Buried toxic chemicals scuttle project

Tax rate drops; Bills to remain about the same

Homeowners in Plymouth Township will continue to pay about the same amount for municipal services even though the township board Tuesday reduced its tax rate by 6 percent. The reason?

8 temporary officers helped control cruising

By Susan Buck staff writer

Eight police officers hired on a temporary basis for the summer reduced Plymouth's cruising problem, which is expected to continue another five years.

That is the message Paul Sincock, assistant to the city manager, delivered to the city commission at Monday night's meeting.

We are probably in the second year of a five- to six-year cycle of Plymouth," said Sincock. "You take the older brothers and sisters of a family and the good times they had on Main Street in the downtown area. This permeates down to the younger folks when they get their driver's licenses, and they want to come down and have some fun, too."

CRUISING COST city taxpayers $86,804 this year.

Total cost to hire the temporary police officers was $65,435. Other-cruising being a popular thing in wise, according to Sincock, the city would have had to order 1,576 hours of overtime to keep a minimum of five officers on duty 7 p.m. to 3 a.m. Sunday through Thursday and eight officers on Friday and Saturday during the same hours.

Police department tickets for 1987 totalled 3,495 so far this year compared to 1,065 during the same period in 1986. A breakdown of ticket totals this year include: civil infractions 2,184, last year 1,134; misdemeanors 734, last year 361; and ordinance violations 826, last year 260

Revenue estimates from the 35th District Court as of Aug. 31 were $92,015. Based on higher fees charged, the city budget shows a projected 77 percent increase in court revenue to $115,000.

An estimated 300 tickets are still outstanding. These include 35 of 88 driving under the influence of alcohol; 200 of 449 trespassing; 50 of 128 minors in possession of alcohol; and 15 of 38 urinating in public.

"The average major ticket generates $161.47 based on a May 1987 report. Total estimate of revenues still outstanding from major tickets is $48,441."

VARIOUS APPROACHES to "downsize" the problems arising from young people cruising, loitering and trespassing downtown helped to ease but did not eliminate the problem, Sincock said.

He attributed the reduction to proper planning, cooperation of residents, businesses, the police department and city officials, and experimentation with different approach-

Fast township growth governed by master plan

By M.B. Dillon

If you live or work in Plymouth Township, you're well aware of how rapidly its rural character is being transformed by development.

TAKING SHAPE now are construction projects that mirror a philosophy and master plan devised nearly two decades ago.

"This goes back to 1970," said Jim

Anulewicz, Plymouth Township planning director. "Plymouth Township then was looked at as a very rural community. There were numerous discussions and input from the public as to how development ought to proceed."

Many favored preserving the the township's western half for agricultural use, he said.

"It was a long process to determine the goal. Was it to keep the western half agricultural, or was the goal to maintain wooded lots and the quality of the environment that we

The latter won out, and "we set up some stringent criteria through the master plan," said Anulewicz. "Since then, a number of issues have surfaced, and the township had the foresight to go back, look at the plan and say no, there's some sound reasoning behind this zoning. In some cases we did make modifications."

The master plan, currently being revised, calls for 39 percent of land to be devoted to low-density residential development, 20 percent to medium-density residential, 10 percent

Learn more about aged

AP - Communities need to learn more about abuse of the elderly before they can effectively deal with the problem, participants at a regional conference on aging were told recently.

"We know very little about abuse," said Penelope Hommel, director of the Center for Social Gerontology in Ann Arbor, Mich. We are not going to be able to do much in terms of prevention until we learn more about the abuse (of the elderly).

The three-member panel at the Eighth Annual Conference of Central States Coalition on Aging said abuse of the elderly takes many forms verbal, emotional, financial or physi-

Many participants at the conference criticized states for passing inadequate legislation. Hommel said most states did not appropriate enough money to make their laws effective.

Deborah Finley of the Missouri Division of Aging said not enough concern was given to those who notify authorities of abuse of the elderly.

"We would like to have with our law some kind of protection for the reporters (of abuse of the elderly)," she said. She said nursing home employees sometimes run into criticism when they report problems.

Diane's daughter, Dara, 15, shares

Community crews face mock disaster scenario

Bill Walters, industrial risks director for Florida-based Safety Systems and instructor for Olin Corp.'s three-day training program, attracted a crowd on onlookers as he ignited several barrels used in the hands-on disaster drill.

Working as a team, the firefighters moved in on the blazing barrels as a second group kept a shower of foam aimed at the fire during the training exercise.

By Sue Mason staff writer

A chemical mishap that releases toxic fumes into the air, forcing the evacuation of residents . . . It's a scenario that has happened many times in the past and will happen again in the future.

Dealing with a hazardous materials emergency is no simple task. And for three days last week representatives of at least 17 communities got hands-on experience. thanks to the Olin Corp. of Livonia. The firm, which manufactures a wide range of industrial chemicals, staged the training session as part of its CAER (Community Awareness and Emergency Response)

The training is an important component of Olin's CAER program, a chemical industry effort aimed at ensuring that emergency plans are in effect in all communities where chemical manufacturing or warehouse facilities exist and that those plans are tested regularly," said Hal Foss, Olin's Livonia plant manager.

We use the training like an insurance policy," added Lee Nawrocki, Olin's quality assurance manager. "If we do have a problem here or somewhere in the county. this training is not only beneficial to us, but to others.

This is the second year Olin's Livonia plant offered the training. the result of an "overwhelming response" to last year's training session, Nawrocki said.

"WE'VE UPDATED the program and revised some of the techniques in handling chemical disasters." he said.

The training was not only for 15 of Olin's in-house emergency response employees, but emergency care providers like St. Mary Hospital and fire fighters from Livonia. Redford, Plymouth, Canton, Garden City, Westland, Farmington. Farmington Hills and Southfield.

Agencies from Flint, Pontiac. Lansing, Adrian, Detroit and several Downriver communities also participated

The training ranged from a review of lessons learned from handling major industrial emergencies and incidents that could have been easily prevented to a pair of handson sessions dealing with a leak. spill or fire scenario.

The training while geared to help emergency personnel handle industrial emergencies, also provided fire personnel with the minimum state requirements - 24 hours - for such training at no cost to the local communities. Nawrocki said

Olin paid for the cost of the three-day session, put on by Safety Systems, a Florida firm, and hosted by the Livonia Fire Department.

"This can be a financial burden on local agencies, so their personnel don't always get this specialized training." Nawrocki said. "Our hope is that they would get this training so that when they respond. they respond with the knowledge of how to handle such emergencies.

"WITH MORE emphasis on training and awareness the greater the possibility of minimizing the problem of an emergency.

Olin takes its handling of chemicals seriously. Not only does it offer programs like the one last week, it also maintains OCEAN Olin Corp Emergency Action Net-

OCEAN is an advanced communications network designed to provide quick and accurate information around the clock and throughout the year in the event of an emergency.

The network includes fully equipped mobile disaster teams that can assist with a chemical emergency. The teams are strategically located throughout the country, so that it takes only four hours to get to a disaster site, Nawrocki said. The team for Olin's Livonia plant is based in Ohio, he added.

The firm already has begun planning next year's session to offer additional training to keep emergency personnel up to date.

Man dies after trying to stop thief

staff writer

Will Dowling gave freely of himself both before and after he died. Before he died, he tried to stop a purse snatcher and suffered a brain concussion. After he died, he donated his or gans for transplant to others.

Dowling, 26, of Silverwood in Michigan's thumb area was pronounced dead at 1:26 p.m. Tuesday at Botsford General Hospital, after his organs had been removed.

He had been kept technically alive since Monday, so that blood could flow through his system and keep his organs fresh.

The young roofer, in Livonia to earn some extra money for his wife and three sons, had been hospitalized since Monday, Sept. 14, when he fell off the car of a suspected purse snatcher.

The employer of the purse snatching victim rallied around Dowling and his wife, Michelle, trying to raise money for his hospital bill. Dowling had minimal insurance.

"PEOPLE TELL me, 'It was a stupid thing for him to do, to climb up on the car." said the employer. Judy Finzel, owner of Hair Etc. 20313 Middlebelt. "Maybe it was dumb, but he did it. The price he paid was too high.

tip of the iceberg," she said. Donations can be sent in the name of Michelle Dowling, Account No. 7014816875, Michigan National Bank. 19120 Middlebelt, Livonia

Dowling saw a woman steal a purse from a car parked at a gas station at Eight Mile and Middlebelt and took off after her in his own car, according to police reports.

At the intersection of Eight Mile and Grand River, he caught up with the car. Police said he first pounded on the windows of the car; then he climbed onto the car and started kicking the windshield.

When the car turned right, he fell off the hood and suffered a skull fracture.

Police later arrested two people

Deep trouble awaits a state plan to cut school property taxes and raise the sales tax. It's likely to come from suburban "out-of-formula" school districts that have strong property tax bases and get no state

"There's not one out-of-formula school district that will be for this plan. It blackmails wealthier districts," said state Sen Norm Shinkle, R-Monroe County

Shinkle was one of three "nay" votes when the Michigan School Finance Commission Tuesday adopted its overdue "Educational Quality in the 21st Century" report in Lansing, forwarding it to the state Board of Education and the Legislature

THE VOTE was 32-3 with eight members absent. Also opposed were Dr. Peter Eckstein, state AFL-CIO economist, and Allan Short of the Michigan Education Association.

Shinkle is more than a minority vote. He's chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, which rules on tax measures in that Republicancontrolled body Some Democrats, too, were unhappy with the 37-page

Sen. Lana Pollack. D-Ann Arbor, cast a reluctant yes vote but saw possible harm to her school-conscious district.

The caps (23 mills) on property taxes (for school operations) would prevent Ann Arbor from reaching what it had (in revenue). You have to run the numbers for each school dis-with low millages can raise their millages to recover lost revenue," she said, citing Bridgman, a tiny Lake Michigan shoreline district with a large nuclear plant and a 6mill tax rate.

ON THE OTHER hand, districts with high revenues due to high millage rates won't be able to recover lost revenue under the plan, Pollack

Many are in the high-technology belt stretching from Rochester Hills through Southfield, Farmington, Livonia and out to Ann Arbor, and including Birmingham and Bloom-

"They will lose," she said. "And that belt controls a great deal of political clout

Dr. Gary Wolfram, an economist on the Senate Republican staff, saw another twist that would hurt out-offormula districts. The plan calls for pooling all business property taxes and distributing them evenly statewide. It also calls for a constitutional amendment (see outline of plan on this page).

"If that ballot plan fails, and if you (suburban districts) don't agree to pool your industrial and commercial tax base, then your allocated millage is in effect" - that is, about 7-9 mills. Statewide, the average school operating tax is 32-plus mills. Thus suburban districts could lose three-fourths of their revenue.

That provision is what Shinkle called "blackmail."

The proposal would eliminate state categorical grants for local districts' Social Security taxes and transportation (Aid for special and bilingual education would be retained, however.)

"If we don't have some support for Social Security and transportation, we'll never sell it (the report) You can kiss it goodbye," said O'Neill, a member of the House Appropriations Committee

Here are key excerpts from the final report of the Michigan School Finance Commission - the socalled "Harden Commission

The commission supports the position that permanent property tax relief should be provided, and that the method should be approved by the voters in the form of a constitutional amendment

The constitutional amendment should contain the following provisions

• Sales tax - "An increase of 2 cents in the sales and use tax." Currently the rate is 4 percent "Residential energy payments would be entirely exempt from the sales tax. This will include gas, electric, heating fuel, coal and other energy products

• Business property tax - "A flat 23-mill levy statewide on all commercial, industrial, utility and developmental property ... All of the revenue would be designated to the school aid fund

• Homes, farms - "Each school board would be authorized to levy up to 18 mills without a vote of the people" on residential, agricultural and timber cutover property. Voters could raise this rate to 25 mills, but to the business rate

Cigarette tax hike called to fight AIDS

LANSING, Mich. (AP) - Michigan testing would be the best way t should raise its cigarette tax to help fund an $86.4 million effort to treat impoverished AIDS victims and fight tobacco use, a state senator

Sen. William Sederburg, R-East Lansing, Thursday unveiled a 10point package of legislation linking the two health issues and allocating $75.3 million for the AIDS effort. Of that, $48 million would pay for treatment of AIDS patients without insurance or ineligible for government

Another $15.3 million would pay for free confidential testing and counseling for every person in the state, while $4 million would be spent on AIDS education, including sending a packet of information about the fatal disease to every Michigan household.

SEDERBURG SAID he decided to fund the AIDS programs and the anti-tobacco effort with tobacco taxes, including a 6-cent a pack increase in the state cigarette tax, because "over 50 percent of the diseases we spend billions of dollars treating are preventable."

"I think it's wholly appropriate that revenues from these disease causers go to disease prevention and risk reduction," he said.

Sederburg, who chairs the Senate Health Policy Committee, said that universal testing would conflict with the advice of medical officials who say tests need only be given to highrisk groups - homosexuals, bisexual men and intravenous drug users.

However, he said free voluntary courage the estimated 15,000 gan residents who are infected the AIDS virus to be tested.

SINCE THE deadly acquired mune deficiency syndrome ha cure, the only way to stop its sp is to encourage those with All change their behavior, he said.

"With AIDS on the horizon, imperative that the Legislatur tablish a network of education. ness and prevention program fight the spread of AIDS, cancer other catastrophic, but prevent diseases.

"Currently, we spend less th percent of our health care dolla prevention. It is time now to I our efforts toward limiting h care expenses down the road."

New jail space coming — one way or other

staff writer

Wayne County Commissioners have two choices when it comes to a recently-proposed $6 million expansion project for the county jail. They can approve building the new jail annex or wait for a judge to order it.

Chief Wayne County Circuit Judge Richard Kaufman indicated in court Monday he might order the county to build new jail cells if the county commission didn't approve expansion plans by Monday, Oct. 5.

One local commissioner said she didn't believe a court order would be

'My feeling is this is going to be approved," commissioner Susan Heintz, R-Northville Township, said. 'It's an excellent plan."

Others commissioners, however, said they wondered where the county would find money to build new jail

Added commissioner Kay Beard, D-Inkster "I don't think we have any objections other than how it's going to be financed be tapped for the jail expansion, according to Deputy County Executive Michael Duggan

There are a number of ways we could go," he said. "We're looking at the U.S. Marshal's program and at federal drug money, too.

The recent Reagan drug bill establishes grants to build prison space for drug offenders. The county also receives a fee for jailing U.S. Marshal's prisoners

Approximately $7.5 million is available through the hospital's sale to a private medical consortium, Duggan said.

Beard, though, said her own estimates placed the hospital sale revenue closer to $6 million. "We clearly need hard numbers on how this (the jail expansion) is going to be paid for," she said.

Design options, including reducing the proposed three new gymnasiums, would help reduce cost, Duggan said.

Otherwise, there would have to "My biggest question is how are be additional deputies to ride the elevators with prisoners to gymnasiums," he said. "The design we're using will save $700,000 a year in manpower costs.

The project would cost $12,000 per cell, Duggan said, roughly $30,000 below the national average.

THE EXPANSION plan was rati-Edward McNamara, sheriff Robert

Ficano and attorneys representing jail inmates.

It involves a new six story wing on Gratiot and converting an unused 13th floor gymnasium at the current jail for cells. Space would be provided for as many as 470 new prisoners

Some county officials, however, doubted whether that many new prisoners would ever be housed at

"I think once the (state) department of corrections gets through with looking at the plans, the number will probably be closer to 370," Ficano said. "Still, it's an improvement over what we have."

Ficano, however, said expanding the jail shouldn't prompt other county officials into believing jail overcrowding had been fully corrected.

"I still say we need a jail for mis-demeanor offenders," he said. "I don't think the new jail buildling should lull anyone into a false sense of security that we have all the jail space we're going to need."

Mack agreed jail overcrowding wouldn't be finished as a major county issue.

