School youth jobs cut after union grievance

About 70 young people in Plymouth-Canton lost their summer jobs with the school district Friday as a result of an objection made by the maintenance union.

The group was terminated as of Friday because of a grievance filed by the executive committee of Michigan Education School Personnel No. 1 (MESPA) against the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education.

The young workers were employed under the Summer Youth Employment Program funded by the federal government. Federal rules require agreement from any union involved if summer youth workers are to be retained.

The regulations provide that if any union files an objection the matter must be taken to mediation. If mediation fails to resolve the issue, the employer must terminate the jobs of the young people employed.

This year the school district hired youth for the summer under both the federal youth program and under the Michigan Youth Corps Program.

Although the federally funded youth jobs must be terminated because of the union grievance, school officials were unsure Friday whether those hired under the state program would have to be let go.

"I was hopeful that these young people would be allowed to continue their employment for the remainder of the summer but the executive committee of the union has stated by letter to me that they feel these young people would jeopardize jobs of their members," said Byron Richardson, regional manager of the Summer Youth Employment Program.

"I DO not personally feel employment of these young people would jeopardize union positions. However, the required program guidelines dictate that such a dispute, if not resolved by mediation, would result in these young people being terminated from the positions working with maintenance and custodial personnel."

Richardson added that it was unfortunate the executive committee of MESPA No. 1 took the stand it did. "I believe the young people of our community will be the ones who suffer."

A school administrator noted that the federal summer job program has been in place in the district for 10 years and the union, until this year, had not objected. The union presently is negotiating a contract with the school board.

The school administration has obtained from the teachers' union and from the secretarial union a waiver of their ability to object.

The attempt at mediation was made Thursday and failed.

Dr. John M. Hoben, superintendent of schools, said he disagreed with the union's argument that the youth program was causing the district to cut custodial and maintenance jobs.

"We are reducing the number of positions but we are doing that through attrition as we have done with teachers and administrators. We have not eliminated a single person," said Hoben.

Man arrested in park kidnapping; suspects sought in 8 other assaults

By Gary M. Cates
staff writer

A Livonia man has been arrested in connection with one of nine attacks on women in western Wayne County's Edward Hines Park.

But, Wayne County Sheriff's deputies believe the man they arrested Wednesday is responsible for only one of the sexual attacks which started on May 12.

Deputies still are searching for two men they believe are responsible for the other attacks, Detective Larry Patterson said Friday.

Lawrence A. Schleger, 31, was arraigned Thursday in 35th District Court on three charges stemming from a July 4 kidnapping.

AN INNOCENT plea was entered for Schleger on charges of kidnapping, felonious assault, and assault with the intent to commit criminal sexual conduct (rape). Upon conviction the charges carry maximum prison penalties of life, four years, and 10 years respectively.

Judge James Garber postponed a preliminary examination until Schleger completes a forensic exam to determine his mental ability to be tried on the charges. A $50,000 cash bond was set.

Schleger is accused of kidnapping a 32-year-old Plymouth woman at knife point along Hines Drive between Wilcox and Northville roads. He then allegedly drove her around in his car for two hours.

The woman, who had dropped out of Plymouth's July 4 five-mile run, escaped unharmed after the man

Most likely the woman was uninjured because she decided to quit fighting the man and talk with him while he drove around, Patterson said.

"We think the kidnapping was an isolated incident. We have two suspects for the other incidents," Patterson said.

"At this point we have two separate descriptions, an older man and a younger man, for the other eight."

The other eight attacks, between May 12 and June 17, involve men attempting to grab and rape women or exposing their bodies.

THE INCIDENTS happened in locations throughout the park, including Cass Bend in Northville Township, Woods Drive and the I-275 viaduct over Hines Drive in Plymouth, the Newburgh Point area and Lakeview Drive in Livonia, and Inkster Road at Hines in Westland.

All but the first incident happened to women by themselves, Patterson said.

The exception — May 12 at Cass Bend — involved a man claiming to have a gun forcing three women to watch as he masturbated.

Besides the July 4 kidnapping — believed to be unrelated — the attacks stopped after June 17.

"We have gone down in the park and interviewed a lot of people and seen quite a bit of surveillance," Patterson said.

"Very possibly we talked to the people responsible, or they got word we were closing in on them."

Although the attacks have stopped, Patterson said they are continuing the investigation.

Lawrence Schleger is led into 35th District Court Thursday afternoon. Schleger is charged in connection with a July 4 kidnapping in Edward Hines Park.

Safety tips help joggers avoid trouble

The Wayne County Sheriff's Department has offered safety tips to the victims of attacks similar to the one suffered July 4 by a woman runner in Edward Hines Park.

The marathoner and Plymouth resident had dropped out of a five-mile road race and was headed back to the starting line shortly after 9 a.m. when she was kidnapped and held for two hours. Four similar incidents have been reported since mid-April.

To avoid danger, the sheriff's department recommends that you:

- Run with another person or with a group;

- Run close to the road or on bikepaths in sight of traffic — not in secluded areas. If you quit a race, don't turn back. Follow runners along the race route;

- Step out of the way of a suspicious-looking person who's approaching you. Cross the street or walk in the middle of the road. If danger persists, yell;

- Consider carrying a small canister of Mace-like repellent, sold at many drugstores (law enforcement agencies, however, aren't in agreement about their effectiveness);

- If you're attacked, don't let your assailant know you're afraid;

- Report incidents immediately to a law enforcement agency. While the suspect's trail is hot and the memories of patrolling officers and victims are fresh, the chances of catching the suspect are greatly enhanced — as is the likelihood of someone else being attacked. You may be able to provide the key clue. Also, a molester may not have traveled too far following the incident;

- Consider enrolling in self-defense classes, offered by many educational and recreational institutions.

If you desire, the sheriff's department will agree not to divulge your name.

Sgt. Arthur Laatz of the sheriff's park patrol emphasizes, "there's no cause for alarm among those who frequent Hines Park.

"It's safer than most other parks due to the high visibility of patrol officers — not only the sheriff's, but officers from area communities which patrol this park. The big problem here is alcohol and drugs."

Federal job fund control fight ends in compromise

By Gary M. Cates
staff writer

The battle to control federal Jobs Training Partnership Act (JTPA) funds has ended in a compromise, with the Wayne County Executive's office on top.

The JTPA program is scheduled to replace the Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) of 1974. Both programs, JTPA and CETA, were designed to give federal assistance in jobs and training for youth and the unemployed.

When the JTPA monies start reaching state coffers in October, it will be dispensed in Wayne County through three separate service delivery areas (SDAs) — the county of Wayne, city of Detroit, and the Downriver Community Conference.

Under JTPA guidelines, SDAs are designated by the governor. The jockeying for the governor's designation started as early as last year.

IN THIS area the Local Governmental Conference of Western Wayne, led by Livonia Mayor Edward McNamara, sought to be an SDA. The conference, made up of 13 communities, met the 200,000 combined population requirement but didn't receive the governor's approval. However, in what many consider a compromise move, the civic leaders were given some representation on the influential Private Industry Council (PIC) in Wayne County Executive William Lucas' SDA plan. Lucas' plan received the governor's approval and was approved by local elected chief officials last month.

The PIC will be a 35-member board which will write policy and procedures for allocating the JTPA funds in the Wayne County area.

The civic leaders' representation on the PIC comes through the mayors and supervisors council — an advisory board to the SDA. That council elects three of its members to serve on the PIC.

Elected to the PIC were Plymouth Township Supervisor Maurice Breen, also the chairman of the mayors and supervisors council; Dearborn Mayor John O'Reilly; and Highland Park Mayor Robert Blackwell.

In another compromise move, Lucas gave another eight PIC appointments away, four to McNamara and four to O'Reilly. Those were given away due to lawsuits filed by Livonia and Dearborn.

Livonia and Dearborn filed suits when both were denied SDA status. The two cities sought that status because they ran their own CETA programs, thus believing they should administer their own JTPA programs.

ALLOWING THE western Wayne County communities to have representation on the PIC seems to have quelled the controversy.

"We have had concerns that the whole program would be worked to the benefit of all communities. We wanted input and we got it," Breen said.

"We believe the local communities have a better grasp on the needs of their constituency. The compromise is mutually beneficial to the county executive and the communities," he said.

"We wanted a fair share of the money for the unemployed people in the out county area. I think we will have sufficient input," he said.

Besides the three local government officials, the Wayne County PIC will include at least: 18 representatives of business, two from education, two from labor, two from non-profit community organizations, one from a rehabilitation center, and only one from the Wayne County Economic Development Corporation.

Lucas' recommendations for appointment to the PIC were due at the governor's office Friday night. As of Friday morning, all the recommendations hadn't been completed, according to David Plawewski, a Lucas aide.

The amount of JTPA funds expected to be allocated to Wayne County still is unknown.

Dearie Days reflects on the Gay '90s

The 12th annual Dearie Days will be 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday, July 16, in Plymouth's Old Villages area.

The Dearie, Do You Remember? festival is a nostalgic look at the Gay '90's, a time when the pace of life was easier, life less hurried, and when the family was the center of fun.

There will be contests and prizes for all members of the family, such as an Old Fashioned Dress Contest starting at 9 a.m., and a mustache contest to elect the best, biggest and funniest.

There will be a Kids' Kookie Contest, a Baked Goods Contest for cakes and pies, breads, jams, jellies and preserves. All baking entries should be at the Bandshell, at Farmer and Starkweather, near Cannon Park at 9 a.m.

There will be entertainment throughout the day, including: the Civitans with Betsy Beckerman playing the banjo, guitar and dulcimer; Plymouth Community Band; Dimensions in Dance; Tai Chi demonstration; Go for Gymnastics; Midwest Harmony Sweet Adelines; Senior Citizens Kitchen Band from Canton.

