New award

The "I Care" committee and the Plymouth Canton schools have established the "Extra Miler VIP Award" to honor parents and citizens who volunteer in the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

The "Extra Miler VIP Award," stands for Volunteers In Public Schools. It is similar to the District's "Extra Miler" award.

While the "Extra Miler" award honors staff persons, the "Extra Miler VIP Award" is an excellent opportunity for the school district to honor individuals who volunteer their time to help in the school buildings.

The first "Extra Miler VIP Award" will be presented on Monday, Oct. 28, at the Board of Education meeting.

"I Care" is looking for parents, citizens and staff persons to become involved in the group. The first meeting of the school year will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 23, at Allen Elementary School.

Unemployed

Lee Dupree, 63, of Redford Township figured that being skilled in auto body repair, he'd always have a job.

But the widower was let go recently from Redford's King Brothers Collision because business is down.

"I had the lowest seniority, so I was the first to go," he said after picking up his unemployment check at the Michigan Employment Security Commission office in Canton.

"Plus my age. I don't work as fast as the kids anymore. Today it's the speed you can get the work out in, because we work on a percentage."

Dupree, who has seven children and four grandchildren, says business hasn't been this bad since just after World War II.

"In my line of work, for the last 15 or 20 years, the work has always been good and steady," he said. "I can't remember times like this since 1948 when no one had insurance. It's going back that way because of the cost of insurance. People are raising their collision deductible to $500. It's hard for most people to come up with $500. So if their car is drivable, they will drive it that way."

"I think the recession is a bum deal, but there's not much we can do about it. I don't think the government is telling us how bad it really is," he said.

Dupree blames himself for some of his financial difficulties.

"I was dumb when I was younger. I never looked ahead. I was never going to get old. So I don't really have a good retirement," said Dupree, whose wife was a full-time homemaker. "My biggest problem is financial. I look forward to free time, and I like to have a few beers once in a while. I can't live on Social Security, so I will have to dig up something to make a few extra bucks. The only thing I'm apprehensive about is keeping my health."

"I LOST MY wife two years ago," added Dupree, his eyes welling up. "It's a bugger. Thank God for my kids. They're a life saver."

A frustrated George Elias, 28, spent hours waiting in line and filling out forms at the Canton MESC office Thursday with his daughter, Lorena, 3, and fiancée, Donna Jameson.

"I'm filling out eight forms for the second time, since they're claiming they didn't receive the ones I mailed. It's ridiculous, is what it is," said Elias, whose extended benefits were cut off.

"Their mail system is what's created all these problems, and I'm sitting here filling out forms, giving them the reason I haven't been getting my checks," said Elias, laid off in December from his job as a hi-lo driver at Southwestern Fabricating in Belleville.

"It's very frustrating. I've got a 3-year-old to support, and they're

Area jobless rate up

According to the Michigan Employment Security Commission's latest unemployment figures, Canton Township's jobless workers totalled 1,100, or 4.8 percent of the work force in August. The figure is up from 4.5 percent last year.

Unemployment figures for Plymouth Township were 4 percent in August, up from 3.8 percent in August 1990. For Plymouth, the percent of jobless workers rose from 3.3 percent last August to 3.6 percent this year.

Figures for the seven-county Detroit area show the unemployment rate increased from 7.7 percent last August to 8.8 percent this year.

The percent of jobless in Michigan rose from 7.4 percent last August to 8.7 percent a year later.

TOM CELSO, 45, of Plymouth Township has worked as a crane operator for 23 years. This summer, he worked on a natural gas pipeline near Iron River in the Upper Peninsula. Working that far from his family never used to be necessary, he said.

"I never really had to work out of town until the last few years," said Celso, who went to the MESC Thursday to re-open his claim. "Lately I've been in Ohio, Muskegon, the Upper Peninsula — all over the place just trying to get work."

"With this recession, work is real slow. No one is building. It's kind of tough," said Celso, who's paying child support and private school tuition.

Hunters note successes — and slips

WE AT THE Plymouth Observer have revived an old northern Michigan tradition, the community buck pole.

In northern towns, hunters annually bring their buck or doe to town to hang them on the pole for all to see.

We're not asking hunters to hang their dead deer in front of our office, but we are asking successful bow, rifle and muzzle loader hunters to call us with their success stories. We'll publish the names of the successful hunters and where they bagged their deer.

We're not asking hunters to hang their dead deer in front of our office.

Here's our list:

Chris Servo, 32, of Plymouth, killed an eight-point buck on Oct. 5 in the Alpena area.

Tom Ketelhut, 37, of Canton got more than he bargained for when he went bow hunting recently. He fell from a tree and broke his pelvis and that her husband, Allen, bagged a doe Oct. 12 in Gladwin County.

John Kamph, 36, of Plymouth Township, was walking to his tree stand for a day of bow hunting on Oct. 15. But he didn't have to make the entire walk. "A doe popped up in front of me and I shot it." He was hunting in Montmorency County.

For more information, call Jeff Counts, the editor, at 459-2700, between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. Also, we'll take pictures of you and your deer during office hours. We're located at 744 Wing St., Plymouth.

Plymouth-Canton residents who live off Joy near the I-275 overpass aren't surprised that tragedy occurred on that roadway last week.

A 63-YEAR-OLD Canton woman was killed Oct. 14 after pulling out of the Holiday Park subdivision onto Joy Road.

Jenevieve Szewczul had just visited her daughter and grandchild in Holiday Park and was headed to her home about a mile west of the intersection when she was struck by an eastbound pickup truck driven by Kenneth Swindle, 32, of Westland. Szewczul was pronounced dead at St. Mary Hospital about half an hour after the 4:53 p.m. accident. Swindle was unhurt.

"There are so many accidents here, we don't even look," said Richard Wisniewski, whose house is on Joy directly in front of the accident site. "I've had cars in my yard knocking the tree down. I'm waiting for someone to come through the window."

Plymouth Township Police Chief Carl Berry says Joy is "a two-lane roadway carrying an excessive amount of traffic. To my knowledge, there is no indication there's going to be an improvement."

Joy Road separates Canton and Plymouth townships.

Canton Supervisor Tom Yack says entry into Holiday Park is made difficult by the freeway overpass and the entrance one block west into The Crossings at Canton apartments at the foot of the overpass.

"I can see where it would be very difficult to get in and out," said Yack. "When the accident investigation team has finished their work, there will hopefully be something in that report we can play off of that would lead to some action at that corner."

THE APARTMENT entry way is "much too close to the bridge. That creates all sorts of potential problems," said Yack. "It would be easy

"It supposedly takes 14 days to re-open your claim. But last time, I had to wait nine weeks. And it was right around Christmas. Thank God for my vacation check."

"It's been six weeks since I last filed, and I'm still standing in line," added Celso. "Now I have to see another claims adjuster. I have no money coming in, it's that simple. They just jack the people around. And it's not just me. It's everybody. It's a crying shame."

Chris Pressley, 21 of Westland, also left the MESC frustrated.

Pressley was let go from his restaurant management job with Little Caesar's in Walled Lake because of a lack of business.

"I've been here since 9 a.m., filling out forms and waiting in lines," he said at 2:30 p.m. "They don't tell you anything. It's going to take 10 to 12 weeks to see if I'm even going to get a check."

Erik Johnston, 20, of Westland was in line at the MESC at 8:15 a.m. "I filled out my papers, and at 1 o'clock, they told me to come back after lunch," said Johnston, one of 42 employees laid off from Budget car rental in Romulus.

"I'VE BEEN off since July. I can't stand not working. I've tried everything — Hudson's, Sears, Kmart, Target — and my bills are piling up. I had to move back home with my dad because I messed up my credit because I'm not working. "I wish we could get rid of (Gov.) Engler. I've already signed a recall petition, and I'm a Republican," said Johnston. "I'd rather have Blanchard. He did a better job."

Retiring roofer Salvatore Locascio, 59, of Farmington Hills was drawing his last check Thursday. He said unemployment figures are misleading.

"After 26 weeks, when there's no extension, the government doesn't count you any more. The figures look real rosy, because they don't consider you any more," he said. Locascio doesn't think much of President Bush's domestic policy. "He's doing a good job overseas. But I don't know what he thinks of Michigan. I don't think he thinks too much of Michigan."

to throw rocks at the people who approved that; I don't know what rationale went into that. I can tell you this — we wouldn't approve it today. It's just not a good situation."

Canton engineer Tom Casari said the paving of parts of Koppernick Road, south of Holiday Park, and Haggerty — to be done soon — should shift some of the subdivision traffic from Joy south to Koppernick.

Accident statistics for Joy Road weren't immediately available from the Michigan State police.

"There haven't been too many real bad accidents there that I can remember," said Pat Nemecek, Canton police information officer. "But there are only a couple of entrances into the sub." Traffic congestion is worsened by the proximity of apartment complexes on either side of Holiday Park and the Pine Tree Plaza, he said.

Canton Public Safety Director John Santomauro said, "When you have a stretch of roadway as heavily traveled as Joy Road and an egress of an apartment complex that's fairly well-populated, the likelihood of cars stopping and starting obviously greatly increases. Certainly that exists, but it's not to say the roadway in itself contributes to the accidents."

Seniors shape up with exercise class

By Cathy Notestine
special writer

WHEN THELMA TUBBS, 78, started taking an exercise class three years ago, she relied on a cane to walk because of a bad knee.

Now Tubbs walks without the cane. And there was no faith healer involved.

Tubbs is a member of an exercise group that ranges in age from 60 to 80 and meets at the Plymouth Cultural Center.

"We have a lot of fun. The class makes you feel good," said Florence Mobley, another class member.

Said Margaret Dunning, "You have to do something when you retire."

The classes are taught by Ellie Piercy, who started teaching exercise classes 13 years ago at the Livonia YMCA. She has been teaching the class at the cultural center for five years.

"They're more than willing to try new ideas," she said. "We work with hand-held weights, do warm-ups and cool downs, and we don't sit in chairs. We move all around the room."

Apart from the exercise, the classes provide social contacts for the seniors.

The class starts with gentle warm-up exercises and moves on to toning work. Weights are used for the arms. Next comes a brisk walk and the aerobic activities.

Although it's an aerobics class, it isn't just for women. Ed Bednarczyk underwent bypass surgery last April, and he's enjoying the benefits of the class.

Approval of bond issue will mean 2 new schools

By M.B. Dillon
staff writer

Yes at the polls will translate to two 21st-Century school buildings for Plymouth-Canton elementary students by August, 1993.

Voters' approval last month of a $59 million bond issue will enable the district to ease overcrowding and provide for expected increases in enrollment at the elementary level; remodel and renovate middle and high schools; and to install educational technology ranging from laser discs to satellite dishes in K-12 classrooms.

The school board hired a construction manager and six architect-engineering firms to coordinate the bond program's 440 projects last week.

Barton Malow Company, which will serve as construction manager, is signing a contract with the district for $2.5 million.

ARCHITECTURAL firms hired include Giffels Hoyem Basso Inc.; Roy G. French Associates, Inc.; Coquillard

Anderson and Argenta; Wakely Associates, Inc.; TMP Associates, Inc. and Carne Associates, Inc.

"Many districts pick just one architect," said associate superintendent for business Ray Hoedel. "We could have done that, but we chose based on the strengths of each one. We believe the community will really gain from this group of architects." Hoedel also is excited about the bond market. "Our bonds will be sold next week, and it looks very good. The bond market is really excellent right now," he said.

Wakeley will design the elementaries, proposed for sites on the south side of Warren between Canton Center and Beck and on the south side of Joy between Beck and Ridge. The Joy Road site is tentative, said Hoedel.

With a few changes, the district will duplicate Hoben Elementary. "That will save big money as far as architectural fees," Hoedel said.

Hoben was decided upon after school officials toured elementaries in Farmington, West Bloomfield, Walled Lake and Mount Pleasant.

"We are taking some of the best features of the schools that we visited, and also we're taking into consideration the things the Hoben Elementary principal and staff brainstormed for us," Hoedel said. "We asked them to tell us what they would do differently if they could. We'll put as many of these ideas as we can into the new prototype.

"We're going to make an effort to make classrooms larger, and we are going to include more built-in shelving. We're also considering fewer doors to the outside" to save on energy costs. BOTH ELEMENTARIES will be brick.

The board will review timelines for completion of all the bond projects — to be done at 26 sites throughout the district — at a workshop Nov. 4.

Proposals from educational technology consultants will be reviewed Nov. 5-6 and presented to the board sometime after that.

"Our whole bond program is scheduled to be completed in 40 months," said Hoedel. "The educational technology part would go beyond that because of the training aspect which would be ongoing."

Earmarked for educational technology in K-12 classrooms is $12 million of the bond issue. It's hoped that additional funds will be forthcoming from the federal government.

Word on the grant is expected soon from Congress.

A joint House and Senate Labor, Health and Human Services, Education conference committee met last week, but didn't complete its work, said Gary Cates, press secretary for U.S. Rep. Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth, the ranking minority member on the committee.

"They will go back into conference next week," Cates said Friday. The House proposal contains $8 million for the package, Cates said.

Gus Macker could bounce this way

By Diane Gale
staff writer

If basketball is your game, there's a plan to bring a traveling extravaganza to your town.

Canton officials are trying to bring the Gus Macker basketball tournaments to the township in 1993.

Gus Macker Enterprises takes its road show to 32 communities in 10 states. It started as a driveway tournament in Belding, Mich. and has grown into a national tradition.

AND IT COULD bounce into Canton in 1993 said Joe Killinger, Gus Macker Enterprises tournament director. And the tournament is just what Canton needs, Dan Calabrese, administrative assistant to the supervisor, said.

"We have been talking for a long time about how to get people out in the community, Calabrese said.

"They put up basketball hoops and get balls and close-off a street in the middle of town. We can't do that in the middle of our town, and that's why we're talking about CEP (Centennial Education Park)."

The schools are considered a prime location, because of the abundant pavement and the proximity to locker rooms.

Typically, the tournament attracts 500 to 600 teams. Communities are chosen by geographical location and based on the number of tournaments already in the area, Killinger said.

