Storm kills electricity to many

The snowstorm knocked out power to area homes and trapped about 60 Canton children in a church for several hours before fading away. Canton was heavily hit by the power outage because of a circuit failure at Lilley and Cherry Hill.

The big winter storm Thursday caused its share of power outages and traffic accidents, but life returned to normal by the weekend.

Detroit Edison said 1,500 customers in Plymouth and Canton reported power outages due to the storm.

Scott Simons, an Edison spokesman, said power was restored to all customers reporting outages by late Friday afternoon. He said power outages lasted "three or four hours tops."

The outages were sparked by strong storm winds, and occurred in scattered locations throughout the area. "There were a number of circuits that were involved throughout the storm period," Simons said.

A power outage caused by a circuit failure at Lilley and Cherry Hill roads sparked the closure of that intersection, making it tough for parents of about 60 kids at St. Thomas Aquinas church to pick up children from catechism classes, as the intersection provides the only street access to the church.

Sister Mary Helen said the church kept the children, normally out at 7 p.m., until 9 p.m. so parents could get them.

Police in Plymouth and Canton reported that slippery streets sparked the usual small increase in car accidents, but no severe injuries were reported.

In one accident, a Plymouth Township snowplow clearing the township offices parking lot struck a Plymouth Canton school bus at about 8 a.m. Friday at Lilley just south of Joy. No

When the Plymouth Children's Nursery held its first classes back in 1962, mothers of the children had to sweep up gunpowder and shell casings before each class.

It wasn't anything the kids did. It was just that the nursery began its cooperative program in the Plymouth Community Building, which at the time was a rifle range.

"I was a baby at the time, and I remember my mother talking about the program," said Marisa Cimino, a parent who is in charge of publicity for the nursery school that is celebrating its 30-year anniversary.

"It's one of the older cooperatives in Michigan. And it's definitely the oldest in Canton," said Cimino, who attended the nursery as a child and whose children now attend.

This isn't a nursery school where parents kiss their kids, open the car door, and say goodbye. Now on Sheldon Road just north of Ford Road, the nursery has mothers and fathers work there.

In each of the program's four classes with 21 children ages 3 and 4, there is a teacher and four parents. "Ninety-seven percent of the moms work in the school. You have to assist the teacher with lesson planning each day."

The cooperative, which moved to Canton in the late 1980s, is not your traditional business. There is no administrative staff, secretaries, janitors, or anyone else you might expect to find in a nursery school.

For example, in teacher Linda Borsos' class — where children were painting by using straws to blow paint bubbles — a parent stood close by, helping children complete their work of art.

Barbara Lance, a 26-year-old nurse's aide from Plymouth, was bound over on charges of criminal sexual conduct in the third degree Friday at her preliminary exam before 35th District Judge James Garber.

Lance is accused of sexually assaulting an 87-year-old blind, wheelchair-bound resident of West Trail Nursing Home at 395 W. Ann Arbor Trail. The charge carries a prison sentence of up to 15 years.

Unable to post $25,000 bond, Lance was taken to Wayne County Jail. Her arraignment on the information is scheduled for Friday, March 19 in Detroit Recorder's Court.

Lance pleaded not guilty to the charge at her district court arraignment Feb. 26.

In Friday's exam Garber admitted into evidence a three-page handwritten confession Lance gave to Plymouth police which said in part: "I touched her private area and accidentally placed a finger inside. I felt sick to my stomach. What I did made me sick. I ate lunch, but couldn't keep it down. I'm not bisexual or anything; I didn't get any satisfaction from it."

The victim testified that Lance took her back to her room after dinner Feb. 22 and undressed her for bed, because "I can't walk or anything. She brushed my breast and whispered in my ear what she was going to do to me. She said she was going to rape me, only she didn't use that word. She used the 'f' word." The victim testified that Lance stuck her finger into her private parts. "I told the nurse the next morning. That's the only one I knew to go to," the woman said.

Lance's attorney, Cleophas Culp Jr., asked whether the victim had had an enema the week before. "I have no record of it," she answered. The woman testified she's had no trouble with nurse's aides. "I get along with them. I don't know why I shouldn't get along with them," she said.

Bonnie Bannon, director of nursing at West Trail, said she presented Lance with a series of written questions after hearing that Lance had forced-fed the victim. West Trail administrators later reported the sexual assault to Plymouth police.

Sgt. Wayne Carroll of the Plymouth Police Department testified that Lance voluntarily came into the station and offered a statement in the presence of two officers before she was arrested.

Criminal sexual conduct in the third degree is defined by sexual penetration with force or coercion.

and little bubbles. We are doing all these educational activities while the children are having fun."

The schoolhouse is divided into four basic rooms, each designated by a color. The yellow room is for art activities, including a sand table and Playdough. In the green room, equipment — most of it the original used when the nursery opened 30 years ago — is available for physical activity.

"We encourage each child to participate in each activity," Cimino said.

The kids attend two, two-hour classes a week. The average cost for the year is about $300. "This is a social-educational experience for kids. It's not so much academics but being around other children and learning to trust adults as authority figures," Cimino said.

The nursery is a hands-on program, not just for the kids, but parents as well. Parents have work bees during which the school is prepared for the children, repairs are made and equipment maintained. The school also has a Dad's Day on Sundays, for example, when fathers can participate with their children.

Parent education nights are also scheduled and speakers are brought in to discuss issues like preparing the 4-year-old kindergarten.

Classes are filled for 4-year-olds for the coming year, but not for 3-year-olds. An open house is scheduled for March 21.

The nursery school began in 1961 when eight mothers decided to form a cooperative nursery school in Plymouth. It took some work, but the mothers found a place and materials for the school, which opened in March 1962.

"It was a real community effort," Cimino said, referring to the parents and community groups that donated their time and talents.

The school was then incorporated as a non-profit organization and with its license officially became the Plymouth Children's Nursery in October 1962. The school then moved to the empty Hough School at Warren and Old Haggerty.

Sticking to their cooperative nature, parents fixed the antiquated heating and plumbing systems at Hough and the nursery school began the 1963-64 school year in what became known as The Little Red School House. When the school district sold the building in the late 1980s, Canton became the home of the cooperative nursery.

Parent involvement hasn't changed much over the years.

"If your child is going to school here, you must work here. We don't have an elective where you aren't going to work," Cimino said.

injuries were reported.

Kids who'd been riding the bus were taken off and put on another.

In Canton, the storm was partly responsible for the capture of two burglary suspects.

Officer Tammie Colling, Canton Police spokeswoman, said a snowplow driver was about to clear a parking lot just after midnight on Ford Road when he noticed two men running from a Big Boy restaurant.

Police were called to the scene, and found pry marks at the door of the Big Boy restaurant and a hole in the wall of a nearby business, Colling said.

Officers followed tracks in the snow northeast for nearly a mile before spotting and catching the pair on Westminister near Morton Taylor.

Colling said the pair — a Shelby man, 26, and a Lapeer man, 21 — would be arraigned Friday, each on a charge of breaking and entering.

Playground offers fund for adults, too

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI
STAFF WRITER

Jim Vos of Canton would stay there all day — if he could.

"It's a lot of fun. And it's a lot cheaper than other places. Actually, you got all this park. You can spend hours in this place," said the 10½-year-old.

His newest favorite place is Kid Kingdom in the Canton Corner shopping center at Ford and Lilley roads, which opened about a month ago.

But don't be fooled. The indoor play park that looks like a NASA project is likely to be a favorite with adults, too. "I love it. My 2-year-old wants her birthday party here," said Janel Barber of Livonia, who spent a few hours on the play equipment with her children.

The equipment, which spans a good portion of the length of the Kid Kingdom space in the former Great Scott! supermarket, forces you — adults or children — to climb. Once you climb, you enter a tunnel where you've got to do some crawling. But you're not stuck in the tunnel. Entrances to the elevated tunnel include stairs and even a rope. And there are plenty of exits, which force you to climb or slide down to Mother Earth.

"One woman came up to me and said she got a better aerobic exercise here than at her class," said Lori Maher, a Kid Kingdom co-manager.

Within the maze of equipment are ball pits. That's where children and adults can bounce around on thousands of balls. "All of a sudden you'll see a head pop up," Maher said, as kids jumped and bounced in the pit that's complete with a small basketball hoop.

You can join the fun whether you're wearing your exercise clothes or a business suit. One thing is for sure: You've got to play in your stocking feet — whatever your age. Sure, it can be tough on your knees, especially if you're an adult. But you can also rent knee pads for 25 cents.

"Adults are surprised they can climb on this," Maher said.

Admission for kids is $4.95. Adults and non-walkers are free. But this isn't a place where parents can drop off their children and leave for a few hours. Parents are required to stay with their children, and that includes teenagers.

Toddler fun: You don't have to be a big kid to enjoy the play equipment at Kid Kingdom. Danny Bielak, 1½ years old, gives a soft, climbing pyramid a try as his mom, Pam, watches.

"It's not a video arcade or a place to drop kids off," Maher said. "Parents are encouraged to participate. Parents are encouraged to climb with their kids."

Even toddlers are allowed on the equipment that looks like it came from outer space. But there's also a separate special area for toddler fun that boasts a little ball pit and climbing equipment.

The 50-employee play park also has unique system for keeping track of who's there and who's not. When patrons come in, each gets a wristband that sort of looks like the kind you get at the hospital. The wristband tells employees how many people are in the party and lists an assigned bin for shoes.

"We cross check the bands," Maher said.

In a back corner of the play park, kids have another chance to bounce on what used to be called a moonwalk but today is called an air bounce system. Staff members are always present, Maher said, to ensure safety.

When kids tire of the play equipment there are plenty of token games for them to play, including skeeball and basketball — even ones small enough for the youngest kids. With tickets the kids get for so many points earned on the games, they can take their pick of prizes.

"Even though the token games are available, the emphasis is on the climbing," Maher said.

Kid Kingdom also features a small restaurant, Spad's Pizza. Popcorn, hot dogs, popcorn, and beverages are also available. And yes, parties may be scheduled at Kid Kingdom, where there are small party rooms along one side of the play park.

"When people call, they say, 'What age can I bring?' 'Any age,' I tell them," Maher added.

Taking a breather: Barb Pelts (left) and 5½-month-old Steven and Maureen Nichols and 8-month-old Meghan enjoy some pizza while the older kids keep playing on the play equipment that dominates the inside of Kid Kingdom.

Officials line up against airport

It's possible that the state and federal government won't spend money to buy Mettetal Airport, some local officials are saying.

State Rep. Jerry Vorva, R-Plymouth, said one state finance official he's talked to told him the state doesn't have the money available to spend on the airport — an action being sought by the Michigan Bureau of Aeronautics.

"They may not have the money or the authorization to do it," said Vorva, based on his discussion with the official in state finance.

Vorva said representatives of the state Department of Transportation, which oversees aeronautics, and state finance agencies are scheduled to meet Thursday to discuss the situation.

"The state shouldn't be in this kind of business," Vorva said.

Meanwhile, Wayne County Commissioner Brian Amann, whose district includes Canton, is asking the Federal Aviation Administration not to award grant money to buy the Canton airport.

Bureau of Aeronautics officials announced last month they would seek a federal grant to pay for 90 percent of the purchase price of the airport, within 60 days.

Aeronautics officials said small airports should be maintained, despite heated opposition from some Plymouth and Canton residents to the plan for government to own and operate the airport at Lilley and Joy roads.

"I respectfully suggest that any expenditure by the FAA to purchase or assist in the purchase of Mettetal Airport lacks fiscal wisdom, especially in light of President Clinton's commitment to use expenditures as job-creating investments," Amann wrote in a Feb. 22 letter.

Cable expert blasts rate hike

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI
STAFF WRITER

A consultant for the four-community cable TV consortium says an increase in Omnicom's basic service rate is "ridiculous."

But Lisa Boland, Omnicom general manager, says the more than $6 increase to $11, effective April 1, is bringing the rate in line with what it costs the cable television company to provide the service.

"The cost should reflect the cost of providing the service, not subsidizing it," Boland said. "We've always known he (broadcast basic customer) has been subsidized by the cable deluxe people."

Changes in cable rates stem from the 1992 federal cable act. "With the new cable act we have looked at the cost of providing service and the FCC (Federal Communications Commission) guidelines," Boland said.

The broadcast basic service includes broadcast channels — ABC, NBC, CBS, TBS, WGN — and locally originated channels. Subscribers take the service generally to improve their television reception, Boland said.

Subscribers who take the cable deluxe package will see no change from the $23 monthly charge. But the components of that $23 will change.

Cable deluxe includes the broadcast basic and deluxe services (41 channels). Before April 1, the $23 includes $4.15 for broadcast basic and $18.85 for cable deluxe. As of April 1, that configuration will change to include the $11 for broadcast basic and the cable deluxe will be adjusted to $12 — all still equaling $23.

That doesn't sit well with cable consultant Larry Monroe, who represents the communities of Canton and Plymouth townships, Plymouth and Northville. "I don't know of an operator in the country where it costs more than $3-$4 to run the system, exclusive of programming costs," Monroe said, referring to broadcast basic.

"My great concern is the satellite tier at $12. That's where the programming costs are. Those who take the basic tier are in effect subsidizing those who take the more expensive satellite tier."

"Why does it cost the company $11 to provide a basic tier with no programming costs and $12 for a tier with programming costs?" Monroe asked.

Approximately 300 customers take the broadcast basic service, while about 90 percent of the system's 36,000 subscribers take the cable deluxe service, Boland said.

"We all knew it costs more than $4.15 to provide that (broadcast basic) service," Boland said.

Monroe sees it differently. "They are just jiggling the numbers. Everybody knows the FCC is going for a $5-$7 rate rollback on the basic tier. They (Omnicom) are just trying to eke out the last dollar they can before this takes effect. They are going to make honey while the sun is still shining."

Other changes on the way include a $1 reduction — $6.50 to $5.50 — for those who rent a remote control and subscribe to cable deluxe or one of the premium services.

"In one regard it is a wash (for those who take cable deluxe). But those who rent the remote control converter will see a $1 savings," Boland said, adding that about 4,000 subscribers take the remote control.

The remote control converter bothers Monroe, as well. "These are descramblers to prevent you from getting a service you're not paying for. In reality, you're paying to be sure subscribers don't get something."

When you take the remote control converter, he said, "you automatically lose your ability to use your own remote control. You're paying not to receive something, and it's forcing you not to enjoy something you bought with your TV set."

The 1992 cable act regulates rates and that's the most important thing for subscribers, Monroe said.

"The cable industry doesn't believe it encourages competition," Boland said. "It was touted in an election year as a consumer bill."

Local government can regulate the basic rates, while premium channels are not regulated. "If it fits into the (FCC) guidelines and the cost of providing it, they have to grant an increase. They don't have a choice," Boland said.

Monroe has a different opinion. "There is much more or far more rate regulation authority than just primary outlet for basic service. Most people just don't understand that local government has far more power than the FCC."

Schools to discuss budget cuts tonight

On the agenda at tonight's Plymouth-Canton Board of Education meeting will be the budget cuts necessary in 1993-94 if the worst-case financial scenario develops for the school district.

The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. at the E.J. McClendon Educational Center, 454 S. Harvey in Plymouth.

Voters will be asked in the June 14 election to renew 17.74 mills.

In a separate ballot proposal, voters will be asked to approve new millage, the amount of which remains undetermined. It's expected that the district will seek 4 mills, possibly for two years.

If the proposals fail, possible cuts could include two-thirds of the district's bus service; the closing of a middle school; the delayed opening of the two new elementary schools; and the reduction of the school day by one hour at the middle and high schools, say school officials.

Restorations possible if the millage issues pass also will be discussed.

Other items on the agenda include changing of K-5 attendance boundaries for 1993-94; site plan revisions for Plymouth-Canton Educational Park; and the refinancing of bonds to save money.

SCHEDULING ARTHRITIC DRUGS

You take certain arthritis medications 3x/day, others at 2x/day, and a few at 1x/day. In the case of methotrexate, you schedule a week's worth in one day!

Most arthritis drugs enter the body quickly and leave in hours, via the urine. The medicines work by maintaining a level-like water in a car battery and need frequent replenishment. The best example is aspirin. Even the long acting form is out of your system within 12 hours, to keep therapeutic concentrations, you need a two-time/day dosage.

Feldene is a once/day medication; you may consider this feature an advantage. However, if you react to the drug or your kidneys are not eliminating it in a regular manner, the medicine can soon build up to dangerous levels. Therefore some physicians prefer a 2x/day medication as the best compromise between convenience and safety.

Methotrexate, taken one time a week, is a special case. It works by presenting the body with a sudden large concentration. This approach stops reproduction of T lymphocytes, cells important in perpetuating the inflammation of rheumatoid arthritis.

Check before changing the timing of your medication. Likely your doctor can explain the reasons why you should comply with the original instructions.

Area officials say state's to blame for rough roads

BY RALPH R. ECHTINAW
STAFF WRITER

As you contemplate the sorry state of your local roads lately and curse your local government for its alleged sloth in repairing same, consider blaming Lansing or Wayne County.