FOR THE children there will be a moon walk, pony rides and carnival rides. Plymouth Salem Class of '74 will have a dunk tank and Growth Works Inc. will have High Strober and King of the Log. Throughout the day the Oral Majority Toastmasters Club will furnish Soap Box Speakers. The Church of God will be selling baked goods and handcrafted items.

Hi, I'm Dr. Clifton J. McLellan

Did you know that being certified as a chiropractor requires a minimum of six years of highly specialized college training?

Today's Doctor of Chiropractic must complete 4,428 hours of classroom instruction and a rigid chiropractic board examination. In most states, continuing educational seminars must be completed for annual license renewal.

In addition, I have completed courses in X-ray Diagnosis, and Orthopedic and Neurologic evaluation. I hold degrees in Biology from Humboldt State University and Doctor of Chiropractic from Palmer College of Chiropractic. Post graduate studies include two years as an intern at the famed Five Points Chiropractic Clinic of Davenport, Iowa.

While in college, I was included in "Who's Who, Among American College Students," and most recently was nominated to Outstanding Young Americans. To further my continuing education, I have recently received special training in the Gonstead Technique, and Spinal Thermography from Mt. Horeb, Wisconsin.

This is the kind of training and professionalism I offer you. If you have hesitated visiting a chiropractor, perhaps you didn't know that some chiropractors go to such great lengths to continue their education and provide you with the latest techniques and the most qualified service. Those who visit the Indian arts and crafts classes Tuesdays and Thursday's at Plymouth's American Indian Heritage Center behind Central Middle School may have met first grader Roger Crain, a Cree Indian from Canada. His adoptive mother, Audrey Crain (left), lends him some assistance during class.

Students at Plymouth-Canton Community Schools' American Indian Heritage Center have learned to duplicate works of art once made by their great-grandparents.

Plymouth alive with Indian culture

By W.W. Edger
staff writer

Virtually hidden in a portable building behind Central Middle School is one of the most interesting classrooms in Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

There is no identification on the building and nothing about it on the exterior that stands it apart from other portable units on the edge of the big parking lot.

But inside of the first unit is what is officially known as the American Indian Heritage Center for students with some trace of Indian ancestry. They gather each day during study hour of the regular school day to learn more of the traditions of their forefathers.

They are taught such things as bead work, pottery painting, arts and crafts, and other activities which their grandparents and great-grandparents engaged in when the Indian tribes roamed the Plymouth-Canton area.

"We have about 125 students here," said Rick Smith, center director, "and each day we have 30 or 40, with at least 125 students each week."

"Our enrollment is down a bit in the past two years because the government has altered some of its rules, but the interest is just as keen."

Some of the students who are enrolled at the center are more than one-half Indian and others as little as one quarter.

THE CENTER is primarily financed with federal funds but the school district also helps to keep this unusual school in operation.

On a recent afternoon there were students at the center who traced their ancestry to the Cherokee tribe which originated in Oklahoma and West Virginia. With them were representatives of the Chipewas who settled years ago in Michigan, of the Wappas, and of the Sac and Fox tribes.

Ray Fowler represented both the Wappas and the Sac and Fox tribes and his forebears lived on the farm where the present high schools are located at Canton Center and Joy Roads.

At the helm of the school is Smith, who came to Plymouth-Canton two years ago from Walled Lake. At times he is assisted by Frederica Rossi whose forebears were from the Mohawk tribe. She is a certified art teacher.

At other times Barbara Bunyea of the Bunyea Farm on Powell Road, Plymouth Township, joins in teaching the students.

The one-room school is filled with Indian works of art, pottery, beaded work, and other things which help keep alive the traditions of the students' families.

"It is difficult for a child with Indian blood to learn of the traditions of the tribes which roamed the country long before the Pilgrims landed," said Smith. "The city is more sophisticated and there is little thought of these traditions. But the students with Indian blood are eager to learn and each day is a new experience."

To make the visits to the Indian Center more attractive the students are given half an academic credit.

Salem High School student Barbara Bunyea enjoys working with beads — a project presented in a special art series sponsored by the American Indian Heritage Center and the Michigan Council for the Arts in the Plymouth-Canton community.

PUT YOUR HOME TO WORK FOR YOU WITH FASTLINE

The major line-of-credit that enables you to borrow on the home you own.

Now you can put the equity in your home to work for you with FASTLINE, the major line-of-credit designed to meet all your credit needs.

Your line-of-credit will be about 70% of the equity you have in your home (see "Example"). And, after you pay an initial set-up fee, FASTLINE won't cost you a cent until you use it. Then use it whenever you want and for whatever reason you want — for a major purchase like a boat, plane or automobile; a business opportunity; an investment; you name it! All you have to do is write a check and it's yours.

FASTLINE — the new way to enjoy instant access to the equity in your home. For complete information, give us a call toll-free at 1-800-521-4324.

EXAMPLE*
Value of residence	$100,000
	x 70%
Eligible FASTLINE balance	$ 70,000
Less current mortgage balance	- 40,000
FASTLINE Line-of-credit	$ 30,000

* This is intended only as an example. Your actual FASTLINE line-of-credit may be higher or lower than this sample.

Charged with kidnapping

WAYNE COUNTY Sheriff Robert Ficano believes the park still is a safe place to go. "Our investigation has really put the damper on it. There is no reason to be afraid," Ficano said. Through cooperative efforts with the local police departments law enforcement officers are "turning the park back into a family place," he said. Cooperation between the deputies and local officers is "better than it has been in past years," he said. Ficano is placing more deputies in the park later this month when the mounted patrol is reinstated. The action is made possible by private donations and a $10,000 grant from the Hudson-Weber Foundation.

Currently deputies are completing screening for the positions in cooperation with the Detroit Police Department, he said. The mounted patrol will be housed in the Hines Park Mini-Station at Hines Drive and Newburgh Road. The situation in the park is under control, but people should use caution and common sense, Ficano said.

On sports war

There is a great battle looming on the horizon. It is not going to be fought with fire arms, missiles or bombers. Instead it will be fought with millionaires' dollars on the playing fields of the state.

It is the battle for prestige on the sports scene and it promises many interesting events before it is ended.

It will be a battle between John Fetzer, owner of the Tigers, William Clay Ford, owner of the Detroit Lions and Alfred Taubman, the big shopping center tycoon; who holds the major interest in the Detroit Panthers.

The first sign that there would be a real war came earlier this year when Taubman and his mates purchased a franchise in the United State Football League — an upstart with fancy ideas.

At first it was thought to be a joke in that the football teams agreed to play in the spring instead of the fall weather where it has been played for years.

"It will never go," many sports fans insisted. And at the Lions office in the Silverdome it was thought to be a rich man's fancy that would soon be outlived. And when the Panthers lost four of their early games it became more of a joke. Then something happened. The team started winning and, finally, much to the surprise of everyone, won the division title.

NOW THE team no longer is a joke. It has to be taken seriously. Why? Well, a check of the records shows that the Panthers have outdrawn the Tigers in each of their four games during the July Fourth home stand.

That means that the Tiger officials have been given warning that they will be in a fight for prestige from a source they didn't expect.

The Panthers owner, in the midst of the celebration for winning the division title, fired the first real shot of the oncoming war.

"We are going to cut ticket prices next season," said, "and we'll give the public a chance to see the team play."

games and the Lions will be out of order.

No team ever has challenged the Tigers until now. The other teams that brought success to Detroit played in different months of the year. The Tigers had the field almost to themselves. But that cozy position is no longer.

AND WILLIAM Clay Ford no longer can sit back and watch the Lions miss the play-offs. With the Panthers winning titles at cheaper prices to the fans, the Lions are in for some tall figuring to ward off the newcomers.

So Mr. Fetzer who has been sitting snugly with a team that hasn't been a real factor for 13 years, will have to do some switching of policy in order to bring Detroit a winner. And Mr. Ford, the Lions no longer can chuckle at the Panthers who were a bunch of unknowns when the new league started.

It matters little that the United States Football League is looked upon as a weaker circuit. If the Panthers can win while the Lions and the Tigers miss the play-offs, there will be a real battle for the fans dollars.

Village ready for festival

The Plymouth Theatre Guild will provide face painting, the Plymouth Optimists will furnish clowns, the Civilians will offer a 1913 Fire Engine and the Old Village Association will sponsor clowns for the kids to pick pockets.

The Business and Professional Women (BPW) will have spin art, American Backgammon Club will offer backgammon instruction, and at 6 p.m. at Farmer and Starkweather there will be a Balloon Bust near the gazebo with the balloons being filled with discount tickets from participating merchants.

The streets of Old Village will be filled with more than 150 booths which have been juried offering arts and crafts, antiques, sidewalk sales and demonstrations.

THE DAY will begin with a five-mile run organized by Growth Works to begin at 7 a.m. People interested in entering the run should call 455-4095. T-shirts and certificates will be given to all completers.

The activities will be on the following streets: Division — Moon walk, pony rides, carnival rides; Liberty — Sidewalk sales, antiques, arts and crafts, refreshments; Cobblestone Alley — arts and crafts, sidewalk sales, rest-rooms; Mill, Carriage rides, sidewalk sales; Starkweather — sidewalk sales; Farmer, entertainment, contests, 1913 Fire Engine, balloon bust, refreshments; Spring — sidewalk sales.

Dearie Days derived its name from a song written by Bob and Dave Mann called "Dearie."

"Dearie, life was cheery in in the good old days gone by. Do you remember?" was part of its lyrics which prompted the festival theme and its Gay '90s atmosphere.

JCs thank Fourth helpers

To the editor:

The Plymouth Jaycees appreciate all the supporters of our annual Fourth of July activities.

Whether it is the 5 Mile Run, Bike Decorating, the Parade, or the Fireworks, there always is the feeling that everyone genuinely supports us and is having a good time. It is this feeling which makes Plymouth a special community and the residents a special people.

