

Veterans from '98 to '67 Will Honor Soldier Dead

The marching lines are getting thinner and the procession shorter but the Plymouth Community will pay tribute to its war dead in the traditional Memorial Day parade and program next Tuesday in the same style it has for so many years.

More than 5,000 are expected to jam the downtown business section and Kellogg Park for the solemn ceremonies that show that Plymouth hasn't forgotten—that the community still remembers all the young men and women who have made the supreme sacrifice in the numerous wars.

This year's parade will be marked by an appearance of the last of the community's Spanish-American War Veterans, a handful of marchers from World War I, a large delegation from World War II and the Korean conflict and at least two from the latest battlefield in Vietnam.

The parade and program is under the supervision of American Legion Passage-Gayde Post 391 with Fred Johnson as Marshal of the day. He will be assisted by Gerald Olson, representing Mayflower Post 6695.

Johnson and Olson have made arrangements for the two Vietnam veterans to join in the procession and have hopes that others, who have returned from that corridor will appear at the meeting place in the rear of Plymouth High School.

"We would like to have as many Vietnam returnees in the line as possible," said Johnson. "Because of the attention focussed on the Vietnam situation in recent months, we hope to make this Memorial Day parade the most meaningful in recent years."

Actually, the Memorial Day activities begin Saturday morning when representatives of the VFW and American Legion join hands in decorating graves of all soldier dead in the community.

The group will start at Riverside Cemetery, then go to the burial place on Gyde Road, to Lapham Corners and to the small cemetery in the Cherry Hill area. Participating members hope to have the grave of every war hero bearing a flag by sunset.

Members of the two Posts and Auxiliaries will join in the traditional Memorial Day church services Sunday morning at 11 at the Presbyterian Church where Rev. Dr. Henry Walsh is planning a special sermon and program.

Heads of the two Veteran groups urge all members to come in uniform. All will meet in the parking lot at 10:45 p.m. to march into the church in a body.

That sets the stage for the parade and program at which Oscar Hammond, of Northville, former State Commander of the American Legion, will be the principal speaker.

Marshall Johnson asks all units to meet in the parking lot in the rear of the high school at 9:30 a.m. to line up for the procession which will go down Main Street and around Kellogg Park before moving into the bandshell for the program.

The Plymouth High marching band, under the direction of James Griffith and led by Drum Major Dennie McVittie, will lead the parade which starts promptly at 10 a.m.

Grand Marshal Johnson and assistant Gerry Olson will be next in line followed by Plymouth Mayor James Jabara, Plymouth Township Supervisor John McEwen and City Manager Richard Blodgett.

POPPY SALE starts early for Mayflower VFW Post 6695 and Passage-Gayde American Legion Post 391. Fred Johnson, of the Legion Post, buys poppies from his wife, Mrs. Evelyn Johnson, president of the Legion Auxiliary, and Commander Robert Smith of the VFW. Actually, the sale will be held on the streets of Plymouth Thursday from early morning to dusk. In case of rain, the sale will be held Friday.

Five Leaders Honored For Community Service

Michigan Week—the celebration unique among all the states of the Union—reached its peak at noon on Wednesday.

The occasion was the observance of Livelihood Day at Thunderbird Inn when an outstanding tribute was paid to five of the leaders in the Plymouth Community.

Those honored included:

Margaret Wilson—owner of the Penn Theater and Melody House—representing business.

Leo Schultz, Vico Products Co., representing industry.

Dr. Charles Westover—representing the professions.

Gerald Greer, of the Communications Workers of America, representing labor.

Russell Isbister, retiring Superintendent of Schools, representing education.

They were presented the unusual honor by Harold Fischer, director of the Area Planning Commission and each was awarded a certificate in appreciation of service to the community.

Prior to the award luncheon, the Weatherman was the kindest of all to Michigan Week.

In the bright sun of a beautiful spring day, Mayor Pro Tem James McKeon played host to Dr. Douglas Wood, president of the City Council in Beverly Hills, and the city officials gave the visitors a keen insight into the City of Plymouth.

After the ceremonial greeting at City Hall, the party went on tour of the City Hall and other city buildings and activities. Later they had lunch at the Mayflower, toured the Western Electric plant in the afternoon and were guests at a dinner in the evening.

Meanwhile Mayor James Jabara, of Plymouth, was treated to a very enjoyable day in Beverly Hills.

Several big events are on the calendar for the remainder of the week.

One of these is Education Day which will be observed on Thursday with an open house at all schools.

A tea in the Dunning-Hough library will feature Hospitality Day on Friday.

day, Mrs. Dorothy Sincock, chairlady of the affair, expects a gathering of more than 200 persons at the tea.

Plymouth Women's Club, DAR and the Garden Club.

On Saturday, the closing day of the big week, attention will be focused on the youngsters.

It is designated as Youth Day and will be marked by the playing of the All-Star game by teams selected from the city junior leagues.

Board Members Fete Isbisters

The series of appreciation luncheons and dinners for Russell Isbister who is retiring Superintendent of the Plymouth Community Schools at the end of the present term, is now under way.

The first was held last Friday evening at Hillside Inn, when past and present members of the Board of Education paid their respects to Mr. and Mrs. Isbister, in an evening that was fraught with nostalgia.

Included in the group of more than 30 who helped pay the tribute were Mrs. John Morrow, of Cheboygan, and Kenneth Hulsing, both of whom were members of the Board when Mr. Isbister was hired as the superintendent.

The Morrrows—Mr. and Mrs. John—made the trip from Cheboygan, but they were outdone in the travel derby by Harold Niemi, who made the trip from Louisville to be present at the dinner.

Aside from the 33 who were present messages of appreciation were received from Rev. James Mitchell, of Rochester, N.Y. and Wallace Laury of Honolulu.

Jacobsen Is New Head Of Jaycees

Roy Jacobsen, long a leader in activities in the Plymouth community and administrative assistant to retiring State President Wendell Smith, is the New President of the Plymouth Jaycees.

Jacobsen was named successor to Jerry Youhey in the annual election of officers. He served as Director of Special Groups for Gov. Romney in the last election.

Roy and his wife Marlys and daughter Suzanne reside at 41633 River Oaks Drive in Plymouth. He is a district sales engineer for Minnesota Rubber Co. and has lived in Plymouth for three and a half years.

Other members of the Jaycee executive committee are: Internal Vice President John Miller, 630 Bryon; External Vice President John Ferguson, 41655 Wilcox; Third Vice President Barney Lary, 1475 Sheldon; Secretary John Kelly, 40723 Firwood; Treasurer Jerry Marquart, 30357 Lamar, Farmington.

Directors are: Don Wright, 40567 Micol; Dick Boden, 41664 River Oaks; Bob Corless, 208 Blunk and Fred Martin, 1479 Sheldon.

Vacation of Alleys Has Plenty of Ifs

The City of Plymouth is planning a campaign to eliminate all alleys within the city limits—IF—

1—The vacating doesn't cause too much inconvenience for the abutting property owners who have garages.

2—The businessmen in the commercial areas don't need them to dispose of waste material.

"Our present study in the north west area could be just a beginning," City Manager Richard Blodgett stated in revealing the plans for a citywide study.

According to the plan, now under consideration, a study will be made of the entire city and then action will be taken according to the findings.

The plan is not to vacate all alleys at one time—for public hearings must be held in each individual case. And this could spell trouble.

During the course of the discussion among the City Commissioners last week when the alley between Arthur and Irvin Streets from Farmer to Junction, was closed against the wishes of the abutting property owners, Commissioner Arch Vallier made his point very clear.

"I am opposed to closing this alley," he said, "until we adopt a citywide program of closing all alleys. We just can't do this job piece-meal."

He then cast a negative vote, along with Commissioner Peter Schweitzer, who also pointed out that he was voicing the wishes of the people when he voted "No."

During the discussion, Commissioner James McKeon voiced the opinion that a citywide study be made with the idea of closing as many alleys as possible.

It is from these expressions that the plan is being considered in the hope that many of them can be closed and the unsanitary eyesores removed from the city. No official action has been taken, according to Blodgett, but it is in the making.

School Heads Told Research Programs

School superintendents, board members and other administrators from 10 southeast Michigan counties were encouraged to extend the use of research as part of program planning studies and evaluation at a one-day conference at Schoolcraft College on Saturday, May 20.

About 70 educators heard Donald J. Pizzimenti discuss the value of research to industry. Pizzimenti, research and development executive with the Detroit Edison Co., drew parallels between industry and education in the use of research for planning and evaluation.

The conference was sponsored by the Michigan Educational Research Council and was coordinated by Dr. E. J. McClendon, secondary education consultant for the Wayne County Intermediate School District and a director of MERA.

Dr. Ned Flanders, professor of educational research at the University of Michigan, told the educators "how to do it" in a talk devoted to details of research projects. Dr. Flanders is MERA president and past president of the Educational Research Assn. of America.

Dr. Stuart Rankin, director of the Michigan-Ohio Regional Educational Laboratory, headed a corps of resource consultants for workshop sessions in the Lois L. Waterman Campus Center. Other consultants were from local school districts, the State Department of Education and colleges and universities in the state.

Educators attending the conference represented school districts in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, Hillsdale, Jackson, Ingham, Livingston, Lenawee and Washtenaw counties.

Nankin School To Host Pupils From Oak Park

Perrinville Elementary School students in the Nankin Mills District, Westland, will host Oak Park pupils (tomorrow) Thursday, in the completion of a Brotherhood Week program started last February.

The second and fourth grade classes of teachers Joyce Green and Kathy Hayward, both residents in the Nankin Mills District, will host their counterparts in the Dewey Elementary School, Oak Park.

The Nankin Mills students will accompany the Oak Park students on a trip through Acorn Trail in Holiday Park from 10-11:30 a.m. with naturalists Leonard Baron and Mrs. Mary Ellsworth serving as guides.

Then a picnic will be held in the park with the food (including kosher hot dogs for the predominantly Jewish children from Oak Park) to be prepared by mothers of the Perrinville students.

After lunch, a trip will be made to the Nature Center. Following that, the students will visit St. Bernadine's Catholic Church, Ann Arbor Trail near Merriman, Westland Shopping Center, and Westland City Hall, where they will be greeted by Mayor Thomas Brown.

The day's event will be a counterpart to the trip made Feb. 22, during Brotherhood Week, when the Perrinville pupils visited the Dewey school, bagel factory, and B'nai David Synagogue.

Perrinville School Principal Richard Burnham said that in case of rain tomorrow, the program will be held on Friday.

Livonia, Farmington, Plymouth Plan Parades

3 Cities to Honor War Dead

Three of the six communities in the Observer Newspaper Group circulation area will honor their hero dead on Memorial Day, Tuesday, May 30, with elaborate parades and programs.

The Plymouth community, will hold its traditional parade and program, in the downtown business section with a parade starting at 10 p.m. and a program in Kellogg Park at 10:30 a.m.

Livonia will present one of the largest parades in recent years, starting at 9:30 a.m. from the Sheldon Shopping Center, Farmington at Plymouth Road. The line of march will be east on Plymouth to the Wonderland Shopping Center at Middlebelt and Plymouth Road.

Farmington has plans for the biggest memorial of the day in the area with a parade, sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, at 10 a.m.

The procession will start at Farmington Junior High, corner of Grand River and School Street, go northwest on Grand River to Oakwood Cemetery when a flag will be raised with appropriate ceremonies.

The parade will leave the cemetery, turn around and follow the same route back to the junior high.

No traffic will be allowed through the business area from 9:50 a.m. until noon.

College Board OKs New Parking Lot

Construction of a second 1,200-car parking lot for Schoolcraft College students was assured last week when the college Board of Trustees awarded a contract to Cadillac Paving Co., Southfield.

The lot will be developed at the south end of the campus on Haggerty Road on approximately 10 acres of property recently acquired by the college. The lighted and paved lot is scheduled for completion by mid-August. With it, the college will have parking for approximately 2,400 student cars.

The board action was one of three affecting construction projects on the campus. Trustees approved final plans for a proposed physical education plant on the campus and instructed the project architect, Eberle M. Smith Associates, Detroit, to prepare bidding specifications. The trustees also awarded a contract for $40,830 to Perfection Building Co., Southfield, for remodeling work in the administration building.

The project in the administration building is keyed to remodeling work nearing completion in the former student center which will become the new home of the Office of Student Affairs. The administration building will be modified to provide additional office space for the Office of Instruction, the Business Office and the President's Office.

Perfection was low bidder among five on the project. Other bids were Zervos Construction Co., Detroit, $1,186; Smith & Young Co., Wayne, $44,873; W.J. Howard & Sons, Inc., Ferndale, $47,200; and Lawrence G. Markey, Inc., Detroit, $51,623.

Cadillac was low among seven bidders on the parking lot, with a base price of $226,000.

Other bids were: Detroit Concrete Products, Novi, $229,800; Thompson-McCully Asphalt Paving Co., Belleville, $243,000; A & A Asphalt Paving Co., Birmingham, $251,437; Lincoln Asphalt Paving Co., Lincoln Park, $264,739; Washtenaw Asphalt Co., Ann Arbor, $265,983; and Oakland Paving Co., Berkley $268,420.

Ralls-Hamill-Becker Associates, Inc., Livonia, are architects for both the parking lot and the administration building remodeling.

OLM Students Thrilled Over Awards for Writing

"Surprised, thrilled, amazed" are words Nancy Bellier and Carol George, students at Our Lady of Mercy High School, used when they talk about the recent honorable mentions they won in the 1967 Scholastic Magazine Writing Awards national contest.

Nancy, 17, and Carol 16, had entries with two things in common—each submitted a formal essay, both chose Holden Caulfield for their subject.

Nancy developed her thesis around Caulfield's conflict between his love for the world and his wish to reject the corruption of the world.

Carol proved Caulfield a moral individual by means of a theme through showing his love for humanity.

A senior, Nancy is a student of Sister Mary Canice at OLM. She spent a month on research for her seven-page essay and two days writing it.

Her home is in Detroit and her favorite pastime is reading. She plans to enter Wayne State University next fall.

Also a Detroit, Carol is an OLM junior and a student of Aileen Fitzpatrick. Writing is a secondary interest with her, her first love being art. She draws and paints in all media.

Writing must be a family trait, however, because Carol's older sister, Diana is editor of the OLM school paper and she has an 8th grade brother who also is talented.

When she graduates, Carol plans to attend Aquinas College and major in art education.

The two young authors also have two more things in common—J. D. Salinger is their favorite author and the awards they received were their first for literary effort. It is the first time Carol has entered the competition, the third time for Nancy.

Medical Bldg. Planned Here

Contractors today planned to complete a new medical and office building at the northwest corner of Seven Mile Road and Lathers by October.

Daniel R. Andrew, Livonia's Industrial Coordinator, said it will be "one of the finest and most beautiful in the city."

Groundbreaking ceremonies were conducted on the site last week. Leventen-Koloff, Inc., are the general contractors for the project.

Andrew said the bi-level fire-resistant structure — actually two buildings in one — will be covered with Italian marble. Half of the 11,000 square feet of space will be medical offices.

The other half will be for professional offices for engineers, manufacturers' representatives and others, each area with separate entrances and lobbies.

Small Turnout Seen June 12

Out of 36,000 eligible for the June school board election, less than 4,000 will go to the polls if the 1966 turnout is repeated.

Mrs. Willa Parmenter, school board elections clerk, said Monday that she hopes everyone registered to vote will either go to the polls or use the absentee ballot available from her office.

Voters expecting to use the absentee ballot should apply immediately at the school board office at 15125 Farmington Road or call the office at 422-1200. Ballots will be mailed to those voters who can not come to the school board office.

Seven candidates are running for two seats on the Livonia School Board and two candidates are running for the Schoolcraft Board of Trustees.

Schoolcraft Board of Trustees candidates are Leroy Bennett, 18809 Nola Dr.; Paul Mutnick, Weyher, 19822.

"The school district boundaries are the same as the Livonia city limits with one major exception," Mrs. Parmenter said. "Two large sections extend beyond Joy Road into Westland."

The southern boundary of the district includes Lowell and Whittier Junior High Schools and Hayes, Monroe, Cooper and the Cooper Annex Elementary Schools.

WHILE THE MEN were touring Livonia, the ladies visited Livonia Mall on Seven Mile and Middlebelt and were greeted by Seymour Goldberg, of Crowley's, Robert Chatham, publicity director of the Mall, and Oscar Kahan, of The Card Shop. Ladies on the tour were Mrs. Dave Jones, Mrs. Jack Salvatore, Mrs. Clarkson, Eleanor Jacobson, executive secretary to Livonia Mayor Moelke, and Mrs. Peter Ventura.

Teen Charged After Fight at Restaurant

Larry Samhat, 18, of 35988 Schoolcraft, Livonia, has been charged by Livonia police with malicious destruction of property and assault and battery.

The charge came after Bruce Johnston, manager of the Burger Chef, 31150 Five Mile, reported that Samhat hit him when asked to leave because of profane language.

Johnston said Samhat then went outside and broke a plate glass window with a pop bottle. Johnston estimated the damage at $150.

Two days later Johnston told police that another window had been broken by a rock. He estimated this damage at $110.

Careless

John E. Curnow, of 14523 Fairway Drive, Livonia, was fined $50 for careless driving by Municipal Judge James R. McCann.

Police reports show Curnow almost lost control of his car when he pulled out of Daly's Drive-In. Curnow's auto reportedly fishtailed for about 80 feet as he drove west on Plymouth Road.

When Curnow failed to appear for his court date, a warrant was sent to the Police Department and the $50 fine issued.

Evans Sees Record Sales and Earnings

PORTLAND, ORE. — Record sales and improved earnings for Evans Products Company in 1967 was the prediction made by Monford A. Orloff, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, at the 1967 annual meeting of shareholders May 17.

He said that the belated restoration of the investment tax credit has been a sharp deterrent to the placement of orders for railcars and railway equipment in the first four months of the year, but that the last half should improve in this assuming early action by Congress on the bill now pending.

He also stated that economic indicators point to an upturn in residential housing starts in the second half of the year from the low level that has prevailed to date which has affected the results of the Building Products Group; but that the Capp-Homes Division, because of its unique financing arrangement and product, has booked orders at the highest level in its history. The shareholders elected 14 directors, five of whom were first elected to the Board in March of 1967. The directors are: Samuel J. Robinson, President, Publishers' Paper Company, R. W. deWeese, Vice President, Esco Corporation; Sheldon Kaplan, Executive Vice President of Evans; and Max Zamansky and Dr. Piotr Zenczak, Vice President of Evans.

Congressman Would Fine Flag Burners

Congressman Jack McDonald (R., Mich.), today urged the Judiciary Committee to submit to the Congress "a bill which would provide penalties of $1,000 or one year in jail or both" for anyone who desecrates the American flag.

He also urged that the committee bill act concurrently with existing state laws in order to avoid pre-empting their authority.

In his testimony before the committee, the Michigan Republican noted that the right to dissent is basic to our freedoms.

However, McDonald went on to point out, "We should not permit the very symbol of our rights to be desecrated for such acts of desecration symbolically suggest a repudiation of the very rights our flag represents."

The Judiciary Committee is currently considering some 50 bills which would make it a federal crime to desecrate the United States flag.

The Congressional action follows the recent acts of flag burning which began in Central Park in early April.

Since then, many anti-Vietnam demonstrations have concluded with a flag-burning ceremony.

Final Plans Being Made For Parade

Citizens or civic groups wishing to participate in the June 4 Memorial Parade are being asked to contact Herman Krenz, parade marshal, at GA 2-4441.

