GUEST SPEAKER: Edgar A. Guest III will be the guest speaker Wednesday night for The Friends of the Plymouth Dining-Hough District Library beginning with a brief meeting at 7:30 p.m. and the talk at 8 p.m. in the Plymouth Cultural Center. Admission is $2 at the door or by Friends membership card. Nostalgia will be rekindled with "On the Sunny Side of the Street" as Guest will share his years with his father, as well as his personality. Before his recent death, Edgar A. Guest II of Sunny Side fame agreed to speak to the Friends of the Library. The younger Guest, who decided to honor his father's commitment to speak, also will share some of the stories of his grandfather, Edgar A. Guest. A graduate of Denison University, Guest III became an attorney, was the first public relations director for Michigan, and presently is the chief director and editor for the "Sunny Side" magazine. He is also publisher.

ROADER WINNER: Pat Warner of Plymouth claims driver for Plymouth Canton Community schools finished second recently in the 1985 Roader at the Romulus Vocational Center in Detroit. Warner now advances to the state competition which will be held in Easton Rapids to compete with 100 of the best drivers in the state.

AWSM and the Michigan Association for Paper Transportation sponsors the annual roader in which drivers are graded on their ability to drive a standard school bus in a narrow area, back into a stall, and perform other maneuvers. Drivers also are graded on verbal, written and behind-the-wheel knowledge of safety regulations for crossing railroad tracks, loading elementary pupils, and other routine driving situations.

SURE'S UP: Tickets now are on sale for the Plymouth Canton Plymouth Senior Party, Sun's Up. The party will be held at the Hill Auditorium.

Kevin Jeffery of Taylor and Kathy Maxey of Westland pause during a bicycle jaunt to look over a massive mess of logs and junk clogging the Rouge River at Merriman Hollow in Westland. Cleanup efforts next week are aimed at reducing some of the rubble that litters the Rouge.

Cleaning up

Massive effort targets Rouge

An extensive effort to reclaim the Rouge River has begun. The Detroit river in Michigan will be given a chance to return to its former glory when people fished from its shores, cruised along its banks and swam warm in its waters.

Various organizations, ranging from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources to Ford Motor Co., to small community groups, are involved in the 20-year project to clean up the 125-mile river which flows through 36 communities in Oakland and Wayne counties. Bill individual citizens play an important role in cleaning the Rouge, according to Bruce Monson, executive director of the Rouge River Watershed Council.

Rouge River Day, a cleanup and celebration of the river, is scheduled Saturday, July 7, at 17 different sites along the river.

Wayne County residents can pitch in at sites along Hines Drive near the Redford-Detroit border in Dearborn Heights or other locations further upstream or down Monson said. Registration information about the cleanup is available by calling 42 Rouge. Information about the project also will be discussed at 7:30 p.m. Monday, June 2, at Bentley High School, 15100 Hubbard Livonia.

A detailed look at the Rouge, its history, the people who live near it, the problems and planned solutions will be examined in a special Observer & Eclectic Newspaper section in Thursday's editions.

Keep it cool, grads urged

By Doug Funke and Diane Gale, staff writers

Now that high school graduates have learned the three R's, local police chiefs want to make sure they remember the three D's.

"We want to deliver the message 'Don't Drink and Drive,'" said Canton Police Chief John Santomuro. "We're saying have a good time, but if you drink and drive you will go to jail."

Plymouth, Plymouth Township and Canton police chiefs are waging a tough policy against students who get out of hand during the excitement of graduation festivities, especially when it comes to driving under the influence of alcohol and other drugs.

"We're taking a proactive approach and not a reactive one because we don't want to wait until someone gets killed or seriously injured before we take action," Santomuro said.

THE POLICE chiefs met with school officials to check out what the agencies will do to quell the usual problems linked to graduation.

Traffic is a major concern, especially on the last day of school, June 4 for seniors and June 12 for others.

"When kids finish their last day there tends to be a lot of hoopla," said Ron Daniels, area coordinator. "They don't think about safety. They pump their cars up, drive around and sometimes they don't pay attention to their driving."

"We want to see kids have fun but we want to see them respond effectively."

Police responding to rowdy parties will generally try to warn first unless conduct dictates otherwise, said Plymouth Township Police Chief Carl Berry. "But if there are minors drinking or involved in substance abuse, then we'll have to take enforcement action."

Plymouth Police Chief Richard Myers stressed that partygoers should remember to leave sufficient space for fire trucks and rescue units in case of emergencies.

Police also are targeting roles adults play in passing along alcohol, to drinks and supervising parties.

"We certainly plan to be aggressive about picking up drunk drivers," Myers said. "We have the authority to charge adults who provide alcohol to minors."

"I think people who allow their kids to have a party then go away are playing Russian roulette."

THE ANNUAL senior party is billed as a good way to have fun and stay out of trouble.

Centennial Educational Park 1986 graduates are invited to the party from 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. June 8 at Plymouth Salem High School. The party, which is only open to CHE 1986 graduates, has a Sun's Up theme this year.

Advance tickets are $10 in advance and $12 at door. No one will be admitted after 11 p.m.

Graduation ceremonies are Sunday, June 8, at Hill Auditorium, Ann Arbor. Plymouth Salem's graduation begins at 1:30 p.m. and Plymouth Canton's at 4 p.m. Senior Prom is 6 p.m. to midnight May 31 at Roma's of Bloomfield.

A message in a school newsletter sums up the sentiment of school and police officials when flashing the warning signal about graduation festivities: "Celebration without limits, independence without responsible behavior and excitement out of control can lead to problems."

Tax abatement to result in new building, facelift

By Doug Funke, staff writer

$150,000 worth of fixtures and furniture

A new 50,000-square-foot industrial building and improvements estimated at $2.4 million to an existing manufacturing facility have been proposed in the city of Plymouth and Plymouth Township, respectively.

Tax breaks have been requested in each instance. About 125 jobs are expected to be added to the local work force with the construction.

Carrollton Arms, a partnership, intends to build a factory warehouse on a 21-acre site next to the city DPW yard on Goldsmith.

It's a speculative industrial building, a multi-tenant building," said Robert Paoocco, one of two partners in the venture. Units could range upwards from 3,000 square feet, he added.

Paoocco and Jan Masciulli have been granted tax abatement on $1.7 million worth of construction and

At current tax rates, the property would generate revenue and receive a tax break of about $31,000 during the first year of a 12-year abatement.

BOTH TAX revenue and the abatement would decrease slightly in succeeding years due to depreciation of fixtures.

Carrollton Arms has offered about $102,000 for the parcel currently owned by the city. Paoocco said he expects to close on the sale this summer.

The property generates no tax revenue when used by the city as part of its DPW yard.

Paoocco and Masciulli hope to start construction Aug. 1 and finish next February. Seventy-five people are expected to work there within two years of project completion, they estimate.

Carrollton Arms currently owns a building in the Canton Industrial Park, has two under construction in the Metro West Industrial Park and plans to build a residential subdivision of 78 houses and 42 condominiums in Plymouth Township.

Durr Industries, which designs engineers and manufactures paint finishing systems, moved to Plymouth Township (just east of the Burroughs Corp.) from Livonia in 1979.

Durr is expected to ask for tax abatement on $2.4 million in plant renovations and equipment purchases. The township board probably will grant the request within a few weeks.

PHASE 1, office improvements, will result in new windows and furniture, $250,000 each, a new computer

Campers, motor homes on display

So your appetite was whet by outdoor recreation opportunities during the long holiday weekend. You enjoyed the experience and want to get even more involved.

Consider stopping by the Central Parking Deck in downtown Plymouth this Friday, Saturday and Sunday for the Western Wayne County Camping and Travel Trailer Show.

It's free, noon to 8 p.m. each day. The Plymouth Kiwanis Club will host.

More than 40 units from motor homes to pop-up trailers are expected to be exhibited.

Some of the newest equipment on the road and to meet the dealers personally," said Ted Campbell, a Kiwanis member and one of the event's organizers.

According to the Recreational Vehicle Industry Association, more than 24 million Americans are involved with RV camping.

"That fact alone tells us that there are a lot of people in western Wayne County who either are into RV camping or are thinking about it," Campbell said.

SALES representatives will be available to answer questions about different kinds of models, financing arrangements and rental possibilities.

H&W Motors, Wayne Van and Truck, Campers Paradise, Use-A-Trailer, McGinch Trailers, Wilks Trailer Center and Westland Camper have indicated they will exhibit.

Among the brand names expected to be shown are Sun Lite, Palomino, Viking, Heritage, Mallard, True North and Skamper.

The Central Parking Deck is bounded by Main, Pennington, Ann Arbor Trail and Harvey. Parking will be available on the upper level during the run of the show.

Served on Special Education Advisory Committee, TAG advisory, citizens bond, Gallimore PTO Board, schools council, attended school board meetings five years.

• Sumpter: I am 42 years old and have lived in the district for nine years. I am attending college part-time maintaining a 3.69 grade point and also hold a Michigan builder's license. Past member of the Lions Club and an active leader in the Scouting program.

QUESTIONS ASKED the candidates by the League of Women Voters, and the answers given by each, were:

1. Why are you a candidate for the school board? Were there specific issues that motivated you to seek this office?

Raymor: I am a candidate because I fully understand the importance of our schools task of building the future of our world. Our Christian morals have not been properly represented and I will represent these beliefs. It's time we stop being "closet" Christians, so get out and vote! I would like to see more emphasis on the basic 3 R's and more discipline in our schools.