With all the individuals and businesses who help, monetarily and in spirit, the only list that would be complete would be the Plymouth area phone book. But there are some without whom our Independence Day activities would not have been possible. To these I direct special thanks:

The Community Crier and Plymouth Observer for their tremendous press coverage, not only on the Fourth itself but also coverage of activities and progress leading up to the Fourth.

Both the city of Plymouth and township of Plymouth for their outstanding cooperation and support and the various municipal departments (police, fire, DPW) who helped with traffic rerouting and control, street closing and other precautions. Special thanks to the police and fire departments who made special sacrifices so the parade could be conducted as it was.

Special thanks to Mayor Eldon Martin, City Manager Henry Graper and Township Supervisor Maurice Breen for their unfaltering support and enthusiasm for our project. Thanks to Denny Campbell and Sarah Delmore for sharing their enthusiasm as master of ceremonies for the parade.

The following businesses co-sponsored the 5 Mile Run: Community Crier, Comma Graphics, Plymouth Hilton, Krogers, Four Season's Square, Plymouth Trading Post, and Vic Tanny's. The following car dealers provided transportation for the parade: Fox Hills Chrysler-Plymouth, Dick Scott Buick, and Bob Jeanotte Pontiac.

Budweiser and Central Distributors sponsored the fireworks which is a demonstration of their management's belief that Plymouth is more than a place to distribute and sell their products.

Special thanks to the judges, Bill Ventola, Edward Wendover, John Hopkins, Jim Peckrul, and Louise Tritten and to Burroughs Corporation for use of their parking areas.

Special thanks to Robyn Ellison for understanding why her Daddy was not home for those many nights.

And special thanks to the growing list of contributors to this project. Whether it was a $5 check or the sponsorship of an entire band, without you the parade would not have been and Plymouth would not be Plymouth.

In closing, I wish to apologize to any individuals who were inconvenienced due to any of our activities or errors we may have made. The magnitude of the entire day's activities almost insures that some arrangement will be overlooked causing someone not to be able to enjoy some part of the day's activities as much as anticipated. To these people, I ask indulgence. Knowing we learn by our mistakes, I can assure you this year's problem areas will not be next year's.

Coverage of Symphony good

To the editor:

On behalf of the Plymouth Symphony Society Board of Directors, we wish to thank Elinor Graham for the fine coverage of our symphony programs this past year.

Through the Observer's efforts we have been able to reach more people and have concluded a most successful season.

Opinions are to be shared

Opinions and ideas are most fertile when shared with others.

That's why the Observer encourages its readers to share their views with others by making use of the From Our Readers column.

While the Observer expresses its opinions on the editorial page, we always leave space open for our readers to express their ideas.

Submitting a letter to the editor for publication is easy. We ask that letters be typewritten or printed legibly and kept to 300 words or less. They must be signed and include the address of the sender.

Names will be withheld only for the best of reasons, and the decision to do so will be made by the editor.

Letters may be mailed or hand-delivered to our news office at 461 S. Main, Plymouth 48170.

Baseball fan, 84, recalls old Tigers

By W.W. Edgar
staff writer

"I remember Ty Cobb. Why not? He was the greatest baseball player who ever lived. And I can still see him walk to the plate with three bats in his hands — the only player who ever did that. And no one ever has come close to him in running the bases."

These words were spoken by Rivan Fraese, 84-year-old father of William Fraese of Ann Arbor Road while on a visit to Plymouth last week.

William Fraese

"I now live out in Lomita, California," he said, "and see the Tigers every time they come to Anaheim. And every time I see them I am reminded of the days I lived in Detroit and worked at the lumber company across Trumbull Avenue from Tiger Stadium."

He had asked to meet the writer whom he remembered as a baseball writer on the Detroit Free Press so that he could discuss some of the "old days."

Few fans can remember the days of 80 and more years ago, but the elder Fraese rattles off the names of the greats and how he rates them.

He doesn't have much praise for the present day players whom he says, "don't play the game like they did when Ty Cobb was an idol."

"Why they even use gloves big as baskets to catch balls hit to the outfield."

One of his fondest memories of Cobb is the day he circled the bases on a bunt — the only player ever to accomplish that.

"In those days Mr. Navin, then the owner of the Tigers (and I still call the ballpark Navin Field) used to let the fans in for nothing after four and one-half innings were played. I worked right across the street and many days raced over there just to watch Cobb."

He had other heroes, among them Babe Ruth, who always will be remembered as the Home Run King of Baseball.

"The Babe didn't have to wait for a favorite pitch. He would reach out and hit them — high or low. Then he'd run the bases on those spindly legs. There never will be another like him, but in my mind he can't replace Cobb."

Since he moved from Detroit to California, the elder Fraese has adopted the Los Angeles Angels as his team. But when the Tigers come West to play, he says he has the time of his life on those afternoons.

"If they get up there to play for the pennant, I am going to have a difficult time of it," the veteran fan said, "but when it comes down to the me I still think I'll be sort of rooting for the Tigers."

The kindly gent, who will be 85 years old in October, has a kind word for the writers of the old days, too.

PROTECTING PRIMARY TEETH

You may not be overconcerned about your child's primary teeth because these "baby teeth" will eventually be replaced by permanent teeth. But you should be. The health and care of your child's teeth will have a direct effect on the condition of his permanent teeth when they're ready to make their appearance.

For example, any decay can be hazardous. Left untreated, the affected tooth may break or be lost before its time. This may cause the permanent teeth to become crowded or crooked. Decayed or lost primary teeth may also cause speech difficulties and affect the child's personality and his appetite. He may find cold, hot, or hard foods difficult to eat. Decayed and infected teeth can also cause other health problems when left untreated.

It's never too early for you to have your child's teeth examined by your dentist. In fact, the earlier the better so any existing problems can be treated and his dental health protected.

Mayflower Hotel began as a community project

(Part I)

Ralph G. Lorenz was a 17-year-old student and captain of the golf team at Plymouth High School 56 years ago when the Mayflower Hotel opened its doors for the first time.

The thought that he would become manager of the hotel and eventually its owner never entered his mind.

The hotel rose out of a Plymouth Chamber of Commerce meeting in February 1926 when president Harry S. Lee suggested that an objective be set for the work of the chamber that year. It was decided that a hotel was the community's most urgent need. A committee of seven, headed by Daisy Air Rifle's Edward C. Hough, was appointed to investigate the possibilities.

LORENZ BELIEVES that Hough and Charles F. Bennett, the top man at the air rifle company, prompted the chamber to tackle the hotel project.

Daisy was the area's chief industrial firm at that time. It had many business visitors, some from foreign countries as far away as Japan. These visitors needed accommodations.

The old Plymouth Hotel, which had stood for many years on Main Street facing Kellogg Park, was small and about to be condemned. It was, in fact,

past & present

torn down the same year the Mayflower Hotel opened.

The chamber of commerce was only one of several organizations in town through which the Daisy people worked. Hough and Bennett were members of the Plymouth Rotary Club and they got its members, as well as those of the Kiwanis Club, to back the project.

The campaign had been set up to last six days, but it was over in six hours. In that short time $209,000 worth of stock had been sold. The Plymouth Mall quoted the Hackensbury people as saying that this was in the nature of "a world's record" for ventures of this kind.

THE LIST of 252 residents who bought stock in the new hotel includes names of many who have been prominent in the history of Plymouth. Among them were:

Wiedman, George H. Wilcox, and, of course, Charley Bennett and Ed Hough.

AMONG THE companies that subscribed for the stock were the Detroit Edison Company and the Burroughs Adding Machine Company. Burroughs built its plant on Plymouth Road in Plymouth Township 12 years later.

The stockholders were summoned to an organizational meeting of the Plymouth Hotel Corp. in the high school building on Nov. 23, 1926. The notice, signed by Charles A. Fisher, Edward Gayde, and John B. Hubert, the trustees named in the subscription agreement, included a proxy to be signed by those who could not attend.

The proxy sent to Fred Schrader, owner of the local funeral home, shows that he bought 50 shares of preferred stock of the par-value of $100, and 25 shares of the non-par value common stock. Ralph Lorenz believes the common stock sold for about $33 a share.

THE NEW HOTEL was erected on a vacant lot at the corner of Main and Ann Arbor Trail. It had been the site of the Judge John Fuller residence that had been destroyed by fire in 1910.

After the fire the lot had been a lively carnival ground every Fourth of July. At other times, Czar Penney used it as a cow pasture and for a stand from which he sold vegetables. One of the youngsters he hired to pick vegetables for him was Ralph G. Lorenz.

The hotel was built three stories high, with plans provided for its expansion to five. The additional two stories have never been built, but extensive additions have been made to it as will be explained later.

A LOCAL firm, General Machine and Iron Works Inc., fabricated and erected the structural steel. Grenoble Hotels Inc., an affiliate of the Hockensbury System, operated the hotel for the first few years. They brought in S.W. Stearns, a Rotarian from Macomb, Ill., to be resident manager. Dr. Luther Peck, who later was to become the city health officer, was named house physician.

On Nov. 10, 1927, some 200 stockholders and other residents attended a dedicatory banquet in the hotel's glittering Crystal Dining Room. Music was provided by Daniel Patterson's orchestra.

The Rev. F.C. Lefevre of the Catholic church delivered the invocation. William Wood and R.F. Valentine were the song leaders. George A. Smith, superintendent of schools and a great storyteller, was among the speakers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoothoff are former residents of Plymouth.

THE CHAMBER'S community hotel committee brought in Hockensbury System Inc. of Harrisburg, Pa., which made a survey of the need and of the availability of financing and provided expertise for organizing the drive.

