

Draugelis Quits Muny Judgeship

Judge Edward Draugelis, the City of Plymouth's Municipal Judge for the past year and a half, Monday turned in his resignation to the City Commission effective July 1.

Judge Draugelis, who was elected as the successor to retiring Judge Harry Deyo after a successful long legal battle to have his name on the ballot after his eligibility had been challenged, wrote the Commission that the Municipal Judgeship would be abolished by state law on Dec. 31, 1968 and that he had no intention of becoming a candidate for the fulltime District Court judgeship that will be set up at that time.

Draugelis, rated as one of the most promising young attorneys in the area, indicated that increasing conflicts between his personal practice and his role as Municipal Judge, along with insufficient time to do justice to both, created a situation where he felt it would be in the best interest of all to submit his resignation.

He cited his own health and additional time needed for his family as prime considerations.

Furthermore, Judge Draugelis, in his communication to the Commission, stated that the present state laws provide that the incumbency designation will be given to those municipal judges who hold office on, or prior to, July 5, 1967.

Although he didn't say so in so many words, it is the feeling of Judge Draugelis that the selection of a District Court Judge lies between the City of Northville and the Plymouth Community and that an incumbent from Plymouth could possibly be elected.

He wants to give his successor the incumbent title and a year and a half to campaign.

His complete communication to the Commission follows:

"As you know, there is legislation now pending before both Houses of the State Legislature which will eliminate the Municipal Courts in the State of Michigan, effective December 31, 1968. At this time, it seems likely that the present Bill, or some modification thereof, will be adopted by the Legislature in the fall of this year.

"The Plymouth Municipal Court will then be replaced by a District Court, presided

13 Candidates File Their Petitions For Three School Board Posts

Perhaps it was due to the gentle chiding of the Observer Newspapers and then again perhaps it is because electors of the Plymouth Community School District feel there should be more interest in elections—regardless, a record total of 13 nominating petitions have been filed and certified for the June 12 election.

There are three candidates for the three-year term, filling the unexpired term of Robert Tripp who resigned several months ago and was replaced by Mrs. Joanne Hulce, 9275 McClumpha Road, and 10 seeking the two four-year terms.

Board Vice President Carl Schultheiss, 11705 Amherst Court, is seeking a second term but John D. McLaren, as previously reported, did not file.

It is the most ever to file for school board and promises to make the race the most interesting in years. The nominees come from every section of the school district with the exception of Canton Township.

Board Secretary Mrs. Esther Hulsing reported the first petitions were filed by Incumbents Schultheiss and Mrs. Hulce followed by that of Calvin Strom, 884 Palmer, immediate past president of the Plymouth Jaycees.

Strom told the Observer that he is not running as a candidate of the Jaycees but hopes to have the backing of the membership. The Jaycees have not made a decision as to their program for the election.

Mrs. Hulce faces competition from Mrs. Mary Breen, 41121 Greenbrook Lane, an active member of the Lake Pointe Home Owners Association, and Thomas Hunt, 669 Herald. Incidentally, Hunt was the last one to file before last Saturday's 4 p.m. deadline.

The candidates for the two four-year terms are: Incumbent Carl Schultheiss, 11705 Amherst Court, Calvin Strom, 884 Palmer, John Batsakis, 1058 Maple.

- Smith Horton, 42057 Lindsay.
 - John Murawski, 41020 Greenbriar Lane.
 - James Brown, 47111 W. Ann Arbor Trail.
 - John DeMott, 1482 Sheridan.
 - Patrick Foley, 1022 Penman.

Plymouth Opens Michigan Week Fete Saturday

Michigan Week officially starts on Sunday, May 21, elsewhere in the state but it begins Saturday in the City of Plymouth with the annual Junior Baseball League parade through the downtown business section and the formal opening of the season with two games at the Little League Park starting at 1 p.m.

Michigan Week General Chairman John Kamego announced the early start in a meeting with all chairman of the individual days Monday at the Mayflower Hotel Round Table Club.

"Normally, we would have followed the traditional Michigan Week program," said Kamego. "But the dates were set back one week this year and that meant the Junior Baseball parade and opening would come before the celebration. We decided to include festivities in our program and start Michigan Week one day early."

Details of the parade and the opening games may be found in an additional story on this page.

With the baseball activities out of the way, the celebration begins in earnest Sunday which has been designated as Spiritual Day. Chairman Rev. Peter Schweitzer has written letters to all churches in the area asking the pastors to participate by giving sermons on Michigan Week.

The first of the big events of the week is slated for Monday in the traditional Mayor Exchange program in which Plymouth will exchange with the City of Beverly Hills. Mayor and Mrs. James Jabara, accompanied by Darryl Dusbiber, Mayor of Plymouth High, will go to Beverly Hills early Monday morning to spend the day.

In the meantime, Mayor Pro Tem James McKeon, assisted by Government Day Chairman City Treasurer Kenneth Way and City Manager Richard Blodgett, will entertain Beverly Hills Mayor Pro Tem Dr. Douglas Wood and his wife Barbara.

They will be accompanied by Councilman and Mrs. George Dettlinger and Greg Harbage, president of the Student Council at Groves High School.

A full day has been set up for the guests, beginning with a coffee klatch at 10 a.m. in the City Commission chambers where the visitors will meet members of the City Hall staff.

A luncheon has been arranged at noon in the Mayflower Hotel, followed by a tour of Western Electric at 1:45 p.m. and a visit to other points of interest during the remainder of the afternoon. The program will conclude with a dinner at 6 p.m. in the Mayflower Hotel with members of the City Commission, Department heads and other city officials and wives.

Plymouth to Have Auto Show On Its Centennial

For the first time in its history Plymouth will have a full-fledged auto show.

It will be the keystone of Home Products Week and in turn will be one of the features of the Centennial celebration during the week of July 3.

"Every dealer in the area has promised to place a full quota of the latest cars on exhibit," Harold Fischer, coordinator of the show, confided.

"With the Lord Mayor of Plymouth, England on hand we want to show him the real products of the automobile industry that is the base of our economy," he went on, "and up to now we have had the fullest co-operation."

The Home Products Show—with the auto exhibit—will be held on the Plymouth High School athletic field and promises to outdo any similar event in the past.

Eber Readman, Burroughs official, who is Chairman of the Home Products show, has a few real surprising treats in store. Among them will be six antique steam engines which will serve as a reminder of the mode of travel during Plymouth's early days.

The U.S. Army also has promised to display several tanks, many weapons and a flotilla of trucks and jeeps.

"The response from everyone has been wonderful," Fischer explained. "Thus far we have 16 industries that will display their wares and 32 business establishments."

"Such a turnout never has been heard of around here," he continued, "and it is a good omen for the Centennial."

The Home Products show is just a part of the big week being planned.

First, the Lord Mayor of Plymouth will be given a big welcome on Monday, July 3. He is to be met at Metropoli-

Commission Acts to Remove "Eyesore"

The first official step in what may lead to the elimination of the Penniman Avenue "eyesore", was taken Monday evening when the City Commission agreed to take a 90-day option on the Webster Davis property for $250.

While the Parking Committee recommended that the property be purchased at a cost of $39,000 and then raze it for a parking lot, the Commission delayed further action until assured the businessmen and property owners on both sides of the street would share 50 per cent of the cost.

They had given their assurance, but it is planned to make it certain by establishing the area as a special assessment.

There also is the matter of making arrangements with Edwin Schrader for an exchange of land in the rear of his funeral home.

All of these problems are expected to be worked out within the 90 day period.

Houk to See Installation In England

Former Mayor James Houk was granted an official leave of absence from the City Commission Monday evening.

He is leaving next Monday for a trip to England and will attend the ceremonies in which Frank Chapman will be installed as Lord Mayor of Plymouth, England, on May 22.

He plans to return in time to help play host to the Lord Mayor at the Centennial Celebration over the July Fourth holiday.

Prior to being voted the official leave, the former mayor was presented with a certificate of appreciation for his service in the Mayor's chair during the past two years.

The presentation was made by Mayor James Jabara, who also announced that a similar certificate was being presented to former Commissioner George Lawton, who was defeated in his bid for reelection.

Colorful Parade to Open Junior Baseball Activities

The Plymouth Community Junior Baseball league will open its 1967 activities Saturday with the traditional parade through the downtown business section followed by the official opening game ceremonies at 1 p.m. on the Little League diamond on Plymouth Road.

The parade will form at the Sutherland playground, Sutherland at Forest Ave., at 11 a.m. with all 12 teams in the National and American Leagues in the line of march.

The players, in uniform, accompanied by the managers and coaches, will march up Main Street to the City Hall.

Plans call for Plymouth Mayor James Jabara and Plymouth Township Supervisor John McEwen, who hasn't had time to attend many community-wide gatherings lately, leading the parade.

Mayor Jabara will throw the opening pitch to Supervisor McEwen or another member of the Board of Trustees he decides to send in case he has another meeting to attend.

Following the opening pitch at 1 p.m., the American League will swing into action followed by National League contests at 3 o'clock.

More than 500 boys, from age 8 through 12, will participate in the Junior Baseball program this year in Plymouth, according to President Ken Vognas.

A total of 20 games are planned from May 30 thru July in the major leagues.

The minor leagues will start on July 19 under the supervision of Max Summer-ville. The minors plan to introduce a "T" ball instructional program for eight year-olds in addition to the regular afternoon programs.

Township Gets Grant For '701' Program

After waiting for more than a year for federal aid Plymouth Township now has received the go-ahead for its growth and development program.

The go-ahead came in the form of a grant of $3,330 announced by Senator Philip

A. Hart on Monday afternoon.

"This certainly is good news," Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, Township Treasurer commented. "We now can proceed with the re-doing and printing of our zoning ordinance."

"This is part of the so-called 701 program. We have been held up for quite a time. There are quite a few amendments approved for the ordinance and it really does need re-doing."

"Our Planning Consultant, W. C. Johnson, now can move along with the work that needs doing."

According to Mrs. Holmes the grant of $3,330 is two-thirds of the cost of $5,000 which was requested.

Work on the zoning ordinance will proceed immediately.

Plymouth Township was one of six communities that shared in Monday's total grant of $53,248.

Commission Takes Steps to Fill Vacancy

While accepting the resignation of Municipal Judge Ed Draugelis, the City Commission took preliminary steps Monday evening to fill the vacancy.

At the suggestion of Commissioner Vallier the City Manager was authorized to advertise in the papers and extend an invitation to all lawyers in the city who desired to be considered to make their wishes known by June 1.

Whoever is selected will serve the remainder of Judge Draugelis' term which expires on December 31, 1968.

Former "500" King Has 10 Tips For Vacationers

"It's a wonderful country we live in, and it is just a darn shame that so many of its citizens are going to needlessly cut their stay short during the summer vacation period."

Thus spoke Rodger Ward, former Indianapolis "500" champion and internationally famous automobile race driver.

Ward, who retired from racing following the 1966 "500" after a colorful career of more than 20 years, was referring to the hundreds of lives that will be lost due to auto accidents during the coming summer months.

"Everybody wants to live," the former race driver said, "but to see some of them on the highway a person really has to wonder just how much some of them want to live."

Ward was discussing the coming vacation season with executives of Montgomery Ward in connection with a national safe driving club he heads up for the company.

According to Ward, it is the little things that often cause the worst accidents. Trying to light a cigarette while driving, or eat an ice cream bar with one hand and drive with the other.

"There are a lot of things people can do to make their driving trip safer," Ward stated, "and probably the most important is what they do before they start out."

He went on to point out that no one should ever start out on an automobile trip without first having a complete safety check made on the car. Things like windshield wipers and washers, brakes, tires, air in the spare tire, flashlight in the glove compartment and side and rear view mirrors should be checked. Countless accidents can be avoided just by these little things.

"Of course, two of the big things for every driver to remember are to concentrate on his job of driving, to be courteous to other drivers," he said.

Ward believes that too many fine citizens turn into monsters when they get behind the wheel of a car. They have to be the first one off at a stop light.

and feel compelled to race through an intersection on the yellow. They refuse to let anyone pass them, unless they are being tailgated, then they allow the offender to pass and start to tail-gate him for spite. They seem to consider it a mortal sin to give up their right of way to someone else.

The veteran driver had these suggestions for folks who will be driving on their vacation this year.

1. Be sure your car is in good mechanical condition before your start, with special emphasis on brakes and tires.

2. Plan your trip in advance and allow plenty of time, because you know there will be heavy traffic. Allow time for rest and relaxation stops.

3. If the trip is a long one, try to have two or even three drivers to spell each other.

4. Give the car in front of you plenty of room. Don't be a tailgater.

5. Drive your car 50 yards ahead of you. That is to say, keep your eye on what is going on far enough ahead of your car that you have to meet any situation and have it under control.

6. Use your seat belts. They have long ago proved their worth.

7. Keep within the speed limits set by local authorities. They set those limits for a reason. On wet pavement slow down below the posted limit.

8. Get in the right hand lane and stay there except to pass. Keep in mind it is stupid and careless to see how many cars you can pass in one maneuver. Driving is not a game to be played like hide-and-seek.

9. If you feel yourself getting tired, pull off the road and rest. If possible, stop for a cup of coffee, or a glass of milk.

10. Be considerate of your fellow driver. He values his life just as you do yours.

"I sincerely believe that if everyone would follow these 10 simple rules and observe the normal rules of safety, our traffic accident death rate would drop considerably," the famous driver told the Ward executives.

He added, of course, that the 11th rule, which everyone should know without being told, was, naturally, "If you drink—don't drive."

3 Area GIs To Receive FP Awards

Two men from the Farmington area and one from Westland were among 53 enlisted members of the Michigan Army and Air National Guard who were to receive the Detroit Free Press Military Achievement Award during a special Armed Forces Week ceremony today, May 17.

The presentations were to be made to the Guardsmen at a noon luncheon at Detroit's Veterans Memorial Building.

Included were Airman First Class Michael T. Powers, 32777 Grand River, Farmington; Sgt. First Class Gordon E. Chamberlain, 23356 Larkshire Dr., Farmington Township, and Cpl. John M. Hrubicki, 29281 Brody, Westland.

Major General Clarence C. Schnipkt, Adjutant General of Michigan, said that each Guardsman was chosen for the award on a basis of attendance at scheduled training assemblies, qualification as a "sharpshooter" or better with assigned arms, and such other criteria as judgement, reliability and leadership ability.

9 Seek Clarenceville Posts

LIVONIA'S YOUTH Symphony Society received a boost from Wonderland Center shoppers through the sale of Mother's Day plants last weekend. Myrth Last, chairman of the plant sale, described the two-day sale as "very successful."

With three positions to be filled, the Clarenceville Board of Education election battle took on the tint of a tag-team match when nine candidates filed nominating petitions before the legal deadline May 13.

When the electors go to the polls June 12, they will have their choice between six hopefuls to fill out the unexpired term of Dr. Herbert Kagan, who resigned recently, plus three other candidates for the two regular board berths at stake.

The latter three-man scramble pits an outsider, Vern Foster, of 30341 Bretton, Livonia, against two entrenched incumbents for four-year terms, with two of the three to be elected.

Foster's opponents seeking re-election are Thomas Wilson, 19317 St. Francis, and Samuel J. Prisk, 20269 Gillman, both of Livonia.

When Dr. Kagan resigned from the board after approximately a year's service to accept a collegiate faculty role in the south, he still had three years to go on the term to which he was elected in 1966. An even half-dozen candidates have joined the lineup for that vacancy, rather than match ballots against incumbents Wilson and Prisk.

Candidates to fill the remainder of Dr. Kagan's term include:

Robert M. Erickson, 20345 Weyher, Livonia; Donald Hayden, 30041 Bretton, Livonia; Douglas McArthur, 21218 St. Francis, Farmington; Edward May, 20170 Maplewood, Livonia; E. Fred Turner, 19647 Angling, Livonia, and Harold Weiss, 19459 St. Francis, Livonia.

All petitions of the nine individual candidates have been certified as meeting requirements in the number of legal signatures, and their inclusion on the June 12 ballot has been assured.

Residents to Be Asked of Earnings

Questions about overtime work and earnings as well as about underemployment will be asked of Garden City households, the Bureau of Census Regional Office in Detroit announced.

The information obtained through this supplement will provide data on the underemployed, in addition to the usual monthly figures on total employment and unemployment. This information is collected through the bureau's regular monthly Current Population Survey for the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The identity of the household questioned will be kept completely confidential, and the facts obtained will be used only for statistical purposes. The same questions will be asked of all households in the survey throughout the United States.

Census Bureau interviewers who will visit local households are Evelyn Beeler, Anne Belkin, Celia Dortman, Sara Green, Annie Hamilton, Bernice Henk, Lula Horner, Florence Howell, Wanda Lauwers, Doris Mason, Mae Offner, Virginia Poe, Creola Rodwell, Margaret Schneider, Helen Smith, Shirley Walleman, Pearl Zafron.

EIGHT LOCAL YOUTHS took part in a ceremony today making Dr. William Haddon, Jr., director, National Traffic Safety Agency, an honorary Michigan safety patrol captain. The local safety patrolers helped present a plaque at the nation's capital to mark the occasion and recognize Dr. Haddon's contribution to traffic safety. Shown above awarding the plaque "on behalf of Michigan's 72,000 school safety patrolers" are, (left to right): Gary Peterson, 14, of 23255 Prospect, Farmington, Our Lady of Sorrows School; Scott Fowler, 10, of 611 Susan Court, Garden City, Memorial Elementary School; William Ray, 11, of 14151 Mayfield, St. Maurice School, and Michael Le Blanc, 11, of 35110 W. Chicago, Garfield Elementary School, both of Livonia; Jack Williams, 12, of 5701 Canton Center Road, Plymouth, Gallimore School; Robert Barker, 14, of 16990 Beach Road, Redford, Our Lady of Loretto School; James Sampson, 12, of 32120 Grandview, Kettering Elementary School, and Greg Anderson, 12, of 32112 Bertram, Nankin Mills Elementary School both of Westland.

There'll Be One New Face On Schoolcraft College Bd.

There'll be at least one new face on the Schoolcraft Board of Trustees after the June 12 election — that was assured when incumbent Dr. Gordon Forrer did not file a nominating petition for re-election as the representative of the City of Northville.

However, Leroy Bennett, 18809 Nola Drive, Livonia, will seek another six-year term as an at-large representative of the five-community district and incumbent Paul Mutnick, of 19822 Weyher, Livonia, filed for a six-year term in Clarenceville.

Mutnick has been secretary of the Board for the past several years and has been Clarenceville's only representative since the college district was formed.

The story is a bit different in Northville where Dr. Gordon Forrer decided to leave the Board after one term. Three candidates filed and have been certified as eligible for the June 12 election.

The trio includes: Paul Hunt, 3440 Debra Lane; Bertram Secord, 46675 West Seven Mile Road, and Edmund Yerkes, 504 W. Dunlap, all of Northville.

Bennett will have competition for the at-large post from George Martin, 16563 Ronnie Lane, Livonia.

Farmington Will Honor Harrison

GERALD V. HARRISON

Plans are underway for a community-wide dinner to honor Farmington's Superintendent of Schools Gerald V. Harrison.

Harrison will retire June 30 after 10 years as Farmington's Superintendent.

The dinner will be held June 1 in the Farmington High School gymnasium.

Community groups involved in planning the banquet are: the Farmington Board of Education; the Farmington Board of Commerce; the Farmington PTA Council; and the Farmington Education Association. Tickets may be obtained from representatives of any of these groups.

Award Harris State Honor

Westland's Gerald T. Harris, Civic Affairs Director for the Detroit Trade Affairs, is the winner of one of the Minuteman awards, made each year as part of the annual Michigan Week observance.

Harris, who is also president of the Westland Industrial and Commercial Development Corporation, formed last December, was picked for the award on the basis of his "outstanding leadership in promoting Michigan, not only in the United States but throughout the world," said Lieut. Gov. William G. Milliken, in announcing the award.

Harris' name was submitted to Gov. Romney for consideration in the annual Governor's Citation competition.

Westland Mayor Thomas H. Brown has been asked to present the Minuteman award to Harris, who lives at 33540 W. Warren Road.

Harris is also a member of the Detroit-Wayne County Citizens Port Advisory Committee; member of the Michigan Aeronautics and Space Association; delegate to the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity; and is currently general chairman for Westland's Michigan Week program and that week's Product Awards Chairman for Wayne County.

Besides being a former executive director for the Michigan for Industry office and has served on the Democratic Party's Executive Board for the 17th Congressional District, on Detroit's northwest side; legislative coordinator for the state senators and representatives in that district; and during the last session of the legislature, he served as the Democratic majority's press agent.

Harris' award as a Minuteman was at the same time of the annual Wolverine Awards, which went to entertainer Danny Thomas, a native of Deerfield, Mich., for his support of the leukemia hospital for children; Dr. Harold Frost, of Henry Ford Hospital; John Dancy, retired executive director of the Detroit Urban League; Dr. Charles Van Riper, known for his work in speech pathology and therapy; and Leonard Woodcock, vice president, United Automotive Workers for his leadership in social programs and human rights.

Birthday Week Is Continuing

Westland's first Birthday Week celebration will continue this week with the Jaycees Carnival on the Westland Bowl property, to be held through Sunday, and numerous other events.

Square dancing will be at the Westland Shopping Center parking lot from 8:30-11 p.m. Wednesday and Saturday; open houses will be set for John Glenn High, Wayne Memorial High and Wildwood Elementary Thursday; a dinner for senior citizens at 5:30 p.m. Thursday at the VFW Hall; and a Birthday Ball from 6:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. Friday at Hawthorne Valley Country Club.

On Saturday, there will be a teenage road-e-o at the Westland Center parking lot, starting at 10 a.m. with competition open to all high school students; a teen dance at 2 p.m. at the Army-Navy Union Hall, and fireworks at 9 p.m. in front of the City Hall.

Pilot Dies in Practice For Westland Air Show

Pilot of a homemade gyrocopter died Sunday afternoon after his craft crashed near the National Airport in Westland where he was practicing for this week-end's air show, scheduled to celebrate the city's first birthday anniversary and Michigan Week.

The victim of the crash, north of Cherry Hill road, near Lotzford in Canton Township, was Royce C. Nygard, 38, of Southfield.

married and the father of two daughters.

The gyrocopter, which contains only a frame and rotors, was built by Alex Serwatowski, of Dearborn Heights, Nygard's brother-in-law.

Serwatowski bought the gyrocopter kit through an advertisement in an aviation magazine.

Nygart, who did not have any pilot's license, was practicing for the National Airport's air show to be held Saturday and Sunday at the field, at 39205 Ford Road.

Nygart was making several landings and on his fourth try didn't make the spot he was trying for. He flew the craft up to 300 feet when a blade fell off of the copter, which then plunged into a swampy area.

The man and his brother-in-law had driven the copter on a boat trailer to the airport and assembled it at that site.

Teacher Gets Leave For Scholarship

Ronald F. Headland, teaching in the Wayne Community School District for 13 years, was granted a sabbatical leave to allow him to accept a one-year scholarship in earth science.

Headland, who now teaches earth and physical science in the eighth and ninth grades at Franklin Junior High School, will study at Oregon State University where an Academic Year Institute in Earth Science is being sponsored by the National Science Foundation.

Headland said that he wants to specialize so he can receive a special degree in Master of Science in Earth Science.

In his request for the sabbatical leave, Headland said that he feels "that much of my training is both outdated and inadequate to properly motivate, instruct and assist students. A year of concentrated study will both update and enrich my background. This will make me a more competent teacher and will make the field of Earth Science more meaningful and interesting to my students.

Headland studied at Slippery Rock State College, University of Colorado, Eastern Michigan University, Indiana University, and San Diego State College.

He taught for two years in Sharpsville, Pa., and was a graduate assistant at University High School, Boulder, Colo., for another two years before coming to the Wayne District, which includes most of Westland, in 1953.

During World War II, Headland was with the Army's Weather Service in the European Theater. In 1963, he did field geology in Montana and two summers later did the same thing in Southern California.

Krause Completes Advanced Course

Army Private Peter M. Krause, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O. Krause, of 6304 N. Oakley, Chicago, Ill., has completed eight weeks of advanced infantry training at Fort Ord, Calif.

His wife, Sharon, lives at 34030 N. Hampshire, Livonia. He is a graduate of DePaul University, Chicago, Ill., where he received his B.S. degree. Later he attended Michigan State University, East Lansing, where he received his M.B.A. degree in 1966. He is also a member of Beta Alpha Psi fraternity.

Astronomy Program Set At Glenn High

John Glenn High School will present the last in its series of astronomy programs, "Exploring the Milky Way," 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

During the program on the Milky Way the galaxy will be explored and earth's place in the universe investigated.

Unusual sights to be held perhaps by future space travelers will be shown, along with a discussion of our galaxy and the myriad of things that make it up.

The planetarium is at John Glenn High School on Marquette Street just west of Wayne Road, Westland.

With the knowledge that more candidates are seeking posts than ever before in the school district, the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce and the Plymouth Jaycees are making plans for an Open House meeting on June 1 in the City Commission chambers.

Each of the 13 candidates will be invited to make a presentation and also to participate in a question and answer period. Members of the school administration and the school board will be present to tell of the needs for the passage of the $8.5 million bond issue for the construction of senior high No. 2 and also for the renewal of a five-mill levy for operations.

Some Annuals Need 2nd Sowing

Some annuals bloom so quickly when sown from seeds that several sowings should be made to keep their flowers in your garden all summer. These include annual baby's breath and candytuft.

Do you know that both of these flowers may be grown in colored forms as well as the usual white? There is a rose-colored baby's breath and a mixture of seeds of candytuft available that will produce plants with lilac, pink, carmine and cardinal flowers as well as white.

Warns Oldsters To Be on Time For Bus Trip

Anna K. Haag, representing the Plymouth Senior Citizens organization, has reminded members that any who plan to participate in the visit to Cobo Hall on Saturday, May 20, must board the chartered bus at City Hall by 8:30 a.m.

Other future activities on the agenda include a potluck May 25 and a visit to Cedar Point in June. Reservations for the latter trip must be made by June 1.

