"I guess it was kind of fighting words," said Young, 70, the owner of Talent Live Entertainment, a Canton recording studio.

So Young sat down and wrote "Don't Burn our Flag." His son, Rick, put the lyrics to music and recorded it in the Michigan Avenue facility. Rick Young, who was a member of the now defunct rock group Teezers, is the lead vocalist. The Fabulous Falcons, who used to count Wilson Pickett among their members, also came to the studio to record an R&B version of the song.

And on both recordings, the backup is done by four girls from Canton. The parents of the girls, who sing in their respective church choirs, are friends of the Youngs. The youngsters are Emily and Jennifer Bowling and Chanel and Heather Ukkestad.

Young said his experiences in the Navy during World War II - and the things he witnessed in the course of the war - made him appreciate the U.S. flag. The lyrics were born out of a desire to voice some opposition to the Supreme Court ruling.

"I feel that if I as an individual burn the emblem of authority of this nation, I'm putting my citizenship on the line," said Young. "When you start reducing the value of that flag you are reducing the equivalent in your citizenship, and the more devalued and the less you believe in your government, the closer you reach the direction of anarchy. Now that the voices and the musical instruments have been recorded, all that remains is for radio stations to start giving the song some air

Last week, Talent Live began sending copies of "Don't Burn Our Flag" to area radio stations.

Young is hoping the song will garner enough fans to get a record company interested in providing a label for the recording. If that happens, it will become available in music stores.

Auditors inspect Graper's expenses

How much should be spent on city promotion? Since Plymouth City Manager Henry Graper resigned under pressure July 3, many are asking that question.

Graper, 48, said differences with city commissioners over management techniques prompted his resig-

City commissioners have asked auditors to examine Graper's expenditures.

There was a difference of opinion as to how the money was to be spent on expenses. There were some irregularities in the expense account,' Commissioner James Jabara said. He declined to be more specific.

Graper last year requested $23,000 for his miscellaneous account, which includes entertainment expenses for city business.

For the 11-month period from July 1988 through May 1989, city administrators, including Graper and other department heads, ran up a tab of $18,609 at the Mayflower Hotel, Plymouth Landing and Hillside Inn. according to William Graham, city finance director and acting city

How much should be spent promoting Plymouth "is a very difficult question," said Jabara. "It depends on what area of the community you're going to promote. I don't know that you can put a firm figure Being new to city business, Commissioner Robert Jones said, "I don't have a good gauge.

"My instinct was that it (proposed entertainment expenses for fiscal year 1988) was more than necessary. I suggested that a cut be made.

"I would like to have seen it cut further, but you have to crawl before you can walk.'

Jones declined to say more about Graper's expenditures. "There are just allegations at this point. That's why there has to be a thorough audit to see where we are.

"I have been concerned about money spent on promotion. You have to be careful that you spend enough to promote the city, but not in excess," Jones added.

While the cities of Northville and Plymouth are similar in size and population, they operate with different philosophies when it comes to promoting their communities.

Under a line item that includes tuition expenses, some seminars and supplies, professional dues, subscriptions and entertainment expenses for the city manager's department, the Plymouth City Commission appropriated $16,000 last year. That covers the expenses of the city manager, his assistant, the purchasing agent/personnel officer and secre-

"Entertainment expense money doesn't get the public to attend community events," said Walters.

Tyburski inspires queries

By Diane Gale staff writer

Questions remain about the freezer murder case, which focused national attention on Canton Township resident Leonard Tyburski, who last week began serving a 20- to 40year prison term for the slaying of his wife, Dorothy.

Will Tyburski appeal? What will: happen to the freezer? How are his children handling the sentence? The Observer posed these and further questions to Tyburski's attorney, Canton police and others.

Where will Leonard Tyburski serve his sentence? And will it be a. minimum-security or a maximumsecurity prison?

Late last week, Tyburski was in, the Wayne County Jail awaiting transfer to Jackson State Prison. From there he could be transferred. to another facility. He was free on ... bond during the trial, but was taken ... into custody when found guilty last

The Avon Street home was not listed for sale last week, according to local real estate offices.

How will the couple's two young danghters cope?

"If they can get support from people who care about them and if everybody else leaves them alone I think they'll be OK," said Tyburski's lawyer, Carole Stanyar.

She added that it took a lot of courage for Tyburski's 16-year-old ughter Kim to ask Recorders Court Judge Richard Hathaway for a lenient sentence.

"She has taken a lot on for her father and I know he appreciates that," Stanyar said.

Tyburski's daughter Kelly, 20, has been less publicly supportive. "I think Kelly still cares about her father," Stanyar said. "She's just devastated by this."

Court testimony showed that Kelly's boyfriend, 18 at the time, was dent Tyburski will be an "exem-

What will happen to the basement freezer in which Mrs. Tyburski's body was kept 31/2 years?

For now, the blood-stained freezer, still plugged in and filled with frozen goods, is in the Canton Police Department property room.

Graper was paid an annual base salary of $51,$00.

"This (Graper's resignation) is worse than a recall. The last one took us 30 years to outlive. This is just as bad," Lorenz said.

MARY ROEHR, executive director of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce, said that without being in Graper's shoes, it would be inappropriate for her to comment on expenditures.

But, she said, "I think the city has done an excellent job in promoting itself. I think it is nice to have a city manager involved in the community, and Hank certainly took an interest in the community, obviously demonstrated by his involvement with the Plymouth Ice Sculpture Spectacular, even though parties involved have received some heat in the past.

"I think it's very easy to question expenditures within any organization if you're outside looking in," added Roehr. "People seem to forget that within any organization, you have to pay bills. You have to pay personnel expenses, you have to have lights, electricity and occasionally, you need to take people out to dinner. All these things cost money, the sum of which is surprising to a number of people."

Acting City Manager William Graham said figures reflecting Graper's individual expenditures won't be available until an audit is completed.

'How much is enough? That's up to an individual community, its mayor, city manager and legislative body," he said. "It's based on what they perceive that needs to be.

"If you have a mode where you have a fear of people leaving, or businesses leaving, or you have a desire to bring new business in, obviously it may be necessary to do more entertaining-type things," said

Looking at Plymouth's general operating budget of $5.5 to $6 million, the city's business entertainment expenditures "don't appear to be significant at all," said Graham.

"People have different perceptions of what enough is. To some people, $1,000 is enough. To others, it's not enough unless it's more than

Farmers in dilemma

Down a gravel road in a treefilled corner of the township, the Suddendorf farm is tucked in a part of Canton that feels, smells and looks worlds apart from the rest of the township. Jack Suddendorf takes a break from his crops on Saltz near Beck. Sitting under a tree, he takes off his cap and explains to a visitor that he'll probably sell the farm within Taxes, labor costs and development projects are squeezing him out. Suddendorf said he pays $300 monthly in taxes.

"That's a lot of tomatoes," he

ALTHOUGH HE has lived on the land for 16 years and farms 11 acres as his only job, he seems to take the changes in stride.

"Vegetable growers can't survive on a part-time basis," Suddendorf said. "In our case it's taxes and help. You can't seem to be able

"That's progress," he said in a matter-of-fact tone.

Big farmers more west of here will be around - they're mostly cattle, grain and dairy farmers."

THIS YEAR, like every year since 1981, Suddendorf, daughter and partner Beth Floyd and another daughter, Martha, mind the crops. And wife Sandy sells the organic produce at Canton's Farmer's Market.

In fact, Suddendorf helped organize Canton's first Farmer's Mar-

"The whole theory of Farmer's Market is that it started with small farmers with the help of the bigger farmers, the township and citizens group who pitched together," Sud-dendorf said.

Every Saturday, 8 a.m. to 3 p.m., and Wednesday, 3:30-7:30 p.m., Canton farmers gather in the K mart parking lot at Ford and Sheldon and sell their goods. The market begins the last Saturday in July and ends Halloween weekend.

EVEN THOUGH the future of Canton's Farmer's Market is unclear. Suddendorf has requested that the township erect a permanent stand.

"There are no young people who are getting into farming on a small level," Suddendorf said.

"If you think back eight years around here, Ford Road wasn't as developed as it is now," Suddendorf said. "And K mart and Meijers were magnets.

The market offers fresh produce picked in the morning and sold by afternoon, Sandy Suddendorf said. Since the vegetables are organic (grown without pesticides), sometimes a worm crawls into the sale items. But Sandy Suddendorf just cuts it off and asks customers if they'd rather have pesticides sprayed over their edibles.

"PEOPLE WHO go to market are supportive of farmers as much as vegetables," Suddendorf said. Shoppers like to know where the vegetables come from, Sandy Suddendorf said. People come back year after year. If they have a problem, and they rarely do have a problem, they know where to go and they know that it will be taken of.

"It's a tradition with a lot of people to come up there and shop," she

Most of the shoppers come from Canton, Plymouth and Garden

When Canton's Farmer's Market first started, 17 farm families were involved. The number has dwindled to seven, but the number of shoppers hasn't.

More than not we sell out," Jack Suddendorf said.

WALKING AWAY from the house and toward the crops, Sandy acknowledged the tranquility of farm life. A moment later she noted the buzz of traffic not so far off on Ford Road.

"It is peaceful, but you can feel the population getting closer and closer," Sandy Suddendorf said.

All that might have been different if Canton residents hadn't killed the Farmland Preservation Act, not once but twice, in the '70s and

The family tried to get the act passed, Sandy Suddendorf said.

"You've lived with it hanging" over your head so long, we tried to preserve the farmland and the citizens didn't want that," she said. "You tried your best and you just have to live with that."

IN 1981 voters turned down a bond issue that would have preserved more than 5,000 acres of farmland in the western part of the township. The proposal was defeated by nearly 455 votes. In 1978 voters also turned it down by only a narrow margin.

"It was a novel idea that didn't have its day," Jack Suddendorf

"Back then I thought it was good for the community, but it's not so good now, because we're too civilized," he said with a small smile.

"I guess people have to have some place to go," he said, more seriously.

2 injured as police car hit on way to accident

By Diane Gale

A Canton Police car was hit from behind while trying to get to a rollover accident on the shoulder of the southbound I-275 freeway at the Ford Road exit ramp Thursday.

Of the four people involved in the accidents, two received minor injuries, according to Greg Stevens, a state police trooper.

THE FIRST accident happened about 3:15 p.m. when an 18-year-old Garden City man was trying to exit from southbound I-275 at Ford Road.

Canton officer George Sharp responded at about 3:25 p.m. and entered the northbound I-275 freeway just north of the Ford Road entrance.

Asbestos work costs spur closing of autistic center

By LeAnne Rogers staff writer

The Burger Center, which houses the only developmental learning program for autistic students operated by the Wayne County Intermediate School District, will be closed after June 30, 1990.

"We aren't at loggerheads. We have indicated our willingness to help them relocate," Superintendent Michael Wilmot said. "They have asked us to operate the program after 1990, wherever they are.

The Garden City school board voted to close the facility, which the district operates as a center program serving students from throughout Wayne County, after failing to reach an agreement with WCISD for asbestos removal and other repairs needed at the former junior high Asbestos removal at the facility is estimated at $350,000, according to Wilmot, with $200,000 estimated for additional roof repairs.

"THIS IS a program that serves every school district in Wayne Coun-ty," Wilmot said. "We have been trying to get funding for the necessary repairs. We have offered them a number of alternatives to address the problems."

WCISO and a July 1 deadline to resolve the money question, Wilmot said, so the asbestos removal could be accomplished while the building was empty over the summer.

"The county staff said they had no interest in the options we offered," Wilmot said. "I think that what they really want is to break the program up, probably into three parts around the county. Some kids are traveling from Grosse Pointe and the east

The district has not given WCISD an answer about whether Garden City should continue to operate the autistic program.

"We said we'd wait and see where they were located," Wilmot said. "Then we'll determine whether it will be beneficial to Garden City to

The program has been run here for many years and they have made tremendous strides in improving it," board member Ronald Tyszkiewicz said. "At some point we have to put our kids and programs in the balance against the costs."

THE PROGRAM moved into Burger approximately five years ago after Garden City closed it as a junior high school. Wilmot said the district will have no use for the facility after it is vacated and can be expected to dispose of the site.

The approximately 100 staff members who work at the center are Garden City Schools employees.

The state school code provides staff members with the option of remaining with the home district or taking positions with WCISD or another district that would operate the relocated program, according to Wilmot.

"We will send notices to parents and employees. We have already talked to the employee leadership, Wilmot said. "We may operate the program next year. Some people could potentially lose jobs out of

The Conference of Western Wayne is looking for a few good men and women to staff its new solid waste advisory committee.

The group will examine solid waste alternatives, conference members said, and will put special emphasis on recycling.

Volunteers are sought from Canton, Garden City, Livonia, Plymouth, Plymouth Township, Redford and Westland, among other communities. Though committee size hasn't been set, conference members seek at least one representative from each of the 17 member communities.

Other options, including incineration, are also expected to be studied, though recycling is gaining favor among many CWW communities.