Schwinn: My motivation in seeking a return to the school board is my interest in our young people and my desire to help provide for them an appropriate education.

Voymas: With strong commitment to public education, I am running as qualified parent of three children. As newcomer to community I can be unbiased in analysis of issues. As an analyst I have demonstrated ability to look at issues and arrive at alternative working solutions. As husband and father I can arrive at solutions considering needs of students, parents, district staff, and overall best interests of community.

Daskalakis: Last fall, in spite of protests, the board unanimously voted for a self-professed witch to speak at Salem High. They didn't tell the community and children that witches have their own bible stating "witchcraft is both a religion and a craft, ritually expressed." Christians are forbidden to practice witchcraft and our Lord calls it "a detestable practice." With more than 25 books on witchcraft in Salem library I want to be sure our Christian beliefs are upheld with proper representation.

Kotcher: Seek excellence in education, cost-effective management. More emphasis on higher-level thinking skills, creativity, the arts. Each student achieve to full extent of ability; more challenge, AP classes, guidance. Preserve special programs.

Business background applicable to schools. Hope to preserve lowest-per-pupil spending in state, raise achievement scores.

Sumpter: I am a candidate to give something back to the community after being a taker for nine years. Unlike the past two elections there are no specific or opposing issues.

Lore: I am a candidate because I am interested in the education of the young people. As a board member I would encourage the activities that enhance the basic curriculum and make the students well-rounded knowledgeable citizens.

Zagorski: Education is precious to me. Being a board member would allow me to remain active in the education process from a side other than student. I also have time to devote to the rigorous demands of office.

McClendon: Experience; need continuity and stability. Issue: need continue improved instruction based on improved faculty/staff relations.

Wines: One of the greatest gifts given a child is quality education. As board member would have input into direction and level of excellence district expects. No specific issues motivated candidacy. Years of attendance at board meetings have shown my dedication and commitment for this responsible position.

2. Do you support or oppose the $13 million bond issue appearing on the June 9 ballot? Discuss your position on the following components of the bond issue:

a) Administration building renovation.

b) New elementary school building.
c) Central Middle School renovation.

Wines: Support bond proposal. (a) Administration building does need enlarging plus barrier-free accessibility. Alternative plans might have been more desirable such as new construction on our CEP property. (b) Building desperately needed. Overcrowding being tolerated cannot continue. Class-size reduction impossible without additional housing. (c) Renovations proposed minimal. Long-term commitment as educational facility requires major renovations.

McClendon: Strongly support bond issue. (a) Administration building: $50 million enterprise cannot run efficiently from 1,020-square-foot building. Staff scattered, central focus/service lost. Secretaries in hall/computer in toilet. (b) Need smaller elementary classes, must have rooms, relieve overcrowded buildings. (c) Urgent need for repair now — separate issue should be submitted voters within five years totally renovate or replace.

Zagorski: Support. (a) More space needed. To renovate another existing building would still cost. If district needs ever exceed capacity of building renovation, Harvey location will have excellent resale value. (b) Needed. South Canton's population is growing and this is location for new school. Should also save on busing. (c) Worth saving, renovating. No other district middle school has chemistry labs, pool. Also a Plymouth landmark.

Lore: I support the bond issue. (a) Administration building is overcrowded. (b) Current school enrollment and projected enrollment make the building a necessity. (c) Central definitely needs renovation.

Sumpter: The bond issue is the most important item to come along in four years and, yes, I am for making a good investment better. Renovations are needed to retain Central and both Central and a new elementary school are needed to retain acceptable class sizes in the district. As for the administration building, I agree with the principle, not the method.

Kotcher: Volunteered for bond committee to have voice in what would be on ballot. Result is responsible compromise of conscientious people. (a) Problem. Expansion needed, should cost less. Total bond issue still valid. (b) Necessary, no other way to reduce class size, relieve overcrowding, busing. (c) Good compromise in controversial situation.

Daskalakis: I support the bond issue; enjoying a growing community reflected in the need to upgrade and build schools.

Voymas: I support bond issue. With greatly increased population in Canton, new elementary school is needed. Repairs to Central Middle School are minimal cost alternative. Issue provides great benefits for relatively small cost.

Schwinn: I fully support the bond issue. New elementary classrooms would enable us to decrease the present class size districtwide. Central is an integral part of the district housing plan, renovations here will increase the usability of this building. The administration building renovation provides better utilization of existing space and added area for present crowded personnel, also provides needed storage space and handicap access.

Raymor: I strongly support the bond issue. If approved, it will provide a higher level of overall education. I commend the current board for the excellent job in its research and evaluation of district needs.

 system. $200,000; and landscaping and a sprinkler system, $150,000.
 Phase 2, shop improvements, entails interior modifications including a product display area and a cafeteria. $450,000; a new roof, $350,000; and new windows, $200,000.
 Phase 3, an atrium connecting the offices and shop, is expected to cost $250,000.

 "We hope to complete the whole thing in under a year," said Ken Krause, Durr's controller.
 Durr's first-year tax break — and tax due — is expected to be about $30,000.

About 50 engineers are expected to relocate to the township plant from West Bloomfield upon completion of the project.

Highland Superstores Inc. has received the go-ahead from the Plymouth City Commission to issue up to $9 million in Economic Development Corp. bonds to finance the purchase of the 535,000-square-foot Ameritech building on Sheldon Road. EDC financing, established to alleviate unemployment, retain local business and revitalize the economy, enables borrowers to obtain money at below-market interest rates.

HIGHLAND PLANS to use the facility for a corporate headquarters and warehouse. The move is expected this fall.

"We just need a bigger facility," said Ira Mondry, an executive vice president. "This building is a very fine facility. It's an excellent location with access to the freeway system. It's an excellent community. The facility is well-built and well-maintained. The price was reasonable."

Progress is reported "pretty much on schedule" at the Plymouth Inn, a supervised residential living arrangement for the aged on Haggerty.

The 50-room, 100-bed facility, is under development by E&M Partners, owner of the Plymouth Towne Apartments and former owner of the Hendry Convalescent Center.

Chuck Herbert, a principal along with John Hendry and their spouses, said he expects the building will be ready for occupancy Dec. 1.

"It's for people who really can't live in an apartment by themselves," he said. "It's not as institutionalized as a nursing home would be. You don't take people who are physically ill. You're staffed with aides and assistants, not RNs."

A controlled, supervised environment and three daily meals would be provided, Herbert said. He projected that residents would be charged about $245 per week.

"We've got a list of people who have made inquiries," Herbert said. "We probably won't start the marketing process until July or August."

The building is financed with a $3 million EDC bond. Tax abatement also has been granted on $2.8 million of construction costs.

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING BEFORE THE TOWNSHIP BOARD OF THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH

PROJECT PLAN FOR THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION OF THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH CARROLLTON ARMS PROJECT, INCLUDING ISSUANCE OF LIMITED OBLIGATION REVENUE BONDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Township Board of the Charter Township of Plymouth will hold a public hearing at 7:30 o'clock, p.m., in the Township Hall, 42350 Ann Arbor Road, in the Charter Township of Plymouth, Michigan, on the 10 day of June, 1986, on the issuance and sale of certain Bonds (identified below) and a Project Plan prepared by The Economic Development Corporation of the Charter Township of Plymouth (the "EDC") for its Carrollton Arms Project (the "Project"), said Project being undertaken for the benefit of Carrollton Arms, a Michigan co-partnership (the "Company"). The Project will be located on Lots 57 and 58 of the Metro West Industrial Park Subdivision No. 3, in the Charter Township of Plymouth, County of Wayne, State of Michigan.

The Project Plan contemplates the issuance of not more than $1,075,000 limited obligation economic development bonds (the "Bonds") by the EDC to finance the acquisition and construction of two facilities containing 27,000 square feet and 15,000 square feet, respectively, of leaseable space suitable for warehousing or light manufacturing uses. The initial owner, operator and manager of the Project will be the Company. The identity of the tenants which will lease the Project is not known at this time.

The location of the Project Area and the Project District Area in relation to highways, streets, streams or otherwise is further described in a map on file with the Township Clerk.

A description of the proposed Project Plan, including the method of relocating families and individuals (if any) who will be displaced from the area are available for public inspection at the office of the Township Clerk, located at 42350 Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth Township, Michigan, and all aspects of the Bonds and the proposed Project Plan will be open for discussion at the public hearing. The Project Plan contains additional information about the issuance of the Bonds and the financial parameters thereof. The Township Board will consider approval of (i) the Project Plan and (ii) the Bonds only after the public hearing has been completed. The Township Board of the Charter Township of Plymouth shall provide an opportunity for interested persons to be heard and shall receive and consider communications in writing with reference to the hearing. The hearing shall provide the fullest opportunity for expression of opinion, for argument on the merits, and for introduction of documentary evidence pertinent to the Bonds and the proposed Project Plan. Township Hall telephone 459-3840.

Grenfell, Strong eulogize Edgar at St. Matthew's

Nearly 300 people came to honor Observer columnist W.W. "Eddie" Edgar last week in a service which was full of remembrances and stories of the reporter who worked for 70 years at his craft.

The Rev. David Strong of St. Matthew United Methodist Church and the Rev. John Grenfell of the First United Methodist Church of Plymouth officiated at the service held in St. Matthew's.