As a rule of thumb for townships, said Wayne County Deputy Executive Michael Duggan, the county is responsible for any road that doesn't have an M designation and isn't a freeway.

Cities, on the other hand, are responsible for most of their roads. But the county still maintains control over the main thoroughfares in its 33 cities. In Livonia, for example, Wayne County is responsible for Merriman, Farmington and Newburgh roads among others.

Now then, whom does one call to complain about roads? Phoning township or city officials about county roads might seem unproductive considering the preceding, but these officials can in turn put pressure on the county to get action.

Plymouth Township logs all calls and periodically passes the complaints on to the county.

For those who wish to aim their complaint projectiles more accurately, however, phoning the appropriate county commissioner may be your best shot. As your representatives in county government, it's their job to see that you get what you're paying for.

Residents of Westland and Garden City should call commissioner Kay Beard at 224-0902. Redford Township residents and Livonia residents east of Middlebelt should call commissioner Michelle Plawewski at 224-0930. Residents of Plymouth, Plymouth Township and Livonia west of Middlebelt should call commissioner Thaddeus McCotter at 462-6152 or 224-0946. Canton residents should call commissioner Bryan Amann at 224-0944.

But the state government has a role in the deterioration of Wayne County roads, too. In fact, Duggan claims the state is chiefly responsible.

The money Wayne County gets for road work comes from three sources: gas and weight taxes (distributed by the state), a federal program called "Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991" (Ice Tea for short) and state money through the Economic Development Fund.

The state, however, doesn't spend in Wayne County all the gas and weight tax collected in Wayne County. Duggan estimates that one-third of the money collected is spent outstate.

Also, Wayne County is stuck with responsibility for the Davison Freeway because the state refuses to accept responsibility as it has for every other inch of freeway in Michigan. Duggan said the cost of maintaining the Davison takes away from money that could otherwise be spent on other roads.

Furthermore, the state's Economic Development Fund has given (over the last five years) $28 million to Wayne County and $100 million to Oakland County, Duggan said.

State Sen. David Honigman, R-West Bloomfield, is currently attempting to have the Economic Development Fund's life extended beyond the originally established March 31, 1993, sunset date. State representatives from Wayne County are trying to have the rules changed so that more of the Economic Development Fund money is spent in Wayne County, but Duggan is pessimistic about their chances.

Honigman, for his part, defends the EDF's massive spending in Oakland County. "Most of the growth by far is in Oakland County," he said. "The failure of Detroit is fueling migration to the Oakland County suburbs."

All this alleged discrimination against Wayne County, Duggan said, is the reason why townships like Canton are forced to kick in 50 percent of the cost of a given road project in order to get it going.

According to Duggan, townships that agree to help the county pay for a road project are just moving up on the priority list of planned projects. But Canton Supervisor Tom Yack said it's "generally known" by mayors and supervisors that many projects won't get done at all if the township or city doesn't help pay for them.

And sometimes it's worse. Yack said Canton asked the county to pave Beck Road from Warren to Ford, an $800,000 project. The job will be done, but Canton had to contribute 75 percent of the cost ($600,000), Yack said.

As a rapidly growing community, Canton can afford that sort of thing, but road work in other townships goes begging because the match money isn't available.

Plymouth Township public services director James Anulewicz said many residents would like to see Powell Road paved between Beck and Ridge, but the county won't do it without a match that Plymouth Township can't afford.

"On any substantial improvement program (the county has) indicated there would have to be some kind of a match," Anulewicz said.

Anulewicz, however, isn't upset with the county, but rather supports Duggan's argument that there just isn't enough money to pay for everything.

On the positive side, Anulewicz said there's been a noticeable improvement in the county's attitude toward road problems in Plymouth Township since executive Edward McNamara was elected in 1986.

DEAR PRESIDENT CLINTON,

The American Advertising Federation, the American Association of Advertising Agencies and the Association of National Advertisers offer our enthusiastic support for your commitment to economic prosperity as the top priority of your administration.

Our organizations represent tens of thousands of companies throughout the nation who look to advertising to provide:

- ★ Lower consumer prices,
- ★ Increased competition,
- ★ Consumer information,
- ★ Greater sales of existing products and services,
- ★ New product introductions.

This in turn creates jobs, spurs production and generates increased taxable revenues for our federal and state governments. Advertising fuels the engine that drives the economy.

We applaud the initiatives you are taking to lead the way toward immediate growth and revitalization of the economy. Advertising will play a vital role in helping you accomplish the goals we all want for America.

NOTICE
1993 CITY OF PLYMOUTH BOARD OF REVIEW SESSIONS

Additional 1993 Board of Review Meetings have been scheduled:
MONDAY, MARCH 15, 1993 from 12:00 Noon to 6:00 P.M.
TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 1993 from 3:00 to 9:00 P.M.

A WRITTEN PETITION MUST BE SUBMITTED TO THE CITY ASSESSMENT OFFICE before an appointment can be made to appear to protest your property assessment. Petition forms can be obtained at the Assessment Office located on the first floor of the City Hall.

Persons wishing to APPEAR IN PERSON before the Board of Review must file a petition with the Assessment Office by 9:00 P.M. on Wednesday, March 3, 1993. THE FINAL DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING A PETITION TO THE ASSESSMENT OFFICE IS 5:00 P.M. ON MONDAY, MARCH 15, 1993. After March 3rd, if there are no available meeting times remaining, written petitions received by March 15th will still be reviewed by the Board of Review and a judgment made determining valuation, even though a personal appointment is not available. A resident or non-resident taxpayer may file a petition to the Board of Review without the requirement of a personal appearance by the taxpayer or a representative.

At this time, only the dates listed above have been set aside for the 1993 Board of Review appeals in compliance with the City of Plymouth Charter. Other meeting dates will be scheduled, if the number of appeals received by March 3rd requires it.

Copies of the notice stating the dates and times of additional meetings of the Board of Review will be posted on the official public bulletin boards of the city as soon as the additional meetings are scheduled, and also in the local newspapers. The city bulletin boards are: City Hall, Kellogg Park, Central Parking Lot and Starkweather at the corner of Liberty Street.

All Board of Review meetings are open meetings in compliance with the "Open Meetings Act."

All appellants will be sent a letter by first class mail indicating the decision of the Board of Review.

For further information regarding appeals, please call 453-1234 extension 236.

REFINANCE.

If you originally financed your house at a high rate of interest, come into Old Kent and let us take a look at your mortgage. You may be able to refinance your home at today's lower interest rates — and save thousands.

If you have an adjustable rate mortgage, you may want to switch to a fixed rate so that your interest remains low and doesn't change even if the rates do. Or, if you have a land contract, this may be the time to convert it to a mortgage.

There's absolutely no obligation, so don't put it off. Find out about refinancing your house before the rates go back up!

WHILE RATES ARE LOW.

RK Surgery can eliminate your need for glasses or contacts...

This little guy can help you decide where to have it done.

It's all about getting the best for yourself out of life. The friendly little guy above is "Arky." He's the Vision Institute of Michigan RK surgery bear! RK is a quick (3-5 minute) office surgery to permanently eliminate nearsightedness and astigmatism.

When a patient has RK surgery, Arky is right there in the patient's hands, providing a little extra touch of care! Arky is one example of the best - in this case, the best care. The kind of care that can come only from a surgeon who's had RK on his own eyes - and that surgeon's associates and staff!

That care is one of the reasons more patients are choosing to have their RK at the leading RK specialist - the Vision Institute of Michigan - than anywhere else in the state.

After their RK, Henry and Sharon are looking forward to riding their motorcycles, swimming, Henry playing baseball, and just being outside without glasses or contacts.

FREE RK Seminars:

- FREE RK Consultation
- FREE RK Videotape
- FREE RK Info Package includes "How To Get The Most From Your Insurance," and info on the new Excimer Laser.

Journalism conference to focus on technology

The Metropolitan Detroit Chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists (SPJ) will host a regional conference for students and professionals Friday and Saturday, April 23-24, at the Dearborn Inn.

The program, "Journalism 2001: A Communications Odyssey," will kick off with a Friday evening banquet. Saturday will include breakfast, seminars and luncheon keynote with emphasis given to new technology and the issues and jobs which will be affected by these technological changes.

Cost for the conference is $65 for SPJ members; $55 for students; and $75 non-members.

Professionals working in the field of communications will be on hand to share their expertise with attendees from Michigan, Ohio, western Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

The public is welcome, particularly students interested in pursuing a career in either the electronic or print media. Registration deadline is April 5. For more information, contact co-chair Cynthia Kyle at 313-547-1878 or John Lindstrom at 517-482-3500.

Huge land deal afoot in west end of county

An as-yet-unnamed corporation is considering building a $100 million research and development facility on Wayne County property in Northville Township that could bring 300 jobs to the area.

The county commission gave Executive Edward McNamara permission last week to negotiate with the company, which has asked to remain anonymous. Commissioner Thaddeus McCotter, R-Livonia, said the company is seeking tax breaks and other incentives.

The company is also considering sites in Washtenaw County and in Ohio, McCotter said.

The secrecy, McCotter said, is necessary because the deal would fall through for sure if the name got out. "I'm not happy with the secrecy, but I have to accept it," he said.

The 920-acre Northville Township property in question, called Huntington Falls, is divided by Sheldon Road and falls between Five and Six Mile roads.

The unnamed company would need 30 acres of the property, while the county plans to sell the rest for development of subdivisions, light industry and a golf course, McCotter said.

Women's health seminar set

Schoolcraft and Oakland Community colleges will host a conference "Call to Wholeness: A Women's Health Agenda for the '90s" 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, April 3, in Schoolcraft's Waterman Center.

Pre-registration no later than March 20 is recommended. Fee is $15. Call 462-4443.

Twenty-one topics will be presented, including: aspects of breast health, stopping sexual harassment, menopause, thin at any price, recovering from childhood sexual abuse and nutrition.

WORKING FOR AMERICA.

A pilot with the skill to land a jet on a rolling deck. A computer specialist who can fix a complex navigational system while hundreds of miles at sea. A cook who can prepare a delicious meal for 500 hungry sailors. These people aren't just good, they're the best. And it means more to them because they're doing it for their country. They're Navy people, working hard for America. And that makes us proud.

Navy. Full Speed Ahead.

WHAT PART OF NO DON'T THEY UNDERSTAND?

Just three months ago, 2 1/2 million Michigan voters rejected a dangerous change in auto insurance laws known as Proposal D. And they were emphatic, voting nearly two to one against the legislation.

So you have to ask: Why are some legislators and Gov. Engler pushing a rehashed version of it now?

Read through House Bill 4156 and you'll quickly find it's neither new. Or improved.

In fact, it is just like Proposal D. It fails to guarantee lower insurance rates. All it guarantees is reduced benefits and fewer protections.

It's everything you didn't want and voted against. Like Proposal D, it promises a roll-back on premiums. But six months later, the lid comes off. And your insurance company is free to raise your rates.

In fact, you will pay more for the very same coverage you have now.

Also like Proposal D, HB 4156 removes basic legal rights that now protect you against unsafe or drunk drivers. Under their new law, it will be much tougher for you to hold drunk or careless drivers responsible in the case of an accident.

And like D, it forces you to buy extra coverage for long-term consequences of an accident. It also gives your insurance company total control over the medical treatment you get.

And again like D, it fails to hold insurance companies accountable for the premiums they charge.

But meaningful reforms are still possible – reforms that will reduce your rates while protecting your essential benefits and rights.

HOW WILL YOUR LEGISLATORS VOTE?

Will they vote for a bill that's worse than the one rejected by 2 1/2 million voters? Will they force you to pay more for less insurance protection?

Will your state Senator and Representative vote against you? Or for you?

Supporters of HB 4156 hope you're tired of hearing about this issue. And that you'll miss what they're up to in the Capitol. They hope to pass this bill before you know what's going on.

It's not too late – HB 4156 can still be changed. Your state legislators can help turn this bill into one that protects your interests, not just the insurance companies.

But only if they hear from you. Call them today. And who knows – maybe, just maybe – they might begin to understand what you meant when you said NO.

POINTS OF VIEW

Cries of racism won't erase ghetto problems

Twenty-five years ago this month, the Kerner Commission released its report on civil disorders. The report was commissioned by President Lyndon Johnson in the wake of a summer of violent disturbances in cities across America, most seriously in Detroit.

The report summed up an extensive amount of research with one frightening sentence. "This is our basic conclusion: Our nation is moving toward two societies, one black, one white — separate and unequal."

The report further stated the primary reason for this continuing national tragedy. "What white Americans have never fully understood — but what the Negro can never forget — is that white society is deeply implicated in the ghetto. White institutions created it, white institutions maintain it, and white society condones it."

The commission, a basically straight-arrow, middle-of-the-road group, concluded that only a massive injection of money and commitment could solve this problem. The report gave a boost to Johnson's Great Society programs.

Ghetto continues

History speaks for itself. The Great

Society was trashed by the war in Vietnam and by 20 years of Republican presidents. The institutions that created the ghetto continued to do their work. In 1968 Detroit was 34 percent black, today it is over 75 percent black. The suburbs are only slightly less white than they were then.

Detroit is not just black but also poor, crime ridden, shabby and growing worse with every passing year. It is a city whose citizenry bristle at such "negative" commentary, but the evidence is with us every day. It is there on any drive down any street.

It is there in the newspapers, not because they sensationalize but because they report — and they report that the young travel in gangs, that cocaine addiction is epidemic, that children kill children with guns and rarely reflect on the consequences. They report that the schools are hellholes, that vacant and substandard housing riddles every neighborhood and leads to one fire tragedy after another, that more businesses close than open and that the usual "dangers of big city life" have multiplied at such a cancerous rate that we joke about eating our young.

Mayor cries racism

Detroit is a city that props up a mayor who long ago lost his ability to lead and who hides behind the cry of "racism" because he's run out of viable ideas.

Racism is certainly the first cause. We, white America, began with 200 years of slavery and another 100 years of suppressed rights. We kept most blacks from attaining any but the most menial jobs. We closed off schools, bank loans, suburban housing and steady income and then accused blacks of being welfare mooches.

Real estate agencies steered (steer?) blacks to substandard and older housing in the inner city or near suburbs. Insurance companies redlined black neighborhoods and charged blacks more for less protection. This abuse is well summarized in the Kerner report, but anyone who has lived in Detroit knows it for fact without having to read it.

Newspapers did contribute to this. Until the '60s, newspapers regularly carried real estate ads listing white only and "colored only." Newspapers regularly played up black crime and identified black criminals while rarely examining the history of ghettoization that led to crime (not just by blacks but also by poor Irish, Italian and Jewish young men as well.)

But a time comes, as Malcolm X most eloquently stated, that the fact is more important than the cause. Malcolm X said that the black community didn't need the approval of the white community to take its affairs into its own hands.

Leadership needed

Detroit cries out for leadership. The responsible, adult population of the city must take stronger action against the drug trade that has engulfed a large part of the city. It must demand a clean police department that fights organized crime rather than being on its payroll. It must bring discipline to the schools rather than excuses. It must decry rather than tolerate reprisals against whites. It must demand of the white money sources that more be done to help the schools, job training programs, black owned businesses and housing rehabilitation programs.

It is patronizing to suggest that there is no black leadership. But that leadership has become splintered in the face of continuing racist opposition and the devastating economic situation.

Mayor Coleman Young began with great promise, taking his cue from the traditional Irish political bosses of the early part of this century. He built a fine and, at first, responsive political machine. He wheeled and dealt with the best of them. He worked with the white power structure (especially Henry Ford II) to bring money to the riverfront and negotiated as an equal. He bent rules, as all good bosses do, to get things done.

But time and the frustrations of watching the inner city die while the riverfront grew have made Young an ineffective and bitter man. Detroit deserves better. We can no longer continue drifting into the nightmare of the Kerner commission prophecy.

Marketing madness clearly carries trend to an extreme

Things are becoming very clear to me now. No, I don't mean I understand the mysteries of the universe, nor am I saying my near-sightedness has reverted to 20-20. I'm not seeing things more clearly, I'm just seeing more clear things. Things like clear shampoo, clear antiperspirant, clear gasoline and clear cola. Now there is even talk about clear beer.

Where will all this madness end?

Contrary to current marketing trends, clear isn't always better. It's great for some things, like windshields, water and sinuses, but for many things it is a disadvantage. Color is a big help in identifying or describing something, especially consumables like soft drink mix and gelatin. It is hard to distinguish one flavor of Kool-Aid from another without benefit of seeing the tell-tale hue. Similarly, Jello is almost always described by color as opposed to flavor. It is simply referred to as red, yellow or green, with orange being caught in eternal ambiguity.

My guess is that this is a weak attempt to deal with some latent guilt feelings stemming from living impure lives. Clear stuff is pure, therefore it is better for our cars, our bodies, the environment and whatever else. Removing the impurities removes the guilt.

This "clear" nonsense is part of the "light" concept. By adding the word "light" to any given product, we are immediately granted absolution for our dietary transgressions. The typical health-conscious American wouldn't eat even a few ounces of ice cream, but call it "light frozen dessert" and he or she will joyously pound down a gallon of the stuff.