THE BIGGEST Gus Macker tournament is in Belding, Mich. hosting 5,500 teams with 21,528 players during a three day event.

Requirements for playing are simple. There are none. "You can have no skill whatsoever," Killinger said. "The tournament is set up where anyone can play. It's designed as family style, American, Chevrolet and apple pie in a down home setting where anyone can play."

The teams are determined by skill, height and age of the players.

Nationwide this year there were 30,297 teams with 121,188 players attracting 1.1 million spectators.

Each of the 32 communities picks a charity where proceeds from the community tournament are donated, Killinger said. This year the 18 year old Gus Macker Enterprises donated $456,789 to charities.

The company name came from a moniker donned by founder Scott McNeal. In seventh grade a buddy called him Gus; Macker is a spin off from McNeal.

The tournament colors are maroon and gold for Central Michigan University where McNeal and his father graduated.

More Detroit suburban savers and investors

The SPRING Newspapers' circulation more than doubles the daily suburban circulation of either The Detroit News or Free Press.

In fact, SPRING's suburban circulation is greater than the two metro dailies' combined.

And that's not all.

According to the 1991 Belden study, SPRING reaches more of the affluent suburban shoppers who have more—and spend more.

► 151,800 more suburban savings account users than the daily News (68,100 more than the Free Press).

► 109,000 more suburban NOW account users than The News (41,000 more than the Free Press).

► 121,700 (and 31,900) more suburban investors.

Not to mention more suburban buyers of new cars, boats, jewelry, $200,000+ homes, etc.

Simply put, one order in SPRING delivers more.
Shouldn't you be advertising in SPRING more?
To get all the facts, call your SPRING representative.

SC women's resource center hosts seminar on healing grief

Schoolcraft College Women's Resource Center will present a seminar on healing grief from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 16, in the Waterman Campus Center.

The one day seminar, "Healing Grief, Empowerment: A Key to Grief Recovery" is hosted by William Vanderwill and is for those seeking resolution of profound grief. The seminar is also aimed at those offering help to others on the road to grief recovery.

Registration is $12 and includes lunch.

Eight sessions will be presented throughout the day. Topics are:

- "After Death: Healing Through the Pain." Giving yourself permission to grieve and experience your loss is the most important step to healing. Missy Poppen, community service representative for R.G. & G.R. Harris Funeral Homes Inc. will present how a loss can work for us after acknowledging the pain.

- "The Death of a Child: Beginning to Heal" will discuss the family dynamics that occur after a child has died, and the support that is available through the Compassionate Friends Group. This is for parents of any age group. Nancy Green, area coordinator of the Livonia chapter of Compassionate Friends will present the seminar.

- "There are Lots of Other Losses Besides Death: Life's Transitions are Unsettling" explores the loss of a close relationship, cherished object job or other "valuable" in one's life. The session will provide suggestions to recognize the loss, admit the hurt, process the confusing thoughts and feelings and move in a new direction. Mary Hickey, Christian service coordinator at St. Agatha Catholic Church in Redford Township will lead the workshop.

JoAnne McFall, a registered nurse and social worker will conduct "Grieving a Lost Childhood, Being Raised in an Alcoholic Home." McFall is the senior counselor and coordinator of training and professional education at the University of Michigan Counseling Services. The seminar will address the impact of growing up in an alcoholic home, the lack of permission to talk honestly, the inability to trust those around you and the inaccessibility of feelings, which are losses within themselves.

Throughout life, these losses create barriers to grieving subsequent loss.

The Rev. Kurt Stutz, chaplain at Botsford Hospital will present "Spirituality and the Grieving Process." Non-denominational in its design, the session will discuss spirituality as it relates to life, death and the grieving process, as well as how individuals are supported through their loss by their spiritual resources.

"Starting Over," for widows/widowers under 45 with children still living at home, will address grief issues relevant to the younger person. Raising children alone and what to do about in-laws are just some of the topics that will be addressed. Cathy Clough, director of bereavement services and personalized nursing care, Ann Arbor and founder of the Starting Over support group, will conduct the workshop.

Mark Speece, developer and cofacilitator of "Friends Like Me," a Michigan Cancer Foundation program for children who have a family member with cancer will present "Children's Concepts of Death."

New school attendance policy comes under fire

By Tim Richard
staff writer

High school athletes, musicians and debaters would have to show up for 90 percent of their classes under a legislative bill in Lansing.

But House Bill 5133 is in trouble in the House Education Committee.

"The Michigan High School Athletic Association has problems with the bill," lobbyist Robert VanderLaan told the panel last week.

"We agree with its goal. We agree that attendance is important. But we disagree with the procedure," he told the panel chaired by Rep. William Keith, D-Garden City.

"THE ASSOCIATION would have to enforce the rules. We don't want to do that," said VanderLaan, a former Senate Republican leader.

"MHSAA is a private organization. We get no state funding. We're like the NCAA (National Collegiate Athletic Association).

"Our rule is that the student must be passing four subjects. Individual schools adopt their own rules (on attendance). Some say the student must attend (classes) the day of a game.

"Our fear is that the state will become managers of the system," VanderLaan said, citing legislative efforts to prohibit teams from playing in big commercial arenas like the Palace and the Silverdome and to control starting times.

"Athletics are an easy target for legislators. Our organization opposes the imposition of statewide rules."

"WE'RE GETTING some no votes," said Keith, who won't put the measure to a vote until this week at the earliest.

"I don't understand the (bill's) emphasis on attendance," said Rep. Ken Sikkema, R-Grand Rapids.

"Students ought to know what's required of them," replied the sponsor, Rep. Joe Young Jr., D-Detroit. "I as an employer will want employees there on time or my machinery doesn't function."

Young added, "Those who graduate hardly have the ability to read and write. There are some motivational problems."

The Detroit Compact, a creation of the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce, has helped Detroit schools develop standards to assure students are employable. Besides academic achievement, the standards include good attendance and ability to work with others.

SOME, LIKE Rep. William Bryant, R-Grosse Pointe, didn't agree that attendance was so important.

"I learned more (during high school) in international badminton tournaments than sitting in class," Bryant said.

Exchange students from other countries may have trouble procuring attendance records to take part in extracurricular activities here, said Bryant, concluding, "We should not report out this bill."

Lobbyist Eleanor Dillon said the Michigan Federation of Teachers, second largest faculty union, supports the bill.

"Parents are split," said Rep. Claude Trim, R-Waterford, citing the high divorce rate and the tendency of some students to spend time with each in different states.

"I'm always hesitant about treading on the toes of local schools," said Rep. Susan Munsell, R-Howell. "An attendance policy is good, but it's one more thing we'd be forcing on local schools."

SC offers 2-year scholarship to first baby born on Oct. 24

By Wayne Peal
staff writer

Schoolcraft College is waiting for its newest scholarship winner to arrive — literally.

The college is holding a two-year scholarship for the first baby born to an area couple Thursday, Oct. 24 — date of the Livonia-based community college's 30th anniversary.

Going the Michigan Education Trust one better, the Schoolcraft scholarship provides full tuition if the youngster qualifies as a member of its classes of 2009-11.

"THIS IS a better deal than MET," college spokeswoman Sandra Florek said. "The money is guaranteed."

The scholarship could eventually be worth $3,500 or more, based on current tuition adjusted for inflation. The winner will be a Schoolcraft celebrity even before he or she enrolls.

"What we'd like to do is follow the child through school," Florek said. "For instance, we might take a picture or two when they're in elementary school, junior high and high school."

To qualify, parents must send a letter verifying the date and time of birth, along with the family's address. The contest is open to residents of the Livonia, Clarenceville, Plymouth-Canton, Northville and Garden City public school districts. Residents in a small portion of Novi Schools are also eligible.

The Schoolcraft community is collectively crossing its fingers a baby will be born that date.

"We have no plans to give the scholarship to someone born on the 23rd or the 25th," Florek said. "With all the people in our district, we're pretty confident we'll have a winner."

The first qualified baby gets the scholarship provided he or she graduates from high school with a minimum 2.5 grade point average.

Application letters can be sent to: 30th Anniversary Scholarship, President's Office, Schoolcraft College, 18600 Haggerty, Livonia, 48152.

The contest grew out of a brainstorming session by the committee that planned the year-long celebration.

"I know it was a really popular idea with the committee," Florek said. "In fact, one young woman on the committee joked she was going to try to come up with a qualifier herself."

SC hosts anniversary lunch

Don't look for Peter Marshall or John Davidson, but Schoolcraft College is celebrating its 30th anniversary with a contest based on television's Hollywood Squares.

The tic-tac-toe TV quiz, featuring college "celebrities", will highlight the anniversary lunch 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Waterman Center on Schoolcraft's main Livonia campus. The public is invited.

Audience members will be chosen by event master of ceremonies Ladd Carleton. Contestants will have to guess the right answer on questions ranging from music to sports trivia to Schoolcraft history.

Winners will receive chips redeemable for prizes.

Music from the 1960s will be featured during lunch. Those in attendance will also have the opportunity to sing "Happy Birthday" to Schoolcraft.

Participants are invited to get in the spirit of things by wearing 1960s oufits.

Lunch items, featuring such 1960s staples as hamburgers, hot dogs and pizza, will be offered at a 30 percent discount in honor of the anniversary.

The college was created Oct. 24, 1961, though it didn't begin admitting students until several years later.

Schoolcraft is at 18600 Haggerty, between Six and Seven Mile roads, Livonia.

Observe these Halloween safety tips

Halloween doesn't have to be a scary holiday if children follow a few safety tips.

Consumers Power is advising youngsters to trick or treat only in familiar neighborhoods, and to go trick-or-treating in groups, never alone.

Other tips include wearing brightly colored, reflective costumes that fit well.

Children should stay on sidewalks and cross at street corners, never between cars. They should also carry a flashlight for nighttime trick-or-treating. Children should take off their masks and look both ways before crossing a street.

Treats should be examined at home before they are eaten. Fruit should be washed and sliced before eating. Unwrapped treats should be thrown away.

Parents should call police if their child receives any suspicious-looking treats.

Consumers Power also maintains an Eyes and Ears program for youngsters needing help on Halloween or any other time. Utility trucks are marked with the Eyes and Ears logo, and provide safe haven for children who need help.

'Calvert's Corner' honors area youth

Detroit radio personality Ken Calvert has announced formation of "Ken Calvert's Corner," a block of seats to Detroit Pistons games at the Palace of Auburn Hills designated for deserving youths throughout southeastern Michigan.

Calvert, a longtime FM personality, is public address announcer for the Pistons. Calvert's corner is designed to reward youths 8-18 for good deeds and accomplishments.

A selection committee headed by Calvert will screen applications. Honor students, community service volunteers and underprivileged youngsters are especially invited to apply. Tickets will be awarded in groups of 10, including chaperones.

One-page letters of application, describing the nominee's qualifications, should be sent to: Ken Calvert's Corner, P.O. Box 1444, Birmingham, Mich. 48012.

Saving Mother Nature — milk jug style

By Sue Mason
staff writer

RUTHELLEN STEC DOESN'T RECALL when she got involved in the ecology movement. It's something she's always been into. So it makes sense that when considering a career change three years ago, her interests turned to the environment.

Today, Stec with friend Suzie Miller are using their creative talents to educate others about the serious situations threatening our environment. They are Earthbound Environmental Creations, a fledgling company with a unique way of sending its message — on T-shirts, notecards and jewelry.

"This was a ton of work," said the 29-year-old Taylor resident, waving a hand at a pile of merchandise spread out on a conference room table at the Robert Michael Ellen agency in Bingham Farms. RME is the parent company of Earthbound Environmental Creations. "It was a lot of hard work to get the information on these animals... like the palm cockatoo. Does anyone know that the palm cockatoo is an endangered species?"

Their work is free flowing — simplistic designs with simplistic messages almost in a nursery rhyme fashion.

Pink elephants parade across a pin that states: "Oh, what a wonder if you could see the beauty of an elephant roaming wild and free. Don't take their tusks; please let them be. Stop the poaching of ivory."

THREES OF all shapes border another pin that extolls: "See the forests; watch them grow in all their splendor. The world should know. The treetops reaching for the sky could all be gone before we die."

The two women started working on Earthbound three years ago when they worked at the same ad agency. Stec was an assistant creative director; Miller, 27, the art director.

They went in early and stayed late to mold an idea into reality, challenged by their co-workers' belief they wouldn't actually do it.

"People knew what we were doing and figured we would be leaving (the agency), but they didn't think we'd go this far," Stec said. "It kind of challenges you when people don't think you can do it and excites you when you can pull it off."

Their first step was to figure out what Earthbound would stand for.

Promoting the environment is a broad field, so the two women decided to select 12 endangered species — the rhinoceros, sea turtle, humpback whale, mountain gorilla, dolphin, coral reefs, black-footed ferret, manatee, panda, cheetah and, of course, the elephant and palm cockatoo — to become advocates for.

Earthbound also takes on overlogging, animal cruelty and save the earth, or "what we call living with nature," Stec said.

Their first efforts were to create information cards that accompany their products. The cards talk about the animal and why it is endangered and encourages active involvement in its preservation.

ONCE THAT was done, they worked on the sayings, started on the jewelry designs and picked the design elements for the T-shirts and notecards.

"We were like were we possessed," said Stec of the time devoted to creating the merchandise. "It was sickening, just sickening... and we're still like that."

Even figuring out the color schemes was time consuming. Working with 30 black-and-white copies of the drawing and colored pens, they sat for hours "saying what about this," Stec said.

Keeping with their commitment, they decided all their products would be environmentally safe. The T-shirts are 100 percent cotton, the notecards printed on recycled paper and the jewelry made from recycled plastic. "It's practically washable," Stec said, holding up a pin. "Made from milk jugs."

Planning done and armed with $25,000, they started producing the Earthbound products. One printer churned out the notecards, another tackled the jewelry. The latter was no easy job since the plastic, black in color, had to be coated in white before the colors — up to 12 on some designs — was applied.

Kory Clarke brings home Soul

By Larry O'Connor
staff writer

Kory Clarke and his band may be part of a homecoming, but don't expect a parade.