Members who have historical data of possible interest to the Plymouth Centennial Committee are requested to submit such information to Ruth Hines, 41439 Wilcox Rd., Plymouth, or call her at 453-1132.

Baptist Church Site Rezoned

The City Commission resorted to a time-honored political maneuver Monday night to make possible the rezoning of the property at Ann Arbor Trail and Elizabeth Street.

This is the site of the abandoned Baptist Church that was considered as a possible Youth Center several months ago.

The request to rezone the property from professional to commercial was made with the hope of establishing a modern furniture store. And this was dependent upon the ability to acquire additional property for parking.

Unable to rezone property on an "if-coming" basis, the Commission gave the amendment to the zoning ordinance first and second reading.

Under this plan, the third and final reading won't be made until the parking is assured.

Draugelis Resigns as City Municipal Judge

(Continued from Page One) over by a full time judge. The present legislation recites, in part, that the incumbency designation will be given those municipal judges who hold office on or prior to July 5, 1967.

I do not intend to become a candidate for the new District Court, and I feel that those who intend to become District Court Judges should have the opportunity to serve in the part time position of Municipal Judge prior to the election. I therefore regretfully tender my resignation as Municipal Judge for the City of Plymouth, effective July 1, 1967.

"While the above constitutes my principal reasons for resigning at this time, I do not want to mislead the Commission by implying that that is the only reason. Increasing conflicts between my practice and my role as

Mike Childs Is Booster Head

Michael Childs, 1439 Ross, Plymouth, has been elected president of the CMU Booster's Club, Central Michigan University's student public relations organization.

Michael, a junior at Central Michigan University, assumed the duties of president after last week's election.

Municipal Judge, along with insufficient time to do justice to both, have created a situation where it seems to me to be in the best interests of all concerned to submit my resignation at this time. Additionally, my own health and more time needed for my family require prime consideration.

"The opportunity to serve the People of this Community as Municipal Judge has been the most rewarding professional experience of my life. I can resign, however, knowing that there are lawyers in this Community who will gladly accept the role of part time Municipal Judge and who would become a candidate for the new and challenging roll of District Judge.

"I am loathe to close without acknowledging the excellent working relationship I have had with the Plymouth Police Department who perform such outstanding and competent service to the People of the City of Plymouth.

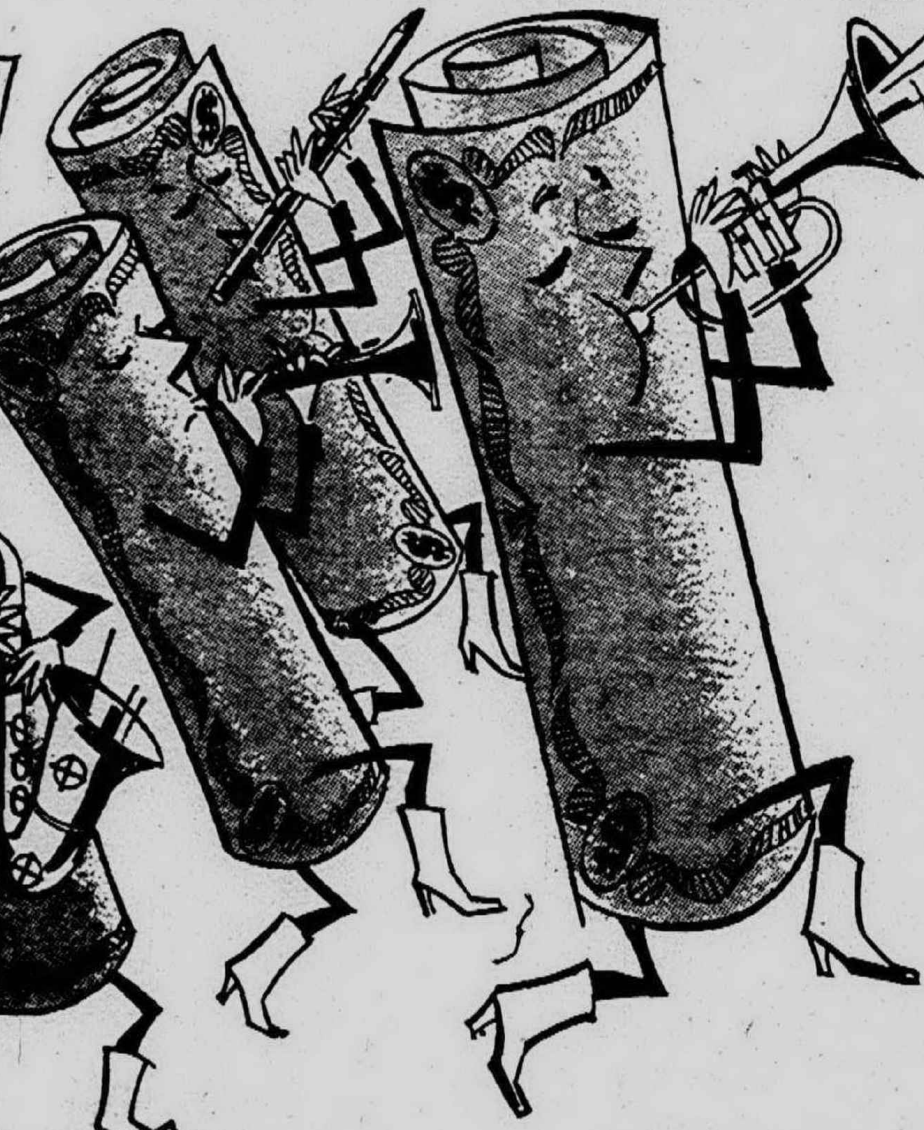

"Also, I would like to commend Mrs. Maryon Bridgman who has always contributed a high degree of professional skill in her roll as Municipal Court Clerk. Her many years of loyal, conscientious service should, I think, be recognized by the Commission.

"Lastly, I want to thank this Commission for its many acts of kind cooperation in assisting me in the making of the Plymouth Municipal Court an instrument of justice."

BRINGING HONOR to Madonna College by receiving the "Woman Who Cares" award is Cheryl Beckett from Mrs. Robert Vanderkloot at a special ceremony at Madonna College, April 23. The award was named after Mrs. Vanderkloot.

Nursing Award Given to Student By Mrs. Vanderkloot

Mrs. Robert Vanderkloot presented Cheryl Beckett, senior nursing student at Madonna College, with the "Woman who Cares" award, Sunday, April 23 at St. Mary Hospital auditorium. The occasion was the pinning and capping ceremony of 20 nursing graduates.

Cheryl Beckett was selected on the basis of the generosity, solicitude and concern she had shown her patients while caring for them. Cheryl plans to continue working at St. Mary Hospital after graduation.

Mrs. Vanderkloot, for whom the award was named, is a member of St. Mary Hospital's Board of Advisers, as well as one of their "staunch friends, promoters and supporters," stated Sister M. Calasantia, Director of the Nursing department.

A native Detroit, Mrs. Vanderkloot is a member of one of the great pioneer automobile families. Her father, William S. Knudsen, was the head of the Chevrolet Corporation during the 1920's and 30's and later one of General Motor's presidents.

Mrs. Vanderkloot holds various positions. She is treasurer of the Variety Club, Board Member of the Children's Hospital in Detroit and co-founder with her husband of the Bloomfield Day School for Girls. In 1961 she was chosen the recipient of the "Women Who Care" award given by the Women's Advertising Club of Detroit.

Perhaps the story of a special fund-raising project at Cranbrook School best illustrates the unique qualities Mrs. Vanderkloot possesses, Sister Calasantia explained. "She called on representatives of various foreign coun-

East High to Get Art Show May 24-26

The Art Department of Garden City East High School will present its 13th annual Arts and Crafts exhibit May 24-25-26.

The exhibit will be open to the public during school hours and from 6 to 8:30 p.m.

The students' show, to be held in the south section of the school gymnasium will include the year's creative work of over 400 entries in two and three dimensional projects.

Drawings in pencil, ink and charcoal of varied subject matter and paintings in oil, watercolor and tempera will be displayed for the three days.

A wide variety of individual styles of expression will be evident throughout the student entries.

In the ceramics area, there will be selections of wheel-thrown and handmade pottery forms and a number of sculpture creations. Other sculptures on display will be developed from plaster, wood and metal.

The 10 award winning entries received in the Scholastic Art Awards Competition in Detroit will be part of the exhibit.

Preparations are also being made for the entering of 35 student's projects in a combined art and flower show to be held at Cambridge Junior High School June 10-11.

GM Workers Join In Bond Buying

The number of General Motors hourly rated employees purchasing U.S. Savings Bonds through regular payroll deductions has reached its highest point since World War II. President James M. Roche announced Monday.

Following a corporation-wide "Share in Freedom" bond drive in mid-April, approximately 273,000 GM hourly employees in the U.S., or 66.9 per cent, are buying bonds through payroll deductions. Additionally, almost 90 per cent of GM's salaried employees are participating through the Savings-Stock Purchase Program.

Roche, who is chairman of the Automotive and Allied Industries Group for the nationwide "Share in Freedom" campaign being conducted by the U.S. Treasury Department, said the former post-World War II high for the corporation's hourly employees was 63.7 per cent in 1964.

In the campaign recently completed in 134 GM units, more than 44,000 employees became new participants in the payroll savings program, and more than 16,800 signed up for purchase of the new Freedom Share notes.

Roche cited the campaign accomplishments at 10 plants where final participation was in excess of 90 per cent. These plants were General Motors Assembly Division at Wilmington, Del.; Chevrolet Division at Buffalo, N.Y.; Lordstown, O.; Bloomfield, N.J.; Allison Division at Cleveland, O.; Delco-Remy Division at Muncie, Ind.; Diesel Equipment Division at Grand Rapids; Euclid Division at Hudson, O., and Fisher Body Division at Fleetwood in Detroit and Lordstown.

OK Directors

Four new members have been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority and were presented at Thursday's meeting. PCHA members include Garden City and Westland.

The new Directors of PCHA are:

Daniel Chont from Huron Township, replacing Reverend D. H. Richert; Michael Kozma, Supervisor of Sumpter Township, replacing Frank Landowski; Sal Scarpace of Allen Park, replacing Donald J. Pizzimenti, who had been elected earlier a member-at-large and re-elected Chairman of the Board; and Mayor Robert H. Wright of Trenton, replacing Mrs. Audrey Seay.

10 Teams Set For Men's Competition

By RAY WIACEK
Garden City Recreation Supt.

The Major Division of the Men's Slow Pitch league in Garden City reached its full complement of 10 teams with the addition of squads headed by Herman Bersano and Joe Burton.

Bersano last year masterminded the efforts of Wolan's Lounge, and hopes to carry the same sponsor's banner again this year. As for Burton, he will be making his initial effort in a managerial capacity in this league.

The Recreation Dept. is still looking for teams interested in entering the Minor Division of Men's Slow Pitch, and for those in the Women's Section.

The young girls registered in the tap and Ballet classes sponsored by the Recreation Dept. performed in a recital recently at West High School. Their instructor, Miss Kay Teasdale, had been having the girls go through their routines and they were ready to put on a noteworthy show.

I was involved in a rolloff for a "Beat the Champ" show on Saturday at Garden City Lanes. Though I gave my best, my 555 series, was not near being close enough to win a TV spot on the show.

The Recreation Department, in conjunction with the Athletic Programs of the Garden City High School, is formulating plans for basketball and physical fitness sessions during summer vacation. Students interested in these sports should contact their school coaches or the Recreation Department.

The Garden City West High School Boosters Club has elected new officers for the new school year. To serve for the 1967-68 season are Jerry McGrath, president; Mr. Tucker, vice president; Joyce Woodside, secretary; Thelma Brown, treasurer; and Leonard Gowronski, Al Kenner, and Faye Hager, trustees. The Boosters Club also announced that the All-Sports banquet will be held at 6:30 p.m., June 7. The next executive meeting will be June 6 with the general membership meeting following at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

100 Jam Hearing On City Budget

Parks, dog shelters, police protection, and administrative personnel were most on the minds of nearly 100 Westland residents who attended Saturday's public hearing on the proposed 1967-68 budget.

The two-hour-and-20-minute hearing featured a short but furious verbal exchange between several citizens on opposite sides of the City Council Chambers.

At one point near the end of the hearing, it was pointed out that the biggest budget increases are in the fire and police departments which are the areas in which the citizens present favor.

It was pointed out after the hearing that most of the residents present to protest the tax rates, among other things, were from the northern section of the city who opposed incorporation of Nankin Township into the city of Westland the previous spring.

During the lengthy hearing, residents applauded a housewife who asked why the mayor's proposed budget is "giving more priority to dogs than children and the parks aren't safe for them anyway."

Not specifically mentioned was the April 28 murder of two small Westland sisters walking through a field near their home.

Mayor Thomas H. Brown, who took most of the verbal attack on his proposed $3,918,383 budget, opened the hearing with the reading of a lengthy statement concerning the needed services and facilities included in his budget.

The new park is the 21.7 acre site on Wildwood and Hunter which was obtained in trade for a smaller site at Cherry Hill and Wildwood.

At the peak of the anti-park discussion, a homeowner commented that the residents' comments "are assinine" and said that past plans and comments from city officials have urged the need for more recreational facilities.

On the animal shelter, to cost an estimated $65,000, will be paid for by part of the $100,000 the city obtained by selling the present site on Ford near Wayne to Red Holman Pontiac agency. Brown defended the cost of the shelter by pointing out that minimum requirements must be met in the installing of equipment.

In addition, the mayor said that Westland this year has not had the "dog pack" problems experienced in other cities where youngsters have been seriously injured.

William Engle, finance director, also said that the original bids for the shelter were over $90,000 but the City Council rejected those bids in hopes of getting lower prices.

Police Cpl. James Hornkohl told the Council that while a member of the Garden City police force before coming to Westland, that staff had its own officers get paid at a $3 per hour rate on their off-duty time to build a 16-cage shelter at a cost of $9,000.

The budget, which must be acted on by the City Council on or before Monday, June 5, includes a proposed city tax rate of $10.30 per $1,000, or $1.64 higher than the previous year.

Of the total figure, $6.93 is for general operating services; $4.00 for debt retirement; $.37 for People Community Hospital Authority; and $2.60 for the Sanitation Authority.

Here's A Chance To Test Driving

The American motorist, on whom endless effort has been expended to educate, cajole, threaten, and police, in order to make him a safer driver, can now realize a substantial monetary reward by maintaining a "clean" driving record.

The Shell Oil Company will launch — on the all-new 1967 National Drivers Test on CBS-TV, May 23—a nationwide safe-driving program aimed at rewarding rather than penalizing the American motorist.

Denis B. Kemball-Cook, Shell's Executive Vice President, announced details of the award program in Washington, D.C. at a special press conference hosted by Howard Pyle, President of the National Safety Council.

The National Safe-Driver Award Program will be the most massive effort ever attempted to reward motorists for driving safely. Kemball-Cook estimated, from past returns of the test forms from the NDT, that several million people will vie for the $20,000 top award.

Said Kemball-Cook "by the utilization of the "National Drivers Test"—the greatest mass communication safety effort ever — we feel sure that the response to the award program will be gratifying to everyone connected with driver safety.

To be eligible, a driver must have had no accidents or moving violations during the peak accident months of June, July and August.

"If, through the National Drivers Test and our Safe-Driver award, millions of motorists were to become more cognizant of defensive driving practices, think of the highway carnage that might be prevented."

Young Detroit Pianist Wins Talent Award

A 14-year-old Detroit pianist emerged victorious in Wonderland Center's Talent Teen Search. Frank Nezwaszky, a ninth-grade student of DeLaSalle Collegiate high school, was the top performer in a field of young entertainers who competed at the center.

A student of piano for more than four years, young Nezwaszky will compete in national finals to be held at Chicago's navy pier late next month. Hundreds of boys and girls will compete in this contest for a three weeks expense-paid tour of Europe.

The son of Frank and Monique Nezwaszky, the young concert pianist was the unanimous choice of a three-member panel of judges.

Randy Simpson, 13-year-old dancer-singer from Wayne, placed second. Third place was awarded to the Dancing Debs, a jazz dance group from Plymouth.

Diverse Ideas On Vietnam To Be Aired

"Vietnam Alternatives: What Are They?" will be the subject for discussion Sunday night at the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Redford Township, located on Six Mile Road at Kinloch St.

Diverse viewpoints will be presented by a panel of four persons, moderated by the Rev. W. Harold Garner, Trinity Church of the Brethren, Redford Township.

Participants will be Larry Davidow, attorney; Elizabeth Weideman, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom; Richard Durant, chairman, 14th District Republican Party; and John Conyers, Democratic Congressman, First District.

Questions and discussion will follow the free forum to which the public is invited by the Redford Township Assembly for Human Relations. The event will start at 8 p.m.

become eligible simply by taking the safe-driving pledge as it will be announced on the telecast, and affixing his name and address on the test form (or any sheet of paper on which he is taking the test) and either turning it into any Shell dealer, or mailing it to a designated P.O. Box Number.

On August 23, three months after the telecast, all entries will be assembled at a central point and the award winners will be drawn by random selection. In order to receive an award, every driver whose name is drawn must have had neither accident nor moving violation since May 23, 1967.

The prizes are as follows — one award of $10,000, 20 awards of a new automobile, and 10,000 awards of $5.00 each.

If any winners have taken the National Safety Council's defensive driving course, their awards are doubled, thus making a top award of $20,000 possible.

The conference had a dual purpose in that Pyle took this occasion to praise the mammoth cooperative effort being made throughout the country by industry, civic and labor organizations, and government agencies on behalf of the "National Drivers Test."

According to Pyle, over 30 million test forms have already been distributed. "This is 5 million more than were distributed for the first Drivers Test in 1965, and that telecast had the distinction of being viewed by the largest audience ever to watch a sponsored public service program on one network. This does not, of course, include the untold millions of forms being prepared by the individual businesses and organizations."

For this year's test, Executive Producer, Vern Diamond, has developed dramatic new sequences on winter driving hazards, school buses, motorcycles, suburban driving, and special vacation travel hazards.

Other portions of the telecast will be concerned with the unique problems faced by women drivers. Several test questions that were failed by the great majority of people in the previous programs, will be repeated.

Library Unit To Hear Talk By Expert

Friends of the Library will hear Mrs. Joel Warren speak Monday at 7:45 p.m. at the Redford Township Library.

Mrs. Rachel M. Hilbert, library commissioner, said Mrs. Warren, a Birmingham resident, is an expert on this type of organization, making numerous appearances throughout the state to talk about Friends of the Library.

The public is invited to attend this last meeting of this season.

Mrs. Hilbert said the next full meeting of the group would be held in the fall.

Bill Link, a sophomore, captains Wayne State University's 1967 golf team.

Better-Organized Nature Trails

The infamous "nature trail" issue in the city of Farmington could grow to become a major battling point on both the planning commission and the city council. As opponents warn of impending danger that would lurk in the hills and underbrush along the Rouge River, those arguing for the nature trails have brought up too many good points that would preclude the city's discarding of the idea.

Proposed to be developed and mapped by State of Michigan naturalist and Farmington resident Hartley Thornton — free of charge — the idea of the trails would be to provide an educational-recreational facility for Farmington school children. The educational virtue of such trails has been applauded by numerous local educators, and the facility would indeed be a gold star on the city's "municipal betterment" record.

Nevertheless, opponents of the plan, led by Councilmen Howard W. Thayer and Hugo E. Peterson, point to the trails as a possible public "menace" that would invite varied deviates and psychopaths into the currently undeveloped area. The two councilmen insist that the safety of children whose homes front on the opposite side of the river would be jeopardized by the creation of the trails.

Would the area be developed, it would invite a periphery of lockable fences and safe, well-marked trails, not the current disarray of uselessness and possible danger. In addition, Farmington would have another facility that would point to the city's ever-increasing municipal services and benefits.

We do not quarrel with the contention made by the trail's opponents that the city cannot afford to endanger the safety of the perhaps seven families affected by the proposal. But when their safety would be increased, while the process of education and enlightenment of the community-at-large would be concurrently fostered, it would be a mistake to discard the nature trail plans.

The city is currently maintaining the unused property at taxpayers' expense for no visible purpose. As planning commissioner James Piatt noted, either get rid of the property or make good use of it. When a highly-skilled professional like Thornton offers his services out of civic conscience, we cannot afford to ignore the chance.

In any case, the Planning Commission's subcommittee is studying the proposal. If and when their recommendations suggest acceptance of Mr. Thornton's offer, we hope Messrs. Thayer and Peterson will act accordingly.

An Accolade for Myra

Editor: Though Myra Chandler's farewell editorially, did not come as a surprise, it did again bring to mind the impact she has had on our community as an editor and as an individual.

I think of the "causes" and the people she has encouraged, discouraged, opposed and bolstered... the weight and the burdens she has carried

... the difficult situations that called for an almost immediate reaction... and the many kindnesses she has shown over the years.

There have always been people who have disagreed with The Observer's "stand" on local issues — and those who staunchly supported its policies. But it was usually hard to find people who were indifferent, for "getting people off dead center" was a goal that Myra accomplished.

At the conclusion of her tenure as "our observer" it seemed important to take pen in hand to say "good-bye" Myra. Thank you, and may "Livonia's Auntie Mame" find new windows filled with sunshine and new highways that lead to good health and much happiness".

From the Publisher's Desk OBSERVATION POINT

By Philip H. Power

EVERY so often, I have this nightmare.

I'm sitting at a typewriter in the Observer office.

Time: Late at night, five hours after our press deadline.

On the floor, in the wastebasket, on the desk, all over: A vast mound of sheets of paper, each with the first few sentences of a column written on them.

In the background; Mumbles of an enraged press crew, wondering if the column will ever get written.

I decide I just can't think of anything to write.

Then I wake up, covered with sweat.

And then I wonder what in hell I will write about this week.

"There are so many things you can write about," they say.

Ok, lady. Fine.

But, equally, there are so many things I can't write about or don't dare write about until I get some more information.

Sometimes it seems there are more reasons I can't write about things than potential things to write about.

FOR example:

What about a column on the way that big newspaper in New York, the World-Journal-Tribune, folded?

(No, Who, really, is interested in some paper in New York. And besides, I probably would then go on to talk about how things are so much less grim out here. That sounds self-serving.)

Perhaps a piece inquiring why is it that the state legislature sounds so silly so much of the time.

(Good possibilities here. But Don Hoenshell, our new Livonia editor, says that most of the state legislators are silly, at one time or another. That means I'd have to find out which particular state legislator is acting reasonable at the time I write the column, which is no mean feat of research. Better lay off.)

What about writing about the double murders in Westland?

(Well, what is there to write about? Murder, in any form, under any condition, is a terrible outrage. Everybody knows this, so why write about something everybody knows?)

How come they don't build a monorail from Detroit Metropolitan Airport into downtown Detroit and out into the suburbs? There's a good idea.

(But just try to find out about it or, for that matter, anything at all concerning Metro. You get the most fantastic mess of gobbledegook from the so-called responsible officials you've ever seen. Verbal fog doesn't constitute research.)

Why is everything in Dearborn called "Ford"?

(No. Writing about the obvious simply isn't worth the trouble.)

What about writing a column on how late spring is and why it's been so cold lately?

(People, it is supposed, get something out of this paper other than what everyone else is talking about. Anyway, you ask the weather bureau about this and back comes a whole mess of stuff about synclines, cyclones, millibars and front movements which leaves you more confused than informed.)

SO, HAVING tossed and turned, rejecting each idea as it comes up, I go back to sleep.

Maybe I'll think of something in the morning. But, that's newspapers.

Letters To Editor:

Facts-Opinions About Farmington Incorporation

Editor:

I applaud the efforts of the Citizens Council for Community Development in their drive to bring about the incorporation of Farmington Township in to a home rule city. I hope all Township residents read your April 26 front page story reporting on Fred Lichtman's recent talk before the Kendallwood Farms Homeowners Association.

I can only hope that voters will not again allow themselves to be swayed by the misguided fears and promises of those opposing incorporation, who say they want to preserve the rural atmosphere that makes Farmington Township the attractive community we know it to be.

Those seeking to incorporate want precisely the same thing and rightly proclaim that the protection of our boundaries through incorporation is the only way to secure that goal. The threat of annexation is not really a threat at all, but rather a living cancer eating away at our borders. Those supporting the so-called "preservation point of view" were heard to say prior to the last incorporation vote that annexation by bordering communities was little more than a remote possibility undeserving of serious consideration or examination.

How then might these same people explain the actions immediately following the last vote when a parcel of land east of Farmington Read between Eight and Nine Mile Roads was annexed and became a part of the City of Farmington. The speed with which these developments took place should have raised penetrating doubts in the minds of all who voted "No" on incorporation.

If that wasn't enough we should be reminded of the additional 457 acres which by an 18 vote margin was also lost to the City of Farmington in November, 1966 through another successful annexation move. And we're vulnerable on all sides to more of the same. Surely, no one would seriously question the value of the Industrial Park area as a welcome and necessary part of our tax base, even under current limited development.

"Watch the taxes go up" was another alarm sounded by the "status quo" group. Nonsense! Tax rates will be what we want them to be! Should the majority desire improved services e.g., police, fire protection, rubbish pickup, etc., then lets get ready to pay for it. If the present level of services is acceptable under a home rule unit of government taxes should remain at near present levels. I say "near" since increases can be expected under any form of local government so long as the basic cost of living and doing business continues to escalate.

I wonder too, how many of your readers realize that a "yes" vote does not automatically bring about incorporation. An affirmative vote expresses nothing more than a willingness to review a proposed city charter, prepared by a Charter Commission elected by the voters. If the Charter is unacceptable I would be among the early arrivals at the polls to reject it. If rejected by a majority of the voters the Commission is given an opportunity to draft a second Charter. If rejected a second time the community simply maintains its Township status. It would seem that voters can only benefit by voting "Yes" and afford themselves an opportunity to study and vote on a proposed Charter.

George F. Fezy Farmington

This is the Week that...

