized wall pattern.

groups safety leaflets and films at no charge through Lamb.

Lamb, his wife Frances and their two children live at 8071 Bristol Drive in Westland.

Take Tender Care of All Shade Trees

Why should you take good care of your shade trees? A large shade or ornamental tree may be impossible to replace in your lifetime. And replanting trees may be quite expensive. It will be much cheaper to spend a little money to hire professional care of your favorite tree.

Fool Your Neighbors

Your neighbor will never know you're fencing him out if you use an attractive fence style like board-on-board or vertical louvers, then plan a planting bed on his side to give him a pretty view.

Esch Introduces Job Training Bill

Second District Congressman Marvin L. Esch has introduced legislation to encourage job training by private industry. The bill, entitled "The Human Investment Act of 1967," would provide a 10 per cent tax credit to employers for expenses incurred in training their employees in certain job skills.

Esch described the measure as "a step toward ending widespread unemployment through training incentives for private enterprise which is the nation's greatest job creator and trainer."

"This is an approach which recognizes the need for participation of the private sector in solving ills," he added.

The Human Investment Act specifically gives employers incentive to broaden and expand various programs including apprenticeship training, on-the-job training, cooperative work-study projects, tuition refunds and organizing group and classroom instruction expenses.

"Giving employers a tax credit for training and re-training," Esch said, "is an efficient and sensible approach. Unlike government run training programs, private training involves less red tape and, more importantly, is aimed at available jobs."

He predicted passage of the bill "would go a long way in initiating and expanding programs like that about to get underway in Manchester."

Earlier this week the Double A Products Co. of Manchester in Washtenaw County received a $30,000 Department of Labor grant for training under the provisions of the Manpower Development and Training Act."

The bill, which was also introduced by 119 other Republican House members today, is a slightly modified version of legislation proposed in 1965 when it received the support of 86 House members and 23 Republican Senators.

It also has the support of the National Republican Coordinating Committee and was mentioned as a major step in redirecting the poverty war in the 1967 Republican State of the Union Message.

Great Decisions Off To A Busy, Information Start

Informal discussion meetings at Carl Sandburg Library, Tuesdays at 8:30 p.m. are open to the public.

The topic of Communist China was moderated by Mrs. Marge Arnett; this week's discussion on India and Pakistan will be moderated by Calvin Arnett; next week's topic on Vietnam will be moderated by Mrs. Helen Fredriksen.

After each informative and sharing-of-ideas program, summary ballots are sent to Congress and the State Department, which takes into consideration the results of this public opinion balloting in decision-making. This series will continue for eight weeks.

Mechanization of Files Saves State $750,000

LANSING—Mechanization of the Department of State's driver license central file will save the state $201,290 in fiscal 1966-67, and $549,910 in fiscal 1967-68, Secretary of State James M. Hare disclosed.

It is the official state repository for all driving records including abstracts of convictions and records of suspensions and revocations.

Hare bases estimates on the current workload in the central file as compared with production figures from past years.

He noted projected savings figures only cover personnel, equipment, and space. He noted that the savings do not include such items as recruitment costs, employer turnover, etc.

Also excluded, he said, would be the physical impossibility of expanding the central files in the building where they are housed or working 140 persons in the files at the same time.

RALPH R. CHIODO, former Livonia resident, today was named to a new development division by Knutson Companies, Inc., Minneapolis construction, finance and property development firm. The new division conducts market research and economic analyses on community, housing and business property developments. Chiodo was with the real estate department of Ford Motor Co., Dearborn from 1963 to 1966. He holds a law degree from the University of Minnesota and a business administration degree from the University of Wisconsin.

"During the current fiscal year, commercial look-ups alone will total approximately two million. Our current budget allotment allows us only 81 positions. To handle two-million lookups would require 104 employees. However, because of improved procedures and because we have begun conversion of the files from a manual to a mechanized system, we will be able to stay within our current budget, thus saving 23 positions," Hare said.