The 1980 graduate of Livonia Bentley High School brings his group Warrior Soul into The Palace of Auburn Hills Friday, Oct. 25, opening for Queensryche.

A classic tale of the local rebel returned in the triumph of a conquering rock'n'roll god?

Not yet, but Clarke is getting there.

"I think I would (feel some vindication) if I could get some airplay on an FM, AOR (album-oriented rock) radio station or get a write-up in one of the big papers," said Clarke, 29, sounding a bit disgusted in a phone interview. "I feel some vindication in proving my critics and those who pushed me around in high school wrong."

Clarke is bitter, kind of like sucking a lemon after a shot of castor oil.

His experiences in 1980s trail-blazing outfits such as L-7 and Trial were fruitless, running aground in an area he believes is indifferent to its musicians and artists. He also sums the Detroit area in general terms of being racist, conservative and "grumpy."

At this point, asking Clarke to pull out his high school yearbook seems as inappropriate as checking an Islamic cleric for his copy of "The Satanic Verses."

CLARKE'S accomplishments are in the present. His band, Warrior Soul, has its second album out on David Geffen Records, "God, Drugs and the New Republic," a sonic blast of social commentary wrought through suburban petulance and urban decay.

In this visceral collage, Clarke burns down the facades surrounding drugs, religion, poverty and whatever else is on the evening news.

If Clarke comes across a tad antagonistic, one only need to look at his past to know why.

Trained as a drummer, Clarke played in a cover band while in school. Then rebellion set in. He formed an anarchic outfit, The Attitudes, and began showing up at Bentley High School with purple and pink stripes in his hair.

Punk had arrived and Clarke was its self-appointed ambassador.

"Everybody was against me," Clarke said. "It's been stated so many times. I was a punk, man. Back then there were no punks."

Those who know him believe

Kory Clarke (second from left) and his bandmates — Mark Evans, John Ricco and Pete McCianahan will fill The Palace of Auburn Hills with the sound of Warrior Soul Friday, Oct. 25.

Clarke was ahead of his time. Dave Feeny also went to Bentley and was a "roadie" for The Attitudes. Feeny was one of a group of 10 students, spurred by Clarke, who began to adhere to the punk fashion of straight-legged jeans and short hair.

"HE WAS A freak," Feeny said with a laugh. "In high school, he was the king of punk."

Musically, Clarke was also charting a new course. In addition to being an excellent drummer, Feeny recalls a show with Trial at The Freestyle in the early '80s.

Halfway through one song, Clarke told people in the audience to quit dancing and the band finished with a loud, distorted guitar feedback-induced frenzy. Few people appreciated the message.

Fed up, Clarke sought creative refuge, leaving for New York in 1985. After working as a bicycle messenger and as a vee-jay, he hooked up with Pete McCianahan and guitarist John Ricco and started Warrior Soul.

"I couldn't go any farther in Detroit," Clarke said. "I was in some bands that were well-run and I had

'You can't really categorize us. It's the outlook and the attitude.'

— Kory Clarke

done that. There's was nothing going on.

"I don't know what Detroit cares about really... it doesn't care about the arts, at least not musicians."

Clarke eventually gave up drums to concentrate on his vocals and songwriting. Remarkably, Warrior Soul was signed by David Geffen Company after five gigs.

AFTER THEIR debut release, "Last Decade Dead Century," Warrior Soul toured Europe with Metallica and garnered favorable reviews in music publications Sound and Kerrang.

The group's music has been described as something as metal for the mind. But simply placing Warrior Soul in the spandex-and-teased-hair crowd won't suffice.

"You can't really categorize us," Clarke said. "It's the outlook and the attitude..."

High school alienation only serves as part of Clarke's discontent. He was also influenced by the prescribed musical rebellion of MC 5 and, to a lesser degree, Ted Nugent. Later, he became immersed in the post-punk fury of Joy Division and Public Image Ltd.

Things such as heroin wars and the park movement in the late '70s and even the riots in 1967 before then had an impact on his world view, Clarke said.

All of which makes the indifference by the media in this area to Warrior Soul's music more impalpable to him.

"One of these days I'm going to sock somebody," he said.

Warrior Soul opens for Queensryche 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 25, at The Palace of Auburn Hills. Tickets are $20. For information, call 377-0100.

Coughlan finds niche with Fatima Mansions

By Larry O'Connor
staff writer

Sure Cathal Coughlan could find more fulfilling ways to vent his wrath, but they don't pack punching bags with dynamite.

To say the Fatima Mansions' lead singer has a somewhat jaundiced outlook at life is to dismiss the water near the Exxon Valdez oil spill as a bit murky.

Coughlan's angry, he's screeching and, best of all, more cynical than a bagful of Tories at a labor rally.

This translates into some seriously skewed, gushingly fragmented and vertigo induced pieces of pop and rock on Fatima Mansions' "Viva Dead Ponies" (Radioactive/MCA). Bouncy bits of dance synthesizers belie the darkness that bebops inside of Coughlan's mind.

"A necklace of rubber, burning bright/a burning rubber necklace for my angel's delight," begins Coughlan in the most benevolent, sugary tone on the opening cut. Unexpectedly, he goes into a caterwaul discourse on the various possibilities of civil obedience with all the virulence of Mount St. Helen.

The former member of Microdisney dismisses "Angel's Delight" as something of "a little piece of light entertainment" in response to Britain's poll tax and ensuing police crackdown when people demonstrated.

"I figured that's one thing I could do they couldn't touch me for," said Coughlan, transplanted to London from Cork, Ireland, "I could make a record... in a comic book sort of way."

LIKE A MADMAN perched above in a confined viewing box, Coughlan seemingly thumbs his nose at society below through his music. But with the insanity of poverty and despair in everyday life, maybe he's not so daft after all.

He equates Western leaders such as former British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher with dead dictator Nicolae Ceausescu in the fuzzy discord of "Blues for Ceausescu." He mocks deity, casting Jesus among other things as a London shopkeeper in the title-track "Viva Dead Ponies."

These are things Microdisney didn't allow for with its mainstream musings. Coughlan formed Fatima Mansions — named after a run-down housing project in north Dublin — in 1988, joining with Hugh Bunker, Nick Bagnall, Nick Allum and Aindrias O'Gruama.

In a short while, the band has gained instant notoriety, releasing "Against Nature" in 1988 in the UK. Irish music magazine Hot Press named Fatima Mansions "Band of the Year" and Morrissey picked the band's LP as one of his favorite albums in a New Musical Express poll.

Kudos aside, Coughlan has found his niche.

"There were a lot of things going on in music in the late '80s I was interested in that weren't coming out at all with what I was doing," Coughlan said. "I came to realize I was making records I wouldn't really want to listen to myself and were completely unrelated to what I was listening to at home."

OBVIOUSLY, Coughlan sought a harder edge to his music. "Viva Dead Ponies" delivers, featuring a renege mix of spewing punk guitar and sensuous techno melodies. His hardness at life goes deeper.

Cathal Coughlan, lead singer of Fatima Mansions, has been described as angry, screeching and cynical which translates into some serious pop and rock on the band's "Viva Dead Ponies" (Radioactive/MCA) album.

Coughlan grew up in Cork, Ireland, and banged around as a musician. Disenchanted with the cliquish Dublin music scene, he left for London in 1983.

Ireland, not exactly known for its abundance of glowing optimists, only gets part of the credit for turning Coughlan into a sardonic songwriter.

"I think it has more to do with my relocation in Britain, really," said Coughlan, who once studied medicine in college. "I found it difficult the way things were running in Ireland I just had to get the hell out of there."

"Since I've got to Britain, I've watched the place deteriorate into a world of bankruptcy and superstition in much the same way Ireland did in the early '80s."

"Angel's Delight" is only one acid-indigestion induced number concerning this subject. The opening reference to rubber necklesses might lead one to believe it's a song decrying the situation in South Africa.

"IN A WAY, it's taking advantage of the marginal position of somebody has in this country that says, 'OK, you're nobody.' 'OK, I'm nobody, I'm going to make seditious music. What you going to do about it? Nothing, because nobody's going to hear it because you've taken me off the radio.'"

All this gloom and doom can get a guy down at times. Coughlan agrees, but even a cynic's cynic can find a daisy in a compost pile once in awhile.

"Sometimes it's hard to get motivated to walk when things have been rough for awhile," he said. "But people are buying the record and we're going to America."

Mexican paradise provides bounty of food, fun, sun

It is 7 a.m. I wake to the sound of waves. The new sun shines into my room here on the beach at Cancun, Mexico.

As I pull the curtains I hear a slight noise in the hall. That is the thermos of coffee and basket of rolls left outside the door every morning here at Puerta Al Sol, an all-inclusive suite hotel that opened a year ago at the "Club Med end" of the beach.

The bridge that joins this island to the mainland near Club Med is at the opposite end from the bridge that connects it to Cancun City 12 miles away. The traveler's task is to pick a hotel from the several dozen beautiful properties that line the beach.

The Cancun Puerta Al Sol Hotel Suites and Spa is the most luxurious of the island's three all-inclusive hotels, which offer meals and beverages with the price of the room. You can take 40 of your friends into the outdoor whirlpool or learn to dive in the above-ground diving tank if you get tired of sizzling away on the very lightly populated beach.

By 8 A.M. the joggers are silhouetted against the froth of breaking waves, the pool handlers are working beneath my balcony, and the gardener is going clip on the world's tiniest patch of grass. The choice is determined by how much you want to pay, how far you want to be from the activities around the museum, mall and convention center at Cancun Point and what style of hotel suits you.

The three dozen hotels on the beach are all spread out for me to see as I ride the 50-cent bus that runs every 15 minutes or so between the Hotel Zone and Cancun City. The Mayans would recognize the hotel shapes built side-by-side along the beach: pyramids, stepped roofs, with an occasional touch of the Taj Mahal. All look quite luxurious.

The less expensive are in Cancun City and along the sheltered swimming waters of the Bay. There are sometimes red flags on the beach that faces the Caribbean Sea because of the undertow.

Hotels range from the luxury of places like the Melia and the Omni through the moderately priced condos of the Kinha to the low-priced rooms of the Club Las Perlas, which still sports a pool and restaurant but lacks the fancy touches.

THE 50-CENT bus will drop you at the city hall, where balloons, sunlovers and politicians rally. Go to the tourist office door for information; you will learn, for example, that Bus Number Eight takes you five miles north to the ferry for Isla Mujeres if you prefer independent travel to tours.

I had tortilla soup to the strum of music in an open-sided restaurant called Mi Ranchita in town; other Mexican places I heard about were Rose Mexicano and Garibaldi's. I'm not an old Cancun hand so I picked local brains about the best places to eat and play.

Most hoteliers recommend the deluxe Blue Bayou at the Hyatt Caribe and the Calypso at the Camino Real.

Beef lovers recommended Beefeaters, Jaguari's and the inexpensive La Hacienda. Seafood lovers suggest The Fisherman, Cajamar and Pericos, where the writers strum the music.

Cancun seas call travelers

By Iris Sanderson Jones
special writer

THIS IS A fairy tale. Some people like the way it turns out and some people think the wicked witch of tourism has been here.

Once Upon A Time a fat finger of land poked into the emerald green waters of the Caribbean Sea. At the tip of the Yucatan Peninsula, a 12-mile-long elbow of sand enclosed a blue lagoon. Not ordinary sandbars, but glorious beach ankle-deep in powdery sand, gleaming like a golden bracelet under the hot Mexican sun.

There were only crab tracks and the footsteps of pirates or fishermen around the Mayan ruins on the sand when the Mexican government asked a computer to select the ideal Caribbean resort setting.

You should see it now.

Tourists bring their gold and their suntan lotion to 21,000 rooms in high-rise and low-rise hotels that start on the mainland in Ciudad Cancun (population 150,000) and follow that elbow of sand along 12 miles of Hotel Zone. That coral and sand beach, and the emerald sea, may now offer the best value per dollar of any warm weather getaway in the world.

WHY? CANCUN is for the moment overbuilt, especially in luxury class hotels, so its a buyer's market. You can spend a lot of money on meals and incidentals when you get there, so the wise traveler plans carefully before he leaves home.

Kenneth R. Trefilek, Director of Resort Vacations for Travel Charter International, which runs charters to Cancun weekly in summer, four times a week November through mid May, says "no place draws from this side of the country, on a year-round basis, as steadily as Cancun. It is the most competitively priced resort in the world."

"It's accessible, within four hours flight of 65 percent of the U.S. population, it's new, clean, has beautiful white beaches and turquoise seas, lots of water sports, enough tours for variety and you can spend a week there for the same price as a week in Florida."

Cancun was a higher-priced destination before Hurricane Hugo stripped that glorious beach away in 1988. The beach is completely re-

MICKY JONES

Although some argue that Cancun is over-developed, the large number of accommodations with prices remaining low compared to many other tropical destinations, make the vacation resort a buyer's market, stored but prices have stayed low enough to attract honeymooners, spring breakers and weekenders as well as the typical one-week vacationers.

TREFILEK: "It's easy to take your first international trip to Cancun. It's not far away, people speak English, the facilities are American and you can still see something of Mexico on daytrips."

My observation is that most travelers spend a significant amount of time on the beach, wandering the hotel strip and exploring Ciudad Cancun City, which grew on the mainland as the hotel zones grew along the beach.

The convention center, midway down the strip at Cancun Point, organizes tours daily to nearby Isla Mujeres, by ferry or hydrofoil to the resort island of Cozumel, but the most popular tours are to the ruined Mayan city at Tulum two hours drive south or the larger ruins at Chichen Itza three hours drive west. Insiders recommend that car travelers stay overnight at Chichen Itza rather than rushing through the long day tour.

Airlines offer travel packages

No airline flies non-stop to Mexico, so most travel agents sell charter travel packages to Cancun. Wholesalers to Mexico include Key Tours, Apple Vacations and Travel Charter International.

Travel Charter sells the largest number of packages to Cancun, with rates ranging from $300 to $700 for three days, and from $400 to $800 for seven days, depending on whether you leave weekday or weekend and what hotel you choose.