By DON HOENSHELL

Detroit and some other big brothers with aches in their municipal innards and collapsing populations are cutting up Observerland in Lansing to block a realistic distribution of tax money to where the people can use it best.

There is a little bill already passed by the House, 56 to 47, which would allow growing suburbs to take an up-to-date census.

It works this way: The state sales and intangibles taxes and the liquor-license fees are sent back in part to local governments on a per capita formula, to be used largely in administering programs foisted upon the cities by the state.

Programs, of course, mean services to people. In Livonia alone, for example, the state is still using the 1960 Federal census in the formula. In 1960, Livonia had 66,000 people. Best estimates now place the Livonia population at 103,000, about an 80 per cent increase in seven years.

Maybe it's too logical for the cities—or for that matter, for some of the folks in Lansing—to figure that the people are government and the suburbs are where the people are.

The 1967 estimate of state kickbacks to Livonia shows $669,212 in sales taxes; $83,000 from the intangibles tax and $21,000 in liquor license fees, or a total in these three brackets of $803,212.

If the Senate passes the House bill and Gov. Romney signs it, Livonia stands to pick up $642,569 more or increase its revenue from these sources to $1,445,781.

So why is somebody as sweet-tempered and benevolent as Mayor Cavanagh in Detroit and the gents in Kalamazoo and Grand Rapids opposing this fine thing for the suburbs?

"Self interest," said Mayor Moelke. "There's only so much in the pot and the big cities feel they will lose."

Aha! Moelke must feel like a Marine attending a picnic with the Viet Cong when he attends a meeting of the board of trustees of the Michigan Municipal League, which is dedicated to the betterment of the cities.

The board has voted almost unanimously not to support the bill in Lansing. Moelke cast the only vote for it. This makes it pretty lonesome in the league's top echelon.

And the league and the cities have strong lobbies in Lansing. Facing them together in the confusing darkness of the Senate corridors can be a frightfully human experience.

State Senator George W. Kuhn and Rep. Louis E. Schmidt—our guys in Lansing—are for the bill. Schmidt said the vote was close in the House and things look dark in the Senate, indeed.

At a time when governmental services are being demanded in greater volume and costs are soaring, it might be worth a nickle postage stamp to demand passage of House Bill 2178.

For a nickle you can tell your legislator how you feel about an extra—and justified—$642,000 for your city.

It's funny that Detroit and the others haven't already thought of it since they went for the one-man one-vote theory in reapportioning the legislature.

They said it assured that every citizen would have the same vote in Lansing as every other citizen.

Now they're saying every citizen counts, except when public money is involved.

Kids-Community Cooperate on $1300 Project

Editor: On Saturday, May 6, 1967, the Student Council at North Farmington High School sponsored its fourth annual "Raider Work Day."

A nucleus of 8-10 members of the Student Council planned and organized the entire project. The remaining members of the Student Council plus some 300 sophomores, juniors and seniors reported to the subdivision work centers and to the school to support the cause.

From 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. these volunteer student workers responded to the telephone requests of the residents in the area. They performed such tasks as mowing and raking lawns, cutting down trees and burning them, cleaning swimming pools, laying sod, and washing windows. At the same time part of the crew remained at the school where they washed over 200 cars throughout the day. Cars were washed at $1.00 each but fees for the rest of the work were on a donation basis.

At 5 o'clock, when the money was brought back to the school by the workers and added up, the total came to almost $1,300. This money will be used by the Student Council to give three or four of this year's graduating seniors a helping hand in furthering their education or training.

The big thing about this work day to us was not the amount of money earned, though certainly the $1,300 earned will be put to good use and much appreciated by those who receive it. It seems to us, however, that the spirit of cooperation between the students and the community was one of the most valuable outcomes of the day.

Our warmest thanks to the residents in the community whose contribution to this project permitted the students to prove themselves. Without your confidence and support the task could not have been a success.

Many thanks also to the parents of our workers who worried along with the planners in the weeks of preparation and to the parents who accommodated their young people by bringing lunches, transporting equipment, and lending a hand in many supportive tasks.

Most of all thanks to the more than 350 students who supported our Student Council project with the enthusiasm and attitude that makes North Farmington High School the best in the state of Michigan.

Mickey Cochrane's psychology recalled in Tigers fight for lead
 By W. W. EDGAR

ONE OF THE prices a fellow has to pay for spending many enjoyable years in the major league press boxes across the land is to be cast in the role of a seer. For some strange reason the baseball fans believe that, just because you spent many a summer recording the activities in many tight pennant races, you have the ability to prophesy the outcome of the present one and can tell where the teams will finish.

This is especially true now that the Tigers are in the thick of a battle for leadership and showing signs of being able to play exciting baseball.

On every turn these days you are confronted with questions such as:

"Do you think they can make it?"
 "Have they got the ability to go all the way?"
 "Is this just another case of 'flowers that bloom in the Spring?'"

Any attempt to answer these questions would be nothing but pure guessing, but they do furnish proof that an epidemic of pennant fever may be on its way.

More than that, they bring to mind one of the most exciting of all seasons in the history of the Tigers.

IT WAS back in 1934 when, like this year, they had a new manager who was determined to install "the winning spirit" into the club.

Only the year before they finished in sixth place and seemed like a club destined to remain in that place in the standings like a long time to come.

But when Mickey Cochrane, one of old Connie Mack's most famous pupils, arrived to take over the managerial reins he shocked not only the fans, but the writers as well with the remark, "Get me a 'money player' and we could win the pennant."

This was a bold statement for a fellow who never before had managed a ball club.

Taking him at his word, sly old Frank Navin, the Tigers' owner, swung a deal for a fellow named "Goose" Goslin. "Goose" had been around for a long time and was what was known as a "money" player — a fellow who wouldn't choke in the thick of a pennant fight.

Mickey got what he wanted. Now the pressure was on him to make good his boast and the calloused baseball writers, who had spent years poking fun at the Tigers' efforts, were given a treat.

The first day Cochrane met with the players he was to manage, he went over his plans very carefully and, as the meeting broke up, he smiled and said, for all to hear, "It's great to be with a winner."

MIND YOU, with the exception of "Goose" Goslin, this was a team that had finished in sixth place only the previous season.

This didn't phase Cochrane. To him by-gones were by-gones, and he never stopped saying to the players, "It's great to be with a winner."

It wasn't long until he had them believing they could win and each day they showed surprising improvement.

The infield of Marv Owen at third base, Billy Rogell at shortstop, Charlie Gehringer at second base, and Hank Greenberg at first, suddenly became a well knit combination that earned the affectionate name, "The Battalion of Death."

It was difficult to get a ball through this inner cordon and the outfield of Pete Fox, Jo-Jo White, "Gee" Walker and Goslin, became the talk of the league. Along with such pitchers as Little Tommy Bridges, Schoolboy Rowe, "General" Alvin Crowder and Eldon Auker, the submarine south-paw, Mickey welded them into a pennant winner and no one who lived through those hectic days ever will forget it.

It was one of the greatest portrayals of psychology baseball ever has known.

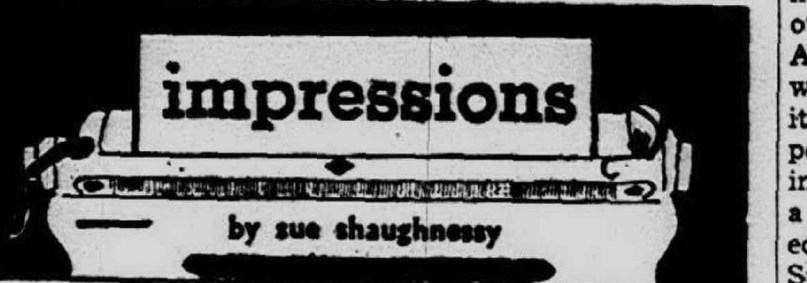

Mickey proved to them "it was great to be with a winner."

Now history may be well on the way of repeating itself.

When Mayo Smith took over the leadership of the Tigers this spring his first public statement was, "With a few little changes this club could go all the way."

He wasn't as fiery in his remarks as Cochrane had been back in 1934—but he was just as sincere.

So, who knows—?

"They could raise everybody's pay if they would stop sending out all this literature," was frequent comment of my mother's when another piece of literature arrived in the morning mail. "They" referred to the larger corporation where my father worked.

The comment has come back to us time and again as the morning mail arrives on the desk. An example:

Each week a booklet filled with mimeographed news handouts arrives from the U.S. Department of Labor. The postage fees are paid from the department.

The booklet is marked as "letter mail" and the post office says this means that the department wants first class treatment and pays for the first class rates of five cents an ounce for mailing.

According to the postage scale the cost of mailing this particular booklet was 10 cents. That's not really very much, but compute how many newspapers there are in the country and the dime's begin to mount.

We don't really have a complaint about the Labor department doing the mailing. Very often information about the labor force and about job opportunities is included in the package.

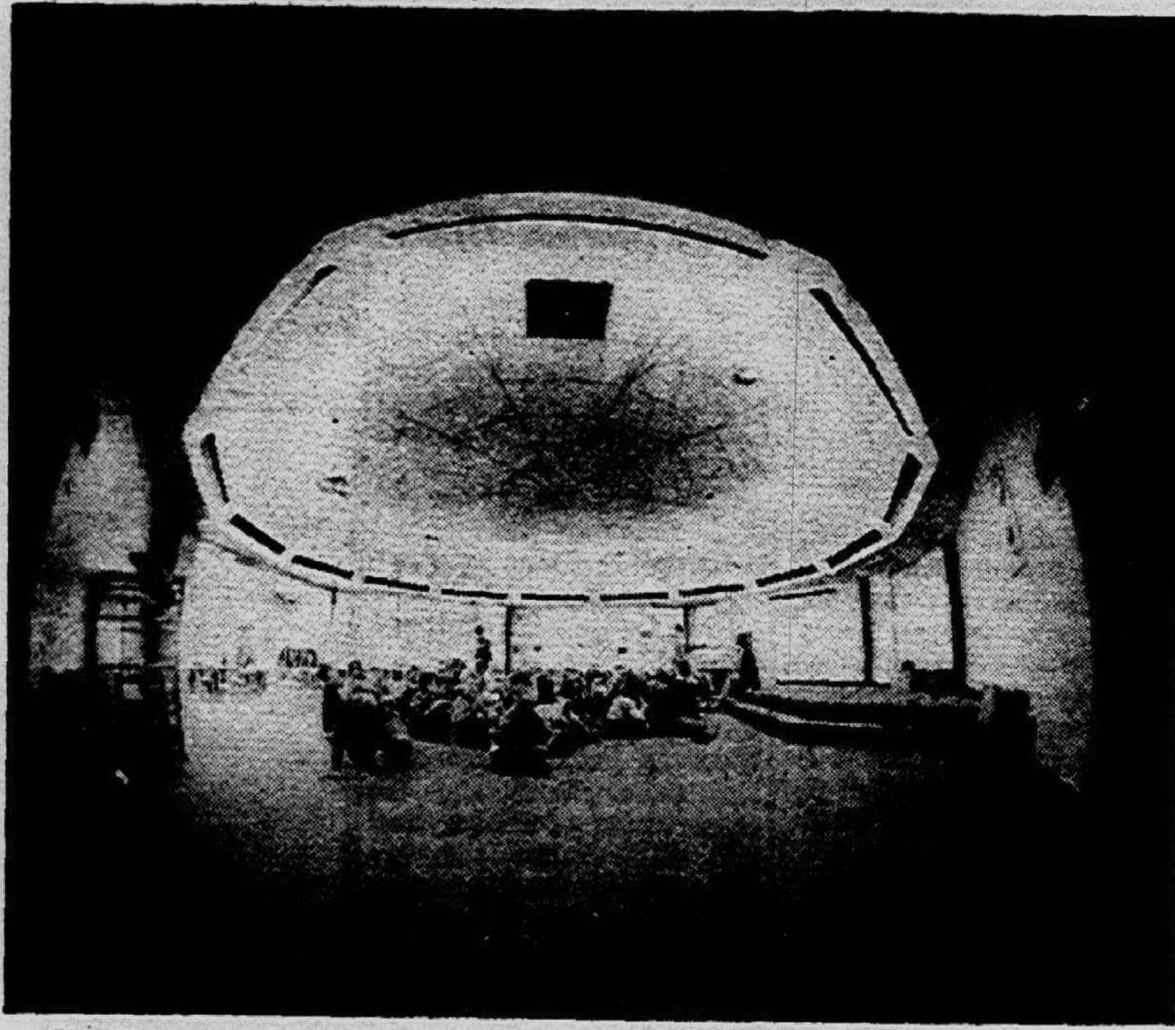

This is the Department's function.

This week, however, a release was included that really doesn't have any bearing on the labor department.

The release tells about a speech of Vice President Humphrey before the Seventh Annual Pillars of American Program in San Diego. It's entitled "Freedom Belongs to All Mankind."

What connection does this have with the function of the U.S. Department of Labor?

McDonald Fumes At Flag Burners

Rep. Jack McDonald today ripped into demonstrating flag burners for attacking "the very foundation which assures them their rights."

He said the flag burnings in New York's Central Park have made draft card burnings old hat.

"What galls me most is my inability to follow the logic that an attack upon the very symbol of our freedom is a way to preserve our rights," McDonald said.

He said Congress should act shortly on legislation making the desecration of the flag a federal offense punishable by a fine and stiff jail sentence.

McDonald added:

"I respect the right of every citizen to demonstrate in a peaceful manner. I know that some thoughtful Americans oppose our involvement in Southeast Asia. I know, too, that many sincerely believe that the pace toward full and equal rights for all of our citizens has not been quick enough. And I do not challenge the right of any of these people to oppose one course of action or propose another.

"But, despite how one feels about the way in which our government is acting, or the speed with which the government is attacking problems, there are several significant points ignored by such actions as flag-burning.

"Our nation is a democracy. We have worked together for nearly 200 years to forge a way of life which permits each individual to think and act for himself so long as his thoughts and actions do not impede the right of any other individual to think and act. It has not been easy. We have had a civil war. It is not easy. We continue to disagree about the right and proper course to follow.

"But, we all continue to hold to the right basic to all others—the right to dissent. And it is this right along with those which flow from it—free speech, assembly, petition—which is embodied in the concept of America as a nation, a concept represented visually by the Stars and Stripes. To my mind, someone who destroys the flag which represents his rights is, in effect, symbolically destroying his right to dissent.

"Millions of Americans have died in defense of our rights.

"Millions more may be called on to do so in the years that lie ahead. And 500,000 are presently defending our honor in an easily forgotten corner of the world."

Investing Inquiries

Organize An Investment Club

(Mr. Wysong, stockbroker for Paine, Webber, Jackson & Curtis, welcomes all inquiries on investing. Send your questions to THE OBSERVER, "Investing Inquiries," 33050 Five Mile Road, Livonia, Michigan. The answers are the opinion of Laurence A. Wysong, who is considered highly qualified on the subject.)

Q. We are a group of new investors who are interested in forming a stock club. Our plans are to invest $25.00 each monthly. How would you recommend we organize and run the club?

A. The primary purpose of a stock club is an educational one. As a result many of the members take the club in a light vein and oftentimes make rather poor investment decisions. To keep you from falling into this pattern my first suggestion would be to buy only those securities which are on the recommended buy list on a known brokerage house. New investors can learn just as much buying good quality stocks through their investment club as buying highly speculative stocks that they have heard about through "tips" or "rumors."

After you have decided to use the research material of a particular brokerage house, sit down and talk with one of their stockbrokers. Explain to him just what you want to do and he in turn will inform you on how to organize and operate your club.

Westland Mayor Rips Humphrey

Although Westland Mayor Thomas H. Brown and U.S. Vice President Hubert Humphrey are on the same side of the political fence, Brown wasn't in an intra-party mood Friday.

The Westland Mayor ripped into the vice president who failed to invite local officials to Friday's conference on federally-financed summer youth programs while on a trip to Detroit.

Brown, mayor of the fourth largest city in Wayne County with a population of nearly 75,000, said that all of the mayors in the area should have been invited on an equal basis.

"I have talked to others and they weren't invited either," Brown said. "It may be a long, hot summer in Westland as well as in Detroit," he continued.

"Humphrey is our vice president just as much as he is Jerry Cavanagh's (mayor of Detroit)," Brown said.

"I'm not begging for an invitation but I feel that a serious mistake was made. We should have a right to hear what he has to say. The people setting up Friday's program should have known Westland exists," Brown concluded.

Wanted—Mother of Justine

Wanted:

The mother of an infant girl who named her daughter after Westland City Councilwoman Justice Barnes.

The request for the woman's identity is being sought by Mrs. Barnes, who relayed the following incident during Sunday's city birthday parade to The Observer.

While riding in her car during the parade to mark Westland's first anniversary as a city, a young mother in an auto parked near the Wayne Wood apartments on Wayne Road waved to the Councilwoman and said that she named her baby girl after her.

However, Mrs. Barnes doesn't know who the mother is and wants to thank her for naming the girl after her. The mother was in a white General Motors auto.

The infant's mother is asked to call Mrs. Barnes at 721-3141.

UNIVERSITY of Michigan notified Robert Wheelock, senior student at Garden City High School (East), that he has been awarded an Alfred P. Sloan scholarship, given annually to some 140 new male undergraduates throughout the United States. It is also a continuing scholarship which means that he may continue receiving it as long as he maintains high academic grades. Bob will enter the University of Michigan in the fall. His area of study will be engineering. Shown above are (left to right) Gerald Gould, East High Principal, Robert Wheelock and Palmer Kroh, Senior Counselor.

West High to Stage School Play this Week

Garden City West Hightrayed by Marilyn Eberlin. School will stage the all-school play, "Curious Savage" Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The comedy is centered around Mrs. Ethel Savage, played by Dana Judycki, who inherits $10 million and wants to give it to people with foolish desires.

However, Mrs. Savage's step children object to this idea because they want to keep the money for themselves. They then commit her to a sanatorium in their attempt to get her $10 million.

The Savage step-children are Titus Savage, played by Bill Willett; Samuel Savage, played by Al Briscoe; and Carol Skinner, as Lily Belle Savage.

Dr. Emmet, physician at the sanatorium, is played by Doug Fredenburg, and the nurse, Miss Willie, is por-

Glenn High Plans Fashion Show Thursday

The John Glenn High School Home Economics Department will present their annual spring fashions show, "Patterns In Fashion," at the John Glenn Auditorium, Westland.

The show begins at 7:30 and will be preceded by a tea at 7 p.m. Home Economics students will model their fashion creations.

Proceeds will be used to award a scholarship to a deserving senior. Tickets may be purchased from any home economic student or be purchased at the door.

Westland Passes Planning Goals

A five-point program through which to develop a master plan has been adopted by the Westland Planning Commission.

At an April meeting, the commission unanimously agreed to accept the five-points of the proposed goals and objectives of the general development plan.

The action came at the end of discussion on the proposal submitted by Planning Director Eugene Katz.

The five-points approved are:

1—To establish and preserve a unique character of Westland based on harmonious development and the conservation of the physical and social values that are prescribed by the community. This can only be accomplished by facing squarely the problem of growth and change.

2—To establish a pattern of land uses which will promote the highest degree of health, safety, efficiency, and well-being for all segments of the community. There should be smooth-working relationship between lands used for residence, commerce, and industry.

3—To develop a circulation system which will provide for the safe and convenient movement of people and goods within Westland and other parts of the region.

Two Compete For School Board Term

Garden City School District voters will have a choice of two experienced board of education veterans in the annual board election on Monday, June 12.

Only two candidates filed nominating petitions for the single four-year terms by Saturday's deadline.

Although the candidates won't be formally certified until the school board meets tomorrow night, Thursday, the ballot next month will include the names of Frank J. Wanderski, Jr., of 6623 Gelfa view, appointed to the board last year to fill a vacancy, and Dr. Kenneth W. Carraan, of 29519 Maplewood.

Such a system must be designed so that the trafficways will serve rather than interfere with and destroy the industrial, commercial, and particularly the residential areas of the community.

4—To create a vibrant city core which should serve as a focal point for the city. This area should be a central place with shopping, business, government, and recreation areas.

5—To secure for Westland her proper place in the long range development of the metropolitan Detroit area. This can only be accomplished with a far-reaching program for development and with cooperation at all levels of government within the city and region.

BASEBALL MEET - TRACK, GOLF REGIONALS

Big Doings Set for Preps

Big doings in three sports spotlight this weekend's high school calendar. Take your pick from between:

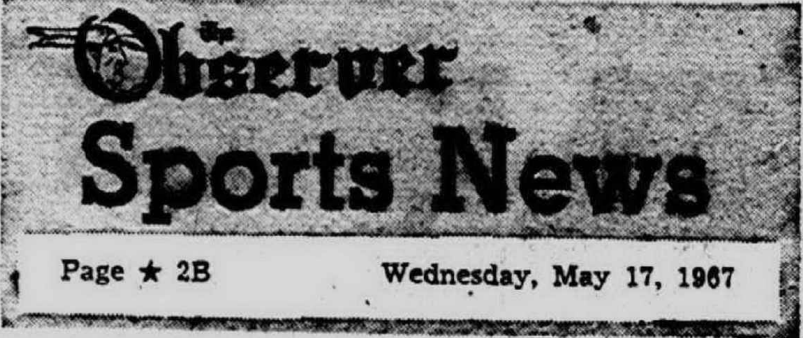

- 1—The State regionals in golf which will find the area teams participating at Glen Oak in Farmington and Burroughs in Brighton all-day Friday.
- 2—The first round of play in the third annual Les Anders Memorial baseball tournament which begins on Friday evening at Livonia's Ford Field and continues with games on Saturday and Sunday.

3—The state track region- als which will send performers from the area to meets at Ann Arbor, Clarenceville and U. of D. in Detroit.

The track and golf athletes will be shooting for places in the state tournaments to be held the following weekend. As is always the story in state competition, the preps vie in classes—A, B, C and D. For the most part the area teams fall in "A".

The golfers will send four men to the battle fronts with each playing 18 holes. The low three teams advance to the state meet, along with the low three individuals, should the lat-

Grid Star Shines In Baseball, Too

Thanks to football, Dan Harris of Thurston High has won a scholarship to Central Michigan University.

Harris was all-suburban on the gridiron and now he's assured of more honors this spring for his play in baseball.

Thanks to his big bat, Thurston roared to a 4-1 win over Oak Park and an 11-0 romp over North Farmington to remain a game behind Franklin in the drive for the Northwest Suburban League title. As the teams entered this week's action, Franklin stood 5-1 in the loop and Thurston 4-2. Franklin needed a pair of five-run rallies to conquer Groves, 6-5, and Glenn, 6-3, in its league action last week.

Harris struck with a pair of homers against Oak Park and two more hits in the game with North Farmington.

His first homer in the Oak Park tussle came with Paul Santangelo and Bob Holmes aboard after a walk and an error, respectively. Then he slammed another with nobody aboard to simplify matters for Bob Durand, who held the Parkers to six hits.

Tim Carr was the winner of the shutout against North Farmington as he allowed two hits and struck out ten. Harris, Santangelo and Grey Dunny each had two hits for the winners but the big blows came off the bats of Barry Simescu and Mike Turner, each of whom homered.

Franklin trailed Groves, 5-1, before exploding for five runs off Groves' ace Mike Rafferty in the sixth. Steve Atkinson's two-run homer led the assault.

Glenn's Mike McMaster held the league leaders to only two hits before being forced out of action with one out in the sixth because of a sore elbow.

Then Franklin exploded with five runs on only three hits, one of them a two-run triple by Bill Hellstein.

Chris Wendrick went the route against Glenn, allowing five hits. He also worked the final inning against Groves and struck out two of the three men he faced.

Franklin tried its luck against Dearborn Friday in a non-leaguer and wound up a 4-3 loser. Dave Stott, hurling for Franklin for the first time, scattered five hits and fanned nine. But he also walked nine and that's where the trouble came.

All the Franklin runs came in the fourth inning on singles by Stott, Mike LeBanc and Larry Prentiss and a double by Dave Paden.

Five-hit pitching by Kerry Webb enabled John Glenn to down Oak Park, 6-3, and even its Northwest League record at 3-3.

He struck out seven and also figured in two of the Glenn rallies.

The winners put together singles by Gary Roland, Larry Allen, Webb and Mike Mousseau for two runs in the first inning. In the third, a homer by Allen, a walk to Webb, Steve McKolay's double and a fielder's choice netted Glenn three more runs.

Rick Snow walked in the sixth, stole second, went to third on an infield out and came home on a wild pitch.

PREPARING for state regionals is Mike Bremenou of Garden City East. His team will go to Ann Arbor.

Late Surge Staged by Trojan '9'

"Better late than never" well might be the motto of Clarenceville High's baseball team this spring.

Clarenceville has rebounded after losing six straight to win three out of four.

The Trojans swept two over the weekend by beating Milford, 6-3, and Holly, 2-1.

Mike Nye flipped a six-hitter as his mates rapped out 11 hits against Milford.

Carl Watkins and Tom Schlack singled in two runs in the first inning, then Schlack drove in another in the second when with the help of an error the Trojans added two more runs.

A bases loaded walk brought in the Trojans' fifth run with the final one coming in on Mike Gorton's double with Watkins aboard. Watkins had three hits in the games, Schlack and Gale Armstrong two each.

Armstrong fired a two-hitter to keep Holly well in check. He fanned nine and didn't walk a man.

Errors figured in both the Clarenceville runs, Schlack scoring the first following a walk and a single by Gordon, and Armstrong himself tallying the other after he had doubled.

Here's a Chance For Youngsters

Worms, dough balls, or corn? All boys and girls are invited to try their luck on what fish will bite in the Livonia Parks and Recreation annual fishing derby from 1 to 3 p.m. on Saturday, May 20 near the bridge at Newburgh Lake on Hines Drive one mile west of Newburgh Road.

Competition will be divided for youths 11 years of age and under and those 12 years of age and over. Boys and girls are asked to bring their own equipment.

ter not be members of the top three teams.

Plymouth, Bentley, Stevenson and Franklin have been assigned to the Burroughs regional, while Garden City East and West, Farmington, and North Farmington, Thurston and Redford Union vie in Class A at Glen Oak with Clarenceville in Class B.