"Recycling, given a chance, could probably work," said Plymouth Township Supervisor Maurice Breen, who described himself as an initial supporter of incineration as the area's main trash reduction alterna-

WHILE THE county plan hasn't yet been adopted, Wayne County communities are expected to be asked to cut waste production 50 percent by the year 2000 or lose their right to transport waste to county landfills.

Forming the advisory group represents the second step in a four-step plan to create a western Wayne waste reduction system.

Already, conference members have gathered background information of waste reduction alternatives. They should be on their way toward implementing regional alternatives, including regional marketing of plastic, glassware and other reusable goods, to recycling plants, according to CWW solid waste advisor Sandy Altschul.

"Marketing goods as a unit appears to hold great promise," Altachul said. 'If Livenia alone were to market its goods that would be fine, but with 17 communities doing so together, there would be considerably more interest (among recycling

Getting the program up and running, expected some time next year, would be the final step. In related news, the CWW is planning to seek state grant money to assist in recycling and composting programs. Money would be sought under newly-approved s environmental bonds, though just how much money and just how it would be used hasn't been decided.

to sell 40 acres of park land along Edward Hines Drive to expand a golf course. "Many of us are tired of public officials giving away public lands for private gain," said Betty Talmadge of Westland, speaking during a public hearing Monday regarding the site. "I enjoy golf myself, but I oppose sacrificing public land to a golf course," said Livonia resident John

Those comments were fairly typical of the 12 people who spoke during the 90-minute Michigan Department of Natural Resources hearing, though some speakers added concerns about traffic growth and potential backyard danger from stray golf balls.

Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara has proposed selling 40 acres of park land along Hines Drive to help Hawthorne Valley Golf Course expand. The private course, on Merriman in northern Westland, seeks land for nine additional holes.

The county expects to receive an estimated $200,000 for the land. That money, McNamara said, would be used to complete a new county-owned golf course in Ink-

Residents said the new county golf course wouldn't make up for park land and softball fields lost through the land sale.

"REDUCING AVAILABLE park land is certainly not in the public interest." said Jack Smiley, a Detroit resident who led a successful fight earlier this year to block Westland plans to develop a city course in the nearby Holliday Na-ty and the former Wayne County Road Commission, chief superviso ry body for the county parks at the time. Smiley also questioned whether golf course owners could file for DNR permits at a time when the land was still under county control.

"THE FACT that this is public park land is very relevant to the permit," Smiley said in calling for DNR officials to deny Hawthorne Valley expansion plans.

Neither the DNR nor the county commission has acted on the sale request or development plan.

One speaker said he would investigate whether the land could be sold without a vote of the people. Hawthorne Valley seeks to add five ponds to mitigate loss of nearby wetlands, according to course architect Matthews and Associates of Lansing. The course maintained 18 holes during the 1960s, though a previous owner sold off nine holes for home development.

Selling the land would help the county develop its own park land without burdening taxpayers. parks director Hurley Coleman

"The paramount issue is what's good for Wayne County," Coleman said. "Ball diamonds and other recreation areas (lost through the development) will be rebuilt."

The proposed county parks master plan, Coleman said, calls for private investment to help expand county parks offerings.

The DNR will issue findings on the development plans, though a department spokeswoman was unable to confirm a date for the findings to be issued.

The DNR will continue to accept written comments on the county's development plans through the end of this week. Comments should be mailed to: Michigan Department of Natural Resources, c/o David Pingel, 2455 N. Williams, Pontiac, Mich. 48054. Comments should refer to Blanchard said the bill fills a void recently he was unsure where he was created when the federal government reduced its student loan programs. Families with incomes of $30,000 or more found themselves cut out of federal loan programs but lacked the funds to finance college expenses on their own, he said.

Blanchard proposed the idea in his 1989 State of the State message. "It's just one way we're trying to help everyone pursue the American dream, provide for their future and have opportunity in the great state of Michigan," he said. State Superintendent Donald Bemis said as many as 30,000 students a year could apply for loans under the program.

Many details, including the maximum allowable income for participants, remain. But the Department of Education estimated Michigan families who are not eligible for federally subsidized students loans could seek as much as $25 million in loans each year under the program.

Department officials said they expect minimum loans will be $2,500 and that interest rates will be favorable because loans to families with proven ability to pay represent a low risk to lenders.

Default rates on state programs in other areas of the country average 2 percent or less because the loans are issued to families with higher incomes than those served through the federally subsidized program.

Recyling needs our attention

I'm frightened, and you should be too.

In the United States, the per person per capita production of solid wastes (comprising of trash) increased from 2.75 pounds per day in 1920 to more than 9 pounds per day in 1988.

With the increased demands being placed on cities such as ours to locate landfills, where will our kids and their kids come to dispose of trash safely? Because of the tremendous pressures to purify our nation's air and water resources, and because of the lack of room at dumping sites, sludge and garbage are front page news as one city after another faces up to the crisis. Untreated and unrecycled, these wastes will haunt us for centuries to come by causing health and pest problems - a blight to our land, water, air and ourselves. They also will cost each and every one of us astronomical amounts of tax dollars.

And those of us who call ourselves "foodies" actually increase the problem by throwing away countless amounts of cans, bottles, plastics and papers which, by itself, account for more than 65 percent of the trash collected by the wastehaulers.

Think for a minute about the number of cans alone that are generated in the kitchen. Now, multiply in the food pages from your newspaper. Don't forget to count the empty mayonnaise jars, jelly jars and mustard containers. If you purchase milk in those recyclable plastic containers, add that in too. Don't forget to count the juice jars/jugs and by all means, get out the calculator to tally those baby food jars and condiment jars. My head is spinning already, and that's just from counting my kitchen refuse. If you haven't guessed by now, I volunteered a few hours of time at Livonia's Community Recycling Center last Saturday and came away with a new outlook on how the Janes gang will treat refuse in the future. applauded each and every one of the more than 150 folks who dropped by with carloads of newspapers, cans, tin, jars and used motor oil. Many of the cars and vans were packed with kids who helped unload and sort the refuse. In the two short hours I was there, we stacked and collected more than a ton of newspapers (many of which consisted of O&E Taste pages) and bags of jars, tin and aluminum cans. It did the old heart (and conscience) good to see folks just like you and I taking an active role in recycling.

You know what scared me though? I realized that this was less than 1 percent of the total population. That means that more than 99 percent of the community still tosses recyclable materials such as those mentioned above out with their weekly trash. But then I hear about folks like the Jim Amick family who live in the Seven Mile and Merriman area who, after hearing about the opening of the recycling center, have actually reduced their curbside trash by more than 60 per-cent simply by recycling. The Amick family not only drops by the recycling center every three weeks or so with their recyclable trash but have also started a compost heap in their backyard and they turn their coffee grounds, egg shells and compostable wastes into fertilizer with a few shovels of dirt. Like you and I could, the Amick family now requests paper bags at the grocery store and whenever possible, carry items from the store without the use of bags. They have even alerted their neighbors about their monthly trips to the recycling center, offering to transport their recyclable materials. Sounds like a back-breaking, dirty job? Hardly. Their neighbors, like you and I could, rinse out and flatten the cans and place the newspapers in paper shopping bags and help load the Amick car. And if you're sitting there thinking that only Livonia has a recycling center, were you aware

Move over, fast food there's a new way to eat

By Debble Sklar

WO ALL-BEEF patties, special sauce, lettuce, cheese flame broiled Where's the beef? . . . We do chicken right. . . Ah, the sweet sound of those fast-food jingles, but wait - there's a new way of eating.

In this day and age a growing number of Americans are spending more time at home relaxing by the television with one of the latest video movies (a recent study suggests that more than 78 percent of moviegoers would prefer watching a film for the first time on their c.vn TV screens instead of at the theater) and a gourmet-delivered meal spread across their laps.

"Nationally, right now, food consumed off-premise is a $40 billion industry, but only $3.9 billion of that is being delivered. There is definitely a market for this type of service" says Kirk Scott, founder and president of Wabam Wabow, a computerized restaurant, food-delivery service that caters to homes in the major suburbs of Oakland County. "It all comes down to the fact that people are getting sick of burgers. and pizza. They want a change. They still want fast service, but they're willing to wait a little longer and spend a little more money to get better food. Let's face it, this is going to be the trend of the '90s."

ACCORDING TO marketing trends, in USA Today, Americans are spending more money decorating their homes because they're entertaining in them more.

"They call it cocooning," says Scott, who began exploring his Clawson-based company more than two years ago after seeing a similar operation in Southern California. "Today people are having kids, they're both working, they have dual incomes, and now because their spare time is so limited, they want to spend it at home.

"No longer can the husband say 'Honey, you go in the kitchen and I'll stand outside and drink a beer," he says. "Women don't want to be in the kitchen any more than the husband

It is at this point that gourmet delivery services or even individual restaurants step in to save the day and possibly a lovers' spat.

"Rather than having a meal catered, where you have to order large quantities of things," Scott explains, with our service, people can income in from ward at seven o clock, look at our menu and orden appetizing and have those delivered. Maybe an hour later they decide that they want to order a meal and give us another jingle. It's pure convenience. We call ourselves the instant cater-

AS PART OF its menu, Wabam Wabow offers lunch and dinner from 14 restaurants, ranging from Lebanese hommus with tahini from Phoenica in Birmingham to broccoli beef with straw mushrooms from Mon Jin Lau in Troy. Other offerings are from Keith Famie's L.A. Express in Royal Oak and from Alban's, Machus Sly Fox, Punchinello's and, for the sweet tooth, Marty's Cookies, all of Birmingham.

'What's nice about eating restaurant food at home is that you don't have to eat the whole meal right away or have dessert immediately after your meal," he says. "You can put half in the refrigerator and eat it at midnight if you want."

At Wabam Wabow there is a $20 minimum for each lunch order. The delivery charge will remain the same as the dinner service; 10 percent or $3.50 whichever is greater.

You can either call your order in by dialing 288-FOOD or fax it by calling 288-FACS. Orders are taken 24 hours in advance or up until 1 p.m. the following day of delivery. Dinner service is Monday-Saturday 5-10 p.m. and Sunday 4-8 p.m. Dinner mini-mum is $10. Wabam Wabow has 12 drivers, who all arrive wearing uni-

Scott says in order to ensure hot, high-quality food with fast delivery, each restaurant has its own limited delivery area, which is approximately five miles. Surprisingly, Scott's service is not just limited to the yuppie crowd as many may believe. It appears that the average customer is 45 and older.

"I HAVE a 72-year-old lady that orders from us every night," he says. "She probably spends between $10 and $15 per night - not much more than a pizza."

Over in Royal Oak, famed chef Keith Famie says he actively uses Wabam Wabow's delivery service to deliver tempting delicacies from his quick carry-out service, L.A. Express, within his popular Les Auteurs restaurant.

Muffin company in full gear

OYCE SHERMAN is no Jill-come-lately to the oat bran craze

Sherman, of West Bloomfield, has been baking healthy, tasty oat bran muffins for years. Now her Livonia-based Motor City Muffin Co. is cashing in on the demand for muffins that are sweet, lowfat and high in fiber. "I saw a niche," said Sherman, 31. "I love doughnuts, but I can't eat them anymore. I read that oat bran does lower cholesterol. In '87 we were using oat bran. We were ahead of the game." Sherman, a former French teacher at Roeper School in Bloomfield Hills, had always enjoyed baking. As time went on, she thought more and more about launching a business, centered on her time-tested, popular blueberry and poppy seed muffins. Sherman teamed up with her sister-in-law, Susan Borin of Bloomfield Hills, a former flight attendant who also had modeled and acted. Motor City Muffin

Co. was on its way. "It was all just so exciting and new," Borin, 36, said of the company, which began in Sherman's home kitchen in March 1987. "We did everything together. I became interested in the baking as well."

ENTHUSIASM PROPELLED the partners, neither of whom had any commercial baking interest before starting their company. Sherman and Borin, both mothers of small children, decided that at least some of their muffin varieties would be what they call "heart-healthy," high in fiber but low in sodium, sugar

Both women were keenly interested in those health aspects because Borin's husband Andrew - Sherman's brother - is a cardiologist.

We continue to work on newer flavors that can also be heart-healthy," Borin said. In addition, Motor City Muffin Co. products are kosher. That means they must adhere to rigid standards of cleanliness and purity of ingredients.

From the early days in Sherman's kitchen, the company moved into a pizzeria, then to the kitchen of an Oak Park synagogue. They outgrew those early quarters as new accounts mostly supermarkets, were ac-

CURRENTLY THE muffins are sold in about 50 upscale and specialty supermarkets, including Food Emporium of Livonia, Northville, Oak Park and West Bloomfield, 10 Great Scott! supermarkets, the Merchant of Vino and Shopping Center Markets.

Several muffin flavors contain oat bran, touted by medical specialists for its ability to lower cholesterol, a fatty substance linked to heart disease. It seems there is an insatiable demand for muffins, cookies, breads and pancakes which contain oat bran. 'We can't keep (oat bran muffins) in the store," Sherman said.