'It's almost a rule of nature that once you build new jail cells, they fill up fast," he said. "At some point. we're going to have to take a look at the courts and at what kind of prisoners are being sent to jail. It seems to me that jail should be the place for dangerous, violent felons."

This rooftop gymnasium will be enclosed for new jail cells under a proposal to increase detention space at the Wayne County Jail.

State Transportation Director James P. Pitz announced the start of a special safety testing program for the long-delayed Zilwaukee Bridge.

Speaking before the Oakland chapter of the Michigan Society of Professional Engineers (MSPE) last week, Pitz said, "I believe this testing program and the U.S. General

Michigan legislators will consider approving a $100 million transportation package in the next few weeks.

If passed, the legislation would finance the following state highway program priorities: preservation of the existing highway system; improvements to relieve growing traffic congestion, and expansion of the highway system to accommodate economic growth.

"Passage of the transportation package is critical," said James Pitz, director of the Michigan Department of Transportation.

"This package will do a lot of good for our highway system. Passage of the legislation is expected to delay the need to raise gasoline taxes.

THE PROPOSED legislation has four basic recommendations:

• Raise user fees for various driver services provided by the state. Specifically, the package calls for increasing title transfer, special permit, driver's license fees and enacting a transaction fee.

 Increase truck registration fees to provide better equity with private automobile fees

· Establish a transportation economic development fund to support continuation of the state's economic revitalization.

· Provide more options for local governments to raise revenues to finance local transportation needs.

Many people consider the segment bridge design to be exotic and controversial, yet segmental bridges have been used in Europe since the 1950s. Currently, more than 70 segmental bridges are either completed or under construction in the U.S. and

The tests will be certified by Construction Technology Laboratories Inc. of Chicago, and the results of the testing will be given to a panel of bridge experts hired by the GAO.

Pitz said early test results indicate that actual bridge deflections (bending) during the tests are well below design limits. He was hopeful that when the final results are tabulated in mid-October, the controversy over the safety of the "Z" Bridge will be over. "I hope this will be enough proof that the bridge is he said

THE 1982 construction accident - which caused a 300-foot deck section to rise on one end and sag at the other end and almost caused the bridge to fall - was the result of overloading, he said.

'Human error, not design error was to blame." said Pitz. "The human error was corrected in 1983. and the damaged part is now the strongest section.

Questioned about safety concerns raised by a consulting engineer hired by The Detroit News, Pitz replied. We were already on top of the problem when the story broke.

"The spalls (circular cracks) in question were caused by water entering uncompleted portions of the bridge and freezing The cracks and repair are not very pretty to look at, but they do not affect the structural safety of the bridge

A STRUCTURAL engineer with a bachelor of science degree from the University of Marquette, Pitz was relaxed before his technical audience and candidly talked about the controversy surrounding the $117.5million project

Pitz acknowledged that he has worked hard to defuse concerns about the safety of the Zilwaulkee Bridge since assuming the directorship of MDOT in 1983

This project emphasizes the importance of communication in our work as engineers. We are working to develop better credibility for our engineering abilities It's a tough task because it is difficult to talk about a technical subject to nontechnical people," he said

AFTER THE meeting. Pitz discussed the health and safety of the Pitz explained that while all the structurally deficient bridges are not in poor condition, they are rated at loadings below today's legal loads. The functionally obsolete bridges are deficient by reasons of deck shape and/or substandard horizontal and vertical alignments.

Pitz said that bridge replacement and repair costs currently are funded by the $27-million Critical Bridge Program. The federal government provides $19.5 million to the fund, the state provides $5 million, and local county and agencies 10 percent as their share of costs for their proj-

Since 1976, 791 bridges have been funded under the program. Each year approximately 150 new applications are received and only 60 to 80 bridges can be done under current funding levels.

"With our annual bridges inspection we have a good handle on bridge conditions throughout the state, but we are not keeping up with the repairs required," said Pitz

Almost parallel to the altar where Pape John Paul II celebrated Mass, the group had a bird's-eye view of the stadium as it slowly filled up throughout the day.

"It was a chance of a lifetime," said Sophie Zubris, also a member of the St. Regis choir.

The two women were among 21 of the church's 40 choir members to sing at the papal Mass. At first there was a lottery to select four choir members, but participation was

We were really fortunate," Zubris said.

Rosemary O'Hara of Plymouth was the only member of the St. Kenneth Church choir to sing at the Mass. She initially auditioned as a cantor, but when she didn't make it, she was automatically included in the choir.

"I'M EXCITED, but I'm very secure about performing," she said, scanning the ground floor crowd for her husband and daughter. "I've been singing since I was 9 years old. Music is my love.

A chance of a lifetime seemed to be the way most choir members described their reason for being in the musical group. Joan Stenerson of Farmington Hills, a member of St. Clare Church, was excited and hoped her grandchildren - she doesn't have any yet "hear about this." "I'd do it again, no doubt about it," she said.

The choir members rehearsed in groups at churches throughout the metropolitan area until last week when they came together for a practice session. That session in St. Clement's Church, was "excellent,"

Joseph Horn of Southfield, who's attending Duns Scotus College Seminary, also was excited about singing for the pope.

HE BECAME a member of the choir by chance.

"I wrote in and requested to be in the choir and they accepted me," he said. "At first I didn't think I had a chance, but when I saw my friends were getting in, I figured I did."

Horn, 22, made sure he called his family Friday night to let them know where he was sitting in the choir, so they could watch for him during the television coverage of the

Most religous leaders laud pope's message

Most religious leaders who came to see the pope in Detroit Saturday were awed by his presence.

But others like the Rev. Rod Reinhart, an Episcopalian priest at St. Andrews Memorial Episcopal Church in Detroit, saw the event as a chance to publicly oppose the pontiff's stand on issues.

He carried a sign during a protest in Grand Circus Park supporting the ordination of women in the Catholic priesthood

"I'm marching for this," he said pointing to sign.

'The Romans are our separated brethren who we love and care about. They're basically cutting off their own foot, in one respect."

NOT ADMITTING women to the priesthood hurts women and hurts the Catholic church as an institution,

Vivian Compton of Livonia left the sisterhood "for personal reasons" in 1968 after 10 years of service. At the rally she carried a sign that said, 'Women's rights are human rights."

"I would like him to show more respect for women and their role in the church leadership, and at the highest levels," Compton said.

"I'd like him to recognize that gays, Christians and non-Christians, are of the world. They are created in the image of God, and have a right to the full human experience including sexual activity."

About half a mile down Woodward, closer to Hart Plaza, religious leaders were enthusiastic and supportive of the pope's visit.

'I think he's great. He's such a people oriented pope, and he's inspirational. especially for me as a priest.'

- Father Tim Kane

This was the second attempt to see the pope for the Rev. Tim Kane of Bishop Borgess High School in Redford Township.

Last February a snowstorm kept the pontiff in Florence as Kane awaited among a general audience in Rome.

"This was a good chance to see him," Kane said. "I think he's great. He's such a people oriented pope, and he's inspirational, especially for me as a priest."

Two members of the Sisters of Mercy, headquartered in Farmington Hills, had rave reviews for the pope's message at Hart Plaza.

"I loved the way he said we can't help others unless we start with prayer," said Sister Mary Denise, who works at Samaritan Hospital.

"It was breathtaking," said Sister Mary Andrew, who works in the Cass Corridor ministering to the poor.

The pope's speech, calling for "a new worldwide solidarity," transcended the boundaries of the Catholic church and provided a spiritual message for all faiths, said the Rev. James West of Augsburg Lutheran

WEST WAS VISIBLY moved by the pontiff's message. "Overall, I think he is calling for us to be who we are, and to fulfill our role in the eyes of the Lord," he said.

"I probably would have gotten a better overall view from watching him on television," West said. "But just to be here to see the pope in person is the kind of thing that really creates memories.

The Rev. Keith Hosey of Hartford City, Ind., clearly didn't agree with all the pope says. But Hosey said he has deep respect for the pontiff. "He's uniquely himself, regardless of what he says, what he is cuts in strong.

In a partial reference to Poland's now-banned trade union movement, Pope John Paul spoke of the word "solidarity," and its importance in his homeland and the world.

"Today (solidarity) rolls like a wide wave over the face of the world, which realizes we cannot live according to the principle of 'all against all,' but only according to another principle, 'all with all,' (and) 'all for all.'

As he spoke, a banner with the words "Solidarity Pope" hung from the scaffolding at St. Florian's Catholic Church.

But the pope also disappointed some. Rumor had it that he would stop his popernobile to visit a small papal square where there is a statue of him. Despite a swarm of police officers at the site, the pontiff cruised right past, instead waving a blessing on the statue.

After the pope had passed, police quickly squelched a near-riot when papal supporters clashed with a group of protesters carrying signs saying, "The Roman Catholic Church

Concerts for tonight and Saturday at Ford Auditorium have been canceled after musicians said Monday that they were forced into a

IN A PRESS conference Monday, the musicians said they were willing to "talk and play" once their contract expired Sept. 13.

But, said DSO violinist Stacey Woolley, they were told by management on Sept. 11 that once the contract expired their pay would be cut by 11 percent.

The minimum pay for the 104 musicians is $910 a week or $47,320 a year. Most make above the minimum.

Greed motivates

Con men sell an easy way out

EWS STORIES in the Canton and Plymouth Observer Newspapers have reported in recent weeks the arrests of organizers of a pyramid scheme running rampant in this area.

The airplane pyramid has been a hot item in Plymouth, Canton, Livonia, Ann Arbor, Walled Lake, Milford, Brighton, Ypsilanti and Pontiac. Some individuals reportedly have received big eash payoffs, and stories of those successes have multiplied way beyond reality. Stories of losses and wiped out savings do not spread as fast.

Unfortunately, there have been losses. Victims who have lost their life savings, though, are too ashamed of their stupidity to tell the story of how human greed won out over common sense.

EVERY PERSON who got involved was motivated by greed - a desire to make lots of money without hard work. That desire prompted otherwise intelligent people to believe stories spread about the pyramid by promoters.

The Observer received some phone calls from people who attended meetings on the airplane pyramid scheme. We heard about some of the appeals made by promoters to potential pyramid investors. One argument was that the scheme was legal because it did not involve use of the U.S. Mails. But that makes no difference - a pyramid is illegal whether or not the mails are. used. Another rumor is that participation is a misdemeanor - it's a felony!

The fact is that the airplane pyramid is just as illegal as any other pyramid and is just as illegal as the hundreds of chain letter schemes that go on all the time. There have to be victims involved in chain letters or the practice eventually would die out. The same for the airplane pyramid and similar schemes - there are many people waiting to be victims or organizers just wouldn't

In this case, at least three organizers have been arrested and charged with promoting the pyramid in this area. They could be fined up to $10,000 or jailed for up to seven years.

. THE MICHIGAN Attorney General's office is monitoring the scam in this area and will prose-sibility also is too good to be true.

Con men are greedy but not as much as their victims whose greed makes them prime targets for a scam.

cute cases as the Michigan State Police make

Attorney General Frank Kelley comments: Pyramid schemes are doomed to fail because they require an ever-increasing number of participants. People are told that they will eventually make it to the pilot's seat; however, when the scheme collapses, all those who have not made it to the top lose their money. This is just another example of a deal that sounds too good to be true. because it is.

The "too good to be true" appeal is a payoff of $12,000 on an investment of $1,500. That kind of return on investment is not earned without risk. The airplane pyramid implies that all a person has to do is show up at a meeting with $1,500 and walk away that same evening with $12,000. Some people attend these meetings with the idea of 'investing" twice in the same evening and leaving with $20,000 to $25,000.

Because greed can overcome common sense, senior citizens and other homeowners often become the victims of scams run by gypsies with "too good to be true" offers on home improvements or pigeon drop variations. The same is true for pyramid schemes.

It's unfortunate that people have to lose hardearned income in such foolish ways. But that has happened for many years as the "easy way" still has mass appeal.

Pyramid schemes as a crime are unusual in that both criminal and victim respond to the same motive - greed. Will a society ever exist free of con men and victims of greed? That pos-

This very short conversation took place as we watched the pope make his promised visit to the Indians of the Fort Simpson area in the Northwest Territories of Canada. The contrast of his Canadian visit to the one he made in Detroit was revealing.

It dramatically demonstrates that for all our technological accomplishments, we have failed in our quest to become a more civilized society.

Unfortunately, most Americans missed the Fort Simpson visit. Many who have access to Canadian television didn't tune in. Our parochial nationalism does sometimes get in the

And the meeting was touching. The pope mingled easily among these people, many of whom still worship the sanctity of the animals, trees and earth. Most have few material goods, their education is meager and opportunities few.

County parks

Oakland offers a model system

DON'T FORGET the parks, Ed. Facing massive debts Wayne County Execu-

It's time to stop nickel-and-diming the parks to death. It's time county officials took a stand.

They can either pump money and life into the neglected parks system or pull the plug, letting parks become weedy flood plains as they were during the recession.

Right now, county parks are receiving the treatment patients got in the movie "Hospital" where they were "wheeled into a corner and neglected to death."

THROUGHOUT THE '70s, Wayne County arks - including the familiar Edward Hines Parkway along the Middle Rouge River - were funded at the $3-million level. In the recession, they were cut to nothing and

In 1983 then-executive William Lucas lured R. Eric Reickel from Oakland County and set him up with a $3 million budget.

That budget, however, was soon cut to $2.5 . then $2.4 million . . . then $2.3 million. Next year, the parks will be lucky to receive $2 million. The constant nick, nick, nick is a sort of fiscal version of the Chinese water torture. It's not good government.

To paraphrase the Good Book, man does not live by social services alone. Nor by courts and juls and roads. Parks are part of the quality of hite And it's clear that we need parkland close to home because we don't always have the time and cars to travel out to state recreation areas.

County has in the western suburbs and Ham-

In addition, however, Oakland has two waveaction swimming pools, giant water slides, a dome-covered driving range, a nature interpretive center and therapeutic recreation for physically handicapped people. And for kids who can't be driven out to parks in summer, it has a mobile recreation fleet with clowns and puppets.

The chief difference between the counties is that Oakland made a conscious commitment. First of all, its people voted a quarter-mill of property tax. Oakland's park money is guaranteed, not subject to anyone's budget ax. In Wayne, parks must compete for dollars with dozens of other county activities.

But taxes aren't the only financing option. Oakland also set up a separate parks board. It sought ways to produce revenue. It set up a private foundation to help with capital improvements and kids' camping. All of these ideas could easily be tried in Wayne County.

WAYNE COUNTY could have a terrific park system. Its 4,200 parkland acres include small lakes, bike paths, hiking trails, a Detroit River boat launch and a golf course.

Want a pool? best to buy one

So now we have a group wanting the taxpayers to buy them a swimming pool because Murray Lake and Colony Swim Club have a waiting list and cost more than some of them wish to pay, all the area lakes are too far away, and they are too lazy to clean a pool in their own yard.

Therefore, all taxpayers, whether they would ever use a pool or not, are supposed to finance one for the elites. We are already paying higher taxes than ever for their elaborate schools.

Our kids went to plain, simple schools and did all their swimming at the school pools, those faraway lakes, or with their friends who had pools. We didn't demand welfare assistance from the taxpayers for our entertainment. Of course, if we are going to raise taxes to build a pool for a certain few, than raise them enough to build a bowling alley for those of us who like to bowl. The public ones are too far away and too crowd-

If these people want a pool they should put their little pennies together and build one for their own private use - their own swim club. If you people want a pool, buy it. Don't expect all of us who have no use for a pool to buy your toys. That's more than we care to pay

Now ready for senior respite

To the editor: I want to express our thanks and appreciation to the Observer for its very fine article on Sept. 3, regarding our new Respite Services.