In the track regionals, most of the district "A" teams have been assigned to Ann Arbor. The group includes Thurston, Redford Union, Garden City East and West, Plymouth, John Glenn and Livonia's Bentley, Stevenson and Franklin.

Bentley, unbeaten in dual competition this season, shapes up as the top threat with Ypsilanti for the crown at Ann Arbor.

North Farmington and Farmington will go against a strong array of teams, including powerful Pontiac Central, at Ferndale, while Clarenceville hosts a Class B regional. Our Lady of Sorrows goes to Brother Rice in Class C.

The much-heralded Anders baseball tourney has attracted 14 teams with only Farmington and North Farmington from the area by-passing what has become one of the outstanding high school baseball invitational.

The one-defeat-and-out competition is sponsored by the Livonia Recreation Department, the Livonia Optimist Club and the Observer Newspaper Group.

Franklin won the first of the invitationals and Thurston copped the flag last season. The meet is dedicated to the memory of a former high school athletic director in Livonia's three public schools and a man who got the invitational started.

A wide-open race looms for this year's championship trophy to be decided on Memorial Day.

Plymouth and Redford Union from the Suburban Six League, Garden City East from the Mid-Wayne, Thurston and Franklin from the Northwest Suburban, Stevenson from the Interlakes and St. Agatha from the Catholic League all must rate considerable attention.

East and Franklin collide head-on Friday at 8 p.m. in the tourney opener.

In Saturday's action, Wayne Memorial plays Plymouth at 3:30 p.m.; Stevenson vs. St. Agatha at 6 and Bentley tackles Thurston at 8:30.

Two games also are booked for Sunday evening when Garden City West engages Sorrows at 6 p.m. and Clarenceville opposes Glenn at 8:30 p.m.

Northville and Redford Union drew first-round byes and will make their tourney debuts the following weekend.

All games will be played at Ford Field, barring last-minute changes brought on by the weather. There'll be no charge for admission.

A runner-up trophy also will be at stake in the invitationals.

Trackmen Crack Mark in Relays

School records went by the boards as area high school trackmen tuned up for next Saturday's regionals by turning in exceptional performances in the annual Shafer High relays.

The standout showing by the area entries was fashioned by Garden City West's Dan Bell, who won the long jump with a leap of better than 21 ft. 8 1/4 inches to set both a meet and a school record.

He was the only winner, but all of the other area competitors who placed set records for their schools.

There was Glen Dusek of Thurston with a 1:55.5 clocking in the 880-yard run, compared to the old mark of 1:56.

Jack Shepherd of Redford Union ran fourth in the two mile, but his time of 9:38.5 was the lowest in RU's history. The mile relay of Dave Pike, Mike Borg, George Coombos and Jim Childress was clocked in 3:27.7 for a school mark.

Mike Hines of Farmington stepped the 440-yard dash in 50.7 for a school mark as he

Rocks RU, Remain 'Alive' for Pennant

Redford Union and Plymouth both remained in the running for Suburban Six League baseball title this week, although time has begun to run out.

With the campaign in the home stretch, Redford Union and Plymouth stood 4-2 in the conference while Belleville rested at the top with a 5-1 mark.

Meantime, Bentley has kept its hopes alive by beating Plymouth, 4-3, last Friday when Redford

Union squeezed past Allen Park, 6-5.

Bentley has a 3-3 mark. The long ball proved the difference in Bentley's victory over Plymouth to give the Rock's pennant hopes a jolt.

Ed Ryan socked one of the longest circuits ever seen at Plymouth when he cleared the wall in left field by more than 30 feet. His shot came in the second inning to put Bentley on top, 1-0.

But Plymouth came back with two runs in the third when Rick Fillmore walked, Barry Good was safe on a fielder's choice, John Bida singled and Bentley's catcher was guilty of a short passed ball.

But Bentley struck for two runs in the fourth on a double by Ryan and singles by Paul Sorenson and Greg Colten.

Then in the seventh Dave Gorton delivered the deciding blow of the game with a homer that cleared the wall.

Plymouth wasn't dead, however. Two errors and a single by Dan Camp netted the Rocks a run but Camp was nailed trying to reach second and Bill McAlpine, hurling for Bentley, got the final man on strikes.

McAlpine and Camp hurled the route for their respective teams. Each gave up five hits. It was Camp's first loss after three victories in loop play.

Dale Bjerke survived six walks and seven hits as Redford Union nipped Allen Park.

The Townshippers counted in the first inning when Leland Bjerke singled in Rod Ferguson. In the second, singles by Henry DeLong, Jerry Cook and Ferguson brought home another tally.

After Allen Park tied the count at 2-2 in the third, Redford Union exploded for three runs in the fourth. Bill Howe started matters with a single. A triple by DeLong and a double by Kevin Fox knocked in two runs. After Fox was retired on the bases, RU started again.

Dale Bjerke walked and Ferguson and Bob Fritz singled to make it 5-2 for RU.

Allen Park promptly produced three runs in the bottom of the fourth to knot matters again, but in the sixth Dale Bjerke walked and scored on two errors with what proved the winning marker.

West Ace Thrives in Long Races

Whether he runs the mile or two mile, Bill Casper of Garden City West is tough to beat.

He was sent out to do a job in the two-mile in the Belleville Relays and he came through with an impressive victory in the time of 10:04.8.

Two days later, Casper got the call to face Riverside high in the mile. Once more, it was Casper a winner despite a muddy track in 4:45.

Observing SPORTS

By George Maskin

Generally when somebody pops off—with a good or a bad idea—we prefer to mention their name.

In this case, it's better to refer to the lady in question simply as Mrs. X.

To identify her only would stir some trouble in her household and certainly that's the last thing we would like to have happen.

This mother of five is quite a gal—and she's not our spouse—let it be said the Maskin household contains only three offspring, unless you toss in Cookie, our dog.

But to get back to Mrs. X. She's no stranger to the sports scene. You'd know her name if we spelled it out. Athletics have played a big part of her life—at least since she was married over 15 years ago.

But sports is hitting her and her husband in a much different way now. Like so many other moms, she thought it would be great if her son could engage in everything in school.

She thrilled—so did dad—when the kid went out for football. Then it was basketball. Now it's track.

Then came the big discovery. Son's marks were beginning to slip.

So what does mom do now? And pop?

Do you suddenly tell the boy, you can't participate any more? That's easier said than done.

Okay, you blast the boy. You warn him. You threaten him. You tell him that without good grades in school, his educational future is in jeopardy.

No college . . . and all of that.

Business Is Booming At Wolverine Track

Philip Brian, a fleet six-year-old Honor's Truax gelding, showed his heels to a fast field Saturday to win the $5,100 Open Handicap Pace at Wolverine Raceway in 2:03.2 before a crowd of 8,839.

That was the fastest clocking of the meeting, which closes on May 31, and the third triumph for the pacer who is owned by Louis and

Gerald Mijal of Westland. It was a wire to wire win for Philip who took the lead on the first turn, lost it between calls to General Knox, came on again to open up a length at the three-quarter pole. That's where Russet Chip came roaring up to challenge but couldn't match the closing speed of the winner. The victory boosted Philip's earnings for the year to more than $15,000 and made him the first Open Class pacer to win three of the rich overnights.

With the meeting rapidly drawing to a close, Wolverine shows a nightly average handle of $427,777, an increase of 6 per cent over the $397,257 for the same period a year ago. Saturday's handle was $564,726 and boosted the season total to $18,394,393.

The cold weather took its toll in the turnstile count which dipped to a nightly average of 5,796, a drop of one per cent from the 5,857 average for the same number of nights in 1966.

Kendelwood Elby and Sonny Fortune, two of Michigan's champions of 1966, started 1967 in much the same manner they closed the last season — with victories. Elby, a four-year-old Elby Hanover gelding owned by the Kendelwood Stock Farm of Howell, was matched against the fastest and best trotters on the grounds in a $4,100 preferred trot and won handily for his third in a row.

Elby was held well back in the field by driver-trainer Harold Fisher and then stormed home in the stretch to beat Alshire's Abbe by a neck.

Sonny Fortune, a three-year-old Elby Hanover colt owned by Briar-Lee Farm of Northville, had to go all out to turn his second outing into a victory in a $3,100 conditioned trot.

With Ted Taylor in the sulky, Sonny battled True Valley throughout the last half of the mile race and finally forged ahead in the closing strides for a neck triumph. Sonny won 20 of 28 heats a year ago to win the state's two-year-old honors.

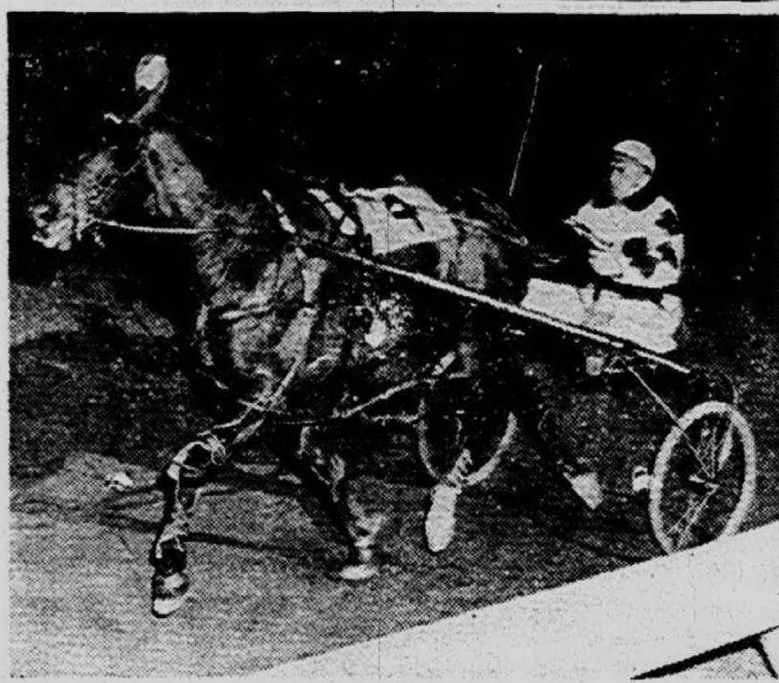

Tennessee Oscar, a six-year-old Tennessee Bill gelding owned by Dr. Frank Todd of Miamisburg, O. and driven by Clyde Snook, maintained his current hot streak Friday when he won the featured pace.

Oscar, who had a three-victory string snapped the week before, stayed in the No. 2 hole while Vesta's Boy Len set a torrid pace. Then Snook took the big pacer to the outside, he duelled with Vesta's Boy Len momentarily and then held off the late rush of Trotwood Bob and Way to Go to win by three-quarters of a length in 2:06.1. Way to Go was second and Trotwood Bob third.

Thurston Paces Rivals in Golf

Thurston high's golf team came through with victory over Franklin and Groves in a triangular meet. The winners has a score of 162 to 166 for Groves and 170 for Franklin.

Franklin also lost to Northville, 168-169, despite a 40 by Jim DeRubeis and 42's by Ron Higgins and Chris Roy.

ALL ALONE as he passes under the finish line to win Saturday's $5,000 Open Pace at Wolverine Raceway, is Philip Brian, owned by Louis and Gerald Mijal of Westland. The speedy veteran paced the mile in 2:03.4, fastest clocking of the meeting which ends on Wed., May 31.

AT ST. AGATHA:

Pitching Coach Receives Praises

Coach Jerry Sievert of St. Agatha high's baseball team has his forces running away with honors so far in the Southwest Division of the Catholic League.

With a 6-0 record, St. Agatha all but has wrapped up the flag as the regular season chase is slated to end this week.

But Sievert doesn't take all the credit for the St.

Agatha success story. He insists that Herm Harrison, who has helped with the coaching, rates a flock of orchids — especially for the way Harrison has worked with ace St. Agatha pitcher Chuck Costello.

Costello upped his season's record to 5-0 last Friday in blanking Wyandotte on a three-hitter.

"What a job Harrison has done with Costello," says Sievert. "Chuck was just an average schoolboy pitcher until Harrison took over."

"Costello used to throw with a three-quarter delivery," added Sievert. "Now he's throwing overhand, something like Sandy Koufax did, and you can see what a difference it has made."

Costello fanned 11 and walked four against St. Patrick.

His mates scored one run in the first when Paul Reicha singled, stole second and scored on Mike Wlezniak's one-base clout.

In the second, Ron Blackmore singled, stole second and third and came home on John Minahan's perfect squeeze.

Wlezniak's homer in the third ended the day's scoring. St. Agatha had games remaining this week against Ypsilanti St. John's, Immaculate Conception and Royal Oak St. Mary's.

1-0 Loss Rough on Stevenson

Heartbreaking! No word better befits the 1-0 loss Stevenson High suffered at the hands of Pontiac Northern.

Not only was the only run scored without the benefit of a hit, but:

1—Losing pitcher Paul Tonnemacher permitted only two hits in the game.

2—Stevenson wasted good chances to score.

3—The setback left Stevenson with a 3-2 record in the Interlakes Conference and all but ended the Livonians' hopes of catching front-running Waterford.

The lone run came with two outs on an error after another miscue had put the runner on base.

Stevenson had a fine chance in the fifth when a double by Phil Camp and walks to Tonnemacher and Tim DeWitt loaded the bases.

In the seventh, Camp opened with a single, but was erased in a disputed double play which ended Stevenson's chances for the day.

Twice a Mat Champ

East Gets Jolt In Title Chase

If Garden City East's baseball team is to reign as Mid-Wayne League champs this spring, it's going to take a comeback.

East fell from the lead when nipped by Riverview, 3-2, in the first setback of the campaign for the Garden City team in league play this year.

Fortunately, East had beaten Taylor, 6-2, two days earlier, so that East is just a half game off the pace.

East had only itself to blame for bowing to Riverview. Five straight times East had the leadoff man on base, but the team couldn't capitalize on all its fine opportunities.

Losing pitcher George Dobozy deserved a better fate. He allowed three hits, but six walks and two hit batters got him into some trouble.

East tallied a run in the first inning on singles by Joe Huber, Dobozy and Rick Clark. Mike Sparkman's single, a walk, a fly and an infield out produced the final East run in the seventh inning.

Martin Miller flipped a seven-hitter in East's verdict over Taylor. Two walks, an error and single put Taylor on top, 2-0, in the first inning.

But East responded with three quick markers of its own in singles by Sparkman, Shanks and Huber and a double by Dobozy. The other two East runs were pushed across in the second when Monte Hackman, Sparkman, Shanks and Huber all singled.

The rest of the way, it was shutout baseball for both teams.

Meantime, Garden City West, although out of the running for the Tri Rivers League, made itself felt by clipping front-running Kennedy, 4-2, after falling to Cherry Hill, 4-3.

Bob Chidester flipped an eight-hitter, but didn't walk

Sorrows' Brothers Set Pace

The Christopher Brothers, Mike and Mark, stole the honors Saturday as Our Lady of Sorrows swamped St. John's, 71-47, in track.

Mike won the high jump at 5-10, the long jump with a leap of 18 feet, 9 3/4 inches and the 220-yard low hurdles in 22.2 seconds.

Mark took the 100-yard dash and then came back to win the 220-yard dash.

Sorrow's Joe Valenti captured the high hurdles, Bill Hartsock triumphed in the 449 and Hartwick and Jerry Horner tied for first in the pole vault.

The mile relay also won for Sorrows. They race Saturday in the regionals.

Observing Sports

Maybe what you have to say to him has some affect. But, as his mother told us the other evening:

"There has to be a more sensible way . . . a way in which the schools work with the parents and even the boys." What's her opinion?

"Why not limit the boys to how many sports they can engage in? Especially those who are still in junior high and may be in their first year of senior high."

"I feel that if a boy goes out for football, he shouldn't be allowed to report for basketball. He needs the time between football and whatever spring sports he picks to get back into the deep-studying-groove. To relax a little, too."

"Take a boy who plays football. He's out there four or five nights a week until around six o'clock. By the time he gets home for dinner, he's exhausted. After all, he has to be up around 6:30 or 7 in order to catch the bus."

"The result is that the boy doesn't have the time he should have in the evening to take care of his home work. It's bound to peril his grades."

"Now if the same boy jumps right from football to basketball or swimming or maybe wrestling, it's the same thing all over again. Long hours in school and not much time at home to relax and to handle the assignments his teachers send with him."

"That's why I say make it mandatory that no boy can engage in successive sports. Yes, it would mean that youngsters who are on basketball, swimming and wrestling teams couldn't engage in any spring sports."

"Granted the boys might complain. Sure their schools might be deprived of some good athletes."

"But in this day of busy-busy-busy, we simply have to do something to slow up the boys, and the girls, a little."

Mrs. X's idea rates consideration, particularly when you consider, too, that most of us parents are "too pushy" with our kids.

The mothers get disturbed when their daughters of 13 and 14 don't receive calls for dates. Fathers become alarmed because their nine and ten-year-old sons can't hit a baseball like Al Kaline.

We doubt that the State High School Association would pass any legislation which would restrict the number of major sports in which a boy can participate.

But, there's nothing to stop a local schoolboard from tackling the issue and perhaps setting the guidelines which might result in the entire state and the entire nation following suit.

Our friend, Mrs. X, doesn't feel that keeping a boy from joining a team would affect him, mentally or physically.

"The boy has gym classes every day of the week and if such classes are properly conducted, the boy would get all the physical work he needs during that period in which he is not a member of a team."

Besides, our schools have enough students so that if my idea were followed more boys would receive the opportunity to represent their schools on a varsity level.

"As matters now stand, in many schools it's the same group of boys pretty much who are on most the teams."

Does Mrs. X have any supporters? Step up and permit yourselves to be counted.

586 Dogs Vie for Honors in Livonia Show on Friday

The Livonia Kennel Club will stage its annual spring All Breed Dog Show, May 19, with 586 entries in 77 different breed scheduled to be shown.

Judging hours will be from 3:30 p.m. until 11 p.m. at the hall of UAW-CIO Ford Local No. 182, 35603 Plymouth Rd. Variety group judging will take place at 8:30 p.m.

More poodles—63—are entered than any other breed, with Irish Setters earning runner-up honors at 33. Doberman Pinschers with 25 entries and Cocker Spaniels with 24 also rank well up in the individual breed representation.

Wayne State University's winningest crew team was the 1966 squad which won 7 of 11 dual meets.

Kitchen Dangerous Says Poison Expert

ANN ARBOR—Your child is most likely to be poisoned in the kitchen and least likely to be poisoned in the garage, statistics show. Dr. George H. Lowrey, director of the University of Michigan Hospital's Poison Control Center, says almost all poisonings occur in the home.

Dr. Lowrey urges both physician and parent to "hide the pills." Half of the one million nonfatal poisonings and 1,500 deaths each year could be prevented by putting a way medications properly, he said.

"It is an interesting comment on our way of life that tranquilizers have overtaken barbiturates as the second most common cause of poisoning. Aspirin is still the No. 1 killer and aspirin can be found in nearly every home. Birth control pills may soon top the list," he stated.

Physicians can help reduce the amount of drugs in the home by prescribing only what is needed for an immediate illness. Then few pills would be left over on the bedside table or in the bathroom cabinet.

Physicians should not only tell specifically how to use the drug but, just as important, should tell where to store those "pills that look like candy." Two-thirds of the poisons swallowed by youngsters are not in their usual storage places when discovered by children.

The most dangerous age is one to three years, said Dr. Lowrey. At that age inquisitive tots taste almost anything they can reach. They are also good at improvising equipment to reach those "safe" places.

Most poisonings occur when mother is home, he said, but not necessarily in the same room. After the kitchen, most accidental poisonings occur in the bedroom, bathroom, living room, porch, basement, dining room, hall, and garage.

University Hospital maintains a Poison Control Center (Telephone 313-764-5102) to assist physicians throughout the area by identifying poisonous substances and recommending antidotes and treatments. The center has received more than two calls a day during the past five years.

Westland F.D. Keeps Busy During March

Westland's Fire Department experienced a 40 per cent increase in fire calls in March as compared to the previous, reported Fire Marshall Milton Quiring.

He said that during the past month, the firemen answered 131 calls as compared to 93 during February.

Of those calls, 62 were actually fire calls, nearly double the 33 figure reported in February, and 68 were rescue alarms, slightly higher than the 59 the previous month.

Even more significant than the number of calls is the actual dollar loss of $39,945 reported in March, more than double the $18,160 figure of February.

The three-month total for 1967 is now $63,945, or about $3,000 higher than the first three months of 1966, Quiring reported.

For the first quarter of this year, firemen have answered 347 calls, as compared to 299 during the corresponding period the year before.

Of the 62 fire calls last month, 24 were in buildings and 24 in brush and fields.

Quiring also reported that the fire prevention bureau made 16 inspections, received 11 complaints, made three re-inspections, issued three violations, saw three conditions corrected, and gave eight lectures before a combined audience of 743. The total persons addressed this year is now 1,303, nearly double the 663 figure for the first three months of 1966.

11 Teachers Leaving Wayne Schools

The Wayne Community Board of Education, whose district includes most of Westland, accepted resignations from 11 teachers last week, approved two maternity leaves of absence for two others, and accepted contracts for three new teachers.

Nine teachers who will leave the district at the end of the term are Grace Bell, Patchen, fourth and fifth grades; Helen Brown, Washington, fourth grade; Donna Lask, Franklin Junior High, math; Arvilla Meredith, Norris, third and fourth grades; Roberta Pierce, Edison, second grade; Alice Soo, Marshall Junior High, math; Donna Sommerman, Adams Junior High, physical education; Linda Walters, Glenn High, English; and Virginia Bird, Stottlemeyer, vocal music.

Two who left as of last month were Mrs. Carol Janet Zell, who left earlier to take a maternity leave and Ruth Miller, Lincoln, fourth grade.

Teachers having their contracts approved were Norma King, Madison, fourth grade; Sharon Ross, Kettering, kindergarten; and Comelia King, Franklin Junior High, home economics.

Value Holds, House Cost Can Hit Zero in 25 Years

Buying a home is the biggest financial step the typical family ever takes, one that many people approach with needless trepidation.

Yet, did you know that, over a 25-year period, your house could cost you nothing? Compare that to car purchases which could dig into your bank account over the same period to the tune of $23,000 or more.

Persuasively weighing long-term outlays for shelter and wheels, two basic family needs, was Editor Richard W. O'Neill in a recent issue of the authoritative House & Home magazine. He put it this way:

"Assume the house buyer takes out a 25-year, $20,000 mortgage on a $25,000 house. At 7 per cent interest, he will pay $42,408 on the mortgage in 25 years, but income tax deduction of $22,408 in interest will give him an effective rebate, in the 30 per cent tax bracket, of $6,722.

"So his house will actually cost him $35,686 in mortgage payments plus his $5,000 down payment—or a total of $40,686.

"But using the most conservative estimates of increasing value, the house will be worth at least $40,000 after 25 years—and that figure does not include an annual 1.2 per cent inflationary factor in the value of money.

"In short, he will be able to get back every bit of money he has put into his house, it will have cost him nothing.

"Let's also assume that the home buyer buys eight cars and keeps each for three years—and that each car is worth approximately $4,000 and is financed at 12 per cent.

At the end of the 25-year period, he will have paid about $23,000 for his cars and will wind up with only one car valued at about $1,600," states O'Neill.

Raiders Victors In Golf Match

A brilliant 39 by Doug Lamb paced North Farmington's golf team to victory in a triangular meet as the Raiders posted 175 to 177 for Oak Park and 197 for John Glenn.

Tim Byrne had 44, Bob Gilmour 45 and Mike Sauer a 46 for the winners.

Michigan Trampolineists Invited to World Meet

ANN ARBOR—Michigan ace trampolineists Dave Jacobs and Wayne Miller were selected to represent the United States at the World Trampoline Meet in London in June, following successful bids in the U. S. trials at Natchitoches, La.

The Wolverine gymnasts will be accompanied by their coach, Newt Loken who coached the Wolverines to six straight titles before their second place finish this year.

Its 40th for U-M

ANN ARBOR—The University of Michigan football stadium will observe its 40th anniversary this fall.

Maintenance and local property taxes are added costs to the home owner, of course, but these are easily offset by the quantity and quality of living attained by the home-owning family.

Although the interest charged for mortgage money is higher today than it has been for many years, the rate is still considerably less than those charged for autos, appliances and such luxury items as color TV sets, all of which also have a high rate of depreciation.

As a hedge against inflation, the purchase of a home is probably the soundest dollar investment that the average family can make.

School Merger Vote Uncertain

Westland voters may get their chance yet to have their say on the proposed annexation of the Nankin Mills School District to the larger Wayne Community School District.

A state committee on school reorganization, which has been working on a plan to provide a high school program for all Wayne County districts which do not at present have a high school, has recommended four plans for communities in Western Wayne County and the Downriver area.

The proposal, to be on the school board ballot this summer, will ask voters in the Nankin Mills and Wayne districts if they favor the annexation.

At present, Nankin Mills is the smallest district in the state and covers 1.25 square miles in the northern-central portion of Westland. The district has a kindergarten through ninth grade curriculum and sends its tenth, eleventh, and twelfth graders to Bentley High School in Livonia on a tuition basis.

The question of how best to solve the Nankin Mills has been batted around since 1956 and it nearly came to a vote last Dec. 19. However the election was cancelled by the Wayne County Intermediate School District because of a legal technicality involving a public hearing in a Dearborn district.

The state's latest proposal came after a public hearing was held recently for the districts involved.

At that hearing, the Wayne Community School Board, which includes most of Westland, reiterated its stand formulated in the summer of 1965 that it would oppose taking in the entire Nankin Mills district but would favor a plan which would split the district with Livonia. Wayne would be willing to accept the portion south of the Hines Parkway with the area north of it going into the Livonia district.

In the past, Livonia has opposed annexing any portion of the Nankin Mills District. At the hearing, Elwyn Dell, assistant superintendent in Wayne, read the following statement into the record, reflecting his district's views:

"The Wayne Board of Education has for some time, since Aug. 30, 1965, taken the position that it would support the annexation of the portion of the Nankin Mills School District south of the Edward Hines Parkway. The board believes that if the annexation of Nankin Mills is necessary that such division would make sense both from the standpoint of geographic makeup and sharing of the liabilities of the district.