Redford Township holds its parade on the Sunday following Memorial Day which falls on Tuesday this year.

Krenz said the Redford Township Memorial Day Parade Authority is asking those viewing the parade to show proper respect toward the flag.

"It seems in the past that many are forgetting to stand up and salute or hold their hands over their hearts as the flag passes by," he explained.

Publicity Chairman Bob Bannister said the parade committee would pay citizens to obtain slides and eight-millimeter moving pictures of the parade.

He may be contacted by telephone at KE 5-0541.

LANSING — The Michigan Department of State has become a $200-million operation.

Secretary of State James M. Hare, reports revenue from all sources . . . weight tax collections on motor vehicles (license plates), licensing of varying types, sales and use taxes, fees, titles, and others . . . topped $205-million in 1966.

Vehicle licensing jumped more than $4-million from $78-million last year to upwards of $82-million in 1966. This, says Hare, is despite the fact that gains in passenger vehicle plates rose "very modestly . . . about a quarter million dollars."

While passenger plates were up slightly, Hare noted that revenue for plates on commercial vehicles shot up more than $2-million and trailers $1.5-million. Revenue on motorcycle plates rose $265,000 in 1965 to $356,000, and house trailers and municipal licenses also showed gains.

Reflecting the slump in the sale of motor vehicles last year, sales and use tax receipts dipped from 106.5-million to $97.6-million. This marked a drop of more than 150,000 transactions.

It was the fifth year in succession that licensed vehicles in Michigan went over 4-million and the first time the 4.5-million mark was topped.

But Hare indicated that the recent sharp yearly gains of between 200,000 and 250,000 registered vehicles failed to materialize, and last year's increase was just 100,000. Tax revenue collected by the Department, Hare said, is used in the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund and for construction and maintenance of roads and in the state's general and school aid fund.

Let's Have Fulltime Local Governments

Governments are a big business and the people who pay the bills should insist that the best brains around be hired or elected to run them. In cities the size of Livonia and perhaps in some of the others in Observerland the top jobs at least should be full-time and year-round positions.

There, we've said it and we're glad. The anti-arguments are a part of the folklore and here are a few: Keep government close to the people with short elective terms and low salaries. We're too small a city for fulltime politicians. The Council meets one night a week and isn't worth more money. It's a part-time hobby.

Government is a fulltime responsibility, however. Southfield Mayor James Clarkson, for example, gets $5,000 a year and makes ends meet by practicing law. The only time he isn't available for City Business is during dinner.

Every political officeholder—legislators, mayors, the governor—either takes his work away from the desk with him or it follows him around. As governments get bigger and the administration of them becomes more complex part-time officials will be overwhelmed.

Here's a small example. The Livonia School Board will be making decisions affecting 3,000 employes and up to $40 million next year. The School Board offers its members a token allowance for expenses. Livonia councilmen control a $5.3 million a year general fund budget, and very little public income.

More argument: Part-time work and low salaries allow us to use the talent of some of our leading citizens. This is what small towns and township boards are forced to do.

What some of the critics are saying is this: Higher salaries and fulltime jobs will give us some competition for these offices. It happened for years in the legislature.

Year after year the entrenched ruralites who ran the House and Senate would vote against pay raises. It sounded great to the taxpayers back home. But you can bet your last trading stamp they'd have gone the other way if they didn't have to look over their shoulder at some rising political competition.

The charter commission in Livonia will propose, at least inferentially, that the mayor's salary be raised from $8,400 to $17,500. They expect the usual furore from the public.

We hope the people will take a look at this and some of the other salaries of public officials, both elected and appointed. It's a good investment.

Letters To Editor:

An Hour's Ride for Kids?

We Are Not Happy

I bet no census taker would have the nerve to canvass the Northwest section of Livonia, to see what some of the newcomers think of this fair city.

A city where people have recently moved to, hoping to better their lives and their children's, little realizing that their moving has just begun.

A city where the Board of Education sees fit to transfer children from the extreme Northwest section of the city, clear to the extreme Southeast-Westland, no less. An hour's bus ride for children in a city this size.

A city that the Board of Education sees fit to exclude all children from the North side of a Jr. High, even though most of these children are less than a half mile away—walking distance, thus saving taxpayers' money wasted on bussing.

It seems to me, Livonia should take a good, hard look at itself and the people we have put in authority to make these decisions. Come time for election we will remember these politicians and the poor decisions they have made, thus insulting our intelligence and disrupting our children's lives—not once, but three or four times. Many of us have foolishly hoped for parks and recreation, willing to tax ourselves again for these benefits—but to no avail. Tell us what do we have to show for our high taxes. Maybe if more complaints were voiced—we just might get action.

No wonder, to us, industry is moving in and homes are up for sale all over. Let the newcomers beware—we are told this is only the beginning of this city of confusion.

She Wants Help

On Legislators

Editor: There are many of us who want to write representatives in Lansing but do not know their names, districts (what sections this district covers) and their addresses.

Would you set up a section prominently covering this fully for those who want this? Put it all in one spot—don't put part on one page and end up on another.

This way it can be cut out and kept as a record. Hope you could get it in the next issue. And, thank you!

Can't you support the move on now to get 400,000 signatures of voters to legalize a lottery? New York starts in July expecting $120 million per year on four lotteries. This money is in lieu of further taxes.

Contact Citizens for Sweepstakes Association Inc., 4498 Westpoint, Dearborn Heights. Mrs. Helen Kloviski, sponsor. Please help. If we defeat taxation, it will help you, too.

Learns His Lesson

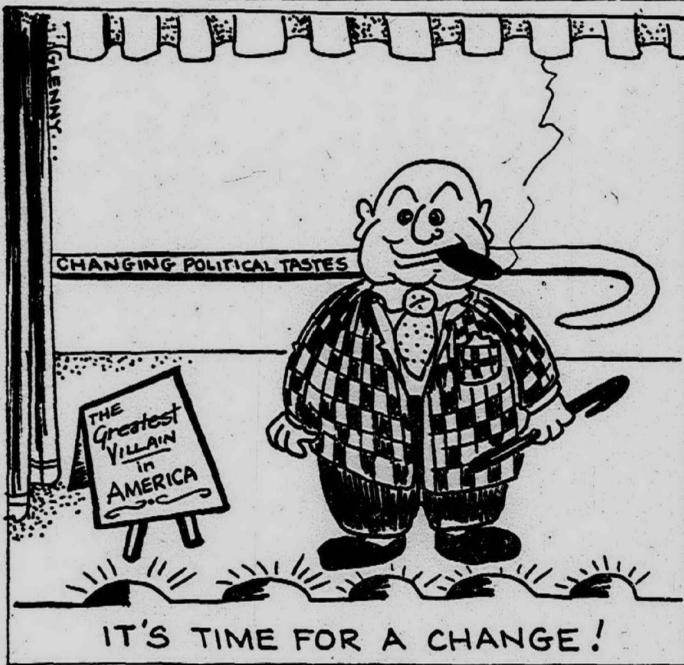

Editor: All winter we were barged with requests and threats from the postoffice to keep our walks and porches clear of snow. I heeded the request and labored through an almost never-ending winter of record snow.

And lo and behold. Spring is here and the snow is gone. Lo, to my surprise I found out I've been shoveling snow in the wrong place all winter.

I should have been shoveling my lawn, as the sub mailmen who usually deliver my mail don't use the sidewalk. I apologize and promise that next winter I'll leave my sidewalk alone and concentrate on clearing a path across my front lawn.

By that time it should be packed hard enough to make it easier to shovel than the sidewalk with those pesky cracks.

From the Publisher's Desk OBSERVATION POINT

By Philip H. Power

LADEEEES and Gentlemen!

We now bring you THE GREATEST, not the second greatest but THE GREATEST villain in America: The Politician.

(Sound of muffled drums, offstage. Piano plays suspenseful music.)

Right hand endlessly extended for the over-hearty handshake. Left hand poised to slap the unwary on the back.

And talking, talking, talking; endlessly talking.

About what? Himself generally. Or his pet project. Or a new (and devious) way of conning the voters for the next election.

Driven by greed equally mixed with egocentricity, the politician stalks about the stage, bringing his own particular brand of amateur incompetence to the public weal.

THAT, friends and neighbors, is the image of the politician.

Sure it ain't true. But it's an image, and an enduring one. And the trouble with images is that they're darn hard to get rid of, kind of like moles in your lawn.

And images do make a difference. A big difference.

Too bad about that. For I suspect that if one thing is really screwy about the American political system, it's the universal disrespect in which politicians are held by the voting (and non-voting) public.

Frankly, that just isn't fair.

We ask more out of our politicians than we ask of our wives or husbands, and we bitch at them more regularly than even the couple on the brink of divorce.

We instruct politicians to set up routes for new expressways like I-275, which means they have to learn to be engineers and realtors. Then we throw mud at them when they run the road through someone's rose garden.

We expect our politicians to set up health plans for the elderly or to enact legislation to aid the mentally ill. Then, after they learn about the problems of doctors and psychiatrists, we turn around and criticize them for spending the taxpayers' money.

EVERY society has routes expressed, and ours seems to have chosen the politicians to exercise the lion's share. We expect them to do it with perfect knowledge of the facts, ideal understanding of the wishes of the voters, and a quick glimpse into the crystal ball of the future.

It's no wonder that when the political parties start coming around asking people to be candidates, the stampede for the door can be heard for miles.

People duck being a candidate because they are brought up suddenly against the key thing about politicians: They are members of a profession as difficult and demanding as our doctors and lawyers.

For the politicians' profession is power.

Their business office is the entire society. The tools of their trade: Knowledge, sweat, vision and a particularly acute sense of what brings men to do things.

Their scope: All the subjects in the entire world, people.

Their training: Going out and being a politician, for there are no courses in the schools or colleges on this profession.

You know the only sad thing about all this? Politicians are members of a profession, but they're so brain washed by their own old image that they don't realize it themselves.

Citizen Reflects on World

Editor:

First of all, I want to say how much I enjoy your paper and how it is helping me become acquainted with an area that I have lived in since only last fall. More than this, I really appreciate the lively discussions that take place between those of differing beliefs, especially in the political arena, plus the articles that more calmly dissect the group workings of those who hold these beliefs.

From time to time I have considered giving expression to some of my own thoughts but one thing or another has kept me from doing so. Perhaps I felt that I hadn't lived here long enough but there aren't really many important issues today to be discussed that don't cross boundaries; whether local, state or national. Therefore, I write as a citizen "of the world" as well as a resident of Livonia, who feels frustrated at the crying needs of all the residents (including myself) of this old earth and my inability to do much about it. I can sympathize with those who look for easy answers or who prefer not to look at all since the difficulties are so great and, as with all things, solution of one problem only seems to create another problem! Now, I have been active in the past in a number of groups, and hope to be again, but I am prevented from doing much of this sort at this time.

I ask myself, as others must be doing also, what can I do when I'm not sure of the proper line of action or if circumstances prevent me from taking much action at the present time? How does one differentiate between the demands of and responsibility to one's family, the local community, loyalty to one's country and the transcending call of a religion that says all people are to be considered and treated as brothers. Isn't this the "horns of a dilemma" that we are all caught on, to a greater or lesser degree?

Every person has to find their own guiding principle and to decide when to act upon it so I can offer no advice here but there is one thing that I think that we all can do and which, as free citizens we are obliged to do: keep ourselves informed.

I do not mean just with facts (and that in itself is difficult enough to do at times since the news media must choose from a myriad of items and events and cannot prevent total censorship) but of the understanding which means we must step outside ourselves at times even if we return to a prior position and posture. I would like to share some insight of someone who has had a lifetime of experience dealing with many nationalities and faiths. Pearl Buck. Her book, "My Several Worlds," not only satisfies our curiosity about a famous person but has much to say about the conflicts in the world today—particularly those between men of different races and the agonizing one now in Vietnam.

Although I have worked for integration I have not wanted to see the Vietnam problem in this realm of thinking although it has been raised over and over by many persons in our country and around the world, especially the colored people. I saw it in the presented view of communism versus capitalism, religion versus vested interests of certain wealthy individuals or companies and possibly as the age-old conflict of an "elder" know-it-all (the United States) trying to guide an "adolescent" know-it-all (Vietnam and others like her).

For those who may not want to read the whole book, I suggest the chapter "Forest Haunt, Vermont," which runs from page 79 to page 90 in the library copy I am reading.

This is the Week that...

By DON HOENSHELL

OK, folks, here's the medicine about fiscal reform in Lansing so if the violins will play a little sotto voce Hearts and Flowers and you will open wide, let us begin.

Fiscal reform has been tagged with that melancholy phrase: I-n-c-o-m-e T-a-x.

Scary, eh?

This whole business has been kicking around since 1957 when Prof. Harvey Brazer, of the University of Michigan, wrote the book. It's about the size of the Northwest telephone directory.

But inside are the elements of every Democratic and Republican tax plan since publication day. The Williams Tax Plan, the Swainson Formula and the Romney Action Program on Taxes.

It's pure Brazer. Scholarly, nonpartisan, logical, understandable Brazer. If Harvey wants to cry a bit about what politicians are doing or not doing to his gem, understand it, please.

Because in Lansing you 1.7 million outcounty residents have before you the dilemma of the need for additional revenue that legislators don't want to extract from taxpayers, which you don't want to pay but which both sides need for Michigan to survive.

There's nothing wrong or crooked about politics. Only men make it that way, you and I and the guy who thinks he has to buy a liquor license.

In Lansing we have politicians whose major professional goal is to perpetuate themselves and their political philosophies in office. Some are there because they need the $15,000 a year and couldn't make it evicting widows as lawyers or punching a press in a factory.

Self-preservation is the basic law of nature and why should they take a Brodie off the bridge? They survive by preserving a public posture, the better to serve them on Election Day.

The Senate has passed a fiscal reform package. Never mind the figures. They'll change. The House won't pass the Senate version and touched. You can get 50 to 1 odds going on 100 to 1. And there will be no final decision until the dying days of the 1967 legislature, if then. Maybe in October.

And you'll get letters, lots of letters, asking for your opinion. Nope, kind sir, I do not wish to pay an income tax, since my property tax bill just arrived. Thanks a lot for asking. It's like asking if you'd like a gall bladder operation.

Romney is calling for a big budget slash if Michigan doesn't enact fiscal reform. He says he won't sign budget bills until he gets it. Maybe he's serious.

So we'll close a few mental hospitals, chop down the State Police, higher education and put elementary and secondary schools on half-day sessions. Dramatic stuff. Send the kids to bed without dinner, and show'em who's boss.

What to do? Write your guy in Lansing a letter, tell him for $15,000 a year he can represent you since that's what happened on Election day and, at this point, he should know more about this business than you.

And, if you don't like the way he voted remember him next Election day.

He's your guy, so go get 'em, Tiger.

And, Harvey, cry us a river.

Need Teenagers In Summer Jobs

Senator Argues For Tax Moratorium

Editor:

With the economy showing signs of slowing up more and more every day, I believe it's time to take a real hard and long look at the ever growing spending policies of state government.

Considering a population growth factor of only a half million people, we have allowed the state's budget to rise more than double in the past five years. This is in spite of the fact that we enacted a new constitution in 1963 which was designed to streamline governmental organizations and costs.

Apparently we can't stand prosperity or a treasury surplus too long before our lawmakers must spend us into the red and then ask the citizens for more and more new taxes. Likewise, I noticed at the national level that the public relations cost of the executive branch of the government alone is $425 million a year, or more than $1 million dollars a day, just on public information. An equal amount, if not more, is spent by government printing office and the Congress itself.

While these wild and unprecedented spending policies continue in our state and in our nation the public is being asked to approve many new tax increases, such as six percent federal surtax on income, 15 to 20 percent increase on Social Security, state income tax of 2½ percent, gas and weight tax, excise taxes and many others.

Personally, I am deeply concerned as to whether or not our economy is strong enough to warrant the additional tax burdens being placed on it. Further, I wonder if it would not be wise to declare a moratorium on all new taxes and all new spending programs at all levels of government, federal, state and local. Let's take a long, hard look for any and all waste, improvements or economies that might be realized before we run the entire state and nation into bankruptcy.

A few tips from masters on how to choose careers

By W. W. EDGAR

WITHIN THE NEXT few weeks thousands of young folks across the land will be leaving school to enter the battle of life in a world that is now in a state of unrest because of war, rumors of war, and a general transition brought about by the automation and scientific changes of the so-called space age.

Some of them will be heading back to college with the hope of becoming better prepared for life's struggle, while others, for one reason or another, will have to forego attendance at these institutions of higher learning and attempt to eke out an existence with the tools in their possession.

But all of them will be concentrating on shaping a career.

All of which leads to the question—"How does one decide on a career in this topsy-turvy world?"

I am reminded of an afternoon some years ago when I had the pleasure of sitting in the locker room of a country club down in Ohio when the late Charles F. (Boss) Kettering, the one-time research genius of General Motors, was holding court with a group of young fellows discussing college careers.

"Ever since I was a kid," one of them said, "I had hoped to become an engineer when I grew up. But now I don't know. It seems like everything has been done, or invented."

THEN HE PROCEEDED to name such things as television, our modern engines and motors, the satellites, and numerous other things that have come along in the last decade, or two.

"What is there open for an engineer today," he asked. This was the kind of position Boss Kettering cherished.

He just looked at the young fellow and said, with his whimsical smile:

"So you think everything has been accomplished, eh. Well, young man, do you know why grass is green? Why isn't it pink or red or some other color?"

The young fellow looked at "Boss" in amazement.

"If you can learn why grass is green," the elderly research expert went on, "you'll never have to worry about making a living—and a good one, too!"

Then "Boss" looked at the entire group and, speaking with the wisdom gained by years of experience, remarked, "There'll always be new and better ways to do things—and it will be young fellows like yourselves who will find them."

Then, there was the story of a young baseball player years ago who had visions of being a great second baseman who gave up because he felt he couldn't beat Charlie Gehringer, of the Tigers, out of the job.

So, when "Bucky" Harris, who also had been a great second baseman, was named to manage the Tigers I asked: "Are you going to take Gehringer off second and play the bag yourself?"

Bucky, who had been a playing manager, smilingly remarked, "No, he's going to make a bench manager out of me. I know when I'm licked."

WELL, SUPPOSE YOU were a young fellow in Detroit with visions of becoming a second baseman what would you do? I asked, with thoughts of the young Detroit lad in my mind.

"I wouldn't let the fact that Gehringer is the best second baseman in the game deter me," Bucky answered, "but I would try to land with a team that needed a second baseman. If you want to succeed today," he added, "you've got to find out where your services could be used—then go there."

And then there comes the memory of a day in my own youth—a day of decision when I learned that I no longer could remain in school and would have to start earning money to aid the family.

I recall sitting with my Mother and discussing the various types of work that I possibly could do. And I'll never forget what she told me.

"Just because you can't go to school anymore," she said with that native Pennsylvania intelligence, "doesn't mean that you have to stop learning."

"You can go out and learn a trade—I don't care which one—but learn a trade."

Then she added these unforgettable words: "Remember, what you've got in your head no one can steal from you."

That's the advice I'd like to pass along to the young folks of today.

My Mother's words are still a good guide, even though the world has changed a lot since she uttered them.

Housewife Needs Help in Buying

ANN ARBOR — The housewife, like the industrial purchasing agent, is responsible for buying goods for others.