Edgar, 88, of Livonia died May 18 after a month-long illness. He had worked for the Observer 22 years and was mainly known in suburban circles for his column, "The Stroller."

Grenfell, who shared membership with Edgar in Plymouth Rotary, recalled his conversations with him.

"In many ways he was like a talking computer," said Grenfell. "If you pushed the right button he would talk and talk."

Edgar, who had worked as sports reporter for the Detroit Free Press in the '30s and '40s was known for telling his stories about famous sports figures of that era. He was especially fond of recalling his days with heavyweight champion Joe Louis, baseball great Ty Cobb and hydroplane racer Gar Wood.

Edgar also was good at telling a story about himself.

Strong remembered visiting Edgar in St. Mary Hospital when he suffered a heart attack earlier this year. Eddie's conversational abilities also came into play.

"He just kept on talking and talking. Finally I said 'Eddie, can I pray now?'"

"Oh no," replied Edgar. "I can handle it."

Edgar thought Strong was offering to "pay" his hospital bill. It was a story Edgar liked to tell after he left the hospital.

Both ministers recalled Edgar's determination.

Grenfell referred to a recent photograph of Edgar which appeared in the Observer. Seated at his desk in the Plymouth Observer office, Edgar sat below a picture of a turtle over which was written: "Consider the turtle, he makes no progress until he sticks his neck out."

"Eddie was always making progress, even as he strolled through the community," Grenfell said.

"Eddie made every day of life his laboratory of learning," said Grenfell.

Strong recalled his recent visit to Edgar in St. Mary.

"He could hardly talk but he kept on repeating 'I'm going to get better, I'm going to get better,'" said Strong.

"Well, he has gotten better. He has gone beyond the mysteries of this life . . . The ultimate healing we receive is that what we can recognize in the Lord," said Strong.

Edgar is survived by his wife of 58 years, Leona, three nieces and two nephews. Burial was at Parkview Cemetery in Livonia.

BILL BRESLER/staff photographer

server & Eccentric Newspapers; Robert Hitter, Edgar's neighbor; Robert Kellogg, a retired Livonia schoolteacher; Art Emanuele, O&E photographer and close friend of Edgar's; and WKBD-TV sportscaster Ray Lane.

Plymouth becoming mecca for stamp collectors

(Part I)

Plymouth has received recognition throughout the state of Michigan, and much further, on many occasions.

Publicity favorable to the community came in the old days when the village was the air rifle capital of the world. It came in the 1920s when Phoebe Patterson was Michigan's first woman justice of the peace; in the 1940s when Ruth Huston Whipple was mayor at a time when women rarely held that position; from 1960 on when the Plymouth Fall Festival became widely known; and, during recent times, when the Plymouth Ice Festival began to receive far-flung media attention.

What many residents may not know — certainly I didn't until recently — is that an organization of stamp collectors, founded here 17 years ago, has been quietly putting the community on the map in the world of philately. Its stamp show, held annually at Central Middle School, has grown from small beginnings in 1970 to become Michigan's largest, and one of the largest anywhere between Philadelphia and Chicago.

THE NAME OF the organization is the West Suburban Stamp Club, and its 1986 Exhibition and Bourse was held here in April.

I attended it for the first time at the invitation of Gil Camp, the club historian for many years. I was totally surprised at the large and varied collection of stamp exhibits on display, and at the number of stamp collectors who crowded around the dealers' booths — the so-called "bourse" — to buy and sell stamps of world-wide origin.

past and present

Sam Hudson

The West Suburban Stamp Club was founded by a former Plymouth resident, Lauren Januz, who worked for the Transo Envelope Company.

Januz, who arrived in Plymouth in 1967, began collecting stamps while a teenager in the Chicago area. He began exhibiting his collection at stamp shows in 1953. While he was living in Plymouth he decided to form a club here.

On Sept. 20, 1969, Januz placed an article in Stamps Magazine saying that a club was being organized and inviting any collectors in the western part of Wayne County, all of Washtenaw County and the southwestern part of Oakland County to write to him.

"An organizational meeting will be held this coming fall if a sufficient number are interested," he wrote.

The first meeting was held at the Januz home at 4144 Ivywood Lane, Plymouth, on Sept. 25, with 18 in attendance. By Oct. 16 the club had its first officers. Their hometowns reflect the geographical distribution of the initial members. President Lauren Januz lived in Plymouth, senior vice-president Dick Chellevoid in Ann Arbor, junior vice-president Rita Smith in Belleville, secretary Jerry Wachtel in Northville, treasurer Doug Smith in Ann Arbor, and sergeant-at-arms Bert Brotherton in Detroit.

The other trustees were Foster Kisabeth of Plymouth, Bob Chynoweth of Detroit, and Richard Dick of Garden City. It was through Richard Dick, a stamp dealer and retired school teacher, that I first heard of the West Suburban Stamp Club.

The club's first affiliation was with the Peninsular State Philatelic Society in 1969. Since that time the club has joined six other national stamp associations, including the American Philatelic Society, the American First Day Cover Society, American Topical Association, Bureau Issues Association, COPO, and the Royal Philatelic Society of Canada.

THE GROUP FIRST met in members' homes but soon made arrangements to meet in the Plymouth Community Credit Union building on South Harvey Street.

They met there for 10 years, then moved to the Plymouth Cultural Center, and now meet at Plymouth Township Hall. Annual membership dues of $3 have not changed since the club's inception.

By November 1969, members included three from Detroit, three from Northville, two each from Plymouth, Livonia, Belleville and Ann Arbor, and one each from Ypsilanti, Farmington, Saline, Dearborn and Garden City. The two from Plymouth were Lauren Januz and Foster Kisabeth.

The members set as their objectives: the promotion and encouragement of philately in Wayne, Oakland and Washtenaw counties; the fostering of friendship and fraternal spirit between collectors; and assistance to members in acquiring and disposing of philatelic material, individually and collectively, with other clubs and members.

By Dec. 7, 1969, the club had 37 paid members and believed that it had "set some kind of record for new clubs." The age of members ranged from junior high students to "what could be called middle-aged."

At the club's first auction in December 1969, the top bid on a stamp was $8.75 and the total value of the 65 lots was $85. At the show held here in April 1986, a single sale of $20,000 was reported.

The first of a series of stamp lectures at club meetings was held in January 1970. The first annual Stamp Show and Bourse was held May 16-17, 1970. Staged at Plymouth Junior High School, through arrangements made by Foster Kisabeth, it featured 150 frames of collector's stamps. Twenty stamp dealers participated in the bourse. Space for the dealers was sold at $25 a table on a first-come basis. Richard Dick was the first bourse chairman and has acted in that capacity many times since.

In 1970, the club started a library of books and journals of interest to stamp collectors and made them available to members on a loan basis. It has grown to become one of the finest club philatelic libraries anywhere in the country.

Writes against shopping mall

To the editor:

I feel that I must respond to the articles that your paper has published concerning the proposed mall at the corner of Joy & Morton Taylor. These articles, in my opinion, make the homeowners of Mayfair Village appear frivolous in caring only about the appearance of the mall and our property values. I, therefore, would like to express what my concerns are.

First and foremost is the safety of the children of the 400-plus houses west of Morton Taylor who will have to cross that road twice a day to get to Hulsing School. It is my understanding that the builder's own survey projects 8,000 to 10,000 cars a day through that mall and this does not include the additional north-south traffic that will be picked up from Lilley. With that type of projection I feel that we have reason to worry for the safety of our children.

Every homeowner here has always known that there would be some type of building on that corner and we have always known that Morton Taylor would someday go through. That has never been the issue in my mind. I object to that type of high traffic building project when the consent judgment on the property specifically stated "recreational use" binding on the current and future owners and all their heirs.

When Morton Taylor is completed it will be a major north-south artery. Who will use Lilley when the new road will be available? What about trucks through all this residential area, will there be a traffic light? I can remember around 1974 when despite the efforts of the Canton board it still took the life of a child before we got a light at Sheldon and Hanford.

About the aesthetics, sure I am concerned when they are proposing 27 stores, which is about twice the number as are in the K Mart plaza on about 1/3 of the land in the K Mart Plaza. All that Canton needs is another mall with vacant stores to add to our beautification.

I feel that the developer has the right to build a shopping center, but not at the expense of the safety of all those children, nor by ignoring the purpose of that property as ruled by the courts. This mall will not only affect the homeowners of Mayfair, but all the subdivisions north and south of us as the increased traffic will be felt by everyone.

I feel that it is time that the Canton Board of Trustees shows some courage in voting for what is right. We all understand the importance of bringing business to Canton, but you cannot afford to scare away the residents, current and future, either.

SURGERY AND THE SHOULDER
Before joint replacements were available, the individual with arthritis of the hip or knee purchased a rocking chair and watched the world go by. Now people with such arthritis are instructed to walk until they cannot move; then they have a hip or knee replacement and walk again.
However, if you have arthritis of the shoulder, you cannot expect to use your involved arm until it cannot move, and then obtain a shoulder joint replacement.
The socket of the shoulder joint is shallow, and the head of the shoulder bone is small. Thus, there is little tolerance for error in aligning the artificial head and socket; achieving a good fit is difficult. In addition, the bone of the upper arm is not thick enough to support the implantation of a sturdy device. Because of these problems, artificial joints for the shoulder cannot be depended upon to replace a worn out shoulder joint.
If you have arthritis of the shoulder, expect that therapy will consist of medicine, exercise, heat, and injection for the foreseeable future.