TCI flies once a week in summer, four times a week in winter, on American Trans Air. ATA meets the government certification required of all scheduled airlines; not all charter airlines do.

If you don't buy a package, you can connect to daily flights out of Miami on American, Pan American and Mexicana. Mexicana flies daily non-stops from Chicago.

Carlos Banks of Farmington Hills, district sales manager for Mexicana, announced new rate structures last week for round-trip fares that are totally refundable and require no advance purchase: fly Monday to Friday for $438, $502 weekends, Detroit to Cancun via Chicago.

Livonia man helps bring softball tourney to Canton

By Wayne Peal
staff writer

Even without a new Tiger Stadium, Wayne County will be host for a major ball field event next season. The 1992 senior softball championships are coming to Canton Softball Center next September.

Eagerly sought by Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara, the tournament is expected to pump as much as $1 million into the local economy.

Some 83 teams competed in this year's tournament, with more expected next year.

"We're looking at 4,000 people who will be coming here, staying in our hotels and eating in our restaurants," said Bob Fortney of the Detroit Business Convention Bureau. FORTNEY, a Livonia resident, assisted the executive's office in presenting the county bid.

Armed with brochures on area lodging and baskets full of Michigan-made products, county representatives set about selling the local site to Seniors Softball U.S. Inc. the Florida-based organization that sponsors the national event.

The Canton facility's size may have been the deciding factor.

"Along with Softball City (in Detroit) we're the largest private softball facility anywhere," said Bernie Goodstein who directs Softball Center's 12 diamonds.

Last year, the Michigan Avenue site was host to a smaller tournament sponsored by the county office on aging.

"When (office on aging director) Frank Rembisz asked us if we'd like to have the national tournament, I said, 'Oh my yes'" Goodstein recalled.

Bringing the event north is considered a coup. Previous events have been held in such Sun Belt cities as Greensboro, N.C. and West Palm Beach, Fla.

"This is the fourth time they've held it and it's always been in a Sun Belt site," Fortney said. "So this is the first time they've come up here."

A Redford native, Fortney played on several teams, in several leagues, throughout western Wayne County. But he won't be stepping up to bat in next year's tournament.

First, he's too young. Ballplayers in the seniors tournament start at age 50 with 80-year-old players not uncommon.

Second, Fortney admits he put his glove and bat away a few years back.

JIM JAGDFELD/staff photographer

Robert C. Fortney of Livonia holds his 18-month-old son, Robert R., who likes to toss around a softball. Fortney, who works for the Detroit Business Convention Bureau, helped to bring the 1992 senior softball championships to Canton Softball Center next September.

State redistricting headed to court

By Tim Richard
staff writer

Theoretically, reapportioning the Michigan Legislature is easier than reapportioning the state's congressional delegation.

The state would lose none of its 38 state senators and 110 representatives. But it would lose two of its 19 U.S. representatives — a tough nut that a federal court almost certainly will have to crack.

But legislative reapportionment, too, seemed headed for court this week. Democrats and Republicans in Lansing last week were unable to agree on standards. And they need to have standards before they can draw lines on a map.

"If the Supreme Court gives us standards, we can go forward," said Rep. Willis Bullard, R-Highland, GOP voice on legislative reapportionment. "Even if you have standards, there can be so many variations."

"I hope the Supreme Court can rule by Thanksgiving. That's half of one step."

THE SENATE last week gave 20-15 approval to its standards with 19 Republicans and maverick Democrat Gil DiNello of East Detroit supporting them and 15 Democrats opposed. (Sen. Michael Bouchard, R-Birmingham, had an excused absence.)

To the untrained eye, the legalese looks similar to the House resolution sponsored by Rep. Maxine Berman, D-Southfield. But Berman charged, "The Senate substitute promotes racial and political gerrymandering. Inviting uncounted county, city and township splits manipulates populations."

"Republicans obviously remain under the illusion that complaints by Jerome Reid of the NAACP on Sept. 25 are accurate," said Berman, adding that NAACP found they "no longer contain the legal shortcomings."

At her urging, the House Thursday rejected the Senate standards on a 36-53 party-line vote. (Republicans Lyn Bankes of Livonia and Barbara Dobb of West Bloomfield missed the roll call.)

The bill went to conference committee Friday with little hope the differences could be resolved.

Meanwhile, lawyers for both parties were preparing to submit briefs to the Supreme Court today.

THE DIFFERENCE is one of emphasis, Bullard said. "First, the Democrats just want to list factors. We want to set up a hierarchy," he said.

"Second, we want to give greater weight to city and township boundaries, except in the case of minority representation. The Democrats say they don't want to split city and township lines just to create minority districts."

The disagreement is over the emphasis to give the federal Voting Rights Act, which says ethnic groups shouldn't be split up to prohibit them from winning a seat.

Both parties agree there should be no more than an 8.2 percent deviation from the ideal: 224,613 in each Senate district, 84,503 in each House district.

Both agree with compactness standards established in 1982's reapportionment by Bernard Apol, a retired elections director appointed by the Supreme Court to draw new lines.

BOTH PARTIES in 1992 are tar-

'I hope the Supreme Court can rule by Thanksgiving. That's half of one step.'

— Rep. Willis Bullard

getting the state House of Representatives, which Democrats have controlled since the 1960s. House GOP leader Paul Hillemonds of Holland has a host of money-raising and issuing-forming committees to gain control of the House.

The Senate and governor's chair, both in GOP hands, aren't up until the 1994 election.

As of now, the filing deadline for the 1992 primary is May 15. Reapportionment would have to be accomplished before that.

"In 1982 the filing deadline had to be postponed," Bullard recalled. The court case dragged long enough that no one knew what the districts would look like.

Neither party wants that to happen again.

The right leadership—at last.

A balanced state budget. No new taxes.

The right leadership for Michigan—at last.

Congratulations are in order.

It isn't often that we can congratulate our elected officials. But if there was ever a time, this is it.

Governor John Engler and the members of the Legislature have just made some of the toughest choices of their careers. And they made the right ones. It was a "Taxpayer's Agenda."

These are tough times. Times that put our Governor and legislators to the test. Taxpayers can be thankful that they passed that test.

They faced a huge budget deficit the second year in a row. And they did something their counterparts in few other states did: they balanced the budget—without raising taxes and without cutting education.

Thank you Governor Engler.

Thank you members of the Legislature.

How refreshing.

Yes, tough choices were made. But these choices will make Michigan stronger—better in the future. There were no quick fixes. Painful cuts were necessary. Many programs had to be trimmed. But education was protected and made the top priority. It was a difficult challenge.

But our elected officials didn't back away from the challenge. They didn't buckle under to special interest pressure. They didn't sock your family's budget to balance the state's. And Michigan will be better off tomorrow as a result.

So to Governor John Engler and the members of the Legislature, "Thank You." Thank you for the right leadership—at last.

Chiefs beat N'ville, maintain win streak

By Dan O'Meara
staff writer

Plymouth Canton chalked up its ninth straight win in girls basketball Thursday — Northville chalked one up to experience.

The No. 6-ranked Chiefs remained unbeaten (7-0) in the Western Lakes Activities Association after they rallied from a four-point halftime deficit to defeat the visiting Mustangs, 65-55.

Canton is 11-2 overall. Northville dropped to 4-3 in the league and 10-3 overall.

"We're inexperienced in tight games against very good competition," Northville coach Ed Kritch said.

"Their schedule helps them, too. They're our (Flint) Powers and (Birmingham) Marian. They already have that game base, and I think we will be better the next time around because of what happened tonight."

What happened was the Chiefs took the game away from Northville, which led most of the first half — 23-24 at halftime — and got a combined 24 points from Karen Pump and Laura Apligian.

CANTON CAME back strong in the third quarter, outscoring the Mustangs 19-9 and playing tighter defense. The Chiefs led 43-37 and stayed in front.

"I thought we were intense on defense to start, but our positioning was not good," Canton coach Bob Blohm said. "Our effort at getting back, getting the ball stopped and getting to all players was better from the second quarter on."

Sophomore guard Britta Anderson scored a career-high 18 points, which included 8-of-8 free throw shooting, and junior center Stephanie Gray scored 12 to lead Canton.

Jori Welchans came off the bench to score nine points and was one of several others who contributed in key ways. Alyson Nouné, Amy Westerhold and Christie Saffron played excellent floor games at guard. Westerhold made several big steals in the second half to frustrate Northville, and she and Kelly Holmes added eight points each, Saffron six.

Pump, who leads the Mustangs with a 13-

girls basketball

point-plus average, finished with 20 and Apligian 15, but they had just 11 points between them in the second half. Kara McNeil contributed 10 points and Stacey Nyland eight.

Pump was scoring from outside and Apligian penetrating for layups in the first half. Northville had an 11-0 run in the first quarter, including a triple by Pump that broke a 10-10 tie, to lead 17-10. The Mustangs were up 18-14 after one period. They had a harder time scoring in the second half.

"(CANTON) GOT up in their face a little more and made it difficult for them," Kritch said. "We couldn't see the next pass. They don't take it away on the first pass but the second with help defense. Their trap was too good. Their trap overcame our ability to pass the ball."

The Chiefs shot 57 percent (8-14) in the third quarter and Northville 17 percent (3-18). Canton never trailed after Anderson, who led the Chiefs with six points in that period, made two free throws, for a 36-35 lead.

"We rebounded the ball better. Our shot selection was better, and we attacked the zone better," Blohm said. "It got crowded inside, and we started making shots on the reverse pass. In the second half, we had some pretty good second-shot opportunities."

"We got a little better floor balance, and we got people back. We got the basket covered up real well. I didn't think they got as many easy shots in the second half."

Canton extended its lead to 11 points (48-37) when Westerhold, Anderson and Saffron combined to score the first five of the fourth quarter.

McNeil hit two threes and Nyland a pair of free throws to keep the Mustangs close, 50-45. Northville was within four (57-53) with 1:41 to play, but Canton started working the clock with five guards on the floor. Westerhold made a three-point play, Anderson and Nouné two free throws each to secure the victory.

"THIS GAME was played at a high level and fast pace," Kritch said. "We can sustain it for 2-2½ quarters, but they caused us to break down."

"When we were fresh early in the game, we could make them do that. But fatigue became a factor. We can't play at that level long enough against the Cantons and the Salems."

The Chiefs play Farmington Hills Harrison on Thursday and, barring an upset, will remain unbeaten in the WLAA heading into a showdown Saturday night with Salem at Canton. The Rocks also are 7-0 in the league and host Livonia Stevenson on Thursday.

Steve Hohl was Canton's leading rusher Friday in the team's 21-0 loss to Walled Lake Western in the final division football game for both teams. The Chiefs are 2-5 overall.

Hister reaches 1,000; Rocks pound Vikings

Leon Hister scored two touchdowns and surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for the season, Pete Zantop passed for two TDs and Rob Shepley ran for two more to ignite Plymouth Salem's 44-13 football victory at Walled Lake Central Friday.

The win boosted Salem's overall record to 5-2 and kept alive the Rocks' state playoff hopes. They finish 4-1 in the Western Lakes Activities Association's Lakes Division, good for second place.

Central dropped to 0-7 overall and completed its Lakes Division season winless in five games.

Salem took command immediately against the Vikings and never relented. Hister opened the scoring with a 3-yard TD burst in the first quarter; John Truskowski's placement made it 7-0.

The Rocks scored twice more in the half on Zantop passes. The first covered 38 yards to Mark Cirella in the opening quarter; Zantop ran in for the two-point conversion to make it 15-0. The second was 25 yards to Alfonso Hysko in the second period; Zantop passed to Shepley for another two-point conversion, giving Salem a 23-0 halftime advantage.

HISTER AND Shepley both scored TDs in the third quarter on 6-yard runs, with Truskowski adding the PAT after each.

The Vikings got on the board in the fourth. Jeremy Baum darted 12 yards for their first TD; Tom Simaan's placement narrowed the gap somewhat, to 37-7.

Salem drove right back to score again, however, on a 4-yard Shepley run. Anvar Vargas booted this extra point. Central closed out the scoring with a 27-yard pass from Marc Tataruk to Steve Rabaut.

Hister rolled through the Viking defense to gain 156 yards on 23 carries, giving him 1,060 yards for the season. Shepley added 55 yards rushing on nine attempts as the Rocks gained 289 yards on the ground. Zantop completed four of five passes for 71 yards.

Central rushed for 143 yards and quarterbacks Tataruk and Michael Gluski combined to complete nine of 19 passes for 123 more. But the Vikings lost a fumble and were intercepted twice, by Salem's Pat Martinez and Todd Forbes. Salem lost one fumble.

Andy Szydowski paced the Rocks with eight tackles.

Warriors focus on playoffs after routing Canton, 21-0

By Dan O'Meara
staff writer

If all goes well for the Walled Lake Western football team, the Warriors will be in the Class A playoffs and coach Chuck Apap will have a new gold watch.

After his team defeated host Plymouth Canton 21-0 Friday night to keep its playoff hopes alive, Apap showed his players the watch he received from his 1979 team that finished 6-3.

The Warriors, who were seventh in Class A Region III last week, finished 3-2 in the Western Division of the Western Lakes Activities Association and improved to 4-3 overall. Canton is 1-4 and 2-5.

"I told the kids, if we had a better record, I expected a new watch," Apap said. "We have to get in the playoffs to have a better record, and we're hoping to be there."

Western will play Westland John Glenn in the WLAA crossover this week and finish the season against crosstown rival Walled Lake Central.

"WALLED LAKE Western has never been in the playoffs, and this team wants to do it," Apap said. "We have to win our next two. John Glenn is very tough. You had better be strapped up when you play them. With Glenn's record, our kids know we can really move up."

The Warriors scored on their second possession when David Watkins passed 52 yards on first down to Joe Kalhorn at 5:03 in the first quarter.

"They had to stop the stack-I and jam people up in there," Apap said. "We thought it would be open. We thought we could sneak our end out and we did."

"Joey may have to go to acting class. He did a great job faking his block and then running his pattern."

The Warriors led 14-0 at halftime after a sustained drive ended in Arnie Gillert's 1-yard scoring run with two minutes left in the second quarter. The hard-running Gillert was the game's leading rusher with 56 yards on 15 carries.