"The board will not support and will actively oppose annexation of the entire Nankin Mills School District to the Wayne district. It should be made clearly understood that the board is not seeking this annexation but recognizes that school districts must take some responsibility to assure educational opportunities for all children."

Over the Back Fence

By BETTY FRANKEL

The flowering dogwood that I planted by my front door a few weeks ago is beginning to bloom. When I picked it out at the nursery, the fat, button-like buds were already starting to unfurl. Now the petal-like bracts that are the showy part of the flower have expanded and faded from green to creamy white. Later in the season—if I'm lucky—clusters of glossy red berries will develop.

Flowering dogwoods are native American trees and are among the most ornamental of our trees and shrubs. In addition to the native white dogwood there are horticultural varieties that have larger flowers and flowers produced in greater abundance than on the wild kinds.

The variety "White Cloud" is outstanding for the number of flowers it produces. My tree is a new variety called "Cherokee Princess."

There are also native dogwoods with pink flower bracts. These have been in cultivation since 1731—so they're really not new. A red flowered dogwood is new, though. It has vivid flowers up to four inches in diameter and is called "Cherokee Chief".

The Chinese dogwood, Cornus kousa, is a small tree or large shrub that blooms in June. The flowers are very large and are followed by strawberry-like fruits. It is as beautiful as the native types and should be planted more often than it is.

Japanese dogwood, or Cornelian-cherry, blooms early in Spring. It is a shrub or small airy tree that produces a mass of yellow flowers on artistic looking branches. There are about twenty kinds of dogwoods that grow wild in this country. One or two, such as the bunchberry, are only a few inches tall. Most others are medium to tall shrubs. Among the latter, the beautiful red osier dogwood should not be overlooked. It is easy to transplant and grow and is outstanding when the red stems are viewed against the snow. A yellow variety is also available.

The red-stem dogwood and the yellow-stem dogwood can be grown in either sun or shade, but the flowering dogwoods grow best in partial shade, such as that found beneath taller trees. Dogwoods are thin-barked trees and should be planted only in Spring.

Check Ordinances Before Installing Swimming Pool

Swim, anyone? This is a common question today in suburban living where the family swimming pool has almost replaced the importance of two cars in every garage.

Many families can dash easily from their houses to the backyard where pool sizes range anywhere from a small portable for the young fry to giant-size, permanent installations fit to grace many country clubs.

The appeal of pools is much in evidence in northwestern Wayne County.

A drive through Livonia, Redford Township, Plymouth, Farmington, Garden City and Westland will demonstrate to the onlooker that Michigan is the Water Wonderland when it comes to home pools.

However, all that glitters is not gold!

Everyone considering buying an outdoor pool should make sure he is aware of all its involvements.

There are problems involving cleaning the pool, keeping the water pure, and keeping the neighbors out—especially the tots who are lured to danger by the sight of cool, refreshing water.

Each homeowner should thoroughly check the ordinances which have been passed for public safety in his community. These are not meant to harass the pool-owner, but to make it easier for him to rest assured that his pool will not be a danger spot for the unwary child.

These regulations can be obtained from city or township halls.

Most of the laws call for obtaining a permit and call for nominal fees to cover the cost of administering the ordinance.

An important aspect is the location of the pool and adequate fencing to keep out the toddling youngsters, or his older brother trying to become a Johnny Weissmuller.

Most of the laws require a four-foot high fence with a gate that can be locked. Garden City's ordinance states that "fence shall be designed and constructed so as to make the pool inaccessible to children by climbing or entering through fence openings."

Redford Township requires that "all gates must be locked when the residents are away from the house or when the pool is not in use."

Westland requires that portable pools must be six feet away from the lot line. In Livonia, home pools must be 10 feet from the lot line.

These distances refer to the outside perimeter of the pool.

So, Mr. and Mrs. Homeowner, take a good look at some of the requirements so that you know you can meet them, head for your nearest pool dealer—there are many located in this area—and, after your pool is installed, call me. (I keep a suit in my car.)

Here Are First Aid Tips For "Do-It-Yourself" Guys

Although many homeowners rival professional craftsmen with their prowess at do-it-yourself home improvements, statistically the average home is still the most accident-prone place in the nation. And it becomes even more so when the home handyman starts his work.

"Do-it-yourself" enthusiasts should be as much concerned with accident prevention and proper first aid procedures as they are with the ambitious projects they undertake," advises Dr. John Henderson, medical director of Johnson and Johnson and first aid authority.

"The really well-equipped home handyman should have adequate first aid equipment on hand to cope with emergencies. This is best accomplished by keeping a comprehensive first aid kit in the workshop."

Dr. Henderson offers the following tips to avoid some of the most common injuries encountered in home improvement work:

1. If unaccustomed to physical labor, avoid lifting heavy objects. If heavy lifting is necessary, do it properly: do not lift by using back or abdomen muscles alone, but take advantage of the stronger muscles of the legs. Wear gloves to avoid blisters, minor cuts and scrapes.
2. If the project calls for reaching high places, use a ladder—and never try to use a makeshift platform, boxes or chairs. Inspect ladders before using, for defects such as loose rungs and weakened hinges.

Always have a helper standing by at the bottom of the ladder, to hand up things as needed, and to prevent the ladder from sliding.

3. When working with power tools, make sure they are properly grounded to avoid the possibility of shock. Check the manufacturer's instructions and observe all recommended safety procedures no matter how trivial they might seem.

When accidents do happen, it is important to treat injuries promptly, Dr. Henderson says. Proper first aid prevents infection, promotes healing and comforts the patient until medical help is available.

Here are his suggestions for treating the most common injuries encountered by home handymen:

1. Working with tools, the incidence of cuts, bruises and scrapes is high. These should not be ignored simply because they are minor injuries, since the danger of infection is always great. On superficial wounds, cleanse with sterile gauze pads, soap and warm water, then rinse in running water. Apply antiseptic from the first aid kit and dress wound with an appropriate bandage.

Therapist Writes Paper On Hospital

A Garden City woman who heads the Occupational Therapy Department at Ann Arbor Hospital, Wayne, presented a paper on the "Organization, Administration and Treatment at Peoples Community Hospital Authority" at the annual spring meeting held recently by the Michigan Occupational Therapy Association.

The woman, Miss Carol Hays, of 27883 Maplewood, heads the department at one of the four hospitals in the PCHA, which includes Garden City and Westland among its 23 member communities.

The spring meeting included lectures, panel discussions, and a new motion picture designed to inform occupational therapists and their associates of the latest developments in occupational therapy and related fields.

"Do-It-Yourself" Painters Find Rollers Are Handy

The role of rollers as a painting tool is rapidly broadening, as more and more homeowners turn to the "do-it-yourself" principle for both exterior and interior paint jobs.

Quick and easy to use, rollers have always appealed to the do-it-yourselfer. Now, refinements in roller design go still further to provide flexibility, speed difficult paint jobs and achieve professional-looking results.

Usually, the do-it-yourselfer will find that more than one roller is necessary if the finished job is to look really finished.

For painting broad expanses, it's "merrily we roll along" with a large roller, deep-napped for rough-textured surfaces, short-napped or standard-napped for smoother surfaces.

The "nap" refers to the wicking capacity of the roller covering—how much paint it can hold, ready to roll on.

For angled edges, hard-to-paint corners, hard-to-reach areas and contoured surfaces, both specially-shaped rollers and ingenuity in using them are helpful.

A specially-shaped roller for corner painting has a ridged, angular core that fits up against both wall corners at once.

In painting house exteriors, an offset edging roller is useful. Undersides of house shakes should be "caught" with this roller, before painting the broad exposed areas of the shakes with a heavy-duty, deep nap roller.

A welcome innovation is the wrap-around roller with flexible axle. It conforms to contoured surfaces, thus speeding painting of stair rails and newel posts.

It's handy, too, for painting downspouts, lolly columns, pipes and other architectural features.

Hard-to-reach surfaces such as ceilings, roof overhangs and high walls can be painted without resort to ladders or scaffolding. An extension pole, fastened to butt of roller frame, is the answer.

A number of other special rollers for special purposes are available.

Local hardware and paint stores can provide information on the newest in rollers and accessories, plus helpful advice on how to use them.

Realtor's Sales Up 29 Per Cent

A record gain in house sales for the first four months of 1967 is reported by the Gordon Williamson Co., whose headquarters for a real-estate brokerage service are at 19180 Grand River.

Daniel R. Williamson, vice president and treasurer, said: "From Jan. 1 to May 1, our total home sales were $6,322,000.

"This represented a gain of 29 per cent over the first four months of 1966, when we closed $4,886,000 in home sales alone, in addition to sales of rural properties, vacant land and Florida properties in the General Development Corp. communities."

Gordon Williamson, president, said the gains of the present year were all the more impressive when compared to sales of houses and land upon which they stand for 1965 and 1964.

"Total closings in the existing-home category from Jan. 1, 1964, to May 1, 1964, were $2,819,511," Williamson said.

Williamson's sales in the first four months of 1965 totaled $4,440,315. That was prior to the opening of the company's two offices in Birmingham and in Livonia.

The firm has just completed its first year as a computerized home-finding service, and the Williamsons regard the electronic home finder, installed in the Livonia office and connected to all the firm's offices, including Dearborn and Farmington, as having been responsible for the record gains made in 1966 and in the last four months since Jan. 1.

Williamson recently announced total sales figures for 1966. There were 713 transactions involving homes, for a total of $15,451,214. In addition, the firm sold $595,100 worth of commercial and vacant properties in 1966, for a total of $595,100. That raised the firm's total for the year to $16,046,314.

Seniors To Have Commencement In Detroit

For the first time in the community's history, Westland seniors graduating next month will have their commencement ceremonies held outside of their school.

In a new innovation breaking with past practices, Wayne Memorial and John Glenn High Schools will hold their graduating ceremonies on the same date, Saturday, June 10, in the Ford Auditorium in Detroit's Civic Center.

Glenn High will have its commencement at 5 p.m. that day with Wayne Memorial seniors having its ceremony at 8:30 p.m. that night.

On the Lawn

With Larry Lawrence

There are two remarks that I hear every spring just as regularly as I hear the redwings, back from their trip down south.

The first is "Why should I feed the grass so early, when it's hardly started to grow?" The other one is "Look, my grass is getting green anyway, so I guess I don't have to fertilize it."

The answer, if an answer is called for, is the same in both cases. Lawn grasses need food that will strengthen and develop their roots. The earlier you feed, the sooner root development will get started, with benefits that will be evident all summer.

And never forget that grass, so long as it is alive at all, will green up and start to grow in spring no matter how under-nourished it may be. However, a green lawn that is kept cut requires a continuous food supply.

This time element is the reason why a slow release fertilizer is preferable to one that gives a quick shot in the arm but is liable to have its nutrients leached away by the first heavy downpour. The time to feed a lawn in spring is the first nice day when the ground is firm enough to walk on comfortably. And if you breathe deeply and forget your troubles, it could do you almost as much good as the grass.

Large Savings Increase Revealed

The first four months of 1967 have broken a 20-year record for American Savings and Loan Association in the net gain in savings, according to Alfred L. Deutsch, president of the association. Its resources reached approximately $200 million as of May 15.

"Savers have added more than $9 million to their accounts since Jan. 1," said Deutsch. He added that this record gain had confirmed his confidence in the future of the Detroit metropolitan area.

At the same time, Deutsch revealed that American Savings had added to its mortgage commitments to local home buyers and builders approximately $8.5 million since the first of the year, bringing the association's home mortgage portfolio to more than $162 million.

George M. Zeltzer, executive vice president of the association, said that new American branches were opened last year in Detroit, Bloomfield, and Southfield. The 1967 building program includes another branch in Southfield. Ground has been broken for the building already.

This will give American Savings a total of 15 offices, including its downtown Detroit headquarters at 600 Woodward Ave.

The announcement of gains in both savings and home lending came as the association started observance of its 20th anniversary. The association, which is Michigan's largest state-chartered S&L and among the top 75 in the country, started operations May 19, 1947, in Detroit. Founder of the association was Adolph Deutsch, father of Alfred L. Deutsch. The elder Deutsch is now in semi-retirement.

Looking For Home? Do It In Bad Weather

Is good weather the only time to go househunting? Not at all, say many experienced real estate people. They point out that bad weather is just as good a time—and maybe better.

On a rainy day, or just after a snowfall, you don't have to put up with people who consider househunting a Sunday afternoon pastime.

Agents or present owners showing the house can give you far more attention. They have time to go over those small, but important, details that make the difference between a house that you really enjoy and one that you merely put up with.

But more than that, bad weather gives you a chance to observe how a house performs under adverse conditions.

During a cold spell, for example, is it chilly in some places and overheated in others? Has snow melted on the roof quickly? Has moisture condensed on the windows?

All of these are signs of trouble spots that can cost you money later on.

Here are some major items to check for:

•HEATING—If there are cold spots in the house, find out where the hot air vents or radiators are placed and check to see if more heat can be circulated into the cold areas.

If an entire wing or section of the house is cold, look into the possibility of having a separate thermostat installed to control the heat in that area.

•ROOFING—One of the most important things about a house is the roof. Check in the attic for leaks and water damage. Look at ceilings, above mantel pieces and around chimneys for other signs of leakage coming from a poorly applied flashing or worn-out roof.

You want to make sure that the house you're buying has a durable roof with plenty of life left in it.

A heavyweight asphalt shingle roof, for example, gives sound protection against adverse weather and is designed by the manufacturer to be weather-proof for more than 20 years.

In high-wind areas, look for self-sealing shingles which carry an Underwriters Laboratory seal for wind-resistance.

•INSULATION—After a snowfall, see how much snow remains on the roof compared with other houses in the neighborhood.

If snow is heaped up, it's a sign of good insulation. Heat is not escaping from inside the house and melting the snow. This cuts down on fuel costs.

•WINDOWS—Check for cold spots near windows and condensation on window panes.

Both may be caused by metal sash which transmits heat to the outside and cold to the inside and lowers the glass temperature so moisture forms and condenses on the panes.

Wood windows, on the other hand, cut heat loss and prevent condensation because the wood sash acts as a natural insulator.

Be Careful In Picking Camp Site

If you're taking your family out camping for the first time, it would be a smart—and safe—move to make use of the public campsites in parks and national forests, advises the Greater Detroit Safety Council, a chapter of the National Safety Council.

"The advantage of stopping overnight there is that the three basic requirements for a good campsite have been provided for you," says Gerald E. Montgomery, executive director of the local safety organization.

"Ivory Tower" had its world premiere at the Lydia Mendelssohn Theater last week and proved to be an extraordinarily impressive play. The University of Michigan Professional Theater Program scored a direct hit in this exciting presentation of a new play by two veteran playwrights, Jerome Weidman and James Yaffee.

Essentially a courtroom drama depicting the trial of Simon Otway for treasonable action in making four propaganda broadcasts for the Italian government during World War II, "Ivory Tower" reaches out beyond the confining limits of a court of law and penetrates into the frustrated lives of its viewers.

In fact, Director Marcella Cisney cast the audience in the role of the jury. We, the audience, were asked to judge Simon, the poet, as to his allegiance to the society

OC College Schedules Festival

June has been designated Mini Festival Month by the Community Services Division of Oakland Community College.

Available to the public through the month will be films, art, tours and music. A three-part lecture/film series will be devoted to the topic of Man Alone on June 14, 21 and 28. Each film, "Woman in the Dunes," "Knife in the Water," and "Blue Angel" will be preceded and followed by discussion of the main topic. Each program will begin at 8 p.m. at Highland Lakes Campus, 7350 Cooley Lake Road, Union Lake.

An outdoor art exhibit will be held from 12 noon to 6 p.m., Sunday, June 25, at Highland Lakes Campus. All amateurs and professionals are welcome to see, buy and/or exhibit. Art will be exhibited by OCC students and local amateur and professional artists. Admission is free.

A Chicago tour will leave at 7 p.m., Friday, June 2, from the Bloomfield Plaza Shopping Center, Telegraph at Maple, and return Sunday, June 4. The tour will be housed in the Conrad-Hilton Hotel across from the Chicago Art Institute where the Andrew Wyeth Retrospective will be in its final three days.

A flight tour to Expo '67 is slated to leave Friday, June 16 and return Monday, June 19.

A series dealing with communication and music is slated for 8 p.m. on June 5, 19 and 28 in the Bloomfield High School Auditorium.

Directs Musical

William Johnston, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston, 26770 Holly Hill, Farmington, is a member of the executive committee and director of musical conductor of Kalamazoo College's production of "Show Boat" to be presented May 25-27.

If the second act could contain more of this provocative impact, "Ivory Tower" would soar to more rewarding dramatic heights. Simon Otway, the poet, is too valuable a leading character to be allowed the questionable luxury of sitting silently throughout the lengthy review of his life.

Bette Henritze as Mrs. Otway has a brief appearance on the stand, but her thoughtful handling of the role kept it from getting too melodramatic. In fact, each of the witnesses received grateful audience recognition on their exit for their incisive portrayals.

"Ivory Tower" is an absorbing dramatic experience, tantalizing and certain to rivet your attention to a most perplexing problem of our times: how far does an individual go in promoting his personal freedom of expression before it endangers the lives of others?

FRANKLYN K. CARNEY, world traveler, adventure and prize winning photographer, shows the trophy he won at the Toronto Film Festival to Garry Kiklasch, a German Consulate worker in Toronto. Carney will show the travelogue "A Grand Tour of Northern Europe" in the Wayne Memorial High School Auditorium Wednesday, May 31, at 8 p.m. The presentation is sponsored by the TB and Health Society as a public service.

European Travelogue To Be Shown in Wayne

The presentation of the award-winning travelog film "A Grand Tour of Northern Europe" at Wayne Memorial High School Auditorium at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, May 31, will give area residents a chance to see the Toronto Travel Film Festival winner and, at the same time, get better acquainted with a most talented neighbor.

The travelog, photographed during 35,000 miles of driving by Franklyn K. Carney of Belleville, and sponsored in Wayne County by the Tuberculosis and Health Society as a public service, is as colorful as its producer.

Carney, no stranger to travel, hitch-hiked by ox cart from British Honduras to El Salvador and north through Guatemala and Mexico on what is now the Pan-American Highway when he was a mere 14 years of age.

By the time he was 27 he had worked his way through medical school at Dkue University of Vienna, he was one of the victims of the German Blitzkrieg as they rolled into Austria. He escaped by barge down the Danube across the Black sea to Istanbul, and down Cairo.

Breakfast in England, lunch in Russia, and dinner in Italy was almost an every day occurrence of Colonel Carney during World War 11. As director of photography for the United States Air Force in Russia, he was the first American combat pilot to land in that country.

After the war, Frank Carney, as an authority on Russia, became an advisor to the Armed Forces, lecturing on that country throughout the United States and Europe.

Many of Carney's exciting and lusty adventures are recorded in his popular book "Love 'n Kisses." This novel of a bachelor's travels in Europe relates the breathtaking experiences of climbing the Matterhorn, swimming the legendary Lorelei and fighting windmills with the ghost of Don Quixote in Spain. Also, by Frank Carney, is a recently published series on sketches on famous European landmarks called "Europe on a Pencil."

Concert Scheduled

James Tocco, 23-year-old pianist, returns from Europe to play his first public recital in Detroit in almost three years at Wayne State University's Community Arts Auditorium, Monday, May 22 at 8:30 p.m.

The concert which is sponsored by Marygrove College Music Club will feature works of Mozart, Schumann, and Prokofieff.

Also included in the program will be the use of the sensational Baldwin SD-10 piano; which, since its recent introduction, has been causing much comment from both critics and concert goers.

Tocco, since beginning his studies in Paris three years ago, has won two major international competitions. In 1964 he won first prize in the Magda Tagliaterra Competition in Paris. The following year he took the first in the Maria Canals Competition in Barcelona, Spain.

During the past year he has been concertizing throughout many of Europe's major cities via the concert halls, television, and radio, winning critics' acclaim wherever he went.

He is a former student of Royal Oak pianist and teacher Boris Maximovich and a former resident of Farmington.

Farmington's O. E. Dunckel Junior High School's 10th annual concert, "A Miracle of a Dream," will be presented in the school at 8 p.m., May 19-20.

Groups which will take part include the Mixed Choir, Boys' Choir, Girls' Choir, the Melodiers, the Duncklelettes, the Junior Misses and the Boys' Ensemble.

A feature of the show will be performances by the Boys' Sextet, whose members are Bob Brown, Doug Gilmour, Bill Page, Harv Sell, Doug Valassis and Fred Weller.

Concert accompanist will be Mrs. Breta Evans. The interpreter will be Robert Huber.

Various directors include: choreography, Kay Kornmesser, Kinda Oldershaw, Linda Wayne, Sheila Sorvari and Mary Ann Feller; lighting, Robert Brown; sound, Glen Reimer; make-up, Joanne Kalman. Diane Reimer designed the programs and posters.

Tickets may be purchased at the door the night of the concert.

IT'S MICHIGAN MUSIC Festival time again, and 12-year-old Doug Berdeaux of 32621 Biddestone, Farmington Township, is one of 800 piano students who will perform in the huge concert at Cobo Arena June 4. The Festival, which will feature about 200 pianos and 25 organs, is sponsored by Grinnell Brothers and the Festival Teachers Association. Doug is a student of Farmington piano instructor Margaret Koltz.

Campers to Form New Local Chapter

The National Campers and Hikers Association is establishing a new chapter in western Oakland and Wayne Counties.

The organization has four main goals:

- To work towards the conservation of natural resources;
- To provide a friendly atmosphere of camping among members;
- To establish regional centers from which members unfamiliar with the area may obtain reports on camp sites, trails and game laws, and
- To recommend improvements in camping and hiking facilities wherever the need exists.

A new chapter has been formed in the Detroit area with members from Farmington, Northville, Redford and Taylor. This newest chapter will be open to families with children 10 years and younger, with a membership limited to 15 families in the chapter.

Anyone interested in joining this new camping group is invited to attend the next meeting, and bring along another camping family, Sunday, May 21, at 3 p.m. at Merri-Bowl Lanes, 30950 Five Mile Road, Livonia.

The NCHA chapter will be known as "The Prairie Dogs and Pups," is under the direction of Elmer Mikkola, president, Redford Township; Robert Ferguson, vice president, Northville; Don Peterson, treasurer, Redford Twp.; Pat Zinglman, secretary, Farmington, and Gary Pike, board member, Farmington.

NY Puppet Show Comes to Detroit

With the extravagant staging usually lavished on Broadway musicals, the New York Marionette Theatre will present three performances of "Beauty and the Beast" as the final show of the Detroit Puppet Theatre season at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Special scenery, props, lighting and amplification systems will be transported from New York, as well as 16 puppeteers to manipulate 60 marionettes — making the May 27 and 28 performances of the classic fairy tale a spectacular sight.

The New York Marionette Theatre is unique because it is the only municipally owned and operated puppet theatre in the United States. This entertainment is a tradition of New York, drawing crowds of children and adults, particularly during the summer season, when performances are staged out-of-doors. Headquarters for this enterprising company is the Swedish Cottage adjacent to the Park's Shakespeare Garden.

Detroit youngsters will be seeing this new production ahead of many New Yorkers — "Beauty and the Beast" was added to the Marionette Theatre's repertory only a few months ago.

The New York Marionette Theatre's performances in the museum auditorium will be Saturday, May 27 at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.; Sunday, May 28 at 3 p.m. All seats are reserved.

Marygrove Church of Jesus Christ Offers Study Holds Missionary Meet

A new dimension in teacher education will be offered this summer by the Marygrove College Graduate Division's six-week course in film education.

Organized with the needs of teachers in mind, this course in film education will stress an understanding of the film as it reflects and directs the culture which produces it.

James L. Limbacher, past president of the American Federation of Film Societies and playwright for television, stage and radio, will teach the development of art and production techniques in film communication.

Chairman of Marygrove's department of speech and drama, Sister Mary Avila will lecture on drama in the medium of the film; and the Rev. Thomas E. Porter, S.J., Dean of Columbiere College and a film and drama critic, will teach the understanding of the film as it involves an analysis of cultural values.

Complete information may be obtained by writing the Graduate Division of Marygrove College, Detroit 48221, or calling UN 2-8000. Six semester hours of graduate credit will be given to students.

Here's How To Use That Iron-On Tape

Iron-on tape is quick and easy to apply to skirt hems. But sometimes the question is: "Will it stay put?"

Iron-on tape holds best to firmly woven and smooth-textured fabrics, such as medium-weight cottons, points out Bernice J. Tharp, extension clothing specialist of The Pennsylvania State University.

Satin-smooth or sheer fabrics tend to show the "adhesive" or pressing lines. Pebbly, rough, loosely woven, or bonded fabrics don't form a firm enough base to hold the iron-on tape securely.

The way you press affects the hold of the tape, reminds Miss Tharp. Be sure to follow the instructions on the tape package for pressing. One thing you must always remember is not to move the pressed area until the fabric and the tape have cooled.

Iron-on tape may loosen when garments are washed, but you can press the tape back in place.

Whether to use tape instead of a hem put in by hand depends on several things. Among them are: Can you make the hem stable without making it rigid; will the tape show through the fabric; can you press the fabric at the temperature needed to obtain a strong bond with the tape.

When used for homes of straight-cut skirts, iron-on tape gives satisfactory results because there are no tiny folds of fabric to prevent getting a smooth surface. It's the fullness of flared skirts that must be eased in that may cause trouble when applying iron-on tape so it stays put, says Miss Tharp.

Religion with Rock 'n Roll Kiss-Bowser Rites Held At St. Paul Set for Teens in Plymouth

Religion in the language and tempo of youth comes to this area Sunday, May 21, when the "Teen and Twenty Chapel" visits the First Presbyterian Church in Plymouth at 7:30 p.m.

The service will be led by the Rev. Deirn Geard, whose slogan is "There's Rhythm in Religion if it's for Real," and the Teen Tempos, an instrumental combo that brings religious music to the teen vernacular.