We hope that these programs will help to minimize the physical and emotional strains families face when caring for a frail, older relative. Unfortunately, we were not as ready as we should have been to receive and answer the large number of inquiries that followed the article. Many people were confused when they called because they were referred to other offices within Child and Family Service. We want to apologize to all of you and assure you that if you call us at 453-0890 (Plymouth Family Service) we will have someone return your call, directly to you.

I also want to add that since the article appeared we have found a central location, hired staff, and extended our proposed hours of operation to 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. People attending the Day Center may attend any number of hours within that time, and may attend any number of days between Mondays and Fridays, depending on their needs and interests. Where beauty reigns

Now that the ghost of Michelangelo has arrived on schedule with the autumnal equinox to begin the annual assignment of tinting the billions of leaves in Michigan's forests, it's time for you to take a look at some of nature's workshops.

Many of us who have wandered the length and breadth of our wondrous state have determined a favorite site to which we return many times, perhaps right close to home. After all, how could it be otherwise when there is so much to choose from among some 3,000 miles of shoreline and more than 10,000 in-

"America the Beautiful" is just that, startlingly spectacular in Godgiven assets from sea to shining sea, and you are living in one of the jewels. The farther north you go, the more it glitters. However, you can't capture the entire essence of "up north" in one day; it grows on one, season after season.

There are those who idolize the Lake Huron shore, Mackinac Island, Tahquamenon Falls and the wilderness of the Upper Peninsula, the great fruit orchards of the southwest corner, the streams and rivers following old Indian trails that now are interstate highways, to say nothing of the splendid attractions offered in the Huron-Clinton Metropark sys-

But at our house, all of that is considered a dead heat for second place. We opt for the northwest corner of the lower peninsula, by which I mean everything beyond M-115 that runs from Clare to Frankfort, and west of I-75 stretching from Clare to

Mother Goose and I thought that over the years we had seen it all: lakes such as Crystal, Glen, Torch and Elk; the harbors at Frankfort, Leland, Traverse City and Harbor Springs; the shops of Northport, Charlevoix and Petoskey; the musical magnificence of Interlochen; the uniqueness of Gwen Frostic's River Road nature center south of Benzonia, plus a thousand and one other lures to touristic adventure.

But we had not.

IF YOUR NORTHERN color tour in October takes you in the vicinity of the 71,000-acre Sleeping Bear Dune National Lakeshore, make the 7.4-mile Pierce Stocking Scenic Drive part of your itinerary. Sure, we had been to the dunes before, but something new has been added, and it's worth your time to discover it.

Pierce Stocking spent his youth working as a lumberman in Michigan's forest. He loved the woods and spent most of his spare time there, developing a self-taught knowledge of nature. He used to walk the bluffs above Lake Michigan, awed by the view of the dunes, the lake and the

To share this beauty with others, he conceived the idea of a road to the top of the dunes. Stocking first opened such a road in 1967 and continued to operate it until his death at the age of 68 in 1976.

The National Park Service carried out a major road rehabilitation project in 1986, resurfacing and widening the road, developing large parking areas, and building overlook spots to park and enjoy absolutely breathtaking views of what nature has carved in the estimated 11,800 years since the glacier melted.

At one of these, where we stood in August, the viewer is 450 feet above Lake Michigan. If the visibility is good, it is possible to make out Point Betsie, 15 miles to the south as the crow flies. To the west, it is 54 miles across the lake to Wisconsin.

I can just imagine that when the color season reaches its peak, the beech, maple and pine forests surrounding all this will be as ablaze with gold as the sun itself.

Offhand, I know of just one comparable view in that part of the state. It's the one to be had looking down at Torch Lake from the first tee at A-Ga-Ming Golf Club, somewhere between Elk Rapids and East-

But I've vowed not to turn this into a golf yarn, for that would necessitate telling of how a friendly vacation match turned into financial disaster for an ex-schoolmaster named Earl Gibson. I hope he found the view to be worth every penny of it.

myself as I watched the dark blue car careen along the Massachusetts Turnpike. I insist, with authority, that southeastern Michigan drivers are among the world's rudest, and last week it appeared the Motor City's disease had spread 700 miles east to the Bay State The driver was exceeding the speed limit, darting between lanes without signalling, passing on the right and tailgating at 70 mph in order to intimidate drivers ahead.

The dark blue car burst into the clear. The plate said "Michigan," and the dealer's tag said "Wayne." The idiot was one of ours! Thus, the world's most boorish drivers continue to hail from metropolitan Detroit, Toledo and Windsor

OUR BOSTON tour guide said Paul Revere unfairly got all the credit for warning the patriots in Lexington and Concord, but others actually delivered the first warning that April night in 1775 because Revere was briefly captured.

"Paul Revere had a better press agent," said Frank; our guide. "Can you imagine Longfellow writing a poem that starts, 'Listen, my children, and you shall hear/Of the midnight ride of Dr. Samuel Cartwright and Billy Dawes'?"

Tim Richard

Frank was correct We remember Revere today largely because of Longfellow's stirring verse.

We also cherish a frigate called 'Constitution" because of a poem by a student named Oliver Wendell Holmes. After seeing distinguished service against the Barbary pirates and in the War of 1812, the wooden sailing ship was about to be scrapped in 1830 when Holmes penned "Old Ironsides," with the ironic words: 'Ave, tear her batter'd ensign

I recited the line from memory lsat week on the 200th anniversary of the U.S. Constitution as I stood on the deck of Old Ironsides It's now safely docked in Charlestown Navy Yard, a stone's throw from where Revere's rowboat landed

Having read neither "Paul Revere's Ride" nor "Old Ironsides" in years, I vowed patriotically to buy copies. In Quincy Market, a block from the Boston Massacre site, I spotted a bookstore with the names of Longfellow, Hawthorne, Thoreau and Emerson decorating the door

Guess what? The merchant's poetry shelf didn't have a single copy of anything by Longfellow or Holmes It was like going to the Holy Land and being unable to buy a Bible or to Detroit and being unable to find a title by Schoolcraft.

IN NORTHWESTERN Vermont is Shelburne Museum, a collection of early Americana - homes barns shops, a lighthouse, a one-room school, an inn, cigar store Indians and the elegant sidewheeler "SS Ticonderoga.

Nothing important actually hap pened at Shelburne. It's a collection of buildings. Great place. Highly recommended. Got two full pages in the 376-page "American Heritage Book of Great Historic Places."

Greenfield Village, also a collection of buildings in otherwise unhistoric Dearborn, is superior - in quantity, quality and thoughtfulness of presentation.

But American Heritage gives Greenfield Village only one paragraph, in agate type Makes you wonder if there isn't some eastern snobbery among paid historians.

Footnote Yeah. Greenfield Village has jacked up its admission to $8.50, but that's still $1 cheaper than Shelburne Museum, Vermont.

World view & compassion sets pope apart

THE POPE GOT Muskied.

Certainly you remember how Edmund Muskie won the New Hampshire primary but lost the election because he didn't pile up the victory margin predicted by pundits. Instead of sweeping into the White House, he ended up weeping in New England. That's called losing by winning.

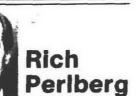

Part of the story about Pope John Paul II last week was strangely similar. Although 90,000 people packed into the Silverdome, 50,000 more witnessed him parade through Hamtramck and anywhere from 35,000 to 75,000 heard him at Hart Plaza, the combined crowds of nearly 200,000 were called disappointing. This because throngs of 500,000 to 1 million were predicted.

So even though the pope pulled in twice as many people as, say, Don Canham does with sophisticated marketing, the turnout was called small because of the prior hype.

The press can do that to you, as Joe Biden should say and probably will as soon as someone else says it

IT IS understandable but unfortunate that the pope's visit is measured in numbers of people. It is also understandable for all the reasons already stated - rain, security, TV coverage, fear of crowds, parking worries - that millions did not pour into the street.

That does not at all lessen the importance of the man, the role he plays in the world and the impact of what he has to say.

Running the Roman Catholic church is not easy. Despite warnings to the contrary from the Vatican, the American Catholic Church is filled with cafeteria Catholics who use contraceptives, believe in a woman's right to abortion and think women should be able to be priests and that priests nould be able to marry

Despite the dissent, the Catholic Church remains spiritually and emotionally vital for many Americans. It is that faith that partially explains the devotion to this courageous pope who, unlike most world leaders (and most politicians), is willing to tweak the noses of despots, regardless of their political ideology

SATURDAY, PERCHED high above Hart Plaza. Pope John Paul II peered over the bronze and tense fist of Joe Louis to look down Woodward Avenue and saw, if not a sea, then at least a pond of white-and-yellow-flag-waving humanity. But he saw more that a disappointing crowd. He saw a single

world where all inhabitants are not only entitled to dignified lives, but where all are also responsible for seeing that their global neighbors are cared for

Poverty, hunger, deprivation and war are not someone else's problems. Where they exist, they are or should be - our concern.

It is this world view, motivated by genuine compassion rather than political alignments, that further sets the pope apart from most world leaders.

He has another difference. While many talk about peace, the pope is the most powerful man to do so without simultaneously building up a nuclear armament.

His weapons are peace and love.

WORLD WAR II INTERNMENT The House passed, 243 for and 141 against, a bill (HR 442) extending a national apology and financial redress to people of Japanese ancestry who during World War II were relocated from their homes along the West coast to inland internment

The measure, which was sent to the Senate, grants $20,000 tax-free to each of about 60,000 living internees. An estimated 120,000 U.S. citizens and aliens from Japan were confined under an executive order issued by President Franklin D. Roosevelt 10 weeks after Japan's Dec. 7. 1941, attack on Pearl Harbor.

Supporter Jim Wright, D-Texas, called the internment "one of those grotesque aberrations in America's political life . . for which we seek to make amends."

Opponent Samuel Stratton, D-N.Y., said, "Franklin Roosevelt did the right thing, and if he hadn't done it, he would have been probably lynched."

Members voting yes supported the bill. Voting yes: Democrats Hertel, Ford and Levin.

Voting no: Republicans Pursell and Broomfield. PAYMENTS TO INTERNEES -

By a vote of 162 for and 237 against, the House rejected an amendment to eliminate financial redress for Japanese-Americans interned by the government during World War II.

The amendment sought to delete $1.2 billion earmarked by HR 442

Roll Call Report

(above) for tax-free payments of $20,000 each to an estimated 60,000 living Americans of Japanese ancestry who were put in camps soon after America's entry into the war. Supporter Al McCandless, R-Calif., called the payments "guilt money to soothe the conscience of our nation.

Opponent Norman Mineta, D-Calif., said "our government has a legal and moral responsibility to compensate the internees for the abrogation of their civil and human rights.

Members voting yes were wanted to eliminate financial redress for interned Japanese-Americans. Voting yes: Pursell, Ford and Broomfield. Voting no: Hertel and Levin.

SENATE

CONTRA AID - By a vote of 61 for and 31 against, the Senate tabled (killed) an amendment providing $310 million in additional aid to the contra rebels fighting in Nicaragua.

The amendment was offered to a $303 billion defense authorization bill (S 1174) for fiscal 1988 that remained in debate.

Robert Dole, R-Kan., said the White House wanted the amendment tabled. He said President Reagan wants to give ongoing Central Amer-

STAR WARS - By a vote of $8 for and 38 against, the Senate sought to restrain President Reagan's plan for advanced testing of the "Star Wars" Strategic Defense Initiative.

The vote tabled (killed) an amendment to strike the restraints from the fiscal 1988 defense authorization bill (above).

At issue is the president's attempt missile (ABM) treaty in a way that permits advanced SDI testing.

With this vote, the Senate expressed its view that testing SDI in space would violate the treaty and should be prohibited unless sanctioned by Congress, which also has a constitutional role in treaty-making

Senators voting yes wanted to restrain Star Wars testing by the administration. Levin and Riegle voted

We want to collar a few good men.

The Archdiocese of Detroit has a job to do.

We know some people who are facing tough choices in life who need good advice. We know some people who are facing no choices who still need hope. We know a lot of great kids who need a place to be kids, and maybe someone to bring the ball or the music. We know a few older people who are going to die whether or not someone is there to bring them peace.

All over the Archdiocese there are people who need a place to count their blessings and share their sorrows people who need a hand, or a shoulder to lean on, or sometimes just an ear.

At Sacred Heart Seminary we're teaching young men to use the hands and shoulders and ears and hearts God gave them. It's a great education. A college degree, Graduate work, We'll give you up to eight years to decide you really want to be a priest before we ask you to do it for good.

Learning to read begins lifetime of opportunities

By Julie Brown

It's a long/way from Canton to Philadelphia, but for John Young, that journey wasn't nearly as long as the one he has made during the last couple of years.

During those years, Young has gone from being unable to read to reading at approximately the seventh grade level.

Young, a 57-year-old Canton resident, was among the students at the Sept. 10-11 National Adult Literacy Congress, held in Philadelphia. He roomed with a student from Alpena during the gathering, held as part of the celebration of the bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution.

"I enjoyed it very much," Young said of his time spent representing Michigan. Young and others at the conference discussed a number of issues related to literacy and adult education. He enjoyed meeting students and tutors from other states.

They were very enjoyable to talk to, yes. That's the best way to get

YOUNG IS a Plymouth-Canton Community Education adult education student. He's taking classes at Starkweather Center in Plymouth

The Philadelphia event was planned and led by a group of adult new readers, including Young. All 50 states were represented by student delegates. A small number of literacy professionals also attended as ob-

"I'm not sure, but I feel I was the oldest one there," Young said of the student delegates, some of whom were as young as 20.

Student delegates were hard at work during the conference. They also found time for some sightseeing, however; among other things, Young had his picture taken in front of the Liberty Bell. Students stayed at Drexel University in Philadelphia during the conference.

Delegates discussed a variety of topics, including literacy and the workplace, literacy for non-English speaking adults and legislation, funding and resources for literacy. Delegates developed position papers and then formally presented their YOUNG WAS among those discussing issues of literacy. At the conference, he suggested having adult new readers tell their stories on television and in newspaper stories. Doing so would encourage other nonreaders to learn to read.

"If he can do it, I can do it" is what those non-readers would think,

At one point, delegates gathered in a meeting room that housed state flags. Delegates were asked so find their own state flags; Young had no trouble finding Michigan's flag.

"Ours stood right out there.

AT THE conference, each speaker had time limits. Even so, it took some time for the work to get done.

"It has given me a better light on why it takes Congress so long to get any issue put through. No wonder it takes years to pass anything."

A few years ago, Young would have been reluctant to travel to Philadelphia on his own. Since he learned to read, however, he has become more confident. Young's looking forward to receiving his high school di-

"I hope to be a tutor afterwards and whatever else I can help people with that haven't had an education."

UNTIL A couple of years ago, Young was a non-reader. He'd gone to a one-room school up to the sixth grade and didn't get much attention at that school.

Seating was arranged alphabetically, so Young was always near the end of the line.

'The teacher was very busy. By the time she got to me, it was recess time or lunch time.

Young's father became ill, and Young had to leave school to work on the farm. If he hadn't, the family wouldn't have been able to eat. "It's just that simple." When he was 17, Young started to work on the railroad, a job he described as requiring "a strong back and a weak mind. "That's all I needed," he said.

"Times were hard back then and I was happy to get that job.'

He continued with the railroad, but left for a new job after he got married. Young and his wife had six children, all of whom are now

The Plymouth Council on Aging is informing senior citizens that Lifeline is available at the Catherine McAuley Health centers, including the Arbor Health Building in Plymouth, and from Oakwood Hospital, Dearborn. Lifeline is an electronic device attached to a phone that contains a button a person can push in case of emergency. The Lifeline links the person to a hospital's emergency response center. The Lifeline unit is installed free and then is leased for $15 a month. For information, contact the Lifeline manager at Oakwood at 1-800-832-LOVE or at McAuley at 572-3922.