The term "lite" indicates an even greater reduction in guilt-causing impurities, apparently because it has fewer letters. It is also not a real word so it can accurately be used to describe foods that are not real foods, i.e. Lite Cheez slices which have the texture and flavor of those yellow raincoats. Indulging in products which are

"clear" or "light" gives the false feelings of healthiness and consumption without consequence. It allows us to ignore or defer the negative aspects of our gluttony. It's a real '80s state of mind.

It's scary to think where this less-is-more idea will go from here. Will we eventually end up with food, beverages and cleaning products which are totally colorless, odorless and tasteless? Will we lose our abilities to see, smell and taste from sensory deprivation?

If all the products in our lives become indistinguishable, will we know not to put beer in our gas tanks, salad dressing on our hair, or laundry detergent on our pancakes?

Obviously, there is a lot more at stake here than Joe and Jane Public realize.

This may sound like the mad ravings of a bar stool psychologist, but the theory here is this whole light/lite/clear business is a reflection of our inability to make a commitment. We're becoming too afraid of making difficult choices. The L/L/C takes away all the risks.

Like most people, you were probably unaware of the magnitude of this phenomenon. That is why the world needs perceptive, insightful columnists to shed some light on this issue to clear it up. I've given this a lot of thought and, frankly, all this "clear" thinking is making me "light"-headed.

ROLL CALL REPORT

Knollenberg opposes extending unemployment benefits

Here's how Observer & Eccentric-area members of Congress were recorded on major roll call votes in the week ending

HOUSE

Yes on Unemployment Benefits: By a vote of 254 for and 161 against, the House sent the Senate a bill (HR 920) providing extra weeks of jobless benefits for the long-term unemployed. Depending on the state, 20 or 26 additional weeks of checks will go to an estimated two million individuals who exhaust their initial 26 weeks. Because the $5.7 billion cost is defined as emergency spending, it will be added to the deficit rather than offset by revenue increases or spending cuts. A yes vote was to pass the bill. Area representatives voting yes were: Bob Carr, D-Pontiac, Dale Klides, D-Flint, Sander Levin, D-Southfield, William Ford, D-Ypsilanti. Voting no: Joseph Knollenberg, R-Birmingham.

No on Hatch Act Overhaul: The House rejected a bill overhauling the Hatch Act to allow federal civilian employees and postal workers to engage in partisan political activity on their own time. The 275-142 margin fell short of the two-thirds majority needed to pass the bill (HR 20) under a shortcut procedure. Sponsors predicted success when they bring it up again under rules requiring only a simple majority vote for passage. A yes vote was to allow partisan political activity by federal civilian employees. Area representatives voting yes were: Carr, Klides, Levin, Ford. Voting no: Knollenberg.

SENATE

Yes to Fund Committees: By a vote of 94 for and 2 against, the Senate approved a two-year budget of $113 million for its committees, down about four percent from the committee budget approved two years ago. The new budget (S Res 71) is in effect until March 1995 and covers all panels except the separately-funded Ethics Committee. Senate committee staffing is cut by six percent to nearly 1,200 positions on 20 panels. The budget allows annual staff cost-of-living hikes of between 2.2 to 3.7 percent. The present top salary for committee aides is about $130,000. In addition to payroll, S Res 71 funds hearings, domestic and foreign travel and general committee operations. A yes vote was to approve the Senate committee budget. Michigan Sens. Carl Levin, D, and Donald Riegler, D, voted yes. Reject Further Cuts: By a vote of 29 for and 69 against, the Senate rejected cuts of at least $10 million in the $113 million, 1993-94 committee budget (above). The amendment sought to force staff reductions. A yes vote was for deeper cuts in Senate committee budgets. Carl Levin and Riegler voted no. Carl Levin and Riegler voted no.

Committee on Aging Retained: By a vote of 30 for 68 against, the Senate refused to abolish its Special Committee on Aging. Although the panel cannot act on bills, it uses its $1.7 million annual budget to conduct investigations and spotlight issues of concern to seniors. A similar non-legislative aging committee in the House also is under fire as lawmakers eye cuts in legislative branch spending. Yes on Unemployment Benefits: By a vote of 254 for and 161 against, the House sent the Senate a bill (HR 920) providing extra weeks of jobless benefits for the long-term unemployed.

TASTE BUDS

CHEF LARRY JANES

For memorable meals, cast an iron on the fire

Mention the term "cookware" to a group of people who enjoy cooking and you'll probably get personal reviews on everything from the cheapest Teflon to the most expensive copper-clad aluminum money can buy. People frequently ask me what my favorite cookware is, and my answer is always the same.

I have an eclectic collection of pots and pans that range in price and size from the cheapest to the best money can buy. But one thing is for certain, I do love my cast-iron fry pan and Dutch oven.

Cold, snowy weather and cast iron seem to go hand in hand, especially when making hearty stews and one-dish meals.

Frypan memories

Momma frequently cooked in cast iron, and to this day, still hauls out a frypan and cauldron from the fruit cellar for impromptu Sunday morning egg fests and tummy warming pots of chili.

Those of you who remember a story that ran a few years back in Taste know it called for preparing the "ultimate brownie" in a large cast-iron frypan. I'll admit that when I tested the recipe for that brownie, I had to venture on down to Wyandotte to borrow momma's frypan.

Unfortunately, the diet I'm on now will forbid me from making the brownie recipe in my cast-iron cookware, but nevertheless, I look forward to testing slow cooking recipes in cast iron.

Cooking qualities

So why all the hoopla on cast-iron cookware? Cast-iron cookware is heavy; it absorbs heat slowly and evenly, retains it like no other, and is a good conductor of heat as well — all excellent qualities for a cooking vessel to possess.

Unfortunately, there is a negative side too. Cast iron is rather brittle. It rusts, stains and becomes pitted on exposure to air, dampness and some foods, and tends to become distorted when too high a heat is applied.

Food purists will either applaud cast iron for its ability to impart certain minerals into the food while cooking or crucify it for its inability to withstand the pitting that occurs from cooking foods high in acidity.

From a professional standpoint, you just can't beat cast iron's ability to slowly cook a stew or chili, seldom with burning.

Sunny-side up eggs take on a distinctive crust that I still remember from the days when momma cooked up a pound of bacon and then plopped in a half-dozen or so eggs into the molten bacon grease.

She would use the special steel spatula that doubled as a dreaded disciplinary tool to splash the grease onto the tops of the eggs to just barely cook the yolks. It wouldn't take an expert to see and taste the difference from an egg made in a plastic-handled non-stick frypan compared to one made in a cast-iron frypan.

Pan pointers

There are, of course, a few pointers that all owners of cast-iron cookware should heed. First off, cast-iron cookware is particularly likely to become warped if subjected to high heat or sudden extremes in temperature. Therefore, never place cast-iron cookware directly on a high-heated burner or in a hot oven.

Place cookware on a cold burner or in a cold oven and allow the heat to raise gradually. Common sense should prevail when cooking with cast iron because of its hearty heat conduction. You can cook and get the same results over a medium-low heat compared to high heat.

After using the cookware, it should be washed, dried and seasoned immediately. Never place the cookware filled with food in the refrigerator, freezer or dishwasher. If the food has burned or stuck on the bottom or sides, scouring will remove some of the seasoned coating, but a light scrubbing with table salt and a dry paper towel will remove any leftover food residue with minimal efforts.

If the pan must be washed, dry it immediately and place it on the stove under low heat. Add a little oil and gently heat the pan. Turn off the heat and allow the pan to cool to room temperature. Then, using a dry paper towel, rub the seasoned oil over the entire inside and outside of the pan to prevent rusting and pitting.

Even in this best of all possible worlds, there is no such thing as the perfect metal for pots and pans. Each possibility has its own pluses and minuses but if you have a gas or an electric stove you'll notice a difference when cooking with cast iron. If nothing else, it will remind you of the days of old before the Calphalons and non-sticks.

Better brew: Harry Patsalis of Kitchen Glamor inserts the frothing nozzle of a Gaggia Espresso machine into a chilled metal pitcher filled with milk to make cappuccino.

not your daily grind

■ You don't have to go to a cafe for a cup of espresso or cappuccino. Many people are making their own. Learn how to brew a cafe-quality cup.

BY GERRI RINSCHLER
SPECIAL WRITER

A $300 cup of coffee? Why would anyone spend $300 on a machine to make a cup of coffee? Well, not everyone who loves espresso and cappuccino is spending $300, but some people are.

At Kitchen Glamor stores, the popular automatic espresso machines range from $69 to $499. You'd think that achieving a cafe-quality cup of cappuccino from these fully automatic, electronically monitored pump system machines would be a snap. Well, it is when you have some help.

Harry Patsalis, vice president of Kitchen Glamor, enjoys selling espresso machines at his specialty shops, and drinking espresso. His favorite machine is the sleek, Gaggia Espresso, which at $250 is priced "middle of the road" in the Gaggia line of home espresso machines.

When shopping for an automatic espresso/cappuccino machine, Patsalis recommends a system that is pump-drive as opposed to one which relies on steam for brewing. Also look for those with the heaviest filter baskets because they will retain the most heat during the brewing process.

So often, the instruction book which accompanies espresso machines explains how to use the machine, but doesn't explain how to make a five-star cup of coffee.

WINNER DINNER

BETSY BRETHEN

Imagine having an elegant chicken dish developed exclusively for you, and named in your honor. That is exactly what this week's Winner Dinner winner, Rodger Langley, did for his daughter, Anais, when she was 10 years old.

Although his daughter is all grown up and a college graduate living and working in Boston, Langley is always eager to prepare his daughter's favorite menu when she returns home to visit.

The recipe for Brussels sprouts was developed to make an unpopular but nutritious vegetable irresistible. Sweet potato pie is still one of the most requested family comfort foods.

Langley is a chef for a retirement apartment complex called Waltonwood in Rochester. Each day he prepares meals in a full-service restaurant in a separate food facility on the grounds of this complex. Feeding people who range in age from 60 to 90, Langley designs menus and prepares meals that are well-balanced and low in salt.

Langley's wife, Marilyn, proudly nominated him for the Winner Dinner column, and cited his fine cuisine as helping to keep her well fed and happily married for many years.

When asked what his favorite Winner Dinner was, Langley laughingly admitted that he didn't care what it was, as long as he didn't have to cook it. Can't we all relate to that!

When he isn't behind a stove, and weather permits, Langley can be found on the golf course. Thus it seems most appropriate to hope that he keeps cooking up lots of birdies — both on and off the links.

Submit recipes to be considered for publication in this column or elsewhere to: Winner Dinner, P.O. Box 3503, Birmingham, MI 48012. All winners receive an apron with the words "Winner Dinner Winner," on it. To leave a voice mail message for Betsy Brethen, dial 953-2047 on a Touch Tone phone, mailbox number 1851.

Winner Dinner Recipes

SUPREMES DE VOLAILLES ANAIS

3 chicken breasts, boneless, skinless, pounded to scallops

Boursin or Allouette cheese
4 Macintosh apples, peeled, cored and coarsely chopped flour, eggs, bread crumbs for breading chicken

¼ cup apple cider

¾ cup heavy cream

3 tablespoons Calvados
salt and pepper to taste
butter and olive oil for browning chicken

Place approximately 2-3 tablespoons cheese on each side of chicken breast, spread 1-2 tablespoons apples over cheese. Fold to seal. Bread the chicken breasts, let dry.

Saute in butter and olive oil to brown on both sides over medium heat.

To make sauce, place cream, Calvados, cider and rest of apples in pan with chicken. Reduce mixture over high heat until thickened. Spoon over supremes. Serves 3.

SHREDDED BRUSSELS SPROUTS WITH BACON AND PINE NUTS

3 pints Brussels sprouts
¼ pound bacon, diced

¼ cup pine nuts
2 minced scallions
½ teaspoon freshly grated nutmeg
fresh black pepper to taste

Core the Brussels sprouts and place them in a food processor to shred coarsely. Fry the bacon in a large skillet until it's crisp. Remove and drain on paper towels. Add the pine nuts to the fat remaining in the skillet and stir over medium heat until lightly browned, 2-3 minutes. Add shredded sprouts, scallions and nutmeg. Cook, stirring over medium heat until sprouts are cooked through, but still crisp, 6-8 minutes. Stir in bacon and pepper. Serve. Serves 4.

SWEET POTATO PIE

2 medium-sized sweet potatoes, boiled and mashed
1 cup sugar, more or less, to taste
3 eggs, well-beaten
¼ cup melted butter
¼ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
pinch of nutmeg and cinnamon
1 tablespoon flour
1 9-inch pie shell, unbaked
Mix all ingredients together and pour into an unbaked pie shell. Bake at 400 degrees about 35 minutes, until browned.

espresso," said Patsalis while demonstrating how to use the Gaggia espresso machine.

"I usually begin by running hot water through the machine."

Read your instruction manual before you make your first cup of espresso. Patsalis said it is important to warm the equipment, such as the filter basket, as well as the cups used for serving to achieve a properly brewed espresso.

It's equally important to measure the coffee precisely as recommended — 1 level scoop per cup — and to tamp the grounds lightly to level them off. Don't press the grounds into the filter basket. If you tamp the grounds too hard, the water won't evenly filter through the coffee grounds, and this will result in a bitter cup of coffee.

After brewing the coffee, Patsalis added about 5 ounces of cold, low-fat milk into a chilled pitcher.

"Insert the frothing nozzle only 1/2 inch below the surface of the milk while rotating the pitcher during the process," said Patsalis. "Be careful not to allow the milk to boil because the amount of froth will be reduced."

At that point, Patsalis poured about 2 ounces of hot milk into the brewed espresso and then spooned a bit of the froth on top.

If you continue to brew additional espresso there's no need to warm the equipment again; just discard the grounds quickly and refill the filter basket with fresh coffee.

The discarded grounds should easily flip out of the filter holder in a solid cake. If not, this is an indication that the coffee was not ground properly or there's a problem with the brewing water temperature or something is obstructing the flow of hot water.

"There's an aura of mystery around drinking a cup of cappuccino," said Chip Drotos of Bloomfield Hills. Although he has only been making cappuccino at home since December, Drotos said he realizes that "one must have a commitment to making cappuccino. It's a ritual which adds to the mystique of drinking it."

"My first introduction to cappuccino was in Montreal about five or six years ago, when a friend said, 'Let's go out for a cup of coffee,' Drotos said. "But going out for a cup of cappuccino is more than going out for a cup of coffee; it's like an event."

Tom Isala of Ann Arbor-based wholesale Coffee Express has been in the coffee bean roasting business for the past 11 years. He knows perfection when he tastes it.

"In order to make perfect cappuccino you need to first make perfect espresso coffee," he said. Espresso coffee can be made with espresso roasted beans or any dark roast coffee bean. Isala recommends French roast.

"Not all French roast coffee is the same; it varies from roaster to roaster," said Isala. He recommends using the freshest coffee available. Store the ground coffee in the freezer to retain freshness. The maximum freezer shelf life is about three weeks.

The most important thing to look for when brewing espresso is "crema" — the light foamy extraction which "encrusts the top of your espresso serving."

Bernard N. Mariano calls it "the heart and soul of true espresso," in his book "In Search of the Espresso Secret, Crema," (Trendex International, 1991). Crema is evidence that everything was "in sync" from the temperature of the water (about 192 to 198 degrees) to the right grind of coffee.

Once you achieve "crema" you've achieved the perfect cup of espresso.

Mariano's book is available at all Kitchen Glamour stores — Redford, West Bloomfield, Rochester, and Novi.

Tom Isala's Coffee Express beans can be purchased at Ye Old Wine Shop in Rochester; The Wine Castle in Livonia; The Merchant of Vino in Birmingham, Southfield, and Troy; and Sauced N' Tosses in Bloomfield.

It's also available by the cup at Sweet Lorraine's Restaurant in Southfield and La Luna Cafe in Birmingham.

Brew cafe-quality cup of cappuccino

See related story on Taste front.

There is not a lot of science involved in making a coffee drink at home. Most recipes, when you can find one, are written to make one cup.

Here are the Basic Cappuccino Proportions to make a 5-6 ounce cup — 1/2 brewed espresso, 1/2 hot low fat milk, 1/2 froth from the steamed milk.

CAPPUCCINO KAHLUA

To make one 5-6 ounce cup
2 1/2 ounces brewed espresso
1 teaspoon Kahlua
3 ounces low fat milk
1/4 cup whipped cream
1 teaspoon chocolate shavings

Into a warmed 6-ounce cup, pour hot coffee and Kahlua. Add hot milk and top with a dollop of whipped cream. Sprinkle with chocolate shavings.

Memorable stew cooked in cast iron

See Larry Janes' column on Taste front.