By September 1926 a sales organization of residents, mostly businessmen, was assembled to sell stock to finance the building of the hotel. After the drive was over they met in Kellogg Park to have their photo taken under a huge sign reading: "Plymouth's Greatest Need, a New and Modern Hotel. Every Citizen a stockholder. A Community Enterprise."

oral quarrel

Today's Oral Quarrel question was: Are you satisfied with the Observer? What are we doing that you like and what are we doing that you don't like? The answers of our readers follow:

I think it would be advisable to give information and publicity to the drownings by Newburgh Lake to make the citizens of this community aware of the dangers of Newburgh Lake and the undertow there. Nothing has been said in your paper about these drownings to warn these kids that are out of the school for summer in relationship to the hazards of this lake. I think it would be advisable to inform the community what the problem is and make the parents aware and advise their youngsters not to go swimming as it is prohibited by law. However, I have read no comments in the paper about these hazards.

Obviously we are not quite at the level of the Detroit Free Press and the Detroit News, but amongst the three local papers the Observer is definitely number one. Their coverage of local Canton affairs is by far superior to that of the other two competitors, the Crier and the Eagle. Good work — keep it up. Thank you.

One thing I don't like, I was disappointed with your coverage of the Canton Festival and the Canton Parade. I am an avid reader of your newspaper and a longtime resident. I was displeased on very little coverage of probably one of the biggest community events in Canton — the Canton Parade and, of course, the festival. Your Monday and Thursday newspaper editions one week before the festival should have had first-page headlines, advertise the dates, and the events and happenings, but it didn't. It had nothing, I was very displeased. If some residents didn't see the signs around the expressway areas, they wouldn't have known about the event. I would appreciate next year more coverage of the Canton Parade and Festival on the front page to let everybody know what's happening in our community. That's important.

I pretty well like the Plymouth Observer. At one time they had backgammon problems in it and I would like to see that feature returned. Thank you very much.

I'd like to comment on the fact that the Observer does not share a lot of the things the parochial schools in our area are doing and their activities and their accomplishments. They are a big part of our community and more and more parents are choosing that alternative. I'd just like to see more write-ups about the good things and the activities of the parochial schools in our area. Thank you.

You do a nice job covering township affairs and Plymouth goings-on, but it would be nice if you would cover more extensively the clubs, organizations, public school activities in Canton, and the Canton Country Festival activities so people would know what they could do in their own community. Thank you.

Tell Tim Richards to keep his political views to himself. He's just doing more harm to your paper than any good.

In some ways your paper is pretty good, in some ways it's not. You're in a 97-percent district here that is all Republican. I think Tim Richard is getting a pay-off from the Democratic Party.

Yes I'd like to have you next year advertise and publicize more of the Canton Festival and Canton Parade. There is hardly any information in your paper. Also, more importantly, one week before the event you should advertise events and times, which I'd see and I didn't even know about it. Thank you.

I just went shopping at K mart and this guy was out there trying to have a petition signed for Blanchard recall and Voter's Choice and I signed them both. He also gave me an article written by Tim Richard. Now what good is business if the people in Michigan can't afford to buy the product that they have? I don't know about your paper and Tim Richard.

Lucas puts county hospital on the selling block

By Tim Mohr
staff writer

County Executive William Lucas already has begun negotiating to sell or lease Wayne County General Hospital (WCGH), citing high deficits which he said even good management will be unable to correct.

Lucas's announcement came only a day after the Wayne County Commission defeated an ordinance proposal by Commissioner Kay Beard, D-Inkster, that would have set up a commission-controlled board to operate the hospital in Westland.

"Kay Beard keeps talking as if the hospital would be closed if the county stops running it," said Dennis Nystrom, Lucas's chief of staff. While saying a complete closure is possible, Nystrom said it would be cheaper to keep the hospital operating at a deficit than to close it and absorb huge pension benefit payments.

NYSTROM TOLD a news briefing several parties are interested — "some are enthused" — about acquiring WCGH, whose depreciated book value is $18 million.

The Lucas Administration is confident it can sell or lease the hospital without approval of the County Commission. A spokesman acknowledged the county has a charter obligation to provide hospital "facilities" and service, but not necessarily to run a hospital.

"The best option is to sell," said Nystrom, adding, "It will create tax base for Wayne County, the city of Westland and the school district (Wayne-Westland)."

An audit report by Touche Ross & Co. said WCGH revenues are running $14 million less than its $84 million expenses while hospitals of similar size normally have operating surpluses of $1.3 million or more.

"SOME FACTORS can be controlled by hospital management while other factors are not controllable because they are governed by county policies or by agreements with labor unions," said the administration's summary of the Touche Ross report.

The auditors put heavy emphasis on WCGH's labor costs, which it said were 50 percent per employee higher than at other area hospitals.

WCGH employs approximately 1,125 persons, nearly one-third of Wayne County general government's 3,500. Any buyer or lessee, said Nystrom, will need staff and would probably hire many of the current hospital employees.

He added that one prospective purchaser already said it could operate the program with 500 fewer staff members.

The Lucas Administration's decision to negotiate sale or lease had been preceded for months by statements that the county would have to cease operating the hospital unless major contract concessions were made by the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), which represents about 900 of the staff. No concessions were made.

A MAJOR reason cited by consultants for continued county operation was care of the indigent (persons with neither insurance, government programs nor cash to pay their bills).

But Nystrom underscored a Touche Ross finding that "only 6.3 percent of all inpatients treated at WCGH are indigent. . . . In most cases, it is likely that these patients could receive treatment at other hospitals covered under the Wayne County T-83 program or other medical assistance programs.

Bill Blass

This is Bill Blass for after dark. Fashion that takes its cue from the subtler shapes of day, then is elevated by Blass to the wonder of night! His night-sweater — just a simple shrug of chenille, really — that becomes all an evening top should ever be. Sleek, sensuous, body-aware, with just a glimmer of black sequins to lead you on to the dazzle that reigns below: the all-sequined stark-straight skirt. The line of it...what could be more unassuming. The brilliance of it...what could be more riveting! Needless to say — hurry sundown! The sweater of rayon and silk chenille; the skirt of rayon. For sizes 4 to 14; *1960. In the Bill Blass Boutique, Third Floor.

Wednesday through Thursday in Troy, Friday and Saturday in Fairlane, our special representative will present a trunk showing of the Bill Blass collection for fall/winter '83.

We invite you to attend for "A Touch of Blass", a gala dinner party and fashion show to benefit the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts on Tuesday, July 12th from 6:30 pm to 12:30 am in Somerset Mall, Troy. Tickets are $75.00 each. Call 833-7969 for information.

Alcohol series to be offered

A six-part series on alcohol and alcoholism will be offered beginning Wednesday, July 20, by Plymouth Family Service.

Topics will include attitudes, physiological effects of alcohol, and the symptoms, phases of alcoholism, with special emphasis on alcohol and the family.

The family emphasis will stress what happens to family members, spouse and children who are caught up in an alcoholic family system and how to get help.

There also will be a discussion at the end of the series on what is needed to help the substance abuser.

The series will be presented through diagrams, films, discussion and lecture.

Anyone who is or has been concerned or uncomfortable with their own drinking or that of a family member would benefit from attending the series, says Director David Brodeen, as well as anyone who grew up in a home where there was a problematic alcohol use.

Cost of the series is $15 per person and $20 for a couple or per family. Anyone interested or wanting more information may call Plymouth Family Service at 455-0890.

Enrollment is limited. Plymouth Family Service, besides offering the alcohol awareness series, also provides on-going individual, marital and family counseling.

Feldkamp assumes Rotary presidency

Dr. Lee Feldkamp has assumed the presidency of the Rotary Club of Plymouth.

Feldkamp was among the new officers for the 1983-84 year installed at the club's annual State of the Club Banquet held recently in the Mayflower Meeting House.

Other officers installed were: Kenneth Hulsing, vice president; C. Gordon Shaw, secretary; and Don Morgan, treasurer.

The directors of Plymouth Rotary include Gerald Farrell, Charles Olson, John F. Vos III, Russell F. Hoisington, Dr. James Carney, and immediate past president Gerard Loiselle. Robert J. Sincok is executive secretary.

The Rotary Club of Plymouth, which meets each Friday at noon in the Meeting House, was founded in 1924 and is in District 840 of Rotary International.

FELDKAMP WAS born on a centennial farm near Ypsilanti and spent his early life in Saline and Ypsilanti, graduating from Ypsilanti High School 50 years ago and from the University of Michigan Medical School in 1940. Throughout high school and college, Feldkamp was active in music and was a member of the U-M Marching Band and concert band.

After graduation, his hospital training was at Grace Hospital in Detroit followed by a tour of military duty as a medical reserve officer serving in the United States and in the European theater of war until returning to civilian life as a major in 1946. He was the recipient of the Bronze Star for meritorious service.

Since 1946, Feldkamp has been active in family practice, beginning in Detroit and moving his office to Plymouth in 1954. He is a charter fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians and has served as president of the Michigan chapter and director of the national organization. He is a staff member of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Married to Rita, president of the Rotary Anna, the two have 10 children and 11 grandchildren. A member of Plymouth Rotary since 1966, he completed 17 years of perfect attendance last month and is a Paul Harris Fellow.

LET'S STEP OUTSIDE!

A short trip, perhaps, to partake of sun, fresh air and a made-ahead dinner of charm and elegance

Before the time of balconies on city co-ops and suburban condos, and tiny patios attached to garden apartments, outdoor eating was a different scene.

It had mainly to do with backyards, camp sites and beaches, charcoal grills, hamburgers and franks.

No more. The scenario has changed. More specifically, there has been an evolutionary expansion in al fresco eating. People coming home from work, or even from the golf course to their leisure retirement complexes, aren't that much interested in starting a fire. Sure, they want to eat outside. But differently. More to their taste, in both senses of the word.