The housewife, however, is an amateur and needs a great deal more consumer information than she gets now, according to Esther Peterson, who recently completed three years as President Johnson's special assistant for consumer affairs.

Mrs. Peterson suggests that the responsibility for providing better consumer information rests with business and labor as well as with the government. She points out that the American marketing revolution, which moves goods so rapidly, has also complicated the consumer's task.

"Specifically, it has made it harder for (the consumer) to know all he must know to be an intelligent buyer. The full-blown advent of the self-service store—to cite just one revolutionary development—shaved sales costs, and so made goods available more economically.

"Yet it also took away a valued source of information—the informed sales clerk—and so put a greater burden on the consumer. Combined with the growing complexity of existing products and the proliferation of new products, a consumer information gap has been developed that must be closed—for the welfare of both consumer and businessman.

"Our free market economy is based on the premise that well-informed consumers exercising free choice will move our economy in the right direction through their buying decisions," Mrs. Peterson notes.

"Yet it is clear that when a consumer acts on incomplete or faulty information, his choice is not really free and his nudge to the economy may not be in the right direction."

She suggests that businessmen try harder to put themselves in the consumer's place when they map marketing plans, and perhaps try such devices as the voluntary "Teltag" used in Great Britain.

Teltag is an informative hand tag or label attached to a product, offering details of its characteristics as determined by the manufacturer and verified by an independent laboratory. The tag offers easily understood measurements and specifications.

"Marketing has a responsibility to sell products, but it also should try to overcome its great weakness—the need for more consumer education, particularly for the nonaffluent, the undereducated, and the young," Mrs. Peterson says.

5 New Delegates on PCHA Board

Five additional appointees have been named to the Peoples Community Hospital Board of Directors. PCHA members include Westland and Garden City.

The five appointees announced this month include the following:

Roland W. Arnold of Southgate, who replaces Donald Padden; Charles Battle of Superior, replacing Emory Mulholland; Walter Sudak of Southgate, replacing Walter Berklich; and Walter J. Sullivan of Melvindale, replacing John Kessey.

The fifth new member, Mrs. Audrey Seay, is actually a former director re-appointed by Mayor Robert H. Wright of Trenton.

This is Michigan Week. All during the week residents will be deluged with information about the "Water-Winter-Wonderland" and how great it is.

(In fact a cartoon distributed by the promoters carries the caption "Paint Michigan bright! It's Michigan Week!")

It's all very well to set aside a special week to promote the state. But why concentrate it to one week?

● Within its borders rural, small town and industrial communities can be found.

● Within its borders lakes, campsites, ski facilities, picnic areas, cottages and posh resort hotels can be found.

● Within its borders art museums, historical museums and sites along with nationally known music and theatre festivals and a summer music camp can be found.

Connecting all this is a system of toll-free roads which is second to none in the country.

This isn't all that Michigan is though.

Michigan is the four different seasons of the year and variety of scenes and colors each season brings.

Michigan is flat farm land simmering in the summer sun. It is also the gently rolling hills and some near mountains in the northern portion of the state.

Michigan is the Mackinac Bridge connecting two peninsulas with its majestic view of two of the Great Lakes.

Mostly though Michigan is people.

Doctor, Lawyer, and Indian chief can all be found residing in the state along with the factory workers who contribute so much to this nation and this state's economic health.

Michigan is filled with people who take a day's trip to Canada in stride because that border has always been "open" and relations with this foreign nation have always contributed to this type of casual acceptance.

Michigan is a vast mosaic comprised of many small tiles. All of this adds to the celebration of Michigan Week and to our enjoyment of the state throughout the year.

East High Junior Off to Girls State

Miss Lisa James, a junior at Garden City East High School, has been selected to attend the American Legion Auxiliary Girls State to be held on the Campus of the University of Michigan June 18-25.

Lisa, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Reese James of Dover Street, is being sponsored by Garden City Unit 396, American Legion Auxiliary. Mary Alice Methner has been chosen as alternate.

For seven days the girls attending the American Legion Auxiliary Girls State will play the role of "Junior Politicians" and build a unit of government, electing from their own representatives, city, county, and state officials for a model state.

Under the sponsorship of the American Legion Auxiliary the girls will be assigned to cities, petition for offices, form party platform and caucus their way into a whirlwind week of self-government.

There will be 462 girls attending this 27th annual event, sponsored by various civic, social, fraternal, and patriotic organizations, as well as the American Legion Posts and American Legion Auxiliary Units.

At the close of their session, two girls will be selected to represent Michigan at Girls Nation held at the American University in Washington, D.C.

Lisa is a cheerleader, member of the Spanish Club, Pep Club, National Honor Society, and school newspaper. She is a member of St. Dunstan's Church.

Swimming and ice skating are her favorite sports, along with football, but only as a spectator. Her hobby is sewing.

A tea has been planned for Sunday, June 4, at Riverview High for the girls of the 16th District who will be attending Girls State. Garden City Chairman, Mrs. Edward Henrikowski has also invited the two girls who attended Girls State last year.

They are Lisa Berth of West High, who was sponsored by the Garden City Business and Professional Women, and Janice Jones, East High, who was sponsored by the Garden City Unit 396, American Legion Auxiliary.

EAST HIGH SCHOOL Junior Lisa James (center) is notified of her selection as the schools Girls State representative by Mrs. Edward Henrikowski, chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary's Girls State, sponsoring Lisa's trip. Alternate from East High will be Mary Methner (right).

Thurston Bounced by Bentley

Anders Champ KO'd

A new champion will be crowned in the 1967 Les Anders Memorial Invitational tournament.

Thurston, the 1966 winner, bowed in a first round game Saturday evening when beaten by Bentley, 6-1, after Garden City East had rallied to eliminate Franklin, the 1965 victor in the tourney, by a 6-5 score.

In other first round action Saturday it was Wayne over Plymouth, 4-2, and Stevenson by a 5-4 score over previously unbeaten St. Agatha.

In Sunday's action, Our Lady of Sorrows blanked Garden City West, 4-0, while Clarenceville advanced by edging Glenn, 6-2.

The quarterfinals are slated for Saturday at Livonia's Henry Ford Field with four games making up the slate which will begin at 1 p.m. and continue through until almost midnight.

The tourney is being sponsored by the Livonia Recreation Dept., the Livonia Optimist Club and also the Observer newspapers group.

Here's a detailed account of each first round encounter:

EAST 6. FRANKLIN 5
In a battle of league leaders—East (Mid-Wayne) and Franklin (Northwest)—East stormed from behind with two runs in the sixth and three in the bottom of the seventh.

A triple by John Chute chased in Ken Wilkinson and Marv Martin, after they had walked, tied the score in the seventh. Then with one out, Joe Huber dropped a perfect squeeze bunt with Chute running and the winning run came across with ease.

George Dobozy's hitless relief pitching from the fourth inning on, when Franklin erupted for four runs, also shared honors in the victory.

Dobozy had scored in the second on an error, but Bill Hellstein's triple tied the game in the third. Then in the fourth, hits by Dave Stott, Mike Cox and Dave Paden, two errors and two walks put Franklin in front, 5-1, and it appeared the Livonians would have no trouble as their ace pitcher Chris Wendrick was coasting along.

But in the sixth, Rick

Klack walked, Dobozy was safe on an error and Monte Hackman drove in both with a hit to start East's comeback.

WAYNE 4. PLYMOUTH 2
Plymouth got off to a 1-0 lead when Jim Beachum walked, moved to second on a sacrifice and eventually scored on Rick Fillmore's long fly.

But Wayne jumped back to score three times on Ron Boyne in the third inning, thanks to a trio of triples, and their final run on three hits in the fourth inning.

Pat Williams then replaced Boyne and held Wayne scoreless the rest of the way, but Plymouth was unable to do much at the plate against Frank Fisher.

The second Rocks' run was scored in the fifth when Dan Camp singled as a pinch-hitter. He took second on an infield out and scored on Dave Prochazka's single.

Fisher held Plymouth to five hits.
Stevenson 5, St. Agatha 4
Blanked until the fifth inning, Stevenson rolled back to squeeze out a triumph and hand St. Agatha ace Chuck Costello his first setback of the season.

Two excellent throws in the seventh inning helped cut down St. Agatha baserunners and led the way for Stevenson's deciding rally.

St. Agatha had scored in the first inning on Dan Sweeney's triple and again in the fourth when Ron Blackmore singled in Mike Wlezniak. In the seventh, Clyde Kamm doubled, but was out trying for a triple. Then singles by Joe Huhn and Sweeney and a double by Paul Reicha netted two

It was Clarenceville High by a walkaway among area track teams in last Saturday's regionals to determine qualifiers for next Saturday's championship meets.

Hosting a Class B regional, Clarenceville not only breezed to the team title with 59½, but also swept off with seven individual titles.

Meantime, Bentley and Redford Union each came through with good showings in the Class A regionals at Ann Arbor where host Ann Arbor took team honors with 52 points, followed by Ypsilanti with 41.

Bentley placed third with 28 points. Then came Redford Union with 21, Glenn 15, Franklin 12, Thurston 11, Plymouth 8 and Stevenson and Garden City West, four points each. Garden City East failed to score a point.

Our Lady of Sorrows picked up 11 points in the Class C regional at Brother Rice in Birmingham.

Tom Harbourne again led Clarenceville as he won both the high and low hurdles, ran on the 880-yard winning relay team and placed second in the long jump. The first three finishers in each event qualify for the state meet.

He now advances to the state Class B finals to be held at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor along with the following teammates, who placed as follows in the regionals:

Sorrows Reigns in Golf Play

More orchids to Our Lady of Sorrows' high school golf team.

After winding up the regular season in the Catholic League's second division as co-champs, Sorrows zoomed to a title last Friday in the regional Class C tournament held at the Arrowhead Country Club near Pontiac.

With a total of 344, to Freeland's 345 and Flint Holy Redeemer's 347, Sorrows qualified for next Monday's state Class C final tournament at Marshall.

The Farmington golfers alone among the area participants came through the regionals with flying colors. None of the other teams in the district managed to finish one-two-three in their regionals and thus move on to the final competition.

Tom Strand with an 81 paced the way for Sorrows' regional kingpins. Frank Carrioco followed with an 84 while Harry Lapham shot an 85 and Terry Doyle a 95.

While Sorrows enjoyed a successful day at Arrowhead, there was only disappointment for the area Class A teams which vied in regionals at Glen Oak in Farmington and Burroughs at Brighton.

At Brighton, team honors

St. Agatha Bags Divisional Flag

One title in the bag, St. Agatha's high school team this week starts its quest for more laurels in the Catholic League.

With a perfect 8-0 record, St. Agatha swept to the Southwest Divisional title last week by bowling over St. John's of Ypsilanti, 4-1, and then clubbing Immaculate Conception by a football score, 22-0.

Now it's the Second Division semifinals for St. Agatha with Marine City Holy Cross the likely opponent this Friday afternoon at 3:45 at Detroit's Manz Field, located on Mack and Conner.

Chuck Costello finished an unbeaten regular season on his own count when he hurled a 3-hitter against St. John's. Thus Costello wound up 6-0 against league rivals.

He was given the afternoon off from pitching against Immaculate Conception so that he could rest his arm for the Anders Invitational and the Catholic playoffs.

Besides fanning 13 St. John batters, Costello also had a hand in putting his mates on the score board in the third inning.

He doubled over Jerry Phillips and Clyde Kamar. As it turned out St. Agatha didn't need any more runs. But singles were added in the fourth and the seventh.

A 10-run explosion in the third inning marked the romp over Immaculate Conception. In the frame, Ron Blackmore, Phillips and Dan Sweeney all clobbered home runs.

Phillips finished the day with three hits while Sweeney picked up a pair of hits.

Three pitchers took turns working for the winners, Dan Gularski, Mike Monette and Bob Wisolowsky all fired zeros at Immaculate Conception.

Setting Pace in Mid-Wayne League:

East Sitting in Pretty Spot Position

The Garden City East high school baseball team was sitting in a happy spot as the final week of the Mid-Wayne League's title chase began Monday.

East was out in front of the pack with a 6-1, followed by Riverview at 4-1 and Taylor, 3-2.

The road, however, wasn't an easy one that faced East. First there was Lutheran West. Then comes Taylor Wednesday and finally Riverview next Wednesday.

"If we win 'em all, we're the champs," said coach John Kulazenska.

East rolled ahead last week with a 5-4 victory over

Inkster and then an 8-0 shut-out conquest over Robichaud.

Marvin Martin pitched the route against Inkster, giving up three hits and fanning 12 as his mates rallied for two runs in the bottom of the seventh (final) inning to pull out the victory.

Martin himself had scored the first East run without the benefit of a hit in the third inning. In the fifth, Joe Huber slammed over Martin who had walked, and Mike Sparkman who had singled.

In the seventh, it was Sparkman's walk which started matters. He was sacrificed to second and scored when Huber again singled. George Dobozy's triple chased over Huber with the winning tally.

Dobozy hurled against Robichaud and also allowed only three hits.

A six-run sixth inning put the game out of reach for East. Monte Hackman opened the frame with a hit. The next two men went out, before Martin was safe on an error.

John Chute kept matters alive with a single. After Sparkman walked, Rick Long singled in two runs and Huber drilled a triple to climax the festivities.

Garden City West, on the other hand, wasn't as fortunate. West dropped two games in Tri River League action, following to Southgate, 8-3, and then to Lowrey, 7-1.

A triple by Jim Furay, plus an error, gave West a fast start against Southgate. But the team then went runless until the seventh when singles by Ron Michaud and Bob Gamache along with two walks brought over a pair of runs.

George Domaski saved West from a shutout against Lowrey when he singled, and scored on an infield out in the fourth inning.

West outhit, Lowrey, 6-5, but it's not the hits that count in baseball.

Girls Enter A.A.U. Meet

The Michigan A.A.U. Solo, Duet, and Team competition was held in Saginaw YMCA recently with the Garden City Parks and Recreation team placing 16 out of 21 members eligible to compete in the A.A.U. Regionals in Cleveland, on June 4.

The following girls placed: In solo competition ages 10 and under first, second, and third are, Sharon Burlingame, Kay McDonald, and Carol Ruis. Ages 11 and 12 first, and third Carleen Hoag and Karen Turnbull. Ages 12 to 17 first, Kit Torok.

2 Australian Entries Headline Motor City

With two entries from down under in faroff Australia, the field for the 16th renewal of the $24,100 Motor City Pace Thursday at Wolverine Raceway looms as one of the finest in history.

Driver-Trainer Jacques Grenier, the hard-driving California Frenchman, tossed the two Australian entries into the box Monday morning to give an international flavor to one of the most important stakes of the Wolverine season. They are five-year-old Edetto and 10-year-old No Reply.

All told Racing Secretary Bill Connors counted a total of 16 entries. That forced him to split the stake into two elimination heats of eight each with the top five finishers in each coming back for the championship finale.

The Motor City goes as the fifth, sixth and ninth races.

With six nights remaining of the 58 night campaign, Wolverine will feature a stake on each program with three Grand Circuit events next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Matter of fact, closing night, Wednesday, May 31, will be highlighted by the renewal of the historic Matron for three-year-old trotters. It annually brings many of the Hambletonian contenders to the attention of local fans.

Observing SPORTS

By George Maskin

The sports scene never stays the same. There's always something new and in the case of the Detroit area there are the Cougars, who starting Sunday, will put the community on the bigtime soccer map for the first time.

Two things about the Cougars strike close to home, although it's "home" in different ways.

For one thing, the 1967 edition of the Cougars actually are a team being imported from Belfast, in North Ireland. Belfast rings a familiar note with yours truly. It was there we served on the army newspaper Stars and Stripes for almost a year back in World War II days.

Secondly, Redford Township's Gordon Preston does the publicity for the Cougars. He'll also do the radio broadcast next Sunday over WJR, sharing the microphone with Bob Reynolds when the Cougars make their debut in Boston.

No man has worked harder or longer in these parts to sell soccer, than has Preston.

He's originally from England where he played soccer until he came to Canada in the '50's. Then he moved across the border to Detroit where he turned promoter, groundskeeper and almost anything else you might think of.

It was Preston who brought in top teams from England, Germany and other foreign countries. He warbled many a tune about "how great" soccer is.

There's no question of soccer's greatness. Except in the United States and Canada, it's the premier sport, drawing as many as 100,000 for games.

Over here, soccer has been something else again. But now there are two professional leagues operating. All the major cities have at CUTTING LOOSE in the Plymouth-Wayne pairing of the Les Anders tournament Saturday is Ron Boyne of Plymouth. The Rocks lost 4-2.

Alpine also registered nine strikeouts and was aided by the bats of Greg Macy and Ed Ryan. Macy had three hits, while Ryan slammed a double and triple.

Bentley jumped off to a 3-0 lead in the first on a walk to Greg Colton, a single by Macy and triples by Ryan and McAlpine. In the third, Ryan's double, a sacrifice and an error added another run.

Another miscue, giving John Schroeter life, plus a Macy hit produced the fifth run in the fourth. In the seventh Macy again singled and came around without the benefit of another hit.

The sunroof works even when there isn't any sun.

When you slide back the sunroof on a Volkswagen Station Wagon, the sky's the limit.

That's because odd-shaped loads you'd have trouble fitting into an ordinary station wagon can stick up out of a VW. Like a tree. Or a refrigerator. In fact, you never know what might pop up.

And even when the sunroof's closed, the Volkswagen still gives you almost twice as much space as other wagons. And a 4' by 4' door that lets you get right at all the room inside. (You don't have to be an engineer to move big, bulky loads in and out.)

And whenever you don't want to put big things inside your VW, you can use it for big people instead. It seats 9 of them and holds 13 pieces of luggage. All at once.

Other wagons only hold about half as much as a VW. Even if you hit the ceiling. But after the VW's all filled up, you can still go through the roof.

RU, Rocks Near Showdown

Bing... bang... boom... And the boom will come Thursday afternoon in the Suburban Six League's baseball chase when Redford Union moves westward to play at Plymouth.

When the week's play started, Plymouth and RU shared the top rung, each with a 5-2 mark. A half game back at 5-3 stood Belleville.

All indications now point to two head-on battles between RU and Plymouth settling the flag. After they clash Thursday, they'll still have to make up a previously postponed encounter at RU, probably next Wednesday.

came around on a pair of wild pitches.

Lee Bjerke accounted for the other RU hit when he singled in the fourth.

In the game against Bentley, RU got to Dave Gorton for all its three runs in the sixth on a triple by Rod Ferguson, a single by Bob Fritz, a single by Fahey, an error and Lee Bjerke's sacrifice fly. A double by Bill McAlpine and a single by Greg Macy saved Bentley from a shutout.

Plymouth, with ace pitcher Dan Camp posting his fifth league conquest in six tries, had little trouble with Trenton.

and Dave Prochazka also homered before the slugging afternoon ended.

Bentley, after falling to Redford Union, was blanked by Allen Park. Don Montroy with a single and double accounted for one-third of the Bentley hit production.

The Livonians had their chances, but couldn't deliver a key hit.

RU not only helped itself last Thursday, but the Townshippers did Plymouth a good turn by registering a 1-0 victory over Belleville as Plymouth finally enjoyed an easy afternoon by scalping Trenton, 13-4.

It marked the first time Plymouth had won by more than two runs and also had scored more than five runs in a game.