Western was evenly divided between the pass (132) and run (138). Watkins was 5-of-9 for all the pass-

Salem boys win 3rd straight title

Plymouth Salem remains the king of Lakes Division boys cross country, winning its third consecutive title Thursday with a 15-49 victory over host Walled Lake Central.

The Rocks finish 5-0 in their half of the Western Lakes Activities Association and 6-0 overall in dual meets.

"Any time you can win your division three years in a row, it's a fine accomplishment," Salem coach Geoff Baker said. "The thing that has eluded us is the league title."

Salem was paced by junior Derek Cudini, who earned individual honors with a 16:57 time.

The Rocks captured the top six places with senior Steve Boudreau (17:21), senior Jayson McDonald (17:17), sophomore Jon Mickevicius (17:20), senior Matt Cifaldi (18:01) and junior Jamie Miller (18:10) following Cudini.

The WLAA meet will be Wednesday at Cass Benton Park where the Rocks will challenge defending champion Walled Lake Western for the league title. The Warriors won the Western Division dual crown with a 5-0 record.

"You're going up against the second-ranked team in the state," Baker said.

"Miracles do happen. Looking at times, there is a possibility. Our fourth and fifth runners will have to drop at least 30 seconds, and we have to put two runners behind (Bill) Crosby and alternate the next couple places. Then we could have a shot."

Western completed a perfect season in the Western Division with a 17-46 victory Thursday over Plymouth Canton.

Crosby of Western was the top runner (16:21). The Chiefs finished 3-2 in the division and 3-3 overall.

Shamrocks lose game, Zavagnin

By Steve Kowaleki
staff writer

Warren De LaSalle beat Redford Catholic Central 3-1 Saturday in the Catholic League boys soccer championship game played at Harper Woods Notre Dame.

But the real loss for CC came with 1:42 remaining in the game when star senior midfielder Kerry Zavagnin received a red card and was ejected. The infraction means Zavagnin must sit out the Shamrocks' next game, which happens to be tonight's 7 p.m. Class A district opener at Ferndale.

The red card came deep in DeLaSalle's end of the field and occurred after the Pilots had wrapped up the game, for all intents and purposes.

Zavagnin said he and DeLaSalle player Craig Abraham were joking around when the linesman on that end of the field interrupted the two players.

VULGER LANGUAGE directed at an official is usually something that draws a red card, but Zavagnin said his conversation with the linesman was harmless. Zavagnin, who scored CC's only goal on a penalty kick in the second half, ironically was named the Catholic League's Player of the Year at halftime.

soccer

"I'm teammates with Craig on the Michigan Magic (during the off-season) and we were joking around, when the linesman got into it and said, 'What's your problem?'" said Zavagnin, who on this day would have been better off placekicking for the CC football team against the University of Detroit-Jesuit. "I just pinched him on the cheek and said 'Oh, you look so pretty.' I didn't do anything wrong. It's garbage."

Abraham confirmed Zavagnin's story.

"WE WERE goofing around, Kerry was goofing around with the ref, but the ref wasn't goofing around with him," Abraham said. "The ref said to Kerry 'What's the matter with you?' Kerry said 'Nothing,' just grabbed his cheek and said 'You're so cute.' That's just Kerry. He's always goofing around."

The linesman, who refused to identify himself, would not comment.

DeLaSalle won the regular-season meeting between the two schools but CC bounced back earlier this month and stopped DeLaSalle, 4-0, in the Catholic League Central Division championship game.

That loss ended DeLaSalle's 39-game winning streak but this time the Pilots dominated from the get-go.

Tim Fulton scored twice to give DeLaSalle a 2-0 halftime lead and the Pilots' Marcus Cudnik scored his team-high 20th goal on a penalty kick early in the second half to push the lead to 3-0.

"I THINK THIS showed a lot of character on our part," DeLaSalle coach Thayer Mukhtar said. "Our kids were flat last time and they gave us a lesson on how to play and we were embarrassed. Today you saw a different DeLaSalle team."

Five CC players received yellow cards and the last thing coach Phil LaJoy needed was for one of his players to receive a red card.

"We just got out of it early and we couldn't come back," LaJoy said. "We had some opportunities in the first half and if we could have capitalized, it could have been a different game."

Senior Steve Heitert and sophomore Adam Borchert both were turned away by DeLaSalle goalkeeper Brian Lorida as the Shamrocks tried to score just before halftime. The loss in net was suffered by CC goalkeeper Jeff Sawicki.

SC's title hopes suffer an injury

By C.J. Rieck
staff writer

The future of Schoolcraft College's women's soccer season won't be decided on the field.

Which is really too bad. As coach Nick O'Shea noted after Sunday's 2-1 loss to top-ranked Meramec Community College (of St. Louis), "We accomplished what we wanted to accomplish. We proved we can play with the best teams in the country."

After a moment's hesitation, O'Shea added, "If our girls can play."

Well. That's the question, isn't it? Sunday may well be remembered in SC soccer annals as a black one.

It started yesterday morning, when defender Jennifer Whitfield woke up with a very black-and-blue ankle. Preliminary diagnosis: possible ligament damage. She could be out two weeks.

REMEMBER, THE Lady Ocelots have no bench. At all. No substitutes. So they started Sunday's game against the nation's No. 1 team with 10 players.

It didn't stay that way long. With five minutes left in the first half, forward Carol Pietila turned to run, twisted her knee and went down. Preliminary diagnosis: anterior cruciate ligament sprain or tear. She was transported to the hospital by assistant coach Dawn Gabriel.

Had Gabriel waited 15 minutes, she would have had another passenger. Two minutes into the second half, Nikki Johnson collided with a Meramec player and injured her knee, too. Preliminary diagnosis: another anterior cruciate ligament sprain or tear.

For the last 43 minutes of the game, SC was forced to play eight against 11. It was surprising the Ocelots were able to keep the score that close.

Meramec, which won the tournament with two victories — Monroe CC (Rochester, N.Y.) was its victim Saturday by a 3-0 margin — opened the scoring in the game's second minute when Jamie Casillas (the tournament's offensive MVP) beat Shannon Meath celebrates her game-winning goal with teammates during Saturday's 1-0 victory over Florissant Valley CC.

SC keeper Kim Owczarzak to the ball and dribbled it into the net. THE OCELOTS tied it with 20 minutes left in the half. Shannon Meath was knocked down in front of the Meramec goal and a penalty kick was awarded, which Lori Place converted to make it 1-1.

Meramec got the game-winner with 15 minutes left. Dana Schmedeke's corner kick was headed into the net by Chris Fernandez.

It was a valiant effort by SC; for Meramec, though, it was hardly inspiring. To be fair, Meramec was at less than full strength, too; midfielder Kelly Watson was out with a leg injury suffered in Saturday's game, and two reserves were ill.

"She's the type of player who can penetrate with the ball," Meramec coach Jeff Karl said of Watson. "We played on the perimeter too much and didn't penetrate the way we should have. But that's (a lack of) experience."

"It might have been an ugly victory, but a win's a win."

THAT WAS similar to what O'Shea said after Saturday's 1-0 win over Florissant Valley CC (St. Louis), a team SC lost to earlier in the season by a 3-2 margin.

The only goal of Saturday's game was scored with five minutes left in the first half. A throw-in from Amy Krajewski (the tourney's defensive MVP) reached Place in front of the Flo Valley net, and she headed it to Meath, who headed it in.

"It wasn't pretty, but it was a win," said O'Shea. "The first half was OK, but we had trouble in the second."

And what was O'Shea hoping for in the first game? "No injuries," he replied. "I was hoping to see no injuries, and I didn't."

Unfortunately, those came Sunday.

What O'Shea did see that he liked was improved play by his keeper, Owczarzak. In spite of Meramec's constant pressure Sunday, Owczarzak — from Farmington — didn't fold. If SC survives and makes it to the NJCAA Tournament, she will have to continue that type of play.

However, if either Johnson or Pietila are sidelined for the season, SC's season could be over as well.

It's all a matter of numbers. And SC doesn't have them.

Schoolcraft whips OCC in volleyball

It was more a tune-up than a challenge.

Schoolcraft College used Thursday's match at Oakland Community College for just that. There wasn't much else it was good for — the Ocelots rolled 15-2, 15-1, 15-3.

But the lopsided match was useful in helping SC switch from its two-setter offense to one, after the loss of Nancy Ehlert to a knee injury. It is not certain when — or if — Ehlert will return this season.

"We're trying to prepare our offense for more difficult teams in the region, down the line," said SC coach Tom Teeters.

One of those challenges will come Tuesday, when the Ocelots play at Henry Ford CC. They are tied for second in the Eastern Conference, each having one loss.

Against OCC, Kari Van Deusen led SC with 11 kills and two solo blocks. Stephanie Jandasek contributed seven kills, two service aces and six digs; Renea Bonser had five kills, 13 digs and six aces; Keli Haeger collected 23 assists-to-kills; and Julie Wood netted eight digs and two aces. SC is 23-8 overall, 5-1 in the conference. OCC is winless in conference play.

ing yardage. Kalhorn caught three passes for 98 yards.

THE CHIEFS, who have scored only seven points in regulation play in their last four games, adjusted their offense and went to the passing game more.

Canton quarterback Kevin Shankie completed 17 of 27 passes for 133 yards, but most were short passes into the flats. Eric Cunningham had seven catches for 63 yards. The Chiefs rushed for only 61, Steve Hohl getting 46 on eight attempts.

"We had to change our offense a little bit to try and score some points," Canton coach Bob Khoenle said. "We have to get in the end zone any way we can, which was not very good tonight, either. Maybe we'll go to the run-and-shoot next."

"Offensively, we can't generate anything. We moved it with short passes, but you can only do that so long. We have no speed and everybody knows it. They just dare us to run outside and when we do they catch us."

Western made it 21-0 when Watkins ran 6 yards for a TD in the third quarter. Travis Iacqua, who just missed on field goals from 38 and 47 yards, kicked three extra points.

Canton moved the ball to the Western 7-yard line early in the fourth quarter but lost possession on a fumble. The Chiefs were driving again when a Kalhorn interception cut short that possession, too.

"We ran, we tackled, we did everything we had to do," Apap said. "If they had to drive doing the little things, we were hoping to come up with a big play to stop them and we did."

WLW girls win division

Walled Lake Western ended Plymouth Canton's string of five consecutive division championships in girls cross country, finishing with a 5-0 record Thursday after beating the Chiefs 23-32.

Canton concluded the dual-meet season at 3-2 in the Western Division of the Western Lakes Activities Association and 3-3 overall.

Lana Boroditsch gave the Chiefs first place with a time of 20:15 on the Cass Benton course, but Western captured the next three places and five of the top eight.

Scoring for Canton were Anne Dibble, fifth (21:45); Laura McWilliams, seventh (22:14); Kathleen Landelius, ninth (22:31); and Michelle Magers, 10th (22:57).

The Warriors competed without their top runner, Jennifer Ray, who has a knee injury and might not run Wednesday in the WLAA meet at Cass Benton. Bridget Byrne was second (20:44) for Western, Wendy Proos third (21:24) and Colleen Ortwine fourth (21:39).

Rocks show who's best when they rout Rockets

By Brad Emons
staff writer

The overall records going in were an identical 8-4, but it was a mismatch virtually from the opening tap.

Plymouth Salem took little time Thursday in dismantling host Westland John Glenn in a Western Lakes Activities Association girls basketball game, 59-30.

Salem remains atop the 12-school WLAA heap with a 7-0 record. The Rocks are now 9-4 overall. Glenn falls to 8-5 overall and 4-3 in the league.

It took only one quarter to figure the outcome.

Salem limited the Rockets to only four shots from the field in the opening quarter en route to a commanding 19-6 lead.

Emily Giuliani scored nine of her 11 points during the surge.

But it was Salem's smothering man-to-man defense that did the damage, resulting in seven Glenn first-quarter turnovers.

"We knew they were short at guard because of (Karen) Olack (knee injury) being out, so we wanted to keep the heat on Rachwal (Carrie), and we were fortunate to do that," Salem coach Fred Thomann said. "That set the tone of the game for us."

RACHWAL, the Rockets' top scorer and converted point-guard, got little room to operate against Salem's hawking guard duo of Leslie Gots and Christy Parimucha.

The final three quarters resembled more of the same with Glenn

girls basketball

More basketball, Page 4B

unable to execute offensively or stop Salem from scoring.

Salem increased its halftime lead to 32-12 and led by 23 after three quarters, 45-22, before coasting home. (Glenn hit only eight of 32 shots from the floor for 25 percent.)

"They (Salem) have good size, they're strong and they're guards are able to push the ball up the floor," Glenn coach Pat Bennett said. "Their big people can run the court. They're a very polished team."

Darcie Miller, Salem's 6-foot-1 senior center, led all scorers with 14 points to pace a balanced attack. Giuliani, the 6-foot senior, contributed 11, while forward Cyndi Platter chipped in with eight. Parimucha, Martha Bol and Shelly Sockow each added six.

Cathy Mruk, a 5-11 senior center, was the only Glenn player in double figures with 10. Rachwal suffered an off-night with just four.

"It's troubling, having to play all the time with Karen (Olack) out of the lineup because of her passing alone," Bennett said. "Sometimes Carrie has been able to handle it all by herself, but tonight they handled her."

"We hope she (Olack) can be ready by tourney time."

SALEM, MEANWHILE, which played a tough non-league schedule against some of the state's top-ranked teams, appears to be rounding into mid-season form.

"I think we defend and rebound better than we did earlier this year," Thomann said. "We're also better passing the ball and we catch the ball better. We move the ball with a lot more confidence and purpose."

"We're getting better, period, and that's the major thing happening with this team."

The only negative on the night was Salem's free throw shooting.

The Rocks hit just 46.4 percent from the line (13 of 28). They were 38.3 from the field (23 of 60).

"That's about right for us," Thomann said. "For some reason we don't wish them like we can."

But the Rocks are a care-free cast who appear to enjoy playing.