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

A program to recruit and train volunteers as mentors in the Youth Development Program is being conducted by Growth Works Inc., 271 S. Main, Plymouth. Youth Development is a diversion program in cooperation with Plymouth, Plymouth Township and Canton police departments for the first-time juvenile offender. The program is designed for the youth and his/her parents as an alternative to the juvenile justice court system. Volunteers are trained to work weekly with the youth.

Training covers communication skills, empathy listening skills, building and bonding relationships, alcohol and substance abuse, decision making, consequences of behavior, parenting skills, and crisis intervention. Training is open to all interested persons; no experience required. Volunteers need to commit to at least six hours of three hours per week for about 20 hours. For information and a training schedule, call Sue Davis at 455-4902, Monday through Friday, during regular business hours.

SENIOR CHORE SERVICE

The Conference of Western Wayne Chore Program has been funded for 1986. The program provides assistance with light household maintenance tasks including lawn mowing, snow removal and window/wall washing. Individuals must be 60 or older and own their own home. The program is for senior citizens living in Plymouth, Plymouth Township and Canton and replaces the home chore program previously conducted by Plymouth Recreation Department. There is no charge for the service. For information, call 525-8690.

ADULT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Plymouth Centennial Educational

Park needs adult community members to donate their time and expertise at the high schools. Needed is help phoning, typing, creating bulletin board displays and serving as resource people for careers and for German culture. If you can volunteer an hour or two, contact Cyndi Burnstein at 459-9435 after noon.

How to recognize a quack when you see one.

Quack medical products. They're everything from baldness remedies to cancer cures. All eventually prove to be a waste of money, many actually pose a serious threat to your health.

How do you distinguish a quack medical product from the real thing? For a start — if it sounds too good to be true, it probably is. Quack medical products usually claim simple solutions, miracle cures, or amazing scientific breakthroughs. Many flaunt testimonials from satisfied users. To be sure whether a medical product is a quack, check with your doctor or pharmacist first. Because the next dead duck could be you.

'Top Gun' proves girls get in way of action drama

No one has matched the incredulity which greeted Betty Ackerman when she slunk into Dr. Kildare's operating room and asked sensuously, "Did someone call for an anesthesiologist?"

No one, at least, until Kelly McGillis, in "Top Gun" (PG), switched her hips to the front of the U.S. Navy Weapons School, as Ph.D. Astrophysicist and Fighter Pilot Instructor Charlotte "Charlie" Blackwood.

Director George Roy Hill ("Butch Cassidy," "The Sting") noted some time ago that girls slow up action movies. Neither Producers Don Simpson and Jerry Bruckheimer nor Director Tony Scott have learned that simple lesson and "Top Gun" regularly grinds to a dead stop.

"Top Gun" gets you going right at the start with some pretty stunning footage of carrier-based F-14 maneuvers. But once Lt. Pete "Maverick" Mitchell (Tom Cruise) and his Radar Intercept Officer, Lt. Nick "Goose" Brandshaw (Anthony Edwards), get transferred to Miramar Naval Air Station for advanced training, the entire film is grounded.

IT'S HARD TO believe the Tom Cruise smile that sets 14-year-old hearts aflutter across the nation could so quickly overcome the reluctant astrophysicist, McGillis. But that's typical of the plot flaws throughout "Top Gun."

Maverick's father disappeared under unexplained combat conditions. Goose is killed in a training accident. Both loom as major impediments to Maverick's success. Yet both are dispelled in brief, offhand moments hardly commensurate with their initial impact and all the slow-paced screen time they consume. But call the kid a quitter and he'll come back strong.

This sort of too easy solution to complex problems is characteristic of "Top Gun" and a number of other currently popular films that seem to be preparing us for war.

Sylvester Stallone, Arnold Schwarzenegger and Chuck Norris have filmically won the Vietnam War while "Iron Eagle" defeated Libya even before the U.S. Navy and Air Force struck. Although turning up the volume on your Walkman will not solve complex problems, it sure seems like it in these films. And if you think "Rambo" is unreal, wait until the kids in John Lithgow's "Manhattan Project" (opens Friday June 13) solve the world's nuclear dilemma.

All those connected with "Top Gun" and these other simple-minded movies claim they are presenting great love stories, worthwhile character studies and action films that people want. People may want them — and I imagine "Top Gun" will sell tickets — but it's skating on thin ice to believe the world works when rock music blares.

ALTHOUGH IT gets boring at the end, where our guys are shooting MiG's out of the sky in an improbably structured sequence, "Top Gun" does have some pretty good aerial footage.

That's a lot more than can be said for "Desert Hearts" (R), which has no action and builds characters of no stature and little appeal.

"Desert Hearts" will probably be billed as a sensitive story of forbidden love. Don't you believe it. Just take all the traditional boy-meets-girl clichés and set them up like tempins in a girl-meets-girl story. That's the tale of Producer-Director Donna Deitch's low-budget ($1.5 million) film.

While she is to be lauded for a professionally polished and good-looking film with credible acting, the script by Natalie Cooper and Deitch's directions are slow, self-consciously feminine (not feminist) and flounder in every imaginable cliché.

Vivian Bell (Helen Shaver) turns up (in 1959) at the Reno Dude, Divorcee-to-be Ranch run by Frances Parker (Audra Lindley). Dr. Bell, a Ph.D. in literature at Columbia University, is amicably ending her 12-year-old marriage, to search for fulfillment.

FRANCES IS a pretty neat lady. After all, not everyone can deliver lines like, "He put a string of lights around my heart," without retching. Her son Walter (Alex McArthur) takes a shine to Vivian and so does his half-sister, Cay Rivvers (Patricia Charbonneau).

In spite of Vivian's reservations and the community's disapproval, she and Cay live happily ever after as the Santa Fe Chieftain — that's a train, guys — pulls off into the sunset.

"Desert Hearts" probably is intended as a paean to feminine liberty, the search for self and the righteous beauty of lesbianism. In fact, it is slow, boring and over-utilizes repetitive, clichéd fades and horizontal wipes.

Helen Shaver (left) is Vivian Bell, who comes to Reno for a divorce and ends up being romantically attracted to a woman, Cay Rivvers, portrayed by Patricia Charbonneau, in "Desert Hearts."

Wine drinkers, get out of that rut

Pity the poor wine drinker who is in a rut.

He, or she, usually purchases only Martin Zinfandel, Wente Sauvignon Blanc or else drinks only a single grape or else a wine from only a single winery. While all of these are, of course, dependable and predictable, it is such a boring way to operate when choices are so abundant.

Think of the joy of discovery, the pleasure of exploration and, yes, the sadness of disappointment when one plays the field, sampling unusual grapes from previously unknown wineries. There are today so many choices and such great diversity of styles it is truly a shame to stay always with the known, the sure thing.

To encourage the adventurers among us, here are some releases from some California wineries new to our state, all offering selections of some merit, worthy of discovery. All are producing inexpensive wines that do not leave us impecunious.

For those who drink kosher wines, the news is good indeed. The selection, heretofore sparse, has been dramatically expanded. There is now an alternative to Carmel wines in the form of Weinstock Cellars of Healdsburg in Sonoma County. It has released four 1985 wines into our market: a rather fat White Zinfandel, a most decent Chardonnay (for only $8), a light, almost elegant Sauvignon Blanc and a Riesling. They are well-priced and well-made wines.

OF SOMEWHAT greater vinicultural interest is another winery, the Piconi Winery Ltd. of Temecula. Founded in 1981, it is located between San Diego and Ontario in Riverside County, neighbor to the Callaway estate. It is a family operation, making a frightening number of flavors (10), about half of them available locally now. There are a couple of Cabernets. A 1981 "House" release is described in the winery's literature somewhat immodestly as "probably the best wine for your money in California." It is light and pleasant, very drinkable and at under $8 a decent value if not the "best." The 1982, about a dollar more, is more complex, tannic and fuller and will improve with age.

The 1982 Petite Sirah, a too infrequently issued varietal, is a gruff, assertive thing, full of rich, tough flavors, best used with highly spiced foods. The 1983 Chardonnay has a nice hint of oak and some fruit. The 1984 Chenin Blanc, I enjoyed very much — very dry with hints of citrus, but at $8 a bit steep. I have not yet tried the Riesling. To come later this summer are a Merlot and a Fume Blanc.

Most impressive overall of these wine

Richard Watson

newer wineries is Tepusquet Vineyards from Santa Maria (the land of Ronald Reagan's Western White House), a lovely setting. The winery is currently showing a modestly priced line of everyday wines. I especially liked the Reserve Chardonnay (about $8). There is a standard version as well, a bit cheaper.

Tepusquet Vineyards produces a fine 1983 Vin Blanc and a decent, full 1983 Claret, both sold in magnums at about $6. The 1982 Vineyard Reserve is a Cabernet-Merlot blend at a 2 to 1 ratio. Most enjoyable.

And there is a White Cabernet, of course, because the winemaker presumably lacks Zinfandel to so denude, and a 1984 Cabernet of modest price and comparable quality. All in all, a winery to watch. Most attractive label concept as well.

A RECENT COLUMN commented most favorably on the 1984 Domaine

St. George Chardonnay, available locally at about $5, but not noting the true producers of this success story. It is the Cambioso Vineyards of Sonoma County, longtime producers of undistinguished Italian-styled wines (whatever that means). Now the 1985 is available, as good value as its predecessor. Its companion, a 1982 Cabernet Sauvignon, is less successful but a decent value at the same price.