The meal is ready. It has been prepared ahead of time—even, perhaps, the night before—in a small kitchen. Quickly, efficiently, with products that are readily available and easily handled. It's a delicious, and, yes, elegant, dinner that can be set out in a relaxed manner before four or six old friends or potential new ones from the next concrete slab or brick patio.

If only one special person is there to share the air and the ambiance, the dishes pictured here can be prepared for two (see recipes below). With the exception, that is, of the sensational cookie-cake. And no need to worry about what's left over from that. It won't be left for long.

To start the meal there's a frozen appetizer cubed out from the freezer tray where it had been "setting." It sets the tone for what's to come. First a pre-dinner Angostura Iced Tea is offered, a sprightly version of an old favorite... low calorie, low sodium, aromatic and refreshing. Angostura aromatic bitters, as almost everyone knows, is a blend of many different rare herbs and spices that is used to make drinks and foods taste better.

The main dish is a South African rock lobster tail salad, with the flavorful rock lobster meat mixture piled back into the bright red shells and held, ready for service, in the refrigerator. The meat is tender, sweet and juicy because this succulent seafood comes from the ice-cold waters off the southwest coast of South Africa.

A green salad, of course. But then comes dessert! Packaged cookies from the supermarket are transformed without the need of a heated oven into an extraordinary cookie-cake that is as beautiful to look at as it is almost sinfully luxurious to taste.

At such an outdoor event, iced tea is a before, during and after dinner refreshment and extraordinary libation. On a fragrant summer evening, everyone wants to start right and prolong the pleasure as indefinitely as possible. Offer another glass in the cool of the evening when everybody is satiated with good food but doesn't really want to leave. Or make the drink Iced Tea Angostura again; it will not be dull, any more than the company and conversation will be.

FROZEN TOMATO APPETIZER

- 3 cups tomato juice
- 1-1/2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1-1/2 teaspoons sugar
- 1 bay leaf
- 1 teaspoon Angostura aromatic bitters
- 1 small onion, sliced
- 1 stalk celery, minced
- 1-1/2 teaspoons minced parsley
- 1-1/2 teaspoons chili sauce
- 1-1/2 teaspoons horseradish
- Scallion brushes, garnish

Combine all ingredients in a saucepan except scallion brushes; heat 5 minutes. Strain and pour tomato mixture into an 8-inch square baking pan. Freeze 4 to 6 hours, stirring frequently, until mixture resembles sherbet. Press firmly into pan; cover and freeze until solid. To serve, cut tomato mixture into 1/2-inch cubes; spoon into stemmed glasses and garnish with scallion brushes. Makes 6 servings.

FOR TWO SERVINGS: use 1 cup tomato juice, 1/2 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1 bay leaf, 1/2 teaspoon Angostura bitters, 1/2 small onion, sliced, 1 stalk celery, minced, and season in proportion with remaining ingredients.

SOUTH AFRICAN ROCK LOBSTER TAIL SALAD

- 6 frozen South African Rock Lobster Tails (4 ounces each)
- 1 bay leaf
- 4 whole peppercorns
- 1 cup mayonnaise
- 1/2 cup plain whole milk yogurt
- 1-1/2 teaspoons lemon juice
- 2 teaspoons finely chopped onion
- 1/4 cup chopped pimiento
- 1 teaspoon finely chopped parsley
- 1/4 teaspoon crushed celery seed

Drop frozen South African Rock Lobster Tails, bay leaf and peppercorn into boiling salted water. When water reboils, cook for 5 minutes. Drain, discard bay leaf and peppercorns; drench lobster tails with cold water and cut away underside membrane. Remove meat and reserve shells; chill and dice meat. Mix remaining ingredients together and stir in lobster meat. Spoon back into shells; chill thoroughly. Makes 6 servings.

FOR TWO SERVINGS: use 2 frozen rock lobster tails, 1 bay leaf, 2 whole peppercorns, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 1/4 cup plain yogurt and season in proportion with remaining ingredients.

ICED TEA ANGOSTURA

- 2 quarts iced tea
- 2 cans (8-oz.) each frozen orange juice concentrate
- 2 tablespoons Angostura aromatic bitters
- Lemon slices

Combine iced tea, orange juice concentrate and bitters. Blend well. Pour over ice cubes and garnish with lemon slices. Makes about 12 servings. Recipe may be halved.

CINNAMON CHOCOLATE MOUSSE CAKE

- 5-1/2 squares (5-1/2 ounces) semi-sweet baking chocolate
- 6-1/2 tablespoons butter, cut into small pieces
- 3 large egg yolks
- 3 large egg whites
- 5 teaspoons sugar
- 1 cup heavy cream
- 2 packages (7-1/4 ounces each) Cinnamon Sugar Cookies
- 1/2 cup non-dairy whipped topping or whipped cream (optional for garnish)
- 6 Pepperidge Farm Chocolate-laced pirouettes (optional for garnish)

To make chocolate mousse:

Melt chocolate in the top of a double boiler over simmering water. Remove from heat and stir in butter until melted; beat in egg yolks, one at a time, until mixture is smooth and creamy. Transfer to a large bowl. Using an electric mixer, beat egg whites at high speed until soft peaks form. Gradually add sugar and beat until stiff. Add egg whites to chocolate mixture. Beat heavy cream with electric mixer until stiff. Add to chocolate mixture and fold in until mixture is smooth.

To assemble cake:

Arrange 7 cookies on a serving platter in a flower shape, using some chocolate mousse to "glue" them to the platter. (See diagram) Spread cookies with about 1/2 to 3/4 cup mousse; top with another layer of cookies. Repeat until four layers of cookies have been used for cake (there will be two cookies left over). Frost top and sides of cake with remaining mousse. Cover and chill cake for 12 to 18 hours or until cookies have softened to a cake-like consistency. To serve, pipe cream around top edge of cake and press pirouettes vertically between flower petals. Makes 1 cake, 8 servings.

Cookie Arrangement

ICED TEA — THREE EASY WAYS

The Traditional Way (with boiling water): Bring 1 quart of freshly drawn cold water to a full rolling boil in a saucepan. Remove from heat and immediately add 1/3 cup loose tea or 15 teabags. Cover and let stand 5 minutes. Stir again and strain into a pitcher holding another quart of cold water. To serve, pour into ice-filled glasses.

The Overnight Way (with cold water): Fill a quart jar or container with freshly drawn cold water. Add 8 to 10 teabags, removing the tags. Cover and let stand at room temperature or in the refrigerator at least 6 hours or overnight. Remove bags, squeezing against side of container. To serve, pour over ice.

The Instant Way (with instant tea or the iced tea mixes): Follow directions on jar or envelope. In general, use 2 rounded tablespoons of instant tea powder for each quart of cold water. Or 1/2 cup (or 2 small envelopes) of lemon-flavored iced tea mix to a quart of cold water.

Try versatile crab meat

Crab meat may seem expensive, but this delicious seafood lends itself to use as an extender item in many recipes, which keeps your cost per serving economical. You can combine crab meat with other foods to make omelettes, crepes, patties, casseroles, sandwich spreads, salads and quiches, to name just a few.

In Virginia, the state which provides about one-third of the nation's blue crab meat, blue crabs are in season from spring through fall. However, you can find fresh refrigerated crab meat in stores year-round, thanks to a pasteurization process that keeps crab meat in fresh quality condition for about six months.

Pasteurized crab meat is pre-cooked and ready to eat because the meat is picked from crabs that have been thoroughly steamed. Cold from the refrigerator, blue crab meat is a perfect extender item in salads, such as in the recipe below. It's also a fine extender item in heated dishes, as in this Virginia recipe for a blue crab meat quiche:

BLUE CRAB MEAT QUICHE

- 1 lb. blue crab meat
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 2 tbsp. flour
- 2 beaten eggs
- 1/2 cup milk
- 8 oz. Swiss cheese, grated
- 1/2 cup onion, chopped or sliced
- 1-inch prepared pie crust

Remove any shell or cartilage from crab meat. Combine mayonnaise, flour, beaten eggs and milk; mix until blended. Stir in crab meat, cheese and onions. Pour filling into pie crust. Bake at 350 until set, approximately 40-45 minutes.

CRAB MEAT SALAD

- (6 servings)
- 1 lb. fresh crab meat
  - 1 medium green pepper, chopped
  - 1/2 tsp. celery seed
  - 1/2 cup mayonnaise
  - 1 tsp. mustard
  - 1 tsp. seafood seasoning
  - 1 tsp. vinegar
  - 1 tsp. sugar
  - Dash hot sauce
- Garnish: parsley, tomato

Remove any shell or cartilage from crab meat. Combine all ingredients, mix well. Shape mixture in a mound on serving dish, garnish with parsley and tomato, and serve.

Grilled steak doesn't have to be expensive

Mmmmm — steak on the grill! This is truly one of the joys of the cookout season. Fortunately for the food budget, there are a number of steaks that are great on the grill, yet inexpensively priced.

One of the best cookout buys in the meat case is beef blade steak. While this steak is from the less tender chuck section, it can be broiled with tender results when first marinated in a liquid containing an acid food such as lemon juice, vinegar or wine. For tenderness sake, it is also best if the steak is cooked just to rare or medium.

For a gourmet approach to marinated blade steak on the grill, try Peppery Beef Steak, inspired by the French classic Steak au Poivre.