MOMMA'S BEEF STEW WITH RED WINE

4-5 pounds top round of beef
4 tablespoons oil
3 carrots, pared and cut into chunks
2 medium onions, cut into chunks
2 cloves garlic, smashed
2 cups dry red wine bouquet garni (peppercorns, bay leaf, thyme and parsley wrapped and tied in cheesecloth)
1 pound salt pork

If desired, you can have beef rolled and tied by the butcher. If not, cut the beef into large chunks and heat the oil and add the salt pork, beef, carrots, onions and garlic.

Cook over low heat for 15 minutes and when the fat begins to run from the salt pork and the onions begin to caramelize, pour in the red wine.

Toss in the bouquet garni and cover with a tight fitting lid. Place in a cold oven and turn the heat to 250 degrees. Allow to slow roast for 8 hours. Serves 8-10.

BAKED CARAMELIZED BROWN ONIONS

6 medium onions, peeled
3 tablespoons oil
3 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons sugar
salt and freshly ground pepper to taste

Peel onions; set aside. In the bottom of a heavy, cast iron frying pan, heat the oil and the butter over low heat. Add the whole onions. Sprinkle with sugar, salt and pepper and cook onions over medium-low heat until lightly browned and beginning to caramelize.

Cover and place cast iron skillet in a cold oven. Set oven temperature to 350 degrees and bake onions, covered for 45 minutes, turning once to ensure caramelization on all parts of the onion. Serves 6.

Raisins, currants good source of energy

Ap — Made by drying grapes in the sun or by other methods, raisins and currants have a high concentration of sugar, which makes them very sweet and a good source of energy. They're also a good source of iron. For cooking or snacking, you'll find several varieties available, depending on the grape used.

Dark Seedless: About 90 percent of all raisins produced are the dark seedless type, usually made from Thompson seedless grapes. These have a sweet flavor and can be used for recipes or snacks.

Golden Seedless: These light-colored raisins are also made from Thompson seedless grapes, only they're dried under special conditions to retain the golden color. They have a tangy fruit flavor and are good in recipes and snacks.

Muscat: Sun-dried muscat grapes are large, dark and very sweet. Their pronounced fruity flavor stands out in dessert recipes.

Sultana: Sun-dried sultana grapes closely resemble dark seedless raisins, only they're softer and sweeter. They are often used by food manufacturers.

Zante Currants: These tiny seedless raisins are actually sun-dried black corinth grapes. Even though they are sold as dried currants, they are not related to the currant berry. Because of their small size, they are not as handy for snacking. Use them in recipes, especially in small breads, such as muffins and cookies.

Plumping raisins

Make raisins and currants juicier by plumping them before adding to your recipe. To plump, add boiling water to cover and let the raisins or currants stand for 5 minutes.

To plump them in your microwave oven, place the raisins in a 1 1/4-quart microwave-safe casserole. Add an equal amount of water. Cook, covered, on 100 power (high) until boiling, allowing 1 to 3 minutes for 1/4 cup or 3 to 5 minutes for 1 cup of raisins or currants.

Drain the plumped fruit before adding it to your recipe.

Books offers taste of the 'Big Apple'

KEELY WYGONIK researching "New York Cookbook."

Food brings people together, and breaks down barriers that divide them. It is the great healer and comforter, even in a big city like New York.

While researching "New York Cookbook," (Workman, softcover, $17.95), Molly O'Neill, food writer for the New York Times, discovered the small towns within the big town by visiting restaurants, church suppers, street fairs, and kitchens of ordinary folks like Izzetta Leonard of Brooklyn.

O'Neill's book contains 450 kitchen-tested recipes by neighborhood gourmets and great chefs, 500 photographs, essays, mail order sources, shopping tips, and lots of advice. There's plenty of information for trivia buffs too, like deli-speak, where "Waldorf Salad" was first tossed, and who made the first Reuben.

"Every time you turn a page in the book it's like turning a corner in New York," said O'Neill during a phone interview. She was in metro Detroit March 2 and 3 to promote her new cookbook.

"People reading it will get a sense of the liveliness and energy of New York." She said she was surprised to learn during her promotion tour that people planned to use the book as a guidebook to New York restaurants, and food specialty shops.

The New York she presents in her book is glitzy and glamorous, but comfortable and familiar too.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, O'Neill took up cooking to pay the rent. As her interest in food grew she became a professional cook and chef, and worked at several small restaurants in New England before becoming a food writer.

She moved to New York with her husband, Stanley eight years ago, and spent five years gathering information for the book. She was also a restaurant critic for New York Newsday, and has worked at the New York Times since 1989.

Even if you never plan to go to New York, you'll enjoy reading this interesting book.

Here are some recipes from O'Neill's book.

KATHARINE HEPBURN'S BROWNIES

- 2 ounces (2 squares) unsweetened chocolate
- ½ cup (1 stick) unsalted butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 large eggs, lightly beaten
- ½ teaspoon vanilla extract
- ¼ cup all-purpose flour
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 1 cup coarsely chopped walnuts

Preheat oven to 325 degrees F. Butter and flour an 8-inch square baking pan.

Melt the chocolate with the butter in a saucepan over low heat. Remove from the heat and stir in the sugar. Stir in the eggs and vanilla and mix until smooth. Add the flour, salt, and nuts and stir until smooth. Pour into the prepared pan. Bake until a toothpick inserted in the center of the brownies comes out clean, 40 minutes. Makes 16 brownies.

BILL THOMAS' TUNA

- 1 pound fresh spinach, well rinsed
- ½ pound sliced bacon
- ½ cup fine, dried bread crumbs

- 1 cup sour cream
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- Juice of 1 lemon
- 2 cans (7 ounces each) white tuna, drained and flaked
- 4 tablespoons freshly grated Parmesan cheese

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Butter an 8-inch square baking dish or ovenproof casserole.

Steam the spinach until wilted, 2 minutes. Drain and puree in a food process or blender. Set aside. Fry the bacon in a large skillet until crisp. Drain and crumble.

In a bowl, combine the spinach puree, bacon bread crumbs, sour cream, salt pepper, lemon juice, tuna and 2 tablespoons of the Parmesan. Stir until well mixed. Place the mixture in the buttered baking dish; sprinkle with the remaining 2 tablespoons Parmesan. Bake until the bread crumbs are lightly browned, 20 minutes. Serves 6.

Bill Thomas is president of the New York City Emerald Society. He makes this dish for fellow firefighters.

Cookbook author: You don't have to be a New Yorker to enjoy Molly O'Neill's "New York Cookbook." The book is a celebration of New York's diverse cuisine.

Learn how maple syrup is made at Cranbrook festival

In a few short months birds will begin chirping, rivers will run and flowers will bloom. With the change of seasons comes an activity families have enjoyed for the past 19 years — Cranbrook's annual Maple Syrup Festival.

Cranbrook Institute of Science and the International House of Pancakes are again inviting guests to learn about maple sugaring at the Maple Syrup Festival 1-4 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays, March 13, 14, 20 and 21.

This year, visitors will be pleasantly surprised as they walk a new trail featuring more trees and areas of the Cranbrook campus not often open to the public. The trail was laid after the construction of Cranbrook's Woodward Avenue entrance. Visitors can now get to the institute quickly and easily by entering the campus directly from Woodward, between Long Lake and Lone Pine roads. The new address is 1221 North Woodward Avenue.

The tour begins with a 15-minute slide presentation, followed by a 40-minute guided tour through the sugarbush. Visitors will see sap drip from tapped maple trees and then watch it turn to syrup at the sugar hut.

The cost of the tour is included in the regular museum admission fee — $5 for adults, $4 for senior citizens and children ages 3-17. Visitors are encouraged to dress appropriately and wear comfortable shoes.

Here's a recipe to try:

MAPLE APPLE CRUNCH

8 to 10 graham crackers

- 4 apples
- ½ cup soft butter
- ½ cup maple syrup

Place crackers on waxed papers and roll with a rolling pin, or crush in a blender. Mix butter thoroughly with crumbs. Slice apples. Butter casserole and place apples in bottom.

Pour maple syrup over apples. Sprinkle cracker mixture over top. Bake at 325 degrees F. for 25 minutes. Top with whipped cream or ice cream. Serves 6.

Honey chicken low in calories

AP — Like many, you may be eating more poultry to cut the fat from your diet. You may not realize, though, that chicken with skin can be higher in fat than many lean cuts of meat. Removing the skin, before or after cooking, is an easy way to get rid of unwanted fat.

For the quick broiled chicken breasts below, discard the skin before cooking, so you can taste more of the delicious honey-mustard coating. Here's the easiest way to do it: start at one end of the breast and pull the skin away from the meat, holding the other end as you pull. If necessary, slip a finger under the skin to loosen. After you've removed the skin, you'll see several pockets of cream-colored fat. Use a sharp knife to cut them off, too.

HONEY-MUSTARD CHICKEN

- 2 tablespoons honey
- 1 tablespoon Dijon-style mustard
- ½ teaspoon lemon juice
- 1½ teaspoon poppy seed
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- 2 whole medium chicken breasts (about 1½ pounds total), halved lengthwise and skinned

In a small mixing bowl stir together honey, mustard, lemon juice, poppy seed and pepper. Set aside. Rub chicken; pat dry. Place chicken, bone side up, on the unheated rack of a broiler pan. Broil 4 to 5 inches from heat for 15 minutes. Turn and broil for 10 minutes more. Brush with honey-mustard mixture. Broil about 5 minutes more or until chicken is tender and no longer pink. Makes 4 servings.

Fighting fat easier than you think

LITE SUCCESS

FLORINE MARK

It's National Nutrition Month, and a change to healthy eating may be easier than you think. Many people think making changes in their eating habits is complicated or time consuming. That does not have to be true.

One important step toward healthier eating means eating less fat.

Leading health organizations, like the National Cancer Institute and the American Heart Association, recommend limiting fat in the diet as an important step to take for healthy eating. Excess fat has been linked to the development of some forms of cancer and obesity. Also, a diet high in saturated fat is often associated with heart disease.

Eating less fat is one of the changes to make if you're concerned about your weight. Ounce for ounce, fat has about twice as many calories as proteins or carbohydrates, so limiting fat can result in fewer calories consumed and benefit a weight loss effort.

Here are some fat fighting tips:
 ■ Fat-control starts in the supermarket. Shop smart by reading food labels and checking on the fat content of any product you buy. Choose lower-in-fat versions of traditionally high fat foods, like margarine, mayonnaise, salad dressings, snack foods, cheese and dairy products.
 ■ Plan more meals around carbohydrates, like pasta, potatoes and rice, instead of meat.
 ■ Fill your grocery cart with foods naturally low in fat, like fruits and vegetables, pasta, rice, potatoes, legumes, lean meats, fish, and poultry.

■ Reduce fat when you cook. Use non-stick skillets and cooking sprays instead of adding oil or fat. Trim visible fat off meat and skin poultry.
 ■ In a restaurant, order simple foods prepared plainly, by broiling, roasting, steaming or poaching. Ask for any sauces on the side. Ask about preparation and ingredients and choose foods prepared without extra butter, cream or heavy cheeses.
 ■ Make smart fast-food choices. Go for pizza, light on the cheese without any meat toppings. Order a plain, grilled burger topped with lettuce and tomato. Choose a baked potato topped with veggies (light on the cheese sauce). Go for the salad bar, but select a low-fat dressing.

Making a switch to a low-fat diet does not have to be done overnight. A few simple changes made on a day-to-day basis will go a long way toward permanent healthful eating.

ART ON THE EDGE

WILLIAM HANSEN

On silk: Harris Wiltsher creates his silk screen images in the print-making studios of the Cranbrook Academy of Art.

His artwork conveys black experiences

BY LINDA ANN CHOMIN
SPECIAL WRITER

Print artist Harris Wiltsher II combines painting, drawing, photography and collage in richly colored silk screens that focus on Afrocentric themes. Gold miners in Africa, a Massai warrior, police beatings in America's streets, or a mother and child, the images aim to educate and stimulate.

"They're a balance of educational, political and/or cultural experiences," said the master of fine arts candidate in an interview at his Cranbrook Academy of Art studio. "I will do things that are relative to what's happening now like with Nelson Mandela. Yeah, he's released but what's different now? Him being one person can't change it by himself."

In an artist's statement by the Southfield print maker, he says, he hopes that his "work will be an insightful and thought provoking window for the audience to view the black experience."

Jewel-tone colors like rubies and emeralds shine in the silk screen, "Mother of Civilization." The impressionistic portrait of a woman-in-waiting captures the essence of life's meaning and Wiltsher's art.

"All of my work has a lot of color in it, but it doesn't take precedence over it," Wiltsher said. "In this print, I'm putting an emphasis on women and the strength of women. I want to do things that show the beauty, their strength, especially African-American women, what they give to the community."

Wiltsher creates texture in the silk screens by layering 25 to 30 oil- or water-based inks. Gold highlights stroke the hands and face of the "Mother of Civilization."

"I'm painting and drawing," Wiltsher said. "My prints have a tactile quality. I print for the right combination of color, for texture. I used gold pens to sharpen some things and give a spontaneity to it so that it's very open and suggestive."

Wiltsher strives to broaden his views by pursuing a wide range of cultural experiences. After graduating from the High School of Art and Design in New York City, he earned a bachelor of science degree in fine arts from Florida A&M University, a predominately black school.

From there he did a 360-degree turn-about to attend Cranbrook. After graduation in May, he plans to continue his art studies on a fellowship at Cape Town University in South Africa. Eventually, he would like to become an associate professor of art.

In the past Wiltsher has exhibited work at Urban Park-Detroit Art Center and Foster Tanner Fine Arts Gallery in Tallahassee, Fla., and as part of a fund raiser for the Friends of the New Center in Detroit. The first two weeks in May he will exhibit a very confrontational installation in the existing students show at Cranbrook.

"His work is unique because of his ability to combine pattern and subject matter in an original way," said Urban Park gallery director Dave Roberts. "I like it because of his bold use of color and pattern, his interest in issues, presenting artwork that's not just pretty pictures, but presenting artwork that has a deeper meaning."

Wiltsher's current work-in-progress is a limited edition of 10 prints featuring Mother Hale of Hale House in New York.

"I'm from the Bronx. As a person from New York City, I want to produce an image that would evoke what she did for the African-American community, to sell the prints and raise money for Hale House."

Good talk: That's DC's style

■ DC Talk thinks people are tired of the plastic MTV attitude. They aim to be the cutting edge and a step ahead with their rap music. And these three perfectionists are accomplishing that.

BY CHRISTINA FUOCO
STAFF WRITER

DC Talk is into surprising people. "This is K-Max from DC Talk," one of the members began a recent interview.

After a quick scan of the bio, there's no "K-Max" in the band. "Kevin Max" he said. "Well, there's a Kevin Smith? "Oh, yeah. K-Max is my nickname. Max is my middle name. Kind of sounds like a store, huh?" he said with a laugh.

"It's meant to throw people off," said Smith, a Grand Rapids native. Not only does his nickname throw people off, so does the label "Christian rapper" which is often placed on his band. The group's music is fun yet hard rap with a positive not preachy message.

However, Smith said that with the recent release of "Free at Last" the group will finally be recognized as marketable rappers.

"We've been on Christian radio format for no reason. We're just as fast or faster than PE (Public Enemy)," added Smith who will perform along with fellow DC Talkers Toby McKeehan and Michael Tait at The Palace of Auburn Hills on Friday. "This album is gonna change everything. This album has four or five strong singles.

"Our record company and management is gonna see to it that we make a push for radio. We just want to appeal to a broader audience."

That would appeal to DC Talk — "We want to perform the great commission which is taking our mission to a greater audience. We're not selling out our roots which is talking to God."

Meanwhile, DC Talk is keeping their inspiration in mind while trying to collect a broader audience. They're not into "selling out." They insist on keeping with their beliefs. For example, one of their tracks, "I Don't Want It," parodies off George Michael's hit "I Want Your Sex," reinforcing the group's stance that the safest sex is abstinence.

"We're not about compromising. What has gotten us here has nothing to do with Kevin Smith, Michael Tait or Toby McKeehan, it's God," said Smith. "For us to turn our backs on (it) is ridiculous."

"I think it's essential that people know DC Talk wants to become available to a broader audience. We're not changing our message... if we're gonna make the crossover."

It seems hard to believe that the audience of DC Talk (which stands for Decent Christian Talk) could get any bigger. The group has already sold more than one million records, been nominated for a Grammy (Best Christian Contemporary Rock Album) and six additional Dove Awards. Recent television appearances include "The Arsenio Hall Show," "Good Morning America" and a spot this month on "The Tonight Show." DC Talk has also toured England, Germany, Holland.

STREET BEATS

Poland, the United States and Canada.

Did Smith expect any of this when the three Liberty University students joined forces?

"The caliber that it's going? No. I thought of it as something to do. I didn't think it was gonna take up the rest of my life. I'm very happy." Smith said he believes that the Washington, D.C.-based DC Talk has made it so far because the group is message oriented.

"People are sick of the plastic MTV 'let's see how pretty we can be on the video' (attitude). We want to be cutting edge. We want to be a step ahead. We're three perfectionists that don't want to out something out that's less than perfect. If it's Christian it ought to be better."