FOOT-CARE SERVICE

A foot-care service for senior citizens in Plymouth is offered the second and fourth Thursday of each month 1-5 p.m. in the community room of the Arbor Health Building at Ann Arbor Trail and Harvey in Plymouth. The treatment includes foot assessment, soaks, nail trimming, pumicing, massage and education for proper hygiene, exercise and footwear. Appointments may be made in advance by calling 455-1908. A nominal fee will be charged at the time of the service.

MEDICAL TOURS

Teachers, Brownie and Cub Scout leaders are encouraged to contact Oakwood Canton Health Center to learn about tours to prepare children to visit the doctor. For more information, call 459-7030.

• MOTHER-BABY EXERCISE

Mothers and babies can have fun together at Mother-Baby Exercise sponsored by Oakwood-Canton Health Center from 10 a.m. to noon Wednesdays in St. John Neumann Catholic Church, Canton. Advance registration is required and may be done by calling 593-7694. There is a $35 charge.

THAT TO DO after the "I dos?" Many couples search long and hard for advice on the sub-

Those who attend "A Weekend to Remember" Family Life Conference Friday through Sunday, Oct 9-11, at the Dearborn Hyatt Regency can expect many tips in the area of marital relationships.

The conference, sponsored by the Campus Crusade for Christ Family Ministry, is designed as both a marriage-preparation and a marriageenrichment seminar.

Topics to be covered include: How to Handle Conflict, Maintaining a Vital Sexual Relationship, and the Five Secrets to a Successful Marriage.

Which, on the surface, hardly separates it from other marriage encounters of its type. Bobby Grisham, area chairmen for the conference, says there is a difference of a divine

"(COUPLES) GET practical guidelines that are on a biblical railroad track to a good marriage," said Grisham, of Bloomfield Hills.

"A lot of marriages are based on performance and feelings," he said. 'They don't last. It's no wonder a lot of marriages don't last."

Instead, "A Weekend to Remember" works on the basic premise that those in a relationship have been chosen by God to be together. They have been united for a reason.

With that understanding, couples then are offered practical yet spiritual advice on how to maintain a good marriage

"A Weekend to Remember," though, is not designed solely for saving marriages.

"This isn't intended as a rescue for troubled marriages," Grisham said. "It's intended to make good marriages better."

FOR THAT, couples attend seminars in classroom-type setting each day. After each seminar couples work on an application project, discussing among themselves the material which was just covered.

One project includes writing a love letter to one another.

"We've had people say, 'It was the first time in 50 years we sat down and expressed our feelings for another," Grisham said.

And what couples share between one another doesn't have to be shared with others. Unlike some marriage seminars, people are not broken into small circle groups to air details about their faith or their relationships.

Bobby Grieham conference chairman

Which, for some, can make a gathering of this size less intimidating. Some 800 to 1,000 people are expected to attend, according to Grisham.

"It's a very non-threatening, romantic environment," Grisham said. "You can get lost in a group of 1,000

The environment of the conference is something the organizers have had time to perfect. "A Weekend to Remember" is an outgrowth of a similar marriage-preparation conference Campus Crusade for Christ used to sponsor for its own

SINCE THE mid-'70s when it started, some 120,000 have participated in the conference. Currently, there are annual stops in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago.

This, however, marks the first year the seminar will be in the Detroit area. Grisham, who is a division manager for Electronic Data Systems (EDS), began drumming up area support after visiting the conference with his wife, Debbie, two years ago in Denver. He hopes to make it an annual event.

"I thought it would be dry - just reading scriptures," he said. "I thought it would be one long, drawnout church service. But it had practical and absolute application for our lives and our marriage."

Cost for registration is $80 a person. Group discounts are available. For more information,

Signs of maturity show if we have really grown with life springs from our failure to sure the temporary pleasures of the grow up. There are multitudes who go through life with the physical proportions of manhood or womanhood and with the immature and infantile more we appreciate Plato's insight ways of children. Some of us grow to adult size and yet feel or think like children.

Childish minds are dangerous when they are housed in adult bodies. They have the power to put immaturity into effect. A recent observer has claimed that "immaturity stands out as the number one troublemaker in bringing about mental, emotional and social ills." Immaturity produces a painful harvest of divorce, broken homes, estrangement of parents and children, drug abuse, delinquency, violence, fear and ha-

What is maturity? Age is not be identified with maturity. In the Bible, God's prophets are often portrayed as being comparatively young. Amos, Hosea and Jeremiah, among others, delivered their most fateful messages as young men. There are adults who remain in a state of perpetual childishness, and young people who possess wisdom far beyond their years.

Maturity may be defined as a measure of the quality of our rela-tionships and of the way in which we live them. We need standards to evaluate the

ceptance. Self-esteem and self-appreciation are not only legitimate, they are desirable. You are your first best friend, and you may also be your worst enemy. People who hate themselves, who are always wishing that they were somewhere else or someone else, that they had been born at a different time, are doing violence to themselves and to life. The mature person is not self-pitying, self-denying or self-excusing. Until a person learns to accept and help himself, he cannot be a full human being. 2. We are mature to the extent that we are guided by our long-term purposes rather than by our immediate desires.

Each of us, as we enter maturity, can define for ourselves those goals and purposes that give us the power to rise above the pursuit of pleasure for more lasting values. This does not mean that we should not have our moments of ease, of relaxation, or of unburdened escape. But it does

A MAJOR PART of our difficulty mean that we must be able to meamoment against the permanent sa-

The more mature we become, the that we must become experts in the art of measurement. We have to weigh a future pleasure against a present pain and a present pleasure against a future pain. A mature existence is lived by those who seek more than creature comforts and self-indulgence as they aspire to the abiding values of faith, goodness and > beauty. 3. The mature person accepts responsibility. The human being is born irresponsible. He did not choose to enter the human scene and for a long time after his entrance he is helpless to do much about it. Yet if we hear a grown man justify his lack of responsible participation by saying that after all he didn't ask to be born, we can set him down as immature. After all, he overlooks the simple fact that nobody else did either To mature is to accept that fact that human experience is a shared experience, the human predicament a shared predicament. Any person remains immature whatever his age as long as he thinks of himself as an exception to the human race. Mature responsibility involves a willing participation in the chores of life and a creative participation in the bettering of life.

4. The mature person is one who is able to love others so well that he becomes less dependent on being

This sounds like a simple prescription. It is perhaps the most difficult of all tasks. We use the word love in the broad sense of true friendliness with other human beings, of considering the interests of other individu-

Love is more than the idea of the romantic. Love is relatedness. Man is a lonely creature in a hostile world. Love is the key that opens the doors of his prison and releases him from confinement. He can then go forth to enjoy the wonder of nature, the companionship of his kind and the fellowship of society. Through love he overcomes his apart ness. "Love or parish" says modern psychology. The sages of old said, "Companionship or death."

The Gracious Alternative

Someone you love is growing older and needs just a bit more support than he or she can get in their current living situation. A nursing home isn't the answer. Normal activities like eating and dressing aren't a problem. But you would be happier knowing someone was there to provide gentle encouragement and firm support when needed, in a non-institutional atmosphere

The answer is The Plymouth Inn, a magnificent residence for seniors who want their independence but need some supervision as well. Consider some of the many advantages:

- Spacious mini-suites for those who desire extra comfort and privacy.
- Deluxe semi-private accomodations, richly appointed, with private lavatories and showers.

- · Easily accessible via I-96 and I-275; only 30 minutes from both downtown Detroit and the northern suburbs, including Farmington Hills. Birmingham and West Bloomfield.
- Tranquil landscaped grounds and lovely common areas.
- Three delicious meals served in our central dining room by a friendly, attentive staff of professionals.
- Extensive, varied social programs and recreational opportunities.
- · Game room, chapel, beauty parlor and lounges, all designed with the special needs of our residents in mind.

The Plymouth Inn welcomes your inspection visit. When you see what we have to offer we think you will agree that

The Plymouth Inn is a very special place where your loved one can feel secure, yet independent. We invite you to call today for an appointment.

Wayne Foster of Estes Furniture in Lansing and Patrick Norton of La-Z-Boy compare notes at a seminar sponsored by the Home

Furnishing Representatives of Michigan at the Embassy Suites Hotel in Southfield.

Furniture industry adjusts to shrinking marketplace

By Ingrid Tomey special writer

The furniture industry is in a state of crisis, thanks in part to its misperceptions of consumer attitudes.

That was the message at a recent seminar sponsored by the Home Furnishing Representatives of Michigan to nearly 150 furniture retailers and representatives at the Embassy Suites Hotel in Southfield.

Richard Udouj, president of Riverside Furniture in Arkansas, underscored the problem of a shrinking marketplace.

"In the last two years, 27 furniture manufacturers have bought 46 competitors. Non-furniture firms have gotten into the act as well," he added, referring to the recent acquisition by Masco of Henredon, Dixie and Drexel Heritage. "Insiders predict that this will continue until just a few survivors are left. What does that

The answer to Udouj's question, according to Pat Norton, senior vice president of sales and marketing for La-Z-Boy Chair Co., is that the furniture companies that do survive will do so by becoming "consumer

'We, as an industry - factory representative, retailer, retail sales people - have failed," Norton said. "We have never developed a way to communicate with the ultimate consumer." Admitting that the furniture industry is fighting for survival, having lost 25 percent of its retail outlets over the last five years, he stressed that the answer lies in learning to serve the customer.

"We thought all kinds of things about our customer that were not true, not the least of which was that she was ignorant; that she didn't know what she wanted; that she lacked an adequate taste level; that she had little perception of price-value relationship; that her primary worry was how much down and how much a

CITING RECENT research conducted by La-Z-Boy, Norton said the perception that price is the primary factor in a purchase is not true.

"Less than 5 percent (of people responding) indicated that price was the most important buying decision."

Besides misjudging the consumer, the furniture industry has sabotaged its own efforts by instilling a deep mistrust in the consumer through what Norton calls "borax" selling techniques, which include moving the customer off the advertised special to the higherpriced item, moving in quickly for a deposit, and turning the customer over to a high-pressure salesman to close the sale

"What we didn't understand was the kind of resistance, the kind of mistrust built up in the minds of those ladies. They were really fearful of entering a furniture store regardless of whose name was on the door. And that kind of fear has been passed down through the generations."

One of the earliest manufacturers to realize that manipulating the customer was not as effective as assisting her was Ethan Allen, according to Norton.

(Customers) were really fearful of entering a furniture store regardless of whose name was on the door. And that kind of fear has been passed down through the generations.'

> - Pat Norton La-Z-Boy

"Ethan Allen was the first to recognize that the industry had broken faith with the customer. They were the first to recognize that the consumer had become more sophisticated - I'm talking 1960. She demanded a different level of service, a different level of presentation, of salesmanship, a reasonable choice."

Norton, who was employed by Ethan Allen before his move to La-Z-Boy, credits Ethan Allen with innovations not only in consumer relations, but with major improvements in display, building architecture, accessories, decorator-oriented salepeople and even house calls. "We insisted Mrs. America be treated with re-

Perhaps Ethan Allen's greatest contribution, according to Norton, was the pioneering of the gallery concept in furniture in the 1950s. Furniture galleries, large areas of a store devoted to a certain manufacturer - in this case, Ethan Allen - quickly began outselling the balance of other merchandise on the floor. Soon, Ethan Allen began putting up its own stores, becoming "wishbooks for consumers

WAYNE FOSTER, owner of Estes Furniture in Lansing, addressed the need to find out what the consumer wants. Using a market research team, Foster conducted a nine-month survey to discover his image in the marketplace; the treatment given to customers by his salespeople, the demographics of his customer base; and even what radio stations his customers lis-

The results led Foster to stop mailing to ZIP codes and begin mailing to census tracts -- "conservation of cost efficiency." He also hired an extra salesman. called a rover, to pick up customers who were leaving the store without any meaningful contact with a salesperson. And he did a top-to-bottom painting and cleaning of his three floors to counter the consumer perception that his store was dingy.

Lastly, he began installing galleries - Thomasville, Bernhardt, a clock gallery, a brass bed gallery.

All phases pointed to the fact that the customer wanted more display, less emphasis on selection, he

Speaker keys in on success

By Mary DiPaolo special writer

It has been said that good communication is as stimulating as black coffee - and just as hard to sleep after. If this is true, then Mike Wickett is a speaker whose audiences must never sleep.

Wickett's message has created such a following that Nightingale-Conant Corp., the largest audio cassette production facility in the world, has begun producing and distributing Wickett's tape series, Keys to Success.

Why has Wickett of Birmingham been chosen to join the ranks of such speakers as Dr. Joyce Brothers, Tom Peters and Zig Ziglar as a member of NC's nationwide Command Performance speakers bureau?

Peter Fontana, director of Command Performance, calls Wickett a gifted communicator.

Everyone is interested in achieving success both personally and professionally," Fontana said. "Mike fills a great need by sharing how it is never too late to get what you want from life.

Just what is Wickett's message? In "Keys to Success," he begins by emphasizing the importance of gaining a new vision. "It's never too late for love, success, riches, travel, perfect health or any good thing regardless of our past history and our past performance," he says. "You can have what you want if you are willing to get the vision and supply the feeling and the

Wickett says that his change began by gaining a new sense of purpose and a new "thought atmos-

"The mind is the most powerful God-given tool there is," Wickett says. "Once we learn how to use, rather than abuse it, good things begin to happen.'

WICKETT DESCRIBES himself as a speaker, trainer and consultant working with corporations on team building, customer service and management excellence.

"I'm sharing with others the basic principles I learned that have simplified my life and enable me to become a happy person, a prosperous person, build a thriving business, and just have a lot of good things happening.

But Wickett's message was one that he discovered later in life. His childhood was painful and included watching his mother grow ill and become confined to a wheelchair.

"Although my mother was a beautiful person and always positive, I still hated myself and the way our family lived," Wickett recalled. "I never let anyone get to know me. I was a real loner, and I fought anyone's attempts to help me overcome my negative attitudes and beha-

After graduation from St. Gregory High School in Detroit, where he graduated 67th out of 68 students. Wickett's life grew worse.

Mike Wickett: "The mind is the most powerful God-given tool there is. Once we learn how to use, rather than abuse it, good things begin to happen."

"I had been fired from several sales positions and, of course, blamed everyone else for my failing

During this period, Wickett "experienced it all, with the exception of drugs" and his "life became a real horror story. If I wasn't such a coward, I probably would have ended it all right then and there."

It wasn't until 1974 that his life started to change.

"A friend recommended that I read 'Think and Grow Rich,' one of the greatest books ever written, by Napoleon Hill. After reading through it. I realized that in order to improve the quality of my life, I had to first take responsibility for it and stop blaming my past and others for everything that had gone wrong.'

Within a month, Wickett had a new sales position with the Builder's Exchange in Detroit. "That job represented the start of a new beginning. I subsequently enrolled in a Dale Carnegie course, met some wonderful people, got the support I needed, and the rest is history.

Wickett began speaking to nonprofit groups on personal development and motivation, which led to corporate speaking appearances.

BUT WHAT ABOUT the difficulties of "making it" today when the odds are always running 6-5 against? Wickett says we must be willing to give up the belief that life's circumstances control us, rather than us controlling our circumstances.

"Life is simple. It's neutral. And we are the ones who stamp it however it becomes. We need to remember this since life merely conforms to our mind's vision and our feelings. As an example, if somebody gets a vision of life and says, 'Everyone hates me,' you know what life says? 'Yes, that's right.'

'And if somebody gets a vision that says, 'I'll be loved,' what does life say? 'Yes, that's right.' And if a man has a vision of life and says, 'All women are nags, what does life say? 'Yes, that's right, and here's a few. Isn't that how life works? Life on this planet is a neutral experience; we get the vision and life says, 'Yes.' It doesn't care what we select. And do you know what happens when you don't get a new vision? You get more of what you've got.'

Wickett's "new vision" philosophy aims to help people to begin thinking twice about their lives.