"In the current budget a total staff, under a completely manual system, of 157 employees would have been required to maintain the driver files on a current basis (record convictions, suspensions and revocations, etc.). Because of improved procedures and mechanization we will require a total staff of 142 employees, or a savings of 15 employees," he added.

The Secretary of State also noted that the Department of State anticipates 2.7-million commercial look-ups in fiscal 1967-68.

He said it would normally require 140 employees to do the job manually. "However, because we anticipate being one half converted, we can cut our staff to 70 persons with a net savings of 79 employees due to the conversion program," he said.

"In our 1967-68 budget request we will request five fewer employees to maintain the files on a current basis. This will be a savings of 30 employees less than would have been required under a completely manual system," Hare added.

Takes Advanced Class

Army Private Joseph M. Gregory, 19, son of Leo J. Gregory, 9915 Farmington Road, Livonia, has completed nine weeks of advanced infantry training at Ft. Polk, La. His last week of training was spent in guerrilla warfare exercises.

Orders Four Men To Stand Trial

Ordered to stand trial for alleged felonies (committed in Livonia) are four men, ranging in age from 19 to 48.

Municipal Judge James McCann recently bound them over to Circuit Court.

Police said that Kenneth M. Lies, 19, of 19045 Norwich St., Livonia, took two hand guns from a home to which he was delivering oil on Nov. 24.

He stood mute when arraigned on a charge of breaking and entering an occupied building.

After Lies waived examination on the charges, McCann ordered bond continued at $1,000.

James C. Antonucci, 20, of 8434, Braile St., Detroit has waived examination on charges of uttering and publishing a stolen check on Jan. 24. His bond is set at $7,500.

Two Detroit men, followed aboard a bus Jan. 24 by store detectives from Montgomery Wards, have been charged with larceny in a building. The officers said the men took an adding machine which they denied.

Ferdinand C. Smith, 48, of 19430 Moenart St., and Eugene J. Riley, 29, of 2655 W. Euclid, pleaded not guilty, and their bond has been continued at $1,000.

Sex Education Course Set For 6th Grade

Roosevelt Elementary school is preparing to present an 11-week course to their sixth grade students, dealing with sex education.

For the third consecutive year a carefully prepared and concentrated course on human growth and development will instruct the students in the scientific and biological facts of sex.

Parental consent slips will be required. Carefully reviewed and approved by the Livonia School Board, the course will be offered in other schools in the Livonia system for the first time this year.

Recognizing the fact that questions concerning social, moral and religious attitudes and teachings must be answered by each parent, the course will attempt to strengthen areas of communication between children and parents. The PTA will present a panel discussion dealing with the subject as a guide to parents in answering questions, we hope will arise. All parents are invited to attend a general meeting on Feb. 9 at 8:30 p.m. in the Roosevelt Multi-purpose room.

LLEWELLYN S. HUGHES, a masonic great, was the subject of a testimonial dinner given by Colonial Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, Saturday, Feb. 11 at Plymouth Masonic Temple. Hughes lives on Wadsworth and has been a resident of Livonia since 1939. He has been nominated and elected to receive the 33rd degree in September of this year at a special ceremony in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Go on, give us a buzz!

How many times have you thought about using an Observer Want Ad? Like the time you were thinking about how nice it would be if you could sell a few pieces of un-needed furniture to a young couple just starting housekeeping, or the time you thought about finding some nice young fellow to buy those fine golf clubs your husband no longer uses.

Well, there will never be a better time to stop thinking about it, and do something! You have the OBSERVER Want Ad number (look at the bottom of this ad), so call us and a pleasant, well-trained representative will help you with every little detail.

LATEX ENAMEL

It's NEW and Wards has it! Latex paint with the wear of enamel!

Here it is... a paint for kitchens, bathrooms and kids' rooms that goes on with latex ease. The soft, lustrous finish is tough, takes repeated washings; yet rarely needs it because ordinary stains wipe right off. It is easy to apply, flows on smoothly with brush or roller, without lap marks or brush marks.