Finally, another fine line has come to our area. It is River Oaks, made as an everyday wine by prestigious Clos du Bois. Locally available only at Beverage Warehouse (Greenfield and 13 Mile roads in Beverly Hills) and Ann Arbor's Big Ten, the line consists of an excellent $5 Chardonnay (1985), a decent 1983 Cabernet, a 1983 Riesling and a 1980 Zinfandel. In addition there is a Premium Red and a Premium White that is one of the best values around these days.

FISHING IDEAS?

Eating light and sensibly is in! A greater emphasis is being placed on a well-balanced diet of nourishing foods that are lighter in calories. The trick is to make "light" foods taste great so that eating sensibly becomes a habit for life.

Some ways to make "light" taste good lie in the foods you choose — like seafood, vegetables and fruits such as citrus. Others include the ways you cook. Today's popular techniques of preparing foods such as steaming over water, grilling or broiling, microwaving and stir-frying intensify the flavors of light foods and seasonings, giving them added vibrancy and impact.

Presented here are a selection of food ideas featuring ideal partners for light yet highly enjoyable good eating — Alaska seafood and fresh California-Arizona citrus. The bright flavor of citrus highlights the mild flavors of fish and shellfish, reducing the need for rich sauces and accents.

Steaming, an excellent way to keep calories down and flavor up, is used in Steamed Whitefish with Vegetables 'n' Lemon. Zesty fresh lemon provides refreshing flavor with few calories and little sodium added to the delectable "meal in one entree."

Salmon Steaks with Herbed Lemon Butter features this succulent fish from the icy water of Alaska topped with flavorful lemon herbed butter. The salmon may be barbecued, grilled or broiled and any leftover lemon butter can be refrigerated or frozen to use later on vegetables.

Choice Alaska halibut, baked in foil with dill and fresh grated orange peel, is presented with a colorful orange sauce that complements this delicately flavored seafood.

For Northwest Salmon Burritos, convenient canned salmon teams up with fresh lemons, cheese, spicy seasonings and tortillas. Microwaving is the cooking method, a lighter approach for preparing Mexican entrees.

Requiring a minimum of cooking time, Snow Crab Stir-Fry is a blend of Alaska Snow crab, fresh vegetables and lemon. Available year-round, Alaska Snow crab is fully cooked, cleaned, low in fat and calories and ready to enjoy.

What better way to go "light" in a delicious way than with Alaska seafood and fresh western citrus!

STEAMED WHITEFISH WITH VEGETABLES 'N' LEMON

- 1 cup julienned carrots
- 4 medium mushrooms
- 1 tablespoon fresh grated lemon peel
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- Dash pepper
- 1 lemon, peeled and very thinly sliced
- 1/2 pound Alaska cod, pollock or rockfish fillets, thawed if necessary and cut into serving-sized pieces
- 4 medium uncooked shrimp (optional)
- 4 shucked oysters (optional)
- 4 broccoli flowerets

Arrange carrots and mushrooms in bottom of steamer basket. Combine lemon peel, salt and pepper, sprinkle some of mixture over vegetables. Place lemon slices over vegetables, top with seafood. Arrange broccoli near edge of steamer. Sprinkle with remaining lemon peel mixture. Steam 10 to 12 minutes over simmering water, or until whitefish flakes when tested with a fork. Garnish with lemon slices, if desired. Makes 2 servings.

*A steamer rack, placed over 1/2 to 3/4 inch simmering water, can be used.

SALMON STEAKS WITH HERBED LEMON BUTTER

- 1/2 cup butter or margarine, softened
- Grated peel of 1/2 lemon
- 1 tablespoon fresh squeezed lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon chopped parsley
- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh herbs (any combination of tarragon, basil and/or rosemary)
- 1/4 teaspoon seasoned salt
- 1/8 teaspoon white pepper
- 4 to 6 (about 6 ounces each) Alaska salmon steaks, thawed if necessary
- Vegetable oil
- Fresh lemon wedges

Combine all ingredients except salmon steaks, oil and lemon wedges. On waxed paper, shape butter mixture into 1x7-inch roll or rectangle, wrap and chill. Lightly brush both sides of salmon steaks with oil. Barbecue, grill or broil 4 inches from heat 4 to 6 minutes on each side or until fish flakes when tested with a fork. Slice butter mixture into patties. To serve, top salmon steaks with herbed butter patties and garnish with lemon wedges and additional parsley, if desired. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

*One teaspoon dried herbs, crushed, can be used.

Tip: Remaining herbed butter mixture can be refrigerated or frozen and used not only on fish but also on cooked vegetables.

OVEN BAKED HALIBUT A LA ORANGE

- 4 (about 6 ounces each) Alaska halibut steaks, thawed if necessary
- Vegetable oil
- Grated peel of 1/2 orange
- 1/8 to 1/4 teaspoon dried dill weed
- 2 green onions, cut into thin 2-inch strips
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1/2 cup fresh squeezed orange juice
- 1/2 cup apple juice
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 1/2 teaspoon instant chicken bouillon (optional)
- 2 oranges, peeled, cut in half-cartwheel slices and well-drained

Line a 12x8x2-inch shallow baking dish with foil. Lightly brush both sides of halibut steaks with oil, arrange in dish. Sprinkle with orange peel and dill. Cover dish with foil and bake at 450° F, allowing 10 to 12 minutes cooking time per inch of thickness measured at its thickest part, or until halibut flakes when tested with a fork. Meanwhile to make sauce, in saucepan, sauté green onions in butter. Gradually blend orange and apple juice into cornstarch and chicken bouillon. Add to butter mixture. Cook over medium heat, stirring until thickened. Add orange half-cartwheel slices, heat. To serve, spoon sauce over halibut steaks. Makes 4 servings.

NORTHWEST SALMON BURRITOS (Microwave Version)

- 1 can (7-1/2 to 7-3/4 ounces) Alaska salmon
- 1/4 cup each chopped green onions, chopped tomatoes and canned diced green chilies
- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
- 3/4 cup shredded Cheddar or Monterey Jack cheese, divided
- Juice of 1/2 lemon
- 1/2 teaspoon chili powder
- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh cilantro or fresh coriander (optional)
- 4 (8 inches each) flour tortillas
- Favorite prepared or homemade salsa

Drain salmon, reserving 2 tablespoons liquid, flake. In microwave-proof dish, microcook green onions, tomatoes, green chilies and butter at HIGH 1 minute, add reserved salmon liquid, 1/2 cup cheese and remaining ingredients except tortillas and salsa. Toss until well mixed. Place 1/4 of mixture on each of 4 tortillas, roll up. Place seam-side-down in microwave-proof dish. Cover with waxed paper and microcook at MEDIUM-HIGH 7 to 10 minutes. Sprinkle with remaining 1/4 cup cheese. Microcook at HIGH 1 minute or until cheese melts. Serve with salsa. Garnish with additional cilantro, if desired. Makes 2 to 4 servings.

Tip: One tablespoon chopped cilantro can be added to each 1/2 cup of salsa.

SNOW CRAB STIR-FRY (Not Pictured)

- 1-1/2 pounds Alaska Snow crab clusters, single-cut legs or split legs, thawed if necessary
- 1 small clove garlic, minced
- 1 tablespoon vegetable oil
- 1 cup each julienned yellow peppers, green peppers and jicama*
- 4 green onions, cut into 1-1/2-inch pieces
- Grated peel of 1/2 lemon
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon each thyme, crushed, and sugar
- 1/8 teaspoon crushed chili pepper (optional)
- Juice of 1/2 lemon

Rinse crab under cool water. Remove crab meat from shells. Heat garlic in oil. Stir-fry vegetables until peppers are crisp-tender. Season with lemon peel, salt, thyme, sugar and chili pepper. Add crab and lemon juice, heat thoroughly. Makes 2 or 3 servings.

*Drained, sliced water chestnuts can be substituted.

Fish stew is flavor feast

Valencia oranges make the difference in Fish Stew Provençal — a celebration of fresh flavor throughout.

A gently simmered luscious concoction of fresh fish and shrimp in a broth sweetened with the juice of a fresh Valencia orange and perked with orange peel, the stew has a medley of fresh herbs and crisp garlic bread to make it a one-dish meal fit for a gourmet.

MEDITERRANEAN SALAD rounds off the meal with exuberant taste. Valencia sections contribute sweet citrus piquance to a melange of crisp-tender vegetables — artichoke hearts, tomato, cucumber and olives.

Enjoy the luxury of fresh ingredients in a dinner that salutes the warm weather season.