"When Mike was talking to our company and started discussing his childhood, I couldn't help but think of my relationship with my kids," said one 30-ish blue collar worker. "I used every excuse in the book to stay away from them since I didn't want to be the kind of father my own father was to me. When it hit me that I was using my past as an excuse to avoid the responsibility of parenting. I saw I wasn't doing anything but letting the past repeat itself."

Wickett is gratified by such reac-

"I am extremely happy and grateful whenever a person sees a past or present situation in a new light. Getting the right support is the next step. When we find others who will support us on a regular basis, then we can start believing in our ability to do what we said we'd do. From then on, it's only a matter of time before positive changes happen."

Judge rules against Stoddard

The other shoe has dropped in the legal battles of former Michigan National Corp. chairman and chief executive Stanford C. Stoddard.

Administrative Law Judge Thomas Jones ruled Monday that Stoddard's business practices were "unsafe and unsound" and that Stoddard should be fined $146,000 and be banned permanently from banking.

The case was brought by the U.S. Comptroller of the Currency, the federal agency that regulates banks, and was heard in Ann Arbor last fall. The agency charged that Stoddard had misallocated more than received from Michigan National $150,000 of bank and holding compa-

LAST MONTH, in a separate action, a U.S. District Court jury found Stoddard guilty of defrauding a subsidiary of Michigan National by misapplying $175,000 by leasing company property he partially owned at an exorbitant price. He is expected to be sentenced by Judge Anna Diggs Taylor next month and faces a maximum sentence of five years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

At question in the hearing last fall was Stoddard's use of bank funds and personnel for entertainment, including wedding receptions for both his son and daughter, and repair of his homes in Birmingham and Harbor Springs and Mormon church build-

Stoddard maintained that he conducted business at social gatherings and charged Michigan National only for those expenses that were business related.

BUT JONES estimated that the value of personal services Stoddard was "possibly well in excess of $282,000." That was the amount Stoddard paid the company when he was forced out as chairman in 1984 after the government began its probe. He had been chairman since 1972 of the company founded by his

In a 220-page decision, Jones said Stoddard failed to "insist upon a strong moral code for his own conduct or the affairs of the corportion.

tionships with his officers and with the boards of directors and shareholders, as well as the depositors, show not only a reckless disregard for the safety and soundness of the bank, but a certain lack of integrity that demonstrates his unfitness to participate further in the life of the corporation.

Stoddard has 15 days to respond to the decision.

Jones' decision is merely a recommendation to the Federal Reserve Board and the comptroller, which must rule on the recommendations.

If the recommendations are upheld, they could be appealed, said Richard M. Roberts, one of Stoddard's attorneys, who said that the decision would be up to Stoddard.

The comptroller's office before the hearing had said Stoddard should be permanently banned from banking and fined $500,000, but Jones said $146,000 in fines would have the "same general effect."

She was describing Lord Weidenfeld, who owns Grove Press with Ann Getty, and will be alone on the third program, Monday, April 25. Getty was originally scheduled to share the podium with Weidenfeld. Of Getty. Rivkin explained. "She is very shy. She will try to accompany Lord Weidenfeld, but speaking is not her forte, in front of crowds."

Other personalities in the series are all described as "international jet setters" by Rivkin. In her office at Mars Advertising in Southfield, where she works as a public relations consultant, Rivkin told how she selected the speakers.

ALTHOUGH THEY are jet setters who "all know each other." they are not wealthy idlers. The series first speaker will be Countess Aline Romanones, author of the best-seller "The Spy Wore Red." She will appear at 8 p.m. Monday. After her program, there will be an afterglow at Walter Hertz Interiors in Birmingham.

Rivkin met Romanones in New York last November when she had gone there to hear Charlotte Ford speak, on etiquette, before the United Nations Hospitality Committee. The same agent who steered Rivkin to Ford introduced her to Romanones.

Rivkin brought Ford to the Birmingham Theatre last May in a special program, "An Evening With Charlotte Ford." The daughter of automaker Henry Ford II has carved out an interesting career as a speaker, with her "modern approach to etiquette, which takes into consideration our lifestyle today.

Romanones is "a female James Bond. She has actually lived the life of a female spy," said Rivkin The countess book tells of her World War II years as an American OSS agent and a member of Madrid's high society.

"I went to her apartment last year." Rivkin said, "and was com-pletely enthralled." She considers the countess - a onetime fashion model who volunteered to help her government during World War II as a role model.

"She's a 67-year-old grandmother who's achieving great success at this point in her life," Rivkin said

SECOND SPEAKER in the series will be Tina Brown, editor-in-chief of Vanity Fair magazine and former editor of Britain's oldest magazine. the Tattler

The success of Vanity Fair is something no one could have predicted," Rivkin said. "She is editorin-chief. Advertising revenue has jumped 119 percent.

Brown will talk Monday, Nov. 9. followed by Lord Weidenfeld on Monday, April 25, and Arianna Stassinopoulos on Monday. June 6. Weidenfeld and Getty are taking Grove Press in new directions. Recalling the publishing company's history, Rivkin said, "I was familiar with Grove Press. It was very avantgarde. It published 'Tropic of Cancer' and 'Lady Chatterly's Lover.'

Now the lights dim out and a low stage is bathed in spots. The crowd egins to cheer, and out onto the platform comes - Mark Ridley.

It's another Priday night at the Comedy Castle at the Northwood Inn in Berkley. Ridley, owner/humor impressario, is opening for the show. Before too long, this low-colored chamber will fill with that most unsomber sound, laughter.

Why comedy? "Because a lot of people can't dance," said Ridley. He is slightly heavy, mustached, with dark hair. He settles into a chair and flips out answers like the semistand-up guy he is, about how the Comedy Castle got started.

"I'VE ALWAYS BEEN into comedy. It's what I know a lot about. Now I went to L.A. in 1977 for a visit and saw the Comedy Shop. Then I came back here and started pitching it. Finally I got picked up.

Opening the show, Ridley's monologue is short, peppy, young. Though you see all types, the crowd is predominantly young, white, suburbanlooking, casually dressed. Smoke coils to the ceiling, and with the audience warmed up, Ridley disappears and the first comic hits the Offstage, Ridley resumes his conversation about the club.

"Why Comedy Castle? Well, we had another name: Mark Ridley's Room of Comedy and Magic. It was too long, and one comedian came through and said Comedy Castle. It's good, not too cutesy. We've been in about a zillion different places, before settling in here, which I own."

great form of entertainment. See, people want to laugh. I've had guys come up and tell me, 'Gee, I had a rotten week. Thanks for making me feel good.' That kind of thing. And you have this great club network going, where you can see people live. And the times don't hurt, either. The absurdity of it all."

These may be absurd times, but they're certainly a golden age for comedy. The Showtime cable group has just selected a 15-club "Cornedy Network" for revolving shorts of stand-up comedians. One of the clubs selected was Ridley's Comedy Castle, which will give the establishment nationwide exposure.

"THEY PICKED 15 clubs across the country, and they'll be going around to each one for two-three minute spots. It'll be great exposure for Detroit-area comedians, as well as for the Castle."

Back on stage, headliner SI Kay alternately insults and wood audience. Kay plays the e rowdier crowd like a violin. Ev one is in stitches, the noise levi furious and the dull decor is pout into oblivion by laughter.

Anyone will to serve as a driver or in another volunteer capacity in the Michigan Cancer Foundation office on Main Street in Plymouth may call the foundation's West Service Center at 336-4110 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Volunteer drivers last year logged more than 34,000 miles. Because radiation therapy and chemotherapy often require daily visits for several weeks, a patient often will have two, three or more drivers during the course of one week's treatment. igan Cancer Foundation is a Plymouth Community FundUnited Way agen-

AMATEUR PERFORMERS

The Plymouth Community Arts Council is updating its list of amateur performers who are willing to share their time and talent with students. The resource list is provided by the PCAC to all elementary teachers in Plymouth-Canton Community Schools. Particularly needed this year are dancers, singers and musicians. If you or someone you know has a special skill they are willing to share, call Pat MacIsaac at 453-8051.

• EMERGENCY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Plymouth Township Office of Emergency Preparedness needs volunteers to be trained in skills that First Step, the Western Wayne will be used during an emergency or disaster. Training includes damage assessment, shelter management, first aid, emergency operating center support and service weather spotting.

Training meetings are held from 9 a.m. to noon on the fourth Saturday of each month in Plymouth Township Hall at Ann Arbor Road and Mill. Township residency is not required. All training is free.

· WANTED: CIVIC

RADIO HELP Plymouth Area REACT Team is looking for members for emergency radio communication (no experience necessary) and other community programs. All residents from Plymouth, Canton, Northville and surrounding areas are invited. The group meets at 8 p.m. the second Thursday of each month at Plymouth Township Hall, Mill at Ann Arbor Road. For more information, call 455-9609 or 453-7641.

• 'RIDE WITH US'

Plymouth Area Citizens Team program is made up of volunteers from Plymouth and surrounding communities who patrol the Plymouth area. The organization is looking for volunteers to devote one night (four-five hours) per month to be the "eyes and ears" for the com-munity. Those interested in going on an observation ride with a PACT member should call 459-2075.

· HISTORICAL MUSEUM

Volunteers are needed at the Plymouth Historical Museum. Are you interested in antiques and Plymouth history? Come in and visit your museum and see what's there. The museum needs volunteers for changing displays, helping in the gift shop, typing, printing, sewing and helping in the educational program for school children. Call 455-8940 or stop in from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday or Thursday to ask what you can do to help.

DELIVERING MEALS

Residents are encouraged to volunteer their time to deliver meals one day per week to the homebound elderly in the city of Plymouth and in Plymouth Township. Delivery takes about 11/2 hours, 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Drivers are needed Monday through Friday. Mileage reimbursement of 23 cents per mile is available. For information, call Louise Stern at 453-9703 between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. Monday-Friday.

LEGAL NOTICE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH NOTICE OF CLOSE OF REGISTRATION

To the qualified residents of the Charter Township of Plymouth: Monday, October 5, 1987, will be the last day you may register for the Special Election to be held on Tuesday, November 3, 1987.

Registrations will be taken for residents of the Charter Township of Plymouth in the Clerk's office in the Township Hall, 42350 Ann Arbor Road during regular office hours from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. Registrations will also be taken at any office of the Secretary of State

If it is impossible for any unregistered qualified resident to appear at the Clerk's office during office hours, a call to the Township Clerk's office - 453-3840 will insure that the Clerk or her deputy registrar will make an appointment to register the resident wishing to do so.

The following proposals are to be voted upon at this Special Election: LIBRARY PROPOSAL:

Shall the Plymouth District Library levy against property in the Plymouth District Library District an additional amount not to exceed forty hundredths dollars ($0.40) per thousand dollars ($1,000) (0.40 mills) of the state equalized valuation on all taxable property in the District, in order to provide additional funds for operating purposes of the Plymouth District Library? TOWNSHIP POOL PROPOSAL:

Shall the total miliage assessed in any one (1) year against all properties in the Charter Township of Plymouth be increased by an amount not to exceed an additional 2 mills ($2.00 per $1,000.00 of State Equalized Valuation) for a period of one (1) year only, beginning in December of 1988, and the funds thereby derived to be used for the construction of a swimming pool for public use in the Township Park, and maintenance thereof, to the extent that funds and interest thereon, if any, are remaining from the two (2) mills assessed; funding of ongoing maintenance, operation and repair expenses is not addressed by this issue? TOWNSHIP PARK PROPOSAL:

Shall the total millage assessed in any one (1) year against all properties in the Charter Township of Plymouth be increased by an amount not to exceed an additional 3.5 mills ($3.50 per $1,000.00 of State Equalized Valuation) for a period of two (2) years only, beginning in December of 1988 and the funds thereby derived be used for the acquisition and initial development of a 31 acres, more or less, parcel of land at the southeast corner of Haggerty and Schoolcraft Roads (Tax Identification No. 78-023-99-0030-000, for use as a township park?

After 5:00 p.m. on Monday, October 5, no further registrations can be accepted for the Special Election on November 3, 1987.

Properly registered voters will not have to re-register.

CITY OF PLYMOUTH ORDINANCE 87-10

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE ZONING ORDINANCE, AS ADOPTED BY SECTION 5.223 OF CHAPTER 52 OF THE CODE OF THE CITY OF PLYMOUTH.

THE CITY OF PLYMOUTH ORDAINS:

Section 1. Zoning, as adopted by section 5.223 of Chapter 52 of the Code of the City of Plymouth, is hereby amended to read as follows:

5.223 PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENT

Although the specific requirements as set forth under the individual and collective sections of this Chapter assure compliance with objectives deemed essential to the public health, safety and general welfare, it is recognized that more desirable development can often be attained if flexible procedures can be substi-tuted for rigid specifications in meeting these objectives. Therefore, and particularly to meet the needs of changing methods and techniques, it is the intent of this section to provide an alternative method of determining compliance with the objectives of this Chapter

To this end, any applicant for development of any lot(s) in any use district may elect of his own volition to request consideration of a development proposal on the basis of a submitted plan and related documents, and shall present, in full, his explanation of the compliance of his proposed plan with stated objectives in such a manner as to be, in his judgement, superior to a plan which could have been prepared under strict adherence to related sections of this Chapter.

(1) Application for consideration under this section shall be accompanied by a fee, the amount of which shall be set by resolution of the City Commission, and shall be used to defray the expense of publishing notice of public hearings, the expense of said hearing, and for such other expenses as may be required.

(2) Application, Part A, under this section shall include proposed conceptual plans for the development and the location of all properties within one hundred (100) feet thereof.

Application, Part B, under this section shall include a complete proposed site plan for the development and the location of all properties within one hundred (100) feet thereof, in sufficient detail and with sufficient explanatory narrative to enable the Planning Commission to evaluate the proposal with regard to its compliance with the following objective standards:

(a) The proposed use or uses shall be of such location, size and character as to be in harmony with the appropriate and orderly development of the zoning district in which it is situated, and shall not be detrimental to the orderly development of adjoining zoning districts. The principal use proposed shall be of the same basic classification as that established for the property by this Chapter. This requirement shall not preclude the provision of related uses such as professional offices or small stores of such size and character as to serve a residential planned unit development in a residential zone; or of comparable related uses to serve principal uses in other zone districts.

(b) The location and size of the proposed use or uses, the nature of the intensity of the principal use and all accessory uses, the site layout and its relation to streets giving access to it, shall be such that traffic to and from the use or uses, and the assembly of persons in connection therewith will not be hazardous or inconvenient to the neighborhood. In applying this standard, the Planning Commission shall consider, among other things, convenient routes for pedestrian traffic, particularly of children; the relationship of the proposed project to main traffic thoroughfares and to street and road intersections; and in general, character and intensity of the existing and potential development of the neighborhood. In addition, where appropriate, the Planning Commission shall determine that noise, vibration, odor, light, glare, heat, electromagnetic or radioactive, or other external effects, from any source whatsoever which is connected with the proposed use, will not have a detrimental effect upon neighboring property or upon the neighboring area in general. (c) The location and height of buildings, the location and nature and height of walls and fences, and the nature and extent to landscaping of the site shall be such that they will not hinder or discourage the proper development and use of adjacent land and buildings nor impair the value there-

(d) The number of parking spaces and their convenience by location with respect to pedestrian and vehicular circulation; the amount and location of open spaces; and the provisions of other amenities shall be in proportion to the anticipated needs and desirability for the proposed uses

(e) All public or private streets and all drives, parking areas, drainage facilities, utility installations and other site improvements shall equal or surpass the applicable engineering standards of the City, as established by resolution of the City Commission.

(f) Permanent organization for maintenance and management of all common areas and of all building exteriors and roofs shall be assured by legal documents acceptable to the City Attorney prior to final approval of the development by the Planning Commission, and shall be irrevocably recorded prior to the issuance of the initial occupancy permit. In this connection, access to all structures and areas for fire and police protection and for trash collection shall be assured by review of plans by the appropriate agencies having jurisdiction, and, in the event of private streets and drives, suitable permanent easements for use by public emergency vehicles shall be recorded prior to initial occupancy

(3) Review of the site plan by the Planning Commission shall follow a two-step

Step 1: This first step in the review process shall be a conceptual approval.