Camp allowed two hits and never was in trouble after John Bida started the attack for Plymouth with a leadoff homer. John Gilles

Detroiters' Bid Falls Short in Pin Tournery

Livonians Jean and Marion Wilder, of 36644 Grandon, can sweat out another week of the fifth annual Observer-Merri-Bowl Lanes mixed doubles tournament. The 1,314 they fired on the opening week is still safe on top of the standings.

The tournament, which opened a week ago, continues until mid-June before a champion is crowned. It is expected that more than 1,200 teams will take a crack at the 1,314 during that time.

Goldman indicated Monday that there are still choice times and dates available but warns bowlers to enter now since many of the times will be filled in another week.

"The late start this year has added interest to the tournament," he said. "Added to the fact that bowlers may enter more than once provided they have a new partner, we are looking forward to the largest entry in the five years of the tournament."

Entry blanks are available at Merri-Bowl Lanes as well as every bowling establishment in the area along with northwestern Ohio and all of the lower peninsula in Michigan.

The Detroit team of Audrey Sirola and Bill Funke took dead aim on the high score but fell short due to a slow start. As it was, they wound up with a 1297 only 17 pins back of the 1,314.

Audrey, who packs a 159 average, came in with a fine 609 on games of 188, 177 and 244—highest single game to date. She had nine strikes in her finale and only a miss in the third frame kept her from sending her team into the lead.

Her partner, with a 141 average, contributed 478 as his end of the team total. He had 144, 157 and 177.

P. Baron and C. Neuberger moved up with the leaders on a total of 1,279 sparked by a big 634 by Neuberger. He opened with 225, came back with 224 and closed with 194.

Miss Baron had 154, 143 and 180 for 477.

Another Detroit team, Sandra Duhart and C. Clayton made a run for the top total; but had to be content with 1282. Sandy had games of 155, 178 and 184 for 517 and Clayton chipped in with 149, 181 and 198. Added to their handicap of 237 pins, it gave them the big count.

Sorrows King

Livonia Bentley came in fifth at 335, a stroke better than Plymouth. Franklin shot 345 and Stevenson 346.

Bentley's Steve Kazmer fired a 76, but it wasn't good enough to qualify for the state meet.

Team honors at Glen Oaks were captured by Troy with 333. A stroke back came Mt. Clemens. Then Royal Oak Kimball shot 335 to make it to Marshal.

Area teams trailed far back. Thurston scored 342; Redford Union 345, North Farmington totalled 352, Farmington 365, Garden City East 384, Garden City West 391 and John Glenn of Wayne 394.

Here's how the area golfers shot in the Class C regionals:

Bentley (335) — Steve Kazmer, 76; Duane Molnar, 83; Bob Huddleston, 83; Al Cieslak, 87.
Plymouth (338) — Dave Dunlap, 81; Gary Robinson, 85; Don Woody, 83; Neal Goodman, 85.
Franklin (345) — Jim DeRubeis, 82; Ron Higgins, 85; Alatalo, 88; Chris Roy, 90.
Stevenson (346) — Pat Flaherty, 79; Dick Dirsman, 87; Dennis Graham, 81; Greg Morrison, 88.

Thurston (342) David Liblang, 81; Eric Liblang, 85; John Jakubick, 84; Bill Schulz, 85.
Redford Union (345) — Brian Johnston, 82; Larry Roy, 84; Ken Engel, 87; Dave Dubois, 85.
Farmington (365) — Tom Karwowski, 83; Craig Seelman, 87; Carl Hunt, 82; Bob Peterson, 102.

North Farmington (352) — Bob Gilman, 83; Doug Lem, 84; Michael Sauer, 87; Bryne, 85.
Garden City West (384) — Charles Sakmar, 89; Bill Topalian, 93; Grez Pawlik, 97; Mike Anleitner, 105.

Garden City West (391) — Jim Mincey, 95; Carl Evans, 95; Bob Houghton, 99; Bill Bally, 102.
John Glenn (394) — Bill Schuster, 83; Sam Blaney, 100; Dennis Eaman, 100; Bill McClellan, 106.

least one team. There's also national television every Sunday.

Preston is certain that soccer will catch on in these parts. Obviously, others like William Clay Ford, the owner of the Detroit Lions, who has an interest in the Cougars, feel the same way.

The local owners have invested upwards of $40,000 to paint up and fix up the U. of D. Stadium.

They are bringing in an established team for this year while already working to develop a truly Detroit team for 1968—although for '68 and the immediate years ahead, most of the Cougars actually will come from Europe and South America.

"Some day we hope that our own schools will develop major league players," Preston says.

In this respect, he points out that soccer has begun to make inroads in many high schools around the country. In the Detroit area, there's a league going in the Birmingham district and involves such schools as Bloomfield Hills, Cranbrook, Birmingham Seaholm, etc.

"It's a great sport for boys and for schools," adds Preston. "It's so cheap to stage. About all a kid needs is an inexpensive pair of trunks and a T-shirt."

"For a starter, I don't recommend the kids wear soccer boots. I recommend they play in tennis shoes until such time as the kids 'educate' their feet."

"If they wear the regular boots and don't know what soccer is all about, the boys might inflict a lot of injuries with wild kicking."

Preston notes that some local schools have made inquiries about soccer . . . among them Thurston.

"It's possible we may stage an exhibition over there this summer. It just depends on how our busy schedule works out."

While high schools have just started to take to soccer, Preston reports that many colleges and universities have such teams already. Only recently, Michigan State went to the NCAA finals.

If you're not familiar with soccer, it's the only sport in which one can't use his hands. Stick them up and hit the ball and it's a foul.

Soccer also is a very "heavy" game. Players find the ol' noggin comes in handy for stopping and directing the ball.

According to Preston, if you "head" the ball right, it doesn't hurt. Let there be contact on the wrong side of the head . . . and "ouch."

Getting back to the Cougars, after their opener on Sunday at Boston, they'll return home on June 4 to face the team representing Vancouver, Canada.

As a one-time soccer reporter, we'd like to put in a good word for the game. You'll enjoy it.

Barry Simescu walked, Bill Holmes doubled him across.

BORROWS 4, G. C. WEST 0

Sophomore star Greg Main fired a three-hitter in winning over Bob Gamache, who gave up only two hits, but was the victim of some poor support.

Sorrows took a 2-0 lead in the second inning when Jim Webster singled and Ross Patton walked. Both advanced on a wild pitch and scored on an error which should have been the final out of the inning.

The final two Sorrows runs were produced in the sixth inning without the benefit of a hit. A walk, hit batsman and two errors sent the markers across.

West never seriously threatened as Main fanned five.

Clarenceville 6, Glenn 2

Mike Nye went the route for Clarenceville, which spotted Glenn a 1-0 lead in the second inning when Nelson Vanderburgh was safe on an error, stole second, and came around on two errors.

Clarenceville rebounded in the bottom of the second to score twice. Walks to Chuck Watkins and Kary Rifkin started the rally. Then Bob Harden walked and Gale Armstrong was hit by a pitch to push over one run. Another walk to Nye made it 2-1 for Clarenceville.

With two out in the third, a single by Rifkin and a triple by Bib Duman made it 4-1 for Clarenceville. Three more Glenn errors led to Clarenceville's final two runs in the fifth inning.

A walk to Vanderburgh, a stolen base and two errors gave Glenn another run in the sixth.

The game was finished in 40-degree weather.

West Routs Kennedy

Garden City West's track team, tuning up for the Tri-River League meet on June 1-2 at Shafer, turned back Kennedy, 67-51, in a dual meet.

Honors were well split for the winners.

Dan Bell, who a week ago had set a record in the Shafer relays, continued his fine work in the long jump, with a leap of 20 feet, 11 3/4 inches.

Shot Put: 3 — Greg Boliard.

Pole Vault: Tie for second between Ken Kinast and Mark Blaney.

Two-Mile: 1 — Bill Gasper, 2 — Mike Cunningham. Time: 10:55.

800-Yard: 1 — West (Mike Alexander, Craig Kennen, Bob Herrick, Bill Fodor). Time: 1:38.

100-Yard: 1 — Alexander, 2 — Bill Merriman, 3 — Bill Fodor. Time: 10.9 seconds.

Low Hurdles: 2 — Scott Frazier, 220-Yard: 1 — Fodor, 2 — Alexander. Time: 24.1 seconds.

100-Yard: 1 — Alexander, 2 — Bill Merriman, 3 — Bill Fodor. Time: 10.9 seconds.

Low Hurdles: 2 — Scott Frazier, 220-Yard: 1 — Fodor, 2 — Alexander. Time: 24.1 seconds.

2nd Place Becomes Big Issue

Who'll finish second was all that remained to stir baseball interest in the Northwest Suburban League this week.

Franklin had the flag wrapped up and Thurston fought with Birmingham Groves for runnerup honors.

A brilliant no-hitter by Deno Syrios as he blanked John Glenn, 2-0, helped Thurston stay in the race for second spot after the Townshippers had gone down to a 4-2 loss at the hands of Franklin.

It was the first gem fashioned by Syrios, a junior southpaw. He walked three and two other Glenn batters reached base on errors. Eight Glenn batters went down on strikes.

Glenn's Kerry Webb also hurled well enough to win most games. He gave up two runs in the first inning and then stopped Thurston the rest of the way.

Red Barringer walked and scored on Dan Harris' double. Barry Simescu followed with a single to finish the scoring.

Chris Wendrick's pitching for Franklin had mastered Thurston's Bob Durand with the game being decided when Bill Hellstein tripled with the bases loaded.

Groves kept even with Thurston by beating Glenn, 7-2. Groves star Mike Rafferty lost his shutout in the final inning when Paul Felan, Steve McKolay and Nelson Vanderburgh blasted singles.

Michigan produced one million bushels of peaches in 1966. Due to severe early frosts, this was far below the state's five-year average.

High School Seniors Get Insight Into College Life

Nearly 1,000 seniors from area high schools, and their parents received an early exposure to college life at a get-acquainted orientation meeting in the Lois L. Waterman Campus Center at Schoolcraft College.

The seniors, all of whom have been accepted for enrollment, were invited to the campus as part of a new plan which this year concentrates the college's orientation procedure on the campus.

In the past years, Schoolcraft counselors and other Office of Student Affairs administrators have conducted orientation meetings at the individual high schools in the college district.

The students and parents, were welcomed by Dr. Eric J. Bradner, Schoolcraft president, and then were briefed on some over-all aspects of college life by Dean of Student Affairs Edward V. McNally; John Cansfield, financial aids officer; and Marvin Gans, director of physical education.

Later, they consulted with staff members on the specific programs and curricula in which they intended to enroll in the fall.

The sessions were conducted by Dr. Robert Oana, director of the Michigan State University Teacher Education Center at Schoolcraft, and Assistant Dean of Student Affairs John Webber for elementary education; Russell Bogarin for English, Math and Science majors; Miss Jean Pike for business program enrollees; John Cansfield for pre-professional and liberal arts students; Mrs. Harriet Sattig, director of nursing, for nursing students; Director of Admissions Barbara Geil for secondary education students; and Joseph Borgen, assistant to the dean of technical-vocational instruction, for technical and apprenticeship program students.

The get-acquainted meeting was the first step in the new orientation plan by which Schoolcraft officials hope to improve service to new students in program counseling and in getting used to college life.

The second phase of the program will start next month when incoming students will come to the campus by appointment in groups of about 60 daily for individual counseling sessions on their own programs.

College officials anticipate an enrollment of about 4,000 students for the fall semester.

PVT. JOYCE E. Douglas, daughter of Mrs. Ruby L. Douglas, 31641 Five Mile, Livonia, has completed eight weeks of basic training at the Women's Army Corps Center at Ft. McClellan, Ala.

Dry Soil Best

It is a great mistake to garden when the soil is wet. If it should happen to be largely clay, working it while wet will result in a product closely resembling concrete — certainly not a medium in which plants will grow happily.

Plant Begonia Tubers For Color in Garden

For pleasing color tricks this summer, plant tuberous rooted begonias now. As individual potted plants, in hanging baskets or in mass pot arrays, they can be spectacular summer decoration. It's easy to start their culture indoors in spring. An early start will reward you with lovely, long-lasting flowering plants in late May and early June.

Begonia roots don't like to be disturbed during the first growing period. That's one of the reasons why your begonias should be in red clay pots.

These porous pots also provide for slow drainage of excess moisture and a constant supply of life-giving oxygen. To plant your tubers, fill the bottoms of your clay pots with an inch or so of pebbles or vermiculite. Then fill with a mixture of potting soil and peat moss, up to about two inches below the pot rim.

Place the tuber in, hollow side up, and fill the remainder of the space with soil and peat moss, leaving a thin covering on top of the tuber.

Place the potted tubers in an area where they will be at room temperature or somewhat cooler, and out of direct sunlight. Water just enough to keep the peat moss slightly damp, but not soggy. Once plant growth has begun, apply fertilizer lightly according to directions.

When all danger of frost is past, your clay potted begonias can go outside as display plants on your porch, patio, or in a window box. They can also be featured in hanging baskets, or plunged, clay pots and all, in garden areas where you want a mass of color all summer long. One final word about sunlight.

Although begonias can't tolerate full sunlight, they do thrive in open shade, with plenty of indirect light, or in a spot that's shady part of the day.

Health Chief Warns Of Mower Dangers

Did you know that the rotary-type power lawn mowers which are so popular today are second only to automobiles when it comes to personal injury accidents?

Well they are, and yet I don't mean to condemn this type of machine either, any more than I would condemn the automobile. There's nothing wrong with these rotary machines if they are treated with respect, in appreciation of the danger of getting a foot or a hand under the machine — or the hazard of a stone or a piece of metal being batted like a missile from the whirling blades.

At least part of the problem is that we probably have become quite casual about the hazards. With time and repeated use we have tended to grow used to the machine, and over-confidence has led to a relaxed attitude about the dangers.

Yet most power mower accidents happen, not to brand new owners, but to people who have had the machine a while. So here are some safety rules for you to keep in mind:

First, keep both feet in safe positions when starting the engine. Many accidents happen when one foot or the other is under the machine when it is started, or when the machine is dragged onto the operator's foot as the starter cord is pulled. Most manufacturers recommend a "safe foot" position for starting their machine.

Second, before mowing, inspect your lawn for objects that might be hit or picked up and ejected from the spinning blades.

Third, keep children and pets away from the mowing area so they are completely safe from such flying objects.

Fourth, don't leave the machine unattended when it is running. If you have to let go of the handle — shut it off.

Fifth, don't attempt to fill the gas tank when the machine is running or when the engine is hot.

Sixth, always mow sideways on grades, hills, or banks. Mowing up and down invites the machine to roll back over your feet.

Seventh, don't try to work under the machine without first disconnecting the spark plug. Otherwise merely rotating the blade could start the engine.

Since familiarity tends to breed contempt, you must be on guard against the casual carelessness that often leads to serious personal injury. Treat your mower as you did when it was new.

Thomas, mother Pauline, daughter Tanya, 15, son Venez (dark sweater), 17, and son Shawn, 9.

Plastic Strip Offers New Concept in Pest Control

Science is making this bug season at home or on vacation more livable with the introduction of an entirely new concept in insect control: a strip of plastic that kills flies, mosquitoes, gnats and other small flying pests anywhere in a room without touching them.

The strip that eliminates both of repeated spraying and swatting is called No-

Pest Insecticide Strip.

The farm-tested product, now adapted for home use, is packaged with a decorative gold-foil cage that can be hung or stood on its base anywhere in an enclosed area. Impregnated with a modern insecticide, a single 10-inch-long strip meters out minute quantities of vapors into the air at a rate that controls the pests effectively for up to three months in a 10x12x8 foot room.

The strip is unique in that insects do not have to touch it to be killed. While handy at home, it also can take the "rough" out of roughing it in vacation cabins, house trailers, beach houses, and other enclosures away from home.

The strip now is available nationwide for the first time at supermarkets, drug and hardware stores, and service stations.

Green Thumb Tips

As you transplant seedlings into the garden, give a thought to future watering. Rainfall or water from the hose will gather in depressions in the soil. If you leave a slight depression around each newly set plant and eliminate any nearby, you'll insure the moisture so necessary for the growth of the plants.

Elsea Sets Sales Record During April

An all time high in real estate sales volume was set during April by the Elsea Realty Co., Staunton M. Elsea its president, announced.

April sales volume for the firm totaled $2,797,286.00 bettering both April of last year and the previous record month of March 1966, thus becoming the largest volume month in the 38 year history of the firm.

The real estate market in the Detroit area has had a strong resurgence after the tight money scare of last summer and fall.

Mortgage discounts charged by lenders to home sellers have dropped considerably since the last half of 1966. Mortgage discounts today are as much as 6 percent below what lenders were asking during the latter part of last year.

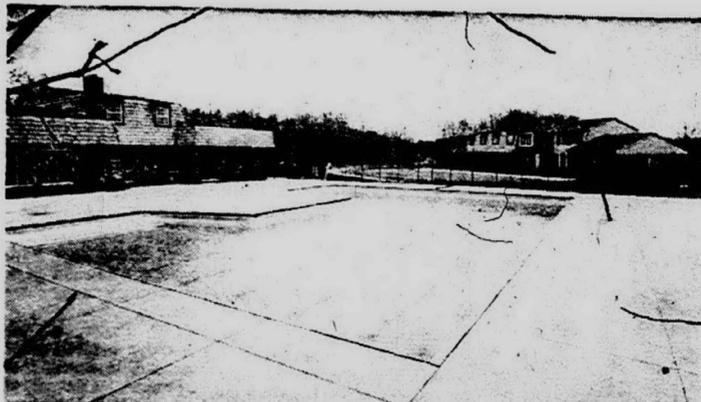

The reason for this is money is more available to lend through savings and loans and banks. The difference between the regulated interest rate which may be charged to a borrower on FHA and GI mortgages (sometimes called bank mortgages) is the narrowest that it has been in a long time.

The ceiling presently set by the government on the interest rates for FHA and GI mortgages is 6 per cent interest. The common conventional mortgage interest rate today is 6 1/4 per cent depending upon the borrower and the property.

Since this difference is only 1/4 per cent the amount of mortgage discounts that a lender need charge to bring the return on FHA and GI mortgages up to conventional mortgage rates is quite small.

Last year this difference ran as much as 3/4 per cent to nearly a full 1 per cent between the interest rate allowable on government insured mortgages and those charged on conventional loans, for that reason we had extremely high mortgage discounts charged to the sellers, ranging from 8 per cent to as high as 13 or 14 per cent.

This current period of low discounts charged to sellers may be short lived however. There is considerable speculation that the government will arbitrarily lower the interest rate that can be charged on FHA and GI mortgages either a 1/4 per cent or 1/2 per cent.

TOWN CLUB POOL is available to residents of King's Mill. It has 3500 square feet, uniquely shaped with special children's shallow wading area and with a separate diving section, as shown here.

Name New Townhouses After Northville Pioneers

King's Mill Townhouses, a new $10 million cooperative community located in Northville in Cass Benton Park on Northville Road between 6 and 7 Mile Roads, is having its grand opening.

It is the last in the $27 million Townhouses series currently being built by the Smokler Company, one of the nation's largest builders and a pioneer in Townhouse developments.

The first, Farmington Village in Farmington, opened early in 1966 and has had record sales. The second, Bretton Village, in Trenton, was opened last summer to answer Downriver's demand for luxury Townhouses. Charter Oaks, the third community, opened last fall on the East Side on Metropolitan Parkway, west of Groesbeck (M-97).

King's Mill is located in an area of Michigan which was settled by some of the state's first pioneers. Several months ago, The Smokler Company commissioned a special study of history and traditions of Northville.