The Rev. Geard is a 39-year-old Australian who formerly flew Royal Australian Navy planes and now is serving as interim minister of the Fort Street Presbyterian Church in Detroit while studying at Wayne State University.

He began his "Teen and Twenty" chapel in Toronto, and now conducts it monthly in the inner-city church, where it now draws as many as 1,200 youngsters on a Sunday afternoon.

He calls it "a worship-teaching situation, a valid ministry for the kids," he adds:

"If Christianity is to work for all, it must be relevant, not an out or an exit from reality, but sustaining. It must function."

The music at his services is frequently rock 'n roll, and Susan Gail Bowser and Gerald William Kiss were united in marriage April 29 in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Livonia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bowser of Livonia, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Kiss of Detroit.

The bride wore a portrait gown of organza over peau de soie with lace applique and a chapel train. She carried white roses and stephanotis.

Sally Bowser, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Elizabeth Kiss, Beverly Swickler and Joanne Napolitano.

They wore empire styled floor length gowns of turquoise, and carried daisy bouquets.

Janice Kiss, as flower girl, wore a short bouffant gown. The bride's mother wore bone-colored crepe, trimmed in seed pearls and crystals, and the mother of the bridegroom chose a pink silk dress with a jeweled bodice.

Jerry Yeager was best man and the ushers were Robert Kiss, Robert Terwin, Paul Sossi, and Ted Maslowski.

Church of Jesus Christ Holds Missionary Meet

The Missionary Benevolent Association of the Church of Jesus Christ will hold its semiannual general conference Saturday, May 20, in the Melvindale High School.

Delegates, members, and visitors from throughout the nation and Ontario will assemble for the day's three sessions which are scheduled for 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. The assembly will review the progress of the Association and outline future activities.

The day's proceedings will begin with the general officers presenting their reports and with the delegates of each member unit reporting on their individual group's activities during the past six months.

After these have been concluded, the planning of projects for the next six months, as well as for longer segments in some cases will be formulated.

In the evening meeting, the host "Michigan-Ontario Area" of the organization will present a program entitled, "Let There Be Peace." The area chair will sing selections to emphasize the theme, and skits will be interspersed to augment the musical presentations.

The Missionary Benevolent Association is composed of local, regional, and general levels. The local layer is made up of MBA groups from within the branches of the church, and the regional units, called "MBA Areas," are composed of the local groups from within their regional geographical boundaries.

The general level serves as the head of the organization and is directly auxiliary to the general church, whose main branch is in Monongahela, Pennsylvania.

There are four main purposes for the MBA, scriptural study classes, aid to needy persons, and the spiritual guidance for young people.

The church is not affiliated with any other group and has foreign missions in addition to branches and missions in the United States and Canada.

PTA Collects Stamps For Bus

Collecting enough trading stamps to buy a bus is the current project of the Parent-Teacher Association at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, in Garden City.

The bus is needed to transport children to Sunday School, Bible School and youth activities.

PTA officers said the group would be glad to get any kind of stamps in any quantity. The church is located at Venoy Road and Beechwood.

For Church Leaders

Can You Fill This Space?

The church pages in The Observer have long been the place to look for interesting reports of plans and happenings in the many churches in this area.

We'd like to ask ministers and lay church people in the area to help us make them so.

This box each week could carry a brief message from one of the church leaders in Observerland—we might call it a capsule sermon.

It could be similar to the messages often seen in the fine bulletins and newsletters our churches send to their members.

Our capsule sermons would have to be contained on one sheet of double-spaced, typewritten copy. But we think ministers and lay leaders could get a lot of message into that space.

Bridge Tea Planned

The Blessed Sacrament Monastery Guild will hold its annual flower bridge tea in a downtown store Monday, May 22.

Couple Repeats Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Ross of Redford Township marked their 25th wedding anniversary recently by repeating their vows at Our Lady of Loretto Church.

Methodist Children's Village Holds Open House

The Annual Open House of the Methodist Children's Home Society will be held Sunday, May 21 from 1 to 5 p.m. at Children's Village, 26645 W. Six Mile Road, Redford Township.

The event has special significance this year as the Society is celebrating its 50th Anniversary as a child welfare agency in the State of Michigan.

The Methodist Children's Home Society was started in a small home in Highland Park Jan. 18, 1917 to care for 10 orphaned and neglected children.

In 1922 the "Home" was moved to Farmington where a maximum of 28 boys and girls could be cared for in a typical, three-story, red brick "orphanage" building.

The agency expanded its services to include foster family care and adoption services and continued to serve the orphaned, deserted and neglected child. This "Home" soon became too small and Miss Frances Knight, who was director of the agency at that time, conceived the idea of a village of homes where children could live in surroundings similar to family homes in the community.

In 1929 the agency moved to its present site in Redford Township and Children's Village became a reality.

Children's Village is nationally recognized for its excellent facilities and services to children and adolescents and visitors from many different countries come each year to learn more about its work.

The Methodist Children's Home Society currently employs a staff of 80 professional and non-professional workers under the direction of Clayton E. Nordstrom, Executive Director and has an annual operating budget of $606,000.

It receives support from the Methodist Churches in Michigan, Metropolitan Detroit United Fund, parents of children in care, and individual contributions. The 15 buildings and property of Children's Village have a value of approximately $3,000,000.

Visitors to Children's Village on Sunday, May 21, will have the opportunity to learn more about the services of the Society and to visit in all the cottages for children, The Children's Chapel, and other buildings.

Rev. Richard G. Evans

To Preach at Clarenceville

Rev. Richard Glenn Evans, staff evangelist with the Methodist Church general board, will conduct a series of services at Clarenceville Methodist Church the week of Sunday, May 21.

The visiting preacher will speak at Sunday services at 9 and 11:15 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. throughout the week.

Rev. "Tex" Evans has been called "The Will Rogers of Methodism" and is in great demand as a speaker at church conferences and youth meetings.

He worked in the oil fields of his native Texas and later dug ditches in depression-era California before graduating from the University of Redlands and the Boston University School of Theology.

After a pastorate in a church located at the edge of an Arizona Indian reservation he served as a missionary to Hawaii.

Returning to this country in 1953, he became superintendent of Henderson Settlement, a mission project in the Kentucky Mountain Country, and for 13 years led the complete rebuilding of the mission that services a rural mountain area.

He is recipient of the Goodyear Award for outstanding service to his community and is listed in the current issue of "Who's Who Among Methodists."

The Rev. Evans and his wife and four children currently are residents of Nashville, Tenn. Of his personal convictions about preaching, he says:

"The church has largely grown through preaching. Back of all effective preaching stands the great central truth of the gospel: God is, and God knows, and God cares and God, particularly through the cross, has done mighty work."

Cancer Group Says 'Thanks'

A "thank you theater party" for Michigan Cancer Foundation volunteers who conducted a door-to-door survey on breast cancer during the April Crusade will be held Monday, May 22, at the Palms Theater and Tuesday, May 23, at the Birmingham Theater.

E. W. Tuescher, executive vice-president, said invitations are being mailed this week. If any volunteer who took part in the survey does not receive one, she is urged to contact her district chairman for information.

The "thank you party" will feature a premiere showing of Warner Brothers "Up the Down Staircase" at both theaters.

Women To Honor Top Volunteer

The Women's Advertising Club of Detroit is accepting nominations for the annual Women Who Care Award to be presented to five outstanding women volunteers in the community.

Civic groups and organizations are invited to submit contributions of the candidates before May 19 to Mrs. Lee Murray, the WWJ Stations, 622 West Lafayette, Detroit, Michigan.

Nominations must be submitted by letter and include qualifications, volunteer activities, civic and community contributions of the candidate.

The 1967 Women Who Care Luncheon and Awards Presentation will be held Thursday, June 8.

MEETING WITH Presbyterians from all over the nation at Portland, Ore., this week are Walter O'Neil (left), of the St. Paul Presbyterian Church board of governors, and the Rev. William Whitledge, minister. They are attending the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church May 14 to 24.

New Course For Childbirth Starts May 25

A new six-week series of classes sponsored by the Childbirth Preparation Association will begin May 25 in the Wyandotte General Hospital nurses' home main lounge.

The association is dedicated to the teaching and practice of the psychophysical method of childbirth—formerly known as childbirth without fear. The classes are designed for expectant couples interested in learning of relaxation and breathing techniques during the childbirth process.

Couples interested may call Carol Daniels at 676-6559 for registration or more information.

Three From Area Work On U-D Dinner Dance

Redford Township Judge John M. Dillon was a member of the committee that planned the University of Detroit annual alumni dinner dance at Cobo Hall last weekend.

Other committee members included Robert Bahn, of Rayburn Avenue, Livonia, and Charles Steiner of Hope Avenue, Redford Township.

2 from St. Paul's Join Presbyterian Meet

The Rev. William Whitledge, minister of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Livonia, and Walter O'Neil, a member of the governing board, are attending the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in Portland, Ore. May 14-24.

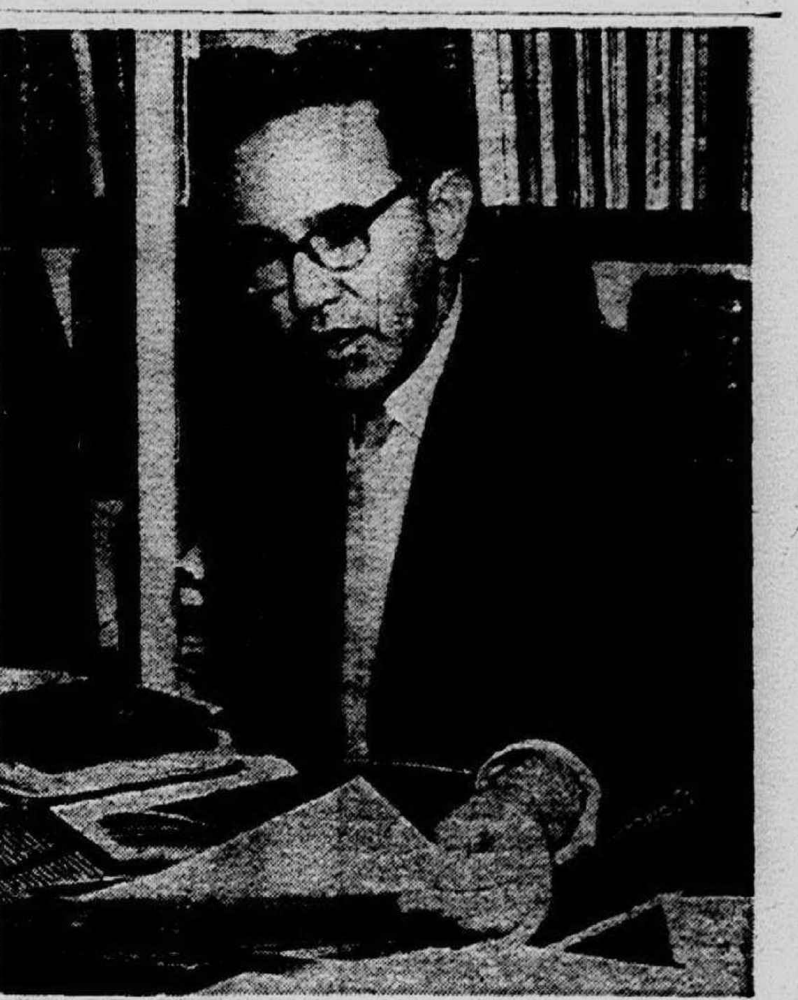

The purpose of the annual assembly, attended by 1,800 commissioners and observers, is to have representatives from various parts of the country near reports of the previous year's work for the church at large. They also set forth the policies and programs for the coming year.

They will report on the meeting to St. Paul's congregation during the regular church services—May 28. Another report will be given by Mr. O'Neil during the monthly meeting of the Detroit Presbytery at the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham on May 31.

Key items up for consideration and votes by The Assembly this year are "The Confession of 1967," and an appeal against the Detroit Presbytery.

Mrs. Tower Attends Grand Rapids Meeting

Mrs. Lyman Tower, of Wood Drive, Livonia attended the 23rd annual state convention of the Michigan Women's Osteopathic Auxillary at Grand Rapids, May 8-10. The meeting was held in conjunction with the 68th annual scientific seminar of the Michigan Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons.

DR. BERNARD MANDELBAUM, new president of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, will be honored by leaders of Conservative Jewish congregations in metropolitan Detroit at a downtown reception Thursday, June 8 at 4 p.m. He is a noted scholar and lecturer and author of several books on Jewish theology.

Rhubarb Is Spring's own Food

Editor's Note: With this issue, The Observer introduces a new food columnist, Joyce Totten. Miss Totten teaches home economics at Plymouth High School, and will bring our readers unusual and seasonal recipes each week.

By JOYCE TOTEN

Spring is the time to get out the pretty molds, try out new recipes and products and make dessert time as lovely as a floral bouquet.

Just as soon as the tiny buds begin to unfurl, winter-weary appetites crave something light and refreshing. Gone is the desire for the busy peoples' standby: cakes, prepared by mixes, prepared pies and the many varieties of cookies.

Bright fruits, cool chiffons and fluffy creams make the scene.

Come Spring, one of the seasonal vegetables I enjoy is rhubarb. The large, fleshy and succulent stalks of the vegetable rhubarb, stewed and sweetened, become a delicious dessert dish.

Rhubarb is frequently classified as a vegetable, but is used as a fruit. Green stalks of the rhubarb plant, sometimes known as the "pie plant," are apt to be tart, while the more colorful pink or red stalks are sweeter.

Rhubarb is popular for pies, puddings and sauces. Never use the rhubarb plant leaves, they are poisonous.

When there is time and energy, try out recipes from scratch. A lovely dessert made from basic ingredients give special pleasure to the homemaker and her guests.

RHUBARB DESSERT

9-10 Servings
2 c. flour
2 T. sugar
1 c. butter

Mix butter, flour and sugar together, pat out in oblong pan (10x6) to form crust. Bake 15-20 minutes at 370° F. until golden brown.

Filling:
3 c. rhubarb
½ c. thin cream
1½ c. sugar
3 egg yolks (beaten)
Juice and rind of 1 orange
2 T. flour.

Place sugar and flour in heavy saucepan. Add rhubarb, cream and orange juice. Cook until rhubarb is done and mixture is thick. Add to egg yolks and return to heat. Pour slightly cooled filling on top of crust. Top with meringue made from well-beaten egg whites and sugar. Bake at 350° F. 12-15 minutes or until meringue is golden brown.

Meringue:
3 egg whites

RHUBARB-RASPBERRY PIE

3 c. rhubarb, cut fine
1 c. raspberries, frozen
1½ c. sugar
3 T. tapioca
1 T. cake flour
½ t. salt
½ t. almond extract
½ t. lemon extract
1 T. butter

Blend sugar, tapioca, flour, and salt. Add the raspberries. Let stand 15 minutes. Add the rhubarb and let stand another 5 minutes. Add almond extract and lemon juice. Pour into pie crust and cover with lattice or crust.

Crust:
3 c. flour (sifted)
1 t. salt
1 T. confectioners' sugar
1¼ c. lard
1 egg plus enough milk to make ½ c.

Sift the dry ingredients. Cut in the shortening. Beat the egg. Add the milk and mix well. Add to dry ingredients and blend together. Roll on pastry cloth and shape in deep pyrex pie pan.

Glaze:
1 T. fresh cream
1 T. confectioners' sugar
Blend together. Brush on pastry just before pie is put into oven. Bake at 400° F. for 40 minutes.

Symphony Season Ends On Triumphant Note

THE GRAND FINALE for the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra season Saturday evening was a fine program that featured violinist Emily Austin and baritone Nat Sibbold as soloists and ended with a sing-along for the 300 or more music lovers present at the Plymouth High School auditorium. Above, conductor Wayne Dunlap puts the orchestra through a final rehearsal while Sibbold (lower right) relaxes between numbers. At left, Mrs. Paul Rick, who worked out the circus theme decorations, chats at intermission with her husband, son Douglas and daughter Michelle. At lower left, Detroiters Mr. and Mrs. John Donahue, regular attendees at Plymouth pops concerts, visit with their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barbour of Plymouth.

Livonia Group Attends LWV State Meet

Five Livonia women will be attending the 10th Biennial Convention of the League of Women Voters of Michigan in Traverse City May 23-25.

Mrs. John Federspill, Livonia President, will lead the group that also includes Mrs. Robert Hughes, state item chairman, and Mrs. James Callow, first vice president and voters service chairman. Mrs. William Dayton, second vice president and membership chairman, and Mrs. Ferl Thomas, national items chairman.

About 250 Michigan women will be at the session.

Principal speaker will be Edward L. Cushman, Executive Vice President of Wayne State University and former Vice President of American Motors, whose topic is "The Quadruple Revolution."

Cushman will consider responsibilities of various levels of government, a subject of special interest to the League, a non-partisan, national organization whose purpose is to promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government.

He has served at many levels of government from national to local and is currently Chairman of the Detroit City Commission on Community Relations.

Business of the convention will be adoption of a budget, election of officers, and selection of a state program for the coming two years. Delegates next week will be considering adoption of a study based on an analysis and evaluation of the financing of public education in Michigan through grade 12.

The Livonia LWV campaigned for the $23,000,000 school bond issue which was passed in the special election last fall by local voters. The League's interest in this issue came as a result of its studies of school needs in Livonia.

Membership in the LWV is open to any woman 21 years of age, and Mrs. William Dayton, 427-9433, will furnish further information about the organization.

Gentleman Girl Scout Troop Leader Gets Assist from Cooperative Fathers

An amazing guy who has been going it alone in a crowd of Girl Scout femininity will get some moral support this weekend.

That's when Fred J. Monroy, of Farmington, will lead his Cadette troops—and their fathers—on a canoe trip along the Au Sable River.

In years of canoe trips, Monroy knows every turn of Michigan's famed river. He's also well versed in the scouting program—Boy Scouting, that is.

And if his feminine junior high charges now give him any moments of uncertainty, no one in Cadette Troop 317 has ever suspected it.

Monroy has been a Boy Scout leader in Farmington for years. He still is. He's also taught leadership training courses in Scouting for a long time. He still does.

But last fall Mrs. Eileen Schaeffer, neighborhood chairman, tried unsuccessfully to find a leader for a group of junior high Girl Scouts.

YWCA WIL Preview Trip

A preview of the YWCA'S Mediterranean-Greek Isles Cruise leaving Detroit July 13 will be given at the Downtown YWCA Building, 2230 Witherell, on Monday night, May 22 at 7:30 p.m.

The 18-day tour will return to Detroit July 30, except for individuals adding the optional four-day trip to Lisbon and Madrid. The all-expense cost is $874 with the Spanish addition priced at just $60.

Typical of the YWCA trips are the pre-trip meetings such as this, and the experienced YW staff guides who make the entire trip with the group. Tour guides for this cruise will be Mrs. Mildred Brennan of Northern Branch and Mrs. Sophia Lindgren, Northwest Branch.

Open to women, men, couples and teenagers with parents, all are welcomed to this informational meeting.

"So I told her," Monroy said, "if it didn't sound too crazy, I'd take them until we found someone."

That was months ago, and it's hard now to say who's having the most fun—the versatile scout leader or his 33 enthusiastic charges.

He finds the girls interesting and attentive, both at meetings and on the two camping trips so far.

"They're right there, eager and asking questions about whatever I set out to explain," he said. "I think they are easy to interest because they're so curious."

Mrs. Jud Getzfrid, his co-leader, reports that "these girls are getting more basic Scouting information than most, because Fred knows more about Scouting than anyone around."

"He's so interesting to listen to," she added, "I usually forget the paper work I'm supposed to do."

As for the girls, they are absolutely convinced theirs is the best Cadette troop ever.

Monroy puts in many seven-day weeks at the Ford Motor Co. transmission plant, but still manages to work in his Scout activities.

He told the fathers gathered last week for briefing on the canoe trip that he'd be up at Grayling early to put up the tents.

The Monroys are a scouting family. His wife also has a Girl Scout troop, and two sons have been through the Boy Scout program. One now is with the Army in Thailand. Young Betsy is in her dad's troop, and Bonnie will be a cadette next year.

"I know it sounds corny," says Monroy, "but I just happen to believe that the movement is the greatest thing that's happened to kids."

Some Farmington kids don't have to look for one of the best reasons.

Mu Phi Epsilon Alums Have Musical Evening

Members of the Detroit Alumnae Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon Music Sorority met at the home of Mrs. S. W. Curtiss of Redford Township this week.

Mrs. John Kassarjian of Taylor performed on the piano, and the winners of the Clara Ellen Starr award and patrons award winners also were heard.

Mrs. William Wooster spoke on the 20th Century American composer, Virgil Thompson.

U.S. Honors Redford's Marjories Gibbs, Food Expert

Mrs. Marjorie Gibbs, Redford Township resident who was teaching Detroit area mothers how to make the most of meager food budgets before "anti-poverty" work was in vogue, received a superior service award from the U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington yesterday.

Mrs. Gibbs is a consumer marketing information agent for the Cooperative Extension Service. She is director of an educational program designed to make Detroit area consumers better shoppers, and to promote understanding of the food industry.

Her award is one of six won by Extension workers throughout the nation.

It was presented "For responsive leadership in bringing autonomous interests of the food industry together, providing new resources for consumer education in the Detroit metropolitan area, and professional leadership in her specialized task."

Mrs. Gibbs, an attractive, slender blonde, has worked extensively since 1960 in Detroit's central low-income area, developing educational materials and classes on food buying and meal planning.

Her materials have since been adopted for use in the TAAP (Total Action Against Poverty) program.

Dr. William McKee, vice president of the Merrill-Palmer Institute, says of her work, "... Marge Gibbs has engaged in pioneering a program for inner-city families. Her work in enlisting and training volunteer home economists to help mothers in food buying and meal planning long preceded the present anti-poverty efforts. It was a 'Grass-roots' program to meet a community need."

Robert Murray, A & P Stores central western division sales director, says, "One of the main reasons food market boycotts have not gotten anywhere in Detroit is due to Marge Gibbs in explaining food prices."

One of her many projects involved the organization of a group of about 400 Detroit area women she calls "Informed Food Shoppers." They meet regularly to keep up on what's new in the food industry.

Her work has made Mrs. Gibbs an authority on food marketing. In October, 1965, she testified before the National Commission on Food Marketing in Washington, D.C., outlining her educational program for Detroit area consumers.

In 1962, she was cited by the Central Business District Association as one of Detroit's "Top Ten Working Women."

She and her husband, James, operator of a Detroit insurance agency, live at 9186 Arnold Avenue in Redford Township.

Armbruster, treasurer, Mrs. Susan Hill, president, Mrs. P. Taylor and Mrs. V. Hicks, corresponding secretary. The federation supports "Girlstown" in Belleville, Mich.

Women on the GO!

By Margaret Miller

What makes a successful women's club?

How does an organization, born over a couple of tables of bridge, become a leading force in its community and maintain that position for nearly two decades?

Mrs. Anthony Sansone, charter member, past president and booster extraordinaire of the Redford Suburban League, tried to put her finger on it.

"I think there are couple of major factors," she said. "We've put service at the top of our objectives, and our members become active and stay active because they have a real need to be needed."

"And we specialize in developing new leadership. Our members know there will always be recognition for a good job done, whether it's by a new or long-standing member of the League."

The League's central service project, as described by Jean Sansone, is one to encourage the dedicated and discourage the joiners.

It's aid in many forms to the mentally retarded children of the area.

"We chose this area of service," remembers Jean, "because we felt a need to give of ourselves. We had good lives and healthy children and wanted to put our time and energy into a project that seemed necessary."

At first the League sponsored special classes for the mentally retarded. Then, as school and county programs filled this need, the women turned funds over to institutions like the Plymouth State Home and training school and the Community, Opportunity Center.

JEAN SANSONE

They also earmarked funds for scholarships to young people in the Redford Township area interested in studying in the field of mental retardation.

The Redford Theater Guild, a league-sponsored group that also includes husbands and is one of Jean's special interests, has regularly used profits of its yearly production to send "special need" children to Camp Nankin near Lexington for two weeks.

The group's "Good News" show was put on in recent weeks, and Jean was assistant to the choreographer, as she has been in each of the ten annual productions.

"We checked back this time, and found that only three of us had been in all the shows," she said.

Jean is a striking blonde who has been interested in Redford Township progress for years.

She remembers well the busy period 18 years ago when the Suburban League, her husband Tony's woodworking business and the original Redford Observer all came into being about the same time. She played a big part in the first steps of all three.

With son Tom, and daughter Patricia now in high school, the League continues to be an important part of Jean's life. Its activities have multiplied, its membership has grown to about 250, and she feels it has stayed with its original goals.

"We've joked that we keep delinquent housewives off the street," she said.

And the League, with women like Jean Sansone as leaders, keeps its members also in the center of community activity.

MRS. HOWARD OLM (left) was installed as president of the Lola Valley Business and Professional Women's Club recently by Past-President Mrs. Philip Clucas. She received a flower arrangement and gift in honor of the occasion. Installed with her were: Mrs. Nathaniel Banks, first vice president; Mrs. Thomas Wright, second vice president; Mrs. Verna Kaiser, recording secretary; Mrs. Dorothy Fetters, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. John Anderson, treasurer.

Novi Foster Parents Are Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Farah, a Novi couple who have taken care of more than 30 children over the years, are Foster Parents of the Year for 1967.

The couple was named for the honor last week by the Committee for Foster Children and presented a citation by Lloyd Northard, co-chairman of the committee.

They have five children of their own — two natural and three adopted and the oldest is away at college — and are authorized to board four foster children at a time.

Since they became foster parents more than 20 years ago, they have had at least 30 children stay with them for varying periods of time.

They moved from Detroit three years ago to the old farmhouse on Grand River, and have been working on remodeling it ever since. Sharing the quarters with the present brood are two cats and a couple of St. Bernard dogs.

Farah is employed by Star Cutter Co. in Farmington.

Symphony Women to Honor Artists

The Scandinavian Symphony Women's organization will honor violinist Sergiu Luca and conductor Orien Dalley at its final Artist Luncheon of the season May 18.