- ### PEPPERY BEEF STEAK
- 2 beef blade steaks, cut 1/4 inch thick
  - 1/2 cup brandy
  - 1/4 cup water

- 1/4 cup lemon juice
- 1/4 cup salad oil
- 2 tbsp. sugar
- 1 tsp. onion salt
- 1 tsp. salt
- 2 tbsp. crushed black peppercorns

Combine brandy, water, lemon juice, oil, sugar, onion salt and salt. Place steaks in utility dish or plastic bag; add marinade, turning to coat. Cover dish and marinate in refrigerator 8 to 8 hours (or overnight), turning at least once. Remove steaks from marinade and press crushed peppercorns into surface of both sides. Place steaks on grill over ash-covered coals (or on rack on broiler pan) so surface of meat is 4 inches from heat. Broil at moderate temperature 7 to 10 minutes on each side, depending on degree of doneness desired (rare or medium). 6 servings.

Crab meat is a delicious way to extend menus.

To save your recipes, you just jot them down

"Your article (on Waldorf salad) prompted this letter," writes Dorothy Farland of Southfield. "There is an answer to your problem of saving recipes, called The Jot-It Cookbook."

Dorothy refers to a column earlier this year when I finally put down for posterity the recipe my wife seemed to misplace everytime she wanted to prepare the salad.

"This notebook is just what its name implies — a place to 'jot' recipes . . ." explains the retired school teacher who was a cook in the WACs during World War II. "The) recipeless cookbook . . . eliminates yellowing notes and tiny, hard-to-read recipe cards. The fill-in pages . . . make a 'do-it-yourself' cookbook."

THE JOT-IT is divided into snacks and beverages; bread and rolls, soups, hot and cold; casseroles; meat, poultry, fish and eggs; salads, fruit, vegetable and molded.

The ingredients are printed; there are spaces to fill in the quantity. There is plenty of room to jot down the instructions.

There were several preprinted recipes in The Jot-It Dorothy sent me. She also loves to cook and eat, she confided.

I bet she has a room full of Jot-Its — filled.

GRENADINE PEAR SALAD

- 3 tbsp. clear gelatin

- 1/4 cup cold water
- 2 cups pineapple juice, heated
- 1/4 cup orange juice
- 1 cup grenadine
- 1/2 cup lemon juice
- 8 pear halves
- Lettuce leaves
- Sour cream dressing

Dissolve gelatin in cold water and add to hot pineapple juice. Add orange juice, grenadine and lemon juice, let cool. Pour liquid over pears in mold and chill. Unmold on lettuce leaves and serve with sour cream dressing. Serves 4.

THE PLYMOUTH

Waterball Team brought home the trophy after the big waterball fight in Northville July 4. The battle was fought on the grounds of the Ford plant after the Northville Fourth of July Parade.

Members of the Plymouth team, all volunteer firefighters, are Bob Steinebach, Dave Tabacca, Bob Johns and Dave Pelley with Bruce (the terrible) Burow up front as nozzlemans. Bob Steinebach said he adds "the terrible" to instill fear in their opponents.

The home team feels the trophy belongs here. After all, the special fire extinguisher award was donated originally by Bruce's father-in-law, Paul Sanders. Sandy was a captain in the Plymouth Fire Department before his retirement.

MINA PAREKH was pleased with the turnout for the grand opening of her new shop in Forest Place. Traffic has been constant in Her Closet 'n' Gifts with its wide variety of women's clothing imported from India. Fabrics are colorful Indian cottons and silks with some very interesting batik skirts and scarves. She also has bed spreads, mats and gift items.

Mina, a Canton Township resident, says the carved shell rings that retail for $1 actually come from Florida. But the rest of her merchandise is made in India.

MARY ELLEN Kenyon had high score at the June 20 party bridge games in the Plymouth Cultural Center on Farmer Street. Carl Peters came in second.

FRED AND OLGA Delano were in Dowagiac for Fred's 40th year high school class reunion. Fred said it was his first high school reunion — the first he had attended, that is. He had gone to class reunions at the University of Michigan but by comparison, he said, there is something very special about a small-town high school reunion.

"Olga enjoyed it, too," he said. "And she hadn't met any of them before the party."

COLONY SWIM Club will have a luau-pig roast the evening of Friday, July 22 for members and guests. Pam Anderson, social director of the swim club, is planning what is referred to as "a deliciously catered event."

Al's Bar-B-Q is catering the luau. They will begin roasting the pig Friday afternoon at the club — to have it ready for the 7:30 p.m. feast. If the weather is bad, the luau will move to the Colony Farms barn, which has been reserved for the evening.

More than 80 reservations have been accepted so far, and they are expecting the number to reach 100. Cost is $20 per couple.

A GROUP OF journalists from Brussels, Belgium was in town last week. They had been touring Michigan as part of the "Say Yes to Michigan" program. The Mayflower Hotel hosted visitors for their overnight stay in Plymouth and arranged a cocktail reception for them. This was the last leg of their tour of the state, which they said was beautiful. From here they were going to Greenfield Village and then home.

Two Ontario tour buses brought their passengers to Plymouth for the July 4th weekend. The Canadians love the parody on their money deal at the hotel and in participating shops.

IT COULD BE referred to as "The Case of the Unwanted Incinerator."

Jay and Pat McDonald tried to sell their incinerator at their yard sale, but there were no buyers. They left it out in their front yard with a $5 price tag on it. No one was interested. So, they put it out by the road, hoping someone would just take a free incinerator in good working order.

Finally, on the Fourth of July, while Jay and the older children were at the parade, someone picked up the incinerator.

So, what's the problem, you may ask.

They took the incinerator and replaced it with an old one, full of unburned trash. The McDonalds were not exactly enthusiastic about the exchange.

They were relieved Thursday morning when the trash collectors picked it up, ending their session with the unwanted incinerator.

John Hopkins (left) and Demetrios Papatriantafyllou of the New Hellas Cafe take a spin around Greektown with Rocky.

Greek Town welcomes John and Rocky

Greektown and Bricktown are old hat to Rocky now. After six weekends in downtown Detroit, the 14-year-old chestnut carriage horse takes it all in stride. John Hopkins, owner of Banbury Cross and Rocky, says the only horse-drawn cab in Detroit has been kept very busy. He wishes he had one or two more.

"Rocky has settled down. He looks around and checks it out," said Hopkins.

He did get off to a rather rocky start. Banbury Cross tours began Grand Prix weekend. Hopkins was harnessing Rocky and in the press of the crowd, someone took his buggy whip. Later in the evening, Hopkins spotted the culprit standing on a corner. He jumped out of the surrey and retrieved it before the man realized what was happening.

A group of street players — fire-eaters and jugglers — were performing on the corner of St. Antoine and Monroe. The crowd's applause at the end of the act startled Rocky. He reared up and backed the buggy into a parked car. The rubber tires did no damage so no harm was done.

Rocky is now equally at home on the streets of Plymouth and Detroit.

THE GREEK and Bricktown tours are available 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Hopkins gives a running description of the area to his passengers. "One couple took the tour three times one evening. They were back last weekend for another one."

He said 99 percent the people are "really nice." The less agreeable show up around 1 a.m.

When a couple from Montreal, Quebec engaged the surrey, Hopkins gave his first tour in French. He taught French in the Plymouth Canton Schools for many years. In fact, it was a trip to Quebec City with some of his French students, that was responsible for him founding Banbury Cross.

On Grand Prix weekend, a group of Germans in town for the race, took the tour in the surrey. When children are among passengers, he lets them take the reins for awhile.

Rocky and John have become a familiar part of the Greektown scene. Gus Anton and Demetrios Papatriantafyllou of the New Hellas restaurant treated Hopkins to lunch when he celebrated his 50th birthday.

INTEREST IN the horse-drawn surrey has been responsible for Hopkins' appearance on Marilyn Turner and John Kelly's "Good Afternoon, Detroit" television show.

J.P. McCarthy has helped spread the word on his morning radio show. In appreciation, Hopkins presented a check to J.P.'s favorite charity, the Police Athletic League. The $100 was the result of a special P.A.L. Day benefit arranged by Hopkins and Banbury Cross.

Hopkins started the carriage business in Plymouth with rides for brunch guests at the Mayflower Meeting House. He has several types of carriages and these still are available for weddings, wedding anniversaries, parties and special events.

Detroit Mayor Coleman Young was a passenger last July when he was transported from the City-County Building to a dedication of the Mary Trowbridge House on East Jefferson in Detroit. At that time, Hopkins discussed the possibility of carriage rides in Greektown. The mayor said it was a good idea.

Hopkins credits Jack Kelly, Detroit councilman, and Esther Shapiro, director of the Department of Consumer Affairs, with being very helpful in solving the bureaucratic problems involved in establishing the tours.

Alvin Folger completes 3-year Nissan assignment

With the successful launch of the Job 1 truck at the Nissan Motor Manufacturing Corp., U.S.A., Alvin G. Folger is making plans to complete his three-year assignment. Folger is vice president for engineering of the Japanese-owned company in Smyrna, Tenn.

The former Plymouth resident joined Nissan Oct. 1, 1980 immediately following his retirement from Ford Motor Co. His responsibilities with Nissan include design, construction and equipping the 3.3-million-square-foot facility. The Smyrna plant is considered to be the most technologically advanced automotive facility in the world with state-of-the-art computer, communications and robot systems.

FOLGER BEGAN his automotive career in 1947 with Ford's Atlanta, Ga. assembly plant. He had served in World War II as a pilot, spending 1½ years in the U.S. Air Force in Japan.

He went from Atlanta to management posts with Ford in Georgia, Texas and Michigan, including positions as plant manager and chief engineer of truck assembly.

His most recent post, before joining Nissan, was director of plant engineering, with corporate responsibility for Ford's construction and other plant-engineering activities worldwide.

Folger received his bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from Georgia Institute of Technology after graduating from North Georgia College, Dahlonega.

HE HAS been an active member of the construction activities committee of the Engineering Society of Detroit. He has served as group chairman of the United Foundation of Detroit and is a member of the Tennessee Technological University Board of Engineering advisers and the Nashville West End Methodist Church Administrative Board.