FISH STEW PROVENCAL

- 5 Tbsp. olive oil, divided
- 2 large cloves garlic, finely minced
- 10 slices Italian bread, cut 1/2 inch thick
- 2 medium onions, sliced
- 2 medium carrots, sliced
- 1/4 cup chopped parsley
- 1 tsp. dried leaf thyme
- 1 tsp. fennel seeds
- 1 bay leaf
- 2 strips (1/2 x 3 inches) orange peel
- 2 cups orange juice

- 2 cups bottled clam juice
- 2 cups water
- 1 cup dry vermouth
- 1 1/2 lbs. halibut or cod, cut into 1-inch cubes
- 1/2 lb. raw shrimp, shelled and deveined
- 1/4 cup mayonnaise

Combine 3 tablespoons oil and garlic, brush on both sides of bread. Arrange bread slices on baking sheet. Bake in a 350 degree oven 4 minutes on each side or until well toasted. Heat remaining 2 tablespoons oil in a Dutch oven or heavy kettle, saute onion and carrot until crisp-tender. Add parsley, thyme, fennel seeds, bay leaf and orange peel, cook 5 minutes longer. Stir in orange juice, clam juice, water and vermouth. Bring to a boil. Add fish. Reduce heat, simmer gently 5 minutes. Add shrimp, simmer 5 minutes longer. Add a little hot soup to mayonnaise, mix well and stir into soup. Do not boil. Serve each portion of soup with toasted garlic bread. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

MEDITERRANEAN SALAD

- 6 cups salad greens
- 2 Valencia oranges, peeled, sectioned
- 1 medium cucumber, sliced
- 1 cup cherry tomatoes or 1 large tomato, cut in wedges

Oranges make the difference in Fish Stew Provençal.

- 1 can (about 14 oz.) artichoke hearts, drained
- 1/2 cup crumbled feta cheese
- 1/2 cup sliced, pitted black olives

ORANGE VINAIGRETTE

- 1/4 cup salad oil
- 2 Tbsp. orange juice
- 1 1/2 Tbsp. cider vinegar
- 1 tsp. Dijon-style mustard
- 1/4 tsp. dried leaf oregano, crumbled

In a large salad bowl combine greens, grapefruit sections, cucumber, tomatoes, artichoke hearts, cheese and olives. Serve with Orange Vinaigrette (below). Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Combine all ingredients, mix well. Yield: 1/2 cup.

Sausage trims salad prep time

Keeping cool and cooking fast. Those are two objectives of summertime cooks. One way to meet these objectives is to choose readily available ingredients that require a minimum amount of measuring and preparation. Refreshing Sausage and Fruit Salad is an ideal recipe candidate.

One of the world's first convenience foods is the main ingredient in this recipe — sausage. History shows that people preserved meat into sausage for times when their food supplies were scarce. Today we use sausage when time is scarce.

Today's ready-to-eat sausages include cooked sausages, cooked, smoked sausages, dry and or semi-dry sausages, and specialty meats (luncheon meats). Refreshing Sausage and Fruit Salad uses a cooked, smoked sausage called New England-Style sausage. It's a mild-flavored, lean ham-style seasoned with cloves.

Store this type of sausage in the refrigerator. Use opened packages of this ready-to-eat sausage within a week after purchasing; unopened packages can be kept a little longer, but check the freshness date marked on the package.

REFRESHING SAUSAGE and Fruit Salad also is convenient because it uses readily available ingredients that require a minimum amount of measuring and preparation. Quickly mix a simple salad dressing of mayonnaise, sour cream and ginger and refrigerate while completing the salad.

Serve this flavor-pleasing salad on a bed of lettuce along with its dressing. And to add a bite of crunch, garnish with chopped pecans.

Refreshing Sausage and Fruit Salad

Preparation time: 20 minutes

- 8 oz. sliced New England-Style sausage, cut into 1/2-inch strips
- 1/4 cup each mayonnaise and dairy sour cream
- 1/4 tsp. ground ginger
- 1 medium apple
- 2 cups green grapes
- 1 cup sliced celery, cut 1/4 inch
- Boston or bibb lettuce leaves, if desired
- 1/4 cup chopped pecans

To prepare dressing, combine mayonnaise, sour cream and ginger in small bowl; cover tightly and refrigerate while assembling salad. Core apple and cut into eight wedges; cut each wedge crosswise in half. Place New England-Style sausage, apple, grapes and celery in bowl, tossing lightly to combine. Line serving platter with lettuce, if desired; spoon sausage mixture over lettuce. Garnish with pecans. Pass dressing with salad. Makes 4 servings.

Graduation's a day to be proud of Melody Winters and Tim Grech spoke for their fellow graduates Thursday.

"Believe me, I was nervous about coming back to school," Grech said Thursday night during the Plymouth-Canton Community Education graduation ceremony.

Before too long, however, that nervousness began to disappear. It was replaced by growing confidence.

"I was so proud of myself, I didn't want to stop," Grech told those at the graduation ceremony.

Winters, who had been out of school for 11 years, was also nervous about her return to the classroom. She started out by working toward her GED.

It wasn't difficult for Winters to answer the question of why she had returned to school.

"The answer was a simple one. Me. I decided it was time to do something for myself."

IN THE 1984-85 school year, Winters returned for one of the health occupations programs. This past fall, she returned to work toward her diploma.

"This was something I had longed for since I had dropped out of school in 1972," the new graduate said. Throughout her studies, the words "You can do it" were ringing in her ears.

"You know, you were right."

Winters and Grech thanked the family members, friends and teachers who helped make the graduation day possible.

"With that kind of support, it made it so much easier for us, and we thank you," Grech said.

Work and family responsibilities often made the road to graduation day a difficult one for the adult students, he said.

"Trying to get to our classes on time, you know how that was. We worked hard and we had fun doing it."

Winters and Grech were among the graduates honored Thursday dur-

'With that kind of support, it made it so much easier for us, and we thank you.'

ing the ceremony in the Plymouth Salem High School auditorium. Health occupations students and GED recipients were also honored during the ceremony.

GOING BACK to school as an adult isn't an easy step to take, John Soave, counselor/building supervisor, told those at the graduation ceremony.

"It took courage for you to walk into our office," Soave said.

The family and work responsibilities adult students have make their workload a demanding one. Their earlier experiences in school have often been bad ones; none had Bill Cosby as their high school teacher, Soave told the graduates.

"I recognize the obstacles that each of the graduates had to overcome to be here tonight. Your struggle has made each of you stronger."

Watching that struggle has also helped strengthen the staff members' commitment, he said.

Teachers and other staff members also got their share of thanks during the graduation ceremony.

"If we didn't have an excellent teaching staff, none of this would be possible," said Larry Masteller, director of Plymouth-Canton Community Education, a service of the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

Sharon Streen, the assistant director, agreed.

"They've met a lot of challenges with their students," she said of the teaching staff. "Teaching truly is one of the most important professions in our society."

Two of the graduates, Tim Grech and Melody Winters, tell about their experiences in returning to school.

All of that hard work paid off

By Julie Brown
staff writer

CANTON TOWNSHIP's Ann Lappek is older than the hordes of 17- and 18-year-olds who are getting their high school diplomas this spring. Her pride in having reached this graduation day, however, is shining as brightly as a brand-new penny.

That pride is shared by her family, friends and teachers. Lappek's daughter, Linda Lappek, sent her 11 roses for the occasion. The card with the flowers reads "You are the 12th. Congratulations, Mom, I'm very proud of you."

"I'm excited," the Canton Township resident said of her graduation. "It's more excitement than anything else."

Lappek was among those participating in the Plymouth-Canton Community Education graduation ceremony last Thursday night. The ceremony was held in the auditorium of Plymouth Salem High School.

Lappek, who married young, left school during the 10th grade.

"At that time, I was more interested in being married," she said. Thoughts of finishing high school, however, were always in her mind.

Her mother, who was from Armenia, had emphasized the importance of education.

"She encouraged all of us children to be educated. In the back of my head, I always said 'I'm going to graduate someday.'"

The years of child-raising came first. Lappek and her husband, Howard, raised two daughters, Carol Ann Wescon, who lives in Canton, and Linda Lappek, a New Hudson resident. The new graduate is now "a grandmother five times."

AFTER THE children were grown, Lappek decided it was time to continue her education. She received a flier in the mail announcing the school schedule.

"I just got in the car, drove over there and signed up," she said of that day in 1979. "I've never regretted it."

She started with her GED and didn't stop there.

"And then I said, 'You know, I want a diploma.' I did it that way purposely. It took me a few years."

The new graduate declines to reveal her age.

"I feel like I'm still young. I don't feel old, that's why I can't give my age away."

Lappek had help along the way from her teachers, who provided plenty of encouragement.

"I must give the teachers credit. The encouragement, the support they gave us. If I'd had bad teachers, I would have dropped out."

"Good teachers make good students, if the students are willing to learn. I can't really say I had a bad teacher there."

The Canton Township resident received several honors certificates for her work, which motivated her to work even harder.

"From there, the encouragement I got, I had to shoot for all A's." One B-plus in an American history class was her lowest grade.

Support on the home front also helped Lappek reach her goal.

"My husband and my two daughters were absolutely thrilled when I was going back to night school." Her husband, Howard, is a pipefitter for General Motors.

Her diploma in hand, graduate Ann Lappek is all smiles.

LAPPEK ENCOURAGES other adults to return to school to finish their high school diplomas.

"Do it. You do it and you'll feel better for it. Before you know it, you're learning things you never knew you could learn."

Lappek found that to be true when she returned to school.

"I never knew I could write a research paper." She found, however, that she could, indeed, write a paper.

"All of a sudden, you're doing things you never thought you were capable of doing." Being able to do those things contributes to self-respect, she said.

It's also important not to hesitate to ask questions in school, Lappek said.

"If you don't understand, don't be afraid to ask questions. That's what they're there for."

Returning to school isn't all work, either.

"It's fun," Lappek said. "I might add that . . . it's really fun."

Meeting people of different ages and backgrounds is an enjoyable experience for her.

Lappek would like to start taking classes at Schoolcraft College and at Detroit Bible College.