Luca, a native of Roumania who took his first lessons from gypsies at the age of four, will be featured guest at the Scandinavian Symphony concert Saturday, May 20, at Scottish Rites Cathedral of Masonic Temple in Detroit.

Dr. Dalley is a member of the University of Michigan school of music staff and administrator of the all-state division of the National Music Camp at Interlochen. He studied in Finland under Jean Sibelius in 1938-39.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling KE 2-0709.

Paper Garments No Longer Gimmick; Useful for Special Clothing Needs

Disposable garments offer the ultimate in easy care.

Although paper clothes were first produced as a gimmick, many items that meet special needs are now in wide use, says Mrs. Lorraine Trebilcock, University of Illinois clothing professor.

Paper work garments include uniforms for service personnel, coats for laboratory workers, gowns for nurses and physicians. Also available are paper shoe covers to prevent tracking dust and dirt into hospital operating rooms.

Throw-away examination gowns in doctor's offices have proved popular with patients in addition, they are economical. A 25-cent gown takes the place of a cloth gown for which laundering charge would be 35 cents.

All these innovations are possible because of a recently perfected reinforced non-woven material that looks, feels and hangs like cloth. A thin netting of rayon or nylon is sandwiched between layers of specially processed paper giving the material strength and drapability.

The material can be treated to make it flame-retardant and water and abrasion-resistant. It can also be made luminous, a characteristic especially useful in jackets for highway workers.

Mothers welcome paper bibs and simple baby dresses. Although "disposable" diapers have been available for some time, disposing of them remained a problem until recently. The newest type can simply be flushed away.

Sales in test markets have increased tremendously. In this instance, convenience rather than economy influences the customer.

Paper undershirts for men — in particular, the man who travels extensively — are being manufactured. Getting the price at a competitive level with the laundry costs of the cloth item has posed a problem. But one manufacturer is planning to offer undershirts at three pairs for $1.

"Waste-Basket Boutique" dresses retailing for as little as $1 were introduced last summer. Prices vary according to style, but most prices are attuned to the short life of the dress — six or seven wearings for the cheapest items.

Manufacturers doubt that there will be a major expansion into everyday paper clothes until fabrication is simplified. Labor costs are the same whether a garment worker sews ten-cents-a-yard paper fabric or ten-dollars-a-yard silk.

Maternity Clothes to Be Featured in Style Show

La Leche League of Ann Arbor will present a fashion show Wednesday, May 24, at 8 p.m. in the Social Hall of St. Andrew's church, 306 N. Division, Ann Arbor.

President Is Re-elected In GC Co-op

Mrs. Donna DesChenes, of Garden City, was re-elected recently as chairman of the Garden City Cooperative Nursery. Other officers include Mrs. Judy LeVan, co-chairman, Mrs. Sharon Roe, secretary and Mrs. Nancy May, treasurer.

The nursery will hold a hot dog roast for parent members in the Garden City Park May 20, and a dinner May 22 to honor its teachers, Mrs. Lorraine Singer, Mrs. Vera Chisholm and Mrs. Patti MacLain.

Inspiration Ball Aids Children With Leukemia

The annual Inspiration Ball sponsored by the greater Detroit chapter of ALSAC (Aiding Leukemia Stricken American Children) will be held at the Latin Quarter Wednesday, May 24.

Mrs. Matthew Uhelski, of Plymouth, newly-appointed city director for ALSAC, predicts the "best ever" ball for the philanthropic cause.

Theme of the ball is "Great Masters" and art treasures owned by Detroit-area families will be on display. The donation for the formal event will be $50 a couple.

Proceeds will be sent to St. Jude Children's Hospital, in Memphis, Tenn. which Danny Thomas, celebrated personality, founded.

Staffed by world-renowned researchers, the objectives of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital are two-fold: to gain knowledge of the biological processes upon which all life depends—and to provide diagnostic treatment and research facilities for the study of medical problems of children.

In addition to the Inspiration Ball, ALSAC sponsors a Teen March annually in September, when approximately 20,000 teenagers "March With Danny" to solicit funds in Detroit and suburban areas.

Mrs. Uhelski said last year's Teen March netted some $157,000.

Mrs. John Bekolay, Entertainment Chairman for the Ball, confirms that "That Girl," Miss Marlo Thomas, 1967 "Best Female TV Entertainer" will head the show, plus Mr. Paul Anka, famed celebrity and Mrs. Maria Roumell, vocalist.

Volkswagen's unique construction keeps dampness out.

For years there have been rumors about floating Volkswagens. (The photographer claims this one stayed up for 42 minutes.) Why not?

The bottom of the VW isn't like ordinary car bottoms. A sheet of flat steel runs under the car, sealing the bottom fore and aft.

That's not done to make a bad boat out of it, just a better car. The sealed bottom protects a VW from water, dirt and salt. All the nasty things on the road that eventually eat up a car.

The top part of a Volkswagen is also very seaworthy. It's practically airtight. So airtight that it's hard to close the door without rolling down the window a bit.

But there's still one thing to keep in mind if you own a Volkswagen. Even if it could definitely float, it couldn't float indefinitely.

So drive around all the big puddles. Especially if they're big enough to have a name.

Rainbow of Pastel Gowns Worn by Bridesmaids

Ten attendants in a rainbow of pastel gowns preceded Sharon Lynne Reaume down the aisle of Nardin Park Methodist Church in Farmington recently when she became the bride of David Charles Henkel.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Reaume, of Kiltartan Avenue, Farmington, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Henkel, of Negamee Street, Redford Township.

The Rev. William D. Mercer officiated at the ceremony.

A fitted lace bodice and bouffant skirt featured the bridal gown, and the bride's veil was elbow-length.

Janet McDonell was maid of honor, and Janice Baxter, Judy Erwin, Judy Burger, Pam Henkel, Glenys Cowell and Cheryl Jordan served as bridesmaids. There were also two flower girls, Terry Hoerle and Diane Churchill.

All the attendants' gowns were similarly styled and in varying pastel shades.

Gary Henkel was best man for his brother. The ushers included Thorton Urquhart.

Don LaRue, Bob Hilley, Heinz Erwin, Greg Richerson, and Jerry Burger. Young David and Danny Reaume brothers of the bride, were ring bearers.

A reception at the U.F.W. Hall on Seven Mile Road followed the wedding. The couple went to Hollywood, Fla., for their honeymoon.

The bride is a graduate of North Farmington High School and her husband was graduated from Redford Union High School and Henry Ford Community College.

MRS. DAVID HENKEL (Sharon Reaume)

Flint Rites Unite Albion Students

Sara Lynn Wilson and Charles Knock were married recently in a ceremony before members of their families at Trinity Methodist Church in Flint.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Wilson, of Owosso. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Knock, of Valleyside Drive, Farmington, formerly of Redford Township.

Attendants at the ceremony were Sheryl and Cindy Knock, sisters of the bridegroom, and the bride's brothers, Rick and Roger Wilson.

Both bride and bridegroom are students at Albion College, where she is affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta and he is a member of Alpha Tau Omega. The bridegroom is a graduate of Thurston High School.

MRS. JON H. KENNEDY (Rosemary Lynn Slagle)

Rosemary Slagle Is Wed To Jon H. Kennedy

The First Methodist Church of Farmington was the setting for the marriage April 22 of Rosemary Lynn Slagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Slagle, of Hayden Road, Farmington, and Jon H. Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey J. Kennedy, of Glenview Drive, Farmington.

Dr. W. Leslie Williams performed the double ring service before an altar decorated with white snapdragons and candelabras. Ribbons were tied at each pew.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional wedding gown of white silk organza over taffeta.

Her cathedral train had appliques of alencon lace and seed pearls, with the same appliques and seed pearls on the bodice and neck.

A headpiece of jewel red cabbage roses was attached to her cathedral length veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and white orchids.

The bridal attendants were dressed alike in floor length empire gowns of shades of pink organza over taffeta with long sleeves. Their headpieces were large Dior bows with matching veils. They carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations.

Candice Slagle, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. Paul J. Prain was matron of honor. Mrs. David Long, Mrs. Richard Hatfield and Mrs. Lloyd Nichols were the bridesmaids.

Laura Jane Slagle, Springfield, O., cousin of the bride, and Terri Lynn Kennedy, niece of the groom, were flower girls. They wore long dresses of embroidered pink organza over taffeta and carried baskets of pink daisies.

Aubrey D. Kennedy, brother of the groom, served as best man. Guests were seated by Thomas Brown, Lydod Nichols, David Long and Charles Rollins.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Slagle chose a lace coat and dress ensemble of aqua with matching accessories. The groom's mother was attired in a blue brocade coat and dress ensemble with matching accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception and buffet dinner was held at the Idyl Wyld Club of Livonia.

PHS Band Plans Big Concert

The Plymouth High marching band, which provides the halftime intermission entertainment at all home football games, will present its annual variety benefit program in the school auditorium on Friday and Saturday, May 19 and 20.

Director James Griffith tabs the show, which has been titled "Variety Is . . .", one of the most unusual ever attempted by the bandsmen. Drum Major Dennis McVittie will have the role of Master of Ceremonies and also will perform with the Shinnigan Dancers.

Tickets are priced at $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for students and all proceeds go to the band fund to defray the expenses to the annual August band camp.

Listed among the features will be several specialty numbers. These include: "Southampton Row" with Mike Malboeuf, Jim Buckingham, Regan Fluekey, Craig Stadtmiller and Bob Resch.

Folksinger T.C. McNamara and soloist Jerry Freyman will offer individual numbers with the latter singing "My One and Only" which was written for the program by fellow bandsman Ed Jones.

A special jazz combo will include Lee Breneman, Tracy Ketchman and Jones. In Friday's performances, Vicki Stevens will dance a Hawaiian number while Saturday's show will offer a magic act by Ken Evans.

Adding to the variety of the entertainment will be the enactment of an editorial on school life by the high school speech department.

The finale will bring students from both East and West Junior High into the program to sing a "Festival Finale" accompanied by the high school band.

Seniors Carl Garavaglia and Paul Widdoes serve as co-captain of the 1967 Wayne State University baseball team.

WHERE TO PUT 300 people? The Wayne II Democratic organization is planning a fund raising dinner-dance June 1 at the Thunderbird Inn. John Murawski, (center) chairman of the event, and Trent Meek (left), member of the local Democratic organization, go over details with John Manzo. Tickets for the buffet are $10 single, $15 a couple; call 455-0077 for reservations. Senator Phil Hart and ex-Congressman Weston E. Vivian will be the featured guests.

Uninsured Drivers Increase When Pushed

ANN ARBOR — Compulsory auto insurance laws generally have increased — not decreased — the number of uninsured drivers on the road, a University of Michigan business economist warns.

Associate Prof. Ross J. Wilhelm suggests that legislators would do well to study the experience of New York, Massachusetts, and North Carolina before passing such laws in their own states.

In New York, before the compulsory auto insurance law was passed in the early 1950s, three per cent of the drivers were uninsured. In 1963 a survey indicated that six per cent of New York's drivers were uninsured. The New York law carries a penalty of a year in prison, a $1,000 fine, or both.

Wilhelm offers this explanation:

"The primary reason why the percentage of uninsured drivers on the road rises in compulsory insurance states is because insurance rates are higher.

"The rates in Manhattan and Boston are about three times higher for basic auto insurance than they are in Detroit, about 80 per cent higher than in Miami, and about 60 per cent higher than in San Francisco. Yet the deaths from motor vehicles per license in force are significantly higher in Michigan, California, and Florida than they are in the compulsory states of New York and Massachusetts.

"The reason the insurance rates are higher in the compulsory states than in the noncompulsory ones appears to be that the drivers involved in accidents know that most people have insurance and the claims for damages are pushed out to the maximum. The people seem to be more conscious of the existence of insurance and are ready to stick the insurance companies for as much as they can."

New York and Massachusetts.

DPW News and Notes

Mowing and cleaning was continued at Riverside Cemetery in preparation of the annual Memorial Day activities.

Crews were busy throughout the early part of the week cleaning up and picking up as part of the annual Cleanup Week activities. This was necessary because there was so much rubbish at the curbs that it couldn't be picked up during the week.

Leaves and grass were picked up by the Scavenger during the week. Backfilling and cleanup was done on Northville Road where a water main break was repaired two weeks ago.

Major streets were swept and work was resumed in cleaning the city parks, playgrounds and the area around the City Hall. Dirt was leveled off on Burroughs and Harding Streets at the city owned lot.

Cold patching was done where needed. Black dirt was put between the sidewalk and the curb on Liberty Street where water jobs had been completed.

Among EMU Top Students

Paul Richard, of Livonia, and Larry Armbruster of Garden City were among the 10 top students at Eastern Michigan University honored for outstanding contributions to EMU by the Student Council.

Dr. William Lawrence, vice-president for Student Affairs who recently announced his resignation from Eastern, was given the award as the outstanding administrator.

Faculty members honored were Gary L. Evans, instructor in the Department of His-Speech and Dramatic Arts, and Cecil Eubanks, instructor in the Department of History and Social Sciences.

The Student Council gave its annual Citizen Award to the Rev. Leo Broderick, Catholic Chaplain at Eastern and director of the Newman Center on campus.

Larry is the son of Raymond Armbruster, 6126 Harrison, Garden City. He was chairman of the Festival of Awards and is president of Alpha Kappa Psi.

Paul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richard, 9831 Berwick, Livonia. He served as chairman of the Campus Service Corporation.

NORTHVILLE — James Kleinsorge, 360 Fairbrook.

Inspection of Tonquish Creek

As a measure of helping to safeguard the health of the children in the city—and the adults, too — Commissioner George Hudson has asked that the city make a thorough inspection of Tonquish Creek and report back to the Commission.

"I am just anxious to learn of the conditions that exist in the creek," he explained, "and if the inspection warrants that work be done, we should do it."

He won his point and the creek is to be inspected.

Packaging Corp. Appoints Three

Three new vice presidents have been appointed by Packaging Corporation of America, national paperboard and packaging firm based in Evanston, Ill. The corporation has a plant in Plymouth.

Ralph S. Lau, of Griffith, Ind., has been appointed vice-president and sales manager, molded pulp division.

Ervin F. Bickley, of Garfield, N.J., has been named vice president and eastern area manager, carton division.

William T. Creson, of Rittman, O., has been appointed vice president paperboard division.

Officers Picked

New officers of the Western Wayne County Chapter of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children were elected in April with William Saunders chosen as president.

Other officers are Phyllis Armour, treasurer; Donna Storey, membership chairman; Marilyn Scott, secretary; Joyce Wagner, vice-president; and directors Mrs. Janet Smith, Clayton Nordstrom and Soina Torma.

Need For New Schools Outlined For Westland Voters

By HARRY HOWARD
Wayne Community School Supt.

Why?

This is the question on the lips of many individuals after the recent announcement of the Wayne Community School Board of Education of its proposal for a Bond Issue of $15.75 million on the June 12 ballot.

The question is logically being asked since the public voted a five year program in June of 1965.

Due to increased cost and the burgeoning junior high school population, this five year program had to be condensed into a four year program. It will provide facilities through February, 1969.

There is another reason for the election being held at this time. How much time is required to produce a school after voter authorization is received? Let's consider the following.

The planning by the Board of Education and Administration entails at least six months work. The Citizens' Advisory Committee on School Buildings has been active in this area for more than six months.

An application to the State Department of Education for permission to hold an election and information verifying the need must be submitted and approved. This takes approximately one to two months.

After approval by the voters, the entire proposal must go to the Municipal Finance Commission composed of representatives from the State Treasurer's Office, the Attorney General's Office and the Department of Education.

The proposal is then gone through with a fine tooth comb to be sure that the interest of the citizens of Michigan in terms of need, feasibility and economic factors are protected.

Upon approval by the Municipal Finance Commission the Board of Education then is authorized to advertise for bids in the open Bond Market. In the meantime much work has been done with the financial consulting firm hired by the Board of Education to assist in the sale of the bonds.

Timing is a very important factor in entering the bond market.

For example, in the 1965 Bond Issue, a neighboring community with more financial resources than Wayne sold an issue and received a less favorable interest rate, roughly 1/6th percentage more than Wayne Community School District.

Over the period of 30 years on several million dollars this can amount to a large amount of interest. The bonds are sold, then bids may be awarded.

But wait a minute! In the meantime an architectural firm has been working with a committee of educators who plan the best building possible.

In the period of 1950, the Nation's schools were called upon to build many buildings with little experience and less time in which to build them. They met the burgeoning population but in many cases made mistakes.

This is not to say that mistakes aren't still being made. Most people discover one the first day they move into a new home. There are fewer being made today in the schools than in the past because of the involvement of those who work daily in the situation along with the architects.

The educational planning and preparation of plans for a junior high school take up to a year. After the Board has approved these plans, based on the recommendation of the staff and the Citizens' Committee, they are ready to advertise for bids.

Another 30 day period is necessary for bidders to adequately price out the project and make their proposal.

The bids are awarded and hopefully construction starts immediately. Take a look at the most recent schools. The money was voted for the Wildwood School in June, 1965. Municipal Finance approval, Sale of Bonds and bidding procedures took to February 1966.

The school was ready for occupancy in late April or approximately 14 months after that date and nearly two years after the Bond Issue had passed. One of the reasons for this dilemma is the shortage of available skilled labor.

Now back to the reasons for the Bond Issue. Our census continues to climb. The census taken in May, 1966 was up to 1,000 pupils over the previous May. Although the birth rate seems to be down, our census will continue to climb for some time. This is without new homes being constructed and it seems a sure bet that they will continue to be constructed for some time.

During the present school year we have over 2,200 students in the Kindergarten. About 1,300 will leave the sixth grade and will go to junior high next year.

We have an average of about 1,225 pupils in each of the three junior high grades. It is easy to see then that as these students progress through the grades our enrollments in junior high school will soon be more than 6,000.

We presently have facilities for about 3,600 junior high enrollment increases there, the junior high students will gradually be phased out.

By 1973, both senior high schools will be saturated with 10th, 11th, and 12th graders. It is essential that planning be done for additional senior high space but the Board is reserving decision in this matter until the population density of the district is better defined.

Simply stated, it might be possible to house the senior high programs in the present senior high schools, with additions. It might be necessary also to build a third senior high.

Reduced to its simplest form, it becomes obvious that lead time is necessary for the schools that are needed in 1969. June 12 is not too early and with today's building conditions the Board will be hard pressed to have the classrooms that are needed by September of 1969. One important point for the citizenry to remember when they go to the polls on June 12 is that:

1. The Board of Education has been criticized in the past for not having classrooms completed on time.
2. The Board has not been criticized for "Over Building" at any time since its building program has been paced to the point that the students are ready when the classrooms are there. This requires planning time and money.

We trust that you will become informed about all the needs of the district. If you need further information, call 722-1500 and a Staff Member will be glad to explain the need to you.

The Carl Hosier family of Arrowhead Trail, were one of the many Westland families present for the City's First Anniversary celebration.

The Hosiers turned up with the Pete Venturas, councilman of Livonia, looking tanned and relaxed after spending a few days in Acapulco, Mexico.

They were impressed with Acapulco, as Mary Ellen remarked, "They were quite shaken," while there they experienced a sizable earthquake. Frightened guests running out in the street, and pictures dancing on the walls.

From Acapulco the Hosiers flew down to Mexico City, while here they enjoyed deep sea fishing, Bull fights, and of course the Straw Market. They also saw the National Palace in Zocola Square, which is the home of the President of Mexico. They also enjoyed the rhythm of one of the Mariachi Bands.

and 75 cents for the young in years. Tickets will be available at the door.

The First Baptist Church in Garden City, held its Mother-Daughter banquet May 13. There were 220 guests. Mistress of Ceremonies was Mrs. James Tierney who tied with two other ladies for having the most daughters present. Mrs. Tierney, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Jack Federspill each had four daughters present. Theme for the evening was "How Does Your Garden Grow." Music was by the Belleville Girls Ensemble.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Dilley will be sorry to hear the Dilleys flew to their Westland home early from their winter home in Punta Gorda, Fla., and both Mr. and Mrs. Dilley are hospitalized at Martin Place West Hospital.

Set Summer Music School At College

Although registration for the Schoolcraft College Summer Music School is still more than a month away, area high school and college age musicians have responded quickly to an announcement for application to the school, according to Wayne Dunlap, director of the school.

"Early applications indicate a high level of interest," said Dunlap, who is also head of the music department at the college, as well as conductor of the Plymouth Symphony. "We can accommodate only a limited number of students on each instrument, so it behooves those musicians planning to attend to sign up early."

The summer session is scheduled for four weeks, from July 3 through July 28. Registration will be June 26 and 27, but students must indicate by June 15 their intention of enrolling, Dunlap said.

The curriculum will concentrate on chamber music, orchestral literature, ensemble techniques, contemporary music idioms and techniques and style and musicianship.

"These are areas not ordinarily offered to the young, serious musician," Dunlap explained. "Of particular importance to this group, will be the classes in style and musicianship and the techniques of ensemble playing."

Students will study under a faculty composed primarily of members of the Detroit Symphony, who will also be available for private lessons.

The daily class schedule calls for morning sessions in the announced curriculum, and orchestra rehearsals in the afternoons. Wednesday sessions will be devoted to classes in conducting, music theory for performers and topical musical lectures.

Tuition for the four-week school is $40, for the scheduled 100 class sessions.

"The tuition does not fully cover the instructional costs of the school," Dunlap explained. "A share of this cost is being subsidized by the college. The cost of private lessons with faculty members must be borne by the individual student, who will make his own arrangements with faculty member. Lessons are available at $5 a lesson."

Faculty members, all professional performing musicians, are Emily Mutter Austin and Inez Hullinger Redman, violin; David Ireland, viola; Barbara Fickett, cello; Marilyn Jones, flute and wood winds; Robert Cowert, oboe and woodwinds; James Tamburini, trumpet and brass; and Allen Shaffer, piano and theory.

Up to four hours of college credit is also available, Dunlap said. "Those taking the work for credit must matriculate at the college and pay a fee of $8.50 per credit hour if they are residents of the college district. The fee for non-residents is $12.50 per credit hour. A matriculation fee of $10 is charged by the college."

The schedule includes two student evening concerts on July 14 and 28. These concerts are in addition to a series of four Court Concerts scheduled on Wednesday nights, when an augmented faculty orchestra will perform works by Haydn and Hindemith.

Soloists for this series of concerts are William Dopman, pianist, July 5; Leslie Eitzen, mezzo-soprano, July 12; The Kenneth Jewell Chorale, July 19; and Paul Doktor, violist, July 26.

Additional details are available by calling the college at 481-6400.

15-Year-Old Takes 25 Tranquillizers

A 15-year-old girl was discovered unconscious Monday at 9:52 a.m. at the Dinner Bell restaurant in the Livonia Shopping Center. According to Livonia police, she had taken 25 tranquilizers. She was attended by Dr. G. A. Saunders of Livonia and taken to St. Mary Hospital.

Schoolcraft Board Approves 1.77 Tax Levy for 1967-68

Trustees of Schoolcraft College have set a 1.77 mill tax levy to provide operating funds and debt service money for the 1967-68 academic year beginning July 1 as required by state law.

The land will provide a site for a second main parking area on the campus. The acquisitions add approximately 16 acres from the site later this year when the State Highway Dept. begins acquisition of right-of-way for the proposed I-275 expressway which will pass along the east boundary of the campus.

Trustees also accepted a bid of $1,501 from Martin Gans for the house formerly occupied by the Johnstons at 17950 Haggerty Road, and a bid of $200 from Joseph Augustine, 17800 Haggerty Road, for a garage on the property.

No Tax Hike Seen in Big 9-Million Dollar Bond Issue

Livonia schoolmen today said the first $9 million in building bonds can be handled without raising the present 7.07 millage for debt service.

"We'll sell the rest in November or in February of next year, depending on the bond market." The $9 million will go for a fourth high school, an addition to Riley school, an addition to an elementary school and sites for future schools.

Long range plans call for three more elementary schools, a new junior high school, an addition to another junior high school and multipurpose rooms in other schools. Upton and other representatives of the school system will go to New York Thursday in efforts to improve the Livonia credit rating on the bond market.

Part of the financial cushion to cover the issue results from the addition of $70 million to the tax base by equalization.

Ron Upton, assistant superintendent and business administrator, said the bond issue will be the first sold from the $23 million authorized by the voters.

The debt millage is actually seven, with the .07 servicing an unqualified bond issue of $350,000 sold in 1960 for a swimming pool at Franklin school. All issues now are qualified.

"It appears we will be able to stay within the 7 mills for debt," Upton said. "We're only selling $9 million of the $23 million now because that's all we need."

Felician Nun Dies In Car Accident

Sister M. Therese, CSSF, a member of the Felician Community for 24 years, was fatally injured in a car accident, Sunday, May 7, near Flint.

Solemn requiem Mass was held in the Felician Sisters' motherhouse chapel in Livonia. Bishop Breitenbeck celebrated the Mass. Sister Therese entered the Congregation as Irene Fleis in 1943 from Our Lady of the Rosary Parish in Isidore, Mich. After her profession of vows in 1945, she dedicated her life as a teacher and organist.

Detroit schools at which she taught were: Patronage of St. Joseph, Resurrection, St. Andrew, St. Casimir and St. Josephat. She also taught at St. Florian in Hamtramck, St. Michael and Ladywood High in Livonia, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel in Wyandotte, St. Leonard in Warren, St. Mary in Parisville, Holy Rosary in Saginaw, St. Stanislaus in Ludington and St. Joseph Home for Boys in Jackson.

Sister's present teaching assignment was at St. Andrew High School in Detroit, where she taught since 1964.

Surviving her are eight brothers: Edward, Joseph, and Anthony of Cedar, Leon and Thomas of Traverse City, Albin of Wayne and Roman and Clemens of Milwaukee; and three sisters: Susan Fleis of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Theresa Rosinski of Detroit and Mrs. Agnes Williams of Cedar. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre cemetery. Arrangements were made by the R. G. and G. R. Harris Funeral Home.