Born in Sparta, N.C., Folger is married to the former Elizabeth ("Bet") King of Fort Gaines, Ga. They have three children: A. Gray Folger Jr., research scientist, Solar Energy Research Institute, Golden, Colo.; Caroline Logsdon, teacher, George Peabody College for Teachers of Vanderbilt University; and William Paul Folger, manager, financial analysis, American Airlines, Dallas, Texas.

The Folgers also have a 3-year-old grandson, Nathan Gray Logsdon.

Surrey rides near Ren-Cen

INSPECTOR Patrick Muscat, head of the mounted division of the Detroit Police Department, also helped pave the way. He gave Rocky and Hopkins their driver's test and approved the special license.

Sometimes, Hopkins wishes he had five more carriages.

"We've been super busy. People get tired waiting and become frustrated and leave before we return. I'm waiting for a harness for Flair to spell off Rocky. It's being made in Indiana."

Sea Flair is a Morgan. Rocky, named for the Plymouth Rocks, is a pacer. His real name is Moon Star's Glory Boy.

Hopkins has hopes of finding stable space in the Ren-Cen area. He and Rocky have been commuting from Plymouth to Detroit. He also would like to have the tour tickets on sale at several shops or restaurants in the Bricktown/Greektown area.

"Angelo Plakas and John Thomas introduced me to Greektown years ago when we were teaching. They made a Greek out of me and I've loved the food ever since," said Hopkins. Now he and Rocky are adding to the color of the most popular section of old Detroit.

Potent Wayne stars top Oakland

By C.J. Risak
staff writer

MIDWAY THROUGH the second half of Saturday's first-ever Observer & Eccentric Girls' All-Star Soccer Classic, Jennifer Huegli laughed as she described the goal scored just minutes before.

"You were on the ground, then the next thing I know the ball's in the net," Huegli said. "My God, what've you got — six legs?"

The tall, lean player Huegli was speaking to was sitting on the bench next to her, hot but still smiling after nearly 50 minutes of soccer in 85-degree mugginess against the best prep players in Oakland County.

Mary Kay Hussey, a modest sophomore from Livonia Stevenson, had much to smile about. Her Wayne County All-Star team had just blown its Oakland County counterparts apart. A four-goal burst in a seven-minute stretch early in the second half was the clincher in a 7-1 triumph before a crowd of 302 at Stevenson.

HUSSEY, FOR her part, filled the role Huegli described quite well. Her "six legs" came in handy, since she played every position on the field except goalie. Where she was most effective, however, was around the Oakland net.

The star from the state champion Stevenson squad poured in three of the four goals and assisted on the other in the second-half surge as Wayne pulled away from a 2-0 halftime lead to a 6-0 advantage.

Her exploits earned her the game's Most Valuable Player honors. She finished with three goals and three assists.

"They're all good," Oakland coach Mike Ruddy said of the Wayne stars. "But (Hussey) may be the best. She can do a lot of stuff well. She can play any position, and she's big, strong and fast."

It was a description that could readily fit any of the stars from either team. If there was a key difference between the two squads in this game, it was in finishing the play. Wayne converted most of its chances. Oakland didn't.

THE NUMBER of scoring opportunities made a difference too. Wayne was forever pressing, and that eventually, paid off.

Lisa Rigstad got the game's first goal on a superb pass from Hussey that split the Oakland defenders. Rigstad dribbled in alone and buried the ball in the net behind Oakland goalkeeper Cheryl Kusza of Troy Athens 16:00 into the first half. Livonia Churchill's Dorene Dudek also drew an assist.

Three minutes later, Hussey again popped the ball over the Oakland defense, and Shelly Staszal converted it into a goal for a 2-0 Wayne lead.

Throughout the opening half the pressure kept mounting, much of it coming from Staszal at her wing position. The Plymouth Salem Junior's crossing passes to the net gave her teammates lots of scoring chances, and in the second half they started cashing in.

"One of our problems is that we don't have a true sweeperback on the team," Ruddy said during the game. "They're geared to attack, while our game is more balanced. But that's probably something we should have worked on more — defending the crosses."

THREE OF WAYNE'S five goals in the second half were set up by Staszal crossing passes from the corner. Hussey scored at 42 minutes on a Staszal pass, then Karen Felts of Garden City punched in a rebound with Hussey and Stevenson senior Andrea Bokos assisting at 45:00.

Hussey then got two rapid-fire goals, the first at 47:00 on a great pass from Staszal and the second two minutes later on a fine play set up by Bokos.

"And she wasn't good enough to make All-State," was all Wayne coach Norene Divens would say about Hussey.

Staszal got another assist after sending a pass across to Stevenson's Leasa Kilz, who booted it in at 61:00 for a 7-0 lead.

WHILE THE WAYNE offense pressured, its defense thwarted nearly all the Oakland scoring chances. Farmington Harrison's Sue Ferguson must have felt snake bit — a goal was taken from her in the first half when referees ruled the ball hit the football crossbar above the net and was out of bounds before it rebounded to her.

In the second half, it wasn't a crossbar that kept Ferguson from scoring. It was Wayne goalie Cathy Greig, a Livonia Bentley sophomore. Three times Ferguson unleashed solid shots at the Wayne net, and three times Greig made super saves.

Ferguson finally did get the ball past Greig, scoring at 69:00 after taking a pass from Troy's Ericka Johnson and dribbling past three Wayne defenders.

But it wasn't enough. In this match, anyway, it was the Wayne stars that sparkled brightest.

The look of anguish on Jennifer Huegli's face was replaced by smiles and cheers later on as Wayne dismantled Oakland, 7-1, in the first-ever Observer & Eccentric All-Star Girls' Soccer Classic Saturday.

A grimacing Debbie Wojtaszek takes a jolt from Wayne's Jennifer Huegli.

Red-hot local squads cool Wolverine foes

By C.J. Neak
staff writer

Talk about intense. That describes the fourth annual Wolverine Invitational Soccer Tournament, played last weekend at Schoolcraft College and Livonia's Bicentennial and Jaycee parks. The competition, the weather and the play of four particular local teams were at a peak during the three-day event.

Those four teams — the 14 and under WSSL Livonia Spartan girls, 19 and under FLIP Rowdie girls, 12 and under Livonia Arsenal boys and 14 and under Division II WSSL Livonia Kick boys — all claimed division championships during the 1983-team tournament.

THE WSSL SPARTANS earned their title by beating a rival Livonia and Bonanza Express Soccer League (BESL) squad, the Hawks, 4-2 in the finals.

The Spartans trailed, 2-1, with 10 minutes to play after the Hawks' Jenny Flowers punched home two straight goals. But Kristy McMinn, who scored the Spartans' first goal, tied it and Lori Green got the game-winner with five minutes left. Shelly Virva added an insurance tally with two minutes remaining.

The Spartans advanced to the finals after beating the Troy Lightning, 5-2, in the semis, with McMinn again scoring twice. Meanwhile, the Hawks nipped the Troy Metics, 2-1 in overtime. The Metics were BESL division champs, finishing ahead of both the Spartans and the Hawks.

THE FLIP ROWDIES — a team of girls from Farmington, Livonia and Plymouth — got superb goaltending from Doreen Beagle and clutch scoring from Doreen Dudek in the final two games to win their division.

The FLIP Rowdies blanked the Warren Rowdies in the semifinals, 2-0, with Dudek and Jenny Gans netting goals. In the finals, the local squad prevailed by a 4-1 margin over the Philippians from Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dudek poured in a pair of goals in the title contest, with Shelly Stassel and Lisa Rigstad each adding single tallies.

FOR THE LIVONIA ARSENAL, it was a battle all the way, but they emerged with top honors. The Arsenal slipped past the Central Ohio Wings in the title contest, 2-1, in an overtime shootout.

Scott Ryan scored Arsenal's goal in regulation and, after a scoreless overtime period, Michael Schroer got the game-winning goal in the shootout. Jim Harkins was superb in the net for the Arsenal, with help from defenders John Balley, Rob Keller, Mark Thomas Jr., Andre Monstur, David Probst, Billy Parks and Mike Patcch.

The semifinal game was another tight victory for the Arsenal, with Kevin Zschak's goal late in the second half the only score of a 1-0 triumph over the Windsor (Ontario) United Police.

THE WSSL KICKS claimed the 14 and under Division II boys championship by beating the Livonia Diamonds in the finals.

Other division winners were, for the boys: Major Atom from London, Ontario, in 10 and under; Troy Tornado in 14 and under Division I; Blue Water Blast from Sarnia, Ontario, in 16 and under; and Northville Arsenal in 19 and under.

For the girls, winners were: Lakota (Ohio) All-Stars in 10 and under; Kuemmerling Tree Service from Dayton, Ohio, in 12 and under; and the Wheaton (Maryland) Panthers in 16 and under.

BILL BRESLER/staff photographer

The Wolverine IV Soccer Tournament at Schoolcraft College attracted teams from all over the country. The action was fast and furious in the boys 19 and under division with Gus Flores (top) of fourth place Kansas City (Mo.) Juventus hurdling Queen City Rocket (Ohio) defender Dave Lang.

League leader rallies in Collegiate deadlock

baseball

"It was our worst game of the year so far," said Roger George, manager of Redford-Westland Adray.

But Livonia Collegiate Baseball League (LCBL) leaders didn't lose, nor did they win. A two-run homer by Kevin Stanisz in the bottom of the seventh inning enabled RWA to gain a 6-6 tie with Ann Arbor Wendy's in a game played Wednesday at Capitol Park.

The game was halted after seven innings because of a time limit.

RWA out-hit Wendy's 14-6, but left 11 runners stranded.

Both Stanisz and Carl Ruffino each had two hits. Jim Zentgraf and John Hetkowski added two apiece.

Mickey Madsen paced Wendy's by going 2-for-4.