Some 50 muffin varieties are available on a rotating basis. The lineup includes raisin nut, carrot and choco-

Now 'fast' food arrives with a gourmet touch

"Originally, we did the deliveries ourselves, but it got too hectic, so I decided to go with Wabam Wabow," says Famie, who was seated at one of the few small tables that dot the tiny carry-out service. "It's a tremendous service for people and it's definitely the wave of the future."

Items on the specifically designed menu for delivery service at L.A. Express include Basil Pasta Salad, L.A. Pizzas, Pasta Choo Choo and Black Bean Cakes smothered with Smoked Chicken, Tomato Salsa and Sour Cream.

"Our biggest seller is L.A. Pizzas. People go wild over them," he says. "Pasta dishes and desserts are really big sellers too. As far as I can see, people are eating much more healthier and much more sensible these days."

L.A. EXPRESS has been open for about a year and concentrates on "fast, efficient, quick, good healthy food that's moderately priced." The bulk of the menu is pasta, gourmet entrees like lamb stew and linguini dishes, desserts and healthy salads.

Famie says one positive factor about his carry-out service is that the customer can either come in, browse, take the food home himself or call Waham Wahow to deliver it

At Monchelle Lamoure in Birmingham, owner Kathleen Haggerty says the restaurant, which is mostly known for desserts, has been involved with Wabam Wabow for at least four months. "It's helped the business because it's good exposure," she says. "People like to order desserts from us, especially our mousse tortes and midnight chocolate layer

Most recently Monchelle Lamoure added a lunch menu, which offers a variety of salads, soups and sandwiches. "We thought it would be nice to add a lunch menu for office workers during the summers," she says.

According to Cindy Kruse, coowner of Kruse and Muer, within the MeadowBrook Mall in Rochester Hills, "This is a great service, one that we're really happy to be involved with."

KRUSE AND MUER offers numerous "Pastabilities," chicken and ribs combos, as well as soups, salads and other "stuff.

Kruse says they decided to hire months ago because they thought it would be good for business.

We were really impressed with their presentation as well as the idea," she says. "It's great for us because they worry about insurance, liability and all the other headaches."

And what would a delivery service be without a good chocolate chip According to Marty Herman, owner of Marty's Cookies in downtown Birmingham, Wabam Wabow buys about five dozen bags of cook-"I like their idea. I think it offers people the freedom of dining with their favorite restaurant but at the same time dining in their own

SINCE 1972, Anita's Kitchen in the busy city of Troy has been serving up some of the most exciting nese dishes around. And according to co-owner Pierre Farah, business has become so overwhelming that he had to start his own delivery service. "There's no doubt about it, he says. "This is the wave of the future for the businessman."

Farah who owns the restaurant, and Charlie, says more than 10 percent of his delivery business is to offices around the metro area.

"Nowadays, business people don't have the time to hop in the car, lose their parking space and fight traffic just to get a bit of lunch," he says. "We knew there was a need for our service so we started it about three years ago. Our next step is going to be a fax machine so people can fax in their orders from wherever they're at."

Farah says there is no delivery charge as long as the order is more than $15 and within three miles of the restaurant. Anita's Kitchen does deliver to most suburban communities, but there is a fee, depending on location and what is ordered.

This is a service that we as a restaurant really enjoy because it helps to service our customers greatly,'

ANITA'S KITCHEN specializes in Lebanese and American cooking. "Everything is baked in our kitchens on a daily basis and there are no preservatives or additives," he says. Just good, home cooking with a lot

In Southfield, Bijou owner and general manager Walter Maeder says although he doesn't have a regular delivery service for his fine cooking, he does make exceptions for special occasions when he delivers to top executives and local celebrities.

"A couple of years ago Arthur Penhallow from WRIF called me the night before he was going to have surgery," recalls Maeder. "He wanted to know if we'd cook him up a steak and a Caesar salad. I sent my chef over to his place with a bottle of Chateau Lafite Rothschild and a chocolate mousse as well."

a yen for our cooking," he says. Maeder also has delivered Bijo entrees to top executives such as ad man W.B. Doner, when he was moving into an exclusive Birmingham

"Our special deliveries are res limited to faithful Bijou custom

In addition, Maeder says he prepares many dishes for local news media of both television and radio. "Dayna Eubanks always calls us for our Caesar salad and lobster that other communities, such as Birmingham, Southfield and Canton, also offer recycling stations such as ours? Call your city or township offices and find out how you can help save the environment, reduce pollution and begin a new recycling lifestyle.

Better yet, all of the cities listed above are in desperate need of volunteers to help direct traffic, sort and assist at these recycling centers. What a great lesson for today's youth to see first hand that there is an alternative to waste disposal.

If you can't find the time to volunteer, it's really simple to begin recycling at home. The Janes Gang took three old laundry baskets and placed them under the basement steps. Basket No. 1 holds all the newsprint (with shiny inserts removed) while basket No. 2 takes the glass jars and basket No. 3 tallying up the rinsed out cans and metal lids. Every other week, we get out the electric can and remove tops and bottoms from the cans, then let the kids have fun on the deck smashing them down. Without a doubt (and just by using these three baskets) our family has reduced packaged trash by 20

There is something for everyone," Borin said.

The partners have worked with dietitians from the American Heart Association to develop several recipes that contain no eggs, but are rich in whole wheat flour, oat bran and low-fat vegetable oil. Some are sweetened with molasses or fruit juice. Recipes that meet the heart association's dietary requirements are marked on the package.

"IT HAS TO BE a maximum of 30 percent fat," Sherman said. "If it's 32 percent, it doesn't pass."

At $1.59 to $2 each for a six-ounce muffin, they don't come cheaply. But Sherman guarantees freshness and purity of ingredients, with a shelf life of five days.

Mini, one-ounce versions, called babes, cost around $4 for 12 muffins. The larger muffin contains around 220 calories.

"These calories are nutritionally dense," Borin said. "They are all calories that are good for you. They are high in fiber. A high proportion of the muffin is oat bran.

Sherman and Borin both attribute their success to believing in themselves and their product, and a will-ingness to do what is necessary to get the job done.

"I think we just knew it was going to be successful," Sherman said.

The hardest part has been adapt ing to growth and constant change. "It was keeping an open mind about being flexible and adaptable,"

Make-ahead dishes perfect for quasi picnic

In the past, I have often written about picnic meals — which are fun to prepare and eat at all sorts of un-usual times and places. These in-clude breakfast picnics, after-dark remantic repasts under the stars, readside lunches, and the more elaborate picnic feasts that are works of

However, strange as it may seem, there are large numbers of people who do not like picnics. They prefer to eat their meals in air-conditioned comfort, or - at least - in screened-in rooms or porches, away from the flies and mosquitoes.

One of the nicest features about picnics is that they are often makeahead meals with no last-minute work. Everything is prepared and packed ahead, so that you can enjoy eating it along with the rest of the people.

The dishes are either paper throwaways, or they are packed back into the basket, to be done later.

If your mate is one who doesn't enjoy picnicking, and you still want the fun and relaxation of such a meal. try some of these wonderful makeahead recipes.

Serve them on a screened-in porch, or in any room of the house. Use your imagination, and plan as you would for a real picnic.

Eat on throw-away dishes, or, if you prefer real ones, stack them in the sink or dishwasher and worry about them later. You're entitled to a rest period after dinner, too - especially if you're the one who prepared the meal.

SEVEN-LAYERED FRUIT SALAD

By now, I am sure that everyone and his uncle, has tried the popular seven-layered vegetable salad. (If not, and you'd like the recipe, please call me.)

But here is a-seven-layered salad that is different because it is made with fruit. This recipe serves six.

2 cups shredded lettuce 2 apples (cored and chopped with peel left on, sprinkled with lemon juice to preserve color)

2 navel oranges, peeled and sec-

2 cups seedless green grapes

1/2 cup mayonnaise

Jack, or even grated parmesan

1/2 cup sour cream 2 tablespoons sugar 1 cup shredded cheese (almost any kind will do - Cheddar, Monterey

Spread lettuce on the bottom of a two-quart serving dish. Arrange the apples on top. Layer the orange sections on top of the apples. Then layer the grapes. Combine mayonnaise and sour cream, and spread over the grapes. Sprinkle sugar evenly on top of the mayonnaise mixture, and top with a layer of cheese.

Cover tightly with foil or plastic wrap, and refrigerate overnight.

Group stages meeting The senior citizen nutrition pro- bread, mixed bean salad, ambrosia, to save the following by

By Emory Daniels staff writer

A "save the theater" movement has started in Livonia.

Residents and community leaders interested in preserving the former Mai Kai Theater as a performing arts center are looking for individuals with similar interests.

An open meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday on the stage of the Mai Kai at Plymouth and Farmington roads, called by board members of The Arts Alliance Group. Performing arts and community groups have been invited.

TAAG chairman Ken Kelsey said that the alliance has commissioned a feasibility study on potential uses of the Mai Kai as a performing arts

THE CONCEPT is that a nonprofit community organization would operate the center to bring in top performing groups for the enjoyment of residents and to offer a center for local performing groups to use said Kelsey.

The facility also would be made available to schools and colleges for graduation ceremonies, to businesses for conferences or auctions, and for lecture series and several other uses.

"The location of the Mai Kai and the general good condition of the facilities inspires us to pursue this opportunity to see if we can develop a convincing case for the future of this wonderful building," Kelsey wrote in a letter recently to performing art

The consultant hired to do a feasibility study will be introduced Wednesday night and will listen to suggestions on different uses for the TAAG will use the meeting to gage community interest in the project, said Kelsey. Another meeting will be scheduled with business leaders in the city.

Kelsey said TAAG will make a presentation to the Livonia City Council after the meetings are held and a feasibility study is completed.

The present owner of the Mai Kai has expressed a willingness to donate the theater to the city of Livonia or a non-profit community group to operate as a performing arts center.

BACKERS BELIEVE a non-profit group could make the project work because it wouldn't have to make mortgage payments, a major expense, if the theater is donated. The center would also enjoy tax-exempt TAAG board members also believe there might be funds available from foundations to help the center get off the ground.

Other board members of TAAG include: Jeanne Bonner, secretary, Dave Palmer, treasurer; Fred Fehlauer, founding chairman; and Robert Bishop, Marcia Buhl, Peter Ventura, Dennis Chidester, Ida Krandle, Mary Ann LaForest, Diana Socha and Clara Lawrence.

Kelsey said he sent invitations to other groups in the community that might use the center, including key performing arts groups, but may have missed someone. "That's why this is an open meeting. We want anyone interested in the performing arts, or interested in saving the Mai Kai, to feel free to drop in Wednesday night."

Kelsey, who also is president of the Livonia Symphony, said the symphony would be interested in holding its concerts there. Other music and theater groups in the city have expressed similar interests

Parents train child for a dry night's sleep

When the Wilsons first realized they had a problem, Billy was 5 years old. Now he is 10.

"Don't worry, he'll outgrow it," the doctors kept telling them. That was five years ago.

But Billy was still wetting his bed. He would wake up in a dry bed perhaps two days a week. 'Five doctors had tried their best. The family doctor had prescribed some medicine which stopped his bedwetting; but then he had a relapse as soon as the drug was discontinued," says Billy's mother. "Our paediatrician examined Billy and found nothing physically wrong. He referred us to a psychologist whose comment was Billy was a little hyperactive, but not abnormally for his age." An internist and an urologist put Billy through many tests. Nothing seemed to work.

"Over the last 5 years, we felt fortunate if the bed was dry two nights in a row," says the boy's father. "Billy would go to visit someone and spend the night. But he might stay awake the whole time, because he was too embarrassed and did not want to wet the bed."

Then several weeks ago, the Wilsons heard of the Michigan Children's Center. They sent away for the free literature and saw their own son's story being played out. What had hit them hardest was an earlier story that linked bedwetting to a change in personality.

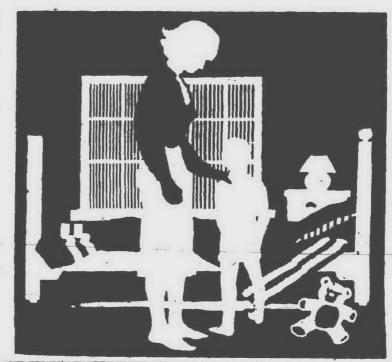

"My son tried to set our cat on fire. That's when I said I am tired of hearing 'don't worry, he'll out-grow it.' Also, I found out bedwetting is harmful physically and emotionally. If bedwetting can be stopped, why should we put our son through such a horrible experience. We did not hesitate when our daughter needed braces. The expenses have nothing to do with it."

Many don't outgrow bedwetting

Bedwetting is not life-threatening, so it's not a disease. But it endangers a child's mental health, so it's more than an inconvenience. Its symptoms are well known, so it can't be called a discovery. It does not fit into any recognizable category as a psychological phenomenon, so it's treated as a physical nuisance. A nuisance that the child hopefully would outgrow.

But children don't always stop bedwetting. One report showed an incidence of 40 percent at three years, 22 percent at five years, 10 percent at ten years and 1 to 2 percent at twenty years of age. Girls do not wet their beds as often as boys. Bedwetting is about twice as common among boys as among girls. In 14 years the Center has successfully treated thousands of bedwetters with an enviable rate of success, and receives a great number of inquiries from adults who still have the problem.