"They have a nice, relaxed 'whatever happens, happens' type of attitude," Thomann said. "They play hard and they're very competitive. They also have nice goals and aspirations as a team. They're fun to be around. They are a loose group."

STEVENSON 55, N.FARMINGTON 35: The host Spartans took a 28-13 halftime lead and maintained a safe lead to improve to 6-1 in the WLAA.

Karen Groulx had 12 points, Mo Drabicki 11 and Lori Shingledecke nine for Stevenson (10-2). Drabicki also had 11 assists and seven rebounds.

Senior Karen Seremet scored 13 points and freshman Alisha Gordon 12 for the Raiders, who are 2-5 in the WLAA and 3-9 overall.

Roughriders nip Eagles in foul-filled game, 42-41

Ernie Righetti called it "the craziest game I've ever seen in 20 years of coaching."

He was referring to his Roper team's bizarre 42-41 Michigan Independent Athletic Association overtime victory over Plymouth Christian Friday evening in Bloomfield Hills.

The game took over two hours to complete.

Why? The teams were assessed with a combined total of 94 fouls. Plymouth Christian was whistled for 50 fouls and Roper 44.

As a result, just five players - three for Roper and two for Christian - were on the floor when the game ended. Five players fouled out of the game for Roper and six Plymouth Christian players fouled out.

It was a low-scoring affair right from the start. Plymouth Christian held a 7-2 lead after the first quarter and hiked the advantage to 17-9 by halftime.

The Roughriders rebounded in the third quarter with a 20-6 scoring advantage and took a 29-23 lead entering the final quarter. Plymouth Christian, however, fought back to tie the game.

Roper's Tiffany See had a chance to win the game in regulation time. With five seconds left, she made the front end of a one-and-one to tie the game at 38-38. She missed the second shot which forced overtime. It was her only point.

Plymouth Christian took a 41-40 lead in the overtime. With 35 seconds left, sophomore forward Sara Lakkides hit two free throws to win the game. Lakkides finished with seven points.

Sarah Talpos led Roper with nine points. Plymouth Christian's Sherrie Reed scored 16 points.

girls basketball

The Eagles are 10-2 overall, Roper 7-5.

LADYWOOD 51, DIVINE CHILD 39: Mary Jo Kelly scored 16 points and teammate Janet Davis added 15 as Livonia Ladywood bounced Dearborn Divine Child in a Catholic League Central Division encounter on Thursday.

"The outside shooting helped," Ladywood coach Ed Kavanaugh said. "That was the difference for us."

Kelly hit three 3-pointers, while Davis added two for the host Blazers.

Ladywood is 9-5 overall and 3-3 in the Central, while the Falcons slipped to 6-8 overall and 0-6 in the division.

Dawn Pelc and Jessica Toth tallied 14 and 12, respectively, for DC, which trailed 27-22 at intermission.

"It was kind of an unemotional game for us after Tuesday's game (a 53-51 win) with Mercy," Kavanaugh said. "We played just good enough to win."

MERCY 45, FLINT S'WESTERN 40: The Marlins shot only 50 percent at the free throw line Thursday night, but Mercy got enough points there to beat host Flint Southwestern in girls basketball.

Mercy outscored the Lady Colts 17-4 at the charity stripe. The Marlins attempted 34 free throws, Southwestern seven.

"We certainly didn't get homered, but it gives you an indication how they came at us," Mercy coach Larry Baker said. "They usually play a wide-open style - and they did. They played very clean but aggressive."

The Marlins played more cautiously since they didn't have a full complement of healthy players. Dana Wade missed the game because of an ankle injury, and Valire Jones and Kathleen Berrigan were battling the flu.

"So we had to be a little hands-off on defense, which accounts for the disparity in fouls," Baker said. "I only kept 10 girls this year. I looked down the bench, and it wasn't very long tonight."

Laure DeMattia led the Marlins (9-4) with 17 points, which included 7-of-13 free throw shooting. Berrigan added nine, Marshelle Brooks eight and Katie Heffernan six.

"We wanted this game to help us at this point in the season," Baker said, "and I was pleased to see a little more scoring from those two (Brooks and Heffernan)."

Berrigan, the point guard, and Mary Bieniewicz were the top rebounders with 12 apiece.

Najah Jackson scored a game-high 20 points for the Lady Colts (7-7), including three three-point field goals. Mercy had quarter leads of 18-11, 28-23 and 33-32.

STEVENSON 55, N.FARMINGTON 35: The host Spartans took a 28-13 halftime lead and maintained a safe lead to improve to 6-1 in the WLAA.

Karen Groulx had 12 points, Mo Drabicki 11 and Lori Shingledecker nine for Stevenson (10-2). Drabicki also had 11 assists and seven rebounds.

Senior Karen Seremet scored 13 points and freshman Alisha Gordon 12 for the Raiders, who are 2-5 in the WLAA and 3-9 overall.

Van Sant's 'Private Idaho' explores new territory

Narcolepsy is a condition in which the afflicted can fall asleep quite unexpectedly, perhaps in the middle of a sentence or a plate of food. For Mike, a young street hustler, it happens at the worst conceivable times, while walking across the highway or preparing to make love to a beautiful woman. He has no idea where and when (or even if) he'll wake up. I found myself traveling similar territory in "My Own Private Idaho," the new film from Gus Van Sant, the director of the acclaimed "Drugstore Cowboy." Like Mike, the plot of the film nods off every once in awhile but can wake up to some pretty exciting ideas. Mike (River Phoenix) usually gets picked up and dusted off by a fellow hustler named Scott (Keanu Reeves). Although depicted by two of Hollywood's most appealing young actors, the lives they lead are anything but glamorous. They turn tricks with the weirdest of customers and often sleep on rooftops in roughly constructed shelters. PHOENIX especially is almost unrecognizable, with his shaggy sideburns and the perpetual expression of someone who has just awoken

tickets please

from an unsatisfying sleep. Reeves shines in a role considerably more mature than he has enjoyed in the "Bill and Ted" epics. He doesn't say "Hey, dude" — not even once. Van Sant's visual style, ever-inventive and quirky, offers memories of Mike's childhood represented by what appear to be home movies in washed out shades of red. One clever idea finds the subjects on the covers of porno magazines talking to each other across the racks. By design, "Private Idaho" is firmly rooted in Shakespeare, especially "Henry IV," where young Prince Hal spends his formative years under the tutelage of the drunken rogue Falstaff. Scott's Falstaff is named Bob, a bloated drug addict who lords over a small band of disciples in an abandoned Portland hotel. Together they rob victims with antique pistols and spend the money on cocaine and Falstaff beer.

AS IN THE play, Scott also knows that on his 21st birthday, he must leave Bob to take control of his family fortune. Unfortunately, all this dipping into the Bard doesn't add up to much. Those unfamiliar with Shakespeare will be frustrated and confused by Scott's frequent forays into Elizabethan English. Others who know the original work will likely be put off. Fortunately, the talented Van Sant peppers "Private Idaho" with enough honesty and inspiration to make it one of the most challenging independent films this year. It enjoys an exclusive run not at The Maple, but at the Main Theatre in Royal Oak.

'Tomorrow' squanders the talents of its cast

A young man falls in love with his older aunt by marriage and a scriptwriter uses their relationship to fuel his steamy radio soap opera. That's the premise of "Tune in Tomorrow," a 1990 film, now video, which squanders the talents of its actors and squashes any glimmer of humor with a leaden script and heavy handed direction. Set during 1951 in New Orleans, Keanu Reeves plays an earnest young news writer working for a radio station. Not that we actually see him do much work. He falls into an off-again, on-again romance with his Aunt Julia, actually the sister of his uncle's wife and his aunt by marriage, played by Barbara Hershey. She supposedly has a past that scandalizes the extended family, though what it is never becomes clear. She has been around enough to set her sights on snagging a wealthy older man, maybe with a bad heart. Entering the picture is a soap opera writer Peter Falk, who has fled an earlier job at a Detroit radio station under rather incendiary circumstances. He counsels Reeves on how to further his relationship with Her-

pass the popcorn

shey while eavesdropping or meddling to keep the pot stirred. THE RATINGS at the radio station go through the ceiling with the steamy and convoluted serial Falk churns out, often using dialogue lifted from Reeves and Hershey. He also draws the wrath of Albanians who for unexplained reasons bear the brunt of ethnic insults and stereotyping in the show "King of the Garden District."

The soap opera cast reads their lines with sound effects from the studio, then the film has enactments of the show as they might appear in listeners' imaginations. That subplot, featuring John Larroquette, Dan Hedaya, Peter Gallagher and Elizabeth McGovern, provide the only really funny moments in the film.

I was around in this era but I suspect a plot involving a brother announcing his incestuous relationship with his sister at her wedding, followed by her announcement that she is pregnant with her brother's child, wouldn't have made it on the air.

Even if it all works out in the end. Reeves and Hershey, usually reliable actors, don't connect with each other and their characters wouldn't be interested in each other except for that being required in the script. Reeves has a southern accent that does a Houdini in the middle of scenes.

AS FOR Falk, he isn't terrible, he just doesn't have much to work with to create a character. The film should be a light whimsical film instead of dragging along at a leaden pace.

This film is particularly disappointing with the fine cast that was available for this adaptation of an autobiographical novel by Mario Vargas Llosa. Much of the fault can be laid at the feet of writer William Boyd's unfocused script and director Jon Amiel's leaden pacing. Amiel directed the much better film "Queen of Hearts" which itself was a trifle muddled. The look of the picture is pretty and the score by Wynton Marsalis is better than most. Unfortunately, Amiel mixed together a lot of good ingredients and ended up with a flat pancake.

First lady says warm welcome made transition easy

By Pat Murphy
staff writer

Michelle Engler likes her marriage, and likes being Michigan's first lady — and it shows. "John is the best thing that ever happened to me," she said last week at a luncheon meeting of the Birmingham Republican Women's Club. "And he'll be the best thing that ever happened to Michigan."

The former Michelle DeMunbrun — who became Mrs. John Engler last December, and Michigan's first lady a month later — talked about the transition into both roles with anecdotes and insight, to the delight of about 100 club members and guests. During the question and answer session, some club members asked about policy matters — like the future of MET (Michigan Education Trust), the tuition guarantee program initiated under Gov. James Blanchard, but under close review by the Engler administration.

But Michelle Engler, a former trial attorney, said she'd rather talk about matters that didn't pertain to official state policies. She is knowledgeable on some issues, but the first lady said she's concerned her private comments might be interpreted as official policy.

For the time being, consequently, she'd rather talk about other non-governmental things — like the adjustment from life as a Texas lawyer to life in the fast lane of Michigan politics.

SHE WENT TO college and law school at the University of Texas, Michelle Engler said. Although she was a partner in a prestigious Houston law firm, she considered herself a typical Texan, "who never lived north of Austin."

She met Engler, then a state senator, through a mutual friend and learned about Michigan as their friendship developed.

The transition from Texas to Michigan was easier, Michelle Engler said, because people were warm, friendly and welcoming. "They didn't have a clue who I was," she said, dismissing notions her reception might have been linked to her future status as the governor's wife.

Living life in a fish bowl — while getting used to a new husband, a different state and a public role — has been enjoyable and rewarding, she said, with two exceptions: She and her new husband don't have enough private time, and she has no secrets.

"There are newspaper stories about what I wear, my hair, my mouth — even my dog," she said. "But I asked for it."

Being the state's first lady involves meeting impressive people like Lech Walesa, founder of the Polish labor union Solidarity, and Margaret Thatcher, former prime minister of England.

Among her favorites, however, are Barbara Bush — because of her down-to-earth approach to life — and school children, because of their openness.

After students at one elementary school learned she was 32 years old, for example, "they asked if I knew Abe Lincoln," she recalled.

THE SAME STUDENTS thought her state police security escort "was a wimp," the first lady chuckled.

In light of her reluctance to discuss policy matters, Michelle Engler was asked a personal question. "Tell us something private about John Engler," urged Cris Burnard, the club's first vice president.

"I shouldn't," responded Mrs. Engler.

Then, almost blushing, she responded. "Shortly after we moved into the governor's mansion (in Lansing), we were brushing our teeth together and John needed some toothpaste.

"I offered some of mine," she recalled. "But he said, 'Michelle, I'm the governor of Michigan. I want my own toothpaste.'"

Michelle Engler said she sometimes gets angry about criticism aimed at her husband, "particularly when it's based on half truths or total inaccuracy. If people took the time to know my husband, they'd find he is warm, sensitive . . . and witty."

PAIN IN THE KNEE THAT YOU FEEL IN YOUR BACK

Pain in the knee that you feel in your low back results from mechanical stress on your vertebrae and pelvis. The initial problem is in the knee, either arthritis, a ligament tear, or a frayed meniscus. You lose the natural swing of your gait and can no longer easily walk upright.

To stop knee pain you must adopt a forward-flexed posture: your body is hunched like a runner lurching forward across the finish line.

This way of walking when prolonged, stresses the deep back muscles. Usually the back can accept the change. However, if you already have a back muscle strain, or a degree of osteoporosis, then the added stress from your forward-flexed gait is too great a burden for the back. The vertebrae protest in the form of chronic back pain; the low back is the usual site as the muscles concerned with stabilizing flexion begin in the coccyx and pelvis.

Proper treatment of this ache is not directed to the back but to the knees: stopping this pain is the only way to return you to the usual upright walk. Thus, when you complain of back ache, your physician is likely to look at your legs before examining your back. He will direct attention toward resolving the knee pain with the expectation that doing so will negate the need to go further.

When flu bug bites eat soup

It only takes one debilitating sickness to throw your lifestyle topsy-turvy while turning you into something that feels like a pile of dirty laundry.

A week or so ago, I knew something was coming on. It started with a cough. A minor cough at first, but it slowly escalated into something deeper. As the hit TV sitcom says "life goes on" and so it did.

Nothing changed while I continued to change my oil, cultivate my garden, attend meetings and do the finishing touches on my new kitchen. On Sunday night, the old flu hit like a ton of bricks, bringing me to my knees and pain to every part of my body.