Preliminary sketches, including elevations, basic building(s) size, height, position of building on site and limited site information shall be provided to the Planning Commission for their initial review and approval of the concept only. Limited site information shall include the following items: (a) Location of parking area(s)

(b) Approximate number of parking spaces (c) Paving of parking area(s), driveways(s)
(d) Landscaping materials

(e) Location of trash receptacles(s)

(f) Exterior lighting (g) General drainage pattern

(h) Conceptual approval does not in any way constitute a final action or approval of the site plan by the Planning Commission. The first step shall include the initial review and the actual public hearing. If at the time of initial review the Planning Commission considers a second public hearing necessary or desirable for the purpose of gaining additional information on which to make a determination regarding acceptability of the proposal, such hearing may be scheduled at the next regular meeting, or at a special meeting, provided that public notice shall have been given not less than two weeks prior to the date of such hearing.

Conceptual approval may be waived if a complete detailed site plan is initially submitted for review and if agreed to by the Planning Commis-

Step 2: This second step, following the public hearing(s) shall be the final action by the Planning Commission and shall include completion of review and analysis.

Upon completion of review and analysis, the Planning Commission shall: (a) Find the proposal acceptable as submitted, or

(b) Find the proposal acceptable subject to certain required changes, which shall be set forth, with reasons therefor as a part of the approval action, or (c) Find the proposal unacceptable, setting forth the reasons for the disapproval (d) Not less than five (5) affirmative votes shall be required for finding a proposal acceptable pursuant to (a) or (b) above. (5) If the proposed development has been approved or approved with conditions by the Planning Commission, the Planning Commission action shall be submitted to and reviewed by the City Commission, which may either grant final approval or deny the application. The City Commission shall not approve any application which has been disapproved by the Planning Commission, nor modify any conditions imposed as a part of a Planning Commission approval except by the affirmative vote of five (5) members of the entire membership then holding office and qualified to vote. Following approval of the Planned Unit Development by the City Commission, building permits may be issued, but strictly in compliance with the plans as approved, except for minor modifications which may be necessary to meet building code requirements or to adjust for unforeseen elements, but in no event at variance with the objectives of the approved

(7) In those instances in which platting is required by law, the owner or owners shall thereafter submit proposed and final plats for the Planned Unit Development for approval as in the case of other subdivision plats and in compliance with all other applicable laws, ordinances and regulations pertaining to the procedures and requirements for the approval of plats except to the extent that such requirements have been modified by the above approval by the Planning Commission and the City Commis-

Section 2. This ordinance shall become operative and effective on the 25th day of September 1987 A.D. fade, passed and adopted by the City Commission of the City of Plymouth, Michigan, this 21st day of September, 1987 A.D.

Chiefs halt sister duo, top WLW

Plymouth Canton got tough defensively in the second half Tuesday and shut down the Hall sisters, enabling the Chiefs to take a 47-38 victory from Walled Lake Western in girls basketball.

Canton, 1-0 in the Western Division of the Western Lakes Association and 2-4 overall, held 6-foot-2 junior Michelle and 6-1 senior Diane Hall to just six second-half points after the pair caused problems for the Chiefs in the early going.

The Halls scored 20 of their combined 26 points in the first half, and the Warriors jumped in front 16-11 in the opening quarter. Michelle finished with 14 and Diane, who was held scoreless in the last half, 12.

"We made a few adjustments on the Hall sisters," Canton coach Rob Neu said. "Those two are hard to stop if you allow them to catch, turn and score.

"We tried to get the backside guard to double down. You've got to guard those kind of players with more than one player."

Canton rallied to take a 28-26 halftime lead behind the offensive play of Heather Miller and Karen Boluch. Miller scored eight of her 14 points in that quarter, Boluch six of her game-high 17.

The Chiefs held on through the second half as they continued to play tough defense on Western's big offensive threats. The Warriors were limited to single-digit scoring in the last two quarters, and Michelle Hall had just six points (two field goals) in the half.

"Candi Jones and Boluch did a nice job of closing down on the Halls," Neu said.

The Chiefs also stepped up the intensity by pressuring the ball and cashing in on some Warrior turnovers.

Chris Braidwood follows through on his driving motion during Monday's golf match with Canton. Braidwood is the veteran leader on Salem's team.

Salem's revamped team has fast start in '87 golf

By Dan O'Mears staff writer

The weeks ahead will provide a lot of answers for Plymouth Salem's golf team, but one thing appears certain: The Rocks have come back with another quality squad.

Salem lost six seniors from a team that qualified a second straight year for the Class A meet, but the Rocks have started out 4-2 this year after trimming rival Plymouth Canton 215-226 at Brae Burn Golf Course Monday.

Senior captain Chris Braidwood is the only returning player with varsity experience, but coach Rick Wilson has successfully reconstructed his lineup.

Salem, which shared the Lakes Division title with Farmington last year and is 1-0 thus far, faces Westland John Glenn, the Falcons, Livonia Stevenson and North Farmington in the next two weeks.

"At 1-0, we have a shot like the rest of them," Wilson said. "If we're 3-0 at the end of the week, I'd say we have a chance at the division title."

BRAIDWOOD, a four-year varsity player, averages 39-40 strokes a match, though he tied fellow senior Dan Kruescher for Salem's No. 5 spot Monday with a 45, and is the only firm link between last year's "solid group" and a relatively new club.

But senior Matt Braun and junior Jeff Jagacki, who were co-medalists with 41s against Canton, are some of the players who have come on to fill key spots on the roster.

Junior Brian Fennelly carded a 42 and senior Lamar Crayton 43 to complete Salem's scoring against the Chiefs. In addition, junior Gregg Speaks has been Salem's No. 2 man in terms of average, but lost a challenge match prior to the Canton con-

"So far, it's been a fun year," Wilson said. "We've had pretty good competition among our players trying to get into a match."

Wilson is hopeful the Rocks, with the progress they've already shown, will be ready to earn a third trip to the state meet at Michigan State's Forest Akers Golf Course next

"IT'S JUST a real bonus to make it to that," he said. "We can have a successful season and not qualify, but that's so exciting I wouldn't trade that for anything."

The Rocks qualified for state at the Hilltop course in Plymouth the last two years, but this year's regional will be at Oak Pointe (formerly Burroughs Farm) Oct. 9. The league meet will take place Oct. 5 at Huron Meadows near Brighton.

Canton's top players are freshmen Rod Jaesena and sophomore Geoff Allen, who carded 42 and 45, respectively, in the Salem match. With them, the future looks bright, but the Chiefs are 1-3 this season.

"We've got some real fine freshmen coming up," first-year Canton coach Fred Libbing said. "I see some real interest in golf in the district."

The Chiefs have also had some tough breaks. They shot a 197 team score against Walled Lake Western but still lost the match. Canton suffered a close loss to Northville Tuesday, 220-228.

JAESENA shot a 43 on the difficult Meadowbrook course and Allen 44. The underclassmen are the team's "big pounders," and Libbing predicts they'll both be all-staters eventually.

tant and juniors Shawn Dudash and Sean McFarlane round out the Chiefs' top six golfers. Trim, Toutant and Dudash shot 478 Tuesday.

real fine scores, we've lost some heartbreakers," said Libbing, referring to the WLW match. "I'm pleased with what the kids are doing. I don't measure it against wins and losses. We've got a team out there trying, and I'm happy to work with them."

Relays competition keen; North edges Lakes foes

By Dan O'Meara

The results of the Western Lakes girls swimming/diving relays confirmed what coaches said about the league in the preseason: The WLAA appears headed for its most competitive season yet.

North Farmington became the first team other than Livonia Stevenson to win the relays, and a mere six points separated the top three Winning four relays and setting records in two, the Raiders compiled 226 points to edge out runner-up Livonia Stevenson (224), and Livonia Churchill was a close third with 220.

Furthermore, fourth-place Plymouth Canton and No. 5 Northville finished within 34 points of the top with 198 and 192 totals, and sixth-place Plymouth Salem would have finished higher if not for two disqualifications.

"You're going to see the league meet about the same way," Stevenson coach Greg Phill said. "That's exactly the way the championships are going to go.

"THE LEAGUE is getting tougher and tougher every year."

North used a combination of good swimming and good fortune to win such a highly competitive meet, according to Raiders coach Pat Duthie, adding North was hurt by some teams and helped by others in certain events.

The Raiders did their part by garnering the most first places of any team. North did not compete in diving, had no second places and was third in one event.

North's Liz Worthen, Marcy Mulbarger, Kerry Doran and Laurie Oswald established a meet record of 4:15.68 in the 400-yard medley relay, and Amy Meneilley, Meaghan O'Brien, Mulbarger and Cindy Cramer did the same in the 200 breaststroke with a 2:15.84 time.

Worthen, O'Brien, Doran and Cramer teamed up to win the 400 individual medley in 4:27.55, and Jenny Williams, Joscelyn Komer, Meneilley and Oswald captured the crescendo relay in 5:01.46.

"We put some good thought into some of the things we did," Duthle said, "but you have to have the kids who are able to win.

"AND, IF you have the kids who can win, you have to figure out how you can best utilize them.

"When you have 12 teams, you just don't know where other teams are going to put good people," he added. "It's a guessing game. The key really is to utilize your personnel as best you can."

As evidenced by the close scores, the meet was not decided until the final event — the 200 freestyle — and the Raiders needed help from Salem to edge the Spartans.

Salem's Tracy Meszaros, Dawn Shiek, Jodi Thomas and Heather Bunch won the event in 1:50.71 and slipped past second-place Stevenson (1:51.38). North was fourth. A Spartan win would have given them an additional four points and the meet victory

North was not entered in the twoperson diving since it has only two divers and one had a prior commitment. But Northville won that event, edging Stevenson and denying the Spartans another opportunity for four more points.

"When you have 12 teams in a league like ours, somebody can put something together somewhere," Duthie said.

"SOMETIMES it balances out and sometimes it doesn't. Since we came out on top, I'd have to say it balanced out pretty well."

Stevenson and Churchill, which knocked off the Spartans in a dual meet last week, had one victory apiece. The Spartans' Lisa Dotzenroth, Gina Bennetts, Dana Carlen and Amy Harrison won the 200 backstroke (2:08.6), and the Chargers' Katie Hamann, Cathy Ankenbrandt, Michelle Berry and Audra Martin captured the 200 butterfly (1:58.56).

Canton's strong finish was based its four second places. Salem coach Chuck Olson, whose team also had three thirds, was pleased by his team's performance and was left with thoughts of what might have been after his team was disqualified from the breaststroke and crescendo

"It should give us a little confidence, knowing we can actually compete with the powers in this league," he said, estimating the Rocks might have ended up with 200 (total) points.

"The points were there; we just gave them away. Not to take any-· Borgess, meanwhile, boasted the boys individual winner (Matt Smith) and the girls individual winner (Michelle Gayney).

Smith, a senior, zipped past Walled Lake Western's Brian Grosso on the final loop to win the 5,000-meter race in 16:22.6. Grosso finished second in 16 32 0 Rounding out the top five were Plymouth Salem's Doug Vergari (16:59.7), Canton's Jay Swiecki (17:03.3) and Farmington's Brandon London (17:10.6).

Canton's Lori Penland, who finished fourth overall, took the early lead and then surrendered it to Salem's Jenny Sample, who eventually finished second behind Gayney

A junior, Gayney hung back in a pack of five runners and like Smith, made her move in the 1.000 meters. She was clocked in 20:58:38, five seconds ahead of Sample Gross, meanwhile, ended up fifth and Farmington's Bonnie Stecker moved into to third.

Only 31 seconds separated the top 10 finishers "We call them (Gayney and Gross) 'MGsquare." said Borgess girls coach John McGreevy. "I told them go for it - one-two. At worst I thought they'd be in the top five. It's really

London, fifth overall, was followed by teammates Matt Walter (12th), sophomore Rob Holloway (13th), Brad Moore (14th) and Matt Langdon "We knew we had a good shot here, but because of injuries, it would be tougher than usual," said GEORGE PRYZGODSKI, the Canton coach, said his girls all had the same idea when they arrived at early Saturday morning at the Schoolcraft course.

"I think everybody came here with the purpose of winning - and we did," said the Canton coach. "Our kids, talent-wise, are close together. They're all very competitive and that helps.

"I can't ask for anything more. I'm happy for them because they do all the work.' Penland was the Chiefs' leader, finishing fourth.

Jenny Russell, in her starting debut, was instrumental in applying the backcourt pressure that helped keep the ball out of the Halls' hands and also performed well when putting the ball in play for Canton, Neu said.

He also said Canton's rugged early-season schedule - the Chiefs were beaten 61-34 by Catholic League power Birmingham Marian last Saturday - helped it overcome WLW

"The girls deserve a lot of credit for coming back to take this game after getting blown out on Saturday." he said. "That shows a lot of character."

SALEM 84, W.L. CENTRAL 47: The Nos. 1 and 2 teams a year ago in the Lakes Division opened division play against each other Tuesday, and the Rocks left no doubt they're still a cut above Walled Lake Central.

Dena Head had another outstanding game, which included a game-high 30 points, as Salem rolled over the Viking en route to its fifth win in six games. It was the first loss for Central, 4-1.

"We dealt with their pressure really well and got a lot of easy baskets off the transition." Salem coach Fred Thomann said.

It was a big victory considering the Vikings played the Rocks even-up last year, he said.

Head also had 16 rebounds, nine assists, nine steals and four blocks. In addition, center Barb Krug scored a career-high 19 points and had eight rebounds, and girls basketball

guard Jill Estey registered 16 points, eight assists and eight steals.

Central's Shannon Flood scored 15 points and Leah Vlisides 10. Salem held quarter leads of 23-10, 46-20 and 74-31

MARIAN 61, CANTON 34: Marian used a fast start, leading 20-2 at the end of one quarter, to overwhelm the Chiefs in non-league action.

They flat out came after us with everything they had." Neu said

The Mustangs shot nearly 85 percent in the first half, he said. "I've never seen anything like it. I've never seen a girls basketball team shoot like that." All-State center Kathy Phillips scored 22 points to lead Marian, 4-1. Mary Rogers added 11 and Jennifer

Canton was led by Boluch with 10 points and Susan Ferko with seven. The Chiefs trailed 31-14 at halftime and 47-27 after three quarters. "The fact is we just never got started," Neu said.

CHURCHILL coach Larry Hein also was encouraged by his team's showing. The Chargers were sixth in diving, but finished no lower than fifth in any other event.

"We did as well as I anticipated," he said. "As far as swimming relays, I was really pleased.

"After the meet, I reminded the girls we came out on top in the dual meet, but they weren't happy losing to Stevenson. All in all, I was pretty happy to finish in the top three in a big relay meet."

Duthie and Phill echoed Hein's position that more importance will be placed on the dual-meet schedule and end-of-the-season league meet.

"I hate to say it was just a relay meet, but that's exactly what it was," said Duthie, adding the upcoming season should be more suspenseful than previous ones.

Jim Allie was near bottom.

The Livonia resident had spent more time on the golf course this summer than ever before, but he had little to show for it. He played five Publinx tournaments with the Hilltop Golf Course team. He tried qualifying for the Michigan Amateur, the Michigan Mid-Amateur (for those 25 and over), and the U.S. Amateur.

No luck. "If I didn't do well here," Allie said, referring to the Observer & Eccentric/Whispering Willows Golf Tournament, "I was going to hang it up."

Allie had a notion his time had come. He'd played in several previous O&E tourneys, but had "never finished in the money." However, after playing nine practice holes at Whispering Willows Thursday, he was certain his luck had changed.