DC Talk opens for Michael W. Smith at 8 p.m. Friday at The Palace of Auburn Hills, I-75 and Lapeer Road, Auburn Hills. Tickets are $18.50 and $14.50. Call 377-8200 for more information. To become a member of DC Talk's fan club, the Vibe Tribe, write: P.O. Box 22538, Nashville, TN 37202.

Slam dunk: Two members of the Bud Light Daredevils get ready to stuff the basket — once they complete their acrobatic flips on the high side of the hoop.

BILL HANSEN

Daredevils give halftime a 'flip'

BY CHRISTINA FUOCO
STAFF WRITER

Keith Cousino flipped out the first time he saw a tumbling competition.

"I saw these guys doing multiple twisting flips and I was just so amazed," said the Erie, Mich., native said. "From then on I just wanted to be able to flip like that."

Now his fans feel the same sort of amazement when he performs with the Bud Light Daredevils, who combine music, comedy, ball-handling, gymnastics and basketball. The team — which also includes Scott Wonenberg of Ceres, Calif., Dave Mansky of Boardman, Ohio, Rick Benevento of Portland, Ore., and B.J. Norell of Milwaukie, Ore. — will perform during halftime at the Detroit Pistons/Chicago Bulls basketball game on Sunday, March 14.

Cousino, known for high-powered and high-altitude slam dunks, learned about the 12-year-old program while competing with the University of Iowa's gymnastics team. Cousino, 25, went to see the Bud Light Daredevils perform when they visited Iowa.

"I always loved basketball; I always loved gymnastics," he said. "Tumbling and trampolines were my favorite type stuff, so it seemed like the perfect thing for me."

So in 1990 he went straight from the U.S.A. championships in Denver, Colo., to Memphis, Tenn., to try out for the Bud Light team. He made one of the two teams of five, which include one alternate per team.

"I was lucky enough to make it," he said as he wrapped his ankles for a recent show at Eastern Michigan

Detroit legend Sales comes back for more laughs

BY BOB SADLER
SPECIAL WRITER

Soupy Sales is truly an original, and at 67, he is showing no signs of slowing down.

He blew into town over the weekend to help out WDIV-TV (Channel 4) with the annual Easter Seals Telethon, hosting two late-night and morning segments that featured video snippets from his old days in Detroit — which, ironically, were on rival WXYZ-TV (Channel 7). He also will hit the stage this weekend for five shows in Ann Arbor on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"There's been a love affair between me and Michigan ever since I came there, and it continues to this day," the former Milton Supman (he legally changed his name in 1957) said in an interview from his New York home. "It was Detroit where I got my big break."

Soupy made his indelible mark in Detroit from 1953, when he moved from previous television gigs in Cincinnati and Cleveland, to 1960, when took his top-rated ABC-TV show (his daily children's show went national after only two years) to Los Angeles.

On the air a now-unheard-of 11 hours a day during that era of live, locally produced television, Sales actually hosted both a children's show, "Lunch with Soupy Sales," and an adult variety show in the evening that featured live musical performances by early rock standouts such as the Everly Brothers and jazz legends Miles Davis and Charlie Parker.

"Those were the glory days of live television, as well as the golden age of jazz in Detroit; there were more than 25 jazz clubs in Detroit then," said Sales, who actually started his career in radio as a disc jockey in his hometown of Huntington, W.Va.

The children's shows featured Soupy's trademark shtick, which included wacky sketches, songs and, of course, cream pies. "No one has done more to optimize the humor potential of a simple pie in the face than Soupy Sales. Major stars of the era, including Frank Sinatra, Sammy Davis Jr. and Tony Curtis, actually begged to be on the messy end of Soupy's shaving cream creations.

"It had to be shaving cream," Sales said of the cream pie recipe. "A real pie would glance off."

On a more serious note, Soupy bristled at the comparison of his children's show and others like it with '90s offerings for the pint-sized set.

"You've got 'Mister Rogers,' 'Sesame Street' and 'Barney'; those are for little kids," Sales said. "You've got nothing for kids past seven years old other than cartoons — and extremely violent ones at that."

"Back in those days, not only did we entertain the kids, but we got our message across. 'Don't talk to strangers. Don't get in anybody's car.' We were very creative."

"Detroit is where it all happened for me," Sales said. "They've given me the key to the city twice. With my luck, they've changed the lock."

Soupy Sales appears Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 11-13, at the MainStreet Comedy Showcase, 314 E. Liberty, Ann Arbor. Thursday's show is at 8 p.m., with two shows Friday and Saturday, at 7:45 and 9:45 p.m. Call 996-9080 for reservations.

'Shadow:' a long, windy Eskimo epic

BY JOHN MONAGHAN
SPECIAL WRITER

A friend once confided that his idea of hell on earth would be sitting through a festival of Canadian films. "Shadow of the Wolf," Canada's most expensive film ever at $31 million dollars, offers this particular brand of horror on an epic Eskimo scale.

Lou Diamond Phillips ("La Bamba," "Young Guns 1 and 2") plays a proud Inuit Eskimo who leaves the relative comfort of his village to set out on his own. It's 1935 and young Agaguk (pronounced "eggie-gook") doesn't appreciate the encroachment of the white man, who trades a bottle or two of liquor for the Eskimo's hard-earned animal skins.

Before he leaves, Agaguk gets into an argument with a white trader and kills him. The rest of the film finds Agaguk and his young bride (Jennifer Tilly) battling the elements, the supernatural and the white man who comes to investigate the murder.

There is potential in the Eskimo story. Few films are as exciting as the 1922 silent "Nanook of the North" and "Shadow" realizes it. Director Jacques Dorfan even mimics "Nanook's" trademark image, where the Eskimo, poised majestically with harpoon in hand, prepares to skewer a seal swimming beneath a hole in the ice.

But where the pseudo-documentary approach to "Nanook" made that film so fascinating, "Shadow" is stuck with a lumbering literary source. Screenwriters Rudy Wurlitzer and Evan Jones seem dedicated to preserving Yves Theriault's well-intentioned novel "Agaguk" for the big screen.

The film is effective when it shows its young lovers in awe of their surroundings. Their meticulous construction of an igloo, with ice blocks fashioned with knives, proves both fascinating and educational. I can even stand the hokey special effects when the pair wake to the display of the

MOVIES

Northern Lights.

There's too much silliness elsewhere, though. Jennifer Tilly wasn't the worst choice for the female lead (she looks vaguely Indian or Asian with her dark complexion and eyes), but her voice is all wrong. As written, her Igiyook (pronounced "iggy-yook") hails from another village and I'm wondering if maybe it was somewhere in Southern California.

Toshiro Mifune, the star of countless Akira Kurosawa movies, is always a pleasure, but his Kroomak is only a fuzzy old Shaman, the kind usually played by Pat Morita. Only when he jumps up from a cross-legged sit and grunts with eyes and nostrils flaring do we get the idea that the Eskimo leader (or actor Mifune) is a powerful force to contend with.

Donald Sutherland has lent his name to a number of Canadian productions and as usual he's a welcome addition here. He plays a red-headed police inspector with a nonchalance that evokes both realism and sympathy. He knows that the murdered white man was scum, but still he has to do his job.

The movie ultimately possesses the best and worst elements about Canadian film production. There's an abiding love of nature, shown to great effect in the wide screen cinematography. There's also a monotonous lack of originality that's only accentuated by Maurice Jarre's synthesized soundtrack.

"Shadow of the Wolf" would like to be seen as an Eskimo version of "Dances with Wolves" and has even hinted at the comparison in television commercials. Panoramic shots of buffaloes thundering across the tundra and epic battles with white wolves attempt to hide the truth that this "Dances with Polar Bears" is just a freezer-burned Eskimo pie.

LINDA BACHRACK

Knead a treat? Buy fresh-baked goods

Does your mouth water every time you pass your neighborhood bakery? My dad owned a bakery down in Louisiana so I cultivated a serious sweet tooth at a very young age. Not only did I acquire an appreciation for fresh-baked breads, cakes and pastries, but I gained admiration for the dedicated professionals who work the graveyard shift to put these goodies on our tables.

Laura Kuczajda and her sisters Lynn Kuczajda and Lois Hennessey personify the commitment it takes to run a first-class bakery. They've owned The Home Bakery at 300 Main St. in Rochester since 1986. "Our hearts are here," says Laura who oversees the business and all of the paperwork, while Lynn and Lois decorate the award-winning specialty cakes.

The incredible wedding cake we picture is a design taken from a photograph. The Lake Orion bride asked Home Bakery artists to replicate the dreamy honeymoon cottage that she admired in the pages of Modern Bride magazine last year. After 72 hours of painstaking labor, the result is this fairy tale gingerbread house iced in white with lattice work, Victorian trim and the proverbial picket fence complete with delicate climbing roses. It's a show-piece.

On the same weekend, talented decorator Julie Allen created a lavender and white confection for Becky Salminen's Addison Oaks wedding. The idea for this cake also came from a magazine photo. Imagine, if you can, a tiered cake fitted with a beaded Venice lace sheath simulated in royal icing lacework. Both these cakes demonstrate the extraordinary skill of the Home Bakery staff.

Creative cakes

The day I visited, the gleaming metal cake racks were stacked with weekend party creations. Included were a logo cake for Comerica, a three-dimensional kitty and a whimsical scene straight from 101 Dalmations. Window shoppers are treated to an ever-changing array of custom cakes. Featured now is Allen's confectionery sculpture that took "Best of Show" at the Michigan State Fair. You won't believe that this hand-painted, hand-formed work of art is completely edible.

Tassos and Carol Bozadzis understand the art of baking fine French pastry. They spent a year in Paris where Tassos studied at the famed Le Cordon Bleu culinary institute. He showcases his expertise at their West Bloomfield storefront, Tassos Epicurean Cuisine in The Boardwalk shopping center.

Among his elaborate presentations are a Marro-nier, a classic French genoise cake laced with chestnut cream, and Gateau Russe, a French cake replete with buttercream, praline and caramelized walnuts.

I am continually on a search for "crusty on the outside, soft on the inside" French bread, the kind that envelops a good New Orleans oyster po-boy. My quest ended this week at Le Petit Prince, in Birmingham, an authentic patisserie.

"I stop in for the quiche, the ham and cheese croissants and the delicious lemon tarts," said Dolores Titus of Farmington Hills, a fresh baguette tucked under her arm.

Bread lovers alert

Just opened in downtown Plymouth is The Breadwinner, a bread lover's paradise. No less than 18 daily bread varieties line the shelves, from tavern bread flavored with parmesan and garlic dressing, to Val's veggie, made from zucchini, carrots and cabbage. Weekend specials offer more unusual loaves.

Who would expect gourmet pastries in a mall? The Somerset Collection boasts three restaurants and the specialties of Unique Restaurant Corp. pastry chef, Andrew Nicholas McGrath. The basket we picture offers a sampling of his breads and sweets, among them miniature scones, herb brioches, croissants, rich chocolate brownies and delicious gooey cinnamon rolls. Mall employees frequent Le Cuisine Jardin Carryout, and, like Keith Cauchi who chose the 7-layer bar, they can't pass up dessert. Save room for apple pie with caramel sauce

Shop around for retail career

There are all kinds of jobs at a mall and many can lead to well-paying careers in retail. This first-of-a-series report on mall workers, looks at the entry-level sales positions. Next week; How to become a buyer.

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO
STAFF WRITER

WANTED: Sales associates. Must be outgoing. Service-oriented. Have professional appearance. Pay commensurate with experience. $5-$5.50 an hour to start. Some nights and weekends. Apply within.

Getting a job at the mall can be as easy as stopping by the information desk in the center court.

Most larger retail centers have employment directories that are updated daily with listings on who's hiring and what's available within the mall.

"Some positions offer commission with salary, others just salary, some are total commission," said Hope Champagne, director of marketing at the Meadowbrook Village Mall in Rochester Hills. "It pays to have a resume ready to leave around. Most stores keep a file on hand and call applicants when they have an opening."

Karen MacDonald, spokeswoman for Lakeside Mall in Sterling Heights said hirings peak twice a year. "Our job employment directory is fullest in early July when stores begin hiring extra help for the back-to-school shopping season and again late September for the upcoming holiday shopping season," she said. "We also work closely with Macomb Community College to recruit students interested in retailing."

Joyce MacKay manages a Karen Charles store. Her sales associates tend to be moonlighters, people who have other jobs but want to supplement their incomes, she said.

"We have a couple of teachers working here, also some homemakers who enjoy working away from home," she said. "Pay is based on experience. Education requirements are minimal. Being a good sales associate depends more on personality than education. We want outgoing, friendly staff members."

At Laurel Park Place in Livonia, mall managers are considering an employment directory, but there is none yet.

"Last week we hired an intern from Madonna University," said Mike Buescher, marketing director of the mall. "This is something new for us, Hudson's to students: may we help you?

Before you can utter the world-famous sales associate's greeting — "May I help you?" — you must get hired.

Hudson's helps Detroit high schoolers learn the job application process through a program now in its second year.

Combining classroom training with in-store seminars, Hudson's managers give sophomores and juniors experience in applying for a job, going through the interview process, and understanding the various duties of retail positions.

"Our continued partnership with the Detroit Public School system further enhances our Community Giving Program through which we emphasize preparing young people for a lifetime of productive employment," said Dennis Toffolo, president of Hudson's.

Hudson's plans to expand the program to school districts surrounding Lakeside Mall in Sterling Heights.

After completing the program, students receive certificates of participation to include in their portfolios. The program also helps the school district implement Public Act 104 requiring students to graduate with employability training and the chance to study different career opportunities.

but it looks like a win-win situation all around. She'll get a first-hand look at mall operations, and I'll get some much-needed help. We do recruit from the local campuses."

People looking for mall employment at Laurel Park Place should walk store to store and meet the managers, Buescher said.

At the Tel-Twelve Mall in Southfield, food court, janitorial and security personnel are hired through the mall management office, according to Janet VanMaldeghem. The national chain-stores have their own system of recruiting personnel.

"But if you want to work in a particular store, you should go to that store and talk to the manager," she said. "Because most sales associates get merchandise discounts as well as hourly wages, people like to work in a store where they often shop."

Farmers' market idea takes root

BY SUSAN DEMAGGIO
STAFF WRITER

There soon could be more farm in Farmington.

If the Farmington City Council gives the go-ahead, the gazebo in the parking lot of the Village Commons Shopping Center could become the epicenter of a farmer's market in May, drawing hundreds of shoppers to downtown Farmington on Saturdays.

The Farmington Farmer's Market is a goal of the city's downtown development authority director, Judy Downey. Since January, she's been working out details with several local growers to set up produce stands and fresh flower baskets by May 8 around the gazebo at Thomas and Power Streets.

"The market would run through the end of October," she explained. "It would open between 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. with shoppers hopefully moving onto the nearby stores and eateries after browsing at the market."

Downey said downtown Farmington can boast of a retail mix uncommon to most older business districts.

"We have national chain stores like

SHARON LEMIEUX/STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Petunias and potatoes: DDA director Judy Downey stands near the gazebo she hopes will become the site of a downtown Farmington Farmer's Market this spring. The city council will consider the proposal at a future meeting.

T.J. Maxx and Cargo Express, as well as independent merchants offering unique shops, like Donovan's Irish Country Store and Books Abound," she explained. "We also get 40,000 cars a day passing through our Farmington and Grand River intersection. It's our goal to increase the diversity of our shoppers by attracting people from other communities to the downtown farmer's market."

Downey came to Farmington in October from Lapeer where she successfully organized a farmer's market in that city.

Way across town, the city of Rochester is also toying with the idea of a farmer's market downtown, but where, is the problem.

"There is some talk about locating a market in a portion of the old Higbie Building on Water Street, but nothing is for certain," said Barbara Khalil of the DDA. "There's no doubt about the merits of a market though. It would be a welcome addition to our business district."

VITALITY. YOU CAN FEEL IT IN YOUR BONES.

What you can't feel, however, is osteoporosis - the bone-thinning disease that affects about 25 million Americans, causing bones to weaken and break.

When hip, spine or wrist fractures occur, osteoporosis can rob you of your independence by making even the most routine activities virtually impossible.

As many as one out of every two women past menopause - and one out of every five men - will develop fractures because of osteoporosis. While osteoporosis can't be cured, it can be prevented.

To learn more, speak to your doctor. Or contact us.

Planets are always on time

SKY WATCH

RAYMOND E. BULLOCK

If March is here, can spring be far behind? No! At least it's officially just around the corner.

What the weather has in store is just as unpredictable as ever. Astronomical events that will occur this month are not predictions, however; they are certainties.

For example, Mars will be an evening planet this month, as is Jupiter. Saturn will be visible in the pre-dawn sky, and Mercury is too close to the sun to be seen.

About 45 minutes after sunset on the 1st, the moon was in the constellation of Taurus. The orange-red star eight degrees below the moon is Aldebaran (al DEB a ran), the "eye" of the bull; above and to the right of the moon will be the Pleiades (PLEE a dees) star cluster. The moon will pass this area of the sky once again on the 28th, but its crescent will be noticeably smaller.