I did what every busy person does when they get sick. Popped a few thousand Vitamin C's, rested whenever I had the time, and took Contac between Tylenol and occasional swishes of cough syrup.

That Wednesday, the doctor confirmed my diagnosis. "You have a full blown chest cold and flu," she chortled prescribing antibiotics, decongestants, elixirs and more Tylenol. But did that stop me? Hardly.

I still had classes to teach, stories to edit, people to contact and interview, and I was just hours away from finishing the kitchen. I did all that within three days, and by the fourth, ended up spending Saturday night in Botsford Hospital's Emergency room talking food with a displaced South Chicagoan doctor while waiting for blood tests and chest X-rays that confirmed my bacterial pneumonia.

Sick chefs get little sympathy. Ask any professional chef in Metropolitan Detroit what he or she does when they get sick and the answer is always the same: "The kitchen is always open."

MY ONLY wish is that when other professional chefs get sick (and I hope they don't) that they have friends and family who bring on the soup. Hot and homemade. Light, subtly flavored simply with parsley, maybe a hint of celery and carrot but certainly nothing more.

First, there was the familiar bowl that last time around was filled with soup for friend George Cook of Southfield who wandered by with the proverbial chicken soup. Made with a whole chicken that simmered "well into the night," this soup was like an essence.

Married into a Jewish family, he quickly learned the medicinal and culinary values of chicken soup. This soup echoed "breathe me" with just supple wisps of chicken floating in a lighter than air broth decorated with just a hint of celery leaf and parsley.

When word of my illness reached Wyandotte, it took momma and dad only about 3 hours to make their way to western suburbia with a beefy based soup that had the directions, "Start with the broth and then eat all the vegetables you can."

MOMMA IS the only person I know who can send dad to the butchers for a soup bone and make a rich brown broth with just a hint of pepper (enough to clear a sinus or two) in the time it takes me to find a soup pot.

By the third day of popping real penicillin, Jewish penicillin and momma's penicillin, I was feeling better. Still in the mood to allow the stomach just a little more, I opted for some homemade tomato soup, finally finding a home for those tomatoes that, if left to sit any longer, would have been home to a family of fruitflies. The easy results were delicious and tummy warming.

Even as I write this, I'm daring the thought of something like an overpowered French Onion slathered in olive oil and bubly cheese. Who knows, maybe tomorrow. May you never get pneumonia, but if you do, try these great homemade medicinal makeovers. They work.

2-career families

Chaos in kitchen can be controlled

By Joan Boram
special writer

"Nothing in life prepares you for having a career and children — the chaos that comes with it," said Kathy Tanner mother of two.

Kathy, a public relations manager at General Motors Corporation, and husband Mike, a GM engineer, hit rock bottom organization-wise, about four years ago.

"We had the same live-in housekeeper with us since the boys, Sean and Mike Jr. now 11 and 12 were born," said Mike. "Then she got married and left us. It was as if all four of us were orphaned at the same time."

The Tanners, Bloomfield Township residents, were rescued by a book, "Sidetracked Home Executives," by Pam Young and Peggy Jones whose motto is: "We change lives with 3 x 5's."

Kathy and Mike took the author's advice.

"Everything we need to do or buy is written down," said Kathy. "I have two pages of items that we need from the supermarket, categorized by type; canned goods, frozen foods, etc. I make 52 copies of these master lists, and fresh ones are posted on the refrigerator every Sunday. Everybody is responsible for checking off items that we need or want."

Once a week, all four of us go to the supermarket. Mike Jr. and Sean take the cents-off coupons, and they get 10 percent of the money we save on the items they find."

Mike was a pretty good cook when he got married, and since he gets home about an hour earlier than Kathy, he does most of the cooking. Kathy and the boys clean up after dinner, and she does the cooking on weekends.

"I worked up eight or 10 recipes, and I just stick with those," said Mike. "We have meat loaf, or pork chops, or chicken baked in a dish basted with seasoned salad dressing."

"I use lots of prepared cooking aids: the spike packs for meat loaf, seasoned bread crumbs for chicken, and Stovetop Stuffing for pork chops. Rice-A-Roni is a favorite.

"I don't cook quantity and freeze for the future. Portion control is the name of the game," said Mike, the engineer. "I stop at a produce store on the way home for fresh vegetables. Sometimes it's green beans or spaghetti squash: the kids love it and it's fun to cook. I make mashed potatoes from scratch because they taste better, and because it's less work than making them from a box."

"We don't eat a lot of fast foods. Sometimes we have pizza on Fridays to celebrate no homework, or if the kids are going to soccer or Karate (the whole family has black belts), we'll have frozen dinners."

When Mike works late, Kathy cooks. But whomever gets home first makes a little plate of hors d'oeuvres as a treat for the other one.

"Nothing elaborate," said Mike. "Maybe crackers with a little deviled ham on top, or a corn cake with peanut butter or cheese. Just enough to say, 'welcome home.'"

Arno and Emma of Livonia have a lot in common with the Tanners. There are two boys in their family also, Joel, 16, and Marc, 13. One parent travels frequently, leaving the other to run the family.

Kathy Tanner's job requires extensive travel, and Arno, a roofing specialist with Construction Consultants, Inc. has just returned from a month-long assignment in California.

But well-fed families are not all alike. For one thing, Emma, a nurse at St. Mary Hospital in Livonia, cooks and freezes extra portions.

"I found lasagna pans that are the same length as the noodles, so I make three pans at a time and freeze them using the recipe on the box. If I put one of the lower shelf of the fridge before I go to work, it'll be thawed when I come home and bake in a half-hour."

"Or, I'll make a crockpot of chili, and freeze individual portions, so anybody can pop one into the microwave whenever they're hungry."

"An oven with a timer is a blessing. If I know I'm going to be wiped out when I get home, I wrap a frozen pot roast in foil with vegetables, put it in the oven and set the timer. Dinner is cooked when I get home, and it looks like I slaved all day."

Emma is less intimidated by supermarkets than the Tanners, so she's more likely to shop spontaneously than to carry a list.

"I'm not particularly organized. I jot things down when we run out of them, but I buy what strikes my fancy."

Stir-fry for meals in minutes family tested winner dinner

Betsy Brethen

Going stir-crazy trying to prepare quick and nutritious meals? Then, start stir-frying, and your dinner woes will be over.

Submitted by Dianne Anderson of Livonia, this week's Winner Dinner offers recipes for a delicious meal that tastes great, looks great and is fun to make. Featuring chicken and broccoli stir-fry, rice pilaf, popovers and pistachio cake, this meal can be assembled and ready to eat in an hour.

ANDERSON IS married and the busy mother of three children. Home during the day with her children, she works three or four nights a week as a secretary and receptionist for Mayfair Realtors in Livonia.

She is a first grade room mother at one of her son's schools, and on the board of the Mother Hubbard Nursery School for her other son. Twice a month, Anderson teaches Sunday School at Cherry Hill Baptist Church in Dearborn where her husband, Daryl, volunteers and works as the church moderator.

Anderson is also involved in the Young Edition, a group for young adults, both single and married, who get together once a month for various activities.

She bowls weekly with ladies in her subdivision and regularly attends Bible class. Anderson and her family can often be found out riding their bikes, and recently rode on a three-mile long trail all around Kensington Lake.

Anderson loves to cook and especially enjoys baking. A few weeks ago, she and her family went apple picking and the fruits of their labor ended up in apple pies and apple crisps that were enjoyed by all.

Thank you, Dianne Anderson, for sharing your recipes with us and best wishes to you and your family. I hope that more of you loyal readers will take a few moments to jot down your family's favorite recipes. I am especially looking for recipes for Middle Eastern or Indian cuisine that are easy to make and heart smart.

Recipes

CHICKEN AND BROCCOLI STIR FRY

Quick and easy to make, this is a super supper. For added flavor, be sure to use fresh garlic and fresh ginger root, both of which are easily obtained in the produce section of any grocery store. This recipe serves 5-6.

- 4-5 chicken breasts, skinned, boned and cut up into bite-sized pieces
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch, divided
- 4 tablespoons soy sauce, divided
- 2 teaspoons minced fresh ginger root or ground ginger
- 1-2 cloves fresh garlic, minced
- 1 bunch broccoli, cut into flowerettes
- 4 carrots, peeled and sliced
- 3-4 tablespoons peanut oil, divided
- 1 onion, chunked or sliced

Combine 1 tablespoon each of cornstarch and soy sauce. Stir in the ginger and garlic. Pour onto the meat which has been cut up and placed in a bowl. Mix well, making sure that each piece of meat is coated with the mixture, and let stand for 20-30 minutes.

Combine the remaining 1 tablespoon of cornstarch and 3 tablespoons of soy sauce with 1 cup of water; set aside. Heat 1/2 tablespoons of oil in a wok or large skillet over high heat. Add the meat and stir fry until browned or no longer pink; remove from wok and cover to keep warm.

Heat the remaining 2 1/2 tablespoons of oil in the same wok. Add the broccoli, carrots and onions and stir fry about 4 minutes or until the vegetables are crisp tender. Stir in the meat and the soy sauce mixture and bring to a boil. Cook and stir until the sauce thickens. Serve immediately over the rice pilaf.

- RICE PILAF
- 4 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 cup broken egg noodles
- 1 cup rice
- 1 can chicken broth, 15 1/2 ounce size

In a skillet or frying pan, melt 4 tablespoons butter or margarine and add 1 cup broken egg noodles and brown. Add the rice and the chicken broth. Bring to a boil. Lower the heat and simmer for 25-30 minutes.

- POPOVERS
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup milk

Preheat the oven to 450 degrees. Generously grease muffin tins. In a small bowl, beat eggs slightly. Add the remaining ingredients and beat just until blended. Do not overbeat. Fill the prepared cup half full. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 minutes, then reduce the oven temperature to 325 degrees and bake for 10 more minutes or until deep golden brown. This recipe makes 8-10 popovers.

PISTACHIO CAKE

- 4 eggs
- 1 box yellow cake mix
- 1 package pistachio pudding
- 1/4 cup oil
- 1/4 cup water
- Confectioner's sugar

Mix the eggs well and add the remaining ingredients. Beat for 5 minutes. Pour the mixture into an ungreased bundt cake pan and bake at 350 degrees for 50 minutes. Cool cake, then invert onto a plate. Sprinkle with powdered sugar. Note: a 9 x 13 baking dish can also be used; simply adjust the baking time according to the directions on the box.

Tasters pick favorite, red, white, sparkling wines

A wise man once said that "professionals and critics both may wax upon the attributes and composition of wines, but it is the consumer's perception which decides each wine's worthiness for enjoyment."

Because of the thousands of wine brands available in Michigan, many consumers use the rankings of wine writers, the advice of friends or the experience of a wine merchant to make purchasing decisions.

The majority of consumers do not make their own wine buying decisions because they have limited opportunities to personally taste a wide sampling of brands.

ONCE EACH year, Dennis Walsh, owner of Ye Olde Wine Shoppe (South Blvd. and Crooks Road) sponsors what he calls "The Great Wine Shootout." Recently, at Glen Oaks Golf Club, 225 wine consumers paid to taste approximately 60 newly released wines from California. Each participant cast a secret ballot to select "the People's Choice" of red, white and sparkling wines.

Walsh, a longtime advocate of reasonably priced, quality wines, invites 12 metropolitan distributors to each pour five of their best new wines. In many cases, these wines have just arrived from the West Coast.

"This is the most popular consumer event that I run each year," said Walsh, who also sponsors "The Wine-tasters" club. For information about The Wine-tasters and their dinner and tasting events, call Dennis Walsh at 852-5533.

WE PARTICIPATED in this year's "Great Wine Shootout" and sampled many quality wines. But more importantly, let's mention the wines that won the People's Choice Award according to the secret ballot taken at the close of the evening.

focus on wine
Eleanor and Ray Heald

It should be pointed out that attendees tasted and voted for wines without knowing retail prices. They based their choices on their perception of the wine's quality alone.

In the red category, the preferred wine was the 1989 Leonetti Merlot ($21) from Washington State. Following close behind were the 1990 Markham Merlot ($16), the 1986 Simi Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon ($30) and the 1987 Chateau St. Jean Cabernet Sauvignon ($23).

WASHINGTON STATE has a record for producing excellent mer-

The 1989 Bonny Doon Muscat Canelli "Ice Wine" ($17/$75ml) is a deliciously, sweet dessert style wine that swept people off their feet. Who says that people don't like well-styled sweet wines? Placing third and fourth were the 1989 Dehlinger Chardonnay ($14) and the 1990 Caymus Conundrum ($25).

We believe the popularity of Conundrum points up the fact that since tasters didn't know the prices, they judged the wines strictly on what they found attractive. For this wine, there is little price/quality relationship. Its forward, almost heady fruit is attention grabbing, but the one-dimensional flavor profile soon becomes boring with food.

In the sparkling wine division, the Roederer Estate Brut ($21) from Anderson Valley was the clear winner. Given the ever-upward spiraling prices of French champagne, it is an excellent wine to buy for upcoming holiday entertaining.

WINE SELECTION OF THE WEEK

1990 Flora Springs Sauvignon Blanc ($11) is the wine we liked second best to the 1988 William Hill Reserve Chardonnay that captured the Great Wine Shootout award in the white wine category. The fact that this wine didn't show among the top three leaves us wondering whether people are still walking by sauvignon blanc because they're turned off by grassier styles. We encourage those of you who are bored with the sameness of many chardonnays to try the 1990 sauvignon blanc from Flora Springs. It has bright, melony aromas and fruit flavors. With generous mouthfilling fruit complexities and a solid, satisfying finish, it will harmonize with grilled fish, chicken or pastas with cream sauce.

Two-career families share after work meal tips

See related story on Taste front.

By Joan Boram special writer

Some time ago, the Bloomfield Township subdivision where the Tanner family lives decided to put together a cookbook. The only person in the family with a recipe was Sean, who had invented a milkshake that tastes like Reese's Peanut Butter Cups.

There's a lesson here; namely, recipes do not figure prominently in the kitchens of those of us who are trying to hold down a full-time job and feed a family 365 days a year. Sure, "Roasted and Grilled Vegetables with Garlic-and-Herb Oil" sounds good (and probably is), but in real life, it's Shake 'n Bake every time.