As a part of the grand opening, a special display of rare articles, documents, and photos of the community in earlier years can be viewed in the Kings Mill Museum. Townhouse models are named after prominent long-ago Northville citizens: John Miller, Arnold Whipple, Adin Cummins, B. A. Parmenter, Brayton G. Webster, and William Dunlap.

The John Miller, is a two story, 3 bedroom home, with formal dining room, 1 1/2 baths, and full basement. The home, named after the pioneer who built the first mill in the King's Mill area, is a Colonial townhouse, with privacy insured by positioning the living room and dining room in the rear of the house. A large step saving corridor kitchen makes cooking and serving much easier for the homemaker. Upstairs, there is a big master bedroom, plus two additional bedrooms for children, guests, or a family den.

The Arnold Whipple, commemorating one of the area's first farmers, is a two story, two bedroom home with dining area, 1 1/2 baths, and full basement. The large living room spans the entire width of the house, while the dining room and "U" shaped kitchen overlook the rear yard. Upstairs, the master bedroom, guest bedroom, and main bath complete this luxury atmosphere.

Adin Cummins, known to early Northville as "The Patriot" because three of his sons fell in the Union ranks during the Civil War, is remembered at King's Mill with a two story Townhouse that makes the most of available space. This home encompasses a large living room, dining area, two big bedrooms, bath and full basement.

B. A. Parmenter established in old Northville, a cider mill that is still operated by his descendants. The Townhouse named after him has two stories with 2 bedrooms, 1 1/2 baths, and a full basement.

The William Dunlap, a Townhouse named after a leading pioneer who posted Northville's first deed, is a single story ranch style townhouse, perfect for the young couple starting out or for an older couple who wants a more compact home.

The Brayton G. Webster commemorates a Civil War hero and Northville craftsman. This is a two bedroom ranch home for families wishing one-floor convenience combined with a den or second bedroom for overnight guests.

King's Mill residents are automatically members of the fabulous Town Club, which offers a huge 3500 square foot pool, uniquely shaped with special children's shallow wading area and with a separate diving section where a pool director and trained life-guards are on full-time duty.

Clubhouse facilities include the huge main clubroom where dances and parties for members will be held.

Don't Be Caught By Gypsy Paving Racket

"Forewarned about the gypsy paving racket is forearmed," said Walter Tervo, executive secretary of the Michigan Asphalt Paving Association, in issuing an early warning about the seasonal racket that costs Michigan residents many thousands of dollars each year.

Traditionally, gypsy groups numbering two or three dozen members will tour major Michigan cities about this time of year offering to "surface your driveway with a tar-based substance for a few dollars.

"Police in recent years have reported that pay for the useless treatment usually amounts to whatever the market will bear, and that threats of physical violence have been used against those who complained about charges or threatened to call in authorities," Tervo said.

A worthless paint compound, similar in appearance to the sealing compound used by reputable firms but lacking proper chemical ingredients, is used by the band, Tervo stated.

"Reputable asphalt paving firms would do a better job, just as quick and at far less cost than extorted by the gypsies working this racket," Tervo declared.

"Any homeowner approached for this type of work should first check with their local police, their own Better Business Bureau or the state office of the Michigan Asphalt Paving Association, in Lansing, before agreeing to anything," Tervo said.

Give Up Nook To Aid Kitchen

Many development houses provide eating space in the kitchen merely by eliminating a bank of cabinets on one wall. The space thus devised is inadequate, to say the least. And it's uninviting, being located on the inside wall and offering a view only of the kitchen sink.

Top home designers offer this solution: first, press the adjoining family room dining table into full-time service, giving up the kitchen eating area entirely. Next, build cabinets and work counter on the kitchen eating area wall—where they are needed and should have been built in the first place.

This is an ideal spot for a full-sized china closet, say the designers. And the china closet's design can be used as a decorative accent in the kitchen. It needn't match other kitchen cabinetwork.

Suggested are cabinets built of solid lumber—fir, pine, western hemlock—with tongue-and-groove boards for door fronts on base cabinets.

For upper cupboards, use clear glass doors to show off treasures, or colored pebbled glass. Plastic in a rice paper pattern which is set window-style in wood frames could be used for a modernistic touch.

Cabin Fix-Up Project Good Family Chore

For a "change of pace" vacation this year, consider fixing up your "second" home so it provides more comfort and convenience for years to come. With dad, mom and the youngsters all pitching in, it's a job that can be completed quickly and economically.

You start almost anywhere. For instance, covering dingy, cracked, plaster interior walls is easy with Masonite Royalcote wood-grained panels. You can select from 14 decorator colors and grains at your lumber dealer's.

The panels go up quickly and easily, especially if you use the new Royalcote General Purpose Adhesive, which takes the place of nails. Matching vinyl covered wood or metal moldings for corners, coves and baseboards help provide a professionally installed appearance. The Royalcote panels are low cost, too. You can finish an 8x12-foot wall for less than $35.

Improving the exterior appearance of your cottage or cabin is also easy. Some siding panels are exceptionally well suited

'Sing-A-Long' Coming To Theater Saturday

The Motor City Chapter of the American Theater Organ Enthusiasts will present a theater organ concert and community "Sing-a-long," featuring Don Miller, following the last film showing at the Redford Theater, Lahser at Grand River, Saturday, May 27.

organ has been restored by members of the American Theater Organ Enthusiasts. It will be featured during the national ATOE convention to be held in Detroit July 1-4.

Name McCarthy To TV Board

During the heyday of the theater organ, Don Miller was one of the best known performers in the Detroit area. He was featured performer at most of the large downtown theaters and in several neighborhood houses. The Redford Theater's three-manual 10-rank Barton

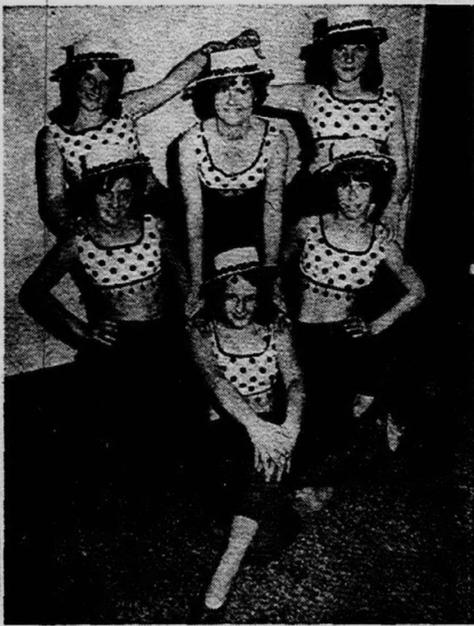

Dean McCarthy, Program Director of WXYZ-TV, has been elected to a three-year term on the board of Directors of the National Association of Television Program Executives.

McCarthy, who lives at 28953 Ramblewood, Farmington, has been Program Director at WXYZ since June, 1966. Before that, he held broadcast executive positions at other stations in Detroit and Milwaukee.

In the Farmington area, he has been active as president of the Fairview School PTA, and as board member of the Foster Parents Program.

A recent survey by the American Institute of Public Opinion, better known as the Gallup Poll, indicates that some 36 million adults in this country would be interested in buying an electric car.

Wally Roberts GOING UP 'CURTAIN'

"The Odd Couple" is a "full house" of laughter. The current Fisher Theater offering continues in riotous fashion. Neil Simon's superb comic writing.

Combine farcial situations, witty lines, and a cast of highly professional comic artists and you'll have a million laughs of every size and shape. "The Odd Couple" is such a venture into the realm of risibility.

Phil Foster and George Goebel have taken a momentary hiatus from the TV lanes to cavort live nightly in "The Odd Couple." It is Detroit's gain they decided to do some stage work. Their performances are ace-high and win every pot.

The poker palaver is quite in order since "The Odd Couple" revolves around the universal night out for the boys and their perennial poker game. In this case it is being held in Oscar's apartment who is happily divorced.

The plot starts slowly and really is not too important as is the case in most good comedies. "The Odd Couple" is essentially a comedy that throws into a most plausible situation.

Oscar has been divorced. Felix is on the verge of divorce. His wife has asked him to leave. Oscar takes him into his apartment. After all, he has eight rooms and what's a pal for?

Little does Oscar realize that Felix is neat as a pin, has different approaches to daily living, and loves to cook. The conflict of Oscar, the slob, and Felix, the highly organized, efficient male provides a solid evening of "belly" laughs. Or as Felix would put it—"laughter that emanates from the visceral region."

The pace of the evening is established immediately in the first act when Oscar serves the inevitable midnight snack. Beer and sandwiches fly through the air in a devastating cascade. The resulting foamy shambles has the audience limp with laughter.

Can such early hilarity be continued? Not only can it be, but in "The Odd Couple" it builds and builds until your sides truly ache by the middle of Act III. Laughs run rampant in the two-hour and ten-minute laugh riot. Every line seems to have a chuckle, smile or chortle embedded within its sly contents.

Neil Simon has topped his "Come Blow Your Horn" and "Barefoot In The Park" ear-

Livonia Man to Dance In All-Polish Program

Steve Ryznar, of Minton St., Livonia, and other members of the Mazurka Dancing Society, (formally the Polish Dancers) are going into final rehearsals for their musical extravaganza "Polskie Niebo?" (Polish Heaven?) to be presented Sunday, May 28, at 7 p.m. in the Cody High School Auditorium, 18445 Cathedral, Detroit.

Under the direction of choreographer Mrs. Frank Wenckovsky, assisted by Miss Geraldine Hull, dances of Polish origin will be highlighted in addition to precision and dance routines of other nations.

Again this year Grandpa (I. Wroblewski) and Grandpa (H. Nowakowski) will be back to create and add a little drama and humor to a plot surrounding events leading to the "Polskie Niebo."

Returning also will be organist Walter Gable, this time to accompany dance production numbers.

The finale will include many dances of Poland, featuring a Polish Krakowiak imported here from Poland by F. Kolodziej, a club officer. More than 100 members (ages 5-20) from Detroit, Dearborn Heights, Garden City, Inkster, Southfield, Livonia and Taylor Twp. will participate in this production. Tickets will be available at the door the night of the performance or may be obtained from any member of the "Mazurka Dancers."

Franklin Sets Spring Concert

The Franklin High School Vocal Music Department, under the direction of Robert L. Ballard, will present its Annual Spring Concert on Thursday, May 25 and Friday, May 26 at 8 p.m. in the high school Lecture Theatre.

The performing groups include the Girls' Chorus, the Girls' Chorale, the Male Chorus, the Bel Canto Choir, the Madrigals and the Franklin Ensemble. Some of the selections will be "Alleluia," "Floods of Spring," "O My God, I am not Worthy," and Eberlin's "Exaltabo Te."

Included among numbers by the combined department will be selections from the musical production "My Fair Lady."

The Franklin Bel Canto Choir received a "Superior Rating" at the Michigan District School Vocal Association Choral Festival this spring.

The Male Chorus took "Second Place" in the first State Male Chorus Competition held by the Michigan School Vocal Association.

Patti Scarlett and Darrell Day, two vocalists at Franklin, were recently selected to receive scholarships to Interlochen this summer.

Grandmother Wins 'Best Mom' Title

A grandmother who has taken in three orphans was named the winner of the Mother's Day Contest at Livonia's Terrace Theatre.

The winner is Mrs. Louis Regorrah of 8860 Fenton, Redford Township. Her grandchildren wrote the judges that:

"The three Hartley kids have the best Mother in the world. Our real mother and father were killed in an auto accident last May. We were all badly hurt in the hospital for three months. But my grandmother which we kids call Mommy now, she has made many trips to the hospital and has taken us into her home. She is so good to us and we three love her for it."

Art, Carillon On Cranbrook Calendar

Two cultural events of note mark the current calendar at Cranbrook, as Art Academy degree recipients will have their works displayed in the Academy's Annual Student Summer Show, and Cranbrook Carillon Guild members will present a carillon recital in Christ Church Cranbrook.

The Art Show, the highlight of the Cranbrook exhibition season, opens Saturday and will continue throughout the summer. Noteworthy among the multimedia show will be the display of Carl Floyd's 2500-pound "Iron Casting," the largest piece ever cast in the Academy's sculpture foundry.

The carillon recital, to be held Sunday at 3:30 p.m., will be followed by a spring concert of the Cranbrook orchestra at the Cranbrook School.

Admission for the recital and concert is free. There is an admission charge for the art show.

Art Institute Displays Cezanne

A great creative period of European art will be brilliantly illustrated in the June 14-October 1 exhibition at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

"Cezanne and His Contemporaries." This is the remarkable personal collection of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pearlman of New York City.

Numerically, 24 Cezanne oils, watercolors, lithographs and etchings will dominate the show, including his magnificent landscape, "La Montagne Sainte-Victoire."

A single vivid Van Gogh oil — "Tarascon Diligence" — will keep radiant company with paintings by Toulouse-Lautrec, Renoir, Utrillo, Kokoschka, Daumier, De-gas, Courbet, Manet, Soutine and Modigliani. Wilhelm Lehmbruck, Jacques Lipchitz and Paul Gauguin will be represented by sculptures.

The Pearlman collection — more than 15 years in the making — is a record of a single collector's taste, intelligence and fervor. It is made current by two portraits of Mr. Pearlman — a bust by Lipchitz (1958) and a lively oil by Kokoschka (1958).

The exhibition will be open to the public without charge.

Sr. Citizens Living It Up In the Spring

No rocking chairs for the members of the Colonial Unit Senior Citizens of Livonia this month.

One hundred members went on an all day bus trip to Frankenmuth on May 17. Ed Wilson, entertainment chairman, had planned the day well with a chicken dinner at Zender's and visits to Bronner Christmas display and other points of interest.

On May 20, 75 members went by chartered bus, courtesy of the Parks and Recreation Department, to the State Senior Citizens get-together at Cobo Hall.

John Dufour was chairman of the affair and MC'd the entertainment.

With a square dance, Euchre tournament and other card games, on the regular schedule and a pot luck dinner celebrating the May birthdays coming up May 31 it hasn't left much time for the gardening that is now awaiting our attention.

Catholic Churches Begin Survey to Utilize Retirees' Talents

An historical event took place in the Detroit area on Sunday, May 21, when the Archdiocese of Detroit initiated "Retiree Survey Day" among its 1,500,000 plus members.

This is the first time in America that an attempt has been made to harness the interests, talents, and education of retirees, and to utilize these skills for the benefit of the retiree, his Church, and his community.

An estimated 165,000 retirees were contacted and requested to participate in this unique program.

Survey questionnaires first were forwarded to all the 350 parishes in the Archdiocese, and were distributed to all retirees following each Mass on May 21.

A Retiree Survey has been requested by Government and Church leaders for many years, but never attempted due to the magnitude of such an endeavor. In January 1967, Archbishop John F. Dearden requested Mr. Frank R. Gerbig, Jr., a layman, together with Father William J. Stoba, C.S.B., a Basilian Father, and Father Robert J.

MacDougall, S.J., a Canadian Jesuit, to plan and execute this survey throughout the Archdiocese of Detroit. The entire Survey was to be under the direction of Catholic Charities — Social Services for the aged.

The initial announcement of this project by Archbishop Dearden has created great interest from these national leaders and representatives of other Dioceses and Religions. CBS-TV video-taped the Retiree Survey Committee's program in announcing the Survey to the pastors of the Archdiocese, and will present this on a nationally televised program in June. Articles in national newspapers and magazines will give in detail the survey, its program, and its purposes, as well as the placing of the retirees who desire to participate by offering their services either on a volunteer basis or for part or full time pay to augment their present income.

Gerbig, the Survey Coordinator, said:

"The Survey is accomplishing two important points: The individual retiree is being permitted to utilize his skills, talents, and education by rendering assistance to himself, his Church, and his community, and the Archdiocese of Detroit is benefiting by having much needed positions filled by retirees possessing great wealth of education and industry-trained knowledge and experience.

"By combining the two — the retiree and the open positions — we remove the retiree from the ranks of the lonely and often neglected, and restore him to an active life of participation, and if required, to an income producing role in society."

Gerbig, together with Frs. Stoba and MacDougall, will process the estimated 100,000 plus answered questionnaires from a statistical and psychological approach, and will attempt to place all volunteers in positions throughout the Archdiocese in conformity with their skills, where help is needed or certain technical talents or education is required.

Gerbig, a vice president of United States Fastener Corp., further stated that the survey committee's five months of volunteer hours given to this Survey and its preparation have been more than amply rewarded by the excitement created among the retirees.

At the initial announcement meetings, the pastors and lay workers present openly admitted that they had no idea that the scope of this survey was so broad and of such tremendous importance to the individual retiree.

"It's obvious," he said, "that unless you are a retiree and experiencing the loss of status and income, you cannot conceive what this survey will give in opportunity and confidence to these 'young-old' retirees."

Busy Leader Gets Surprise Recognition

Mrs. Walter P. Meyers, one of Livonia's busiest Girl Scout leaders, hurried to the Newburg Methodist Church last week to conduct the monthly meeting of the Parkway neighborhood association.

Before it was over, she had seen her nine years of Girl Scout activity depicted in a puppet show and received a Certificate of appreciation from Mrs. William Wilson, president of the Metropolitan Detroit Girl Scout Council.

The Association kept the award a secret from Mrs. Meyers, who has been neighborhood chairman for two years. Co-workers even smuggled in a decorated cake that said "Congratulations."

"I don't know when I've been so surprised and thrilled," said the amazed Mrs. Meyers. "How did they manage to keep it a complete secret?"

Mrs. Meyers, mother of three, has been troop leader, cookie chairman and day camp director for the Girl Scouts in addition to her present post, and also is active in youth and music activities at the Newburg church and in the PTA.

Besides the certificate, she was given a scrapbook with mementos of her years in Girl Scouting.

Classes for Catholic Tots Reported

Catholic preschool classes in Guinea and Zanzibar — and a few other spots — were described by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pillon at St. Damian Parish Hall in Garden City last night.

All parishes in the Archdiocese were invited to hear the couple, who founded the first preschool in Allen Park 11 years ago and have seen the program grow to its present status, with preschools in 50 states and several foreign countries.

"The Pillons reviewed current trends in all phases of preschool operation," said Mrs. Michael Pipa, St. Damian's Preschool Director.

"For those just establishing a preschool, the meeting will be especially interesting as they can get authoritative answers to any problems that come up in establishing, administering or teaching preschool religion."

Mr. and Mrs. Pillon are, respectively, Director and President of the National Catholic Preschool Association. In these roles they use surveys, questionnaires, speaking engagements, etc. to keep in constant touch with the far flung preschoolers. In the words of Mrs. Pillon, "These association members are very eager to let us know what works — and what does not."

Golden Years Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haack, of McIntyre Avenue, Livonia, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary May 26. They have a son, Fred C. Haack, a daughter, Mrs. Lillian Flaton, five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Free Press Photos Shown at Marygrove

The seventh annual Free Press Photo Show will be exhibited at Marygrove College from May 28 to June 11.

More than 200 winning photographs from the 1966 Newspaper National Awards will be exhibited in the main corridor of the Liberal Arts Buildings, 8425 W. McNichols. The exhibit areas will be open daily from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sundays from 1 to 5 p.m.

Reunion Scheduled At St. James Church

The St. James Episcopal Church, located at West Outer Drive and Lahser in Detroit, will hold a 44th anniversary reunion at 3 p.m. on Sunday, June 4. Speaker will be the Rev. Alex Steward, a former member now rector of the Episcopal Church of Clarkston, Mich.