Full Moon occurred at 4:46 a.m. today (March 8). The March full moon was called the Sap Moon by some Native American Indians; others named it the Crow Moon. The reason for the name Sap Moon is obvious — March is the month when sap flows in trees.

Coincidentally, this full moon happens to occur when the moon is at perigee (its closest to the earth.) The orbit of the moon is oval, not circular. It will be a mere 356,528 kilometers (221,536 miles) away, the closest it will be all year, and it will produce unusually high tides.

Venus, which has been drifting eastward through the stars of Pisces, will begin retrograde (backward) motion on March 9.

It will move westward during the rest of the month, as if chasing after the sun. Retrograde motion is an optical illusion; faster moving Venus soon will be passing between the earth and the sun.

Jupiter will be easy to identify on the evening of the 9th. Face the east southeast around 9 p.m. and you will find it, looking like a bright star, six degrees above and to the left of the moon.

On the morning of the 10th, 45 minutes before sunrise, the moon will form a large triangle with Jupiter and the star Spica (SPY ka) in Virgo. On the following morning the moon will be to the left of Spica; drawing a straight line from the moon to Jupiter will take you directly through that star.

The moon will pass from Virgo into Scorpius and will be found eight degrees to the right of Antares (an TAR ees), the "heart" of the scorpion, on the morning of the 13th. Antares is one of the reddest stars in the sky. It is also a supergiant star, 700 times the size of the sun. If placed where the sun is, its outer layer would extend well beyond the orbit of Mars. On the following morning the moon will be three degrees to the left of Antares.

Hoop fans will like these candy treats

True confectionaries. I have a sweet tooth when it comes to state high school basketball tournament. March Madness? Sounds like a candy bar to me. It's also the same month some of us celebrate St. Patrick's Day. But let's face it cage fans, most of these area teams will turn into gooey chocolate by March 17. That's the week of the regionals, which means it's time to break out the bats and balls. Oh, fudge, another spring sports season just around the corner. Time is up. I'm not going to hide my Cadbury bar in the cupboard any longer. Let's handicap the field as we sneak in a bite (or two). (Records through Friday only.)

GOOD & PLENTY

Redford Bishop Borgess (11-8): Despite the record, there's something about this team I like. Maybe it's guys like Perry Robinson, Randy Whitfield and Charles Smith which make me believe they could get all the way Class C regional final at Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher and match up well against Southgate Aquinas.

ALMOND JOY

Plymouth Salem (17-2): The Rocks have it made. WLA championship game at home, district at home, potential first-round regional matchup with Berkley at Southfield-Lathrup. The key — James Head. He has to play less like Mike (Air Jordan) and more like Dena. Oh, just wanted to let you know that Detroit Pershing, the Doughboys, stand in the way in the regional final.

OH, HENRY

Wayne Memorial (16-4): The Wolverine A League co-champions have staggered into tournament, but with a coach named Chuck Henry and players like Antonio Dodd and Andre Graves, things could turn out sweet in the Garden City district despite three tough obstacles — city rival Westland John Glenn, Romulus and then Belleville.

NESTLES CRUNCH

Redford Catholic Central (11-9): The Shamrocks, led by Brian Paluk and Damien Baskerville, could make it to St. Patrick's Day with a little luck. Their own district, however, is brutal with the likes of Detroit Henry Ford and 6-foot-10 Marco Hammond tonight, followed by Southeastern Michigan Association champion Southfield on Wednesday. Coach Bernie Holowicki has reason to be concerned.

MILKY WAY

Westland John Glenn (12-7): The Rockets have made strides this season under first-year coach Mike Schuette, but could be a year away. Sophomores Guy Rucker and Brent Washington will be back along with Tony Goins. Not a bad nucleus. A victory over Wayne in tonight's opener is not but of the question. Glenn lost by only three the last time out.

PAY DAY

Farmington Harrison (9-10): The good news is that the Hawks earned a first-round bye, but the bad news is that they get district favorite and tournament host West Bloomfield in the next round. The Lakers, led by Harley Marks and Matt Dornke, beat Harrison in this year's season opener, 63-53.

BABY RUTH

Plymouth Canton (8-11): The Chiefs lost in overtime against Salem in their previous meeting, so tonight's rematch could be a dandy, although the Rocks appear to be on the upswing again.

GUMMI BEARS

North Farmington (8-11): The Raiders should reach the West Bloomfield district final with a victory Wednesday over Farmington. But then things could get a little chewy after that for coach Tom Negoshian's club.

STARDUST

Westland Huron Valley Lutheran (12-8): Son of Swami predicts host Allen Park Inter-City Baptist will walk away with the district trophy. But not so fast, Swami. Huron Valley's Melton Stouderme could have the last word before it's all over. The 6-1 jumping jack led the Hawks to a district crown a year ago.

Rocks reign in district volleyball

Plymouth Salem captured its first district volleyball championship in 16 years Saturday, winning the Class A tournament at Novi High School. The Rocks, who have won a school-record 36 matches, advance to the Northville regional.

BY DAN O'MEARA
STAFF WRITER

Plymouth Salem's volleyball team arrived right on schedule Saturday.

Oh, the Rocks showed up for the Novi district tournament with plenty of time to spare.

The significant part came later when Salem, according to the plans of co-coaches Brian Gilles and Allie Suffety, won its first post-season title since reaching the Class A quarterfinals in 1977.

"Our timetable was four years," Gilles said. "We kept plugging away. We hoped to be somewhere and we are."

The Rocks (36-12-4) passed their most difficult test in the first round, when they defeated Livonia Churchill in three games (13-15, 16-14, 16-14). The match took more than two hours.

Salem eliminated Plymouth Canton in the semifinals (7-5) and Novi in the final (6-8). The Rocks will play the Ferndale district winner at 11 a.m. Saturday in the regional at Northville High School.

The win over Churchill avenged two earlier losses. The Chargers (25-16) won the regular-season dual and a semifinal match in the league tournament.

"In competitive volleyball, it's almost impossible to beat a team that's evenly matched with you three times in a row," Churchill coach Mike Hughes said. "It's an enormous psychological hurdle. It's easy to understand, but it's still there and you have to deal with it."

"But you have to give Salem a lot of credit, especially in the third game when they brought in kids who hadn't played all year. They have a nice competitive program."

Salem took leads of 10-3 and 14-10 in the third game, but the Chargers closed to 10-9 and then tied the score at 14. Churchill got its 13th point when Salem was assessed a penalty point for an illegal timeout, and Krista Laidlaw's kill made it 14-14.

Salem's Jenna Stanton stopped the Chargers with a kill for sideout and then served the final two points, including an ace for the 16th.

"We got lucky in that deal," Suffety said, regarding the timeout error. "We could easily have sank it, but the kids played hard from that point. "We took another timeout (legally when the score became 14-14) and settled the kids down. We told them we didn't want to end it this way."

Five-foot-11 senior Cyndi Platter had 19 kills in that match to lead Salem, Jamie Viau six, Paula Dombrowski and Stanton four each. Dombrowski and Shellye Sills also had three blocks each. Caryn Tatterton had 26 assists.

A key for the Rocks has been the development of 5-10 sophomore Dombrowski and 5-11 freshman Sills, who rotated in the middle and allowed Salem to play Platter on the left side.

"Being able to kick Cyndi outside has helped," Gilles said. "It gives us another dimension," because the Rocks (with smaller outside hitters) had to rely on free balls when they weren't passing well. "Cyndi can take the ball off the net and put some mustard on it."

The Rocks were passing well Saturday, which helped their attack and kept it supplied with good sets.

"They played much better defense than they did before," Hughes said. "We knew they could serve well, but they passed better and got the ball to the hitters more."

Gilles feared a letdown against Canton (20-14-7) following the emotional win over Churchill, and there was cause for concern at the start when the Chiefs jumped in front 5-1 in the first game.

Salem called timeout and Gilles told his players, "If you don't get it going, you'll be bawling your eyes out in an hour, crying. "We should be there (in the final)." The time to go is right now."

Canton led 7-4 when Jenny Garvey served the last 11 points of the game. Platter had four kills and a block for point during that run, and Garvey served two aces.

The Rocks got most of their points one or two at a time in the second game but fought their way through for the win. Karen Gundry served a game-high five points for a 7-1 lead, and Dombrowski had three early kills.

"We got into a rotation where we lost a lot of points with Garvey serving," Canton coach Jacqueline Getz said. "We lost a little confidence there, and it carried over to the second game."

"We couldn't quite put it all together. At times we work hard to get the ball up and can't finish it. Other times we work hard to get the sideout and miss our serve."

Platter had five kills, Stanton and Viau two aces and two kills each in the first game of the final. The Rocks were ahead 12-2 in the second when Novi scored six straight points before Salem finished with a Gundry ace and kills by Viau and Dombrowski.

Salem tumbles in OT

Walled Lake Central's basketball team has something in common with the Detroit Pistons and Chicago Bulls as of Saturday night: back-to-back league championships.

The No. 9-ranked Vikings maintained their grip on the Western Lakes Activities Association title by defeating host Plymouth Salem in the final for the second straight year, 73-68 in overtime.

Central also completed an unbeaten regular season with a 20-0 record. The Rocks are 17-3.

"It gives us a lot of momentum going into the state playoffs," WLC senior Ron Thompson said. "This is our last year. If we were going to do it, it was this year or not at all."

"People told me not to keep 12 seniors, because you can't control 12 seniors," WLC coach Steve Emert said. "With this group, I said, 'Yes, I can,' because their goal is to be the best team they can be."

"I can't say enough about these kids. We might not have a star of the team, but all of them are real good players and they believe in themselves."

Eric Leaf scored 17 of his game-high 23 points, Thompson 14 of 22, in the second half to lead the Vikings. Mike Gluski added 10 and Christian Emert seven.

Salem got 19 points from James Head, who played an all-around good game despite being in foul trouble. Mike Slone finished with 13, Harold Shanks 10. Brian Jensen, Brandon Slone and Todd Forbes added eight apiece.

"It's everyone on that team," Salem coach Bob Brodie said of Central. "If it's not Thompson and Leaf, it's (Chris) McFarlane and Emert, or Tight defense: Chris McFarlane presents a defensive roadblock for Salem's Brandon Slone in the WLA final Saturday.

Thompson and Gluski.

"That's the team thing. All have the ability to hurt you. That's the mark of a good team. We had to have an exceptional game to beat a team like that and we didn't."

The Vikings, who play a run-and-gun style, shot poorly and trailed most of the first half. They needed to rebound better to compensate for lack of size and to keep getting shots, Emert said.

Central made eight of 29 first-half shots, but the Rocks shot nearly 50 percent (14-30) and led 34-26. Salem overcame nine first-quarter turnovers, most forced by Central's full-court press.

At halftime, Emert said, he told his players: "I'm not upset because you're missing shots, and I'm not upset about not playing hard because you are. But I am upset because you're not blocking out.' We had to keep them off the boards."

Salem threatened to blow the game open in the third quarter, taking a 47-36 lead, but the Vikings made a quick comeback while Head was sitting with three fouls.

Central scored the next 10 points, Thompson getting six as he converted a three-shot foul and then a three-point play. He was 6-of-6 at the line in that quarter and had eight points, the last two to tie at the end, 50-50.

"That was the run that put us back in the game," Emert said. "We showed good discipline and didn't panic."

"I was disappointed with the way we kinda disappeared in the third quarter," Brodie said. "Our game plan was to shoot inside and we stopped. We took some erratic shots. They forced us to rush and we lost our concentration. We played into their hands at that point."

Head's dunk following a Central turnover gave Salem a 60-59 lead with 1:16 left in regulation time. After Leaf put the Vikings on top by a point, each team missed a one-and-one and the Rocks two shots before Mike Slone sank the second of two free throws with 14 seconds left to force overtime.

With the score tied at 65, Leaf made a free throw, Thompson two free throws and Emert a layup after Gluski blocked a Salem three-point attempt. That put Central ahead 70-65 with only seconds remaining. Head made a triple with :06 left, but the Vikings went to the line for three more points.

"I think their experience showed at the end," Brodie said. "They held their poise really well late in the game. We missed a rebound, a free throw — the little things you gotta have at crunch time."

Shamrocks thump Warriors in hockey final

It wasn't exactly the state championship trophy, but for the Shamrocks, a Catholic Central victory over Brother Rice — no matter what sport — is always a reason to celebrate.

Led by senior goaltender Jamie Ronayne, the Shamrock hockey team jubilantly skated around the Oak Park Compuware Ice Arena Saturday afternoon proudly displaying the regional championship trophy they captured after defeating Rice, 6-1.

Catholic Central (26-5-4) now advances to the state quarterfinals slated for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Flint IMA Arena against either Port Huron or Flint Kearsley.

Catholic Central's veteran coach, John Gumbleton, couldn't remember his team's last regional championship. But that hardly mattered Saturday as the Shamrocks savored their big victory.

"You know, whenever Brother Rice plays us it's always a big game," said Gumbleton, whose team did not lose to Rice this year in three outings (two wins and a tie). "They motivate themselves against Rice. I'm real happy for the kids."

CC had a 2-0 lead after the first period despite being outshot by a 13-5 margin. Jon Heady and Jason Bellinger scored for the Shamrocks, but it was goalie Ronayne who starred in that opening period with a number of key saves, including two big stops on Rice forward Dale Rominaki.

Each team scored a goal in the second period — Josh Fryer for Brother Rice and Frank Novock for CC. Rice trailed 3-1 after two periods, but the Warriors had a chance to get back into the game with a two-man advantage for the first 56 seconds of the third period.

Rice, however, never got a shot on goal during that advantage. CC responded a short while later with goals from Chris Gonzalez and Justin Ronayne to ice the game.

"We had our chances, but Ronayne played an excellent game against us," said Rice coach Mike Brown, whose team finished with a 16-7-1 overall record. "Losing is never easy, but I think CC just had our number this year."

Hawks soar past Rockets, finish 3rd in WLAA hoop

It was only a consolation game, but Farmington Harrison played like it had something to prove Saturday, beating Westland John Glenn for third place in the Western Lakes Activities Association boys basketball playoffs, 66-56.

The Hawks, who finished the regular season at 10-10 overall, pulled away from the Rockets in the second half at Plymouth Salem High.

Center Calvin Pruitt, a 6-foot-6 junior, led a balanced Harrison scoring attack with 18 points.

"We felt this was an important situation for us," Harrison coach Mike Teachman said. "A lot of teams don't show up for this. The other (consolation) games don't mean anything except the championship, but was a selling point for me to team."

Sophomore Nick Williams came off the bench to contribute 13, while reserve forward Jeff Cislo and starting guard Jeremy Teachman added 10 apiece.

"For Calvin (Pruitt) it was a big challenge type of game," said Teachman, whose team beat Glenn earlier this season, 55-52. "I was proud of him because he went the whole first half with no fouls.

"And Cislo and Williams had big games off the bench."

Harrison trailed much of the first half, but took a 27-26 lead into the dressing room on a basket by Aaron Weiss with six seconds left.

The Hawks then turned it up a notch in the third quarter, breaking away from a 35-all deadlock by running off eight unanswered points on three field goals by Williams and another hoop by Keye Smith.

Harrison then outscored Glenn 21-17 in the decisive fourth quarter to sew things up.

"We did not play with great intensity in the first half, but we picked things up in the second half," said Teachman, whose team shot 51 percent from the field (28 of 54).

Tony Goins, a 6-4 junior forward, led the Rockets with 16 points, while 6-9 sophomore Guy Rucker and senior forward John Miller each added 10.

"N'VILLE 62, CANTON 58: Mike Maschke, a senior forward, pumped in 14 points to give the Mustangs (13-7) over Plymouth Canton (8-12) and fifth place in the WLAA playoffs.

Northville trailed 15-11 after one period, but outscored Canton 13-6 in the second to take a 24-21 half-time advantage.

Three Canton players scored in double figures — Bryan Whittle (12), Al Hollingsworth (12) and Matt Paupore (11). Brad Paakivitch contributed nine for the Chiefs, who made 18 of 20 free throws (90 percent).

Northville hit 15 of 25 from the line (60 percent).

CC 58, OSBORN 45: Redford Catholic Central used a 22-12 run in the third quarter to knock off Osborn of the PSL. CC is now 1-1 against the PSL, losing to Northern on Tuesday.

The Shamrocks (11-9) will host another PSL team tonight, Henry Ford, in a district opener.

Jeff Gutt paved the way scoring a game-high 19 points and grabbing seven rebounds. Brian Paluk scored 14 points and snared 11 rebounds. Damien Bakerville contributed 11 points.

For Osborn (7-11), Donnell Foster scored 15 points and Karl Smith 11.

LIFE SAVERS

Livonia Franklin (8-12): First-year coach Dan Kennedy has had a rollercoaster season. The Patriots, however, can win their district opener tonight against host Garden City before running into Wolverine A League co-champ Belleville. Then it's time to throw out the life preservers.

Livonia Churchill (7-13): The Chargers put together a nice little winning streak at the end of the season. It started with an upset victory over Northville. Can lightning strike twice? Possible, but not probable.