Quite often a doctor will say, 'Don't worry, your child will outgrow it." That's because most doctors don't want to worry the parents. And if we look at the

A social traits can carry over into history of bedwetting in the family can reduce the chances a child will outgrow it. Also Psychologist Dr. Warren Bailer of the University of California at Los Angeles writes, "Evidence accumulated casts doubts that children outgrow bedwetting. Most bedwetters hide their feelings. Shame and embarassment are their constant companions. Correcting their affliction often produces remarkable results in family relationships, behavior, school work and peer contact.'

Billy was dry nine weeks after the Wilsons sent for the Center's literature, and eight weeks without a wet bed, they started to notice other changes.

'My son has always been very quiet, very withdrawn. He seldom talks to us. I guess that's because he was teased a lot when someone who'd let him stay at his home let the cat out of the bag," says his father. Today Billy reaches out for affection from his family in a way they've never known. He also appears much more confident and less argumentative.

Harmful physical and emotional effects

Billy follows the pattern of many "nocturnal enuretics" as the condition is medically known. For them, the problem is more than just a 'wet sheet nulsance.' Unfortunately it's still a closely closeted problem few people are willing to diacuss openly let alone seeking help. As a result, socially these children can develop poorly. Their bed-wetting problem makes it diffi-cult for them to join the crowd, making friends and learning the skill in a healthy relationship. They live in constant fear of ridicule—that somebody will un-cover their problem. Bedwetting is not an accepted thing to do.

The resulting shame from bedwetting during the sensitive age of a child can be devestathe's sleeping is a no-win situa-He notes that a 31/2 year study at the McGill University in Montreal, Canada concludes that deep sleep, not the child, is the No. 1 cause of bedwetting.

Causes and effects

Bedwetting can cause serious psychological problems in a child if not being looked after quickly. After a while, the child develops some strongly ingrained habits and negative self-expectations which in turn make it even harder to overcome the problem.

Early symptoms of this taking place are: Temper tantrums, putting things off, avoiding responsibilities, afraid to be alone, difficulty in making friends.

Staff psychotherapist at the Center, Arnold Keller says that the worst so-called solution, without a doubt, is for parents to wait for the children to outgrow the problem. Since toilet training points out the difference between right and wrong, clean and dirty, success and failure, bedwetting naturally reinforces negative feelings and can lead to a poor self-image.

Most bedwetters hide their feelings in shame," says Keller. "They pretend that it doesn't bother them, and they stop talking about it. And when parents don't think it affects the child, and everything seems to be alright, that's when things can become serious."

The majority of bedwetters don't work to their full potential," he says. "They often have difficulty communicating with their parents because of the guilt associated with bedwetting. One study showed three of every four institutionalized juvenile delinquent were or had been bedwetters."

Fortunately, bedwetting can be corrected in almost every case. The Center enjoys a success rate of over 97 percent of those accepted into the program. Using the Dry Bed Training method pioneered by the Center over the past 14 years, parents can stop their child's bedwetting problem right in the privacy of their own home.

With the opportunity to become a Michigan Lottery Millionaire occurring in every twice-weekly Super Lotto drawing, readers asked for more information on winning.

Q. How many prizes of $1 million or more have been won in Michigan? A. Through the end of June this year, there had been 352, with 39 of these prizes awarded to lottery clubs.

Q. How many of these were jackpot winners in a Lotto game? A. There have been 365 Lotto jackpot winners. Of these, 284 received prizes ranging from $1 million up to $17 million.

Q. How many have been won this year?

A. Through the June 28 drawing, 28 prizes worth $1 million or more were won this year, or an average of about one a week. This is slightly ahead of the 1988 pace when 51 were awarded during the full year.

Q. How many Lotto jackpot prizes have been worth more than $10 million? A. As of this writing there have been 10, with 45 others in the $5 million to $10 million range. The largest number of winners, 126, won prizes worth $2 to $5 million. Another 103 lucky players won between $1 million and $2 million.

Q. What determines the size of the jackpot for each drawing?

for each drawing?

A. The top prize is based on the number of plays in the game since the jackpot was last won. When a rollover occurs, Lottery officials establish a new guaranteed minimum based on the amount already in the jackpot plus anticipated sales for the next game.

Q. How many plays does it take to add another $1 million?

A. About 2.2 million. From each dollar in Lotto game sales, 26 cents is placed in the Jackpot prize pool for investment to pay a prize over 20 years. But, because winners collect this money plus all the interest it earns over that 20-year period, $1 million can be awarded with only about $650,000 in the prize pool.

Q. Are my odds of winning the jackpot better when it goes above a $1.5 million minimum?

A. Your odds of hitting the jackpot remain the same, about one in seven million, no matter how large the jackpot is. But, as larger jackpots attract more players, there is a greater chance that the top prize will be shared by two or more

Present Value jolts Proper Reality

By C.J. Risak staff writer

The last two runnings of the Michigan Mile provided no drama and no surprises. The two favorites (Waquoit in 1987, Lost Code in '88) won in a walk.

Maybe that's why Saturday's race at Ladbroke DRC was so disappointingly attended - 10,006, the lowest figure since the inaugural Mile, in 1949 at the Detroit Fair Grounds.

Too bad, thoroughbred fans. You missed a heckuva race, a final stretch dash to the finish in which heavily favored Proper Reality surprise! — was outlegged by 49-to-1 shot Present Value.

The winning time was 1:49 and one-fifth, the fastest since Thumbsucker's 1:48.2 in '83. Present Value paid a whopping $100.60 for a $2 win ticket. Mi Selecto was a distant third behind Proper Reality.

THE RACE was decided before the quarter-mile pole. Present Value, starting in the No. 8 slot in the nine-horse field, broke from the gate quickly and was running second after a quarter-mile. Proper Reality, coming out of the No. 3 gate, got a bad start but moved into contention by the first turn.

The difference was Present Value outside, just behind pacesetter Sasscat; Proper Reality was boxed in by Baltic Fox and Congeleur and had to fight his way through.

"My horse was running real comfortable," said winning jockey Frank Olivares. "There was no pressure at all. It was a perfect spot to be in. I just waited for horses to come up to

"He was very relaxed and very comfortable. That is his style."

As the horses turned toward the clubhouse, the duel began. Present Value and Proper Reality separated from the rest of the field and raced side-by-side toward the finish line. But Proper Reality, the 2-to-5 betting favorite and winner of nine of its 15 previous races, never caught Present Value.

"I saw a horse come up on the inside," Olivares said. "I didn't know it was Proper Reality, but I knew I could outrun whoever it was.'

PRESENT VALUE did just that, both taking advantage of his own strength while exploiting the only weakness associated with Proper Reality. A relatively small horse, Proper Reality's ability to hold up over a mile-and-an-eighth was questionable.

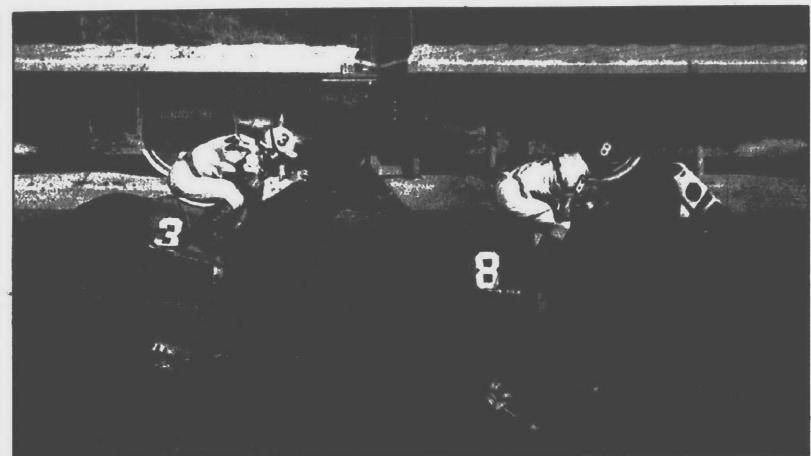

"We really have no excuse," said Bob Holthus, trainer of Proper Reality. "We just got outrun. If (Proper Reality) had been enough of a horse today, he would have won." Jerry Bailey, the favorite's jockey, offered no excuses, either. "(Proper Reality) did just fine, but the horse running next to us in the lane was going just a little bit faster. Proper Reality's probably at his best staying just off the pace, and then closing at a mile distance.

"On his best days, he can go onewas running easy and clear on the and-one-eighth miles. But this wasn't one of them."

> THE HUGE payoff was not a good indicator of Present Value's ability. "Outside of Proper Reality, I thought four or five horses were pretty even," said Jerry Fanning, Present Value's trainer. "I didn't think he could beat Proper Reality, but I thought he could handle the

Recruits fuel Ocelots' hopes in region

Rick Menary Canton product staff writer

Graduation and grades have robbed Schoolcraft College's mens. soccer team of some valuable assets. Not to worry: Ocelot coach Van Dimitriou has delved deeply into the local talent pool, cashing in on longterm investments to multiply his dividends.

Those dividends are well-documented in victory totals. Dimitriou's teams were consistently atop the Eastern Conference standings, until the last two seasons, when Macomb CC - SC's No. 1 nemesis - supplanted the Ocelots.

Dimitriou will seek to reverse that trend this fall. And although such standouts as stopper Lee Hunt and fullback Phil Neumaier have graduated, and midfielder Pete Ritsema and forwards Todd Nichols and Joe Messler failed to make grades, there is enough talent among the new recruits to be optimistic.

The secret to Dimitriou's recruiting success - which translates into annual region title runs - is overlapping. Many of the youths he coaches on his Livonia United club team find their way to SC. Four of his top eight field players have performed on a Dimitriou team before.

A TEAM'S success starts in goal; so does the Ocelots.' "Speaking of strengths, we'll be solid in goal with size and experience," the SC coach predicted.

The size comes from newcomers Jeff Shuk, a 6-foot-5, 190-pounder who guided his Nevada high school team to the state finals (nine shutouts, 0.89 goals-against average), and Jim Robbins, a 6-4, 185-pound transfer from Henry Ford CC from Woodhaven. Robbins planned to play basketball at HFCC, but after a leg injury decided to switch to soccer.

The experience comes from returnee Chris Moore, a Redford Catholic Central grad. Unfortunately, what Dimitriou doesn't have is a combination of size and experience in the net; Moore, while steady and fundamentally sound, stands just 5-8.

Still, the situation in goal is far better than it's been in recent years. 'Are we loaded at goalie," claimed Dimitriou, noting the depth. "Whereas last year, we really had just one mism. The players who do return all started, at one time or another. Chris Speen, the sweeper from Livonia Churchill, and Doug Sobolak, a fullback from Plymouth Canton, anchor the defense. Brian Thomas, also from Churchill, and Brendan O'Reilly, from Redford Union, lead the of-

"We should be strong down the middle," said Dimitriou. "How well we do will depend on how well the supporting players come through." Among the best of the recruits are:

• Khaled Zeidan, the high-scoring forward from Churchill who was injured and missed the Chargers' state tournament loss to Class A champ Stevenson. He was a first-team all-Western Lakes Activities Association choice. Said Dimitriou: "Hopefully, we'll be able to streamline THERE'S MORE to fuel the opti- some of his moves and make him even more effective."

• Eric Schwedt, a first-team all-Observer and all-WLAA selection from Stevenson who scored 21 goals and added seven assists in 20 games. Dimitriou: "He scored more key goals for Stevenson than anyone He has beautiful timing on headers and can play defense, too.

 Chuck Przygoda, a leader for Troy Athens and an all-Eccentric and all-Metro Suburban Activities Association pick as a midfielder/ fullback. "He's the steadiest player of the lot," said Dimitriou. "This kid makes no mistakes. He's consistent."

• David Dinglie, a big (6-1, 180), physical defender from Stevenson whose zealous play put him on the sidelines midway through the season (Dinglie was suspended after a ver-

Hail, Caesars!

Rout drops Hines Park into tie

By Steve Kowalski staff writer

Jim Miller, one of the new additions to the Redford Little Caesars baseball team, had trouble finding his glove Wednesday after Caesars dismantled Hines Park Lincoln Mercury, 14-4, at

Assistant coach Ken Wandzel located the mitt near the Caesars dugout and gave it to his star pitcher before he left.

Miller could have done without the mitt during the game, because all he needed was his strong right arm. Miller, quite a find himself, tossed a six-hitter, leading Caesars to the lopsided win that ended after five innings because of the mercy

The win places Caesars and Hines Park in a first-place tie in the Livonia Collegiate Baseball League at 17-5-1 each.

MILLER, WHO graduated this spring from Waterford Kettering, will play football in the fall at Michigan State University, but for now he's strictly a baseball player.

"He hits, too," Caesars coach John Moraitis said of his cleanup hitter. "He's a good athlete. He wants to go with the dink ball a lot but he throws the ball 85 or 86 (mph) and I said to him tonight, Throw it as hard as you can and I guarantee they won't get one or two runs off you."