The Rev. James Wiethoff

Priest from Livonia to Be Ordained

The Rev. James Conway Wiethoff will be ordained June 3 in the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Detroit by His Excellency, the Most Reverend John F. Dearden, Archbishop of Detroit.

Father Wiethoff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wiethoff, of Berwick Avenue, Livonia.

He was born in Detroit in 1941 and attended Precious Blood elementary school; Sacred Heart Seminary high school and college in Detroit; and St. John's Provincial Seminary, Plymouth.

His first Mass of Thanksgiving will be celebrated on June 4 at 12:45 p.m. in St. Maurice Church, Livonia.

Fr. Thomas Cain, Pastor, will be arch priest while Rev. Leon Begue and Rev. Brian Bjorklund will assist. Fr. Bjorklund will also preach. Commentator will be his brother, William E. Wiethoff, a graduating Senior of Sacred Heart Seminary College.

UNIVERSALIST-UNITARIAN Church of Farmington

We believe the religious education of our children should be conducted on the basis of free inquiry. Our Church School aims to help children express their own questions and seek their own answers. Our goal is to assist them in developing their own curiosity and wonder, and to help them, as far as we can, in answering questions about the meanings of life without violating their own minds.

Priest to Mark Silver Jubilee at St. Edith Church

The Silver Jubilee of the ordination to the priesthood of Father John G. Van Antwerp, pastor of St. Edith Church, Livonia, will be celebrated May 28, 1967 at St. Edith Church — Newburgh Road just south of Five Mile Road.

He will offer a Solemn High Mass at 3 p.m. with his cousins Fr. Thomas Van Antwerp, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Livonia, and Fr. George Van Antwerp, just returned from Brazil and temporarily stationed at Visitation Parish, Detroit.

Also assisting on the altar will be Father Joseph P. Femminio, Assistant pastor at St. Edith, and Mr. Dennis Martell, Livonia, a seminarian at Sacred Heart Seminary, Detroit. The Notre Dame Honor Guard of the Knights of Columbus will be in attendance.

Following the mass a reception for the family, friends and parishioners will be held at Ladywood High School gym—directly across from the Church on Newburgh Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Verbeke, Livonia, presidents of the Men's Club and the Altar Society, are planning the reception to be held from 4 to 7 p.m.

After attending Annunciation grade school and high school, Father Van Antwerp entered Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit. Further studies were completed at St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore. He was ordained May 30, 1942 by His Eminence Edward Cardinal Mooney.

The son of Vorah and Arthur Van Antwerp of Detroit, he has a twin sister Ellen Marie, now Sister Mary Arthur, IHM; three other sisters and a brother. They are Mrs. J. C. Vaughan of Glen Ellen, Ill.; Mrs. J. C. Cramer, of Detroit; Mrs. J. P. Burke, of Pittsburgh and Arthur Van Antwerp Jr. of Detroit.

After the celebration of his first Solemn High Mass at Annunciation Church May 31, 1942 Father Van Antwerp was assigned to Guardian Angel Parish in East Detroit.

Through the years he was stationed at St. Elizabeth's Parish, Visitation Parish, Our Lady Gate of Heaven Parish, and St. Brigid's Parish, all in Detroit.

From there he went to St. Henry's Parish, Lincoln Park and St. Leonard's Parish in East Detroit. Father Van Antwerp accepted the assignment as pastor of an inner-city parish, St. Edwards in Detroit, in June, 1963. He came to St. Edith Parish in Livonia Jan. 18 of this year.

Church Sells Bond Issue In 45 Days

The Westland Baptist Church in Livonia recently completed the sale of $80,000 in seven per cent church bonds in about 45 days.

The quick sale of the bonds—issued to finance the church's new education building—was announced by the Rev. Roland De Renzo.

The bonds bore a Nov. 1 date of issue, but the pastor said there was a delay of about two months before they were delivered and the church was able to begin sales.

Two weeks ago the church ran an advertisement in the Observer stating that its Series II bonds were completely subscribed and that the offer was closed.

The Rev. De Renzo said work on the building was well underway and occupation by September was planned.

The church, located on Ann Arbor Trail, had its beginnings nearly six years ago, and its first services were held in the Parkway School in Dearborn Township.

It now has 80 contributing families, a church school enrollment of 380 and an average Sunday worship service attendance of 350. The Rev. De Renzo has been the congregation's only minister.

Teen Club to Fight Westland Ordinance

A legal battle over the recently approved Westland ordinance affecting teen-age night clubs was indicated this week by the manager of one of the two clubs in the city. The city ordinance was unanimously approved by the City Council Monday, May 15, and was given immediate effect upon publication last Wednesday, May 17.

The new ordinance, among other things, restricts the hours the clubs are open, the age limits of patrons, and inspections by the city police, fire, and building officials.

Harvey Steingold, manager of The U Pumpkin at 920 S. Wayne Road, told The Observer Monday that although he follows most of the restrictions anyway, there will be a legal fight over the ordinance.

He said that his brother, Joseph, who owns the facility, discussed the matter with his attorney. To date, there has been no decision on what course of legal action will be taken.

Steingold pointed out that the new ordinance will affect the club's operation in the area of hours and extending the building to those under 17 years of age.

At present, The Pumpkin is open from 7 p.m. to midnight on Thursday and Sunday, 7 p.m. to 1 a.m. on Friday and Saturday plus 1-4 p.m. matinees on both week-day days.

The age limits observed at 17 and up in the evenings and 13 and older during the matinees. In addition, there are two male guards on duty Thursday, Friday and Sunday, three on Saturday night and a woman employee present all four days.

The new ordinance specifies that patrons shall be between 17 and 20 years of age and the club's hours shall be between 7 p.m. and midnight at 1 p.m. to midnight on Saturdays and Sundays.

Minors under 17 are allowed when accompanied by a parent or guardian.

In addition the new ordinance prohibits any pool or billiard tables, which are now used in The Pumpkin and requires that there must be at least two male guards and one female matron on duty at the times the club is open.

Operators of the teen-age clubs must also obtain an annual permit from the City Clerk's office at a cost of $50 plus $5 per person involved in the operation of the facility.

The city's second teen club, "Frantic Freddie's," at Joy and Haller, opened earlier this month and its owners are Melvin Siegel, Fred Goodman and Jerry Singer.

That club is opened from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday and its posters cater to "young adults" but do not specify any age limits.

The owners of that club have not been able to be reached by The Observer.

A third club, on the northeast side of the Warren-Middlebelt Road intersection is also planned for the near future.

Edison Electric Institute estimates that the nation's electric utilities, like Detroit Edison, have invested about $750 million in various air pollution control facilities.

TROPHIES were awarded by the Westland Jaycees Sunday afternoon for the best entries in the city's first annual birthday celebration parade. Parade chairman Jerry Lula (standing in back row with cowboy hat) presented the trophies to representatives of the Junior Parkway players for the best float; Annapolis Park Homeowners Association for the best theme; and Southgate Suburbanettes for being the best marching unit.

Crowthers Thank The Citizens

The family of Debbie and Kim Crowther asked the Westland Observer to extend their thanks for all the kindnesses shown to them by the citizens of Westland during the period following the two girls' deaths.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crowther said in a statement last week, "We wish to thank everyone who has thought of us since the loss of our two daughters. Words cannot express our appreciation."

The Crowthers said funds collected for the family would be used to pay for flowers and memorials for the two sisters, and for the education of the Crowthers' youngest daughter, Carris, six months. Joseph Crowther said all funds that the family received would be split in such a way that every contributor would have a part in memorials, flowers and the education of the youngest daughter.

The Crowthers said all letters they have received would be answered as soon as time would permit.

Chapels' Cost Is Cut For Two PCHA Hospitals

The construction of new chapels at Annapolis (Wayne) and Outer Drive Hospitals, long a subject of discussion and debate at the Peoples Community Hospital Authority, seems now a settled matter following a report to the Operating Committee by Karl S. Klicka, M.D., Executive Director.

Westland and Garden City are PCHA members.

Asked several months ago to re-examine the plans and the costs of construction of the chapels, Dr. Klicka this week made a report and recommendation that contracts be signed at little more than half the original cost.

Expected to cost $41,400, the new chapels at Annapolis and Outer Drive will now be built for $29,228.00. They will be non-sectarian and may be used by families of patients for meditation.

Dr. Klicka reported that he was able to achieve this remarkable saving by using the services of Herbert E. Schlesinger, P.E., a construction consultant from Ypsilanti.

Many From Area Win in State Flower Show

Blue and red ribbons bloomed all over the Oberverland entries in the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan flower show at Greenfield Village last week.

The show was held in conjunction with the organization's annual state members, and was attended by more than 500 women from all over the state.

Many from this area also attended some of the lectures and meetings in Greenfield Village and the Clara B. Ford Forum.

Mrs. Harold Brown, of the Farmington Garden Club, took both a blue ribbon and a tri-color ribbon indicating the top artistic award in the show.

The entry that won this top recognition was titled "Habitat — Expo 67," and featured a tall construction of black cubes pierced by holes and openings with a few strategically placed white chrysanthemums. The arrangement was an interpretation of the class "We Must Think and Act Anew."

won by members of the Hill and Dale Garden Club.

Mrs. John King's exhibition table featuring orange quail and orange and yellow tulips, and Mrs. Tom Simmons tea table with heather and carnations were winners.

Mrs. Fred Buhlman depicted breakfast in the Colonies with pewter and red geraniums. Mrs. John Norton using a John Glick pottery

Red ribbons for second place went to Hill and Dale members Mrs. William Wickman, Mrs. Richard Steiger, and Mrs. Warren Kruger for their artistic arrangements.

Horticultural awards were received by Mrs. Lucille Eaton, and Mrs. Joseph Ziska who received a special Award of Merit for her unusually fine gardenia plant.

Other Farmington Garden

Club winners included Mrs. Keith Willoughby and Mrs. Dwight Gordon. A Viburnum collection that was a club entry also took a blue ribbon.

From the Forest Park Garden Club, Mrs. D. Sovel received an award for her interpretation of "Freedom of Worship." Her arrangement featured a prayer book and antique brass candlesticks.

Botsford Garden Club winners included Mrs. Donald Scheele's tea table, Mrs. Frank Cartee's and Mrs. Arthur Cox's abstract interpretation of "Plant Earth in Mid-century," and a lighted pedestal arrangement depicting "Freedom from Fear" by Mrs. Omar Van Gorp.

An innovation this year were the small gardens on display. Hill and Dale Garden Club and Farmington Garden Club each took a blue ribbon for their gardens.

Mrs. John A. Secrist, a member of the Botsford Garden Club, was general chairman of the flower show. She worked closely with Museum officials and the Decorative Arts Department of the Museum so that museum furniture and paintings could be used to help interpret the theme of the show, "Americana the Beautiful."

Hostesses at the show modeled vintage gowns from the family heirloom collection of Miss Clara L. Snow and Mrs. Gertrude Snow Moore.

In all, 43 garden clubs were represented by entries, including 66 artistic flower arrangements, four small display gardens, and innumerable horticultural specimens of flowering branches, Spring flowers, and house plants.

CROWNING CEREMONIES were held last week with Mayor Timothy J. Murphy crowning Mrs. Jarmila Kalivoda as "Mrs. Garden City Beautiful" for 1967 to open the community's annual Clean-up, Fix-up, and Paint-up Week campaign. The queen's court consists of first runner-up Mrs. Luisa Resto (left) and Mrs. Phyllis Glentz.

Contest Seeks King of Patio

Detroit Edison's third annual King of the Patio contest is entering its final week. Over 100 men who practice and enjoy the art of outdoor cooking have already entered the contest, according to Miss Marion Ryan, Electric Living Director. A ten man cook-off will be held in the Edison Sales Auditorium on June 14.

All males, 18 years of age and over who reside in Southeastern Michigan are eligible to submit their favorite patio recipes by May 31. All entries should be mailed to Electric Living Division, 2000 Second, Detroit.

Women on the GO!

By Margaret Miller

Huge packing boxes full of books line the corridors of the Livonia public schools library center.

Clerks are busy with the varying phases of preparing books for the library shelves. And in her pleasant office in the Board of Education building, Viola Fitch directs a school library set-up so well-organized and efficient that it is studied by library people from all around.

Recently Wayne State University recorded the complete workings of the Livonia system on a film. It will be cut to three-classroom-lecture length to show to library science students at WSU.

Miss Fitch's pride in Livonia's system shows even as she points to the somewhat-in-the-way stacks of book-filled boxes.

"We've had such a fine budget this year," she explains, "that we work all the time but can't keep up with processing all the books we've been able to buy."

Miss Fitch, officially coordinator of instructional materials services for the Livonia schools, finds great satisfaction in the organizational system that lets her handle her complicated administrative chores with assurance of backing by her superiors and confidence in her assistants.

Her department includes not only the books purchased by Livonia schools—other than classroom texts—but the multitude of films, other visual aids such as display cards, and language laboratory machines.

By use of computers and a well-planned system, her department has cut the cost of preparing new books for the school libraries to 52 cents a book.

The addition of new books to library shelves starts with separate monthly meetings of elementary, junior high and senior high librarians. They consider at these meetings books already reviewed by librarians, teachers and sometimes the children.

"We find the youngsters are sometimes the best reviewers, give us a fresh perspective," Miss Fitch said.

"At the monthly meetings we talk the books over and decide which should be on a list the schools can use for ordering," she added.

Her assistant, George Bagaris, took up the description. "The list than can be made up in minutes by computer, since each book has a punched card of its own."

"With that order list, the librarian in each school can then indicate, again using punched computer cards, which books they want to order. And when that's completed we can again determine, in minutes, the total number of books to be ordered and the total cost."

These same computer cards then are used in the library files, and duplicating machines are used for making the informational material to be placed in each book—all saving hours of typing time and cost.

Viola Fitch, who had a lot to do with working out the time and money-saving operation, is a librarian with many years' experience.

Her 37 years behind a library desk include time as superintendent of school libraries in Kalamazoo and head librarian at Pontiac Central High School. She also has worked as a junior high librarian and spent four years in the library of the Children's Museum at Brooklyn, N.Y.

Administrative work is more demanding "and I miss working directly with the children," she admits. But the satisfactions are great in the present job that she has held for five years.

She remembers the time

MRS. LARRY (Diana Sherrill) RIPALDI

Diana Sherrill Becomes Bride of Larry Ripaldi

Wearing an empire gown with lace, pearl and crystal trim, Diana Lee Sherrill became the bride of Larry Lee Ripaldi in an afternoon ceremony Saturday, May 20 in the Southfield Community Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sherrill, of Maplewood Avenue, Southfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ripaldi, of Farmington.

The bride's father gave her in marriage and the Rev. H. Raymond Bayne performed the ceremony.

The bridal gown featured a bateau neckline and bell sleeves. The train and veil were chapel length, and the bride's bouquet was eucharis lilies and stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E.

Ripaldi, of Detroit, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served as honor attendants.

Mrs. Ripaldi's gown was pink nylon chiffon accented by rose velvet ribbon, and azaleas in varying shades of pink formed her bouquet and headpiece.

The bridesmaids, gowned like the matron of honor, were Bonnie Sherrill, of Southfield, cousin of the bride; Colleen Laurain, of Southfield, and Barbara Smith, of Southfield. Tamme Green also wore pink for her duties as flower girl.

Seating the guests were Rick Sherrill, brother of the bride, Douglas Bayne and Kenneth Mayhew, of Southfield, and Michael Kellogg, of Farmington, cousin of the bridegroom. Alfred Affinito was ring bearer.

The reception was held in the Birmingham Masonic Temple.

The bride is a recent graduate of Wayne State University. Her husband attended Schoolcraft College and is serving in the U.S. Army.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Sam Genetti of Detroit, is proprietor of Phyllis' Coiffeurs in Farmington. The bridegroom, a resident of Farmington, is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Percy Nelson, formerly of Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario.

Given in marriage by her step-father, Sam Genetti, the bride wore a gown and sleeveless coat of pale pink peau de soie, with French lace and sequin trim.

A lace bow held her short veil and she carried pink roses.

Ronald N. Infanti, brother of the bride, was best man and Gerald Hill was usher.

A dinner and reception followed at the Caswell Motor Hotel and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Caputo, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

Mrs. Goebel Attends Notre Dame Meet

Campus life at Notre Dame is part of an unusual experience for 41 women active in church and community affairs attending a National Council of Catholic Women program development institute this week at South Bend, Ind.

One of eight such adult leadership conferences this Spring, the current sessions May 21-24 center on ways to meet future goals as defined in Vatican Council documents on lay activities, according to Mrs. Harold Schachern, National Director for Michigan.

Local woman attending the institute was Mrs. William Goebel, of Berwick Avenue, Livonia.

MRS. WILLIAM FETZNER (Joanne Mary Giroux)

Bahamas Trip Follows Rites For Fetzners

Mr. and Mrs. William Norman Fetzner are honeymooning in Miami and the Bahamas following their marriage May 20 at St. Scholastica Church, Detroit.

The bride is the former Joanne Mary Giroux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Giroux of Glastonbury Road. Her husband is the son of Chester Fetzner of Farmington and the late Mrs. Fetzner.

Father John Markham, the bride's uncle, heard the couple's nuptial vows.

The bride wore a white peau de soie floor-length sheath, with long tapered sleeves and a chantilly lace panel from neckline to hem. The lace overskirt had a chapel-length train, and a full veil fell from a beaded crown. A white rose cascade with yellow sweetheart roses in the center formed her bouquet.

Yellow sheath dresses gowned the attendants, and they carried daisy and rose crescent bouquets and wore daisy headpieces with fingertip veils.

Janice Giroux was maid of honor for her sister, and the bridesmaids were another sister, Susan Giroux, Jeanne Wright and Gloria Lutz.

Jim Szopo was best man, and the ushers were Gary Fetzner, cousin of the bridegroom, Ted Bell and Russ Klein.

The reception was held at Devon Gables.

The new Mrs. Fetzner is a graduate of Mercy College and a member of Kappa Delta Pi, education honor society. Her husband graduated from Wayne State University.

The couple plans to live in Roseville.

Moore-Sanderson Vows Spoken

MRS. THOMAS JAMES MOORE
Karen Sanderson

A double ring ceremony in Nardin Park Methodist Church in Farmington united Karen Keating Sanderson and Thomas James Moore in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Omar Sanderson, of Valleyview Avenue, Farmington, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert N. Moore, of Detroit.

Hearing the couple's vows were the Rev. William D. Mercer and the Rev. Carl Schultz.

The bride wore a white crepe sheath with lace trim at the sleeves. Her veil was elbow-length, and she carried a cascade of white tulips, lilacs and daisies.

Aqua linen in empire style fashioned the gowns of the attendants, Mrs. Garry Steven Boelman, of Kalamazoo, as matron of honor, and Mrs. Lynn Leigh, of North Branch, Marilyn Fedraw, of Port Huron, and Nancy Garrant, of Royal Oak as bridesmaids. They carried purple violets.

John Terry Moore, of Kalamazoo, was best man for his brother. The ushers were Larry Kissau, William Van Dusen, John Giolitti and Peter and Michael Sanderson.

The couple received guests in a reception at Rotunda Country Inn and then left for a two-week Florida honeymoon.

Both are graduates of Central Michigan University and teach elementary school, the new Mrs. Moore at Walled Lake and her husband in Southfield. They will live on Bretton Avenue in Livonia.