SNICKERS

Redford Thurston (9-10): The Eagles finished in the middle of the pack in the Tri-River League. But they'll find themselves in another league by Wednesday night when Catholic League Central Division champion University of Detroit-Jesuit stands front and center. Just remember, Thurston did hold Chris Webber down for three quarters before being ousted in the districts two years at Country Day. Bring back Danny Perittula.

MILK DUDS

Livonia Clarenceville (12-8): Rob White should get some votes for Observerland Coach of the Year after leading the Trojans to a respectable season. But what did White do to deserve an opening-round matchup against Bishop Borgess?

BUTTERFINGERS

Farmington (7-13): The Falcons have let a few games slip away this season. Getting through the West Bloomfield district is a sticky proposition despite the efforts of junior point-guard Scott Menser, a fine three-point shooter.

CHUCKLES

Livonia Stevenson (5-15): Coach Jim McIntyre hasn't lost his sense of humor despite a terrible season. The Spartans hit a snag at mid-season when junior forward Chris Chichila went down with a thumb injury. He's back, but the Spartans haven't been able to give the thumbs-up sign in awhile.

KIT KAT

Redford Union (2-16-1): They're nicknamed the Panthers, but there's been little scratch and claw in their game this season. They do have a tie to their credit, however. Check the score back on Jan. 30 (versus the alumni). Detroit Redford (1-11) is RU's first-round foe at Catholic Central. I predict an RU victory.

JET-PUFFED MARSHMALLOW

Garden City (3-17): Wait a minute. The Cougars may not be devalued so fast. They scored 91 points in a victory last week over 1-18 Melvindale. Maybe first-year coach Greg Williamson could bank some of those points for tonight's encounter with Franklin.

JUNIOR MINTS

Redford St. Agatha (4-13): All four Aggie victories came in the C-Section of the Catholic League. Agatha, however, may not need a Caesarian to beat Plymouth Christian Academy on Wednesday. The Aggies give birth outside the Catholic League for a change.

Plymouth Christian (6-14): The Eagles could be put to nest early, but making the district final at Pontiac-Oakland Catholic is not out of the question. The Eagles, however, will be an endangered species when Saturday's championship final commences against state-ranked Auburn Hills Oakland Christian.

CANDY CORN

Lutheran High Westland (2-18): Coach Scott Wiener always puts things in proper perspective. "I can't complain about our draw," he said. "It could have been Bishop Borgess." The Warriors play the winner of host Orchard Lake St. Mary (4-12) and Southfield Christian (6-13). It's a new season, right?

Canton woman rolls 300 game

AL HARRISON

Last Sunday was a very special day for Judy Grwicki of Canton. It was a day when Grwicki rewrote some record books.

The event was the Tri-Cities Women's Bowling Association 600 Tournament at Westland Bowl. She began by rolling a 300 game — what a way to begin a tournament! Grwicki, whose previous high game was 288, then bowled a 258 and 245 for an actual 803 series.

Needless to say, she took first place. This was the first 800 series for a female bowler in the history of Westland Bowl, as well as the first in the history of the TCWBA and the first 300 game by one of its members.

Grwicki will receive her 300 ring from WIBC as well as numerous other awards. She also competed in the 700 tournament which followed and, though she shot a respectable 602, finished in fifth place.

The 600 tournament will be the day she never forgets, however. Although she admitted being nervous going for the 300, "the elation was much better than I ever would have expected," she said.

Other top finishers in the 600 were Chris Archer of Canton with a 657 actual (714 with handicap), Sandy Goga of Livonia with a 618 actual (704), and Sue Lindsay of Livonia with a 598 actual (701).

The 700 finishers were Northville's Patty Pennington in first (675), Westland's Lisa Martin in second (641), Garden City's Cyndi Edwards in third (617), Westland's Jane Martin in fourth (605) and then Grwicki.

Grwicki is employed by Super Bowl in Canton Township. All this took place two days before her birthday, so she gave herself quite a birthday present.

Hey kids! How would you like to bowl with the Easter Bunny?

The date to remember is Saturday, April 10, at 1:30 p.m. at Merri-Bowl Lanes in Livonia.

For a mere $5, the event includes a game of bowling, a chocolate bunny, hot dog and a coke. Reservations must be made by Saturday, April 3. For details, call Merri-Bowl at 427-2900.

Mediators settle Farmington lawsuit

BY DAN O'MEARA
STAFF WRITER

Former coach Bob Kaump and Farmington Public Schools have resolved their dispute, but the winner (if there is one) depends on point of view.

Kaump filed suit against the district in 1991 after being dismissed as boys varsity basketball coach at Farmington High School.

Both sides agreed to take the case before a mediation panel to resolve the matter and to alleviate overcrowding of court dockets.

The mediators — three neutral lawyers appointed by a judge — decided Kaump should be given an award of $20,000, and that figure was accepted by both parties.

After that it's open to individual interpretation as to what the award means and what the mediators really decided if anything.

"To an extent, you can draw any conclusion you want, but I would caution anyone about doing that because that's not the purpose of mediation," said attorney Bill Albertson, who represents the school district.

Charles Lowther, the attorney for Kaump, said there is some ambiguity inherent in the mediation process that allows both sides to claim victory.

"I suppose there is because you give both parties the opportunity to walk away saying I was right to some extent," he said.

Kaump, who continues to teach at Power Middle School but is no longer involved in coaching, said he sought only to have his case heard by a disinterested third party and believes the monetary award represents a legal judgment based on the merits of the case as well.

Kaump said he has a copy of the panel's written decision, which he believes supports that claim. The document supposedly states the mediators ruled unanimously in his favor and he should be compensated by the district.

According to the school district and Albertson, there was no legal determination. The mediation panel is charged with finding a figure both sides will accept and will put the matter to rest.

"It's probably something in the middle," Lowther said. "It gives both sides the opportunity to walk from it feeling their side was justified."

"Technically, when both accept, it becomes a judgment. It's a step short of a judge saying 'This side is right and this side is wrong.'"

"You probably could say we won a judgment because you didn't reject it. We feel it was fair and vindicated Bob's position."

After the mediators suggest a figure to settle the issue, both sides can either accept or reject it. If one rejects the panel's decision, the case goes to court, and that party must prevail by 10 percent of the panel figure or be responsible for the other's cost, Lowther said.

The mediation panel merely attempts to assist the parties in settling and makes no determination of wrong or right, Albertson said.

The mediators assess how much effort has gone into it, what the verdict could be (if it went to court) and the possibility the plaintiff could win nothing.

"The mediation panel tries to resolve cases to shorten the court docket," Albertson said. "You don't shorten the docket if you say 'The plaintiff gets nothing.' The mediation panel has one mission and one only: to try to get (its decision) to be acceptable to both."

Albertson and Susan Zurvalec, director of employee relations for the school district, said the administration believed it made economic sense to resolve the matter at that point and accept the panel's figure.

One thing the school district had to consider is it pays legal fees at an hourly rate while the plaintiff's counsel usually takes a case on a contingency basis, Zurvalec said.

"We had to look out for the total cost from a governmental standpoint," she said. "The administration accepted it because we're not spending any more dollars at taxpayer expense."

"It's without blame or fault to either party. Bob got some compensation, and we got the assurance he wouldn't be coaching again."

If an employer pays an award, the perception of admitting fault "is a common misunderstanding because it's more complicated," Zurvalec said. "The employer has to weigh the cost of litigation. It's time consuming, and there is always the risk of losing, on both sides."

Kaump said he didn't seek reinstatement since he would have immediately resigned, being unable to work for the same administrators responsible for his dismissal.

Furthermore, it would have required depositions from or issuing subpoenas "to the many people who had already been so supportive . . . I felt this would be a great inconvenience to them."

According to Albertson and Zurvalec, Kaump gave up any claim to the job by accepting the mediation panel's decision.

"The legal significance is that he can never again bring suit for his termination from that job," Albertson said.

Kaump had sued, claiming wrongful firing and violation of due process. He believed his constitutional rights had been violated since the Farmington B1 Schedule governing coach/employee contracts did not allow for recourse other than to appeal to the same administration taking action to fire him.

"What we wanted to do was get (the case) evaluated on the merits — should Bob have been discharged — and ultimately we didn't get into that before a judge," Lowther said.

Those two counts were dismissed by a federal judge, but the court was unsure what rights Kaump had under the collective bargaining agreement. That enabled the case to proceed but was left unresolved.

That he was allowed to pursue the case in court proved B1 Schedule employees "do have recourse provided by law," according to Kaump.

Crusaders eager to christen new diamond

BY STEVE KOWALSKI
STAFF WRITER

Now, all the Madonna University baseball team needs is the snow to melt.

After waiting four years for a home baseball diamond, the Crusaders finally have one with the $30,000 renovation of the old Livonia Bentley facility now named Madonna Park.

If Mother Nature cooperates, the Crusaders plan to practice on their new grounds after returning from their spring trip March 6-11 in Cocoa Beach, Fla.

The home opener is March 27, a doubleheader against the College of St. Francis, Ill. One of the highlights of the road schedule includes a game April 7 at Ohio State University.

"Madonna Park is certainly a big, big part of it (the MU program)," said Madonna coach Mike George, who pioneered the program in 1989. "We've played 171 games in our history, 151 as road games, and have had 20 so-called home dates (at sites like Redford's Capitol Park). And the only thing that made it a home date was we paid the umpires. The new field is a piece of the puzzle, just like the Florida trip is."

The Crusaders literally worked for Madonna Park; just ask returning third baseman Jeff Pendell (Livonia Churchill) who laughs at the notion that he's ready to work on the grounds crew at Tiger Stadium. Pendell was one of several Crusaders who spent weeks raking the new grounds last fall.

"We've never had a home-field advantage so this will have to help us this year," said Pendell, who batted .266 with a team-high 35 runs scored as a sophomore.

Can they improve mark?

The Crusaders, who finished 29-22 overall and qualified for the NIAA District 23 playoffs for the second year in a row in '92 at 14-8, will take a mix of veterans, youth and transfers to Cocoa Beach, also the site of the Florida Marlins' spring training.

Madonna has to replace seven seniors, including first baseman/designated hitter Ernie Bowling, the Crusaders' all-time leader in at-bats (470), hits (160), home runs (29), doubles (40), walks (77) and RBI (139). Bowling batted .303 last year with a team-high nine homers, 50 RBI and 10 doubles.

"For the last two years, Ernie was the most dominant hitter in the league, not just a power hitter," George said.

Also graduated are the Crusaders' top two pitchers, right-hander Chris Kloc (Redford Thurston) and left-hander Mike Hocking, the Crusaders all-time wins leader with 16. Kloc had a 1.70 ERA and a 5-2 record, tying returnee Jeff Kugelman (Plymouth Canton) for the team lead with five wins. Right-hander Dennis Hamilton, who was 4-2 and had a year of eligibility remaining, decided not to come back for a fifth year, George said.

"Hocking was one of our originals and Kloc was with us three years, they've been mainstays it seems forever," George said. "Hamilton would have helped us but he lost the desire to play. I respect the fact he's not going to come out and go through the motions."

A good mix

An impressive newcomer is 6-foot-4, 205-pound right-hander Shaun Hayward, who has a year of eligibility after transferring from Concordia College.

Hayward will also help in the outfield, as will transfers Craig Overaitis (Livonia Franklin and Henry Ford Community College), Jim Solak (Hillsdale), Jeff Miller (University of Detroit-Mercy) and returnees Rich Roy (Livonia Clarenceville), and T.C. Raptis. A freshman, Scott Anderson, also was impressive in fall ball.

"We have some tough, good calls to make (concerning who starts) in the outfield, meaning we have an abundance of talent in the outfield for the first time ever," George said. "Our transfers are impact players — add those guys to anybody and you're going to be good. We can't live on our past. It's important for us to put big numbers up and win the district."

Infield strength

The Crusaders return experience in the infield. Pendell returns at third base, leadoff hitter Joe Bruseau is back for his fourth year at second base and senior Bill Terski will handle first base most of the time.

Bruseau batted .309 with a team-high 13 stolen bases and Terski had the Crusaders' top batting average at .338 with a team-high 46 hits.

Miller could be the starting shortstop and the catching duties are split between senior Steve Coffell (Garden City and Redford Bishop Borgess) and junior Chris Gajewski.

Despite it being sunny and the temperatures hovering in the 40s Tuesday afternoon, Bruseau said he couldn't wait to step on Saturday morning's charter flight to Florida.

"I always look forward to getting away," Bruseau said. "It's always a big start. Every year we say we've got a great team, go to the district playoffs, no problem. But this year I see us getting in the top one or two (in District 23)."

If the Crusaders win the District 23 playoffs, they'll host the NIAA National playoffs at the new Madonna Park.

SPORTS SHORTS

Items for the Sports Roundup should be submitted by 5 p.m. Tuesday (for Thursday edition) and 5 p.m. Friday (for Monday edition).

CHEERING CLASS

Canton Parks and Recreation Services will begin cheerleading classes for girls ages 5 to 12 on Wednesday, March 31, at the Canton Recreation Center, corner of Michigan Avenue and Sheldon Road.

The classes will last eight weeks. The times are 5-5:30 p.m. for ages 5-7 and 5:30-6 p.m. for ages 8-12. Classes are limited to 30 per age group. The fee is $20 per person.

Students will learn pom pon and dance routines, basic cheers and jumps. Register at the Parks and Recreation Office, 1150 S. Canton Center Road.

AREA GYMNASTS

Four area members of the Michigan Academy of Gymnastics in Westland competed in the Greater Kalamazoo World of Gymnastics Meet Feb. 28.

Ryan Cunningham of Plymouth was seventh on Level 6 pommel horse (4.7), 10th on rings (4.8), fifth on parallel bars (4.7) and ninth in all-around (26.8).

David Diehl of Canton was fourth on Level 6 horse (5.2), seventh on rings (4.9), second on vault (5.3), eighth on bars (4.4), 10th on high bar (3.9) and fifth in all-around (27.7).

Bobby Hoernschemeyer of Plymouth was sixth on Level 6 rings (5.0), eighth on vault (4.7), seventh on parallel bars (4.5), third on high bar (4.8) and eighth in all-around (26.9).

Jack Ball of Westland was fourth on Level 5 floor exercise (5.6), second on horse (5.4), first on rings (7.0), sixth on vault (5.8), third on parallel bars (5.4), fifth on high bar (5.3) and second in all-around (33.5).

Six is a perfect score for Level 6 gymnasts, seven for Level 5.

Shay Murphy of Canton and the Blake School of Gymnastics in Bloomfield Hills was second on balance beam (9.35) and all-around (36.2) in the Senior Division at the International Pizza Classic Cup in Rochester Feb. 13-14.

At the Buckeye Classic in Columbus (Ohio) Feb. 19-21, she placed seventh on beam (9.5), 16th on floor (9.25) and 15th in all-around (37.05).

MEN'S GOLF LEAGUE

Registration for the Canton Parks and Recreation men's golf league begins today at 11:50 S. Canton Center Road. The season starts Wednesday, April 14, at Fellows Creek Golf Course.

The fee is $386 (half due upon registration and the remainder after five weeks). The fee covers all league green fees, prize money, final golf outing and awards.

The league is limited to 35 golfers and Canton residents (unless the league fails to fill by March 29). Tee times are 5-6 p.m. Players will be paired as two-man teams for league play.

SOCCER REFEREES

The Canton Soccer Club will sponsor an entry-level class for referees 6-9 p.m. March 8, 10, 15, 17 and 22 at West Middle School. Participants must attend all nights. Individuals should be 13 years or older. The cost is $44.

Checks should be payable to the MSA-Referees Fund. Call John Davidson (459-6739) to register.

The Canton Soccer Club will conduct an introductory class for young people who might want to become referees at a later date. The class is for children 10-13 and will take place March 9, 11, 16 and 18 at Plymouth Canton High School. The cost is $20 and checks should be payable to the Canton Soccer Club. For information call John Davidson (459-6739).

INDOOR SOCCER

The Canton Soccerdome is accepting registrations for its third session, which begins Thursday, March 11. The six-game session lasts three weeks. The team fee is $525. Limited openings are available. Call 483-5624, Ext. 102.

SOFTBALL SIGN-UP

Canton Parks and Recreation Services is accepting adult softball team registrations. Returning men's teams register March 2-12 and new teams March 15-26; all women's teams March 2-31; returning coed teams March 2-12 and new teams March 15-31.

The cost is $250 per men's team (maximum four non-residents), $340 for women's and $315 for coed. The women's and coed costs include a $50 forfeit fee. They can have six non-residents.

Register at Canton Parks and Recreation Services, 1150 S. Canton Center Road. Call 397-5110 for information.

SOFTBALL NEWS

Canton Softball Center will begin its 1993 first season Sunday, April 18. The 14-game spring season entry fee is $495 per team, with no game fees this year.

Men, women and coed teams are welcome. For information, call the CSC message line at 483-2913 or office line 4-9 p.m. Monday through Friday or 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekends at 483-5600, Ext. 102.