"I ripped it - shot a (one-overpar) 36," he said of his practice

Allie didn't cool off over the weekend. After an opening-round 76 Saturday, he carded an even-par 71 Sunday to win the title by a single shot. Allie's 147 edged John Smith of Canton, who finished 74-74/148.

"IT JUST FELT good to put everything together," Allie, 26, said. "I finally used my brain for the first time for all 18 holes. I didn't get into (much) trouble, and if I did I got out and Smith shot 74, and Bob Urbats (Livonia), David Piasecki (Farmington Hills) and Tim Quinn (Plymouth)

"I THOUGHT I'd have to shoot 69 or 70 to win it," Allie said.

As it turned out, his 71 was the only even-par round of the tournament. None of the other challengers could match it. Heriford ballooned to an 80; he finished sixth. Rvs took third with a second-day 76 (149 total). Urbats was next with another 75 for a 150, followed by Hedges (a 77 for 151).

Piasecki (79 for a 154), Quinn (80 for a 155) and Anderson (84 for 158) couldn't match their Saturday rounds.

If there was a turning point for Allie, it came at the par-four, 356-yard 11th hole. Allie drilled a two-iron into the middle of the tree-lined fairway and followed with an eight-iron that left him 15 feet from the cup. He dropped the putt for a birdie.

Smith was far less fortunate. His tee shot ended up at the base of a tree. "I had to take a penalty (stroke)," he said. He struggled to a double-bogey six.

THAT HOLE alone accounted for a three-stroke swing between the two. Allie picked up two more Allie had to make up a lot of strokes with a birdie-three at the 370-yard 14th and a par-three at the 219-yard 15th (Smith had a par and a bogey), but Smith closed the gap

Rocks lose meet

The Plymouth Salem varsity swimming team traveled to Brighton Tuesday night and was defeated 101-71.

The only bright spots on the evening for the Rocks were victories in the 200 medley relay, the 100 backstroke and the 100 breaststroke.

Heather Bunch did the honors in the backstroke with a time of 1:11.4 while Erin Olson won the breaststroke in 1:15.6.

breaststroke in 1:15.6.

Bunch, Olson, Trisha Hill and Nicole Gillig teamed up to win the 200 relay in 2:08.7.

With the loss, the Rocks fall to 1-1
while Brighton improved to 2-0.

Lake Huron offers bigger salmon

AKE HURON anglers could have a little better luck with salmon this fall than their colleagues fishing Lake Michigan. It's not that the runs will be any slower, it's just that early reports indicate the fish are running a bit bigger in Lake Huron this year.

"Most of the (salmon) have been averaging about 12-13 pounds in Lake Michigan and about 14-15-pounds in Lake Huron," said Asa Wright, Great Lakes Program Manager with the Michigan Department of Natural Resources. "The largest fish this year seems to have been caught in the Rogers City area. It looks like there will be much better fishing in Lake Huron this year and much less fishing on Lake Michigan. I think the cooler water in Lake Huron this year is part of the reason."

There have been a lot of westerly winds this year and when a westerly wind hits the shore of Lake Michigan, the warmer surface water comes in with it. Salomon, looking for cooler water temperatures, have a tendency to leave the area.

On Lake Huron, the same wind blows the

On Lake Huron, the same wind blows the warmer surface water toward the Canadian side of the lake and the water along the Michigan shoreline remains cooler, luring the salmon in.

"When a good offshore wind is blowing, the cooler water might come right into shore and the (salmon) come right in with it," said Wright. "But if the wind blows warm water into shore, the fish scatter, looking for cooler water. With salmon being roamers, many have gone to the cooler waters in Lake Huron."

When the salmon reach maturity and are ready to spawn, these warmer water temperatures don't deter their drive to return to their natal streams. For this reason, the fall spawning runs are expected to be steady across the state.

"COHO ARE GATHERING off all ports right now," said Wright. "There's a good a fishery in the lakes for adult salmon, which are feeding on smelt."

Recent reports indicate that salmon are closest to shore at Swan Creek, south of Rogers City. Success has been reported as very good in the areas of Rogers City and Rockfort. J-plugs have been the favorite lure.

Good reports are coming in from Cheboygan. Harrisville has reported spotty success while most fish are being caught off shore in 80-100 feet depths. Reports coming in from Oscoda are also good with chinook beginning to move into the Au Sable River.

Chinook action in Tawas Bay have been fair. Anglers are using J-plugs in the lake and fishing in depths of 55-130 feet. In the river, the best luck has been with small spoons.

"We're getting in fairly good reports from Grindstone City, Harbor Beach and Port Sanilac, too," said Wright. "We stock all of these areas and it appears we will get about the same runs as in the past. Usually the (fishing) pressure isn't real heavy in this area."

IN LAKE MICHIGAN the best reports so far have come from the Grand Haven, Holland and St. Joseph areas. Success has increased at Grand Haven while both salmon and walleye are moving in at St. Joe's.

Action has been light at Grand Rapids, but some success has been reported at the sixth street bridge off the Grand River. Action has been good in both Muskegon Lake and the Muskegon River, while the fish are holding in the lake at Luddington in 60-100 feet of water Success has been good in Manistee Lake with the salmon beginning to move into the river. Anglers on the Betsie, Platt and Bordman rivers also report good success with chinook, coho and steelhead.

Palastra wins dual encounter

The Palastra Gymnastics Team of Westland broke a club record recently by qualifying 14 competitors for the Oct. 11 state sectional meet.

Host Palastra took top honors in its first Class III meet of the season, defeating Golden Circle Gymnastics of Flint and "Not Just Gymnastics" of Ann Arbor.

In the Children's Division, Palastra took the top three places in the all-around led by Kim Lewke, a sixth grader from Canton, followed by Lori Trussler and Lyndi Paling.

Palastra's Juniors also made a strong showing, led by all-around winner Kim Rennolds, a seventh grader from Plymouth. She scored a meet-high 33.70.

In the Senior Division, Kathi Landini, a 10th grader from Livonia, captured three of four individual events en route to the overall title.

and Dan O'Meara staff writers

It's time for midterm exams for several Observerland high school football teams this weekend.

Two area teams will collide Friday when North Farmington (3-0) travels to Plymouth Salem (3-0) in a key Western Lakes Activities Association game.

State-ranked Westland John Glenn (3-0), which has rung up impressive 35-6, 49-7 and 40-0 victories so far, will get its stiffest test to date against Livonia Stevenson (1-2).

Both games will go a long way in determining the Lakes Division champion of the WLAA.

In the Western Division, overwhelming favorite Farmington Harrison (3-0) will travel to face Walled Lake Western (1-2).

On Saturday, two sets of rivals will collide - Livonia Churchill (2-1) at Livonia Franklin (1-2) and Redford Bishop Borgess (2-1) against Redford Catholic Central (2-1).

Last week O'Meara nudged ahead of his grid prognosticating counterpart, correctly picking 10 of 14 games. Emons, going 9-5, is 33-12 for the year, one game behind O'Meara

This is a midterm exam for these two as well

FRIDAY GAMES (all 7:30 p.m. unless noted)

Garden City at Edsel Ford (3:30 p.m.): The Cougars were stung for the third straight week, this time by Woodhaven. Highly-explosive Edsel Ford (2-1) is gunning for another Northwest Suburban League crown. Picks - The Edsel is not

Redford Union at Ann Arbor Huron: The Panthers (0-3) have played a murderous schedule thus far and things don't figure to get any easier against Huron (1-2), a team with losses to state-ranked Catholic Central and East Lansing. Last week the River Rats gained their first win against another NSL team, Dearborn, 28-12 Picks - The River Rats go paddling down the Huron with no prob-

Redford Thurston at Allen Park: The Eagles (0-3) moved the ball for the first time in three weeks, but still couldn't score in a 7-0 loss to Melvindale. Allen Park (3-0) appears headed for a Tri-River League title behind the quarterbacking of John Jaskowski. Picks - The Jaguars make it four in a row.

Westland John Glenn at Livonia Stevenson: The Spartans, playing their first home game, are a disappointing 1-2 and grid predictions

appear to have their hands full with a Glenn team that is dangerous through the air as well as on the ground Stevenson's team speed has become suspect. Picks -It's a test, but Glenn passes.

N Farmington at Plymouth Salem: This Lakes Division battle pits North's stingy defense against Salem's wishbone. North opened a few eyes up last week in beating Stevenson The big play could determine this one Picks — Emons likes Salem at home in a squeaker. O'Meara sees it the other way.

Plymouth Canton at Northville: The Mustangs (0-3) are hungry for a win. Canton (1-2) needs to get its offense recharged after a dismal showing last week against Walled Lake Western. Picks -It's a tossup, but Canton bounces back.

Farmington Harrison at Walled Lk. Western: Has Western (1-2) ever beaten Harrison? Why should this year be any different? The Warriors are dreaming. Picks - Hawks soaring to their fourth Lincoln Park at Wayne: This could be a revenge game for the Zebras (2-1), who were knocked from the unbeaten ranks by Lincoln Park a year ago. The Railsplitters (3-0) come in confident. They need to shut down Wayne's improved passing attack, led by quarterback Mike Heard. Picks — Emons says Wayne re-turns the favor. O'Meara sees Lincoln Park winning No. 4.

Hamtramck at Liv. Clarenceville: Two starters may be suspended by coach Ralph Weddle for disobeving orders in last week's galling 8-7 loss to Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook. But even a visit from the pope can't help the Cosmos, who were shelled last week by Auburn Heights Avondale, 40-0. Picks - Clarenceville evens its record at 2-2.

SATURDAY GAMES

Livonia Churchill at Livonia Franklin: The Chargers (2-1) have regrouped after a stinging 42-0 opening-game loss to Sterling Heights. Franklin (1-2), meanwhile, is gunning for an "early" city title with a win over Churchill. Picks — Nobody is city champ this year, Churchill prevails.

Walled Lk. Central at Farmington: Spell it backwards and you have the "Sselniw Bowl." The second letter is pronounced silently, of course. It's two winless teams foreign to victory trying to stay out of the celler in the WLAA. Picks Central picks up a win.

Farm Lutheran Northwest at Lutheran Westland: Forget the Old Oaken Bucket or the Little Brown Jug, this game is for the "Narehtul Cup," pitting two area Lutheran schools. But the winner may only keep the cup a week. The two teams meet again on Oct. 3 Picks - Westland says double or nothing, Emons predicts. O'Meara will second that

Bishop Borgess vs. Catholic Central (7:30 p.m. at Clarenceville): Last year Borgess surprised CC 25-6. The Shamrocks haven't forgotten and will have revenge on their minds. The dangerous Borgess offense will be paired against CC's solid defense. Picks - CC wins, but not

SUNDAY'S GAME

Gabriel Richard vs. St. Agatha (4 p.m. at Ann Arbor Pioneer): Who needs NFL football? These guys aren't scabs and they play on Sundays for free. No compensation necessary, only a $3 donation required at the gate. It's a good Catholic League C Section matchup between two teams favored to win the division. Picks - The Fighting Irish don't need help from their friends in South Bend. Agatha mens soccer team's trip to the Lakeland Invitational. The Ocelots suffered three losses in four days. Lakeland CC beat them 3-2 Friday. Vincennes CC defeated them 1-0 Saturday, and on Monday at SC, Triton CC was a 3-1 overtime victor. Injuries to forward Bobby Neumann and fullback Phil Neumaier and midfielder Paul Burrill's bout of mononucleosis took their toll on SC. But so did costly defensive lapses and a failure to finish scoring plays. Against Lakeland, SC took the lead at the 27-minute mark on Errol Parks' goal, set up by Neumann. Eight minutes later, Lakeland tied it on Brian Morganti's first goal.

The Ocelots reclaimed the lead on Lee Hunt's score, a header after Torin Gniewek's corner kick. But once again, Lakeland took advantage of a SC defensive mistake to tie it, this time on a goal by Steve Schumacher.

THE GAME-WINNER was scored by Lakeland's Morganti with 30 minutes left. SC had its chances to tie it but failed to capitalize. Neumann was injured going for a high ball when the Lakeland keeper ran into him. That hurt the Ocelots, costing them their only experienced forward.

"These kids are so tight," said SC coach Van Dimitriou, "when it comes down to finishing a play, they mishit the ball. Or they work so hard setting up the play, they can't finish it."

That showed in the loss to Vincennes. The Ocelots outshot their opponents 28-8 yet couldn't put the ball into the net.

It was more of the same for SC at home Monday against Triton. Neumaier got hurt; Burrill was still sidelined, and Neumann could play just part-time. Still, Neumann was able to set up Parks for the tying goal 20 minutes into the second half. But in overtime, it was all Triton, which scored twice to win your time paying for it.

Darker skin will show less wrinkles

Does oily skin age better than dry

Dear Miss A

The amount of oil secreted by the skin has no effect on aging.

Skin ages when it loses its elasticity and develops wrinkles. These processes are affected mostly by sun exposure - now called photoaging.

Those who have darker skin often produce more oil and sweat, which cause the skin to look oily. They tan more easily because of the increased pigment. This increased pigment not the oil - protects them from damage from the sun.

Those with fair skin have less pigment and thus are more susceptible to photoaging. They tend to wrinkle at an earlier age, and their wrinkles show up more because of their lighter skin.

Dear Jo:

Does exercise improve mental ability in older people?

Mrs. W.C.,

Dear Mrs C Researchers at the University of Southern California claim that a regular exercise program may help ercised reported a decrease in anxiesome elderly people mentally particularly with their problem-solving ability, short-term memory and concentration (Geriatrics, March

The researchers studied the effects of a 12-week exercise program on 48 residents of a senior citizen housing complex. The participants, age 61 to 86, were randomly assigned to an exercise group or to one of two non-exercising control

The exercise group met for one hour three times a week to do stretching and rapid walking. Muscle-strengthening exercises were done in a sitting position to avoid possible balance problems. The classes ended with a dance routine. Throughout the exercises, deep breathing was emphasized to enhance the aerobic effect.

At the beginning and end of the 12week period, standard tests were used to measure intelligence, mental well-being, weight, heart rate and blood pressure.

Although the exercise group as a whole did not show significant mental improvement, those with a gain in their physical tests showed improvements in their mental abilities as well.

The most luxurious convalescent facility in the Metro Detroit area

This extraordinary nursing center is conveniently located in West Bloomfield. It offers outstanding medical, nursing and rehabilitative care in an elegant setting. While the facility specializes in providing skilled nursing care, it also has accommodations for those in need of 'assisted" or "supportive" care.

Spacious Mini-Suites and Deluxe Semi-Private Accommodations All have private baths and are professionally decorated. Some of the suites have their own walk-in spa-tubs! Every suite has a magnificent view of either the enclosed courtyards or the wooded park-like grounds. The entire center is 100% equipped with a sprinkler system for maximum safety.

The Unique "Town Center Plaza"

The Plaza is a cluster of special shops inside the facility where residents and visitors can enjoy each other's company. . A Pub • Snack Shop • Beauty Salon • A Flower and Gift Shop • An Old-Fashioned Ice Cream Parlour. No other facility has anything like it for socialization and enjoyment.

Fine Dining

Delicious appetizing meals are graciously served at wellappointed tables in our beautiful dining room by a friendly and attentive staff. All therapeutic diets are meticulously prepared and carefully monitored under the direction of executive chef Paul Wolshon, formerly of the Marriot Hotels. Linger over your dessert, as you would in a fine restaurant.

Exciting and Varied Activities

The facility has a full range of varied activities and planned recreational opportunities to keep residents involved and mentally stimulated. Residents can participate as much or as little as they choose. Our programs fit the individual - not the other way

Seeing is believing. Honor us by a visit. Let us show you the most extraordinary facility in the area. Our courteous admissions staft is available to discuss the proper and most appropriate placement for the resident.

Weekdays: 9:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Saturdays and Sundays: 12 Noon - 5:00 p.m. Appointments can always be made to suit your special needs or convenience.