"This was probably the most important win of the year. We're fighting for first with only seven Caesars gave Miller all the support he could ask for in the first two innings. Hines Park took the game's first lead, 1-0, scoring a run on a bases loaded walk to Bill Bannon, but Caesars put the game away in its first two at-bats.

Hines Park ace Derek Darkowski, now 7-2, was chased after managing to retire only one of the first seven batters he faced in the bottom of the first. Darkowski surrendered a three-run home run to Art George, walked four and was charged

HIS REPLACEMENT, Mike Sulak, fared no better. The first batter to face Sulak was Caesars catcher Jack Daniels, who rocketed a shot off the left field light tower for a two-run double.

Caesars continued its onslaught in the second, scoring seven runs off Sulak, highlighted by an RBI single by Miller and a two-run single by Sean Maloney. Combined, Darkowski and Sulak walked nine batters, and seven of the players issued free passes eventually scored.

Bob Files, the third Hines Park pitcher, allowed only one run and four hits over the last 31/2 innings, but by then the outcome was decided.

"Our pitching killed us, me and Sulak," Dar-kowski said. "It was just one of those days. It seemed like everything I threw, I forced. We can't expect to win too many games walking nine batters in the first two innings."

Darkowski has beaten Caesars twice previously, but Moraitis said he knew right away Caesars was facing a tired arm.

"HE'S DECENT when he's got a rest," Moraltis said. "He's got a good curve and throws heat. But every time I look up he's pitching. They use him too much.'

Caesars collected 11 hits off Hines Park pitching and the biggest bat belonged to George, who knocked in four runs. George, who attends the University of Evansville, had an RBI single in the second in addition to his three-run homer in the Only lead-off man Tim Napier failed to get a hit in the Caesars lineup, but he was walked twice and scored both times.

"George is the best talent in the league," Moraitis said. "He has soft hands and runs like a sprinter. He leads us in stolen bases.'

Chris Sisler had two hits for Hines Park, scored twice and drove in a run. The other major contribution in Hines Park's lineup came from cleanup hitter Dan Niemiec, who had two singles and scored once.

"Miller is hittable," Hines Park coach Dave Racer said. "Sisler hit him hard. Thing is, he throws heat but can't get the breaking ball over. I'm not taking anything away from them they're a good team. But throw out the first two innings and we beat them."

Jack Daniels slides safely into home plate for Little Caesars. Daniels scored on a passed ball as pitcher Mike Sulak waits for a relay that didn't arrive in time.

Spartans remain perfect in hockey

Ed Shepler scored eight points in two games last week to help the Spartans stay unbeaten in the Metro Summer Hockey League.

He pumped in three goals and had one assist as the Spartans, who lead the Bakes Conference with a 5-0 record, whipped the Bulldogs 9-3 Tuesday at the Plymouth Cultural Center. Gary Scott chipped in two goals

Mark Issel's three goals led the way Thursday when the Spartans trimmed the winless Wildcats 8-7 at the Wayne Ice Arena. Shepler, who tallied another goal, was the main support person this time with three

Rob Waters duplicated Shepler's numbers for the Wildcats, and Spartan teammate Darin Young scored what proved to be the deciding goal with 12 minutes remaining in the third period, giving the Spartans an 8-6

In another Thursday game, the Carnes brothers, Neil and Alan, were a two-man wrecking crew in the Broncos' 15-6 shellacking of the winless Wolverines.

Neil, who played last season for the Verdun Canadiens, slipped in six goals and had two assists, and Alan produced big numbers, too — three goals, four assists.

Trent Dresh supplied an additional three goals and one assist for the winners, while Chris Riffle led the Wolverines with two goals and one

In Wednesday night action, Craig Johnston and Joe Burton scored two goals apiece in the Lakers' 7-3 win over the Wolverines. Burton also had two assists and Johnston one.

Rob McDonald had a goal and one assist as the Huskies handed the Falcons their first loss and forced a two-way tie for first place in the Eagle Conference

The conference standings are as follows: Bakes Conference: 1. Spartans, 5-0; 2. Lakers, 2-1-2; 3. Bulldogs, 1-2-1;

Eagle Conference: 1. Falcons and Huskies, 3-1; 3. Broncos, 2-2; 4.

Juniors roll for scholarships

ey was distributed at the 3rd-annual Michigan Junior Masters Association Championship held recently at Royal Scott Lanes in Lansing Seventy howlers in search of scholarship money competed and anxious parents made for an exciting weekend. All bowlers started Friday. June 23, with a a march to the lanes to the theme of "Fanfare for the Common Man" playing. After the smoke cleared Saturday, the field was trimmed to the top 16 boys and top four girls. Bob Vance of Lansing led the boys division, averaging 207 for 16 games, while Lisa Skibinski of Essexville led the field on the girls side, averaging 195.

The girls went on to match play with Eleanore Korzec of Hamtramck defeating Team USA state champion Lisa Bishop of Belleville, and Korzec rebounded with a win over Robin Ostro in the semifinals. In the championship, Skibinski dominated early and cruised to a 241-184 triumph. Skibinski won a total of $1,200 in scholarships including a bonus $100 for her 278 high game. She averaged 195 for the 20 games

The boys returned for match play Saturday for two eight-game blocks, followed by a Sunday morning final block of eight. After 32 games of bowling the field was cut to the final five. The first match pitted Kelley Bennett of Auburn Hills against Steve Ewald of St. Clair Shores. Bennett prevailed over Ewald and went on to meet his close friend, Jason Clark of Utica. These two displayed an exciting match and Clark came back to win. 183-177 Clark then met 1988 Bowler of the Year Nevelle Kirby, of Saginaw. It was no contest early as Jason Clark took command and moved to the championship

Awaiting Bob Vance. The crowd of about 200 spectators saw an exciting match as Clark threw a key double in the 10th frame to force Vance to do the same for the title. He did, defeating Clark 238-232, to earn the $1,500 award.

After bowling, Bowlers of the Year were announced at the banquet. Eric Tulley of Livonia picked up the award, which also carries $250 in funds for scholarships. Among the girls, Belleville's Lisa Bishop took Bowler of the Year honors and scholarship money which she will use at Eastern Michigan University this fall. Bishop also won the sportsmanship award as voted by her fellow bowlers in the entire MJMA.

The first regular tournament of the 1989-90 season will take place at Bob Goike's Lodge Lanes in Belleville, Aug. 12-13. If there are any questions on the MJMA, contact tourney director Paulette Krajniak at 541-6509 or executive director Dan Ottman at 689-8696.

Dorocak's stay on the mound ended two outs shy of a complete game. He left after allowing Salem to load the bases on two walks and a single in the bottom of the seventh.

With the twilight nearly gone and the baseball difficult to see, Farmington brought on hardthrowing Craig Murray to save the game.

The former Harrison strikeout artist retired Eric Sheehan on a flyout, but he walked Brad Wright to force in a run before striking out Tim Lake to end the game.

"I TOLD CRAIG he had darkness on his side." Turnquist said. "I told him all he had to do was throw the heat. If they beat him throwing his heat, they deserved to win.

"That was a good move on their part," Wasik said. "The baseball was harder and harder to see Sheehan came back and said one of the lights in the parking lot went on about the same time and, for some reason, he couldn't take his eyes off it."

Wright had two of Salem's five hits and scored both runs. Consecutive doubles by Wright and Brannan accounted for the game's first run, and Wright raced home on an error in the fourth. Farmington tried to get him going to third on Brannan's ground ball, but the throw was wide of Leo Devine and Dorocak had two hits apiece for South, which collected a total of eight.

Local congressmen support sanctions for China area members of the House of Representatives were recorded on major roll call votes in the week before the Fourth of July congressional recess. The Senate was not in session.

AID TO INDIA: By a vote of 204 for and 212 against, the House rejected an amendment to cut aid to India for the next fiscal year from a committee-approved level of $110 4 million to $85 million. This occurred as the House sent to the Senate a bill (HR 2655) authorizing about $23 billion in worldwide foreign assistance in fiscal 1990-91.

Sponsor Wally Herger, R-Calif., said India deserves less aid as a result of human rights abuses cited by Amnesty International, its development of nuclear weaponry and the Opponent Stephen Solarz, D-N.Y., said the amendment would "have a chilling effect on our relationship with the world's most populous democracy.

Area members voting yes supporting cuts in aid to India were: Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth and William Ford, D-Taylor.

Dennis Hertel, D-Harper Woods, Sander Levin, D-Southfield, and William Broomfield, R-Lake Orion

TO SANCTION CHINA: By a vote of 418 for and zero against, the House imposed legislative penalties on China that go far beyond the diplomatic and trade sanctions ordered by President Bush in response to the Chinese government's massacre of pro-democracy demonstrators and crackdown on dissenters.

Added to the new foreign aid bill above), the amendment is designed to withhold American capital and sensitive exports, slow China's technological development, impair its national security and hold Chinese leaders up for world scorn over their repression of Tibetans and their own citizens. It seeks American accommodation of Chinese students in the United States, and hinges any improvement in America's attitude toward China on Bush's certification that Beijing has begun respecting human rights.

Jim Leach, R-Iowa, said the House must express America's "great distress about the butchery in Beijing and the brutal reimposition of Stalinist totalitarian control in China." No lawmaker spoke against the amend-tempt could be kept in jail for no more than 12 months or, if criminal charges have been filed during the ncarceration, 18 months.

The immediate aim of the retroactive bill is to free Dr. Elizabeth Morgan, a Washington plastic surgeon who has been jailed for the past 22 months by a D.C. Superior Court judge unhappy with her refusal to cooperate in a child custody case. Morgan has put her daughter in hiding and refuses to allow the child to see her father, who is claimed by Mrs. Morgan to have molested the

Adjustable-Rate Mortgage on Your Terms

The Lifetime Convertible ARM with a Flexible Loan Term.

At Standard Federal, we know that it's important for you to find a mortgage you can live with. That's why we offer a flexible loan term on our Lifetime Convertible Adjustable-Rate Mortgages.

We make your dream of owning a home easier to accomplish because you choose the exact mortgage loan term that best suits your needs - from five to 30 years. And, you'll be able to start out at a lower initial interest rate and a lower initial monthly payment when compared to a fixed-rate loan of a similar term.

With a Standard Federal ARM, you can convert your adjustable-rate loan to a fixed-rate loan. Unlike many other lenders, we allow you to convert anytime during the term of your loan.

What's more, all of our mortgage loan programs feature our exclusive ExpressLoan service which allows you to process and close your loan in as little as 15 days.

Don't let the sign fool you. While it may sound unneighborly, the residents of Harsen's Island are as neighborly as can be.

The newer homes are more opulent, but along some of the island's shores you'll find houses on stilts, built in the 1920s and '30s.

Several houses are built on islands within the island. And because of all of the land curves, it is not unusual for a house to have a water view on three sides

Much of the waterways are lined with marsh grass, sometimes so thick it blocks the view but it protects the many and varied water fowl and their nests.

Southern adventure starts in Ohio

By Iris Sanderson Jones contributing travel editor

Q: Everybody else is going north to get away from the heat, but we like it hot so we're driving to Savannah on our 10-day vacation. And we're leaving the kids home with grandma. Help us find interesting places to stay. My wife likes shopping and historic houses. I like planes, trains and wilderness. V.E.E.,

Farmington

A: There are a couple of obvious stops for plane lovers on your first day out. The Neil A. Armstrong Air and Space Museum, two hours drive down 1-75 in Wapakoneta, Ohio, is celebrating the 20th anniversary of the moon landing in the hometown of the astronaut who said "One small step for man, one giant leap for mankind."

The Air Force Museum in Dayton, Ohio, is a great two-hour stop, if you haven't seen it before.

If you like historic inns, it's worth the 10-mile detour off I-75 from Middletown to the Golden Lamb in Lebanon, Ohio. It is the oldest inn in the state. Highlights include an inn full of Shaker furniture, guest rooms straight out of Greenfield Village, an old-fashioned dining room and the most popular bar in the area. It is a straight run from Lebanon into the queen city on the Ohio River. (Caution: The Golden Lamb is very popular, so reserve ahead.)

Frieghters cruise the island's

South Channel as they traverse the Great Lakes during the shipping season.

Cincinatti is one of my favorite cities, but shoppers cross the bridge to Covington, Ky., for a downtown full of specialty and outlet stores. While you're there, have a meal on the river at the Catfish Farm. If you like really funky places, ask the tourist bu-reau if the local ventriloquist museum is open for visitors. Charley McCarthy would love it.

WILDERNESS LOVERS couldn't do better than to stay overnight in one of Kentucky's state park lodges or adjacent cabins. There are several of them near I-75. Train lovers should definitely stay at the Chatanoogaa Choo Choo, a railway station turned into a food-drink-shopping center (Trapper's Alley style) in downtown Chattanooga. The Hilton Hotel rooms are in train cars on the tracks outside. Expensive, but worth it for one night.

All these suggested stops are designed to break up a long trip, but once you cross the Georgia border you may want to slow down for some real sightseeing.