Registration for league play and tournaments begins Monday, March 1.

Canton Softball Center will have its annual Early Bird Tournament April 16-18. The tournament is open to all teams. The entry fee is $100 plus a $7-per-game umpire fee. Four games are guaranteed. Call 483-5600, Ext. 102.

The CSC Umpires Association is offering a slo-pitch umpiring clinic to potential umpires, experienced umpires, players and managers. Call Bob at 483-5600, Ext. 102 or 104.

A FEW TAX TIPS THAT COULD AFFECT YOUR BOTTOM LINE.

Here, courtesy of the IRS, are some ways to increase your tax refund, or decrease your tax bill, on your 1992 return:

- Earned Income Credit. You may be entitled to a credit of up to $2,211 if your adjusted gross income is less than $22,370 and you have a qualifying child.
- Selling Your Home. You may be able to postpone the tax on part or all of your gain, or maybe even get greater breaks if you're 55 or older.
- Casualty Losses. Losses suffered from events such as fires, tornadoes, hurricanes, floods and car accidents may be deductible.

Elderly or Disabled. You may be able to claim this credit if you're 65 or older, or if you are retired on disability and were permanently and totally disabled when you retired.

Electronic Filing. This won't save you money, but will get you a refund faster, usually about three weeks after we receive the return.

There are many more credits and deductions you should know about. Call us toll-free at 1-800-TAX-1040 for answers to any tax question. See your tax package for details on any of the money-saving tips above.

Here's who your money helps when you give to United Way.

When you give to United Way, you help people in your own community who really need help. United Way supports more than 140 health and human service agencies which last year served more than 1.8 million people right here in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

United Way is able to direct nearly 90 cents of every dollar contributed to important services, since only 10.4 cents is used for campaign and administrative costs.

We hope these smiles bring a smile to your face, knowing that you helped so many find the hope and help they need. Thank you.

Still the best way to show you care.

HOROSCOPE

By C.C. Clark

PISCES (Feb. 19 - March 20)

Hold on to what you believe in and know that you have the strength to see things through. Apply your energy in a positive way.

ARIES (March 21 - April 19)

You may need to seek the advice of an objective observer. This is a good time to plan new ventures. Take your time in making a final decision.

TAURUS (April 20 - May 20)

Someone close to you could be misleading. You may be trying hard, but your efforts could be misdirected. Take an objective look at the situation.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20)

You are most likely bored with your current circumstances. Don't take your anger out on others. Plan efficiently for future events.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22)

A new love interest could be on the way for you, but this is not a good time to settle down. A positive attitude will bring you many rewards.

LEO (July 23 - Aug. 22)

You are becoming too dependent on others to do your dirty work. You may be neglecting your duties because of insecurity.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22)

It may be difficult to follow through some of your ideas, but present the facts clearly. You have the ability to solve many of your own problems.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22)

Don't be so worried about belonging to a group because of appearances. You may be separated from loved ones for an extended period of time.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 21)

If it seems as though bad luck is following you everywhere, do not fret; there will be news of a birth or new project soon. Worrying will not help.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 - Dec. 21)

It is possible you will see a friend from the past. Relationships will get better. Your efforts in the arts and sciences will prove successful.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19)

Get rid of unwanted debris and insecurities in your life. It is time to make a new start, and you have the power to make the changes.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18)

Resist the temptation to wallow in self-pity. Things are not as bad as they seem. Put off making big decisions until you have sorted things out.

'Woman on the Ledge' brings daytime stars to prime time

NBC movie focuses on lives of three friends

By Candace Havens

The NBC movie Woman on the Ledge, airing Monday, March 15, begins with - surprise - a woman on the ledge of a building ready to leap to her death. Learning the jumper's identity and motive requires a two-hour investment in this telefilm.

The movie is a tense drama that focuses on the lives of three friends. Deidre Hall's (Marlena, Days of Our Lives) character is a free-spirited businesswoman with endometriosis (a condition that affects the reproductive system). She must have a child immediately or risk never having one. The role of an unhappy homemaker who thinks her husband is having an affair is played by Leslie Charleson (Monica Quartermaine, General Hospital). The third friend, a musician, portrayed by Colleen Zenk Pinter (Barbara, As The World Turns), is seeing an unscrupulous therapist who molests her.

These are women struggling with major crises, and the men in their lives give them little comfort. They depend heavily on each other to get through the hard times.

The entire cast is made up of veteran soap opera actresses and actors. With Peter Bergman (Jack, The Young and the Restless), Michael Zaslow (Roger The Guiding Light), Josh Taylor (Days and The Hogan Family), Kale Browne (Michael, Another World) and Ken Kercheval (Dallas), it seems like old home week with the soaps.

"We were amazed by the amount of years we had all been working on the soaps," says Hall. "The six principles of the show have a combined total of more than 100 years on soap operas. I've had 17 years of experience, Leslie has had 17 and it goes on."

The toughest job was scheduling the actors and actresses so that they could take time away from their popular daytime roles.

"The great news," says Hall, "is that we got all these people together at the same time, it worked and we had a great time doing the show."

Hall's role was especially poignant for her because it so closely parallels her own life. Just like her character, Hall was diagnosed with endometriosis.

"I identified so strongly with this role," says Hall.

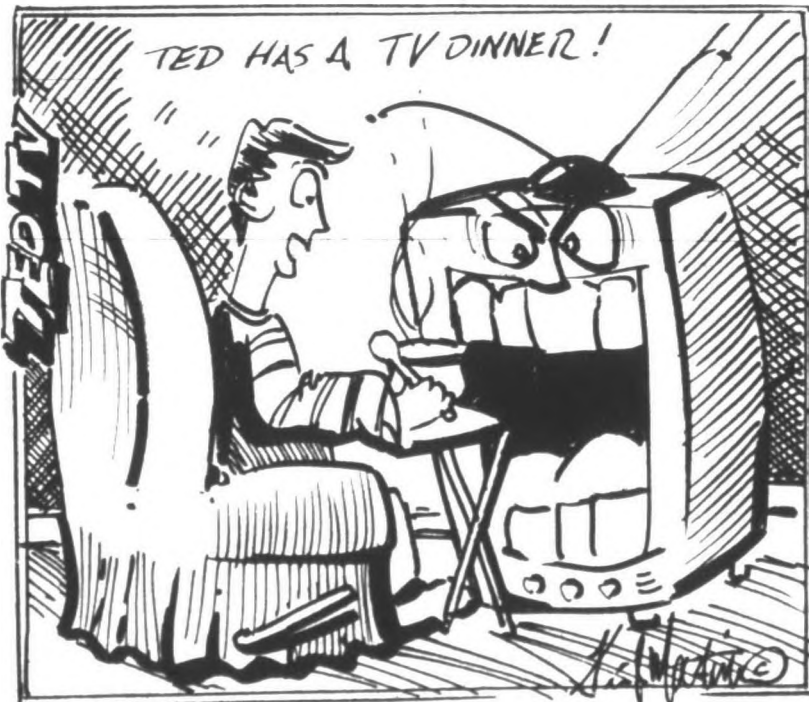

"If I had not known that my son was going to be born soon, I would not have been able to accept the part," says Hall.

She and husband Steven Sohmer, a best-selling author and former Columbia Studio chief, adopted their newborn son, David Atticus, soon after her role in the movie was completed. Hall said the timing was perfect.

"I had told the producers that there was no way I would be working or out of town the day my son was born," says Hall. "It is the most thrilling time of my life, and my son has changed the way I view the world and most every situation."

It has been a busy year for Hall. She returned to daytime after a several-year hiatus, got married, gained a son, and made a TV movie. Hall is used to the busy pace and has a history of doing more in a week than most people accomplish in a month. In 1986, she became the first actress to star simultaneously in both a daytime show (Days) and a prime-time series when she was cast as Jessie Witherspoon on NBC's Our House, a family drama co-starring Wilford Brimley.

So does Hall's character in Woman on the Ledge have a baby? And who is the woman standing on the ledge of the 15th floor? Tune into NBC on Monday night to find out.

FAMILY FAIRIE

'Shining Time' the right time for children

By Chris Carpenter

"When you're grown up, you look back and remember all the people who had an impact on your life," recalls Britt Allcroft, producer and co-creator of Shining Time Station, which begins its third season on PBS in March.

"I had an aunt," Allcroft remembers of her childhood in Sussex, England, "who would take me on what she would call 'mystery walks.' We lived very close to the sea, and though there were only so many ways to get there, as we walked, I remember this feeling of never knowing what would be around the next bend."

Mary Travers hugs a young fan in the family-oriented Peter, Paul and Mommy, Too, Wednesday on PBS.

The magical spirit of those walks waits around every corner on Shining Time Station, a whistle stop for childhood laughter, learning and imagination.

Allcroft had already compiled an impressive list of credits in British television when, in the early 1980s, she secured the rights to storybook character Thomas the Tank Engine and developed a series of animated short films. With input from partner Rick Siggelkow, Thomas came to television in 1989 and became an instant favorite. Allcroft notes there's much in store for the new season, including a whole show that explains the station's name.

"Shining time" is the moment when the engine builds up steam and the wheels begin to shine the tracks," she says. It's a befitting title for a show that's really going places.

SATURDAY

As part of the March pledge drive, PBS presents the four-part series From the Heart: Lawrence Welk and the American Dream. The first episode airs Saturday on most PBS affiliates.

LET'S TALK

Stamos not an official Beach Boy;
Skelton still kadiddlehopping along

By Taylor Michaels

Q: My grandpa doesn't believe that John Stamos from Full House is the drummer for the Beach Boys. He says that he is too young. Which one of us is right? —Stephanie Humphries, Sherwood, Ore.

A: Stamos is too young to have been an original Beach Boys member. In fact, he was probably in diapers when "Surfin' USA" was topping the charts. The Beach Boys' original drummer was Dennis Wilson, who drowned accidentally. Since that time, several drummers have filled in on concert dates and videos, including Stamos. But Stamos has never signed on as a member of the band; no one could really replace Wilson sibling Dennis, anyway.

Q: Could you please tell me if Red Skelton has died? —Mrs. Darell Swearingen, Groveland, Calif.

A: Comedian Richard (Red) Skelton is still getting along fine at age 79.

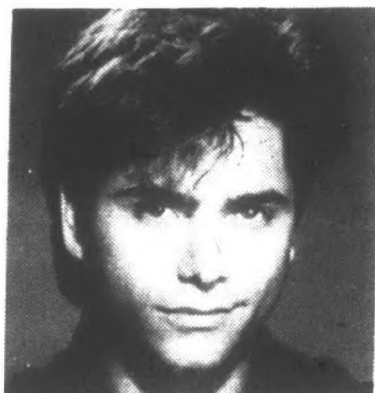

Q: My wife and I recently saw a movie on cable called The Osterman Weekend. In a supporting role was a woman my wife insists was a young Kirstie Alley, of Cheers fame. I not only said she was crazy, but I told her the actress was Meg Foster. Please settle this for bragging rights. —Marvin Berman, Bronx, N.Y.

A: It was indeed Meg Foster, not Alley, who co-starred in the film. Incidentally, The Osterman Weekend was director Sam Peckinpah's last film, an interesting bit of trivia that might be useful if your wife cares to go double or nothing on your little wager.

Q: Murphy Brown is my favorite TV comedy show. Is it true this may be its last season? —Mrs. Toni Streeter, Springfield, Vt.

A: Hardly. Murphy Brown is a consistent top-five performer week in and week out, and the CBS executive who pulled it from the air right now would be strung up by his cellular phone cord. Murphy Brown is in no immediate danger of going anywhere — except higher in the rankings now that Monday Night Football has taken a rest.

Q: I need to know the name of a movie I saw several years ago that was set in medieval times. In the beginning, a wall comes alive with writhing, moaning faces, where a witch has been summoned to resurrect a creature from a stone tomb. I'd be forever grateful if you could help. —M.S. Westermeyer, Keokuk, Iowa.

John Stamos

A: The film you describe has to be 1982's Sword and the Sorcerer, starring Lee Horsley (Bodies of Evidence) as a rebel leader fighting to restore his kingdom to the rightful ruler.

Q: I am a big fan of Tisha Campbell, who plays Gina on the television show Martin. I would like to know more about her background and an address where I could write to her. —Felicia Williams, High Point, N.C.

A: Campbell first got a taste of performing at the age of 3, singing in her church choir. At 7, she landed her first television role, starring in an after-school special titled Unicorn Tales and followed at 15 with a bit part in the updated film version of Little Shop of Horrors. Her other films include School Daze, Another 48 Hours and Boomerang, the latter of which also featured Martin co-star Martin Lawrence. You may write her in care of Fox Television, P.O. Box 900, Beverly Hills, Calif., 90213.

Q: Help! I have been trying to remember the name of a movie that starred Blair Brown. The story was told primarily through flashbacks from old home movies which Brown's son is watching. The son watches his mother's growing mental illness, which eventually leads to her suicide. —Catherine Metts, Jacksonville, Fla.

A: That film is Extreme Close-Up, a 1990 TV movie directed by thirtysomething's Peter Horton. Morgan Weisser plays the teenager who tries to make sense of his mother's (Brown) death through viewing family home videos, which are Brown's only appearances in the film.

TIME OUT

American skaters
take on world's best

By Michael Scogin

The world's best amateur skaters take to the ice on Friday, March 12, as NBC begins three nights of prime-time coverage of the 1993 World Figure Skating Championships from Prague, Czech Republic.

Friday night features the men's final with the ladies final on Saturday, March 13, and the dance final on Sunday, March 14. Saturday's afternoon coverage spotlights the pairs final while the skaters put on an exhibition Sunday afternoon.

With the retirement of two-time world champion and gold medalist Kristi Yamaguchi, American hopes in the women's competition rest on the shoulders of Nancy Kerrigan, a bronze medalist at the 1992 Winter Olympics. Kerrigan faces a stiff challenge from women's European champion Surya Bonaly and China's Lu Chen.

"The ladies' event seems to be an issue of who's able to stand up that particular day, because none have [distinguished themselves] in the national or European competitions," says Sandra Bezic, choreographer to many of the sport's stars. Bezic joins Dick Enberg in the booth for NBC's coverage.

The American men send two young, inexperienced newcomers, Scott Davis and Mark Mitchell, to take on heavily favored Canadians Kurt Browning and Elvis Stojko. Davis, the current American national champion, is competing in his first World Championships.

BITS AND PIECES

Sinbad finds port at Fox; Turner to play 'Serial Mom'

Sinbad has washed up on the shore of the Fox Network, which is developing a new comedy series for the comedian. Larry Strawther and Gary Murphy, the executive producers of Night Court, will helm the Walt Disney Television production. The comic's deal with Disney also provides for a starring role in the comedy feature Houseguest, scheduled to begin production this summer. Sinbad, who appeared for four seasons on NBC's A Different World, was once a winner on Star Search.

Sinbad

A miniseries based on Stephen King's novel The Stand has begun production in Salt Lake City, Utah. King himself has written the screenplay for the miniseries, which depicts the aftermath of a deadly flu epidemic spawned in a Defense Department experiment. The production, which has more than 125 speaking parts, will star Gary Sinise, Molly Ringwald, Rob Lowe, Diane Lane, Jamey Sheridan, Laura San Giacomo and Ruby Dee. Also appearing are Bill Fagerbakke, Miguel Ferrer, Matt Frewer, Moses Gunn and Ray Walston.

Cartoons - they're not just for Saturday mornings anymore. Beginning Sept. 12, TBS will enliven Sunday mornings with the adventures of Two Stupid Dogs and SWAT Kats. Both series are produced by Hanna-Barbera.

Friday on most affiliates, PBS presents A Tribute to Julla Child: Compliments to the Chef!

Orson Bean plays crotchety Loren Bray in Dr. Quinn, Medicine Woman, Saturdays on CBS.

AMC serves to protect endangered films

By Dan Rice

American Movie Classics hopes to raise awareness and funds with its first annual Film Preservation Festival, airing Friday, March 12, through Sunday, March 14. This campaign to save old features, newsreels, cartoons and historical footage from deterioration includes documentaries about the restoration process and screenings of rescued films such as 1935's Becky Sharp, the first full-Technicolor feature, airing Friday.

For decades, Puccini's Madam Butterfly has reflected the accepted Western image of the Asian woman — silent and submissive, yet experienced in exotic mysteries. The A&E Stage presentation of Butterfly: The European Myth of the Oriental Woman, airing Tuesday, March 9, contrasts this romantic fantasy with the reality of lives ruined by poverty and prostitution. The BBC production features scenes from the plays Miss Saigon and M Butterfly, with music by Malcolm McClaren.

Real-life goodfellas including "Joe Dogs" Iannuzzi are profiled in the HBO America Undercover documentary Mob Stories. This documentary on Mafia turncoats debuts on Tuesday.

One of the best-kept military secrets of all time was America's F-117 Nighthawk, known as the Stealth Fighter. On Sunday, March 7, The Discovery Channel's original documentary Nighthawk: Secrets of the Stealth presents an overview of this awesome aircraft.