Promoted. Louis P. Poincelli has been appointed administrative assistant to the general manager of Ford Division, Poincelli, formerly supervisor of the budget section, sales and marketing administrative department, replaces Thomas J. Tierney, who has left the company.

Commission Closes Alley Over Objection of Owners

After figuratively tramping up and down the alley between Arthur and Irvin Street from Junction to F a m e r Street for more than an hour Monday night, the City Commission voted to close it even though more than half of the property owners disapproved. With more than a dozen of the property owners on hand the Commissioners w a d e d through discussions that in- v o l v e d garbage collection, easements and higher taxes before making the decision. All agreed that the alley was not kept in the best of condition, but the property owners voiced their disapproval on the grounds that the provision of an easement would possibly tear up their yards from time to time—or that it would involve the expense of moving fences to say nothing of an added tax burden for the additional property that would be placed in their names on the tax rolls.

"I am against any piecemeal closing of alleys," Commissioner Vallier commented, "especially when two thirds of the property owners are opposed to it."

"If this Commission would go on record with a program to close all alleys in the northwest section," he went on, "then I would go for this one."

An attempt to initiate such a study was lost and a motion was then made to close the alley. At this point Tom Healy, the City Attorney, advised the Commissioners that, inasmuch as a petition had been filed protesting the closing of the alley, it would require five votes to pass the resolution.

On the roll call vote the only negative votes were cast by Commissioners Vallier and Schweitzer.

So, the alley was closed along with one bounded by Roe, Union, D.S.I. and the C&O Railway.

The Commission also agreed, with approval of the Board of Education, to close Spring Street. This request had been made by the Starkweather PTA in an effort to provide more play space for the school children.

Several "pet" projects of City Manager Dick Blodgett fell by the wayside during the long, drawn-out meeting.

First, was his recommendation to hire Robert Cooch, of Ann Arbor, to appraise the Tonquish Creek property, for a fee of $800.

Second, was a plush plan to install an automatic sprinkler system for the City Hall lawn at an estimated cost of $2,500.

"You can buy an awful lot of hose for $2,500," Commissioner Vallier stated for the benefit of the audience, "and I would suggest that the firemen on duty take turns using the hose."

Prior to that he also questioned the $800 fee for an appraiser claiming that "no bids were taken" and "why was the service of an expert needed?"

When the verbal storm subsided the City Manager agreed to furnish more information regarding the type of appraisal that was needed. And the Commissioners compromised on the water sprinkler by authorizing the Manager to take bids, but to include a bid on plastic hose that could be stripped into the lawn without much trouble and controlled manually.

Screen Hides Can

Who wants to look at the garbage can? Hide it with a right-angled screen built out from house or garage wall, leaving one side open for dumping of can. Use board-on-board pattern for the screen, and train a handsome vine against it.

Michigan Week Celebration

Mayor Pro Tem Dr. Wood was elected to the Beverly Hills Council in 1958 at the time of incorporation and has been a member since. He is head of the medical department of the Cadillac Division of General Motors.

Councilman Dettlinger was appointed to the Zoning Board of Appeals in 1962 and then elected to the Council in March of this year. He is a vice president in charge of Industrial Relations for Fitzsimmons Manufacturing Co.

Tuesday has been designated as Our Heritage Day with Mrs. Louis Norman in charge. The new president of the Plymouth Historical Society plans to keep the Historical Museum open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. during the day.

Wednesday is Livelhood Day and Chairman Harold Fischer has arranged a luncheon at noon at the Thunderbird Inn where five outstanding leaders will be honored. This follows a tradition started two years ago which is being continued.

The five to be honored are: Leo Schultz, of Vico Products Co., representing Industry; Margaret Wilson, owner of the Penn Theater and Melody House, business; Dr. Charles Westover, professional; Gerald Greer, representative of the Communication Workers Local at Michigan Bell, labor; and retiring School Supt. Russell Isbister, institutional.

Each will be presented with a certificate of appreciation from the Michigan Week Committee for outstanding contributions to the community over years of service.

Thursday's program is "Education Day" and many unusual features have been arranged by Principal Arnold Pylkas, of Gallimore, as chairman.

Mrs. Dorothy Sincok, of The Observer Newspaper Group staff, is chairman of Friday's Hospitality Day program which includes an afternoon tea at the Dunning-Hough Library. She is being assisted by members of the Plymouth Women's Club, the Garden Club and the DAR. An invitation has been extended to all newcomers to attend and meet women of the community.

Rubbish Trucks Start Normal Routine Monday

The spring thaw is over, the alleys are firm enough for garbage trucks to make their pickups and that will be normal routine beginning Monday, May 22, in the City of Plymouth.

That was the announcement Monday by DPW Supt. Kenneth Vogras as he notified all residents of the city that regular alley pickups of rubbish and garbage will begin May 22 and follow the normal schedule thereafter.

Homeowners have been placing their containers at the curbs for the past several weeks when alleys became muddy and soft. That's when the annual ban was placed on alley travel. The lifting of the ban will move the containers from the curb back to the alleys.

Remember, the date is Monday, May 22. Take your container to the alley.

Plymouth Girl Scouts Camp Out

Seven patrols from Plymouth, including approximately 56 girls, will participate in a three-day Girl Scout camp-out Friday through Sunday, May 19-21, at Camp Linden.

A total of 41 patrols from the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council are included, meaning an estimated 300 girls will take part. They will be accompanied by 45 adults.

Each patrol will plan, purchase and prepare their own food, pitch tents and participate in Challenge workshops.

Saturday evening the Senior Planning Board will install the following new officers at the all-camp gathering: President, Carol Willis, Ann Arbor; vice-president, Joanna Lester, Ypsilanti; recording secretary, Celeste Klein, Northville, and treasurer, Rosemary Karp, Ann Arbor.

Patrol leaders heading the seven Plymouth units include Joy Abbeson, Troop 367; Pam Diedrick, Troop 411; Jenine Fuelling, Troop 626; Debbie George, Troop 411; Peggy Gladstone, Troop 249; Suzanne Rogers, Troop 626, and Carol Voytas, Troop 411.

Mrs. John Finnegan of Westland is director of the all-council encampment, and is being assisted by Mrs. George Sayre and Mrs. Richard Brown, both of Ypsilanti.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

After serving the Forest Avenue area of Plymouth for nearly 17 years, we regret to announce we have closed our Forest Avenue store effective May 13, 1967.

Beginning June 1st, 1967 the Plymouth Hardware will expand their operation to include the drug store area.

By the spring of 1968, we will open in the downtown area, a ultra-modern drug store nearly four times the area of the Forest Avenue store.

Until that time we sincerely hope we can serve you as we have during the past 101 years at either our Main Street or Ann Arbor Road stores.

All records and prescriptions will be at our Main Street store. Phone 453-3400. Please feel free to call me for any further information.

Woodbrooke Swim Club Improves Pool

The Woodbrooke Hills Swim Club in Farmington Township has embarked on a major renovation and improvement program of the club facilities on 13 Mile Rd. Plans call for a complete modernization of operating equipment, a new pump house, street entrance, club house entrance, lighting of parking lot, adult shelters, manager's office, shuffle board courts and volley ball courts.

The club, in operation for seven years, is supported by 300 member families.

Work will be done in two phases. The first phase will be to complete the installation of new equipment, revamp the mechanical operation of the pool and effect changes to comply with local and state by-laws.

Phase II will complete the project and will cover the other changes not necessary to the operation of the pool. The pool will open, as usual, around June 1.

RAY FOSTER, Bentley High School yearbook advisor and English teacher, will attend a six-week Institute at Eastern Michigan University. Twenty-two high school English teachers will represent 15 states and will talk about linguistics literary criticism and advanced composition.

Two Receive DBC Degrees

Two local area students will be among 34 degree recipients who will be graduated from Detroit Bible College at their commencement ceremonies, Friday night at 7:30 at Covenant Baptist Church, 18700 James Couzens, Detroit.

Judith Button, 27409 Haggerty, Farmington, a graduate of Northville High School, and Linda Clarke, 20447 Delaware, Redford Township, a graduate of Redford Union High School, will both receive degrees of Bachelor of Religious Education.

Scheduled to address the graduates at the commencement is Dr. Roy L. Aldrich, president of Detroit Bible College, who will speak on "Absolute Values in Education."

Workshop Sets Open House May 21

New Horizons of Oakland County, Inc. invites the public to visit the sheltered workshop for the mentally retarded on Sunday, May 21 from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at 35100 Grand River, Farmington.

New Horizons presently employs 70 retarded young adults who will be on hand to demonstrate their ability to work under supervision and develop work skills that will encourage them to apply for employment in Commerce and Industry.

"All applicants for training and employment at New Horizons are evaluated on the basis of their need for training and counseling, not on their ability to produce.

"If continual re-evaluation of the trainee indicates an inability for outside employment, the client is retained as a full time employee of the workshop," according to J. Lyle Winslow, President of New Horizons Board of Trustees.

"We welcome visitors from every facet of the community. Members of the Board of Trustees, and the staff will be on hand to discuss the activities and aims of New Horizons."

Sidewalk Financing Causes Debate

The Alta Loma Homeowners Association became embroiled in heated debate at their May 8 meeting when the subject turned to a proposed sidewalk along Arundel Rd. from Gill Rd. to the Longacre School.

The discussion centered around the question of funding the construction of the sidewalk. Two motions, providing various contribution schedules for construction of the sidewalk, were defeated. Thus far, $300 of the $1000 needed for the sidewalk has been pledged by the Longacre PTA.

The Association also recognized the need for a sidewalk along Freedom Rd. to aid the safety of children who use Freedom as a route to the neighborhood swimming pool.

Detroit Teen Gets 30 Days

Ernest Templeton, 18, of 14445 Belleterre, Detroit, has been found guilty of being a disorderly person and of assault and battery.

He was sentenced by Municipal Judge James R. McCann to 30 days in the Detroit House of Corrections.

The disorderly conduct occurred on a D.S.R. bus at Wonderland Shopping Center. Assault and battery charges arose from Templeton's fighting with arresting officers.

Dems Ask Committee To Fill Twp. Vacancy

Farmington Democrats have called for widespread public involvement in the selection of a replacement for Farmington Township Trustee Art Bassette who announced his resignation last week. The resignation comes just a little over a month after Bassette started a new four-year term.

At the same time the Democrats promised to seek state legislation which would give the voters a chance to have a voice in filling such vacancies at the next election. "At the present time the person picked to replace Bassette will serve almost four years without having to face the voters," said Farmington Democratic Chairman Gerald Freedman.

"This will mean that all four Trustees on the Township Board will have originally taken office by appointment of a few."

In the past these vacancies have been filled by the Township Board without

Pair Receive Army Honor

Two Farmington reservists were presented with awards at the Veterans Memorial Building for being named best in their command by their commanding officers.

public involvement. Freedman suggested that the voters could be given a voice in the selection by one of the following methods:

—The position could go to the runner-up for Trustee in last Fall's election.

•A representative citizens committee could be formed to screen candidates and make recommendations to the Board or the screening could be done by the already established bi-partisan Township Salaries and Pension Committee.

"We would hope that the Board would come up with a method of filling the vacancy that takes into account the fact that the new Trustee will represent all the voters of Farmington Township and not just the six remaining members of the Board," Freedman said.

"The last time a vacancy was filled, the Board promised to consider names submitted by interested citizens. We submitted two names of qualified persons, including a former Township Supervisor, yet they were never contacted or interviewed by the Board."

"The Board claimed to have considered several for the post but never revealed the names of those persons, as the choice was installed for months until after the Township election."

"We would hope that this time the choice would be an open decision openly arrived at," Freedman concluded.

Men Named To Top Group

Two Farmington life insurance salesmen have been named for membership in the 1967 Million Dollar Round Table, the industry's international organization of top salesmen.

They are E. Fred Chalfant, of the Farmington branch of Alexander Hamilton Insurance Co., and William G. Clancey, CLU, of Farmington's Canada Life Insurance Co.

Jaycee Festival Set For May 5-June 5

Livonia Jaycees will stage their major fund-raising campaign of the year as a spring festival, May 25-June 5 in the Sheldon Shopping Center at Plymouth and Farmington Roads.

There will be an expanded carnival, sky divers, a battle of the bands and a dog show among the attractions.

Funds raised by the week-long festival will be poured back into Jaycee projects. The organization conducted more than 50 special projects during the past year.

"We give every penny back to the community," said Jerry Brown, a member of the board of directors.

The Jaycees work with underprivileged and mentally retarded children, they conducted the community survey and a special commercial survey to determine how better to make Livonia attractive to business and industry.

"The festival keeps building and growing," he said. "Maybe it will become a community week."

The battle of the bands on Saturday, May 27, will feature groups from Livonia, Redford, Farmington and Plymouth. That same day will feature sky divers and the dog show.

While the main focus is on community service, the Jaycees are working to develop community leadership among their more than 100 members in Livonia.

"And this is an active group, these guys really get out and hustle."

Brass Talk County Affair

Livonia Mayor Harvey W. Moelke and Grosse Ile Township Supervisor Merle Solomon plan to present their views on county government to a citizens committee which is studying the question of Home Rule for Wayne County.

The two local officials have been invited to meet with the citizens "Committee of 99" at 4 P.M. Friday, May 19 in the McGregor Center at Wayne State University.

Mayor Moelke will discuss the relationships between the City of Livonia and the County. Supervisor Solomon will discuss relations between Grosse Ile and the County.

Their appearance will be before the Intergovernmental Relations Subcommittee of the Committee of 99. Subcommittee Chairman is Harry M. Smit, an attorney who is a member of the Livonia Youth Commission and a law instructor at Schoolcraft Community College.

The Committee of 99 was established by the County Board of Supervisors to evaluate the present county structure and decide whether it could be improved under the County Home Rule Bill passed by the State Legislature last year.

Police Drop Charge

Livonia police said a warrant for assault with a deadly weapon has been dropped against David L. Junk, 23, of 9912 Fairfield and a lesser charge has been made.

Junk was arrested following a fight at a Plymouth Road restaurant.

Police said disorderly conduct charges are being made against Junk and two others involved, Lawton Willston, of Flint; and Frank P. Maldaner, of Westland.

'Mrs. Safety' Prize Given Local Woman

Mrs. John Richardson, 34069 Alta Loma, Farmington, was recently named second runner-up in the Women's Division of the Michigan Safety Conference "Mrs. Safety" competition.

Mrs. Richardson, who has served the past year as state safety chairman for the Michigan Jaycee Auxiliary, was responsible for setting up a complete Home Safety Program for the 153 Jaycee Auxiliaries in Michigan. The program pertained to all areas of home safety control.

Members of Mrs. Richardson's Jaycee Auxiliary Committee include local residents Mrs. Noel Kurth, Farmington, and Mrs. Frank Webster, Livonia.

26 Teachers Leaving; 23 Signed in Wayne

Wayne Community School District's Continuing Education Director Nathan Shaw, and 25 teachers have resigned, as of the end of the school term, the Board of Education was told last week. Twenty-three faculty members were signed up for next fall.

Shaw, in the district since 1955, has accepted a position as director of new programs and community service for the Montgomery Junior College in Rockville, Md.

Among the 25 teachers leaving the district, which includes most of Westland, are Gladys Stacey, Patchen first grade, and Margaret Worthington, Jackson second grade; both of whom are retiring from the profession. They have taught in the Wayne system for the last 21 years.

Others leaving for a variety of reasons are: Abigail Carrigan, Walker kindergarten; Shirley Francis, Kettering kindergarten; Rosemary Fraser, Marshall Junior High math; Sally Puertmann, Elliott third grade; Frank Gill, Franklin Junior High social studies; Joseph Gourd, Franklin math; Margaret Grindle, Hamilton first grade; Karen Griffith, Wilson second and third grade; Romayne Hargrave, Wayne High English; Patricia Heidenreich, Adams and Marshall Junior High Spanish.

grade: Martha Livisay, Marshall reading; Lynette Lucas, Elliott vocal music; Mary Melville, Adams Junior High instrumental music; Ann Mohr, Kettering first grade; Darwin Muir, Marshall math; Kaye Palomaki, Norris kindergarten; George Perco, Glenn High math; Ella Schroeder, Hamilton fifth grade; Phyllis Smith, Monroe fourth grade; Thomas Hutchison, Wayne State, Glenn High auto second grade.

Granted leaves of absence were Betty Barber, Wayne High home economics; and Evelyn Harper, Taft fourth grade.

Twenty-three teachers having contracts approved for the start of the new 1967-68 September are:

Virginia Baker, Oakland University, Madison third grade; Diane Cannon, Eastern Michigan, Walker third grade; Judith Crouch, Eastern Michigan, Walker second grade; Roger Cseresznye, Eastern Michigan, elementary art; Patricia Earl, Michigan State, Monroe fourth grade; Thomas Hutchison, Wayne State, Glenn High auto second grade.

Also James Jacobs, Eastern Michigan, Marshall social studies; Robert Jones, Eastern Kentucky, Franklin Eastern High social studies and math; Judith Lozen, Eastern Michigan, Norris second grade; Janet Mieden, Eastern Michigan, Hamilton fourth grade; Allen Pearsall, Eastern Michigan, Madison fifth grade; Beverly Richards, Eastern Michigan, Franklin science; Beverly Robertson, Eastern Michigan, Adams Physical Education.

Also Barbara Rorick, Eastern Michigan, Elliott third grade; Irene Ryan, University of Michigan, school nurse; Connie Sanders, Eastern Michigan, Madison sixth grade; Barbara Shook, Eastern Michigan, Sottlemeyer second grade; Glenn Stevenson, Adrian College, Glenn English; Kathleen Stocki, Eastern Michigan, Kettering first grade; Alvis Taulbee, Eastern Michigan, Marshall math; Elizabeth Vance, University of Michigan, Madison first grade; Lillian Vojak, Eastern Michigan, Washington fourth grade; and Ruth Williamson, Eastern Michigan, elementary vocal music.

Outline Budget Needs

On the anniversary of Westland's first anniversary as an incorporated city, Mayor Thomas Brown reviewed the past year and proposed what should be done in the future in the area of city services.

The city marked its first anniversary yesterday, Tuesday. The public hearing on the city budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 was held Saturday afternoon. City Council action on the budget and city tax rate must be taken by Monday, June 5.

In a special anniversary budget statement, Brown said: "We cannot rest on the laurels of the year gone by, but must face up to the responsibilities of the year to come. We made much progress in services during the 1966-1967 fiscal year. I do not wish to imply that all problems were solved, many improvements have been instituted and carried out to give better services to the people."

"In the fiscal year 1966-67, we created our City of Westland Police Department. All officers of this department have extended themselves to the fullest to provide police protection to our city and to solve the unpreventable crimes.

"The budget for the fiscal year 1967-68 provides for more police protection and the appropriation asked for will provide enough patrolmen to double the policing manpower for our city.

"I feel that this appropriation is a must and we shall decide in June what protection is needed for the coming year. If we do not provide we cannot justifiably demand.

"During 1966-67, the Fire Department has progressed to provide adequate facilities for the prevention and control of fires in our city. We also have provided rescue services for our people. We also added one more rescue unit to our fire department.

"This unit is fully equipped and can accommodate four stretcher patients at one time.

"Additional space and facilities were added to the Merriman Fire Station to provide added protection to the area.

"The Central Fire Station will be enlarged to accommodate added equipment and provide more protection for the entire city. The plans have been approved and bids have been obtained.

ing property to locate a fire station in the southwest section of the city. When these plans are all carried out the total city will be provided with a well balanced fire protection and fire fighting service. We feel that we have made great strides in the providing fire protection for our city.

"During the past fiscal year the need for sidewalks on streets and roads used by school children as established routes to and from school has been a point of great concern.

"In taking this need into consideration and knowing there must be some funds available to carry out a plan for this improvement, I have asked for an appropriation large enough to implement the sidewalk revolving fund, this fund would be replenished from time to time by payments made by the owners of property to be benefited.

"This would enable the Administration to initiate this program and over a period of time all needed sidewalks will be installed. I am sure all recognize the need for this program.

"The Parks and Recreation Department has, with the cooperation and efforts of the Westland Jaycees, established a 21.7 acre park at the corner of Wildwood and Hunter. This park when completed will offer baseball, softball, tennis, badminton, picnicking and many other facilities. This park should be partially completed this summer.

"The summer recreation program will continue in the schools and school playgrounds supervised by the City Parks and Recreation personnel.

"Baseball, basketball and hockey leagues will be expanded where ever possible within budget appropriations. We continuously strive to improve our recreation programs.

"In the Department of Public Services we have the Street and Road Construction and Maintenance Department. We feel we have accomplished a great deal toward better streets and roads for our city. Note the continuous maintenance of the unimproved roads, the installing of proper traffic control signs and the additional approval of traffic lights to be installed in the near future.

"The painting of the proper markings and cross walks for school foot traffic. The chloriding of the unimproved streets and roads will begin soon and we have budgeted for three total applications and plan extra attention to heavy traveled and troublesome road conditions.

"The Garbage and Rubbish program is budgeted in the 1967-68 appropriations for a full year and necessitates the spreading of millage for 12 months service. The in-ent of the administration is to give improved service in this area. We are continuously striving to make the City of Westland a clean, healthy and beautiful city. The Ordinance Officer of the City of Westland will continue as in the past, supervising the Garbage and Rubbish program. Weed Control and Littering and Blight Prevention.

"The Water and Sewer Department will continue to operate in an efficient and economical manner. No raise in rates is anticipated.

"The Planning Department will along with its normal operation, make a complete study of planning for the city. Making recommendations on roads, parks, industrial, residential and commercial needs.

"The storm drains remain under the jurisdiction of the Wayne County Drain Commission, discussions on improvements have been held and the promise of better maintenance has been forthcoming. The enclosing of the Schuman Drain should be in progress come fall of 1967.

"I am confident that the progress of our city will continue.

"If appropriations are not made, the service desired may not be rendered. We must decide in June, 1967, services we desire and agree to pay for, not at the time of some special incident."

Use of Schools at Issue

Board Called 'Unfair'

Sixty-one parents, most from Westland, petitioned the Wayne Community School District's School Board last week in a dispute over the use of schools for dance and musical recitals.

The parents claimed that the Board of Education "is being unfair in refusing to allow the dance studios and the music studios in the area to use their school auditoriums for the presentation of their recitals."

"As taxpayers, trying to give their children every opportunity to develop themselves to their full capacity in every facet of their ability, we feel that the auditoriums of the schools should be available to the students of the arts, as well as the students of the curriculum," the petitioners said.

"There has always been a fee charged the studios for the use of the auditorium in the past but now they are not available at all.

"When there is a contest to select a Miss Wayne a Miss Detroit, a Miss America, or a baton champion, the city of Wayne is always very proud of the talent displayed, yet you are refusing to take a part in developing this talent, by not allowing the people who are teaching separately from the school recreation system to use school facilities as a showcase to display their talents."

The school board, whose district includes most of Westland, agreed to table any action on the petitions until its meeting next Monday night.

In a written report from the administration, the board was told that "it has always been the practice of the school system to allow free use of school facilities, with limitations by non-profit civic and community groups."

In the past, private studios have proposed to charge admission to their recitals.

The administration recommended to the school board that four points be adopted: Permit dance and music studios within the district to use the school auditoriums for recitals; limit the recitals to week-ends and hold rehearsals to a minimum, preferably Saturday mornings; charge the sponsoring organizations for direct costs, such as for custodial and electrical costs; and consider the scheduling of recitals as identified, following the closing of the regular school year to avoid conflict with the year-end school activities and to reduce the cost by rescheduling personnel.

2 Directors Renamed For School Programs

Directors of the Wayne Community School District's Head Start Program and summer school program have been approved by the board of education.

Sigvard Dietrich, 31, and Roger Cromwell, 27, of 515 N. Hanlon, Westland, will continue their summer positions for the Head Start and Summer School programs, respectively.

Cromwell who has his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Michigan, served as summer school coordinator for the first time last year.

During the regular school year, he teaches math and social science at Marshall Junior High School. He has been in the Wayne district, which includes most of Westland, since 1962.

Dietrich, a Detroit resident, will direct the Head Start program for the second consecutive summer. The program is financed by the federal government for children of low income families.

He has degrees from Wittenberg College and the University of Michigan.

He came to the Wayne district in 1958 on physical education at Wayne Memorial High and the Jefferson and Lincoln Elementaries before handling the sixth grade at Cady.

Dietrich was then an intern assistant principal at Elliott Elementary during the 1965-66 school year and a teaching assistant principal and sixth grade instructor the following year at Monroe Elementary. For the past two years, he has chaired the district's in-serve workshop committee.

The School Board's policy on the use of facilities by the public, points out that "in order to assure a close relationship between the school and community, it shall be the policy to grant and encourage maximum use of facilities to responsible and properly organized school district groups for the purpose of education, recreation, and entertainment."

"The authorized representative of the board may approve the use of school facilities by non-school organizations except for those activities which result in personal or corporate gain.

"Charges shall be made according to the schedule of fees approved by the board. The superintendent shall establish such rules and regulations as needed to implement this policy as well to assure the preservation of school district property."

In the West, sawtimber from which the region's lumber is produced is defined as trees 11 inches and over in diameter at breast height.

Greenville Mayor is Coming to Westland

Greenville's new Mayor, Ronald C. Blanding, will be the guest of honor in Westland Monday during the annual Mayors' Exchange program, part of the Michigan Week observance, to start Sunday.

Blanding, elected to the Greenville position a month ago, is a native of that city and was graduated from the local high school in 1946.

He lived in Florida for four years, working in quality control for Southern Dairies, Inc., before returning to Greenville 11 years ago.

He now has his own business of selling and trucking dry milk powder from the local warehouse to dairies and cheese plants through the state.

In public life, Blanding served on the Greenville health board and planning commission before being elected City Councilman and Mayor Pro-tem.

The visiting mayor's hobby is antique cars and he is the proud owner of a 1915 Ford depot hack, a 1909 Chalmers-Detroit, 1916 Model T speedster and a 1928 Model A roadster.

He is president of the local and area antique car club