Furnished cottages are available in 23 of Georgia's state parks.

'Kill': Outrageous, but entertaining

Supporting the old adage that a half-clothed woman is more alluring than a naked one, Carey Lowell joins Timothy Dalton in the 16th 007 adventure, "License to Kill" (B+, R, 135 minutes). One of the most attractive Bond girls, Lowell is a good performer as well.

Lowell's allure proves to be more than physical as she matches Dalton's hard-fighting, easy-loving acting style on even and very effective terms. While she never loses her femininity, she doesn't use it as a crutch either.

As Pam Bouvier, a U.S. Army pilot and CIA operative, she is crucial to James Bond's (Dalton) vendetta against South American drug kingpin Franz Sanchez (Robert Davi).

In the film's opening sequence Bond is sidetracked on his way to his friend, Felix Leiter's (David Hedison) wedding. Leiter, ex-CIA and now Drug Enforcement Agency head for south Florida, captures Sanchez with Bond's help.

Sanchez escapes and takes revenge on Felix and his bride, Della Churchill (Priscilla Barnes). It is obligatory for Bond to even the score, and then some, and he does so quite effectively on his own once M (Robert Brown) suspends him for failing to follow orders and give it up. Only Pam, Q (Desmond Llewelyn) and Miss Moneypenny (Caroline Bliss) are willing to risk everything to help

As with all Bond's heroic deeds of daring, he does them with such style and aplomb that for all their ridiculous impossibility they are entertaining and never wear thin. Bond's stuff is well-staged and sufficiently credible that we wind up believing it.

OF COURSE, one element working for Bond here is that we'd all like to think it possible to clean up on major drug-dealers simply by turning loose one super-heroic agent. Nice fantasy, but no cigar.

While there's a great deal of vioce in this film excitement - the camera does have the good grace to avert its gaze at the most telling moments so we don't have our noses rubbed in gore - almost, but not quite.

Back in the early '80s, Australian filmmakers surprised the world with exciting and literate films.

The directors of "Breaker Morant," "Gallipolli" and "My Brilliant Career" have since emigrated to America, leaving their homeland in the hands of characters like Crocodile Dundee and Yahoo Serious.

"The Navigator," an Australian/ New Zealand co-production playing for the next two weekends at the downtown Tele-Arts Theatre, proves to art-film fans that there are still unpolished gems left to discover in the land Down Under. The story begins in medieval Cumbria, England, where frightened villagers await the encroaching Black Death. A group of copper miners, led by the visions of a young clairvoyant named Griffin, feel that by placing a spire on a distant cathedral, the pestilence can be averted.

As Griffin's dreams instruct, they enter a tunnel that leads through the center of the earth into modern-day New Zealand, a vastly different landscape of subways, freeways and

Bruce Lyons stars as Connor in the Australian/New Zealand production of "The Navigator" at the Tele-Arts in Deblack and white characterizes the dreary English village, while the boy's dreams and the new world come across in vivid Technicolor.

Almost as strange as its premise are the harsh conditions that writer/ director Vincent Ward challenged to make his epic adventure. He and his crew - many new to filmmaking set out for a frozen volcanic lake in New Zealand's Southern Alps. The resulting film looks completely unlike any other.

The intent of the film, said Ward, was "to look at the 20th century through medieval eyes." His main actors (Bruce Lyons as a somber, hooded Connor and Hamish McFarlane as his young brother Griffin) express wide-eyed wonder and fear at a world far different from their own.

Scott Morgan has an impressive past. But like many creative musicians, he'd rather talk about the

The Scott Morgan Band recently released its first album, "Rock Action," on Revenge Records, a French label. It highlights Morgan's soulrock vocals and songwriting, introduced on albums and singles by the Rationals in the late '60s.

That Detroit-based band scored a local hit with "Respect," covered later by Aretha Franklin. In the mid to late '70s, Morgan was an integral part of Sonic's Rendevous Band. That group was fronted by ex-MC 5 guitarist Fred "Sonic" Smith, who these days plays guitar with wife Patti Smith.

But when you recall the old days - Morgan was invited to join Blood Sweat and Tears and Janis Joplin's band, Big Brother and the Holding Company, as lead singer in the early '70s — he says, "I'm tired about talking about the old days. I want to talk about the new record.'

THAT RECORD, in limited distribution in the United States and Western Europe, features his best songwriting to date. And the album's only single so far, "Sixteen with a Bullet," backed by "Detroit;" has won mention in Billboard Magazine, the Village Voice and Rolling Stone. Rock critic and Bruce Springsteen biographer Dave Marsh gushes over the album in its liner notes.

On a recent afternoon, Morgan talked about several of the 10 songs recorded in Ann Arbor and included on "Rock Action."

· "Sixteen with a Bullet:" "There was a incident that was in the newspapers three or four years ago before the teen violence thing became a big issue. A couple of kids got busted stealing some chips or candy."

The incident ended in a shoot-out, and one youth was killed. "It seemed so ridiculous, I wanted to write something about it," he said.

After the song sat around a while, another local band had planned to record it, then, "The teen violence thing started getting out of hand," Morgan said.

Driven by a hard back-beat from former Stooges drummer Scott Asheton, harmony from Kathy Deschaine and Gary Rasmussen's bass - he played on Patti Smith's latest album - the single was released to national critical acclaim last year, even though it was on a local label.

The catchy descending guitar riff Morgan plays on the chorus was suggested by the engineer at the session. 'He thought it needed a strong guitar hook for people to play 'air guitar' along with," Morgan said.

• "Eagle Dance:" "I had read a story, in the newspaper again, about an eagle that was migrating through the area, and was seen flying around Ann Arbor."

A few days later, "About a mile from my house it flies in front of my car and lands in a tree, then it took off and started circling higher and higher." Morgan and Deschaine evoke an image of soaring high, as they hold a long note on the chorus over Asheton's solid drum beats.

e "Say Yeah:" "It's supposed to be a pop tune with a little bit of a Motown feel, kind of a (blues artists) Albert King or (Paul) Butterfield kind of feel . . . It's the only song like that really on the album.

o "Heartland:" "The term heartland has been bandied about a lot. I thought it would be good for somebody from the heartland to write something about it, instead of somebody from the East Coast.

"Hijackin' Love:" "That's a (soul artist) Johnny Taylor song, from 1971. We played it in Sonic's Rendevous, but we stopped playing it when we started playing a lot of • "Pirate Music:" "I wrote it for Sonic's Rendevous Band. I presented it to the band, but I don't think Fred liked it. It was recorded for an EP (extended-play record) but it was

The song recalls the pirate stations that broadcast progressive rock from offshore ships to the English mainland in the '60s. It's wellreceived at the band's live shows.

• "Josie's Well:" "It's about a distillery where they make single-malt scotch. They get their water in the highlands from a spring called Josie's Well. It could be the name of a place, or a bar where you go to get elixir or water of life," he said, adding it could also stand as an image for a woman. "What it really is is a song about alcoholism."

· "Detroit:" "I was working for this company, kind of like an assembly line job, there was a lot of young kids out there, big heavy metal fans. Somehow we got talking about Detroit music.

"When a band comes through Detroit and says, 'Hey Detroit, lets rock and roll!' they probably don't know anything about the scene. I thought maybe somebody should document something about it, give some en-couragement to the local scene. I think it it kind of gets lip service ba-

In the song's verses, Morgan lists the names of Detroit soul and rock artists from the late '50s to the present. "Detroit" has received the most local FM airplay of any song on "Rock Action."

"The media should be more supportive of local artists," Morgan

We were punky at first," said Cathy Carrell, who is the drummer. "We've gotten better. The punk has been filtered out."

"My philosophy is the older you get the better you become at performing and writing songs," added Marie, who is guitarist and vocalist with the band.

ALTHOUGH relatively young (age ranges 20-23), Inside Out is certainly experienced at performing locally. They are one of the few bands remaining from what once was a thriving punk scene at the Greystone Ballroom in Detroit.

A scene, for the most part, that has dried up. Nonetheless, Inside Out has continued to evolve with its own

MIND BOMB - The The

Matt Johnson is The The. This is his third LP, the others being "Soul Mining" and "Infected," and there have been a multitude of 12-inch dance mix singles taken from those.

While Johnson is the brains, lyricist and chief bottlewasher behind the band, he uses a variety of session musicians of his albums.

On "Mind Bomb," he has employed the services of the most hip and everybody's favorite guitarist, ex-Smith, ex-Pretender, ex-Talk Talk Johnny "I Hate Morrissey" Marr, and on the majestic "Beautiful Rain" the guest co-vocalist is Sinead

"I Hate U2" O'Connor. Johnson's lyrics have always had a hard edge to them, be they dealing with personal or party politics. This time, he turns his attention to things religious. But don't imagine that this is going to be played at the next church outing. Check this out from "Armageddon Days Are Here:"

"But if you think Christ is coming. honey you've got another thing coming," or "God doesn't live in Israel or Rome/God doesn't belong to the Yankee dollar/God doesn't plant bombs for the Hezbollah/God doesn't even go to church."

Johnson's voice is one of the most menacing, powerful and uncomfortable in modern pop. His snarl is frightening. He even sounds intimi-dating in the opening lines where he sends up that famous call-and-answer introduction from The Sweet's 'Ballroom Blitz" ("Are You Ready, Steve? . . . Uh, huh").

The music still has his signature driving drum beat, but this time has more emphasis on piano motifs while Johnny Marr plays havoc on the backing tracks with his unique brand of guitar hystrionics and wailing mouth organ. This is particularly effective on one of the most exciting songs I've heard in a long time, "The Violence of Truth."

The overriding effect of the LP is that Matt Johnson is still about to explode with his anger and frustra-

Fueled by this anger, his music is loud, tense and powerful. Combined with Johnny Marr's subtle funk, this The The LP is as strong, if not stronger, as any of his previous offerings. One of the top albums of this year so far.

BOOM BOOM CHI BOOM BOOM — tom tom club

A friend of mine said she considered this album too cold, mechanical and lifeless.

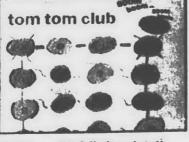

I disagreed. Maybe it is, maybe it isn't. I like the recording anyway, and my friend eventually warmed up to it. "Boom Boom . . . " is the third album from the tom toms, who released their first in 1980, and their first release on Sire. Seems hard to believe the band had label and release problems, but it has. The tom tom club core is Tina Weymouth and Chris Frants of Talking Heads fame - she on bass etc., on drums etc. Here they are joined by guitarist Mark Roule, key-boardist Gary Pozner and a host of others. Tina's sister Laura, an original tom, appears only briefly. Talking Head mates David Byrne and Jerry Harrison show up with Lou Reed on one selection, a Reedauthored song called "Femme Fa-

That's a highlight of the album, though the band doesn't need all those heavy hitters to sound good

"Boom . . . " is full of good stuff. The CD contains an extra track, a Dylan tune called "She Belongs to Me," though I haven't heard it because like a stereophonic dinosaur, I'm still buying albums.

The two previous tom tom albums have been showing up with frequency in cutout bins, which may indicate where this one is headed.

It may deserve better. "Boom " is good. It's quirky. It's funny and fun. It's got a great beat, which is what you would expect from a bassist and drummer who are husband and wife and bandmates.

Some tracks. like "Wa Wa Dance" are funky while others, like "Suboceana" and "Don't Say No" are more Mostly, the songs here work well, in part because of Tina Weymouth's quirky vocal style. She's not a natural singer. She reminds me of an improved Marilyn Monroe.

She pulls it off, helping to inject some warmth into the sound.

Who cares?! We care, Static Alphabet. In fact, we care more than Oprah Winfrey, Phil Donahue and

There are plenty of reasons to take more than a casual interest in this rather understated five-song cassette tape. First and foremost is that Static Alphabet is one of the few local groups who can sit down and assess their weakness And unlike most bands, who either ignore or attempt to play over such deficiencies in their music, Static Alphabet has found a way to turn whatever is lacking into positives.

From a pure musical standpoint, one might be able to single out a less than crystalline vocal or a guitar note out of sync on this tape. Those people, though, don't deserve to lis-ten to Static Alphabet.

Let 'voice' be your guide

I am a 45-year-old woman who has been married for more than 10 years. When younger, I was physically attractive. Since my children were born, I have been sedentary. My weight has been constant at about 80 pounds overweight. My health is being affected, but I can't seem to change my eating or ex-

I never talk to anyone about this because of the embarrassment I feel. My friends are of normal

Recently, I saw a Geraldo Rivera show in which fat women and their normal weight husbands talked about acceptance and even enjoy-ment of their size. It would ease my anxiety about my weight to believe that I was beautiful, healthy and sexy this way, but a little voice says that this is a lie.

Where do I start to change? I am depressed because of this problem. Overweight Woman

Your ability to be realistic about your current altuation is a first step in starting to change. You must now allow, and indeed insure, that the "little voice" inside of you becomes so loud that you will not be able to hide from it or rationalize it away. With this constant motivation, some of the further guidelines I am going to give you have a better chance of being followed.