"I always said some day I want to go to college." She is considering a couple of career possibilities.

"I like business and I also like real estate. I feel like I could do that. If I make up my mind I'm going to do it, then I'll do it."

That determination is also what helped Lappek reach this graduation day in the spring of 1986.

"Determination is number one. I was determined."

"You just make up your mind, and that's what I did. You've got to say 'I can, I will' — and I did."

Graduate Ann Lappek watches her fellow graduates cross the stage during the ceremony. Lappek is thankful she decided to return to school and encourages others to do the same. "Before you know it, you're learning things you never knew you could learn."

Salem rips Chiefs, 15-0

By Chris McCosky
Staff writer

Plymouth Salem's softball team made a statement Friday. It went something like, "Let there be no doubt as to who the best softball team is at the Centennial Educational Park this year."

The Rocks crushed rival Plymouth Canton 15-0 in a Class A predistrict game.

"The win was nice, especially because we struggled with them Wednesday," said Salem coach Rob Willette. "I thought we were the better team all along. Today we just showed it more."

On Wednesday, Salem battled from a 5-0 deficit to win 9-5.

Friday, Salem scored five runs in the first inning and took off from there. Canton pitcher Diana Knickerbocker walked five Rocks in that first inning (11 total in the game), three of the five scored and another forced in a run.

Sandy Oberliesen drove home two runs in the first inning with line single off first baseman Kristina Wines' glove.

SALEM ADDED two in the second and scored four in both the third and fourth. Leslie Plichta had two hits, drove home three and scored twice for the Rocks.

Meanwhile, Salem pitcher Maggie Meissner was keeping the Chiefs off the bases. In her five innings, the senior gave up one hit and walked two. She also hit a long double in the third.

In the game Wednesday, freshman Ann Mundinger had two hits and three RBI.

The Rocks are 20-6 on the season and will play in the Class A district tournament at Howell on Saturday.

The Chiefs close the year with a 10-7 mark.

TAYLOR CENTER 3, GARDEN CITY 0: How valuable was pitcher Shelly Malone to the No. 1-ranked Cougars?

With Malone, Garden City won 25 straight games. Without her, she injured her arm, the Cougars lost three straight including Friday's predistrict contest.

Malone's replacement, sophomore Kristen Wasil, pitched well, allowing seven hits, but GC could get just five hits off Center's Christine Miro.

It was a heartbreaking end to an otherwise brilliant season for Garden City.

MERCY 14, FARMINGTON 0: The Marlins (21-1) advanced easily Friday.

Michelle Fryatt, Amy Edwards, Terri Nalodka and Kristin Orlandoni each had two hits.

Nalodka and Edwards combined on a two-hit.

Canton catcher Steve Johnson applies the tag on Salem's Sean Worden, who was out trying to steal home Wednesday.

Salem rocks Canton

The season was, for intents and purposes, over for the Plymouth Salem baseball team.

The Rocks had long ago been removed from title contention in the Western Lakes. They had been banished from the state playoffs by Walled Lake Western in a predistrict game.

About the only thing left available for the Rocks was their annual grudge match with Plymouth Canton.

Inspiration was no problem. For the second straight year, Plymouth Salem came from behind to defeat the Chiefs, 15-7, on Wednesday.

"It was really good to win this one," said Salem coach John Gravlin. "It was our state tournament. We really didn't have anything else to play for."

Canton pitched all over Salem starter Chris Davis and carried a 5-2 lead into the fifth inning.

But over the course of the fifth, sixth and seventh innings, Canton's top two pitchers, Jeff Lyle and Adam Kocik, would get raked for 13 runs.

BRIAN TILLER, a part-time center fielder, part-time track runner for the Rocks, blasted a three-run triple in the fifth and scored on Curt White's sacrifice fly to give Salem the lead.

baseball

In a four-run sixth, Rob Adams blasted a monster two-run home run over the tree beyond the left field fence at Canton.

Salem scored five more in the fifth.

"It was great to see the kids play with intensity," Gravlin. "The kids were saying after that if they had played like that all year, they would have been in contention for the league championship. I had been trying to tell them that all year."

Mike Kesson, who has been on a hitting tear the last eight games, rapped four hits including two doubles. Adams knocked in five runs on the day. Tiller was 2-for-2, a double and a triple, with three RBI.

CANTON (10-13), which outhit Salem 16-13, got three hits each from Steve Waite and Chris Sisler. Lyle was tagged with the loss.

Shane Smith got the win in relief for Salem (12-8).

There was quite a JV game between the CEP rivals. Canton's junior varsity group was 16-7 coming in, Salem's 19-1. Salem, behind the pitching of Fidell Cashero, won the game 7-4.

Rob Adams connects on a long two-run home run Wednesday in Salem's 15-7 win at Plymouth Canton. Adams had five RBI on the day.

Chiefs romp in tourney

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

The mystery team is 2-0 in the Class A state baseball tournament.

Nothing else matters right now to the Plymouth Canton Chiefs; not last week's humiliating loss to Plymouth Salem, not the first sub-500 season in the school's history, not the team's Jekyll-and-Hyde inconsistency, nothing.

The Chiefs were all smiles on Friday as they trounced Bloomfield Hills Lahser in the state predistrict game, 8-2. They will play Bloomfield Hills Andover at 12:30 p.m. Saturday in the district semifinals at Walled Lake Western.

"We've dominated this area for so long, I think our tradition may have caught up with us," Crissey said.

"There are a lot of ghosts at Canton. The kids see all the former players coming back from college ball. A lot was expected, and I really think the kids just got tight."

IF ANYONE came to see Canton for the first time on Friday, they might not understand what Crissey is talking about because the Chiefs looked like world beaters — particularly left-hander Adam Kocik.

Kocik, a senior, limited Lahser to two hits and took a shutout into the seventh inning. But Kocik tired, and Lahser scored two runs on six walks. He struck out 10 on the day.

Had he maintained the shutout, it would have been his fourth on the season and a Canton record. He shut out West Bloomfield 6-0 on a two-hitter in the predistrict qualifier.

The Chiefs built their eight-run cushion in the first three innings. Steve Waite hit a long two-run triple to highlight a four-run second-inning outburst. Chris Sisler, Mark Stevens and Mike Culver each had two hits for the Chiefs.

After the Chiefs scored the eight runs, Crissey emptied his bench. The only drama left to the game was Kocik's shutout bid.

IT WAS a nice change of pace for Canton, which has experienced mostly pain this season.

"We've done a lot of soul-searching this year," he said.

"It's been a situation where we are snake-bit. In 10 of our losses, we were ahead or tied from the fifth inning on. We just haven't been able to put the nail in the coffin. But the kids — give them credit — they have never quit."

The Walled Lake Western regional will feature Canton and Andover in the first game. In the second game, Farmington (who beat Walled Lake Central 4-3 on Friday) will play the winner of the Northville-Walled Lake Western pre district.

Canton girls eye WLAA title

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

Livonia Stevenson's girls track team is ranked No. 1 in Observerland. Unbeaten in dual meets, it is the champion of the Western Lakes Lakes Division. And it won the Observerland meet.

So let's not fool around. Let's crown the Spartans Western Lakes champs right now and forget about Wednesday's 12-team league meet at Walled Lake Central. Just rubber stamp it, it's a mere formality.

Uh, not exactly. "I don't see it that way at all," said Paul Holmberg, Stevenson coach. "I don't see any clear-cut favorite. We won on our depth, we get the seconds and thirds and our share of firsts. But those people who were getting firsts in dual meets may find it very hard to score points in a 12-team meet."

His point is well taken. The Western Lakes meet will enhance the chances of teams with premier individual talent. Teams like Westland John Glenn, which had great difficulty winning dual meets, will likely score well Wednesday. Why? Because a sterling performer like Karen Opp alone can win her team 40 points.

"BUT 40 points won't win the league meet," advises Plymouth Canton coach George Frysgodski, girls track

whose team won the Western Division title and is among the favorites to win Wednesday.

"First-place firepower is definitely going to decide this meet, but for Glenn to win, Karen Opp is going to have to run in 10 events," he said. "This could be the closest league meet ever. You know, I look at this thing and we may not score in six events. We have just an outside chance at winning."

If the two division champs are leary of their chances, who can win it?

Realistically, any of six or seven teams. Stevenson, Canton and North Farmington top the list. Livonia Franklin, Livonia Churchill, Plymouth Salem and even Farmington could make a run at it.

The individuals will decide the issue, so here's a look at the top people in each event:

Shot put: Good battle here between Nancy Cothran of North, Stacy Graham of Glenn and Patti Brandon of Franklin.

Discus: Brandon and Cothran will score, but Salem's Karen Marciniak will be the one to beat.

High jump: Angie Miller of Canton and Tammy Spengler of North have both reached 5-0 this year. Walled Lake Western's Pam Roselle was a regional champ at 5-2.

Long jump: Kathy Long of Stevenson has been at the top of this event all season. She'll be challenged by Canton's Sherry Figurski, Franklin's Lisa Dominato, Danielle Price of Western and Opp.

100-meter hurdles: Dominato and Stevenson's Karen Millen are the top guns here. Salem's Amy Johnson will also challenge.

300 hurdles: Farmington's Lori Casaroll and Millen have recorded the lowest times in the league to date.

100 dash: Long and Amy Hollman give Stevenson outstanding potential here. Keep an eye on Dena Head of Salem.