Jamie Chilcoff, the starter for Wendy's, went all the way. Charlie Johnson, who struck out 12 in six innings, and John Paz worked for RWA.

LIVONIA ADRAY moved into second place ahead of Wendy's with a 4-2 win over Walter's Appliance on Wednesday at Ford Field.

Livonia, which collected only two hits off losing pitcher Jack Ford, used a pair of double steals to post the victory. Mike MacDonald, who worked all seven innings for Livonia, was the winning pitcher. He fanned six, scattered five hits and walked three.

Dan Henig went 2-for-3 in a losing cause.

MICHIGAN NATIONAL BANK used an RBI single by Clint Scollard in the top of the ninth inning to beat Garden City, 4-3.

The winners collected eight hits, two each by Dean Fracassi and Jim Bouchner.

Lead-off batter Brett Emery and Mike Krauss combined for all four GC hits.

Tim Bunker was the winning pitcher. He came on in relief in the seventh inning.

Tim Goralaki started, but was relieved by Andy Robertson in the sixth when Garden City loaded the bases with two out. Robertson thwarted the threat getting a pop-out to Fracassi.

Mark Gnielew, who pitched all nine innings for Garden City, took the loss.

Loni Anderson is a virtuous Sunday school teacher, who draws the attentions of racy race-car driver Stroker Ace.

Comedy misfires in 'Stroker Ace'

There was a time when Burt Reynolds showed a flair for light comedy. Judging from "Stroker Ace" (PG), that flair for light comedy has turned into a passion for moronic activity.

The first 15 minutes of "Stroker Ace" provides all the evidence one needs for this assessment. Reynolds is Stroker, who races stock cars on the Southern circuit. Jim Nabors is his chief mechanic, Lugs. Stroker is a vain, simple-minded, overheated slob. The mere sight of an attractive woman is enough to make him dive out of his car and chase after her, even at the start of a race.

Loni Anderson is the woman he dives for most often. The big joke (ha, ha) in this movie is that she is a Sunday-school teacher. She doesn't drink, and she's a virgin.

She also is the public-relations representative for Clyde Torkle (Ned Beatty), owner of a chain of Chicken Pit restaurants.

IN A RASH MOMENT, Stroker signs a contract with Beatty, who becomes his sponsor in stock-car races. The catch is that Stroker is obligated to various humbling and humiliating experiences. He must take part in the ribbon-cutting ceremony at each new Chicken Pit and wear a chicken suit while racing.

Hal Needham directed this action-comedy, which misses on both counts — action and comedy. In Reynolds' "Smokey" movies, which Needham directed, there were wild chase scenes and breathtaking stunts. Nothing like that occurs here.

The auto races in "Stroker Ace" are totally boring, dully staged and ineptly photographed. They would put an insomniac to sleep.

Reynolds and Needham seem to have grown complacent with their previous successes. Just get the gang together, they must figure, let Reynolds hop into a souped-up car, drive around a track a few times and, bingo, there's a movie. No way.

"Stroker Ace" has nothing going for it. The plot is slight, the characters are obnoxious, and the comedy is almost up to the level of a picture post card of an outbush. It's actually an embarrassment to see a fine actor like Ned Beatty making a jackass of himself in this movie.

ALTHOUGH I HAVE never been a great fan of the "Smokey" movies, at least they were entertaining. They had some memorable characterizations, especially Jackie Gleason's sheriff, and they had Sally Field as a woman with enough intelligence to make the relationship with Reynolds interesting.

In "Stroker Ace," Reynolds and Anderson are both dim bulbs, a fact which dampens interest in that relationship. This also is a movie which puts down women at every opportunity. One of the running jokes is that Stroker doesn't remember the names of any of "his women."

Stroker is just not a character that merits our attention. Whether or not he gets out of his contract with Torkle or continues to race wearing a chicken suit aren't elements of tension or suspense. That leaves Stroker and his Chicken Pits sitting high on the dung heap of dumb movies.

Burt Reynolds in Stroker Ace, a woman-chaser on the racing circuit, who meets his match in dim-witted public-relations gal Pam Brock, played by Anderson.

Crystal Gallery reopens for 'Sunday Afternoon'

"Sunday Afternoon" has reopened the Detroit Institute of Arts' newly restored Crystal Gallery from 1-4 p.m. Sunday and continues each Sunday, year round, excepting holidays.

Area pianist Ben Bonnier performs light classics and jazz, as well as current popular music and the best of Broadway, at the antique grand piano especially selected for Crystal Gallery.

Guests are offered a menu of pastries, desserts, exotic coffees and teas, and a variety of specialty beverages — champagne cocktails, bloody marys, mimosaes, and others — with prices ranging from $1.50-$4. Cover charge is $1.50 per person. No reservations are necessary.

Crystal Gallery, closed for six months, has been completely restored to the neo-classic style of its original opening in 1928. Located in the upper level of the theater, the four-story room is mirrored at each end, reflecting period toile chandeliers and floor-to-ceiling velvet wall and window drapery against faux marble wall detail.

NEW LINENS, table service and hand-woven carpeting repeat the intricately painted ceiling motif to provide a coordinated setting.

These wineries excel in California

First of 2 parts

People who are relatively neutral in the wine business, i.e., writers and merchants, are frequently asked about their favorite wines or wineries. These are fair questions.

After all, if either has done some homework, he or she is in a position to offer some decent opinions. Both should attempt to maintain a breadth of scope and knowledge that the typical consumer cannot. It is a responsibility to do so.

This writer, an admitted California chauvinist, keeps close surveillance on that scene. So, no hesitation here in sharing judgments based on drinking the products of a great many California wineries (now more than 500 of them bonded, at least 200 available in Michigan).

Shape the question to read: Which California wineries traditionally offer the highest, consistent quality for the money? (All such listings are dangerous. Some excellent wineries will be left out, perhaps unfairly.) Year in and out, through time, these get my vote, my list of the Sweet Sixteen:

BERLINGER Vineyards (Napa) — Holder of perhaps the most distinguished winemaker in California, Myron Nightingale, it has made tremendous strides the last few years. Some great recent cabernets and chardonnays, almost all other wines at least very good.

Burgess Cellars (Napa) — Always excellent releases of cabernet, chardonnay and zinfandel. Not cheap, but excellent for that special bottle.

Concannon Vineyards (Livermore) — Recently acquired by a parent company. Time will tell if it maintains its past stability and value. Sauvignon blanc, petite sirah and excellent generic (burgundy and chablis), plus outstanding zinfandel rose are all worth trying, but anything it makes is a safe bet.

Fetzer Vineyards (Mendocino) — Probably my over-all most respected winery. Known especially for zinfandel, cabernet and petite sirah, it has recently made great strides with white wines as well.

Known for the wide range of zinfandel issues each year (at least four), it styles its wines with great differences, i.e., a Fetzer zinfandel may be light and fruity (Lake County) and another massive and tannic (Ricetti).

THE WHITES are as clean and forthright as the reds tend to be complex. Especially recommended in whites are the several chardonnays issued each vintage and its pinot blanc.

Firestone Vineyard (Santa Ynez Valley, Santa Barbara) — A sleeper. Always exciting chardonnay, gewurztraminer and relaying issues are increasingly being supported by complex cabernets and superior merlots. Excellent roses are regularly made from cabernet, pinot noir and merlot as well.

E&J Gallo (Modesto, Central Valley) — Whether with its premium varietals (especially chardonnay, cabernet, sauvignon blanc) or its lower-priced generics (heartily burgundy and chablis blanc), the brothers Gallo do not make any bad wine.

Allowing for tasting preference as it does, there's something here for everyone. At less than $4 for a 1.5-liter bottle, it is tough to beat in the value-per-dollar column.

HMR Vineyard (San Luis Obispo) — Recently extracted from financial disaster via external purchase, it is hoped the new owners will maintain previous levels of excellence, backed by fair prices.

PINOT NOIR, cabernet, chenin blanc, chardonnay, riesling and zinfandel

wine

del are all dependable and honest. It is one of the few to make a sylvaner (called franken) riesling.

Kenwood Vineyards (Sonoma) — Another renaissance story, it has always been known especially for red wines. Recent issues of cabernet (Jack London, Artist Series and regular) have been excellent to great, and the pinot noirs are full of good things in the bottle.

After a disastrous '79 chardonnay, it has since rapidly produced winners, especially the 1981. Good dry chenin blanc and some excellent, complex gewurztraminer as well.

Detroit Concert Band plays at shopping malls

Leonard B. Smith is conducting the Detroit Concert Band in a number of free concerts this season.

Free concerts include several at shopping centers, among them Northland in Southfield at 7 p.m. Thursday and Westland at 7 p.m. Friday. The band's free concert series at the Michigan State Fairgrounds in Detroit continues at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 3, 5-6, 10, 12-13.

Other free concerts in the area will be given at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, July 24, at the Livonia City Hall (the audience may bring lawn chairs) and 5 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 24, in Redford (location to be announced).

The band will play three more admission-type programs this summer at Meadow Brook Music Festival on the Oakland University campus near Rochester.

The band, which played at Meadow Brook on June 29, will play there at 8 p.m. Aug. 17, sponsored by General Motors Insurance Corp. For ticket information, call the box office, 377-2010. The band will perform at 8 p.m. Sept. 3-4 in concerts closing the Meadow Brook season, with a laser show and fireworks. For tickets at $13 pavilion, $8 lawn, phone the box office, 377-2010.

Fort to mark city's birthday

Detroit will be 282 years old Sunday, July 24, and the Detroit Historical Society Guild and Historic Fort Wayne will host a free, old-fashioned birthday party to celebrate.

Free birthday cake and a riverfront band concert, beginning at 6 p.m., will highlight the festivities.

Free guarded parking is available. For further information, call 297-9360.