The reasons for being overweight are legion. From the small amount of background you have given, ex-ercise is one area that has changed as you have grown older.

A lack of exercise is one of the reasons we become fatter. Begin by walking, outside or on a treadmill, at least five half-hour sessions a week, but preferably five one-hour sessions

I can already hear you saying you don't have the time. If becoming healthy is a priority, you will make the time. Be sure to have a physical exercise consultant to set up a program that will be safe and effective.

Next, begin to cut fats and refined sugars out of your diet. There are many good books about how to ap-proach this. I particularly like books by Jane Brody.

Now try some psychological support. Put pictures of yourself — fat or thin, whichever you would find motivating - on your refrigerator. Fantasize yourself at thinner, more ideal weights. Find motivational tapes and really listen to them. Join or form a group so that you will be responsible to someone else for being successful.

Most importantly, keep trying new approaches and don't give up. If need be, make yourself an expert on this subject. The more involved you are at every level, the greater your chances of success.

Lastly, there is one important thing not to do. Do not go on a diet that is under 1,000 calories a day. Lasting success is achieved in only Exit at Dalton for the 25-mile run to Fort Mountain State Park, (15 cottages) or for the nearby Cohutta Lodge, a rustic hilltop lodge with lots of outdoor activities. Rates are $39 to $55 double, $10 to $20 more for suites and efficiencies.

If you prefer antebellum, the pink marble Tate House is 40 east miles of I-75 at Tate, Ga., and offers bed and breakfast for $70 to $140 a couple. The county is dry, so BYOB. Phone (404) 735-3122.

If you want to linger in Atlanta, remember that you can ride rapid transit called MARTA into the city. Ride it to Underground Atlanta, which recently reopened. This huge complex of shops, restaurants, bars and night clubs is now mostly above ground and is an attractive place to spend an afternoon or evening.

TAKE A 45-minute tour of Ted Turner's CNN studios in the CNN Center (formerly Omni Center). Or get off at the Five Points MARTA station for lunch at the upscale City Grill, in an old high-ceiling bank at 50 Hurt Plaza.

An alternative - snack any time in a 1940s-style Darlin's Restaurant, in an old house at 1077 Juniper St. in midtown. The menu reads Shrimp Burgers, Picket Fence Chicken, Dixieland Trio, Scarlett O! and Eye Waterin' Chili. Wash it down with coffee drinks called Sweet Magnolia, Johnny Reb, Dixle Whistler and Rhett Butler.

You could also skip Atlanta and do the Magnolia Trail near Macon, a sure winner for people who like historic houses.

By the time you turn on I-16 at Macon, you'll be eager to get to Savannah. People who like interesting historic accommodations should definitely stay in one of Savannah's terrific assortment of historic inns and bed-and-breakfast places. 4

If you like them hotel-sized and moderately expensive, you'll love the Mulberry Inn built in an old 1860 livery stable near the river ($125 to $150 for two, plus 10 percent state tax, and add $39 per person, if you want breakfast and dinner at the

The Bed & Breakfast Inn is moderately priced at "under $80" and has seven upstairs rooms with shared bath as well as garden suites. The man who owns and runs the Haslam/Fort House also runs a service called R.S.V.P., which will find you accommodations up and down the Atlantic coast. Island life is natives'

Art Champion, Bryson's grandfa-ther, built the ferry in 1937. The ferry runs continuously between the mainland and the island.

Jacob Harsens, the island's first settler, did his trading with the Indians in the early 1800s. The Champion family, considered one of the island's first families, came to the island in the 1880s.

Bryson has a lot of counterparts.

"There are so many of us who grew up on the island, left for college and then turned right around and came back to live here," he said.

When Bryson's restaurant opens, it will be called "The Boat" because, he said, "That's what everybody has called it ever since I docked it here."

BRYSON ESTIMATES the summer population of the island to be 5,000 and the year-round population about 1,500.

"There was a time when it was almost 90 percent summer cottages," Bryson said, "but that has changed steadily as land values went up. There is probably more construction going on now than I can ever remember at any other one time, and they are all year-round homes."

A miniscule sign in San Souci's Delta Hardware identifies Nick Sarzynski as a real estate agent.

"As soon as a house goes on the market, it's sold," said Sarzynski, who has a long waiting list of potential buyers.

As for the price of houses on the island, Joan Sarzynski told about one incident that happened early this

"The asking price for the house was $168,000. I do not know if that is what it sold for, but when it was sold, it was torn down and the land was used to start an entirely new construction," she said.

Bob Wise: Shy kid finds his niche as a comedian

By Mary Rodrique stalf writer

You call a comedian, you expect

And comedian Bob Wise delivers even when he's not at home. "Wait, I'm being attacked by a giant green bird, leave your message, I'll get back to ya," says the recording in a voice reminiscent of the Three Stooges' Curly. Wise even has Curly's big guy physique. But he looks more like contemporary comic

"Yeah, I get compared to John Candy about every 15 minutes. We're both big and blond," Wise said later from his Savannah, Ga., hotel

The 40 year-old Chicago-area native had just performed at Hilton Head and Myrtle Beach, S.C., and was on his way to yet another comedy club in Orlando, Fla.

"I wanted to be a comic since I was about 5 years old," he said. "My absolute favorites were Jack Benny, Jackie Gleason, Art Carney, Jonathon Winters, Bob Hope and

'My current favorites are Jay

Landesburg who played Dietrich on 'Barney Miller.' I do like those Second City guys. They're very funny.

Wise was not the class clown - in fact he was a shy kid "until puberty hit," he said. He earned a degree in "covert communications" from Illinois State University, but his resume lists attendance at five colleges ranging from Purdue to Michigan State, with no mention of Illinois

THEN IT WAS onward to a career in radio at Indianapolis stations WIRE and WFMS. Wise said he was an award-winning country music station DJ, once snaring Billboard magazine's County Deejay of the

"I was pretty good at it," he said. "But got fired for having a bad attitude. They told me I had a bad

Then comedy called.

For the past five years, Wise has done comedy stints in joints from Atlantic City down to New Orleans. Last year he was on the road 51 weeks, covering 32 states, Caribbean cruise ships and Canadian clubs.

weeks of traveling.

He was an extra in the Gene Hackman film "Hoosiers" for which he got paid "$20 and a free lunch." And he plays the manager of a chicken fast food outlet in the yet-to-be-released "Diving In." It was a big enough part to get him a Screen Actors Guild union card and hopefully more opportunities for movie parts.

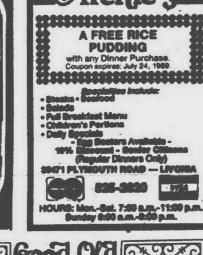

He's done national commercials for Delta faucets and Archway cookies, and a slew of regional stuff, hawking everything from cars to

The 6 foot, 3 inch, 300 pounds-plus comic likens his stage presence to fellow big guy Sam Kinison — both are loud and brash - but Wise said his shtick is clean. Former preacher Kinison is known for his blasphemous routine.

Wise has been the opening act for Leno and Anderson and singers Dionne Warwick, the Kingston Trio and Dolly Parton.

Re-inventing the skate

Fitness fans find 'blades

By Pat Scutte special writer

It used to be that when you laced up a pair of skates with wheels attached to them, you'd end up rolling counter clockwise around a wood floor rink that had a giant mirrored ball hanging from the center of the

You'd stop for a while to eat some junk food and listen to the disco music, then roll some more until it was time for someone's mom to pick you

Rollerskating, which has hung on somewhat unnoticed over the last decade, is back, recharged with a streamlined innovation and a catchy new name - Rollerblades.

The Rollerblade skate looks like an ice skate that's grown wheels, one in front of the other, along the blade. "In line," as it is called by the manufacturer, Rollerblade Inc. of Minnesota, the skate travels more fluidly across a variety of hard surfaces than its cousin, the rollerskate, making it perfect for outdoor use.

And they have become one of the hottest selling recreational/fitness tools in the Detroit area this sum-

The idea for the skate is basically a re-invention of an idea of a 17th century English instrument maker. The "in-line" wheel pattern was the norm for the rollerskate's first 100 years or so. Then, in 1863, a guy by the name of James Leonard Plimpton from Medford, Mass., developed the first "obvious" rollerskate two wheels arranged beside each other under the ball of the foot and under the heel.

In 1980, two Minnesota brothers developed the skate that has led to a revolution in rollerskating, much the same as what aluminum did for baseball bats and turbos for race car

WHEN ROLLERBLADES first hit the market, they were developed as an off-season training tool for skiers and hockey players. The motion used in those two winter sports is an obvious extension of the Rolleblade. And now that nordic (cross country) skiers use a skating motion instead of the "kick and pole" method, Rollerblade skates are perfect during the summer months.

Alpine (downhill) skiers found them helpful as a conditioning tool during dry land training.

Don Thomas Sporthaus of Birmingham, has become one of the major outlets for the Rollerblade

"In two months this year, we have doubled our 1988 total sales," said Teri Temmerman, hard goods buyer for the Sporthaus. "People have been using them to mix up their running and biking workouts and they've found out how cool these things are."

"It's like skating on ice, but easier not as hard on the ankles," said Larry Cantor of Farmington Hills, who tried out Rollerblades at a recent Sporthaus demonstration. "If I didn't have a corn on my foot, you wouldn't be able to get these things

Andrew Surber of Birmingham takes his Rollerblades to work every

"I deliver my papers on them," the eight-year-old said. His two play hockey, agree on the versatile teresting.

Marc Hutchins, 14, of Bloomfield Hills jumps some cones, showing off moves he's perfected on his Rollerblades.

"I like to skate around with them and play hockey on the tennis courts," said Dave Surber.

"YEAH, THEY'RE great training for hockey and an excellent source of transportation," his brother Will

The recreational worth of the skates are obvious - an exciting toy that varies as much as the terrain you apply it to. And applying Rollerblades to the fitness side of recrebrothers, who along with Andrew ation makes the skate even more in-

Probably the most impressive aspect of Rollerblades is that they allow you to get more out of your workout than running or aerobics.

First off, take all of the stress and shock involved with running and aerobics and file them under "1-800-FORGET-IT." Then take the one, two, three or however many miles you run and triple the distance. Then there's the sights you'll take in during the same amount of time on a set of Rollerblades.

And finally add in the fun, speed and gradual growth in confidence on this new fangled fitness tool. You can even slip off your sport coat, loosen the tie and slip on a pair of Rollerblades like Steve Iuppenlatz, 26. of Royal Oak who tried them out for the first time.

"This is a great low-impact workout . . . and coupled with biking, it will be a great way to cross train," he said.

Now, along with the motion and the wheels comes the occasional accident - the wipeout, slam, or whatever you call it. Most just call it "Ouch!"

SAFETY EQUIPMENT is a good idea for Rollerblades. Plastic

Pads are a 'must' with Rollerblades

Okay. Now you know everything you need to know about Roller-blades. But, you ask, what does it cost to get started in this new fangled skating?

Well, first you have to figure out where you fit into the four style of Rollerblades that are available. Yep. they come in four styles and, likewise, four prices:

• Blade Runner for children with growing feet cost $85.95.

• Zetra 608 for beginning adult recreationalists cost $129.

· Lightning for advanced recreationalists and fitness buffs cost

· Macroblade, the top of the line, high tech flyer, cost $199.

Now that you've figure that out, you might want to consider safety equipment. That can save wear and tear, not to mention bumps and bruises, on knees and elbows

Knee pads can run you $25, wrist guards $21.95 and elbow pads $19. And if you want to protect your head, add another $36.75 for a hel-

With that, you're ready to just roll

Marc Hutchins, 14, of Bloomfield Hills was trusting enough to lay on the ground while his friend, Alex Dellatorrey, 16, of Birminghan jumped over him. Both accomplished skateboarders, they translated that expertise over to Rollerblades.

capped knee pads and wrist guards provide ample protection for Rollerbladers, beginner to expert, who unfortunately happen to shake hands with the pavement.

Choice of terrain also has a lot to do with Rollerblade safety. Just like a novice skier choosing a run labeled with a skull and crossed bones, Rollerbladers should stick to flatter terrain, such as parking lots and lowinclined streets. Advanced skaters can take to steeper inclines, with a long run-out and maneuver the skates as they would a pair of down-

So who will you see on Roller-

You might see Wilma Jacobs, 56, of Orchard Lake.

"I use my Rollerblades two or three times a week," said Jacobs, who teaches figure skating at the Detroit Skating Club and Livonia ice rinks. "I just get on them and the neighbors wonder who's that crazy lady going down the street."

The real common denominator with athletes and Rollerblades is that there are no age boundaries. Fun is fun, six or 60.

According to Robert Thomas, manager of the Sporthaus, Rollerblades are here to stay.

"For health conscious people, looking for something else to do this summer, Rollerblades provide rec-reation with fitness," he said. "And since there are so many types of people who would enjoy these skates, I see them as a stable recreational fixture . . . not a fad."

SO, AS THE Rollerblade grows by leaps and bounds (the company has experienced a 100 percent growth over the last year), what lays ahead for the latest foot-to-pavement recreational/fitness vehicle?