200 dash: North Farmington's Spengler twins, Terry and Tammy, could do serious damage. Michelle Jablonski of Western will also be in the hunt.

400 dash: This is Karen Opp's race. She is the only Observerland runner to crack 1:00.00 in this event so far. Tricia Carney of Canton and Julie Garczynski of North have the unenviable task of chasing her.

800 run: Opp has the area's best time here, also. Suzanne Moore of Stevenson, Carol Sulick of Churchill and Anna Queenville of Farmington will all be in the chase.

1,600 run: Jenny Anderson of Farmington Harrison has emerged as the class of this event with her stunning 5:19.3 run at the Class B regional. Karen Kantor and Shella Taormina of Stevenson and Marie Jarosz of Canton will give her a good run.

3,200 run: Anderson again has the top time (11:47.8). Rachel Mann of Canton, Kantor, Ginger Rowland of Glenn, Michele Economou of Stevenson, Nicole Jelley of Farmington and Donna Chuba of North are all contenders here.

400 relay: Up for grabs. Plymouth Salem has a real good team (52.3), Stevenson can put together a good one, so can Walled Lake Western and North.

800 relay: North Farmington's race here. Salem, Stevenson and Franklin could also do well.

1,600 relay: Harrison has done 4:16.3 here. A repeat of that would be hard to beat.

3,200 relay: Stevenson (9:54.3) and Canton (9:54.0) will stage a nice race in this one.

The field events will begin at 3:30 p.m. with track preliminaries at 4 p.m. Track finals are scheduled for 6 p.m.

CEP teams among contenders in boys WLAA league meet

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

One coach will secretly tell you that Livonia Churchill is the team to beat Wednesday at the Western Lakes boys track meet.

Another will tell you to keep your eyes on North Farmington. Still another will say Farmington and Plymouth Canton are the favorites.

Nobody really knows, and that is the beauty of Wednesday's conference meet at Churchill.

"This is the most balance I have ever seen in this meet," said Plymouth Salem coach Gary Balconi, whose team shouldn't be overlooked in the list of contenders.

"Any one of five teams could win this meet," said North Farmington coach Dave Thorne. "It all depends on who does what to who."

Farmington, the champions of the Lakes Division, and Canton, champs of the Western Division and the Observerland meet, are expected to be frontrunners Wednesday. The teams are loaded with depth and have top-line individual competitors.

North Farmington possesses the league's best sprint team and one of the top field-event teams. They also have a strong distance runner in Kirk Armstrong.

boys track

CHURCHILL IS an extremely deep team, but short on first-place caliber individuals (with the exception of pole vault and high jump).

"Don't count us out," said Balconi. "We'll kick and scratch and if anyone messes up, hopefully we'll be ready to step in. We're going to gamble. When you do that you can either win it all or go broke. We feel we have nothing to lose."

An intangible factor which could affect the outcome of the meet is the state meet, scheduled for Saturday, two short days after the league meet.

Some coaches, like Farmington's Dave Catherman and Thorne, may have to decide to limit the activity of their front-line people.

Here is a look at the top competitors in each event. Keep in mind

Canton, Falcons among favorites that this was done prior to the meet's seeding meeting. This listing is based primarily on the Observerland listings compiled by Churchill coach Fred Price.

Shot put: A real war here between Farmington's Craig Petersmark, North's Wes Pringle and Franklin's Chris Forry.

Discus: Again, Petersmark and Pringle battle, with Stevenson's Matt Pulick and Westland John Glenn's Harold Lovelace.

High jump: Steve Genyk has jumped 6-3 for Canton this year, but Churchill's Jim Rintilla will be hard to beat here.

Long jump: Canton's Tyrone Reeves should win this event. The regional champ has the area's longest leap with a 22-3/4. Teammate Roger Trice also will score highly here.

Pole vault: Churchill could go 1-2 here with Eric Brandemihl and Eric Gudeman. Salem's Ron Piwko could be a surprise, as could Andy Holliday of Farmington and Eric Wise of Harrison.

100-meter dash: Scott Selzer of North Farmington and Salem's Brian Neuhardt both have run 10.9 this year. Harrison's Aaron Yaverski also will challenge.

200 dash: Selzer and Neuhardt have the top times, although Neuhardt will most likely run the 400. Yaverski and Canton's Brian Carney also may be factors.

400 dash: Neuhardt is a regional champ in this event and should win it Wednesday. Mark Weintraub of North and Jim Young of Canton could give a battle here.

800 run: Farmington's Al Stebbins would win this event if he ran it, his best time of 1:57.7 easily tops the league. But Catherman may use him in the 1,600 only. Glenn's Kyle Szukaitis, Harrison's Chad Burgess, Franklin's Scott Butler and Stevenson's Matt Gerwols could challenge.

1,600 run: Stebbins is a regional champ here. His 4:20.0 tops Observerland. North's Kirk Armstrong, Glenn's Dan Liedel and Churchill's Rob Annett also are very good here.

3,200 run: Chris Inch of Farmington owns this one. The regional champ has been as good as 9:25.2 in this event. Liedel and Armstrong will chase.

110 high hurdles: Canton is awfully good here with Bryan Whiteley and Dan Houdek. North's Chris Wojtowycz should score as well.

300 low hurdles: Salem (Chris Hill), Canton (Houdek) and North (Wojtowycz) will score here.

400 relay: Give it to North. The regional champs went 43.5 at Hazel Park. Canton and Salem chase.

800 relay: Salem, Canton and Franklin are 2-3-4 in Observerland.

1,600 relay: Again, Salem and Canton but Farmington, North and Churchill could put together strong teams.

3,200 relay: If Farmington wants to, it can win this one going away. The Falcons have run an 8:07.3 this season. Harrison also has a good team, as does Churchill.

Field events will commence at 3:15 p.m. with the track preliminaries at 5 p.m. The finals will begin at 6 p.m.

The cost is $9.50 per person and includes bus fair and ticket.

Call 397-1000 for more information.

● CHIEFS SOCCER

Any Plymouth-Canton High School

boy (grades 9-12) interested in playing varsity soccer next fall should attend a brief meeting at 6 p.m. Monday, June 2 at the Canton's Phase III. Call Mike Morgan at 420-0063 for more information.

● VARDAR TRYOUTS

The Vardar III Soccer Club will be conducting tryouts for the following age groups:

Under 12 boys born 1974 or 1975, 6 p.m. June 2-4; Under 11 boys born 1976, 5 p.m. June 7 and 1 p.m. June 8.

All tryouts will be held at the Whitman Center on West Chicago between Farmington and Merriman in Livonia.

Call 421-0187 or 453-0196 for more information.

● TUG-O-WAR

The sixth annual Canton Country Festival Tug-O-War will take place on the festival grounds at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 21.

There is a 1,000-pound limit per team and no spikes will be allowed.

There is no cost to enter. Call Louise Spigarelli at 3967-1000, ext. 278 for registration information.

● CANTON FESTIVAL 5-MILER

The eighth annual Canton Country Festival 5-Mile Run is set for 9 a.m. Saturday, June 21.

The cost is $6 before June 19, $7 after. The grand prize will be a weekend trip for two to Toronto. All participants in the race will be eligible for the grand prize.

T-shirts, plaques and medals will also be awarded.

Call 397-1000 for more information and check the Observer for race entry form beginning Thursday.

● SCRAMBLES GOLF TOURNEY

The sixth annual Canton Festival Golf Tournament, sponsored by the Canton parks and rec department, will take place beginning at 11 a.m. Sunday, June 22 at Fellows Creek.

The format is a three-person team concept. Top three teams will receive awards, as will the person hitting the longest drive and closest to the pin.

Fee is $40 per team. Deadline is June 19.

Call 397-1000 for more information.

● STEELERS SIGNUP

Registration for those interested in competing on the Plymouth-Canton Steelers Junior League Football Program will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, June 7 in the Phase III lobby at Plymouth Canton High School.

Boys ages 9-13 are eligible. The cost is $50 per player. Birth certificates must be handed in along with the fee.

For more information, call Sue Herman at 455-7299 or Linda Roushkolb at 459-9519.

Rocks top Rockets

Plymouth Salem (4-2) dominated the individual races and took three of five field events during a 94-43 victory over Westland John Glenn in a boys track meet Wednesday at Salem.

Plymouth Salem sprinter Rob Parm took a first place in the 100-yard dash with a time of 10.79 and teammate Brian Neuhardt won the 220- and 440-yard dashes in 23.67 and 50.76, respectively.

Rocks runner Bill Atwell finished first in the two-mile run with a time of 10:25.52.

Plymouth Salem also won the 120- and 330-yard hurdles.

Doug Olender took the 120 race finishing in 16.41 and Chris Hill finished first in the 330 with a time of 41.95.

Rocks pole vaulter Ron Piwko finished first with a vault of 12-6.

Neuhardt finished first in the long jump with a 20-6 leap.

Tony Moore and Doug Soho tied in the high jump each with a 5-8 leap.

Hull gets sponsor

The stock car racing career of Canton's Jim Hull is taking off.

Hull recently signed a sponsorship contract with Duraliner, which bills itself as "America's No. 1 pickup truck bed protector."

Duraliner will sponsor Hull in the NASCAR Winston Cup Series Champion Spark Plug Event Aug. 17 at the Michigan International Speedway. It will be Hull's third appearance at MIS.

ESPN will carry the race live. Hull's car will wear No. 64.

Duraliner may also sponsor Hull in four other races in the fall.