 Deluxe semi-private rates begin at $55 per day

· Private mini-suite rates begin at $99 per day

A Letter From Robert C. Gurwin, President of West Bloomfield Nursing and Convalescent Center

Dear Friend,

As the president of the West Bloomfield Nursing and Convalescent Center, I want to give you my personal assurance that all residents of this beautiful new convalescent center will receive the finest medical, nursing and rehabilitative care possible.

In designing this unique facility and in selecting its staff members, we aimed for the best - and I am certain we achieved that.

I have been in the business of providing nursing home service to the elderly for over 27 years and I am very proud that nursing homes I have operated in this area were recognized by Good Housekeeping Magazine as NO. 1 in the Detroit area and among the top nursing centers in the country.

All of us at West Bloomfield Nursing and Convalescent Genter are committed to continuing that tradition of care and concern in our elegant new facility.

Please call me personally or either of my partners, Jack Bell or Timothy Spiro, at 661-1600 if we can answer any questions or help

Sincerely,

Robert C. Gurwin, President West Bloomfield Nursing and Convalescent Center, 661-1600

Great cellist is generous with talent

By Avigdor Zaromp

The first week of the new Detroit Symphony Orchestra season brought the first event in the Great Performers Series. The star was Mstislav Rostropovich, top cellist, capable conductor and music director of the National Symphony Orchestra in Washington.

Some clouds surrounded this distinguished event. The contract dispute between musicians and management was felt as those arriving were handed leaflets by representatives of the musicians explaining their side of the issue. Barring new development, this was to be the last day before a strike or lockout.

Another discouraging aspect of this event were the many empty seats. Typically, this series is sold out, sometimes weeks in advance. The art of Rostropovich certainly isn't inferior to that of other prominent performers who have appeared

Short of a massive migration of classical music listeners to other states, there has to be another reason. Possibly, the price of tickets, up to $50, may have been too steep.

THESE DAYS, when some stars use their popularity to extract high fees for performances of short and easy works, it is refreshing and encouraging to have a musician of the caliber of Rostropovich present a generous program. He is a warm, generous individual, and this shows in his music.

On this program, he performed Chaikovsky's Variations on a Rococo Theme and Dvorak's Cello Concerto. These works were preceded by Wagner's "Siegfried Idyll." Maestro Gunther Herbig's presentation of this tender selection was smooth and well balanced, somewhat restrained when compared to some performances, which are charged with emotional extremes. This version, hope that it would be resolved soon.

He is a warm, generous individual, and this shows in his music.

The richness and intense quality of the cello tone was evident from the first cello notes in Tchaikovsky's Variations. The cello is an instrument that is difficult to project without distortions. Rostropovich is one of those few who can dig into the music with intensity while leaving the purity and texture of the sound uncompromised. Even the pianissimo passages managed to come through without any appreciable

IN SOME OF THE FAST, highpitched variations, the bowing seemed natural and effortless, resulting in remarkably clean passages most of the time.

The term "more perfect" is a logical contradiction, unless applied to someone like Rostropovich. He performed the Dvorak concerto at Meadow Brook in 1983. It sounded perfect to me then, but even more so now. "He must have learned it since then," someone quipped.

Prompted by intense applause and a standing ovation, Rostropovich played two movements from Bach's Suites for Unaccompanied Cello, demonstrating a rare sense of understanding and appreciation of Bach's

In between, Rostropovich also addressed the audience, thanking them for their support and appreciation. He also addressed the issue of the conflict concerning the musicians' contract and, asking the audience to support the orchestra, expressed the Simsbury, New England-style condominium residential community, is part of a total design concept being used by Herman Frankel as he continues to develop in West Bloomfield.

Touch of New England

By Corinne Abatt staff writer

It looks like New England and it sounds like New England. But, in fact, Herman Frankel's new development, Simsbury, is conveniently nestled right in West Bloomfield. The combination of cream brick and stone, picket fences, cupolas, mature trees and shrubs (one of his trademarks) gives this development a timeless look.

When complete, it will be a community of about 250 two- and three-bedroom condominiums with a gatehouse entrance on 14 Mile, just east of Farmington Road. There will be two to five units per building, with an average size of 2,000 square feet. Price range is $159,000-259,000.

Four models, completely furnished by interior designer Dick Tolbert, are open noon to 6 p.m. every day except Thursday. Tolbert was also the interior designer for the models in Frankel's 467unit Pebble Creek community, which is on 14 Mile west of Orchard Lake. Frankel, who spent 14 years building in Peeble Creek (he did many other communities during that period as well). closed the last unit in Peeble Creek and started the first in Simsbury the same week.

TOLBERT CHOSE to create interiors that are inviting, eclectic, often colorful, inviting and at the same time, contemporary. The great room of one model has a wonderful cathedral ceiling and traditional fireplace flanked by built-in book shelves. Frankel has used variations of this before with success. As far as master bathrooms are concerned, they just keep getting better and

At the entrance to Simsbury, Frankel said, This is going to be a village, not a subdivision. It's going to look like a small New England

So far, he said, his buyers run from young professionals to retirees. He has 40 units under construction, more than 25 are sold and a number of

The community/village will have amenities such as clubhouse, swimming pool and other at-

Since Frankel is big on continuity and building is what he likes to do, he has a shopping center under construction at the corner of Farmington and 14 Mile that is being done in the same New England design. He is making sure that the exact look that he wants will be maintained by all of the leasees. So far, 90 percent of the space is spoken for and occupants will include a supermarket, florist, jeweler and carry-out among many others.

Great room of one of the Simsbury models, done by Dick Tolbert, interior designer, suggests gracious hospitality.

'Detroit Expressionists' filled with energy

By Manon Meilgaard special writer

Since there are as many techniques of Expressionism as there are artists working in the genre, Lucille Nawara, director of the Nawara Gallery, has been discerning in her choice of works for her show, "Detroit Expressionists.'

Whether the works be controlled. chaotic, joyful, or created with a quick nervous energy, each of the 12 artists in the show appears to have been motivated by emotional and/or personal experience.

• Brian Fekete is an interesting young artist who recently exhibited in the "From Artists Studios" show at the Detroit Focus Gallery. He is represented by rather heavily impastoed, scratched-surface paintings that suggest sea or tomb imagery.

Broken statues and pottery, and especially the recurring symbol of a coiled, tornado-like funnel, evoke a feeling of annihilation.

· Michael Joseph's two paintings in primary colors are, as usual with this artist, strangely mysterious and provoking. One of his techniques is to draw the outline of a female model in an interior setting and then spray paint on and around it.

Concrete objects such as chairs and a stepladder wreathe the shadowy nude figure in misty color and dripping splashes of paint.

Brewster Luttrell's collage paintings are composed of flat figures (often with an Egyptian influence) and relief objects such as totemic masks, broken chairs and broomtops. The composition is embellished by, or given a background of, found objects such as fabric, linoleum and wallpaper from the 1930s. circus posters and playing cards.

Assembled, this seemingly incongruous brew of diverse elements creates compelling mosaics, of which Luttrell says, "I try to see old things in new things and new things in old things.

• Marian Mudie's oil studies of dogs, which more resemble wolves, have a primitive intensity. Whether depicted as baying or lying at rest, in either a forest clearing or a wilderness setting, there's something menacing as well as mythological about these hybrid creatures.

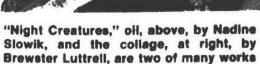

• Gordon (Gordie) Newton has directed his ever expressive and compulsive energy into a number of wooden sculptures called the Marine Series, which bear some semblance to earlier work. Layers of unvarnished or lacquered wood in somber tones of black and brown, with splashes of green and red, form a harshly beautiful ship imagery.

And true to Newton's vision of beauty having nothing to do with prettiness, these pieces are not inspired by pleasure craft, but by fishing boats, old tankers and hulks. · Shirley Parish's two oil paintings are fine examples of exuberant nature expressionism. Placed to advantage on both sides of a gallery window overlooking a view of trees and fields, her water and landscape imagery in lush blues and greens is dramatic. • Don Shields dares to apply thin layers of oil and acrylic-like gestural drawing strokes. He gets away with this in two sardonic, cartoon-like paintings of men with sickly green, George Grosz-like faces and wearing garish suits, in scenes that recall German cabaret in the years preceding World War II.

• Drew Pascoots is represented by å large, 8-by-7-foot, abstract can-band, Brian Fekete, uses somewhat

> Mark Tucker, who recently worked and exhibited in Germany, creates wondrous shapes with painted, crumpled paper - often forming grotesque, nightmarish figures reminiscent of Edvard Munck or James Ensor. It's a pity that examples of Tucker's figures are not included in the present exhibition, but in a piece titled "Trapeze," his versatility and his constructional skills are evident in a taut, colorful circus scene.

 Shirley Woodson's cocoon-like, canvas-wrapped sculptures were not on view at the time of writing. • Paul Zenian, whose earlier work was portraiture and figurative peopled scenes with a tension-filled use of space, is represented by an oil canvas of a peasant woman kneading bread, which not only has a biblical implication, but comes close to early German expressionism.

"Detroit Expressionists" Recent Painting and Sculpture continues through Oct. 17. Gallery hours are Tuesday to Friday 1-5 p.m., Saturday 11-5 p.m. or by appointment (669-9543), 1160 Welch Road, Walled

Chapter 2 of 'Dutch' Leonard story

CCLUMN I made light of Elmore Leonard's new novel. Touch repeating what Leonard told me about the plot A former Franciscan monk turned faith-healer falls in love with a former baton-twirler turned rock record-promoter and finds himself in the clutches of the religious fringe

Well, all true, all true - but now I've read the book, and let me tell you - what a story' What a writer' And what a crime that it should take 10 years for a book like "Touch" to find a place on the shelves

"Touch" is the story of one Charlie Lawson who keeps the name Juvenal even atter he is no longer a Franciscan brother There were rumors that during a sojourn in the Brazilian jungle he had healed people, not through the miracles of modern medicine, but upon receipt of the stigmata the five wounds of Jesus Christ. He seems to be able to read people's minds as well - two good reasons to ease Juvenal out of the priesthood,

As the book opens, we find Juvenal (or "Juvie", as he is called at Father Vaughn Quinn's Sacred Heart Rehabilitation Center in Detroit) evading the curious who swear that the sight of a blind, battered wife was miraculously restored after a private but bloody visit with Juvenal.

HE BECOMES THE prey of Bill Hill, a flashy promoter who wants to be in on the action when the world latches on to this charismatic inno-- and of rabid right-winger and Vatican II abolitionist, August Murray, leader of the Grey Army of the Holy Ghost, seeker of Latin masses and avid reader of vivid accounts describing the terrible tortures and deaths of martyred saints

There are those who would protect Juvenal - Father Quinn and the staff at Sacred Heart, and even Bill Hill's former revival-meeting cohort, Lynn Faulkner, enlisted by Hill to impersonate an alcoholic to gain entry into the rehabilitation center, where Juvenal works part

Lynn becomes an admirer, then a reluctant believer, and finally, in a scene so purely innocent it would be comic if it weren't so deliciously erotic, she becomes Juvenal's lover.

But it is Juvenal's story - and in the end he is the character you'll have trouble forgetting. Juvenal is as bewildered by his gifts as the next guy Juvie is real. Juvie is so real, the stigmata, the ESP, is almost incidental. Juvie deals with the public the way - well, the way I suspect Elmore Leonard deals with his public - sort of: "This is what I do. So?"

Bill Hill talks Juvie into appearing on the Howard Hart show to be grilled by the talk-show host who is partly the madman from Paddy Chayefsky's "Network," partly De-troit's long-ago favorite, the late Lou Gordon (right down to the front-riding toupee, if I remember Lou Gor-

"You make it sound so simple." "Outside of maybe running out of

"That's a stigmatic joke. You don't hear too many

This is not Elmore Leonard's usual book. There is suspense (you couldn't create a character like August Murray without giving the nasty little weasel something to do), but Leonard is a master at tempering riveting suspense scenes with snatches of unexpected. off-the-wall humor There is a gun in "Touch". but it's not giving anything away to tell you that it never gets fired. What Touch is - at least to me - is a

Here's how Leonard sees it in his introduction "I had a good time writing 'Touch', imagining mystical things happening to an ordinary person in a contemporary setting. It's way off-trail compared to what I usually write, but it shouldn't be mystifying unless you look for symbols, hidden meanings, 'Touch' is about accepting what is Abiding with the facts. Nothing more.

Leonard, who did little more than revise a couple of paragraphs and cut a few lines in the 10 years the book sat around waiting to go public, adds that friends of his who read a lot think it's his best book Clearly. he does, too. Clearly, I do, too.

Q. I am advised that there is a class being taught in Birmingham in regard to condominium operation. I have written the Community Associations Institute after reading your column and also believe that such a class would be worthwhile. Can you give me the specifics?

A. Wayne State University's College of Lifelong Learning will begin a 'condo operation course at Birmingham Groves High School starting Tuesday, Oct. 6, and running for four consecutive weeks from 7 to 9 p.m. Details concerning the class can be obtained through Wayne State at 577-4665 or you may contact this

Q. I live on the first floor of a condominium in Birmingham. The cooling unit installed outside the furnace vibrates the air ducts and keeps me awake at night, since my bedroom is directly above the furnace in question. The condo association has a quiet'rule for night hours, but apparently it is not willing to take any action in this regard.

My first approach to resolve the problem was to turn off the person's blower motor at the furnace which did not go over too well. Then I offered this person $100 to have the heating contractor quiet the installation, which has not been accepted. What can I do?

A. More than likely your condominium bylaws provide that your neighbor cannot be unreasonably noisy in his activities. Find out if the installation of the heating system was an association responsibility or the co-owner's. You have rights against the association and/or a coowner to allow you peaceful enjoyment of the premises. If the heating and/or cooling system or furnace can be quieted by further work and you can establish that the noise levels emanating from the furnace are unreasonable, you may have legal redress against your

I would suggest that you advise your neighbor and/or the association in writing of the fact that the furnace apparently can be made to be more quiet and request that they take such action in order to preserve your sanity. If that is not successful, I would hire a lawyer to write the association and/or your neighbor providing them with the legal alternatives available to you. Good luck.

phone. What's the next thing you do? Turn on every light in the house. Why? Because you want to give the prospect the best image you can of the comfort, beauty and livability you are offering. In other words, you want to sell a home not a house. A full illumination is the best way to give your home that "lived-in" took. Furniture and rugs and fixtures take on a warm glow from the proper lighting. Here are a few "bright" ideas:

Turn on every lamp in the living room, bedrooms and tamily room. Be careful about turning on the overhead lights in these rooms for it could be harash and make the room look uninviting. Turn on every light in a storage room or closet. Go all out in illuminating the kitchen - the cheerierd the better. Brighten up the bathroom too - but carefully choose the right wattage for bulbs by the mirror, pick the most flattering one. Remember, it's just as important to have lights on in the afternoon as it is for a pight-time showing.

Homesites that excite your emotions.

If you enjoy land in its natural, beautiful state, you will want to see the homesites of Oakbrooke. Here, in a prestigious area of West Bloomfield, are homesites resplendent with stately trees, waterfowl, wildlife - even a picturesque, reflecting pond. These building sites are well-planned and exclusive. Only forty-six are available. Stone walls surround the entire community, ensuring your privacy. Discover the land of Oakbrooke and treat your senses to a lot you will want to make your own. Available from $95,000.

"I never saw anything like it. Handsome, distinctive buildings on terraced land, full of intriguing angles and architectural detail. A complete change from that old 'row-house' look Every apartment has its own private entrance, unusual layout, and surprising extras like a washer and dryer, vertical blinds, full kitchen with dishwasher, and plenty of closet and storage space. Some even have cathedral ceilings, oversize patio, and a large eat-in kitchen. I look out onto lush woods and ponds . . a jogging path . . . swimming . . . tennis . . and a comfortable clubhouse with exercise and aerobic rooms. It's not just a place to live; it's a place I love coming home to. You'll see what I mean."