Steve Lessick, Rollerblades technical representative for Michigan, sees them as a must for athletes five years from now

"Rollerblade will be a must for kind of winter sports athlete," he said. "I also see Rollerblades becoming more of a freestyle expression, such as skateboards have.

"There's so much potential because the product caters to so many types of people."

Just think of the sun as the giant mirrored ball and the cement and our asphalt riddled planet as a huge roller rink. Heck, there's no admission charge and you don't even have to listen to disco music.

Making connections for the perfect party

By Joan Boram special writer

Nancy Kader-Jacobs threw 167 parties last December.

Just the thought would send your normal introvert running out the door, screaming. For Kader-Jacobs, it's all in a day's work

"There's no point having a job that you don't love, and I love entertainment and parties," said the founder and owner of the Southfield-based Entertainment Connection.

Kader-Jacobs got her start through Doug Jacobs, owner and leader of the Red Garter Band.

"I was working as a bartender and Doug asked me to act as his booking agent," she said. "I started booking other local acts and I was in busi-

"I started doing parties when I noticed that a hula dancer was the only 'Hawaiian' aspect of a 'Hawaiian' party," she said. "Now I do the whole thing — from invitations to valet parking."

A case in point is a recent Roaring '20s party, held at the Willistead Manoran Windsor. The touches included a sandwich board, worn by a "hobo," to advertised "Diamond Clete's," a play on the client's name, valet parking by "gangsters," and cocktails were served in coffee cups.

Where does Kader-Jacobs get the ideas for her parties?

Nancy Kader-Jacobs of the Entertainment Connection, who books national acts and provides full-service convention/special event-planning, counts more than 200 companies and private party hosts among her clients.

"I DO A LOT of brainstorming with the two other salespersons on my staff," she said. "My eyes are always open. I see everything in terms of parties. There's a prop; there's a party." To a lot of out-of-town convention groups, Detroit is still Mowtown. For them, the Entertainment Connection provides a Motown show, including mint-condition '50s cars, hub cap centerpieces and The Four Tops, The Shirelles, The Drifters or The Latin Counts.

Kader-Jacobs doesn't advertise either for business or private parties. She and her associates do a lot of cold calling on businesses, and of course, word of mouth is the best advertising, she said.

Weddings constitute 35 percent of The Entertainment Connection's business, and Kader-Jacobs does advertise in a couple of bridal publications and participates in several bridal fairs.

"It's a special day for brides," she said. "For most, it's probably the biggest party they'll ever throw.

"It's the band that makes the par-ty. The food can be mediocre, the hall can be shabby, but if the band is good, everybody has a good time."

When Kader-Jacobs books a band, there are no surprises. She has more than 70 bands on video, in every price and taste range.

She begins by interviewing the bride-to-be. Does she want a female vocalist? A solo horn player? What's her budget? Often, the bride needs advice, and Kader-Jacobs is pleased to help.

Eventually, they decide on four to six possible bands and the bride comes in to view the video tapes.

"WE DON'T DO much rock work," she said. "The ideal wedding band is versatile. They know a lot of golden oldies, the top 10 and at least one polka."

If the wedding budget doesn't allow for a band, there are tapes of disc jockeys as well. "I'd rather hear a good disc jockey than a bad band." As a professional party thrower, Kader-Jacobs has advice for the doit-yourself hostess.

"Don't flip out . . . ever," she said. "If something goes wrong, don't tell anybody. Chances are they won't no-

Q: I've been reading about your Less Is Better campaign to decrease junk mail but have never learned where I can write to get off mailing lists. I've asked the Post Office but they were no help.

A: You are right. The Post Office has no control over mail — it is required by law to deliver whatever is legally stamped. I haven't published addresses because many people told me they had tried to get off mailing lists and it didn't work, or that it worked for only a while.

The DMA (Direct Marketing Association) does, however, do it's best to help unhappy consumers and here, for what it's worth, are addresses you can write to request removal of your name from national lists: Mail Preference Service, Director, Marketing Association 6 East 43rd Street, P.O. Box 3861, Grand Central Station, New York 10163.

Your name will be registered on a "delete file" which is made available to business subscribers on a quarterly basis. You may notice some decrease in your bulk mail within three months and your name will be maintained on that file for five years. This will not affect local mailings nor professional, alumni, political or various others. Your name will reappear on national lists when you subscribe to new magazines, apply for credit cards or otherwise inadvertently re-enter your name into the system.

If you want to remain on certain lists such as your favorite mail order company, inform them to retain your name on their "in house" lists.

Many readers have complained vehemently about telephone solicitations. The DMA can also help remove your name from national phone lists, a service similar to the Mail Preference Service. You may register by writing to: Telephone Preference Service, Direct Marketing Association, 6 East 43rd Street, New York 10017.

A third DMA service is called the Mail Order Action Line. MOAL acts as an intermediary between consumers and direct marketing companies to resolve complaints, usually within 30 days. Send the name and address of the company you are complaining about along with photocopies of cancelled checks, order forms or other relevant documents and a letter summarilying the facts, to the Mail Order Action Line at the 10017 Address Above.

It's difficult to evaluate the value of these services because you usually won't know what you don't get. While they won't solve all your problems, it may be worth the small time and effort to try them.

condo queries Robert M. Melsner

Q. My husband and I moved into a brand new condominium in May of 1987. When winter came we found spotty frost on the inside of many of the outside walls, especially in the master bedroom. I sent a letter to the developer notifying it of the problem. I claim that there is not enough insulation but the builder insists that there is enough insulation, only that air is getting in somewhere and so he has recaulked every possible area of the outside walls. I have find two winters of frost with embarrassing water marks and runny paint on the walls. The building inspector has been somewhat helpful in getting the builder's attention, but they have not come up with a solution. While the builder has made an attempt to correct the problem, he cannot determine the cause and solution. Now that the weather is breaking, we will not know until next winter if it is repaired. Also, we are wondering what responsibility our co-owner's association has in assisting us to get this

A. Don't rely on the developer to give you the answer since he may be incapable or unwilling to do so. Hire an independent consultant with the expertise necessary to determine the problem and get a written report. Present it to the developer with a demand that the developer take care of the problem. The association, particularly if it is independent of the developer's control, should also be given a copy of the report as it may be the association's problem to pursue in the event that the defect is in a common element for which the association has the responsibility to repair. If the developer does not answer your request, retain legal counsel and ask legal counsel what remedies you have against the developer and/or the association if the association has a responsibility to pursue the matter in your behalf and does not do so.

Expressions

Getting down to decorating details

By Joan Boram special writer

UDY GETTEL tells stories.

Not "once-upon-a-time" stories at variance with facts.

No, Judy Gettel tells stories about color, and, like all good story-tellers, she embellishes her tales with interesting details. In Gettel's stories, it's accessories that provide embellishment.

Gettel is president of Expressions Custom Furniture, the 41st and only Michigan store of the New Orleansbased franchise chain.

"Originally, Expressions was an outlet for fabrics," Gettel explained. "The founder, Eric Aschaffenburg, new CEO of Expressions Custom Furniture Inc., wanted to give every woman the opportunity to buy fabrics formerly available only through decorators. Our store offers over 500 designer fabrics plus top-grained dyed leathers. There are over 150 different sofa, sleeper, sectional and chair styles. The customer picks the fabric and the style; the piece is custom made and delivered in 45 days."

THE FABRICS ARE displayed on specially designed racks that line the walls of the expansive, brightly lit Birmingham store. A person who has difficulties making decisions could spend the rest of her life sitting on

Vignettes of different lifestyles ("stories") offer a customer the opportunity to select the scene against which she wants to play her own life

Will it be super-modern black and white, snatched from the brink of austerity by an oil painting of a Holstein cow, and a pack of black-spotted white dogs? ("We couldn't keep those dogs in the place," said Gettel. "They were only supposed to be for display, but people just loved them, and we just keep ordering more and selling them.")

Now about Southwestern, very popular and influencing other styles? There's an armoire, custompainted to please the customer, actually made in the southwestern United States. Antique Kilems set off the desert colors of the armoire and the heavy rawhide chair. There is a section of sand-colored pottery, heavy "silver" picture frames, folk puppets, and one-dimensional metal cacti with spines made of nails. A sparkling white sofa invited you to kick off your spurs and relax. Pastel wooden coyotes, perpetually howling, contribute to the ambiance.

"MOST OF OUR accessories and a lot of our furniture pieces, such as the armoire, are made by small companies in the United States. Some of them only make the one piece, such as the coyotes."

"The people in New Orleans are merchandising specialists and we get as much help as we need. All we have to do is ask. Once a year there is a market in New Orleans, exclusive to Expressions franchisees. All the vendors exhibit, and we select what we want to sell. The mer-

The first thing everybody says to me is, 'I want my friends to feel comfortable from the moment they, step in the door.' Clients want a house that reflects their taste and lifestyle.

— Joan Knight Expressions decorator chandise is unusual, and not available to other stores."

All accessories sold in Expressions stores must be purchased from approved vendors. However, Gettel isn't limited to vendors selected for her in New Orleans.

"If I find someone locally that produces a piece that I think will sell here, I can obtain approval for that vendor by submitted photos of their work and demonstrating that it will be a quality product."

There is the neo-classical story, for purists ("Not for everyone.") The English country story, ("The most popular, followed by Southwestern.") with lots of flowered chintz.

There is the Ralph Lauren "gentry" story for people who don't smile much: wood and leather accessories, very tailored. Any minute note the hunt will be over and the horsey set will be lolling on the traditional sofa with a wide stripe of subdued colors, or the wing chair with a narrower "ticking" stripe.

"ACCESSORIES MAKE the story," Gettel said. "They make the settings very, very rich and they give the customer some options. Some stories, Contemporary, for example, may require only two or three striking pieces. Other stories, such as Stately Homes or English Country, may require as many as 40 different accessories."

What trends does Gettel see for the future? She calls on decorator Joan Knight to answer.

"There's a softening, especially in the contemporary look, using texture and color," said Knight. "Warmer tones are emerging in all categories: roses, persimmon, cinnamon, honey beige. At the same time, there's a trend toward darker, more formal colors."

"The key word is eclectic. People are staying home more and entertaining at home. The first thing everybody says to me is, 'I want my friends to feel comfortable from the moment they step in the door.' Clients want a house that reflects their taste and lifestyle."

"The first thing I ask a client is 'What do you want to keep?' and we build around that. It isn't always a valuable piece: sometimes it has sentimental value. The important thing is, it's a personal look, not a 'decorated' look."

And, of course, they all lived happily ever after — another expression people know and understand.

Design seminar planned

Michigan Design Center in Troy and Schoolcraft College in Livonia will team to present a seminar, "Design Directions — '89" on Friday, Oct. 13. The event will be open to the public. Top area designers will be be discussion lead-

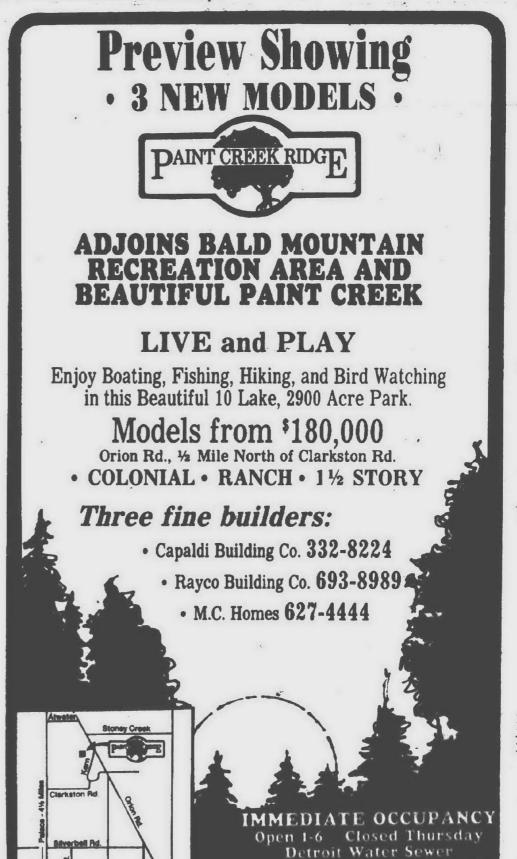

Top area designers will be be discussion leaders in morning sessions followed by lunch and a tour of the design center, open to the trade only, as a rule.

For the tours, plans call for a professional designer to oversee small groups of about 12, according to Helen Balmer, who is coordinating the event for Schoolcraft.

Designers and their topics will include: Sheldon J. Scott, "How to Work with a Designer" scheduled for 9-10 a.m; Sandra Seligman and Kevin McNanamon, "Terrific Trends in Home Furnishings and Decorating," 10-11 a.m.; Brian Killian, "The Magic of Color, Light Texture and Fabric," 11 to noon. Luncheon will follow.

Cost of the seminar will be $55 per person, including lunch. Registrations will be accepted beginning in mid-August, Balmer said. For more information, call Balmer at 540-2465.