Weatherman Just Gives You Odds

ANN ARBOR—When you plan to go to a ball game or a picnic and the weatherman predicts a 40 per cent chance of rain, you are ready to take part in a legal and important form of gambling.

In an attempt to forecast the weather more fairly, the U. S. Weather Bureau has been supplementing such terms as "possible showers" and "chance of snow" with daily odds. The public is given the odds and makes economic and recreational wagers.

But, in fact, what do these percentages really mean, how much reliance does the public place in them, and how well does the public understand what it hears?

These questions have led to a study by University of Michigan meteorologist Edward S. Epstein. The National Science Foundation has granted Prof. Epstein $12,500 for his studies of the meaning and ways to evaluate probability forecasts.

Probability statements represent a significant advance in communicating useful weather data to the public, according to the professor in U-M's College of Engineering, who is chairman of the American Meteorological Society committee on meteorological statistics.

However, he adds, "as is true with many innovations, these statements have on occasion been subject to misinterpretation, and their value in forecasting has not always been made clear."

For example, he said, a prediction reflects the forecaster's opinion of the chance that precipitation will take place in a specific period—usually 12 or 24 hours—and at any point in the forecast area.

He added that the public is not always aware of what is meant by "precipitation." In some areas, this means a minimum of a hundredth of an inch, which is generally regarded as measurable precipitation. In other areas, it might mean just a trace.

Weather bureaus generally say what they mean, but radio, television and newspapers often edit this out and dilute the meaning of prediction, he added.

"The use of probability statements by a meteorologist acknowledges the uncertainty inherent in a forecast of precipitation," said Prof. Epstein. There are two principal causes of uncertainty:

The meteorologist may be sure that precipitation will take place somewhere in a given area, but he can't predict exactly where.

The meteorologist can't "make exact predictions, even on large scales, of whether and how precipitation systems will develop and evolve."

There are a number of problems involved in this, he said.

For example, "it isn't possible to forecast a specific weather phenomenon in detail when the size of that phenomenon is less than the distance between stations in the densest network of weather observing stations. Upper air observing stations are typically spaced more than 200 miles apart, while showers may be only a few miles in extent."

Regardless of the cause of uncertainty, said Prof. Epstein, the user can give the probability statement the same interpretation. The weatherman has already incorporated that uncertainty into his percentage statement.

Tips On Unique Way to Frame Big Paintings

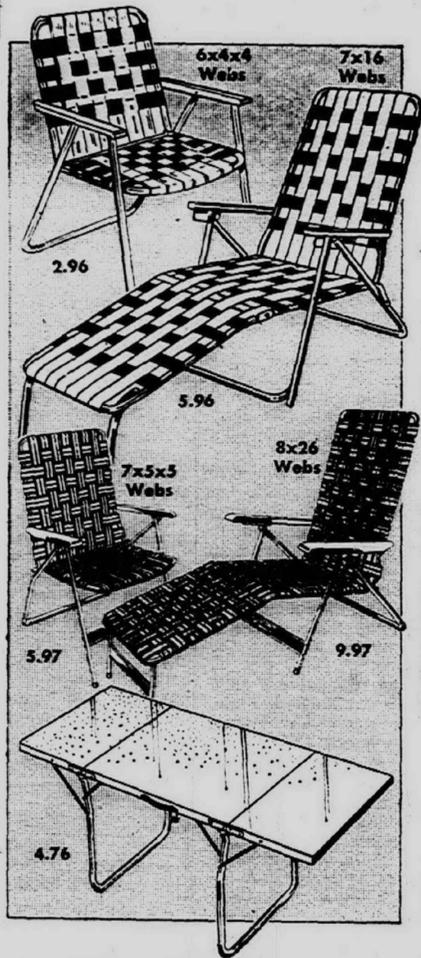

Giant-sized paintings are tough to frame effectively, but one interior decorator came up with an exciting idea.

Rather than use a conventional approach, he hung the painting, then, on either side, used a pair of 2x6s nailed edge-out against the wall.

MNB Plan Center In Detroit

Manufacturers Nation a Bank of Detroit will break ground for a new building, Operations Center, on Lafayette between Cass and First during the first part of June.

The 11-storied structure has been designed to house the Bank's computer center, Mortgage Department, Installment Banking Department, as well as a new branch bank.

It lies in the center of what will become Detroit's convention mall, which according to Charles Blessing, Director of the City Planning Commission, is proposed to run on the near west side of the city from Cobo Hall to the new Federal Building that will soon be built on Michigan Avenue.

When the pedestrian mall is completed, it will flow around and through the new bank building 20 feet above ground level.

The building will be faced with black granite, stainless steel and gray glass to present a black and white effect. The facing that will be below the mall level will be carved stone bas-relief that will be commissioned.

Measuring 320 feet long by 120 feet, the building will have 552,500 square feet of floor space. With 11 levels above the ground and three sublevels, the building will provide 10 1/2 levels for office space and 3 1/2 levels for parking.

LIT Summer Classes Aid June Graduates

June high school graduates who need additional studies to qualify for college entrance this fall may be interested in the special summer school at the Lawrence Institute of Technology.

The special session, offering make-up and review courses in mathematics, science and English, will be held from June 26 through August 23. LIT's regular summer school will be held June 5 through August 23.

"Students attending this special summer school will be those who recently changed their minds or haven't totally prepared for their current interest in college work," said Robert L. Hart, LIT director of student services.

"In some cases, while in high school they were unable to schedule the courses they now lack. Then there are some who need to strengthen certain subjects to improve their grades and become eligible for their chosen college programs."

Hart said students should apply as soon as possible. They may obtain information from counselors 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Monday through Friday at the LIT campus, Northwestern and Ten Mile in Southfield.

Southfield Mayor Cites Local Government Needs

By Harvey W. Moelke
This corner is being written by Mayor James Clark-son, the visiting Mayor from Southfield on Mayors Exchange Day.

IT IS FOUR O'CLOCK IN THE AFTERNOON... after a very busy and hectic day with the city officials of Livonia.

The day started out at 8:15 a.m. with the Mayor and Councilman Gronkowski and his lovely wife Pat meeting your Mayor where both Southfield and Livonia join at the intersection of Inkster and Eight Mile.

After shaking hands and much picture taking Southfield was the richer for we were the recipient of a lovely flowering crab tree given by Mayor Moelke to the City of Southfield.

It was edifying to learn that this tree was the official Livonia tree and was by no means by its name a reflection of the officials who are a part of your City of Livonia's government.

At least, this was what Harvey explained to me at the time with a grin, which really and truly turned out to be true as the day wore on, because this mayor and his wife found Livonia very hospitable and friendly, such friendliness was reflected in its elected officials.

Yes, Harvey, I know that you are in Southfield and I can now tell you that the citizens are anything but crabs.

Everybody is always interested in whether there is any educational advantages of one mayor visiting with another. This is the sixth occasion for this mayor to exchange with another city and each time I have come back more the educated with various ideas that cannot but help the community that I represent.

One which comes to mind, which I will recommend to the Council, will be the installation and establishment of an Industrial Development Department. This department has already paid off in dividends to the City of Livonia and I am sure could do likewise in the City of Southfield.

There are other ideas that I could mention in this column but would rather spend the balance of this opportunity to sell local government to the citizens of Livonia.

This has been a pet peeve of mine for many, many years. That I have adopted the cliché that we presently live under an upside-down system where the Federal level is given over-emphasis to the detriment of the local level.

This is unfortunate because today 70 percent of the people live in the city and by 1970 closer to 90 percent will be living there creating problems of enormous dimensions that only full-time government can solve.

The time has come to support full-time government not only in Livonia but in the entire local level of government. Remember, citizens, that it is at this level that you have your most immediate control over the expenditure of your tax dollar. It is here, for example, that it requires your permission whether your tax rates are increased or whether you approve a bond issue.

It is here, citizens, that the money is expended for your immediate benefit for streets, for police and fire protection, for garbage and rubbish pickup, for sewer and water systems, not for "high in the sky" or far-away Federal type disbursements of billions of tax dollars over which you have very little or no control and which requires no necessity for approval in the case of the property tax.

In conclusion, this mayor has found in Livonia typical, efficient and deserving-of-credit local government. Officials who serve without sufficient remuneration (both Mayor and Council) for the time they spend in the carrying out of their duties, officials who can be reached by telephone and who serve with the dedication of millions to problems such as air pollution, traffic congestion and residential development densities.

The public health, safety and welfare of this community cannot help but be richer for its officials: to name a few of your non-elected department heads, City Planner Don Hull, Industrial Coordinator Dan Andrew, Assistant City Engineer Ed Siemert, City assessor Henry Siefert, City Attorney Steve Polgar, Chief Building Inspector Frank Kerby and, of course, the Mayor's lovely Executive Secretary who, believe it or not, is taking this down.

Chief James Jordan and Officers Von Kistur and Fournier were excellent hosts as was your Council President, Peter Ventura who personally showed me your city. Thanks to all of you and your Michigan Week Chairman, Don Nicholson, for a wonderful time on behalf of my wife Betty and myself for making Mayors Exchange Day one of the best I have ever had.

Let's hope the 'spring' weather turns a wee-bit warmer at least for next Sunday, May 28, as the Fairway Swim Club will hold their formal dedication ceremonies. 1:30 p.m. will begin festivities with the presentation of the flag by an honor guard.

Franklin and Stevenson High School Swim Clubs will each present a synchronized swimming exhibition after which musical entertainment and refreshments will be served.

Rev. Carl Gundersen will give the invocation and invites have been accepted by Mayor and Mrs. Moelke, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Ventura, Mr. Edward Sampson and Richard Nordstrom; Ed Hyman is the President of the Club.

Other officers include: John Hopkins, Hal Wilkin, Tom Mariotti, Judge James McCann, Jack Breneman, Herb Sielaff, Paul Roberts, Duane Egeland and Don Tappan.

The Greater Livonia Council of Arts meeting originally scheduled to be held at the Carl Sandburg Library has been changed to the new branch — Alfred Noble Library — on Plymouth Rd. at 8:30 p.m., tonight, May 24. These meetings are open to all interested in promotion of art and cultural pursuits in our community.

Barbara Core is so enthusiastic about plans for a bus trip in July—special for Livonians — to Meadow Brook Music Festival to hear Van Cliburn, internationally famous pianist perform. Sounds like a great idea.

Sophia Anderson, president of the Mayor's Committee (To Keep Livonia Beautiful) has, during this Paint-Up, Clean-Up, Fix-Up Month, had over 200 posters to that effect delivered recently throughout the city by Heary Holcomo, Margaret Rosenberger, Larry Hopps, Milt Levinbom, Florence Favos, and herself. That gal really means to have our town cleaned, painted and fixed up!

The Bentley Concert Choir, under the direction of Jerry J. Smith, will perform their 'Invitational Concert' at 2 p.m., Sunday, June 4. This is the last of 72 concerts given this year by the vocal department of Bentley.

To end the season, they'll celebrate on Saturday with a fun Beach Party at Pontiac Lake; then a banquet will be held in honor of the Bentley Concert Choir at Devon Gables the evening of the concert.

The Concert Choir's student officers this year have been: Terry Richter, Allen Reisdorf, Terry Niles, Audrey Primrose, Tim Bobrowski, Gordon Goedde, Cris Densmore and Ginny Havlik. They will announce next year's officers at the banquet.

Carol Susterka, graduate of Franklin Hi '66, and now freshman at Central Michigan, honored her parents, Helen and Howard Susterka, of Clement Circle, at Parent's Day festivities, May 14. That evening Carol was formally accepted into the Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority at Central.

100 Cyclists at DRC Sunday

The only flat track motorcycle racing program of the year in Michigan will be held Sunday, May 28 at the Detroit Race Course.

It is the second annual Great Lakes Novice Motorcycle Championships for riders from Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and Ontario.

'No Contest' As Thurston Runs Wild

It was hardly a contest as Thurston high's track team rolled over Oak Park, 97-21, in a Northwest Suburban League meet.

Ken Blaskie was the top man for the winners as he captured both the high and low hurdles.

Thurston copped all events except the 100 and 220-yard dash. The Thurston winners:

- Pole Vault: Jim McEwen. Height: 12 feet.
- Shot Put: Bob Bryant. Distance: 48 feet, 7 inches.
- Two-Mile: Rick Wilson. Time: 11:06.
- 500-Yard Relay: Thurston (Mike Riel, Bryant, Wayne Saylor, Bill Swiger). Time: 1:28.
- High Hurdles: Ken Blaskie. Time: 4:57.
- Low Hurdles: Ken Blaskie. Time: 1:4 seconds.
- 440-Yard: Chuck Nole. Time: 2:9 seconds.
- 880-Yard: Glen Dusek. Time: 2:08.
- 1,640-Yard: Blaskie. Time: 2:04 seconds.
- 3,300-Yard: Thurston (Bill Simescu, Jim Mallon, Neal Currie, Brad Woelke). Time: 3:57.

Sponsors of the racing program are the Detroit Area Associated Motorcycle Clubs and the Metropolitan Club of Livonia.

More than 100 will try to qualify in the time trials for the 60 starting spots in the 10-race program.

Time trials will begin at noon and the first race is scheduled for 2 p.m.

All riders are licensed by the American Motorcycle Association, which has sanctioned the event. Because all are novices, the AMA restricts the machines to a maximum 250 cubic centimeters.

A total of $1,200 in cash prizes will be awarded, along with trophies. The Great Lakes championship race will have a purse of $600, with the 15 fastest men in the time trials qualifying for the title event.

Last year a crowd of more than 7,000 saw Tom Morrison, of Jacksonville, O. win the five mile championship race on a Harley-Davidson motorcycle.

Redford Jaycees Sponsor Junior Track Meet

Plans are now complete for the 1967 USTFF — Jaycee's Junior Champ track and field competition slated at Thurston High School on June 17. Jaycee President Bob Hawley announced this week.

The meet will feature 13 events for youngsters between the ages of 11 and 18.

Sponsored by the Redford Jaycees, the USTFF-Jaycee meet is designed to promote physical fitness among pre-Olympic age youngsters. Local winners qualify to participate in the state competition in Waterford on July 22. State Senior Boy's division winners earn berths on the team representing Michigan in the national Junior Champ competition in Des Moines, on August 24, 25, and 26.

For additional information and entry forms, contact Dale Devitt, Junior Champ Chairman, at 20254 Angling, Livonia 48152. Entry forms now available must be returned by June 10.

Hazel Park Rich Events Lists Ten

The thoroughbred racing season will hit high at the Hazel Park Race Track with outstanding feature races, plus the traditional Appreciation Week attraction, in a 15-day period beginning May 27.

"Saturday, May 27, the $10,000 Madison on Heights Handicap and the $12,500 added Michigan Breeder's Handicap.

"Monday, May 29, the $5,000 Anniversary Purse and the $7,500 Cadillac Handicap.

"Tuesday, May 30, the $7,500 Veterans Handicap and the $25,000 added Decoration Day Handicap.

"Saturday, June 3, the $15,000 added Lottie Wolf Memorial and the $20,000 added Michigan Derby Trial.

"Saturday, June 10, the $20,000 John Daniel Memorial Handicap and the $50,000 added Michigan Derby, the state's richest race for three year olds.

As a highlight of Appreciation Week, all patrons will be admitted free on Wednesday, May 31, and will be given a chance to win a color television set.

Merry Bat Nets Victory For Sorrows

The bat of Jim McGrath struck a merry tune Friday when Our Lady of Sorrows downed St. Cecilia, 8-5.

McGrath's production consisted of a double, triple and a grand slam homer. He tallied four runs-batted-in.

His double and triple came while leading off. The homer in the third followed walks to Bob Theisen and Dennis Pery and a single by Frank Barber to jam the bags.

Theisen, one of three pitchers used by Sorrows, picked up the victory.

Flat Rock Lists 50-Lap Race On Holiday

Promoter John Marcum has announced that he will stage a 50-lap late model race with 24 starters as the feature of a Memorial Day Sweepstakes program at Flat Rock Speedway.

The Tuesday night (May 30) program will feature such drivers as Dick Mitchell, the defending champion from Trenton; Joy Fair of Pontiac; Fran Hardin of Wayne, Tom Sigg and Dick Huston of Toledo, and a host of other favorites.

The 24 fastest qualifiers will be eligible to compete in the holiday feature. Nine other events, including a 15-lap Figure 8 co-feature will also be on the program.

VARSITY CLUB tents out—Members of the Schoolcraft College Varsity Club recently pitched a tent city on the campus and camped out for a week. The purpose was to generate interest in varsity sports at the college, publicize the club and encourage support for the proposed physical education facility. Dressed in the spirit of the occasion are (back row from left) Herman (Joop) Doorn, All-America soccer player, Livonia;

Redford Union, Cranbrook Split Doubleheader

Redford Union high's baseball team broke even with Cranbrook in a doubleheader Saturday. The Townshipers won, 5-3, in eight innings before losing, 6-3, in the night-cap.

Trailing, 3-1, entering the seventh, RU tied the score

RU Romps - Triumph

Redford Union high's track team finished its dual meet season with a 9-1 record by downing Belleville, 80-38.

The win gave RU a final mark of 4-1 in Suburban Six League action with the lone loss coming against Bentley.

George Corombas with victories in the two dashes and a leg of the winning 880-yard relay accounted for 12 of the victor's points.

Garden City Boy Is Division's Top Soldier

A Garden City infantryman has been honored as the "Soldier of the Month" in his battalion stationed in West Berlin.

The soldier is Jack Bielat, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bielat, of 335305 Donnelly Street.

Lt. Col. Willard Natham, commanding officer of the 2nd Battalion, 6th Infantry, wrote the parents that their son, a specialist fourth class, won the award for being "the best soldier and has demonstrated exemplary appearance and bearing, outstanding military knowledge combined with superior proficiency and overall performance."

"The award represents a great deal of effort on the part of your son to achieve this honor. The award includes a three-day pass, an engraved statue, and a record of the award included in his permanent Army personnel file."

Bielat is a member of the Berlin Brigade Drill Team which recently performed before a crowd of 3,000 guests at the annual Air Force Ball, sponsored by the German Air Force Southern Command.

The drill team in the past has performed for American and German civilians and military personnel.

Faculty to Honor Bentley Students

The Bentley High School faculty will honor outstanding Bentley students at its annual Honors Night program Wednesday, May 24, in the high school gymnasium beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Achievement awards are given for individual achievement within the departments. The achievement awards include winners in the National Scholastic Art contest, the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow contest winner, and various winners of the band and orchestra Solo and Ensemble contests, as well as subject area awards within the departments.

The outstanding student in each department will receive a distinctive merit award. The departments of art, athletics, business education, English, foreign language, homemaking, mathematics, music, science, and social studies will each honor an outstanding student.

Scholarship awards are presented to those students who have received scholarships. The officers of the '66-67 student council are honored, and all-school letters are awarded to students who have earned 35 points for participation in the student council, class council, and extra-curricular activities.

Bentley's foreign exchange students and their American families will receive special recognition, and the Outstanding Boy and Girl, chosen by the faculty, will receive an award from the Rotary Club.

A relatively new honor, the Distinguished Service Award, will be presented to those students who have done outstanding service for Bentley High. These students are chosen by the principal upon recommendation of a faculty committee.

The climax of the evening is the announcement of the Salutatorian and Valedictorian of the Class of 1967.

Freeway Safe, But Drivers Lax

There's no doubt about it. The statistics are there to prove it. The nation's expressways are safer, much safer, than the ordinary two-lane highways. Nevertheless, in spite of almost unlimited visibility, separated traffic and other advantages, accidents do happen on what would seem to be fool-proof thoroughfares.