As both Emma Alholinna and Mike Tanner indicated, however, there are extra touches that can make a family feel cherished as well as nourished. Here are some of them:

• Boboli (Mike): "Individual, partially baked, Italian bread shells. Add your own toppings. A good way to get the kids to eat vegetables — let them make their own pizzas, with veggies and cheese! (Also a good way to get rid of leftovers.)"

• Shish Kabobs (Mike): "Just make them up the night before, and marinate in beef bouillon for extra flavor. They're simple to cook, but look special."

• Frozen Bread (Emma): "It's wonderful stuff. When I want Arno to have a homey reception when he comes through the door, I bake a loaf of bread from frozen dough. Or, if I'm not making a particularly nice meal, I slice the thawed dough, put the slices in a greased 9-inch pan, and let them raise. When they're baked, they're like homemade pull-apart rolls. Or, thaw the bread, slice, twist the slices and roll them in sugar and cinnamon. A good snack with milk or coffee."

• Cool Whip (Emma): "Very handy for a festive look. Put banana slices on the bottom of an individual serving dish and top with pudding. When ready to serve, add Cool Whip and a cherry."

• Slice apples into a baking dish, add a couple of tablespoons of water, and dabs of butter, cinnamon and brown sugar. Bake a few minutes, until the apples are tender. The whole house smells like apple pie. Remove from oven, add a dash of Cool Whip; they'll never miss the crust!" (Emma)

• Neither family uses their microwave much. Mike uses it for baking potatoes, but not for thawing chicken, because he maintains that the outer part of the chicken cooks a little during the thawing process.

Emma uses her microwave to do a little something extra for a meal at the last minute.

For example, cut an acorn squash in half, add a dab of butter, a little brown sugar and cinnamon, and zap in the microwave for a few minutes, until done.

• Sean's recipe for peanut butter cup milk shake: 2 scoops of ice cream; ¼ cup milk; 1 tablespoon Nestle's Quik, 2 tablespoons; creamy peanut butter. Mix in blender.

"Sidetracked Home Executives" and "The Sidetracked Sisters Catch-up in the Kitchen" are published in paperback editions by Warner Books.

And, the last word, from Kathy Tanner: "When you cook on Sunday, wear a frilly apron. You'll feel like you stepped right out of a Norman Rockwell painting!"

Entree pairs turkey, apples

Apples are in season, and Michigan is one of the nation's leading producers of apples. Michigan currently produces an average of 20 million bushels of apples per year, up from an average of 16 million in the 1970s.

Here's a recipe that combines turkey and apples for a seasonal treat.

TURKEY PINWHEEL

- 1 cup finely chopped, unpeeled, red Michigan apples
- 1/2 cup shredded carrot
- 1/2 cup thinly sliced celery
- 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
- 1 cup cooked rice
- 1 1/2 pounds ground turkey
- 1/4 cup finely chopped onion
- 1 egg
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
- 2 teaspoons Dijon mustard
- 3 slices (2 oz.) American cheese
- Paprika

In 4-cup glass, liquid measuring cup, combine apples, carrot and celery. Microwave on High 3 minutes. Remove from microwave and stir in poultry seasoning and rice; set aside.

Thoroughly combine turkey, onion, egg, salt, garlic powder and mustard. On waxed paper, pat mixture into 12-by-9-inch rectangle. Spread apple mixture evenly over meat. Starting with short side, roll up meat. Place seam-side down, in shallow microwave-safe dish.

Cover loosely with waxed paper and microwave on High 10 minutes or until turkey is done, turning dish every 2 minutes. Place cheese on top and microwave on High 30 seconds longer. Let stand 5 minutes before serving. Garnish with paprika.

Yield: 6 servings.

Per Serving: 300 calories; 1 g dietary fiber; 10 g fat.

Conventional Method: Prepare as above omitting cooking in Step 1. Bake in 350 degrees F. oven about 35 minutes. Place cheese on top and bake 5 minutes longer or until cheese is melted. Garnish with paprika.

Suggested Michigan apples to use: Empire, Ida Red, Jonathan, McIntosh, Rome.

Microwave cooking time may vary depending on oven wattage. Recipe tested in 650 watt microwave.

Chocolate zucchini cake super for potluck suppers

When it's Lois Drake's turn to make dessert for potluck supper, everyone looks forward to her delicious chocolate zucchini cake. Unfortunately, she lost the recipe, and called to get a copy.

"My family isn't cake oriented, but they love this one," said Drake a Livonia resident. "It's so moist, so good, and has its own quality. It's almost like a nut bread."

After a little searching, we found the recipe in the Oct. 1, 1990 issue of Taste. The recipe appeared in Gundella's kitchen witch column. "I'm sure other readers would like to see this recipe again," said Drake. Here it is.

CHOCOLATE ZUCCHINI CAKE

- 1/2 cup white sugar
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1/4 cup butter or margarine (stick, not whipped)
- 1/4 cup vegetable oil
- 3 eggs
- 1/2 cup sour milk (you may add 1 teaspoon vinegar to sweet milk to sour it)
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 cups flour
- 1/4 cup dry cocoa

tidbits Keely Wygonik

- 2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon allspice
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 1/4 cup grated zucchini
- 1/2 cup diced zucchini
- 1 cup walnut meats
- 1 cup chocolate chips

Mix sugars, butter and oil together and cream until fluffy. Add eggs, sour milk and vanilla and beat until smooth.

In another bowl, mix the flour, cocoa, baking soda, allspice and cinnamon together. Add this flour mixture to the sugar, shortening and egg mixture. Beat until smooth.

Fold in the zucchini, nut meats, and chocolate chips — mix well.

Pour mixture into a greased and floured Bundt pan and bake at 325 degrees until it tests done (about 45 minutes to an hour).

Cool before removing from the pan. Cut into thick slices and serve. Do not frost this cake. It's very rich and doesn't need it.

Kids will gobble up snacks-on-a-stick

AP — Throwing a Halloween party for the kids? Serve these crunchy snacks-on-a-stick to your little band of ghosts and goblins. The only tricks to this recipe are the granola, cinnamon candies and dried apples. The rest is all treat.

CINNAMON-APPLE POPCORN BALLS

- 10 cups popped popcorn (about 1/2 cup unpopped)
- 1 1/2 cups granola
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup red cinnamon candies
- 1 tablespoon vinegar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- One 6-ounce package dried apples, finely chopped
- 10 wooden sticks

Remove any unpopped kernels from popped popcorn; discard. Place popcorn in greased 17-by-12-by-2-inch baking pan; stir in granola. Place in a 300-degree F oven.

For syrup, butter the sides of a 1 1/2-quart heavy saucepan. In the saucepan combine sugar, water, candies, vinegar and salt. Cook, uncovered, over medium-high heat until boiling, stirring constantly to dissolve sugar and candies; about 6 minutes. Avoid splashing syrup on the sides of the pan.

Carefully clip a candy thermometer to the side of the pan. Cook over medium heat until the thermometer registers 270 degrees F (soft-crack stage), stirring occasionally. The syrup should boil at a moderate, steady rate over the entire surface. (Reaching soft-crack stage should take 20 to 25 minutes.) Remove the pan from the heat; remove the thermometer.

Stir the dried apples into the popcorn mixture; pour the hot syrup over mixture. Stir gently to coat popcorn. Working quickly, with buttered hands, shape mixture into 10 to 12, 3-inch balls, placing a wooden stick in the center of each. Wrap the balls in clear plastic wrap. Makes 10 popcorn balls.

Marshmallows, nuts add flavor to crunchy popcorn

Ever since the Native Americans gave it to the Pilgrims, popcorn has been a great snack to share with friends. Popcorn is fun to make, it tastes great, it's low in calories and high in fiber. So celebrate National Popcorn Month with a pop — and a little help from Weight Watchers.

For those with a sweet tooth, try mouth-watering Marshmallow Popcorn Snack, a sweet, crunchy treat that both grown-ups and kids will love.

If you prefer your popcorn fast and "straight," try one of the new "light" microwave popcorns that contain less butter and fat. Or pop your own in a hot-air popper. Try leaving off the butter in favor of a sprinkle of Parmesan, chili, or curry powder.

If you still crave that buttery taste, melt a small amount of reduced fat and calorie margarine and toss lightly to coat.

Then share some with a friend, and have a poppin' good time!

Replace old wooden chopping board

"The old wooden chopping board that grandma used to use years ago should remain a thing of the past," warns Sylvia Treitman, home economist for the Oakland County Cooperative Extension Service.

Today, with the increased risk of salmonella from raw poultry or meats, the wood chopping board is not recommended. Wood is porous, therefore allowing dangerous bacteria to survive and multiply.

If you cut up a raw chicken on a wooden board, then cut up salad for dinner on the same board, bacteria can be transferred to the salad. Cooking the chicken destroys bacteria to make it safe, but the salad which is served raw may be contaminated.

Replace your wooden board with a new plastic, lucite or glass chopping board — all are very easy to clean and do not hold bacteria and can be washed in the dishwasher.

Use wooden boards strictly for decoration, or vegetables, breads and fruit. Call the food and nutrition hotline, Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., 858-0904 for more food safety or other food related questions

WE'RE CONCERNED ABOUT YESTERDAY'S NEWS.

News can appear one day and be gone the next. But the paper news is printed on an and should live on.

Last year, more than one third of all U.S. newsprint was recycled. And that number is growing every day.

Recycling is the one way we can all give something back.

Read. Then Recycle.

Dreyfuss plays one of history's imperfect heroes

Actor's fascination began in childhood

By Suzanne Gill

What's in a name can shape a lifetime's quest. Take, for example, actor-producer Richard Dreyfuss, who long believed himself related to French army captain Alfred Dreyfus, the central character in a 19th-century political scandal that shaped the Zionist movement and led to the separation of church and state in France.

Thanks to the Paul Muni film "The Life of Emile Zola," Dreyfuss (whose family name is Dreyfus) became fascinated with the Dreyfus Affair while still a child. Although he has since learned he has no blood ties to Alfred Dreyfus, the actor has clearly been drawn in spirit to pursue the questions of honor and justice the story raises.

Alfred Dreyfus' Jewish heritage and unbending personality made him a target for fellow officers conspiring to frame him in 1894 as a traitor to the government. Convicted and banished to Devil's Island, Dreyfus became a symbol in France of the movement against corruption in the military, the government and even the church.

In 1898, novelist and social philosopher Emile Zola ("Therese Raquin," "Nana") became obsessed with clearing Dreyfus' name and wrote a tract, "J'accuse," which stirred public sentiment. Meanwhile, Col. George Picquart, the newly appointed head of army counterintelligence, discovered Dreyfus had been framed for crimes committed by another officer. Despite his anti-Semitic sentiments, which were typical of the times, and a personal dislike of Dreyfus, Picquart chose to pursue the truth.

In his own film on the Dreyfus Affair, "Prisoner of Honor," debuting Saturday, Nov. 2, on HBO, actor Dreyfuss plays Picquart, an "imperfect hero," because Picquart stepped out "of narrow, blinkered provincialism, to something greater"—honor.

"What really does fascinate me...with his character...is that nothing is simple. We each have a tendency to compartmentalize everybody. These are the good guys, and those are bad guys. I find myself drawn, in the films that I develop and in the stories that I want to produce, to people who are a bit more complicated than that.

"It pleases me to irritate those people who say, 'How can you make an anti-Semite a hero?' I like to take that opportunity as much as I can."

Dreyfuss, a political activist and conscientious objector during the Vietnam War, warms to his subject as few actors do. Addressing a room full of reporters, he leaves his seat to pace the small stage as he answers questions. Like a dedicated professor among freshmen, he is fully engaged in the issue at hand, and his enthusiasm carries the hour.

So well does Dreyfuss understand his subject that he was not afraid to introduce other strong influences to the film, not only with repeated screenings of "Emile Zola" and "I Accuse," a 1958 Jose Ferrer film, but in the distinctive style and "camera vision" of director Ken Russell as well.

"I hoped that we would find someone who would bring something eccentric and particular to the film," says Dreyfuss. "And my first thought was Ken...That was the reason for picking him."

The supporting cast is similarly strong, with Oliver Reed and Brian Blessed as French generals and Peter Firth as Major Henri. Kenneth

'Days' viewer dazed by dull script

By Candace Havens

Dear Candace: I've been watching Days of Our Lives for 10 years and have been a devoted fan, but I'm about to switch networks and try a new soap. I suggest Days try new writers and ship the present ones, along with Jack and Jennifer, on a slow boat to China. The whole thing is very tiring and boring. If they gave Victor Kiriakis the chance, I bet he could unload them! —A fan in Meridian, Miss.

Dear Reader: I agree Days could use some energy in its story lines, but Jack and Jennifer are extremely popular with most fans, which is surprising because their dialogue is so incredibly dull. Molly and Tanner are much more fun and exciting. It would be great if the writers would power up the story lines for Molly, Tanner and Brian.

Dear Candace: I really like The Young and the Restless. It's the only soap I watch, but I can't stand the character Leanna. She was supposed to have run away from a mental institution, so how can she be as obnoxious as she is? Why don't they get rid of her? I'm also sick of David. How can he get away with all he does and not get caught? I would like Scott and his ex-wife (Lauren) to get back together and expose Sheila. Thanks for listening. —A fan in Idaho.

Dear Reader: Several other viewers share your sentiments concerning Leanna, David and Lauren. By the time this article is published, David Kimble will more than likely have had the tables turned on him. Leanna will probably be married. As for Lauren, I don't think she should go back to Scott, and she should stay away from Paul. She needs a dynamic man, someone new to sweep her off her feet.

Dear Candace: We miss the girl who used to play Vicky on Another World. My sister and I think she was wonderful in the two characters she played. Could you tell us if she will be back on Another World? We are anxious to know. Thank you so much. We enjoy your column. —Sincerely, Frances Bergin, Providence, R.I.

Dear Reader: Anne Hecht is now pursuing movies and other acting interests. It is doubtful she will return to Another World, but in the soap world, you never say never.