The main problem is motorists who don't think.

This is the conclusion of Gerald E. Montgomery, Executive Director of the Greater Detroit Safety Council, a chapter of the National Safety Council.

For instance, Montgomery said, few drivers going past an interchange ever get over into the left lane marked "through traffic." Most stay in the right lane, thus risking being involved in an accident with a car entering the highway from an entrance ramp on the right.

Most of these motorists are not intentionally breaking the law; they just don't pay attention to signs. Another problem is not watching for exit lanes. Often a driver will be passing another vehicle, suddenly see his exit looming ahead, and cut in sharply in front

Red Cross Seeks Blood Donors

A Red Cross bloodmobile will be at the Clarenceville Methodist Church, 214 N. Adams in Livonia from 3 to 9 p.m. on Monday, May 29.

Red Cross needs new donors. Qualifications include ages 18-59 (18-21 unmarried adults must have parental consent), weight must be 110 pounds or more and one must be in good health.

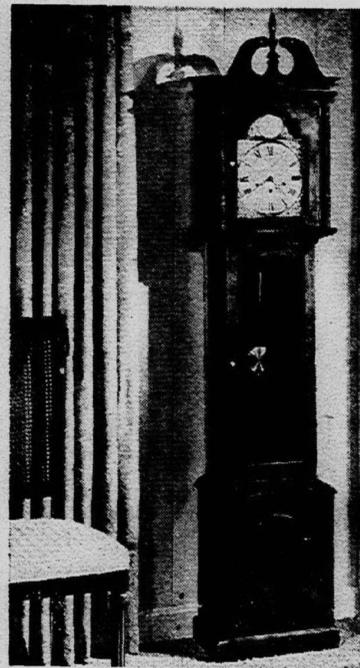

Stop Two for Carrying Concealed Weapon

Two Detroit men have been arrested by Livonia police on charges of carrying a concealed weapon. They are Norris Higgins, 34, of 2070 Pingree, and Milton Sanders, 42, of 1927 Pingree.

Officers found a Colt 38-caliber pistol, unloaded, wrapped in a man's shirt, in the trunk of the car driven by Higgins. He had been stopped and issued a ticket for defective equipment. The men were also charged with possession of burglary tools when officers observed a lug wrench and two clubs in open view, and found a club, a large screwdriver, a hammer, and a rope.

Police said that the men have records of narcotics violations in Detroit.

Urges Car Check Prior To Vacation

Vacation travel by automobile can be a completely satisfactory experience for the motorist and his family or a partial or complete disappointment if certain necessary precautions are not taken.

Vacationing motorists are warned to make several precautionary checks of their vehicles to predetermine that needed adjustments or repairs are completed prior to departure so that breakdowns and lost time may be avoided.

"Vacation driving is usually not the same kind of driving that owners' vehicles are subjected to during other periods of the year," T. A. Dykstra, manager of Service, Technical and Merchandising of the General Motors Service Section, said. "Only the long distance driver such as a salesman covering a large territory is faced with conditions similar to those confronting the vacationing motorist."

"Today's normal driver encounters constant stop-and-go traffic during his daily routines," Dykstra said.

"Vacationing motorists are apt to travel long distances at rates of speed above what they normally would drive in areas near their homes. Also, they may visit the mountains or the desert and in each area of travel find variable conditions which affect the performance of their vehicle."

"There are many things which can be done before travel starts which might prevent discomfort and delays which could ruin an otherwise well-planned vacation trip. Attention should be paid to the braking system, the condition of the engine, engine and chassis lubrication, the engine cooling system and tire condition and air pressure."

Dykstra warned that brake linings on all four wheels should be checked by a reliable dealer providing reliable brake service who is also qualified to check for correct brake fluids, leaks and possible loss of fluid. He emphasized the need for such inspection on older vehicles, adding that periodic inspection should be made under any driving conditions.

An engine tune-up with any necessary replacement or adjustment of spark plugs and distributor points prevents improper functioning of the engine and will add to fuel economy. An added advantage, he said, was better performance needed under emergency conditions.

Lubrication of the chassis and running parts can prevent breakdown and give more comfortable riding conditions. Lubrication instructions contained in the owner's manual in all automobiles should be followed and oil filters changed when required, he added.

"There are three areas of attention to motoring which do not get the inspection they deserve," Dykstra declared. "For some unknown reason we pay too little attention to tires until we discover one has gone flat and we seldom check the water level of the battery or coolant level of the radiator."

"Tires with bald spots or uneven wear can result in potential trouble and the possibility of serious accidents. Improper wheel alignment or wheels out of balance can cause uneven tire wear. Uneven tire wear can result in blowouts when temperatures build up while traveling at high speeds. Good tires properly inflated are as important as good brakes," he declared.

"Radiator coolant levels and battery water levels must be maintained for normal motoring but when traveling through mountainous country or our desert lands, they become increasingly important. In warmer sections of the United States vehicles may have a tendency to overheat unless the cooling system is in top-notch condition."

"Battery water can evaporate and if a sufficient quantity is lost, starting problems can result."

All belts from the engine drive to the fan, water pump and air conditioning unit should be checked for condition and proper tension prior to any long distance travel."

Tips from the STOP AND SHOP CHEF
Questions and Answers

Why do potato salads made in France seem to have more flavor than those made elsewhere?

The trick to this treat (a bit of magic, incidentally, used in many countries and even in some sections of our own) is simply to season and dress the potatoes while they are still hot. So treated, the potatoes turn the trick by absorbing the dressing almost completely.

Northville Groups Bit Cold Toward Unification Study

The City Fathers of the City of Northville and members of the Plymouth Township Board aren't sure that they want to participate in a unification study of the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township.

They're wondering whether they shouldn't have a separate unification study of their own district.

Both bodies have been invited to join the Plymouth study and discouraged on the other. The latest invitation

Lake Pointe Group to Get Tax Story

The Lake Pointe Homeowners Association will listen to representatives of the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees discuss tax assessments and the water and sewer program in a meeting Wednesday, May 31, in Farland School at 7:30 p.m.

President Maurice Breen indicated the Township Trustees will be prepared to answer most any question and urges all residents of the Lake Pointe subdivision to attend.

The School Board will have representatives present with information concerning the proposed school bond issue and the five-mill renewal levy.

The agenda also includes a review of this year's experiences of the Association.

came as the Northville Council listened to Carl Pursell, president of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, make a presentation. The same story was told to the Northville Township Board two weeks earlier.

Pursell said he and other persons within the Plymouth community preferred to limit the study to the city and township of Plymouth and perhaps Canton township, which includes much of the Plymouth school district. However, because those attending the recent inter-governmental seminar felt the two Northvilles should be invited to join, a "compromise" resolution was adopted, he explained.

Thus Pursell couched the invitation in a personal hope that Northville would not join the Plymouth study. He agreed with the position of Northville Councilman Delbert Black and Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson that by joining the study Northville would make it "cumbersome" and that a more desirable arrangement would be establishment of a separate unification study involving only the city and township of Northville. Pursell added that a spokesman for the Citizens Research Council of Michigan, which will conduct the study, also has advised that the scope of the study be limited. He admitted that the spokesman and himself are fearful that if the study encompasses too many governmental bodies the chance for a favorable vote for unification — provided the study shows unification to be desirable — will be diminished considerably.

Northville Mayor A. M. Allen took the position that by joining the Plymouth study Northville could obtain facts relative to an overall unification plan as well as a narrower, Northville city-township plan.

"I don't see that anything will be lost by the study. It's a start," the mayor said.

Frank Ollendorf, Northville city manager, emphasized that if Northville becomes a part of the study it would not be involved in the basic study but merely be an appendix to it.

Finally, after Black said he could not make an intelligent decision without first discussing the matter with the township, the matter was tabled pending a meeting with township representatives.

Northville township officials had also tabled the matter at their meeting pending the city's decision.

A decision by the city of Northville is expected to be made at a special meeting.

Auto Rams Home Of Plymouth Family

Plymouth streets were the scene of two property damage automobile accidents Sunday, one of which resulted in a careless driving citation by city police.

Ben Kelly, 774 Starkweather, Plymouth, was ticketed for careless driving after his car jumped the curb and rammed the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, 493 S. Harvey, at 10:28 p.m. Sunday.

Sleeping at the time, Brown, 35, suffered nose lacerations from flying glass, while his wife was badly shaken. Both were taken to Wayne County General Hospital for treatment and were released.

Their baby, asleep in a nearby room at the time, was unscathed.

In a second but earlier curb-jumping accident, a station wagon driven by Alvin Boeck, 42018 Firwood, Plymouth, went out of control at 2:38 p.m. Sunday, leaped the curb at Penniman and Church, crashed into a utility pole and turned over.

Boeck and the two occupants, William and Florence Boeck, of 24919 Tallman, were treated at St. Mary's Hospital for minor bruises and were released. No police action was taken.

Boys!! Time To Register For Football

Youngsters interested in participating in the Plymouth Community Junior Football League are requested to register for the 1967 season on June 3 in the Plymouth Credit Union from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Boys must be at least nine and not more than 12 years old on Sept. 1, 1967. None can weigh less than 65 pounds nor more than 125.

There will be three teams: freshman, junior varsity and varsity. Registration fee will be $8 per boy. The fee includes insurance and complete uniform.

Applications Available To Camp Midicha For Diabetic Children

Applications for Camp Midicha, the camp for children with diabetes, may be obtained by writing to Michigan Diabetes Association, 10737 W. McNichols Road, Detroit, 48221 or by calling 342-9333 area code 313.

Boys and girls ages 8 through 16 are eligible to attend this unique camp which offers a complete camp program while providing individual medical and dietary supervision. Two 10-day sessions will be held at a campsite near Oxford, 40 miles north of Detroit, beginning July 16 and ending August 5. Michigan Diabetes Association, a member of the Michigan United Fund, offers partial and full camperships where family income cannot provide the full cost. A printed brochure detailing the camp program will be mailed on request.

Food Assistance to Needy

The Food Stamp Program, one of the U.S. Department of Agriculture food assistance programs, is helping low-income families and the underemployed to have better diets.

Low-income families who are certified by state welfare agencies may exchange the amount of money they normally spend on food for coupons worth more than they paid. With this extra money, they can buy more and better food for improved diets.

Drapery Cleaning Tip

Keep surface soil removed from draperies with the household vacuum cleaner so as to postpone laundering or commercial cleaning of them, at the same time be giving them a neat appearance at all times.

RETIRED JUDGE James Sexton listens intently to Circuit Court Judge Edward Piggins as he addresses members of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club.

Judge Piggins Sets Crime at $20 Billion

Crime in America costs about $20 billion a year, of the equivalent of $500 per family.

This was the estimate placed on the unlawful activities that are gripping the United States today, by Circuit Judge Edward S. Piggins, who addressed the Kiwanis Club of Plymouth last week.

Aside from stressing the cost, Judge Piggins, calling on his vast experience both as Commissioner of Police in Detroit and as the recent one-man grand juror, stated that the fight against crime must start on an individual basis.

"Citizens must be stirred from their lethargy," he stated, "and must become aware of the danger that exists in not wanting to become involved."

He begged his listeners—and all Americans—to be alert to the fact that the Mafia, Costa Nostra and the Mob are not fantasy, myth or imagination, but that they are real criminal organizations which siphon off millions of dollars a year from our nation's economy.

He dealt at length on some of the activities of these gangs, claiming that organized crime maintains brutal control of its members and that penalties for infractions of the rules often result in "The Last Supper."

"If the bodies of water in the area ever dried up" he said, "it would solve a great number of crimes."

A dinky back doorstep can be enlarged with a wood deck built right over the existing step. The new deck should be at door sill level and can be constructed of Douglas fir 2x3s on edge.

Judge Piggins address was considered one of the best ever delivered to the Kiwanis.

Several volunteers who have given years of service to the auxiliary of the Plymouth State Home & Training School were honored at the sixth annual meeting last week.

Among those honored were Mary K. Deetz and Helen Wolfram, of Plymouth, for giving five years of faithful service.

One of the finest programs at the Home is the Volunteer Auxiliary, which has established the outstanding record of an average of 783 volunteers who provide a little more than 7,000 hours of service monthly.

Volunteer training sessions are held the first three Tuesdays of every month for anyone who is interested in joining the Auxiliary.

JCs Seek Floats For Parade

Making plans for the greatest Fourth of July parade ever as the highspot of the Centennial celebration that starts on July 3 and continues through July 10, Ron Coosaia, chairman of the Plymouth Jaycees parade committee, has issued an appeal for paraders and marching units.

He also is seeking sponsors for the floats and in a communication, to all clubs, businesses and industries in the community, asks all to enter a float in what he believes will be the greatest parade before the largest number of people.

The Jaycees are looking forward to attracting more than 20,000 to the city and hope to have a parade that will have marchers in action for more than two hours.

Coosaia asks all enterprises in the community to take advantage of the parade and help the community celebrate its 100th birthday.

For additional information, his address is 1362 Carol Street and the phone is 453-9478 at home or GA 7-2000, Ext. 8355 during business hours.

The first practical electric carriage was built by Robert Davidson of Aberdeen, Scotland, in 1837. In 1900, according to a Detroit Edison spokesman, the Electric Vehicle Company had nearly 2,000 electrically-powered taxi cabs operating in New York City.

GRAND OPENING: King's Mill Townhouses

1, 2 and 3 bedroom Townhouses from $157 a month including heat

If you ever wanted to kiss the city goodbye... live where you can hike, bike, picnic and swim in country sunshine and fresh forest breezes... now is the time, and King's Mill is the place.

Have you had enough of the city? We know where you can live in a majestically beautiful park made by Nature, not by man... where you can walk for hours in clean open air... where your youngsters can romp in grassy fields and splash in an Olympic-sized pool... and your door is always open to your neighbor.

It's near a town called Northville. There, just 15 minutes from northwest Detroit, but in other ways another world away, stands King's Mill.

LUXURY HOMES OUT IN THE COUNTRY
King's Mill Luxury Townhouses were built by The Smokler Company in the middle of Cass Benton Park, one of the loveliest areas in southeastern Michigan. Here luxurious 1, 2 and 3 bedroom Townhouses, magnificent Town Club, and Olympic-size swimming pool sparkle below the tree line.

CITY-STYLE 1, 2 AND 3 BEDROOM HOMES WITH LUXURY KITCHENS AND AIR-CONDITIONING
Each Townhouse is an individual one or two story home with up to 1,150 square feet of living space, plus a full basement. You'll have your own private entrances, large living room, separate formal dining area, full-size bedrooms, and plenty of closet space. Double-wall sound conditioning shuts out any noise from next door, and air-conditioning shuts out the heat.

King's Mill kitchens feature over $1,000 worth of brand new, top-of-the-line appliances: 14 cu. ft. double-door G.E. refrigerator-freezer, G.E. disposal, hood fan, Dishmaster, oven and range, Vikon backsplash, and furniture-finished cabinets.

YOUR OWN PLUSH COUNTRY CLUB AND OLYMPIC-SIZE SWIMMING POOL
In the luxurious Town Club, you'll find card, billiard, teen, and meeting rooms, nursery, fully-equipped kitchen, and a unique "Creative Corner." Adjacent to the Club is an Olympic-size swimming pool with full-time pool manager and lifeguards. Both Town Club and pool are included in the cost of your Townhouse. You won't pay a penny extra.

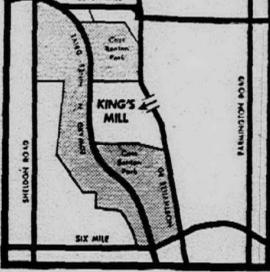

With all these luxuries to enjoy, you probably won't find time to do any maintenance. So we've hired full-time crews to cut the grass, shovel the snow, do the landscaping, and take care of plumbing and appliance replacement and repairs. You won't have to pay for it, either.

TAX DEDUCTIONS CUT THE COST OF LUXURY LIVING
What do you pay for? Just your Townhouse.

King's Mill is a cooperative with a modest 5 1/4% mortgage, sold and managed by a non-profit corporation, the FCH Company. To move in, you pay the cooperative a very small membership deposit. Monthly payments — as low as $157 a month — then increase your equity. Yet about 2/3 of each payment is deductible from your income tax. And, you have no personal mortgage liability. Should you ever wish to move, just give the cooperative sixty days' notice, and they'll buy your Townhouse from you, or undertake to sell it for you.

But we think you won't want to move. We think you'll stay at King's Mill. Come out and see it today.

And get ready to kiss the city goodbye.

King's Mill Townhouses are located on Northville Road between Six and Seven Mile Roads. Model Phone: 349-5820
Open Daily and Sunday — Noon to 8 p.m. Saturday — Noon to 5 p.m. Closed Thursday.

FREE ADMISSION: KING'S MILL HISTORICAL DISPLAY
The King's Mill area is rich in history and tradition, stretching back to the sturdy New England pioneers who settled here nearly 150 years ago. As a special feature of the Grand Opening of King's Mill Townhouses, The Smokler Company has collected rare articles, documents, and photos pertaining to the early residents of the area. Bring the entire family to see this unique educational display. Admission is free.

New Way To Use Cake Mix

By JOYCE TOTTEN

Have you ever gone to your pantry and looked at the mixes you have available and not really felt like preparing that plain yellow or chocolate cake? Then giving up and maybe not preparing that cake after all or again preparing it just as directed on the package.

In this season of busy schedules, it's not unusual to find we just don't have time to prepare a specific delight from scratch for family or guests.

I have some recipes called "wife-savers" for you. One for the kiddie set. Then one for the teenagers using cherries since this is one of Michigan's leading products. I couldn't forget a special, one for your recipe collection for guests.

PARTY-TIME CAKE CONES

- 1 package one layer size cake mix, any flavor
- 15 cup-type ice cream cones
- 1 package white frosting mix

Prepare cake mix as directed on package. Fill paper baking cups half to two-thirds full. Place cup-type ice cream cone upside down on batter in each cup before baking. Bake 350 for 25 minutes. When completely cool, peel off paper baking cups. Prepare frosting mix as directed on package; frost cones. Decorate with candy, coconut, etc., to resemble animals, clowns or sundaes. Makes 15.

CHERRY CRUNCH

- 1 can cherry pie filling
- 1 small box white or yellow cake mix
- 1/4 lb. butter, melted
- 1/2 c. chopped nuts or slivered almonds

Spread cherry pie filling over bottom of 7x11 cake pan, sprinkle dry cake mix over cherries. Drizzle melted butter over all. Sprinkle nuts over top if desired. Bake at 350 for 20-25 minutes or until crispy and brown on top. (May bake 1 hour at 325-350 if preferred.) Makes 8.

FIG MOCHA TORTE

- 1 package yellow or white cake mix
- 1 6-oz. package semi-sweet chocolate pieces
- 3/4 c. miniature marshmallows
- 1/2 c. milk
- 2 T. instant coffee powder
- 1/2 c. finely chopped dried figs
- 1/4 c. chopped blanched almonds
- 1 c. whipping cream (1/2 pint)

Prepare cake mix according to package directions. Bake in two 8-9 inch cake pans; cool and split each into thin layers. Combine chocolate pieces, marshmallows, milk and coffee powder in top of double boiler. Heat and stir over hot water until marshmallows melt. Add figs and nuts. Remove from heat, cover and cool. Whip cream; fold into chocolate mixture. Frost between each layer; cover top and sides. Chill several hours.
